

The Nugget Dawson's Illustrated Daily

THE TWO MAIL CONTRACTS

The Operation of Which Do Not Favorably Compare, One Being Complied With, the Other in a State of Innocuous Desuetude—Manager Downing Is a Hummer.

The up-river mail contract was the hands of a man such as Downing who has the run between Dawson and Tanana, we could expect our mail to be delivered with some degree of regularity. It is not that the mail is not delivered, but that it is delivered in a manner which is not to the credit of the city and the river.

EASY MONEY AND NO WORK.

SENDING OUT TAX NOTICES

Is Now Collector Ward Smith's Daily Avocation.

E. W. Smith, assessor and tax collector, is busily engaged these days in preparing and sending out to the rate payers of the town of Dawson a notice informing them of the amount of taxes assessed against them, the rate and the sum due for the year 1901.

Hotel Arrivals. EMPIRE. W. Grant, Dominion; Jno. McRae, Dominion; D. McLeod, M. D.; Grand Forks; E. Halliday, Grand Forks; John Huntington, city; Mrs. Adams, Grand Forks.

Gay Left-Overs. She makes a bright spot on this dismal sphere. Who wears the red waist that she had last year.

Thinking. "A drop of ink makes millions think." They're numerous no longer. Who think they cannot think without a drop of something stronger.

Send a copy of Gutzman's Souvenir to outside friends. A complete pictorial history of Klondike. For sale at all news stands. Price $2.50.

Ammunition Shot Gun, Rifle, Pistol. Wheels Rambler, Cleveland, Monarch. SHINDLER, THE HARDWARE MAN

Metaline Bushed Sheaves. These Sheaves are specially adapted for use in the mines in cold weather. They are run without the use of Oil or Grease and are the Only Self Lubricating Sheave on the Market. Sizes, 4, 6, 8 and 10 inches.

McL, McF. & Co., LIMITED Dawson

GUESSED IT LUCKY

Martin Payne Wins the Hersberg Ice Closing Contest.

The Hersberg ice closing contest which has attracted the attention of everybody in the territory reached a finality last night. The sealed box which contained over 4,000 hazarits was broken open in the presence of representatives of the different local papers and a careful count and tally made of the contents.

Martin Payne, the lucky man, is not in Dawson at present, he leaving on one of the last boats for the outside. He took the precaution, however, to write on his ticket: "Will return in March." Consequently the outfit will await his coming next spring.

THEY WANT THEIR DOGS

Curs Abandoned Last Spring Are Now in Demand.

The complaint most frequently heard these days by the police is for dogs alleged to be lost, strayed or stolen. Dogs that have not been seen by their owners since last spring have suddenly become valuable, the snowfall being the cause of the rise in worth. One man complains that he left a dog on Hunter last spring, and now wants police assistance in locating him. Others who have allowed their dogs to shift for themselves for months now think it strange that they do not show up fat and sleek and with a type-written request that they be harnessed and worked like mules until spring when they will be again permitted to shift for themselves.

Cuba Annexation Petition. Havana, Oct. 21.—A petition assing that Cuba be annexed to the United States is being circulated among Cuban business men and every effort is being centered upon annexation, as business men generally, it is alleged, believe that the reciprocity movement will amount to nothing. A meeting has been arranged for Wednesday next, at which, although held under the guise of reciprocity, it is said the first gun in the campaign for annexation will be fired by Senores Destemine and Lazma and the Marques de Montora.

Lane Passengers R c'ver. Seattle, October 22nd.—W. H. Winters and 123 other passengers of the Charles D. Lane, who libeled that vessel for alleged poor food and accommodations during her last voyage from Nome, recovered $35 and costs each, according to a decree handed down by Judge Hauford of the United States district court, yesterday. The Trust and Fidelity Deposit Company, of Baltimore, Md., which was made a defendant in the case, was named also as liable in the decree. The total sum of damages and interest amounts to over $7,000.

THEY FIT AND FOUT

Bare Fists Are Used in Adjusting Differences.

This morning before daylight Chas. Moran and the Skylight Kid, in order to adjust a difference arising from the late wholesale trouble in theatrical circles, hid themselves to the Club gymnasium where "honah" was satisfied and wrongs righted, the battle being to the best man. No gloves were used and the way right books, upper cuts, jabs and solar plexus drives were delivered in said by the select-few who were privileged to witness the go-to-have-been an innovation in pugilistic tactics. After the go-had lasted for some time the Skylight Kid, who is probably 40 years old, showed the white feather, acknowledging that he had received all the punishment he cared to take at one time. The door receipts, two white chips and a cigarette, were turned over to Moran.

The War in Walla Walla. The Argus has been told—and it is beginning to believe that the charge is true—that almost every important event which occurs in Walla Walla ends, if it does not begin, in partisan or factional politics. The whole tissue of our social, political and business life seems to be made up of pullings and haulings, and about the only way anything is ever settled is for the stronger to overcome the weaker. No to the knife and no quarter seems to be the order of the day, and he who would keep out of the fracas must keep his mouth shut and his sentiments to himself. The Ankeny faction and the saloon element are evidently chums and the co-workers, they having been elbow to elbow in the Betz-Babeock campaign, the Pedigo-Cain matter and the defeat of H. S. Jackson. How far back in the past, these forces have been allied, The Argus doesn't know, nor can it foretell how long the intimacy will extend into the future—until the passing of the unscrupulous politician who stands at their head, perhaps. Even so important a matter as our Buffalo exhibit has been made a reproach and a disgrace to the state, according to all available evidence, through having been placed in charge of a trucking politician rather than a man who loved his state and was interested in its growth and development. And thus the merry war goes on—Walla Walla Argus.

Fort Townsend Like. Port Townsend, Oct. 21.—The rumor to the effect that the Pacific Steel Company will remove from Irontide is being dispelled by the fact that the plant is being sold to the parties owning the property which was desired for extending the plant. It has been decided by the company to run the furnace experimentally for a time, but no other improvements will be made whatever. Something regarding the future plans of the company was solicited, but nothing could be gotten of a satisfactory nature.

The plant at Irontide is located on a tract of land too small for the requirements of the company and another tract between the present location and Chinacum creek, of several hundred acres, was found necessary for the company's purpose. The principal owners of this tract of land were approached by the company, but it is learned the price asked is so out of proportion to the actual value of the land sought that negotiation have been dropped entirely.

Obituary. London, Oct. 21.—Sir Archibald Levis-Smith, who recently resigned the post of master of robes on account of ill-health, died last night in Morayshire, Scotland. He had rowed twice with Cambridge against Oxford. He was born in 1836.

CARELESS MERCHANTS

Tempt Thieves by Placing Goods on the Street.

"There is not," said Sergeant Frank Smith of the town station this morning, "a town in the world where so much temptation is thrown in the way of the petty thief as right here in Dawson. Why, just look at all these little stores. The first thing the proprietors do in the morning is to pile half their goods out on the sidewalk where they remain until dark, and in some cases until 9 or 10 o'clock at night, and if, when the goods are taken in for the night, a pair of shoes, a can of fruit, a ham or any other article is missing, the proprietor rushes up to the town station with a tale of robbery and expects us to capture the thief and recover his goods at once."

"And yet," continued the sergeant, "there is very little petty thieving going on here, notwithstanding the opportunities offered and the fact that there are in Dawson today men who are hungry and cold for the want of food, clothing and the means to procure either or both. Only a few nights ago a certain dealer carelessly left a lot of left shoes outside his store all night and next morning there were just as they had been stolen. Of course, there is some petty thieving carried on here, but very little in proportion to the opportunities extended by merchants who make a business of displaying their goods outside their stores."

Coldest Reached Last Night Was 3 Above Zero.

The weather for the 24 hours previous to 9 o'clock this morning had a maximum temperature of 8 above zero; the maximum being 13, the minimum 3 above zero.

Every day this month a year ago the mercury was below zero all the time, being down in the twenties in the early part of the month and getting warmer and up to 7 below for a few days about the middle of the month. On the 29th a record of 39.5 below zero, the coldest day of the month, was made.

Gen. Greely in London. London, Oct. 21.—Brig. Gen. A. W. Greely, chief of the United States signal office has arrived here after five months spent in Japan and the Philippines, inspecting the army and navy telegraph and cables. After making some official investigations in London in connection with the cable service, he will return to Washington.

The general is greatly pleased with the efficiency of the 6000 miles of cable and telegraph lines now working in the Philippines. He considers that the country and people both offer great possibilities, and he is enthusiastic over the Japanese telegraph system.

Beats all larnation. The new drink at the Pioneer.

THE ROAD REPAIRING CREWS

Have Been Detailed by Local Superintendent of Public Works David Macfarlane, to Give Public Highways Required Attention During the Winter—Several Large Crews.

The action of Local Superintendent of Public Works David Macfarlane in placing men about the various government roads at stated intervals for the purpose of keeping them in repair is one that will be greatly appreciated by freighters, stage drivers and the traveling public in general. Ever since the freeze-up there have been numerous complaints sent in from time to time concerning the roads and their almost impassability at different points, the trouble arising principally from glaciers forming on the grades. In many instances freight teams have found it necessary when one of these glaciers is encountered to chop out a trough in which the inside runner could travel in order to keep the load on the grade, thus causing the loss of much valuable time. Heavy travel will often cause holes to form in the road making the roadway very rough and even bridges and culverts sometimes need attention and, in fact, travel in the winter time is so extensive it has been considered advisable to keep men constantly employed in looking after the dominion and territorial highways.

A FRACTION IN DISPUTE

Claim No. 31a Below on Hunter Causes Litigation.

In the gold commissioners court today being heard a "contest" over a fraction on Hunter, 31a below division, the case being entitled Allen vs. Crowe. The question involved is that of priority of staking the ground, which is adjoining some of the best claims on Hunter, having in some inexplicable manner been allowed to lapse, and both parties to the suit relocated it. It is now for the commissioner to decide which located first.

Valuable Mare Killed. Providence, R. I., Oct. 19.—Alix, the famous trotting mare, whose record of 2:03 1/2, made at Galesburg, Ill. in 1894, was not equalled until last year, was chloroformed today at the farm of her former owner Maynor Sayles, of this city. The mare was stricken with paralysis about a month ago, and to save her from a lingering death she was humanely killed this afternoon. Alix still held the mile trotting record for a mare at her death.

Meet Tomorrow Night. The members of St. Andrew's society and their invited friends will hold another of their informal assemblies in the Arctic Brotherhood hall tomorrow evening at 9 o'clock. Admittance may be secured only by invitation of a member.

A new appetizer. Try it at the Pioneer.

Stable Secrets. New York, Oct. 19.—A movement is on foot, backed by some of the leading members of the turf, to stop, as far as possible, the transfer of stable secrets from trainers to plungers. It is claimed that the cause of the trouble is found in the establishment of a public training stable. Several of the owners have seriously considered the offering of an amendment to the racing rules this winter which will have for its object the abolition of public training stables. With each owner having his own trainer, confidence will not be so readily violated, horsemen believe. It does not prove sufficient, then, as effort will be made to pass a rule which will provide for a punishment for imparting information concerning the work and the condition of a horse to an outsider without the owner's consent.

Ames Mercantile Co. FOUR SPECIALS This week that will make your dollars do double duty. Clearance Sale of Men's Underwear in broken sizes. former price $2, $3, and $3.50, for $1.00. Clearance Sale Men's Buck Mittens 1.00. Clearance Sale of Men's All-Wool Suits. Former price $25, $30 and $35, for 15.00. Clearance Sale of Men's Irish Frieze Storm Ulsters. Former price $25, $30 and $35, for 15.00.

IMMENSE FORTUNE
Take P stage Stamps
Worth $74,610.

Chicago Postoffice the Scene of the Operations—No Clue as Yet to the Perpetrators.

Chicago, Oct. 22.—The most daring and ingenious robbery of a Chicago postoffice ever perpetrated in this city was successfully accomplished at some time between Saturday night and this morning, when postage stamps to the value of $74,610 were abstracted from the stamp vault of the Chicago postoffice by operators, who bored a passage through a steel floor in order to reach their plunder.

They had calculated their distance from the west from the north where they worked they undoubtedly would have carried off nearly $40,000 in cash and $90,000 in stamps. The burglars' plan of operations was identical with that followed by the robbers of the vault of the Selby banking company near San Francisco several months ago.

The burglars secured entrance under the building and by digging trenches were tunneling through cross walls, at a point immediately under the steel sheets forming the floor.

The steel sheets forming the floor of the iron room were bored, a hole of sufficient size to admit the body of a man was made, and through this one of the robbers passed to the plunder. The plunderer was seen below. The plunderer was carried nearly 300 feet through a trench under the building and then pushed into a wagon that was waiting in an alley behind the building.

The police say that a mail wagon has been used, as they say the robbers of an ordinary wagon in the west of the postoffice would probably have attracted attention.

The work of forcing an entrance to the vault had evidently been going on for some time with the greatest patience and care. It is believed however that the intention of the thieves was to enter the cashier's vault, in which there was $35,000 in money and stamps valued at hundreds of thousands of dollars. The bottom of the vault is of steel, half an inch thick. In this seven holes were bored, and a space eighteen inches square was cut enough to allow the entrance of a man's body—had been so weakened that it was possible to take out the whole plate with little difficulty.

The goods box stood over the hole and the robbers concealed the work of the robbers while it was in progress.
The discovery today the larger stacks of one of the burglars were discernible on the dust of the side, which he had pushed to one side.
So carefully had the job been planned that men working in other parts of the building had not the slightest inkling of the daring robbery being worked almost under their noses.

The robbers drove up to the southwest corner of the postoffice in a wagon, the tracks of which could be seen plainly today. The building is a temporary affair and the men had only to open a little door to admit themselves under the flooring. To reach the vault it was necessary to crawl about 300 feet over odds and ends of boards which littered the way. The route evidently had been thoroughly studied, for a detective who went under today without knowledge of the locations became lost and was only overcome by the foul odors he encountered.

Having secured their plunder, the robbers loaded it into the wagon and drove across a vacant lot and turned onto Washington avenue in front of the building. Of the stamps taken $112 were in "postage due" stamps, $44,000 in special delivery stamps.
So the counterfeit stamps amounted to $27,828, but of these $4,828 were Pan-American stamps of 8 and 10-cent denominations.

P. C. Spalding, chief clerk of the postoffice stamp department, discovered the robbery when he opened the vault at 7:50 o'clock. The safe was locked, with its contents entirely secure, at 5 p. m. Saturday night. Mr. Spalding at once notified postoffice Inspector Stuart, who hurried from his home and at once began an investigation, assisted by his assistants and a squad of detectives from the city hall. After completing the search the inspector said:

"This was the largest stamp robbery ever done in the history of the postal service in this country. To get to the vault the men entered through a trap door. A few feet in they encountered a brick wall, which they went through rather than crawl around looking for a clearer route. The wall, like others under the building, was of flimsy construction, and it could not have taken them long to pierce their way through it. A hundred feet or so further on they ran against another wall, and this also they dug through. On the way they also encountered a number of pipes, and as the walls are but two feet and in some places three feet above the ground, they tunneled under the ground. Their whole course is plainly marked in this way. The whole stamp vault, like the cashier's vault, was the money order vault, is supported by a brick wall. It forms a chamber, and before the robbery was discovered, in this the robbers had a head of typhoid fever, after a brief struggle, possibly to secure more illness.

James R. Woods Dead.
Lawton, O. T., Oct. 21.—James R.
Woods who drew the capital prize in the Lawton district at the El Reno lottery last August, and selected a claim valued at nearly $50,000, is dead of typhoid fever, after a brief struggle, possibly to secure more illness.

FACE PAINT
ON INDIANS
Indicate Rank of the Tribe, Sk II
and Pr wess.

People in general have been content
to look upon the Indian's adornment
of his head with eagle feathers and his face with paint as marks of personal decoration, inspired by vanity
and a savage taste, different only in degree from what is sometimes witnessed among highly civilized people,

says a writer in the Washington Times. But the fact is that, in preference to the latter custom, for instance, every paint mark on an Indian's face has a sort of heretic meaning, implying not only the honors won by the brave in person, but representing also the claims of his family and race to distinction. In other words, what is shown among
more cultured communities by coats
of arms, orders, and decorations, is depicted by the Indian on his face by means of pigments.

Scientists are now engaged, among
the other novel investigations concerning the North American Indian, in considering the features of the Indian are sometimes incorporated into the representation of the animal which forms his heraldic bearing. Should the beaver, for example, be the object to be depicted, it is not attempted to design the whole of the animal, but
only its distinctive and typical parts;
as, for instance, its peculiar tail,
which is painted in criss-cross lines
extending from the chin to the nose, as though standing upright. The chin itself does service as the beaver's body.

The arbitrary methods of the Indian artists render it difficult, if not impossible, for any but an expert to interpret the meaning of the pictorial representations. Thus, an animal's ears are invariably depicted above the eyes on the human object, the ears of
the beaver being just above the eyebrows. On the cheeks are painted the paws in a position as though they were raised to the mouth in the manner conventional in Indian carvings.

The dogfish painted in red on the
face designates the members of an entire tribe. On the forehead of the members of this tribe is painted the
long, thin snout; the gills are represented by two curved lines below the
eyes, while the tail is shown as cut
in two and hanging from each nostril.

The dogfish painted in red on the
face designates the members of an
entire tribe. On the forehead of the
members of this tribe is painted the
long, thin snout; the gills are repre-
sented by two curved lines below the
eyes, while the tail is shown as cut
in two and hanging from each nostril.

The dogfish painted in red on the
face designates the members of an
entire tribe. On the forehead of the
members of this tribe is painted the
long, thin snout; the gills are repre-
sented by two curved lines below the
eyes, while the tail is shown as cut
in two and hanging from each nostril.

The dogfish painted in red on the
face designates the members of an
entire tribe. On the forehead of the
members of this tribe is painted the
long, thin snout; the gills are repre-
sented by two curved lines below the
eyes, while the tail is shown as cut
in two and hanging from each nostril.

The dogfish painted in red on the
face designates the members of an
entire tribe. On the forehead of the
members of this tribe is painted the
long, thin snout; the gills are repre-
sented by two curved lines below the
eyes, while the tail is shown as cut
in two and hanging from each nostril.

The dogfish painted in red on the
face designates the members of an
entire tribe. On the forehead of the
members of this tribe is painted the
long, thin snout; the gills are repre-
sented by two curved lines below the
eyes, while the tail is shown as cut
in two and hanging from each nostril.

The dogfish painted in red on the
face designates the members of an
entire tribe. On the forehead of the
members of this tribe is painted the
long, thin snout; the gills are repre-
sented by two curved lines below the
eyes, while the tail is shown as cut
in two and hanging from each nostril.

The dogfish painted in red on the
face designates the members of an
entire tribe. On the forehead of the
members of this tribe is painted the
long, thin snout; the gills are repre-
sented by two curved lines below the
eyes, while the tail is shown as cut
in two and hanging from each nostril.

The dogfish painted in red on the
face designates the members of an
entire tribe. On the forehead of the
members of this tribe is painted the
long, thin snout; the gills are repre-
sented by two curved lines below the
eyes, while the tail is shown as cut
in two and hanging from each nostril.

FACE PAINT
ON INDIANS

Indicate Rank of the Tribe, Sk II
and Pr wess.

People in general have been content
to look upon the Indian's adornment
of his head with eagle feathers and
his face with paint as marks of personal decoration, inspired by vanity
and a savage taste, different only in
degree from what is sometimes witnessed among highly civilized people,

says a writer in the Washington
Times. But the fact is that, in preference to the latter custom, for instance, every paint mark on an Indian's face has a sort of heretic
meaning, implying not only the honors won by the brave in person, but
representing also the claims of his family and race to distinction. In other words, what is shown among
more cultured communities by coats
of arms, orders, and decorations, is
depicted by the Indian on his face by means of pigments.

Scientists are now engaged, among
the other novel investigations concerning the North American Indian, in considering the features of the Indian are
sometimes incorporated into the representation of the animal which forms
his heraldic bearing. Should the
beaver, for example, be the object to
be depicted, it is not attempted to
design the whole of the animal, but
only its distinctive and typical parts;
as, for instance, its peculiar tail,
which is painted in criss-cross lines
extending from the chin to the nose,
as though standing upright. The
chin itself does service as the beaver's body.

The arbitrary methods of the Indian
artists render it difficult, if not impossible, for any but an expert to interpret the meaning of the pictorial representations. Thus, an animal's ears are invariably depicted above the
eyes on the human object, the ears of
the beaver being just above the eyebrows. On the cheeks are painted the paws in a position as though they
were raised to the mouth in the manner conventional in Indian carvings.

The dogfish painted in red on the
face designates the members of an
entire tribe. On the forehead of the
members of this tribe is painted the
long, thin snout; the gills are repre-
sented by two curved lines below the
eyes, while the tail is shown as cut
in two and hanging from each nostril.

The dogfish painted in red on the
face designates the members of an
entire tribe. On the forehead of the
members of this tribe is painted the
long, thin snout; the gills are repre-
sented by two curved lines below the
eyes, while the tail is shown as cut
in two and hanging from each nostril.

The dogfish painted in red on the
face designates the members of an
entire tribe. On the forehead of the
members of this tribe is painted the
long, thin snout; the gills are repre-
sented by two curved lines below the
eyes, while the tail is shown as cut
in two and hanging from each nostril.

The dogfish painted in red on the
face designates the members of an
entire tribe. On the forehead of the
members of this tribe is painted the
long, thin snout; the gills are repre-
sented by two curved lines below the
eyes, while the tail is shown as cut
in two and hanging from each nostril.

The dogfish painted in red on the
face designates the members of an
entire tribe. On the forehead of the
members of this tribe is painted the
long, thin snout; the gills are repre-
sented by two curved lines below the
eyes, while the tail is shown as cut
in two and hanging from each nostril.

The dogfish painted in red on the
face designates the members of an
entire tribe. On the forehead of the
members of this tribe is painted the
long, thin snout; the gills are repre-
sented by two curved lines below the
eyes, while the tail is shown as cut
in two and hanging from each nostril.

The dogfish painted in red on the
face designates the members of an
entire tribe. On the forehead of the
members of this tribe is painted the
long, thin snout; the gills are repre-
sented by two curved lines below the
eyes, while the tail is shown as cut
in two and hanging from each nostril.

The dogfish painted in red on the
face designates the members of an
entire tribe. On the forehead of the
members of this tribe is painted the
long, thin snout; the gills are repre-
sented by two curved lines below the
eyes, while the tail is shown as cut
in two and hanging from each nostril.

The dogfish painted in red on the
face designates the members of an
entire tribe. On the forehead of the
members of this tribe is painted the
long, thin snout; the gills are repre-
sented by two curved lines below the
eyes, while the tail is shown as cut
in two and hanging from each nostril.

TEXAS DUEL
KILLED TWO

Fiercest Gun Fight Since Brann-Davis Tragedy.

Waco, Tex., Oct. 21.—One of the fiercest duels fought in this section since the famous Brann-Davis tragedy, occurred shortly after 1 o'clock this afternoon, on Austin avenue, the busiest thoroughfare in the city, and resulted in the death of two well-known citizens.

The principals in the tragedy were ex-sheriff W. T. Harris and his son, W. T. Harris, jr., and J. G. Lovelace and his stepson, Z. T. Reynolds, on the other. Bad feeling has existed between the men for some time over family affairs, and trouble had been expected as a result.

The men by chance met in the Turf saloon, and young Harris, it is alleged, opened fire with a shotgun on Lovelace over his (Harris') father's shoulder, but without effect. Lovelace immediately returned the fire with a revolver, killing young Harris almost instantly. Lovelace

then turned his revolver on the elder Harris, who likewise was killed.

Lovelace and Reynolds were both uninjured. They immediately gave themselves up, and were taken to the county jail and locked up to await the action of the grand jury, which is now in session.

W. T. Harris, sr., was six years sheriff of this county, and made an excellent reputation in that capacity.
At the time of his death he was engaged in farming and agricultural pursuits.

The younger Harris was for a number of years connected with the Provident National bank of this city, but more recently with the Cotton Belt railroad. Dr. Lovelace is a practicing physician of this city and Reynolds is a farmer.

The principals were all related in some degree by marriage.

W. T. Harris, jr., was unmarried.
The elder Harris leaves a widow and two married daughters.

President's Trip.
Washington, Oct. 21.—President Roosevelt, accompanied by Secretary Cortelyou, Assistant Secretary Barnes and one of two members of the White House staff, left this afternoon via the Pennsylvania railroad for Farmington, Conn. The party traveled in a private car attached to one of the regular trains. The president will spend a brief time at Farmington with his sister, Mrs. Cowles, before going to New Haven, where he is to receive the degree of LL. D. from Yale. Inasmuch as the trip is a private one no details concerning it are made public.

Sandbaggers Caught.
Snohomish, Oct. 21.—Policeman
Brown captured two of a gang of three robbers Saturday night, just after they had attempted to sandbag
a logger named Arthur Combs. Combs claim had been made of a gang of toughs who had been operating on the outskirts of town for some time.
Officer Brown, formerly marshal of
the city, and a terror to lawbreakers,
was in hiding down in the infested district, watching for them, and his
vigilance was rewarded.

He saw three men coming up the street on the run and jumped out and ordered them to halt, and fired over their heads. This did not seem to do any good, so he fired at one of them,
striking him in the back, and dropping him. Another threw up his hands and surrendered, but the third
escaped under the railroad bridge.
The officer forced the fellow who surrendered to assist him in getting the wounded man to jail, and a doctor was summoned. The wounded man was not badly hurt. The third man escaped. Combs, the man sandbagged identified the men as the ones who attacked him.

Rev. Sheldon's Indorsement.
Topeka, Kan., Oct. 21.—The Rev.
Charles M. Sheldon, author of "In
His Steps," said today regarding the action of President Roosevelt in in-diting Booker T. Washington to dine
with him:
"I am glad we have a president who will do such things. Mr. Roosevelt has done more to obliterate sectional
prejudice and race hatred than a generation of writing and agitation could do."

MASONS OF
HIGH DEGREE

Not Supreme Council of Scottish Rite in Washington.

Washington, Oct. 21.—The supreme council of the Thirty-third degree of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Free Masonry for the southern jurisdiction of the United States, the mother council of the world, met today in biennial session. The celebrating marks the centennial celebration of the council, which was established in Charleston, S. C., in May, 1801, the actual recognition of the centenary being afforded until now, to be co-existent with the unveiling of the monument to the late Gen.
Albert Pike, long sovereign grand commander. The feature of today's session was the allocution delivered by Representative Richardson, of Tennessee, the lieutenant grand commander and acting sovereign grand commander. The allocution, among other things, laid down an important ruling that a member of a foreign jurisdiction cannot become a member of a jurisdiction here without severing his connection with the former.

Only one or two parts of an animal painted on an Indian's face indicates that he is of inferior position; the entire symbol, no matter in what form presented, is significant of lofty station and high honors.

The facial heraldry of the Indian may be said to be unique, not alone in the method of representation employed, but in the subject selected.
The latter includes fish, flesh and fowl of all descriptions—dog salmon, devilfish, starfish, woodpeckers, ravens, eagles, bears, wolves, frogs, are comprised in the armorial gallery.

Every object presented has its own particular significance, and one of the most peculiar phases of face painting relates to the employment of furs other than animal—tools, implements of the chase or of war, denoting the occupation of the individual or his tribe.

Sandbaggers Caught.
Snohomish, Oct. 21.—Policeman
Brown captured two of a gang of
three robbers Saturday night, just
after they had attempted to sandbag
a logger named Arthur Combs. Combs claim had been made of a gang of toughs who had been operating on
the outskirts of town for some time.
Officer Brown, formerly marshal of
the city, and a terror to lawbreakers,
was in hiding down in the infested
district, watching for them, and his
vigilance was rewarded.

He saw three men coming up the
street on the run and jumped out and
ordered them to halt, and fired over their heads. This did not seem to do any good, so he fired at one of them,
striking him in the back, and dropping him. Another threw up his hands and surrendered, but the third
escaped under the railroad bridge.
The officer forced the fellow who surrendered to assist him in getting the
wounded man to jail, and a doctor
was summoned. The wounded man was not badly hurt. The third man escaped. Combs, the man sandbagged
identified the men as the ones who
attacked him.

Rev. Sheldon's Indorsement.
Topeka, Kan., Oct. 21.—The Rev.
Charles M. Sheldon, author of "In
His Steps," said today regarding the
action of President Roosevelt in in-diting Booker T. Washington to dine
with him:
"I am glad we have a president who
will do such things. Mr. Roosevelt
has done more to obliterate sectional
prejudice and race hatred than a generation of writing and agitation
could do."

Rev. Sheldon's Indorsement.
Topeka, Kan., Oct. 21.—The Rev.
Charles M. Sheldon, author of "In
His Steps," said today regarding the
action of President Roosevelt in in-diting Booker T. Washington to dine
with him:
"I am glad we have a president who
will do such things. Mr. Roosevelt
has done more to obliterate sectional
prejudice and race hatred than a generation of writing and agitation
could do."

Rev. Sheldon's Indorsement.
Topeka, Kan., Oct. 21.—The Rev.
Charles M. Sheldon, author of "In
His Steps," said today regarding the
action of President Roosevelt in in-diting Booker T. Washington to dine
with him:
"I am glad we have a president who
will do such things. Mr. Roosevelt
has done more to obliterate sectional
prejudice and race hatred than a generation of writing and agitation
could do."

Rev. Sheldon's Indorsement.
Topeka, Kan., Oct. 21.—The Rev.
Charles M. Sheldon, author of "In
His Steps," said today regarding the
action of President Roosevelt in in-diting Booker T. Washington to dine
with him:
"I am glad we have a president who
will do such things. Mr. Roosevelt
has done more to obliterate sectional
prejudice and race hatred than a generation of writing and agitation
could do."

Rev. Sheldon's Indorsement.
Topeka, Kan., Oct. 21.—The Rev.
Charles M. Sheldon, author of "In
His Steps," said today regarding the
action of President Roosevelt in in-diting Booker T. Washington to dine
with him:
"I am glad we have a president who
will do such things. Mr. Roosevelt
has done more to obliterate sectional
prejudice and race hatred than a generation of writing and agitation
could do."

Rev. Sheldon's Indorsement.
Topeka, Kan., Oct. 21.—The Rev.
Charles M. Sheldon, author of "In
His Steps," said today regarding the
action of President Roosevelt in in-diting Booker T. Washington to dine
with him:
"I am glad we have a president who
will do such things. Mr. Roosevelt
has done more to obliterate sectional
prejudice and race hatred than a generation of writing and agitation
could do."

Rev. Sheldon's Indorsement.
Topeka, Kan., Oct. 21.—The Rev.
Charles M. Sheldon, author of "In
His Steps," said today regarding the
action of President Roosevelt in in-diting Booker T. Washington to dine
with him:
"I am glad we have a president who
will do such things. Mr. Roosevelt
has done more to obliterate sectional
prejudice and race hatred than a generation of writing and agitation
could do."

TAGISH POST.

Goetzman's Magnificent Souvenir
OF THE
Klondike
IS NOW BEING CLOSED OUT AT $2.50 EACH
This Work Is Without Exception the Finest Production Ever Published Showing Views of This Country. The Work Is Handsomely Bound With an Illuminated Cover and Contains 80 PAGES OF ILLUSTRATIONS OVER 200 VIEWS.
Printed on Heavy Coated Book Paper.
Former Price $5.00,
NOW $2.50
Copies, While They Last, Can Be Obtained at All Book Stores or at Goetzman's Photograph
Studio
Corner First Avenue and Second Street

Ladies
The costume you are going to wear at St.
Andrew's Ball should be something extra nice.
We deal in fabrics that go to make up this class of garment.
N. A. T. & T. CO.

"YOU'RE NOT SO WARM"
But that you may need another heater.
If so, call on Dawson Hardware Co., Ltd.
Store, Second Ave. Phone 36 Tin Shop, 4th St. & 3rd Ave.

OLD PAPERS
IN BUNDLES, FOR SALE
AT
THE NUGGET OFFICE
FIVE CENTS A POUND.

Special for Next Few Days
Turkish Towels, Hock Towels, De-mask Towels, and Glass Cloth.
Old S-Y. T. Co. Building,
Phone 87 Second Ave. Whitney & Pedlar

FULL LINE CHOICE BRANDS
Wines, Liquors & Cigars WALL PAPER AND SIGNS
CHISHOLM'S SALOON.
TOM CHISHOLM, PROP.
ANDERSON BROS.
SECOND AVENUE

THE FINEST IN THE LAND
Meats
N. P. Shaw & Co.,
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL

Pacific Packing
and Navigation Co.
Successors to Pacific Steam
Whaling Co.
FOR
Copper River and Cook's Inlet
YAKUTAT, ORCA, VALDEZ, HOMER.
FOR ALL PORTS
In Western Alaska Steamer Newport Sails From Juneau on First of Each Month

WINTER TIME TABLE—STAGE LINES
THE ORR & TUKEY CO., Ltd.
Going into effect Nov. 11, 1901—Week Days Only.
FOR GOLD RIVER AND GARDNER via Central and Juneau 7 a. m. 10 3/4 p. m.
FOR TONGUE RIVER via Central and Juneau 7 a. m. 10 3/4 p. m.
FOR GOREVILLE via Central and Juneau 7 a. m. 10 3/4 p. m.
FOR QUARTZ CREEK via Juneau 7 a. m. 10 3/4 p. m.
Sunday Service—Leave Juneau 7 p. m. and 10 3/4 p. m.
ALL STAGES LEAVE OFFICE N. C. 50, BUILDING. PHONE 8.
Watch for the departure and arrival of our stages.

By Using Long Distance
Telephone
You are put in immediate communication with Boston, Portland, Denver,
Gold River or Sulphur Creek.
By Subscribing for a Telephone in Town
You can have at your finger tips over 200 speaking instruments.
Yukon Telephone Syn. Co.
GENERAL OFFICE THIRD ST. NEAR N. C. 50 BLDG.

WILSON,
DAWSON
Building
S
IC LIGHT
E
TIONS,
CATION.
ble
cial Co.
of Goetzman's friends. A copy of Klondike stands. Price
Whole Wheat Biscuit
AT DUNHAM'S
FAMILY GROCER
1st Ave. and 6th St.
IONS OF THE
ity Market
with meat which not equalled
in this country.
his assortment.
CO
Supplies
Amateurs and Professionals.
A COMPLETE STOCK
and Marine Glasses
zman PHOTOGRAPH

SOCIETY FOR PREVENTION

Held Well Attended Meeting Yesterday Afternoon

At Which Permanent Officers for Ensuing Year Were Chosen Several Good Addresses.

The first annual meeting of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals was held yesterday afternoon...

Rev. Pringle extended his congratulations and said he was proud of having been elected vice president of the society...

RIVER CLOSED FOR WINTER

Ice in the Yukon Remains Where Final Struggle Left It.

Twenty-four hours, and better have elapsed since the river closed and if any thought it might open again...

At Ogilvie and Stewart there is no perceptible change unless it is that the current appears considerably slower...

PAUSING AT OGILVIE

Mail Carriers Reached There This Morning and Are Still There.

If the Fates are propitious, Heaven being willing, the ice holds out and the hills do not turn upside down...

It is said there is some thought of sending Mail Carrier Downing out after the h'lated bags, which are becoming heavy with old age...

LIBERAL CLUB-SMOKER

Last Night Was Flow of Soul and Feast of Reason.

The Liberal Club held its first smoker in Pioneer hall last night, which was largely enjoyed by those fortunate enough to be present...

DAWSON - FUR TRADE

Local Dealers Object to Consul McCook's Figures.

Local fur dealers are somewhat exercised over a report sent by U. S. Consul McCook to the U. S. state department covering the fur business transacted in Dawson...

In the whole area between the Yukon and the McKenzie the dealers say that there are not nearly the number of men engaged as stated in the consul's report...

NOMINAL FINE WAS IMPOSED

On the Woman Who Was After a Professional Man Yesterday.

It was a short session of court held by Magistrate Macaulay this morning, only one case being on for hearing...

"When I want a real, out-and-out mental rest I go south." "Well up north you have to keep your mind on judges, doctors, professors, captains, mayors, majors and the like, but down south it is safe to call every man 'Colonel.'"

AMERICANS WITHDRAW

Racing Stock From English Turf Owing to Reiff's Expulsion.

London, Oct. 19.—As a result of Lester Reiff's expulsion from the English turf, an important withdrawal of American trainers and jockeys here is likely to occur in 1902...

By the retirement of Edward Weatherly as secretary of the jockey club and keeper of the match book, which occurred this week, the racing world loses a picturesque and altogether unique character...

BILLIARD TOURNAMENT

Members of the Zero Club Now Contesting for Supremacy.

A billiard tournament is now in progress at the Zero Club and unusual interest is manifested by the members in the sport...

After Diamond Sculls.

New York, Oct. 21.—New York oarsmen are keenly interested in the proposition which has attained quite large proportions to send Constance S. Titus, a member of the Union Boat Club, to Henley next year...

Concentrated joy at the Pioneer saloon. A new drink.

Two Bluffs Required

To Enable Mail Carrying Co. to Frame Excuse.

The bluff has been made and a report may now be forwarded to the postoffice department and the mail contracting company for the upper Yukon can sit around for another month secure in the thought that "we have done our duty" in the attempt to transport mail...

Right You Are. The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Our Own Bouquet

Have you seen the new type—job type—the kind that appeals to the reader in bold, self assertive style...

Dress Your Stationery in New Clothes. And keep up with the times. Perhaps you are one of those "Rush Job" fellows. You can't frighten us if you are...

The Nugget Printery. We Have Recently Added 750 Square Feet of Floor Space to Our Printing Department.

OLD PAPERS

IN BUNDLES, FOR SALE AT

THE NUGGET OFFICE FIVE CENTS A POUND.

Holme, Miller & Co.

107 Front Street, Dawson

Holds, 5 to 12 H.P., Boilers, 8 to 50 H.P., Buffalo Duplex Pumps, Moore Steam Pumps, Pipe Fittings, Ranges, Stoves and Heaters, Granite Steam Hose, Silver Dollar Shovels, Pan-American Wheelbarrows

Right You Are. The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are

The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are. The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are. The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are

The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are. The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are. The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are

The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are. The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are

The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are. The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are. The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are

The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are. The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are. The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are

The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are. The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are. The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are

The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are. The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are

The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are. The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are. The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are

The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are. The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are. The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are

The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are. The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are. The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are

The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are. The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are

The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are. The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are. The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are

The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are. The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are. The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are

The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are. The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are. The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are

The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are. The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are

The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are. The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are. The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are

The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are. The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are. The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are

The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are. The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are. The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are

The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are. The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are

The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are. The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are. The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are

The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are. The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are. The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are

The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are. The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are. The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are

The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are. The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are

The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are. The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are. The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are

The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are. The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are. The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are

The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are. The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."

Right You Are. The evening leg of the bifurcation said yesterday: "Notwithstanding the fact that the river closed today, a snow got in last night from Whitehorse. It is probably the last to get here this season."