

THE ACADIAN.

WOLFVILLE, N. S., OCT. 2, 1914.

Editorial Brevities.

Dominion Parliament is to meet on Saturday, November 7th, for the transaction of business.

Ralph Connor is preparing a new work for the press. It is entitled 'The Patrol of Sundance Trail.' It will show the life of a scout in the North West Police during the Riel Rebellion.

Sir James P. Whitney, Premier of Ontario, died at his residence in Toronto, on Friday last, aged seventy years. He had been ill since February, but had until lately seemed to be improving.

One of the cruelties practiced in the present war is that of German officers compelling captured civilians in Belgium to dig their own graves before they are shot. The Kaiser, however, is also voluntarily digging his own grave.

An Order-in-Council has been issued at Ottawa, prohibiting airships from flying within ten miles of any of the chief cities or fortified points in Canada, or carrying passengers across the international line, except under certain conditions.

The discovery of a new comet by Professor Clarence Haggarty, of the New Mexico college of agriculture and mechanic art, was announced by the Harvard college observatory on Tuesday. A telegram from Professor Haggarty to the observatory said that the comet was visible to the naked eye.

It is estimated that there are 100,000 men in arms in Europe. Each man is given about 2 1/2 pounds of food a day. This will make 11,250 tons of food. A box car on one of our own railroads will carry 20 tons. So, to transport the food of one day will take 560 of these cars, or 14 trains of 40 cars each.

The Dominion Government is giving $20 a month to the families of married men going to the war and $1.10 a day to the privates themselves. The patriotic fund, already in the millions, is growing in all parts of the country. In this war with respect to Canada, there should be no physical suffering on the part of those left behind by the soldiers.

Great Britain though lamenting deeply the loss of the men on board the three cruisers, sunk by the German submarines, yet nevertheless which she probably will get into action. Germany's submarine fleet is, according to the statistics, now reduced to 23 as against 85 by Great Britain alone and the French navy's 90, the Russians 48. The Austro-Hungarians have 15.

The fact that Canada is actually in a state of war is vividly impressed by Newton MacTavish in an article entitled 'War Time in Canada,' which appears in the October issue of the Canadian Magazine. Mr. MacTavish reviews what has taken place in Canada as a result of the war bringing together into compact, comprehensible form all the various activities of the Government; in brief, he visualizes the operation of the Canadian governmental machinery which the war has set in motion. From the time of the summoning of the Governor-General and the Prime Minister to Ottawa to the call for further volunteers to go to the front a vast amount of precaution is here outlined.

The London, England, Globe: The Globe's naval expert, dealing with the sinking of the cruisers, says: 'Our fleet is necessarily exposed to these dangers. It has to wait upon the pleasure of the enemy. It dare not wait too far away, because the North Sea is small and could be quickly traversed by hostile fleets. The risks must be run and we need not fear that our men will shrink before them. Nevertheless, death dealt by an unseen hand is the most detestable of all. This disaster will rouse the British fleet to action as nothing else could have done, and the success of this submarine attack may yet prove the death knell of the German navy.'

Cost to Canada.

Several military men discussed the cost per man of keeping the Canadian force in the field, recently. It was the opinion that it could not possibly be less than an average of $5 per day. That would mean that at the present time the total cost would be running at the rate of $150,000 per day or $4,500,000 per month. If this force is to be increased to 50,000 men, as suggested, it will mean a daily cost of $250,000 or a monthly cost of $7,500,000. These figures are not large alongside the enormous expenditures being incurred on the other side of the Atlantic. Yet our expenditures on 50,000 men would figure out at $20,000,000 per annum. This would be an average of over $1 per inhabitant, and if we assumed an average of five to the family as compared with the charge which must be levied on families on the other side of the Atlantic, the charge may be small, but it is a charge which will weigh heavily on many households. We will be fortunate indeed, if we manage to get on with one year of military expenditures.

Looking After the Apple Trade.

Sir:—Kindly allow me space in your valuable paper to announce that the Department of Trade and Commerce, presided over by Sir George E. Foster, has decided, after urgent representation, to begin a comprehensive and elaborate campaign of advertising from the Atlantic to the Pacific in the endeavor to create and stimulate domestic markets for the consumption of the apple crop of the Dominion of Canada, and to provide such avenues of outlet for evaporated fruit produced in our Dominion. I have had the honor and pleasure of bringing to the attention of the Department, the interests of the Province of Nova Scotia, and particularly the County of Kings, in these matters. I would respectfully advise our Nova Scotian shippers and producers to keep in touch with this press campaign and thereby endeavor to share in the benefits to be derived therefrom. This will mean individual initiative on the part of our fruit growers, which I hope will result advantageously.

The Government are very sympathetic with the difficulties placed upon our fruit growers on account of this unexpected Armageddon, and are desirous of assisting in every possible way.

I have remained in Ottawa purpose to be in close touch with Imperial representatives, as well as the Department, to further in every legitimate way the best interests of my constituency. Any inquiries addressed to me by wire or letter, will receive every attention. I expect to be in Kentville at the opening of the exhibition, and shall be glad to talk over the situation with fruit men who may wish to do so.

I should be glad to have specific information regarding the output of evaporating plants in my county, which information I need not add will be kept entirely confidential.

I would further add that I am informed the firm of Mason, Gordon & Co., Montreal, P. Q., have been appointed to represent British colonies in obtaining P.T. Props, and any persons in this county desirous of procuring the same will do well to communicate with the above firm. Thanking you for your valuable space, I remain, Your obedient servant, A. D. W. FOSTER, Ottawa, Sept. 28, 1914.

Scott Act Repeal Fund.

It is hereby suggested to those who sympathized with the recent movement to introduce the N. S. Temperance Act into the county that it is not right that the balance of bills for literature, salary of organizers, etc., of the Alliance if falls to me to endeavor to collect the $100 needed. The task will be easy or difficult according to the response to this appeal. Only 110 contributors are needed. See how easily it can be done!

5 x $5 = $25
10 x 2 = 20
35 x 1 = 35
20 x 50c = 10
40 x 25c = 10
110 = $100

A friend has sent one dollar in response to the statement made last week, so that the left hand total should really be 109. Please save the precious time of the secretary by sending in your share without a personal visit. If the money were enclosed in an envelope, designated to this fund, and placed on the plate in any of the churches, the treasurer of the church would willing forward to W. E. Porter, Kentville, or the undersigned. Perhaps some churches or temperance organizations will be good for a five. The Berwick W. C. T. U. has set a fine example. With the permission of the editor a table showing the progress of the campaign will be published every week until the amount is raised.

Annual Convention of the W. C. T. U. in Kentville.

The nineteenth annual convention of the Nova Scotia Provincial Women's Christian Temperance Union opened in the Baptist church, Kentville, on Tuesday, Sept. 22nd, at nine o'clock. The president, Mrs. Ada L. Power, of Lunenburg, with seven officers, fourteen superintendents, five county presidents and forty-one delegates were present. After devotional exercises, led by Mrs. Powers, the business of the convention began. Committees were appointed and reports were given by the superintendents of departments, all showing great interest and a large amount of work done. The morning session closed with the sunrise prayer, led by Mrs. J. W. Smith. The afternoon session opened with devotional exercises. Reports were given and the usual routine of business was followed. At five o'clock the convention adjourned and all were invited to the tea in the basement of the church by the Kentville ladies, which was appreciated by all. At 7:30 the convention again met to listen to an organ recital given by Mr. Harris, organist of the church. This was followed by short addresses of welcome from the Mayor and the pastors of the various churches in the town. Wednesday and Thursday were given over to the regular routine business of a convention.

Fire in Windsor.

The Commercial Block, a brick building in Windsor, was badly damaged by fire on Sunday morning. The fire originated in Stevens photograph rooms, which were directly in the rear of the building and so badly flooded with water and otherwise doused that publication has been suspended for a time. All the tenants had partial insurance excepting one family who occupied rooms. The loss was about $5,000.

Dismissal of E. M. Beckwith.

The following resolution, re the dismissal of E. M. Beckwith, was passed by the Provincial Women's Christian Temperance Union, at their annual convention held on the 22nd, 23rd and 24th inst.:

WHEREAS, in considering the conditions from a Temperance point of view in Kings county and the available means of controlling illegal dealing in intoxicating liquor, the evidence of which is quite apparent in all directions, the recent dismissal of E. M. Beckwith, County Stipendiary, has intruded itself upon our attention; and

WHEREAS, on consideration of such dismissal we are not able to understand why the investigation asked for by him was not granted by the Government; and

WHEREAS, in the estimation of people who have in view the enforcement of the liquor laws of the Province, Mr. Beckwith has shown himself to be an honest and efficient Magistrate, and for years discharging the duties of his office fearlessly and impartially; therefore

RESOLVED, that the Women's Christian Temperance Union of Nova Scotia in Convention assembled do hereby record their absolute disapproval and condemnation of the dismissal of Mr. E. M. "Fruit-a-lives" Keeps Young and Old in Splendid Health

J. W. HAMMOND Esq.
SCOTLAND, Ont., Aug. 25th, 1913
"Fruit-a-lives" are the only pills manufactured, to my way of thinking. They work completely, no griping whatever, and one is plenty for any ordinary person at a dose. My wife was a martyr to Constipation. We tried everything on the calendar without satisfaction, and spent large sums of money until we happened on "Fruit-a-lives". I cannot say too much in their favor.

We have used them in the family for about two years and we would not use anything else as long as we can get "Fruit-a-lives".

Their action is mild, and no distress at all. I have recommended them to many other people, and our whole family uses them.

J. W. HAMMOND.
Those who have been cured by "Fruit-a-lives" are proud and happy to tell a sick or ailing friend about these wonderful tablets made from fruit juices. 50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. At all dealers or sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa.

Medical Man Prescribes Religion for Drunkards.

On the platform, speaking as an apostle of sensible hygiene and rational medicine, Dr. Cabot, of Boston, says:

"Intemperance is not a disease in the sense of being a disorder which works predictable changes in the body or can be cured by medical means. There is no cure for alcoholism except a change of character in the drinker. All so-called medical treatments for alcoholics have value only in controlling the appetite for the time being, and thus giving a man a chance to get his breath—his moral breath. Somehow or other a man who has been victimized by drink must be got into a physical state good enough to give his moral instincts a chance to work. That is the advantage of a hospital treatment.

I believe in the prohibition of the liquor business where there is public opinion strong enough to enforce it. I should like to see liquor abolished from the whole of this country. I want especially to say that the practice of medicine would not suffer in the least if alcoholic stimulants were unobtainable. There are plenty of substitutes just as efficacious. But I do not believe in the force of trying to enforce a prohibition law where the sentiment of the public is against it. What is doing most just now for temperance in the United States is industrial pressure—the increasing difficulty of getting and holding employment which the man who drinks is facing.

The drunkard is cured only when his will is turned against drink and fortified there. But I do not believe the will is often reached through the intellect. It is reached mostly through the contagion of friendship. Many a man has been enabled to stop drinking through having a friend who was willing to come to him and stand by him until his fit of thirst had passed. Men permanently reformed are cured by either work play, affection or religion. And it is my observation that not many are saved without all these factors joined together.

Don't trust to the will of the man alone; the human will unsupported is the weakest thing I know. Religion is at the heart of this problem. Religion is something old-fashioned and out-worn; it has just as much power today as it ever had. Religion is the one thing which can make a man loyal when there is nothing in sight to be loyal to—keep him faithful when there is no visible reason to be faithful.

WOMAN IN TERRIBLE STATE

Finds Help in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Cape Wolf, Canada.—"Last March I was a complete wreck. I had given up all hope of getting better or living any length of time, as I was such a sufferer from female troubles. But I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and today I am in good health and have a pair of twin boys two months old and growing finely. I surprised doctors and neighbors for they all knew what a wreck I was.

"Now I am healthy, happy and hearty, and owe it all to Lydia E. Pinkham's remedy. For many months this letter if you like, I think if more women used your remedies they would have better health."—Mrs. J. T. COOK, Lot No. 7, Cape Wolf, P. E. I., Canada.

Because your case is a difficult one, and having done you no good, do not continue to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. It surely has remedied many cases of female ills, such as inflammation, ulceration, displacements, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, and it may be exactly what you need.

The Pinkham—seed is a potent and powerful one. It is a record of constant victory over the obstinately woman-ills that deal out despair. It is so established fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has relieved hundreds of thousands of such suffering women. Why don't you try it if you need such a medicine?

ROYAL PRIZEWINNERS

King George Had Many Successes at Exhibitions

The fact that one of King George's short-horn heifers—Windsor Belle—won the championship at an exhibition calls attention to His Majesty's keen interest in farming. Like King Edward, King George has won many successes at the various exhibitions, and it may surprise some readers to learn that for twenty years he has been showing farm stock. Until he came to the throne, however, His Majesty showed pigs exclusively, and in 1897 he offered the challenge cup which is still the premier reward for pigs.

Of late years however, the King has devoted more attention to general farm stock, and is the owner of three magnificent farms at Windsor, Sandringham, and Abinger. His Majesty's principal farms are at Windsor. They extend over 1,500 acres. It might be mentioned, as an illustration of the keen interest which the Prince Consort, King Edward, and King George have evinced in farming and agriculture, that a record kept to about ten years ago showed that their winnings in prizes totalled some $60,000.

The Show Farm at Windsor, where Windsor Belle has been bred, is one of a group of farms, there being also the Flemish Farm and Royal Dairy Farm, with its forty pedigree Jerseys and thirty dairy shorthorns. Here sixty cows are milked every day to supply the Castle and Buckingham Palace. It was at Sandringham that the King, as Prince of Wales, bred his prize pigs, and there also is a fine herd of shorthorns that supplied the first prize yearling which in 1896 King Edward sold to a South American buyer for 1,000 guineas. At Sandringham, too, is a fine shire which has established many records at exhibitions and sales, which it was there that King Edward kept his thoroughbred stock that produced the Derby winners Perimeter and Diamond Jubilee, which won for His late Majesty close upon $300,000.

South American Trade.

Canada should be able to gain considerable portion of the South American trade which has been lost by Germany. If prompt action were taken to learn the needs of those markets, and the necessary provisions made to manufacture the kind of articles required, Canadians should be as well able as the people of other countries to meet the requirements of this country should have well qualified trade agents in South America.

The opening of the Panama Canal will be of much benefit in connection with this trade. Touching the matter the Toronto World makes the following observation:—

"The question of subsidizing steamship lines between Canadian ports and the principal ports of either coast of South America should receive, and so doubt is receiving, careful attention from the government. We are now subsidizing at heavy expense a line of steamers between Western Canada and the West Indies, which we believe go as far south as British Guiana. But there must be a considerable additional stimulus to shipping if we are to seriously compete for the trade formerly enjoyed by Germany in Argentine and Brazil, and if we are to make any serious attempt at a commercial conquest of the western coast of South America.

Useful Hints for Bathers

Some useful hints for bathers were given at a recent meeting at Brighton of the British Medical Association. It was declared by Dr. W. J. Tyson that:—

The best months for bathing are July, August, and September. The best time to bathe is between breakfast and luncheon, and the water must be left before the reaction stage. The length of time in the water, as a general rule, should be from five to fifteen minutes. Bathe once a day. Slow dressing is as bad as slow bathing, and the friction of a rough towel should always be used on leaving the water.

Don't enter the water feet foremost, if it can be avoided; don't remain in the water till the reactive glow subsides and stiffness takes its place. It is stupid for people to go to the seaside and bathe before first consulting a medical man.

It is advisable that seaside visitors should take a preliminary treatment of warm sea baths before entering the cold water.

Bathing is a valuable adjunct in the treatment of disease. Convalescents from acute disease and people run down derive most benefit from it. Tuberculosis cases do very well, and rickets improve with sea bathing.

Lord Kitchener.

In his book 'With Kitchener in Khartoum,' published in 1899, the late Mr. George W. Stevens, the famous war correspondent, wrote as follows:

"There are some who nurse a desperate hope that he (Kitchener) may some day be appointed manager of the war office. He would be a splendid manager."

The prophecy has been fulfilled. In his description of Kitchener at that time Stevens also wrote:—

"He stands several inches over six feet; straight as a lance and looks out imperiously above most men's heads. His motions are deliberate and strong. Slender, but firmly knit, he seems built for tireless steel-wire endurance rather than for power and agility. Steady, passionless eyes, shaded by decisive brows; brick-red, rather full cheeks; a long mustache, beneath which you divine an immovable mouth, his face is harsh and neither appeals for affection nor stirs dislike."

He has no age but the prime of life; no body but one to carry his brain behind. The brain and the will are the essence and the whole of the man; a brain and a will so perfect in their workings that in the face of extreme difficulties they have never seemed to know what struggle is. You cannot imagine the Sirdar otherwise than seeing the right thing to do and doing it. His precision is so inhumanly unerring he is more like a machine than a man. You feel that he ought to be patented and shown with pride at the Paris International Exhibition; British Empire, Exhibit No. 1, the Sudan Machine."

This is the man who is now engaged in smashing the German war machine.
