JAPANESE ARMY ENTERS CITY OF PORT ARTHUR TO-DAY

STOESSEL ACCEPTING CONDITIONS STIPULATED BY NOGI

PORT ARTHUR FALLS AGAINST CZAR'S WILL

ST. PETERSBURG SAYS TOKIO GAY WITH JOY

May Facilitate Final Peace, But Scene of Conflict Will Now Be Shifted to the North, Near Mukden, Say Russian Advisers.

Port Arthur, whose hills have for months run red with the blood of the bravest of the Russian soldiers, has at last succumbed to the fierce tenacity of the Japanese army. General Stoessel, stout stubborn in carrying out the will of his sovereign, has seen the advance of the besieging army gain in momentum and energy until to him it would have been a crime against humanity.

THE CONDITIONS OF THE SURRENDER ARE NOT YET KNOWN, BUT IN ALL QUARTERS IT IS ANTICIPATED THAT THEY ARE SUCH AS AN HONORABLE SOLDIER CAN ACCEPT FROM A BRAVE AND VICTORIOUS ENEMY.

Keep News From Russ Public.

The authorities at St. Petersburg in the absence of direct official news from Gen. Stoessel that Port Arthur has surrendered have not permitted the news to become public. Emperor Nicholas is in the south of Russia and his ministers are for the time being in the dark as to what despatches have been sent to him from the front.

Tokio was the scene of rejoicing, people of all ranks finding in the outcome compensation for all the sacrifice of life and money that was entailed in the ten months' siege.

To what extent the fall of Port Arthur will make for a restoration of peace is an open question. There is an encouraging note in the expression by Baron Hayashi, Japanese minister at London, of the hope that the fall of Port Arthur will facilitate final peace, but the pacific note is not perhaps lost in the later words of the minister, which call attention to the fact that the besieging army will now be an effect to the reinforcement of Gen. Kuroki's army which has been receiving from Russia since the battle of Shakhé.

Will Not Fight It Out.

The spirit of the Russians may be judged by the statement of the secretary of the embassy at London, that the campaign will be renewed with fresh vigor in the spring, and that the nation will not be content to permit Port Arthur to remain in the hands of the Japanese.

Both in Paris and in London the opinion is that the SQUADRON UNDER VICE-ADMIRAL ROJESTVENSKY WHICH STAYED IN PORT ARTHUR FOR THE FAIR EAST THREE MONTHS AGO WILL HAVE TO RE-TRACE ITS WAY HOME, as orders to the original plans would involve a junction with the Japanese fleet in the harbor at Vladivostok.

That Japan will not be permitted to retain possession of Port Arthur without a dispute is shown in the fact that Paris newspapers are already reverting to the claim made in 1894, that the holding of that position commanding the eastern seas by the Japanese would be a menace to European interests.

At 9:45 o'clock last night, the commissioning of the signing of the capitulation agreement. Both armies had suspended hostilities five hours earlier. The City of Port Arthur will be occupied by the Japanese to-day.

New Move for Peace.

There is an expectation in diplomatic circles that the powers may make a tender of friendly offices, and the intimation is conveyed that the United States will take the initiative. Should that be done, it could be only upon assurances that the Japanese fleet would be permitted to remain in the harbor.

Early Today Two Russian Torpedo Launches Arrived at Chefoo, and Those Destroyers in the Harbor.

Early today two Russian torpedo launches arrived at Chefoo, and those destroyers in the harbor. Later in the morning four of the destroyers departed Chefoo, and the United States fleet completely exhausted by five days of fighting. The supply of food was about exhausted, and the limit of resistance had been reached when General Stoessel made his offer of capitulation.

ROBERTS PRAISES STOESSEL

ALL THE WORLD ADMIRES HIM

British Generals Prodigal With Their Expressions of Admiration for Gallant Defence.

London, Jan. 2.—General Stoessel's defence of Port Arthur has excited the admiration of Earl Roberts, commander-in-chief of the British forces. "It has been a magnificent defence," said the veteran soldier enthusiastically. "What a splendid fellow he is, to be sure. How all the world must admire him."

Field Marshal Viscount Wolseley and Major-General Baden-Powell also pay enthusiastic tribute to Gen. Stoessel, Gen. Borden-Powell saying: "It is an honorable surrender after a splendid defence."

WHAT THE POPE SAYS.

Rome, Jan. 2.—On hearing the news of the fall of Port Arthur to-day Pope Pius exclaimed: "Let us hope that it is an augury that the end of the war is near, now that both nations have proved their mettle."

PEACE OFFER FROM JAPAN RUSSIAN PUBLIC IGNORANT

Threats of Radical Demonstrations Said to Account for the Silence of Russian Authorities.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 2.—(2 a.m.)—While there is no longer any doubt in official circles here that the fall of Port Arthur has been decided and Gen. Stoessel's long and gallant defence ended, news of the surrender has not reached the public. Foreign telegrams regarding the matter have been withheld from the newspapers, pending the official announcement here. The public so far is entirely unprepared for the news, which must prove a serious blow when it comes. Possibly some of the threats and rumors of radical demonstrations, coupled with the absence of the emperor.

It has been learned that the last telegram sent by Emperor Nicholas to Gen. Stoessel urged the latter to use discretionary powers rather than allow the defence to go to the last ditch. This may account for the apparently brief time required to conclude the negotiations between the Russian and Japanese commissioners, and proposed occupied in communicating with Emperor Nicholas. It is equally certain that Gen. Stoessel did not surrender without providing authorization. In diplomatic circles tonight it is stated that the fall of Port Arthur will be promptly followed by an OFFER OF PEACE FROM JAPAN.

A strong effort will be made to have it come thru President Roosevelt. It is suggested that the terms might include an arrangement which would give Russia an outlet thru the Persian Gulf. There is much discussion relative to Vice-Admiral Rojestsvenky's voyage to the far east. It is rumored that his squadron may be recalled to the Baltic to await reinforcements and proceed eastward next summer, when it will be decidedly superior in strength to Admiral Togo's fleet, but there is nothing authoritative to support a report. The situation so far as Admiral Rojestsvenky is concerned is not materially different from the time when the Pacific squadron was first defeated.

It is known that Admiral Rojestsvenky had alternative instructions when he sailed covering such a contingency as his own fleet being superior in the immediate future may be such as to necessitate the curtailing of the emperor's trip across the soviet and cause his return to St. Petersburg, but the report that his pilot train had been blown up is untrue.

COST JAPS $60,000.

Chefoo, Jan. 2.—This morning two Russian torpedo launches from Port Arthur arrived here. There are seven Japanese torpedo boat destroyers in the harbor. An officer of one of the boats said tonight:

"It cost the Japanese $60,000 men to take the fortress, while some say they had but a hundred thousand. The number of our own dead is not known, even to the high officials. A third Russian launch has just arrived from Port Arthur. Four of the Japanese torpedo boat destroyers have departed. Chinese report have heard of a Japanese mine last night."

ROJESTVENSKY.

Tamatave, Island of Madagascar, Jan. 2.—Vice-Admiral Rojestsvenky's division of the Russian Pacific squadron, consisting of five battleships, three cruisers, the transports Schamataki and Amadry, and the hospital ship Orsk, anchored in the roadstead of Saint Marie today. The despatch boat, L'Espérance, afterwards visited Tamatave to the despatch star in Port Arthur. Who is the brightest star in the Japanese constellation, despite the severe storms they have encountered.

Stoessel would not yield. "Yesterday, General Stoessel would still fight. His wound, which was received early in the siege, had been cured, but his determination to fight while one man stood had not been diminished. "But we cannot fight," said his generals. "Our men cannot move. They are standing. They cannot see the bayonets at their breasts. We can order but they cannot obey. They are then general fight," said Stoessel, clenching his fists.

He seemed fatalistic on the subject, but finally he was brought to see reason by the insistence of his subordinates, Admirals Lohushky and Vronsky. General Stoessel and Pock and many others, who sometimes with broken voices urged the step which all dreaded so long.

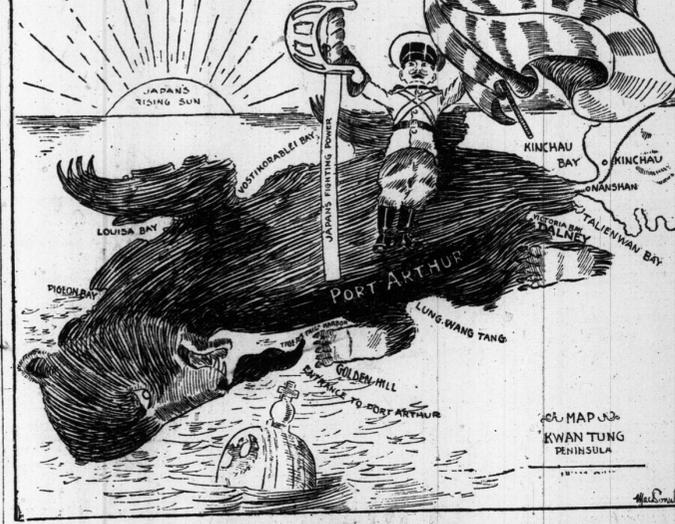

"I am sure Port Arthur would have sought terms a month ago had it not been for General Stoessel, who, with building tenacity, steadily refused to allow such action to be taken. He had told his emperor that he would never surrender, and he meant to keep his word."

General Nogi Took the Fortress With His Artillery and His Tunnels, Tho Had Stoessel Had His Way the Fight Would Have Been to the Death.

NOGI ANNOUNCES CAPITULATION.

Tokio, Jan. 2, 10 p. m.—The text of Gen. Nogi's telegram announcing the capitulation of the Russian forces at Port Arthur is as follows:

"The plenipotentiaries of both parties concluded their negotiations to-day at 4:30 o'clock. "The Russian Commissioners accepted on the whole the conditions stipulated by us and consented to capitulate. "The document has been prepared and signatures are now being affixed. "Simultaneously with the conclusion of negotiations both armies suspended hostilities. "It is expected that the Japanese army will enter the city of Port Arthur to-morrow."

URQUHART IS MAYOR FOR THIRD TERM

DEFEATS GODDERHAM BY 214 VOTES

W. D. McPherson, the Third Candidate, Falls Away Behind With Only 1100 Votes to His Credit.

CITY COUNCIL 1905.

Mayor—Urquhart.
Thames Ward—Urquhart.
Board of Control—F. S. Spence, W. P. Hubbard, J. J. Ward, John Shaw.
Aldermen—First Ward—Daniel Chisholm, Robert Fleming, W. T. Stewart.
Second Ward—Emerson Coatsworth, John Noble, T. L. Church.
Third Ward—B. Sheppard, G. R. Geary.

Sixth Ward—J. H. McChie, J. J. Gunn, Dr. Lynd.

After one of the most exciting struggles in the history of civic elections, because of the division into which the sympathies of the voters were cast, not by the candidates themselves but by their foremost supporters, Thomas Urquhart is re-elected mayor of Toronto for the third time. His majority was a big surprise, and to some more so than the defeat of Godderham, whose organization was perfect and who had addressed a series of meetings which grew continually in warmth, size and enthusiasm. Both sides exerted themselves to the utmost yesterday in getting out the vote, and the result was a triumph for Urquhart. There is no doubt that it was the influence and work of the Moral Reform League, which contributed so largely to the mayor's success, altho the league's other candidates did not vote very late in the evening. The results were very late in being announced officially, and while unofficial counts for an hour or so after the close of the polls indicated majorities which gave Mr. Godderham's adherents lively hope, it soon became evident that an adverse verdict had been registered.

Will Try Again.

There were big crowds on the downtown streets, but Mayor Urquhart was the only one to address them, and he spoke only of that. Mr. Godderham received the returns at his central counting room on King street, which was thronged with those who had wished him well and had done their best to help him. He took the result philosophically, and said he would again contest the majority next year. Mr. Urquhart in his address from the Telegram attributed his success to the iron of the electorate at the suggestion in Mr. Godderham's campaign of trying to buy the honor of a large sum of money. He said he would again contest the majority next year. Mr. Godderham's supporters were disappointed, but they were not discouraged. They were confident that they would be able to carry the city next year.

The new British Life office's mortality table, adopted by the Sovereign Life Assurance Company in the calculations, is a new departure in Canadian life insurance. This table was selected because it represents the actual experience of all the principal British life offices ending with the year 1898, while the older and more generally used tables of mortality represent the experience of a smaller number of companies ending with the year 1888.

GENERAL STOESSEL, HEROIC DEFENDER OF PORT ARTHUR SURRENDERS TO JAPANESE AFTER SEIGE OF NEARLY A YEAR

THE FALLEN FORTRESS.

COULD HOLD OUT NO LONGER WITH JAPS CLOSING ROUND

Most Remarkable Siege of Modern History Ends With Capitulation of the Fortress.

Port Arthur has surrendered. Exhausted by months of almost constant fighting, decimated by disease, and casualties had hopelessly sealed in its rocky fortress, the gallant garrison has yielded to its gallant besiegers and the end is now written of the most dramatic war incident of modern times.

The siege and the defence of Russia's stronghold in the far east have been marked by bravery, gallantry and desperation unequalled in modern warfare.

London's One Topic of Discussion Was the Capitulation of the Fortress.

London, Jan. 2.—The capitulation of Port Arthur was the sensation of London to-day. It was the one topic of discussion, from the street corners, where groups were sheltered from the driving snow, to the comfortable service clubs, the legations and the residences of the aristocracy.
