ARMED FORCES SENT TO LONDON DOCK AREA

Government Pledges Support To Crown Forces To Keep Peace; Early End of Strike Forecast

Prediction Comes From Labor Quarters That General Crisis Might Be Brought To End Next Week

BALDWIN, THOMAS CONFER, REPORT Both Government and Trades Congress Hold Firm Officially; Both Claim Matters Going Well; Traffic Paralysis Gradually Being Overcome; Labor Leaders Warn Against Violence

LONDON, May 7.—(4 p.m.)—Troops wearing steel helmets and carrying full field equipment were sent this afternoon into the dock districts of London, where the rough crowds are becoming too unruly for the unarmed police.

The government announced by radio today that all ranks of the armed forces of the crown will receive the government's full support in any action they may find necessary to make in honest efforts to aid the civil powers in dealing with strike disorders.

Unofficial peace-makers are steadily working for a solution, and the pressure of the churches and other bodies, as well as prominent individuals, is being brought to bear to end the trouble.

An international aspect was given to the strike when the executive committee of the Danish trades unions at Copenhagen gave preliminary notice of a walkout in support of the British workers.

The Communist International in Moscow seeks to bring together representatives of French, Belgian, Czechoslovakia, Dutch and German labor organizations to frame measures of aiding the British strikers.

Canadian organized labor will be asked by headquarters to contribute towards the strike expense if the strike lasts another week but the American Federation of Labor and the National Labor Relations Board in Washington decline to comment on the British appeal for funds.

Money is being sent to the British workers by Mexican and Argentine labor bodies.

It is understood that Premier Baldwin and J. H. Thomas, one of the labor leaders, were closeted at a late hour last night, but what took place is unknown, although it is assumed they were discussing the crisis.

BOTH STAND PAT. Officially, both the Trades Union Congress and the Government are standing pat, both claim things are going well in their respective camps.

M'DONALD SAYS STRIKE IS ONLY LABOR DISPUTE

Denies It Is Aimed Against Government or Constitution PARTIES' RIGHTS Former Premier Declares No One Group Can Claim Sole Support

By J. RAMSAY MACDONALD. Written exclusively for the United Press. Copyright, 1926, by United Press.

LONDON, May 7.—No one party can claim the right to be the sole supporter of parliamentary institutions and representative government, I have striven for this objective throughout my life and shall continue to do so. I have said this twice in the House of Commons during the past two days.

SAYS DISPUTE INDUSTRIAL. The strike, however, is in no way aimed against the government or the constitution and that has been repeated again and again by men in control of it.

It is purely an industrial dispute. It is hoped the people in foreign countries will not be misled and that the constitutions, traditions of my country will not be damaged by government propaganda.

Archbishop of Paris To Attend Congress. PARIS, May 7.—Cardinal Dabois, Archbishop of Paris, will participate in the annual congress of the League of Nations in Geneva.

TRACADIE LEPERS TO BE TRANSFERRED. Inmates of 100-Year Old Institution to Be Moved to Grosse Ile.

QUEBEC, Que., May 7.—A despatch from Ottawa says that, following an agreement between the Department of Health and the Department of Marine and Fisheries, the leper colony that is located at Tracadie, N. B. will soon be closed and the small colony, consisting of 12 people at present, will be transferred to the province of Quebec, where it will be located at Grosse Ile.

POTATO PRICE DOWN TO $5 A BARREL. Speculation in Main Markets Causes Quotation to Slump; Stiffening Expected.

FREDERICTON, May 7.—There is little movement to the local potato market at present, but a gradual improvement is expected. In York and Sunbury counties some centres have been cleared of potatoes but others still have quantities to ship.

Boy Playing With Matches Starts Fire. Special to The Times-Star. FREDERICTON, May 7.—A boy playing with matches in the kitchen of the residence of B. Budovitch, 273 King street, started a fire this morning which was caught in time to prevent serious damage.

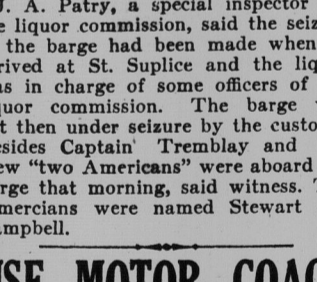

Prominent In British Labor Trouble

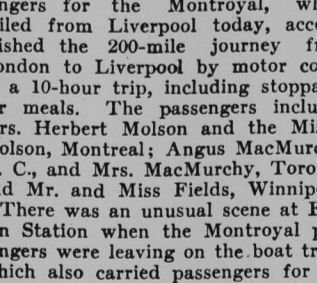

John Bromley, leader of the Locomotive Engineers' Union, in a characteristic pose. He said, in a speech just before the general strike, that the engineers were proud to be the shock troops chosen to take first place in the battle.

HERBERT SMITH, Leader of the Yorkshire miners, included among the million strikers, whose strike was the immediate cause of the general walk out.

BEN TILLETT, General Secretary of the Dockers' Union, and one of the leaders in Britain's great industrial struggle.

J. S. WHEATLEY, Formerly Minister of Health in Ramsay MacDonald's Cabinet, one of the extremists in the general strike.

Incidents of The Big Strike

LONDON.—All the regulations of the emergency act were confirmed without division in the House of Commons last night. All the Labor members had previously left the House. Labor amendments were rejected by overwhelming majorities. Strong language was used by some of the Laborites. For instance, David Kirkwood objected to these immense powers being given to "this disgraceful, rotten government."

LONDON.—After two days undigested traveling the self-esteem of Londoners perceptibly rose today on account of the unwonted politeness with which they were greeted at the underground stations. The volunteer booking clerks said, "Thank you, sir" for the fares, the porters opened the doors and did not slam them afterwards, and the familiar calls of "Pass right down the car" were temporarily stifled.

LONDON.—Motor buses with barred wire entanglements on their hoods have appeared in the streets as an answer to the young hoodlums who have been stopping buses, uncovering the engines and smashing them with sledge-hammers and stones.

Workers in Barnley Breweries have gone on strike. Pickets are interfering with the beer vans. London's social season this year this undoubtedly lost all official character, and the first two courts have already been cancelled.

WILL ADJOURN THAT ARGUMENT MAY BE PREPARED

Maritime Rates Case Before Utilities Board CRIPPEN HEARD Information Relative To Moncton Tramways Company Is Given

THE cross-examination of C. T. Crippen was continued this morning by Dr. F. R. Taylor, K. C. before the New Brunswick Public Utilities Commission in the Moncton application for a reduction in the rates for electric current charged by the Moncton Tramways Co. Information relative to the equipment of the power station, distribution system and bookkeeping systems of the company was brought out.

Dr. H. A. Powell, K. C., one of the counsel for the company, asked adjournment until a transcript of the evidence had been secured by counsel before argument was proceeded with.

Dr. Taylor, K. C. for the City of Moncton, said they would prefer to proceed with the argument at once but would abide by the decision of the board. The chairman said that an adjournment would be granted to prepare argument.

REPORT SUBMITTED. The annual report of the company for 1916 to 1924, inclusive, were placed in evidence by Dr. Taylor who proceeded to question Mr. Crippen in connection with them.

In 1916 the report showed the following values: Gas department, $902, 287.92; electricity, $64,899.37; tramways, $87,698.20; general investment, $1,167,286.64; total investment, $1,222, 381.16.

In 1924 these amounts had increased as follows: Gas, $377,266.48; electricity, $184,001.43; tramways, $135, 484.48; general, $1,167,236.34; total, $1,863,988.73.

In 1924 the report showed gas, $379, 266.37; electricity, $401,851.33; tramways, $135,558.40; total investment, $1, 863,988.73, an expenditure of $249, 780.52 written off plant investment. In 1925 the total investment was given as $1,686,730.82.

SUGGESTS EXPLANATION. The witness said the only way he could explain the big jump in the electricity department from $184,001.43 in 1923 to $401,851.33 in 1924 was that some items had been taken out of the general investment and charged to this account.

In 1924 the report gave the amount of reserve at the beginning of the year as $419,246.82 with $37,972 set aside that year for depreciation reserve and at the end of the year the amount was $226,681.29, an expenditure of $249, 780.52 written off plant investment. In 1925 the total investment was given as $1,686,730.82.

EQUIPMENT VALUE. As to equipment Mr. Crippen placed the value of the power house equipment at $87,500; 321 transformers, set up, he valued at $32,328.43; 2,960 poles, $28,223; 6,180 cross arms, $4,829; pole line hardware, $6,983; 80,000 pounds of wire, $16,200; pole steps, $408; 4,608 meters, $31,276.

At 1 o'clock adjournment was made until 2.30. SEE PAGE 11.

First Break In Labor Ranks Likely To Come Among Paper Employes

By HERBERT BAILEY. British United Press. LONDON, May 7.—The first break in the great strike seems likely to come among newspaper workers in London, who are obviously restless over the fact that newspapers in many parts of the country are getting out their editions without much trouble. There is prospect that action of this sort will likely end the state of news siege shortly.

Today's British Gazette consists of four full pages of news, and it is an excellent production. The Times also comes out with four full pages, while other papers, like Express, the Daily Mail and the Telegraph, issued only single sheets, giving a brief report of the essential news.

The British Worker, the official strike organ of the Trade Union Congress, is also an excellent production today. Its articles are moderate in tone but naturally emphasize the success of the strike. It has, apparently, however, reached the height of its sale, because many strikers in the streets can be seen reading the Paris edition of the London Daily Mail, carried over by aeroplane, and also the British Gazette. Newsboys handling the British Worker complain of poor sales.

HOPES STILL TO HAVE SEA CADETS IN SAINT JOHN

President Armstrong, at Navy League Annual,
Speaks of Effort
YEAR OF BRANCH IN
N. B. IS TOLD OF Harbor Traffic Expansion and Fundy Power Project Referred To

The question of the attendance of the president of the N. B. division of the Navy League at the Dominion meeting next month was discussed at the annual meeting of the N. B. division held this afternoon in the Seaman's Institute. The president, R. E. Armstrong, presided.

In his annual address, Mr. Armstrong referred to his visit to England last year and his attendance at the Grand Council of the Navy League at Westminster. He also attended the annual meeting of the Navy League in Halifax. A comprehensive summary of the matters taken up was given. The president told of a meeting held by the executive of the N. B. Navy League at which the establishing of a Sea Cadet corps here was taken up. A canvas for funds for uniforms brought a few contributions, but many complaints about demands by numerous other organizations and no action was decided on. The matter, however, was still in the mind of the executive and he hoped ultimately a corps would be formed.

SEAMEN'S INSTITUTE
Relative to the Seamen's Institute, Mr. Armstrong referred to the tragedy of the new year's day. He said that the new manager, T. J. Miller, was a man of excellent character and had aroused a good feeling in many respects. "It is to be regretted," said President Armstrong, "that bootlegging in and about the city has had a bad effect upon certain seamen. The manager of the Seamen's Institute is very vigilant in this respect."

FUNDY POWER SCHEME
Mr. Armstrong said he had given attention to the Passamaquoddy power scheme from a navy as well as local and national standpoint, and communications had been forwarded to the Premier of Canada and Canada's representative on the International Waterways Commission, to the Minister of the Interior, to the president of the Maritime Biological Board of Canada, and to certain publications. The matter would be investigated by the International Waterways Commission.

SAINT JOHN HARBOR
The president expressed satisfaction on expansion of the shipping traffic at the port of Saint John during the last winter and year, figures of which have already been published.

The report stated that three widows had been receiving Navy League allowances. There was also reference to expansion in the Maritimes, and it was hoped that this would lead to enlargement of the Navy League in these provinces. Mr. Armstrong thanked the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Seaman's Mission Society, the members of the L. O. D. E. affiliated with the League, and

For the Christmas celebration last year $100 was received from 1,000 D. E. chapters outside the city, and many bags and books. He had aided in helping to raise funds for the pension board of the Dominion Councils. Mr. Allan gave an account of his trip to Dominion headquarters in April, and said that in Ontario and some other parts of the Dominion the league had an active year. He also told of the part taken by the league in the celebration of St. George's day and the anniversary of Zeebrugge. Pensions were paid in this division during the last year to three widows, two receiving $300 each and the third $200. The amount raised by annual subscription was $82, received from 35 regular and 12 associate subscribers. The balance, after expenses, was $48.38. The secretary said the local division of the naval reserve, under the command of Lieut. Cross, had a successful year.

Hard work on the part of the fire fighters saved the barn belonging to the building, but the house was razed and the smoldering debris had fallen into the cellar at 4 o'clock this morning.

RIOTS IN EDINBURGH.
EDINBURGH, May 7.—Hooligan elements caused a turmoil in the old section of Edinburgh last night. The police made repeated baton charges but order was not restored until the mounted forces were called out. Two arrests were made. Many windows in private houses and business premises were smashed during the trouble, which it is said, was due to rowdies taking advantage of the situation and not strikers. A crowd of about 200 men were seen running today, and there was increased railway service.

THE BOURGEOIS BAROMETER.

At a time of national emergency one expects to receive the truth diluted and not being on the spot to supplement report with observation, imagination necessarily comes into play.

It is extraordinary to what an extent under these circumstances deductions reached by individuals vary. Jack Sprag gets a grant of satisfaction and assumes that all is well because rain has not yet killed; his wife groans heavily and dilates on the terrific spectacle of a few drops of ferrous blood let in a tracheal charge.

Of course neither is right. A balanced nation of fat and lean is the correct one for most systems when such is obtainable. There is one point to remember: the news we get will be of acts to a great extent. We may read a list of places where rioting has taken place, but we may be quite sure and should bear in mind that there will be no list of places where no disturbance has occurred.

The strike is terrible, paralyzing. Whatever the outcome, it spells ruin to many. It all seems such a futile pity and on all hands there has been a desire to know whose fault it really is. Are the miners so grossly underpaid as Labor manifestos would have us believe? Are the men British who should have been engaged, and should bear in mind that there will be no list of places where no disturbance has occurred.

The Very Idea!

By Nell Johnson
VERIFIED HASH.
WHEN people ask a question, 'course an answer should come back. For instance, in a riddle, you can find a good wise crack. But someone, in a song one time, with this one came to me: "Has Anyone Seen Kelly?" No one ever answered that.

WE MIGHT get along without airships. We might do away with balloons. Perhaps we could do without autos, but golly, just think, if our tunes, of ragged music and waltzes were taken away, goodness knows, 'twould make us all lazy, and near give us crazy. We can't get along without those.

OFTEN take a chicken pie when eating with the bunch. I'm satisfied with ham and eggs when I go out to lunch. I've eaten heaps of kidney stew, and lots of other trash, but when I want them, all in one, the waiter brings me hash.

A great many people save up to buy themselves a farm—and then do something else with the money.
 When people ask you to sing, **
 don't be coaxed—go ahead and sing. **
 do it. It'll be their own fault. **

Many folk go abroad to study music—and their neighbors are glad of it.
How water gets in melon is a rather puzzling thing. Until you study it, you think that it is planted in the spring.

A story writer—'a freak of nature just because a tale comes out of his head.
The speaker was using a flock of high-falutin' words and the crowd simply didn't get him—until he left the platform.

THE HARBOR.
Judging from the report brought from Ottawa by Commissioners Frink, the citizens of Saint John have distinct and substantial reason for feeling encouraged over the prospects for early and steady expansion of the harbor facilities, not in the Courtenay Bay papers, know only what we are told, and that is by no means full, and the Government appears to be calm and determined, but that is habitual with British governments when things are serious—'is only when British wit and the Cabinet issues glowing accounts of losses—and a Conservative has won a by-election.

Perhaps the most reliable anecdote in the British middle class. The British bourgeoisie is the backbone of the nation. The masses may be the hands and feet, the nobility and gentry may supply the national brain—fed by the large—but the middle class, the trader, engineer and small manufacturer, clerk, the professional man, form not only a steadily increasing summer traffic as well.

When we refer to "the next few years," we are speaking of the completion of the principal projects in mind. What is expected, of course, is that the supplementary estimates will contain appropriations sufficient not only to prove the Government's good faith, but to commit it irrevocably to pushing forward the Courtenay Bay terminals with all reasonable speed, which in due time will involve the extension of the breakwater to Partridge Island.

That extension will give the needed protection to certain of the West Side berths, and it is evidently recognized at Ottawa that these berths are insufficient in number and in the amount of their modern freight handling equipment to permit of the expeditious handling of the great traffic carried to that part of the harbor by the C. P. R. and allied shipping interests.

LUCKY
THE curious passer-by paused and addressed the lone fisherman sitting at ease on the shady bank.
"Any luck?" he asked.
The fisherman looked up and smiled.

"Insult To Injury"

Son (to father, completely knocked-up, after a day at home spring cleaning with his wife): "Hello, Dad! Haven't you been at work today?"
—From London Opinion.

For me the jasmine buds unfold
And silver daisies star the tea,
The crocus boards the sunset gold,
And the wild rose breathes for me.
I feel the sap through the thorn
returning,
I share the skylark's transport fine,
I know the fountain's wayward
yearning;
I love, and the world is mine!
I love, and thoughts that sometime grieved,
Still well-remembered, grieve not me;
From all that darkened and deceived
Upstart my spirit free.
For soft the hours repeat one story,
Sings the sea one strain divine,
My clouds arise all flushed with glory;
I love, and the world is mine!

POEMS I LOVE

"The World Is Mine," By Florence Earle Coates
I did not know this beautiful love poem until I heard it sung. Here again, as in the case of "The Rosary," a musical setting has caused a lyric to become better known. But no wonder these lines were chosen by a composer; for they literally sing themselves.
Mrs. Coates is a Philadelphian, and has many exquisite poems to her credit. Time was when she was a frequent contributor to the more literary of our Journals. She will always be spoken of in any appraisal of the poets of this time.

THE BEST OF ADVICE

WORKERS
AMONG the workers of the world, then, Ruskin opines, there should be no worldly distinction. "But there are class distinctions," he says, among the industrious themselves. And these distinctions are mainly four: There are those who work and those who produce the means of life and those who consume them; those who work with the head and those who work with the hands; and those who work wisely and those who work foolishly.
In reference to those who play, many of the games, Ruskin avers, are costly—hunting and dressing, playing at literature and art and playing at war. "And they are all paid for in deadly work somewhere, as some of us know too well!"

AS TO the second distinction—producing and consuming, Ruskin states that "the first necessity of social life is the law—the law that he who has justly earned... But there is a false distinction; namely, the one held by those who already possess it, and only use it to gain more." This greed for money makes men unjust and oppressive. The great unending principle is this, says Ruskin: "Whenever work is done with either man or nation, it is both got ill and spent ill."
There must be work done with the brain, and the same man cannot do both. "There is rough work done and rough men must do it; there is gentle work to be done, and gentle men must do it."
As to his last distinction, Ruskin applies this test to the work that is wise and that which is foolish: Wise work is "honest, it is useful and it is cheerful!"

TO PASS unnoticed. One baleful day he detected his small page in the act of kissing one of the pretty maids and then, when accused of the crime, of adding thereto falsehood, for he denied having touched the girl.
"Wretched boy!" exclaimed the bishop. "Who is it that sees and hears all we do, and before whom even I am as a crushed worm?"
"My Lord," replied the page, "it is the missus."

POLICEMAN: You've lost five parrots and three hat boxes? Anything else, ma'am?
LADY: Yes—yes—my husband was with me at the time!—London Passing Show.

DISARMAMENT OF MINDS
(J. L. Garvin, in the London Monthly)
A cold compass must be applied everywhere to the fevered brains of exaggerated nationalists. If disarmament is to be tackled in earnest at a late remove, if that cause fails all league ideals must fall, though Nations of the Great Lakes are the lowest that are in danger as before. If practical disarmament is to succeed, we must first pursue steadily the disarmament of minds.

LAKE LEVELS
(Detroit News)
Lake survey engineers have reported that the levels of the Great Lakes are the lowest that have been recorded upon their charts. Lake Michigan and Huron, of practically the same level, have fallen 4.85 feet since 1918. This is 10 inches lower than a year ago and below the extreme mark set in 1911. In several instances marshes have dried up, bathing beaches have been destroyed, dock and boat anchorages left high and dry and the shutting landowners left to doubt as to the old meandered line. In the Saginaw Bay district squatters are not uncommon on this newly formed land and so far the state has shown an unwillingness to molest them.

PAN-AMERICANISM
(Boston Transcript)
If and when still lingers among us that, although the United States and the Latin-American countries form a chain of contiguous sister republics, although their historic political ideals have woven together their historic relations for over a century, not to speak of the mighty influence of the Monroe doctrine, nevertheless a psychic barrier must exist between the northern continent's people in those of the southern continents of this hemisphere on account of strong racial divergences, the time to banish that idea is at hand. Americans are already awake to the necessity for and the profit in the encouragement of vastly increased commerce between this country and Latin America, and the promotion of complete international brotherhood within this hemisphere should not lag behind that of mere trade.

Cheer Up
(From "The Fragrant Minute for Every Day" by Wilhelmina Stitch)
If you wake to find life gloomy; if you're saddened at the start; if you feel a curious sinking, without reason, in your heart; if you're sure that something dreadful will overtake you in the day—oh, toss your head and laugh the mood away!
If you feel a bit discouraged; if your work goes quite awry, and the world seems all "agin" you, though you try and try and try. If you're filled with queer forebodings; if you're cold, and sad, and grey—oh, toss your head, and grin your teeth, and laugh the mood away!
If you come a nasty cropper, as we all do, time again, and your plans are smashed to pieces and your luck seems on the wane, and you feel a deep resentment against the day that you were born—oh, toss your head, and grin your teeth, and laugh the mood to scorn!

WHY, TO BE SURE
"I WANT to buy a cake of soap," said Mrs. O'Brien to her grocer.
"What kind?"
"I don't remember the name," replied Mrs. O'Brien, "but it's the kind the advertisements speak of so highly."—American Legion Weekly.

SYDNEY LANDMARK RAZED BY FLAMES

LYNK HOUSE BUILT IN 1797 IS DESTROYED

Building Constructed in Part of Material From Louisburg

SYDNEY, N. S., May 6.—One of Cape Breton's most interesting relics of the early days of Canada's history was destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon when the Lynk House, situated on the edge of the city, went up in flames while the occupants were in town attending the celebration in honor of John C. Miles, Sydney Mines runner, who won the Boston Marathon race a fortnight ago.

The old house dated back to the time when Cape Breton was a separate province. It was finished in 1797. The fireplace, foundations and chimneys were constructed of material brought from the fortress at Louisburg, much of it being brought out to Canada by French prisoners.

For years the house was the residence of Richard Gibson, Chief Justice of the province of Cape Breton. Chief Justice and Mrs. Gibson were on a voyage to England during the war of 1812. Mrs. Gibson was released but her husband died in a French prison.

The house has been occupied by Donald Lynk, who was the owner. Yesterday afternoon the fire broke out while practically the whole neighborhood was in town for the celebration and when discovered, the structure and contents, valued at $4,000, were doomed.

"PARDON MILL" FOR CONVICTS CHARGED

Uncovered at Chicago and Consists of Engineering Company

CHICAGO, Ill., May 6.—A "pardon mill" has been uncovered in Chicago, Attorney-General Oscar Carston declared today after an all-night investigation of a company of which Major M. A. Messlein, former head of a refuge home for convicts, is the president.

State's Attorney Crowe asserted that Will Colvin, chairman of the state board of pardons and paroles, holds $2,000 stock in the company, the Attorney-General said, which is capitalized at $2,500,000 and which, he added, Messlein said, had physical assets not to exceed $4,000. Messlein was head of a refuge home maintained by volunteer subscriptions and had 8,000 convicts paroled to him, State Attorney Crowe declared.

"There's no question that the engineering company is a pardon mill for convicts," the Attorney-General asserted. "It is not beyond the realm of possibility that the special crime grand jury will be asked to investigate."

Messlein declared that he had had been that of reclaiming criminals and that he never profited thereby.

TRY MAGNESIA FOR STOMACH TROUBLE

To Neutralize Acidity and Fermentation. Prevents Indigestion, Sour Gassy Stomach

People who suffer from indigestion usually have tried peppin, charcoal, drugs and various digestive aids and know these things will not cure their trouble—in some cases do not even give relief.

But before giving up to chronic dyspepsia, just try the effect of a little Elixated Magnesia—not the ordinary commercial carbonate, effervescent or milk but pure Elixated Magnesia which you can obtain from practically any drug store in either powder or tablet form.

Take a teaspoonful of the powder or compressed tablets with a little water after your next meal, and see what difference this makes. It will instantly neutralize the harmful acid in the stomach which now causes your food to ferment and sour, making gas, wind, flatulence, heartburn or the bloated or heavy, lumpy feeling that seems to follow most everything you eat. You can enjoy your meals without a moment's indigestion.

The R. M. S. S. steamer Tervid shifted from Pettigill wharf to the Atlantic refinery yesterday morning to discharge a large consignment of raw sugar brought from the West Indies.

Shampoo Powders Bad For The Hair

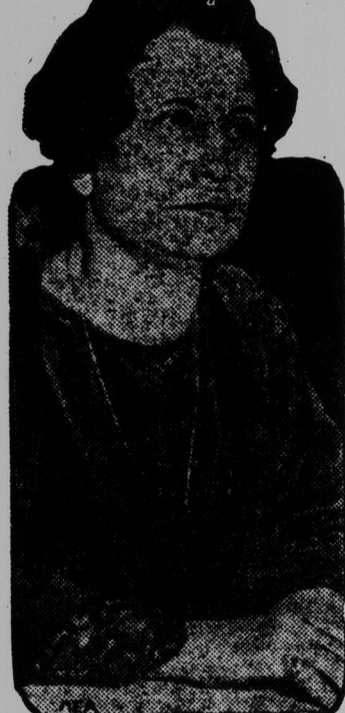

Most shampoo powders, and prepared shampoos, contain too much free alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is Multisilf. It is a pure and greasy-free and is better than anything else you can use.

Two or three teaspoonfuls of Multisilf will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dirt, dandruff and excess oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy, and easy to manage.

You can get Multisilf coconut oil shampoo at any drug store—it is inexpensive, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months. Be sure your drug store gives you Multisilf. Beware of imitations—look for the name Watkins on the package.

MAYOR WILL MARK BRITISH HEIR'S VISIT

Montreal Chief Magistrate to Erect Tablets Where Prince Stood

MONTREAL, May 6.—Two commemorative bronze tablets will be placed in the summer residence of Mayor Modeste Martin of Montreal, to mark the place where the Prince of Wales stood when he visited the mayor at Laval des Rapides, during his visit to Montreal in 1919.

One is about two feet square, and will be placed at the front entrance of the house; the other about 18 inches square, will be laid in the dining room where His Royal Highness stood to receive the guests on the occasion of the reception here on September 2, 1919.

The tablets will bear the Royal Coat and plumes, with the inscription: "Ich Dien" and the following words: "Ici Daigra, Le 2 Septembre, 1919, S'arrêta le prince de Galles, 'Son Altesse Royale, 'Le Prince de Galles." "Here, on September 2, 1919, His Royal Highness, the Prince of Wales designed to remain for a few moments."

LIVERPOOL ENJOYS PEACEFUL STRIKE

70 Pct. of Trams Running; Dock and Power Men Offer to Work

LIVERPOOL, May 6.—The general strike as far as this port is concerned is described by police as the most peaceful in the history of the city. Seventy per cent of the trams are running and normal service was expected soon. About 200 automobiles are meeting every Mersey steamer to transport business people to and from their homes free of charge.

The dock workers at the southern end of Liverpool have offered to return to work unconditionally and the power men have asked to be taken by an action of the municipal council it is decided that seamen who stopped work before the strike ballot was taken will not get unemployment pay.

Lorry service to London and Glasgow and other big cities is in operation. Two more destroyers have arrived in the Mersey.

CAPT. L. D. WESTON DIES AT ROCKVILLE

Was 83 and Noted as Seaman; Commanded Many Sailing Ships

YARMOUTH, May 6.—Capt. L. Dow Weston, one of Yarmouth county's iron men in the old days of its great wooden shipping fleet died at Rockville in this county, today.

He had only a day or so ago passed his 83rd birthday, but despite that fact, was very active in preparing his garden, and it was while making arrangements for another man to complete that work that Capt. Weston was stricken. He was a son born at Rockville where he always made his home. At the age of 12 years he started a seafaring career, and in his early twenties he assumed the command of the ship Francis Hildyard, owned by the Yarmouth firm of Liddell and Company, and Capt. Weston remained in that employ for many years, sailing the ships "Amie," "Blaney," "Joseph Millary, Narval" and then for a trip or so, their ship "Naupactus." After that he returned to the Narval, and after sailing her for a short time he took the ship across the Atlantic and sold it to the Norwegians. Following that Capt. Weston held the large four-masted bark Eudora, owned by the DeWolfe of Liverpool, England, while his last command was the 2,780-ton four-masted bark Lyderborn, also owned in England. He was always recognized as one of the most skillful navigators that ever walked the quarter deck, and as a master was intrepid. As such Capt. Weston held a remarkable record, and has to his credit many fast voyages, one of which was made in the Eudora, which was the fastest vessel to fly the British flag. In this ship he made the passage from Newcastle-on-Tyne to San Francisco, Chili, in the remarkable time of 60 days, a feat that has never been equalled.

Capt. Weston is survived by his widow and four daughters, Mrs. George L. Foulis, Cambridge, Mass.; Mrs. James H. Foulis, Worcester, Mass.; Mrs. Harry Butler, Newton, Mass.; and Mrs. Ernest Churchill, also in Marlboro, Mass.

SPALATO TO YIELD MEMORIAL STONE

Quarries Used For Roman Palaces Will Be Utilized For Vimy Monument

OTTAWA, May 6.—Stone from Spalato such as was used in the building of palaces for Roman emperors, and particularly that of Diocletian who ruled 284 to 305 A.D., will be utilized in the construction of the Canadian war memorial of Vimy Ridge.

Spalato is on the Adriatic coast of Jugoslavia, and permission has been obtained from the government of Jugoslavia to work the blackwell quarry which has been re-discovered in recent years.

Colonel H. C. Osborne of the War Graves Commission, when asked about this stone, stated that it had been recommended by the highest authorities. It is a beautiful stone of fine texture and amber color. The Roman remains of this stone are in the preservation, he said. Colonel Osborne explained it has taken two years to find a desirable stone with the qualities necessary for such work as utilized by Walter Allward, the Canadian sculptor.

PEOPLE FIGHTING RADICAL LEADERS

TORONTO, May 6.—The British general strike was seen as a light between the British people on one hand and a few radical leaders of labor on the other by William E. Grey, managing director of one of England's largest liability insurance companies, in an interview while he was in the city today.

"The thing has got far away from a mere miners' strike," he said. "It has developed now into an issue whether or not a few members of the radical labor party are going to be able to control the country. I do not believe they can win. If the government are not able to win, will be in much the same position as Soviet Russia."

Comedy Well Given In St. David's Hall

Last night St. David's church hall rounded to the hearty laughter of an audience appreciative of the local bit, comical costumes and amusing dialogue, when the Tuxis and Trail Rangers appeared in the tuxedo two-act comedy "The Old District School." It was hard to pick from the cast of 20 those that excelled but special mention should be made of the work of the teacher, Gordon Lipsett, as Professor Ezekiel Simpson, and Norman Brittain, as Deacon Fidd. Lydia Pinkham, Peruna Jones and Patience Puffinoot were very faithful and Samantha Small, a ravishing beauty in the female impersonations. The play will be repeated tonight.

How to Treat Women in Business and Three Pointers Toward Success—Advice to Parents of an 18-Year-Old Daughter—Will German and Italian Descendants be Happily Married in America?

DEAR MISS DIX—How should an employer treat his stenographer and female employees? What suggestions would you make to a young man who is just going into the business world? J. S.

DOROTHY DIX

ANSWER:

Every employer should treat the girls who work for him as he would wish some other man to treat his daughters if they were thrown out into the world to earn their own bread and butter. And to the everlasting honor of American business men, they usually do observe this golden rule.

There are a few lecherous old brutes who take advantage of a girl's necessity to earn her living, and to support those dependent upon her to their loathsome careers. There are also a few philanthropists who are dastardly enough to play upon a girl's sympathy by telling her how unhappily married they are, and who for the mere excitement of a passing flirtation will win her heart, only to break it.

But these cases are few and far between, and in the great majority of business houses a girl is just as safe as she is in her own home, and her employer's relationship with her is just as impersonal as it is with any male employe.

When a girl goes into business she should leave sex behind her. She is deliberately coming in competition with men, and she has no right to ask for any favors because she is a woman, or expect to be treated differently from the way a man is treated. Her employer should treat her fairly, and give her fair pay or good work. He should treat her with courtesy and consideration in a business office, not a drawing room, and she has no right to object to his smoking, or expect him to sharpen her pencils or pick up her notebooks, and she is an idiot if she bursts into tears every time a hard-worked, over-taxed, worried man is irritable or finds fault with her work.

But it is no part of a stenographer's duty to listen to her employer's domestic troubles, nor to sympathize with him because his wife doesn't really understand him. Neither is it proper for him to take her out to dinners and the theatre and joy-riding when his wife is out of town.

To the boy who is just starting to work, I would make three suggestions: The first is to try to find out what he wants to do in the world.

To study himself, and decide what it is he likes best to do, the thing for which he has an aptitude, the thing that he enjoys doing. For it is only in doing the work that we enjoy doing for its own sake that we ever make any real success.

Then, having decided upon what he wants to do, to learn how to do it well, go to some school where he can be taught to do his work scientifically.

This is the day of experts. There is no place in it for bunglers. It doesn't make a particle of difference what line of work a boy takes up. He will be successful in it if he does superlatively good work, and be a failure if he does poor work.

My final suggestion is not to be afraid of doing more work than he is paid for.

It is the little extra work, the hour or two overtime; the finishing up of a job before you quit, that is the margin between success and failure. The man who gives it arises at the top of the ladder. The man who throws down his tools on the strike of the clock stays put at the bottom.

Work. Good work. Hard work. Intelligent work. Working with some definite goal in view. Giving to an employer the kind of work that you would like some one to give you. In that is all the law and the prophets about how to succeed.

DOROTHY DIX

DEAR MISS DIX—My husband and I are terribly worried about our 18-year-old daughter. Until about six months ago she was all sweetness and appreciation, but now she is cross and irritable, and disrespectful to us. I have been tempted more than once to give her a good old-fashioned spanking, but have never done so. What would you advise? AN ANXIOUS MOTHER.

ANSWER:

You can't spank a girl of 18, no matter how much she needs it. If you tried it, the probable result would be to make her run off and marry some good-for-nothing boy.

So you will have to find other means of dealing with her, and the first thing that I would suggest is to take her to a good doctor, and have a thorough physical examination made. If a girl who has a naturally sweet and amiable disposition suddenly goes cross and irritable, the chances are that it is the result of some nervous disorder, and the sooner you find out what the trouble is, the better it will be.

Then, if you can possibly afford it, send her away to a girl's camp this summer. The outdoor air, the exercise, the order and routine, and above all, the camp spirit, these wonderful things, and I regard girl camps as among the most valuable regenerative agencies, bodily and spiritually, in the world.

When a girl gets discontented and peevish at home, she needs a change. She needs to get away from home and from her family, and to have to shift for herself.

Among strangers, she will have to control herself. She will have to give as well as take. She will have to be polite and courteous, and she will find out that nobody will put up with her waywardness or overlook her lapses in good manners. It will do her a world of good, and she will come home appreciating home comforts and mother love as she never did before.

Without doubt, the adolescent girl is hard to deal with. She is in a transition state between womanhood and childhood, when she has all the faults of both and the virtues of neither. She is upset in mind and body, and it takes the patience of Job and the wisdom of Solomon to deal with her.

Just try to realize that 18 isn't to be taken too seriously. Don't worry over your daughter's little faults. Be as kind as you can, and in a little while she will outgrow her disagreeable traits. We have all been through the time when we knew more than our parents and resented their every word of advice.

DOROTHY DIX

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—I am a young man in love with a young girl. We are both American born, but our parents are natives of Europe, my family coming from Italy, hers from Germany. I have not yet asked this girl to marry me, because being reared by parents of different nationalities, we are accustomed to different things, especially in matters concerning diet. Do you think if we marry we would be happy? V. A. L.

ANSWER:

It is claimed, America is the melting pot of different peoples. I should think that the descendants of a German and an Italian might blend harmoniously, and be able to adapt themselves to each other.

Of course, congeniality is the great thing in marriage, and who doubt, a man and woman who are reared in the same environment and who are used to the same way in doing things, have a better chance of happiness than those who are brought up with different ideas. But love is a great leveler, and if you and the girl care enough for each other you might compromise on your national differences and with your national dishes.

And if you can't blend sauerkraut and spaghetti, or garlic and caraway seeds, why not, since you are Americans, adopt the American cuisine? Baked beans and oodish and apple pie are not without merit.

ROUTINE BUSINESS

Only routine matters were dealt with at the meeting of the directors of the Home for Incubated held yesterday afternoon at the Home with W. R. Turnbull, the president in the chair. It was reported that Miss Belle Howe had been appointed to the nursing staff of the Home. Miss Howe was formerly social service nurse at the General Public Hospital where her services were maintained by the Woman's Board of Aid.

THE WAITRESS

Fashion Fancies

By Marie Belmont

Many of the newer daytime frocks of the season do away with extra trimming and achieve smart decoration by the use of vivid color combinations.

The two-tone crepe sports frock above is a smart example of this. The upper part is of soft cream tone, while the skirt, collar and sleeve insets are of crepe in the new shade of dull red.

The little hat, which fits the head closely, is of soft felt in matching cream tint.

MELROSE COUPLE IN ANNIVERSARY FETE

SACKVILLE, May 6.—Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Helms, of Melrose, recently celebrated their thirteenth wedding anniversary, when a large number of friends gathered at their home to extend congratulations. A pleasant social time was spent in dancing and cards. The host and hostess were the recipient of a goodly number of gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Helms have the best wishes of their friends for many more years of happy wedded life.

BEHIND THE SCREEN

WHEN the early days of the films are discussed someone brings "The Birth of a Nation" into the conversation. Griffith's masterpiece is still remembered where hundreds of other pretentious efforts have been forgotten.

Yet how many of you readers can recall the names of those who appeared in the picture?

Names didn't mean much to screen audiences then and most of the actors were newcomers in the field.

At the outset of the industry producers didn't believe in disclosing the names of their stars. The following is quoted from an advertisement in the dramatic Mirror, July 2, 1916:

"There is a difference of opinion between manufacturers as to the policy of publishing the names of players in the pictures. The Biograph company holds that no good can come of it and the names of their players are strictly withheld. Other companies are commencing to pursue a different policy, although to a very limited extent."

Quite different from these days when press returns run rampant, isn't it?

"To return to "The Birth of a Nation," let's recall the names of some of the players and see what has become of them.

Henry B. Walthall, who will always be remembered as the Little Colonel, is now doing character parts.

Mae Marsh, younger sister of the Little Colonel, whose death led to the formation of the Ku Klux Klan, is still a favorite.

Spotswood Aitken, now a character actor was Dr. Cameron, the father.

Ralph Lewis, recently starred in "The Third Alarm," was the crippled politician, Stoneman.

Lillian Gish, now at the top of the ladder, was his daughter.

Mary Alden, now identified with "nursery," when a large number of friends gathered at their home to extend congratulations. A pleasant social time was spent in dancing and cards. The host and hostess were the recipient of a goodly number of gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Helms have the best wishes of their friends for many more years of happy wedded life.

Mary Brian, the petit Red Cross nurse of "Behind the Front," para-medicine's war comedy, has a part in a story of the Foreign Legion, "Beau Geste." Herbert Brenon special, starring Victor McLaglen. Demands for Mary's services are steadily increasing because of the manner in which she combines old-fashioned shyness with modern personness.

"mother" roles was the mulatto housekeeper.

The mulatto protegee of the politician was George Seligman, present day heavy.

Three members of the cast are now directors, Elmer Clifton, Joseph Henneberry and Donald Crisp.

One well known comedian has appeared at 546 benefits in less than a year and, quite seriously, he told me he wouldn't think of turning one down.

Nothing is more terrifying to the actor than that day when his star wanes and age drives him from popularity and, hence, from the big salary lists.

Beauty Of Hair and Skin Preserved By Cuticura Ointment to Head

IN NEW YORK SEE SAWING UP and DOWN BROADWAY

FRIDAY—SEE-SAWING ...

THE world's highest apartment may have the advantage of quiet and seclusion, but the occupants will have to be very careful about keeping the windows closed.

Located 87 stories above the street in the unfinished new Ritz dome, an ordinary breeze at street level becomes a 60-mile gale and might blow the apartment inside out. However, when the entry heat is parching the poor souls many floors below, the cloud-dwellers will be assured a cool breeze.

Such advantages to say nothing of the exceptional view—will make this dwelling place quite as high in rental as in altitude. The yearly cost would seem a small fortune to an average man.

You who may read this from your car on the mountain side, with its unbroken view of lordly peaks and green-fringed valleys, or from your prairie-bordered cottage where distance loiters to the skyline—will you want your brows in perplexity?

NO PROFESSION contains more superstitions than that of acting.

The number of "jinxes" feared by some of the most celebrated Broadwayites could not be outlined in ten times this space. If a show fails, invariably some "jinx" at rehearsals will be recalled. Does a certain actor suddenly go into decline some other "jinx" will be remembered.

Although she has been on the stage since grandpa was a sheik, Fay Templeton never goes on at any opening night performance without a little piece of paper and concealed where it can be readily reached. The superstition is that if these lines were not close at hand they might be forgotten.

Were prominent Broadway stars to appear at one-half the "benefits" where their services are requested, they would be working night and day.

Yes, there is a superstition among some that if a "charity" performance is sprung the actor will one day be in need of a helping hand.

One well known comedian has appeared at 546 benefits in less than a year and, quite seriously, he told me he wouldn't think of turning one down.

Nothing is more terrifying to the actor than that day when his star wanes and age drives him from popularity and, hence, from the big salary lists.

ADVENTURES of the TWINS

THE NICE OLD AUNTIE

After Mister Tingaling and the Twins got Mrs. Brown Bear's rent money, they went down the hill and across the meadow to the buttonball tree on the edge of the woods.

Colonel 'Possum had rented quite a large, beautiful apartment in the buttonball tree, and they were going to collect his rent.

So they went "tingaling-aling" at his doorbell. And a little sharp-nosed lady in a white lace cap answered the door.

"How do you do, Madam," said the fairytale landlord, tipping his ice-cream saucer hat and making a grand bow.

"I'm pretty well," said the little old lady. "All except for my rheumatism, and a cold in my pipes, and a tooth-ache. Just come in."

"Is Colonel 'Possum at home?" asked Mister Tingaling when they all stepped inside.

"No, sir! He isn't!" said the lady. "Can I do anything for you? I'm his old aunt from the country."

"You don't say so!" said Mister Tingaling in surprise. "Why, I never knew he had an old aunt. I never knew that Colonel 'Possum had any relations at all. He comes up here every summer, from the south, and I thought he lived all alone."

"Oh, did you?" said the lady. "Well, here I am. Is there anything I can do for you?"

"I suppose there isn't, Madam," said Mister Tingaling. "Unless you can give me his rent money. It was there and I just forgot. I'll get it at once for you."

"Your aunt has gone to get the rent money," said Mister Tingaling. "She's been gone a good while. I told her where you kept it!"

"What? My aunt? Why, I have no aunt!" cried the Colonel.

They all rushed out to the dining room, and there on the floor lay a little pile of clothes—lace cap and all.

On the empty pudding dish lay a note. It said:

"Dear folks: Thanks! Sorry I had to leave.

"Your loving Auntie,
"Snitcher Sticker, the Goblin."
The money was gone!

Mrs. G. S. MacDonald Greeted As New President of Women's Canadian Club at Meeting

Succeeds to Office Recently Vacated by Mrs. Allan Fitz-Randolph—Quarterly Reports Are Read—Mrs. D. V. White Gives Impressions of Triennial Convention

MRS. G. S. MACDONALD was welcomed as the new president of the Women's Canadian Club at the quarterly business meeting held last evening in the Church of England in St. John, when Mrs. Douglas V. White gave an excellent address on her impressions of the recent triennial convention of the National Council of Education and Citizenship held in Montreal. The address was greatly appreciated.

Mrs. MacDonald had been elected president of the club by the executive. Mrs. Allan Fitz-Randolph's resignation from that office having been regretfully accepted. Mrs. MacDonald presided last evening.

CORRESPONDENCE READ

Correspondence included the thanks of Commissioner J. H. Frink for flowers sent in his recent bereavement and Mrs. Fitz-Randolph's letter, tendering her resignation.

Miss A. Thayer, treasurer, reported a membership of 421 and a balance of $80.15 in the treasury. Three new members were elected.

A resolution of deep sympathy was extended to the relatives of the late Miss Agnes Warner, who was the first honorary life member of the club.

Mrs. MacDonald spoke of the coming of the Prince of Wales' tour and urged the club members to attend the showing of the film.

Delightful vocal solos were given by Miss Valerie Steeves and Miss Bernice Mooney and at the close of the meeting refreshments were served, the members of the executive being the hostesses.

MRS. RAYMOND HEARD

Mrs. W. Edmond Raymond, as a former president, paid a warm tribute to Mrs. MacDonald as a former recording secretary, and expressed pleasure in her election as head of the club.

Mrs. Raymond, as the club's representative in the League of Nations Society, gave a brief report. She said the total contributions of Canada to the League of Nations since its organization amounted to $921,859 and four treaties between Canada and the United States had been implemented by the league.

She gave a short review of the Locarno Pact episode and told of the progress made by the Saint-John branch of the League of Nations Society.

MRS. WHITE SPEAKS

Mrs. D. V. White in giving her impressions of the recent convention of the National Council of Education mentioned the reception given by the president, E. W. Beatty, at the formal opening and told of the feeling of unity which she had found herself in the presence of the great heroes of the day who attended the conference.

The first speaker, Sir John Adams, stressed the importance of language in education, urging the learning of at least two languages but pointing out the folly of the Irish attempting to impose Erse as the language for general instruction.

The French of Quebec, he said, was dialect and neither modern or classical.

Social Notes of Interest on "music as discipline" and had led to the special convention of music which concluded the meeting of the National Council of Education.

Mrs. White spoke of the necessity of a Canadian bureau of education such as the National Council of Education hopes to establish but as yet has been unable to do so. In closing, she read an extract showing how widely at variance were the conceived ideals concerning the aim of education and said the actual aims embraced all of these ideals.

The hearty vote of thanks tendered to Mrs. White was moved by Miss Thompson and seconded by Mrs. Murray.

Very pleasing incidents of the meeting were the presentation of a beautiful bouquet of roses to Mrs. D. V. White and the presentation of a lovely bunch of tulips to Mrs. G. S. MacDonald, both presentations being made by Miss Grace W. Leavitt.

Suing Spouse, Wife Tells of Sharing Headgear With Daughter

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., May 7.—Mrs. George H. Bassilliere has informed the Domestic Relations Court here that her husband, a carpenter, was so miserably providing for the support of his family that both she and her daughter were obliged to wear the same hat. It appeared that she would not have minded the fact that this kept one of them in the house while the other went out, but that her husband not only draws a good salary in his trade, but also was sporting around in an auto while his wife and daughter were facing the acute hat shortage problem. The court ordered Bassilliere to provide a stated weekly allowance for his family hereafter.

Woman Badly Hurt While Chasing Cats

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., May 7.—Mrs. Robert A. Dean of 208 White street was so annoyed by a cat fight on the sidewalk in front of her home one night recently that she stepped out on her second story piazza to shoot them away. As she waved and shouted at them, she leaned over the railing. This gave way beneath her and she plunged to the cement walk, 15 feet below, landing on her head. She was taken to Wesley Memorial Hospital, where it was said that she is in serious condition. The cats, according to the neighbors, were frightened away from in front of her house by Sir H. Allen, the eminent English musician, had been

Public Houses in London May Close

LONDON, May 6.—The licensed victuallers of London are considering the advisability of closing their public houses by their own consent.

So far there has been no drunkenness. In fact the general rumor has caused the public houses in Central London and the West End to be practically deserted in the evenings.

Reports of disorders, however, whether well founded or not, have created a good deal of uneasiness among the licensees who fear serious results if the bad element, inflamed by liquor, should descend upon city's commercial quarters.

The greater number of the disorders reported certainly appears to have proceeded from a merely irresponsible element of the population.

SEAMEN'S CALLS AT INSTITUTE NUMBER 25,000

Manager T. Fred Miller Reports Winter Season of Activity

IMPROVEMENTS IN BUILDING MADE

Finances Detailed by Mr. Evans at Annual Meeting Today

The report of T. Fred Miller, manager of the Saint John Seamen's Institute, presented at the annual meeting of the board of management this afternoon, showed the Institute to have had a busy season. The report showed that 25,000 seamen had made use of the Institute; letter written numbered 2,800; visits made to ships, 60; services held, seven; money exchanged, $3,000; money deposited, $800; magazines, 3,400; free beds, 715; free meals, 303; ships' concerts, seven.

YEAR REVIEWED.

Several ships' concert parties visited the Institute during the year and entertained the sailors. At these concerts the Ladies' Auxiliary served refreshments to the seamen. Social activities were cancelled during January owing to the accident which occurred at the Institute early on New Year's morning.

Musical entertainments were provided by parties from the Montrose, Melita, Metamas and Montclair. Moving picture shows had to be cancelled, as a price was now charged for films formerly given free for charitable purposes.

The hospital work was efficiently carried on by Mrs. Finnamore and Mrs. Watt. The men in hospitals were provided with fruit, smokes and writing materials.

The Christmas treat for the sailors was fairly well patronized. In place of the regular Christmas bag, the Ladies' Guild distributed refreshments, smokes and Testaments to the seamen.

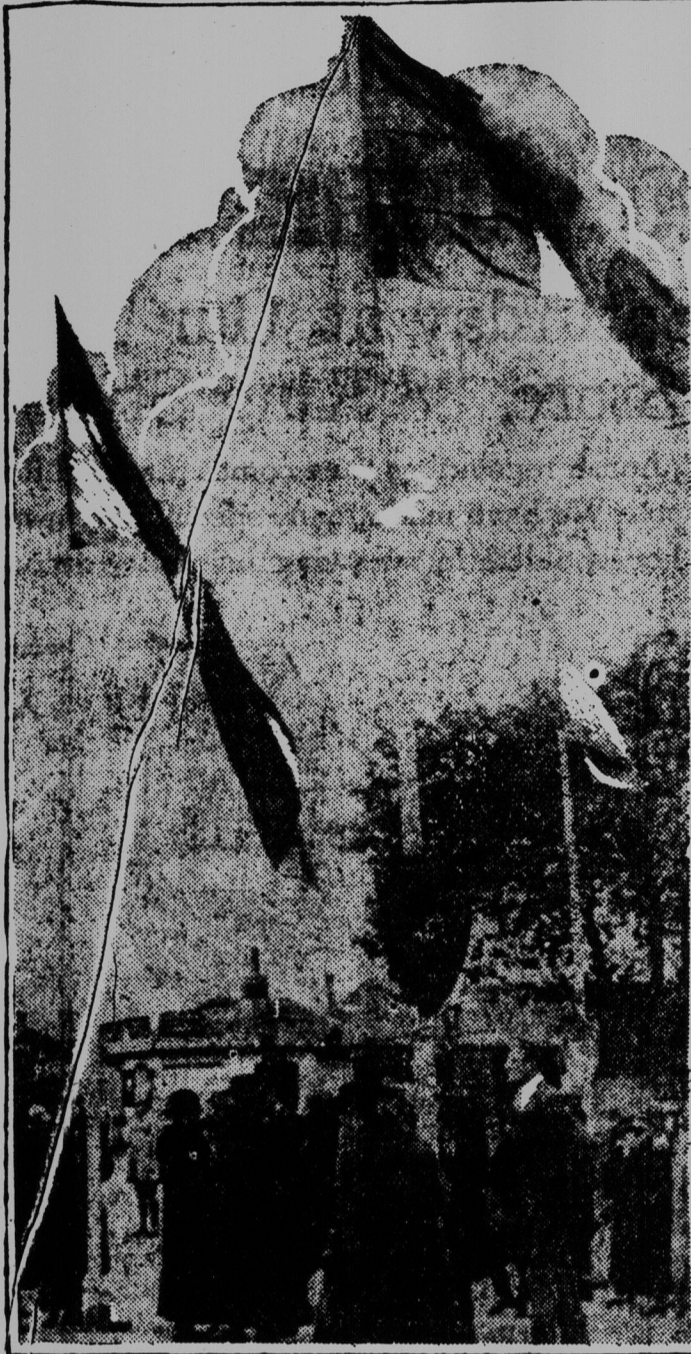

The appearance and convenience of the concert hall had been improved by the erection of a new platform, the installation of footlights and the construction of stage settings. Telephone connections were made between the office and canteen.

The financial statement, submitted by Hammond J. Evans, was as follows:

UNFURLING SOVIET BANNER

Two thousand citizens of St. John's-Avon bitterly opposed the plan of Reds to raise the Soviet flag along with those of 61 other nations, given at the anniversary of Shakespeare's birthday. But the club in charge of the celebration in honor of the great writer, acting as a non-partisan organization, refused to halt the Soviet delegation. Photo shows the flag being raised (at left) alongside another.

LEMIEUX RULING SUSTAINED IN HOUSE BY MAJORITY OF 8

Conservatives Vote Solidly Against Bourassa is Paired

SPEAKER CONTENDS CASE UP TO COURTS

All Independents Save One and Progressives Back Liberals

OTTAWA, May 6.—The House today declined to receive the petition of J. A. Collins, asking that he be entitled to sit as member for Peace River in the House of Commons. Decision came on a vote of 115 to 107, or a majority of eight, sustaining a ruling by Speaker Lemieux. Speaker Lemieux based his ruling on the ground that parliament had under the controverted elections act delegated its powers to the courts.

Hon. R. B. Bennett, who had presented the Collins petition, immediately appealed against the ruling. "I would appeal from your ruling," he said, "that future generations may realize the value of this petition."

CONSERVATIVES AGAINST

On the vote, the Speaker's decision was supported by all Liberals, Progressives and Independents present with the exception of Mr. Bourassa. All Conservatives were against. Mr. Bourassa was paired with Alfred Speakman, Progressive, of Red Deer, and did not vote. Had he voted, Mr.

Arthur Meighen in the House of Commons this afternoon in answer to persistent questions on the subject. Mr. Robb hinted that representations sufficiently strong were made in committee stage that some slight modifications might be accepted. But no important changes were under contemplation.

TEACHERS WILL TAKE COURSES AT NEW SCHOOL

Four Weeks in Home Economics and Commercial Subjects

CLASSES ARE TO BE STARTED ON JULY 12

Vocational School Likely Taken Over From Contractors This Month

Four weeks institutes for teachers of home economics and of commercial subjects will be held in Saint John in the new vocational school in Douglas avenue in the summer time, commencing on July 12. These classes will be conducted under the provincial vocational department.

The course for training teachers of commercial subjects was held in 1921 and in 1922 but has not been held since that time. Its special purpose this year will be to train instructors to teach the various subjects of the vocational schools of the province.

TAKEN OVER THIS MONTH

The Saint John Vocational school has not yet been taken over from the contractors although the formal transfer will probably be made before the coming season.

Protest Strikes

A fortnight ago, with the general strike in progress, 20,000 women marched from the Embankment to Royal Albert Hall as a demonstration against strikes and lockouts.

This picture shows Mrs. Lionel Gibbs, a well known London housewife, who acted as one of the marshals of the parade.

At the end of this month. All of the work that remains to be done on the school is electrical work and painting.

CO-OPERATION OF TEACHERS

Mr. Peacock pointed out that the principals and teachers were those best able to guide the pupils in making this selection and he stressed the fact that the success of the school must depend upon the co-operation of the teachers, the pupils and the parents as well as the school itself.

LISTS OF EQUIPMENT

One of the next matters, which the vocational committee will deal with, is the lists of equipment required for the home economics department in the school and for the general class room.

Mr. Peacock said it was probable that the committee would meet early next week to decide upon what equipment would be purchased.

Banquet Given by Ladies' Association In Connection With Meeting

Harry Ballantyne, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A. in Canada, was the special speaker at the annual meeting of the local association held last night as a supper gathering and he pointed out what things must be overcome if the branch was to make the real progress that meant branching out into larger and newer lines of development.

The attendance at the banquet was the largest in the history of the association, fully four times as many men being present as on former annual gatherings and the total attendance being about 100 in excess of the attendance at the previous annual meeting.

MR. BALLANTYNE HEARD

Mr. Ballantyne pointed out that there were some things which must be recognized and overcome if the Y. M. C. A. movement was to make progress. He mentioned four of these stumbling blocks—ignorance as to the fundamental purposes of the association; superficiality in substituting physical and social activities for the four-fold development as the real objective; exclusiveness or a consideration that the "Y" was intended for the well-to-do only and not for all classes; and lastly, materialism, or a belief that the success of the Y. M. C. A. depended on business methods and finance when it should depend upon spiritual things.

The clubs so represented were the Y's Men's Club, Other Y's Men's Club, track team, orchestra, Senior Leaders' Corps and Hi-Y Club. W. R. Pearce, president, was in the chair, and the opening prayer was offered by Rev. A. L. Tedford, president of the local Ministerial Association.

An interesting report of the recent International Religious Education convention held in Birmingham was given last night at the annual meeting of the local Children's Work Board by Mrs. L. W. Simms. The meeting was held in St. Luke's church rooms with Miss Bessie Holder, president, in the chair and the spiritual devotional period was led by Rev. Canon R. P. McKim.

ST. ANDREWS, May 6.—Archdeacon Crowfoot gave a much enjoyed and instructive lecture in the Parish Hall on Monday evening under the auspices of the Women's Canadian Club. Babbitt extended a hearty vote of thanks to Archdeacon Crowfoot for the evening's entertainment, seconded by T. J. Cowghey.

He Was in a Hurry to Paint His Floors

He sure was in a hurry. Here it was Friday evening, and he had to paint the kitchen and bathroom floors before week-end company came.

He usually waited for paint and varnish to dry—waiting between coats usually willed his enthusiasm to finish the job.

One excuse and another had put it off—his wife couldn't spare the kitchen, or the children couldn't be kept off the floors, his inclination wasn't always in that direction, or some one of a hundred inconveniences always proved a good alibi.

At last, necessity had brought him to a showdown.

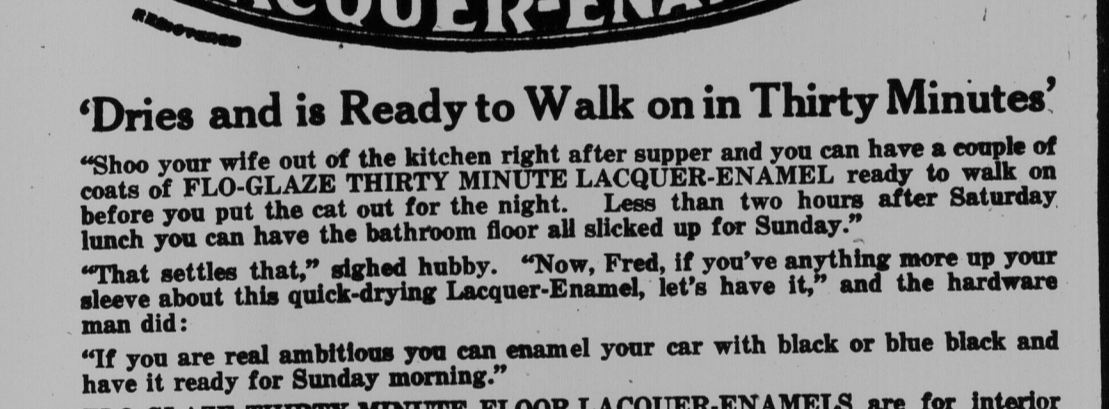

His wife vowed she certainly couldn't do her Saturday baking hopping around on boards in the kitchen—as for the bathroom, it was a disgrace—"But—they had to be painted."

Home sweet home's atmosphere was frigid, but thoughts within each other's minds were sulphurous.

He had to crawl out of it somehow.

He grabbed the telephone and told his troubles to Fred Hasit, the local hardware and paint dealer.

"Now, forget all that," was Fred's assurance. "I'll send you up some

NORGE REACHES POLAR FLIGHT STARTING BASE

Crosses Arctic To Spitzbergen in Fourteen Hours

Two Thousand Mile Jump Over North Pole Set For Summer

NEW YORK, May 7—The big dirigible Norge has arrived at its base in Kings Bay, Spitzbergen, whence it will start during the summer in an attempt to fly across the North Pole to Point Barrow, the northernmost point in Alaska.

The airship sailed out of Vadsø, Norway, yesterday afternoon, and covered the 700 miles across the Arctic Ocean to Spitzbergen in about 14 hours, according to a despatch to the New York Times and the St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

During Thursday evening several despatches were received by wireless from the Norge as she purred her way northward toward the region where daylight will be perpetual until the fall.

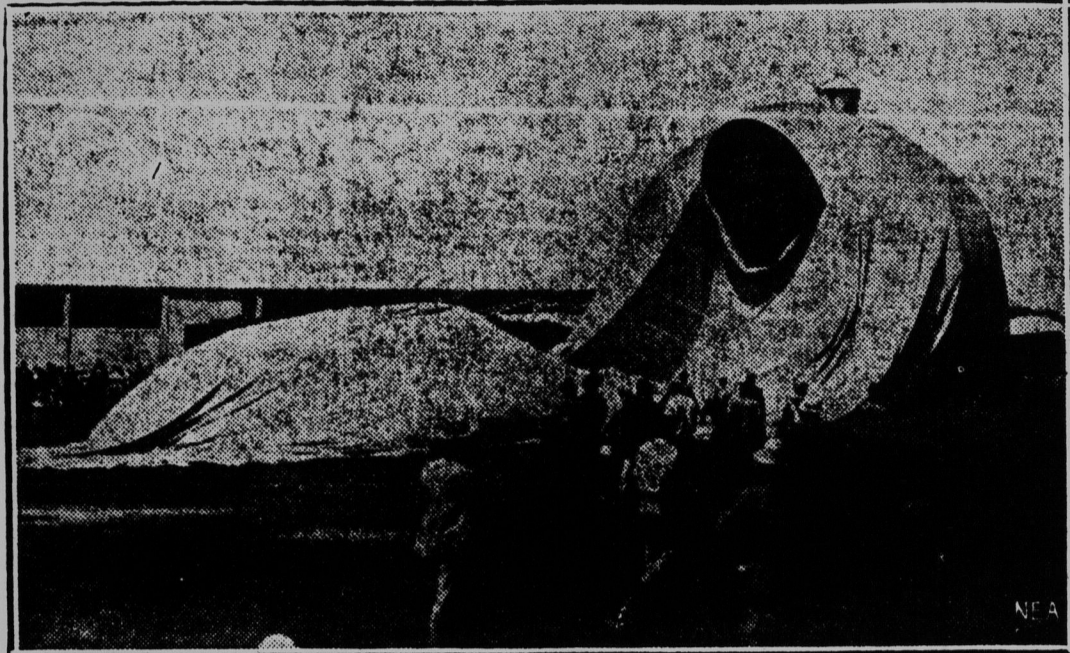

The first of these despatches told how the aircraft had left North Cape, Norway, 180 kilometres astern, and was flying at an altitude of 400 metres in a light southeasterly breeze, with the temperature minus one Centigrade (30.2 Fahrenheit).

The despatch correctly estimated the time of the journey from Vadsø to Kings Bay at from 18 to 20 hours. On the flight from Tromsø to Vadsø, a similar distance, the Norge required 19 hours for the trip.

At 6 p. m. eastern daylight saving time, another communication from the dirigible said she had crossed the drifting ice south of Bear Island, which lies midway between the northern Norwegian coast and Spitzbergen, and passed through a patchy fog stretching to the northward. All on board the airship were reported well.

On her arrival at Vadsø from Tromsø, early Thursday morning, the Norge anchored to the mooring mast there, and remained until Thursday afternoon, when Commander Nobile un-and Lincoln Ellsworth, co-directors of the expedition, on board. The aircraft will shape her course across the pole and thence to Point Barrow, the northernmost point in Alaska, over uncharted areas. From Kings Bay the distance is 750 miles to the pole, and thence over that unknown portion of the top of the world to Point Barrow is 1,250 miles.

If the Norge should successfully negotiate the passage to Point Barrow, she later will sail southward and pay visits to Nome, Alaska and Seattle, Washington.

It was a cold trip for the crew of the hydrogen-buoyed aircraft, and all of them and even Commander Nobile's terrier felt it, the dog nestling close to the fun-clad steersman. The drinking water in the aluminum container froze during the flight.

Having arrived at King's Bay, preparations doubtless will be begun immediately to put the Norge in perfect condition for the most strenuous test it has undergone since it left its builders' hands in Italy, April 8, and flew to Pulham, England, and then to Oslo, Norway, to Tromsø, in Russia, and to Vadsø and Spitzbergen.

This test will be a flight of two thousand miles, with Raold Amundsen

Mussolini's Plans to Observe Seventh Centenary Approved By Pope

ROME, May 7—Premier Mussolini's plan to use the observance this year of the seventh centenary of the death of St. Francis of Assisi as an opportunity to add St. Francis to the list of Italy's national heroes indirectly is approved by Pope Pius in an encyclical letter.

The Pope outlines the work of St. Francis and eulogizes his virtues. "There is no prohibition against saluting St. Francis as the great Italian light of the fatherland, the great universal friend of all men," the letter says.

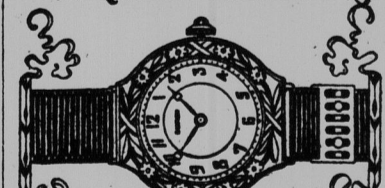

"Happy about the fervent observance of the anniversary of the Holy Father, hopes it will lead above all to a serious return of Christian society on the roads of piety and sanctity."

There is shortage for Labrador bale. There was a discouragingly small response to the appeal for warm garments for the Grenfell Medical Mission in Labrador yesterday. The annual collection of garments was held yesterday in the garage of Mrs. J. E. Robertson, Peel street, and Mrs. H. de V. Partridge and Mrs. George Bliss were in charge but very few garments were brought in. The bale to be sent to Labrador will be packed in June and Mrs. Robertson has kindly consented to have received at her residence any garments that may still be sent in for the bale.

It is the earnest hope of the local members of the Grenfell Labrador Mission that the supply of garments to be forwarded this year will not fall short of that sent previously as reliance is being placed upon usual supply being received.

AUSTRALIA GREET ROTARY AT PARLEY

Work of Order in Antipodes Termed Splendid by Earl of Stradbroke

Canadian Press Despatch. SYDNEY, N. S. W., May 6.—The first Rotary convention to be held in Australia was recently opened at Melbourne by A. A. C. Holtz. With him on the platform were Mr. Hill, past International President; Mr. McConnell, representing Great Britain and Ireland, the retiring governor of Victoria, the Earl of Stradbroke, and the Prime Minister, Mr. Bruce.

"Splendid work has been done here by Rotarians," said the Earl of Stradbroke, in welcoming the delegates. "They practice what they preach."

Mr. Bruce referred to the national aspect of Rotary. He suggested that the next conference should be held at the Federal Capital, which, he said, expressed the national ideal. Rotary was indicative of the greatest need of the world, national knowledge, understanding and respect.

"We are as yet but a small nation, but we give place to no one in our desire to promote better understanding and goodwill toward all peoples," said Mr. Bruce. He also appealed to the business men present to do all in their power to bring about a greater spirit of co-operation between employer and employee. "Service above self" was the appropriate motto of Rotary, he said.

FOR BAND UNIFORMS

Excellent Concert is Given at St. Mary's in Aid of Fund

A highly successful concert was held last night in St. Mary's Sunday school room in aid of the fund for the new uniforms for St. Mary's Band. An excellent program was very nicely rendered and the hall was filled to capacity with a most appreciative audience. The band is having its new uniforms tailored and expects to appear in them next month. During the intermission last night a sale of candy was conducted by the young ladies of St. Mary's church under the convener'ship of Miss Gladys McCurdy and added considerably to the proceeds of the evening's entertainment.

Rev. R. Taylor McKim, in his few introductory remarks, thanked the people for their interest in the band and support of its enterprises. The program included a number of selections by the band and the following numbers: Chalk talk by F. McCullough; reading, Miss Dorothy Lane; trapeze act, R. Evans; comic songs, Edward King; vocal solos, Mrs. H. G. Flewelling; vocal solo, William Davis; sword dance, Fred Hayter. The accompanists were Miss H. Parlee and Frank O'Hara.

AMUNDSEN AIRSHIP SAILS. OSLO, May 6—The Amundsen-Ellsworth dirigible Norge, which arrived at Vadsø, North Norway at 4:30 o'clock this morning, started on the last lap of its trip to Spitzbergen at 2:56 this afternoon.

HOT HEADS BLAMED IN GENERAL TIE-UP

NEW YORK, May 6—The British general strike was caused by "the influence of a few hot heads," in the opinion of Sir Alan Hutchings, a director of several collieries in the Wakefield area of Yorkshire, who arrived on the Olympic yesterday. The strike broke out after he had called and he said he would return with the ship Friday. He believed the strike would not last long as the men "are too sensible."

He said that British miners are getting paid as well as Americans on a production basis and where the coal is rich are making as much, "if you take into account the lower living cost there."

UTILITIES BOARD HEARS EVIDENCE IN RAILWAY CITY CASE

Application is For Reduction in Rate For Electric Current

RESERVE MORE THAN CAPITAL DISCLOSED

Judge Wherry, of New York Bar, Appears For Company

The case of the City of Moncton vs. the Moncton Tramways, Ltd., in which the city is asking that the Board of Public Utilities make an order for a reduction in the rates charged in Moncton for electric current, began Tuesday in Moncton, was resumed here yesterday afternoon, evidence being given by C. T. Crippen, of Stevens & Wood, Inc., who was on the stand at the time of adjournment in Moncton Wednesday afternoon.

J. M. Treman, chairman of the board, presided and Messrs. T. C. Burpee and F. X. LeBlanc, members of the board, and S. H. Mildram, expert of the board, were present. The city of Moncton was represented by Dr. F. R. Taylor, K. C.; A. A. Allen, city solicitor; Gordon Krebs, consulting engineer, and M. A. Hutton, accountant. The company was represented by Judge W. M. Wherry, of the New York bar; Dr. H. A. Powell, K. C.; C. T. Crippen and E. A. Cummings, local manager of the company.

Under direct examination by Judge Wherry, Mr. Crippen said the production cost of current was the 2 1/2 cents a kilowatt hour paid the Hydro Commission plus the operating charges of the station and the expenses of the tramway system under the agreement with the city of Moncton. The kilowatt hour charge in 1925, on that basis, was 2.93 cents a k.w.h.; in 1924 it was 2.94 cents a k.w.h. and in 1923 it was 8.9 cents a k.w.h. The reduction in the unit charge was due to the increase in business and the increase of revenue not expected at the same ratio in the future.

The losses on the tramway system, which might be expected to increase each year, were due to the cost of operating exceeding the revenue. Some of the causes for the small revenue were the bus competition and the low rate of fare and one of the heavy items of expenditure was for snow removal. It would be of no use, he said, to raise the fares unless the bus competition were eliminated.

He placed the present value of the electrical department at $422,731. In 1923 the net return of the company was $20,928.44. The light and power division earned $26,745.98, but the tramway made a loss of $6,719.54. In 1924 the gross earnings were $40,938.14. From this was deducted $6,233.48 depreciation and $9,170.27 loss on the tramway, leaving a net of $25,534.39. In 1925 the light and power earned a profit of $23,936.06 and from this there had to be deducted $6,487.18 depreciation, and $10,675.05 loss on the tramway, leaving a net of $6,484.01. On the basis of book valuation $33,840 would have been a fair return to the company in 1925.

CITY PLANT STILL IN USE

Under cross-examination by Dr. Taylor, the witness said that he did not know whether the pole line in Church street had been built in the last three years or not. He had arrived at his valuation of the plant partly from a personal inspection and partly from the books and surveys which he had made by employees of the company. He had been informed that part of the equipment that was transferred by the city of Moncton in 1911 to the company was still in the power house and in use. This included one boiler, three engine sets, piping and wiring and parts of the switchboard. The boiler, he believed, could not be used on the line but the engine sets were still operating units.

$233,786.52 DEPRECIATION
Mr. Crippen said he had no knowledge of an agreement having been made with the city to sell the plant for $165,000. With reference to an item of $233,786.52 in the 1925 report of the company charged to depreciation, the witness said he did not know what this amount meant but it was evidently at the end of the year adjustment of some kind and he believed related to the gas department.

YORK MINSTER, 1300, WILL CELEBRATE

Fund to Be Raised For Mission in Honor of Paulinus

Canadian Press Despatch.
LONDON, May 6.—York Minster has just entered upon its thirteenth anniversary, and preparations are now being made for an elaborate celebration of the cathedral's 1,300th anniversary in 1927.
An appeal for funds is to be made, and one-third of the money raised is to be devoted to the missionary work of the Church overseas as a thank-offering for the mission of Paulinus, the Roman missionary bishop who built the first church on the site of the Minster. A portion of the money is also to be devoted to the restoration of the ancient parish church at Goodmanham, a village on the East York-shire Wolds, near which Paulinus converted to Christianity the Northumbrian King Edwin. The desecration of a pagan temple at Goodmanham immediately after the royal conversion was the first blow struck for Christianity in the province of York.

During the long history of 13 centuries the cathedral at York has been repeatedly destroyed and rebuilt, and it has been the Metropolitan Church of 89 archbishops. The first archbishop was Paulinus, who baptized King Edwin in the Christian faith in a wooden church on this site on Easter Day, 627.
Next year's celebration will see the Minster restored to something of its medieval glory of color. Rapid progress is now being made with the cleaning and restoration of the stained glass in the windows—the great work inaugurated by the present Dean of Westminster, Very Rev. Dr. Forley Norris, and something like $50,000 of the $50,000 required for this work has been raised. From many of the finest windows the grime and rust of centuries have now been removed.

It is proposed to arrange pageants illustrating important epochs in the history of the Minster, and if a suggestion by Sir Henry Hadow is adopted there must also be given an epitome of church music that has been played there through the centuries. Sir Henry Hadow is vice-chancellor of Sheffield University, a member of the Council of the Royal College of Music, editor of the Oxford History of Music and a member of the Welch Musical Council.

The steamer Antonia with 132 cabin and 579 third class passengers is due at Moncton on Sunday from Southampton and Cherbourg.

WOODSWORTH HIT OVER WAR ATTITUDE

International Law Cited by Australian Paper in Issue

SYDNEY, N. S. W., May 6.—The Sydney Evening News editorially states: "Mr. Woodsworth, a Labor member for Wingham, who raised the question that Canada should not become involved in Empire wars, without deciding the questions at issue for himself, overlooked the fact that by international law when the Empire is at war every part of it becomes automatically involved. The extent to which any dominion participates is not a matter of compulsion but of popular will. If Great Britain embarked upon a manifestly unjust war the response of the dominions would be feebler than if the issue were one which had a higher moral value and the dominions might be honestly mistaken, but the great point is that in the ultimate analysis, the basis of the empire is the assent of its peoples founded on their belief in its beneficence and its necessity as a custodian of world peace."

Women Avoid Operations

THROUGH neglect of early symptoms some female weakness may reach a stage where an operation is necessary, but most of the common ailments of women, when taken in time, are not surgical ones, and should yield to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
When such warning symptoms appear as pains in side or back, headaches, backache, fainting spells, nervous depression and irregularities, they indicate that something is wrong, and unless the cause is remedied, serious organic trouble may develop. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound should be taken as soon as such symptoms appear. It not only relieves the present suffering, but lessens the chance of future trouble. Accurately prepared from medicinal roots and herbs, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound works gently but persistently to restore and preserve a normal condition of health. Read the following letters from two grateful women.

Covington, Ga.—"I cannot express in words how thankful I feel for the results that I have obtained from taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I feel that it has saved me from an operation. I had pains in my right side and bearing-down pains at monthly periods. My side hurt me all the time, and I was very nervous and felt tired and weak. I read about the Vegetable Compound in a paper, and the woman's condition was the same as mine. I have taken five bottles and it has been worth twice its price to me. My side hardly ever hurts me now and I feel a different person altogether."

COUNTRY POLITICAL PARTY IN AUSTRALIA URGED TO ACTION

Commonwealth Treasurer Points Out Backward Rural Growth

SYDNEY, N. S. W., May 6.—In the course of a conference opened in Melbourne to create a Federal organization of the Country Political Party, the Federal Treasurer, Dr. Earle Page, who by the way was a visitor to Canada early last year, gave some startling figures.

Dr. Page said that the time had come carefully to define the real aim and mission of the country political movement, to examine methods of organization and to determine whether they could be improved. Between the census of 1911 and 1921, while the metropolitan population increased by 445,000, the population of the provincial towns only increased 171,000, and the rural population by only 161,000, stated Dr. Page. In New South Wales at the beginning of federation, there were 337 fewer factories in the city of Sydney than in the rest of the New South Wales. Today there were 1,838 more factories in Sydney than in the rest of New South Wales.

Since federation, the primary producers had increased by 12 1/2 per cent, while the industrial, transport and communication classes had increased by 19 per cent. That is the primary producers had not kept pace in the general increase of population, while the others almost doubled. As the present position had been brought about by political action, added to economic causes, Dr. Page asserted, it stood to reason that the best way to alter it was also by political action. They should get together, said Dr. Page, and frame a policy of practical decentralization, which could bring new industries to the country towns, and nearer markets for the products.

BACKING CROWLEY IN SALE PROTEST

Say He Was Justified in Opposing Transfer to Dollar $4,500,000

NEW YORK, May 6.—The action of the Shipping Board in accepting the Stanley Dollar's offer of $4,500,000 for the five Admiral Oriental liners recently, despite the recommendation of Captain Elmer E. Crowley, head of the Fleet Corporation, that the bid be rejected, as this is the first time that the two government shipping bureaus have disagreed on an important issue since Captain Crowley assumed charge of his department.

Friends of Captain Crowley were quick to rally to his defense and it was pointed out that as custodian of government property Captain Crowley was justified in his efforts to obtain the maximum price possible for the five ships which were sold over his protests. One well-known shipping man said that "Crowley's stand was justifiable inasmuch as he had rejected Mr. Dollar's previous bid of $3,000,000 for the five ships. He was upheld by the board on this occasion. The wisdom of the action is seen in the price accepted when Mr. Dollar paid $4,500,000 more for the ships than he had offered previously."

MUNSON PAID HIGHER PRICE.
It was pointed out that Frank C. Munson, president of the Munson Line, paid the Government more than $1,000,000 each for the five Pan-American liners. These ships are sisters of the five sold to Dollar and it is understood here that Captain Crowley was anxious to obtain a similar price for the Oriental ships.

The Shipping Board and Mr. Dollar also were upheld by many shipping men, who said that the latter has invested heavily in American flag tonnage and was the only one who submitted offers on previous occasions for the purchase of the Oriental liners. It was only during the last bidding that he was faced with competition, and that was by W. B. Keene, acting for a Seattle group. Mr. Dollar topped Mr. Keene's offer.

The cry has been raised in some sections that the sale of the Oriental Line to the Dollar interests will give that

FORMER HOPEWELL HILL LADY IS DEAD

HOPEWELL HILL, May 6.—Word has been received at Hopewell Cape of the death at Beverly, Mass., of Mrs. Grace Pye, widow of Capt. Frank Pye, a well known Albert county ship master. Mrs. Pye passed away at the home of her son, Fred, hotel proprietor in Beverly. She was daughter of Daniel Robinson, a native of Scotland, who was connected with the old Albert mines here years ago. During many years of her life, she was a resident of Hopewell Cape. Her husband, Capt. Frank Pye, was a member of the well known Pye family that gave so many sons to the profession of the sea in days gone by. Of his immediate family four members were master mariners.

B.C. INDIANS REPORT BIGGER SEAL HERDS

Say if Protective Treaty Lapses, Species Will Be Wiped Out

PORT ALBERT, B. C., May 5.—Indians who operate off the coast of Vancouver Island hunting fur seals say that herds are bigger than ever this year but that if the international protective treaty which expires in December is allowed to lapse the species will soon be exterminated. The natives, who are permitted to hunt seals during their northward migration so long as they use only canoes and spears, say that where the seal herds used to total about 50,000 animals, they now number nearly a million. Some of the Indians use outboard motors on their canoes, propelling them to within a few miles of the seal herds and then remove and replace them with paddles as the noise of the engine would scare away the herd.

The fate of pelagic sealing treaty, passed in 1911 to prevent the slaughter of seals in the North Pacific, is a matter of anxiety not only among the natives but also among survivors of the famous old sealing crews which used to hunt before the pact was signed by representatives of Canada, United States, Japan and Russia. They intend to resume hunting operations if granted authority. Fur traders believe that the treaty will be renewed, however, and that all future killing will be done under the supervision of the United States government on the Pribilof Islands, as at present, the Indians alone being permitted to hunt.

WORLD-CRUISER IS LAUNCHED AT HUB

Othero, 171 Feet in Length, Will Make Voyage to Orient

BOSTON, May 6.—The largest pleasure craft in tonnage built in this country this spring, and which may carry around the world the blue pennant with its white star and crescent of Jesse L. Livermore, Wall Street operator, was launched recently from the yard of the George Lawley & Son Corporation at Neponset. The ten-year-old son of the owner christened the vessel. The big power boat was named the Athero and supplants another large Livermore yacht of the same name and built by the Lawley company just before the war.

Mr. Livermore, with his son and party of friends, came over from New York for the launching. He hopes to make a three or four months' voyage to the Far East next fall.

The Athero II was the last large yacht to be designed by the late Henry J. Gielow. The yacht is of steel, with teak deck-houses, and is powered by oil-burning Bessener Diesel engines with a cruising radius of more than 10,000 miles.

She is 171 feet over all, 27 1/2 feet beam and 18 1/2 feet draft, and so strongly built that she rates 100-A, plus 1 in Lloyd's. It is expected that her twin screws will give her a cruising speed of 18 knots. She is handsomely fitted and has a full deck equipment of launches, lifeboats and radio apparatus. She will be commanded by Captain C. B. Howell, of Port Jefferson, L. I., who has been handling Livermore yachts for nearly a quarter of a century.

The steamer Montclair is expected to dock at Montreal tomorrow from Liverpool, Belfast and Greenock.

Wanted to Settle Unpaid Toll With Member of Concern

UNDERPAYMENT IS $26,534 FOR 5 YEARS

Ottawa Conference Frees $20,000 Goods on Receipt of $3,200

Ottawa, May 6—The customs inquiry committee was told this afternoon that Hon. P. J. Cardin, then acting minister of customs, wanted to make a settlement of unpaid duty with a member of the John W. Gaunt firm.

R. P. Sparks, head of the Commercial Protective Association, who made this statement, said that he was opposed to a settlement and that he wanted the company prosecuted. The fact that a Col. Porteous had joined the firm and was innocent, did not seem sufficient reason for withholding prosecution, Mr. Sparks said. The committee was also told that merchandise seized from the company by customs officers was released to the company on payment of $3,200. This merchandise was given a valuation of approximately $20,000 by the officers who made the seizure.

The report of the auditors which investigated books of the John W. Gaunt Company, Limited, was presented to the committee. It stated that during the five years the company was in operation there had apparently been underpayments of duty amounting to $226,534, or a total of $26,534. The underpayment of duty resulted, according to the report, from the fact that goods were undervalued when declared to the customs.

SHORT ON DUTY

Major A. E. Nash, representing the firm who conducted the investigation, produced the report. It showed that during the five years 1921 to 1925, inclusive, the actual value of goods imported by the Gaunt Company, with commission added, was $308,284. The amount of duty which would have been collected on this valuation, Major Nash gave as $91,888. The value of these goods as entered for customs purposes was given in the report as approximately $226,000 and the amount of duty actually paid as $88,000.

Major Nash told the committee that certain invoices were missing from the papers which he had obtained from the investigation into the affairs of the Gaunt Company was started. He made it clear that the figures which he gave were based upon information gained from the books and that their correctness depended upon the statements made in these books.

DOUBLE DUTY CHARGED

Shortly before adjournment W. F. Wilson, chief of the preventive service, Customs Department, told the committee of a conference in Ottawa at which it was decided to release the goods seized from the Gaunt Company on payment of an amount of approximately $3,200.

The revaluation on the 178 cases was confined to duty on the packing. C. H. Blair, executive assistant of the department, told the committee in view of this, the department minister had decided that he should not hold the merchandise. The amount collected was equivalent to double duty on the goods and packages released.

Mr. Blair said he thought that final decision in this case was being withheld until the present proceedings were over.

The steamer Canadian Squatter, consigned to H. E. Kane & Co., is expected to arrive tomorrow or Sunday from the West Indies with sugar for the Atlantic refinery.

Potato Mart

Down to $5 Bbl. Recovers to $6

CARIBOU, May 6—The Arrostook potato market rallied somewhat today with a slight increase in demand and prices which had dropped to $5 yesterday and the big motors worked hard. Offerings are light. The flow to markets continues heavy, around 150 carloads a day.

The report of the auditors which investigated books of the John W. Gaunt Company, Limited, was presented to the committee. It stated that during the five years the company was in operation there had apparently been underpayments of duty amounting to $226,534, or a total of $26,534. The underpayment of duty resulted, according to the report, from the fact that goods were undervalued when declared to the customs.

NEW AUXILIARY SCHOONER TRIAL

YARMOUTH, N. S., May 6—The new auxiliary schooner Elizabeth N. Cann, Captain Murphy, the latest addition to the fleet of Hugh Cann & Son, Limited, was given a trial trip yesterday and the big motors worked to perfection. The run was made out of the harbor to abreact Yarmouth Light and return and the time consumed on the trip was about 50 minutes, which will give the vessel a speed of at least nine knots.

Going out, the schooner stemmed a strong flood tide and returning ported a fresh head wind.

Immediately after returning to port the vessel sailed for Parrsboro on its maiden voyage to load coal for the owners. Returning to Yarmouth, the craft will carry pulpwood from Barigon Passage to Sheet Harbor, thence to Pictou for coal.

The Elizabeth N. Cann is a product of the Shelburne Shipbuilders Yards at Shelburne.

The R. M. S. P. Chignecto is scheduled to sail from Halifax today for Bermuda and the West Indies with mail, passengers and general cargo.

The Company, has been incorporated under the Dominion Companies Act to carry on the business of warehousing, shipping and dealing in grain, etc. Letters Patent provide that the Company shall pay no dividend on its Common Shares which will have the effect of reducing net working capital below an amount equivalent to one-half of the par value of the Preferred Shares outstanding and that in each year in which dividends on Common Shares are declared, the Company shall before any such dividend is paid, set aside to the credit of a special reserve fund an amount equivalent to 25% of any dividend so declared. Class A Common Shares have no voting rights except such as may be conferred by statute. Class B Common Shares have full voting rights in the below-mentioned letter from Mr. Stewart, will be reduced accordingly.

Mr. James Stewart, President of the James Stewart Grain Company of Winnipeg, Man., who is well known as a successful grain merchant and elevator operator, is interested with Royal Securities Corporation, Limited, in the transaction, and has agreed with them to become President of the new Company.

Descriptive circular, copies of which will be supplied upon request, contains a letter from Mr. Stewart, from which the following is summarized: Alberta Pacific Grain Company, Limited, incorporated in 1912 has, with its predecessors, carried on a general grain business throughout Western Canada since 1902. It has expanded its business rapidly and profitably and now is one of the largest and most successful grain elevator companies in Western Canada.

Properties being acquired by the new Company include, in addition to the Vancouver terminal and an interior terminal elevator at Calgary with a capacity of 250,000 bushels, 319 country grain elevators, 166 country dwelling-houses and 226 coal sheds, advantageously located throughout the Provinces of Saskatchewan and Alberta. Combined terminal and country elevator storage capacity being acquired amounts to 13,505,000 bushels. Through investment in the shares of several terminal elevator companies at Port Arthur and Fort William, Ont., having an aggregate storage capacity of over 14,000,000 bushels, the new Company will have effective arrangements for the storage and export from Great Lakes ports of grain forwarded through its country elevators.

Fixed assets and investments being acquired by the new Company have a combined valuation of $7,367,285. Net Current Assets on giving effect to this transaction, as at December 31st, 1925, according to the certificate of George A. Touche & Co., Chartered Accountants, will exceed $1,350,000. The combined value of fixed assets, investments and net current assets will therefore exceed $8,717,285, equivalent, after deduction of First Mortgage Bonds to be outstanding, to over $170 for each Preferred Share.

Based on annual earnings of Alberta Pacific Grain Company, Limited, for the three years ended June 30th, 1925, after deduction of operating and maintenance expenses, depreciation and taxes including income tax, as certified by George A. Touche & Co., average net earnings were at the annual rate of $795,745. After allowance for interest on First Mortgage Bonds now being issued, net earnings were at the annual rate of $585,745, equivalent to over 2 1/2 times Preferred dividend requirement of $210,000, and leaving earnings equivalent to over $3.75 per share on the Common Shares. For the year ended June 30th, 1925, net earnings after the same deductions and allowance were $1,566,156, as against Preferred dividend requirement of $210,000, and equivalent to approximately $13.56 per share on the Common Shares now being issued.

Based on earnings of Alberta Pacific Grain Company, Limited, for the six months ended December 31st, 1925, and including a reasonable estimate of profits to be derived from operation of the Vancouver terminal, it is conservatively estimated that profits for the twelve months ending June 30th, 1926, will be not less than the average for the preceding three years.

We own these shares and offer them for delivery if, as and when issued and received by us and subject to the approval of our counsel of all proceedings, at— 100 and accrued dividend, yielding 7% (Carrying a Bonus of One Share of Class A Common Stock) Royal Securities Corporation, Limited R. Native Tongue Badly Battered In Chi. Gangland

Jury, Investigating Murder, Has Trouble Untangling Suspect's Jargon

CHICAGO, May 7.—The English language seems to have perished in gangland along with the 93 men who have been murdered there in the last three years.

When the jury of business men met to investigate the McSwigin-Doherty-Duffy murders they found themselves faced with the problem of interpreting a new jargon that has been ushered in by the beer wars.

Ralph Caponi, a brother of Scarface Al, believed to have been the machine gun murderer of Assistant State's Attorney William H. McSwigin, is not able to utter a single sentence without the use of these weird idioms of gangland. His chatter runs something like this:

"WHO, AH? Sure, he may be a racketeer, like the harness bulls say, but he didn't have no rat-a-tat-tat and he wasn't in the go-cart that night, either. Right now let's probably on the lamb and I don't blame him with all the big eyes waiting around to sneeze him with a pair of brace-lets."

REDUCED to the least common denominator, Caponi's slang means that his brother may be a beer-runner (racketeer), as the patrolmen (harness bulls) say he is, but that he did not own a machine gun (rat-a-tat) and was not in the automobile (go-cart), which carried the murderer. Caponi believes that at present his brother is running away (on the lamb) and that this is only natural, since all the objectives

Patrolman Leaps 10 Foot Gap To Ladder; Saves Woman

Burglars Enter 2 Springhill Stores

BOSTON, May 7.—One of the most daring acts of heroism in the annals of the police department was performed by Special Officer Martin Conroy when he leaped 10 feet from the roof of a burning building to the top of a ladder elevated by firemen, and rescued from certain death, Miss Catherine Broderick, 68, a recluse who was in a third floor window surrounded by flames.

Twice Conroy tried to get up the stairs of the burning house, only to be burned on arms and legs. Meanwhile the street resounded to the screams of the terrified woman trapped in the building. Conroy ran to the next house and climbed the balconies to the roof. Along this he made his way with the flames reaching out for him.

Meanwhile firemen arrived and raised a ladder to a point about 10 feet away from the eaves of the roof. Ladderman Louis Blair ascended to the top of the ladder and reached out to the woman. The ladder was much too far away. Then the crowd witnessed the thrilling act of Conroy when he leaped from the flaming roof in a long arc fully 10 feet to the top of the ladder, which trembled and swayed. Hooking his feet in the rungs and held and helped by Ladderman Blair, he reached out for the woman, dragging her by sheer strength out of the window and across the intervening space to the ladder.

VISITOR HERE IS 30 YEARS IN MISSIONARY WORK

Miss Maude Harrison Speaks of Affairs and Progress in India

TELLS OF OTHER MARITIME WORKERS

Dr. J. H. West of Moncton In Number—British Rule

Miss Maude Harrison, daughter of Jephtha Harrison of Macaan, N. B., missionary in the East Indian field under the United Baptist Women's Missionary Union for the last 30 years, is in the city addressing church bodies. She is at present the guest of Mrs. C. Scott, Douglas avenue, and was previously entertained at the home of Miss Fullerton, West Saint John. Miss Harrison, who has been on furlough for two years, ministering to her aged parent and incidentally forwarding mission interests in the Baptist community will return to India in 10 weeks, probably via San Francisco or Vancouver.

VETERAN MISSIONARY

To a Times-Star reporter this morning Miss Harrison said she was one of the group of Canadian missionaries which included Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Gullison and Miss Newcombe, who left for the Indian Empire in 1886. Miss Martha Clark of Bay View, P. E. I. is senior to this group and is known in the "Telugu" language as "Tebba" which means the elder or pioneer. Miss Harrison reports that Miss Clark is courageously fighting the malaria which she underwent a serious operation. The English and native medical and surgical resources in India are excellent including radium treatment, X-ray and the latest scientific advances. Dr. Zella Clark of the Indian field, is Miss Martha Clark's sister.

MONCTON MAN THERE

One of the outstanding personalities in medical missionary work in the Baptist mission field of India at the present time is Dr. J. H. West, a Moncton man who was one of Dr. Grenfell's pioneers, about 10 years ago and she is assisting him in his medical-missionary work.

GHANDI MOVEMENT.

The headquarters of Baptist missions in India are Parakkudi, Sarango, Beobill and Chicoteo. They are widely separated stations covering approximately a stretch of nearly 400 miles by 40 miles wide along the coast of the Bay of Bengal, north of the city of Madras and south of Calcutta. Miss Harrison says that India is undoubtedly true to the Union Jack. The Ghandi movement of non-cooperation and inactivity in public affairs, in which Mohammedans and Hindus joined forces a couple of years ago, seemed to have been broken up by internal dissensions between these two native people. This made it easier for English authority, to whom all castes seem to look for peace and justice.

TRUST THE BRITISH.

The returned missionary cites as an instance of native trust in British rule a suggestion of the British authorities to institute eight native military units with officers of their own people. When the appeal was made for officers in the mixed regiments none of the brown men would offer. They all urgently requested to be allowed to remain with their white British fellow-subjects. The East Indian inherently trusted the British authority and felt secure in it, despite frequent sensational reports to the contrary.

GOVERNMENT BY DEGREES.

India was prosperous, and Britain was giving her self-government by degrees. At times some over-anxious element clamored for wider native authority, but the Motherland was proceeding autonomously legislative authority slowly, so that it might be well assimilated before throwing it upon the natives upon its own governmental resources, said Miss Harrison. She spoke in Central Baptist church on Wednesday evening, and it is to be heard elsewhere in the city.

DEACON JOHN RING TELLS OF START AND PROGRESS MADE

The Men's Association of the Ludlow street Baptist church, of which Commissioner R. W. Wigmore is president, entertained the Ladies' Association and other members of the congregation last evening in the schoolroom of the church. Commissioner Wigmore presided.

GIVES HISTORY

An historical sketch of Ludlow street Baptist church given by Deacon John Ring was an interesting feature. He recalled incidents in connection with the church, which was organized July 16, 1840. Ninety years ago a little band of Baptists held meetings in the old Temperance Hall, in King street, West Saint John. In 1850 they moved into the vestry of the present church. He paid a tribute to those who were instrumental in building the church spiritually and financially. During his years in the church he said that he had seen the church grow from 800 members to the present 1,200. Among the many improvements made in the church had been the removal of the square box pews and replacing of the present comfortable ones. Deacon Ring also referred to the communion set which had been donated by Mrs. Hatfield and had been replaced by a more modern one, and he hoped for a formal consecration service of that set would be carried out.

FORMER PASTORS

Mr. Ring said that the Ludlow street church had been the first in the city to introduce the individual communion set. He referred to the removal of the old spire and the placing of the metal ceiling on the church. The clergyman, Rev. Samuel Robinson, 1841-1842, Rev. Samuel Robinson, 1843-1844, Rev. Alexander McDonald, 1845-1849, Rev. E. N. Harris, 1850-1852, Rev. David Robertson, 1853-1857, Rev. Edwin Clay, 1858-1861, Rev. Isaiah Wallace, 1861-1862, Rev. James L. Lockhart, 1863-1865, Rev. C. Blackney, 1864-1865, Rev. George Seely, 1866-1867, Rev. E. Foshay, 1868-1872, Rev. I. E. Jones, 1873-1874, Rev. Edwin Hickson, 1875-1877, Rev. J. Cahill, 1878-1888, Rev. C. Goodspeed, 1889-1892, Rev. J. A. Ford, 1893-1894, Rev. Judson Kempton, 1894-1897, Rev. George W. Schurman, 1898-1900, Rev. M. C. Higgins, 1900-1905, Rev. Beverly N. Nobles, 1906-1906, Rev. F. S. Balford, 1906-1908, Rev. E. C. Jenkins, 1909-1920, Rev. W. H. Robinson, 1921-1922, Rev. Isaac Brindley, 1922—Rev. W. Alvin Robbins.

Commissioner Wigmore paid a tribute to Deacon Ring and said much of the success of the church was due to the efforts of Deacon Ring and that at a recent meeting the deacon had been made an honorary member of the Association. Commissioner Wigmore spoke of the generous contributions and kindly sentiments towards the church of Genesis S. Mayes. Total collections for the first four months of last year, he said, had been $1,140, and for the first four months in this year, $2,300. The present indebtedness was $886.

Captain B. L. McKinnon of the Prince Arthur was warmly greeted by Rev. W. A. Robbins, the pastor.

Rev. Mr. Robbins spoke appreciatively of the work of the organizations of the church and courtesies shown towards the church by the Good Fellowship was sung in his honor.

Vocal solos were contributed by Ralph Rupert, Miss Burke, and Miss Hazel Megarity, and a hearty sing song was led by Herbert Mayes with Miss Megarity as accompanist. Other numbers on the program were a harmonica solo by Deacon George Ring and humorous stories by H. S. Mayes. The accompanist of the evening was Mrs. Herbert S. Mayes. Hearty thanks were given to all who contributed to the success of the evening, and it was announced the 86th anniversary services in the church would be observed on May 16, the 86th anniversary date.

CLEAN-UP AT SAND POINT IS ORDERED

Fire Marshal and Chief Make Inspection to Safeguard Property There

With a view to making a report against the Federal Department of Marine and Fisheries, H. H. McLellan, provincial fire marshal, in company with Walter Vaughan, city fire chief, and Daniel Mullin, K. C., this morning made a tour of inspection of the Sand Point sheds. Mr. McLellan said that conditions there were deplorable, especially at the rear of the potato sheds. There was rubbish of all kinds there, including straw, paper and other inflammable material.

Following his inspection, the fire marshal said that he found the spot in question had been used as a dump. He ordered it cleaned up and closed and issued a warning to the effect that any person found dumping there would be prosecuted by his department.

KING'S ACCESSION

It was the 18th anniversary of the accession of King George V. to the throne of England yesterday and only two flags were noticed flying from city flag-staffs, one from the ferry boat and the other on the Bank of Montreal. Despatches state that in England the anniversary was overlooked also, because of the seriousness of the strike conditions.

Marry in New York; Honeymoon Here

St. Agnes' church, New York City, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Saturday, April 24, when Rev. John White united in marriage Albert James Angel, son of A. H. Angel, prominent baker of North End, Saint John, and Miss Anna Paul, daughter of Mrs. R. Paul, Main street, in the presence of a gathering of relatives and friends. The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of ashes of rose crepe, with hat to match and wore champagne shoes and stockings. She carried a bouquet of carnations and maiden hair fern. She was attended by Miss Agnes James Paul, daughter of Mrs. R. Paul, who was supported by Charles Mahoney.

Mr. and Mrs. Angel came here on their honeymoon. A party in their honor was held at the home of A. H. Angel, 211 Main street, on Monday. Miss Claire McLean presented many beautiful gifts to the honored guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Angel will leave this evening for their home in New York, and will be followed by the best wishes of many friends. Mr. Angel is on the staff of the Chase National Bank there.

HOPE DEFERRED

There is one motorist who will not get his car in commission this season so soon as he thought he would. He started to tune up and get ready for the season and among other things, decided to apply a coat of paint. Yesterday while painting the car, which was in a small closed garage, he lit a match which, it is thought, ignited the fumes caused by the drier in the paint. The top of the automobile caught fire and while no great damage was done the owner is bemoaning that he will have to walk to and fro from West End for some days longer than he anticipated.

When Monday Was Hard on Health

Before New System Damp Wash showed the women of Saint John cleaner results than human strength could get over a wash tub, Monday was a dreared day.
