children. At times they had a graduate nurse on the case, but not continuously. The babies examined have been under the direction of their family physician. The Health Centre has managed the distribution of funds for these children, which were donated through public subscriptions, St. John Red Cross, Women's Institute, etc., to the amount of approximately $2,000.

Miss Campbell's Work

In March Miss Marguerite M. Campbell, who had been previously on the staff of the Health Centre, through the generosity of the Red Cross Society for a few months in 1922, was again added to the staff as assistant to the director. Miss Campbell did an excellent piece of field work as a demonstration of public health nursing in a survey of East St. John. In all 173 visits were made, and some appalling conditions found. Miss Campbell held nine educational classes here with an enrollment of 183 children. She also conducted the pre-school and prenatal clinics during five months' stay, and as a result of her house to house visits, these clinics experienced a vast attendance. 399 other house visits were made. There is need of a public health nurse constantly in the field to bring these very important preventive clinics up to any degree of efficiency.

Lady Byng Camp

The most important auxiliary of the Health Centre, the Lady Byng Camp, experienced a very successful season. In 1922 the camp was advantageously located from Seaside Park to Fair Vale on the Kennebec river. In all 46 children were cared for with a total gain in weight of 170½ lbs. or 87.50 per lb. This camp is perhaps the biggest single effort in preventive and instructive work that can be imagined. It will be remembered that every cent of the proceeds was a voluntary contribution, and we hope that the Ladies' Auxiliary Committee of the Health Centre will feel sufficiently encouraged to push this work energetically.

Anti-Tuberculosis

Had a total attendance of 1184 patients examined, 142 patients referred to the houses of 4662 visits to the houses of 2000 patients examined by the two nurses of the association.

Child Welfare

The Victorian Order nurses have held during the year 183 clinics, including those in the smaller centres. Total attendance 1973, and 3785 visits to babies; 978 babies have been medically examined; babies on the Milk Fund; 423 new babies have been registered at the clinic.

Pre-School Age

This was fairly successful while a public health nurse was making house to house visits. Total attendance 1077. Total clinics 32. Total patients 108. Total referred to physician 108.

Pre-Natal

Like the pre-school, this clinic had making surveys and coming in contact with the women. The question of maternal care from a preventive standpoint is a vital one, and though this clinic, at all times a difficult one to establish, should meet the needs of many women, and could, if there was a nurse in the field to carry out an efficient programme.

Dental Clinic

Has accomplished an excellent piece of work. The nurse in charge has been given permission to do the prophylaxis. Total attendance 1405. Total patients 810. Total fillings 995. Total extractions 995.

Financials

The Municipal Council of St. John gave us considerable financial support this year. Their grant of $1,600 has certainly helped us to weather the storm of money matters, but we are still greatly in need of a fixed income. The total expenditure for the year amounts to:

DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP

I did so, and after giving her a few doses I saw a good effect so I kept on with it. I gave her two bottles, and her cough soon left her, and now she is well. I cannot praise Dr. Wood's enough; it is certainly a wonderful medicine. This preparation has been on the market for the last 85 years; manufactured only by The T. ST. JOHN TALKS
OVER TELEPHONE TO 'FRISCO HOME

Establish First Non-Relay Connection Last Night

IS RECORD CALL

London Man Has Conversation With Girl in San Francisco Before He Sails

St. John talked to San Francisco over the long-distance telephone last evening. It was the first occasion in history that a telephone conversation was conducted, without relay, from Canada's Winter Port to the far western shipping metropolis on the Pacific Coast.

Made Record Call

Mr. Cranwell was in St. John yesterday to sail on the C. P. S. liner Montclair to Liverpool. He was anxious to have a farewell conversation with Miss Flynn, and apparently distance, or expense, didn't bother Mr. Cranwell.

At 2.46 he called the long-distance operator of the New Brunswick Telephone Company's exchange here.

He wanted to speak with Miss Ethel Flynn, in San Francisco, said Mr. Cranwell, giving the young lady's telephone number in the California city.

At 4.30 St. John notified Mr. Cranwell, who was at the Royal Hotel, that Miss Flynn was out for a few minutes.

At 4.10 St. John gave Mr. Cranwell his second report, and at 5 o'clock a third report stated that the line from Boston to San Francisco was busy.

At 5.10 Miss Flynn was still reported not at home, and at 5.30 the report was "don't answer."

However, at 6.48, St. John long distance gave to Mr. Cranwell the cheering news that Miss Flynn was on the line. The conversation started a few seconds later, and Mr. Cranwell and Miss Flynn talked on a through line.

Could Hear Well.

"I could hear Miss Flynn as plain as though she were in the room talking to me," said Mr. Cranwell, after he completed his call. "In fact, it wasn't at all difficult to hear her laughing."

And the reporter, not being so inquisitive as to seek further details of this record-making conversation, discreetly refrained from any additional question as to the parting message, in which, as stated before, Cupid is supposed to have played no small part.

That call to San Francisco was actually reported in 45 minutes, a feat that N. B. Telephone officials declare is something of which the company may well feel proud.

Boston Gets Shock.

When the long-distance operator here received the call, she immediately got connections with Boston.

The long-distance operator gasped when I told her we had a call for San Francisco from St. John," said the superior at the local telephone exchange to the inquiring reporter.

From Boston the call was reported to Chicago, and from there to San Francisco. But when Miss Flynn was on the line at 6.43 last evening, she had a direct wire to St. John.

And Mr. Cranwell was able to call for Liverpool at 8 p. m., after being the first individual to talk from this city by telephone direct to San Francisco.

EXPECTS NO DELAY
IN SCHOOL TENDERS

Peacock Says Vocational Building Alterations Will Not Hold Preliminary Plans.

Fletcher Peacock, director of vocational education for New Brunswick who is in the city at present said he did not believe the alterations in the vocational school, which had been recommended by the vocational committee last evening would delay the calling of tenders for more than a week.

Speaking of the short courses of automobile electricity and acetylene welding now being conducted in St. John under the vocational board, Mr. Peacock said that a large percentage of those attending were taking advanced courses, having taken the elementary courses last winter. The interest in the classes was shown in the large enrollment which made it necessary to conduct night classes.

The Story of Father John's Medicine

An Interesting Account of the Origin and Development of Father John's Medicine

How it Became So Widely Known and So Largely Used in Eastern Canada

The story of Father John's Medicine is just such a story as appeals to the better nature of most of us, for it is a story intimately connected with one whose whole life was devoted to the welfare of those entrusted to his care and guidance.

Father John O'Brien, from whom the story takes its name, was born in Ireland and ordained to the priesthood there in 1828. Father John came to America in 1841 to take charge of a big missionary field in Martinsburg, W. Va., where, for over seven years, he travelled the mountains in all sorts of weather, visiting the sick and cheering the unfortunate. He became very dear to his parishioners and they were sorry to hear of his transfer to Lowell, Mass., in 1848, where he exposed himself to many dangers in the rigid performance of his duty.

He was devoted to his work and cared for his parishioners, which medical skill seemed unable to relieve. As a last resort, his physician gave him a prescription which was compounded June 9th, 1855, at the old Carleton & Hovey drug store.

It was a simple mixture of the food elements of the medicine is composed of and built up his entire system.

Father John, again visiting his parishioners, advised the sick to have his prescription filled for their own use. Naturally when asking for the medicine at the drug store, they knew it by no other name than "Father John's Medicine" and, in this way, the people gave this medicine its name. For many years, the prescription was refilled, being made up one or two bottles at a time, in the old-fashioned hand-operated mortar and pestle. Then about 25 years ago, the proprietors of the Carleton & Hovey drug store realized that "Father John's Medicine" was steadily increasing in sales. They improved the method of manufacture and began to advertise it in the papers; and from this modest beginning, the business has grown steadily until today Father John's Medicine is one of the most widely used preparations of its kind.

Father John's Medicine is well known throughout Eastern Canada. No doubt, when brother or sister, uncle or aunt here in Canada wrote to some member of the family who had gone to the "States" and complained of "having a cold" or of "being all run-down," they were probably advised to get a bottle of Father John's Medicine; and these people in turn advised their friends and neighbors to do the same.

Father John's Medicine is a pure food tonic, easy to digest. It enables the system to resist disease by building new tissue. It stops colds. It wards off colds and the more serious diseases such as pneumonia, grippe and influenza by its powers of building strength.

Being free of alcohol and dangerous drugs of every kind, Father John's Medicine is a safe medicine for every member of the family, young and old alike

ST. JOHN, N. B., JANUARY 10, 1925

THE PASSING OF DR. BAILEY

The death of Dr. Loring W. Bailey, Professor emeritus of the University of New Brunswick, will be learned with sincere regret by very many in the province where he has made his home for between sixty and seventy years. Dr. Bailey retired from active work in the University some years ago, having been enabled through the generosity of the Carnegie Pension Fund for Aged Professors to pass the remainder of his days comfortably and devoting much time to the study of those subjects which afforded him pleasure and work during his active life. He passed his declining days under the shadow of the institution that he loved so well and labored for so earnestly. Dr. Bailey was a scholar of the old school. He loved to lead his students into unknown paths and by occasional guiding hints encourage them to arrive at their goal. Only those who loved the subjects in his department could appreciate the kindly, silent man whose praise was seldom given and therefore of greater value. No man could have been more respected in University circles. Dr. Bailey won his way without effort. His scholarship was acknowledged and his sympathetic attitude toward those studying under him ever apparent. He lived to an unusual age, eighty-five, and leaves behind him a monument of good work and a large number of men who graduated from his department and the institution of which he was a professor who will always think kindly of the courteous gentleman and efficient instructor with whom they passed a pleasant period of their life.

STATISTICS OF TELEPHONES

Figures are frequently dry, but sometimes interesting. Some of the most important of our pamphlet publications are issued by the Canadian Bureau of Statistics, which tells us that in 1923 there were 1,059,203 telephones to about every nine persons. This shows a fairly considerable advance over the previous year, when one telephone was able to take care of the conversational propensities of ten people. In the last ten years our output of talk, measured in terms of telegrams, has increased over two hundred and twenty per cent. The statistics, says the Winnipeg Tribune, upset many preconceived ideas respect to racial characteristics British Columbia, for example, is said to be largely peopled by return Englishmen and insouciant provincials, there are nearly sixteen Antiochans to every hundred of population. Ontario runs a close second with nearly fifteen phones per hundred people, but as that province shelters two governments the figures should cause no surprise. In Saskatchewan and Manitoba it takes twelve phones and ten phones respectively to absorb the crop reporters, weather complaints, and other joys and sorrows of each hundred of the inhabitants. "Quebec, the home of the loquacious and sociable French-Canadian, furnishes the one big surprise. In Quebec they use less than one-half the phones per capita that are used in British Columbia. Possibly the Habitant finds the telephone cramps his style. In Nova Scotia and New Brunswick the inhabitants are mainly of Scotch descent. "While it is still true that talk is cheap, nevertheless the telephone companies appear to have done reasonably well during 1923. Out of property and equipment valued at $150,000,000 they succeeded in earning a net corporate income of $8,691,000, or nearly six per cent, a slight advance over the percentage earnings of the previous year. "The various telephone systems throughout Canada gave employment during 1923 to over 19,000 persons, who received upwards of $16,583,000 in salaries and wages."

Are we about to have another treasured illusion dispelled? From childhood we have thought that the age of Methuselah was beyond question. We have often wondered why when he reached the age of nine hundred and sixty-nine that he was not permitted to make it a thousand. But now a professor of the University of California comes out and makes a sort of scientific statement that Methuselah, instead of being nearly one thousand years old, had only completed about eighty years of our modern time. What we know as years now were only months or weeks in that period dwelt upon by the ancients of the old testament. But take away the age of Methuselah, by dividing it by twelve, which must be done in order to make him eighty years old instead of nine hundred and sixty-nine, and you would give the same treatment to Levi, who was one hundred and thirty-seven years old, and make him less than twelve years of age, with three sons, Gershom, Kohath and Merari. But then wonders never cease at those days.

APPOINTMENT OF COUNSEL AND JUDGE REASON

(Continued from page 1.) "Let us have one before construction," remarked Judge LeBlanc. Witness said he based his estimates on the natural flow of the river in 1920-21 on the Dominion Waterway reports as part of the data. Construction was going on at the time, witness said, and he did not what effect this construction would have on the natural flow. Changes Statement. Witness, as a result of questioning by Mr. Hughes, withdrew his statement that the sort of the watershed had great rotational characteristics and substituted an opinion that most of the precipitation found its way to the river course. Mr. Hughes asked the witness if he still adhered to his opinion that the site had great natural storage facilities. Witness said "Yes." To have a small number of lakes and ponds was not a disadvantage, he said. He would prefer one large single basin if it could be had. He took soundings on Loch Alva in January, 1924, when the water was out of the dam. He found a depth of about 30 feet. Witness said there was no dependable power at the site unless it were artificially created. The Musquash was a storage proposition, he said. "Educated Guess." Witness said he only estimated data respecting Belvedere Lake. "Then, it was only a guess," Mr. Hughes queried. "An educated guess," witness replied. Witness said he only made an inspection for a dam at Sherwood Lake. He said he had no knowledge of the soil where the dam would be located. The dam, he said, could be built for approximately $68,000. He made only a superficial survey of this site, making an investigation of the foundation. "Then you would hardly call that an educated guess," remarked Mr. Hughes. "An educated guess," witness replied.

"Convenience Outlets" YOU know what "convenience outlets" are of course, —wonderful little arrangements in the wall, the baseboard, or the floor into which is placed the plug for the electric toaster, electric percolator, electric cleaner, chafing dish, portable lamp and the hundred and one things which electricity is king of. There never can be too many "convenience outlets" in a house—two or three in every room with additional ones in hall, upstairs and down, are not too many. It is better to have "too many" than too few. An electric appliance is much more useful with its "convenience outlet."

20 Army Horses Are Suffocated in Fire

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—Twenty horses, including some of the most valuable polo ponies in the United States Army, were suffocated today in a fire in a shed used as a temporary stable on Governor's Island. Included among the ponies lost was a favorite mount of General Robert Lee Ballard, commanding the Second Corps Area, who retires next week.

Continuing his testimony at the afternoon session yesterday, Mr. Brown said, in reply to G. H. Montgomery, K. C., for the company, that to develop their holdings to the ultimate development the hydro power company would have had to acquire only about 2,600 acres more than what they held at the time of expropriation.

Replying to a question of Judge LeBlanc, the witness said the present capacity of the plant for an average year, with the west branch regulated to 202 cubic feet per second, and east branch to 191 cubic feet per second, would amount to about 24,000,000 K. W. H. per year, but that was not allowing for losses in delivery to St. John. The figure given at the morning session included those losses, he said.

Replying to Mr. Montgomery, he said that, based on prices obtaining in 1920-21, which were the highest known for some years, he would estimate the total capacity cost for the development at $2,250,000. Costs were much lower previous to 1920, and had the construction been made between 1912-18 it would have cost between 25 per cent and 30 per cent less. Had it been built since 1922 to date, it would cost about $2,000,000. The witness said he had had opportunity to investigate costs thoroughly in view of his two years of experience recently as consulting engineer for the Ontario Hydro Commission on the Gregory commission.

Marketability. The witness said he looked thoroughly into the marketability of the Musquash product in St. John. He said the present manager of the Power Company and the previous manager had informed him they were willing to purchase hydro-electric power. The witness believed the total output would be taken up if it were sold for 1 1/2 cents to two cents per K. W. H. He did not believe there was room in St. John for two distributing systems. It led to waste, he said.

His idea of system for Musquash did not include a retail distribution system. If 25,000,000 K. W. H. were sold per year at 1 1/2 cents per K. W. H., the gross revenue would be $375,000 a year. If two cents were obtained, the figure would be $500,000. Operating costs he would place at $45,000. Allowance for maintenance and renewals he would set at roughly between one per cent and three per cent of the estimated cost of construction, namely, $2,250,000. Eight per cent interest and sinking fund charges would be added to that, a liberal allowance. Ten per cent would be the minimum for operating and fixed charges, witness said.

Other Estimates. Thus, if the total investment were placed at $2,000,000 and take 12 1/2 per cent for operating and fixed charges, witness said that these charges would cost $250,000 a year, and if the revenue were $375,000 a year, it would leave a gross profit of $125,000 a year for the owners. Taken at $200,000 total capitalization, with 12 per cent for operating and fixed charges, $108,000 would be left for the owners, assuming 20,000,000 K. W. H. were disposed of at 1 1/2 cents per K. W. H., witness said. If the current were disposed of at two cents per K. W. H., it would bring $500,000 a year, and supposing 15 per cent on a capitalization of $2,250,000 were allowed for all charges, witness would leave $200,000 a year profit.

This Should be of Interest in St. John

The "Electrical World" (October 25th) prints an article by W. M. Carpenter entitled "Truth About Electric Rates in Ontario."

It deals with the operation of the Hydro-Electric Power Commission of that province and exposes the misrepresentations of the advocates of municipal operation with respect to the matter.

The article should be of timely interest to the people of St. John.

It points out that it is the policy of the Hydro-Electric Power Commission to make very low rates to the domestic consumer, placing the burden of costs mainly on other consumers.

A few facts as to the Ontario rates (1923 figures) will be of interest in St. John. In Toronto, domestic consumers use an average of 69 kilowatt hours a month and pay 2.1 cents a kilowatt hour. In Toronto, commercial consumers use an average of 234 kilowatt hours a month and pay 4 cents a kilowatt hour.

In Port Arthur, Ont., for the year ending October 31st, 1923, revenue received from electricity sold, was $280,423.71 and the cost of producing it, with interest on plant capital, was $473,554. Leaving a deficit of $193,131 which was called "deferred and collectible out of future revenue."

On October 31st, 1923, the accumulated deficit so "deferred and collectible out of future revenue" amounted to $620,818.33. If a private company kept its books like that what would we think of it? What is the total of the Hydro deficit in St. John, today?

ESTIMATES FOR MUNICIPALITY SENT UP $6,600

Contingent Fund And Percentage For Losses

TOTAL IS $422,547

Juvenile Court Matter Is Given Further Two Year Hoid

While the various municipal institutions asked for less money than they did in 1924, heavy expenditures in the contingent fund, which made it necessary to increase that item over last year by $5,000, and the adding of 10 per cent to each appropriation to care for cash discount and errors in compilation, caused the warrant as approved by the finance committee yesterday afternoon to be $6,601.22 higher than it was last year.

Total is $422,547. The warrant last year called for $415,946.71 and the amount passed by the committee yesterday was $422,547.93. The Lancaster special last year amounted to $27,170 and this year they will be $36,200, an increase of $9,030. The Simonds special last year was $2,970 and this year will be $3,571, an increase of $601.

Makes Speed Record. A record was made by the finance committee yesterday, in that they heard delegations from the municipal institutions and approved the appropriations at one sitting. A time table had been adopted for the representatives of the municipal institutions and this was strictly adhered to. Last year a week was consumed in hearing the delegations and approving the warrant.

Mayor Potts, chairman of the committee, presided and others present were Councillors Wigmore, warden of the county, Frink, Bullock, Harding, O'Brien, Golding, Campbell, Dalzell, Simpson, McLeod, and O'Donnell. Public Hospital.

The first order of business was the hearing of delegations from the general public hospital was the first on the list and M. E. Agar, president of the Board of Commissioners, presented their budget calling for $104,927.48 from the municipality this year, as compared with $107,480 in 1924. He also asked that $9,700 of bonds be authorized to pay for work which it was proposed to do in the building. This included painting the interior of the Nurses' Home, remodeling and enlarging the nurses' and doctors' dining room, remodeling the main entrance and tiling the rotunda, tiling the main kitchen and tiling the sterilizing room of the operating theatre. The need for a third boiler at the power house was also referred to by Mr. Agar and a bond issue was requested for this work which it was estimated would cost about $4,000.

Asked why the item for insurance was so large this year when $5,000 had been granted for this item last year Mr. Agar said the actual amount required for insurance this year was $800 but they had decided to ask for one third of the amount which would be needed to pay premiums three years hence. This $1,600 could be cut out if the committee so desired.

County Hospital. The budget for the St. John County Hospital was presented by Dr. S. H. McDonald. The amount required by them this year was $90,831.82, as compared with $61,172 for 1924. The budget of the municipal home was presented by W. E. Scully, M.L.A., who said that institution needed $37,000 for 1925. Last year they had expended $36,215 but this year they had to pay more for bread and some Salaries Increased. The budget of the Board of Health, presented by John Kelly, chairman, called for $25,907.76. Last year they asked for $26,283.66. Questioned on regard to the increase in the salary item Mr. Kelly said that J. F. Tilley, milk inspector, was to get an increase of $300 and S. McConnell, sanitary inspector, an increase of $100. He presented a claim of the three board nurses for an increase of $15 a month which had been brought to the attention of the board after the estimates had been passed and which was not included in them.

No Juvenile Court. A letter from the committee of organizations which have been active in the endeavor to have a juvenile court established here, was read. This called the attention of the committee to the fact that last January the matter was tabled for one year and expressed the hope that it would be taken up this year and the court established. On motion of Commissioner Wigmore action on the matter of establishing a juvenile court was laid over for a further term of two years.

For First Aid—Minard's Liniment

Their Education was provided by Their Fathers' will

CHILDREN are apt to grumble about school sometimes, finding classes irksome. They need a firm, parental hand—but the time comes when they are very glad of their education.

"How can I make sure that they will continue their schooling after I am gone?" he asked his wife when they told him he had better put his affairs in order for the last time.

She, poor woman, stricken with the verdict the doctors had pronounced, could offer no suggestions. But he found a way. He made a will, leaving the proceeds of one of his Mutual Life policies to be set aside for the purpose, and naming a trustee to help the mother administer this fund.

You, too, are anxious to insure the education of your children, whatever may happen. Let our agent explain the benefits of the Mutual Life's Educational Endowment Policy, specially designed for safeguarding this important purpose. Write this office for "The Mutual Book."

SLOW PROGRESS BEING MADE AT PARIS CONFAB

Even Anglo-American Negotiations Have Hit Snag

BELGIUM'S CLAIM

Compromise Plan To Bring Sterling To Parity Is Not Confirmed

PARIS, Jan. 10.—The inter-allied financial conference has failed to maintain the pace it started with, and this morning is much where it was Thursday night.

Even the Anglo-American negotiations still are progressing only "nominal" a number of details, having yet to be settled and the approval of Washington given for what has already been accomplished before a satisfactory conclusion can be reached.

Le Matin is responsible for the statement that at their meeting last evening James A. Logan, British Chancellor of the Exchequer, and the United States delegation and the British Chancellor of the Exchequer, Winston Churchill, hit upon a plan of compromise by which England would abandon her still outstanding contentions in return for help by the United States in bringing the pound sterling back to parity. This, however, entirely lacks confirmation from other sources.

Belgian Problem.

The principal difficulty continues to be Belgium's share in the reparations from Germany, a question which involves almost all the other problems before the conference. After arguing all yesterday afternoon the finance ministers of the interested powers got lost in such a jungle of figures that they finally gave it up and turned the problem over to the united experts of all the nations, who spent the greater part of the night trying to decide among other things exactly how much Belgium has received under her priority privilege.

Small Nations' Claims.

Delegates of powers other than the United States, France, England and Belgium, many of whom depend upon reparations receipts to help balance their existing percentage be maintained.

Thus Italy has received more payments in kind than she is entitled to, and it is a difficult problem to arrange how these payments shall figure in her account with the least possible inconvenience to all concerned. Rumania, too, is active and her delegates have lodged a formal claim with M. Clementel, president of the conference, for an increase in the percentage allotted her at the Spa conference. This claim will be dealt with when the affairs of the Austrian successor states are considered.

CARLETON TOWER LODGE IS VISITED

Many Pythians Greet Grand Chancellor and See Officers Installed.

Grand Chancellor Bayard Stillwell, accompanied by Grand Vice Chancellor J. A. Mowry and Grand Master of Exchequer, F. A. Kinneer, paid an official visit to Carleton Tower Lodge, No. 37, Knights of Pythians, last evening.

Thousands Of Women Are Now Taking This Easily Absorbed Iron

Worn-out Housewife Tells How She Quickly Regained Her Health and Strength

"When your blood lacks iron, do not waste your time taking stimulating medicines or drastic drugs, but directly enrich your blood with the new form of iron sold by all druggists under the name of Nuxated Iron, which is like the iron in spinach, lentils, and apples, and is in a form easily assimilated by your blood."

BILIOUS and SICK HEADACHES CAUSED BY CONSTIPATION

Once you allow your bowels to become constipated you will become troubled with bilious and sick headaches, and for relief you must help your liver to remove the poisonous bile that is circulating in the blood and upsetting the entire biliary system. Sealed! to protect McLaughlin-Buick performance
McLaughlin-Buick Chassis is sealed. Iron and steel housings protect the operation of all driving parts—seal them in to safeguard McLaughlin-Buick performance.
Some cars have some of this protection, but only McLaughlin-Buick has a wall of defense continuous from front to rear against dirt, stones, water and loss of lubricant. McLaughlin-Buick's close coordination of driving units and McLaughlin-Buick's torque tube drive make possible this important improvement.
We are holding a special exhibition of the Sealed Chassis all this week. Come in and see why McLaughlin-Buick performance is so consistently good. Why McLaughlin-Buick parts so seldom need replacement. And why McLaughlin-Buick owners are saved so many of the ordinary repair and lubricating annoyances.
Here are the vital points at which McLaughlin-Buick engineering provides this extra protection:
1. Fan Hub—Fan bearing totally enclosed—lubricated by its own gear pump.
2. Motor—Steel cover keeps water from short circuiting spark plugs. Metal cover, over valve-in-head mechanism keeps dirt out, oil in.
3. Starter-Generator—Delco single-unit starter-generator completely housed in single housing. Starting gears housed with fly wheel.
4. Fly Wheel—Completely housed. Starting teeth protected from road damage and accumulation of mud and dirt.
5. Clutch—Multiple disc—completely housed.
6. Transmission—Completely protected. Shifting mechanism holes sealed.
7. Universal Joint—Completely enclosed in ball joint—lubricated automatically from transmission.
8. Propeller Shaft—McLaughlin-Buick's third member drive, which is a torque tube, completely encloses the propeller shaft. Road dirt cannot work from the shaft into the universal joint or rear axle.
9. Rear Axle—Floating type, totally enclosed in rear axle housing.

Matron Suggests Renovations in Nurses' Home—Estimates Are Endorsed

Receipts from paying patients in the General Public Hospital during last month amounted to $8,000.99, bringing the total receipts for the year from this class of patients to more than $7,000 above the amount which was estimated.

W. E. Agar, president, was in the chair. Others present were Commissioners Mrs. J. F. McLean, Alexander McMillan, Dr. W. W. White, W. E. Emerson, Hon. Dr. W. F. Roberts and R. H. Gale, superintendent.

Third Boiler Needed.

Mr. Agar told of a committee having appeared before the finance committee of the municipality and in presenting estimates for the coming year having pointed out the need of installing a third boiler in the power house, to be paid for in bond issue.

The report of the superintendent, R. H. Gale, gave statistics of the month as follows: Total patients, 307 remaining on Dec. 31, 1924, died 12; operations, 61 in operating room and 88 in out-patient department, where 762 treatments were given.

On Dec. 26 a break in the out-patient department plumbing occurred due to freezing. High winds loosened the copper roofing on the cupola because of the condition of the woodwork underneath.

Receipts totalled $24,783.86 and included the following amounts: City, $14,000; county, $4,004.82; pay patients, $5,501.99; X-ray, $896, and salaries, $248. The surplus account totalled $683.96 and the balance in the bank was seven cents.

Seven Graduates.

The superintendent of nurses, Miss Margaret Murdoch, reported seven graduates and 55 pupil nurses enrolled, of whom three were ill. Miss Thelma Swanton and Miss Gertrude Bickerstaffe graduated.

The medical board submitted a routine report. The out-patient department patients reported showed 8,144 visits from patients; 2,827 patients had attended and 1,313 operations were performed.

Miss E. J. Mitchell, matron, reported the need of a second man to do cleaning and reported also 234 articles of linen supplied the institution in the month and 209 to the operating room in the year. She hoped renovations could be made in the interior of the nurses' home.

Miss J. Sandall, linen matron, reported 7,618 articles in use. Miss Belle B. Howe, social service nurse reported 58 visits and 19 of tonsil and adenoid cases investigated, five being found able to pay a small amount. Cabs were provided for five patients, work found for two and of referred cases four were sent to the Health Centre and four to the Women's Hospital Aid.

Donations of clothes from individuals and the Junior Red Cross had been specially welcome because of the great amount of unemployment.

The statement which had been presented to the finance committee of the municipality by the estimate committee was endorsed by the meeting.

Mr. Agar was appointed commission for the month.

The remainder of the meeting was taken up with discussion of matters of interior economy.

"Well, sir," said Mr. Hiram Hornbeam to The Times reporter, "I went up to that there court-house for a spell yesterday to listen to the folks that was Baskin's fer grants fer the institutions. I was glad I didn't hev to talk. There was them there conceptions—more'n a dozen of 'em settin' around in a circle—with Mayor Potts in the chair—'n that there tax rate in front of 'em—'n I sort o' think I was on trial afore a jury—By Heav'n! I was real nice to everybody—I'll say that fer 'em—but they was part o' around no cigars or chocolates. I don't know as I'd want to be one of 'em—nuther. They mean well—but they got to be here grantin' that there tax rate in front of 'em—'n it's like askin' a feller whether he'd rather starve his brother or his sister—yes, sir, I s'pose they ain't nothin' so easy as to find fault 'n holle 'em—'n you know it ain't no joke when you're fixin' folks' taxes. It's like layin' plans to grab a feller 'n pull his teeth—'n wash."

GO AFTER 'DEAD' INDIAN AND FIND HIM ALIVE

Undertakers Learn Man Was 36 Hours In Snow

IN HOSPITAL NOW

John Pictou of Queens County Cheats Funeral Men and Coroner

While preparing to remove the body of John Pictou, an Indian, aged 90 years, from the place where it had been found lying in the snow in the woods near Hampstead, Queens county, Thursday morning, men from the undertaking establishment of D. C. Shipp and Son were greatly startled to find that the man was still alive, although he had been in the open for more than 36 hours with the mercury 10 degrees below zero.

Closer examination disclosed that the man was badly frozen. First aid measures were taken but Pictou remained unconscious and was brought to the General Public Hospital here where it was said last night that his condition was unchanged. It is expected that he will lose one hand and several toes.

Seen on Railway Line.

John Pictou is an Indian who came from Nova Scotia to Hampstead more than 25 years ago. He has lived in a shack on the county line making a living by stacking, making axe handles and other odd jobs. He was believed to be nearly 90 years of age.

He was seen along the line of the Valley Railway early Tuesday morning. On Tuesday evening one of the sectionmen saw an ash stick, newly cut, sticking in the bank of the railroad with a coat hanging on it. On Wednesday morning the stick and coat were still on the railway bank. No inquiries were made in regard to the welfare of John Pictou.

Search Begun.

Eugene Doucet and Nelson Everley decided that they would try to locate the Indian on Wednesday night. With a lantern the men went into the woods and found where a few trees had been cut. Near the place they discovered what they thought was the dead body of the Indian. They went into Hampstead and notified the coroner and the undertaker.

A party of men went to the scene of the supposed tragedy. Preparation was made to remove the body to the shack where Pictou had lived. The body was apparently badly frozen. The men attempted to lift the body but they were surprised to find that he was still alive.

10 Below Zero.

First aid work was immediately started with the aid of snow and ice. Afterward the man was taken into Hampstead where Dr. Davis attended him. He did not regain consciousness and it was decided to bring him to St. John Thursday morning.

It is supposed that the man became faint while working with the trees and was unable to get back to his shack. The temperature was 10 degrees below zero during Tuesday night and Wednesday morning and the people who survived the exposure to so severe weather. He was lightly clothed and had only a pair of rubber boots on his feet.

At the General Public Hospital last night it was said his condition was unchanged and he was too weak to undergo an operation. It is understood that one hand and several toes will have to be amputated should he survive sufficiently.

WILL HAVE CONTEST IN DRESSING DOLLS

C. G. I. T. Rally on January 15 is Planned by Girls' Council.

A doll dressing contest is to be the big feature of the C. G. I. T. rally to be held on Jan. 15, it was announced last night at the Girls' Council meeting by Miss Ethel Brindie, president of the Girls' Work board. Each C. G. I. T. group will dress a doll and one doll from each church will be entered for competition in the rally, points being given for the dresses. All of the dolls, whether sent to the rally or not, will be given on Valentine's Day to children in the city institutions.

70 Girls Present.

The Girls' Council meeting last night was attended by 70 girls and leaders and was one of the most successful recently held. Miss Hazel Fisher, newly elected president, was in the chair.

The C. G. I. T. members of the German street church served a delicious supper and a heartily enjoyed evening.

"Friendship" was the theme of the evening and in the devotional period the girls considered seven questions on friendship and arranged for the next meeting of the council on Feb. 6.

ADDRESSERS SCOUTS.

Assistant District Commissioner of the Boy Scouts, F. Choppin, gave a talk to the patrol leaders and second in command of the Scout Court of the Industrial Home last night, and there were about 14 boys present who were eager and interested listeners as Mr. Choppin, which conducts the troop and directs its welfare.
