REV. DR. CHOWN ON CHURCH UNION Berwick, N. S., June 21—At the closing session of the Nova Scotia Methodist Conference, held here last night, Dr. S. D. Chown, of Toronto, defining the attitude of Canadian Methodism towards church union, said:

"We believe, no more in the divine right of bishops than we do in the lordly right of kings. We believe in the lordship of Christ and no other. We believe in the providence of God, working in the history of the church, in the providence of the church to adapt its form to changing conditions. We believe, in, and cannot go back upon the spiritual significance of our own history as a church. We are quite ready to unite with all Christians in the sacrament of the Lord's Supper, when it is administered in the spirit of its founder. We believe in the priesthood of all believers and not of some only. And we hold these beliefs as true, only otherwise convinced by the findings of genuine critical scholarship."

For a time it was thought death would result.

C. G. ESMONDE SPEECH AT MEETING LAST NIGHT—MAYOR MARTIN PRESENT.

Montreal, June 21—Addressing a crowded audience at the Monument Nationale there last night under the auspices of the Self-Determination for Ireland League Canada, G. G. Esmond described on the programme as "special envoy of the Irish Republic to Australia," said, speaking first in French, that he regarded the presence of the Mayor of Montreal and the speeches of French-Canadian in defence of Irish freedom as proof that the citizens of Montreal and Quebec sympathize heartily in sympathy with Ireland, and he hoped that henceforth French-Canadian would fight for faith and liberty. Proceeding in English Mr. Esmond contended that the press in the British dominions was a hundred per cent more hostile to Ireland than the press in England. He referred to "the joke of the toy parliament at Belfast" and said that Lloyd George set it up, but you will notice that Lloyd George is sending to Belfast Queen Mary and he is staying at Belfast. Alluding to Premier Meighen he said that if he had not taken sides for Ireland, he had at any rate definitely refused to take sides against Ireland. He added that the people of Ireland were glad that Premier Meighen had refused to support by his presence the attempt to be made Wednesday "to cut in two the living body of the country."

As Hiram Sees It

"Look-a-her!" said Mr. Hiram Hornbeam to the Times reporter, "If I come into town on Friday evening the 'drys' are open on Saturday."

"About how often in a year?" said the reporter, "would you be likely to strike town in the evening on a Friday or Saturday?"

"That ain't nothin' to do with it," said Hiram. "It has a lot to do with it," said the reporter. "Do you expect all the dry-goods stores to be open on Saturday night because you might want to buy a yard of ribbon one or twice a year on that night? But come over to King street and tell your story to the pretty girls behind the counters—I'll go with you."

NEED EVERY NAME. W. S. Clawson, census commissioner, said this morning that he has received full reports from about a third of his enumerators in this city and expects to have them all in within a few days. When asked about the figures, he said he could not give out any details, but that the returns would be disappointing. All persons who have not yet been questioned by enumerators or who are registered in the census during the summer months, he said, should notify him at his office at the corner of Mill and Dock streets and he will mail a card to them to have their names added to the lists. He said that employers could help by impressing the importance of the object to their employees, and that it is to make any kind of a showing, he said, "every name is needed."

POLICE COURT. Ernest Northrup was charged in the police court this morning with having stolen goods in his possession. It was alleged that the goods were in the custody of the Canadian Express company for shipment to Halifax and had been stolen from the agency of the C. N. R. Norman Barden, a police officer with the C. N. R., told of seeing the accused at Sullivan's Siding last night with another man. He said the accused carried a parcel and his companion carried a box. He said that the companion had not been arrested as he had a get-away but the witness identified the parcel produced in court as the one which the accused was carrying at the time.

James E. Emery, a clerk with Brock & Paterson, Limited, identified the parcel as one that had been sent out from their store by the agency of the Canadian Express Company for shipment to their branch in Halifax. Suspenders, hair pins and hat pins made up the contents of the parcel and the witness testified its value at $20.10. The case was postponed until noon tomorrow at the request of the prosecution for further witnesses. Is King's Lieutenant for County Cork — King and Queen Given Hearty Send-off as They Leave for Ireland.

Cork, June 21—James Francis Bernard, fourth Earl of Bandon, was kidnapped this morning from his residence in Bantry county Cork, by a band of armed men. Castle Bernard, his home, was set afire and early this afternoon was still burning. Earl Bandon's whereabouts are unknown.

Earl Bandon, who has been King's lieutenant of County Cork since 1874, was born on September 18, 1859 and succeeded his father in the earldom in 1877. He is the owner of about 41,000 acres of land.

King to Sail Tonight. London, June 21—King George and Queen Mary prepared this morning to leave for a port on the Irish coast, where they will tonight go aboard a steamer which will take them to Belfast. There they will reside tomorrow at the state opening of the parliament of Northern Ireland. The royal steamer will be escorted by two light cruisers and ten destroyers.

Elaborate precautions are being taken in Belfast to ensure the safety of the king and queen while in that city. King George and Queen Mary will face a strenuous round of functions tomorrow in Belfast. In addition to opening the parliament they will be called upon to preside at a levee at Ulster Hall, where the king will confer honors upon prominent Irishmen.

Considerable interest has been aroused by rumour that the Irish Sinn Fein plans to make a professor of peace to King George in Belfast tomorrow. Confirmation of this rumor is as yet lacking.

The king and queen will embark at Holyhead on the Irish coast early tomorrow and proceed to Belfast.

SOME WORKING, BUT NO GENERAL RETURN TO MINES. London, June 21—(Canadian Associated Press)—Although some of the collieries have re-opened and a considerable number of miners have reported for work, there has been no general drift back to the mines. The industrial situation continues as chaotic as ever, awaiting the test of the miners call for a general strike of unions threatened with wage reductions.

THE PRINCIPAL MOVEMENTS back to the mines took place in the Midlands, including Derbyshire, Nottinghamshire and Lancashire. The owners predict a general resumption of operations. Apparently the Scotch, Welsh and north country miners are more ready to return to work, but intimated that no scheme was being entertained for a proportionate amount of the government's recent offer of ten million pounds to the mines in operation.

Unfortunately the victim of Mr. Tansey's wrath was his own son, who had also gone after the burglar. In the confusion that followed, the real intruder escaped.

TRAIN BOYS FOR SEA IN HALIFAX

Plans of Canadian Naval Service Department—St. John Sea Scout Work Praised.

Ottawa, June 21—The Canadian Naval Service Department will open a training school in Halifax this fall and enlist 100 boys. After they have been given the preliminary training they will be drafted to the Canadian Navy to fill the places of the boys now on board as the latter move up to take the place of the British seamen returning to England. This proceed will go on until the ships are entirely manned by Canadians.

The Sea Scouts, who flourish particularly in St. John, N. B., are giving the younger boys a valuable training in sailing, boating, swimming and all kinds of water exercises, without thought of preparing them for a sea vocation. All these activities are preparing, however, a basis of interest in sea matters for the future generation which it is hoped will give recruits to carry on the mercantile as well as the naval marine.

IRISH DAY AT THE FEDERATION. Resolutions to be Dealt With in Labor Parliament—Lewis vs. Gompers. Denver, Colo., June 21—Campaigners for both John L. Lewis, president of United Mine Workers, and Samuel Gompers, candidates for the presidency, were working at top speed today. The election will take place on Friday afternoon.

The most important issue to come before the convention today was the Irish question, on which the resolution committee was ready to report. This committee, it is understood, would report against a boycott on British made goods and urge the convention to adopt a resolution expressing sympathy for the Irish cause and urging recognition of the "Irish Republic" by the U. S.

The group of Sinn Fein sympathizers supporting the boycott announced that they will attempt to have the convention repudiate the committee and adopt their resolution. They made public a telegram from Harry Boland, secretary to De Valera, which said "nothing but a water tight boycott can restrain British imperialism in Ireland."

On the other hand, the group of British sympathizers headed by Peter Brady of New York, were prepared to vote against the boycott and support the other resolution. Their resolution also demanded withdrawal of the British troops from Ireland, urging U. S. officials to demand from Great Britain interest and loans due now and proposing a campaign to secure trial and punishment of members of the British regular and auxiliary forces, guilty of alleged atrocities in Ireland.

NO ACTION YET ON REPORT RE THE PLUMBERS. Toronto, June 21 Pending at least the outcome of litigation in respect to the investigation into the alleged grocers' combine, the attorney-general's department will take no action on a report made by W. W. Roebuck in regard to the alleged plumbers' combine. Mr. Roebuck, who conducted the investigation, declined yesterday to indicate whether his investigation convinced him that there was or was not a plumbers' combine. Neither was the attorney-general prepared to divulge anything of the contents of the report.

It is believed that the report sets forth certain facts without making any definite recommendation as to official action. The report has been with the attorney-general's department for three months.

DO PIRATES SAIL THE SEAS AGAIN?

Strange Tale of Four U. S. Vessels.

Washington, June 21—The crew of an American ship missing and what seems to be conclusive evidence has been obtained that they were made prisoners on another vessel and taken away to parts unknown, if they were not murdered. A second American ship is long overdue and two others are unaccounted for under circumstances that lead to the belief that their disappearance is in some way connected with the capture of the crew of the first mentioned vessel.

The U. S. government has undertaken to solve these mysteries of the sea, which, in the opinion of officials, point either to old time piratical methods of the Atlantic coast or the seizure of the vessels for the benefit of Soviet Russia.

Several months ago the five masted schooner Carol Dering, of Portland, Maine, was found abandoned off Diamond Shoals, N. C., with all sails set and her officers and crew missing. The Dering went ashore near Diamond Shoals Lightship and when the men of the nearby life saving station went aboard they found evidence that she had been abandoned in a hurry for no conceivable reason.

A little later a bottle came ashore and in it was a note purporting to have been written by the mate of the schooner. It read as follows: "An oil burning tanker or submarine has boarded us and placed our crew in irons. Get word to headquarters of company at once."

The steamer Hewart, of Portland, Maine, owned by the Union Sulphur Company of New York, is also missing. She sailed from Sabina, Texas, several months ago with sulphur for Boston and Portland. The government authorities have been unable to get any trace of her. She might have been aboard the Dering when it was abandoned in a hurry for no conceivable reason.

A Soviet pirate vessel has been sighted in the North Carolina coast, this is not the first time that freecoasters have worked in that vicinity. More than a century and a half ago, Edward Teach, "Black Beard," used to run his hideout in through the few and dangerous inlets in the narrow sand bars that separate the Atlantic ocean from the sounds that front the North Carolina coast.

Years ago the dwellers on the sand bar islands that face the coast, were known as "bankers" deriving their name from the sand banks on which they lived. They were a wild and free people. Nag's Head, a little cove guard station, is said to have been named because the "bankers" tied a lantern to a horse's head and sent the steed trotting up the coast on stormy nights to lure craft ashore in the belief that the bobbing light came from a vessel in the deep water.

128 BROOKLYN FAMILIES TO TREK TO IDAHO

Their Prairie Schooners Will be Motor Cars With Bungalow Trailers, and They Mean to Farm It in Snake River Country.

By Marguerite A. Saloman, in New York Evening Post.

With bands playing and flags flying 128 automobiles, each with a bungalow trailer, and ten trucks as a vanguard, will start July 15 on the first lap of a tour from Brooklyn to southwestern Idaho, where 128 bungalow families will settle on forty-acre tracts of irrigated land.

The promoter of the scheme is William D. Scott of 235 Decatur street, originally from Minneapolis, for the last twenty-five years Mr. Scott has been a resident of Brooklyn and a successful business man.

He and his family are enthusiastic motor tourists, and it was their plan to drive west this summer and there buy up the best available ranch land and settle.

"That settled it," he says. "When I saw that land I knew it was just the place I was looking for, and I immediately took an option on 1,200 acres. The land was offered to me at the uniform price of $125 an acre, with water rights, $25 an acre to be paid down and the balance within ten years at six per cent interest."

"The project is supervised by the state. It is financed by the Idaho Farm Development Company, whose president is the former secretary of agriculture, E. T. Meredith. The waters of three tributaries of the Snake River have been impounded, providing moisture for many thousands of acres which had hitherto been merely a sagebrush prairie used for a cattle range, and one of the best irrigated districts. However, with irrigation there isn't a better country for growing alfalfa, onions, and the famous Idaho potatoes."

"We are not so dreadfully far out in the wilderness, either. We can jump in our cars and in one hour be in Butte, a railroad town of 15,000 people. In three hours we can be in Boise or in Pocatello."

Returning from Idaho, Mr. Scott began to organize his scheme. His 1,200 acres he divided into 128 forty-acre tracts, so that his project was limited to exactly 128 families. Upon the first announcement of his scheme, he was deluged with applications to join. However, feeling that the success of the venture depended entirely upon the personal character of the colonists, he made an investigation of the character and finances of each prospective member. He will make no money out of the enterprise, he says, but will be on the same basis as the others. He has fixed a minimum amount which each family must possess, and he estimates this at $3,000. No family can come that is not able to take care of itself for at least one year, until the first crops are sold.

Figuring on the first railroad fares and the necessity of having a car on a ranch anyway, Mr. Scott believed that the best way to go was by automobile. Hence the caravan idea. Each family will start with a new car, attached to which will be a trailer that in ten minutes can be made into a perfect little bungalow, sleeping six people comfortably. No attempt at speed will be made, but a steady twelve miles an hour will be the official gait. Already an Idaho construction company is contracting to build bungalows to be ready by the time the Brooklyn party arrives.

The itinerary of the caravan has not been definitely decided, but it will probably take one of the northern routes, going via Albany, Buffalo, Cleveland, and Chicago to Omaha and from Omaha to Cody, Wyo. Offers of entertainment for the caravan along the road have been coming in.

Experts Will Guide the Farmers. The success of the farming enterprise is also assured, so far as it can be. Experts from the Idaho Agricultural Experiment Station are to provide supervision and skilled labor the first year. "We are told," said Mr. Scott, "that if we are all with these experts, accepting their commands, they will guarantee results. The Idaho authorities predict that we can pay out by the end of the third year on the proceeds of alfalfa, onion seed and potato crops."

HISTORIC DERBY WON BY A NECK

Humorist Gives Mr. Joel His Second Victory—Record Carnival—Airship Sees Epsom Downs as a Vast Ant Hill.

(London Mirror, June 2.)

Humorist, ridden by Steve Donoghue, at odds of 6 to 1 against, won a wonderful Derby yesterday by a neck, a dramatic race crowning scenes unparalleled in the history of the great Epsom carnival.

Following is the order in which the leading horses passed the winning post: J. B. Joel's Humorist (6-1) Donoghue, 1. Lord Astor's Craig an Eran (3-1), Brennan, 2. J. Watson's Lemonora (8-1), Childs, 3. Sir J. Buchanan's Alan Breck (100-7), Balding, 4.

This B. Joel repeated his Blue Ribband success of ten years ago with Sunstar, the sire of Craig an Eran and Alan Breck. The King and Queen, Princess Mary, the Prince of Wales, the Duke of York and Prince Henry had a great reception from the crowd, which from early morning had got to the famous Downs by every road method conceivable.

R 33, and aeroplanes directed the traffic from the clouds, and added a touch of modernity to the memorable festival by wireless the result all over the world. In Final Strides. It is all over. The Petrol Derby of 1921 has been won and lost.

The real thing came at last, and on the heavy day in the balance, Craig an Eran and Humorist were fighting a tremendous duel. A few strides from the winning post Humorist shot to the front and, by the narrow margin of a neck, carried Donoghue to victory.

The famous jockey was delighted with his triumph. His face was wreathed in smiles when Mr. Joel led Humorist in to the enclosure. In the long history of this national festival there have never been such wonderful scenes as those which have been associated with today's great race.

The World and His Wife Awakened. Before it and after roads to Epsom were thronged with vehicles of every description. The coster's donkey, pulling its cartload of beehived women and "peepers" men and children, trotted placidly along amid a never-ending stream of motor cars, wagnettes, landaus and motor cycles.

On the Downs there was the usual array of food stalls. Whelks, oranges, stewed eels, kherkins and pigs' trotters were among the other "harder" of the multitude. "We have 72,000 bottles of beer," Jack Etringer, of Carpenter's, told The Daily Mirror, "hundreds of cases of champagne and 200 dozens of whisky, 2,000 loaves, 2,000 salmon and 5,000 lb. of fresh meat."

Despite the coal shortage, our cooking arrangements go smoothly. "Sisters' Queen. Just before one o'clock the deep roar of many thousand voices announced the arrival of the Royal Family.

As the king and queen drove down the course in their car the queen looked decidedly charming in black and silver, with a swathed top of silver. The king wore a black top hat and a dark overcoat, in the buttonhole of which was a white carnation. Princess Mary, who was with her father and mother in the same car, made a dainty picture in a black lace hat and a deep grey-collared black chapeau cloak over her smart navy blue silk frock.

In the second car came the Prince of Wales, the Duke of York, Prince Henry and the Duke of Connaught. Lord Londale, Lord Derby and Lord Jersey were among those who received the royal guests, who were accompanied by Sir Derek Koppel, Sir Charles Cust and Lady Joan Muhlolland. The paddock was a scene of gaiety and color during the half-hour before the Derby was run.

Lady Astor, wearing a charming gown of navy taffeta, with a navy hat to match, was accompanied by her little "My friends wanted to take part in the sweep, said Mr. Lionel Walter of Messrs. Chandler & Co., stockbrokers, "and one of them was fortunate enough to get the winner. I had the somewhat dubious part of ringing him up this afternoon and telling him of his good luck."

Mr. Walter declined to impart the name of the lucky man, who thus wins £8,000. Mr. Jennings, a clerk in the firm of Messrs. Lionel Harris & Co., drew the second prize of £25,000. He was at Epsom watching the race, while Mr. Medley of the same firm, with whom he shared his ticket, was in Throgmorton street watching the tape.

These two laid bets on their horse, winning, so that they win all round. Fastest Race of All. The race to be first in London with the films of the Derby resulted in Mr. C. F. Temple, the well-known motor-cyclist, arriving thirty-two minutes after mount-daughter and several friends as she crossed the grassy path to have a final peep at Craig an Eran, her husband's horse. Lord and Lady Ludlow, the latter in a rust red costume, with one of the new high-necked collars, Lord Caran, Lord Dees, Earl Haig, Sir Hedworth Meux and Lady Esme Gordon-Lennox were among those who visited the paddock.

Suddenly wild, enthusiastic cheers went up as the Prince of Wales, accompanied by the Duke of York, and Prince Henry, came smilingly past the wooden barrier. Princess Mary followed her brothers shortly afterwards.

The Hon. George Coventry accompanied his fiancée, Miss Donne Phillips, Viscountess Uffington had a handsome wrap swathed round the shoulders of her dainty summer gown. Sir Victor and Lady Warrander, the latter wearing black and white, with a delightful wide-brimmed picture hat of black lace, and Lady Betty Trafford were among others noticed.

For the first time in history, Derby traffic was controlled from the air by Major Fox acting for Scotland Yard, on board R 33, from which wireless notification of congestion was sent by telephone to the police below.

By the use of R 33, record road traffic was handled with a smoothness unknown before, thus furnishing invaluable information for future Derbys and big road events. "To show how easy the traffic went," said the commissioner of police (General Sir W. T. P. Howwood) last night, "the king went down to Epsom from door to door—Buckingham Palace to the grand stand—in fifty-eight minutes."

Mr. Hogg—"What have you ever done to save others from suffering and misery?" Mr. Hogg—"I married you, didn't I?"—Answers.

USE ELECTRICITY FOR RAFTING LOGS AT THE NASHWAUK

Nashwauk Pulp and Paper Co. Start Something New for This Province.

(Frederick Gleaser.)
Electricity is being used as power for rafting purposes for the first time in New Brunswick by the Nashwauk Pulp and Paper Company, at the mouth of the Nashwauk river, where rafts of logs are made up for towage to St. John. Power for the motors used in the operation is supplied from the power lines of the Maritime Electric Company of Fredericton, whose lines extend across the St. John river to Devon for distribution. About 700 feet of power line was constructed to bring the power to the river bank at the scene of operations below the highway bridge at mouth of Nashwauk.
Two twenty h. p. two-phase motors and a crew of seventy men now do the work formerly requiring a crew of 200 men when the rafting was done entirely by hand, stated C. Jones, the foreman in charge, to a reporter yesterday afternoon. The pieces coming down river are guided by booms and men with poles into a form or mold between two

MAY CHANGE THE QUEBEC LIQUOR LAW

Victoriaville Que. June 20—Hon. L. A. Taschereau, premier of Quebec, speaking at a meeting here Saturday night strongly intimated that at the next session of the legislature, the government would be prepared to amend the Quebec liquor law in such a way as to satisfy demands from rural districts. This is for taverns and for the establishment of retail liquor depots. Mr. Taschereau, however, coupled this intimation with a clearly defined statement that the government would do so only providing it was convinced rural Quebec wished to have such a change, and further that the law be rigidly observed.

A Danger Warning —Bleeding Gums

Are your gums tender? Do they bleed when brushed? If so—watch out for Pyorrhea.

This disease of the gums, which afflicts four out of five people over forty, not only destroys the teeth, but often wrecks the health.

In Pyorrhea, the gums become spongy, then recede; the teeth decay, loosen and fall out—or must be extracted to rid the system of the infecting Pyorrhea germs which breed in pockets about them. These germs lower the body's vitality and cause many diseases.

You can keep Pyorrhea away. Visit your dentist often for tooth and gum inspection, and use Forhan's For the Gums.

Forhan's For the Gums prevents Pyorrhea—or checks its progress, if used in time and used consistently. Ordinary dentifices cannot do this. Forhan's keeps the gums firm and healthy—the teeth white and clean.

Start using it today. If your gums have receded, use Forhan's according to directions, and consult a dentist immediately for special treatment.

Like the Pyramids and Sphinx, Despite Time and the Ingenuity of Man Waterman's Ideal Fountain Pen stands Supreme WATERMAN'S Ideal Fountain Pen is the product of an organization that for the past thirty-six years has been making fountain pens exclusively. Today the line of Waterman's Ideal Fountain Pens covers every proven advance in fountain pen construction.

It includes the regular and safety types of dropper filled and pump and lever filling devices of the self-filling type.

Being pioneers and recognized leaders in the industry, we are the natural market for inventors with ideas that in their judgment would improve our product.

No one is or has been keener to investigate these claims than we are, because it has been our intention from the first that if ever a better fountain pen than Waterman's Ideal was made we would make it.

It has happened and will happen again that fountain pens appear on the market with "talking point" devices that during our far greater experience we have already experimented with and found either impractical or inferior to devices of our own intended for the same purpose.

Back of every Waterman's Ideal Fountain Pen is a world-wide service to assure its enduring satisfaction.

CORRECTING THE GLOBE

This business of correcting the Globe is really becoming tedious. They need a new hand at the bellows down there. Last night the Globe said:

"One of the critics of harbor commission says we 'ignored the yearly income from North and South Market wharf rentals, which would be lost to the city under commission.' This omission on our part was certainly a little unfortunate—for the critic. In order that the objector may get all the consolation possible from these figures we herewith reproduce them for the past two years: 1919, North and South Market wharves, receipts, $1,067.50; expenditure, $3,574.80; 1920, receipts, $1,660.00; expenditure, $3,883.28, or an excess of expenditure over receipts for the two years of $4,649.26."

The Globe is still ignoring the rentals, which for the two years amounted to $3,406.28. Subtract this $1,242.98, and the deficit is only $1,242.98.

But why is expenditure made on North and South Market wharves? Because they are really city streets, giving entry to Smythe and Ward streets. They are kept in condition as streets and not merely as wharves. But for this the expenditure would be trifling. Under harbor commission the city would lose the ground rentals. Would the harbor commission keep up the two wharves as streets without compensation from the city? If the Globe believes it would the faith of the Globe would remove mountains.

A VIGOROUS PROTEST.

The Ottawa Journal regards the proposal to retire employees of the post-office and customs departments who are over sixty-five years of age as "unnecessary, cruel, and generally undesirable," and discusses the subject in this vigorous fashion:

"If the employees in these two departments over the age of 65 are no longer capable of rendering satisfactory service, neither are those in the other departments. It is ridiculous, in practically all lines of endeavor everywhere, men past 65 are doing as good work and many of them better work than they ever did. Plenty of positions are to be seen in the possession of men past 65 which require much more vigor than most civil service positions. It is true enough that some men are past the age of greatest usefulness at 65—some at an earlier age. But it is impossible to draw a dead line for all. Members of the government must realize this. Some men find it necessary to retire from public life at comparatively early ages, while others remain in harness when far into the old men's class. Civil servants who are able to carry on their work efficiently should not be fired from their positions on the rule of old age until they are old. It would not be in the interests of the public service that they should be, and it would be a tremendous hardship on the civil servants themselves. Although able to satisfactorily discharge the duties in which they were experienced, they would not be able to procure employment in commercial life. They would have nothing but their retiring allowance to support them. The Journal hopes the government will not endorse any such unnecessary, cruel and generally undesirable plan."

VOCATIONAL TRAINING.

At the closing exercises of the Montreal Technical School some very interesting facts showing the growth of interest in vocational training were presented by Principal Belanger. The Gazette report says:

"He drew the attention of the audience to the fact that the occasion was the tenth anniversary of the foundation of the school, it having begun its career in September, 1911, with 101 students following day courses, and 250 assisting at night classes. From year to year the number of pupils had increased until 1921 saw a total day attendance of 383 pupils, with another 774 following the night courses. In addition to these 141 pupils have followed special courses, bringing the number of students inscribed during the year to total 1,248. During the past ten years 2,007 pupils have followed the day courses. Night courses have been followed by 5,924 students since the inception, of whom 783 have obtained professional certificates. Diplomas have been awarded to 189 students, who have completed the three-year course."

Another speaker declared that the hopes of the founders of the school had been justified by the success of the school, which was originally built to accommodate three hundred pupils and is now overcrowded. By a readjustment of teaching methods, however, resulting from investigations made in the United States, it is expected that eight or nine hundred can be enrolled as students hereafter. That the government of Quebec province is keenly alive to the value of vocational training was made clear by Hon. Walter Mitchell. The Gazette report says:

"Hon. Walter Mitchell said he knew that the government of the province in establishing the school had done a great deal to help technical education in Quebec. Ten years ago Sir Lomer Gouin had been discouraged in his projects to encourage technical education in the province. Now everyone agreed that the time had come for the government to delve as deeply as possible in its pockets to support technical training. One of the objects of the school was to provide training for boys in poor circumstances who could not afford a university education. By thus training the youth of the province it would no longer be necessary to bring trained workers from England and other countries. This year the provincial government would spend $2,000,000 on education in the province and every effort would be made to support technical education to the utmost."

Whenever one reads of the progress made in technical education in other cities the question of what is to be the next forward step in St. John naturally arises. This city should have a vocational high school, and yet the interest of the citizens flags and nothing is done. It is not a satisfactory condition of affairs. Boys continue to leave school too early in life because the school does not give them what they ought to receive in the matter of vocational training.

WORK FOR THE WORKLESS.

The Times recently published a letter in which the writer, who employs a large number of men in that way, urged that real estate men and other owners of houses take advantage of the present surplus of labor to get as much painting and repair work as possible done now, and so help to relieve the strain of unemployment. We find in a recent New York paper the following letter:

"Sir:—Please give us an editorial urging people to repair their houses and thus give employment to idle mechanics."

The New York paper prints the letter in its editorial columns and adds:

"It is true that in the crisis of widespread unemployment through which we are passing many men are sorely in need of even casual work, and if people who have building repair work to be done can and will have it done now, they will to that extent be co-operating to alleviate the hardships of enforced idleness in a slack period."

Hon. Mr. Ballantyne told parliament that $2,000,000 was quite as much as St. John harbor was worth. The Globe agrees with Mr. Ballantyne and quotes him with approval. It also describes him as "a wholly disinterested member of parliament." Is it not Mr. Ballantyne who is doing the buying? When was a buyer ever a disinterested party? The city council in 1918 valued the harbor properties at $2,906,966. This did not include soil rights. Does the council believe the harbor is worth less than it was in 1918? Do the people believe it? Do they believe at all in accepting a scheme which takes everything and guarantees nothing except the $2,000,000? If they do, their faith in the future of the port of St. John must have vanished and left them in a slough of despond.

New York Evening Post: Mr. Hughes insists that we have no concern with Europe's political squabbles, but that we are indeed concerned in European developments affecting the economic interests of the United States. Thus, if we have today a national debt of about $25,000,000,000 and remember a casualty list of nearly 100,000 dead, it is because our economic interests were directly affected by the assassination of an Austrian Archduke at Sarajevo, our exports to which town probably amount to $240,800.

Great Britain, France and Italy have requested the Greeks to postpone their campaign against the Turks in Asia Minor. If King Constantine persists, in the face of this protest, and the offer of the Allies to mediate, he cannot expect sympathy from them in his campaign. The Allies have also served notice on the Poles and Germans in Upper Silesia that the frontier must be established, and if the matter cannot be otherwise adjusted, experts will be sent there, whose decision will be enforced by the Allies.

The polite suggestion of the civil servants that all members of the cabinet and of parliament who are over sixty-five, might, in view of the proposed elimination of civil servants over that age, ask themselves why they are still alive and kicking, ought to have some effect.

Importations of liquor into Ontario will be illegal after July 18. When they are made illegal in New Brunswick there will be less difficulty in enforcing the law.

Two St. John ladies picked the winner in the Derby. Local politicians will have a new respect for the judgment of the fair sex when the candidates come to the starting line.

METHODIST CONFERENCE ENDS. At the evening session of the New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island Methodist Conference, being held at Sackville, a resolution was passed, tendering a vote of thanks to the Loyal Orange Association for their services in the Despathe-Tremblay divorce case appeal, and also expressing the satisfaction of the conference at the decision. The conference closed at midnight having decided to make the conference financial year end on May 15.

THE RETURN OF THE HOME-BORN

(Alfred Noyes.)

All along the white chalk coast
The mist lifts and
Wight is glimmering like a ghost.
The ship draws near.
Little inch-wide meadows
Lost so many a distant year.
The first time I know you
Was when I turned away.

Island—little island—
Lost so many a year;
Mother of all I leave behind—
Draw me near!
Mother with the rolling world,
And O, so little and gray,
The first time I found you
Was when I turned away.

Over you green water
Sussex lies,
Bow with the misty gather—
In our eyes—
England, little island—
God, how dear!
Fold me in your mighty arms,
Draw me near.

Little tawny roofs of home,
Nestling in the gray,
Where the smell of Sussex loam
Blows across the bay,
Fold me, teach me, draw me close,
Lest in death I say
The first time I loved you
Was when I turned away.

IN LIGHTER VEIN.

As She Understood It.
"I do hope that you keep your cows in a pasture," said Mrs. Newlywed, as she paid the milkman.
"Yes," replied the milkman. "Of course we keep them in a pasture."
"I'm so glad," gushed Mrs. Newlywed. "I have been told that pastured milk is much the best."

An Economist.
"Are your rates expensive?"
"Not always," said Farmer Courtless, hopefully. "I have noticed that Josh would rather hear a fifty-cent Jase record than the highest priced grand opera that the phonograph affords."

Disquieting.
"Mother, why did you marry father?"
"So you've begun to wonder too, have you?"—Boston Transcript.

Just So.
Another form of screen tragedy develops when there is a hole in the window wire and the flies and mosquitoes get in.—Boston Transcript.

Too Good To Waste.
She—"And I suppose you would like me to return all your presents?"
He—"Not at all my dear girl; only the letters; there's some jolly good stuff in them I can use again."

One at a Time.
A messenger from the local provision shop hailed a man in dock.
"What do you want?" growled the mate.
"Get some vegetables for the ship," was the reply.
"All right. You needn't come aboard. Throw them up one at a time," said the mate as he stood ready to receive them.
"Aho, there! Look out!" shouted the lad, as he threw a small dried pea aboard. "I've got a hundred weight of these."

Quite High.
Marjorie—"Marjorie has a high color, hasn't she?"
Madge—"Yes; the conceited thing! That kind costs thirty shillings a box."

To Be Exact.
"Where were you born, Willie?"
"In London, sir," said Willie.
"What part?"
"All of me 'cept my teeth; they were born in Magnolia!"—Boston Transcript.

MR. MEIGHEN AND THE MARITIME

(Moncton Transcript)
After interviewing Premier Meighen and members of his cabinet the maritime delegates which went to Ottawa to demand that the confederation compact in respect to the I. C. R. be observed returned home with the feeling that their mission had not been a success. Premier Meighen canvassed the claims of Quebec to be considered a national port, and apparently gave his answer to the maritime delegation, which all indicated the importance of the I. C. R. being treated as an entity, separate and distinct from the bankrupt railways which the government has taken over to protect Mackenzie & Mann and other Toronto interests.

Mr. Meighen said in effect that the railway problem must be considered as a whole, and that the government could not recognize sectional demands. If this meant anything, that Premier Meighen's government was not disposed to give effect to the views of the maritime provinces, which in a measure are also the views of Quebec City. With this attitude we could have no quarrel if Ottawa had always maintained a balance of justice between the east and the west. But this notoriously has not been the case. We have been taxed to build railways in the west to encourage land mining, the manufacture of well-to-do wheat growers who spend their winters in Los Angeles or Florida, and also to give them export rates on their product out of all proportion to the so-called preferential rates we formerly enjoyed on the I. C. R.

If we had been placed on a parity with the west, we would for years past have enjoyed rail rates based on the capital cost of the I. C. R. less military considerations, less the subsidies paid private roads, less the value of land grants, with lumbering and mining rights given private companies. But this we have not done, and Premier Meighen did not do justice to the claims of the maritimes. We are not asking for favors; we are demanding that our arrears of interest on the confederation compact be recognized and paid.

SPARE THE FORESTS.

Stratford Beacon.—We spend on face powder and perfumery $1,000,000. The bill for ice cream cones for juvenile Canadians is larger than the total amount spent on all forms of forest protection and forestry in the Province of Ontario. The national bill for cigarettes alone is over $25,000,000 and for cigars over $12,000,000. When any complaint is heard that the nation is paying too much for the maintenance of forestry branches let it be considered that all such expenses bulked together barely come up to the national outlay for the single item of chewing gum.

William Farnum stirred the audiences at the Unique Theatre deeply yesterday, when he appeared in his latest William Fox production, "His Greatest Sacrifice," based on the life tragedy of a wife who separates herself from her husband and child in the hope of winning happiness from public applause in the opera world. At the time of this separation the husband has just begun to climb the ladder of success as a writer. The wife has a fine voice, and she leaves her home because she is fearful that domestic life will interfere with her career.

A wealthy and influential man tells her that her career means everything to her. She believes him. She achieves fame—but in the end is forced to give way to younger women. Then mother-love, which she had tried to crush, comes back and she seeks consolation from her husband and her daughter—only to find that what she discarded so callously cannot be grasped again at all.

There are many intensely dramatic moments in this picture, moments when Mr. Farnum sings one of his fine acting. It is a picture in which there are no dull moments. It is satisfying.

MORNING NEWS

OVER THE WIRES

John Lewis, president of the Mine Workers Union, yesterday announced his candidacy for the office of president American Federation of Labor and a strenuous fight between him and Samuel Gompers for the position is anticipated. Both sides claim to have a majority of the delegates attending the conference in Denver. Gompers has been president since 1894.

A rumor is current in England that the Sinn Feinists intend to signalize the King's visit to Belfast by making an offer of peace.

It was announced yesterday the Eamon de Valera had been re-elected "President of the Irish Republic" and that James O'Callaghan had been elected speaker of Dail Eireann, the legislative body of the Sinn Fein government.

Colonel Lambert, in command of a brigade at Athlone was fatally shot last evening while returning from a tennis party with his wife and another officer and his wife. The driver of the car in which they were driving was ordered by a bullet struck Colonel Lambert in the neck.

SUNFLOWERS AS A SILAGE CROP

Much interest is being taken both in Canada and the United States in the value of sunflowers as a silage crop, particularly in districts where corn is not a reliable crop. The claim is made that sunflowers are a harder crop than corn, withstanding both drought and frost to a greater degree. Insofar as the claims put forth for sunflowers as a food for cattle are virtually of recent origin, extensive and investigation regarding them are practically in an introductory stage. It is interesting to note, however, that an analysis of sunflower silage fed to an Idaho agricultural experimental station indicated that it compared favorably with corn silage. In Canada also, studies of the relative value of sunflowers and corn for silage purposes suggest that in nutrition there is not any great difference, although corn is to be preferred when it can be plentifully and cheaply grown. Where this is not the case, sunflowers are an excellent substitute.

DORCHESTER JAIL BREAKERS FOUND

Moncton, June 20—Lorette and Young, who escaped from the county jail at Dorchester on Sunday morning were recaptured this afternoon at Scoudouc, near Shediac, by Sheriff Killam. It is reported that the two prisoners managed to get away by means of a key which they had gained possession of in some unaccountable manner.

At the regular meeting of the Y. W. C. A. board of directors yesterday the president, Mrs. John A. McAvity, advocated the necessity of working for a community centre in St. John. The physical culture secretary reported great activity in that sphere of the work. Mrs. F. T. Dunlop read a report of the girls' work committee, stating that the C. G. I. T. camp list is full with twenty more girls in readiness to go. Devotional exercises were led by Mrs. James F. Robinson, who also gave the report of the immigration committee. Mrs. T. H. Somerville, the treasurer, reported that the recent gymnasium display had realized more than $800. OPENING OF THE EMPIRE CONFERENCE

The conference of the British premiers opened in Downing street office, London, yesterday. Premier Lloyd George delivered the opening address in which he gave a lengthy and complete review of the foreign policy of Great Britain. He dealt with the question of reparations and expressed the conviction that the amount fixed was beyond Germany's power to pay. He briefly summarized the events leading up to the present conference of premiers, emphasizing the fact that they were meeting as co-equal partners in a common empire. Touching the renewal of the Japanese alliance he said the British government was desirous of ascertaining the views of the different dominions.

Mr. Arthur Meighen was the first speaker on the programme after Mr. Lloyd George. He confined himself to a parliamentary statement of his understanding of the scope and functions of

A MIDSUMMER TREAT AT IMPERIAL

Conway Tearle in "Society Snobs" Very Fine—Larry Semon in "The Rent Collector."

It would be difficult to imagine a more difficult role for a hero than that of a waiter. People just naturally don't connect waiters and romance together. Yet Conway Tearle in "Society Snobs," the latest Selznick picture now showing at the Imperial Theatre invests even this menial characterization with real personality.

The foibles and absurdities of society are pictured by the merciless pen of Lewis Allen Browne, who has a particularly happy faculty of driving right to the heart of things. The dangers to which ambitious mothers heedlessly expose their daughters are vividly set forth. Gorgeous settings are plentiful and it is easily seen that no expense was spared in making the picture in every respect a true mirror of society as it is among the extravagant members of the idle nouveau riche.

Conway Tearle as Lorenzo Carlo, a young Italian of good birth who has been forced to take a position as waiter in the Ritz restaurant because of financial difficulties, manages to look aristocratic even in his waiter's garb. Martha Mansfield as the debutante daughter of rich parents not only looks beautiful, but shows splendid ability as an actress. In certain tense scenes she shows great repressed emotional power.

The Imperial's bill was not without a broad dash of comedy, to wit Larry Semon, that acrobatic clown, in his latest screem "The Rent Collector." For hilarity in great chunks and spasms this two-reeler was a huge success and the crowds simply roared. There was a Burton Holmes travelogue as well and

RETURN AFTER A HALF CENTURY

Two former residents of this city, Mr. and Mrs. John McLaughlin, returned here yesterday after an absence of fifty-two years. They have spent the greater part of the last fifty years in Portland, Oregon, St. John itself, according to Mr. McLaughlin, is entirely strange to him, but the harbor bears a familiar look. They came east to reside with relatives in Chesley street. Both are still hale and hearty and, in spite of their eighty odd years, they stood the long trip wonderfully.

Mr. McLaughlin is eighty-four years of age and his wife is eighty, but both of them stood the week's journey from Portland wonderfully. They came here via the C. P. R. over the Canadian Rockies and both seemed to be fresher than many a person half their age would be after such a long trip. They are staying at present at the home of Miss Bridgett Hillis, 135 Chesley street, only a short distance from the spot where their former home stood when they left St. John, just fifty-two years ago this month.

WITANSTEDE EXERCISES.

As part of the closing exercises of the Witanstede school Miss C. Littlefield's class of gymnasium pupils gave a very attractive gymnasium exhibition in the Y. W. C. A. recreational centre yesterday morning. There were twenty-seven pupils on the floor and they went through a fine programme with splendid precision. Miss Perry was at the piano. Five of the girls of the class are ready to enter the life-saving swimming competition. They are Eleanor Day, Violet McAvilly, Margaret Hayes, Lois Fairweather and Marion Currey. In the afternoon the French pupils of the school, under the direction of Mlle. Saulnier, presented two little plays with admirable success. The proceeds of the afternoon programme are to go towards the Emma Skinner Fiske scholarship fund.

The Comfort Costs You Nothing

Usually you pay for comfort and style. But not in Goodyear Cord Tires. The comfort from resiliency of these fine tires is a bonus. On the basis of mileage alone they cost less to use. The saving in car-depreciation, the saving in gasoline, the easier riding, are all clear profit to you.

Ask any motorist who uses Goodyear Cords if you want to know what real comfort is. Look over the cars which have been run thousands of miles on Goodyear Cords and note their good mechanical condition. Inquire regarding Goodyear Cord Tire mileage for economy's sake. Note the tremendous increase in sales of these tires—because they cost less to use.

Certainly truck-owners are not much influenced by comfort or looks in buying tires. But Goodyear Cords dominate the pneumatic truck tire field. That's because both truck and tires cost less in the end.

Master's Report.
Mr. Hibbard in his report said that the closing of the school on the forty-fourth year since its location. Its growth, fairly constant and regular up to four years ago, has since been limited by the capacity of our present buildings. I think that it has been amply proven by the number of applications for entry which we receive each year, many of which have had to be refused on account of lack of room, that our clientele warrants a larger school, and it has been a disappointment to me, as indeed it has been to all who are really interested in us, that we have been unable owing to lack of funds, to enlarge our scope by adding another building.

"Altogether apart, however, from the question of the size of the school there is another one which is of great importance, and that is the one of providing a suitable war memorial. There is undoubtedly a growing tendency to forget the war, to forget the men who suffered and those who have laid down their lives in our behalf. Just the other day it was reported in the press that in response to a request made in Winnipeg for 400 motor cars to carry disabled war veterans on a certain day 3 cars were offered for the occasion. This is more or less typical of what is going on everywhere. We forget very easily, and I should deem it a great pity, were a disgrace, if no suitable memorial can be provided which would be really worthy of the services of our Old Boys in the war.

As most of you already know it was proposed two years ago to erect a memorial building consisting of a chapel and dining-hall. Taking into consideration the exigencies connected with our present buildings and the necessity of using these to the greatest advantage, it would seem that this plan is really the only practical and logical one. I do not think that this has ever been seriously questioned. Certainly the plan has been unanimously endorsed by the various committees which have been appointed to examine into the matter. At the present time we have between $9,000 and $10,000 towards the project subscribed and the board of education of the synod has offered to lend $25,000, making a total in sight of $34,000. The building will cost about $85,000, so we shall need another $50,000. This is a bad time to raise funds. This is no doubt true, but I am quite sure that the required sum would be found if sufficient interest were taken in the matter.

The School Year.
Proceeding to events connected with the school year which closed today, I would first of all express the sorrow and sense of loss felt by us in the death of James F. Robertson. Mr. Robertson was for many years a warm friend of the school. His gifts and benefactions to it were numerous. It is largely due to him that we enjoy today a splendid site on College Hill. His generosity in making it possible for so many of the sons of the clergy to attend the school is but an example of the many kind acts most of which were known only to himself and to the recipient, and the fact that he made provision in his will to provide a certain number of bursaries for the sons of the clergy is an added proof of his far-sighted and generous interest.

"A notable event of the year that we together with certain other schools and colleges in different parts of the dominion, were placed upon what is known as the Leonard Foundation, which provides scholarships for the children of the clergy, of teachers, or soldiers and sailors in the permanent British and Canadian forces and of veterans who have taken part in any of the wars in which the empire has been engaged. The foundation owes its existence entirely to the munificence of Col. Leonard of St. Catharines, Ont., and the fact that we were placed upon it is no doubt largely due to an old and valued friend of the school who was a classmate of Col. Leonard's at the Royal Military College. I refer to Canon A. W. Daniel of Rothesay. I feel that it is indeed a privilege and a fortunate that we have prevailed upon Canon Daniel to be our first representative on the committee of management which meets next Friday in Toronto.

"Coming to events more closely connected with the inner life of the school, I can say that the year has been, on the whole, a very encouraging one. The health of the pupils has been good and discipline well maintained. The work in the various forms has been of a good standard. It is too early to speak of results in connection with the various matriculation examinations, as these will not be known for some time. All I can do in this respect is to refer to last year's results which came out after the closing of last year. All our candidates did very creditably. There was only one failure, and in that case in only one subject.

"This year the cadet corps made a new record for itself and the province in obtaining at the annual inspection a total of 270 marks out of a possible 300.

"As in former years, much interest has been taken in rifle shooting, and many teams were entered for various matches. We won the provincial championship. In the Canadian Rifle League miniature match we came second out of nineteen teams competing, the winners only beating us by one-tenth of a point in the average. In the Canadian Rifle League service rifle matches we entered one team of ten boys, which shot the four matches on the St. John range and made a very fair showing. We expect that two of our boys at least will be chosen to represent New Brunswick at the Dominion Rifle Association cadet meet which will be held in Ottawa next August.

"In athletics, also, we had a very successful year. We lost the football championship, but won the hockey league, and, for the sixth successive time, the interscholastic track meet. We also won our annual contest with King's College School in track and field sports, which was held this year in Windsor.

"Last year I outlined a plan whereby we proposed having the boys undertake some definite duties in connection with the care of the dormitories and other domestic services. This has proved eminently successful, and I would like to thank the boys for their cheerful cooperation in this, especially the inspectors appointed from their number. I feel that this so-called 'self-help plan' is of great value in the general training of our pupils.

"In conclusion, I would like to thank the members of the staff for their loyal and able support. I have felt all along that they have considered the school and what they could do for it first, far above their own convenience and recreation. It gives me great pleasure to be able to say that there will be no changes on the staff for next year.

"To Mrs. White, also, I would tender my thanks for her unsparing and constant devotion to her school, in which she has been so eminently successful; also to her staff for their cheerful co-operation under circumstances which were often trying.

"The school monitors have very willingly undertaken new duties this year which they have ably performed. They have opportunities of exercising a great influence for good in the school, and of most of these I can say they have conscientiously availed themselves."

"WIZARD" WINS NEW TEST.
Student Nolan Excels in "Shotgun" Psychology Exercise.

Seattle, June 21—Michael John Nolan, 42 years old, a student of the University of Washington here, and called by psychology experts the "intelligence test wizard of the United States," again has surpassed all competitors in a test at the university. William R. Wilson, instructor in the department of psychology, announced today.

This time it was a "shotgun" test, and Nolan, besides scoring 293, seven-point tests ahead of his nearest competitor, occupied only twenty-five minutes, five minutes less than the allotted time.

Nolan recently astonished educators by scoring perfect in the army alpha intelligence test. Nolan, who followed the sea for many years, became interested in higher education only after he was invalided home from overseas service in the Canadian Army.

Embarrassing Hairs Can Be Quickly Removed (Beauty Culture.)

Hairs can be easily banished from the under-arms, neck and face by this quick, painless method: Mix into a stiff paste some powdered delatons and water, spread on hairy surface and in 2 or 3 minutes rub off, wash the skin and it will be free from hair or blemish. Excepting in very stubborn growths, one application is sufficient. To avoid disappointment, buy the delatone in an original package and mix fresh.

CIRCUS GOOD AND THOUSANDS THERE

Sells-Floto Has Exceptionally Fine Ring Performance, With Some Acts Very Superior.

The thousands who attended the afternoon and evening shows of the Sells-Floto circus were delighted with the performance, which was one of the best seen in St. John in years. Every moment of the two hours which it took to stage the show saw some act being performed in the three big rings or above on the trapeze wires, and a first-class band played continuously, from the time they opened the performance with the "Maple Leaf Forever" until they closed it with "God Save the King."

The first act was a grand march past, "The Birth of the Rainbow" and this was followed by the appearance of several bucking mules which refused to allow clowns to ride them. An excellent elephant act under the direction of Blanche Wells followed and then came aerial acrobatics by a troupe of trapeze artists. Four acts by seals, dogs, ponies and monkeys were next seen. Living human statuary, the feature of which was a snow-white horse, Pasha, which remained absolutely motionless, made up the next act.

"Foodles" Mannerford and family, famous English equestrians was a feature of the show. The clever riding feats of the clown, brought forth round after round of applause. Fire troupes of athletes presented exceptionally clever tumbling acts and Japs illustrated the wonderful Jiu-Jitsu in wrestling. Bertha Benson gave an outstanding dancing exhibition on the tight wire while startling feats on the lofty swings were also performed. Five acts of flying human but-terflies, a series of difficult feats performed by troupes of Indians galloping around the rings concluded the regular show. The usual concert and wild west show followed.

The show carries a menagerie consisting of lions, tigers, leopards, llamas, bears, stags and half-bred cats on the flying swings, making triple somersaults, double twists and reverse flights through space. The tight rope and slack rope horses was also a feature. The whole circus was very well conducted and the management did its best to look after the comfort of their large number of patrons.

ABOUT ICELAND
A Topsy-Turvy Country, Neither Hot Nor Cold.

A hurry call for cargoes of ice for Iceland, to prevent its winter herring crop from spoiling, was recently received in Norway, and promptly responded to.

This, to the world at large, seemed from spilling, was a logical thing to do as for Pennsylvania to send to Cuba for coal.

Nevertheless, when it is understood what a "topsy-turvy" land is Iceland, it is not so surprising. Iceland is a volcanic island, and the temperature of this northern country and neighbor to Greenland is milder than that of Milan, Italy; and, on the other hand, in summer it is much cooler than many points much farther north.

The "Land of Fire" would be a much more appropriate name for Iceland than the one it is known by. For the surface of no other country, perhaps, is so deeply marked by the withering blasts that well up from volcanoes. In no other country of equal area are to be found so many volcanic peaks and vents. Of the 40,000 square miles of the country's area, 8,000 are covered by lava flows.

Iceland is about 8,000 square miles larger than Ireland. It is only a short distance off the European coast of Greenland, and its northernmost cape just touches the Arctic circle. In spite of its position so near the North Pole, Iceland, thanks to the Gulf Stream, has a relatively mild winter climate. Reykjavik, the capital, is the same latitude as Yakov, the capital, is the same latitude as Yakov, Alaska, but has a January temperature milder than that of Milan, Italy.

Icelandic summers, however, are cool, due to the large fields of ice that float down from the north. Grain cannot be grown satisfactorily, and all breadstuffs must be imported. Hay, potatoes and turnips are the only agricultural products of any importance. Cattle, horses and sheep are raised in considerable numbers, and large quantities of fish—chiefly cod and herring—are taken from their neighboring waters.

Though Iceland has an extensive area for all practical purposes it might just as well be only a seventh its actual size. Although Europeans emigrated to Iceland about seven hundred years before Old World colonies were established in the now tamed North America, only the valleys and lowlands near the coast of the island have ever been developed. This is not because of a lack of energy on the part of the hardy Scandinavians who settled the island, but because the interior, comprising about six-sevenths of the total area, is a waste of lava.

The island is approximately 200 miles wide and 800 miles long, but hardly a habitation can be found forty miles from salt water. There are no railroads and few carriage roads. The inhabitants depend almost entirely on water transportation along the coast and in the many fjords.

Iceland can be considered the halfway station between Europe and America. Nearly 700 years before Columbus sailed to the West Indies through the warm south Atlantic in his relatively large, decked ships, Scandinavian sea rovers in their open boats passed from Norway to Iceland and from there to the coast of Newfoundland.

SASKATCHEWAN CROPS.

Regina, Sask., June 21—Excellent growth and abundance of moisture throughout the province are indicated by the report on crop conditions issued by the Saskatchewan department of agriculture for the week ended June 18. Heavy rains and warm weather have combined to induce rapid growth although slight damage has been done by scattered hailstorms.

Wheat in many places is in the shot blade and winter rye is to be seen from two to three feet in height. Every effort is being made to combat the grasshoppers and very little damage is reported as due to this or any other insect pest.

PRODUCTION OF IRON AND STEEL

An Increase in Canada During February, But Outlook Not Bright.

Despite the fact that one more furnace was blown out during February, leaving only six blast furnaces operating in Canada at the close of the month the production of pig iron was higher by over six thousands tons than the total production for the previous month. The actual figures for February show a total of 57,711 long tons of pig iron produced, exclusive of spiegel-iron and ferro-alloys. By far the greater part of the output was made by firms for their own use, the amount credited to this account being 47,575 long tons of basic pig iron made in blast furnaces and 199 tons of foundry iron made in electric furnaces. In addition to the 199 tons just mentioned, 5,947 long tons of foundry iron was made in blast furnaces making a total of foundry iron for the month of 6,046 tons. The 5,947 tons of foundry iron and 4,900 tons of malleable iron from blast furnaces were produced for sale. The output of ferro-alloys including spiegel-iron and ferro-alloy decreased ity of steel ingots made for this purpose being 56,228 long tons. Of this quantity 56,157 long tons was made in the last five years and the month's production was over 19,000 tons higher, while the production for steel dropped almost 5,000 tons. Blast furnaces were operated during the month at Sault Ste. Marie, Hamilton and Port Colborne in Ontario, and at Sydney, Cape Breton. The furnace of the Midland Iron and Steel Company at Midland, Ontario, was blown out before the end of the month as was also one of the furnaces operated by the Steel Company of Canada. On the other hand, one additional furnace operated by the Algoma Steel Corporation was blown in during February. 15-4-23

From 5,284 tons in January to 2,094 tons in February.

Compared with the January production of pig iron for the use of firms reporting, February was over 19,000 tons higher, while the production for steel dropped almost 5,000 tons. Blast furnaces were operated during the month at Sault Ste. Marie, Hamilton and Port Colborne in Ontario, and at Sydney, Cape Breton. The furnace of the Midland Iron and Steel Company at Midland, Ontario, was blown out before the end of the month as was also one of the furnaces operated by the Steel Company of Canada. On the other hand, one additional furnace operated by the Algoma Steel Corporation was blown in during February. 15-4-23

The pig iron production during the month of February in the United States was the lowest for any February during the last five years and the month's production was lower than that for any month since October, 1919, at the time of the steel strike. The average production of pig iron in the United States in February according to "Iron Age" amounted to 69,187 long tons a day, as compared with an average of 77,945 long tons per day during the month of February last year. The production of steel ingots and castings during the month of February also showed an increase over the January output, the production of ingots and castings in February reaching a total of 85,947 long tons, as compared with 80,058 tons in January. While this is considerably below the average for 1920, it is in excess of the December figure. As in January also, the bulk of the production was made for use in further processes of manufacture by the firms producing, the total quantity of steel ingots made for this purpose being 56,228 long tons. Of this quantity 56,157 long tons was made in the last five years and the month's production was over 19,000 tons higher, while the production for steel dropped almost 5,000 tons. Blast furnaces were operated during the month at Sault Ste. Marie, Hamilton and Port Colborne in Ontario, and at Sydney, Cape Breton. The furnace of the Midland Iron and Steel Company at Midland, Ontario, was blown out before the end of the month as was also one of the furnaces operated by the Steel Company of Canada. On the other hand, one additional furnace operated by the Algoma Steel Corporation was blown in during February. 15-4-23

The complete stagnation of the iron and steel markets of the world finds its parallel in Canada and at present there is little hope of any immediate change for the better. Commodity prices are falling; costs of operation are being cut in almost every industry, and while steel prices have already begun to reflect cost-cutting operations, the outlook for increase in the steel-working and construction industries has not yet set in.

GERMANY'S ABILITY TO PAY WILL HURT BRITAIN'S CREDIT

There Will be Rigid Cutting Down in Standard of Living Among Germans—It Means Cheap Labor.

London, June 21—Reginald McKenna, former Chancellor of the Exchequer and chairman of the London Joint City and Midland Bank, made an address on "International Debts" here tonight. Before the war, he said, the United States was probably the principal debtor nation. She was now a great manufacturing nation, but the fact that in the past she incurred heavy external obligations was no exception to the rule that borrowing countries were primarily exporters of food and raw materials. As she developed her manufacturing, she reduced her borrowing abroad until before the war she had probably ceased to borrow on balance. Debts between nations, created by war, bore no resemblance to the earlier obligations that had been incurred between nations. These had not arisen out of normal trade relations, and had not been accompanied by any development of productive power of the debtor.

Discussing the debt, Mr. McKenna said that altogether Germany had to pay her foreign creditors £150,000,000 a year as a minimum, and £400,000,000 a year as a maximum. She could only pay by the sale of goods abroad or by rendering service to foreigners through shipping, banking and insurance. If she paid by viable exports, she must sell abroad at the rate of nearly £200,000,000, and take for internal consumption only £50,000,000, which was hardly conceivable in view of the need to import raw materials. To enable Germany to meet her final liability of close to £400,000,000, her exports must amount to not less than £1,200,000,000. German foreign trade could not be expanded to such a point, and so large an exportable surplus could not be maintained unless wages were kept extremely low by comparison with competing countries. There would have to be a rigid cutting down of the standard of living among the working classes. Would German working classes consent? The answer must be that they would. Would Meet Demands. Before the war Germany was Britain's greatest competitor. Cost in Germany would be below British. The effect on German shipping was obvious. Ships would be built and manned on the German basis of cost, but freight and passengers would be on the international level. An export duty of 20 per cent would, in fact, constitute a bonus of a preference of 28 per cent in favor of German shipping. The same thing would be true of banking and insurance. If Germany could get her trade going, he went on, it is probable that by the third year her industry would be running with such energy and volume as would enable her to meet the demands on her. The whole interest of the German Government would be concentrated on paying for the industrial "margin" it meant cheap labor and larger output. His rate of profit might be reduced, but the huge volume of production would give him a big return. The burden of the debt would be borne mainly by German workmen, whose real wages would never be allowed to rise. "The conclusion to which I am driven," said Mr. McKenna, "is that if Germany is able to meet her obligations, she will be doing so at the expense of her own international trade." According to his view there was a way to make Germany pay and to contribute to the prosperity of this country. Nothing stood in the way of Germany being required to send to this and other countries, each according to its requirements, such articles as coal, timber and potash. German labor would have been drawn from manufacture and devoted to the production of materials required by the countries to which she was indebted. That was the penalty that Germany might be called on to pay.

A REMARKABLE PRESBYTERIAN FAMILY

(Toronto Telegram.) A unique family record since the inception of Presbyterianism in Canada is that of the Scotts, who at the present general assembly have four brothers in attendance as commissioners. The eldest is Rev. A. H. Scott, of Perth, Ont. From Edmonton as an elder, comes J. Scott. Rev. D. J. has been sent from Alberta, and another lay brother, R. G., from one of the oldest Presbyterian kirks in the Dominion, St. Andrew's, Martintown, in Glengarry. Other members of this family have enviable records in ecclesiastical, military and missionary endeavor. The four brothers had two sisters, in Chinese foreign missionary service, one of whom died in the Orient, the other returning to Glengarry, where she died a few years ago. The three sons of Rev. A. H. saw service in France in the great war, as did also one son of W. J., another of whose boys is now laboring in the mission field in India. Rev. D. J. is an ex-moderator of the Saskatchewan Synod.

BOY HANGS 20 MINUTES BY ARM FROM A ROOF

Caught in a Creevice Trying to Capture Bird, but Seven Policemen Save Him.

(New York Times.) With his right arm caught and held in crevice under the roof of his home at Tynard avenue and 257th street, the Bronx, eight-year-old Bertram Shanahan hung suspended three stories above the ground for twenty minutes late yesterday. Seven policemen and one fireman succeeded in lifting him into a window of his home. Scores of persons saw the little fellow, and one of them ran almost a mile to the nearest police booth. Policeman Parker of the Kingsbridge station started for the Shanahan home, gathering reinforcements on the way. Bertram was raised some distance by two policemen who reached his feet from a top floor window. The others bent down and around the corner and lifted a heavy board which had caught and held his arm like a vice. They broke away the board, freeing the boy's arm. He was then lifted to the level of the window and taken in. He did not seem to be injured and was soon playing about as though nothing unusual had happened. Bertram told the policemen that he had been trying to catch a bird under the eaves.

TOY BALLOON CROP IS THREATENED

Belated Discovery That They are Filled With an Inflammable Gas Puts Them on the Blacklist.

The deadly toy balloon has at last been revealed in all its potential capacity for causing disaster and is about to be sentenced to the fire department's culliette. This was announced in New York by Thomas J. Hayes, deputy fire chief. Deputy Hayes has long been on the trail of this engine of destruction and now claims to have found evidence of its evil tendencies which warrants its proscription. For some time fond parents, uncles, and guardians have bought a large number of the red, purple and green rubber spheres from vendors, at whose wrists the anchored balloons tug for release. They thought they were doing the children a favor. Now it seems that they have been placing in the hands of the youngsters what really amounts to a menace. For the balloons have been found to be injected with hydrogen carried about by the vendors in tanks. Highly inflammable, therefore, they constitute a menace. Inspector John P. Dixon, head of the bureau of combustibles, reported to Mr. Hayes, threatening fire if they come in contact with a lighted cigar, cigarette, or gas jet. And so an ordinance will soon be before the board of aldermen, putting toy balloons on the black list and taking another joy out of life.

DEPLORES SYMPATHY SHOWN TO CRIMINALS

Judge Ermatinger Says Misplaced Sentiment Tends to Foment Crime. In addressing the grand jury at the opening of the general session of the peace in St. Thomas, last week, Judge Ermatinger criticized the expression of sympathy for condemned criminals which are heard frequently in the country, stating that they were misplaced and often tended to foment crime. The criminals were raised by some to the level of heroes and martyrs, His Honor declared, while the sufferings of their victims or their families were ignored or forgotten. "This exaltation of criminals and crime cannot, I think, be too strongly condemned," His Honor asserted.

They have been given ample time to create furniture of lasting worth.

And how well they have succeeded is proved by the growth of the Gold Medal business.

Today a number of large factories are necessary to meet the demand for Gold Medal products.

You can go to your furniture dealer, and buy Gold Medal products knowing that you are getting the greatest value the market affords—that nothing has been done to cheapen the line—that no piece of furniture has been thrown together for a bargain sale.

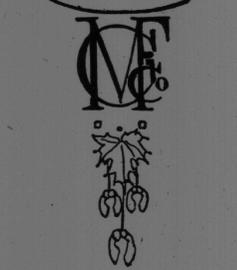

The Gold Medal organization has built up its reputation and has expanded by positively and fully guaranteeing every article it manufactures.

FINE FOR WOMEN
IF SEEN SMOKING

Mississippi Representative Introduces Bill in Congress.

Washington, June 21—"Female persons" must not smoke cigarettes in Washington, so Representative Johnson of Mississippi, has introduced a bill which he has introduced and which would charge the women $25 for the first time they were caught smoking in public places, and $100 a cigarette for each subsequent offence. The same fines would apply to the proprietors of public places, which Representative Johnson has defined in detail. He said that he has long objected to seeing women smoking in public, but the last straw came last night when he was walking in F street in front of a moving picture theatre. "I saw a young lady take a cigarette out of the hand of the young man she was walking with and take a puff herself. Smoking is even 'worse than whiskey' for women, he said in discussing the bill. "The girls at college learn how to smoke and then they go home and teach it to the other girls so that smoking by women is constantly on the increase. It is a bad thing and is going to contaminate the race. A woman who smokes and nurses her child transmits the evil effects of smoking."

The sound of the firing caused a large number of police to be sent to the headquarters and all within the building arrested.

WANTS WHIPPING POSTS FOR CHILD BEATERS

Justice Freschi So Expresses Himself in Sentencing Victim's Stepmother

(N. Y. Times)

If it were legally possible, Justice John J. Freschi of Special Sessions would whip publicly the "beaters of children."

When he and his associates on the bench—Justices Daniel F. Murphy and Joseph F. Moss—were told yesterday that the beating of Margaret Callahan, 5 years old, by her stepmother, Mrs. Lillian Callahan of 1,145 Third Avenue, Justice Freschi said:

"I wish the Legislature would establish the whipping post in this state. He agreed with the other Justices in a sentence of three months in the workhouse for the woman, but he said the law did not provide adequate punishment for those guilty of cruelty to children."

Raymond Callahan, father of the motherless child, told the court that on returning home a week ago he had found bruises on Margaret. Apparently the girl had made no complaint of beatings, her plight was made known to her father one night after a beating, when he had questioned her. She said her stepmother had stripped her and beaten her with anything she found handy.

J. W. Watson of the Children's Society told the court that D. W. T. Glubb examined Margaret in the rooms of the society and had found many bruises on her. Neighbors testified to having heard Margaret scream frequently. No testimony against the child was offered. There was no hint that Margaret was disobedient or did anything to offend her stepmother.

The only excuse advanced by Mrs. Callahan for her cruelty was that she was "jealous of the affection and love" displayed by the father for his daughter. Agent Watson said Mrs. Callahan, who is 28 years old, had told him she had not been cruel to an elder sister of Margaret because her husband had not given such marked attention to the older child.

LOCAL NEWS

NEW SEWER
The water and sewerage department of the city has commenced the extension of the Germain street sewer in West St. John. The work is being done by the men of the department, assisted by a few extra men taken on especially for this job.

SAY PIPE IS GOOD.
Commissioner Jones and the city engineer, G. G. Hare, have examined the pipe recently laid in St. John from Londonderry and offered to the city at a considerable reduction on the price of new pipe. Both said this morning that the pipe seemed to be in good condition and they would recommend its purchase under the usual guarantee.

TO MANAGE HOTEL.
Mr. and Mrs. C. Wilson Dager and their son Arthur, arrived in the city today on the S. S. Governor Dingley, en route to Grand View, Brown's Flat, where Mrs. Dager will assume the management of the Rockdale Hotel. While in the city they will be the guests of Mrs. Dager's brother, J. Domville Belyea, West St. John.

QUICK WORK.
Record time in the despatch of a steamer from this port was made this week. The Canadian Aviator of the C. G. M. Co. arrived here on Saturday night at ten o'clock, discharged her cargo and took on a full cargo of about 4000 tons of refined sugar by ten o'clock on Monday evening. She cleared this morning for Hull, England, via Sydney.

MRS. T. A. RANKINE.
Following an illness extending over some four years, death came this morning to Mrs. Mary E. Rankine, widow of Thomas A. Rankine, 297 Princess Street. Mr. Rankine died about fourteen years ago. Mrs. Rankine's death occurred about four o'clock this morning at her home. She leaves one son, W. C. Rankine of this city and four sisters—Mrs. Richard Alvingham and Miss Emma Chamber of Woodstock, and Mrs. Margaret Hamilton and Mrs. Janie Ferguson of Presque Isle, Me. She also leaves five step-sons, Oscar of Boston, and Henry, Frank, Walter and Allan of this city as well as two step-daughters, Mrs. W. S. Fielding of Ottawa, and Mrs. Villa Smith of Kingston, Ont. The funeral will be held on Thursday afternoon from her late residence.

WELL-CONDUCTED CIRCUS.
The only complaint that the city detectives had from any patrons of the circus yesterday was that of a lady who said she had lost a pocket, as she thought she must have lost it from her purse when making change. The detectives reported that it was the most orderly circus that had visited St. John in years and that no trouble of any kind had been reported to them. The circus is being upheld by the liquor inspectors, who found little evidence of liquor either among the employees of the circus or among the thousands of patrons. It is reported that they did not see one drunk there last evening, and they are wondering what disposal was made of all the liquor which it was reported had been brought in for the occasion by bootleggers.

THE LONE BRIDES
Morris-McCabe.
A wedding of interest to friends in this city took place in Seattle, Washington, on May 28, at 7 a. m. in the church, when Miss Agnes M. McCabe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McCabe of that city, was united in marriage to Kenneth George Morris, son of Hugh Morris of this city. The bride, who looked charming in a gown of white satin, with veil and orange blossoms, was attended by Miss Kate Perry, wearing white silk with trimmings of cream lace, and picture hat. Charles Morris, brother of the groom, acted as groomsmen. Following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride, after which Mr. and Mrs. Morris left on a trip to Tampa, Fla. Many beautiful and costly presents were received by the bride and groom, including a dinner set from the bride's parents and a chest of silver from the Yvonne high school, where the bride was employed. The groom's gift to his bride was an emerald stone, to the bridesmaid a string of pearl beads and to the groomsmen a stickpin. Mr. and Mrs. Morris will make their home in Seattle. Many friends in St. John join in wishing them a long and happy married life.

Gaudet-Higgins.
An interesting wedding took place this morning in the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, when Rev. Wm. M. Duke, with nuptial mass, united in marriage Miss Bertha Elizabeth, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Higgins, of Little River, to Alfred Lionel Gaudet, local manager for F. G. Spencer, Ltd., and son of Mr. and Mrs. Marcelin Gaudet, of Moncton. The bride was attractively attired in a costume of golden brown Minorcan crepe with fringe trimmings and wore a hat to match and mink neck scarf. She carried a bouquet of bridal roses. She was attended by Miss Nan Gallagher, who wore blue and grey de chine with hat to correspond and carried a bouquet of sweet peas. T. Chipman Olive was groomsmen. After the ceremony, wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride, 76 Charlotte street. Mr. and Mrs. Gaudet left this afternoon on an automobile tour through Nova Scotia. The bride's traveling suit was of grey, tricotized with grey hat and squirrel scarf. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Gray, of Sackville; Miss Marion McLellan, of Halifax; and Mrs. Donald Fraser, of Chatham. Both Mr. and Mrs. Gaudet have a host of friends in the city and elsewhere who will wish them every happiness for the future. On the return after their wedding trip they will reside at 76 Charlotte street.

Meade-Coleman.
In the Cathedral of Immaculate Conception this morning at nuptial mass by Rev. R. McCarty, Miss Corinne E. Coleman, of Chatham, N. B., was married to Brian J. Meade, of Moncton, a popular conductor on the C. N. R. The bride wore navy tricotized suit with sand colored hat and grey squirrel scarf and wore a corsage bouquet of roses. She was assisted by her sister, Mrs. M. C. McCormack, while Mr. McCormack was groomsmen. The groom's gift to the bride was a platinum diamond ring and to the matron of honor a cameo ring. Mr. and Mrs. Meade will leave this evening on a honeymoon trip to upper Canada, Niagara Falls and New York, and on return will make their home in Moncton.

BUFFET PARLOR CAR TO REMAIN

Premier Gets Response from C. N. R. Official Regarding Service—Through to Cape Tormentine.

When Premier Foster was on his way from Quebec to St. John he was advised of rumors that the buffet parlor car between St. John and Moncton was to be taken off this month. He took the matter up with the C. N. R. authorities, and this morning received a letter from F. W. Robertson, general passenger agent at Moncton. Mr. Robertson said that under the change of time which will come into effect on June 26, the cafe parlor car would operate on the train leaving St. John at 1:30 p. m. and would continue through to Cape Tormentine, returning the following day on the train due in St. John at 5:30 p. m. daily except Sundays.

MR. BALLENTYNE WRITES MAYOR RE COMMISSION

Hon. C. C. Ballantyne, minister of marine and fisheries, will not be in St. John in connection with the campaign preliminary to the plebiscite on the matter of putting the St. John harbor into commission, according to a letter written to the mayor by Mr. Ballantyne. The minister of marine said that time will not permit his visit here, as he was to sail for England today. He said: "I am preparing a memorandum which my colleague, Hon. Mr. Wignmore, will hand to you expressing my views in regard to the port of St. John. Mr. Wignmore will be in St. John in a few days and will be accompanied by M. P. Fennell, secretary of the port of Montreal Harbor Commission." Mr. Ballantyne said that if the citizens of St. John desired their port to be modern and well equipped and had in view its future success and development as had been the experience of other large ports like Montreal, Vancouver and Quebec, they would be making no mistake in voting to place the port of St. John in commission.

PROMOTION FOR ST. JOHN MAN

Friends in St. John are always glad to hear of the successes which are attained by former St. John boys in the wider fields they have sought in Upper Canada and in the United States, and added to the list is the name of Thomas A. Irvine, formerly of the staff of Manchester, Robertson, Allison, Ltd., who left here about twenty-five years ago. For a great part of that time Mr. Irvine has been associated with the well known Boston firm The Jordan Marsh Company, and in last month's issue of "The Fellow Worker," a monthly journal published by that firm, a well merited tribute is paid to this energetic St. John man.

Through an editorial oversight we neglected to list among the executive promotions in the April Fellow Worker that of Mr. Irvine, superintendent of Department 18. Mr. Irvine was formerly assistant head floor superintendent of the local firm so well known in railroad circles, of which the only male member still surviving is J. J. Irvine, retired I. C. R. engineer.

ATLANTIC SUGAR MATTER IN COURT

An interesting matter was argued this morning before Mr. Justice Chandler in Chambers, an application to set aside a writ issued in the case of Allan vs. the Atlantic Sugar Refinery Co. The matter arose over a contract for a certain period upon the sugar trade and general conditions pertaining to it issued by the plaintiff, doing business in New York as a reporter and publisher. Correspondence had taken place between the plaintiff and the defendant company through the latter's office in Montreal, and it was from that office that the contract was alleged to have been made. It was for the supply of the port at fifteen cents a sheet. When the report was issued it was found that it would cost $2,300. Payment of this sum not being received, the suit arose, and a writ was issued by Justice Weyman and Hazen of this city and served at the local offices of the defendant. The application to set aside the writ was made this morning by F. E. Taylor, K. C., in behalf of the company, on the ground that the parties were foreigners to the local courts, that the contract had been made in Quebec, and that it was subject to Quebec law. Mr. Inches, in reply, argued that the Judicature Act provided for the issue of a writ here in such circumstances, considering that the company had very large assets here. Cases were cited on both sides. The matter was adjourned until late for decision.

NO WORD YET OF MISSING BOY

George Barnett, ten-year-old son of E. Barnett of 38 St. Andrews street, is still missing. When a reporter of the Times called at his home this morning a housekeeper informed him that about 11 o'clock Friday the little chap was about the yard and told her he intended to take ashes to the dump, near Courtenay Bay. She advised him to wait until he had his dinner, but he took his cart and, putting the ashes in two bags, started off and since that time had not been seen or heard from.

Enquiries at the city incinerator this morning failed to throw any light on the mystery. The men employed there said that children often come to dump ashes, etc., along the dump and stop to play. They did not recall seeing any boy there alone Friday morning.

THE LATE MRS. J. H. KELLY.
In connection with the death of Mrs. James H. Kelly, which occurred last evening at her residence, 224 Brussels street, the morning papers made no mention that among those surviving are two brothers and two sisters. The brothers are Andrew and Charles Garnett of this city and the sisters are Mrs. Alexander Clarke of this city, and Mrs. John Sweet of the West Side.
