GOOD THINGS COMING TO THEATRES OF
ST. JOHN

NEW BILL MAKES A GREAT HIT

Every Act at the Opera House Is Thoroughly Enjoyed—Some Clever Feats.

With some exceptionally clever performers and another interesting episode of "Lightning Boys," the Opera House has a highly entertaining bill for patrons for this week-end. The vaudeville programme is really good and has many new features, which made a great hit at the one time, calculate rows of figures in the two performances last evening. The serial is teeming with brilliant feats of horsemanship, some exciting scenes and a thrilling climax which makes it very popular.

The participants at the new vaudeville bill are exceptionally clever and every act has something of interest which is bound to draw the large and appreciative audiences in attendance last evening.

One of the features was a marvelous performance of Le Hing Chin, who is able to write with both hands at the same time, calculate rows of figures in the thousands with a speed and accuracy which is astounding, write upside down with one and both hands etc. It will be recalled that he was held up in Maine on a charge of having opium in his possession, but when it was analyzed it turned out to be, as he contended, medicine and not opium. His act is one of the screen with plenty of action, great magical and illusion offering and the male member is a regular crowd holler.

The audience was still endeavoring to guess how some of the feats are performed, but confess they have to give it up.

Claxton and May have a pleasing musical offering. They are good singers and the male member is a regular crowd holler. They received hearty applause at the termination of their programme.

Nova and Sydney Kellogg gave a pleasing musical novelty which also was well received, while Hazel Edwards, who is not yet been expected, which were really good.

The programme will be repeated again this afternoon and evening, and on Monday and will undoubtedly attract capacity houses.

A NEW SERIAL
"DAREDEVIL JACK"

Will Be Shown in the Opera House Commencing Next Tuesday Afternoon.

"Daredevil Jack" The new serial which is to be shown in the Opera House commencing next Tuesday afternoon, is a heart story from beginning to end. It is intensely interesting, bristling with action, great scenic effects and brim full of thrills. It is a dramatic plot of a man who is a hero and a daredevil.

VOTE ON MONDAY.

Monday a election day in this city. A mayor and two commissioners are to be chosen. They will form a majority of the new council. That council will have many very important matters to decide upon during the next two years. It is clearly the duty of every qualified voter to have a vote in the selection of the new men. The latter should give the voters the record of the men they look over. The record of the men they look over will be with personal interest the course of administration. Those who can vote but will not do so can have no just cause of complaint of anything that is done. Those who refuse to accept the responsibility of citizenship cannot rid themselves of responsibility when things go wrong. If a full vote is polled the men elected will be encouraged to exert themselves to the utmost to give the city good government for they will feel that the people are interested in what they do. The candidates are well-known citizens. Do some three of them the honor of voting for them on Monday. It is a duty as well as a right.

NOW THE PLEBISCITE.

The war between the liquor interests and the advocates of prohibition has taken a new turn. The former have gained a temporary advantage that will prolong the struggle. Even the most obstinate defender of the traffic knows perfectly well that the end will be, and it is regrettable that men of standing permit themselves to get on the wrong side of the question. They know this province and this Dominion are going bone dry because the people want it so, and that present conditions are not creditable or productive of good citizenship. Had the referendum been accepted there would have been no need of a plebiscite. Now the province must have both, with the expense entailed, and the debauchery for another year or so that results from the importation of liquor from Quebec. Organization of the province for the plebiscite will be of course the next step, and the defection of at least one newspaper from the cause of prohibition will naturally have to be taken into account. Of course all this would have been unnecessary had parliament at Ottawa not "passed the buck" to the provinces; but it is now up to the people of the provinces to act.

THOSE WESTERN RESOURCES.

The report from Ottawa that the government is being vigorously pressed to hand over the natural resources to the western provinces, and that an arrangement is sought which would be fair to the maritime provinces, lends force to the recent speech of Mr. J. C. Tory in the Nova Scotia legislature. Mr. Tory says the Halifax Chronicle, presented common with its sister maritime provinces, for adequate compensation in connection with the western school lands and the extension of the territorial boundaries of the provinces of Ontario and Quebec. The maritime provinces paid their share for the vast territory purchased from the Hudson Bay Company and for all the northwest territories later made into provinces. They helped to open up and build up that country. When the new provinces were set up, western lands were set aside for school purposes for their benefit. The Halifax Chronicle says:

"Under this arrangement the three provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta have received over twenty-four million acres of school lands, approximately twice the area of Nova Scotia. The interest on the funded principal of these lands, which had been sold up to March 31, 1918, paid to the three provinces amounted to over seven million dollars, or, roughly speaking, nearly two and a half millions for each of three prairie provinces. The total value of the unsold lands in the three provinces is estimated at nearly two hundred million dollars, which, Mr. Tory points out, would eventually give to Manitoba, Alberta and Saskatchewan practically ten million dollars a year for school purposes. Nova Scotia, as one of the original purchasers of these lands, has a right to share in these returns and this increment. She paid her share of the purchase price; she has assisted in organizing and developing, through her contributions to the federal treasury, these lands and is profiting so largely from them in maintaining and developing their educational system. Ontario and Quebec have already received very generous compensation through the extension of their territorial boundaries, whereby vast hinterlands have been added to the area of both these provinces. Nova Scotia, as one of the original partners of the Dominion, had a proprietary interest in these lands, and as a matter of equity and right is entitled to compensation. By reason of our geographical position extension of our territorial boundaries is impossible. Compensation must, therefore, come in the form of money grants and increased subsidies, which should be a matter of fair readjustment, having consideration not only to our proprietary interests in all these lands, but to our position as an integral and important part of the confederation.

Using the formal valuation of one dollar an acre, Mr. Tory computes that Nova Scotia would be entitled to thirty-seven million dollars, New Brunswick to twenty-six million dollars, and Prince Edward Island to seven million dollars, as a fair compensation for their share in these lands."

"The people of the three maritime provinces will agree with the Chronicle that: 'The time has come when our case for readjustment should be laid formally before the federal government, backed, as Mr. Tory contemplates, by the united votes of the three provinces. We hope, therefore, Mr. Tory's motion will be pressed to a conclusion, and that a conference of the three provinces for the formulation of their demands will be held at an early date. If we stand solidly together and support our case with the united force of the people, we may demand a settlement, not as a matter of grace or favor, but as a matter of equity and justice.'"

THAT RATE BASE.

In sporting parlance St. John has been "trimmed" by the legislature. The original valuation of the city, after careful investigation, was that the New Brunswick Power Co. had about $1,850,000 actually invested in St. John. The Currier Commission declared this was too low, and made the figure $3,800,000. The supreme court in turn reduced this to $2,377,000. Now the legislature declares a proper rate base to be $3,100,000. Having given the company authority to issue bonds and stocks to that amount the legislative body appears to have felt that it should recognize its own handiwork. It is therefore gratifying to know that hereafter the issuing of securities by public utility corporations will not be assented to with a gay abandon which disregards the interests of the public. We may perhaps be thankful that the house did not also recognize the common stock and enable the company to exact dividends on $6,100,000.

We shall see now what effect the decision of the legislature will have on the services rendered by the company and the charges for those services. It would be folly to assume that hereafter all will be peace and harmony between the city and the company. The fight is not over. It is entering upon a new phase.

PLANT A GARDEN.

The War Gardens Association of St. John, which did such good work in the direction of encouraging home gardening during the war, has passed out of existence, but the purpose for which that organization was called into being still exists. There is still a pressing need for garden production. One has only to look at the present potato situation to properly appreciate this fact. If every one who has a little plot of ground attached to his home would undertake to plant something in the way of food vegetables the coming summer he would not only be doing a splendid thing for himself and his family, but he would be doing much toward bringing about a lowering in the cost of living. Other communities, recognizing the need that exists for a campaign of garden planting, are getting busy. An exchange contains a reference to what the "Flower City" of Rochester, N. Y. is doing in this direction. Through its garden committee a campaign for home planting has been initiated, which promises to be very successful. The plan of campaign is outlined as follows:

"The city has been divided into nine districts, each district composed of homes of about equal grade. In each district a committee has been appointed to work up interest, register entries for prize competition, acquaint planters with the points on which their gardens will be judged, inspect and keep records of inspections, and award prizes to winners. Separate competitions will be held for schools, churches, fire and police stations. Each of these classes will register without reference to districts. Besides cash prizes, which will be awarded to first prize winners, certificates will be awarded to second and third prize winners. Honorable mention will be given in deserved cases. In the working out of this plan it is hoped to create competition between neighborhoods and streets. It often happens that when one or two residents on a street become interested in the home planting movement, others on the street will follow their example, with the result that whole streets and sections become transformed in a season or two. Such a programme may not be possible in St. John, but there is much that the people of this city, and neighborhood can do towards the encouragement of home planting."

It was obviously unfair that Hon. Dr. Roberts should go on administering the health department without salary. It was equally obvious that the man who developed the public health policy should remain at its head until it was in complete working order throughout the province. His public health act is one of the best advertisements the province has ever received, and only bitter partisanship could protest against the action taken by the legislature yesterday. This province owes a lasting debt to the minister of health. It was not to be expected the act would work with perfect smoothness, since it involved radical changes, but it has worked with less friction than might have been expected.

BOUSES ARE SCARCE.

The town is short of dwellings of small or larger size, and so we hear the yellings of heartick homeless guys; they hustle, holler, screech, to try to rent a shelter of some hard-hearted peller, unmoved by all their cries. It's hard to raise the ante, for any common gent; for he could build a shanty with what he pays in rent; but there's no builder willing to take his hard-earned shilling and help him make a killing, and hence his loud lament. I see the homeless hiding around me everywhere; their bosoms they are striking, and tearing of their hair; men haunt their rolls of knobby, and cry: 'Rent us a shack, or we are simply goners, alas, and eke alack! Our kids and wives are weeping, for they must do their sleeping in barns where rain is seeping through every beakly crack! O power and our granies in corners sit and sigh, while through the open cranies the winds go whizzing by; then rent to us, my master, a house with lath and plaster, or there will be disaster, and throwers popping high in vain—there are no houses that they can rent or hire, or renter's greivous fact arouses my stern patrician ire; that men who have the plunder can't rest, a roof-tree under, fills me with wrath and wonder, the while I kick my ire.

CANADA—EAST AND WEST

Domestic Happenings of Other Days

ISRAEL'S POORT.

On April 23, 1900, the Canadian Mounted Rifles, busy as "beel chasers" in South Africa, were destined to fight one of their sharpest battles in the winning of the war for the empire. They had arrived in Cape Town several months earlier to find that the Boers were losing but there was much chafing yet to be done. On a trap at the beginning of April the enemy had inflicted a severe loss upon the British and it was part of the work of the Canadians to wipe out the mark.

The Boers were firmly established on a hill known as Israel's Poort. The place was well examined and the Mounted Rifles went to the attack. The guns shelled the hill for hours and a faint attack was delivered on one front in order to screen the action of other troops that were encircling the place. At length a rush was made but only to discover that the enemy had the range marked at 700 yards and were pouring in a furious fire. The order to retreat to cover was given and in a few minutes the last of the Boers had fled. It is therefore gratifying to know that hereafter the issuing of securities by public utility corporations will not be assented to with a gay abandon which disregards the interests of the public. We may perhaps be thankful that the house did not also recognize the common stock and enable the company to exact dividends on $6,100,000.

Walking in spring, earth's joys go with me, all The pride of hills, trees, flowers and fields new-born; And little streams come singing up the morn. To run a while beside me. Blue skies call Ahead, but here keep pace with me, too. White flocks of clouds go with me, and sun—And shorn Of its mane the wind. Only the road, in scorn, Darts on before, hearing my slow foot fall.

Who lacks companionship on such a day Lacks the sweet surge of life within his veins! Goes listless in a world of friendships—ignores Beauty's wide nod and feels no answer. When the young man left, smiling, knowing that if such was the case he had won a prize.

Sensitive About It. "An' why, I merely asked her thing on instants and she probably thought your words had a double meaning."

Social Amelities. Mr. Boreleigh was making a social call and the lady, who had been up late the night before, was unable to hide the physical evidence of her fatigue.

The White Collar Crew. "He has no ambition?" "No." "Then a bit. Refuses to learn a trade and insists on remaining a member of the underpaid white collar brigade."

Doubtful. "What are you thinking of, my dear?" "I was wondering if Jonah's wife believed him when he explained his absence from home by telling her he had been swallowed by a whale!"—Pecassou Weekly.

LEFT MUCH TO CHARITY. The death of Miss Mary E. Hunt took place recently in Boston, leaving an estate valued at $600,000, which was mostly bequeathed to charitable institutions. Miss Hunt is well known in St. John, having spent her summers in the suburban district of Renfrew, where she had a summer home, and in the fall at the Royal Hotel in the city. Miss Ada Stuart of St. John, who has been her companion for several years, was with her when she died.

ST. GEORGE'S DAY CELEBRATED IN ROYAL MANNER

Large Gathering at Bond's Last Night Heard Inspiring Address by Major Rev. E. B. Hooper.

For the first time in six years the members of St. George's Society last night held a banquet in Bond's restaurant in honor of the feast day of their patron saint. It was very largely attended and was enjoyed thoroughly, with music, song and oratory. The dining room was nicely decorated with various old English mottoes on the walls, and table decorations of red and white. Following the banquet, which proved very tempting, telegrams were read by the secretary, J. U. Thomas, from branches of the society in various centers extending greetings of the day.

Honorable Justice Grimmer, president of the society, was chairman and had as his guests, Col. Alexander MacMillan, D.S.O., president of St. Andrew's Society; General Macdonnell, C.M.G., D.S.O., Major (Rev.) E. B. Hooper, Henry S. Culver, United States Consul.

The toast to the government, proposed by Chas. Matters, was responded to by the singing of "O Canada." Dr. Jas. Manning proposed the president of the United States.

The toast was responded to by Henry S. Culver, American consul, and after thanking the gathering for the cordial manner in which the toast had been honored, in a strong plea for international brotherhood. He spoke of the great events which have elapsed since 1793, when the last dinner of the kind was held in this city, and said that it is a wonder that there is such a thing today as a national opening ceremony. He questioned whether the world had progressed and said that in the present century there is great danger of losing ground and drifting into chaos.

Nations, he said, could not advance today in any solid system of autocracy, which is a relic of barbarism. There was a new world before the people, based on the right rather than on one of might and night. The late war, he thought, was a great misfortune, but it emphasized the power of the Almighty God. From the crucible had come the brotherhood of man; all nations, creeds and colors fight for the cause of right. He did not think that commercial or industrial development was the greatest thing for a people; he thought that brotherly love would be a better passport to the Heavenly kingdom. In closing he appealed to Canadians to open the doors of the west country to the many who are suffering and homeless in devastated Europe.

Major Hooper. Introduced by Justice Grimmer, the toast to "The day we celebrate" was responded to by Major Rev. E. B. Hooper, chaplain with the Canadian Legion, who referred to the story of St. George's day which appeared in the Halifax Chronicle yesterday, and said that the not much more to say. The cross of St. George had waved over many a hard fought battle field, in the days of the modern times, it had been used by the London merchants in olden days when engaged in foreign ventures. He said it is now the greatest national symbol in the world. Referring to the part that Canada played in the war, he said that he believed that Canada would always take the lead in the peace of the world. He had ministered to the Canadian soldier for five years and knew something about the work of the Red Cross, for which the banner of St. George will forever stand.

Two years ago he had been in England, addressing a meeting, when the news of Zebrugg was given to the world, and it was five years ago that the Canadian had his baptism of that dastardly unsoldierly weapon, the German poison gas, at the second battle of Ypres. But the Canadians held their ground, though equipped with masks—they they saved some back blackguards; they were blackguards before they went over. But he had found that every man had some stream of gold, some good in him, and he asked the gathering to help in the development of that good. "Don't, for God's sake," he said, "condemn the returned soldier. These splendid lads have come back bigger and better than they ever were before." In closing, he requested the members to attend the annual living service of the society tomorrow.

E. T. Sturdee proposed "The Forces of the Empire," to which Brigadier-General Macdonnell, C. M. G., D. S. O., responded. Dr. Walker proposed the "Sister Societies," which brought forth replies from Alexander MacMillan, president of St. Andrew's Society, and T. H. Parker, president of the Sons of England. F. E. Hanington proposed "The City of St. John," to which Mayor Hooper replied.

Bond's orchestra furnished music for the evening and excellent solos were rendered by P. J. Hunter, G. H. Mayes, L. E. Morrison and DeWitt Cairns; D. Arnold Fox was the accompanist.

QUENCHED THIRST AND BURGLARY WENT SMASH

New York, April 24—Prohibition is interfering seriously with the profession of burglary. The other night two expert cracksmen entered the home of Mrs. Josephine Geddes, St. Nicholas avenue, and did up all the loose valuables in neat bundles ready to carry away. Just as they were about to depart, one of them chanced to open a sideboard door. Inside were four quart bottles, all nearly full. There was one of vermouth, one of whiskey, one of gin and one of brandy. The burglars decided to linger a little. What they finally left all four bottles were empty.

Chanting praise of the flowing bowl at the top of their lungs, the pair staggered downstairs. In the lobby of the apartment house they were stopped by a gathering of citizens attracted by the clamor, and handed over to the police.

ENFORCEMENT OF PROHIBITION

Rev. A. S. Bishop's Remarks in Sermon on Some Local Conditions.

"What the Gospel Demands of Us in the Enforcement of Prohibition" was the subject on which Rev. A. S. Bishop preached in the Fairville Baptist church on last Sunday.

Gospel Christians, he said, do not have a choice in the matter of enforcing or not enforcing prohibition; the gospel demands that they enforce. Recent shipments of liquor here, he said, make enforcement urgent. In the three months of January, February and March, the official figures are that 1805 cases of liquor were shipped into St. John, the larger part of which probably came from Quebec. These cases contained 19280 bottles of liquor and would do a good deal towards making St. John "wet," and towards encouraging the "sinners" in the city. Recently a large shipment of liquor arrived in port in the "Cabotia." One individual estimated her cargo at 2,000 cases. Those who handle cases of liquor have been known, according to frequent reports, in a good many instances to show an inspired genius in causing cases to disappear. So bold has this become that men have exhibited bottles publicly in the street and in electric cars. Even preachers have received letters from Halifax and Montreal offering "Parole," XX. In Whiskey at $24 a case; also "Moreland Dew," Old Scotch, at $21 a case.

This, he said, is followed up by a St. John paper exhibiting headlines calling those who demand that the law be enforced "radicals," our government in this respect a meddling busy body," and the guardians of the law "spies." Men in the street and even to members of the legislature have been heard to retail stories, the effect of which is to discredit the law.

Those who stand for prohibition, for a clean progressive province, he said, can do much to "talk up" the law; to refute the kind of superficial talk mentioned; and to assist the inspectors in getting information and even in prosecuting cases. Business men and professional men ought not to feel that it is not "their place" to provide information but to feel the full responsibility for enforcement. The inspectors' work of enforcement is one of the most difficult things imaginable, and a very large share of their effectiveness depends upon voluntary support. Those who peddled criticism upon them derived either directly or indirectly from those who "like their liquor," were doing something which was pure folly. The most effective weapon of enforcement required at present is the prohibition of shipments from Quebec and other points to private individuals. On April 14 a delegation of the Temperance Alliance and the ministers of the province waited upon the members of the legislature in the interests of the prohibition of inter-provincial shipment. A safe majority of the house stated themselves as willing to request the dominion government to submit a referendum to the people of the province on this point. Thus the prospect was hopeful that the present violation of the temperance law by private shipments would be stopped. New Brunswick at the polls had always proven herself overwhelmingly in favor of prohibition. Therefore prohibition

HOME GROWN VEGETABLES.

Hundreds of families in the North End and vicinity will be interested in Messrs. Armstrong & Bruce's advertisement on page 17. This firm has decided in response to a quite general demand to open a portion of Portland Place for garden plots this spring. The situation of the property within two or three minutes' walk of the most crowded districts of the city where the home garden is an impossibility, and the fertile character of the soil, make it ideal for such a purpose.

The wide patronage the city garden plots on the Mahogany road have had from the people of Fairville and vicinity will no doubt be repeated on a much larger scale here. Every family has at least one member who feels the lure of the soil. The present cost of living and the exorbitant price of potatoes and vegetables, necessities of every table, will be an additional incentive, so the offer of this firm may well be an important economic factor in the budgets of hundreds of people in the North End and other parts of the city this year.

HOPE TO HAVE NEW CHURCH BY THANKSGIVING

Victoria Street Baptists to Begin Construction Soon

Nice Donations Start Fund for Fine Structure to Cost Some $80,000—Will Seat 800 and Gallery Can Be Added.

Members of the congregation of the Victoria street Baptist church are eagerly looking forward to seeing work begun on the fine new edifice which they have decided upon building this summer, and from present expectations it is thought that construction will be under way by June 1.

When the subject of expansion was first brought up there were some of the members who were a little opposed to it at the present time, owing to the great cost of materials, labor and the various necessities in building.

Much encouragement was met with by two handsome donations to the fund of $5,500 from H. W. Parlee and one of $1,000 from Charles Parlee, both active members of the church.

The Sunday school for the present will be continued in the old church, which building it is intended to hold. The seats will be taken out of it and used in the new structure.

Strike a Blow For Progress Vote For CHESLEY For Mayor

For Mayor John A. Chesley

The People's Candidate

SOME GOOD REASONS FOR VOTING FOR CHESLEY FOR MAYOR: Born in St. John and a life-long resident. Extensive experience in civic affairs, including: Twelve years in the council of the City of Portland as Mayor and Alderman. Member of the board which arranged terms of union of St. John and Portland. Four years member of the union council. Representative of St. John at Ottawa for one term. Canadian High Commissioner to South Africa. A St. John man through and through with the interest and welfare of the city and the electors at heart.

A FEW OF THE THINGS WHICH A VOTE FOR CHESLEY WILL HELP TO ACCOMPLISH Paving and all improvements of a permanent nature to be paid for by bond issue under general assessment, as endorsed by the electors at the preliminary election. The open door at City Hall—the public has the right to know all that transpires at City Hall. Encouragement to new industries—No more blocking of progress in the city's expansion—Prevent the possibility of another $10,000,000 firm being turned away from our doors. Economy in administration to keep the tax rate at the lowest level. Watchfulness to prevent the influence of selfish interests at City Hall. Development of sport, a clean, live city, in fact a BIGGER, BRIGHTER and BETTER ST. JOHN

The following is from the published report of Mr. Schofield's speech to the members of the Hardware Clerks' Association on Friday evening, April 9: "E. A. Schofield said if the citizens wanted to see all the improvements they asked for they should expect to pay more taxes and he thought the majority of the citizens were in a position to pay more. He said he would like to see a better community spirit in the city and pointed to the paving matter as a sample of where business men would not give the other side the benefit of the doubt of sincerity.

"He asked the voters not to try to run the city put in men in whom they had confidence and to take them out when that confidence is lost."

Surely the electors of St. John will be democratic enough to realize the significance of this last paragraph. If the policy of City Hall is to be dominated by one or two institutions, is it not about time that those whose business takes them to the barber shop, hotel, etc., step forward and assert their rights?

Electrifying Ontario

New York, April 24.—As the direct result of the utilization of the water power in the province of Ontario by the Hydro-Electric Power Commission, there is an increasing demand in that province for electrical fixtures and labor-saving equipment.

American-made products command the market, and from large cities and rural communities served by the lines comes a call for more power to light houses, operate washing machines, vacuum cleaners, and all the other modern appliances with which American homes have been equipped.

While at the moment the demand is limited to this particular section of the dominion, it is probable that similar development will take place in other parts of the country at an early date, and a consequent spread of the demand may be expected.

COBBLE THE PRICES DOWN

East Side Boys in New York and the Shoe Problem.

The shoe problem doesn't have to be a problem at all. "Cobble the prices down" is the advice that a group of twelve-year-olds over on the East Side in New York is offering. And they are proving that it can be done.

A year ago the neighborhood that boasts of this cohort of boy cobblers was just as much concerned over the inroads shoes were making into the family budget as any other in the city. Perhaps more so. For it is a neighborhood of wage-earners, many of whom find it as much as they can do to provide three meals a day for their large families. And their work is generally of the kind that is hard on leather.

It was formerly no uncommon site to see herds of youngsters playing about the hard pavements barefoot. Or they might perhaps be wearing an apology for shoes—something from which toes protruded in front or which had to be tied on in order to prevent its being lost by the wayside. The same feet that once wore these now go about neatly shod, challenging pavements and cobblestones to do their worst.

These boys have never been so well shod or so cheaply shod in their lives. It no longer troubles either them or their families when a convention of shoe dealers announces another jump in prices. They are their own cobblers.

It was at Emmanuel Sisterhood, located at 818 East Eighty-second street, that this idea of reviving the old policy of each man for himself originated. When this busy neighborhood house saw what the high rates of professional cobblers and shoe dealers were doing for this district, it decided to go into the business itself. So a cobbling class was formed and a master bootmaker found to teach a group of boys the trade. None of them is over fourteen, yet after eleven months of work they handle hammer, awl and last with the ease and skill of professionals. That they should do careful, neat work from the start they were at once put to mending their own worn-out shoes. They have been taught to tell at a glance just what kind of repairing a shoe needs.

Imagine being able to have a pair of shoes soled and heeled for sixty cents! That is the price charged by the boy cobblers—less than half the usual rate. Of course, all that is taken in goes toward paying for materials. The boys get nothing for their labor. But they have the privilege of giving precedence to their own repairing and that of their families.

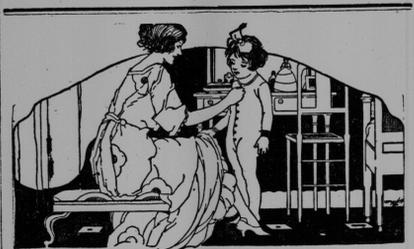

The fame of the cobbling class has spread so widely that it is unable to handle all the business brought in by the neighborhood. It manages, however, to keep the shoes of the children who come to the neighborhood house in good condition.

"The work that these boys are doing," says Miss Celia Strakoski, head-worker of Emmanuel Sisterhood, "is not only meeting a very pressing economic need, it is teaching them to co-ordinate their brains and their hands. We are not trying to make professional cobblers of them. Rather we want to develop whatever vocational aptitude they may have. We believe the best way to go about this is to give them responsible work from the start and not let them waste several years putting about with tools in an aimless fashion."

THE OPTIMIST AND PESSIMIST

(Canadian Finance)

At the present time we have two disturbing types of mankind in our midst. On the one hand we have the individual who sees nothing but "blue ruin" ahead of the world, including Canada, and on the other hand we have the man who sees nothing but prosperity and incalculable development, resources and riches. The pessimist is a poor man to face hard times, for he is beaten before the struggle begins, and only has sufficient strength left to say, "I told you so," when the contest commences. The optimist is seldom better for he, like Micawber, is usually "waiting for something to turn up" and during hard times things do not turn up unless there is a strong, stalwart body of brain and muscle assisting in the turning movement.

During the days of war we heard a great deal of the morale of the army, and we have since been told what an important factor that morale was in securing the great victory won by the Allies. What was this morale? Was it bravery to the point of foolhardiness? Was it a result of overwhelming strength? Was it based upon actual facts or was it based upon imagination? One word answers the question—Confidence. Our armies had confidence in their commanders, in their comrades, and in the cause for which they were fighting.

At the present time the Canadian people should cultivate that splendid morale which characterized our army in Flanders. Hard times may be ahead of us—many well informed men are thinking and talking of this probability. We can extract a little good from both the "blue-ruin" pessimist and the golden-voiced optimist. The pessimist bids us prepare for hard times. We can prepare—buy Canadian and British goods, cut down expenditures on luxuries, save and produce—and if hard times come we can meet them. If they do not come, we shall have lost nothing by our preparations. Forwarded is forewarned, and being forewarned may keep the hard times away. We can use the optimist also. A little of his cheerfulness will dispel the gloom of the pessimist. His ever-present smile smoothes away many difficulties. He is confident in himself and helps others to feel the same way. The optimist bids us forge ahead and we can safely follow his advice. We know of no better way to encourage depression than to meet it half way. A little of that morale which our soldiers had will stand us in good stead now.

The British market here will close at 10 a. m. April 25, for the C. F. O. S. Metagama. The South African market will close in this city at 1 p. m. April 26, for the steamship Bengalia.

What Is Behind The "Outlaw" Rail Strike?

Every phase of the great strike that has extended across the country during the past two weeks is covered in the leading article in THE LITERARY DIGEST for April 24th. In the opinion of the Jersey Journal (Jersey City), "the outlaw strike is trying either to put union labor out of business or to put the country out of business," and the Evening Post (Chicago), declares that it is "a test of organized labor's ability to control its own affairs. If unionism can not control its forces and can not prove its value as a respectable co-operating factor in the great task of doing the country's work and producing the country's wealth, the verdict will go against it." While Attorney-General Palmer affirms that the strike was the result of I. W. W. leadership, and of the working out of an international Communist programme, Samuel Compers, head of the American Federation of Labor, blames "men like Senator Cummins and Governor Allen, of Kansas, with their legislation to deny a man the right to quit work to enforce a legitimate claim or redress an injury" for the "wave of uncontrollable resentment" which found expression in this strike. The Evening Public Ledger (Philadelphia), declares that "the pressure that greed and stupid opportunism have put upon all wage-earners is almost intolerable. To be promised relief, yet to see the cost of necessities rising steadily about twice as fast as your wages, to see a day approaching when shoes and shelter may be matters of doubt, is to be ready material in the hands of blind agitators."

Read THE DIGEST this week if you would get the news of this great strike as drawn from all available sources.

"The Digest's" Poll of 11,000,000 Voters

The Most Impressive Indication of the People's Choice for the Presidency Ever Given Outside of a Presidential Election

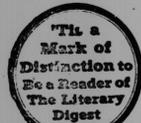

When it is recalled that the total vote cast in the last presidential election was about eighteen and one-half millions and that in the present poll THE DIGEST is taking, eleven million voters are being asked to name their choices for the presidency, it will be seen that the results of this poll will give a very accurate idea of the man that the American public want for president. The second week's returns are published in THE DIGEST for April 24th.

Every section of the country is being canvassed by mail in this poll, and many thousands of votes are being received daily. From now on up to the presidential conventions in June the DIGEST will print a weekly tabulation of this monster vote and it is not too much to say that it will be carefully and eagerly scanned by the public, and in all likelihood will have a considerable influence upon the selection of the candidates at the conventions of the two great parties.

All the World-News of the Week in "The Digest"

Besides the two feature articles, before mentioned, this week's DIGEST is particularly interesting. There is a wide variety of news-articles covering International Politics, The War Situation in Europe, Science and Invention, Religion and Social Service, Literature, Drama, Music and Education, while the lighter side of life is reflected in the form of humorous cartoons and other illustrations.

PROROGATION EXPECTED TODAY

Yesterday's Session of Legislation at Fredericton a Busy One.

Fredericton, N. B., April 24.—The house sat this morning until 1:30 o'clock and so advanced business that proration is expected this afternoon. It was a very busy day for all members.

The bill to provide increased salaries for teachers was recommended in the evening after considerable discussion, chiefly by members who sought even better terms for the teaching profession.

The bill to enable Wm. Gerrard of Fredericton, to practice dentistry which had been rejected by the law committee after hearing a large delegation of dentists in opposition to it, reached the committee of the whole this evening as a result of Dr. Crockett's motion to that effect. After a spirited debate, the committee by a majority of six voted to thirteen recommended the bill. It still has to run the gauntlet of the house on the third reading, but so far Dr. Gerrard wins.

The New Brunswick Power Bill passed the committee of the whole as recommended and without discussion. The corporations committee, as said in The Telegraph yesterday, fixed the rate base at $1,000,000.

Government bills were introduced during the evening to increase the fees for sheriffs and to grant further aid for vocational education.

When the bill to provide a salary for the minister of health came before the committee of the whole, Dr. Baxter said that, although the opposition approved of action which would require a minister in charge of a department to stand for re-election, they did not approve of a salary for a minister of public health. He found that the total expenditure of the health department last year was $11,000 and he did not think it needed to pay a full salary to a minister to administer that sum. The salary was not important, as the ministers were sadly underpaid, but the opposition felt that fewer ministers at higher salaries would be a better policy. The duties of the department could be administered by the provincial secretary or minister of agriculture and the health portfolio could be abolished. A practical farmer in charge might at least abolish some of the fees which now mark the conduct of the department.

Dr. McGrath suggested that if economy were the only consideration the minister of agriculture might assume the duties of attorney-general.

The bill was adopted by a vote of seventeen to ten.

Among all the bills which were disposed of during the evening most of which were discussed with a reasonable degree of conversation, there was one which got by without comment. Not a voice was raised in its favor, but neither was there a member who opposed it. The house was unanimous but silent.

The bill was that to increase the seasonal indemnity of the members from $800 to $1,000. The bill to amend the game act was passed by the committee.

When the bill amending the act relating to the registration of pharmacists reached the committee Dr. McGrath appealed for the protection of physicians

"That the importation and bringing of intoxicating liquors into the province for beverage purposes may be forbidden."

Mr. Michaud moved, seconded by Mr. Campbell, the following resolution:

"That all the words after the word 'that' in the resolution now before the house be struck out, and the following words substituted therefor:

"Whereas, the legislative assembly of this province has passed the act known as the intoxicating liquor act, 1916; and

"Whereas, the said act provides that after the declaration of peace the lieutenant-governor-in-council may appoint a day for the holding of an election for or against the retention of the said act;

"Whereas, the government of this province has promised that an election as aforesaid shall be held in the near future;

"Be it therefore, resolved, that in the opinion of this house it is not advisable that the people of this province should express their opinion on the question of inter-provincial trade in liquors until they have pronounced themselves in favor of the retention of the prohibition law as now in force in New Brunswick."

The question being put on the amendment the house divided as follows:

Mr. Dugas, Mr. Tilley, Mr. Taylor, Mr. Campbell, Mr. Carson, Mr. Magee, Mr. McGrath, Mr. Dyson, Mr. LeBlanc, Mr. Michaud, Mr. Leger (Gloucester), Mr. Messereau, Mr. Smith (Sunbury), Mr. Melanson, Mr. Bondage, Mr. Ribicault, Mr. Leger (West), Mr. Sweeney, Mr. Crockett—22.

Sir Nevil Macready Who Is Sent to Ireland

A Soldier Who Has Seen Stirring Times—The Exchange Question—Cambridge Win Over Oxford—News from Empire Metropolis.

(From Our Own Correspondent.) London, April 1.—The role of a modern Cromwell in Ireland is not one that nowadays would attract many men close on sixty years. But neither the imminent personal danger of the post nor the extreme difficulty of it is likely to daunt the old colonel of the Gay Gordons. Sir Nevil Macready saw fighting in Egypt and South Africa before he served in France, and he was special military commissioner at Belfast, as well as armed pacificator at Tonypandy and Liverpool, before he took on the London police command at a very anxious time.

The Welsh colliers rather took to Sir Nevil, whom they found to be, for all intensely classified army ways, a most genial, though strenuous, person, with a wonderful command of the soft quick language and understanding of the social as well as the military rank-and-file. In the army he was considered a martinet.

His father was the distinguished actor, and he has married an Irish lady well known at Court. Everybody agrees that something must be done to make law and order in Ireland something more than a laughing stock. Sir Nevil is not the first soldier, since the Roman Empire, who has been called in to undo the fatuity of the politicians.

"Perfidious Albion" Again. It must have staggered many people to hear that a prominent French statesman and ex-prime minister of the republic had been talking openly in the French chamber of "perfidious Albion." But the truth is that M. Barthou merely said what many Frenchmen have been saying for some time. And it is exactly how the land lies in this matter. It is the old story, as old as the hills, almost, of Allies falling out in the middle of the war. The root of the evil is that our statesmen, having their own public opinion to consider, dare not accept the French point of view, which is necessarily different from ours. Had we been situated as France is territorially, and suffered as she has suffered twice, we might have taken a more drastic view too.

France sees nothing but quixotry in our attitude to Germany. We are apt to see nothing but impalpable romance in France's attitude. France does not believe in the change of heart over her eastern borders. We are trying to persuade ourselves that the Hun has been exercised with Kaiserism. We were wrong in 1914. In France right now the French insist on pushing too hard on the new German government instead of a democratic republic on her flank France may have a soviet.

The Improved Exchanges. The improvement that has taken place in the exchange position during the last few days has been noted with particular satisfaction in the city. The change has been most marked in the case of America, and the disposition is to attribute this to the export of gold to the United States. No doubt this has been a powerful contributory cause, but financiers in London are distinctly sceptical when they are told that this is the sole factor in bringing about the improvement. They are inclined to think that a strong element of self-interest enters into the matter so far as the United States is concerned. When the exchange position was at its worst, its effect on the trade position became most marked, and America suddenly discovered that the orders from her best customer were rapidly falling away. Probably this had a salutary effect, for our actual ability to export gold to the United States was certainly not unknown to New York. Surprise is expressed that, while other currencies had been falling, the German exchange had costs. So even the uniformed civilian—train drivers, bus conductors, railway guards and barbers—are busily shedding their memories of la guerre, it is a pity because the companionship and little kindnesses engendered were valuable social assets.

But the ladies who have decorations are not so minded. They almost all wear their ribbons even in "civies," which confirms partly my theory about the sewing on difficulty. To a woman who served in the Waacs this is nothing. Most of the ladies, however, seem to have the haziest notion how the ribbons should be ordered. I notice that the little waitress who brings my chop still wears her knee-boots as well as her Mons ribbon. She also understands the army "lingo." It is pleasant, when one sees the mustard, to be told, "San Fairy Ann!"

Eheu Fugaces! How many years ago it is since so many of us went a little Bobbie over "The Ship Girl." These were great days. Our hair was darker, and perhaps a little thicker, then. We were more enthusiastic and less critical. It was a daring and romantic stroke on the part of Sir Alfred Butt and Seymour Hicks to revive that former gaiety success amid the scenes of its former triumph. But judging by the scenes of tumultuous enthusiasm in the theatre this week—and on the stage, where Miss Terrier kissed Miss Evelyn Laye, the modern successor of Ada Reeve, and Mr. Hicks kissed everybody, almost including the limelight man—they have actually managed to recapture some of the first fire careless rapture.

The piece is the same—merely restaged and repainted so to speak. It is put on with infinitely more taste than the original—and more expense. The music still appeals tenderly and prettily. The humor still wins its fragrant bouquet of untroubled laughter. Alfred Lester is as funny as Mr. Meggles the showwalker, as anyone could be. It was eminently successful and delightful. All that one missed was some of the old friendly pauses, and some of the old pre-war usquebaugh.

A Question of Ethics. The controversy still rages round the imperforate pocket of the lady who works for her pin-money. It is alleged, with perfect truth, I believe, that large numbers of them are in the middle-aged, single and married, are sticking to their war-time jobs, and doing so to the detriment of the ex-service man. A few of these women workers have any real necessity to plead. It seems rather callous procedure if it is so and unfortunately the facts seem to be indisputable. But the ex-service man has to remember that such cases are, after all, the small exception.

Nothing was finer than the way in which most of the women who did good war work surrendered their jobs, after the war ended, in order to make way for fighting men. I know personally many instances where great self-sacrifice was needed, and where the woman worker might with justifying pride plead that the earnings she relinquished were indispensable. The chief offenders in the case of the exceptional women who refuse to give up luxury money in the interest of men with themselves and families to support are the employers. As one ex-service man points out, one can imagine what these employers "did in the great war, Daddy" since it is inconceivable that any ex-service man would employ a woman rather than an ex-service man if that woman did not actually need the money to keep herself or her dependents.

Titus Tiberius Smith was careful to give offence to no one, especially his wife. She has a masterful woman. Her home was her idyl. Titus Tiberius always opened the door with his handkerchief, lest his fingers should sully the brass knob.

"Titus," she said one evening as he sank guiltily into a chair, "I can read you like a book. You've been doing something wrong! Did you scrape your boots before entering the hall?" "Yes, my dear." "Then what have you done?" and clasped his shaking knees. "Gladly," stammered, "I hung my hat up carelessly and a raindrop fell from it on to the umbrella stand!"

The Vanishing Trick. I see that others are now commenting on what I pointed out some time ago—the rapid disappearance of all war ribbons and regimental badges from the coats and waistcoats of ex-service men. It is attributed by some philosophers to innate British modesty. I think it is mainly due to sheer laziness, and perhaps economy. One cannot be always buying ribbons at present prices, nor constantly getting it sewn on to new ferce headaches. I have worn glasses for several years, both for distance and close work, and without them I could not read my own name on an envelope or the typewriting on the machine. I can do both now and have discarded my long-distance glasses altogether. I can count the fluttering leaves on the trees across the street now, which for several years have looked like a dim green blur to me. I cannot express my joy at what it has done for me.

It is believed that thousands who wear glasses can now discard them in a reasonable time and multitudes more will be able to strengthen their eyes so as to spare the trouble and expense of ever getting glasses. Eye troubles of many descriptions may be wonderfully benefited in this easy manner. Go to any drug store and get a bottle of Bon-Opto tablets. Dissolve one tablet in a fourth of a glass of water and use from two to four times a day. You should notice your eyes clear up perceptibly right from the start and inflammation and redness will quickly disappear. If you eyes bother you even a little, it is your duty to take steps to save them now before it is too late. Many hopelessly blind might have saved their sight if they had cared for their eyes in time.

NOTE—Another prominent physician to whom the above article was submitted, said: "Yes, the Bon-Opto prescription is truly a wonderful eye remedy. Its constituent ingredients are well known to eminent eye specialists and widely prescribed by them. I have used it very successfully in my own practice on patients whose eyes were strained through overwork or mist glasses. It is one of the very few preparations that should be kept on hand for regular use in almost every family." Bon-Opto referred to above, is not a patent medicine or a secret remedy. It is an ethical preparation, the formula being printed on the package. The manufacturers guarantee it to strengthen eyesight 50 per cent. in one week's time in many instances or refund the money. It is dispensed under guaranty by all good druggists in this city, including Wasson's Drug Store.

Eye Specialist and Medical Author Report on Wonderful Remedy To Strengthen Eyesight

Say It Strengthens Eyesight 50% in One Week's Time in Many Instances

New York.—Dr. Smith, a well-known eye specialist, and Dr. Judkins, a Massachusetts physician and medical author, make the following reports after a thorough test of a popular remedy for the eyes.

Says Dr. Smith: "When my attention was first called to it I was inclined to be skeptical. But it is a rule of mine to give every new treatment a chance to prove its value. Having specialized in eye work for many years I feel qualified to express an intelligent opinion on remedies for the eyes. Since this one has created such a sensation I welcomed the opportunity to test it. I began to use it in my practice a little over a year ago and I am frank to say that some of the results I have accomplished with Bon-Opto not only astonish myself but also other physicians with whom I have talked about it, and I advise every thoughtful physician to give Bon-Opto the same careful trial I have and there is no doubt in my mind that he will come to the conclusion I have, that it opens the door for the cure of many eye troubles which have hitherto been difficult to cope with. I have had individuals who had worn glasses for years tell me they have dispensed with them through the use of Bon-Opto. In my own practice I have seen it strengthen the eyesight more than 50 per cent. in one week's time. I have also used it with surprising results in cases of work-strained eyes, pink eye, inflamed lids, catarrhal conjunctivitis, smarting, painful, itching, itching eyes, eyes weakened from colds, smoke, sun, dust and wind, watery eyes, blurred vision, and, in fact, many other conditions. I mention no mention in this report. A new and striking case that has just been brought to my attention is that of a girl 12 years old. Two prominent eye specialists, after a thorough examination, decided, according to her father, that in order to save the sight of her right eye, the left must be removed. While awaiting an opportunity for the operation and still undecided as to its wisdom, her father was told it would do no harm to use Bon-Opto. In less than three days a marked improvement was noticed. At the end of a week the inflammation had almost disappeared, and at the end of six weeks the eye was pronounced saved. Just think what the saving of that eye meant to this little girl! Another case is that of a lady 98 years old. She came to me with dull vision and extreme inflammation of the lids and the conjunctiva was almost raw. After two weeks' use of Bon-Opto the lids were absolutely normal and her eyes are as bright as many a girl of 16."

Dr. Judkins, Massachusetts physician and medical author, formerly chief of clinics in the Union General Hospital, Boston, Mass., and formerly house surgeon at the New England Eye and Ear Infirmary of Portland, Maine, says: "I have found oculists too prone to operate and opticians too willing to prescribe glasses, while neglecting the simple formulas which form the basis of Bon-Opto, which in my opinion, is a remarkable remedy for the cure and prevention of many eye disorders. Its success in developing and strengthening the eyesight will soon make eye-glasses old-fashioned and the use of Bon-Opto as common as that of the tooth brush. I am thoroughly convinced from my experience with Bon-Opto that it will strengthen the eyesight at least 50 per cent. in one week's time in many instances."

"Victims of eye strain and other eye weaknesses and many who wear glasses will be glad to know that according to Dr. Smith and Judkins there is real hope and help for them. Many whose eyes were falling say they have had their eyes restored by this remarkable remedy and many who once wore glasses say they have laid them aside. One man says: "I was almost blind. Could not see to read at all. Now I can read everything without any glasses and my eyes do not hurt any more. At night they would pain dreadfully. Now they feel fine all the time. It was like a miracle to me." A lady who used it says: "The atmosphere seemed hazy with or without glasses, but after using this prescription for fifteen days everything seems clear. I can read even fine print without glasses." Another who used it says: "I was bothered with eyestrain, caused by overworked, tired eyes which induced

New Standards of Value $1365 GRAY-DORT

F.O.B. CHATHAM WAR TAX EXTRA

Gray-Dort has brought peace-time standards of value to the motor car business. Greater value than the light car has heretofore offered. $1365 brings you a car comparable with those costing several hundred dollars more.

LOOK FOR THESE THINGS IN THE CAR YOU BUY

The Gray-Dort motor is a Carter-improved this year. Westinghouse starting and lighting. Connecticut ignition (newly improved). The whole chassis parallels the motor in quality. Heavy frame of channel steel. Husky rear axle, Chatham-built. Long springs, cantilever in the rear, and built here under our inspection. The big brakes now have Thermoid lining. A new steering gear, 50% larger and stronger than the light car standard.

The Gray-Dort is as pleasing to the artist and to the driver as it is to the mechanic. The smooth lines of the body are restful after so much of the extreme in present-day cars. The Gray-Dort finish, development of 60 years' coach-building, will win your instant and lasting approval. Add the smartness of French-pleated upholstery, and a new top, tailored in our own shops,

The big gasoline tank is now in the rear—for good-look and convenience. As in big cars, the emergency brake is on a lever, the side-curtains open with the doors. A shorter, smarter cowl gives more room in the driving compartment. The new hood, with its many long, narrow louvers has a touch of European smartness.

AND YET THE PRICE IS $1365, (PLUS WAR TAX) You know that such a car as the Gray-Dort will be in heavy demand at $1365. We have doubled our production this year. But there is likely to be a shortage. See the Gray-Dort dealer now.

PRICES The Gray-Dort 5-passenger car, finished in Gray-Dort green and black and with standard equipment is $1365 F.O.B. Chatham. War tax extra. The roomy 2-passenger roadster is the same price.

THE GRAY-DORT SPECIAL For the man who wishes something a little extra in his car, we have built the Gray-Dort Special. Maroon body, with brown raynite top. Plate glass rear window. Gipsy curtains. Rookie tan wheels. Motorized wheels. Tiling steering wheel. Real leather upholstery. Mahogany instrument board. Just the touches which lift this car above the ordinary. $150 extra on the standard.

AND THE ACE! The Gray-Dort Ace—the most beautiful light car of to-day. Sapper green body with handsome California top to match. Trouble Lamp and bull-eye flashlight. Electric cigar lighter. Rear-vision mirror. Plate glass windows. Overseas, proved-trad tires. This is the de luxe car for the man who does not wish to pile up a tremendous operating cost. $235 extra on the standard.

justice of the court of appeals and later he became a member of the national assembly. Cabrera soon became a leader of the assembly. When he had achieved this place, Barrios was assassinated in the streets of Guatemala City in February, 1898, an election was called and Cabrera was chosen as Barrios' successor. He assumed the presidency in the following October.

It was then that the real development of Guatemala began. Cabrera built one of the most magnificent capitals in Central America. He was the first ruler on the American continent, it is said, to adopt aviation for his army. He organized the West Point of Guatemala. He erected a score of modern hospitals and many schools. He opened up the country to railroad builders and restored the national treasury. He promulgated a decree of unconditional amnesty when he became president, thus bringing together all factions and yet he proved strong enough to hold them in check when his enemies plotted to overthrow him until the issue of Central American union arose.

THE VICIOUS CIRCLE. Montreal Herald: In nearly every strike one of the objects set forth is a further advance in wages, and, after that, another advance. Instead of concentrating on the strike as a means of higher wages, why should the labor men not try and devote themselves to some plan for the reduction of the cost of living, and so increase the value of the dollar? Every advance in wages increases the cost of living. As it works out at present the possession of more money, or the present inflated currency that passes as money, leads to extravagant spending. It creates a mania for buying, which in turn so increases the demand for goods that it outruns the production, and the prices are put up.

As an example of this a Montreal man went to buy a hat, the price for which turned out to be $12. He refused to pay that price, saying that he had two or three hats and he would make them do. The storekeeper had been giving some attention to the situation, and said to the visitor, if everyone did that it would speedily reduce the consumption of goods and bring the supply up to a normal demand at reasonable prices.

He Couldn't. "Do you suppose there ever was a human being who didn't talk about his neighbors?" asked the cynical man. "Sure," said the genial citizen. "Name him." "Robinson Crusoe."—Birmingham Herald.

BURNS MET HIM.
A despatch from San Diego, Cal., on Thursday told of Jack Johnson, former heavyweight champion of the world, showing his former agility in a fight with Ray Neil, which took place in Tijuana on Wednesday last. A BUSY NIGHT AT CENTENARY

There was so much going on last night at Centenary church that the annual meeting of the joint board of management, composed of the trustees and quarterly board, had to be held in the kitchen. The choir were practising in the church, the Boy Scouts were carrying on in their room with various feats of their numerous accomplishments and the young people of the Epworth League were rehearsing in the church parlors for a drama. So there was nothing for the board to do but adjourn to the ell.

The meeting discussed the work of the church in its various phases and considered the matter of the church budget. Conditions pertaining to the Marsh Bridge mission were gone into and it is expected there will be an extension of activities in this connection.

The rehearsal of the choir was interesting. They have been doing very fine work all through the winter, and their Easter programme was especially attractive. All are volunteers except three members and the organist.

PORT TRADE HERE IN THIS SEASON

Effect of Close of War Felt But Volume Is Far Above the Old Normal.

Although the value of export shipments through the port of St. John during the fiscal year ending March 31, as announced by the board of trade this morning, showed a falling off of more than thirty-five million dollars; they were nearly seventy millions in excess of the total for 1915. Imports this year showed a decided increase over both last year's figures and those of 1915.

It is pointed out that the total for this year shows an actual increase in regular business, as it is considered that the values of exports passing through during the years 1915 and 1919 were exceptional on account of the great amount of war material, and goods consequent upon the war passing through.

The figures this year were also materially affected by the strike of dock workers, which tied up the port at the beginning of the winter season and caused several steamers to be diverted from here to other ports. The following is a comparison of the figures:

	Export.	Import.
1915	$ 43,872,332	$ 9,112,916
1919	149,986,167	15,702,446
1920	114,257,976	26,906,916

THE DRUG ACT

Two Amendments Introduced Last Night in Commons at Ottawa.

(Canadian Press)

Ottawa, April 24—Two amendments to the opium and drug act now before the house were introduced by Hon. N. W. Rowell last night. The most important provides that druggists may sell preparations containing not more than two grains of opium, a grain of morphine, one-eighth grain of heroin or one grain of codeine provided that such preparations contain other constituents than narcotics, of medicinal value, and provided also that it is printed on the label of the bottle in large type that it is unlawful to administer the preparation to a child under two years of age.

The other amendment has to do with the penalties to be imposed on persons other than druggists or physicians or dentists who are found guilty of selling these drugs. The maximum fine is fixed at $1,000 and costs and not less than $500, while the prison sentence may be one year or less. Both fine and imprisonment may be imposed on a guilty party.

Nothing in the amendments is to effect the prohibitions contained in the proprietary or patent medicine act.

EARLY REPORTS FROM THE DRIVES

Fredericton, April 24—Cold weather accompanied by snow which began to fall last night has checked the water in the streams in central New Brunswick. Water is still at good driving pitch, however. The Le. Burt Lambie Company began to drive on that river this week.

PROHIBITION PLAN FOR INDIA

Combination of Christian Missionaries, Mohammedans and Hindus for a Dry Regime in That Country.

A prohibition movement looking to make India dry by gradual stages and uniting under its banner leaders of Mohammedanism and Hinduism with Christian missionaries, has been unleashed in the British dependency primarily as a result of the Reform bill which handed over the Department of Excise to native control, according to the Rev. B. T. Badley of Lucknow, executive secretary for India of the Methodist Centenary Movement, recently arrived in New York.

"As long as excise was controlled by England herself," said Mr. Badley, "a temperance and prohibition movement was impossible. Four or five years ago when the Indian representatives on the Viceroy's Council introduced a resolution looking to the introduction of prohibition into India, the Imperial Legislative Council divided with every British official voting against the measure and every native for it. The British majority won.

"But under the new reform government both the imperial and the provincial legislative councils have great majorities of Indian members. A bill looking to prohibition that may come forward now is likely to meet with a very different fate.

"Realizing this, the Methodist Centenary has organized a department which aims to wipe out the Hindenburg line of rum in India and trusts to the fullest co-operation of both Hindus and Mohammedans in this undertaking. Already Mohammedan and Hindu leaders are serving on our committees. Our organization is such that it can go clean through the country, for Methodism is represented in all parts of India. There isn't a railroad junction of any importance where we are not established."

Although, according to Mr. Badley, thoughtful men of all religions and all political parties are supporting the prohibition movement, there is an almost insurmountable obstacle in the way of early success. This is due to the fact that the budget for education is largely drawn from the excise revenue.

"Education," he continued, "is one of the most important problems before India today, especially in view of the transcendent importance of preparing an intelligent constituency for a government that looks forward to achieving democracy. There is no municipal tax for education. Therefore, if excise were to be dispensed with at one swoop, education would be stifled.

"What will happen is problematical. It is likely, however, that some scheme will be worked out whereby liquor sales will be reduced by yearly gradations, and each depletion of the liquor money, made up by some other form of taxation. Thus new sources for educational funds can be opened up gradually until eliminated. In the past forty-five years the revenue derived from excise had increased from $5,000,000 to $40,000,000 a year.

"It is sometimes said outside of India," he continued, "that only the white man drinks and the native is abstemious. That is not true. Buffaloes carrying great leather bags across their backs filled with the palm wine toddy made from the palm tree are driven from village to village. Men, women and children come out to get their supplies, in brass or earthen vessels. Children drink it right in the streets. Everybody also drinks a crude liquor made from the mahua flower which is most deadly in its effect. In some regions the village saloon is a shack that is abandoned as soon as conditions make that desirable. Shacks where liquor is sold are put up along the way where fairs are held. In the cities, too, drinking is greatly on the increase, especially in the matter of foreign liquors.

"The Koran is not keeping Mohammedans from drinking, although it forbids any follower of the prophet to touch liquor. The Hindu's sacred books are not preventing the Hindu from drinking, and neither is the Bible preventing Christians from drinking.

Born in India forty-five years ago, son of the founder and first president of Lucknow College, Mr. Badley has lived most of his life in India, being educated, however, in America at Ohio Wesleyan College and Columbia University. He is the author of a number of books.

One effect of the extension of the Indians' powers of self-government, it appears, and one which will have increasing scope as the natives come more into power with the fuller development of home rule, is that Hindus and Mohammedans are squeezing out the native Christians now in government service. The Methodist organization, according to Mr. Badley, has plans for co-operative stores on mission sites in large centres such as Lucknow and Calcutta. Employment might be found for many Christian ex-civil servants as managers of these establishments.

TOBACCO CULTURE IS GROWING INDUSTRY.

Tobacco culture in Canada is an industry of comparatively recent date. Extensive development has taken place in the last twenty-five or thirty years, and recent seasons have proved the adaptability of widely separated sections of the dominion to this very profitable line of agriculture. Since the protective duty of 28 cents per pound has been imposed on all foreign leaf tobaccos, the Canadian industry has received a yet greater stimulus, and interest in the culture is becoming wider and more diversified yearly.

The tobacco production of the province of Quebec for the year 1919 was about 10,000,000 pounds, and there were 22,404 acres under cultivation. As a tobacco growing area, the French-Canadian province has been coming more to the fore every year. This is illustrated by the fact that in 1911 there were only 12,104 acres devoted to the culture. In the counties of Berthier, Joliette, L'Assomption, Montcalm, Portneuf, Richelieu, Rouville, Terrebonne, Vercheres and Yamaska the industry is carried on a very large scale. There are federal government stations at Saint Jacques de L'Achigan, county of Montcalm, and at Saint Cesaire, Rouville. In many coun-

The planters of the Yamaska Valley have formed a co-operative society and established at Saint Cesaire a large warehouse for the curing and sale of Comstock Spanish tobacco as fillers and binders for cigars. The society sells annually from 500,000 to 600,000 pounds of tobacco at from 80 to 40 cents per pound. The purchase of tobacco according to quality has greatly improved methods of cultivation and treatment. The growing of tobacco in British Columbia is practically confined to the area surrounding Kelowna in the Okanagan valley. The total 1919 output, which amounted to about 120,000 pounds, was sold at 20 cents per pound to a Quebec manufacturer. Interest in tobacco production in the Pacific province is on the increase, and in many sections of its area can be found warm, sunny, well-drained slopes of sandy deposits well adapted to the cultivation of tobacco plants of the heavier type.

DANISH MONARCH SECURE ON THRONE

No Fear That Denmark Will Become Republic — Ruler Ready to Do What People Want.

(Toronto Mail and Empire.)
That crisis in Denmark which unbridled cables indicated was whether the nation should remain a monarchy or should become a republic has not been properly understood in Canada; and it is only a faint hope that matters may be a little more clearly explained that these lines are written by an optimist. It can be said at once that there is no fear or hope that Denmark will immediately become a republic. The reason is that the king is more democratic or republican than any other Danish whose name is known outside the country. There was some stage business of crowds demonstrating under the royal windows, and this was followed by the announcement that Christian X. had changed his mind. The inference was he had changed his mind because he feared to lose his throne is unjustified. He changed his mind because he saw that what he wanted was not wanted by his subjects.

The Zable Cabinet.
The question at issue was between the Zable cabinet and the king. The cabinet had become popular in Denmark, apart from its more active virtues, because it could claim, as President Wilson could claim a few months previous, that it "kept us out of war." It has been pointed out before that war was never so popular with the immediate neighbors of Germany, like Denmark, Sweden, Holland and Switzerland, as it was with Brazil and Haiti; and this served to compensate the inhabitants of the neighbors of Germany for the fact that they made no great hit with the "ies while the war was on—or afterwards, for that matter. But Zable did pare his country from a stand-up fight with Germany, by a more dignified excellent than lying down to Germany. In his course he had the almost unanimous support of the Danish population. It was not until the Versailles peace conference began to operate that he had any cause to think that his general policy was not approved by both king and country.

Schleswig Goes German.
Under the provisions of the peace conference Schleswig, which had been latched from the Danes by Germany many years before, was to vote whether it chose to go with Denmark or Germany. The district was divided into two zones, one of them, nearer Germany, showing the incredible taste of preferring the old Paterland. When the voting in the second and more remote zone was completed King Christian thought there must have been an error in the ballot boxes, and when Zable advised that the vote be accepted he declined. The king thought that he spoke for the nation when he said that if the king wished to remain part of Germany at they did not know their own interests best. His proposal was that the second zone should be internationalized, and that the inhabitants thereof should be neither Danes nor Germans. When his prime minister said that he proposed following the voice of the people, the king asked him to resign, and he did resign.

The King Yields.
It was then that the crowds of the capital made their demonstration, and the news—as we call news these days—was flashed to the world that the throne was in jeopardy. But unless the people of Denmark arrive at the conclusion that a republican form of government is in every way preferable to a monarchical form, there is no prospect that King Christian will be dethroned. There is no king, apparently, more ready to do what his people want. Speaking to the Social Democratic leader before the last elections, he said: "If you come back with a Socialist majority I will have a Socialist ministry, and you will see that we will work excellently together." He possibly made a political error in dismissing the ministry that disapproved his plan of internationalization, but soon as it was plain that he did not have the support of the public, he dismissed the ministry that had succeeded at of Zable, and called up another as a stop gap, which will carry on the able policies.

Error of Patriotism.
In the matter of patriotism it can only be said that King Christian made error. There is more than a suspicion that Zable was tainted with provincialism. When the voting in the Schleswig zone showed the trend toward Germany to be so strong it intended that Zable ought to have exed himself to bring about a different verdict in the second district, but remained inactive and postponed an action which would have brought about reduction of the suffrage age from twenty-five years to twenty-one. It is intended that if all voters more than twenty-one had voted the majority would have cast in their lot with Denmark; but Zable feared also that they might have chosen another leader and us his own position was at stake. If preferred his own interests to those of his country he has done no more in other politicians have done in the it.

LONDON'S TRAFFIC CONGESTION.
London, April 6.—(A. P. Correspondent.)—London's traffic problem, which if anything more serious than that of New York, has been made "difficult" it announced by a parliamentary committee of investigation, by the eight-day day.
The committee of which Kennedy was member of parliament, is chair-ly has been considering the subject some time. Traffic congestion is worst, the committee found, between hours of 7.30 and 9 a. m. and 5 and 7 p. m. It reached its maximum between the latter hours, and the committee says, "little or no relief can be looked in the near future from any increase in the transport facilities during those hours."
Regarding the trouble as accentuated by the general adoption of the eight-hour day, the committee expressed the opinion that "if certain 'allied' businesses could arrange for the majority of their employees to leave their work between 4.45 p. m. instead of at 5 p. m. or 5.15 p. m., an appreciable benefit would result." It appeals to business houses to co-operate in this direction and asks shoppers to do as much of their shopping as they can to do between 10 a. m. and

PALESTINE A LAND OF PROMISE

The future salvation and prosperity of Palestine are dependent upon its settlement by selected Jewish immigrants, imbued with the true Zionist spirit, according to Lieut.-Colonel J. H. Patterson, who knows the ardent young Zionists of eastern Europe and America probably better than any other British officer. Colonel Patterson organized and commanded the Zion Mule Corps, which fought in the Gallipoli campaign, and later organized the Jewish regiment in Palestine, commanding its famous battalion, the Thirty-eighth Royal Fusiliers, the most distinguished of all the Jewish legions.

His views on the future of Palestine are considered significant, not only because of his familiarity with the land and with Zionist hopes, but because he speaks as a non-Jew. In a recent issue of the London Evening Standard he said: "I have journeyed from Dan to Beersheba, from Gaza to Gilad. I have seen the Holy Land in seed time and in harvest. I have felt the devouring heat of its valleys and the bitter cold of its mountain tops. Its rocky hills have frowned despair upon me, yet I have said in my heart it is a good land, a land of promise, a land that can be made once again to flow with milk and honey. How are these things to be done? First of all, the land must be made healthful. Some of the most fruitful parts are practically uninhabitable, owing to the mosquito pest. Palestine lends itself to drainage schemes, and if the swamps are dried up and all stagnant water is properly treated one great curse of the Holy Land—malaria—will be removed."

"Hand in hand with the drainage schemes there must flow a steady stream of selected Jewish immigrants—men imbued with the true Zionist spirit, a dogged determination to meet discomfort and hardship in their zeal to make the land of their fathers flourish as it did in the days of old. Thousands of such men are even now in Palestine. The numerous Jewish colonies scattered throughout the land are a living testimony to the Zionist spirit and prove what could be done by Jews even under the blighting hand of Turkish domination. The Jewish colonies of Palestine—all built up in the last forty years—all built up in a land which are the only bright spots in a land which Turkish misrule has turned into a wilderness."

"The hope of the Jewish people rests in the soil of Palestine. The barren hills must once again be terraced and planted, the valleys must be drained, irrigated and irrigated. I doubt if there is a soil in all the world so rich as that of Palestine. I have watched a Bedouin cultivate a field which he had merely scratched over a wooden plough as in the days of Abraham. Within a couple of days some rain fell, and within a week a green field of corn sprang up."

"With suitable farming implements, seed, fertilizer and irrigation, what immense possibilities lie in this rich land! If the Jordan valley is made habitable to the European, a rich reward awaits the colonist. The soil is wonderfully fruitful and every kind of tropical product can be grown."

"With coal or fuel of any kind unavailable the Jordan can be harnessed and used in a thousand ways to enrich Palestine, according to Colonel Patterson."

BIG THINGS ARE IN VIEW HERE FOR BOY SCOUTS

Movement Surging Forward With a New Impetus

Rev. D. H. Loweth and Mr. Olive Made Provincial Council Members — The Great Camp Days — Some Important Events.

The regular meeting of the Provincial Council of the Boy Scouts Association was held at provincial headquarters on Thursday evening. It was one of the largest attended meetings that the council has had and the executive is greatly pleased with the interest shown and the results achieved. The names of Mr. Olive and Rev. D. H. Loweth were added to the council as representative scoutmasters.

Among other matters it was decided to seek authority to issue a Community Service badge to replace the War badge which is about to be withdrawn. The badge will consist of a gold beaver on a green background, and it will be awarded to boys who have performed at least fifty hours of service of general benefit to the community at large. Any boys who have served a few hours on their war service badge but not enough to gain that decoration will be permitted to count those hours for this new badge. It is hoped that the necessary authority will be granted the Canadian General Council to issue this badge in New Brunswick as it is at present in Nova Scotia.

The Camp.
The camp question also came up for discussion and it was practically decided to have a camp extending for a period of about six weeks from July 9 or thereabouts. The final arrangements were left in the hands of the camp committee. Tentative plans are that all Scouts in the province will be permitted to attend. Patrols or troops on entering camp under proper leadership will be assigned a section of the grounds where they will carry on as a patrol or troop for a large part of the time. They will prepare one light meal a day for themselves, but will assemble with the other troops for the other meals, which will be prepared by an employed cook. During the camp a leaders' training course will be taken up by leaders and prospective leaders. The choice of ground has not as yet been decided but several excellent sites are under consideration. Final arrangements will be announced as soon as possible. It is practically certain that all boys who attended the Scout camp last year will be back this year if at all possible.

The meeting which was presided over by A. C. Skelton adjourned early. Before the meeting the members had a very enjoyable supper at the Y. W. C. A. The St. John District Council also met during the last week with Mr. Skelton presiding. It was decided to hold a district field day on July 8, to consist of scouting games and competitions. All troops will be expected to enter teams for the contests and to have a large turnout of Scouts.

J. H. Kimball, formerly of the royal navy, scoutmaster of the 1st St. John Sea Scout Troop, informs headquarters that this troop will recommence its activities after May 1. The troop carried on in excellent shape last year studying general seamanship and gaining practical experience in the same line, and all members were delighted with the meetings. It is possible that the troop will sail up to the Scout camp this summer to spend some days there. Applications will be received from any boy fourteen years or older. Forms for this purpose may be secured at Boy Scout Headquarters, Room 4, Globe building.

Leaders' Conference.

The final days of next week will see Boy Scout leaders from all parts of the province assembled in St. John for the leaders' conference which is to be held at that time. St. John Scouts who were at the leaders' camp last year will be pleased to learn that the Sussex troop will have an especially large number in attendance, several of whom were at camp last summer. Any Scouts who would care to have a visiting Scout spend Friday night at their homes are requested to get in touch with headquarters office.

The programme includes demonstrations of various phases of scouting which will be new to those present, a fine banquet on Friday evening, and possibly a showing of the celebrated Scout movie entitled "Boy Scouts to the Rescue." This picture has been seen by headquarters officials and they say that it not only demonstrates scouting but has an intensely interesting plot woven about the work which Scouts performed during the war. Sir Robert Baden-Powell appears personally in one of the biggest scenes. All persons interested in Scouting and any who desire further information regarding this movement are invited to attend a demonstration of a troop meeting on Friday evening in Trinity church Sunday school hall. Headquarters announces that the competition at present taking place for the Canadian Boy Magazine, the official scout publication, will close on May 31. There is plenty of time yet for every troop to gain a prize and improve the troop funds by this means.

Mr. Campbell, who has been conducting a class in swimming at the Y. M. C. A. for Boy Scouts who cannot swim, reports that almost all of the original class which started about one month ago are now able to swim at least a few strokes, and some of them will pass their fifty yards swimming for first class very soon. If any Scouts who cannot swim desire to learn to swim they should get in touch with headquarters immediately.

The 6th Prince of Wales troop announces a social evening on Tuesday, April 27, to which the general public are invited. A few of the troops whose headquarters are nearest to that of the 6th, are to be specially invited. A further announcement in this regard will be issued next Saturday.

At the weekly meeting of St. Luke's troop, Mr. Milton, returned soldier, received a hearty welcome. Mr. Milton has consented to take over the Wolf Cub Pack thus permitting Rev. E. P. Wright to devote all his time to the Scout troop. The Cubs played games and prepared for the First Star tests. (Continued on page 19, fourth column.)

Beauty and Economy

A roof of real beauty is one covered with a soft harmonious shade of reddish brown or dark green slate. These are the two artistic colors in which is made—the colors being unfadeable, because they are the natural shades of the crushed slate used for the surface of this handsome roofing material.

Brantford Crystal Roofing is also a very economical roof. It is moderate in cost, can be very rapidly laid, and is a permanent material that is completely non-absorbent and therefore proof against the weather.

Note the extra heavy weight—80 to 85 lbs. per square; that means extra long life.

Suitable for homes, stores, factories, garages, churches, schools — all buildings on which an artistic yet economical roof is desired.

Refined, Delicate Skin Secured by Absorption

No complexion can be considered beautiful if the skin is coarse in texture. This trouble can be overcome by thoroughly cleansing the pores, removing the dirt which made the skin rough. For this purpose there is nothing better than the mercurized wax process. The wax completely absorbs the rough, muddy or discolored outer skin and unclogs the pores. The fresh, young skin underneath then in evidence is exquisitely delicate, refined and beautiful. And it is kept so, as the pores now freely expel effete matter and drink in the life-saving oxygen.

Chicago, April 24—In the bright lexicon of married life, thought J. C. Brock, house detective at the Morrison Hotel, there is no such word as "sweetheart."

The sleuth heard Cassius C. Smiley, a guest at the hotel, call a woman "sweetheart" one night. He knocked on the door door and when Smiley opened it he made his way in. WEAK OR STRONG?

Weak, Nervous and Tired Out—or Strong, Vigorous and Full of Energy?

New York Physician Tells How Nuxated Iron Increases the Strength and Endurance of Nervous, Weak and Run-Down People in Two Weeks' Time, in Many Instances.

"One of the most remarkable things to me about the use of organic iron—Nuxated Iron," says Dr. Feinman, medical author, "is the health-giving and strength-giving effect. Patients come to me worn out with the nervous struggle of modern life, under-nourished because of modern methods of cooking, and often their run-down condition is due largely to lack of iron in the blood. I prescribe organic Nuxated Iron—and in many cases they come back to me in two weeks' time with step-like different people with a happier, healthier outlook on life—all because they have given their blood the iron for which it was starving."

"Iron is the red blood food," Dr. King adds, "that helps strengthen the nerves, restore wasted tissues and give renewed force and power to the whole body. Lack of sufficient iron in the blood not only makes a man nervous, unhealthy and easily fatigued, but it robs him of that virile force, that stamina, that strength of will so necessary to success. I strongly advise every man who is fagged out by worry, work and other strains to build up his strength, energy and endurance by taking pure organic iron—Nuxated Iron—for I consider it one of the foremost blood and body builders the best that I ever had recourse to."

Confirming Dr. King's opinion on the great and almost immediate benefits felt from Nuxated Iron, former United States Senator William E. Mason has this to say: "I gave Nuxated Iron a test. The results have been so beneficial in my own case that I have made up my mind to let my friends know about it and you are at liberty to publish this statement if you so desire. I am now sixty-five years of age and I feel that a remedy which built up the strength and endurance of one of my age, should be known to the world."

Judge S. W. Atkinson, of the United States Court of Claims at Washington, gave the following as his experience with this nerve tonic and strength builder:

The Scout troop practiced the new drill which is to be used for the Thome trophy competition. Later the scoutmaster gave instruction in astronomy for the Starman badge. During the evening Fred Pursey was sworn in as a tenderfoot Scout. Just before closing two Scouts gave an excellent demonstration of boxing.

St. Paul's Troop. St. Paul's troop met in their quarters on last Tuesday evening and a very enjoyable and instructive evening was spent. The troop was favored by a visit from Mr. Eaman and Mr. Narrows and Mr. Hewison, the provincial secretary, was also there for a short while. After the roll was called Mr. Narrows spoke a few words to the boys and said that he wanted every Boy Scout in the city to know him and to pay a visit to headquarters office at any time. The boys received some very useful advice and instruction in knot tying from Mr. Millidge, a friend of the troop from an old seaman. This helped the boys to pass their tests more easily.

One of the boys in the present second class scout badges to the following boys: Paul Prebble, Herbert Warren, Edmond Chert and Edward Perry. He also presented the electrician badge to Norman Bets, the scoutmaster. After some good work was done studying for the following badges the boys played a game of volleyball and then broke up for the evening with a social hour fully satisfied with the night's work.

13th, Coburg St. Troop. The Coburg Street Troop held its regular meeting Tuesday evening under scoutmaster Dunlop. The meeting was opened with the roll call and brief drill. Then the troop proceeded to Mission street to repay that troop's visit of a few weeks ago. A large part of the evening was taken up with games. Assistant Provincial Commissioner Eaman and Secretary Narrows visited the troops for a moment while on their way to another meeting. Before closing the meeting the Scouts formed a horseshoe, entered—Second Class, R. Horncastle, R. Boyne; Tenderfoot, C. Sowerby. The meeting then came to a close with the singing of the national anthem.

15th, Centenary Troop. The 15th, Centenary Troop, met as usual on last Friday evening. Games were played, followed by scouting practice under Scoutmaster Dinmore. Following the regular meeting the officers were in court of honor, for the discussion of troop business. Several important matters were discussed and decided upon. The court of honor, when properly managed, is one of the most attractive and most beneficial parts of scouting.

the assistance of Scoutmaster Dunlop of the 18th Troop. Victoria Street Baptist Troop. On last Tuesday evening Victoria Street Troop held its fourth meeting and were immensely proud of the fact that three of the members had succeeded in passing the tenderfoot tests. A boy is not a Scout until he passes these tests, and these three may therefore be regarded as the pioneers of this troop. They were sworn in as tenderfoot scouts by Assistant Provincial Commissioner Eaman. Scoutmaster Clarke now feels that the troop is in a position to enlarge its membership limits and he will welcome any boys over eleven years of age to his troop. No troop in St. John has started off with brighter prospects than Victoria Street Baptist Troop has at present and its progress will be watched with interest by all scouts.

Notes. The public are urged to attend the open session of the Leaders' Conference on next Friday evening in Trinity church at which a demonstration of a troop meeting and a court of honor will be given. Too many people have no idea of how scouting is carried on. Scouting today is one of the greatest religious forces affecting the youth of the world, and yet to the casual observer there is nothing of a religious nature about it which should be known, however, is that before the

Mending is One of Mother's Multiplicity of Duties

Unfortunately, it is usually necessary for the busy mother to leave the mending until some quiet hour when the children have been got off to bed. This necessitates working by artificial light, with unusual straining of the eyes.

It is this straining of the eyes which makes one feel so tired after mending, sewing, shopping, or doing fancy work.

When you think of how constantly the eyes are employed, and of the continual changing of the focus to suit the distance of the object viewed, you may not be surprised to know that the optic nerve consumes an enormous amount of nervous energy.

For this reason straining of the eyes brings on fatigue, and often leads to nervous breakdown.

There is no magical way by which exhausted nerves can be restored.

It takes time and patience in order that the depleted nerve cells may be nourished back to health and vigor, but you may be sure of satisfactory results if you use Dr. Chase's Nerve Food regularly.

We know that Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is composed of the vital substances which go to the upbuilding of the nervous system. We have the utmost confidence in its curative properties, because we have seen it tested in so many thousands of cases. But how are we going to prove this to you unless you try it? You are the one to be benefited, so it remains for you to make the test.

Try it when you feel tired out and discouraged. Try it for sleeplessness and irritability. Try it for nervous headache and indigestion. It is not a mere relief for this reason you must persevere in its use until the lost vigor is restored to the nerves. The fact that the results are both thorough and lasting will encourage you to continue the use of this food cure until you feel strong and well.

SKIN BLEMISHES—
How to get rid of them

Just before retiring, wash in your usual way with warm water and Woodbury's Facial Soap and then dry your face. Now dip the tips of your fingers in warm water and rub them on the cake of Woodbury's until they are covered with a heavy, cream-like lather. Cover each blemish with a thick coat of this soap cream and leave it on for ten minutes. Then rinse very carefully, first with clear, hot water, then with cold.

The regular use of Woodbury's in cleansing your skin will discourage the tendency for new blemishes to form.

OILY SKINS—
How to correct them

First cleanse your skin thoroughly by washing it in your usual way with Woodbury's Facial Soap and warm water. Wipe off the surplus moisture, but leave the skin slightly damp. Now with warm water work up a heavy lather of Woodbury's Facial Soap in your hands. Apply it to your face and rub it into the pores thoroughly—always with an upward and outward motion. Rinse with warm water, then with cold—the colder the better. If possible, rub your face for a few minutes with a piece of ice.

This treatment will make your skin fresher and clearer the first time you use it. Make it a nightly habit, and before long you will see a marked improvement—a promise of that lovelier complexion which the steady use of Woodbury's always brings.

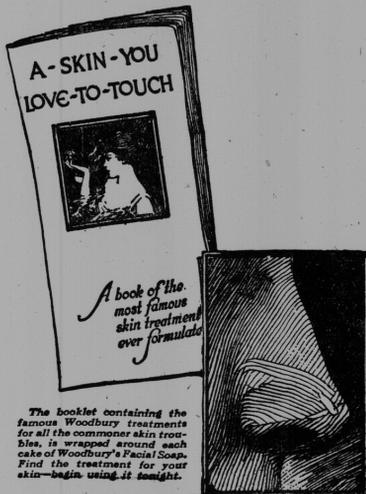

Sample cake of soap, booklet of famous treatments, and samples of Woodbury's Facial Powder, Facial Cream and Cold Cream sent to you for 15 cents.

For 6 cents, we will send you a trial size cake (enough for a week or ten days of any Woodbury treatment) together with the booklet of treatments, "A Skin You Love to Touch." Or for 15 cents we will send you the treatment booklet and samples of Woodbury's Facial Soap, Facial Powder, Facial Cream and Cold Cream. Address The Andrew Jergens Co., Limited, 900 Sherbrooke St., Perth, Ontario.

CONSPICUOUS NOSE PORES
How to reduce them

Dip a cloth in very hot water; lather it with Woodbury's Facial Soap, then hold it to your face. When the heat has expanded the pores, rub in very gently a fresh lather of Woodbury's. Repeat this hot water and lather application several times, stopping at once if your nose feels sensitive. Finish by rubbing the nose for thirty seconds with a lump of ice.

Do not expect to change in a week a condition resulting from long neglect. But use this treatment persistently, and it will gradually reduce the enlarged pores until they are inconspicuous.

The booklet containing the famous Woodbury treatments for all the commoner skin troubles, is wrapped around each cake of Woodbury's Facial Soap. Find the treatment for your skin—begin using it tonight.

PALE, SALLOW SKINS—
The new steam treatment for them

One or two nights a week, fill your wash bowl full of hot water—almost boiling hot. Bend over the top of the bowl and cover your head and the basin with a heavy bath towel, so that no steam can escape. Steam your face for thirty seconds.

Now lather a hot cloth with Woodbury's Facial Soap. With this, wash your face thoroughly, rubbing the lather well into the skin with an upward and outward motion. Then rinse the skin well, first with warm water, then with cold, and finish by rubbing it for thirty seconds with a piece of ice.

The other nights of the week, wash your face thoroughly in the Woodbury way, with Woodbury's Facial Soap and warm water, finishing with a dash of cold water.

The very first time you use this treatment your skin will gain in loveliness and color.

A Consulting Engineer In Household Efficiency

(New York Evening Post.)
Five years ago Mrs. Richard Boardman, discouraged by the insufficiency and inefficiency of domestic servants, decided to put her household management on a new basis. She arranged the work on the factory schedule of an eight-hour day, six-day week. By rotation of hours of work she found that the regular household duties could be accomplished. The careless servant was replaced by the careful home assistant. The experiment had succeeded. At that time Mrs. Boardman lived in a New Jersey suburb. In a short time the community was interested. The inevitable servant problem was discussed with new zest. Mrs. Boardman found herself being asked to explain the system, or to advise imitators. The report was carried to other communities. Letters of appeal came from near and far. The Boardmans moved to New York and it was found that home assistants could be adjusted to apartment needs. More and more people turned to Mrs. Boardman for assistance in household management until at last she was obliged to take defensive measures. Much speculation and near-wit has been called forth by the woman who, finding herself high and dry on a pinnacle of idleness in the piping times of peace, has attempted any old business or profession to "kill time." It remained for Mrs. Boardman to go into business as a time saver. "I was often called on the telephone by absolute strangers," said Mrs. Boardman, "and spent minutes that ran into hours explaining, warning, advising, encouraging women made desperate by the eternal servant problem. The home assistant idea cannot be explained in a minute. It demands a considerable mental readjustment for the average 'mistress' a methodical schedule of household duties, a business contract. "It was quite impossible to do the subject justice or be of any real service in such a desultory way, so I decided to put the thing on a business basis. I have opened an office for consultation." Thus, to meet a popular demand, a new sort of efficiency expert has come into being, and the Home Assistant Conference Headquarters has been opened in the Rhineclander section. Worried housewives have a consulting engineer in household efficiency to turn to when the old way, one of the late relics of feudalism, fails. An epitome of what the harassed housewife who consults Mrs. Boardman may expect to get is found in her slogan: "Housewives must centralize and standardize." Amplifying the last suggestion first, as being the more immediately obtainable, Mrs. Boardman explained that she had drawn up a "five-point contract" which showed the relative positions of the housewife and the home assistant. The details are worked out in every household according to the amount of work required and the number of assistants employed:

1. Eight-hour day, six-day week.
 2. Eat and sleep away from place of employment.
 3. Extra pay for extra services.
 4. No specialisation.
 5. Entire responsibility for (a) promptness of arrival, (b) regularity in coming, (c) fulfillment of duties.
- Point four Mrs. Boardman considers most advantageous from the housewife's angle. It recalls the "general houseworker" almost extinct in these days of specialisation in domestic service. Point one makes all the difference to the worker, and point two, with H. C. L. staking even the palace dweller, makes all the difference to the housewife. Point three provides necessary elasticity. Point five demands a superior type of person, which is just the sort attracted by the Home Assistant Idea according to Mrs. Boardman.
- "But how do you know the scheme will work for every one?" queried the still skeptical reporter.
- "Because my household has been run with home assistants for three years, and mine is an average family," came the prompt reply. Mrs. Boardman went on to explain that her family consisted of two adults and three children. Part of sources. This office was closed when the Federal Employment Bureau ceased to exist.

"Housewives in every locality must form bureaus as clearing houses," said Mrs. Boardman in explaining the first requirement in her slogan. "Intelligence offices do not have the type of client required. These bureaus should be on a business basis and the fees would pay the cost of operating. This would constitute a standard for service for conditions of employment and rate of remuneration. In time there must be a national association."

"The Home Assistant Idea is not meant to supplant but supplement the old order of domestic service," concluded Mrs. Boardman. "I know households where the two schemes work side by side. To those who are happy in the old way the Home Assistant Idea makes no appeal, but to the countless others it shows a way out."

COME and listen—and then compare! You will gauge all phonographs by a new standard after you have heard the Gerhard Heintzman. For this new wonderful phonograph is built by piano-craftsmen. The same genius who over half-a-century ago pioneered The Gerhard Heintzman piano—one of the few great pianos of the world—has also produced the greatest of phonographs!

The tone throat of the Gerhard Heintzman is fashioned from genuine violin spruce—the same as is used in building piano sounding-boards. Cushioned at every point to prevent loss of vibration.

And with this phonograph you can enjoy every record—it is expressly designed to give the correct weight of the tone-arm as well as the correct position of the point. This is a patented feature—found in no other phonograph. You hear no "needle scratch," no unmusical sounds—only the pure tones which the artist put into the record. The fidelity of the reproduction—the power, sweetness and mellow beauty of the tone—is astounding.

And Gerhard Heintzman cabinets are masterpieces of design and finish—they have a charm that only piano-craftsmen can achieve.

the time since she had given up servants and had employed home assistants she had lived in a Jersey suburb. Mrs. Boardman now lives in a New York apartment. Long summers the Boardman family spends in Maine. The "five-point plan" has been satisfactory in these varied settings.

"Many of my friends have adopted the idea," continued Mrs. Boardman, "and I have come in broad contact with its workings, through my lectures in different parts of the country and my work with the New York City Committee of Home Assistants, which was organized by the United States Department of Labor and functioned for a short time about a year ago."

Mrs. Boardman gave her services as manager of this experiment, the purpose of which was twofold—to find out whether or not employers were interested in the home assistant idea and whether or not assistants were available. The response from housewives was so great that the office was taxed beyond its facilities, and soon all publicity was stopped. A supply of assistants sprung from the ranks of women to whom domestic work was congenial, but who thought domestic service degrading. The status of the home assistant drew reliable, competent persons from untapped

THE CELLAR BORER.
(Boston Globe.)

That famed character in fact and romance, the second-story worker, is a back number now. He has given way to the cellar borer, the burglar who works underground, taking a tip from the Count of Monte Cristo, the Libby Prison tunneler, the famous sewer "rat" and the Germans on the Mort Homme.

The cellar borer turned up last night in Union square, Somerville. His night's work took him through three business establishments, but his prevalence has not yet caused the department of agriculture to quarantine the district, as it did in the case of the corn borer.

Some time during the night the Somerville cellar borer forced the back door of the shoe store of J. J. Burns at 24 Union square. He stole several pairs of rubbers and several more pairs of men's shoes.

Then he went down cellar, and with an auger bored twenty-six holes through the partition between the basement in which he stood, and the basement of No. 25, which is a drug store occupied by Edward Edwards.

The holes were set close together in an irregular circle; the wood between the holes was neatly broken out, and the burglar had a nice doorway, two and a half feet square, through which he crawled into the cellar of the drug store.

He went upstairs and emptied the cash register; he also found money in several drawers in the counters and desks. Altogether, Mr. Edwards thinks, he got $180.

He had less trouble on his next move, for there was a basement door between this cellar and the next one, under the grocery and provision store of Harold A. Butters, at the corner, numbered 29 Union square. The burglar had merely to jimmy this door open and there he was.

He took nothing from the provision store; the cash register was empty, and he was probably too much encumbered with shoes and rubbers to be able to carry off cabbage and cucumbers.

The interesting thing was not his booty but his method.

Have You A "Twenty Pay Life Policy?"

A true story of a Canada Life Policy issued over forty years ago.

At age 30 he secured his $5,000 Twenty Pay Life Policy.

At age 35 he received his first Dividend, which was added to the Policy.

At age 50 he received notice that his Policy, with 20 years' Dividends, was fully paid for.

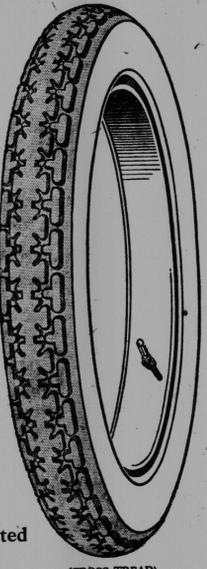

At age 60 his Policy, still earning Dividends, helped him to finance the purchase of a new home.

At age 70 he withdrew the Cash Value for his own personal use. He received a Canada Life cheque for $6140 in return for his $2830 paid in premiums. For many years his home had been protected by insurance of $5,000 and Dividends.

The Twenty Payment Life

Our new up-to-date policy provides—

1. That premiums will cease in 20 years.
2. That dividends will be paid during the 20 years, and afterwards.
3. That if you should be totally and permanently disabled before age 60, all premiums will be cancelled, and a monthly income paid to you.
4. That such monthly payments will not be deducted from the policy at your death.
5. That after 3 years you may take a Cash Value, or receive a paid-for policy or pledge the policy as security for a loan.
6. That the policy cannot lapse while a cash value exists; that the policy is indisputable after one year; that you may reside or travel in any part of the world or engage in any occupation without affecting your insurance.

(There are many other valuable privileges.)

An Immediate Estate

The great advantage over any other form of investment is that a small percentage paid yearly creates immediately an estate of $5,000, $10,000 or more.

These active, progressive years of life in which you are earning the most money are the years in which premiums can be more easily met.

Twenty years is a convenient period and premiums spread over that length of time are moderate and easy to handle.

TO COMBAT THE RENT PROFFITEER

Chicago Organizing Hundred Million Dollar Company to Build Homes and Sell on Easy Payments.

Chicago, April 24—This city is attempting to prevent rent profiteering by regulating increases in rates and by organizing a $100,000,000 corporation to build homes and sell them on easy payments.

Several hundred families have solved their individual housing problems by making their homes in house-boats moored in the branches of the Chicago river, the Calumet and lakes in south Chicago.

The housing corporation, which has been financed by banks and business men, has under consideration a plan to build a row of model homes in Grant Park, on the lake front.

Attempts have been made to check rent profiteering by co-operation of the city council and the Cook County Real Estate Board which investigated complaints and, when increases were found to be excessive, advised the landlord to withdraw his demands.

A proposal was made to erect scores of portable houses, but the carpenters' union declared its opposition to that plan even if the houses came from union factories.

The recent tornadoes which destroyed 100 houses and damaged 400 more in Chicago and its suburbs have augmented a housing shortage which has already become acute through suspension of building operations in the war and long-drawn builders' contracts.

The choir and choir committee of the Queen Square Methodist Church were entertained at the residence of R. Duncan Smith, 163 King street, last evening.

HUSBAND NOW ON TRIAL FOR CHILD MURDER

Quebec, April 24—The trial of Telesphore Gagnon, husband of Marie Anne Houde, recently sentenced to hang for having murdered her minor step-daughter, Aureo Gagnon, was commenced yesterday afternoon.

DEALING WITH THE KOREANS

Believe the Independence Move Is Dying—Plea to Abolish Flogging.

Tokio, March 23—(Associated Press correspondence)—Baron Saito, governor general of Korea, says he believes the independence movement in Korea is dying out, although he admits that the Koreans still are making secret efforts to free themselves from the Japanese rule.

The baron said that he was making efforts in Korea to put into effect the emperor's rescript that the Koreans be advanced politically with the ultimate object of establishing local autonomy.

Attempts have been made to check rent profiteering by co-operation of the city council and the Cook County Real Estate Board which investigated complaints and, when increases were found to be excessive, advised the landlord to withdraw his demands.

NEW YORK WALKER ANOTHER GOULDING

New York, April 23—Willie Plant of the Morningstar A. C. national champion, and Uncle Sam's hope in the Olympic walking competitions, this week recorded the fastest mile ever walked by a United States pedestrian.

Plant's time was six seconds slower than the record of 6:28 made by George Goulding nine years ago.

MAN WHO SHOT NEW YORK DOCTOR

Former Calgary Printer in New York Court Yesterday.

New York, April 24—Thomas W. Simpkin, formerly of Calgary, Alta., was arraigned yesterday on an indictment charging him with murder in the first degree by shooting Dr. James Wright Markoe on last Sunday at the distinguished surgeon was passing the plate in fashionable St. George's church.

In a weak, quavering voice, the itinerant printer who is said to have escaped from five insane asylums, said that he had neither counsel nor the funds to engage one.

Immediately afterwards Rosalkey conferred with the accused man regarding his defence. Simpkin drew out a corn cob pipe and shrouded the conference in clouds of smoke.

CHOOSE THEIR OWN DIVORCE COURT

Syracuse, N. Y., April 24—When Rev. and Mrs. W. W. Brunk, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church at Liverpool near here, found that they could not agree upon many domestic matters, they called in an informal jury of their neighbors to settle their differences and agreed to abide by their decision.

Mrs. Brunk accused her husband of holding out on his salary and of neglecting her; he retorted with hints regarding his wife's mental stability.

The "jurors" decided the Brunks should separate, she to take the eldest child and he the two younger ones. They awarded Mrs. Brunk $2,000.

Auto Owners and Garages!

Probably the hardest part of the auto to understand is the electrical system. Electricity starts the motor, through the battery fires the cylinders and supplies the lamps, horn and other accessories.

If you had a leak in your water pipes you would not blame the water department, still many owners lay the blame on the storage battery when it runs down quickly through the fault of a short, which can be compared to a leak in a water pipe, causing wastage.

In the auto the engine when started operates an electric generator which replenishes the storage battery. If your generator is not charging high enough your storage battery will soon require charging from an outside source.

If you are having any electrical trouble in your car just give us a ring or call in and talk it over.

RATE BASE IS $3,100,000

(Special to Times)

Fredericton, April 24—The report that the rate base of the New Brunswick Power Company was to be $2,800,000 instead of $3,100,000 unfortunately was a slip behind the progress of the bill.

How much food today has been kept in cold storage for months and I might say up to two years, and rather than sell at a reasonable price with fair profits, those goods are kept there till they rot and have to be sent for fertilizer?

Yet our government allows such profit making to be done even after passing war-time measures to combat the same.

If in line of war our women are restricted to the amount of sugar to use, now if our women folks in St. John today would for one month refuse to use frosting sugar on their cake and just go to the war time regulation, sugar would soon drop in price.

The same applies to all articles of food. All it needs is the women to make a determined stand and compel the government to take action in this and put a determined stand on capital invested.

T. P. O'Connor says that if he was making laws, he would compel every man from twenty-one to twenty-five and girls from eighteen to twenty-one to get married. I would like to know how a man can get married with the price of food as it is today.

WINNIPEG CONSUMES 50,000,000 GALLONS OF MILK

Winnipeg, April 24—Five million gallons of the 70,000,000 gallons of milk produced in Manitoba last year were consumed in Winnipeg, according to a city health department report.

Other portions of the province consumed ten million gallons, while seven million gallons were consumed as sweet cream and ice cream, one million were manufactured into cheese, 25,000,000 gallons into dairy butter, 20,000,000 into creamery butter and 2,000,000 gallons fed to young calves.

In Manitoba 19,000,000 pounds of butter were manufactured. Of this amount 150 carloads or about 4,000,000 pounds were exported.

Sixty thousand cows are required to satisfy Winnipeg's requirements, the report continues. On a population of 200,000 the annual per capita allowance of milk would be twenty-five gallons and butter twenty-three pounds.

LONDON HAS A WOMEN'S DEMONSTRATION

London, March 30—(Associated Press correspondence)—A girl clerk whose arms and body were wound with red tape, has just led an unusual procession through Whitehall street, the home of government departments, to draw public attention to the demands of women in government employ for equal pay and equal opportunities with men.

Students of Mount Allison University in Sackville last night presented "A Midsummer Night's Dream" under the direction of Miss Ida Leslie. It was enjoyed by a large gathering.

DESERVES RECOGNITION

To the Editor of The Times-Star: Sir—In glancing over one of your columns of April 22 I noticed an item pertaining to the recognition afforded two men for life saving in St. John harbor.

Now while I do not wish to detract any lustre from their gallant work, I would like to put forth the case of a modest young man, Harry Shaw by name, who rescued a boy last fall from the icy waters of Lower Cove slip.

Mr. Shaw showed great gallantry and though clad in heavy working clothes, he jumped in after the drowning boy immediately. But in spite of this to my knowledge he has received no reward.

I hope the members of the city council will see fit to take some action in the immediate future.

ON ACCOUNT OF THE WET WEATHER TODAY (Saturday), our "Anniversary Celebration" will be continued for one day more, Monday.

The splendid lines each department has prepared and marked for last day offerings will now be on sale all day Monday also. A saving on every purchase.—DANIEL, Head of King Street.

MANY CASES OF RHEUMATISM NOW
Says We Must Keep Feet Dry, Avoid Exposure and Eat Less Meat.

Stay off the damp ground, avoid exposure, keep feet dry, eat less meat, drink lots of water and above all take a spoonful of salts occasionally to keep down uric acid.

Rheumatism is caused by poisonous toxin, called uric acid, which is generated in the bowels and absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine. The pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly, cold weather the skin pores are closed, thus forcing the kidneys to do double work, they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate this uric acid which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles causing stiffness and pain called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink which overcomes uric acid and is beneficial to your kidneys as well.

Averages of the Bowlers in the Championship on Black's Alleys.

The statistics of the recent bowling tournament on Black's alleys for the Brunswick-Balke-Collender trophy emblematic of the championship of the maritime provinces and eastern Maine have been compiled. They show that Calais had the largest pin fall, having an average of 1446 for their five games. The Fredericton team, who won the large silver pin, came fourth, but it must be taken into consideration that two of their games were bowled on No. 3 and 4 alleys, while all the Maine team's games were bowled on No. 1 and 2.

KEEPING SHELL CREWS IN TRIM
Joe Wright, Canadian Trainer at Penn, Rules With Iron Hand.

New York, April 23—Joe Wright, husky Canadian governorate of the Pennsylvania shell crews, recently outlengthed by Yale, is a coach who demands the luxury and pampering which modern day athletes receive in most universities. Wright insists that no such conditions shall obtain at Pennsylvania—not on the crews at any rate. Wright laid the law down to his candidates at the start of the training season and told them the consequences of infractions.

Liver Trouble And Heartburn
All liver diseases of whatever character are diseases of the highest importance and demand close attention.

The liver is the largest and one of the most important organs of the body. Its duty is to prepare and secrete bile, and serve as one of the filters of the body, cleansing it of all impurities and poisons. Therefore when the liver gets out of order it is the starting of trouble in nearly every part of the body.

Keep the liver active by using Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills and you will have no heartburn, constipation, biliousness, sick or bilious headaches, dull, heavy eyes, brown blotches, yellow complexion, coated tongue, jaundice, catarrh of the stomach, or the painful protruding internal or bleeding piles.

Mrs. John Kadey, Chippawa, N. B. writes:—"I have used Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills for some time and can recommend them to any one suffering from heartburn and liver trouble. I tried other remedies, but they only relieved me for a short time. I always feel as if I think they are a valuable remedy."

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c a box. At all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

The Hacking Cough Strains The Lungs
The terrible, hacking, lung-wracking cough that sticks to you in spite of everything you have done to get rid of it is a great source of danger to your health, and the longer it is allowed to stick the more serious the menace becomes.

You can easily get rid of the cough or cold at its inception by using Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, a remedy that has been universally used throughout Canada for the past 30 years.

Mrs. Samuel Matthews, Portage, P. E. I., writes:—"Last winter I caught a heavy cold, and was laid up for some time. I had such a hacking cough I could not sleep at night, and did not think I could ever get over it. One day a friend dropped in to see me, and was surprised to see how bad my cough was. She advised me to use Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, so the next day I sent for a bottle and soon got better, and by the time I had taken two bottles, my cough was all gone. I doubt there is anything to equal it."

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is put up in a yellow wrapper; 3 pine trees the trade mark; price 25c and 50c. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.
