TEN BODIES FOUND

Walls of Water Sweep Down Mountain Side in Nevada Carrying Buildings Away and Overturning Hotel—Four Brothers Among Dead

(Canadian Press) Reno, Nev., July 19.—Ten bodies have been recovered, and from five to ten people are believed dead as the result of a cloudburst thirty miles from Lovelock yesterday, which destroyed the mining camp of Mazama and partially destroyed the nearby camp of Seven Troughs.

The known dead: John Trencard, merchant, of Mazama, formerly of Victor, Colo.; Mrs. John Trencard, his wife; Mrs. McLean, Mrs. Reese, Mike Qualen, miner, a son of Superintendant Gillespie, all of Mazama; and four boys of the Keogh family, Mazama.

MRS. CHADWICK RECALLED

Echo of Her Financial Operations in Report to Insolvency Court

Cleveland, Ohio, July 19.—An echo of the famous operations of Mrs. Cassie Chadwick is sounded in a report filed in the insolvency court by Receiver Frank H. Gian, showing that the Euclid Trust & Savings Company, wrecked through loans made to Mrs. Chadwick, would after ten years of waiting, be able to pay depositors dollar for dollar with interest at six per cent.

RUSSIA AND JAPAN

Tokyo, July 19.—It is officially denied here that a new Russo-Japanese convention is to be entered into. There is reason to believe that while there will be no convention or treaty between these two powers, a complete understanding has been reached regarding the future spheres of influence of Russia and Japan in Manchuria and Mongolia, emphasizing and somewhat enlarging the scope of the previous entente.

A DRAW IN WINNIPEG

Winnipeg, July 19.—Hilliard Lang of Toronto, waterways champion of Canada, and Elroy Brewer, of Kansas City, aspirant for the world's championship title, fought twelve rounds to a draw here last night. The bout for the most part was a tame affair, although both men showed cleverness and gave a good display in the boxing line.

TENDING TO INCRIMINATE THE POLICE

Bit by Bit New York's Sensational Murder is Being Cleared

NOW SEEK GUN FIGHTER

Authorities Want to Find Schappes—Automobile Owner Ready to Tell More But Will Talk Only to The District Attorney

(Canadian Press) New York, July 19.—The murder plot that brought Rosenthal to his death, that the gambler might tell no tales against his kind, or against grafting policemen, is today being hourly brought closer to the police system.

William Shapiro, part owner of the "murder car," is giving the public prosecutor, bit by bit, information that strengthens the belief that the slaying of Rosenthal did not spring from the emity of a gambler's clique. Shapiro admits that when his motor car was engaged he was told that policemen had knowledge of what was going to happen, and that nobody was in any danger.

LEARNER OF GUNFIGHTER

"Bald Jack" Rose, gambler and a friend of police Lieutenant Becker, who framed himself to the police, has given the name of a gambler and a gun fighter who was in the car the night that Rosenthal was shot. His name is Schappes, and detectives are scouring the town for him.

What Rose told Deputy Police Commissioner Dougherty makes the police official quite anxious to know more about "Bald Jack" Rose, a pool-room keeper and friend of Rosenthal. Rose said that when he left the murder car up town, he dropped in on Webber but later it appeared that Webber turned up at the Hotel Metropole just before Rosenthal was shot, and shook hands with the gambler. Webber was also seen at the hotel after the shooting.

Police Lieutenant Becker has been told to remain at police headquarters and no one was more surprised at the unexpected appearance of "Bald Jack" Rose at headquarters, yesterday, than Becker the head of the so-called "strong arm" squad, which has been engaged in looking after gambling houses.

NAME GANG LEADER IN CASE

For the first time the name of "Big Jack" Zelig, a gang leader and gambler of the east side, who recently was shot by a Chick Triggs gangster, is brought into the case today. Detectives bear that Zelig, who is known as the right hand man of Sam Paul, an East Side gang leader, was seen talking to Rose on the night of the murder. According to the story, Rose was trying to get Zelig to do something for him, and Zelig was promised a reward, freedom from the charge of carrying a concealed weapon, now pending against him. Zelig's lawyer says he is not in town and has not been since July 10.

SHORTER SKIRTS TO SHOW HOSIERY AT ONLY $25 A PAIR

New York Announces Stockings of Gold Thread and Silk Among Fashion's Latest

New York, July 19.—According to a fashion paper, women's stockings made from real gold thread and silk, are to be the proper thing about this autumn. They come from Vienna and cost $25 a pair. Another novelty will be black or white stockings which, above the ankles, will be frocked in elaborate designs, such as a peacock with its tail outstretched in gorgeous colors. To enable these embellishments to be visible it is announced that shorter skirts are to be insisted upon by dress makers.

GERMANY'S TRADE GROWS

Berlin, July 19.—Official reports of Germany's foreign trade for the six months ending June 30, show that the imports amounted to 5,083,000 marks, or $1,273,400,000. This is an increase of 410,000,000 marks over the preceding six months, and exports reached a total value of 4,212,300,000 marks, an increase of 318,000,000 marks.

DISAPPOINTMENT NOW IS FEELING IN LONDON

Criticism of Borden in Empire Capital Becomes More Apparent

No Policy and Nothing Decided Until After Return to Canada—Demand Made on Mother Country Opens Way For Many Difficulties

(Special Cable to Times) London, July 19.—While English appreciation of Hon. Mr. Borden's attitude continues, the note of criticism is now becoming more apparent, semi-official announcement yesterday that no details of a Canadian naval plan can be given until the return of the ministers to the dominion in September has caused real disappointment. The public here hoped for some statement in R. Hon. Mr. Churchill's speech next week.

The feeling grows here that if Borden insists upon an imperial council as a condition of a naval gift, innumerable difficulties will arise and delays may be indefinite. The public here is willing largely to be guided by the desires of the dominions, but each day of more intimate discussion of the council idea here helps to convince British politicians that a real council with executive powers would involve a fundamental revolution in imperial relationships. Canadian representation on the council of imperial defence might be more easily accomplished, but it would be of little actual value, each council having no real power.

FIVE BRUSSELS STREET PROPERTIES ARE SOLD

Real Estate News of Today—St. John Men Interested in Montreal and Halifax

The number of transfers of real estate which have been taking place lately at St. John is a reflection of the substantial nature of the upward movement in local property. This is especially noticeable in the summer months. Several interesting transfers were announced today and a large number are in the process of negotiation. Brussels street seems to be holding the attention of investors and speculators today. The property here is in real estate circles. Several interesting transfers were announced today and a large number are in the process of negotiation.

Local opportunities are not wanting all the money available for investment here. One of the latest outside projects in which St. John money is being placed is an apartment house in Montreal, which was taken over by a syndicate formed by a couple of local men with quite a large number of other St. John investors.

The Halifax Recorder says:—Halifax is reported to be on the eve of another big real estate boom, and it is said that St. John, N. B., parties are interesting themselves in any property in the centre of the city that is on the market. At least one sale is mentioned as being practically consummated. The buildings named are on and near a corner of two down town streets and there are other structures that are being engaged into, and prices are being obtained or options taken.

NEW WATER MAINS ON THE WEST SIDE

Plans for renewals of water mains in Carleton were approved today by the city commissioners, sitting at the board of water and sewerage. Tenders will be called for the work immediately. Part of the new work is to be done in Queen street between Watson and Victoria streets where a fifty-year-old four inch cement pipe is to be replaced by a ten inch iron pipe. This is for the purpose of not only improving the service along Queen street but also to give a better supply for the warehouse at Sand Point. The other renewal is in Watson street, between Charlotte and Winslow, where an old six-inch cement pipe will be replaced by a twelve inch iron main.

MR. EASSON APPOINTED BANK OF NEW BRUNSWICK MANAGER TODAY

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Bank of New Brunswick today C. H. Easson was appointed general manager of the bank in succession to R. B. Keenan, who has resigned. It is not known definitely when Mr. Easson will reach St. John, and he will not likely take up his new duties for some weeks. At the meantime Mr. Keenan will continue to act as general manager.

MYSTERY SOLVED

The mystery of the finding of an empty rowboat, left's hat and boots at Millidgeville has been solved. Those interested have returned home safely and there is no further cause for fear. The occupants of the boat were a brother and sister from a point up river a short distance and they set out on Tuesday afternoon to visit some friends at an L. C. R. summer resort.

They were caught in heavy rain while on Millidgeville and put ashore. The empty boat later drifted away and then went ashore again, but there was no occasion for fear as the brother and sister were by the time at the home of a friend and worrying little about their adventure. Last night they returned home.

BORDEN WAS LATE AT ROYAL GARDEN PARTY

Ten Thousand Invited Guests At Function At Windsor Castle

PREMIER OUT MOTORING

Sir Charles Fitzpatrick and Daughter and Mr. Stanton Presented to Their Majesties—Mrs. Borden Still Kept to Her Room Yesterday

(Canadian Press) London, July 19.—The king and queen, accompanied by several members of the royal family, gave a monster garden party on the east lawn at Windsor Castle yesterday afternoon. Among the 10,000 invited guests were peers, princesses, members of parliament, representatives of the church, navy, army and learned societies, besides many Canadians, who were very much in evidence. Among the latter were the visiting Canadian cabinet ministers, Lord Strathcona, Sir Joseph Pope, Mr. Carrick, M. P., Hamar Greenwood, M. P., Sir Charles and Miss Fitzpatrick, and Cameron Station.

His Majesty scarcely taken his seat in the royal household through the grounds, as he enquired for Mr. Borden, who had not yet arrived, however. It transpired that the premier's motor trip in company of Messrs. Pelletier and DeLoery had been amended, causing a slight delay. On his arrival he was ushered into His Majesty's presence, accompanied by Colonial Secretary Harcourt. The king chatted for some time with the visitors, and afterwards took tea with the premier as his guest.

Mrs. Borden is still kept to her room, but it is hoped that she will be able to attend the state ball at Buckingham Palace tonight.

REDMOND WAS NOT STRUCK BY HATCHET

Ear Cut When His Head Was Jammed Against Hotel Door in Crush—The Suffragettes

Dublin, July 19.—On the arrival of the prime minister in Dublin last night, when a hatchet was thrown at his carriage, it was at first reported that the weapon struck John E. Redmond, the Nationalist leader, on the head, but this proved to be erroneous. Mr. Redmond was slightly injured while entering the Gresham Hotel, where the crash was so great that his head was jammed against the door. When he appeared on the balcony with the prime minister, it was seen that his ear was bleeding, and it was supposed that this was due to a blow from the hatchet.

Two women who occupied a box at the Dublin Theatre, where Mr. Asquith will speak tomorrow, threw a blazing chair into the orchestra, and set fire to the box curtains, which caused a panic. One of the women made her escape, but the other, who gave the name of Gladys Evans, and said she came from England, was arrested.

Two English suffragettes handed in a statement at the office of the Irish Times in which they declared they had come to Ireland with a full sense of the responsibility of having accepted the challenge of the Right Hon. E. H. Balfour, chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster, by burning, not an English castle but a Dublin theatre.

MISS JESSIE ROSS OF TRURO FOUND DEAD

Truro, N. S., July 19.—(Special)—On Thursday night Miss Jessie Ross, daughter of the late Rev. Ebenezer Ross, died suddenly at her residence in Queen street. She was a maiden lady who for several years lived in the family residence alone. On Thursday evening a friend calling to see her found her lying on the floor. Doctor Patton was called and found her past human aid. Death evidently came many hours previously. The funeral will take place on Saturday afternoon.

HOME FOR BURIAL

The body of Mrs. Anna S. King, who died in New York this week, was brought to the city on the Boston express this morning. The funeral took place from the home of E. T. C. Knowles in Leicester street at 2:30 o'clock. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Dr. C. R. Thoms and interment was in Fernhill.

Futile Attack At Dardanelles Early Today

Cannonade Lasts Forty Minutes and Italy Loses Two Torpedo Boats—Six Killed in Fight Among Mexican Insurrectos

(Canadian Press) Constantinople, July 19.—Eight Italian torpedo boats attacked the entrance of the Dardanelles at half past one o'clock this morning. The Turkish forts replied vigorously, sinking two of the Italian vessels and damaging the other six. The cannonade lasted forty minutes. The cabinet ministers were hurriedly called to the palace this morning and at a council of war it was decided to close the Dardanelles.

Tewfik Pasha, the Turkish ambassador in London, who, on July 17, was appointed grand vizier, has undertaken to form a new cabinet.

Madera, State Oahu, Mexico, July 19.—Six rebels were killed, another fatally injured, and a half dozen others more or less seriously wounded, in a battle that almost provoked a mutiny yesterday among the insurrecto troops here.

TRIAL OF P. E. ISLAND WOMAN ON CHARGE OF KILLING CHILDREN

Charlotte, P. E. I., July 19.—Trial of Mrs. McCullough, charged with the murder of her five children by administering phosphorus in the form of pills, was opened in Georgetown on Wednesday. The evidence, so far, has been practically the same as that given at the preliminary trial.

A new witness is Doctor Rutten, head of the chemistry department in McGill University. He made the analysis of the stomach and other organs of the children and also of the food found in the Medicine home. He reported that there was no trace of free phosphorus, but phosphorus in the form of phosphoric acid in some of the organs.

Attorney General Matheson is appearing for the crown, and A. L. F. Brown is appointed to defend the prisoner. It is likely that the plea of insanity will be entered.

TABLETS RECALLING THE NIAGARA TRAGEDY

Toronto, July 18.—Eldridge Stanton's memory as well as that of Durrell Hancock's is to be commemorated as that of a hero. It is now proposed to place two tablets in Queen Victoria Niagara Falls Park, one to commemorate the act of the brave Cleveland boy, and a tablet on the opposite side stating that Mr. Stanton met death heroically with his wife.

BANDIT KILLED BY POSSE

Montgomery, Al., July 19.—In a battle South of Alexander City yesterday one of the robbers who blew open the post office safe at Auburn, on Monday night, was killed by a posse. The bandit, hidden in the woods, opened fire on the officers. They gave battle and in less than ten minutes the bandit was killed. Nine of the posse were hurt. In a pocket of the robber's coat was found $333, but no papers to identify him.

A HINT. A Montreal man who has been looking over St. John with the intention of making some investments expressed the opinion this morning that a coat of paint would help the sale of a lot of the wooden properties and that it would add greatly to the general appearance of the city.

LA MARQUISE DE FONTENAY
Kaiser May Give up Visit to Switzerland as Protection is Not Guaranteed—A Money Difficulty in Royal Society

Emperor William's projected visit to Switzerland in September to witness the annual manoeuvres of the militia army of the Helvetic Republic is likely to be abandoned. For the same reason that Emperor Nicholas, some years ago, gave up at the last moment his state visit to Rome for which the most elaborate arrangements had been made by the Italian government. The Russian ruler remained away from the Eternal City on that occasion because the chief of the Roman police and the principal officials of the detective service of the interior department of the interior declared it impossible to accept responsibility for the imperial visitor's safety from any and every sort of harm.

So it is now in the case of Switzerland, where Marc Ruchet, the chief of the department of the interior, has resigned his office as well as his membership in the federal council, sooner than accept any responsibility for the security of the Kaiser on his proposed visit.

Marc Ruchet, whose membership in the federal council gave him a position equal almost with that of the president of the republic (now M. Forrer) the sovereignty of which is vested jointly in the seven members of the council, declares the while away from Switzerland of aliens of stormy antecedents and evil repute, the means are lacking for their enforcement. He might have added that there was also a disinclination on the part of the cantonal governments to co-operate with the federal authorities in the matter. He laid stress upon the fact that all attempts to secure the necessary funds for such an undertaking had failed, as not in keeping with Swiss ideas.

It is this inability to enforce the laws relating to foreigners that has made Switzerland more than any other country the haven of revolutionists, nihilists and anarchists; in a word of the foes of society and of the existing systems of government. In England, which shares with Switzerland the international opprobrium of harboring dangerous people, they are at least subjected to a most elaborate and relentless supervision on the part of the police. This alone makes them prefer the territory of the republic, where, moreover, the means of existence are much cheaper than in England, while the absence of capital punishment from the legal code of most of the cantons, and where murder is usually considered as sufficiently punished by a more or less long prison sentence, renders a sojourn in that republic particularly attractive for monarchs.

No one can forget that it was in Switzerland that Empress Elizabeth of Austria was assassinated in 1898 by an Italian anarchist, and it is a fact that many of the regicidal outrages in other countries, have been plotted in Switzerland by "undesirable aliens" notably the blowing up of the dining-room of the Winter Palace at St. Petersburg at the imperial party was about to cross the threshold; the assassination of Alexander II, a year later, and the wreck of the imperial train at Borki, when Alexander III, with his court and children, including the present Czar, so narrowly escaped death.

As the Swiss resent the presence of foreign detectives and police agents, even though employed exclusively to watch him suspects and criminals, and place all sorts of obstacles in their way, it is probable that the Kaiser will yield to the requests of his family and his ministers and, deferring to the implied warning of the federal minister of the interior at Bern, abandon his widely heralded visit.

In this connection, it may not be amiss to recall that, after the memorable visit of Prince Henry to this country in 1902, a confidential communication was issued from the state department to the American embassies and legations in monarchical countries, directing them to quietly discourage as much as possible the visits of European royalties to the United States on the ground that the federal government found it difficult to assure their safety from harm and indignity, and that such visits entailed heavy expenditure, legislative provision for which was difficult to secure without opposition calculated to humiliate both the guest and the nation.

It is not, however, the question of money, as much as that of safety, which caused the issue of this communication, for, although Prince Henry of Prussia's stay was so brief, there was a constant conflict of authority between the federal secret service men and the police officials of the states and cities which he visited. So great was the confusion that the prince's various protectors on several occasions arrested one another.

Prince Alexander of Thurn-and-Taxis has been involving the assistance of the London police in order to ascertain the whereabouts of Mrs. James Henry Smith's foreign son-in-law, Don Miguel de Braganza, so-called Duc de Viseu, in the matter of a judgment debt of $80,000. He has interests in great western land enterprises. He makes his principal home at the Chateau Lauen, in Bohemia, is a privy councillor of the emperor, as well as a member of the House of Lords, and is married to Princess Marie Hohenlohe. I place him thus definitely, because his second son, married to a Princess de Ligne, bears the same name, and the two are sometimes confused.

Just how the prince came to lend any large sum to a man so hopelessly involved in debt as Don Miguel de Braganza, is a curious story. Prince Alexander had secured from the Emperor of Russia a gold-mining concession in the Altai-Nerchinsk district of the crown domain in Siberia, the strength of which a company was formed in London, under English laws, entitled "The Imperial Domains Company," and capitalized at some $6,000,000. The shareholders included the Archduke Leopold Salvator of Austria, son-in-law of the late Don Carlos, Prince Elie of Bourbon, son and heir of the last sovereign Duke of Parma, Lord Knollys and Lord Farquhar, Count Hermsdorf and several other notabilities, among them the widowed Grandduchess of Luxembourg and her sister, the widowed Archduchess Maria Theresa of Austria, stepmother of the Austro-Hungarian heir apparent.

Both these royal ladies, as daughters of the late ex-King Miguel of Portugal, are both of young Miguel de Braganza and when the latter appealed to them once more for monetary assistance on the eve of his marriage to Miss Anita Stewart, they pointed out to him how much they had already contributed to his assistance, and sent him to Prince Alexander Thurn-and-Taxis, asking the latter's good offices as a clever man of affairs, to help the young man out of his difficulties. Prince Alexander accordingly helped Don Miguel to obtain from a Bohemian bank a loan of $100,000 or more, becoming answerable for the amount.

It was generally understood by Don Miguel's relatives that his debts would be settled in full by his mother-in-law, Mrs. James Henry Smith, immediately after his marriage. But when she realized that he had been compelled to sacrifice his royal status in order to wed her daughter, she declined to contribute more than $100,000 towards the liquidation of his liabilities. Some $20,000 of this he paid the Bohemian bank on account. Prince Alexander of Thurn-and-Taxis was called upon to make good his guarantee. Hard hit by the failure of the Siberian gold-mining venture, which, moreover, had put him in the bad graces of his royal and imperial fellow shareholders, Prince Alexander secured Austrian judgments against Don Miguel for the $50,000 in question, pleading that he had been intentionally misled by the young Braganza.

It is in connection with this imputation of fraud that, not satisfied with seeking enforcement of the judgments by the English tribunals, Prince Alexander has also invoked the assistance of the London police, since the police have been advised to take no part in the matter until the question of fraud has been settled by the civil courts.

Daily Hints For the Cook

CHERRY SHORTCAKE.
Sift two cups of flour with half teaspoon of soda, rub in two tablespoons of butter, add one cup of buttermilk and bake in a round pan. Split and butter while hot, cover the two halves with pitted cherries and sprinkle generously with powdered sugar.

HOW TO BAKE POTATOES.
To have really good baked potatoes, first pare and then put in a good hot oven. Many people do not like baked potatoes because the best of them is in the hard part formed by the skin, but if the potato is pared all may be eaten, and it is truly delicious and much nicer than if only the soft part inside is used.

FIG CAKE.
One and one half cups of sugar, half cup butter, half cup sweet milk, 1 1/2 cups flour, one fourth teaspoonful salt, one teaspoon baking powder, half cup cornstarch, whites of six eggs. Put together as for cornstarch cake and bake in two shallow oblong pans in a quick oven. Put together with fig filling, which is made as follows: Half pound chopped figs, two tablespoons sugar, three tablespoons boiling water, one tablespoon lemon juice. Cook in double boiler till thick enough.

BRITISHER FINDS HOUSE RENTS HIGH

Montreal, July 19—In every city but Montreal has visited in Canada, Aid. Thomas Brown, of Birmingham, Eng., one of the party of British Manufacturers, now here has tried to find slumps but without success. He is really disappointed.

"No property can be seen anywhere in this country," he said. "I had no idea Canada is so prosperous. I am surprised in seeing to see something wonderful and I have more than I expected. MAINE APPLE CROP SMALLER August, July 19—The Maine apple crop will not be as large as in 1911, but the proportion of No. 1 apples will be larger this year than ever before," reported State Horticulturist Albert K. Gardner Wednesday upon his return from the orchard sections. "Notwithstanding the very heavy bloom," he continued, "the trees are not as heavily loaded with fruit this year as they were last year at this time. The adverse weather conditions caused insufficient pollination and a resultant large drop. If I were to put the situation into figures, I would say that the crop will be 20 per cent smaller than for 1911. The large proportion of No. 1 apples, however, will enable the orchardist to get about as much for their product, if it is properly packed."

LATEST FROM THE OLYMPICS

Stockholm, July 19—Two British boats were left to fight out the final heat of the out-board eight-oared shells race today. They were the Leander crew, which had an unexpectedly easy victory over the eight representing the Berlin Rowing club, in the semi-final this morning and New College Oxford.

Leander and Berlin in their semi-final heat were on even terms for the first quarter of the distance. At the half the Brits assumed the lead, which they held until the end. The Englishmen easily held the Berlin eight's plucky spurt and paddled home, winning by half a length in 6 minutes 13 seconds.

DOG SAVES STEAMSHIP

Boston, July 19—The barking of Prince a Newfoundland dog, saved the steamship Fortuna, Captain Nelson, from crashing into vessels of a fishing fleet off Nantucket in a heavy fog on Sunday morning. Captain Nelson told the story on his arrival here.

The dog had been on the bridge from Saturday night. When he grew excited and began barking on Sunday morning the captain asked the lookout what they saw. They reported nothing, but the vessel slowed down and was proceeding only under steerage way when the first of the fishing vessels was sighted.

The Flemming Roads

(Chatham World)

Motorists from southward tell harrowing tales of a bit of the Richmond road near Fanagans. One car got stuck in the mud on that road recently, and had to stay there all night; another was hauled out by men and teams that have been engaged in "repairing" the road by dumping mud on it, and one was held up on Sunday an hour and a half, till the travelers tore off boughe with their hands and jammed them into the mud. Mud, well mixed with brush, will make a passable road, but undulterated mud is worse than nothing at all. Something should be done to that road without the loss of a day.

BORDEN IN LONDON

The articles which the English Tory newspapers have been publishing about Mr. Borden are of a sort to excite ridicule on the part of Canadians who know Mr. Borden and the elements which he represents. By the more ardent of the Tory journals the Canadian premier is placed in language which should only be made applicable to one who had rendered the most signal service to the Empire.

"Whatever issues from the deliberations between the Canadian and the Imperial ministers, two words of warning should be uttered. A section of the English press and a section of the Unionist party are trying to create an atmosphere of panic, and to bustle the Canadian ministers into accepting the scheme of an Imperial squadron under the present of peace. It is perfectly easy to show that the scheme is baser, and the naval situation much easier since the German rate of construction has dropped by nearly fifty per cent.

The people of Canada of course appreciate courtesy extended to their representatives, but it is rather irritating to Liberals who are quite as loyal as Mr. Borden to have statements published in leading journals in London which impugn their loyalty and their devotion to the Empire. It is not, however, irritating but amusing to Canadian Liberals to read the fulsome eulogies of Mr. Borden. He is described as a great imperialist. As a matter of fact Mr. Borden's imperialism is in its support of a presidential candidate.

A POLICE MYSTERY
A notorious New York gambler, who had made the charge that he was forced into a partnership with a lieutenant of police, was mysteriously murdered before the charge made could be investigated. Who killed him? Was he charged true, and did the guilty police official put him out of the way? These are questions now agitating the city of New York.

CAMARADERIE

Mayor Goetz, of South Bend, was discussing the sudden political camaraderie of two erstwhile hostile camps.

"There is something weird about it," he said, "something ghastly and unreal. In fact, it reminds me of the insane asylum inmates."

"What brings you here?" an old inmate asked of a newcomer one morning at breakfast.

"Fido," was the reply, "I hate Fido."
"Why, so do I," cried the other inmate, delightedly. "Come on out and we'll have one together."

"Why, so do I," cried the other inmate, delightedly. "Come on out and we'll have one together."

"Here lies a good wife who had but one husband."

HAD HEARD OF HIM

It was at a White House reception. A charming girl of eighteen, the daughter of a western business man, and quite a society queen in her own city, had been brought to Washington by her father, and at one of the White House receptions was presented to the president.

As her small hand disappeared within the hearty grasp of the president, the maiden looked up at him and, smiling sweetly, said: "I've awfully glad to meet you, Mr. Taft; I've often heard father speak of you."

NO ROOM FOR MEFPHISTO

Lewis Morrison was playing "Faust" down in Missouri or in that vicinity. In the act where Morrison as Mephisto goes down a trapdoor, surrounded by the regions, the trap failed to work properly, and he could not go all the way, or, at least, was delayed in the play, and he all but the appendage supposed to be a horn on the top of his head, when during the brief delay, while the audience was silent and expectant, and observant of the "Fitch," a gallery girl shouted "Hi—I is full and wanting over to the top would have the house collapsed, and it was half an hour before the audience could be quieted sufficiently for the play to go on.

GETTING OVER A DIFFICULTY

After every known method of smoke stack scaling had failed, Thomas Fitzpatrick, a steely climber, succeeded in fastening a line to the top of a mill smoke stack at Webster by means of a one-cent kite and climbing the 117 feet to his work.

The work was to place tips on the lightning rods. There is no ladder either inside or outside the stack and the building of a steading to the top would have been too expensive for the job.

Efforts to send up, inside the chimney, balloons and a line with a line attached and to shoot a line over the top of the stack all failed.

Finally Fitzpatrick sent his kite up over the chimney with packing string attached to the twin, small rope to the packing string, and to this half-inch rope, which he wished to climb.

After the half-inch rope was in place over the chimney, Fitzpatrick released his line, allowing the kite to drop to the ground with the rope over the stack. It was a simple matter to make it fast and climb to his work.

FEW TRAMPS KILLED ON RAILROAD TRACKS

Frank W. Whiting Gives Figures Showing Hebe Mortality is Not Great

That more than half of the very large number of persons killed on railroad tracks in this country during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1911, were trespassers, and that of those trespassers, a large proportion were men of regular employment is the burden of a little essay prepared on this subject by Frank W. Whiting, general claims attorney for the New York Central line.

Of the 10,286 persons killed instantly or who died within 24 hours after an accident, 5,284 have been designated by the Interstate Commerce commission's report as trespassers. Of this number, 4,123 were struck by engines or cars, showing that they were walking or standing on the tracks. Of those killed in getting on or off cars or engines, there were 820; those killed while on trains numbered 1,043, and 110 died from other causes.

Many of these persons so coming to their deaths were of the very large number who use the tracks of railways as a thoroughfare between streets or highways in going to and coming from their places of employment. Out of 1,000 persons killed while trespassing on railroad tracks, such as trespassing on tracks, 700 were men of regular employment. Widows or children were left by 273 of them, 33 were widowers and 376 were single. Moreover 369 were living with their families or parents and 330 could not be classified in this respect.

These figures are interesting for the light which they throw on the old repeated assertion that those killed on the railroad tracks are for the most part "hoboes" or "tramps." Both words are here given because of the well defined distinction between these two social phenomena, a distinction, however, not always recognized.

These figures would indicate, Mr. Whiting points out, that the proportion of what may be called economic persons, those who actually work or who have ties that will make their deaths a matter of regret, is very large among those killed while trespassing on railroads. Out of a thousand trespassers it was possible to say that only 30 were hoboes. Further it was learned that in 708 cases out of 1,000 the trespasser was not intoxicated.

Drawing his conclusions from these figures Mr. Whiting declares that regulation of the class of tramps and hoboes by trying to control their migrations under some sort of federal law will accomplish but little toward reducing the number of deaths on railroads that can be attributed to un-

GREAT SHOCK TO LEADERS IN HIGH SOCIETY

Meet at Swell Function And Their Dresses Are Alike

THEY LAUGH IT OFF

Paris Dressmaker, However, Lazes Two Good Customers by His Mistake—News of Canadians in Social Life in England

(Times' Special Correspondence)

London, July 6.—That clever Frenchman who has had the pleasant and profitable task of designing and creating some of the confessions of Mrs. David Beatty and the Duchess of Roxburgh up to now, will because of a terrible contretemps that happened to these two women at the former's recent garden fete, enjoy it no longer. Mrs. Beatty is not one of those women who design their own dresses; instead she goes to this man in Paris for most of her frocks, and he creates special designs for her exclusive use.

It is impossible to review week after week Canadian activities in London without being impressed with the marvelous growth which has marked along social lines. As a Canadian remarked at the Dominion Day banquet: "A few years ago a distinguished gathering such as we have here tonight would have been a cause for congratulation; now it seems to be the natural reflection of Canadian improvement in the metropolis, and our numbers have grown so that we are able to transmit to His Majesty the king, the loyal expressions of 500 Canadians."

The function this year certainly brought together a great array of people distinguished in many walks of life, and formed an eloquent tribute both to the esteem in which Lord Strathcona is held, and to Canada's national, political and social expansion.

Lord Blyth, whom you will see in Canada this year, was there in company with peers like the Earl of Carrick, Viscount Templeton, Lord Merivale, Northcliffe and Howard de Walden (who I hear has acquired interests in the Dominion). The high commissioners of the other overseas dominions were present to join in the general tribute.

The banquet was interesting inasmuch as it served to bring together Canadians who have made names for themselves and brought honor to their country in affairs of importance in London and to the empire. Sir Percy Grouard, for instance, who has been called one of the king's most efficient administrators, and who rules over vast areas in Africa, and in other spheres of activity, Dr. G. R. Parkin and the ambassadors of the several Canadian provinces, who discharge such important duties in London. It also served as the theatre for the Hon. George E. Foster's eloquent speech, which drew the lord mayor's eulogy. Barely it is that Lord Strathcona presides at a banquet without alluding to his desire to see faster steamships between Great Britain and Canada. "I still hope I may see the service done in four to four and a half days," was his remark on the occasion.

Canadians in London are beginning to realize that there is something wanting in the purely Canadian functions held here, and that the ladies should participate more than they do. Apart from a few

Abusing Privileges

By RUTH CAMERON

THERE is a certain class of people in this world who are regularly given to abusing their privileges. Some of the privileges being withdrawn—and withdrawn, unfortunately, not only from them, but also from those who used their privileges rightly; sometimes it merely causes infinite trouble and difficulty to some one.

One of the department stores in my home city has always been remarkable for the courtesy which it has shown in the matter of exchanges. Anything within reason—and sometimes more than that—this firm would do. Recently, I heard someone say, "So-and-so & Co. are not so good about exchanging things as they used to be." If that statement is true, there is a good reason for the change. For, again and again, I have known of the courtesy of that firm being abused. I know one woman who bought a green silk lamp shade, used it six months, and then actually exchanged it. If the privileges of exchange are curtailed by So-and-so & Co., I think the woman who took back that green lamp shade will be partly to blame.

As I waited for my white gloves at the glove cleaning counter the other day, I heard one clerk say wearily to another, "I've just had two more lost checks reported. Seems as if there wasn't anything but lost checks lately. If those slips meant as much trouble to them as it does to us, there wouldn't be so much carelessness, I can tell you." There was another case of abused privileges. This time it did not result in the privilege being taken away, because that would be practically impossible; it simply meant infinite trouble for someone.

Again, many stores are very liberal in their delivery privileges. At some shops in the larger cities, even the least expensive purchase may be sent free of charge. But there is such a thing as using this privilege reasonably and stopping there. To be sure, you have a RIGHT to send over the little parcel which you could easily slip into your hand bag, but the idea of the system is merely to relieve the customer of cumbersome packages, and when you oblige the expressman to make a special trip to your house to bring a toothbrush or three pairs of stockings, you are grossly abusing your privilege.

There is reason in all things. Just because the shop grants you these privileges as a matter of business, does not justify you in abusing them. Decent people have a good sense of honor and decency in business dealings as well as personal relations. Besides, there is a human element in everything. You have an idea that it is only the firm which suffers when you abuse one of its privileges. Nine times out of ten some individual is also affected.

Witness the incident of the white gloves. Mr. Desbarats of Ottawa was a guest of Sir Henry Babbington Smith at a dinner given to the members of the international radio telegraphic conference last night. A. Lee, ex-Lord Mayor of Liverpool, and chairman of the Walker Art Gallery, Liverpool, will visit the Toronto exhibition for the art section of the exhibition.

Among other prominent Canadian visitors is Sir Charles Fitzpatrick, chief justice of Canada; Sir William Mulock, chief justice of the exchequer court of Ontario, who is making a short stay in this country, will return to Canada on July 13. Sir William is staying at the Carlton Hotel.

INSURANCE CASE

In the non-jury case of the Pacific Coast Fire Insurance Company vs. John L. Hicks, of Sackville, before Judge White yesterday, in which the plaintiffs seek to recover $2000 insurance paid to the defendant, the operations of a couple of insurance companies in this province were brought to light. Mr. Hicks, in addition to his other insurance had taken policies amounting to $5000 in a Pennsylvania company which it was said, had afterwards proved fraudulent. He had not given notice of this to the local companies and they contended that this vitiated their contracts. The defence is that, as the companies were fraudulent, the additional insurance was not actually effected. The hearing was adjourned until September, when the argument of counsel will take place.

ROUSING WELCOME IN DUBLIN FOR THE BRITISH PREMIER

Suffragettes Make Trouble; One Throws Hatchet Into Mr. Asquith's Carriage

Dublin, July 18.—The British prime minister, received a vociferous popular welcome here tonight. On his arrival he was met by Augustine Birrell, chief secretary for Ireland, the National leader, and the mayors of Dublin, Cork and other cities.

A torchlight procession, with forty bands and thousands of lights, escorted their carriage to a hotel amid a sustained roar of welcome, the premier constantly standing in his carriage and bowing his acknowledgments, and Mrs. Asquith scattering flowers among the crowd.

Suffragettes chartered small boats at Kingstown about seven miles from Dublin, with a view of making a demonstration on the arrival of the premier's boat, but were prevented by being so by the vigilance of the authorities.

A serious affair, seemingly of suffragette origin occurred, however, at the Dublin Theatre, where Mr. Asquith will speak tomorrow. During an entertainment a blinding flash, apparently a flash of light, was thrown from a box into the orchestra.

The curtain of the box caught on fire and the audience was thrown into a panic. Attendees extinguished the flames, and order was restored. A woman who occupied the box made her escape from the theatre.

It developed later that a second woman was in the box and aided in the incendiary. In the confusion one of the women got away but the other was arrested. She will be examined by a magistrate tomorrow. She is said to be an English suffragette.

Another outrage occurred while the procession was passing Princess street. A woman threw a hatchet at the premier's carriage. On the arrival of the carriage at the hotel, Premier Asquith and Mrs. Asquith, John E. Redmond, leader of the Irish Nationalists, and the Lord Mayor of Dublin proceeded to an elaborately decorated luncheon where Mr. Redmond publicly welcomed the prime minister. Great crowds gathered in the street gave the premier an ovation.

Mr. Asquith, in a brief speech, said that this was the first time he had visited Ireland since the act of union and it was beyond his power adequately to thank the people for their magnificent and memorable welcome.

He came on a mission of peace between artificially estranged people. They would give courage to undertake and accomplish things. So why suffer the handicap of looking at each other with suspicion when a simple remedy will give your hair youthful color and beauty in a few days' time?

Most people know that common garden sage acts as a color restorer and scalp tonic as well. Our grandmothers used a "Sage Tea" for keeping their hair dark, soft and luxuriant. In Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy we have an ideal preparation of Sage, combined with Sulphur and other ingredients for candor, itching scalp and thin, weak hair that is split at the ends or constantly coming out. The few applications of this valuable remedy will bring back the color, and in a short time it will remove every trace of dandruff and greatly improve the growth and appearance of the hair.

FATAL ACCIDENT WHEN PILE DRIVER STRIKES LIVE WIRE

Two Men Killed at Medford, Ont.—Water is Charged With Electricity, and Several Receive Shocks.

Medford, Ont., July 18.—A fatal accident, marked by extraordinary features occurred here this afternoon when a pile driver used in the construction of the new highway street bridge overbalanced and started to fall upon a group of workmen beneath.

A metal bolt at the top of the pile driver caught in an electric wire, preventing the big machine from falling. This circumstance, which saved the workmen below, brought death to two others for the electric current was diverted to the pile driver.

William Cherry, of Medford, operating the engine fifty feet away, received the charge through the steel cable and fell. A man named Johnson, of Owen Sound, working half way up the pile driver, involuntarily seized the cable as the frame tipped and was also killed, his body falling half way up the pile driver.

So heavily charged with electricity that George Hodge, of Medford, who grasped Johnson's hand to draw out the body was rendered unconscious. The body was finally pulled out by looping a rope around it. Several spectators received slight injuries.

Mr. Gurnsey was also taken to Mr. Holder's residence, where the wounds in his legs were dressed.

Mr. and Mrs. Manchester, aside from the severe nervous shock and a bad shaking up, were unharmed, and the chauffeur without a scratch.

Word was immediately sent to the city by automobile from J. A. Pughley & Co.'s garage was rushed to the Devil's Back and Mr. and Mrs. Manchester and the chauffeur returned to the city.

It is understood that the car was not badly damaged and that the engine was still in working order.

OVER BANK WITH AUTOMOBILE AT THE DEVIL'S BACK

Mrs. H. E. Gurnsey and Husband Injured; Mr. and Mrs. James Manchester Shaken Up

One of the most serious automobile accidents in the history of the province occurred early last evening near the Devil's Back, when a car, containing James Manchester, president of the Bank of New Brunswick, and Mrs. Manchester and Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Gurnsey, with Roy Foley as chauffeur, all of St. John, slid off the road which at that spot is narrow and very dangerous, turned turtle and rolled over a sixty foot embankment.

Mrs. Gurnsey was the only one to receive very serious injuries and it was thought for a time that she had been fatally injured.

The party were coming from Upper Gagetown, where Mr. Gurnsey had been called on business and when the car reached the grade at the Devil's Back Creek, which is about two miles above Brown's Flats on the river road, the back wheels skidded and the auto turned over a bank fifteen feet below the road and then rolled, turning as it went, to the bed of the stream about fifty feet down.

Mr. and Mrs. Manchester and the chauffeur were thrown from the car at the first plunge but Mr. and Mrs. Gurnsey were carried to the bottom of the bank.

J. E. McCready, formerly of Norton, but now engaged in the real estate business in Toronto, who is summing up at Woodman's Point, passed in his auto almost immediately after the accident and after he was with the aid of Rev. B. H. Noble, pastor of Victoria street Baptist church, had carried Mrs. Gurnsey to the house of Mr. Holder who resides only a short distance from where the accident took place.

Mr. Gurnsey resided in his automobile at Oak Point, where he secured the services of Dr. Gilchrist and returned to the scene of the accident. Mrs. Gurnsey was suffering greatly and everything possible was done for her until Dr. Gilchrist arrived. He found that two ribs were broken and there were other serious injuries about the chest.

Mr. Gurnsey was also taken to Mr. Holder's residence, where the wounds in his legs were dressed.

MONTREAL CENTRE OF THE OPIUM TRAFFIC IN CANADA

Montreal, July 19.—That Montreal is the centre of the opium traffic in Canada is the opinion of the police, who have been busy investigating places in which the drug is sold.

Chief of Police Carpenter raided an establishment in Leguachette street, where he found a large quantity of the 'dope' together with pipes and other accessories.

One hundred Chinese were taken to the police station and charged with being implicated.

That certain Chinese laundry establishments of the city are opium-distributing centres not only for Montreal, but for the entire province of Quebec, was the statement of Sam Wong Lin, a Chinese who has travelled all over America and who came here six months ago from Toronto to act as clerk in a Chinese cafe.

Sam Wong Lin is no friend of the opium trade and he does not hesitate to say so. In his opinion the discovery by the police was an excellent clue from which to ascertain an intricate web of opium intrigue which will appal the authorities and the public. Sam declared that there is a big syndicate controlling the opium trade on this continent and he even goes so far as to infer that in some western cities, the illicit trade is being conducted to a profit, and under the connivance of the police. But it is not among the merchants that the opium trade is being done. It is certain laundries, he said, who act as agents.

The New Brunswick Construction Company's dredge, New Brunswick No. 1, was taken up through the falls last evening and proceeded to Oak Island where dredging operations will be commenced.

John McGowan, Mr. John O'Brien and Thomas Cogger left last night for Montreal, where they will sail on the White Star liner Laurentic for a trip to the old country. They will visit England, Scotland, Ireland and the continent. They expect to be away about two months.

The board of directors of the Y. M. C. A. were the guests of F. A. Dymally on a trip in his gasoline yacht Ogatoh, last evening at Reinfick. After supper was served the monthly meeting of the board took place. A. H. Chipman was selected as a director to fill a vacancy. After the meeting a short cruise was made about the river and the party returned to the city on the 9:30 train.

One of the first brown tail moths caught in Carleton this year was found yesterday by Miss Ethel Sanderson, 228 King street, West End.

The children of the Municipal Home enjoyed a picnic yesterday through the kindness of Van, Archdeacon Raymond and Rev. A. J. O'Neill, who organized the affair. Programme of sports was carried out, prizes awarded and refreshments served.

The firemen's committee arranging for the trip to Fredericton on August 7 are confident of a large representation. The salvage corps has been invited to participate in the excursion. Commissioner McEllan has been invited to be the firemen's guest.

Arthur M. Irvine, formerly of St. John, and now of Montreal, and W. Ernest Bolton of Montreal, have purchased Reid's Castle on Mount Pleasant. They have engaged a landscape architect to convert the property into a high class residential building.

One of the finest native pearls found in New Brunswick is on display in Allan Gundry's window, King street. It is almost perfectly round, is nearly half an inch in diameter and weighs sixteen grains. It was found in a clam shell in a stream.

YOUR GRAY HAIRS QUICKLY VANISH

A Harmless Remedy, Made From Garden Sage, Restores Color to Gray Hair

A feeling of sadness accompanies the discovery of the first gray hairs which unfortunately look upon us as heralds of advancing age. Gray hair, however handsome it may be, makes a person look old.

His opponent was Asad Arzeouan, a resident of the Magdalen Islands, on whose behalf a strong fight was put up.

GUARD THEIR HEALTH! Children Who Grow Very Fast Need Careful Watching.

Next to the years between ten or twelve and eighteen are the most critical in life, especially for the boys and girls who grow too fast. Rapid growth and the physical changes that are taking place render them particularly liable to weakness and disorders of the digestive system, kidneys or lungs that very frequently, when allowed to run on, condemn them to a lifetime of suffering.

It is most important that at this period of life those organs which "carry off" the body's waste and impurities—the bowels, the kidneys and the skin—should be kept active and vigorous.

Nothing will do this more effectively than the good old-fashioned remedy, Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills. It acts directly on each of these organs, enabling them to do their work properly, and thus keeps the whole system pure and healthy.

Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills are still made from precisely the same formula as when our grandparents used them, for nothing better has ever been devised. Made by W. H. Comstock Co., Ltd., Brockville, Ont., and sold by all dealers at 25c. a box.

BRITAIN KEPT WELL INFORMED

London, July 18.—Great Britain has been kept informed of the Russo-Japanese negotiations in regard to the framing of a new agreement relative to Mongolia and Manchuria. The officials of the British foreign office, however, said today that they were in no position to confirm or deny the reported conclusion of the agreement at Tokyo.

The report that Great Britain had assented to the agreement on condition that she be given a free hand in Tibet was described at the foreign office as being "without foundation."

YACHTS AWAY ON ANNUAL CRUISE OF RIVER TOMORROW

Some of The Fleet and Those Who Will Be on Board For Outing

For the annual river cruise of the Royal Kennebec Yacht Club this year, starting tomorrow afternoon from the headquarters at Millidgeville arrangements are about completed. Fine weather is practically the only essential now required for a successful and enjoyable cruise. The fleet will lift anchor at Millidgeville tomorrow afternoon and make for Bellefleur Point to spend the evening before proceeding further up the river as already detailed in the Times.

Among the many interesting features in the programme for the outing is an illuminated parade which will take place some evening next week and there is also being arranged a ball game for Wednesday at Robertson's Point which gives promise of being an exciting and stellar event. Some of the yachtsmen played ball many years ago when they were young, and there are others who think themselves fairly speedy on the diamond, so with these and others who have played ping-pong in their time and several dark horses among the young hopefuls the match should be historic in the annals of baseball. Professor Holder's orchestra will furnish music and a portable grand stand is being taken along for big league counts whose intended presence is suspected.

The following is a partial list of the yachts to start with the command "all aboard for Happy Days" is given tomorrow.

ST. JOHN EXHIBITION OUTLOOK GIVES EARLY PROMISE OF SUCCESS

Some of The Features—The Dining Room—A Large Cattle Show Expected

After some years of independent action, the Maritime provincial exhibition executives have at last commenced to cooperate in the matter of exhibits, particularly in the stock departments. This fact will be demonstrated this fall, when some of the most important breeders will "circumvent" their animals, at St. John, Halifax, Sydney and Charlottetown. The dates of the Greater St. John Exhibition are August 21 to September 7; the Halifax show September 12 to 19, Charlottetown September 24 to 27, and Sydney later.

This string of eastern shows makes it possible for owners of large herds in distant sections to transport their cattle without expensive lay-offs and as the prize lists at each of these fairs are quite generous this year, doubtless breeders are being inspired from a monetary standpoint. At least one thing is practically assured and that is that the Greater St. John Exhibition is to enjoy some magnificent displays of live stock in its modern new sheds.

At the Dominion exhibition in 1910, one of the distinguishing features of excellence was the Women's Department under the supervision of the Local Council of Women. The art gallery, fancy and plain needle work displays, tea rooms, etc., proved to be a most attractive section in the new wing. This year the Local Council of Women will again have supervision, looking after the displays of needle work, homemade goods and so forth, and will also superintend the general arrangements. The department as a whole will come under the management of the central executive of the Exhibition Association.

The tea room, conducted last exhibition by the Local Council of Women, has been included among the privileges which are purchased outright, and it will be good news for the public at large to know that the energetic executives of four prominent charitable organizations have joined forces in preparing to conduct this refreshment department on lines which should prove a delight to everybody. The profits from the tea room will be devoted to charity.

The large dining room at the exhibition buildings, which for several years has been a fruitful source of comment good, bad and indifferent, is being conducted this year on an entirely new basis. The concession price has been reduced to a figure that will insure a profit. Two local men who have secured the privilege, are under a binding guarantee to make the dining-room perfectly satisfactory to the central executive.

BAND CONCERT
 The City Band gave an excellent concert on King Square last evening and it was enjoyed by large crowds. The programme, given under the direction of Bandmaster Waddington, included a cornet solo played by D. J. Gallagher in even better manner than usual. There was a captivating selection of Irish airs besides operatic and other numbers.

CANDY-PULL
 A most enjoyable time was spent last evening at Marlinton on the grounds of the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Miller when about thirty young people gathered and conducted an old time "candy-pull." The event was a source of much pleasure to all, and afterwards a pleasing programme of dance was successfully carried out.

ACCIDENT
 Thomas Leitch, who, according to his story, was formerly a barrister in Winnipeg, but who is now in reduced circumstances was painfully injured last night while trying to jump off the east bound Boston train near Westfield. He was caught between two cars and had his leg badly crushed. He was seen by the engineer who gave him assistance by hoisting and conveyed the man to the city where he could receive medical attention.

AT EAST ST. JOHN
 Residents of East St. John and vicinity were entertained at a social last night by the members of the East St. John Protestant Sunday school. During the evening an excellent musical and literary programme was carried out. Among those taking part were members of the Norton Griffiths Company staff and also several members of the Courtenay Bay Construction Company staff. Refreshments were served by the young ladies of the school.

DIED IN NEW YORK
 Word reached the city today telling of the death of a former St. John man in New York, Charles Hamlin, who was well known here a few years ago. He died on July 16 in King's County Hospital, Brooklyn. No further particulars were received. Miss Emma Hamlin of Wall street is a sister, and the late Ross Hamlin, who was a member of the Post Office staff, was a brother. The body is expected to be brought here for burial tomorrow.

P. E. ISLAND CABLE SERVICE BROKEN

Business Despatches Sent by Motorboat, No News For The Papers

A Charlottetown P. E. I. correspondent writes:—

The telegraphic cable between the island and the mainland has been out of commission since Thursday, the 11th. The regular cable ship, belonging to the Anglo American Company, is off on a long trip, and is not immediately available. The cable ship left New York and is expected here this week.

"In the meantime the newspapers have been without their despatches and business messages have had to be carried across the straits—a distance of nine miles—by motor boats and telegraphed to Charlottetown from Cape Traverse."

"When the cable was out of commission all last winter the wireless had to be resorted to, but at the Pietou wireless station has been closed for the summer, this service could not be put into operation during the present interruption."

GUN CLUB SHOOT FOR SILVER WATCH FOB

The members of the St. John Gun Club will start the special competition for the Dupont trophy on their range tomorrow afternoon. The trophy is a handsome silver watch fob. The competition will continue for about six weeks and 10 targets must be shot at in a series of six events, no more than twenty-five targets on any club day. The Dupont handling will apply to the competition, but it has been extended to ten targets instead of eight, as formerly, thereby giving those shooting 50 per cent and over the full benefit of the handicap.

The club is offering three good prizes for those shooting under 50 per cent in the series. There will be no handicap for these prizes, only the actual score to count. Those shooting under 50 per cent will receive the maximum handicap for the watch fob.

TODAY'S POLICE COURT

The case of Walter Winslow was continued in the police court this morning. Two witnesses were called, Katherine O'Brien, a sister of the complainant, and Thomas O'Brien, a brother. The case was further adjourned until other witnesses can be called.

William Short, arrested last week on the charge of assaulting a man named McDonald on the exhibition grounds, was also brought before the court this morning. Gerald Purton and Albert Ramsey both testified that they saw McDonald take hold of Short before the latter struck him. Short was further remanded to enable him to secure other witnesses.

One prisoner charged with drunkenness was remanded to jail.

DIED WITH HER FLEDGLINGS

Harland Observer—A pitiful story of mother love is told of the fire that destroyed the Commercial Hotel. In a nook in the building two pigeons had built a nest and were rearing their young. During the fire the mother-bird covered the fledglings with her own body and remained there until she was consumed. She could have flown to any other moment and it seems almost beyond belief that she did not. But efforts to drive her away were unavailing. The male bird perched on the cross-arm of a telephone pole within a few feet of the nest and remained there until his feathers were singed. Since then he has perched in the same spot, leaving it only for a short interval at a time.

IN THE COURTS

Chancery Division.
 Hearing in the matter of Nipisquit Lumber Co., Ltd., and its winding up which was to have been resumed before Mr. Justice McLeod in chambers this morning was further adjourned for one week.

Circuit Court.
 The circuit court will resume its sitting in chambers this afternoon, when it will be decided by Mr. Justice White, in whose favor the verdict given by the jury in the case of Howard C. Park vs. B. V. Millidge et al. should be entered. There will likely be an argument of counsel on the questions and answers in the verdict before the decision is given.
