

A WEEK FROM TO-DAY

The American People Will Elect Their President and Vice-President.

Governors and Other State Officers are to be Elected in Some States.

How Elections are Conducted on the Other Side of the Line.

Washington, D.C., Oct. 27.—A week from to-day the United States election for president and vice-president for the term of four years beginning March 4, 1897, takes place. The leading candidates are as follows: Republican, for president, William McKinley; for vice-president, Garrett A. Hobart. Democrat, for president, William J. Bryan; vice-president, Arthur Sewall. Populist, for president, William J. Bryan; vice-president, Thos. Watson. Gold Democratic, for president, General Palmer; vice-president, General Buckner. Besides these tickets the prohibitionists and socialists each have a ticket in the field, so six tickets are offered voters, although interest centres in the four above named.

Ballots will be cast in every one of the forty-five states, not for the candidates by name, but for presidential electors, each state having a number of representatives of its population. This New York, the most populous state, has thirty-six electoral votes while Delaware, the smallest state, has three. The successful electors assemble next month in this city and cast their votes directly for president and vice-president, whom they represent. The whole number of electoral votes in the forty-five states is 447, of which the necessary majority is 224. At the same time ballots will be cast in each of the states for representatives to congress, of whom 357 are to be elected, these also being in proportion according to population. The states also vote for members of their state legislatures, which upon assembling next January select United States senators.

The main issues in this campaign have been finance and protection. If the Democrats be successful we may expect the next administration not to meddle with the tariff but press forward a free trade policy to affect the world, without the consent or assistance of any other nation. If the Republicans win they may be forced to take some action upon the question of international protection, but will apparently not finally raise their tariff on certain items nor on the free list and raise the import duty on several others.

TROUBLE IN BRAZIL.

Armed Band in the Interior Defeats a Detachment of Troops.

London, Oct. 26.—An official telegram received here from Rio Janeiro says that a large armed band in the interior of the province of Bahia, who several years ago defeated a large detachment of troops is again active, and has pillaged a number of farms, several of them belonging to Italians. The Brazilian troops pursued the band and killed several of its members and dispersed the others. Italy has demanded damages against the Brazilian government on outrages upon Italian citizens. But Italy's commission to Brazil to negotiate a settlement of the difficulty has expressed the opinion that his government will confine itself for damages or a denial of hostile intent on the part of Brazil in acts tending to wrong or harm Italians.

LI HUNG CHANG.

London papers Discuss His Most Recent Promotions.

London, Oct. 26.—The appointment of Li Hung Chang as Chinese minister of foreign affairs, has caused considerable surprise. The Standard says Li Hung Chang, upon leaving Southampton, told the reporters who were among those to see him off that his ability to carry out the reforms which he desired to have established in China depended upon his return to power after he got home. The success of his mission to Europe is consequently gauged by his appointment to the foreign ministry. The Times regards Li Hung Chang's appointment to the newly created post of foreign minister apparently as placing him above the obstructive and unprogressive influence of the Tsung Li Yamen as significant. "It is obviously intended," says the Times, "to show the desire of working in harmony with the interests and ideas of the western world."

A few weeks ago the editor was taken with a very severe cold that caused him to be in a most miserable condition. It was undoubtedly a bad case of grippe and recognizing it as dangerous he took immediate steps to bring about a speedy cure. From the advertisement of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy only and the many good recommendations included therein, he concluded to give it a first trial of the medicine. To say that it was satisfactory in its results is putting it very mildly. Indeed, it acted like magic and the result was a speedy and permanent cure. We have hesitancy in recommending this excellent Cough Remedy to anyone afflicted with a cough or cold in any form.—The Banner of Liberty, Libertytown, Maryland. NAT GOODWIN'S WIFE

She Turns the Tables on Him, Charging Infidelity on His Part.

San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 27.—Mrs. Nat C. Goodwin is preparing for a legal battle with her actor husband. Through her New York lawyers she has forwarded an affidavit to be used in defending her in the local courts against her husband's charges.

Mrs. Goodwin's affidavit, after making a general denial to the charges of habitual intemperance on her part, recites an experience in the New York courts with her husband. She tells of her successful suit for maintenance three years ago, which resulted in her husband being compelled to pay her $15,000. She then turns the tables on the actor and charges him with infidelity, and mentions as co-respondents Sallie Thorne and Babele Amber, both of whom are known in the theatrical world.

INSURGENTS ACTIVE.

Gen. Maceo Makes a Move Which Leads the Spaniards to Atray.

While He Attacks and Completely Destroys the Town of Artemisa.

New York, Oct. 26.—A dispatch to the Evening Post from Key West, Fla., says: Well informed passengers who arrived from Havana last night confirm advices received by mail that Maceo has crossed the trocha at Artemisa and joined other insurgent forces in Havana province. They declare that the report circulated by Maceo of his encampment at Cacara-jacara and a contemplated attack on that town was merely a feint of the rebel leader to concentrate the Spanish troops at that point. That the ruse was successful is proved by the fact that General Gonzales Munez with large forces was sent in that direction to attack Maceo, but upon their arrival at Cacara-jacara the Spaniards found nothing but a deserted camp.

Maceo's followers under forced marches then made a detour to the southwest and suddenly appeared at Artemisa, the central post on the line of the trocha. Giving his men temporary rest, the insurgent chief sent word to the commandant that he defended to bombard the town, giving the inhabitants five hours to get out of the city. Not heedful Maceo's threats the Spaniards would permit no one to leave. The result is known from the reports which have already been circulated from Havana. Maceo opened fire on the town with his artillery, and thirty shots from the rebel dynamite guns were thrown into the city. Every building is said to have been levelled, while the slaughter of non-combatants was appalling. During the carnage Maceo and his followers crossed the line of the trocha into Havana province, where they will be joined by the forces of General Aguirre.

Havana, Oct. 26.—After the last engagement of the Spanish with Antonio Maceo, twenty-eight battalions, consisting of 30,000 soldiers were assigned to occupy the important strategic points in the mountains from which the insurgents had been ejected in order to prevent the latter from returning and taking possession of them again. Col. Segura reports having had an important engagement with the forces under Antonio Maceo at Soros, in the province of Pinar del Rio. Col. Segura's report of the engagement states that the insurgents upon their defeat left 61 killed. His own column sustained a loss of over 100 men.

The reports indicate that Col. Segura has fairly penetrated the mountain retreats of the insurgents in Pinar del Rio and has dispersed them from some of their strongholds with severe loss to his column after several days' hard fighting, but with reported heavy loss to the insurgents.

The insurgents made an attack last night upon Batabano, situated almost directly south of this city and connected with it by about thirty miles of railroad. The enemy, it was announced, were repulsed by the Spaniards, but it is admitted that in retreating the insurgents burned several houses. Insurgent advices say that the attack on Batabano was very much more successful than the authorities are willing to admit, and that a large number of houses were burned and other damage done to the place. The official report says that only five soldiers were killed, and, contrary to custom, nothing is said about the loss of the insurgents.

HELLED UP AN AGENCY.

Bandits Rob the Indian Agency of Sac and Fox.

Oklahoma, Oct. 27.—Sac and Fox, an Indian agency sixty miles southeast of here, was held up and looted by the same gang of bandits who looted the town of Carney last week. Sac and Fox is 36 miles from Carney. There were four masked robbers mounted and armed. They first rode to the office of Agent Thomas, who had $48,000 in greenbacks ready to pay to the Indians. Thomas was in his office. The robbers then went to the store of Mrs. Fanny Whistler, covered the inmates and took $500 and valuable papers from the safe. Then they held up J. W. Moffitt's place and got $50 and a gold watch. Chief Kewak's place was robbed of $80 and $3,000 worth of articles. The bandits of the robbers frightened the traders and people so badly that they were unable to resist. After robbing Kekuk's place the bandits pushed through the grounds of the government Indian school, firing at the guards. The robbers were recognized as being in the Carney hold-up.

London Times Refers to the Appointment in a Leader Yesterday.

London, Oct. 27.—The Right Rev. Frederick Temple, bishop of London, has been appointed archbishop of Canterbury and primate of all England, in succession to the late most Rev. Edward White Benson. Referring to the appointment the Times says in a leader: "In point of intellectual power and force of character, no prelate on the Episcopal bench can present claims surpassing those of Dr. Temple. The board also favors the construction of the Ottawa and Georgian Bay canal.

THE MOST WONDERFUL CURE

Of Epileptic Fits Ever Told of Is Related in the Following True Testimony—Hundreds Know the Case.

Samuel Duffin, farmer, West Missouri, county of Middlesex, was subject to epileptic fits since 1858, and during the last two years they visited him every week. He had the best medical advice that money could command, and spent hundreds of dollars trying to get relief, but all was of no avail. He had been constantly watched, his nights were sleepless and that his life was gradually ebbing away. His condition could not possibly have been worse.

The day on which he began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People was the turning point in his life, and with deep gratitude he now adds his testimony, and points to the wonderful power of the medicine. The fits have ceased, his appetite has returned and he sleeps well. Once or twice only since he commenced the medicine he has felt a slight dizziness, but this has soon passed off. His entire appearance has undergone a noticeable change, and hundreds of people in his vicinity can testify to the new lease of life given him.

The above facts are given in a sworn declaration made before C. G. Jarvis, Notary Public, and dated London, Ont., April 15th, 1896.

VENEZUELA COMMISSION. Sessions Resumed To-day and Will be Held More Frequently.

Washington, Oct. 28.—The Venezuelan commission resumed its sessions to-day and will probably meet frequently from now until it completes the work. Andrew D. White, was the only absentee. There was disappointment over the fact that Dr. Baer and Prof. Dehann, who had been at work at The Hague securing original translations of manuscripts and documents, bearing on the controversy, had not arrived, but the commission proceeded to consider other details pending the arrival of Dr. Baer and Prof. Dehann sailed from Liverpool on the Teutonic, which arrived in New York this morning and will probably reach here to-morrow. In accordance with the policy heretofore pursued by the members of the commission, they declined to-day to indicate whether they were confronted by any difficulties, which might prevent a harmonious agreement on their report. Some time ago, however, Justice Brewer intimated that the report would be ready for submission by December 1st at the latest, and this would seem to indicate that the members of the commission, who have been kept advised during the summer and fall of all developments, will reach a speedy conclusion when all the documents are officially laid before them.

AMERICAN ELECTIONS.

Anti-Silverites Charged With Buying Votes—Tore Down the Flag.

London, Oct. 28.—The Chronicle's New York correspondent cables that the anti-silverites are openly buying votes in the state at $10 a piece. Minneapolis, Oct. 28.—Dr. E. A. Gibson, the free silver man, yesterday hung a large British flag in front of his window. Underneath was a small American flag and the inscription, "By consent of England." He claims he was simply illustrating the Populist claims regarding Republicans. On less than an hour the street in front of his office was occupied by a howling mob and several G.A.R. veterans procured a rope and pulled down the British flag and destroyed it.

AN IMMENSE DEAL.

Canadian-American Syndicate Looking for Other Street Railways.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 26.—The purchase of many street railway systems in Europe by an international syndicate of capitalists, the scope of which was partly outlined in a recent Associated Press dispatch from St. Louis, is the greatest business enterprise now on foot in the world. Additional information on the subject has been obtained from a gentleman who is financially interested in the success of the syndicate's operations. The Americans at the head of the enterprise are James Ross and a Mr. McKenzie, of Montreal. Mr. Ross is immensely wealthy, is a director in the Bank of Montreal, and is heavily interested in the Northern Pacific railway and Canadian street railroads. It is stated that with him are a number of Americans on this side of the Canadian line who have become wealthy as street railway operators; also a number of English, German and Dutch bankers, as well as the great house of Rothschilds. These gentlemen find the street railroads of Europe where those of America were ten years ago. They see abundant opportunity to make a great deal of money by bringing them up to the present American standard. As motive power, compressed air will be used. Compressed air has been the motive power on a Paris railroad for the last fifteen years, but its complete success was prevented by inability to obtain reservoirs which would sustain for any length of time the great pressure needed. An American named Kellogg has invented a seamless tube which will hold air at a pressure of 5,000 pounds to the square inch, and it was mainly this fact that led to the formation of the syndicate.

Sir Albert Sasson was the first Anglo-Indian upon whom this distinction was bestowed.

TYNAN RETURNS.

He Arrives in New York and Does Some More Talking.

New York, Oct. 26.—P. J. Tynan, the alleged "No. 1" of the Phoenix Park murderers, was a passenger on the North German Lloyd steamship Saale, which arrived this evening from Bremen via Cherbourg. Mr. Tynan being seen at Quarantine said that he naturally hesitated to talk for publication, even in this country, as it was possible that any utterances by him might compromise the case and perhaps those who had been kind to him. He refused to discuss the purpose of his visit to Europe, but he emphatically said that his mission was entirely successful. He ridiculed the reported cleverness of the Scotland Yard detectives and said he had been under their nose a dozen of times without being suspected. He had also visited Gibraltar. He said that it was owing to some carelessness while in a certain city that the detectives began to suspect him. He refused to say to what city it referred. His treatment in the French prison was exactly the same as that accorded other prisoners, but he had the privilege of sending to the canteen for his meals. He said he was not particularly interested in the case, but he warmly espoused his cause. After his release he went to Paris for a short stay to recuperate. His health is good, and he looked to be about 48 years old. He is clean shaven except for a jet black mustache, and talks with the air of an educated man. He will go at once to his home in Audubon Park to see his wife and eight children.

ON TRIAL FOR MURDER.

Took a Party of Men and Women and Whipped Two to Death.

Alken, S. C., Oct. 28.—A party of six men took Leon Kearse, his wife, his mother and three negroes from their home in Colleton county one night last December and dragged them several miles behind a buggy to Broxton bridge in a lonely swamp. It was a bitterly cold night, but the negroes were made to strip and then beaten with buggy traces. The alleged crime was stealing a bible from the church. Kearse and his mother were killed by the flogging and exposure, while his wife managed to drag herself home more dead than alive. The lynchers were then tried at Walboro, the county seat of Colleton last February for the murder of Hanna Walker, Kearse's mother, and to the surprise of the entire state were acquitted. Solicitor Bellinger had done his best to secure a conviction and had offended numerous influential friends of the defendants, who tried hard and unsuccessfully to prevent his re-election last summer. Solicitor Bellinger was shrewd enough to try the defendants on only one indictment at Walboro, and afterwards secured a change of venue to Alken for trial on the charge of murdering Issey Kearse, and the trial has commenced here.

GENERAL JAIL DELIVERY.

Six Desperate Prisoners Escape from Louisville Jail.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 27.—Another daring jail delivery was perpetrated at the county jail and six desperate prisoners made their escape. The delivery was supposed to be a wholesale one, in which every prisoner confined on the third floor of the old jail was to get out, but he watchfulness of the turnkeys prevented this and only six men escaped. The men who got out are as follows: Jake Brill, convicted counterfeiter, having a sentence of six years to serve; Harry Brooks, convicted of robbing a postoffice and having a sentence of four years to serve; Tom McKenzie, charged with housebreaking; Wes Saterlee, charged with cow stealing and awaiting trial; Wm. McKenzie, charged with housebreaking. All were white men and considered desperate prisoners who would not hesitate at anything. They gained their liberty by scamping the mortar from the bricks in cell No. 5, letting the bricks fall into the interior of the cell, and in this manner they got a hole large enough for them to climb through. One at a time they made their way out of the hole and climbed upon the roof. Then by means of a short rope, they let themselves down into a narrow alley between the wall of the jail yard and an abutment of the new jail and escaped. None of the escaped prisoners have been captured. This is the second delivery in Louisville within the past year, seven prisoners making their escape on last Christmas day.

RUSSIA AND GERMANY.

Government Will Not Make a Statement Respecting the Alliance.

Berlin, Oct. 27.—The Reichsanzeiger this afternoon announced officially that, in spite of the desire expressed that the government should make a statement on the subject of the announcement made by Prince Bismarck's organ, the Hamburger Nachrichten, on Monday last, that a defensive alliance existed between Russia and Germany during the last six years Prince Bismarck was in office, the government will not make one. The Reichsanzeiger adds: "Diplomatic events of this kind are strictly state secrets and to preserve them conscientiously is an international duty, a breach of which would prejudice important state interests. The imperial government, therefore, must decline any attempt to clear up the matter, and it will neither correct what is false nor supply what is incomplete, in the conviction that reliance upon the sincerity and fidelity to treaties of German policy is too firmly established among the other powers to be shaken by statements of this kind."

PISTOLS AT 12 PACES

Dr. John A. Duncan Challenges Dr. G. L. Milne to Fight a Duel With Pistols.

Challenge is Sent by a District Telegraph Messenger Boy—C. O. D.

The Challenge Treats the Matter Lightly and Sends a Spirited Reply.

Certain prominent Victorians have discovered that they no longer live in the last years of the 19th century, but have rather gone back to the good old days when might was right and personal differences were settled with pistols and swords. The knight errant who has thought to revive the medieval system is Dr. John A. Duncan, brother and champion of Dr. George Duncan, the late city health officer, who still has charge of the William Head Quarantine Station. On Saturday last he sent to Dr. G. L. Milne a letter in which the latter is challenged to fight a duel with pistols and to name his second within 48 hours.

The nucleus around which centre the incidents leading up to this sensational challenge is the conduct of Dr. George Duncan in allowing smallpox suspects to go to the polls and vote at the last general election. Dr. John A. Duncan took upon himself to strenuously endeavor to save his brother's official head, and placed himself not only in communication with the defeated Liberal candidates of this city but also with the authorities at Ottawa.

During Dr. Milne's visit to Ottawa he received a number of telegrams from Dr. John A. Duncan, threatening him with dire consequences should he say or do anything that would endanger his brother's position. Dr. Milne paid not the slightest attention to these telegrams and did what he considered was in the public interest.

After Dr. Milne's return he was called upon by Dr. John Duncan, who asked that the matter of his brother's dismissal be further deferred and suggested that Dr. Milne wire to Ottawa to that effect. "Dr. Milne replied that the Duncan had already sent numerous affidavits to Ottawa concerning their side of the case. These had been considered by the minister of agriculture and nothing further could be done in the matter. Dr. John then became abusive and Dr. Milne ordered him out of the office.

On Saturday a district messenger came to Dr. Milne's office and presented him with a letter. The doctor, after paying the messenger the ten cents demanded by him for the conveyance of the communication, broke the seal and was astonished and amused to read the following:

THE CHALLENGE.
79 Fort Street,
Victoria, B.C.,
1 p.m., 24-10-96.

To G. L. Milne, M.D.:
Sir—My reply to the remarks made by you, during the attack of "temporary insanity" from which you suffered in your office a few minutes ago, is made in a very few words, and is that, if in your sane moments and upon reflection you stick to the before-mentioned remarks, you are a d— liar.

Now this means pistols at twelve paces. There remains nothing for you to do but to apologize or name your second. I will await your reply "forty-eight hours."

Sincerely yours,
JOHN A. DUNCAN.

The letter, being a brief one, contained no reference to a handicap which Dr. Duncan, being "a soldier and a gentleman of honor," should undoubtedly grant his opponent, as Dr. Milne—200 odd pounds avoirdupois—would stop a bullet with much greater ease than would the tall, waith-like form of the other medical man. It has been rumored—but this lacks confirmation—that the challenger intended to name as his second the burly editor of the Colonist, who has wielded his pen as best he knew in the brother's defence. Dr. Duncan would also magnanimously allow Dr. Milne to choose as his second an attenuated gentleman, whose Cassius-like form would be just the thing to properly balance the sides. It was understood that had the duel taken place and had Dr. Milne missed his opponent he was almost certain to hit the second, while, on the other hand, Dr. Duncan would be sure to miss the second but would be equally certain of the doctor. Some hesitation on the part of Dr. Milne would be the result of this arrangement. Dr. Milne would still be at a disadvantage, but as equal rights in duelling are decided in the aggregate of individuals not being considered—Dr. Milne could scarcely kick on that score.

Another report, which also lacks confirmation, is that Dr. Duncan instructed Mr. A. Stewart Davis, erstwhile secretary of the Liberal-Conservative Association, to send an emissary to interview the proprietor of the Hotel de John on Topaz avenue. The object of this interview was to secure the temporary release of George Thompson, "late 34th Regiment and in possession of the Military Medal and Clasp for Lucknow." Mr. Thompson, being a gentleman who saw much service on the field of battle, would, in the opinion of the doctor, make an excellent assistant to the medical man who was to be selected to attend the wounded after the duel. "Honorarium, five cents."

There was still another rumor to the effect that Dr. Duncan considered the isolated hospital grounds an excellent spot for the duel. Mr. Arthur Heathorn was to be engaged to stand guard in order that no officious policeman should interfere or that no enterprising newspaper representative should see the walls to give a description of the affair to the anxious public. It was felt that since there was no general election in sight, and Mr. Heathorn's services as Conservative scrutineer would not be required at $500 per day, he would be almost certain to resign at his post until the combat was ended.

Dr. Milne being a law-abiding citizen, however, and having looked through the challenge with a Cathode ray of 1896 civilization, sent his brother practitioner the following unique reply:

THE REPLY.
Victoria, B.C., Oct. 26, 1896.
John A. Duncan, M.D.C.M., V.S., Victoria:

Sir—I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of your letter of Saturday's date (as per messenger, c.o.d.), conveying the same intelligence that I have but forty-eight hours to live unless I apologize for having remarked in your presence that you were not a gentleman.

In reply I beg to say that the gracious charity which permits you to ascribe "temporary insanity" at the preceding cause speaks volumes for your keenness of perception in diagnosing your own character. May I ask you to further enlighten me as to all the general characteristics of a "gentleman"?

One I observe in your letter, and it certainly gives me new light upon the subject, whenever differences of opinion exist write and say to one's opponent "You are a D— liar." The big D followed by a small d indicates, I am fain to confess, such a business of conception and expression as satisfies me "upon reflection and in my sane moments" that no ordinary man can carry all the qualities of a gentleman daily and pay rent and taxes.

A second I also note, and it is that in sending challenges a gentleman always forwards them by a district messenger boy c.o.d.

This evinces superior nerve and a determination not to be baffled by small obstacles, besides allowing one's opinion to "settle a little" if he receives it. If he does not it presents elements of safety not to be lightly overlooked.

I sincerely trust that you will not neglect ordinary creature comforts during this agonizing period of forty-eight hours, the termination of which you are so patiently awaiting before perforating my diaphragm with bullets.

At best I am but a poor hand at duels, not having had the advantage of the early training of the many years of experience gained by yourself while an officer in Her Majesty's service and engaged in active warfare on the gory heights of Beacon Hill or the blood-stained levels of Macaulay's Plains and your many "moving adventures by food and field" with dog and rowboat—not to speak of the calm courage engendered by daily contact with the perils incident to travelling and fro between 34th Battery barracks and your office on Fort Street—yet I feel I must steel myself for this fray and adhere to the code, notwithstanding that your very surroundings breathe a military fire that I can only describe as "the fiercest of ancient history teaches me that it has always been the privilege of the person challenged to select the weapons of combat. As the challenger I claim this privilege, and must positively decline to assent to your assumption of a right to challenge and name weapons at one and the same time. Such a proceeding would be contrary to all the ethics of the code. Let, however, you should deem a too rigid adherence to the code incompatible with your "bodily comfort and peace of mind." I am willing, without prejudice, to name several sorts in order that you in turn may make choice from a limited number. I beg, therefore, to submit to you my election and the weapons of my choice:

First—Short range pea-shooters at fifteen hundred yards (Marquis of Queensberry rules).
Second—Syringes, charged with Florida water, at fifty paces. (No smelling salts allowed for faints or funks).
Third—Toss up, loser to take winner's prescription (patent medicines barred).

I shall expect an answer by 10 o'clock this evening.

I have the honor to be, sir,
Your obedient servant,
GEO. L. MILNE.

Although Dr. Milne's reply was sent to Dr. John A. Duncan yesterday afternoon, no answer has yet been received. Possibly Dr. Duncan is deciding which of the alternatives suggested by Dr. Milne he will accept.

A LOT OF WRECKAGE

Found on the Beach Near Carmanah by Lighthouse Keeper Daykin.

A Report That Wallis Walls was Lost Created a Sensation in 'Frisco.

Lighthouse Keeper Daykin at Carmanah in a dispatch reports that there is a lot of wreckage along the beach. He picked up an oar and a mahogany door. Part of a canoe was also found on the beach. He thinks it must have all come from a sealing schooner, but there was nothing by which it could be identified. There are only three Victoria sealing schooners out. They are the Sadie Turpel, Mascot and Dolphin. Marine men are of the opinion that none these had mahogany doors.

Intense excitement was created in San Francisco Sunday afternoon by a report that the steamer Wallis Walls had been lost with all hands on board. The Merchants' Exchange took up the matter and in the afternoon papers came out with extra editions. While all the excitement was going on the Wallis Walls was on the Sound and had not been on an accident of any kind. The report of her loss is said to have been originated by some fakie who was staying at the Hotel Baldwin. He telephoned to the Merchants' Exchange about the matter.

The colliers Wellington and Mineola passed up this morning, the Wellington going to Departure Bay and the Mineola to Union.

ENDEAN COMMITTED.

Must Stand Trial on Charge of Misappropriating Funds.

John William Endean was brought before Police Magistrate Macrae this morning, charged with having misappropriated the sum of $50 belonging to Wm. Powell. Wm. Powell, the prosecutor, was the first witness called. He said that he lived at No. 3 Pandora street, and the accused worked for him as a bookkeeper and collector. George Mesher's account was one of those Endean had to collect. He received, he said, from account $50 on account of this, which was paid to his wife in his presence. The defendant then said that it was all that Mr. Mesher owed. He had never, he stated, authorized Endean to sign his name to checks.

Mr. S. Perry Mills, who appeared for the defence, in cross-examination, elicited the fact that he lived at 8 St. Louis street instead of 3 Pandora street. Witness said that he had made an oversight before. After much questioning the witness stated that he did not know what authority he gave the accused to collect for some time. He said, he said, for many years kept his books to a great extent.

Many accounts, witness said, were disputed by the debtors. There had been trouble about Mesher's account. The bill had been running for some time and when he got a settlement Endean gave $50 to his wife, which he said he had hard work to squeeze out of him. In reply to a question of Mr. Mills, who asked if he did not tell accused to look into the accounts and collect what he could, witness said he did so to some extent and accused returned all he collected each night. He had never promised to pay defendant more than two dollars per day.

The witness was not very well and did not seem to have a good memory for the various events, he from time to time giving testimony and contradicting it a moment later.

George Charles Mesher was next called. He said he was a contractor and he had business dealings with William Powell for some ten years past. The accounts between him and Powell, he said, were settled up to July 31st. He said he did not recall what he was the final settlement being made on Oct. 3rd. Endean, the witness said, called upon him and told him that he was collecting Powell's accounts and straightening up his business generally. He produced a paper which satisfied what he said he was authorized to collect for Powell. Accused rendered a statement for $130.12, which he said was the balance of witness' account. Witness' calculation placed the account at $103. He finally settling it with a check for $100, which he made payable to J. W. Endean or order, as he asked to have it made payable to him, saying that he was very sick he would not sign it. His account at the bank, he said, was debited to that amount and he got the check from the bank.

Hannah Elizabeth Powell, wife of the prosecutor, was next called. She said she knew accused, who was employed by her husband to collect accounts. She had kept her husband's books, she said, for some time.

This closed the case for the prosecution. Accused said that when he first made out Mesher's account there was $150.12 due, subsequently he said there was an error, and the amount due was $55.12, and he said there was a further error of $5, making it $50. This was all entered in the book in accused's own writing. On October 3rd accused paid to her $50 in $5 bills. Mr. Powell was present. This was all they had received of G. C. Mesher's account from accused. Accused said when paying the money to witness that he had received it in cash; he also said that this settled the account. The accused, she said, had never told her of Mesher's offer to settle the account for $100 cash. She was generally present when the accused called upon her husband.

The accused then being asked if he had anything to say, said that "he was not guilty, there had been a misunderstanding."

Mr. Mills reserved his defence. Endean was committed to stand his trial at the first court of criminal jurisdiction.

WARD RE-DIVISION.

Alderman Marchant's By-Law to Re-Divide the Wards Passes Its Third Reading.

An Application for Aid Received From the Maternity Home Committee.

The board of aldermen met yesterday evening at the city hall, all the members being present. A communication was received from Mrs. D. W. Higgins, president of the maternity home, who asked that the city council donate $250 to pay off the indebtedness of the home. Under the sum was forthcoming, the letter said, the home would have to be closed.

Ald. Humphrey moved that it be referred to the finance committee.

Ald. Marchant, in seconding the motion, said that he thought the matter should be referred to the Jubilee hospital, as it was his opinion that the work could be carried on in conjunction with their work. The motion was carried and the matter was referred to the finance committee.

W. E. Winsby, tax collector, wrote asking that ten cents be paid him for each dog caught unredeemed, and that suitable accommodation be made at the market hall for lodging the dogs until the poundkeeper could be reached.

Referred to the pound committee.

A. C. Charlton wrote on behalf of the Epworth League of the Metropolitan Methodist church, inviting the council to attend a social that society proposed holding on November 3rd at the Old Men's home.

The invitation was accepted with thanks.

In respect to Point Ellice bridge the city barrister wrote advising the corporation in view of the appeal from the decision of Mr. Justice Drake now pending, not to make any agreement whatever with the street railway company.

The letter was received and filed.

City Engineer Wilmut was authorized to sell a furnished siphon to the government at cost price.

An appropriation of $211 was passed to pay the costs in the late injunction proceedings in the matter of Point Ellice bridge.

The street committee's report recommended the building of a sidewalk on Kingston street; also the building of a five-foot sidewalk opposite the first lot on the north side of Menzies street.

The report was adopted.

The report of the sewers wardens, among other things, recommended that Foreman Hines be instructed to engage a substitute to fill his place while he was sick at his own expense. That another hydrant be placed on the grounds at the Jubilee hospital and that C. W. T. Piper get $5 for his search for his boat after it was used by Mr. Conlin.

The report of the cemetery committee said that the land offered for sale by Lee Charles Fisher between the cemetery and St. Charles street should be acquired for cemetery purposes, but on account of the lack of funds they would not recommend the purchase being made at present. L. H. Fullagar wrote to say that the charges for lots were too high, and asking that the rates be reduced. The committee said they could not agree to the reduction. For the prevention of land slides on the east side of the cemetery they recommended an expenditure of $800 in a general clean-up.

It was moved by Ald. Tarks that the council resolve itself into a committee of the whole to consider the by-law authorizing the corporation to raise the $500,000 in order to build a steel and stone bridge at Point Ellice. This sum being the engineer's estimate for the building of a bridge as required by the public works department.

Ald. Marchant was of the opinion that it would be better to put it off for another week that more definite information might be received from the city engineer, who is now getting the soundings at Point Ellice.

The Hon. Humphrey said that when the minister of public works arrived here and saw the place where the bridge was to be built he would no doubt alter his mind as to the kind of bridge needed.

Ald. Glover wanted to have the matter settled immediately, as he said they had pledged themselves to put it before the people not later than December 12th.

A resolution was carried that the council go into committee of the whole to consider the matter on Monday next.

The council, still sitting in committee, then took up the by-law of Ald. Marchant respecting a re-division of the wards.

A new section to the by-law was then moved by Ald. Partridge, and the by-law was passed it being brought before the municipality and the judgment of the electorate be asked for upon it.

The by-law, the mayor said, if brought before the people would require a majority of three-fifths of the votes polled. Ald. Williams said that if the by-law was passed it would cause no end of trouble. The central ward, he said, was like the letter Z. He thought the matter was merely a "political dodge." If it were introduced for the benefit of the city, he said, he would certainly vote for it.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report placed at three-fifths of the votes polled. Ald. Partridge's motion was lost on the following divisions:

For—Ald. Williams, Partridge, Wilson and Tarks—4.
Against—Ald. Glover, Cameron, Marchant, Humphrey and Macmillan—5.

The mayor said he would vote for the resolution, but this would not carry it. He declared it lost. He was in favor of hearing the voice of the people in the matter.

Ald. Partridge then moved instead: That the by-law be not enforced until the 1st of February next, but that the mind of the electorate might be ascertained regarding it.

Ald. Marchant then rose and said that he believed the inequality of the wards to be an injustice, and the by-law was to remedy that injustice. "Why, even the champion of corruption, he said, the Colonist newspaper, has not advanced anything against it. If it is right, why then vote for it; if wrong, vote it down at once."

Ald. Wilson was of the opinion that the citizens would not favor any re-division of the wards; they would rather abolish them altogether.

This motion was also lost on the same division.

A motion was then put and carried that the council rise and report the by-law complete.

The council having resumed, Ald. Partridge moved his resolution that the by-law do not come into effect until the 1st of February next. This was also lost on the same division.

Ald. Marchant then moved that the by-law be read a third time, Ald. Cameron seconding the motion. The opposition by the by-law at this point got up and left. The resolution was put and carried and the by-law will be finally considered at next Monday's meeting.

The council then adjourned at 10.50 p.m.

GRAU'S OPERA CO'Y.

Opens a Week of Comic Opera at the Victoria Theatre Last Evening.

The company makes a decided hit in "The Beggar Student."

Comic opera takes well in Victoria, and if the Grau Opera Company continue during the week to give as good performances as they did last evening, theatregoers will be able to indulge themselves to their hearts' content. Victorians have been so used to paying high prices for opera that they were a little suspicious when Manager Jameson announced that he was going to give them a week of it at popular prices. They did not allow their suspicions, however, to keep them away from the theatre, and they were glad of it before the curtain dropped on the last scene of the "Beggar Student." All suspicions had been dispelled and the Grau Opera Co. had been voted one of the best comic companies that has visited Victoria for some time, despite the low prices.

The house was crowded, those who had failed to secure seats in advance being compelled to wait until another night. This is a good starter, and should be kept up all week to show Manager Jameson that Victorians can appreciate a good thing and to induce similar companies to make week standers.

The opera itself is an old favorite here and rightly so, as it is a very pretty one and gives those taking part full scope to display both their singing and acting. Robert Dumar, as the "Beggar Student," came up to the full requirements of the part, he having a good tenor voice and being well able to act the various situations into which he is thrown during the plot. It did not take Miss Alice Johnston long to establish herself as a favorite with the audience. She has a very sweet voice, a splendid stage appearance and is altogether an unmanufactured and pleasing actress. She received a well deserved encore for her singing of "The Pretty Name of Baby." Everybody was glad to see Miss Gertrude Lodge once again.

Although there was no fault to find with her "Cousin Palmetto," her friends here expect to see her during the week in a part which suits her even better. Last evening she was not given an opportunity to display her full ability as a fun maker. Miss Alice Carle also soon placed herself on good terms with the audience, by assisting very materially in keeping up the fun that runs through the play. It was late in the evening before the audience was given an opportunity to enjoy her rich contralto voice, but they showed their full appreciation of it by encoring her solo. In response she introduced a novelty in the way of a recitation, "The Glove and the Lion," with which she took the house by storm. She will undoubtedly be called on again during the week to repeat that or other recitations.

There was nothing wanting in Robert Tark's interpretation of "General Ollendorf," he having a good voice, and his make-up and acting being fully up to the mark. Sylvian Langlois, the baritone, as "Janitzky," created a favorable impression, while Eddie Smith proved himself capable of taking minor comedy parts.

This evening the company will present a double bill, "Fra Diavolo" and the grand finale of "Lucia." For the matinee to-morrow afternoon the "Beggar Student" will be repeated.
