RUSSIAN ARMY BACK ACROSS THEIR OWN FRONTIER; BULGARIA READY TO JOIN ALLIES?

German Advance in East Will Either be Checked Entirely or Rendered Slower—Enemy Claims Capture of Tamaszow—French Regain all Their Lost Ground East of Metzeral.

London, June 29—Driven back over their own frontier north of Lemberg, and forced to cross the River Galia Lippe, in Southwest Galicia, the Russian armies continue to retreat before the Austro-Germans along a front of approximately 250 miles, about equal to the distance between Arras and the Vosges.

The Berlin official communication records progress by the Teuton troops in virtually the entire southeastern theatre, although violent fighting is still in progress beyond the Galia Lippe, which joins the Dniester at Halicz.

Having forced a passage of this stream Gen. Von Linsingen's army is presumably astride the railway running from Halicz to Lemberg and Stanislau, and now doubtless is aiming at the line which runs from Lemberg to Odessa, through Tarnopol.

It seems evident that Germany is bent on further punishment for the Russians before relaxing the intensity of her Galician campaign, but, with the Russians across the frontier, the Germans will have to rely almost solely on road transport and their advance will necessarily be slower. The British press is still voicing the hope that the Russians will soon find a tenable line and deliver a counter blow, but there is a note of anxiety in nearly all the accounts, together with the warning that either the capture of Warsaw or the seizure of the great railway lines which supply it, would be disastrous to Russia, and would surely be followed by another general German offensive.

Viewing the Russian attacks around Arras, it is argued that the Germans must feel comparatively secure in the west, else they would not have risked their tremendous enveloping movement against the Russians. The French are persisting in their assaults in the neighborhood of Arras, but without appreciable change in the situation.

Tomaszow Captured, Austrians Report

Vienna, via London, June 29—The Teutonic allies in their advance over the Galician border into Russian Poland, in the region of Tomaszow, have captured that Polish town, according to an Austrian official statement given out here tonight. The statement also says that strong Russian forces north of Kamionka, twenty-five miles northeast of Lemberg, were repulsed with great loss last night, after heavy fighting.

Western Theatre
Paris, June 29—The official communication issued by the War Office tonight says:
"In the Vosges we regained this morning all the positions which we had occupied to the east of Metzeral. On the rest of the fronts there is nothing to report, except artillery actions."

Russian Official Report.
Petrograd, via London, June 30—The following Russian official statement concerning the progress of hostilities was given out here tonight:
"In the Shavli region we repulsed feeble German attacks. On the fronts of the Niemec and Narew rivers and on the left of the Vistula calm prevails."

"The advance of strong enemy forces along the entire front between the sources of the Vopra river in the Government of Lublin, and the western Bug continues, and here on rear guard positions in the region of Tomaszow our troops, on June 27 and 28, repulsed several desperate German attacks."

"The enemy army on the Dniester, reinforced by fresh German troops quite recently thrown into this region, sought by the fiercest attacks on the front, Borkatchevitsky-Marynow to throw disorder into our retreat towards the Galia Lippe river, but failed in this object and sustained enormous losses."

THE ACTUAL CONDITION OF SEDDUL BAHR FORT AFTER HEAVY BOMBARDMENT

This view shows how much pounding these old forts in the Dardanelles will take without becoming level with the ground. The end on the right pointing seaward has naturally caught the fire the worst, but the flanking wall still stands.

Output of Munitions In France Has Been Increased Six Fold

Minister of War Gives Encouraging Report on Munitions Question—Premier Viviani and Cabinet Members Appear Before Senate to Explain New Appropriations Bill.

Paris, June 29.—To put an end, as far as possible, to the criticism evident in recent sessions of the Chamber of Deputies, Premier Viviani, accompanied by eight members of the cabinet, appeared at the Ministerial Bench in the Senate today and, taking the floor, spoke on the appropriations bill for the third quarter. This bill, which would appropriate $1,120,000,000 to cover government expenses for the three months beginning July 1, was passed by the Chamber of Deputies last Friday.

Premier Viviani, speaking with impressive eloquence, explained that the government had no desire to take the upper hand of the representatives of the people.

"Parliament has the control; the government the execution," said the Premier. "That is the essential principle of all democracy. We wish neither the rapt optimism nor bitter disenchantment which breaks the springs of justice. We ask merely reasoned and methodical confidence. It required great spontaneous exertion for this country, habituated to criticism, to become tractable. Now it is ready for the front and patient effort which will be the ransom of the peace of the world."

Premier Viviani was accorded the warmest of demonstrations by the Senate. At the conclusion of his address, Alexandre Millerand, Minister of War, took the floor.

"At the moment the Senate is called upon to vote the appropriation necessary for national defence," he said. "I wish to give an account of the stewardship of the Ministry of War from the outbreak of the hostilities."

When he mentioned possible discouragement, he was interrupted by cries of: "There is none."

"From August 1 to April 1," continued the Minister, "France has increased her military production sixfold. The curve for munitions has never ceased to mount, nor that representing the manufacture of our 75's. I can give assurances also regarding the heavy artillery and small arms. From the first of January to the 15th of May, the production of quick-firers was doubled. The curve for the other essentials of the war is equally encouraging. We are determined to pursue our enemies, whatever arms they may employ."

M. Millerand paid homage to the civil and military physicians, whose devotion and patriotism had aided so materially the organization of the sanitary service, and added:

"None better than I know the errors and weaknesses, but we must not let details blind our vision. All our Allies publicly recognize the excellence of our military industries. I ask my compatriots to be no less just."

The appropriations were unanimously passed.

More Men Enrolled For British Navy Than Required at Present

Recruiting Greatly in Excess of Actual Needs, But Commons Votes for Addition of 50,000 as Provision Against an Emergency.

London, June 29.—That the recruiting for the British navy thus far has been in excess of the actual needs came out in parliament last night, when the House of Commons voted a resolution adding 50,000 men to the navy.

Thomas J. MacNamara, financial secretary of the admiralty, explained that the government already had all the men actually needed at present, but that in asking this vote the Admiralty were looking well ahead. He said that so keen had been the desire to join the navy that more men had been enrolled than were required by the current estimates.

NOTED IRISH REVOLUTIONIST DIED YESTERDAY

Rossa O'Donovan Passes Away at Staten Island, N. Y. — Banished to America Twenty Years Ago.

New York, June 29.—Jeremiah O'Donovan, better known as O'Donovan Rossa, Irish patriot and revolutionist, died in St. Vincent's Hospital, Staten Island, late today. He had been ill for many months.

O'Donovan Rossa, Irish patriot and revolutionist, spent the last half of his life in the United States, 20 years of which were passed under an edict of banishment from Great Britain and any of her possessions. Though granted a full pardon by Queen Victoria for his revolutionary activities in "freeing Ireland," a quarter of a century after the Fenian uprising, he remained to the end an uncompromising foe to British rule.

Born in County Cork in 1831 as Jeremiah O'Donovan, he later took the name of Rossa, and while still a boy became interested in the Young Ireland Movement. He was particularly an admirer of John Mitchell, grandfather of the present Mayor Mitchell of New York, a leader in the movement.

When he was 27 years old Rossa, and several other members of the Phoenix Literary Society, were arrested on a charge of conspiracy and were released on a suspended sentence in 1859. Then he became associated with James Stephens and Colonel John O'Mahony in the Fenian movement, and worked ardently as an organizer of the Irish Revolutionary Brotherhood, until his arrest in Dublin September 15, 1865, when the office of the Fenian newspaper, Irish People, was raided. He was sentenced to penal servitude for life, but six years later he was released and banished to America.

Geneva, Switzerland, via Paris, June 29.—Four Bulgarian army officers left Geneva for home yesterday, having been recalled by telegrams. All Bulgarian students in Switzerland of a military age have received notice to be prepared to leave immediately.

MUST CONSIDER THE OVERSEAS DOMINIONS

London Times says Dominions' desire to get into closer touch has so far been neglected.

London, June 29.—Reiterating the desirability of calling the overseas dominions to help in the organization of the Imperial effort for war purposes, the Times says: "We may still be thinking too much about the British Isles, and too little about the Empire, that is Britain."

The Times points out that although the dominions have lavished men and money, England's thanks have been merely verbal, but the dominions' desire to come into closer touch has been neglected. The real essential, says the Times is that the government should realize that it is the people of the whole Empire that must be welded into an organization for war purposes.

BRILLIANT CHARGE OF TALLEST MEN IN THE ITALIAN ARMY

With Cry of "Savoy" Charge Enemy With Fixed Bayonets Putting the Austrians to Flight.

Milan, Italy, June 29, via Paris.—The Corriere Della Sera prints an account of a charge by an Italian force, a brigade of Grenadiers, comprising the tallest men in the army, at the time of the occupation of the Carso Heights, northeast of Monfalcone. The Grenadiers, says the newspaper, approached to within fifty yards of the entrenched enemy, when with the cry of "Savoy" they sprang with fixed bayonets on the Austrians, who broke and fled. A shower of artillery obliged the Grenadiers to change their position to protect themselves. The Austrians, evidently believing the Italians had retired, advanced to re-occupy the last entrenchment, whereupon the Major Manfredi, taking the colors in hand, cried "Grenadiers, remember the Sardinian brigade never withdrew."

The Grenadiers, the newspaper adds flung themselves upon the advancing troops, driving them back, but shrapnel carried away the left leg of Major Manfredi, who shortly afterwards died from loss of blood, his last words being "good-by my brave boys; long live Italy."

ANGLO-FRENCH FLEET AGAIN ACTIVE IN DARDANELLES

London, June 30.—The Mytilene correspondent of the Times sends the following:
"The British torpedo gunboat Husar on Saturday bombarded the ports of Chegneh, Lidia and Aglesia, opposite Chio, destroying some Turkish property, petroleum depots and small vessels."

London, June 30.—A Rome despatch to the Daily News quotes the correspondent of the Piccolo as sending this message from Constantinople via Sofia:
"I have just received authentic news that the action of the Anglo-French fleet in the Dardanelles has been resumed with great violence and is meeting with important success."

AUSTRIANS LOST 40,000 SINCE JUNE 23RD

In Russian Counter-Attacks Around Lemberg — Czar's Forces Putting up Stubborn Fight on Left Bank of the Zelder.

Geneva, Switzerland, via Paris, June 29.—A despatch to the Geneva Tribune, from Innsbruck, Austria, dealing with the fighting in Galicia, says that, according to estimates made in Innsbruck, "in the Russian counter-attacks around Lemberg the Austrians have lost 40,000 men since June 23rd."

The despatch continues:
"The Russians are resisting strongly on the left bank of the Zelder. The Austrians have begun a general powerful offensive on the Dniester-Fruth front. From the Dniester the Russians have been obliged to retreat, which is difficult owing to the rain and mud."

DR. BERNSTORFF'S ENVOY STRONGLY URGES PRESERVATION OF FRIENDSHIP WITH THE U. S.

No Real Reason for Antagonism, Says Bernstorff's Envoy

Says Whole Trouble is arising from Misunderstandings on Both Sides—Americans Who Condemn Violation of Belgium and Lusitania Sinking Do Not Understand Real Conditions.

Berlin, June 29. (via London)—Dr. Anton Meyer-Gerhardt, the attaché of the German Colonial Office, who was sent from the United States to Berlin by the German Ambassador, Count Von Bernstorff, to explain the views of the United States regarding the Lusitania case, published an article in Der Tag today on "Germany and America," in which he says his experience convinced him that both countries misunderstood each other.

"It is true," says Dr. Meyer-Gerhardt in his article, "that the American press with some notable exceptions, especially the German-American papers, have not succeeded in remaining neutral, but the influence of the press upon public opinion is sometimes greatly over-estimated. Doubtless large sections of the American people are friendly towards Germans, whose efficient organization is daily winning new friends and arousing interest in things German."

Alluding to the discussion over the ammunition question Dr. Meyer-Gerhardt says: "Germans often mistake large ammunition orders for filled orders. To a large extent such orders are changing big factories into ammunition works. This is regrettable, but the writer is convinced that large parts of the American people disapprove of it. A popular vote would show a considerable majority against the practice. Germans must discriminate between business men accepting orders and the great mass of the American people."

Sees No Real Reason for Antagonism "Equally true are Americans who condemn violation of Belgium neutrality and the sinking of the Lusitania and are unable to understand the German idea of the real conditions, while Germans are unable to understand how Americans could travel on an ammunition ship."

"Both peoples are laboring under entirely different opinions. Both have lived hitherto in peace and friendship and should continue so to live. There is no real reason for antagonism existing between them."

In the course of his article Dr. Meyer-Gerhardt spoke of the causes which he said had weakened Germany's former friendly feeling toward America, citing them as what he alluded to as the latter's inclination towards England and munition sales in America. Germany, on the other hand, he said, was reproached with violating Belgian neutrality and devoting itself to militarism in order to conquer the whole world. The deaths of Americans on the Lusitania had unfavorably affected American sentiments towards Germany, he added.

Regarding the question of Belgian neutrality and militarism, the writer says the Germans cannot understand the feeling aroused in America over these questions, as they know that Belgium surrendered her own neutrality, and that militarism is only the German nation in arms for its own defence. The American viewpoint was different, however, and each nation feels itself wrongly treated by the other.

SOME FACTS ABOUT LATEST WAR LOAN OF BRITISH GOVT

An evidence of vastness of financial operations of present as well as courage of people of England.

Financial operations are vast in size and conceived in the highest courage these days, as is evidenced by the great British war loan, authorized by the House of Commons this week. This is unlimited in amount except as required to pay for the war for a year and to provide for conversion of the old British debt. The new loan is to draw 4 1/2 per cent, and all holders of the Government's securities bearing lower rates of interest, have the privilege under certain conditions of converting their old securities into the new ones bearing 4 1/2 per cent. The conditions are that holders of the old debt in order to exchange, must subscribe to an equal amount of the new debt, and, in fact, must pay cash for the new loan before they can convert an equal amount of the old.

These figures, like the events of the day, are colossal and unprecedented in the history of the world, and, too, also like these events, are for destruction instead of construction, as far as property and lives are concerned. In the great scheme of the world, however, out of destruction and death, may arise light and life, not for this generation, alas, but for the world's far future.

Some explanation of an English loan not having been arranged to be placed here in the face of the fall of the exchange rate on London during the past week or two, may perhaps be found in the effect which the great English loan is having upon rates of interest there and of the quotations for English exchange here. These effects have to be distinctly visible on Thursday, when London's discount rate had mounted to 1 1/2 per cent, above the low level of last week and when exchange on London had risen five-eighths above the record low of last Saturday.

And so it becomes evident that the exchange situation was not to be allowed to drift as has seemed possible in the last week or two, but that the whole matter had been astutely foreseen and arranged for. Sinking exchange rates here meant higher prices to be paid by England, but this was not to be neglected. The provisions of the British loan and the effectual working of them are producing the results desired.

OFFERED MILITIA INSPECTOR MONEY "FOR HIS TROUBLE"

W. J. Brown, Who Sold Binoculars to Militia Department Offered Col. Hurdman $30—Sir Chas. Davidson Warns Him of Criminality of His Action and Possible Consequences.

Special to The Standard. Ottawa, June 29.—W. J. Brown, an Ottawa real estate agent who busied himself securing binoculars to sell to the Militia Department for the Canadian soldiers, got a solemn warning from Sir Charles Davidson this afternoon at the war contracts inquiry which looked like an anxiety of what is going to happen. "It is only fair to you," said Sir Charles to Brown, "to say that my present impression is that you have exposed yourself to criminal prosecution."

This arose over the division of profits with L. C. Trudhope on the sale of binoculars. Included in the amount was $30 to Col. Hurdman, the militia department inspector. Col. Hurdman refused to accept the money. "You did not give it to him, you attempted to," remarked Sir Charles. "What was it for?" "For trouble he was put to, I called him up several times," answered Brown. Sir Charles—"Why did you not do it openly, are you aware it is a criminal offence to make such gifts to a public officer?" W. J. Brown—"No, I do not."

Toronto, June 28.—Dr. R. D. Rudolph of Toronto, a member of the University of Toronto medical staff, who arrived back in Toronto today from the town of Normandy, France, where he is an officer, is stationed, says that out of hundreds of cases of poisoning from gas handled by the hospital, none proved fatal. If the gas is chlorine, without admixture, and is inhaled in moderate quantities, a victim should be able to recover completely without after effects. Dr. Rudolph's hospital did not handle the most serious cases, but he stated that neighboring hospitals had very few deaths.

THEIR PASSPORTS NOT SATISFACTORY, HELD UP BY AUTHORITIES

Liverpool, June 29.—Although the port authorities refused to disclose the names, it is known that three passengers on board the Cunard Line steamship Orduna, on arriving here last night, from New York, were detained because the documents necessary to secure their admission to this country were not satisfactory. When the American Line steamship St. Paul arrived in the Mersey two days ago, eight of her passengers were detained. Two of the passengers detained on the Orduna are English women, married to Americans, who had signed as British subjects and did not believe passports were necessary. Among the passengers who said they had trouble over the documents was Charles Burr of New York, an attorney for American owners of detained cotton cargoes.

IMPERIAL THEATRE TODAY

That altogether Sweet and Winsome Little Personage, Marguerite Clark in HAROLD McGRATH'S ROMANCE "The Goose Girl" THE GOOSE GIRL, produced by the Jesse L. Lasky Feature Play Company, with little Marguerite Clark in the stellar role of the title character, should prove a rare treat for high-class audiences. It is not often that the imagination is led so delightfully away from the monotonous routine and problems of daily life into the realms of romantic and far-distant possibilities. The ambitions of the Chancellor of Ehrenstein, who wants to put his own daughter on the throne, are responsible for the complications — for the kidnapping of the real Princess in her infancy, for the attempt, fifteen years later, to identify the Chancellor's child as the lost Princess; and even for the final rearrangement of the many threads in the narrative. It is hard to say whether Miss Clark, who appears by the courtesy of the Famous Players, is more fascinating as "The Goose Girl" or as the real Princess, when she is finally seated on her rightful throne.

PERSONAL THRIFT AND ECONOMY THAT NATION MAY BETTER BEAR BURDEN, ASQUITH'S ADVICE

THE COSTLIEST GREAT BRITAIN WAR IN HISTORY TO TAKE STOCK OF THE WORLD OF RESOURCES

Great Britain's Expenditure for Carrying on Conflict $15,000,000 A Day.

INDIVIDUALS MUST CUT DOWN EXPENSES

Balance of trade between England and other countries shows grounds for serious thought.

London, June 29.—Penny-wise economy heretofore has not been a strong feature of the gatherings at the Guild Hall, so closely connected with aldermanic banquets of proverbial opulence, but Premier Asquith today chose this home of wealth to initiate a movement in support of the British war loan, and to urge personal thrift throughout the nation so as to make it possible for the country to bear the strain of the expenditures of $15,000,000 daily entailed by the cost of the war.

As if to give the campaign a good send off, the first really big subscription to the war loan was announced simultaneously with the appearance of Premier Asquith on the platform. This was the application made by a London assurance company for $1,700,000 of the new loan.

Premier Asquith opened the meeting by stating that apart from many of its "other features," the present war was the costliest that ever had been waged, with the total prospective expenditure for the year approaching a thousand millions of pounds, and likely to be for weeks and months to come, something like $15,000,000.

The Premier emphasized that for the first time in the financial history of Great Britain this was a great democratic loan. The State, he said, was appealing to all classes, even those whose resources were most limited, to step in and contribute their share to meet the supreme national need.

"Under such conditions," Mr. Asquith said, "I am confident that the success of the loan as a financial instrument ought to be, and indeed is now absolutely secure."

The Premier then proceeded to inquire how a country which normally had only three hundred million or four hundred million of pounds at its disposal could get this huge unprecedented draft out of its resources.

"The amount that could be raised abroad in comparison to the sum required," he said, "would be practically of small value, and if it were possible to have any considerable scale we should have to face the prospect of ending the war a debtor country."

All Persons Between Ages of 15 and 65 Must Register.

IF MR. LONG'S BILL PASSES COMMONS

Object of measure to ascertain resources available and facilitate organization of such.

London, June 29.—Walter Hume Long, president of the Local Government Board, today introduced in the House of Commons a bill for the completion of a national register, the object of which, he remarked, was not to coerce labor but to secure complete information regarding the resources of the country and to enable them to be satisfactorily organized.

The measure seeks to classify all persons below the age of sixty-five and to ascertain the present occupation and direction wherein service can be rendered by each.

Introducing the bill, Mr. Long said in justification for national legislation that it was the paramount duty of all to bring to the help of the state the organized service of every class and community.

The measure, he said, was designed to provide the machinery which could procure the maximum output at a minimum cost. There would be a compulsory registration of the people of the country, both male and female, between the ages of fifteen to sixty-five, and every one would be asked to tell his age and present employment and to volunteer any special form of employment other than that on which he actually was engaged.

Mr. Long believed that such legislation would enable the government to take full advantage of the services of everybody to the benefit of the state.

HOT SHOT FIRED IN BRITISH COMMONS

London, June 29.—"A scandalous and wholly false aspersion," is the way Reginald McKenna, Chancellor of the Exchequer, speaking in the House of Commons stigmatized a question put by Lawrence Ginnell, Nationalist member for Northwest Meath, suggesting that British troops were killing Germans after they had laid down their arms instead of taking them prisoners.

Sir Arthur R. Markham, Liberal member for the Mansfield division of Nottinghamshire, invited Mr. McKenna to ask the United States government to convey to the German government "the fact that Mr. Ginnell is not of sound mind."

COUNSEL FOR HORWOOD IS HEARD

Says client made statement in writing previous to one given in Minneapolis—Telegrams submitted to Commission.

Winnipeg, June 29.—M. H. McLeod, general manager of the Canadian Northern Railway, was the first witness called when the Royal Commission investigating the parliament buildings case, met this morning. His evidence was expected to throw further light on the recent destruction by the G. N. W. Telegrams telegrams bearing on the hearing.

C. P. Wilson, Liberal counsel, put in telegrams, sent over the Canadian Pacific Telegraphs. They read: (1)—Winnipeg, April 21, 1915. Hon. Robert Rogers, Ottawa: Confidential.

(2)—Winnipeg, April 21, 1915. Hon. Robert Rogers, Ottawa: Confidential. Commission propose beginning inquiry immediately. This makes necessary for me to have Tilly take the case in the court and he work on the outside. This I presume will be satisfactory. Tilly undoubtedly very able and no doubt if absolutely necessary Phippen will go in as well.

(3)—Ottawa, April 21, 1915. Sir Rodmond Roblin, Winnipeg: Have arranged with Sir William that Phippen leave tonight taking with him a Mr. Tilly whom Meichen and Lash and also every lawyer else claims to be the ablest lawyer in Ontario. Have you arranged? This more important thing in whole matter.

(4)—Ottawa, April 22, 1915. Sir Rodmond Roblin, Winnipeg: Phippen leaves tonight.

(5)—Winnipeg, April 26, 1915. Hon. Robert Rogers, Ottawa: Cannot you give approximate date that you will be here, where arrived yesterday. His friend expected Tuesday or Wednesday. No change in situation.

The manager of the Molson's Bank, asked if his books showed accounts in the name of Roblin, Montague, Caldwell, Howden or Simpson, said that he had no personal accounts. Records of a provincial lands account were left with the court.

Harry White, K. C., who was counsel for Horwood, former provincial architect, was called. He had been retained personally by Horwood. Mr. Horwood told him he had asked for leave of absence to go to Rochester for an operation. "He said," added White, "that the government desired him to appear for leave of absence for a longer period. I am not sure whether it was until the commission finished or not."

White told him he thought his leave of absence for an operation was sufficient, and Horwood did not take further steps. Horwood had a letter written by Dr. Montague which he was to sign. White did not agree with the letter, and wrote another which Horwood signed. This was in connection with his leave of absence.

In interests of Horwood To Keep Salt Away

White said he was called to a meeting at the parliament buildings about the time Horwood went away, and he told them he had advised Horwood not to ask for extended leave of absence. He recalled the Premier, Dr. Montague and Mr. Caldwell and Mr. Bernier were present. White was told by one of the ministers that Horwood would be looked after. White told them Horwood was to pay his fees, and refused to have anything to do with the suggestion.

White said on a Saturday he was informed that Salt was coming to Winnipeg. "I deemed it not in Horwood's interest that Salt should come back," said White, and he telephoned Dr. Simpson and suggested employing an agency to ascertain if the information was correct. Simpson asked White to undertake this, and so White engaged an agency.

Previously, said White, Horwood had complained to White that he was out of pocket in connection with Salt's disappearance. White saw Simpson and next day Simpson paid Horwood one thousand dollars. Six hundred more which Horwood claimed, Simpson said he could pay any time in another conversation. Dr. Simpson said ten thousand dollars had been sent to Salt and that Hook said he had been robbed of it. No names of Ministers were mentioned.

White engaged the Pinkerton Detective Agency at Simpson's request. He first called the Third Agency, but they told him they were acting for the Liberals. The detectives located Salt in St. Paul, and reported to White that Salt wanted twenty-five thousand dollars to stay away. "I consulted with Dr. Simpson," he said. "He brought five thousand dollars to my office and I transmitted it to the agency at St. Paul. They reported that Salt would not leave it. I reported to Dr. Simpson, and he brought another five thousand and I transmitted it to St. Paul for Salt."

Did Not Believe That Hook Was Robbed

Dr. Simpson told White, he thought Hook had not been robbed of the ten thousand dollars en route to Salt, at Omaha. The doctor said he thought Horwood got the money. White thought this very unjust.

To Chief Justice Mathers White said Horwood made a statement in writing before he gave his evidence at Minneapolis. It was in exact accord with the story he told later. This concluded White's evidence.

Wellington, New Zealand, June 29.—Premier W. F. Massey announced in parliament today that the New Zealand government was prepared to form a national military ministry until the close of the war, with a view to the whole energies of the country being concentrated in the prosecution of hostilities.

Sir Joseph Ward, the leader of the opposition, asked time to consider the proposal.

Paris, June 29.—President Poincare spent Sunday and Monday in the first line trenches, talking with the officers and men.

The President watched a number of batteries in action, and then inspected the field hospitals just behind the lines. He pinned the Military Cross to the flags of six regiments which had been cited in the order of the day for valiant conduct.

Winnipeg, June 29.—N. W. Rowell, K. C., spoke before the Canadian Club this afternoon on Britanic and Germanic ideals of Empire. He declared something was wrong in Canada, that the country was not making more munitions. Britain was straining every nerve, drawing men from the front and putting women in factories to make munitions. Yet in Canada, many men capable of making munitions were out of work and the production was away below what it might be. He urged a greater production of munitions.

Both the Chancellor and the Foreign Minister are of the opinion that Rumania will remain neutral.

Washington, June 29.—The British government announced through its embassy here today an agreement with the Swedish Cotton Spinners' Association for the unrestricted importation into Sweden of ten thousand bales of cotton each month, if one-third of the association. That amount is said to be more than twice the normal consumption of Swedish cotton mills, and fully acceptable to the United States.

appealing to all classes, even those whose resources were most limited, to step in and contribute their share to meet the supreme national need.

"Under such conditions," Mr. Asquith said, "I am confident that the success of the loan as a financial instrument ought to be, and indeed is now absolutely secure."

The Premier then proceeded to inquire how a country which normally had only three hundred million or four hundred million of pounds at its disposal could get this huge unprecedented draft out of its resources.

He dismissed as impracticable the idea of selling investments in property or of borrowing abroad.

"The amount that could be raised abroad in comparison to the sum required," he said, "would be practically of small value, and if it were possible to have any considerable scale we should have to face the prospect of ending the war a debtor country."

The Individual Must Economize in the

The only other course, he declared, was that his countrymen should diminish while our exports and re-exports have decreased by $368,750,000. That means that for twelve months our indebtedness to other countries

The only way to counteract this is by reducing all unnecessary personal expenditures on imported articles such as tea, sugar, wine, petrol, etc., and on goods

Remarking that it was not merely a

MR. GARLAND'S CASE.

From the evidence so far adduced before Sir Charles Davidson's enquiry into charges of alleged grafting in war supplies, it appears that there are in this country a few men so bent on material gain that they are not above profiting at the expense of the people even when forced to use the Empire war as an excuse for their illegal gains. There is no indication that such men are as much in evidence in the Conservative party as in that remarkable collection of purists led by Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the contention of the Grit newspapers to the contrary.

At Monday's session of the enquiry, Mr. W. F. Garland, Conservative member for Carleton, Ontario, was the principal witness. He admitted that he had received from Powell, his clerk, some $9,000 of profits from the sale of $40,000 worth of surgical supplies to the government. He also said he had been advised by "members of the government" to get the money back—that is, to make prompt restitution. This point is grasped by the machine Grit Times which asks: "Who are those members of the government? Why did they make that suggestion to Mr. Garland?"

There is nothing in Mr. Garland's statement, as it appears in the Telegraph, to indicate that the instruction to restore the money, came as a suggestion; it might as well have been an order, and honest men will agree that, if made, it was a most proper order for a member of the government to make. As soon as it became known that Garland, himself a member of parliament, had profited from war contracts, he was instructed to get the money back, to make restitution at once. This method may come as a surprise to the Times and Telegraph, particularly as their present conception of political ethics is founded on the doctrines of Mr. Pugsley of "sawdust wharf" fame, and Mr. Carvell of malodorous memory—it will be generally agreed that the blatant member for Carleton, N. B., is so nearly politically dead that to refer to him as a member is but anticipating the result of the next election, but it is not uncommon that honest men, finding a wrong done, should move to secure restitution of that wrong.

DUPLICATE IN RESPECT OF THE MATTERS WHICH HAVE BEEN UNDER INVESTIGATION BY THE PUBLIC ACCOUNTS COMMITTEE.

Sir Robert Borden repudiated Mr. Garland when there was no evidence that the member for Carleton had done more than assist a clerk in his employ to make a profit from a government contract. Now that Mr. Garland has admitted that he, himself, profited from the contract it is not at all likely that Sir Robert will recede from the position he has already taken. The Premier of Canada is not that sort of a man. The very fact that he encouraged an investigation by Royal Commission and that this investigation is now being held, at once disposes of the suggestion that any member of the government had guilty knowledge that illegal profits were being made from war contracts. For the Telegraph or Times to insinuate anything else is not only unfair but too manifestly absurd to warrant discussion. There are no Frank Oliver's in the Borden Government.

CONCERNING BINOCULARS.

The Telegraph would be well advised to exercise care in the adjustment of its editorial vision to the case of the "binocular scandal." Injudicious, or too hasty action by which even one of its editors does not happen to be indulging in summer recreation when it becomes necessary to apply the "binoculars" may result in the presentation to the readers of that paper of some two-edged facts. There is a sad evidence of such haste in yesterday's paper. In handling the binocular case at Ottawa the Telegraph relates the story of how one Mr. Birkett obtained a contract for the supply of these very necessary articles, and succeeded in persuading Colonel Hurdman, a militia department official, to pass certain glasses which Birkett admits were of inferior quality.

The paragraphs of the Telegraph article bearing on this matter are of particular interest. That newspaper says Birkett "told of securing an order for 400 binoculars at $52 a pair from the militia department, on the suggestion of Lieut.-Colonel Hurdman of the department, and under the supervision of P. W. Ellis & Company of Toronto. Birkett delivered 120 glasses at $52, and forty-six at $48. The majority were below the required standard, but all but five or six passed the inspection of Col. Hurdman."

In order to properly deal with this statement it is necessary that some facts be given concerning the gentleman named, facts which the Telegraph neglects to furnish. The Colonel Hurdman in the case, is the cousin of the Grit member of the Ontario legislature for the City of Ottawa. When the binocular case came before the Public Accounts Committee some months ago, and his connection with the case was established, he was at once suspended from the service pending the investigation, which is now being held. At that time Liberals declared he was a Conservative in politics, and this contention caused an Ontario publication to present certain facts regarding him, which have not been refuted.

The publication in question said: "After appointing Col. Hurdman to a responsible position in the Militia Department, and making him a part of the 'system' inaugurated by Sir Frederick Borden, Liberals have discovered that he is a Conservative. For twelve years they remained ignorant. The discovery followed the implication of Col. Hurdman in the 'binocular deal.' All this time the recently discovered 'Conservative' was a political and business intimate of his cousin the local Grit member. How carefully Col. Hurdman must have concealed his political views even from his own relatives. He is the only known 'Conservative' appointed to office by the Liberals and the only one of the name of that family in Ottawa—and the members of the family are numerous. Whatever may have been Col. Hurdman's politics at one time, the fact is he was appointed to office by the Liberals and was always recognized as a Liberal. He was a part of the 'system' under Liberal rule and until this exposure a member of the gang appointed by Sir Frederick Borden. Liberals might as well disown Hon. Frank Oliver and Hon. William Pugsley as Col. Hurdman. Their reputation is no better and the former was an 'independent' when first elected and the latter was a 'Conservative' nominee in 1896. How remarkable that such a trio should find a congenial home in the Liberal party."

From the evidence of Mr. Birkett it was at the suggestion of Col. Hurdman that the contract was awarded to him, and the same official afterwards passed glasses not up to the required standard. The question will arise, "What did this protégé of the Grit minister of militia receive for his kindly interest in the binocular contractor?"

Apparently the Government set a standard for binoculars to be supplied to the soldiers, and the fact that the price of $52 and $48 was not considered extortionate, illustrates that the standard was high. If Mr. Birkett was enabled to purchase inferior glasses for $17 and have them passed by a Grit official, as of the proper quality, in order to receive the price of the supposed first class article, surely the Government cannot be blamed unless it be for leniency.

Grit newspapers have been wont to complain that under the present administration contracts and positions are given only to men of the Conservative party. This is an instance where that policy was not followed. If Col. Hurdman, who, apparently, is a man of very much the same type as the political parasites who control the Telegraph and Times, had been judged by his politics his position in the Militia Department might have been declared vacant more than two years ago and an honest man installed in his place. Because of the fairness and broadmindedness of the Conservative Government he was not deposed, but left in his position where, on the first opportunity, he engaged in the practices which won favor for him under Sir Frederick Borden.

The facts of the case are that the Government desired a good article and were prepared to pay for it; through the dishonesty of a Grit official and a contractor, an inferior article was substituted. The official has already been suspended and will likely be dealt with according to his deserts. Meanwhile, the Government is co-operating in the effort to ventilate every fact which will lead to the proper and prompt punishment of the war grafters. No government could do more; the Laurier government never showed the slightest disposition to do half so much.

The Telegraph is very welcome to all the political capital it can secure from the binocular incident.

Wedding-Gregory.
A pretty wedding was solemnized yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Gregory, Lancaster, when their daughter, Helen LeRoy Webb, saleswoman for G. E. Barbour Co., Ltd., Rev. A. J. Archibald tied the nuptial knot, and the wedding march was played by Mrs. Norman McLeod. The bride, who was unattended and given away by her father, was gracefully gowned in beautiful oriental lace over white satin, wearing a Juliet cap and veil prettily decorated with orange blossoms. The room was tastefully adorned, and the bride, carrying a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley, stood under a magnificent arch and bell. The bride's going away suit was navy blue, with hat to match. GIRLS' CLUB NEW HOME WAS FORMALLY OPENED YESTERDAY AFTERNOON

Premises on Princess Street finely fitted up for work of assisting girls.

The new home of the Girls' Club and Travelers' Aid of the Playgrounds Association in Princess street was opened yesterday. There was a reception and tea in the afternoon at which there was a large attendance. Tea was poured by Mrs. George Barbour and Mrs. Barraclough. Besides these ladies the committee having charge of the arrangements included Mrs. J. F. Bullock, Mrs. McN. Steves, Mrs. N. C. Scott, Mrs. W. E. McIntyre, Mrs. J. Doody, Miss Lillian Deinstadt, Mrs. H. McKeown and Mrs. O. L. Barbour.

In the evening an enjoyable entertainment was provided by the girls, there being a large number present. The large room to be used as an assembly room and gymnasium was tastefully decorated with flags and flowers, the latter having been kindly donated by Mrs. Murphy of the Isolation Hospital.

The new quarters provide much better accommodation than the rooms in Union street, formerly used for the purposes of the Girls' Club and great credit is due to the ladies who have taken an active interest in the work. The remodeling of the building was done by the Playgrounds Association. It is well fitted up for permanent boarders, as well as for transient girls, and the city, through the Travelers' Aid in charge of Miss Pitt and Miss Hoyt. The home will be under the management of a lady residing on the premises.

The organization now consists of seventy-five members, and it is expected that this number will soon be increased.

In addition to the large hall, which contains a trapdoor, with basket ball equipment and other gymnastic appliances, there are bedrooms, kitchen, bathroom, reading and writing room, study and office, all being on one floor.

After supper, and preceding the evening entertainment, the program of the executive of the Playgrounds Association, gave a short address. He congratulated all those who had helped to make a success of the undertaking, on the good work accomplished, remarking that the accommodation provided was in every respect satisfactory. The new home, he said, would make possible the extension of the philanthropic activities of the Girls' Club and Travelers' Aid as a joint institution.

The programme for the evening's entertainment was as follows: Opening chorus, orchestra; dialogue, The Little Housekeeper, Miss P. Howard, and Miss Springer; chorus, Honk, Honk, by the girls; reading, Miss Springer; chorus, Never Trouble Trouble, by the girls; reading, The Busybody, Miss Violet Brindie; closing chorus, orchestra.

Circuit Court.
In the Circuit Court yesterday Judge St. Patrick indicted by the Grand Jury on a charge of stealing $148 from Rose Magillion, was acquitted by the petit jury after fifteen minutes' deliberation. The complainant and Detective McLaughlin were the only two witnesses for the crown and the defendant gave evidence in her own behalf. The testimony really amounted to the word of the complainant against that of the defendant, and the jury gave the prisoner the benefit of the doubt. The complainant's story was that the defendant took the money while she (the complainant) was lying down and asleep. E. S. Ritchie appeared for the defendant and Attorney General Barbour, C. prosecuted. The jury was composed as follows: Stanley Fisher, Wm. Pyne, Robert H. Murray, Ernest Ryer, Chipman Oliver, Justus G. Lake, Wm. Crabbe, Harold I. Sullis, Charles Wanamaker, Harry W. King, Geo. W. Williams, I. D. Sparks.

Harvey Station, June 28.—A very pleasing and happy nuptial event took place on Wednesday, June 23rd, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Burrell, Harvey Station, when their daughter, Bessie, was united in marriage with Fred Hansalpacker, also of Harvey. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. F. MacKay, minister of the Presbyterian church, in the presence of two hundred invited guests. Promptly at three p. m. the hour appointed, the bride entered the parlor leaning upon the arm of her father. She was attended by her sister Anne, while the groom was ably supported by Charles Hunter. Following the ceremony a tempting luncheon was served at the home of the bride. The large number of beautiful and useful presents testified to the esteem in which both the bride and groom are held by their many friends. Among the presents received was a handsome dining room suite from the sister of the groom.

ASSESSMENT COMMISSION WILL LIKELY BE APPOINTED

City Council discussed Garbage disposal and other matters of importance—Overdraft for Ferry Department—Complaint concerning Holly Street.

The question of garbage disposal was before the city commissioners yesterday when conditions in the northern part of the city were particularly discussed.

W. H. Dunbar was present and pointed out that if the garbage was allowed to collect as in the past there was a likelihood of an epidemic starting there. He told the commissioners that he would assist in the work of dumping the refuse in Deep Cove. After considerable discussion it was decided that the matter be left for the consideration of the Commissioner of Public Works, who is to report on the best method of disposing of the refuse. It is probable that a scow will be used and the garbage deposited in Deep Cove.

Holly Street Repairs.
A letter written by George McDonald regarding the condition of Holly street was read. Mr. McDonald was loud in his denunciation of the poor condition of the street and requested some action by the council.

Commissioner Potts said the street would be repaired as soon as possible and that no communication was necessary to further the progress of the work.

Commissioner McLellan said he believed there was just cause for complaint and on a motion the letter was referred to the Commissioner of Public Works to report.

An Assessment Commission.
Mayor Frink announced that he was considering the appointment of an assessment commission and that the names would be announced later. It will mean an additional expenditure of at least $10,000.

The organization now being formed by the New Brunswick Telephone Company in which regret was expressed for placing a line of poles without the permission of the council. They believed that the poles erected were outside of the city limits and that therefore it was unnecessary to secure permission of the city. The letter was received and filed.

North End Survey.
The North End survey was again taken up and as there is yet another plan to be submitted the matter was deferred until this morning at 11:30 o'clock. Commissioner Potts was anxious to dispose of the matter and was

MANY ATTRACTIVE RECRUITING POSTERS ARE ON EXHIBITION HERE

"Lusitania Disaster" and "Remember Scarborough" among the best—Camp Sussex also shown.

Much interest has been shown in the array of recruiting posters displayed in the city. Many posters have been received here from headquarters. A special line of Camp Sussex posters have been made up and these are on exhibition.

The latest poster received at the recruiting station is one which calls attention to the "Lusitania Disaster" and several instances are recalled. This poster in particular was sent to St. John from London, Eng., and reads as follows:

"Remember the Lusitania. One mother lost all her three young children, one six years, one aged four, and the third a babe in arms, six months old. She herself lives and held up the three of them in the water, all the time shrieking for help. When rescued by a boat party, the two eldest were dead. Their room was required on the boat, and the mother was brave enough to realize it. 'Give them to me,' she cried, 'give them to me, my bonnie wee things, I will bury them. They are mine to bury as they are mine to keep.'

With her hair streaming down her back and her form shaking with sorrow, she took hold of each little one from the rescuers and reverently placed it in the water again, and the people in the boat wept with her as she murmured a little sobbing prayer to the great God above.

But her cup of sorrow was not completed. For just as they were landing, her third and only child died in her arms.

The rest of the poster quotes despatches from various German papers in which the Germans appear pleased at the havoc they wrought. Despatches follow:—Hundreds of telegrams have been sent to Admiral Von Tirpitz congratulating him.

Article in Cologne Gazette—The news will be received by the German people with unanimous satisfaction, since it proves to England and the whole world that Germany is quite in earnest in regard to her submarine warfare.

Many other posters which have been received are on exhibition at the local recruiting office. There is an attractive array of literature which should appeal to the young men of the city.

Several other posters are shown, among them "Remember Scarborough." This is a striking poster and goes well with the many others which are on display in the windows.

One of the other posters reads: "The Empire needs men. Australia, Canada, India, New Zealand all answer the call. Helped by the young, the old lion answers the call. Enlist now. This poster was also sent from London to the local recruiting office. "Women of Britain say go." This is perhaps the most attractive poster in window and shows two women with a child watching the soldiers on their way to the front. This poster was sent by the Parliamentary Recruiting Committee, located in London, Eng.

The Shot That Grazed Her Shoulder Reveals Her Identity.
When Torpette, the gypsy, stole the little Princess at the order of the Chancellor of Ehrenstein, he was pursued by men who fired many shots. They did not hit the abductor, but one of the shots grazed the shoulder of the child. Fifteen years passed, and that same child, by a strange series of circumstances, finds herself in the royal palace, under arrest, because her lover has a claim on the throne. She is identified in that same room is the gypsy, who, in earlier years, did the bidding of the Chancellor. Suddenly the gypsy catches sight of the mark on the girl's shoulder—and then she confesses that this little Gooose Girl is really the last to the throne and all the stories of royalty. There are just a few of the events that take place in Jesse L. Lasky's production of "The Gooose Girl," founded on Harold McGrath's novel of the same name, in which Marguerite Clark appears as the absolutely adorable star. This attraction is announced as the offering at the Imperial today and the holiday, and should be one of the photodramatic treats of the season.

To Keep Skin in Fine Condition All Summer

It would be much better for the skin if little cream, powder or rouge were used during the heated term. Mixed with perspiration, dust and grime, these things are anything but beautifying. Ordinary molascuit will do more for the complexion, and without giving an oily, streaked, spotted or puffy appearance. It is the ideal application for the season, as it not only keeps the pores clean, but daily removes particles of dead skin which have been soiled by dirt or weather. By constantly keeping the complexion clear, white, satiny, it does more toward perpetuating a youthful countenance than any of the arts or artifices commonly employed. One ounce of molascuit, well obtainable at any drugstore, will completely renovate the worst complexion. It is applied at night like cold cream and washed off in the morning.

To keep the skin from sagging or wrinkling, or to overcome such condition, there's nothing better than a face bath made by dissolving 1 ounce powdered molascuit in 3 1/2 pint which bath.

SIXTY HOUSES CARRIED AWAY BY FLOODS

Seven hundred more inundated and property damage caused by floods in Saskatchewan nearly $1,000,000.

Edmonton, June 29.—The flood here reached its crest just before two o'clock this morning, since when the waters have been slowly but steadily receding. Opinions are general that the most critical hours have passed. In the wake of the torrents that have swept down the Saskatchewan river in the past forty-eight hours are upwards of 2,400 homeless people. Approximately sixty homes have been carried away and shattered into matchwood. Seven hundred more were inundated, and will be more or less ruined as a result. The total property damage was estimated this morning at close upon a million dollars. The bulk of the losses come upon people who can ill afford it.

"HUNTING AND FISHING"

New Booklet Issued by CANADIAN GOVERNMENT RAILWAYS

Guide to Fishing Resorts of The Maritime Provinces.

"Hunting and Fishing" is a concise and comprehensive guide to the numerous hunting and fishing resorts of the Maritime Provinces, issued by the Canadian Government Railways. The booklet is a valuable addition to the literature of the province, and is available to all who are interested in the sports of hunting and fishing. It contains a list of the resorts, and gives a description of each, including the best time to visit, the best places to stay, and the best methods of hunting and fishing. The booklet is available for sale at all railway stations, and may also be obtained by mail on application to the Canadian Government Railways, Ottawa.

Excellent wild fowl shooting is to be obtained. Dark, partridge, plover, woodcock, snipe, are plentiful, and the fall shooting of geese, duck and brant are worthy of special mention. The guides are well organized and can properly outfit and equip parties for an outing that may last two or three weeks or more, having chains of camps furnished with everything the hunter may require, and the necessary camp wagons and canoes. And this vast game and fish preserve is so easy of access. The sportsman has but to glance at the map, trace the line of the Intercolonial Railway from Montreal to its Atlantic terminus, and he will find the country intersected with rivers and streams, and virtually select the station on the line from which to make his incursion into the woods.

The object of this booklet is to help in the selection. The sportsman will be told the kind of game and fish to be procured and how and where to procure it, the guides and their charges, the best outfitting places, the hotels and boarding house accommodations, the fish and game laws of the various provinces, customs regulations and useful hints as to the proper equipment. Should further information be desired, and he will write the General Passenger Department of the Canadian Government Railways, every endeavor will be made to obtain the sportsman's requirements.

STREET RY. CASE DECIDED BY APPEALS COURT

City has right to alter grades of streets and Company must bring tracks up to level of new grade.

Fredericton, June 29.—Three interesting judgments were handed down by the Supreme Court of Appeal this morning, one of which concerned the Street Railway case, and other two were important to the taxpayers of St. John city and county. Two of the judges presided, Chief Justice McLeod and Judge White, the former reading the judgment of the court in Fredericton and St. John city cases, and Judge White delivering judgment in which this county was especially interested.

The first case, being in appeal by the St. John Valley Railway Co. from the $16,500 award of Board of Arbitrators to Frasers Limited, for damages to their Victoria Mill property here, by the railway's expropriation of two and one-half acres. The court now decided that the arbitrators, of whom two only of the three were agreed, had proceeded upon a wrong principle, and reduced the award today by $11,000.

ANDOVER AND PERTH SCHOOLS ARE TO BE CONSOLIDATED

Hartland, N. B., June 28.—On Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Dionne, Perth, Rev. George Pringle of Kincairdine performed the ceremony which united in marriage their second daughter, Miss Olive, to Mr. Roy West Kerrison of the staff of the Bank of Montreal at Quebec City. Only immediate relatives of the young couple were present and the bride was unattended. After the ceremony the young couple left for their future home in Quebec, followed by the best wishes of many friends.

A wedding of considerable interest to the people of Hartland and vicinity is to take place in St. Matthew's church, Ottawa, on Wednesday, July 7, when Miss Bella Mae, daughter of Mr. George W. Vallée of the capital city, will become the bride of Rev. White Burton Morgan, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Morgan of Hartland, and brother-in-law of the Rev. J. P. Wilson. The relatives of the groom will not be present at the ceremony, but the young couple will leave Ottawa after the ceremony for this place, where they will spend a month's honeymoon. Rev. Mr. Morgan is of the clergy of St. Matthew's, one of the prominent churches in Ottawa.

The June sitting of the Victoria County Court was held at Andover on Tuesday last. The only case on the docket was a civil one between R. Bruce McLaughlin and Hatfield & Scott, for an alleged breach of contract in the sale of potatoes, the amount involved being $375. The matter was settled out of court.

On Sunday afternoon, July 11, the Orangemen of Andover, Four Falls and Bairdville will attend Trinity church at Andover and Rev. J. P. Wilson of Arturbeth will preach the sermon.

By a vote of forty to six the ratepayers of Andover and Perth have decided to consolidate the two schools.

HIT ON HEAD BY DEAL WHILE WORKING IN MILL

William Harding victim of painful accident at Sagwa —Brought to hospital in St. John.

Welsford, June 28.—Quite a serious accident happened this morning at Mr. H. W. Woods' mill, Sagwa, when William Harding, the engineer, was struck on the head with a dead, his fellow workmen at once hastened to his assistance. Besides being painfully injured he was badly bruised about one of the shoulders, he was rushed to the General Public Hospital, St. John, in a motor car, driven by Harold Draper, accompanied by one of the workmen, Ernest Newelling. Quite a gloom overshadowed Welsford when news came of the death of John Thompson which occurred early Sunday morning at the General Public Hospital, St. John, following an operation. It is understood the operation was successful, but deceased being seventy-one years of age his heart was unequal to the shock. Deceased was formerly a school teacher, having retired about eighteen years ago, when he has resided at Welsford, where he spent the rest of his days in the very nice home and farm he purchased here. His death came as a great shock, because deceased only went to the city the previous Thursday, but he rapidly grew worse whilst there and the only hope was an operation and the family had looked for a favorable outcome to the illness. As a teacher he was an efficient one, as a resident he was esteemed, in the family circle he was beloved. He leaves a wife, two sons, Harry at home and William J. (St. John West), to whom our deepest sympathy is extended in their bereavement. The funeral will take place tomorrow from his late residence at 2:30 p.m. Interment will be made at Welsford. Mrs. Kennedy and son of Brookton, Mass., are visiting her mother (Mrs. Petty) and family at South Cloves.

WHAT CAN

HON. J. D. HAZEN, Minister of Marine and Fisheries. The following is the text of a resolution passed by the Fisheries Association, Messrs. M. P. for Digby, Chairman of the Maritime Committee of the House of Commons.

Mr. President and Gentlemen: During the late session I placed on the following resolution with the view of reaching a solution of the problem. "Whereas, fish is a highly nutritious article of food, and abundant supplies are available at low prices at inland waters that are mand for fish might be developed in the interior of the country by having the theron in prime condition moderate prices, the consumer and is assisting the certain conditions, portion of the express providing more adequate facilities; notwithstanding the prices at which fish is raised in such interior is unreasonably high, as compared with the price of those received by the condition is militating against the production and the sale of fish in the interior of the country."

Therefore, be it resolved that the opinion of this House be that an inquiry should be determined if possible, the cause of the great difference between the price of fish raised in the interior of the country and the price of fish raised in the interior of the country, and that the subject be referred to a committee of the House of Commons to consider the matter and make such recommendations as they may see fit. Had the subject been referred to a number of members of the House of Commons, it is the opinion of this House that the discussion subsequent inquiry by the Fisheries Committee, would have been more productive of good results. The press of Canada is interested in the subject, and it is the opinion of this House that the subject should be referred to a committee of the House of Commons to consider the matter and make such recommendations as they may see fit.

Of this about 50 per cent. is sold in the interior of the country, and a half million dollars worth of fish products are represented part, while our fish are valued at $20,000,000. WHAT CAN BE DONE TO MAKE CANADA'S GREAT FISHERIES OF MORE VALUE TO ALL OUR PEOPLE

How can Canadians stimulate the Fishing Industry and at the same time assure to the consumers a steady supply of fresh fish at a fair price—Text of address by Clarence Jameson, M. P., who has made a study of his subject.

CLARENCE JAMESON, M. P.

HON. J. D. HAZEN
Minister of Marine and Fisheries.

The following is the text of an address delivered before the Canadian Fisheries Association by Clarence Jameson, M. P., for Digby, Nova Scotia, Chairman of the Marine and Fisheries Committee of the House of Commons:

In fish houses
Fishermen, Fresh, etc.
Atlantic Division .. 49,769
Inland Division .. 10,691
Pacific Division .. 11,316
Total number of fishermen .. 71,776
Total number in fish-houses .. 26,893
Curing and preparing fish for market .. 38,669

The fish marketed from the Atlantic Division, consist principally of cod, halibut, cusk, pollock, herring, mackerel, sardines, smelts and haddock, from which latter the standard flannel haddies are produced. To this should be added lobsters which are chiefly tinned, or shipped fresh to the American market, where the demand is fairly regular, and to which from certain districts the means of transportation assure quick delivery, which is imperative.

During the late session of parliament I placed on the order paper the following resolution which, owing to the exigencies of the business before the House, was not reached:

"Whereas, fish is a highly nutritious and palatable article of food, of which abundant supplies are continually available at low prices in the sea coast and inland waters of Canada; and whereas, in order that an increased demand for fish might be speedily developed in the interior markets of the country by having the same placed thereon in prime condition and at moderate prices, the government has been and is assisting the industry, under certain conditions, by paying a portion of the express charges, and providing more adequate transportation facilities; notwithstanding which the prices at which fish can be purchased in such interior markets seems unreasonably high, as compared with those received by the producer, which condition is militating against the ends in view."

The fish marketed from the Pacific Division consist chiefly of salmon and halibut, while the inland waters yield whitefish, trout, pickerel, bass and pike.

Food fishes caught by the Canadian fishermen constitute a nutritious and palatable article of food. Authorities on food values have worked out a table showing the relative nutritious properties of various food fish and meats, which is very striking. This information has been included in a booklet recently prepared by the Superintendent of Fisheries, and issued by the Department, entitled "Fish and How to Cook It." The pamphlet which is of great value to housekeepers may be obtained upon application to the Department, Naval Service. My information is that the publication is in much demand, and has already been productive of good results by assisting in popularizing fish as a diet, thus tending to increase the catch therefor.

Generally speaking, fish may be classed as from two per cent. to four per cent. poorer in nutritive nitrogenous ingredients than meat, though in some instances, notably in the case of cod, its nutritive properties run higher.

And it is further resolved, That this resolution be referred to the Committee on Marine and Fisheries with instructions to consider the subject thereof and make such inquiry as may be deemed necessary, and report thereon to the House at the next session of the House.

Had the subject come up for discussion a number of members from different parts of Canada were prepared to participate in the debate, and my opinion is that the discussion and any subsequent inquiry by the Marine and Fisheries Committee, would have been productive of good results.

Not only do food fishes constitute a very nutritious diet, but it has been stated upon the authority of eminent scientists that fish is the brain food "par excellence."

This prompts me to observe that of five Canadian born Prime Ministers of the Dominion, namely, Sir John Abbott, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Sir John Thompson, Sir Charles Tupper and Sir Robert Borden, the three last-named, came from the Province of Nova Scotia where for upwards of a century, the fish diet has held an assured place in the domestic economy of every well regulated household.

For years past the price of meats has been steadily advancing in this country, as well as in the United States. This has been due largely, among other causes, first to the increase in population and second, to the relatively lesser number of food animals raised both in the United States and Canada.

This latter state of affairs, while deeply to be regretted in itself, never theless, has led to the increased use

What Mr. Hazen Has Done.

In this connection the Federal Government is giving the following aid to develop the fish business:

(a) It accepts responsibility for one-third of the express charges on less than carload shipments from all points on the Atlantic Coast to destinations in Quebec and Ontario, and from all points on the Pacific Coast to destinations as far east as the Eastern boundary of Manitoba.

(b) It has arranged for a weekly refrigerator express service from Mulgrave to Montreal, shipments from Halifax being consolidated in the car at Truro one day each week during the summer season. In addition to paying one-third of the transportation charges on shipments in this car, the express and railway companies are guaranteed that the earnings on this car will be at least those on 10,000 pounds.

(c) It has made available to the shippers at Mulgrave and Halifax a cold storage refrigerator car one day each week during the summer season, at least those on two-thirds of a mini-millions from the waters from which it was taken.

As we have seen, there is a startling discrepancy between the price paid to the producer and that paid by the consumer. My hope would be that by effecting a short circuit, so to speak, between producer and consumer, in other words by eliminating unnecessary or excessive transportation charges, and certain middlemen's profits, the price to the consumer would be lowered, while that to the fisherman could at the same time be maintained as at present, or even raised, and a better article given.

One thing is sure; so long as the present system continues, the price paid the fishermen will not be materially increased, nor that paid by the consumer reduced, because of intermediate waste.

How England Does It

My information is that in England the system of the delivery of sea food has been so perfected that a part at least of the trade is almost, if not quite, direct between the buyer at the port of entry and the consumer. This obviates the profits of middlemen and imposes only the minimum cost of transportation. The fish, too, reaches the consumer in prime condition. The household which uses fish regularly, has a standing order for delivery on certain days each week, and the dealer ships it in a hamper, which is returned to him and reused. Of course, in England each night. They carry fish only, and I have been informed, have the right of way over all other classes of express traffic. This seems to illustrate the importance of the business as there conducted.

As a nation we have not yet, perhaps, entirely outgrown the extravagance of the pioneer, in our use of the natural wealth of the country. This, no doubt, in some measure, is the reason why our consumer calls for fish not only of standard variety, but also of standard size; the smaller, which in other countries find a ready market, being in little demand here.

And here I venture to express the opinion that the modern method in towns and cities of purchasing food for the household by telephone, rather than as formerly by a visit to the market or shop, and the delivery by the seller instead of the purchaser, is probably in itself responsible for a substantial increase in the cost of supplying the family table.

In the distribution and sale of food fishes, is there needless expense, which can be eliminated?

Is there undue profit?

Are there excessive transportation or other charges?

These are questions to which it is impossible to give an off-hand answer, yet they are questions which should be answered if possible. They are questions of importance to the consumer, who wants to know he is not paying undue profits; and no less are they of importance to the fisherman, whose future market must depend in a great measure upon the product of his industry, being available to the consumer at fair and reasonable prices.

If an industry of real importance in the economic life of the country is being neglected, or unduly exploited or if a food supply of great dietetic value is being so dealt with as to prevent it from becoming generally available, under the best conditions, for the use and advantage of the people of Canada, it is in the hope that some means may be found to remedy so undesirable a state of affairs, that I have brought the subject forward, and will submit at the next session of the house a parliamentary enquiry will be begun. Meantime, those who are desirous of helping to assist materially by preparing to supply information on the subject, and suggestions which will tend to facilitate and render useful the work of the Fisheries Committee.

Lawn Hose Made for Service

Smooth or Corrugated

LAWNSHOES

Lawn hose service is the best kind of economy. Hose bought on "looks" or "price" alone is a doubtful proposition.

This is why service dealers are offering Goodyear Lawn Hose in two brands—"Nero" and "Reliable."

"Nero" has a corrugated cover that adds to the "grip" as hose is pulled about. The inner tube of each is of highest grade rubber that stands water, sun and rough handling without soiling out.

Ask to see them. "Nero" obtainable in single lengths up to 500 feet.

Buying this way means satisfaction through service.

TO COLLECT DOG LICENSES.

Mayor Frink is determined that delinquent dog owners shall not escape payment of the civic license fee. About 800 license fees have been paid while on the corresponding date last year about 1,300 licenses had been issued.

Wednesday is the last day on which the $1 and $2 rate prevails, and thereafter the prices will be increased to $2 and $4. His Worship said yesterday that vigorous measures would be taken to collect the licenses. It must be definitely understood that there was no intention to make fish of one and flesh of another, and that while many citizens were compelled to pay dog licenses others could escape the fee. If necessary, he stated, a special officer would be employed to round up the unlicensed dogs and a number of dog days held in the police court, so that there would be no escape for anyone.

QUOTATIONS IN THE ST. JOHN MARKETS

But little change has taken place during the week in the wholesale prices of commodities. Cream of tartar is from one to two cents dearer. American clear pork is easier. Flour remains at $7.85 for Manitoba and $8.85 for Ontario. Jobbers report that trade has somewhat improved during the past few days. Wholesale quotations obtained yesterday are as follows:

DEMORALIZED CONDITION OF FOREIGN EXCHANGE KEPT MARKET IN CHECK

Further depreciation in Paris Checks, Reichsmarks and Lires—London Exchange recovered slightly — C.P.R. recorded over night loss of 4 3-8 points.

New York, June 29.—Recurrent demoralization in foreign exchange was the salient feature of today's financial developments, and more than anything else served to hold the stock market in check. Further depreciation occurred in remittances to three of Europe's leading capitals, Paris checks were quoted at 5.65, Reichsmarks at 81.18 and liras at 6.16.

These quotations were not only the lowest reported since the outbreak of the war, but established records for many years previous. London exchange made slight recovery, with demand sterling at 476.316. No more gold was received from Canada, despite yesterday's hopeful intimations from London. There were rumors of another inflow of gold from France, but these were not borne out by events across the water.

With few exceptions, securities were heavy or irregular throughout the weakness in C. P. R. United States Rubber and several other active issues, conducting to that end, Canadian Pacific sold as low as 141 1/4, an overnight loss of 4-3/8 points, and its lowest quotation in seven years. Rubber repeated yesterday's low price of $2.145.00.

CLOSING LETTER OF N.Y. MARKET BY E. & C. RANDOLPH

(McDougall & Cowans.)

New York, June 29.—The bids submitted for the New York City bonds reflected the financial communities' interpretation of the effect upon the prices of all investment securities of the offering of a British government loan bearing 4 1/2 per cent. at a net price of 98 3/4. While the bids have not been tabulated, it is evident that the average price which the city will receive will be considerably lower than what was expected when the offering was announced. There was a considerable amount of foreign liquidation in stocks in the course of the day, and London selling will probably continue on a fairly good scale for some time to come. That would be the best way of arranging payment for the supplies being brought here, but as long as the liquidation continues, the market in general cannot advance much. Perhaps the problem of making payment for purchases in this country will be rendered easier by changes in trade tendencies, for there is evidence of a decrease in the excess of exports over imports for some weeks past.

For the week ending June 26th, the exports exceeded the imports by only a little over $9,000,000, that being the lowest excess for any week since the beginning of 1915. By comparison with the previous low week, it shows a decrease of about $5,000,000. It is possible that Europe is now meeting the exchange difficulty by confining its purchases as nearly as possible to war munitions and other absolutely necessary things and endeavoring to pay for these by increasing its exports to the United States. Under normal circumstances an unfavorable trade balance would correct itself in that way, and to some extent the same influence is applicable even in normal times.

Total sales 320,000. Bonds $2,181,000.

Police Court.
Two sailors, John Birch and James Duffey, were brought into the Police Court yesterday from the jail, where they were serving a term for drunkenness and were allowed to go when they signed articles as seamen on board of Norwegian barks. Shipping Master Purdy with the captains of the vessels were in court, the sailors signed on and left the court to go on board the vessels.

Rosa Maglio, charged with night walking, was adjudged guilty and was remanded to jail until such time that the police can make arrangements with the immigration authorities to have the woman deported to the United States from whence she came. Rosa was in court a couple of weeks ago as the complainant against Mrs. St. Patrick, whom she charged with stealing $148 from her. Mrs. St. Patrick was acquitted yesterday.
