Among the fifty seats contested is that vin, just as Anglin is jealous of Palmer. In answer to a question regarding the intention of the Government to grant toba and Ontario, the Premier said a measure in reference to New Brunswick would be submitted during the session, and "it would be found that in it the interests of Ontario would not be neglected." The Finance Minister exploded a great Toronto Globe bubble, repeated by its St. John echo, by announcing that the Great Western Railway had not infringed the revenue in any manner. The Premier announced, in response to enquiries, that the question of the admission of Prince Edward Island into the Union would not be submitted to Parliament unless the people of that colony vote to accept the terms offered them. Then Parliament may or may not ratify the terms, and not before. Mr. Mills argued that constitutional law required that The schooner A. C.
