TOWN COUNCIL.

First Meeting of New Board. Appointing Committees

WATERWORKS REPORT.

Town Officers Appointed. School Matters Discussed.

The first meeting of the Aldermanic board for the ensuing year was held in the Council chamber on Wednesday night last. There were present: Mayor Morrison and Alds. Hickson, Hennessy, Williston, Stables, Phinney, Pedolin and Fish.

Clerk Aitken read his report of the Annual Session which announced the present board duly elected for the present year. The board then took their seats.

Mayor Morrison said it was customary at the first meeting to have speeches by the members of the board, but as they were a little late in meeting and had considerable business to transact he would dispense with the custom on this occasion, but at some future time would like to hear the views of all the members. He said that their being again elected by acclamation was proof that they had the confidence of the people and he hoped they would be able to successfully complete the work they had undertaken and endeavor to keep the expenses down as low as possible.

Ald. Phinney reported from the Committee to nominate standing Committees as follows:

The committee met again on Saturday, the 10th of April last, when the Mayor read a communication from Mr. John F. Connolly stating that he had made an error in his calculations and could not allow the reduction of $300 in written tender.

ST. PIERRE

Reduced to Ashes by Volcanic Eruption.

TERRIBLE LOSS OF LIFE.

Most Appalling Volcanic Catastrophe Since Destruction of Pompeii.

LONDON, May 10.—The destruction of St. Pierre is regarded as the most appalling volcanic catastrophe that the world has seen since the blotting out of Herculaneum and Pompeii. The complete annihilation of the town seems certain. From 20,000 to 40,000 persons have evidently lost their lives, and some eighteen vessels have been destroyed.

DEVOTION TO THEIR HOME.

New York, May 10.—A despatch from Kingston, Jamaica, says: Although the Mount Pelée volcano had been emitting ashes and smoke at intervals for several days, the residents of St. Pierre did not apprehend any great eruption. When the volcano became active, after a silence of half a century the inhabitants were startled and became panic stricken, but their fears began to subside after a few days. Then came the destruction of the Gauria factory, near Martinique, and the loss of about a hundred and fifty lives. The panic in the town was renewed, but the population began to recover just as the final catastrophe took place. The inhabitants of St. Pierre have perished through their bravery and devotion to their town and homes.

PARIS, May 10.—The Minister of Marine has received the following updated despatches from Pointe à Pitre, Island of Guadeloupe, from the commander of the French cruiser Suchet:

"I have obtained the following confirmation of the events of yesterday: About eight o'clock the volcano threw a considerable mass of smoke and ash, which fell in the form of rain. The wind of fire immediately followed. Instantly, the whole town of St. Pierre was in flames, and the ships in the harbour were damaged and burned. The shower of rocks lasted a quarter of an hour. I arrived at St. Pierre at two o'clock in the afternoon, having a few persons from the ships. I saw no living creature in St. Pierre, to which it was impossible to penetrate. There were numerous corpses near the quay."

LONDON, May 10.—All the newspapers have expressed the greatest horror of the catastrophe, which, they say, for its suddenness and magnitude is only comparable with that of Pompeii, and they extend deep sympathy to the French nation. (Being to the cable breakdown in the West Indies, no details of the disaster at Martinique have yet been received here. The available despatches from the West Indies represent the inhabitants of the other islands as being in deadly

New York, May 10.—The Quebec Steamship Company has received a telegram from the company's agent at Dominica, saying that the survivors of the steamship Koronia, which was destroyed in the Martinique disaster, are on board the steamship Koronia. The following are reported as saved:

The quartermaster, the stewards and seamen Morley, Thompson, Moore and Evans, Benson, Mayer, Leady and three others, names unknown. The first officer and assistant of the steamer are in the hospital at Port de France.

BELECH FORTH ASHES.

LONDON, May 10.—A despatch to the Daily Mail from Kingston, Jamaica, states that after a short period of activity, which gave no special ground for suspicion of a disaster, Mount Pelée, the volcano in Martinique, suddenly belched forth burning lava and ashes on the morning of May 8. The steamer Rodan was the sole vessel in the harbour of St. Pierre that escaped, the steaming out at full speed, and running the gauntlet of a shower of lava, which killed seventeen of her crew. It is stated that St. Pierre is almost Pompeii, being covered with ashes and dust.

A despatch from Pointe à Pitre says that the most violent eruption of Mount Pelée lasted three minutes, completely destroying St. Pierre and the districts within a four mile radius. The cruiser Suchet saved eight of the Rodan's crew.

1600 WHITES AFST PIERRE.

It is learned that there are probably about a thousand whites in St. Pierre, including half a dozen Englishmen. It is also learned that the steamer Rodan arrived at Louis with her anchorage gone, she having only escaped by cutting her cables and steaming away from St. Pierre at full speed. So narrow was her escape that her tarpaulins and running gear were burned. Her captain was severely burned. Her chief engineer is dead. It is stated that the Quebec Steamship Company's steamer Koronia was not lost, though her entire crew are reported to have been lost.

LONDON, May 10.—Professor John Milne, the eminent seismologist, says he is positive that no earthquake had occurred in Martinique. The destruction was due entirely to a volcanic eruption. He adds: "My seismic observations have shown no signs of an earthquake within a week. No seismic disturbances from the West Indies have been noted since April 15, when there was a marked record from Guatemala. What has probably happened is that Mount Pelée has blown its last off, as the head of a cylinder blows out when the steam pressure is too great."

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 10.—The following codogram has been received at the State Department:

Pointe à Pitre, May 9, 1902.
 Secretary of State, Washington, D. C.
 "At 7 o'clock a. m. on the 8th instant, a storm of steam, mud and fire enveloped the city and community. Not more than 20 persons escaped with their lives. Eighteen vessels were burned and sunk with all on board, including four American vessels and a steamer from Quebec, named Koronia. The United States Consul and family are reported among the victims. A war vessel has come to Enchilupe for provisions and will leave at 6 o'clock tomorrow."

ORCHARD CULTIVATION.

It has been only within the last ten years or so that spraying has been regarded as an important part of successful fruit culture. Recognizing the value of anything that would prevent injury to trees and fruit, spraying has received considerable attention at the Central Experimental Farm, and many fungicides and insecticide have been tested to prove their relative merit. While experimenting with a lime mixture sprayed on fruit trees to prevent the swelling of the buds in early spring, Mr. W. T. Macoun discovered that the trees thus treated were practically rid of the oyster shell bark louse, an insect which does a great deal of injury to apple trees in the colder parts of Ontario and the Province of Quebec. The lime destroys the gelatinous matter which binds the scales to the tree, and the scales are then removed by the action of rain, frost or wind.

In order to be most effective the spraying should be done in the autumn, and there should be two applications so that all the scales may be covered. Lime used in the proportion of two pounds to one gallon of water has been found to be the best formula so far, but it is possible that one pound of lime to a gallon of water will be sufficient if the lime be good. The new remedy for the oyster shell bark louse is simple, cheap, and very effective, and should prove a popular one. There is, in fact, no known remedy so good, economical and unailing for the oyster shell bark louse.

Kerosene emulsion has been usually used for this purpose, and while good success when the insects are moving, for as they only run for a few days in the fall, as yet in June it is difficult to kill them all off in this way. By covering the trees with lime you are able to get at the scale, and the lime makes the trees white, so that you can see whether all the scales have been covered or not.

The advantage of clover growing in an orchard in the fall is that much of the plant food in the soil, which has been liberated and made more available by the constant cultivation during the early part of the summer is prevented from leaching by being used by the growing plants, the clover thus becoming a catch crop as well as a cover crop. Where soils suffer from lack of moisture in a dry time, the clover should be ploughed under as early in the spring as the land can be worked, and cultivation should be begun at once. This will conserve much of the moisture which would otherwise be transpired through the leaves of the growing plants until they are ploughed under towards the end of May, which is the usual time.

If the soil, however, always contains plenty of moisture, it would be better to let the clover grow until about the third week in May, as there would be additional humus and nitrogen obtained by this method.

Many orchards have been neglected so long and have reached such an age that it would not be profitable to attempt to renovate them. The best plan in such cases is to plant young trees. On the other hand, there are many orchards where the trees if cared for would be in the prime of life, and neglect is the only cause which prevents profitable crops from being grown. It is of orchards such as these that a few of these suggestions are here offered as to how to bring them back into good condition. But the results desired cannot be got in one year.

The trees, to begin with, should be pruned, not too heavily at first, but enough limbs should be taken out to open up the top and permit a free circulation of air and the admission of sunlight to it. The trees will, probably, be much moss grown and both they and the fruit may be affected with various diseases. Injurious insects, too, are almost certain to abound.

Spraying should be begun early in the season, and the trees should be kept covered from top to bottom with Bordeaux mixture and Paris green until the fruit is almost fully grown. Scrapping the trunks and large branches of the trees may be done if there is much moss, but as soon as the tree becomes more vigorous, and air and sunlight are admitted, much of the moss will disappear. If the oyster shell bark louse, or other scale insects infest the trees, they should be sprayed with the lime mixture, or other materials already mentioned.

As the orchard, if neglected, is almost certain to be in soil, the soil should be ploughed shallow in the spring, turning under a good dressing of manure if it can be procured. If the soil is not too thick it might be worked up with a dish or spade harrow. The ground should then be kept thoroughly harrowed until July, working in other fertilizers if the land be poor, and manure is not to be had; and then red clover seed sown at the rate of twelve pounds per acre, and the ground rolled. A good cover crop should then be formed by autumn. This would conclude the first season's work. The results would probably be a greatly increased vigor in the trees, and the fruit, though perhaps not plentiful, would be cleaner.

The second season additional, but less pruning should be done, the trees kept thoroughly sprayed as before, the clover ploughed under in the spring, and the land kept harrowed or cultivated until July and then seeded down to clover. The fruit should be better than the year before, but not until the third year should the trees be expected to bear heavily and the orchard be in good condition.

SUPPLY DEPOT OF THE WORLD.

Canada Destined to Supply the United States and Europe With Paper.

The Shareholder, a leading financial paper in Montreal, has a strong article on the pulp and paper industry in Canada, and says:

The exceptional advantages which Canada enjoys in relation to pulp material for the manufacture of paper, the inexhaustible supply of raw material, the excellence and availability of her water supply, and its ready applicability for use of a motive power, offer strong inducements to capitalists desirous of seeking investment in profitable undertakings. That Canada can supply all the conditions of the globe with paper on conditions in no way inferior, but in many superior to competing countries, is a well-established fact, and justifies the expectation that this industry, which is already in a thriving condition, will yet become, and that at no distant day one of the leading and most profitable industries of the country. As demands regulate supply, and as the demand for the product of pulpwood has virtually no limit, the future is increasingly promising for this industry. It is highly desirable that the material should be manufactured in this country, and then only exported in the finished state. If other countries can manufacture our raw material to advantage that is all the more reason why we should see to it that the benefit they derive should be kept here. We are gratified, therefore, to know that efforts are being put forth to accomplish this desirable result, and we believe that these efforts will meet with that success which they deserve. Among the most recent enterprises in this direction is the Atlantic Pulp and Paper Company (limited), which has been organized to take advantage of the unparalleled facilities for the manufacture of pulp and paper at New Richmond, on the Baie des Chaleurs, where it is confidently believed that these products can be manufactured equally economically, if not more so, than in any other place in America. The company proposes to manufacture for export trade, and the position of its works on the Atlantic seaboard makes it possible to ship to all foreign ports by water without transshipment, an advantage the value of which cannot be too highly estimated. In order to enable the company to complete the additional necessary works and secure sufficient capital it now offers for sale $850,000 of 7 per cent. cumulative preference stock at par, payable 10 per cent. on application, 20 per cent. on allotment, 20 per cent. two months, 25 per cent. four months, and a like sum six months after allotment. The prospectus fully sets out the objects contemplated, while the composition of the Board of Directors is a strong guarantee of the faith that experienced, practical business men have in the success of the undertaking. The investor seeking remunerative employment for his idle capital will find rich food for reflection in the statements contained in the prospectus issued by the company.

CHRONIC BILIOUSNESS

In Its Trial Follow Horrible Dreams, Despondency, Melancholia and General Weakness.

The proper elements needed to promote good digestion, regularity of the bowels, correct action of the kidneys and liver, must be supplied when a bilious condition of the system is once established.

Ferrozine can't help but do this. It gives the stomach's perfect rest, and allows you to partake of and enjoy the variety of food that is necessary for maintaining health. Our Ferrozine tablets taken after each meal will separate the nutritious portions of the food from the waste, which is carried off, thus preventing and curing constipation and its attendant evils.

Being a potent blood purifier, Ferrozine cleanses the crimson flood of all bile and impurities, and as a result the complexion is restored to a rosy, healthy hue, and the dark circles under the eyes and the deadly pallor of the cheeks go away never to return.

Taken for disorders of the stomach, commencing with biliousness, and ending with derangements of the liver and kidneys, Ferrozine achieves marvellous results. It is at the same time a tonic and stimulant, and a regulator of all bodily functions, and chronic sufferers should not fail to give it a fair trial. It will do them good without doubt, and if the malady is curable it will yield to Ferrozine.

With the use of Ferrozine appetite will be better, the blood made rich and pure, sleep will be dreamless and sound. Your muddled complexion will be cleared and beautified, your eyes will acquire a new brightness, and as your spirits rise and good health returns, you will bless the day you learned the secret of Ferrozine's power.

If you think you need Ferrozine go to the nearest drug store and procure a supply. Release a substitute and insist on having the genuine Ferrozine, which costs 50 cts. per box, or 3 boxes for $1.25. By mail from N. C. Pils & Co., Kingston, Ont. or at A. E. Shaw's Newcast.

The colors produced by the Diamond Dyes on all wool, mixed goods and all cotton goods are admired by all ladies who have a taste for color beauty. There is a depth, richness and richness in Diamond Dyes colors that manufacturers of other dyes have been unable to produce. Garments and materials dyed with the Diamond Dyes show clear and perfect colors that will last as long as the goods hold together. Colors produced by the common package dyes are dull, murky and streaked, giving full proof of adulteration and worthless coloring ingredients. When it is generally understood that Diamond Dyes with all their superior qualities and a guarantee of perfect work are sold at such prices as the poorly prepared dyes, it will be a difficulty undertaking to find a woman who will risk her goods with the dangerous adulterations put up in imitation of the Diamond Dyes.

Suppose I give you your supper, said the tired looking woman. What will you do to eat it?
Madam, said Meandering Mike, I'll give you the opportunity of seeing a man go t'roo a whole meal without finding fault with a single thing.

The woman thought a minute and then told him to come in and she'd set the table.

Inherited wealth, exclaimed the blase young man, with a dreary yawn, is a curse!

Then why don't you try to get rid of it asked the youth who hadn't inherited any wealth.

I am doing the best I can, rejoined the other. I keep a yacht, run an automobile, belong to a swell golf club and lend you money.

AN APPEAL.

At the meeting in the public hall on May 6th, we could not but feel disappointed that more of the men of the town did not appear and show their interest in the work of this organization. At the same time such an absence is not taken as an indication of an absence of interest by the leading men of the town.

If you, Mr. Editor, will allow me, I would like to reach the public through your columns with a short statement of the claims of this organization upon them. At the outset, the society has been fortunate in two things. First, in the men that have put their efforts into the work; second, in the rooms that they have secured. These things cannot fail to weigh with the public. Further than this, one thing in particular remains to make the work a success and that is the unflinching interest of the moral men of the town. Enough is known of the work, and enough has been done already to show us that such a work must have an untiring patience and financial support behind it. In a town the size of Newcastle, one can readily see that such a duty must devolve on a comparatively small number. At present one can scarcely see the need of an appeal to such persons. A considerable enthusiasm has already been shown. This is only what one would expect of good men. But the time will come when these once good men will begin to question the value of this work. Interest in it will die down. Indifference will lay a claiming hand on it and it will seek an early grave. I saw this because even in places with a larger population than Newcastle it has happened. The argument is not that it must happen here or that it will necessarily happen here. But if it will not, it is but due to the fact that the men of the town continue to support moral and financial of the men of Newcastle.

The work of this society is not a triumphantly through the Red Sea. The waters have gone back for it. But there is a long, lone desert to go through and here the faith and patience of men will be tried. Here the value of a definite and well defined purpose is seen. That purpose was outlined at the above meeting and by getting it not it will be the pillar to guide us through the troublesome days of the future. Men will grow careless because so few patronize the rooms, because evil will not grow less fragrant, because young men do not seem to realize the benefit of the work. Here is the desert where courage needs its stimulant at such times boom your society. "Plan your work your plan." Let people know you exist. Let your existence be felt. Never from tomorrow to which is good. Start by the good and the end. Y. M. C. A. has a work to do. Believe that and living what you believe. You will continue to mark the words—and be a success, a success not so counted perhaps, in the members of this day, but as reckoned by Him who is the Master.

ST. PIERRE DISASTER.

The State Department has been receiving despatches from Commercial houses in New York, asking that a warship be sent at once to Martinique to afford relief. The matter is under consideration.

SAN JUAN DE PORTO RICO, May 10.—The cable officials here have received advices from San Domingo that the schooner which has arrived there from the island of Martinique, reports that over 40,000 people are supposed to have perished during the volcanic disturbance in Martinique. The cable repair steamer Grappler (belonging to the West India and Panama Telegraph Company, of London) was lost with all hands, during the eruption of Mont Pelée. The Grappler was one of the first ships to disappear.

A despatch to the Daily Mail from Jamaica says: "The first intimation of a disaster at Martinique was the breaking of the cable on Tuesday. The French cable to Martinique from Puerto Plata was broken Wednesday. Cable communication with all the northern islands is stopped."

"The survivors of the British steamship Roddam describe the scene at St. Pierre as being 'glimpses of hell.' The Roddam's men were killed chiefly by molten lava."

"The Roddams were wrecked in a terrible upheaval of land and sea. The whole crew perished."

"Two ships were lost with all on board," in an attempt to approach Martinique."

HALIFAX, N. S., May 11.—The French cruiser d'Estrees is at Sydney, C. B. Her medical officer is Dr. Albert Citi, whose family live in Martinique. He thinks that with the exception of one child, who may have been at St. Pierre, the family are at Fort de France. Dr. Citi speaks of the rapidity with which lava from the crater could overwhelm St. Pierre, and says that the harbor being deep to the shore, the shipping would be very near the land and consequently the more easily and quickly destroyed.

IN THE TWINKLING OF AN EYE.

LONDON, May 12.—A despatch to the Times from St. Thomas, D. W. I., says that St. Pierre was destroyed in the twinkling of an eye, and that not forty of the inhabitants of the city escaped. Some of the outlying parishes of the island of Martinique have been inundated. The whole northern portion of the island is burning; it has been denuded of vegetation and is a rocky wilderness.

The latest news received here from St. Vincent, continues the correspondent, says the number of dead there is supposed to reach 500, the majority of whom have not yet been buried.

It is reported that Fort de France, 13 miles of Martinique, is threatened, so that the correspondent, and there is fearful terrors everywhere.

P. M., May 11.—President Lobbet has contributed $1,000, and the cabinet has donated $1,100 to the fund being raised here for the sufferers by the St. Pierre disaster.

Y. M. C. A.

The Y. M. C. A. public meeting in the Town Hall on Tuesday night May 6th was largely attended. The ladies showed by presence their interest in the association. Copeland's orchestra played a number of selections before the meeting. Rev. Mr. Aitken opened with prayer. Mr. McNaughton, president, occupied the chair and in a few introducing remarks stated the object of the meeting and aim of the association. Rev. W. C. Matthews of Chatham, was expected to address the meeting but owing to ill health was not able to be present. His place was ably taken however by Rev. Mr. Pinkerton who almost at the last moment consented to step into the gap. His address on the "Ideal Man" was listened to with close attention.

Miss Mary Russell then favored the meeting with a song entitled "I am Queen of May" which was warmly applauded by the enthusiastic audience and in response sang "Don't cry little girl, don't cry." Mr. Thompson, Assistant General Secretary for the Maritime Provinces was then introduced and spoke on the general work of the Y. M. C. A. showing in a very clear and lucid manner how this association through its different departments had been doing a great work, how this work was long witnessed and extended and the great need there was for such an association in every town.

The orchestra again played a selection during which a collection to meet expenses was taken up.

Rev. Messrs. Aitken, Cathbert and McNaughton were called upon to speak briefly of the pleasure they felt in listening to the speakers of the evening and their interest in Association work. Mayor Morrison also spoke along the same line. L. B. McMurdo favored the audience with a bass solo, "The Mighty Deep" which was heartily applauded. Votes of thanks were passed and tendered to the speakers of the evening and to those who had by their musical abilities helped to make the evening pleasant.

On Wednesday evening the rooms were opened and quite a few young men availed themselves of the opportunity to spend a pleasant hour. Plans are being made by the executive to make their rooms both pleasant and attractive.

RURAL DEANERY MEETING AT CHATHAM.

A meeting of the clergy of the Rural Deanery of Chatham was held at the rectory, Chatham, on Monday afternoon, April 14th. The Rev. Canon Forsythe presided. Revs. Canon Forsythe, R. D. W. J. Wilkinson, C. F. Del. Bayles, Geo. L. Freeborn and others were present.

Freeborn, and an appropriate and helpful sermon, which was well delivered, was preached by Rev. T. H. Cathbert, rector of St. Andrew's, Newcastle. The singing by the choir and congregation was good and the service was much enjoyed by all.

On Thursday, St. Philip and St. James' day, the holy communion was celebrated by Rev. W. J. Wilkinson, assisted by Rev. Geo. L. Freeborn.

Blood.

We live by our blood, and on it. We thrive or starve, as our blood is rich or poor. There is nothing else to live on or by.

When strength is full and spirits high, we are being refreshed, bone muscle and brain, in body and mind, with continual flow of rich blood. This is health.

When weak, in low spirits, no cheer, no spring, when rest is not rest and sleep is not sleep, we are starved; our blood is poor; there is little nutriment in it.

Back of the blood, is food, to keep the blood rich. When it fails, take Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil. It sets the whole body going again—man woman and child.

If you have not tried it, send for free sample, its agreeable taste will surprise you.

A message of their father's critical condition reached them just in time to catch the special English mail train for St. John. At the latter place a special train was in waiting and they arrived home at six o'clock.

This is the verdict of the million leaders who have used the Canton "one match" lamp since its famous generator was patented May 1900.

Absolutely no smoke, cleaning, flame color or pipes. One qt. of 74° Gasoline (5 cents) will give you ten times the light of the best Electric Lamp for 20 hours. A 10-year-old child with ordinary intelligence and a common wax taper can light Canton in less than 10 seconds. L. S. WEST.

The local lumber operators of the Little South West have for the last three weeks been busily engaged rafting river logs, and are nearly done. Many of them have run their rafts down to Redbank where they lie safely moored either at White's Cove or at Gillis' shore. Wilbur Somers has finished running his rafts. The drives are coming along slowly for the last few days on account of the cool days and nights. In the afternoon when the "plash" is on, the driving is fair, but when it ceases the progress is very slow. Brophy's and Kehoe's drive is the only one that has come into the boom so far.

Farming on the L. S. West is progressing slowly. No grain of any kind has been committed to the soil so far. The grass is far in advance of ordinary seasons and if there are reasonable rains there will be a good and early crop of hay. Some are busy in their gardens arranging and fitting up their beds sowing their seeds.

Mrs. David Mutch has been dangerously ill for a few weeks, but is very much better and thought to be out of danger.

Aleck Hare has been using his brush for some time in improving the appearance of some of the houses in L. S. West. William Johnson's new house in particular has come under the ornamental touches of the man Aleck who knows how to use his brush to good effect. Mr. Johnson's house has been painted a pure white on the outside with trimmings to suit, and the roof is jet black, which takes the eye the moment it comes to view. Within, the kitchen is painted plainly, the wainscoting a brown color, with grained doors. The dining room is grained and varnished and walls and ceiling in light shades with border and a centre piece over head. The hall and parlor which can be made to form one large room by a large arch between with hanging curtains are painted and the decorated in the same style, but the walls of the room are tinted with pink, while that of the hall with light buff. The ceiling thereof is finished in panel work with light shades of blue and deep bordering in sage green used to match. The staircase is painted in light oak, more natural if possible than the natural oak. The upstairs hall is finished in the same style as that below with a different shade of bordering, and the ceiling white with an ornamental centre-piece, the work of the brush. There are three bedrooms upstairs in the main house all of which have come under the touch of the painter's brush. Number one, the walls of which are painted with a light shade of green with light blue ceiling and decorations. Number two is painted a light canary color with bordering to suit and the ceiling white. The third room, the spare room, is painted in pure white with a light blue border and ceiling of fresco work. A room which for finish and softness to the eye is pronounced by all who have seen it to be as near perfection as it is possible for human hand to make it, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Hare and places him in the first rank among artists. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson are justly proud of their new home finished completely from cellar to garret. The cellar is frost proof.

Mr. Hare has also painted the parlor of Mr. Wallace Johnson's new house, the walls of which are finished in canary with border to match and frescoed ceiling. The wood work grained and varnished in light oak.

Aleck is to complete the painting of the building in the near future and having so much work on hand could not do it at present.

SALMON BEACH.

Salmon Beach, May 7.—The weather during the week has been very fine. Most of the fishermen are engaged in getting their salmon nets ready for the water.

Sickness is quite prevalent here. Dr. Duncan is in attendance and has a large number of patients.

Our popular teacher Miss Maggie Lorne spent a few days in Bathurst last week.

Mr. T. J. Smith has gone, to Stonehaven where he has accepted a very lucrative position in the employ of F. J. Conner & Co.

Miss Taylor of Newcastle is here visiting her aunt, Mrs. A. McCarthy.

Mr. Edmund J. Ellis's horse was beaten in the local horse race, in coming from Grand Anse last week.

Mrs. Henry Barry has returned home from an extended trip to Niagara.

GRAND ANSE.

The fine weather gives both farmers and fishermen a chance to shove their work along as the ground is dry. Planting and sowing has already commenced. The fishermen too are doing well. Herring, cod and lobsters are very plentiful. Salmon have also been taken in fair catches along the coast.

Joseph Sullivan has invested in a new wheel.

Coun. Comeau accompanied by A. Hortenot and H. Daley visited Mr. Comeau's branch house at Blue Cove on Tuesday night of last week, returning back through Waterloo. The night been very dark and the road very narrow they experienced considerable trouble in finding their way home.

The WHIRL of the TOWN

Don't forget to make a date for "Side Tracked" in the Temperance Hall May 17th.

A large number of river drivers were paid off here on Monday.

The Newcastle boys of the fourth contingent, will sail on Saturday at 2 o'clock.

Alex. Johnson trapped a very large bear, on the night of May 9th near the Devil's Brook.

The S. S. Pydna, Capt. Crossley is loading deals at E. Hutchison's wharf Douglas-town.

The semi-annual session of the Grand Division S. of T. is in session at Moncton to-day.

The deliciously droll comedy drama, "Side, Tracked" will be played in the Temperance Hall Saturday night. Don't miss it.

A number of Italians have arrived in town to work on the installation of water works. The work will commence Thursday.

The highest tide for months was last Saturday morning and the lowest for a long time Saturday evening. Numerous river steamers were aground and had to await the rise of the tide.

The thermometer registered eleven degrees below freezing Sunday night. As vegetation was not sufficiently advanced no damage was done.

Capt. Cotter and Chief Engineer Wheatley of the S. S. Teelin Head, spent a very busy day at the Orkney, Monday. They succeeded in catching any trout as the river was generally full of smelts.

Goldsmith of Bathurst delivered an interesting lecture in the Methodist hall Friday evening on "Chinese Immigration." The lecture was illustrated by slides and was much appreciated by a goodly number who were present.

The trustees and congregation of St. John's Presbyterian church, Douglas-town, have voted to acknowledge the receipt of a donation of five dollars to the improvement of the church, from Miss Mary H. Hennes, Stockbridge, Mass., U. S. A. formerly of Douglas-town.

Mme. Yulisse (Mrs. Marie Harrison) the young Canadian prima donna, a pupil of the late Marchesi, has recently returned from a three months' visit to Canada and the United States. The sixteenth annual meeting of the Miramichi Yacht Club will be held next Thursday afternoon in Newcastle. The members should make a point of attending, and trying to put new life into the organization. With a good river like the Miramichi, and such splendid yachting waters as the inner and outer bays, there ought to be more interest taken in yachting, sailing and rowing. The club has only five sailing craft and three or four power boats on its register, and all but a few of its members have ceased to pay their annual dues. The few active members ought to get some new ones, between this and Thursday, and put new life in the club. It costs only $3 to join, and the dues are only $1 a year. There are two silver cups and a flag to be raced for. The club boats are all of nearly the same size, and all well matched, so well matched that the champion of a three years' series, Maudie, was only two races ahead of the second boat, and the races have the interest that attaches to uncertainty in regard to the finish. Maud, Oriana and Thetis are in the water, and Mr. C. B. Wyse is improving Avis and getting her ready. A class of small boats, say of 15 ft. or less water line, would make interesting racing, and be a welcome addition to the club. It is strange that our young men have so little appreciation of the unsurpassed privileges they have for this sport. If whiskey instead of water formed the Miramichi, a large percentage of the male population would be about all the time.—World.

"Side Tracked" in the Temperance Hall Saturday night.

The S. S. Bangor which is loading at Messrs Burhill & Sons' wharf will be finished to-day.

The S. S. Teelin Head, Capt. Cotter arrived last week and will complete loading Thursday at Messrs. D. & J. Ritchie's wharf.

Don't forget the entertainment in the Methodist church this, (Wednesday) evening by Miss M. Florence Rogers, assisted by the choir. Admission 25c.

Twelve of Newcastle's popular young men will give an "At Home" in the Town Hall here Friday evening, May 23rd. A large number of invitations are being issued to both ladies and gentlemen.
