MAIL ORDERS

We solicit out-of-town orders which receive our personal attention. The length of time taken to fill orders is governed very largely by how busy we are in the department of our factory in which the particular goods are made. While we have exceptional facilities for promptly turning out goods, it is important to place orders as far ahead as possible. Orders are filled by us in the rotation in which they are received, and customers can always depend on our doing everything in reason to give prompt despatch.

Collectors in Town Meet With Good Response From Many of Citizens

Last Monday evening a meeting of the Women's Institute was held at the home of the president, Mrs. A. A. Andrew, and arrangements concluded for the taking up of subscriptions. The town was divided up into districts and the following collectors were appointed to solicit funds for the Canadian Hospital Ship.
Mrs. M. P. Moores,
Mrs. E. A. Legault,
Mrs. Jasper Davidson,
Mrs. Albert A. Andrew,
Miss Ida Cameron,
Miss Margaret Gallagher,
Miss Joudry,
Miss Lydia Duncan,
Miss Mary E. Graham,
Miss Muriel Hennessy.
The collectors report that a hearty response has been made to their appeals, although the final amount will not be known until Friday evening or Saturday. A full list of the contributors will be published later. Many of our towns people wondered why the collection had not been taken up before, one lady calling at the home of the president of the Women's Society and expressing her appreciation of the object, said she would send her subscription, which came later and amounted to $5.00.
For out of town contributors the Graphic will receive subscriptions and acknowledge amounts to the Ladies acknowledge them in our columns forwarding the amounts to the institute.
These amounts must be in not later than Saturday morning.
The manager of the Bank of Commerce has offered to transmit the amount of the fund free to Toronto, and this as well as other matters will be taken up by the Institute at its next meeting.

SERIOUS FIRE AT RICHARDS MILL

On Tuesday afternoon an alarm was given in town for a fire at Richards Mill, and a detachment of firemen with the engine responded. On arriving at the scene it was found that a large deal pile was on fire, which it is presumed was ignited by a spark from the burner. A strong Northwest wind was blowing and the brigade assisted by the men from the mill, rendered yeoman service in saving the mill buildings and the other piles of lumber. This was about all that could be done by the firemen, as the heat from the burning pile was intense, and the fire had a strong grip on the pile of sawn lumber.
The loss can as yet be only estimated, but it is thought that over 1,000, 000 feet of lumber was destroyed, representing a value of about $30,000.
The loss is understood to be covered by insurance.

WONDERFUL HAIR

Clean and free from dandruff and possessing all the radiance of perfect hair. This is just what Saginee means to those who suffer with itchy scalp, dandruff, coarse, dry or common looking hair. Saginee is new life to faded unattractive hair. Sage-ine feeds the hair root with the necessary food for promoting a healthy growth. Saginee is the daintiest tonic you could wish for. It is not a dye and is not sticky or greasy. A large shaker-top bottle costs only 50c, and Mr. Thos. Wran gives his personal guarantee to refund the money if you are not entirely satisfied. Be sure to go to Thos. Wran's drug store as other stores cannot supply you.

MISSIONARY WORK
Tomorrow, (Friday) afternoon, a special meeting of the Baptist Women's Missionary Aid Society will be held at Mrs. Jas. Morton's. At 1:30 p. m. a public meeting will be held in the church. The meeting will be addressed by Miss Slip of St. John.

GERMANS CLAIM NAMUR FORTS HAVE FALLEN

Despatches From Belgium Deny This and State Forts
Are Still Holding Out and That Allies Have Repulsed the Enemy.

RUSSIA FOR BERLIN IN THREE WEEKS

(Special to the Graphic)

Paris, Aug. 27th.—An official statement has been issued by the war office here which says:—
In the engagements with the enemy in the north the Franco-British lines have been moved back a short distance, and in a general way our offensive movement against the German army between Nancy and the Vosges Mountains is making good headway.
The right wing of the allied army has been obliged to fall back slightly in the region of St.
Die.
The allies in their present strongly entrenched position will act as an anvil to the Muscovite hammer. This means that the position held by the French and British will aid considerably the attack by the massive columns of the Russian army which is swiftly moving across Germany from the East.

Tokio, Aug. 24.—Japan is directing three squadrons against the German province of Kiau-Chau and the German warships in Eastern waters.
Vice-Admiral Tomassuburo Kato, was today, appointed commander-in-chief of the first squadron, which will carry out the main offensive movement against Germany. Vice-Admiral Sada-kichi Kato will command the second squadron and Rear Admiral Tsuchiya, the third.

Tokio, Aug. 24.—The Yarmato in extra edition to-day, says that the bombardment of Tsing Tau by the Japanese fleet has commenced. This message was passed by the censor of the navy department.
Unanimous approval of the war,
which is calmly and dispassionately discussed, summarizes public opinion.
The newspapers express regret over the necessity of hostilities with Germany and urge the public to refrain from exhibiting resentment towards the Germans in Japan.
London, Aug. 24.—No news of Japanese or German military operations in the Far East have reached London since the declaration of war upon Germany. According to the Japanese embassy here, those looking for the occupation of Kiau-Shau almost simultaneously with the issue of the Japanese declaration of war will be disappointed. The view is expressed at the embassy that in order to avoid needless loss of life the operations against Kiau-Chau will be more prolonged than otherwise would be the case.

(Special to the Graphic).
It is officially announced that the Belgian operations have been successful in relieving the pressure on the French positions.
The Belgian army has stopped the advance of the Fourth German Division.
It is officially claimed that the forts at Namur are still holding out.

London, Aug. 27th.—In a despatch from Ostend received here this morning, it is stated that the Germans have occupied the towns of Lille, Soutoix and Valenciennes all in France. This is denied by the Belgian authorities.

Berlin, Aug. 27th.—A wireless despatch given out here states that all the forts at Namur have fallen and the town of Longwy, near the Luxembourg border has been captured. The despatch further states that after a resolute defence the French forces which attacked the German army commanded by the Crown Prince were repulsed.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 27th.—
The total force of the Russian army now in the field is four army corps of two million men each, a total of 8,000,000 men, under arms. The campaign pursued by the Russian army has for its objective an attack on Berlin in three weeks time.

Nish, Aug. 24.—The war office announces that Austria has abandoned her aggressive campaign against Serbia, following a series of Russian Serbian victories all along the Drina River. The office issued the following list of captures by the Serbian army, which has conclusively routed the Austrian attack. Prisoners including officers of high rank, 1,500; field guns, 53; field howitzer, 8; caissons, 114. In addition it is stated that large quantities of field equipment and ammunition fell into the hands of the victors.
The war office also added that the Serbians are pursuing the defeated Austrians from Yoder and Shahatz, and announced the capture of Loznitz and Leignitz.

ing three squadrons against the German province of Kiau-Chau and the

WAR WILL BE LONG AND HARD, THINK FRENCH
Paris, Aug. 21.—Discussing the possible length of the war, the Temps says that it may be taken for granted that Germany will fight to the bitter end. It quotes Mr. Finchon, former minister of foreign affairs, who said:
"The war will be long on land and will involve enormous losses, with victories and reverses. France will be the final victor."
The Temps also quotes General Von Bernhardi, the German military writer, who concedes success to the side which can hold out the longest.
The following expression of opinion by General Langlois is given in the Graphic: "The war will be long. Victory belongs to the most tenacious."

MATEURS HAVE A GOOD SHOW AT ATHOL

Crowded House Last Monday Night Greets the Staging of
"A Soldier's Sweetheart"

Last Monday evening the Opera House at Athol was crowded with an enthusiastic audience, who gave a great reception to the Athol Amateur Dramatic Club, in their presentation of the four act comedy drama, "A Soldier's Sweetheart". Long before the rise of the curtain, the house was jammed full, hundreds having to be turned away. The play which was brimful of comedy and interest, was well sustained in all the parts, the full cast being—
Victor Belmont, S. Daley
Joseph Sprackling, R. D. Young
Benjamin Lovell, H. A. Daley
Teddy O'Malley, J. Lahey
Thomas Blake, A. Keely
Elsie Lovell, Mrs. L. Savage
Kate Tyson, Miss Maud Harkan
Matilda Dobbins, Miss Onor Boulet
ACT I.—Party in Lovell's House.
Teddy with his trombone defies them
all.
ACT II.—Garden in front of Lovell's
Home. "Yes I will go, but some day I shall return and prove that man a thief and a scoundrel."
ACT III.—Parlor. "You have parted our lives, you cannot part our love."
An elapse of five years between 3rd and 4th act.
ACT IV.—Parlor. "In the words of the Immortal Patrick Henry. Give me liberty or give me—The Baby."
All the principals did well in their parts headed by the one and only Jimmy Lahey, who kept the house in a roar all the time he was on the stage.
In the specialties between the acts,
the singing and violin selections by Master Merlin, son of Chatham were well received. Homer Gaudry gave an exhibition of step-dancing, and James Lahey in songs and jokes was a whole team in himself.
The receipts of the evening were in the vicinity of $250 which amount will go towards the building of a new Presbytery at Athol.

RAILWAY FATALITY ON INTERCOLONIAL

On Monday morning the news of the death of Miss J. J. Ratvay, Conductor, was received in town here with feelings of horror. The deceased who had been employed on the International road for a number of years, was waiting for her own train to back up, and was standing at a switch supposedly watching the Express pull out.
He failed to notice the approach of his own train, which was slowly backing up, and was struck by a car, throwing him across the track, the wheels of the car passing over him and inflicting terrible injuries. He was picked up dead and removed to the undertaker's rooms for burial.
The funeral will be held this afternoon.
The deceased young man was highly respected by a large circle of friends and leaves a young widow and two small children to mourn his untimely death.

AFFECT OF WAR

Canadian newspapers are today approaching a crisis which must be met with courage by the publishers and forbearance by patrons.
For some time the expenses incident to the publishing business have been increasing at a rapid rate. Wages are higher, paper and other supplies cost more, but the papers have not yet advanced their subscription price.

At the present time the price of newspapers as a result of the war, is steadily increasing so that drastic measures will soon be necessary.
In England many of the leading journals have reduced the size of their papers and on this continent many will follow that lead.
During the present European war the Graphic has made arrangements to provide a daily telegraphic service, which adds greatly to our expenses,
but we do so that our townspeople
may have accurate reports of matters in which all are vitally interested.
Can we afford to continue this service?
This is the question, and its answer is with our citizens. We only ask that our subscribers who are in arrears, pay their subscriptions at once.
The date on the yellow label on your paper is that to which your subscription is paid.
We hope for a generous response to this reasonable request.

Build Concrete Barns and Barnyards

YOU will find that they are best at first and cheapest in the end.

Concrete buildings cannot burn and many dolars are saved in lower insurance rates. They need practically no repairs and never need painting.

Concrete barnyards make the best kind of a feeding-floor and save many dollars in feed bills, as your stock gets every particle that you feed to them.

Send for this free book "What the Farmer Can do With Concrete." It shows just how to build your own concrete barn, feeding-floor or any other building that you may need.

London, Aug. 24.—Announcement is made in Petersburg that the Ger-mans are in full retreat and crossing the River Angerapp in East Prussia, according to the St. Petersburg cor-respondent of the Reuters' Telegram Company. The correspondent adds that the passage across the river near Barkheim is in the hands of the Rus-sians. To the west of the Mazar Lakes the Russians occupied Johanns-burg, Ortelburg and Willenberg. "Soldau, 58 miles northeast of Thorn," the correspondent continues, "was occupied to-day. The inhabit-ants fled. The Germans evacuated Neidenburg, 70 miles southeast of Elbing, after setting the place on fire. "The battle of Gumbinnen is claim-ed to have decided the fate of Prus-sia on this side of the Vistula River."

Goldapp, another junction on stra-tegic lines, about half way along a railway uniting Lyck and Insterburg, is in Russian hands. Insterburg and Goldapp are thirty-two miles apart, and may be taken as indicating the ex-tremities of the Russian fighting front, while the operations in the re-gion about Lyck and Arys are prob-ably independent movements designed to clear the German out of the dif-ficult country of lakets and morass, the narrow passage between which covers an area of about forty miles, but which is not so easily taken, west, effectually securing the left flank of the Russian main armies.

The Germans put forth their utmost strength to oppose the Russian ad-vance throughout the theatre of op-erations and every step was won by fighting. The retreat of the German forces was a determined effort from the neighborhood of Lyck was what civi-lians call a rout, but what the Rus-sian Commander-in-chief is content to report as a retirement of a very bur-ried nature. Soldiers will understand from this how the nineteen miles be-tween Lyck and Arys were covered. On the north or right flank the fighting was particularly severe, ob-stinate and prolonged. Three Ger-man corps made a determined effort to outflank the Russians, fighting des-perately for several days. Finally on Saturday the Russians broke the Ger-man defence and secured Insterburg and the surrounding district.

Paris, Aug. 24.—It is announced of-ficially at the war office that the Ger-man force that invaded Russia and was reported to have occupied Miowa has been driven back by the Russians and that the latter have invested Salla. Salla is one hundred miles south and 127 miles east of Konigs-berg, and this latter movement is be-lieved to indicate that the Russian ad-vancing army of invasion extends along a front of nearly 100 miles. The Germans are also reported in of-ficial bulletins to have evacuated In-sterburg.

London, Aug. 24.—A despatch to the Times from St. Petersburg, which fol-lowed the first reports of Russian suc-cesses in East Prussia, says: "It is not a defeat, but a rout. Continuing their pursuits of the Germans the Russians occupied Soldau, thirteen miles south-west of Neidenburg, whence they com-manded the railway to Danzi.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 24.—The Rus-sian northern army is moving rapidly along the railway from Eydkuhnen toward Konigsberg, and today is re-ported west of Insterburg. The Rus-sian front is many miles long, and is reported as sweeping the entire terri-tory of Eastern Prussia clear of the enemy as it moves forward. The fighting has been of the most des-perate character, and the war office claims that the fighting effectiveness of the three German army corps, which have been bearing the brunt of the defense, has been seriously impaired. The Russian centre to-day was between Insterburg and Novikitter, while the front extended in half circle from Grunheide on the north far south into the Lake region.

London, Aug. 25.—French and British troops opposing invasion of the German army in Belgium have suffered serious reverses according to official announce-ment issued by French War of-fice. In battle line which extends from Mons to Luxemburg front-ier several army corps composed of both British and French took offensive on Sunday against Germans, but their plan of at-tack failed and troops retired on covering positions. French have abandoned portions of Alsace and Lorraine, which they had pre-viously occupied. Despatch from Copenhagen which gives further reports from Austria that Em-peror Francis Joseph is in a grave position.

Berlin, Aug. 24.—It was of-ficially announced today that Na-mur and five of its forts were captured by Germans. Bombard-ment of four other forts contin-ues and their fall seems immin-ent.

Milan, via Paris, Aug. 25.—Fortifications at Cattaro, Austria have been destroyed by allied fleet.

London, Aug. 25.—30,000 Germans are attacking Mailens, Belgium 13 miles from Antwerp.

Austria is massing troops on Italian frontier, Kaiser's nephew, count Von Schwerin is among prisoners captured by French.

London, Aug. 25.—A despatch to Express from Ostend says great battle has been in progress in province of Hainaut, Belgium, since Friday evening. French and British troops have been en-gaged in desperate conflicts with Germans north of Charleroi and Fleurs.

Tokio, Aug. 23.—The Emperor of Japan to-day declared war upon Ger-many at 6 o'clock p.m. (Japanese time.)

This action was taken at the expira-tion of the time limit of Japan's ul-timatum to Germany demanding the surrender of Kiaochow.

The Japanese Government has or-dered the beginning of operations on land and sea.

London, Aug. 24.—The British official press bureau makes the fol-lowing announcement: "Orders have been issued by the Austro-Hungarian Gov-ernment to the cruiser Kaiserin Eliza-beth, lying in Kiaochow harbor, to dis-arm, and the crew proceed to Tien-Tsin."

St. Petersburg, Aug. 23.—The Rus-sian front moved forward another march to Insterburg, on the north or right flank, and Arys, on the left, sixty miles apart. Both are junctions on strategic lines, Insterburg in partic-ular uniting eight railways and highly important from a military point of view.

ALLIED TROOPS FAIL IN FORWARD MOVEMENT

Look Offensive on Sunday But Made No Impression on Germans

Paris, Aug. 23.—Official an-nouncement issued Sunday night of great battle now in progress along vast line extending from Mons to frontier of Luxemburg. Our troops in conjunction with British have assumed every-where offensive, faced by almost whole German army, both active and reserve. Ground especially on our right thickly wooded and difficult. Enormous extent of front and great number of forces involved makes it impos-sible to follow step by step, movements of each of our armies must await result of first phase of combat before we can form any conclusion as to situations.

London, Aug. 24.—British war office announces that British troops fought the Germans on Sunday near Mons, Belgium, and held their ground. The battle between allies and Germans con-tinues over long stretch of coun-try so far without results.

Emperor Francis Joseph is seriously ill.

Japanese fleet has commenced bombardment of Sing Taus.

Russians pressing Germans in eastern Prussia occupied Soldau. Germans were completely rout-ed.

INDUSTRIAL HYSTERIA

Canadians are showing symptoms of an acute attack of economic neurosis. No one can accuse us of being afraid to fight. Show us a German and we will tackle him, without hesitation. What we are afraid of is to go on living. Instead of composure and cheerfully taking up each day as it comes, we are showing signs of a task as the day appears, we are trembling in anticipation of unimaginable scarcity and poverty. It is not hard times that we expect, we have them already. It is not simply hard times made harder by war. We could understand that and meet it. It is times so stark and inflexible that iron is in comparison as a sponge and the traditional pliant as a thread. If we were all to be doomed to death by slow starvation we should scarcely be more frightened.

We may admit that the war will disturb trade, remove bread-winners from their homes, pile up private and public debts, and generally mitigate the prosperity of the recent past. It is well to be prudent to eschew luxury, to avoid over-production, and to provide means for helping the specially unfortunate. Having said that, we have said it all. The sun will shine, the harvest will ripen, all the staple commodities will have to be produced, and there will be just as much food and money in Canada next February as there was last February.

Fear is one of the greatest forces which operates in the human breast. In its two forms of worry and of terror it shapes much of the course of human conduct. Its chosen agent is the imagination. Its chief activity is crossing bridges before one comes to them.

If anything will precipitate financial disaster it is this mood of dread. President Wilson has vigorously pointed this truth out to our neighbors in the south. Our economic ills, like some of our physical ailments, are born and incubated in our thinking. When ho shoulders get panic-stricken and buy flour by the half dozen barrels instead of by the bag the price of flour must go up. The demand exceeds the supply, and prices must rise. What seems to be a vindication of the forethought is only a consequence of the folly. When merchants, manufacturers, and companies and banks run for shelter their flight transforms the wind into a whirlwind. When everybody expects economic woe a false prudence is developed which defeats itself. People seek to save money and have no money to save.

Moreover, the shyest patriot finds his excuse for grinding the faces of the poor. The coal merchant, with his bunkers filled at last year's buying price, hangs a flag out of his upturned window and adds a dollar to the selling price of each ton. Bread, meat, sugar, potatoes—the traffic in none of which has been affected—are racing up the scale. It is to defeat such scurrilous avarice, itself terrified yet preying on the terror of others, that the British Government has taken over the flour mills of Britain.

Let it be repeated that this is a time for economy. It is also a time for heroic effort, to keep the business of the country going. It is a time to shorten sail, or run the screw at half speed. It is not a time to put on a life-preserver and take to the rafters. If the industry and commerce of Canada are paralyzed this winter it will be because the people of Canada grew hysterical with fear of the unknown and unlikely.

Consider: the death is more likely to follow the war than to accompany it. And when it can be more advantageously met, when the stress and frenzy of the fighting is past. War makes work in many ways. Enormous sums of money are distributed to the producers of many articles. Farmers, manufacturers of boots and clothing, coal miners, and all the middlemen who handle these things will be uncommonly busy. The taking of so many men out of their job opens doors to the unemployed. It is when the war is closed and the disbanded troops come home that the trouble is to be expected. Let us be cheerful yet awhile.

It is nothing else than chicken-heartedness which allows many Canadians, more or less prominent in the world of business. They are cowards and they are in danger of bringing us all themselves included, to needless penury and financial disaster. They are turning back in the day of battle. —Journal of Commerce.

THE OUTLOOK

(From the Gloucester Northern Light) Newspapers all over the country are pointing out to the industrial concerns in the different sections the duty that confronts them at this time of uncertainty and anxiety. The Massey-Harris Co., is coming in for considerable sharp criticism for its action in shutting down its works and thereby putting something like 5,000 men out of employment at the most critical time in the country's history.

As we pointed out last week, it is just as much the duty of the employers of labor to sacrifice their interests at this time as it is for the soldiers to range themselves for service on the firing line. A company or individual who shirks his duty to his country in this regard is no more respectable than the soldier who turns to run when the shock of battle comes.

It is a matter of the greatest satisfaction to us in Gloucester County that our employers of labor are of a different stripe from the corporation mentioned above. Though business conditions do not look any too promising at the present time, yet our captains of industry are not disheartened and are planning on continuing their businesses just as though markets and transportation conditions were in their natural state. More than that they have the courage to state that no change will be made in the conduct of their businesses until conditions make a change absolutely necessary. This is the type of employer that is worth having and their patriotic stand at this time will not be overlooked or forgotten when better times again appear.

The German "Madman"

(Toronto Telegram)

The war is not of the choosing of the German peasant or the German artisan. Their zeal is for peace. The war is the work of the Kaiser himself and the arrogant bureaucrats who surround him. All the paper treaties in the world cannot induce Italy to take sides with a madman. It is as a madman that the Kaiser must be fought. The man who alone is responsible for the imminent deluge of human blood is as little entitled to mercy as the dog which runs amuck in a city's crowded streets.

The Canadian Magazine for September is an exceedingly high-class and entertaining number. Owing to its timeliness, the article of most general interest is "Canada's Coast-Guards and Fisheries" by Charles S. Blue. There is as well a fine literary essay entitled "The Original Professor Teufelsdröckh," by Ira A. May, professor of philosophy at the University of Saskatchewan; "Where Canada Falls Us," by Mrs. Donald Shaw, being a mild criticism of Canadian idiosyncrasies by an Englishwoman; "Why Hearne Surrendered," by R. J. Fraser, an interesting account of the fall of Fort Prince of Wales in 1782; "The Sioux Warrior's Revenge," by D. J. Benham, an explanation of the Custer massacre; "The New Brunswick Divorce Court," by T. C. L. Ketchum, together with a number of clever short stories and sketches.

MISS ROBINA MITVER DEAD NEAR CHATHAM

Chatham, Aug. 24.—The death took place on Saturday of Miss Robina Mitver, who died at the extreme age of 89 years at the home of her niece, Mrs. Thomas Currie, of Ferry Road, across the river, opposite Chatham. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon at Moorefield cemetery, where interment was made.

The deceased was descended from an historical ancestry on her mother's side. Her father was Finley Melver and her mother was Flora McDonald, a granddaughter of Flora McDonald, the great Scotch heroine, who hid Bonnie Prince Charlie in his last flight from Scotland when his enemies were set upon his track and his death seemed certain.

Miss Melver's parents came out to this country when she was only 12 years of age, and besides Mrs. Currie, she had two grand-nieces, Mrs. Harry Haviland, of Ferry Road, and Mrs. Norman Clark, of Loggieville.

DROWNING ACCIDENT ON THE MIRAMICHI

Miss Mary Bryenton, Daughter of Boom Manager Drowned on Friday Afternoon

The drowning occurred at Millerton Friday evening of Miss Mary Bryenton, youngest daughter of William Bryenton, manager of the North Esk boom in the Northwest Miramichi river, a short distance from her home. The deceased left her home about two o'clock Friday afternoon to pick gum from the logs in the boom, as she had often done before, but at supper time, when she failed to appear, no uneasiness was felt, as she had often gone to a neighbor's for tea.

But about eight o'clock her father went to see where she was, and failed to find her at the neighbors, he with several others, set out to search the river bank for some trace of her, and their efforts were soon rewarded by finding her shoes and stockings on the bank, and a short distance away her body among the logs, where she had evidently fallen.

Deceased was twenty-six years of age and is survived by her parents, one sister, Mrs. George Peterson, of St. John, and three brothers, Harry and Marshall, of Red Bank, and Percy of Bryenton.

ANOTHER CAMPBELLTON BOY Among the Campbellton boys who have volunteered for active service is Wilfred Devereaux, who has gone to Valcartier with the Third Victoria Rifles, Montreal.

WAS DROWNED AT RICHBUCTO

Peter O'Brien Working at The Government Breakwater Was Drowned When Staging Fell

Richbucto, August 24.—Peter O'Brien, aged 24 years, unmarried, and son of Mr. John O'Brien, was drowned Saturday afternoon about four o'clock while working at the government breakwater being built at North Beach. It is stated that the platform on which O'Brien and two other men were working, collapsed and the unfortunate young man was thrown into the water. The other two men on the platform managed to grab hold of something and keep themselves from falling in.

Another man, named Frank Gould, who some distance away jumped in after O'Brien and made a gallant attempt to rescue him. Gould is a strong swimmer, but the current was so strong at the point where the accident occurred, that he was unequal to the task. Gould was himself carried by the current and was unable to reach shore. A boat went out to rescue him, and by the time it reached Gould, he was so much exhausted that he was unable to climb into the boat. O'Brien had disappeared from view before a boat could be launched. Grappling for the body was continued all day Sunday, but it has not yet been recovered.

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflammation of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

CAMPBELLTON GRAPHIC COMES SECOND

Circulation Greater Than That of Any Weekly Paper in Province Except One

The Campbellton Graphic now ranks second among provincial papers as regards circulation, only one, the Sussex Record, having slightly more.

This result was obtained in the very successful contest just closed. Over fifteen hundred new names were added to our list, which now puts our circulation slightly over the 4,000 mark.

A pleasing feature of this contest is the good feeling which existed between the contestants throughout the entire contest and continued after its conclusion. Each one has written the Graphic voicing their satisfaction of the manner in which the entire campaign has been conducted. These letters have already been published, the last appearing in this issue. Of course, some were disappointed, but all could not win, and it is gratifying to the publishers to know that their efforts to conduct a contest entirely on the square have been appreciated.

Another pleasing feature of the contest from the publisher's view point, is the fact that nearly all these new subscribers were procured in the counties of Restigouche, Bonaventure and Gaspé, and no doubt if the Graphic keeps up its standard, these will continue to read it for years to come. Our lists have been corrected to date and we would ask our subscribers to examine the dates on the yellow address slip and note if they are correct. If not, please advise us at once. The date, is that to which the subscription is paid, Aug. 15 means August 1915. We thank all who contributed in any way to the success of this campaign.

The British Unionist leaders as they contemplate Canada's unyielding attitude must feel a good deal like the conjurer's apprentice who could raise the devil but did not know the formula which insured his return to his own place.

WAR AND SICKNESS

DURING A TIME OF PEACE,

WE FEEL IT OUR DUTY TO ADVISE THE PUBLIC

that all Drugs have been advanced 25 to 50 per cent. by the wholesalers and jobbing houses throughout Canada. The public, especially those who are sick, will suffer the most. Almost every line of actual necessity, such as baby foods, etc., are all sold out, and there are few to be had at any price. Our advice to the public is to buy from us before our large stock is depleted in sufficient quantities to last them some time. This applies particularly to those who have to take medicines continuously and who cannot do without them.

We will continue to sell all the stock we have on hand at our old prices and will only advance them when we have to pay more for new goods—if we can get them! Although we carry one of the largest Drug stocks of any drug store in the Maritime Provinces it should not be forgotten that in times like the present a regular stock in trade does not last long.

We hope the hundreds who deal with us will appreciate this timely advice and act accordingly.

We remain,

Yours very truly

IMPORTANCE OF SABBATH SCHOOL WORK

river bed and tomorrow drawn up by the sun and glittering in the rainbow, capable of being made like Jesus and eventually adorning mansions of glory. Think of the tools to be used in this peerless work, the living word of the living God who says: "My word shall accomplish that which I please." Think of the workers, the teachers including many parents, guardians and others with God given talents, from one to ten, laboring to produce in their scholars the best for time and eternity. Think how one scholar like the delivered Gadarene, Andrew, Philip or Peter, may lead others to the school and even into saving contact with the Redeemer. Think of the multitudes never taught the rudiments of Divine truth at home, being thus instructed in Sabbath school. Social life, that kind without the pale of the home, minus family, substitutes for the home, religion, religion and supplementing, augmenting, all containing it. Social life mightily permeated and purified by this magnificent undercurrent. While the negroes of the South were enslaved, they had not one Sabbath school but ere this, because of liberation, over a 1,000,000 scholars and 66,000 teachers, hence great development in desirable phases of civilization, materializing in the great work of Booker Washington. Some learn to read in Sabbath school, who had no chance elsewhere.

Many Christian folk find their best in some cases only chance for use of their talent and expression of love for Jesus in Sabbath school work. Some members enthused secure others for the school and thus the undercurrent grows. The teacher has a hand to hand, face to face, heart to heart opportunity superior to that of the pastor. In many fields because of their great size and many "irons in the fire" he can only occasionally see individually the young and older folk of the school, but oh, unique privilege, the teacher can meet them 52 Sabbaths in the year. Then there is the social gathering oft, including many of the scholars where the presence of a respected teacher has a wholesome, restraining, helpful influence. Temperance principles too find an unsurpassed chance for origin and propagation in the quarterly lesson assigned, and in many cases all through the year. In some places no Sabbath services, no pastor in the place, yea in the Maritime Provinces in places not even a day school, oh think, how the S. S. here proves not only a perennial spring to which all may come, but also to some extent a substitute for the latter. If the day school is such a factor for general good in church and state, how much more this institute in which "the book of books" written and sent by "The King of Kings and Lord of Lords" is the only text book where Faciae Princeps (easily first), it proves "the salt of the earth". Our maps, charts and other kinds galore of religion literature given as the very cream of talk of scholarly, pious men, the development of the intellect and heart of the study of this unique library of 66 books in one, with its 11,000 invitations and promises and Jesus, the All in All and the fact that 83% of all entering full communion in the church are in the S. S., loudly speak of this undercurrent as manifestly peerless and indispensable. What grander sight than that of folks in country and city flocking into the S.S. The Roman Catholics say: "Give us the child till he is 7 and we will so thoroughly drill him that ever he will prove true to first instructions". Oh! the clamant importance of moulding the plastic child's mind and heart. The Lord's Day is better observed where S. Schools obtain. Think of 52 golden texts in one year operating in the child's mind and heart. The S. S. picnic and other outings peculiar to this sphere have a good influence. The meeting amid daily affairs of teacher and scholars, and the day school teacher becoming one in the S. S. likewise, oft prove an auxiliary in increasing the current.

THE VOLUNTEERS LEAVE FOR THE FRONT

Entrain Last Friday Evening Amid a Scene of Great Enthusiasm at Station

Last Friday evening, notwithstanding the cold and rainy weather, a large crowd assembled at the Intercolonial station to give a send off to the Campbellton contingent leaving for Valcartier for active service abroad. The platform was crowded with friends of the departing volunteers, who entrained amid a scene of great enthusiasm. The train pulled out to the accompaniment of the waving of flags and the singing of "Rule Britannia" and the "National Anthem" and the contingent were in the beat of spirits and resolute purpose. The officers of the 73rd Regiment feel proud that so many of our men here felt called on to volunteer for service, the bulk of them being recruited from F Company, which embraces Campbellton and vicinity. Lieut. H. W. Ferguson is again at Newcastle, where a detachment of the 73rd are on duty guarding the wireless station.

THE GIRL WITH BEAUTIFUL HAIR

Uses Newbro's Herpicide

There is one sure and certain way for every woman to have beautiful hair, and that is to give it intelligent care, which included the use of Newbro's Herpicide. This remarkable preparation absolutely eradicates dandruff and prevents the hair from falling. The prophylactic action of Herpicide keeps the hair free from disease, and with the scalp sweet and clean a natural hair growth is inevitable. Herpicide hair scintillates with health and vigor, light and luster, produced only by the well-known scalp and hair dressing, Newbro's Herpicide. Newbro's Herpicide in 50c and $1.00 sizes is sold and guaranteed to do all that is claimed. If you are not satisfied your money will be refunded. All first-class barbers and hair dressers use and recommend it. Thos. Wran, druggist.

If one devoted parent, minister or guardian can alone accomplish much good, how much more when united augmenting, cheering each others effort there in S. S. and connected spheres co-operate. When Jesus, like teachers visit the homes of their scholars, much good in some cases is accomplished. Social life depends on private life and individual character, and later on the evening and evening of God's word, the only remedy for sin. In no sphere is the word of God taught so much as in the S. S. The very instruction given along the lines of Catechism, picture cards, etc., to the primary class is a great education. We lay the pipes, God provides the water. If we do not run the S. S. as the small boy the wagon, just to see the wheels go round, but in dead earnestness, faith and delight co-operate with King Emmanuel in His wondrous presence, search and love for souls, sure as His own Throne and more prolific than a Klondyke, this undercurrent will eventually appear a moulder of social and national life and display in Glory gems in Jesus Crown. Shake an apple tree and many apples may fall, but the very best are got by climbing and handpicking. Throw water at a lot of empty bottles and some will enter, but go with pitcher and funnel and they are soon filled. Just so with individual work peculiar to S. S., not surpassed for golden opportunity in the entire realm. "That man who bearing precious seed, in going forth doth mourn, He doubtless bringing back his sheaves, rejoicing shall return." I heard in Pittsburgh, the late Rev. Dr. Potts exclaim in speaking at a great S. S. Convention: "In a lapidary establishment, my guide led me to the last and ugliest diamond. I expressed my belief in it being the poorest of all. When in response to his direction, I dropped it into the palm of my hand, light, beauty, splendour, etc., flashed forth, and I cried I never saw the like of it." "Down in the human heart, crushed by the tempter, feelings lie buried that grace can restore. Touched by a loving heart, awakened by kindness, chords that were broken will vibrate once more."

LORD KITCHENER CONGRATULATES BRITISH SOLDIERS ON THEIR SPLENDID WORK

"We Are Proud of Them," He Says in Telegram to Sir John French—Notable Speech in House of Lords.

London, Aug. 26.—Lord Kitchener made his first speech as Minister of War in the House of Lords yesterday. He told his hearers that this war undoubtedly would strain the forces of the Empire and entail big sacrifices. He laid emphasis on the fact that his position in the Cabinet involved adherence to neither party. He said: "The terms on which I am serving are the same as those under which some of the finest portions of our manhood now so willingly stepping forward to join the colors, are engaging. That is to say, my term of office is for the duration of the war, or for three years, if the war should last longer than that."

"It has been said why this period has been limited. It is because if this disastrous war be prolonged, and no one can foretell for a certainty its duration, that after three years of war others will take our places and see this matter through. There will be serious conflicts which undoubtedly will strain the forces of our Empire, and undoubtedly considerable sacrifices to our people will be entailed. This will be borne willingly for our honor and for the preservation of our position in the world, and they will be shared by our Dominions, who are now sending contingents and giving assistance of every kind to the Mother Country."

"Our expeditionary force has taken the field on the French northwest border and advanced to the neighborhood of Mons, (Belgium). Our troops have already been for thirty-six hours in contact with the superior forces of German invaders. During that time they maintained the best traditions of the British soldier and behaved with the utmost gallantry. The movements they have been called upon to execute have been those demanded the greatest steadiness of a soldier and skill in the commanders."

Lord Kitchener then alluded to Premier Asquith's statement in the House of Commons that the British troops had greatly aided the French and had been able to maintain their position in the face of fierce German attacks. He said he sent a telegram to Sir John French, the commander of the British expeditionary force, reading as follows: "splendid work. We are proud of them."

Continuing, Lord Kitchener pointed out that the fighting in Europe would result in greater casualties than the campaigns Great Britain usually was engaged in. He said he was sure that the public was fully prepared to meet whatever losses and sacrifices the country might have to face, and he paid a tribute to the readiness of the able aid of the press and the public in preserving silence and accepting the novel situation.

"We know how deeply the French people value the prompt assistance," Lord Kitchener continued, "that we have been able to afford them at the very outset of the war, not only in giving moral and material support, but our troops must also prove a factor of high military significance in restricting the sphere and determining the duration of hostilities. "If the conditions of strategy had permitted, everyone in this country would have been rejoiced, if they could have been ranged alongside the gallant Belgian army in its superb struggle against the desperate odds which has just been witnessed. But although this privilege, perforce, has been denied us, Belgium knows of our sympathy with her in her sufferings and our indignation at the blows which have been inflicted upon her and also of our intention to make sure that none of her sacrifices will have been unavailing."

"While other countries engaged in this war have under their systems of compulsory service brought their full resources into the field, we, under our national system, have not been so compelled. Therefore we still have a vast reserve to draw from, the resources of both the Mother Country and the Dominions."

"The response which already has been made by the Dominions abundantly proves that we have not looked in vain to these sources of military strength, and while India, Canada, Australia and New Zealand are sending powerful contingents, the territorial forces of this country are replying loyally to the stern call of duty which has come to them with such exceptional force."

Continuing, Lord Kitchener said: "Over seventy battalions have, with fine courage, already volunteered for service abroad. When they are trained and organized in larger formations they will be able to take their places in the line."

"The hundred thousand men asked for in the first place have already been virtually secured. "The Empire with which we are at war has called to the colors almost its entire male population. The principle we, on our part, shall observe is this: That while the maximum force undergoes constant diminution, the reinforcements we prepare will steadily and unceasingly flow out until we have an army in the field which in numbers will not be less than in quality not be unworthy of the power and responsibility of the British Empire."

"I cannot at this stage say what will be the limits of the force needed or what measures may eventually become necessary to supply and maintain it. "The scale of the field army which we are now calling into being is large, and may rise in the course of the next six or seven months to a total of thirty divisions, to be continually maintained in the field."

But if the war should be protracted and if its fortunes should be varied or adverse, exertions and sacrifices beyond any which have been demanded will be required from the whole nation and empire. And where they are required, we are sure they will not be denied, to the extreme needs of the State by Parliament or the people."

BRITISH SOLDIERS DESTROY THE ENEMY

Paris, August 26.—The Petit Parisien referring to the fighting near Mons, says: "The British bore the brunt of six furious attacks. Wounded British soldiers declare that the allies raised a veritable hecatomb of German corpses near Mons."

"Were all medicines as meritorious as that and working people are afflicted with is lame back. Apply Chamberlain's Liniment twice a day and massage the parts thoroughly at each application, and you will get quick relief. For sale by all dealers."

IMPORTANCE OF SABBATH SCHOOL WORK

Paper Read by Rev. Wm. McLeod at Recent Sunday School Convention

The undercurrent peculiar to Sabbath School work. An address delivered at County S. S. Convention, River Louisbourg by Rev. Wm. McLeod.

Sabbath School work constitutes an undercurrent associated with childhood and more mature life and flowing underneath and giving rise to upper currents of untold good, thus forming a peerless stream flowing far and away beyond the community of its origin.

This current, like a river, never merely local, but sweeping beyond its source through vale and mountains, barren and fruitful soil, hamlet, town and city, till it enters the mighty ocean, this stream of blessings as outcome of undercurrent of what is Sabbath Schools enriches every sphere, including the home and public spheres of church and state.

Behold how the tiny rivulet ever broadening, deepening, rushing beyond the local sets the pace and provides the means for Amazon or Nile, like the new enterprises of agriculture, emigration city building and other desirable phases of civilization and thrift. Just so Sabbath schools, materializing in more manifest fruits, moulds social life, magisterially sweeps out into national life with benefits conferred in harmony with Joshua 1:5. "This book shall not depart out of thy mouth, for then shalt thou make thy way prosperous and then shalt thou have good success." Think of the fact that in North America there are 175,685 S. S., 1,690,739 officers and teachers and 10,000,000 scholars. Consider that the average attendance is 9,934,400, and 1,055,000 last year from S. S. entered the church as communicants at rate of 6,765 per 30,000,000 in the 24 hours of 7th day study the same International scripture lessons and have hymns, prayers and other means of grace centering in the principal teachings of the Divine word studied. Who can fully gauge the outcome of such a vast host engaged in some religious exercise? In Canada probably now 16,000 S. S. of these 300 are in N. B. and 200 in "The Garden of the Gulf".

Like the river of Ezekiel's vision issuing beneath the Temple door, here narrow and only to the ankles, there to the knees, farther beyond to the loins, then the Prophet exclaimed "a river that could not be passed with tread on its banks and everything lived whither it came." This S. S. work old as Joshua and Ezra's classes, revived by Robert Reaikes, with the progressive prolific life of Emmanuel in it, with its many lines of effort for the trinity of man, the soul, mind and body embracing every toll from the tiny S. S. in a Labrador to Wananamaker's class of 1000 in Philadelphia, knocking at our heart's door begs for its even greater triumph, the very best of our love, talents, time and money. Who can full comprehend the many advantages peculiar to conventions from the district to the world's unique S. S. congress in way of fraternal meetings and greetings of great instructions, encouragement and impetus afforded. There are present persons who easily recall the impressions and benefits peculiar to early days in Sabbath school, where teacher's indwelt by the Saviour's spirit sought our salvation. We readily remember those who were meek, aniel, marking time on the babe or the cat, whines, shows jealousy and does not cease till fondled in human arms. But lo! Now he is after something, pursuing a rabbit or partridge and you can't call him off. He has a definite purpose, hence does not need coaxing, nor will be turned aside. Just so with teachers seeking the eternal welfare of their scholars, and the latter, the Christ and glorious truth of God's word. No jealousy. No looking for slights, but "Oh, to be nothing, only to be at His feet." Recently, while attending General Assembly, with an immense host of people I went out to there where the late Rev. Dr. McKay of Pormosa Missionary fame was born I heard Rev. Dr. Gordon (Ralph Connor), Dr. McDonald of Toronto Globe and Rev. Dr. R. P. Mc-

WOMEN WHO ARE ALWAYS TIRED

May Find Help in This Letter.

Swan Creek, Mich.—"I cannot speak too highly of your medicine. When through neglect or overwork I get run down and my appetite is poor and I have that weak, languid, always tired feeling, I get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it builds me up, gives me strength, and restores me to perfect health again. It is truly a great blessing to women, and I cannot speak too highly of it. I take pleasure in recommending it to others."—Mrs. ANNA CAMERON, R.F.D., No. 1, Swan Creek, Michigan.

Another Sufferer Relieved. Hebron, Me.—"Before taking your remedies I was all run down, discouraged and had female weakness. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and used the Sassafras Wash, and find today that I am an entirely new woman, ready and willing to do my household work now, where before taking your medicine it was a dread. I try to impress upon the minds of all ailing women I meet the benefits they can derive from your medicines."—Mrs. CHARLES ROWE, R.F.D., No. 1, Hebron, Maine.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Key in their native place speak of the days of "Auld Lang Syne." They revived persons, scenes, Sabbath school, sacramental services and other phases of church and state and declared that the good in these proved the source of the great work wrought by men, who had gone in Jesus service to home and foreign fields. Indeed the speakers were themselves amid scenes of early days, eloquently dwelling on the past, an outstanding evidence and fruit of honest work in S. S. and kindred means of grace in Zion and surrounding country. This S. S. undercurrent, too deep to fathom, too broad to bridge and proceeding from the exalted heart, once given on cavalry by human co-operation with Divine sowing, enriching all worth having and bearing on its bosom through redeemed, arises with them to the source whence it came.

An owner of a fine field, bountifully sows grain in it, while his neighbor only well harrows the adjoining land. The both look and seem exactly alike. But in the fall season the former has a splendid harvest, while the latter nothing but thistles or weeds. The family and locality without the teaching, sowing of "the seed of the kingdom" may for a time seem to be as prosperous in spiritual and temperance things as their neighbors, more mindful of the "One thing needful!" Later, the former is enriched, honored with souls arising in church and state for the work of God and humanity and the utterance of the Psalm, "They shall prosper that love thee" in temporal affairs as well as in spiritual, is literally fulfilled, while the latter is characterized by ignorance of the "book of books", corresponding ignoring of the Master's service and in matter of material things sometimes dilapidation and retrogression generally apparent. The S. S. which is just the greatest number of any time and place of the church studying God's word generally, has in it the very cream of the community. See Nehemiah and Ezra after their return from captivity, leading multitudes in search of hidden truth of Hebrew scriptures and immediate results. Either class will benefit by eating less meat and more Kellogg's Toasted Corn Flakes.

It gives much more nourishment than its cost in meat, is infinitely more easy to digest—consequently better for you.

DALHOUSIE

Dalhousie, N. B., Aug. 26.—Among the new buildings being erected in Dalhousie during the summer of 1914 is the new skating rink. Following a regular meeting of the new company held recently, work was started at the new building and considerable work is already done. The job is being superintended by Mr. James Harquail. The location of the new rink is a splendid one, six or eight blocks from William Street, the business street, just a short distance from the post office. The rink will, when finished, be one of the fine rinks in the province, and it is encouraging that the sporting men of Dalhousie have sufficient confidence in the future of the skating rink to invest in such a building, that will cost in the neighbourhood of $5000. The size of the building is 92x180. It is to be used for curling and skating and hockey games can be had also. There will be four ante rooms, two for the ladies, one for the curlers and one for the boys. Dinner and lunch room on stairs 50x20 with verandah in front 6x50. Side walk all around the skating ground five feet wide. Main entrance 10 feet. Board of directors of new rink company appointed at last meeting held at A. M. Hilyard, James Wallace, Wm. F. ### RHEUMATISM ARRESTED

Many people suffer the tortures of lame muscles and stiffened joints because of impurities in the blood, and each succeeding attack seems more acute until rheumatism has invaded the whole system.

To arrest rheumatism it is quite as important to improve your general health as to purify your blood, and the cod liver oil in Scott's Emulsion is nature's great blood-purifier, while its medicinal nourishment strengthens the organs to expel the impurities and rebuild your strength.

Scott's Emulsion is helping thousands every day who could not find other relief. Refuse the alcoholic substitutes.

TORTURED BY CONSTIPATION

"Fruit-a-tives" Cured Paralyzed Bowels and Digestion

ST. BONIFACE DE SHAWINIGAN, QUE. Feb. 3rd, 1914.

"It is a pleasure to me to inform you that after suffering from Chronic Constipation for 1/2 years, I have been cured by 'Fruit-a-tives'. While I was a student at Berthier College, I became so ill I was forced to leave the college. Severe pains across the intestines continually tortured me and it came to a point when I could not stoop down at all, and my Digestion became paralyzed. Some one advised me to take 'Fruit-a-tives' and at once I felt a great improvement. After I had taken four or five boxes, I realized that I was completely cured and what made me glad, also, was that they were acting gently, causing no pain whatever to the bowels. All those who suffer with Chronic Constipation should follow my example and take 'Fruit-a-tives' for they are the medicine that cures!"
