DREADFUL DISASTER.

The Dupont Powder Mills Blown Up—Great Loss of Life and Property.

WILMINGTON, Del., Oct. 8.—Several startling explosions in quick succession at 3:30 p.m. announced a disaster at the Dupont Powder Works, on the Brandywine, seven miles from here. One of the magazines went off first, and the rolling and drying mills were immediately afterward destroyed. There were at least seven successive explosions. Every dwelling in the neighborhood is reported wrecked or unroofed and buildings within a radius of half a mile are damaged. Following is a partial list of

THE VICTIMS.

Killed—Martin Dolan, James Dolan, Wm. McGarvey, John Hartigan, Wm. Dennison, John Dietz, Thos. Hurlike, John Hurlike, John Newell, Patrick Dougherty, Wm. Green and a woman named Rose Dougherty. Several others are missing.

Injured—Daniel Harkins; Wm. Logan will probably die; Annie and Mary Dolan; James Ward, leg broken and hurt internally; Hugh Ferry, picked up unconscious, injuries unknown; John McDowell, head badly hurt; Mrs. Wm. McDowell, ear cut off and head very badly cut; her 2-year-old daughter seriously injured; Lydia Anderson, arm broken and badly bruised.

THE DAMAGE.

The Dupont Powder Mills extend along the Brandywine, chiefly on the west bank and close to the water for about two miles. There are some 50 buildings clustered around what is known locally as the "upper yard." These were inhabited by the employes of the powder mills clustered here, and they are all wrecked. The damage to property cannot now be thoroughly estimated. The force of the concussion broke windows in some parts of Wilmington four or five miles away. The office of the Dupont company is a complete wreck, and six mills are in ruins. Several members of the Dupont firm were injured, but none seriously.

The dead were all employes of the firm, and were in and about the mills that exploded.

The first explosion occurred in one of the packing mills, where a workman named Grau was receiving a can of hexagonal powder to be shipped for the use of the United States Government. In some way a spark communicated to the can, and it blew up. Instantly the packing mill exploded, and the other mills in the upper yards, seven or eight in number, followed at intervals of less than one second. All these, except one, were "rolling mills," in which the ingredients of gunpowder are pulverized. The whole machinery is driven by water power. Immediately after the explosion a large building known as the refinery, located near the center of the village, took fire. It was a matter of life and death to the whole population that this fire should be extinguished before it communicated with the powder the building contained. Taking their lives in their hands, the Dupont fire brigade fought the flames which had caught the roof. It was touch and go between success and destruction, but the firemen won. Had the roof fallen it, it is doubtful if any man, woman or child in the vicinity would have escaped death or serious injury. About 50 families are rendered homeless by the disaster.

THE LOSS.

WILMINGTON, Del., Oct. 8.—The loss by the Dupont powder mills explosion is fully $500,000. The shock was plainly felt in Philadelphia, and also at Millville, N. J.; Chester, Pa., and other points 30 to 35 miles distant.

Business Troubles.

The following assignments in Ontario are reported by a mercantile agency: Brantford, James Miller, publisher Telegram; Petrolea, Cameron & Co., clothing; Winthrop, W. B. Sheridan, grocer, to Robt. Gibbons, Goderich.

Heavy Damages by Rain at Kingston.

KINGSTON, Ont., Oct. 8.—The dismal, rainy weather of the past week so undermined the dam at the dry dock that yesterday it began leaking, and before men could stop the inflow 50 feet of the dam was carried away, and the great excavation is now filled with water level with Lake Ontario. The damage is estimated at $10,000.

Doubted.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 8.—The news telegraphed from Salt Lake City to the effect that the Mormon Church has officially announced that it has abandoned polygamy is received with some credulity, especially in view of the fact that the Government has just been officially informed that 200 proselytes of the Mormon Church, including a large number of young women in the charge of Mormon elders have recently arrived in New York and started for Salt Lake City with the avowed purpose of entering into polygamous marriages with members of the church.

Lost with All Hands.

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I., Oct. 8.—During Monday's storm, the schooner Mary Jane, hailing from this port, was wrecked off North Beach, Jourmain Island, near Cape Tormentine. Men from the Cape tried to reach the ill-fated schooner, but failed in every effort to rescue the poor sailors whom they could see clinging to the vessel's rigging. Yesterday morning they succeeded in boarding the schooner, but found that all were drowned. A man's body was found on the beach near by, and on him a card addressed "Franklin, seaman, Wallace, N. S." Four more bodies have been recovered.

Joe Smith Compared to Christ.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, October 7.—At the Mormon conference held here, George Q. Cannon spoke of the lofty conceptions of the saints, especially regarding the future state. So advanced are the saints' ideas that when other people attempt to follow them they get lost in the magnitude of the precepts. He believed the brethren in the penitentiary would be more prosperous when they got out than if they had not got in, because they could say they had not broken any of the covenants they had made. He thanked God he lived among such people—those who were not afraid of the consequences and took their punishment like heroes. The time is coming when this conduct of the Latter Day Saints will stand out as the brightest page in modern history. Their sufferings would be acceptable to the Lord. Cannon further said the aints would obey the laws and bow in submission to the nation's will, and leave the consequences with the Lord. He told the people not to worry about 1891; that Christ would not come then.

President Woodruff said the Lord is about to prune his vineyard for the last time and that the sprouts would fall like grain before the mower. He spoke of the martyrdom of Joseph Smith and the crucifixion of Christ as events of like import. He indorsed Cannon's remarks, and further said when any event transpires to deprive the saints of their privileges they would remember it is the will of God.

Two Suicides on the Majestic.

QUEENSTOWN, Oct. 8.—The steamer Majestic, which arrived last evening from New York, reported that two of her steerage passengers committed suicide on the voyage.

Reductions in Russia's Fighting Force.

LONDON, Oct. 8.—Russia has dismissed 12,000 men from her army and navy in the past two months, and it is stated that further discharges will be made shortly.

The Czar's Uncle Seriously Ill.

LONDON, Oct. 8.—The Grand Duke Nicholas, uncle of the Czar, is in a critical condition. The cancerous affection from which he has been suffering has attacked his brain.

Maud Yates in Trouble.

LONDON, Oct. 8.—Mrs. Maud Yates, wife of Frederick Yates, son of Edmund Yates, editor of the London World, who is separated from her husband, was to-day committed for trial on the charge of uttering a check with the object of defrauding her father-in-law.

Spain and Uncle Sam.

LONDON, Oct. 8.—The Standard's Madrid correspondent says Spain cannot make a special treaty with America with reference to the West Indies without granting the same privileges to European nations now enjoying the favored nation treatment with respect to imports into Spanish colonies.

Australian Federation.

SYDNEY, N.S.W., Oct. 8.—Great preparations are being made for the forthcoming federal convention, in which all the Australasian colonies of Great Britain will be represented and the meeting of which will be the first step toward a national organization that will include all those colonies in one powerful union, represented in a federal parliament.

Dom Pedro's Pitiable Plight.

PARIS, Oct. 8.—Dom Pedro, the ex-Emperor of Brazil, has arrived at Cologne. He is described as looking unhappy and broken down and is continually accompanied by an attendant, owing to his enfeebled condition. At intervals in conversation he is heard to mutter "Brazil! Oh, dear Brazil!" It is feared that his mind is weakened by his misfortunes.

Never More United.

DUBLIN, Oct. 8.—At a meeting of the National League here yesterday Thomas Powers O'Connor declared the Irish party was never more united and solid than now.

DUBLIN, Oct. 8.—Mr. Dillon presided yesterday at a meeting of the Tenant Defense Committee called to organize parochial collections in aid of evicted tenants. Donations to the amount of £1,000 were announced.

The Bobbies Want Votes.

DUBLIN, Oct. 8.—The members of the Royal Irish constabulary who are graduates from the various universities in Great Britain and Ireland are preparing a petition to Parliament to be permitted to vote for members of the House of Commons representing the several universities. The law, as at present existing, disfranchises policemen in both Ireland and England.

Aimed at England and Canada.

LONDON, Oct. 8.—Right Hon. Stanhope, Secretary of War, referring to the new United States tariff, said he believed it was directed largely against England and Canada and that it would do Canada serious injury. The working classes in England would suffer to a large extent, but the greater injury would be done to the Americans themselves. It behooved the Government to find fresh outlets for British capital.

Champagne Supper to 2,500 Farmers.

LONDON, Oct. 8.—The serving by Lord Rothschild of a champagne luncheon to 2,500 farmers and their families will not diminish his popularity as Lord Lieutenant of the county. A mishap occurred during the festivities. The grand stand erected to witness the races from suddenly collapsed and threw more than 1,000 people to the ground, fortunately with serious results in only two or three cases. The grand stand was erected by local carpenters, Lord Rothschild having refused on account of county patriotism to send to London for workmen.

The Rothschilds as Landowners.

LONDON, Oct. 8.—The notion that the Jews are unpopular because they are never landowners is exploded in Buckinghamshire, where the Rothschilds own a large portion of the land in the county, where they have all built or are building very magnificent residences. At one of these residences Leopold de Rothchilds is just unveiling a superb renaissance fountain in many colored marbles, the finest of the kind in England, which he has set up in the center of his garden. It is the work of Waldo Storey. In the same county the residences of Lord Rosebery at Mentmore and of Baron Ferdinand de Rothschild at Waddesden stand among the most sumptuous in modern England.

The Copyright Movement.

LONDON, Oct. 8.—The International Literary Congress met here yesterday. Jules Lemina, the permanent secretary, presented a report on copyrights in America. He regretted the defeat of the bill proposing an international copyright law, and attributed its defeat to the prevailing unquestionable antagonism to England and the antagonism at home to the Eastern and Western States. The opponents of the bill, he said, declared that it would benefit England alone and give America no reciprocal advantage, no foreign author being able to obtain protection in England unless he resided in an England possession and swore allegiance to the Queen. It seemed in vain for the defenders of the bill to demand "Thou shalt not steal." He held out little hope of a favorable settlement of the question.

Count Keratry speaking from long experience in America declared a successful issue might be expected far sooner than the report indicated. It had been easy he said under the rules of the House of Representatives for a few to prevent the copyright bill from arriving at the stage of discussion. Secretary Blaine, President Harrison, ex-President Cleveland and other prominent Americans had favored the bill which would have been passed if all the representatives had voted. A fresh bill would be discussed in December, and this bill, he declared, would pass. The Congress voted its thanks to all in America who had defended the cause.

An Envoy of Peace and Hope.

LONDON, Oct. 8.—John Morley delivered an address at Swindon last night. Replying to criticisms on his recent speech at St. Helens, he ridiculed the idea that because he had been a Cabinet Minister he should blindfold himself to affairs in Ireland. He said what pleased him more than being a Minister was being an envoy of peace and hope from the democracy of England to the democracy of Ireland. Every word he had told Englishmen about happenings in Ireland was true, and he was glad to have helped in the expose of the magisterial authorities. Whether rightly or wrongly, the government of Ireland was a personal government, and therefore it was indefensible that it should be an absent government. The Ministers responsible ought to be in constant touch with the agents. He blamed the Ministers for the condition of the crimes court in Tipperary. After describing the distress in the congested districts of Ireland, Mr. Morley suggested that a remedy was available by renewing the proposals as to the Irish Land Bill made in 1886, and inviting the co-operation of the Irish landlords.

LONDON, Oct. 8.—Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, president of the Board of Trade, speaking at Gloucester yesterday, described Mr. Morley's statements regarding his experience in Ireland as "a traveler's tale." The Government had taken measures to prevent any extended suffering on account of the failure of crops, and was willing to accept any suggestion made in good faith from all quarters for the promotion of comfort and peace among the poor in the land. In his opinion the problem must be solved by helping the people to save themselves.

Right Hon. Stanhope, Secretary for War, made a speech at Horncastle in a similar strain. He declared the alleged famine in Ireland only existed in the imagination of the Parnellite leaders and American anglers for the Irish vote.

THE NIAGARA MURDER.

A Mistake Made in Sentencing the Murderer Day.

WELLAND, Ont., Oct. 8.—On the opening of the court this morning Mr. Johnson, Crown counsel, pointed out that Arthur Hoyt Day, found guilty of wife murder, had been sentenced to be hanged on Thursday, Nov. 18, and Nov. 18 was on Tuesday. His Lordship stated it was his intention to sentence him to be hanged on Thursday, Dec. 18, and it was changed accordingly.

THE WORKING WORLD.

The trouble between the Dayton (Tenn.) Coal and Iron Company and its miners is yet unadjusted. Indications point to a long and hard fight. There are 1,200 men out.

There was a small strike on the Montreal and Sorel Railway at Sorel Monday. About a dozen men, mostly sectionmen, refused to work unless their wages were paid. Mr. Armstrong, the secretary, says that the strike was caused by delay in receiving Government returns.

MONTREAL, Oct. 7.—The Dominion Line steamship Indrani, from Montreal Sept. 25, with shipment of 596 cattle and 140 sheep, arrived at Avonmouth dock to-day and landed her live stock in good condition, with the exception of seven cattle and four sheep.

MONTREAL, Oct. 7.—The Donaldson Line steamship Colina arrived at Glasgow on the 6th inst., and landed her entire shipment of live stock, 630 cattle, in good condition except five bullocks, which died on the passage.

Smashup on the C. P. R.

MONTREAL, Oct. 8.—A smashup blocked the line on the C. P. R. Monday night in the yards at Hochelaga. Nobody was hurt, but one locomotive and three freight cars were demolished. A second locomotive was damaged and the track badly torn up. The accident is attributed to a faulty signal.

They Stand by Their Pastor.

SCRANTON, Penn., Oct. 8.—The Plymouth Congregational Church, of which the Rev. Peter Roberts is pastor, refused to accept his resignation by a unanimous vote. The verdict recently granted against him for $3,000 for a breach of promise to marry Annie Husaboe is regarded by his friends as unjust, and an effort will be made to secure a new trial.

The Latest Ocean Race.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—The steamships Teutonic and City of New York, which have kept company for several successive trips across the Atlantic, arrived in port this morning. The Teutonic was sighted off Fire Island at 5:15 and the City of New York arrived off the Sandy Hook light ship at 6:23 a.m. Both vessels sailed from Queenstown Oct. 2, the City of New York at 1:55 p.m. and the Teutonic at 2:30 p.m.

Devastation in Dakota.

MANDAIR, N. D., Oct. 8.—The Riverside Ranche Company in the southern part of this county lost 380 head of stock, worth over $10,000, by the recent prairie fires. H. S. Parkins, on the Cannon Ball, lost 40 head of cattle. The fire leaped over a break 300 feet wide. It is estimated that south of the Northern Pacific Railway in this county $100,000 worth of damage was done. In the Kill Deer Mountains, northwest of here, hay and cattle were burned to the value of thousands of dollars. It was the worst and most destructive fire ever known west of the Missouri River.

The Apple Trade—A Trick.

BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 8.—A clever trick has been played by apple dealers. The duty on apples is raised from 10 cents to 25 cents a bushel. Certain Boston dealers made an arrangement with the International Steamship Company by which they were to pay that company an additional freightage of 10 cents per barrel on apples if, instead of having the steamer New Brunswick come direct from Digby, N. S., to Boston, they would send her on her last trip to Eastport, Me., and make her enter her cargo there so as to save time. That was done. The cargo was entered at Eastport on Saturday, and the New Brunswick, being an American steamer, was then permitted to proceed coastwise to Boston. She arrived there on Sunday morning, having an unusually large cargo of apples.

Presbyterian Home Missions.

TORONTO, Oct. 8.—At the semi-annual meeting of the Executive of the Presbyterian Home Mission Board claims were passed upon for augmented congregations to the amount of $12,253, and for mission stations $24,710 20. New grants amounting to between $5,000 and $6,000 were made.

Huron Assizes.

GODERICH, Oct. 6.—The assizes opened here this afternoon, Hon. Mr. Justice MacMahon presiding. The civil docket contains fifteen cases, but the criminal calendar is very light. Mr. Colter, of Cayuga, will conduct the Crown business.

Hodgins vs. Tierney was postponed until next Assizes. Coleman vs. Johnston, settled out of court. Dancey vs. G. T. R., was an action brought by the harbor master at Goderich, against the G. T. R. to recover damages for ejecting him from one of their trains on the 6th inst. Plaintiff purchased a return ticket, Goderich to Sarnia, on the day in question, and traveled from Goderich to Sarnia on his ticket, and on Sept. 6 started on his return trip. The conductor took up his ticket, and in return gave him a check for it. Before reaching Lucan the conductor told the plaintiff that the next station was the one he would require to get off at and change cars, but plaintiff says the cars did not stop at Lucan Crossing, where he should take the train for Goderich, and consequently he remained on the train, intending to return to Goderich by way of Stratford. After the train left Lucan, which is two miles east of Lucan crossing, the conductor came round and told plaintiff he should have got off at Lucan. Plaintiff said he was going home by Stratford. The conductor then told plaintiff he would have to pay the fare from Lucan to Stratford, 85 cents or get off the train. Plaintiff refused to get off, and he alleges he was forcibly ejected from the train, that more force was used than was necessary, and says that his left shoulder was severely injured when he was thrown off the steps of the car. After the train started from Granton plaintiff got on again and paid his fare to Stratford. At the conclusion of the plaintiff's evidence the court adjourned.

THE FLOATING DEBT.

London West Owes $1,500 Less Than Formerly—Damages to Carriages —Taxes on a Temperance Lodge Reduced.

The regular monthly meeting of the London West Council was held last night at the Temperance Hall, the following members being present: Reeve Lacey, Deputy Reeve Scarrow, Councilors Duff, Spence, Brodie, Clerk Minton and Treasurer Nichols.

A communication from Fraser & Fraser was read informing the Council that they had received a letter from Meredith & Meredith re Hueston's claim, which had been taxed at $404 54, and asking for a check for the amount together with interest. Referred to No. 1 with power.

A letter from Collector Jolly asking for remuneration for collecting interest on taxes which was not arranged for at the time of his appointment was filed.

One from Mr. Dutton, respecting obstruction in front of his property, was referred to No. 2 to report.

Accounts from Wm. Hudson, $8 25; Treasurer Nichols, $6; Free Press, $3; ordered to be paid. F. C. Wheeler's account for $5 went to No. 1, and one from Sims & Hammond to No. 2 to report.

The bill from the assessors for $70 was read. It was ordered that 50 per cent. of the amount be paid, the balance to stand over until the return of the rolls. The ADVERTISER's account of $27 65 was referred to Clerk Minton and Treasurer Nichols to report.

It was decided to extend the time for returning the collectors' roll to Nov. 1, and that a rebate of 4 per cent. be allowed on taxes paid up to that time. Councilor Duff objected to this action.

Reeve Lacey stated that the floating debt of the village had been reduced by $1,500, and that they had sufficient funds to pay everything due.

Mr. Marshall's claim, amounting to $44 75, for damages to horse, wagon harness, etc., was referred to No. 1 Committee with power to settle.

Treasurer Nichols called the attention of the Council to the fact that the village had no pound keeper and that the cattle were running at large. The Reeve suggested that the Treasurer be appointed. The Treasurer did not coincide, but said he would like to see the Reeve get the position. The matter will be brought up at the next meeting.

Mr. J. D. Saunby addressed the Council respecting the bad state of Gunn street and offered to supply the gravel necessary provided the Council would pay for the hauling of it. Referred to No. 2 with power.

Mr. John Kelly also addressed the Council respecting the state of Alexander street. He said if the Council would provide the gravel he would grade the street. Referred to No. 2 with power.

Mr. S. Crockett, on behalf of Hammond Temperance Lodge, applied to the Council for a reduction of their taxes, which amounted to $7 85. He said this lodge was doing a good work among the young men in the village, and he thought they should have a reduction. On motion of Councilor Spence it was decided to allow them a rebate of 50 per cent.

Councilor Spence asked the Council, on behalf of Mr. S. Gibson to lay a sidewalk on his property. Referred to No. 2 with power.

It was decided to hold the Court of Revision on Tuesday, Oct. 28, in the Temperance Hall.

The Council adjourned at 9:45.

Preaching Against Capital Punishment.

KINGSTON, Ont., Oct. 7.—Rev. W. W. Carson, in the pulpit of Sydenham street Methodist Church Sunday, touched on capital punishment, saying: "I do not believe in capital punishment for the following reasons: I do not think that the State is justified in taking from a citizen what it did not give, and what it cannot restore. The State gives citizenship, liberty, and protection to person and property. When a citizen abuses one of these or uses any one of them for improper purposes the State has the right to interfere, and, if necessary, deprive him of liberty o citizenship. But the State did not give life. It is the gift of God, and the State cannot restore life if once it is taken. Therefore I do not think it has any right to destroy life by inforcing the law of capital punishment. If that kind of law were to be applied to each one of us in proportion as we have hatred in our hearts many of its advocates would change their opinions." The reference evidently was to the Birchall case. There were sermons on the Birchall case in the Methodist churches in Napanee yesterday, and Rev. A. B. Chambers, LL.B., was strong in his advocacy of capital punishment. It was not of man's origin, but was divine, God having in the dawn of history ordained that a murderer should suffer death.

Greed and Gain Their Object.

There are in Canada, as well as in other parts of the civilized world, many storekeepers and traders whose sole aim is the making of large profits. This is accomplished in many cases by keeping for sale lines of goods which are made and put up to look like the first-class article. These storekeepers do not for a moment consider the consumers' welfare and comfort, as long as the profits are large and sales go on.

This kind of business is plainly subversive, to not only the interests of the consumers, but to the retailers as well; and these retailers are often forcibly reminded of it, by loss of business, and sometimes failure.

It is only necessary here to mention one class of goods that all druggists and grocers sell, we refer to package dyes for domestic dyeing. While the genuine and long tested Diamond Dyes are sold everywhere, yet there are some traders who sell the common, crude dyes which are perfectly worthless, simply because their profits are larger than can be realized from the sale of the best goods—Diamond Dyes. Diamond Dyes cost the retailer more than these common crude dyes, but are sold to the consumer at the same price. Ladies are often sadly deceived in this way and suffer great loss and inconvenience through using these worthless dyes. Ladies can rid themselves of this trouble, and avoid loss of time and materials if they always insist upon getting Diamond Dyes from their druggist or grocer. Do not be influenced by the false statement that other dyes are just as good as Diamond Dyes; it is the big profit these men are looking after, not your interests, ease and general comfort.

A full line of public and high school books are at Allaster's.

The time for receiving tenders for improvements and additions to St. Paul's Cathedral will close on Monday next, Oct. 13, at 5 o'clock. It is to be hoped that the proposed work will be kept within the city, as our contractors should be able to compete to advantage on a local work.

THE NIAGARA MURDER.

Day, Who Pushed His Wife Over a Precipice,

Found Guilty and Sentenced to be Hanged on the 18th of November.

WELLAND, Oct. 7.—The principal case of interest at the Assizes, before Judge Rose, was the trial of Arthur Hoyt Day, charged with murdering his wife by pushing her over the bank at the Niagara River. The grand jury returned a true bill against Day, who, when placed in the prisoner's box, pleaded not guilty, and stated he was ready for trial.

HISTORY OF THE CASE.

Day was first arrested in Rochester for bigamy, having shortly before Mrs. Day's disappearance married Miss Lizzie Breen, 228 Plymouth avenue, Rochester, under the name of Arthur Hoyt. Detective Furtherer in his search for the missing wife inquired of Mrs. Quigley, who stated that on July 27 they had gone to the Falls together, the three of them; that Day and his wife quarreled, and the last Mrs. Quigley saw of Mrs. Day she started to a distant dwelling for a drink of water. The detectives, suspecting foul play, then induced Mrs. Quigley to come to the Falls and show them where Mrs. Day had been last seen. When the party came to a place on the edge of the cliff, 200 yads below the whirlpool rapids elevator, Canadian side, she nearly fainted. When she was able to speak she said: "There lies the body of Deseriah Day." Two hundred feet below, lying among the rocks and trees, could be seen a bundle of clothing, which, upon examination, was found to be the mangled body of a woman. Mrs. Quigley afterwards told Magistrate Hill that she, Day and deceased had come to the Falls on Sunday, the 27th July, and had gone almost directly to this lonely spot. She said she was some distance away when she last saw the pair together, and that the next time she looked Day was signalling to her to come up, and that he then told her he had "shoved her over." Day, who was then already a prisoner in Rochester on the charge of bigamy, was told that the body of a woman had been found at the Falls and that the authorities were anxious to have her identified. He said he would like to know whether or not it was his wife, whereupon the officers took him over at his request to satisfy his curiosity. When shown the clothing taken from deceased he denied that they belonged to his wife. The Canadian authorities then arrested him.

THE TRIAL.

The first and chief witness for the Crown was Mrs. Mary E. Quigley, who testified that she was the sister of the prisoner and lived in Rochester. The prisoner also lived there. She was acquainted with the deceased, wife of the prisoner. She said further: I remember being at the Falls with prisoner and his wife on Sunday, the 27th of July last. I got a postcard from the prisoner on the Saturday before, asking me to go there. I took the New York Central train on Sunday morning from Rochester. It was the first time I had been out of Rochester for fifteen years. My brother, the prisoner, his wife and myself started together, and arrived at the Falls at the American side, crossed over the bridge and had dinner at the Globe Hotel on the Canadian side. The prisoner did not take dinner with us. Then we went to the park. We came to go down to the rapids. We walked together, but sometimes one would be ahead of the other. We picked berries along the road. After walking around for a while my feet began to sweat and I did not go further. The deceased was very anxious to see the rapids, and I said if they wanted to they could go. This was near the place where there was a board which said, "Two minutes' walk to the whirlpool." I sat down. They went on and I did not see them for 25 or 30 minutes. Then I saw a shadow go by, but I did not raise my head to see what it was. I stood there a few minutes, and I got up, and further up I saw prisoner and deceased standing looking towards the river. They were not so very close to the edge, but when I looked again they were close together, my brother being behind his wife. I could only see part of them because of the bushes growing on the bank. I was standing looking towards the river. The next I saw was my brother motioning with a black handkerchief. I then walked up towards him, which took me three to five minutes. When I got there he was alone.

Q.—When you went to him what did he say? A.—(Sobbing)—Well, if I must I must. He said he pushed her over. She never moved and never knew what struck her. We then walked away. He gave me a ticket to Buffalo; told me to go there and he would see me there and give me a ticket to Rochester. He walked so fast that I could not keep up with him, and when I got on to the suspension bridge he was at the other end. When we got to the depot at the Falls, American side, he got in a car two or three cars ahead of the one I got into. Nothing was said on the train, but when he handed me the ticket he said, "We will part," or "We had better part here." I got back to Rochester.

Witness did not see him again till one day in Rochester. The 7-year-old child of Deseriah was with her. The little girl said, "Is mamma home?" and he said, "I rather guess not," with a smile. She then identified the dress taken from the body of deceased, identified the hat found near the body and other articles of dress.

On cross-examination witness admitted having served 40 days in prison charged with stealing. Mrs. Day had a bottle with whisky in it. (Prisoner here laughed.) Mrs. Day would have beer. Witness said: I have kept a house of ill-fame; have not been friendly with my brother; I have only had four husbands.

The case for the Crown was concluded when the court adjourned.

When the court reassembled at 7:45 the prisoner wore a scarlet geranium in his buttonhole, and the heavy diamond in his shirt front glistened in the lamplight. There were no witnesses for defense. Mr. German addressed the jury. The line he took on behalf of the prisoner was that his wife had asked him to buy her whisky. He refused. She had then struck him with her umbrella, and told him to go to ——. She had then left with her sister, and he saw no more of her. He charged that if any crime was committed Mrs. Quigley was the perpetrator, and if an accomplice it would not be safe to convict. Mr. German spoke 55 minutes, and pleaded the prisoner's case in an able manner.

Mr. Johnston addressed the jury for an hour. He reviewed the case very clearly, and spoke highly of the detectives and the fairness and moderation with which they had treated the prisoner. His Honor then reviewed the evidence, and the case was given to the jury at 10:15.

CONVICTED.

The jury brought in a verdict of "Guilty" at 1 o'clock this morning, and his Lordship sentenced Day to be hanged on [illegible] 18. The prisoner took his sentence coolly. His counsel had taken exception to the admission of certain testimony, and the case was made a reserved one. Argument on the objection taken will be heard shortly by a full bench of judges.

The Y. P. S. C. E., of Valetta, held their monthly consecration meeting on Monday night. The night was very dark and wet, but the attendance was fair. The reports from all the committees was very encouraging. Prayer meetings are well attended. The Sabbath school attendance is 90 and upwards, and much interest is taken in the work. There is to be an Endeavor social on Oct. 21 at the manse for the benefit of the young people of the congregation. The regular missionary meeting takes place on Oct. 31; subject, "Missionary Work in South America." A temperance meeting will take place soon in the Town Hall. The date is not yet fixed.

STRATFORD.

James Allen, of Ellice, was found guilty of stealing $65 from Edward Taylor, and has been sentenced to six months in jail by Judge Woods.

Dr. J. A. Robertson, city health officer, has made an analysis of the rock water from the gas well and pronounces it very pure and wholesome. It is likely the well will be plugged at the depth of about 500 feet and a pump inserted. The present water supply is not always satisfactory and a good well would be of great advantage.

A lively discussion took place at the City county meeting on the fact that the appropriation made to the Fire, Water and Light Committee was $500 in excess of the amount actually needed, and a motion was introduced to have that amount transferred to the Board of Works, which, unfortunately, is sadly in need of it. Some of the aldermen, however, did not favor the idea of thus encouraging extravagant expenditures on the part of the Board of Works, and the motion was laid over.

The Potter inquest was resumed at the Police Court Monday night. Only one witness was called, Gilbert Robinson, of North Easthope, but as he had never seen the deceased, and knew nothing about the manner in which he came to his death, his examination only lasted a few minutes. The inquest was then adjourned till Nov. 17. The opinion is gaining ground here that possibly after all there was no foul play connected with Potter's death.

FLETCHER FACTS.

Farmers have had fine weather for their fall work; the bean crop is being housed in good condition, and corn husking is beginning. The early sown wheat is looking excellent. The sorghum crop is very small owing to the bad season.

Robert Sainsbury, the fever patient, is still improving. No new cases are reported.

Mr. P. McNab, student of Knox College, sent to Buxton during the vacation, has returned to the college. His labors were crowned with abundant success, and the people became much endeared to him. The attendance at the church had dwindled to about fifteen and but little interest was manifested. Mr. McNab aroused the congregation and the church was crowded to the doors. He preached four times every Sunday at some church, often visiting the B. M. E. Church and drawing large congregations. During his six months' stay he visited 500 families.

Your correspondent visited the sorghum factory of Mr. Geo. Morrison, Raleigh Plains, last Friday, and found him busily stirring off his first batch of syrup of this season. He thinks his crop will turn out over 300 gallons of syrup.

The Fletcher Band is progressing.

THE FALL SHOWS.

WESTMINSTER TOWNSHIP.

The Westminster Township Agricultural Society's fall show was held at Lambeth village Tuesday, and despite the unfavorable state of the weather was a decided success. The number and quality of the exhibits were very satisfactory, and just what might be expected from the large number of enterprising farmers of this banner township. The show of horses was a very good one, there being many splendid animals on exhibition, and all the different classes, draft, general purpose, carriage and roadster, were well filled. The large show of cattle was confined to the thoroughbred Durham, or Shorthorns, and Shorthorn grades and was perhaps as good an exhibition of cattle as could be seen at any township show in Ontario. The show of sheep was also good, some very good Cotswolds, Leicesters, Lincolns and Shropshire Downs and South Downs being found among the number of entries. The swine and also the poultry, though not large in number, were of a fine quality. The ladies' fine works department maintained its position very creditably among the other fine exhibits. The grain, roots, vegetables and fruits were also good, and a credit to the enterprise of the exhibitors. Among the number of visitors might be mentioned the names of Mr. J. W. Martin, of this city; Mr. McDougall, cattle dealer; Mr. J. T. Coughlin, reeve of the township; Mr. John Nixon, one of Westminster's old municipal veterans; as well as other prominent residents of the township and surrounding county.

Advice to Mothers.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhœa. 25c. a bottle.

"Did she give you anything, Bill?" asked Bill's fellow-tramp. "Yes. She gave me the cold shoulder, with plenty of sauce."

Timely Wisdom.

Great and timely wisdom is shown by keeping Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry on hand. It has no equal for cholera, cholera morbus, diarrhea, dysentery, colic, cramps and all summer complaints or looseness of the bowels.

Imperial Federation

Will present an opportunity to extend the fame of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, the unfailing remedy for cholera, cholera morbus, colic, cramps, diarrhea, dysentery, and all summer complaints, to every part of the Empire. Wild Strawberry never fails.

The most interesting sugar question is, "How many lumps do you take?"

Equal Rights.

All have equal rights in life and liberty and the pursuit of happiness, but many are handicapped in the race by dyspepsia, biliousness, lack of energy, nervous debility, weakness, constipation, etc. By completely removing these complaints Burdock Blood Bitters confers untold benefits on all sufferers.

BIRCHALL TRIAL IN PAMPHLET FORM.

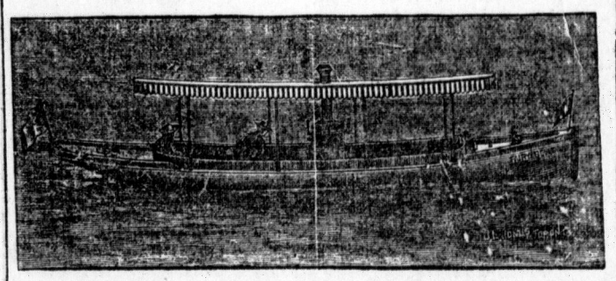

THE interest in the great Birchall Trial has been great in London, and believing that many would like to send the proceedings to friends in various parts of the world, we would suggest that it be got out in pamphlet form. Whether this is done or not, the lioness store will continue to give the best bargains in the city in hats, caps and furs. See the nobby Kenmore hats in latest fall styles, as well as the nicest line of silk hats to be had anywhere. Furs of all kinds, muffs, hats, ladies' and misses' sets. No trouble to show goods. Raw furs purchased. Look for the big lioness at the doorway. The name is THORN & Co.; I. D. Smith, manager. We have some nice caps and hats for boys which sell for

THE TIMBER SALES.

A dispatch to the Toronto Empire from Port Arthur says:

> A number of Rat Portage and Port Arthur lumbermen who have been attending the big pine sale in Toronto have arrived back. The prices which the Government realized for the timber berths in Port Arthur district are considered excessive.

Perhaps so, from a lumberman's point of view; but it is more than probable that though the prices are very good, they are fair to both purchaser and Province.

There would be no kick on the part of the lumbermen if the Dominion Government had the control of the limits, as they would have had if the attempt to despoil Ontario of her northwestern territory had been successful. Then the "friend at court" would have put in a bid for the coveted timber, he would have received it practically on his own terms, and the benefit to the Province of public competition, so well exemplified in the recent sale, and the criticisms of our contemporary's correspondent, would have been entirely lost.

A BAD PLACE FOR MURDERERS.

It did not take a jury at the Welland Assizes very long to reach the conclusion that Arthur Hoyt Day was guilty of the murder of his wife at Niagara Falls last July, and this morning he was sentenced to be hanged. The crime, as summarized in our dispatches, was committed under circumstances that left the criminal no excuse. Like Birchall, the accused, by his own lying and contradictory stories, told after the murder, aided materially in his own conviction. The crime was premeditated in the States, and neither Day nor his wife was a citizen of Canada.

It is to be hoped that the fate of Birchall and now of Day will be reflected on by persons meditating murder, whether they live in Great Britain or in the United States. The speed and certainty with which justice is meted out to criminals in this country ought to convince would-be murderers that Canada is the worst possible place for those who are murderously inclined. It will save this Province a good deal of expense, and may be to the advantage of the parties particularly interested if in future they find it convenient to do their murdering on the other side of the border.

LOOKING FOR FAR-OFF MARKETS.

The position of the Dominion Government and its friends in relation to the United States tariff is that we must look to British markets and markets on the continents of Europe and Asia for the sale of such products as we have in the past been sending to the United States.

But why have we not looked in those directions before? Trade with the United Kingdom is no freer now than it was last year, or five years, or ten years ago. Neither is trade with France, Spain, Germany, Italy, Russia, China, Japan or India. If trade could have been carried on with any of those countries as profitably as with the United States, or more profitably than with that country, why has it not been carried on? We know that it has not. We know that in spite of the high tariff of the United States in past years our trade with that country has been steadily growing larger, whereas with no barriers set up by tariff laws our trade with Great Britain has been steadily growing less. We know, too, that our trade with other foreign countries has continued a mere bagatelle, and has for twenty years shown no expansion worthy to be named.

It is easy enough to talk of getting far-off markets to take the place of those we have lost near at home; but men have only to reflect on the course of events to be convinced that much more is required to attain that object than the pratings of politicians. If other channels are found now, or next year, or the year following, it is inevitable that for many articles prices and profits will be relatively lower than they have been when the same articles were exported to the United States. A large portion of our surplus produce has been sold in the markets of that country because it paid better to send them there than elsewhere. But now, with the duty on many things placed so high as to be prohibitory, or so high as to cut down the margin of profit to nonpaying figures, we must either cease to produce for export the cereals, live stock, etc., heretofore shipped to the United States, or keep on producing them to sell at a reduced margin of profits elsewhere. What can we sell to Great Britain now which we could not have sold equally well last year? And what chance is there of enlarging our exports to that country except at the cost of lower prices? The British buyer is not going to take our wheat or cheese or barley and pay more for them than they can be procured for elsewhere. Neither is the French buyer, or the German buyer, or the Japanese buyer. Trade is a matter of business, not of sentiment, and not all the "loyalty" speeches which Dominion Ministers can make from now till doomsday will persuade even a British miller or maltster to take a bushel of Canadian wheat or barley at 1 cent above the current price in the world's markets.

It was clearly the business of the Dominion Government, in the interest of the Canadian people, to enter into negotiations for the establishing of fair trade relations with the United States when the opportunity was open to them. But instead of doing so they preferred to frame a high tariff of their own, and so set to the United States an example which the politicians of that country have been only too ready to follow.

We have the Foster tariff and the McKinley tariff now, and Canadians will soon see how restriction will operate when in full swing on both sides of the line.

COMPULSORY OVERWORK.

The Toronto Telegram says that "Canada will work a way out" of the injury inflicted upon her by the maintenance of the high tax policy on the United States borders. But why should the Dominion be called upon to "work her way out" of a taxation craze of this sort? The men now in power at Ottawa had it in their power to show by actions that they were anxious to secure reciprocity for the country, and thus avoid the injury to our interests now effected, but instead of that they have acted throughout as mere agents of the combines, and have again and again said that reciprocity was not desirable. We have Mr. Colby's statement to that effect, and not one of his fellow Ministers has repudiated the contention, while many of the restrictionist organs have taken the same line. Reciprocity negotiations with such a crowd was out of the question. But with a Government working for the best interests of the whole people, determined to reduce their taxes, and to let them enjoy a greater share of the fruits of their own labor, ways and means would soon be found to promote an international agreement that, while sacrificing no legitimate Canadian or United States interest would be beneficial to the people of both countries.

The Canadian people have enough to do now in earning money to buy food and clothing, artificially enhanced in price by class legislation, without being compelled to "work their way out" of a labyrinth of trouble brought upon them by the culpable neglect of men who have long since lost the confidence of the majority of the people.

PERSONAL AND GENERAL.

—Sam Jones says he is glad that no other man preaches as he does.

‡‡‡

—The St. Thomas Fair Association lost $400 on their late show, and the directors have now a total deficit of $878 93.

‡‡‡

—The clergy of Treves have denounced lawn tennis as an unbecoming game for German girls. And must the fair maidens fall back on croquet and the skipping rope!

‡‡‡

—Hon. S. C. Wood, of Toronto, was in town to-day as a witness in court. Mr. Wood is an able and energetic man, and rendered valuable service to Ontario while Provincial Treasurer.

‡‡‡

—A prison physician says that fifteen years is about the average life-time sentence. Very few convicts, though sentenced for life, serve more than that period. They die or are pardoned.

‡‡‡

—Chancellor Boyd, at present holding court in London, is considered by the bar to be, all things considered, the strongest judge on the Canadian bench. Chancellor Boyd is a fine type of the Christian gentleman. He is a Baptist.

‡‡‡

—A Congressman at Washington was frank enough to confess on the floor of the House that he is not worth the $5,000 salary paid him by the Government. The father of his country has one son of whom he need not be ashamed.

‡‡‡

—Winter has already struck some parts of the Dominion. Snow has fallen in Quebec and New Brunswick, but in Ontario, the much-favored Province, needed rain has come, and we have yet to enjoy that most beautiful season—Indian summer.

‡‡‡

—During last month no fewer than 107 persons emigrated from the St. Thomas district to the United States. The exodus is altogether too large. It is evident that, whatever else it does, the high tax policy does not keep Canadians for Canada.

‡‡‡

—An electric railway is to be laid down between Seattle and Tacoma. It will be 42 miles in length, and the longest road of the kind yet constructed; but at the present rate of electric development, it is highly probable that the steam locomotive will be superseded on the trunk lines before the dawn of the twentieth century, ten years hence.

‡‡‡

—Rev. W. W. Campbell, one of the best-known poets in the Dominion, and an able man in other respects, who has recently had charge of the Anglican Church in St. Stephens, N.B., is now on a visit to Ontario, and may make his home in the West. He is a graduate of Wycliffe College, and would be an acquisition to any parish in need of a good pastor.

‡‡‡

—Germany intends to use carrier-pigeons extensively in the next war. The authorities possess no fewer than half a million of these swift-winged messengers. Bicycles, pigeons and smokeless gunpowder will all get a trial when the war of the future gets well under way. The autumn maneuvers on the continent have tested the last-named agency pretty effectually, and the Paris Temps sums up the lessons learned by the experimenters. Uniforms must in some cases be changed to meet the new conditions. Red, the French national color, it remarks, is indistinguishable at long distances, and only shows as a dark mass. At medium ranges it considerably disturbs distance-judging. But everything that shines will have to be discontinued, as the light reveals it and enables a defending force to calculate range very easily in a smokeless atmosphere. The advantages of the new gunpowder are all on the side of the defense, it seems, unless the attacking party be indiscreet and its leaders omit wise precautions.

‡‡‡

—The latest attempt at a solution of the rum problem is a suggestion to characterize drunkenness as a crime, and punish the drunkard as a criminal. The learned gentleman who proposes the remedy considers intemperance the greatest rock in the way of the evangelization of the world, but he makes a fundamental error in saying, "When properly conducted it (the liquor trade) is entirely legitimate." When and where has it been properly conducted? What can be the proper method of conducting a business whose only object is to create diseased appetite? There is a proper method of putting it down, and that is by prohibition.

OTHER NEWSPAPERS.

HIGH TAXATION DID NOT SAVE THEM.

Ottawa Free Press.

The three largest factories in Minister Foster's constituency have been closed up within the past few years. So much for high taxation.

A GRAVE QUESTION.

Rochester Herald.

Is a hen a bird? The McKinley Bill in one place makes "eggs of birds, fish and insects" free, and in another place the tariff is fixed on "eggs, per dozen, 5 cents."

THE DECADENCE OF THE LITTLE TOE.

Medical Record.

According to Pfitzner, the little toe of man is degenerating. In 36 per cent. of the cases he has observed it had only two instead of three phalanges.

THE TORY DILEMMA.

Toronto Mail.

There has been a conflict of opinion among the party managers on the subject of a dissolution. The Premier is understood to have favored an appeal on the ground that the time was suitable. On the other hand, individual politicians have opposed it from the personal point of view.

THE SLANDER ON MINISTERS' SONS.

Canada Presbyterian.

Ministers sons came to the front in the great criminal trial at Woodstock. Mr. Osler is a son of the Rev. Canon Osler, formerly of Dundas. Mr. Blackstock is the son of a retired Methodist minister. Mr. Hellmuth is a son of the well-known Episcopal divine of that name. The old slander that ministers' sons never amount to anything is not true of Ontario. It never was true anywhere.

THE FLEECING GAME REVIVED.

Montreal Gazette.

On the strength of a big crop in Manitoba Winnipeg real estate seems to be taking on the preliminary fever of a boom. The progress of the disease will be watched with some anxiety as well as with much interest. There are some who would not like to see a repetition of the evils that followed the bursting of the last Winnipeg land bubble, and some who would like to watch on others the effects of the skinning process they themselves underwent ten years ago.

DELIGHTED WITH LONDON'S FAIR.

Mitchell Recorder.

From every source qualified to speak on the subject comes gratifying accounts of the success of the Western Fair held at London last week. Farmers, especially, speak of it as their present ideal of an agricultural exhibition. There is quite enough of the hippodrome and side show feature connected with it to entertain those who go to be entertained by that sort of thing. But that sort of thing is accorded a secondary consideration by the management and carried only to a secondary degree in the attractiveness of the great exhibition. Perfection in the departments of industry and art is the chief aim, we are pleased to know, of the Western Fair management, and their success in the exhibition just held has been most gratifying. Farmers whom we have spoken with say that Toronto's is undoubtedly the greatest show; but as an agricultural and industrial exhibition London's pleases them best. If the management only keep well to the front the purpose of making the Western what the defunct Provincial aimed to be, and pursue that purpose with the same vigor and enterprise as characterized their efforts this year, the permanent success of their exhibition is assured.

A BAD HUMOR CURED.

$5,000 Expended on Doctors and Medicine without Avail. Gave Himself Up to Die.

Good Wife Suggests Cuticura Remedies. Uses Them 7 Months, and Is Entirely Cured.

I was in the war during 1863-64, and took a heavy cold at Gettysburg, from which I never fully recovered. In 1873 I broke out in sores all over my chest and shoulder, which seemed impossible to cure. I tried all the famed doctors I could find, and to no avail. I expended some $5,000 trying to find a cure, but could not, and finally giving myself up to die, my good wife suggested to me, one day, to try the CUTICURA REMEDIES, which were so extensively advertised and used. I followed her suggestion, and am happy to say by diligent application of your CUTICURA REMEDIES for seven months I was entirely cured, after spending five years of time and money without avail, and am a sound and well man to-day. You may refer to me if you wish, as I will tell anyone who may call on me my experience.

What Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery Has Done.

A Miraculous Medicine.—Mr. J. H. CREPEAU, St. Camille, writes: "Send me at once three dozen NORTHROP & LYMAN'S VEGETABLE DISCOVERY. It is a miraculous medicine and has performed great cures, testimonials of which we can give you.

Knows it is Good.—Mrs. C. JOHNSON, Melville, writes:—"I have great pleasure in recommending your VEGETABLE DISCOVERY. I have used two bottles, and it completely cured me of a bad case of Dyspepsia. I also found it an excellent Blood Medicine, and sure cure for Kidney troubles."

The Best Medicine.—Mr. JNO. BLACKWELL, of the Bank of Commerce, Toronto, writes: "Having suffered for over four years from Dyspepsia and weak stomach, and having tried numerous remedies with but little effect, I was at last advised to give NORTHROP & LYMAN'S VEGETABLE DISCOVERY a trial. I did so, with a happy result, receiving great benefit from one bottle. I then tried a second and third bottle, and now I find my appetite so much restored and stomach strengthened, that I can partake of a hearty meal without any of the unpleasantness I formerly experienced. I consider it the best medicine in the market for the stomach and system generally."

It Gives Strength.—Mr. J. S. DRISCOLL, of Granite Hill, writes: "I have derived great benefit from the use of your VEGETABLE DISCOVERY. My appetite has returned, and I feel stronger."

A Pleasure to us.—Mr. L. N. BOURCIER, of Ripon, P.Q., writes: "It is with great pleasure I inform you that your VEGETABLE DISCOVERY cured me of Dyspepsia. I tried many remedies, but none had any effect on me until I came across NORTHROP & LYMAN'S VEGETABLE DISCOVERY; one bottle relieved me, and a second completely cured me; you cannot recommend it too highly."

If you are Despondent, Low-spirited, Irritable and Peevish, and unpleasant sensations are felt invariably after eating, then get a bottle of NORTHROP & LYMAN'S VEGETABLE DISCOVERY, and it will give you relief. You have Dyspepsia. Mr. R. H. DAWSON, of St. Mary's, writes: "Four bottles of VEGETABLE DISCOVERY entirely cured me of Dyspepsia; mine was one of the worst cases. I now feel like a new man."

Mr. GEO. TOLEN, Druggist, Gravenhurst, Ont., writes: "My customers who have used NORTHROP & LYMAN'S VEGETABLE DISCOVERY say that it has done them more good than anything they ever used."

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Is a peculiar medicine. It is carefully prepared from Sarsaparilla, Dandelion, Mandrake, Dock, Pipsissewa, Juniper Berries, and other well-known and valuable vegetable remedies, by a peculiar combination, proportion and process, giving to Hood's Sarsaparilla curative power not possessed by other medicines. It effects remarkable cures where other preparations fail.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Is the best blood purifier before the public. It eradicates every impurity, and cures Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Boils, Pimples, all Humors, Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Sick Headache, Indigestion, General Debility, Catarrh, Rheumatism, Kidney and Liver Complaints, overcomes that tired feeling, creates an appetite, and builds up the system.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Has met peculiar and unparalleled success at home. Such has become its popularity in Lowell, Mass., where it is made, that whole neighborhoods are taking it at the same time. Lowell druggists sell more of Hood's Sarsaparilla than of all other sarsaparillas or blood purifiers. Sold by druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared only by C. I. President Young, of the National League, says: "At a meeting of the magnates of the League, to be held on Wednesday, all phases of the baseball situation will be discussed, and as the Cincinnati club has been sold to the Brotherhood, arrangements will be perfected looking toward a new League team for that city. Mr. Stern did not dispose of the franchise which the League holds for Cincinnati." Mr. Young intimates that when the League plans are perfected at the coming meeting, their announcement is likely to surprise the Brotherhood people.

THE TRIGGER.

At a recent meeting of the officers at St. Thomas it was decided to form a Twenty-Fifth Battalion Rifle Association. The first shooting match will be held on McKay flats Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 6. A team will be sent to all the Provincial Rifle Association matches.

MUSICAL AND DRAMATIC.

Gilbert & Sullivan's opera, "The Yeoman of the Guard," has been produced for the first time in Berlin, with brilliant success, though "The Gondoliers" recently met with almost complete failure at Vienna.

Mme. Marie Roze Mapleson intends to withdraw from the glare of public life and retire once and all from the stage she has so long adorned. She will bid adieu to the English opera-goers next year. This, therefore, will be her last tour with the Carl Rosa Company, and during it she will appear as Carmen, a part with which her name is very closely linked. After the season she will go to Paris and make her home with some relatives who live there.

Sometimes objection is raised here to the wait for a chance to reserve seats at the box office. Here is a description, from the Pall Mall Budget, of how the people of the British metropolis act in a "crush:" "As usual, patrons of the Lyceum pit took their seats outside the door at an early hour on Saturday morning. A lady came first, at ten minutes to 9 o'clock, and twenty minutes later two more ladies and a male escort joined her. Subsequently another man arrived to keep the rest in countenance. At 11 o'clock the five were in solitary state, except for a grinning crowd in the Strand. The enthusiasts have camp stools, and are plentifully provided with newspapers and novels. The performance did not begin until 8 o'clock, and, of course, was not over much before midnight. On "first nights" the public begin to arrive generally about 9 o'clock a.m.

The Boyle Matter Laid on the Shelf After a Warm Debate—The Hatchet Has Been Buried for a Time—How School Supplies Are Bought on the Side.

The Board of Education met last evening a few minutes before 8 o'clock and talked for four hours, adjourning just before the stroke of the midnight hour. The Boyle matter as set forth in No. 1 Committee's report came in for the lion's share of attention, and at times the discussion grew very warm and the chair had difficulty in keeping order. The following members were present: Chairman Jeffery, Trustees Love, Dewar, Rowlands, Cook, Craig, Turner, Durdin, Childs, Cryer, Allaster, Johnston, Brady, Jeffers, Yates, Stephenson and Luscombe, Secretary Abbott and Inspector Boyle.

COMMUNICATIONS.

Applications for the position of head master of one of the public schools were received from Francis A. Walker, St. Catharines; W. B. Kayler, Marven; C. W. Callander, Gananoque; I. J. Smith, Toronto; C. M. French, Pembroke; W. W. Ireland, Markham; D. McArdle, Toronto; F. C. Smith, Renfrew; J. H. Putman, Ancaster; E. J. Rowlands, Caledonia; Edgar Richardson, Maple. No. 1.

Applications for the position of kindergarten teachers were received from Misses Helen Grant, Tilsonburg; A. Wickham, Port Elgin, and A. De C. O'Grady, Toronto, and referred to No. 1.

W. J. Thompson—Asking that his children be allowed to attend the King street school. Granted.

Alexander McQueen, principal of Askin street school—Inclosing a list of the kindergarten supplies required in his school for the year beginning September, 1890. No. 1.

Mrs. Porter, teacher of Hamilton road school—Inclosing report on the cleanliness of the school. Filed.

Provincial Treasurer Ross — Inclosing check for $819 21, being the high school grant. Acknowledged.

Thomas Parkinson—Application as janitor of Hamilton road school. No. 2.

J. Meaden—Asking to have his children transferred from the Talbot street to the King street school. Granted.

R. C. Macfie—Re sale of property adjoining the King street school. No. 2.

The Communication of Head Master Woodburne, of the Princess avenue school, asking to be placed on the same footing with the other head masters, caused some discussion. Trustee Cook moved that the request be granted, and that Mr. Woodburne be paid the same salary as other teachets teaching the same grade. The matter was referred to No. 1.

A communication was read from H. A. McLean, asking that the Trades and Labor Council be supplied with a copy of the evidence of the Wood's investigation. Trustee Luscombe moved, seconded by Trustee Cook, that the petition be granted, provided the consent of Mr. Woods could be obtained. Trustee Dewar moved in amendment that the petition be filed. Trustee Luscombe's motion carried.

The reports of Inspector Boyle and Acting-Principal Little respecting the monthly attendance were received and filed.

NUMBER TWO COMMITTEE.

By Trustee Turner, chairman:

1. Your committee have passed accounts to the amount of $323 35.

2. The communication of E. N. Hunt to supply Dominion Arms lithographs is referred to the Board for consideration.

3. Re purchase of a desk from the Graybell Manufacturing Company, of Waterloo, by members of the Board, but without the sanction of the committee to whom the question was referred, the committee recommend that the account do pass, as payment has been made. It is hoped that in future this action will not be used as a precedent for any committee in the purchase of school supplies.

4. That Trustee Brady's resolution of Jan. 27 last, to dispose with the services of all janitresses, be considered by the Board.

5. Your committee have made arrangements with John Ferguson to serve as janitor at Dundas street school at $15 per month until Lorne avenue school be ready.

6. Your committee recommend that a special committee be appointed to ascertain how much coke can be used in the school furnaces with coal, to obtain a greater heat at less expense, and to report on the same.

7. That the bell purchased from Mr. Chapman be placed in the Lorne avenue school.

The first two clauses were passed without comment, but on the reading of the third clause Trustee Yates took exception to the reference made to the purchase of the desk.

Trustee Love moved in amendment that the action of the committee be confirmed, and that all other reference to the subject be omitted.

Trustee Dewar spoke in support of the clause, and said that it was establishing a bad precedent. If the work of the Board was carried on in this way, the members deserved to go to the wall at the next election.

The clause was finally passed without amendment.

Trustee Brady moved that clause No. 4 be laid over for three months.

Trustee Durdin moved in amendment that the clause be struck out. The amendment was put and lost, Trustee Brady's motion being carried.

A special committee, consisting of Trustees Turner, Yates, Childs, Brady and Dewar, was appointed to carry out the object of clause No. 6.

The last clause was passed and the report as amended was adopted.

NUMBER ONE COMMITTEE.

By Mr. Stephenson, chairman:

1. Your committee have audited the accounts of No. 2 Committee, and recommend same for payment, with the following exceptions, which we beg to refer to the Board: Jas. Penn, $17 50; Wm. Seccombe, $20; Jas. Greenway, $43 15; and Jeffery Bros., $31 92; also the tender of Mr. Hunt for Dominion Coat of Arms.

2. That the application of Mrs. Hamilton for admission of nine pupils from Protestant Orphans' Home to public schools be granted, and that they be placed in Waterloo north school.

3. That John Mills' account of $1 70 for postage stamps be paid.

4. We report progress re application kindergarten teachers.

5. Resolved, that in future when pupils have succeeded in any terminal examination in obtaining the aggregate number of marks for passing such examination, but may have failed in one subject, the matter of the promotion of such pupil shall be reported to the Board for decision.

6. Re Mr. Learn's complaint, your committee beg to report that having heard the statements of Inspector Boyle, Messrs. Learn and Carson, and Misses Yates, Mulvaney and Winnett, relative to the examinations of July last, that Mr. Learn's pupils were examined on some papers for a higher grade than usual, and one for which they were not fully prepared, it not being the duty of the principal to teach the whole fifth grade work.

7. That Lorne avenue be made a graded school and that Mr. Eckert be transferred thereto as principal, and that a new principal for Rectory street school be appointed.

8. Inspector Boyle's statement re Mr. Learn, your committee beg to report that after a thorough investigation they find that Mr. Boyle denied in No. 1 Committee that he had made certain charges against Mr. Learn, and that the statements in his communication to the Board on the 5th of August, 1890, "that he did not deny them," is not correct.

9. Your committee find that the letter sent by the Chairman of the Board to the teachers containing adverse criticisms of the said teachers was authorized by and founded on the reports of the Inspector.

10. Your committee find on investigation that the statements furnished the Board in his report on the 19th of May last, by the Chairman of this committee were correct and not garbled, as charged by Trustee Johnston.

11. Re principalship of Collegiate Institute; progress.

12. Your committee recommend that Misses Anundson's and Laird's names be placed on the staff as permanent teachers, and that Miss Anundson be assigned a position at Park street and Miss Laird at Colborne street school, and Miss Fleming to Rectory street school, each until Jan. 1, 1891.

13. Your committee beg to submit the report of the joint committee appointed by the County Council of Middlesex and the Board of Education of the city of London to consider the terms of admission of the county pupils to the Collegiate Institute, your committee recommend that power be granted this committee to conclude the agreement on the basis as arranged between the joint committee, which is as follows: That pupils from the county of Middlesex be admitted to the London Collegiate Institute upon the payment of a sum, being the proportion of amount raised by taxation to defray the current expenses of the institute, which the aggregate attendance of country pupils bears to the aggregate attendance of all other pupils, subject to the following provisos: 1. That a fee of 75 cents for every calendar month, payable in advance, be collected from each country pupil except to the extent the taxes paid to the city of London by the parent or guardian of such pupil meets such a fee, and that all fees collected and all taxes allowed on fees of pupils and the excess of such taxes over such fee shall be credited on the balance to be paid by the County Council on behalf of such pupils severally. 2. That the amount to be paid by the corporation of the county of Middlesex shall not exceed in any one calendar year the sum of $800, unless and until the excess over such sum shall have been considered and approved by the County Council. 3. That this agreement shall continue in force from year to year, and can only be terminated on the 1st day of July or January in any year by three months' prior notice. 4. That steps be taken to have this agreement take effect on the 1st day of October, 1890. (Signed.) Members of Committee.

14. Re night school, that the Board make the same grant as that made last year, namely, $150.

It was decided to pay all the disputed accounts, as satisfactory explanations were made. With respect to the purchase of the Dominion Coat of Arms it was moved by Trustee Brady and carried that tenders be advertised for the purchase of the same.

The next four clauses were passed without comment.

Trustee Yates objected to the way in which the sixth clause was worded, as it reflected unjustly on the Inspector. The fault of the mistakes was not entirely with the Inspector.

Trustee Jeffers supported the contention of Trustee Yates.

The clause was adopted.

Trustee Luscombe moved in amendment to the seventh clause that Mr. Althouse be appointed principal of Rectory street school and that Mr. Baker be appointed to a similar position in the Park street school. Carried.

When clause No. 8 was read Trustee Johnston asked to have the minutes of the committee meeting read at which the matter was dealt with. He complained that the report was not made out in conformity with the resolution passed at the Council meeting.

Trustee Childs moved, seconded by Trustee Love, that the clause be struck out.

Trustee Love said that there was no reason for the clause. The matter was not referred to the committee.

Trustee Luscombe—Yes, it was.

Trustee Love contended that the matter should be dropped, as the Inspector was an old and valuable servant.

Trustee Luscombe again corrected Trustee Love, affirming that the matter was referred to the committee to deal with.

Chairman Jeffery quoted the resolution referring the matter to the committee.

Trustee Brady—I move that the clause be struck out.

Trustee Cryer—You don't know anything about it or else you would not talk that way.

Trustee Brady—I want that assertion taken back, Mr. Chairman.

Trustee Cryer—It won't be taken back. You and Love are in error. All the letters of the Inspector were referred to the committee. Perhaps if Trustee Love had been rapped over the knuckles as often as I have been he would not see so much of the Inspector's kindness, but his lies. I am prepared to prove that the statements made by Mr. Boyle are false, and if the matter has to be re-hashed I am prepared to go over the whole thing and prove the whole charge.

Inspector Boyle asked and obtained leave to speak. He said: "I challenge any man to say that I have ever uttered a falsehood. I deny the whole thing. There was not even an exaggeration, much less a falsehood."

Trustee Cryer—I complain of the statement made by you that three times you were asked and did not deny the authorship of the report which the Chairman of the Board regulated his conduct by. The committee has found that you did deny the authorship of the report.

Inspector Boyle—It is a question of veracity between Trustee Cryer and myself, and the concensus of public opinion has already settled that point.

Trustee Cryer—It is not a question of veracity between Mr. Boyle and myself, but between that gentleman and the committee. The committee has said that Mr. Boyle told a falsehood.

Trustee Jeffers urged that the report be dealt with calmly and fairly.

Trustee Childs condemned the practice of having confidential reports, and moved that the clause be struck out.

This motion was carried, Trustees Dewar, Cook, Craig, Turner, Love, Durdin Childs, Allaster, Johnston, Brady and Yates voting for it. The nays were Trustees Rowlands, Cryer, Jeffery, Stephenson and Luscombe.

On clause No. 9 being read, Chairman Jeffery asked Trustee Dewar to take the chair.

Trustee Luscombe, speaking on the support of the clause, contended that the criticism made by the Inspector on the teachers had not been favorable, and was therefore adverse.

Trustee Yates held the criticism was not adverse, and that the Inspector's word should be taken in preference to that of the committee.

Trustee Luscombe disagreed and said that the committee had found otherwise.

Trustee Jeffers stated that the Inspector had written all the names and the report was in the hands of the Chairman.

Trustee Cook explained that the names had been drawn out of the Inspector by the committee.

Trustee Luscombe—That does not matter; he sent in the report.

As the time had expired for meeting Trustee Stephenson moved for an indefinite extension of time. Carried.

Trustee Cryer said that there was no drawing out of the Inspector by the committee. The names objected to were placed in the margin and then the speaker agreed to read over the list of teachers and the Inspector was to mention all who were inefficient. As the names were called the Inspector mentioned the deficiencies.

Trustee Cook—I think that when this man is about to leave his country for his country's good——

Chairman Jeffery—I rise to a point of order.

Trustee Dewar—Trustee Cook you will have to respect the point of order.

Trustee Cook—I am going to speak. Cryer knows that the statements were dragged out of the Inspector. The committee pressed the Inspector over and over again to make certain remarks concerning certain teachers.

Trustee Cryer was hereupon excused, as he had received word that one of his relatives were taken suddenly ill.

Trustee Love—I move that the whole clause be expunged.

Trustee Jeffery objected to such a procedure, as the Inspector had not shown he was willing to allow the matter to drop. He had published a manifesto in the paper reflecting on the speaker's honor.

Inspector Boyle then apologized to the Chairman of the Board, and said that he had no intention of casting any reflection upon him, and that he did not consider the second communication as a report at all.

The clause was expunged, as were also the following ones.

Clause No. 12 was passed.

Trustee Yates moved in amendment to clause No. 13 that the positions of Misses Fleming and Laird be reversed. Carried.

The remaining clauses were passed and the report adopted as amended.

MOTIONS.

Moved by Trustee Brady, seconded by Trustee Durdin, that $25 be voted for repairing the cottages of the Hamilton road school properties. No. 2, with power.

Trustee Rowlands moved that new floors be put in the lower rooms of the Maple avenue school, and that the Chairman of No. 2 be empowered to have the work done. Carried.

Trustee Love moved that the junior pupils attending the Simcoe street school in rooms Nos. 3 and 4 residing east of Wellington street be permitted to attend the Hamilton road school.

Trustee Jeffery moved that No. 1 Committee investigate into examinations held in June last in the schools and report to the Board as to the best mode of conducting such examinations and see that in future they are carried out properly. Carried.

Trustee Dewar moved that the Chairman of No. 2 be empowered to secure the removal of the dark stairway in the Askin street school and flooring the hall made clear by such removal, also to have the three lower rooms in the said school kalsomined similar to the upper ones and that platforms be furnished for the outside entrances. Carried.

Trustee Cook moved that the Inspector take some action either by promotion or by appointing an assistant teacher to Miss Simpson, of the Princess avenue school, so as to lessen the work, and also in Miss Evans' room in Waterloo street north school. Carried.

TRUSTEE CRYER RESIGNS.

The Chairman then read the resignation of Trustee J. Fred. Cryer as member of the Board of Education and Collegiate Institute trustee.

The Board, on motion of Trustee Jeffers, accepted his resignation as a member of the Board, and decided to communicate his resignation as a Collegiate Institute trustee to the Council.

The Board adjourned at 11:50.

British Grain Trade.

LONDON, Oct. 8.—The Mark Lane Express, in its weekly review of the British grain trade, says: The fine weather favors threshing. The local markets are well supplied. Millers are buying English wheat steadily. Red is quoted at 31s to 33s, and the finest white at 33s 9d to 39s. The sale of English wheat during the week were 102,437 quarters at 31s 2d per quarter, against 86,201 quarters at 29s 3d during the corresponding week last year. Owing to Government changes in the methods of collection, one-fourth must be added to quantities of previous years in order to compare them justly with returns of present year. Foreign wheat was 6d lower; the depression was largely owing to the extremely low freights. English grinding barley and oats were 3d lower, and foreign 3d lower. Imports of barley were heavy. The Swedish oat crop is heavy. Maize was 6d lower; the inquiry was poor. Beans and peas were steady. To-day the market was depressed. English wheat was steadier; holders of foreign were firmer. The inquiry for flour was slightly improved. Trade in barley was increasing. Maize was firmer; flat was quoted at 29s per quarter; new Argentine was offered at 13s 6d. Oats were fairly steady. Beans, peas and rice were dull.

Finance Notes

The visible supply of wheat in Britain increased 2,000,000 bushels last week.

The receipts of new Canadian barley at Oswego to date amounts to 1,777,000 bushels.

The imports of merchandise at New last week are valued at $13,158,000, as against $8,066,000 the corresponding week of last year, and $7,811,000 in the same week of 1888.

LOCAL MARKETS.

Reported by A. M. Hamilton & Son.

LONDON, Wednesday, Oct. 8.

WEEKLY REVIEW.

The supply of grain has varied considerable this week, but this has not been sufficient to create any movement in prices. So far no marked effect has been caused by the McKinley Bill on the barley market, due probably to the small offerings and high price of rough grains.

The tone in oats has improved a little, but prominent buyers still say prices must go to $1 and maybe below.

In provisions trade has been good, all lines have held their own, and in some cases advanced under the effect of light stock and liberal purchases.

Eggs moved up 1c all around.

Tomatoes have fully doubled themselves and are now selling at $1.

Pears have brought $2 per bushel all week.

Outside of the above alterations there is nothing to note.

Cattle—Receipts, 10,000, including 6,000 Texans and westerns; market steady.

Sheep—Receipts, 10,000; market lower.

EAST BUFFALO.

EAST BUFFALO, N. Y., Oct. 7.—Cattle—About 65 cars on sale left over from yesterday. They were largely Michigan pony steers and heifers, common thin cows and scraggy cattle, for which little demand, at $1 75 to $2 50; many common milch cows and springers here; no demand; calves dull and lower; tops, 6½c.

Sheep and lambs—Offerings, 9 cars; most of the best sheep sold at $4 40 to $4 65; no extra here; lambs dull; best 90 lb. Canadas sold at $6 25; Michigans, choice to extra, $5 75 to $6; not likely prices will be lower if run not excessive between this and holiday season.

Hogs—Ten cars on sale, active and firm; mediums and mixed, $4 80 to $4 90; heavies, $4 85; Yorkers, $4 70 to $4 80; pigs, $3 to $4 10.

TORONTO.

TORONTO, Oct. 8.—The market yesterday was well attended, and, considering the heavy run of stock, business was fairly good. Sixty-five loads were sent forward, but there were only five loads held over. There was a pretty good trade all round. There was a fair demand for export, and there was also some buying for distillery purposes. The quality was below the average. The top price for good export cattle was 4 cents a pound, although a couple of choice loads were reported to have gone as high as 4¼c per lb, and another at $4 30 per cwt. The general range of prices was from 3½c to 4c per lb for fat stuff. The demand was to fill space taken at Montreal, as old country cables are again lower this week. Stockers sold at 3c to 3¼c per lb, and stock bulls are quoted at $2 12½ to $2 50 per cwt. Butchers' cattle were selling fairly well at 3½c to 3¾c per lb for good animals, 2½c to 3c for the poor stuff, and 3¾c for extra good.

There is a good demand for back springers for export at prices ranging from $40 to $50. There were not many coming in.

Sheep and Lambs—Lambs sold steadily at $3 75 to $4 75 per head; 4¼c to 4½c per lb would have been paid for good shippers. Sales in the old country last week were more favorable, but advices yesterday and Monday showed a decline in the market. Culls were quoted at 4c to 4¼c per lb.

Hogs—The supply is not so large, and the market is consequently better. Stores and light fat are not wanted, and won't bring more than 4c per lb. Straight fat are quoted at $4 50 to $4 75 per cwt, and mixed lots $4 30 to $4 40.

The Dairy Markets.

PETERBORO.

PETERBORO, Oct. 7.—At the regular meeting of the Peterboro' and Victoria Cheese Board here to-day there were offered 5,244 boxes, nearly equally composed of the first and second half of September. There were, however, no transactions, the salesmen refusing Mr. Clurton's offer of 10½c. The Board adjourned for a week.

INGERSOLL.

INGERSOLL, Oct. 7.—Offerings to-day, 6,500; no sales; market dull; 9½c was the highest bid for August and 10 3-16c for September. Sellers ask 10½c and upwards for September and 9½c for August.

Petrolea Oil Market.

PETROLEA, Oct. 8.—Oil to-day opened and closed at $1 29.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.

"Subscriber" (Morpeth).—There will be an examination for entrance to the high school in December of this year.

"Student" (Turtle Lake) asks: What is the prescribed literature for third-class teachers' examination for 1891? Answer—The selections from the High School Reader numbered respectively: 3, 7, 18, 28, 29, 35, 36, 37, 38, 40, 46, 51, 54, 55, 56, 62, 67, 73, 76, 79, 80, 81, 101, 105, 106, 107 and 108.

LONDON AND ENVIRONS.

—A presentation to Bishop O'Connor will take place at Sandwich College Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

—Joe Knight's wife is seriously ill, and he has returned to this city from Cincinnati, where he has been playing ball all summer.

—The annual Clam Bake took place this afternoon at Springbank, and a large number from Toronto and other places were in attendance. The weather was very fine.

—The bankrupt stock of G. Weatherill, consisting of boots and shoes valued at $7,030, was sold to Powell & Co., of St. Marys, at 72½ cents on the dollar. W. Y. Brunton & Son were the auctioneers.

—The family of Mr. Alexander Willis, late superintendent of the Ontario Car Works, this city, will remove to Moncton, N. B., next week. Mr. Willis is there at present and has been appointed superintendent of the Intercolonial Car Works.

Dr. Moore's course of lectures to Young women in the "Y" rooms opened auspiciously last evening before a good audience, notebook in hand. The lecture was full of condensed information of a practical nature, of which any extract could give but an inadequate idea.

—Mr. John Mohan, who has been in the Grand Trunk refreshment rooms in this city for a couple of years, has been appointed to the management of the refreshment room at the Chatham station. Mr. Loney, who has been manager at Chatham, has gone into the hotel business.

—A local board of the Canadian Mutual Loan and Investment Company has been formed in this city with Dr. J. H. Gardiner president; John Stephenson, vice-president; Wm. Spittal, secretary; W. S. Barkwell, treasurer; E. H. Johnston, solicitor, and Andrew Durand, valuator.

—Mrs. Ferguson, an elderly woman from Glencoe, who was stopping at the City Hotel, left the gas jet open in her bedroom on Monday evening. When the mistake was discovered in the morning she was almost past medical aid. It took all morning for Dr. Wilson to bring her around.

—Considering counter-attractions and the weather, a very fair-sized audience attended the concert given in Victoria Hall last evening under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. choir. Mr. James W. Belcher contributed two solos in his usual excellent style, as did Dr. Ziegler and Mr. Alex. Caldwell, each of whom received encores. Mr. Crawford's recitation was rendered with good taste. The piano duet by Messrs. W. Bevin and Alex. Caldwell, and the instrumental solo by the latter were executed in a finished manner. At the close a vote of thanks was tendered, on motion of Mr. Walter White, to the performers for their kind and disinterested services. No admission charge was made for the concert.

Manitoba's Premier in the City.

"Good-morning, Mr. Greenway, are you in the city on business?" asked an ADVERTISER reporter of Hon. Mr. Greenway, Premier of Manitoba, to-day, as he caught sight of him in the Grigg House office.

"Yes, I am here on matters connected with Government immigration.

"Do you stay in London long?"

"No, I am going to Exeter to-day. I have been in Toronto for the past week, and eave for the old country on Oct. 18 to look after immigration affairs."

"What is your opinion of the crops in the Northwest?"

"Well, I think they're the fullest we have ever had there. Everything is looking first-rate."

Mr. Neale's Creditor Calls.

Yesterday afternoon Division Court Bailiff Burns, accompanied by his assistant, John Beaton, called at the residence of Mr. Neale on Burwell street. The visitors were armed with a writ of attachment issued at the instance of a Dundas street grocer, and their object was to annex the chattels of the missing minister as security for an unpaid grocery bill. As the house contained hardly anything but rented furniture, the choice of the visitors was limited to a few small articles and a handsome writing desk. They decided to take the latter, and with difficulty succeeded in getting it through one of the windows. The article is probably worth $50, and is considered sufficient security for the account, which amounts to $20 28. Nothing has been heard from Mr. Neale since his letter from Buffalo received in the city yesterday, saying that London would hear from him again.

Want to Break a Millionaire's Will.

The late John Crerar, of Chicago, left several million dollars for public purposes in that city. It is now intended by various heirs to try and upset the will. The contestants in a court document say:

We then sent James Stewart to Ontario, Canada, and Robert to the Province of Manitoba to obtain affidavits in proof of heirship, which affidavits we have, and they show the following persons to be heirs under the contest that we shall make:

Duncan Stewart, of Stratford, Ont., whose mother was an aunt of John Crerar.

Elizabeth Menzies, of county of Huron, Ontario, first cousin of John Crerar.

Christina Stewart, of Stratford, first cousin to John Crerar. Catharine Stewart, the same place; first cousin.

Margaret Crerar, of Stratford, first cousin.

Alexander Stewart, of Stratford, second cousin.

Thomas Stewart, of Stratford, second cousin.

Peter Stewart, of Stratford, second cousin.

CHANCERY SITTINGS.

THIRD DAY—WEDNESDAY.

The suit of the city and district Bank of Montreal against the Ontario Investment Association occupied the attention of the court all morning. This is an action brought by the plaintiffs to recover $22,000, balance of a loan of $40,000, alleged to have been made to defendants. The defendants aver that the money was lent to Henry Taylor as a personal loan, and that the association was not liable for it. Beatty Chadwick & Blackstock for plaintiffs' Meredith, Fisher & Beattie for defendants.

Indigestion
IS not only a distressing complaint, of itself, but, by causing the blood to become depraved and the system enfeebled, is the parent of innumerable maladies. That Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best cure for Indigestion, even when complicated with Liver Complaint, is proved by the following testimony from Mrs. Joseph Lake, of Brockway Centre, Mich.:—
"Liver complaint and indigestion made my life a burden and came near ending my existence. For more than four years I suffered untold agony, was reduced almost to a skeleton, and hardly had strength to drag myself about. All kinds of food distressed me, and only the most delicate could be digested at all. Within the time mentioned several physicians treated me without giving relief. Nothing that I took seemed to do any permanent good until I commenced the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which has produced wonderful results. Soon after commencing to take the Sarsaparilla I could see an improvement in my condition. My appetite began to return and with it came the ability to digest all the food taken, my strength improved each day, and after a few months of faithful attention to your directions, I found myself a well woman, able to attend to all household duties. The medicine has given me a new lease of life."

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

CURE

Sick Headache and relieve all the troubles incident to a bilious state of the system, such as Dizziness, Nausea, Drowsiness, Distress after eating, Pain in the Side, &c. While their most remarkable success has been shown in curing

SICK

Headache, yet Carter's Little Liver Pills are equally valuable in Constipation, curing and preventing this annoying complaint, while they also correct all disorders of the stomach, stimulate the liver and regulate the bowels. Even if they only cured

HEAD

Ache they would be almost priceless to those who suffer from this distressing complaint; but fortunately their goodness does not end here, and those who once try them will find these little pills valuable in so many ways that they will not be willing to do without them. But after all sick head is the bane of so many lives that here is where we make our great boast. Our pills cure it while others do not.

Carter's Little Liver Pills are very small and very easy to take. One or two pills make a dose. They are strictly vegetable and do not gripe or purge, but by their gentle action please all who use them. In vials at 25 cents; five for $1. Sold by druggists everywhere, or sent by mail.

Desperate Remedies

By Thomas Hardy,

AUTHOR OF "A PAIR OF BLUE EYES," "THE TRUMPET-MAJOR," ETC.

This time the three walked a little way together, Edward ostensibly talking to Owen, though with a single thought to the reception of his words by the maiden at the further side, upon whom his gaze was mostly resting, and who was attentively listening—looking fixedly upon the pavement the while. It has been said men love with their eyes; woman with their ears.

As Owen and himself were little more than acquaintances as yet, and as Springrove was wanting in the assurance of many men of his age, it now became necessary to wish his friends good-evening, or to find a reason for continuing near Cytherea by saying some nice new thing. He thought of a new thing; he proposed a pull across the bay. This was assented to. They went to the pier; stepped into one of the gaily painted boats moored alongside, and sheered off. Cytherea sat in the stern.

They rowed that evening; the next came, and with it the necessity of rowing again. Then the next, and the next, Cytherea always sitting in the stern with the tiller-ropes in her hand. The curves of her figure welded with those of the fragile boat in perfect continuation, as she girlishly yielded herself to its heaving and sinking, seeming to form with it an organic whole.

Then Owen was inclined to test his skill in paddling a canoe. Edward did not like canoes, and the issue was, that, having seen him on board, Springrove proposed to pull off after him with a pair of sculls; but not considering himself sufficiently accomplished to do finished rowing before a parade full of promenaders when there was a little swell on, and with the rudder unshipped in addition, he begged that Cytherea might come with him and steer as before. She stepped in, and they floated along in the wake of her brother. Thus passed the fifth evening on the water.

But the sympathetic pair were thrown into still closer companionship, and much more exclusive connexion.

§ 2. July the twenty-ninth.

It was a sad time for Cytherea—the last day of Springrove's management at Gradfield's, and the last evening before his return from Creston to his father's house, previous to his departure for London.

Graye had been requested by the architect to survey a plot of land nearly twenty miles off, which, with the journey to and fro, would occupy him the whole of the day and prevent his returning till late in the evening. Cytherea made a companion of her landlady to the extent of sharing meals and sitting with her during the morning of her brother's absence. Mid-day found her restless and miserable under this arrangement. All the afternoon she sat alone, looking out of the window for she scarcely knew whom, and hoping she scarcely knew what. Half-past five o'clock came—the end of Springrove's official day. Two minutes later Springrove walked by.

She endured the solitude for another half an hour, and then could endure no longer. She had hoped—under the title of feared—that Edward would have found some reason or other for calling, but it seemed that he had not. Hastily dressing herself she went out, when the farce of an accidental meeting was repeated. Edward came upon her in the street at the first turning, and, like the great duke Ferdinand in "The Statue and the Bust"—

"He looked at her as a lover can:
She looked at him as one who awakes—
The past was a sleep, an her life began."

"Shall we have a boat?" he said, impulsively.

How exquisite it all is at first! Perhaps indeed, the only bliss in the course of love which can truly be called Eden-like is that which prevails immediately after doubt has ended and before reflection has set in—at the dawn of the emotion, when it is not recognized by name, and before the consideration of what this love is, has given birth to the consideration of what difficulties it tends to create; when on the man's part, the mistress appears to the mind's eye in picturesque, hazy, and fresh morning lights, and soft morning shadows; when, as yet, she is known only as the wearer of one dress, which shares her own personality; as the stander in one special position, the giver of one bright particular glance, and the speaker of one tender sentence; when, on her part, she is timidly careful over what she says and does, lest she should be misconstrued or under-rated to the breadth of a shadow of a hair.

"Shall we have a boat," he said again, more softly, seeing that at his first question she had not answered, but looked uncertainly at the ground, then almost, but not quite, in his face, blushed a series of minute blushes, left off in the midst of them, and showed the usual signs of perplexity in a matter of the emotions.

Owen had always been with her before, but now there was a force of habit in the proceeding, and with the Arcadian innocence she assumed that a row on the water was, under any circumstances, a natural thing. Without another word being spoken on either side, they went down the steps. He carefully handed her in, took his seat, slid noiselessly off the sand, and away from the shore.

They thus sat facing each other in the graceful yellow cockle-shell, and his eyes frequently found a resting-place in the depths of hers. The boat was so small that at each return of the sculls, when his hands came forward to begin the pull, they approached so near to her that her vivid imagination began to thrill her with a fancy that he was going to clasp his arms round her. The sensation grew so strong that she could not again risk meeting his eyes at those critical moments, and turned aside to inspect the distant horizon; then she grew weary looking sideways, and was driven to her natural position again. At this instant he again bent forward to begin, and met her glance with an ardent fixed gaze. An involuntary impulse of girlish embarrassment caused her to give a vehement pull at the tiller-rope, which brought the boat's head round till they stood directly for the shore.

His eyes, which had dwelt upon her form during the whole time of her look askance, now left her; he perceived the direction in which they were going.

"Why you have completely turned the boat, Miss Graye," he said looking over his shoulder. "Look at our track on the water—a great semicircle, proceeded by a series of zig-zags as far as we can see."

She looked attentively. "Is it my fault or yours?" she inquired. "Mine, I suppose?"

"I can't help saying that it is yours."

She dropped the ropes decisively, feeling the slightest twinge of vexation at the answer.

"Why do you let go?"

"I do it so badly."

"Oh, no; you turned about for the shore in a masterly way. Do you wish to return?"

"Yes, if you please."

"Of course, then, I will at once."

"I fear what the people will think of us—going in such absurd directions, and all through my wretched steering."

"Never mind what the people think." A pause. "You surely are not so weak as to mind what the people think on such a matter as that?"

Those words might almost be called too firm and hard to be given by him to her; but never mind. For almost the first time in her life she felt the charming sensation, although on such an insignificant subject, of being compelled into an opinion by a man she loved. Owen, though less yielding physically, and more practical, would not have had the intellectual independence to answer a woman thus. She replied quietly and honestly—as honestly as when she had stated the contrary fact a minute earlier:

"I don't mind."

"I'll unship the tiller that you may have nothing to do going back but to hold your parasol," he continued, and arose to perform the operation, necessarily leaning closely against her, to guard against the risk of capsizing the boat as he reached his hands astern. His warm breath touched and crept round her face like a caress; but he was apparently only concerned with his task. She looked guilty of something when he seated himself. He read in her face what that something was—she had experienced a pleasure from his touch. But he flung a practical glance over his shoulder, seized the oars, and they sped in a straight line towards the shore.

Cytherea saw that he read in her face what had passed in her heart, and that reading it, he continued as decided as before. She was inwardly distressed. She had not meant him to translate her words about returning home so literally at the first; she had not intended him to learn her secret; but more than all she was not able to endure the perception of his learning it and continuing unmoved.

BORDER STATE BRIEFS.

Last season buyers shipped over 20,000 barrels of apples from Sanilac orchards, but this year the yield will not satisfy home consumption.

The annual convention of the State Sunday School Association, is to be held in Lansing on Dec. 2, 3 and 4, and it is expected will be attended by from 1,000 to 2,000 delegates.

Anton Mailo, an Italian miner, was killed in the Calumet and Hecla mines by rock falling on him. John O'Shea, of Raymbaulttown, was dangerously stabbed in the abdomen and right arm Monday night by an unknown Italian.

Wm. M. Smith, of the town of Saginaw, has accepted the nomination for Representative in Congress, made by the Eighth Congressional Prohibition Committee, vice Rev. F. A. Smart, who declined after having been nominated.

The Patrons of Industry met in convention at Marshall on Monday to nominate a county ticket. The effort proved abortive. After nominating a portion of the ticket disagreements resulted. The ticket was withdrawn and the convention closed in confusion.

The apple crop in the country around Dryden, Imlay City and Goodland, and other places in that vicinity, it is a bounteous one, far exceeding the yield in surrounding counties, buyers say. Darwood & Lamb's apple dryer at Dryden disposes of about 530 bushels of apples each day, on an average.

The potato crop in Huron county eclipses the yield of any of the past four years, and it is going into the market with a rush, by rail over the Flint and Pere Marquette Railway and by boat from Sand Beach. The quantity already shipped reaches over 11,000 bushels. The crop for market is about half sold.

Mrs. E. Ballard, a widow lady who resides over one of the business houses in Hudson, awoke Saturday evening to find her house all torn up and her face horribly disfigured. The work is supposed to have been done by a person who had a grudge against Mrs. Ballard. The fiend entered the room by a rear window, saturated a towel with chloroform and held it to her nose, and then battered her face with a stick of wood beyond recognition.

A great sensation was created in Hudson Saturday by the sudden disappearance of Miss Edna Wood, daughter of ex-Mayor J. J. Wood. The last seen of the child was after school, when she was left in the yard at her home playing alone. The whole village turned out en masse to help look for the missing girl. Under one of the trees in the yard her hair was found, which had been cut off by the kidnappers. About 11:30 at night she was found about three miles down the C. J. and M. road, fast asleep on a hay stack. When awakened she told a straightforward story of how two men came to her home, compelled her to enter the residence and attire herself in men's clothing and follow them.

How to Cure a Corn.

It is one of the easiest things in the world to cure a corn. Do not use acids or other caustic preparations, and don't cut a hole in your boot. It is simply to apply Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor, and in three days the corn can be removed without pain. Sure, safe, painless. Take only Putnam's Corn Extractor.

THE WEATHER PROPHET.

TORONTO, Oct. 7—11 p.m.—The depression over the lakes yesterday afternoon still hovers here, and has caused a light rainfall through Ontario during the day. Higher pressure prevails in Eastern Canada, where it is generally cloudy. Pressure continues low in the Northwest, with cool weather and a few local showers. Minimum and maximum temperatures: Edmonton, 40°—50°; Qu'Appelle, 36°—48°; Winnipeg, 28°—64°; Port Arthur, 42°—50°; Toronto, 45°—59°; Kingston, 46°—59°; Montreal, 34°—46°; Quebec, 32°—44°; Halifax, 40°—48°.

TO-DAY'S PROBABILITIES.

TORONTO, Oct. 8—10 a.m.—The indications for the next 24 hours for the lower lakes region (covering the peninsula and as far east as Belleville) are: Moderate winds; fair weather; stationary or higher temperature.

On Monday she started with her favorite pony to drive to London, stopping at Brucefield over night, and reached her destination on Tuesday. Her little daughter is also a born horsewoman.—[Blyth Standard.

—The rain of the previous day had a bad effect on business at the Police Court this morning. Wm. Snell, drunk, was fined $5 or twenty days and Thomas Fogarty was discharged. Mary Shapine was remanded for six days on a charge of vagrancy. William McKenna was bailed to keep the peace for using abusive language to C. Reed.

—The "At Home" attraction given by the ladies of St. George Church, London West, last evening sufficed to fill the church with a crowd who enjoyed unlimited refreshments and the sweet strains of the Italian band, together with pleasant social chatting. The affair was in every way a great success, and speaks well for the energy of the ladies.

—The annual meeting of the Wellington Street Methodist Church School took place last evening. Officers were elected as follows: Superintendent, Wm. Jeffery; assistant superintendent, A. Talbot; secretary, T. C. Toon; assistant secretary, Wm. Southcott; treasurer, Jas. Suney; librarian, A. Gorman; assistants, Jas. Jeffery, Joe. Case, Wm. Foot, H. Irwin; musical conductor, A. Jones; organist, Miss Booth.

—Two lunatics named Kilfoi and McAlpine wandered away from the asylum about two months ago, and as they could not be found the authorities concluded they had met with some mishap. P. C. Nickle met them on Dundas street yesterday morning in a forlorn condition, and promptly returned them to the asylum. How they have lived in the meantime is a mystery.

—At the meeting of the Court of Revision called for last evening there were present Chairman Moule, Aldermen Skinner, Taylor and Anderson and Assessment Commissioner Grant. The petitions for and against the construction of a sewer on Dundas street, east of Adelaide, were read, and after some discussion were referred to the Engineer to report as to whether the necessary number were in favor of the work.

—The sudden death is announced of Miss Mary Scott, 44 Horton street. She was at work as usual yesterday in good health, but was taken sick and carried home, where she died this morning. Deceased was an estimable young lady and greatly beloved by her friends. She was a member of the Askin street Methodist Church, and the secretary of the London South circle of the Companions of the Forest. The members of the latter will attend her funeral in a body.

—St. Andrew's Church lecture room was well filled last evening, the occasion being a lecture by Rev. Dr. Mungo Fraser, of Hamilton, on the subject of "Young Peoples' Societies of Christian Endeavor." The Doctor is president of the Provincial Society and he gave a vivid description of the aims and objects. The talk proved very instructive and was interspersed with many humorous anecdotes. At the close about 50 persons gave in their names as anxious to form a society in connection with the church. Another meeting will be held to-night to complete the work.

—Among the remarks made by the New York press on Pat Rooney, who appears at the Grand to-night, are the following: "The audience applauded again and again and shouted with delight at everything Pat Rooney was called upon to do, and he never permitted the fun to lag, for somehow or other he managed to be on the stage nearly all the time. He continually changes his make-up and his costumes; he sings several of his old songs, introduces a number that are new, and when he finally does manage to stop it is under protest on the part of the audience. He was ably seconded by his little daughter, who is no less talented than her father."

Questions as to Murder Cases.

The following questions have been propounded by a number of city railway men. An answer is given to each:

1. If a man were hanged for murder and afterwards his innocence were clearly established and it was proven beyond the shadow of a doubt that another man was the real murderer, what effect would the hanging of the innocent man have on the case of the guilty one? ANS.—None. The conviction, etc., of the innocent man could not be given in evidence by the guilty one, who was not a party to the first prosecution.

2. Would the hanging of the man, though innocent, prevent the Crown under British law from taking any steps to prove the guilt of the other. ANS.—No.

3. Is there any difference between English and Canadian laws on this subject? ANS.—No.

4. What is the law or rule in regard to pardoning persons sentenced to be hanged? Is there a limit to the number that can be pardoned in a year? ANS.—There is no limit to the prerogative of pardon being exercised by the Crown.

5. When a prisoner turns Queen's evidence, is he allowed to go scot free? ANS.—Not necessarily. It is an arrangement by which the prisoner is not to be prosecuted by the Crown counsel for the offense of which he gives evidence, but might be for a mitigated or suspended sentence.

Judge Horne, of Windsor, is visiting in Strathroy for a few days, the guest of Mr. J. S. Small.

The Salvation Army had a great meeting in their barracks here last Sunday.

Misses Dimsdale, the noted evangelists, commenced on Sunday last in the Front Street Methodist Church a series of evangelistic services which are likely to last for some weeks.

The Town Council held their regular monthly meeting on Monday evening. The Maitland street drain bylaw was finally passed, and it was decided to put a 2,000 candle power electric light at the corner occupied by the new postoffice building.

The Temperance Campaign.

The following sub-committees have been appointed by the Temperance Committee for carrying on the work connected with the campaign to be inaugurated by the well-known temperance evangelist, Mr. P. A. Burdick, on Oct. 19:

Managing Committee—Rev. Geo. Boyd, Rev. M. P. Talling, Rev. G. T. Carr, Rev. C. H. Speller, Rev. A. C. Courtice, James I. Anderson and A. J. Watson.

Reception Committee—Thos. McCormick, Chas. E. Sayer, D. A. McDermid, Mrs. J. W. Jones, Mrs. Dr. Arnott, Mrs. Darch and Mrs. Thornley, with power to add to their numbers ad libitum.

Finance Committee—Wm. Bowman, W. R. Hobbs, Dr. Hodge, Geo. Rowntree, W. H. Wortman, W. H. Winnett, J. F. Kern, H. E. Nelles and Thos. McCormick.

Advertising Committee—D. A. McDermid, Chas. E. Sayer, W. Crone, R. F. Matthews, jun., and J. D. Keenleyside.

The matter of entertainment, music, pledges, etc., was referred to the W. C. T. U., and the duty of providing ushers to the Y. M. C. A. A series of prayer meetings in the W. C. T. U. parlors was arranged for and Rev. Messrs. Talling, Speller and Henderson were appointed to take charge of the first three in the order named. The committee for procuring a suitable hall wherein to hold the meetings—Wm. Bowman, Dr. Arnott, Thos. McCormick and W. R. Hobbs—reported having secured the Queen's avenue rink. The first meeting will be held on Sunday afternoon, Oct. 19, in Victoria Hall and the second on Sunday night at 8:30 in the rink. Mr. Burdick has been laid up with a sprained ankle for a couple of weeks, but in a letter received from him this morning by the Secretary he says: "I am glad to inform you that my ankle is better and I shall be with you on the 19th without fail."

But few articles have reached such a world-wide reputation as Angostura Bitters. For over 50 years they have been the acknowledged standard regulators of the digestive organs. Their success has incited imitations. Be sure you get the genuine article, manufactured only by Dr. J. G. B. Siegert & Sons.

AT THE FAIR.

The great attraction to the left on entering the main building was the display of W. S. Bryers Barkwell, consisting of those fragrant and lasting perfumes, Fedora and Winona Bouquet, the great sensations; here hundreds of ladies may be seen to throng around that center with their handkerchiefs extended to the spray of the atomizer till they are almost saturated, then they pass on sweetly smiling at being the happy possessors of those popular odors for which Mr. Barkwell received first prize at the Provincial Exhibition and so completely filled the Crystal Palace to the great admiration of all. Surrounding those are Toilet Articles and pharmaceutical preparations all of which are most harmoniously arranged in every particular and contained in an inclosed case, on either side of which is to be seen elegant show bottles, towering to a great height and containing liquids of various bright and beautiful colors, but we would not do Mr. Barkwell and especially our readers justice if we failed to mention, Barkwell's Sure Corn Cure and Barkwell's Bronchial Balsam, they are well known and reliable articles, which he sends to all parts of the Province. A new one has been added—the now famous Diamond Tea—which promises, if possible, even greater success, and is really the greatest blood remedy ever offered to humanity.

CHANCERY SITTINGS.

SECOND DAY—TUESDAY.

The case of McIntyre against McNaughton was settled to-day. The plaintiffs Archie, Margaret, Malcolm, John D., Catharine, Janet and Christian McIntyre are grandchildren of the late Malcolm McIntyre, formerly of Metcalfe. The property in dispute was willed to their father, but he died before the granfather, whose death occurred on Dec. 30, 1889. Ten days before his death a deed was made out conveying the property to another grandchild, an infant named John McNaughton. The executors—D. McIntyre and Rev. J. Ferguson—pleaded that they were not interested and asked for protection from payment of costs. By the settlement the plaintiff, Malcolm McIntyre, gets the eastern half of the half lot, which is half of lot 23 in con. 13 of Metcalfe, and the other part goes to the defendant, John McNaughton.

The case of John Denning against Sarah Gardiner and George Gilleland was an action brought by the executor of the estate of the late Hugh Eccles, of Metcalfe, to have a will construed and the costs paid to him out of the estate. The testator died in April, 1885, making a will the February previous, giving his wife a life ownership in part of lot 17, in con. 2 of Metcalfe, which was 100 acres, the plaintiff to take it at her death. It was also provided that the children of John Gilleland, of Belfast, Ireland, should have $1,000, but if they were not found the amount was to go to Denning. The sister of the deceased came in for $100 and the residue of the estate. The defendant Gilleland was a grandchild of the Gilleland mentioned in the will, and consequently his claim could not be entertained. Judgment was reserved both in regard to the bequest to Sarah Gardiner and the costs.

The action of James Barrett, of Byron, against Thomas Fulton, was referred to the Master at London to take accounts between the parties, the former actions being consolidated with the present one. Costs were reserved. The plaintiff will have the immediate possession of the farm, the house to be reserved for the present for the defendant. The chattels covered by mortgage may be sold by plaintiff without prejudice to the defendant's rights under the replevin bond.

Sing a song of sixpence,
The price of "Diamond Dyes;"
The fairest of all colors,
That please the ladies' eyes;
They happy make each mother,
Each wife and daughter true;
And all tell one another,
What "Diamond Dyes" can do
So sing a song of sixpence
For what these dyes have done,
In giving glorious colors,
That hold in rain or sun.

TYPHOID FEVER

Its Cause and Prevention.

During Typhoid, Bacteria is found in the blood and mucous tissues; comes by inhalation.

Impure water contains animalcula. These disease germs develop in the system, feed on the fluids and vitals, causing disease, fevers, etc., and quickly destroy the patient. Flood the arteries with ST. LEON Water.

Says Sir Henry Thompson: "No animalcula or germinal matter can live if this rare mineral water be used." Popular Hygiene adds: "In cases of Typhoid let us have recourse to St. Leon; this water is doubly salutary to keep down and remove putridness."
