

Still Tied Up!

The Pullman Trouble Shows No Sign of Abatement.

Efforts to Involve the Canadian Railwaymen in the Strike.

Railway Managers Say the Matter is Out of Their Hands.

And that the A. R. U. Must Settle With the United States Government.

The President of the A. R. U. Says "The Managers Must and Shall Succeed."

THE SITUATION IN MONTREAL.
MONTREAL, July 4.—The latest phase of the Pullman strike is an attempt to bring the trouble over into Canada. Almost within the same hour steps were taken to thwart the attempt. For nearly a week two representatives of the American strikers have been in Montreal quietly working their scheme, and interviewing conductors, engineers, brakemen, etc. The two men have as yet made no definite proposals. They are simply feeling the ground. The news that agents of the strikers were in town and had approached almost every class of employees on the G. T. R. soon reached the conductors, and an informal meeting it was almost unanimously agreed that they had no cause for taking part in the strike, and unless the heads of the order demanded the strike they would stand by their employers. General Manager Seargent, of the Grand Trunk, said to-day: "I have not the least idea that there will be any trouble in Canada. It should be understood that the Pullmans on the Grand Trunk are manufactured in our own shops here and the workmen are paid with our money. The cars are the assigned cars and are the property of the company and by no process of reasoning can they be regarded as Pullman property and therefore not under the ban."

STRIKE AT SARNIA AND PORT HURON.
PORT HURON, Mich., July 4.—The Grand Trunk Railway is tied up here. The employees both here and in Sarnia went out during the night. The strikers permit all trains to enter the city but none to leave it.

VIOLENT MEASURES.
UTAH, July 4.—Last night, while the Helena express on the Utah and Northern Railroad was being made up under the protection of United States marshals, a mob of strikers massed on the track back of the engine and refused to allow it to be coupled on unless three Pullmans were detached. After three hours' delay District Attorney Judd read to the strikers his instructions from Attorney-General Olney regarding interference with the mails. The strikers then withdrew, but as the engine backed down they made a rush for the Pullmans, which they uncoupled and pushed by hand several hundred feet. They are determined that the Pullmans shall not be taken out.

NO COMPROMISE OFFERED BY THE MANAGERS.
CHICAGO, July 4.—General Manager Egan still remains steadfast in his purpose to fight it out to a finish with the A. R. U. When asked concerning overtures made for a settlement, Mr. Egan replied this morning: "We have made no overtures to the A. R. U. and have held no conference with its officers, more than that we shall hold no conferences with them."

"So far as the railroads are concerned with this fight they are out of it. It has now become a fight between the United States Government and the A. R. U., and we shall leave them to fight out."

LAKE SHORE TRAINS ARE RUNNING, WITH SLIGHT DELAYS, AS USUAL.
SOLDIERS AT THE STOCK YARDS.
UNION STOCK YARDS, CHICAGO, July 4. Half of the Second Battalion of United States troops from Fort Sheridan arrived here this morning at 6 o'clock and are now encamped in Dexter park just inside the yards. At 8 o'clock Swift & Co. succeeded in getting out a stalled train of beef which has been on the track at Halsted and Fourth streets since Monday forenoon. No cattle trains arrived to-day and none are expected.

NO TROUBLE ON THE M. C. R.
DETROIT, Mich., July 4.—All trains on the M. C. R. are running as usual to-day, and there are at present no indications that the road will have any trouble at this point. The switchmen and others are strongly opposed to being involved in anything like a general tieup, and the best of feeling seems to prevail between them and the company's officials. All freight that is being offered is taken on the ground that it cannot be legally refused.

SIGNAL FOR CIVIL WAR.
CHICAGO, July 4.—In an interview to-night President Deas, of the A. R. U., said: "The first shot fired by the regular soldiers at the mobs here will be the signal for a civil war. I believe this as firmly as I believe in the ultimate success of our cause. Bloodshed will follow, and 99 per cent of the people of the United States will be arrayed against the other 10 per cent. And I would not care to be arrayed against the laboring people in the contest or find myself out of the ranks of labor when the struggle ended. I do not say this as an alarmist, but calmly and thoughtfully. I deprecate the action of the authorities in yielding to the wishes of the managers. Our men have in no way acted riotously, and the city and county officials will bear me out in statements that they have been able to control the few hotheads who, either as outsiders or in disobedience of strict orders, have acted unlawfully."

"I believe there is a chance to bring about a settlement of the trouble before the final struggle is on. I think there is a probability that the trouble may be averted. It rests solely with others than us to bring it about, however. One thing is certain, the general managers must and shall succeed."

NO COLLISION WITH THE TROOPS.
The troops at Grand Crossing, Blue Island and the Stock Yards have had no encounters with the strikers thus far, but have assisted in maintaining the great blockade on the Grand and Blue Island was entirely raised at 1:15 this afternoon, and trains that had been tied up for five days began to move. The first of the trains that were stalled at Joliet came up the track guarded by soldiers. Ten cars, half of them Pullmans, made up the train, which was followed every few minutes by six other trains of equal length, all guarded at the point of the bayonet.

A TRYING ORDEAL.
CHICAGO, Ill., July 4.—With rifles leveled and revolvers drawn half of the Second Battalion, Fifteenth Regiment, United States infantry, proceeded through a dense mob of more than 5,000 men, boys, women and children to their camp in the stock yards. The day was a trying one for the troops and the police and one of intense excitement from daybreak until night. On the squad of 75 policemen fell the brunt of keeping in control a crowd wild with excitement, inflamed by passion and frequent draughts from the neighboring saloons, which did the most phenomenal business they ever knew.

The trouble started early when Swift & Co. tried to move their stalled meat train eastbound which the strikers had held in duration for 48 hours. Every obstacle was placed in the way, and it was 11:30 before the train could be started. Even the troops were obliged to charge the crowd with bayonets, before which, like a flock of frightened sheep, it fell back and permitted the train to move.

THE WORST.
Then came the worst part of the day. The military train on the Lake Shore road which left the Rock Island depot at an early hour this morning with the cavalry, artillery, horse and supplies of the Fifteenth Regiment aboard, pulled into the yards at Fortieth and Halsted streets at 2 p.m. There it continued to switch up and down until twilight, when the attempt to move it further was abandoned. Six times this train was uncoupled by the strikers, in spite of the fact that on every car sat the experienced service army men who had seen service and knew how to shoot, and who declared they would do so if any man attempted to interfere with the train. This they would have done, but the strikers were too agile for them, and before the rifles could be aimed the offenders would be back in the midst of the crowd, where it would have been worse than folly to shoot.

ALMOST A TRAGEDY.
Some trouble occurred at Root and Thirtieth streets. A Lake Shore passenger train, was detained by strikers, who clambered up on the engine and tried to induce Engineer Weber to quit. J. C. Harris, an employee of the road, started to pull a revolver. American Railway Union agents demanded of the police that they disarm the man, which the officers refused to do. Then the mob took the matter into their own hands and threw Harris beneath a freight train, and would have killed him had not the police interfered.

A young man named Miller, a reporter for a morning paper, would have suffered a similar fate but for police interference.

CARS BURNED.
Fifteen Panhandle freight cars were burned at Forty-seventh street by a crowd of strikers and their friends to-night. Trains on the Northwestern were run close to schedule time to-night and to-day. The return of the engineers made matters much easier for the Northwestern.

SOLDIERS REFUSE TO OBEY ORDERS.
SACRAMENTO, Cal., July 4.—At 12:30 p.m. troops marched down to the depot, where the strikers had gathered to prevent the moving of trains with Pullmans. Thousands of people had also assembled, and the excitement was intense. The troops were ordered to charge, but as one man refused to advance, and each one removed the cartridges from his rifle, Gen. Dimond ordered the mutinous soldiers back to the armory, to which they marched, followed by a throng who cheered them at every step.

DEBS TO BE INDICTED.
WASHINGTON, July 5.—Attorney-General Olney has decided to bring the promising career of President Deas, the young president of the American Railway Union, to a close, so far as it relates to the present strike. He has instructed District Attorney Mitchell, of Chicago, to call a special meeting of the grand jury to indict this labor leader. But Mr. Debs will be one of the many. All the other strikers who have been prominent in violation of the laws will be indicted by the grand jury. The Attorney-General said: "We have been brought to the ragged edge of anarchy and it is time to see whether the law is sufficiently strong to prevent this condition of affairs. If not, the sooner we know it the better, that it may be changed."

CHICAGO, July 5.—The only point at which danger is feared is at Fifty-first street, where a stolen mob is considering the advisability of burning the Rock Island yards and passenger coaches.

The Chicago and Grand Trunk started its morning mail for the east on time.

CHICAGO, July 5.—It is thought the worst is over and the trouble is quieting down.

Fatality in British Columbia.
KAMLOOPS, B. C., July 5.—The boiler of the steamer Queen exploded yesterday in North Thompson River, twelve miles north of here, and the craft was blown to pieces. Eight men were on board the boat. Fireman Joseph Rushton and the cook, Joseph Priette, were instantly killed. Capt. Ritchie was seriously scalded, and cut and bruised. Engineer Martin was badly cut. The other four men on board escaped with slight injuries.

The New York Governorship.
LONDON, July 4.—Wm. C. Whitney said yesterday, in an interview: "Richard Croker called upon me while here, but there is no truth in the story that he offered me the nomination for governor on condition that the Cleveland party would support the Tammany ticket in New York City. The subject of the governorship was not mentioned. He knows that I am not only not a candidate but that I should not accept a nomination."

The Colonies and Commercial Treaties.

LONDON, July 4.—Sir William Vernon Harcourt is reported to have made the statement in the debate on the estate duties that it had never been conceded in connection with the most favored nation treatment in commercial treaties that the colonies were included in the words "Other nation or country." If true, this is the most important in view of the Ottawa conference, as showing the power of all parts of the empire to make what international commercial plans they chose without reference to foreign nations.

Nearly 200 Lives Lost.
BUDA-PESTH, July 4.—A shocking disaster occurred on the River Theiss near Nyireghyaza, Hungary, to-day, resulting in the loss of nearly 200 lives.

A ferry boat with about 200 persons on board was being drawn across the river by means of a chain. The chain broke, and its snapping caused a panic on board the boat, in the midst of which the vessel capsized from being over weighted on one side. All the occupants of the boat were thrown into the river and most of them drowned. Only about a dozen are known to have been saved.

The Plague Raging Anew.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 4.—The steamer Peru, which arrived from Hong Kong and Yokohama last evening, brings news that the plague at Hong Kong has become worse, the disease having started in new districts.

From June 7 to 14, 701 persons died from the pest, and July 15, 600 Chinese had fled from the city. It is reported that a Chinese junk with about 400 passengers from Hong Kong on board, escaping from the plague, capsized and sank in Cogo Siu Moon Pass. Five British soldiers, who were engaged in the enforcement of sanitary laws in Hong Kong, have fallen victims to the plague.

Fourth of July in London.

LONDON, July 4.—United States Ambassador Bayard, assisted by Mrs. Bayard, Miss Florence Bayard, Mrs. S. D. Warren and the staff of the embassy, held a Fourth of July reception at his house in Princess Gardens, between 3 and 6 o'clock this afternoon. About 300 persons were present. From top to bottom the house was decorated with the Stars and Stripes, and in the corridor and main room the walls were almost hidden by flags. Lord Rosebery came to pay his respects to Mr. Bayard early in the day. All the hotels frequented by Americans and many public resorts hoisted flags in observance of the day.

Linked Doon.

He was a hard-working and zealous board school teacher, and had just told the class that wool comes off the sheep and is made into blankets, clothing, etc., to keep us warm in cold weather, and he proceeded to question little Willie, who had been rather inattentive during the lesson. "Now Willie," said the teacher, "where does wool come from?" Off the sheep's back, teacher, replied Willie. "And what does it do?" inquired the teacher. Willie could not answer. "What are these made from?" asked the teacher, touching Willie's trousers with the cane. "Uncle John's old 'uns," replied Willie.

THE VALKYRIE SUNK.

England's Prize Yacht Destroyed in a Race.

And the Crew Have a Narrow Escape—The American Yacht Vigilant in the Contest.

AQUATIC.
GLASGOW, July 5.—People from all parts of the United Kingdom gathered along the banks of the Clyde to-day to witness the races of the Mud Hook regatta. The excitement was greater than ever hitherto known. It was largely due to the presence of the champion American yacht, the Vigilant. Her white hull was perfectly smooth and shone like glass.

The other starters in the race (50 miles) were Lord Dunraven's Valkyrie, which the Vigilant defeated in America, the Prince of Wales' Britannia, and the Satanita. Shortly after the start the yacht Satanita collided with and

SUNK THE VALKYRIE.
Everyone on the Valkyrie was saved by boats from the surrounding yachts. The Valkyrie was struck on the port side, aft the rigging, and nearly cut in two. The Vigilant immediately began to fill, and in five minutes after being struck sank in 25 fathoms of water. The Satanita's bows were badly stove, and it was regarded as improbable that she will be able to take part in a race for a month.

Lord Dunraven and one or two of Valkyrie's crew were rescued by the steam yacht Hebe. The steam yacht Vandura attached lines to the sinking yacht and saved the rest of the crew. It was found that only one man was injured—a seaman named Brown, one of whose legs was broken. The crew lost everything except what they wore.

THE YANKEE BEATEN.
The Vigilant and Britannia proceeded in the race. The wind freshened to a good stiff breeze, and the lee rail of the Vigilant was continually submerged. Both boats came homeward at a tremendous rate of speed.

The Britannia won by 35 seconds. Official time was: Britannia, 4:28:10; Vigilant, 4:28:45.

THE CANADIAN BEATEN.
LONDON, July 5.—The first of the remaining heats of the race for the diamond sculls in the Henley regatta to-day was won by Vivian Nickalls who beat Joseph Wright, of Toronto.

Wright had the best of the start, and for 100 yards rowed on equal terms with Nickalls. The latter then began to draw ahead, and at the top of Temple Island was half a length ahead. Wright then put on a spurt and nearly evened matters. It was a hard race to the half-mile post. From this point Nickalls drew clear, but Wright again closed the gap, and Nickalls was only a quarter of a length ahead at the three-quarters flag. Wright began to show signs of distress, and at the mile he was two lengths behind. From the mile it was practically a walk over for Nickalls, who won by six lengths in 8 minutes 35 seconds. The second heat for the diamond sculls was won by Guy Nickalls, beating Guinness.

THE WHEEL.

RAILWAY NOT ELIGIBLE.
The Toronto Mail says: "F. F. Radway, of the London Bicycle Club, was not eligible for the championships at Montreal, not having resided a sufficient length of time in Canada. No protest was entered against him, and the racing board were aware of his short term of residence in this country, hence the reason he was permitted to compete in the five-mile championship event. The attention of the racing board has since been called to the fact of his ineligibility. Had he won the race he would not have been allowed it."

THE TUFF.

ROSEBERY'S HORSE BEATEN.

—[BROWNING.]If you trust in God and yourself you can surmount every obstacle. Do not yield to restless anxiety. One must not always be asking what may happen to one in life, but one must advance fearlessly and bravely.
—[PRINCE BISMARCK.]

—Only those communications to which the writers are willing to have their names appear in print will be published in these columns. Neither the writing nor the publication of anonymous letters can be justified.

—Ex-Governor E. B. Winans, of Michigan, died yesterday. He was a good citizen.

—No amount of whitewash will make the offenses of Caron and Langevin appear in any better light before a discriminating public.

—The Dominion Government is about to order an increase in the issue of Government bank notes from $20,000,000 to $25,000,000. Send us another $1,000,000.

—There is money in the show business when it is conducted by men with the astuteness of Barnum. His widow has just been guaranteed $40,000 a year out of his estate.

—The increase in the United States tax on whisky has caused an advance in the price of that liquid. The tax is added to the price wherever possible, whether the article is a luxury or a necessity.

WANTED—I HAVE 25 FOLLOWERS in the Legislature. I need $8. Highest reward to anyone offering a means whereby I can get them. Previous records no object; no questions asked. Address, W. R. M., office of city solicitor, Toronto.

—In the past eleven months the number of immigrants arriving in the United States was 288,020 against 430,210 in the corresponding period of last year. Dulness in trade, combined with the new laws relating to pauper immigration, was the cause.

—The London City Council did well to refuse to take up the electric street railway agreement at a late hour. All-night sessions are conducive neither to equanimity of temper nor to good judgment. No public body should sit after 11 p.m.

—The potato bug is doing greater damage than ever in many parts of the Province. In the days when Hon. Alex. Macenzie was Premier, his political opponents used to argue, from the prevalence of the potato bug and the weevil, that the Administration should be defeated. We should certainly have a change of Government at Ottawa now, bug or no bug.

—Hanging is too mild a punishment for the train wrecker, but it is probably the most severe fate that will befall the soundreels who caused the wreck and loss of life on the Canadian Pacific Railway in Vermont the other day. The company has offered a reward of $4,000 for information which will lead to the arrest and conviction of the fiends, and it is to be hoped that they will be captured.

THE SITUATION IN ENGLAND.
While we in Canada have been fighting the battle of Ontario's Grand Old Man and good government, in Great Britain the Liberal Administration has been growing stronger. Contrary to the expectations of his enemies, Lord Rosebery has been improving his position, the Liberal majorities in the House of Commons being decidedly more satisfactory than they were a few months ago, so much so that it is expected the Government will now carry through several measures that at one time they thought of abandoning. It is expected that Sir William Vernon Harcourt, who has led the House with great ability since Gladstone's retirement, and who has carried through his budget with flying colors, will at the close of the session enter the House of Lords—a rest which he has well earned by a long and brilliant career on the front benches of the Liberal side. His place as leader in the Commons will in all probability be taken by Mr. Asquith, one of the rising young English Radicals, whose marriage to Miss Margot Tennant, the Glasgow heiress and beauty, was recently chronicled. The Irish allies of the Administration, under the leadership of Mr. Justin McCarthy, have loyally stood by the new Premier. They have been in good luck recently. The French courts have at length settled who shall have control of the funds which have been looked up in Paris since the days when the Land League was proscribed. By this decision, the money will be handed over to Mr. Justin McCarthy for the uses of the Parliamentary party in relieving the distresses of evicted tenants. Altogether the Liberal situation in Great Britain has decidedly brightened in the last few weeks, and it seems as if Lord Rosebery's puck will continue to bring him good luck.

COMING EMANCIPATION.

At Washington, as well as at Ottawa, the cause of trade freedom is being slowly advanced. Though effective tariff reform has not been achieved in either country, the trend is undoubtedly in the direction of emancipating the people from the domination of combines and conspiring politicians. In both countries, the special organizations of farmers demand a tariff for revenue only, and will be satisfied with nothing short of the elimination of all class legislation. The United States authorities, legislating for a country enjoying as great a measure of free trade within its bounds as would be possible were the States of Europe able to trade with each other without let or hindrance, have made a very considerable advancement in the direction of taxation reform. Canada's position and necessities demand that relief from tariff taxes must be far more effective than that decreed in the United States. The people understand this. In the coming conflict they will indorse no man who stands up for special privileges for combines or favored politicians. They will insist that no more money be collected than is necessary to economically govern the country. Recent revelations at Ottawa have taught them that the millions of dollars of over-taxation accumulated in the treasury has been worse than wasted. Corruption in high places cannot be put down by popular indorsement of the agencies that make corruption easy. Reptile funds cannot be accumulated by the agency of a tariff for revenue only. When the idea prevails that the more money which is wrung from the people the better off they are, the political adventurer and exploiter gets in his fine work. A full treasury is the opportunity of the contract broker, also. The Curran bridge scandal, the Cornwall canal iniquity, the squandering of millions of dollars on other public works were all the direct product of the "protective" tariff which enables unscrupulous politicians to get control of immense sums of public money under the excuse that such over-taxation is necessary to the welfare of the community.

There will be an end to all this when the Liberal and Patron policy of a tariff for revenue only is scrupulously enforced. There will be no unnecessary accumulation of money in the public treasury at Ottawa. The money will be left in the pockets of the people. It will be spent in the development of our common country. It will be spent in the promotion of legitimate industries, in the upbuilding of this grand country, and in advancing the welfare of a prosperous and happy people. Too long have the few fattened at the expense of the many.

HOW ELECTIONS ARE LOST OR WON.

The Whig says that Hon. Mr. Hart was defeated in Kingston because Capt. Saunders and fifteen other Liberal voters were unable to get to Kingston on election day. They were at work on the wrecked steamer Ocean and did not think their votes would be required. Had they gone to the polls Mr. Smythe's present majority of four would have been converted into a minority. On how small shortcomings does the fate of a candidate depend! A change of two votes in each subdivision of this city would have elected Mr. Hobbs, the London citizen candidate.

WILL GLADSTONE VISIT AMERICA?

If warmth of pressure will induce the great British statesman to visit this country, he will cross the Atlantic. The "Gladstone American invitation committee" have resolved to send the following letter to the right honorable gentleman:

"To the Right Hon. W. E. Gladstone:
"Fully recognizing the far-reaching and beneficent influence upon our common race of your long and brilliant career, we would, if possible, add something to the almost unprecedented expressions of good will attending your entrance upon the pleasant season of well deserved rest and recreation now opening up before you.
"Desiring to contribute in some measure to your happiness, in the name of a number of gentlemen and ladies who have enjoyed the privilege of making your acquaintance in your own hospital land, more than one remembering to have heard you express the pleasure that it would give you to see this country, we cordially invite you and Mrs. Gladstone, together with such members of your family and household as you may be pleased to bring with you, to visit this country during the coming autumn at a date best suited to your convenience.
"We confidently assure you that your presence in America would not fail to be regarded by your 'kin beyond the sea' as an honor to themselves and to that country whose destinies your pen has glowingly and memorably depicted.
"Preliminary arrangements have been made of such character as to justify the fullest assurance of your utmost comfort in all respects, with entire freedom from intrusion of every kind upon your privacy. You would be our guest from the moment of leaving your home until your return, which would, we trust, with a new lease of life and increased power for its enjoyment.
"The above has been signed by more than 100 representative Americans, including the Vice-President of the United States, the Chief Justice of the United States, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, United States Senators and members of Congress from 40 States of the Union, the presidents of Yale, Princeton, Columbia, Cornell, Pennsylvania, Rochester and Syracuse universities, all of whom have responded with a degree of heartiness indicative of a national sentiment.
"Should you feel unable to accept this invitation at the present time, we trust that you will not finally decide until Col. Gouraud on his return to England at an early day has an opportunity of informing you in person of the details of the arrangements contemplated, and submitting the complete list of signatories."

This letter is signed by Adlai Stevenson, Vice-President of the United States, Chief Justice Fuller, Mr. Crisp, Speaker of the House of Representatives, by a majority of the Senators of the United States, by members of the House of Representatives, and by many leading citizens. If such a thing were possible, we believe that the invitation would be signed by millions of the people on both sides of the great lakes. There can be no doubt as to the cordiality of the request addressed to the Grand Old Man, and probably that is one of the features of the novel request that will move Mr. Gladstone to once more respectfully decline the invitation to visit his kin across the sea. Now that he is practically out of public life for good the octogenarian statesman might find time to cross the Atlantic, and might overcome the disadvantages to be endured by an old man who crosses the Atlantic for the first time. Mr. Gladstone is a good sailor, and he has enjoyed several yachting expeditions to the wild coasts of Norway, and thus he may be somewhat tempered for a passage across the Atlantic. But the question is, could the great Liberal leader survive the warmth of the reception which would be his on this continent, no matter how careful his hosts were to secure his comfort? His would be a welcome unrivaled in the history of modern civilization, and it is doubtful whether he will risk undergoing it at his time of life. Nevertheless, we trust that Mr. Gladstone will respond in the affirmative to the more than cordial request that is now addressed to him.

GLORYING IN THEIR SHAME.
(Toronto Evening News, Independent Conservative.)
The manner in which Mr. Edgar's renewal of the charges against Langevin and Caron was received yesterday indicates that the Ottawa Conservatives have lost all regard even for the appearance of decency. The accused knights not only offered no defense for their share in the distribution of the corruption fund contributed by the Lasker, Connollys and McGreys, but Sir Adolphe actually gloried in his crime, and declared he would, if opportunity offered, repeat the offense tomorrow. And this shameful declaration was received without protest by Sir John Thompson and with shouts of applause by the Premier's followers. A more scandalous exhibition of contempt for public opinion has never been made even by the present corrupt Parliament. That it was made proves conclusively that there is no hope for improvement so long as the men now in office remain there, and that the electors must in self-defense drive them from power at the earliest opportunity.

STARTLING CONSPIRACY

To Kill the Heads of the European Countries.

An Anarchist Plot Unearthed—The Work Partly Accomplished.

ROME, July 5.—The Popolo Romano says: Police investigation has established the fact of the existence of a conspiracy, of which Cotte was the center, the object being to take the lives of the heads of the various European countries. The Anarchist Lega, in accordance with this plan, was delegated to kill Premier Crispi, and Santo was chosen to kill M. Carnot. Lega came to Rome from Cotte when he made the attempt to shoot Signor Crispi.

ADVERTISING FOR PLAYERS.

The following appears in the Sporting Life of June 30: "The Maple Leaf Baseball Club, Guelph, Ont., wants a good pitcher and two infielders. Must be good players and sober men. Apply to J. P. Downey." The Galt Reformer draws President Ward's attention to this, and thinks it looks very suspicious.

LONDON'S GOOD NAME.

Guelph Herald: London has a good ball team. London is a good ball town, and the London players and the London people know how to take defeat and how to treat visitors. Consequently it isn't a bad place to get beaten in, and by the same rule it is a pleasant place wherein to score a victory.

FLYS.

The Pittsburghers, captained by Patsy Donovan, the former Tecumseh, now claim that all the other league teams have conspired to beat them out of the pennant.

Fitch, Korman, whom the London Alerts pounded on July 2, was loaned to Buffalo by the Brooklyn league team.

Buffalo has bid off Johnson, of London, again. He fields brilliantly, but can't hit the ball.

LACROSSE.

The Woodstock Sentinel-Review, speaking of the London-Woodstock match July 2, says: "The homes of the visitors played far superior to their defense line, and of their aggregation Perry was the star. Had a couple more men like him the tale to record would have been widely different. The Londoners played a fair, manly and plucky game, but they were out-classed from the first."

FOOTBALL.

The American football team, composed of representatives of the Vermont clubs, defeated the Montreal club by 5 goals to 1 on Wednesday.

BROKE A WORLD'S RECORD.

WALTHAM, Mass., July 4.—Arthur W. Porter, of the Waltham Cycle Club, again broke the world's record, Class A, to-day by riding a flying mile, paced only the first two-thirds by Hagarty and Williams on a tandem. In 2:03. The record had been 2:06, established by Porter, and recently equaled by Ray Macdonald, of New York. The quarters were made in 30 2/5, 58, 45 seconds, 1:30 4/5 and 2:03.

ATHLETICS.

THE ENGLISHMAN WINS.

Boston, Mass., July 4.—Stanton Abbott, the light weight champion of England, gained a decision over Billy Meyer, the "Sword Cyclone," at the Boston Theater in a fifteen-round set-to, in which Meyer had the best of it except in the final two minutes of the last round. Still it was apparent in those two minutes that if the contest had been to a finish that Abbott would have whipped his man.

THE MISSING FOUND.

Two Boys Killed by Lightning in the Toronto Exhibition Grounds.

TORONTO, July 4.—The bodies of two boys, Fred Richardson and Thos. Riley, were found at Exhibition Park to-day by Mr. John Chalmers. The bodies were swollen and discolored, and there is no doubt the unfortunate lads were struck by lightning.

Fred Richardson was 10 years old, and lived at 11 Niagara street. His claim, Thos. Riley, was one year older, and lived with his parents at 27 Niagara street.

Both the boys attended the school children's games on Monday, and no trace of them was found until the bodies were discovered to-day. They were lying near the horse ring on the south side of the grounds. They were evidently struck by lightning during the storm between 5 and 6 p.m. on Monday. They were mentioned in the morning papers to-day as missing.

The Immigration Question Discussed in Committee.

Opposition to the Gaspe and Soo Through Railway Line.

How Canadian Cattle Came to be Slaughtered in Great Britain—Charges Against the Fisheries Department.

(Special to the ADVERTISER.)

OTTAWA, July 4.—Mr. A. M. Burgess, Deputy Minister of the Interior, in charge at Ottawa of immigration, was to-day examined before the House committee on colonization. A discussion took place on the desirability of much of the juvenile immigration assisted by the Canadian Government to the extent of $2 a head.

The chairman, Dr. Sproule, read a letter received from a man in his county suggesting that after a second offense committed in this country by these foreign children, the society bringing them over should be compelled to return them whence they came. Mr. Boyd, of Marquette, approved this suggestion. Dr. Macdonald, Mr. Semple, and others protested against allowing so many undesirable juvenile immigrants to be brought to Canada. Dr. Roome thought it an exaggeration to say that the majority of these children were bad. Dr. Wilson would drop the bonus of $2.

Mr. Burgess said that no money was paid for children sent out to Canada from workhouses or reformatories in the old country. He estimated that not more than 2 per cent from this source, but he admitted he had no precise data on which to base this opinion. As to this class of immigration the Minister had no definite policy.

There was a discussion as to the advisability of the committee itself instituting inquiries as to the results of child immigration. Mr. Burgess urged them not to condemn the system without inquiry.

No action was taken with regard to general immigration. Mr. Burgess stated that it had greatly fallen off this year. The department had no means of increasing immigration next year.

Mr. McMillan complained that in Ontario there was now no work for the farm laborers already in the country. Mr. McDonald, of Assiniboia, and Mr. Boyd, of Marquette, and the Northwest, where there was need of them. The committee adjourned.

The House railway committee this morning passed the bill incorporating the Boynton Bicycle Electric Railway Company, running from Winnipeg to Nova Scotia. The bill incorporating the Niagara Falls Electric Railway Bridge Company was withdrawn after opposition.

A long discussion ensued on the bill respecting the Atlantic and Lake Superior Company, confirming recent agreements for the purchase of the lease of the Baie Des Chaleurs Railway, the Great Eastern Railway, Ottawa, the Valley Railway, and the Montreal Bridge. These roads, with projected connections to be built, are to form a through line from Gaspe to Sault Ste. Marie. The bill also empowers the company to lay a submarine cable to Europe. It is provided that the Baie des Chaleurs, Great Eastern and Ottawa Valley Railways shall be completed in three years and the Montreal bridge within five. Objection was taken to the bill on behalf of creditors and others whose interests had to be guarded, and the bill was referred to a sub-committee to draft a clause. Mr. Haggart, in the course of discussion, read a letter from Mr. Farewell, manager of the Eastern Townships Bank, saying that the practical effect of the bill was to hand over the Baie des Chaleurs Railway to Armstrong and his clique, which meant defrauding the creditors. Mr. Haggart opposed the bill, which, however, is likely to go through amended.

On motion to go into committee of supply, Mr. Mulock brought up the question as to what led to the scheduling of Canadian cattle in Great Britain. He traced the history of the question from the beginning. The fact was shown that Canada had many years ago proposed stringent regulations if her cattle were exempted from the scheduling to which United States cattle were in 1878 subjected. The obligations entered into by Canada had not been observed and because of the stringency of these regulations had been relaxed by the Government of Canada our cattle had been scheduled. A Dominion officer was, for instance, to accompany every train of five cattle entering Canada from the United States from the port of entry to the point at which this train left the soil of Canada. Notwithstanding this the Government employed Dr. Wright as inspector at Detroit when he was actually practicing medicine in Windsor, and his services had finally to be dispensed with. Mr. Mulock made a long speech in support of his position, that the Government had brought Canada into this difficulty. In amendment he moved a long motion, concluding by declaring that the Canadian Government disregarded its undertakings, neglected to enforce proper regulations and allowed large numbers of American cattle to be imported into the Northwest Territories from the United States while pleuro-pneumonia was there existing, and the scheduling of Canadian cattle by Great Britain being fairly attributable to the negligence of the Government, therefore by reason of such negligence and bad faith this House considers the Government deserving of the censure of Parliament.

Mr. Ives replied and said that the only question was: "Did pleuro-pneumonia exist in Canada? The answer must be 'no.'"

The only case of pleuro-pneumonia ever discovered in Canada was imported from Great Britain in 1886. He declared that the effect of Mr. Mulock's speech would be to injure Canada's case now under consideration in England.

Col. O'Brien accused the Government of duplicity and breach of faith with Great Britain in failing to exercise the closest supervision over the enforcement of regulations we were pledged to enforce.

On the motion to go into committee of supply, Col. Tisdale brought up a grievance against the Department of Fisheries on behalf of the fishermen on the east half of Lake Erie. He protested against the decision of the department not to issue licenses for seine fishing during the present season, but instructing to stop fishing during last November, and the reduction in the number of nets. He asked that there should be a provision to keep up the few nets the Canadian fishermen had. Col. Tisdale pointed to the large quantities of fish caught by the Americans opposite. He also quoted the severity of the prosecution of Seord and Clarke, and alluded to the question of the inner bay.

Sir Charles Tupper said he would consider the petitioners read to the House by Mr. Tisdale, but he adhered to the wisdom of his policy and regulations, based as they were on the results of "scientific investigation." This will be small consolation to the poor fishermen.

The debate was continued by Messrs. McMillan, Tupper, McMillan, Sproule and Fairbairn.

At 1:45 a division was taken, resulting in the defeat of the amendment by 65 yeas to 99 nays, a Government majority of 44. McCarthy and O'Brien voted for the amendment.

THE COLONIAL CONFERENCE

(Special to the ADVERTISER.)

OTTAWA, July 4.—The following is an official statement of the proceedings at the Colonial Conference to-day:

The chief business of the day was the further consideration of the motion of Hon. F. B. Sutor, New South Wales. This, in the opinion of this conference, immediate steps should be taken to provide telegraphic communication by cable, free from foreign control, between the Dominion of Canada and Australasia.

After a long and animated discussion the resolution was adopted without dissent.

The following resolution, moved by Hon. Mr. Sutor and seconded by Hon. Mr. Fitzgerald (Tasmania), was also adopted after careful debate: "That this conference is of opinion that any provisions in existing treaties between Great Britain and any foreign power which prevent the self-governing dependencies of the empire from entering into agreements of commercial reciprocity with each other or with Great Britain should be removed."

It was resolved on motion of Hon. Mr. Foster, seconded by Sir Henry Wrixon (Victoria), "That the Imperial Government be respectfully requested to undertake at the earliest possible moment, and to prosecute with all possible speed a thorough survey of the proposed cable route between Canada and Australia, the expense to be borne in equal proportions by Great Britain, Canada and the Australian colonies."

It was moved by Sir Charles Mills (Cape of Good Hope), seconded by Sir Henry De Villiers, and resolved, "That it is for the interest of the empire that, in case of the construction of a cable between Canada and Australasia, such cable should be extended from Australasia to the Cape of Good Hope, and that for that purpose arrangements should be made between the Imperial and South African Governments for a survey of the latter route."

It is expected that the business for tomorrow will have reference to the important question of reciprocal trade between the colonies represented at the conference. The president transmitted the following reply to the telegram of Earl Rosebery, dated June 26:

"The members of this conference acknowledge with great pleasure your Lordship's kind telegram received yesterday, and join in your hope that our deliberations may assist in assuring the continued unity and greatness of the empire."

"You needn't be uneasy," says Terry, marking a contemptuous little moue. "He is not so easily upset as you seem to think. He will stick his glass in his eye, regard me critically for a moment, and say, 'White becomes you! That will be all.'"

"I think you are a little unfair to him," says Fanny. She studies the girl with some anxiety. "What is his fault?" she asks. "Is he not kind, thoughtful? Was there ever a more attentive lover? Does he ever find fault with you?"

"He does nothing but find fault with me. He—'with a sudden burst of anger, long restrained—'he disapproves of me.'"

"Nonsense, Terry! What has he said to you, to make you come to such an extraordinary conclusion?"

"Nothing. Nothing at all," indignantly. "That is the worst of it. If he would say something, I could forgive him. But he only thinks, and thinks, and looks, and looks. I passionately, 'can't bear it. If he would only once get really speech with me—say something dreadful—speak at me—I could like him better. I could at all events gloomily, 'understand him.'"

"My dear Terry!"

"But he won't," says Terry, with dreary conviction. "I'm sure he thinks it isn't a respectable thing for a man to say—"

"Cross words?" suggests Fanny, gravely. She is secretly amused with mirth.

"No," frowning. "Cross words to a woman."

"Perhaps experience has taught him that there is little to be gained by them—that they bring in, as a rule, more kicks than 'pence,'" says Fanny, with a speech in a model of propriety in the drawing-room, but who can give herself away very considerably in her bedroom. "And so all you have to object to in Gerrard is that he won't swear at you?"

"Oh! If you can't be sober!"

"My dear girl, I haven't touched a drop of tea since—"

Terry abruptly leaves the room, angered the more by the notion of Fanny's suppressed laughter, that seems to echo down the corridor behind her.

If Mrs. Adams had meant to advocate her sense of humor, she has certainly failed. It is with an ever-increasing anger against Trefusis—against the man she has promised to marry—that Terry runs down the stairs and straight to the library.

On the threshold she pauses, standing behind the velvet portieres as if half afraid to draw them aside.

Is any one down before her? Suddenly she draws the curtains, and, holding one in each hand, she looks up. Standing so, she makes a charming picture—a picture of all white, white silk and lace, and a grace most indescribable, a beauty rare, a sweetness and perfection not to be surpassed. So she stands looking in, her white gown framed on either side by the rich red of the velvet hangings. Her lovely face, lit by happy expectation, is brilliant, her whole air almost tremulous with delight. To the two gazing back at her she seems like the incarnation of youth and light and love.

My only joy and dearie, O.
Thy neck is like the dew-drop
Upon the banks so briery, O.

Thy teeth are of the ivory;
Oh sweetest, the twinkle of thine eye!
Nae joy, nae pleasure blinks on me,
My only joy and dearie, O.

To the two looking back at her she is certainly their "dearie O." Seeing that, she makes a step forward, letting the curtains swing behind her. Larry is the first to move; Trefusis stands silent, his eyes fixed on her. He had not anticipated, perhaps, the Irishman's impetuosity, and, besides, he would not have stirred if he could. He is content to gaze and gaze. It is as though he is looking at her for the first time; she seems to him a revelation, and indeed in a sense she is, and not without reason. In her very shabbiest frock he had always thought her the prettiest girl he had ever seen, but he had not known how beautiful she could be!

"Oh, I say! How awfully pretty you look!" says Larry, in his boyish way. He catches her hand and draws her into the center of the room, under the big chandelier, from which many wax candles cast their gleams upon her, as if in love with her. "Is that the dress the old Demon gave you? If so, I forgive her a lot of her sins!"

"You like me," asks Terry, gayly. She is feeling a little better, a little vain, perhaps, a little angry. Trefusis says nothing.

"Oh, I love you," says Larry, with a rather forced tone. "You will give me a dance, won't you? I ask in a hurry, as I see," shaking his head with a mixture of despair and pride in her. "Your eyes will be full five seconds after you enter the dancing room."

"A dance? Any dance?" says Terry, quickly, smiling charmingly at him. She has never glanced at Trefusis since that first quick look she gave him on her entrance; and indeed so far as she concerns herself with him now, he might as well not be in the room—perhaps better.

"Will you have the first waltz?"

"The first?" repeats Larry, with a little stammer. "But that is a rather uncomfortable glance at Trefusis, who is looking perfectly placid and unconcerned, 'is promised, of course.'"

"No, it isn't," shaking her charming head. "Strange as it may seem to you, not a soul has asked me to say this in Trefusis's hearing. For the last two days he and I have been dancing, and in a way had given her to understand that this and that dance should be his. But he had not directly asked her for the first, and this had nettled her. He had made so sure. She was his property, it seemed, and she was to keep open her card for him. 'Won't you have it?' she asks. She gives Larry a distinctly coquettish glance from under her long dark lashes.

"Thank you," says O'More—a little gravely, however.

Terry looks back over her left shoulder to admire the train behind her.

"So you like my dress?" says she to Larry.

"Oh, like it!" says that young man, ecstatically. "It is perfect; and so are you."

Terry turns her eyes slowly at last on Trefusis. His silence has irritated her into speech.

"And you?" she asks. "What do you think of it?" There is defiance in her air. Trefusis regards her calmly for a moment or two, then lets his gaze travel over her gown in a slow, unburied fashion.

"It suits you very well," he says indifferently.

Terry turns away from him, bitterly affronted. She is feeling, however, as she turns, such a cold answer, after all, dear Larry's loving admiration! What a fool!

she must be, to fancy at times that he is in love with her!

She runs quickly to a long mirror, and stares at the charming reflection therein, a reflection with a considerably heightened color and flashing eyes. This replica of her pretty self she regards with studied approval for a while.

You are right," says she, nodding her head gayly at herself. "It does suit me. But, Larry, what about this sleeve! Isn't the ribbon a little high, eh? Come here and look."

Larry rushes to her.

"A little, perhaps," says he. If there can be a fault anywhere, it is there. Shall I flatten it a bit?"

"Yes, but take care."

"Now, patting the ribbon anxiously, though to Trefusis, looking impudently on it, it seems that he is patting the pretty child's shoulder only, 'will that do? There!' standing back to admire her dress."

"You are, if possible, half an inch taller than you were a moment ago. I assure you, Terry, you didn't want to touch. You, tenderly, 'would take the shine out of the lot of them, even if you were dressed in that old black gown of yours. As it is, I tremble for the consequences. To-night will draw tears of blood from—"

"Nonsense!" interrupts Miss O'More, lightly. "You rave! Here, fasten my bow. You seem to have nothing to do but talk nonsense; and these buttons will help you through your time." She laughs merrily, and holds out to him her slender hand.

"Remarkable Cure of Dropsy and Dyspepsia."—Mr. Samuel T. Casey, Belleville, writes: "In the spring of 1881 I began to be troubled with dyspepsia, which gradually became more and more distressing. I used various domestic remedies and applied to my family physician, but received no benefit. By this time my trouble assumed the form of dropsy. I was unable to use any food whatever except boiled milk and bread; my limbs were swollen to twice their natural size; all hopes of my recovery were given up, and I quite expected death within a few weeks. Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery having been recommended to me, I tried a bottle with but little hope of relief, and, after using eight bottles, my Dyspepsia and Dropsy are cured. Although now 79 years of age I can enjoy my meals as well as ever, and my general health is good. I am well-known in this section of Canada, having lived here 57 years; and you have liberty to use my name in recommendation of your Vegetable Discovery, which has done such wonders in my case."

CHASE'S CHAPTER

1. Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are a combination of valuable medicines in concentrated form as prepared by the eminent Physician and Author, Dr. A. W. Chase, with a view to not only be an unfailing remedy for Kidney and Liver troubles, but also tone the Stomach and purify the Blood, at a cost that is within the reach of all. The superior merit of these pills is established beyond question by the praise of thousands who use them—one Fill a dose, one box 25 cents.

2. When there is a Pain or Ache in the Back the Kidneys are speaking of trouble that will ever increase unless relieved. We have the reliable statement of L. B. Johnson, Holland Landing, who says: "I had a constant Back-Ache, my back felt cold all the time, my appetite poor, stomach sour and belching, urine scalding, had to get up 3 or 4 times during night to urinate, commenced taking one Kidney-Liver Pill a day; Back-Ache stopped in 48 hours, appetite returned, and able to enjoy a good meal and a good night's sleep; they cured me."

3. Constipation often exists with Kidney trouble, in such a case there is no medicine that will effect a permanent cure except Chase's combined Kidney-Liver Pills, one 25 cent box will do more good than dollars and dollars worth of any other preparation, this is endorsed by D. Thompson, Holland Landing, Ont.

4. In a case like this there is no medicine that will effect a permanent cure except Chase's combined Kidney-Liver Pills, one 25 cent box will do more good than dollars and dollars worth of any other preparation, this is endorsed by D. Thompson, Holland Landing, Ont.

WOMAN'S NEED

Women suffer unspeakable tortures from muscular weakness, caused by impure nerves and poor blood. Uric Kidney acid poisons the blood. By and by, if the Kidneys do not properly purify the blood, then comes prostration, retroversion, etc. Blood 75 per cent, pure is not a nourisher—it is a death breeder. Delicate women need not be told how much they would give to get and stay well. If their blood is free from the poisonous ferments of the Kidneys and Liver, they will never know what "weakness" is. The blood is the source and sustainer of health. It cannot be kept pure except the Kidneys and Liver do their work naturally. Something is needed to insure free and natural action of these organs, one 25 cent box of Kidney-Liver Pills will prove to any sufferer they are a boon to women, can be used with perfect confidence by those of delicate constitution.

One Kidney-Liver Pill taken weekly will effectually neutralize the formation of Uric Acid in the blood and prevent any tendency to Bright's Disease or Diabetes.

the pressure distribution has remained about the same. Showers have occurred in

RECIPE FOR HAPPINESS.

(Baltimore American.)
With pure food, pure milk, pure water, pure air and a pure conscience, life should be full of happiness.

THE PRINCIPLE OF IT.

(Louisville Courier-Journal.)
Every man has the right to work or to quit work just as he pleases. But no man has the right, natural or acquired, to prevent another man from working if the other man wants to work. It is the business and duty of the Government to protect every man in his rights, and he who opposes the Government in this will do so at his peril. The laws must be enforced, and all men must be made to obey them.

THE LANGLEY CASE.

Lansing People Hear of His Illness and Subsequent Cure While in London.
Ont.—Much Pleasure Manifested
Over the News.

LANSING, Mich., July 2.—A friend of William Langley, formerly of this city, now of London, Ont., received a letter a few months ago stating that Mr. Langley had Bright's disease. Of course no hope of his recovery could be held out. Within a month, the same friend has received a letter from Mr. Langley stating that he is completely cured of the supposed fatal disorder. Mr. Langley says no medicine did him any good until he began using Dodd's Kidney Pills. These helped him from the first and in the end restored him to perfect health.

Just arrived another consignment of one-dollar rockers; also large stock of sideboards, bedroom sets and parlor suites.

Canada's divorcees for the past twenty years have been figured up, and they amount to only 110.

The great lung healer is found in the excellent medicine sold as Pickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It cures and diminishes the sensibility of the membrane of the throat and air passages and is a sovereign remedy for all coughs, colds, hoarseness, pain in the chest, bronchitis, etc. It has cured many when supposed to be far advanced in consumption.

LONDON AND ENVIRONS

If an S and I and an O and a U,
With an X at the end, spell, spell;
And an S and a Y and an E spell I,
Pray what is a speller to do?
Then if an S and I and an O and a U,
And an H E D spell side,
There is nothing much left for a speller to do
But to go and commit some sayings.

—They sell most who advertise most.
And why not?

—Miss Henry, St. Louis, Mich., is visiting Miss Taylor, Evergreen Lawn, South London.

—Owing to a slight accident the steamer Thames will not make regular trips till tomorrow at 1:30 p.m.

The Methodists of the St. John and Masonville churches had their annual outing at Springbank yesterday.

—The brother of Mr. John Cook, of 148 Waterloo street, who was reported as missing, says that he is in Toronto.

—As a stiff breeze sweeps the clouds from the sky, so brisk advertising sweeps cobwebs from the hustling merchant's store.

—The local printing offices get a miserable supply of gas between midnight and the hour of going to press. Who is to blame?

—A gas jet set fire to the window curtain at D. T. Ware's home on Park avenue last night. The firemen extinguished the blaze.

—Henry Wells, of London, slept on the grass under the mountain last night and this morning he discovered he had been relieved of $21.—(Hamilton Spectator.)

—A. M. Legg, Wortley road, has obtained a permit to build an addition to his residence. T. H. Smallman, Grand avenue, will build a $5,000 addition to his house.

—The Misses M. and E. Flint, of London West, Misses Harriet and Mary Flint, of Brick street, and Miss Fanny Flint, of Byron, have returned home from Montreal and the Thousand Islands.

—Police Magistrate Parke yesterday adjudged the charges of cruelty to a horse and larceny against John Paddon until Friday. They were preferred by the chief of police and Wm. Wilson respectively.

—Rev. H. C. Speller, of De Lande, Fla., formerly pastor of the Adelaide Street Baptist Church, is visiting friends in the western section of Ontario. Mr. Speller is accompanied by Mrs. Speller and family.

—Mrs. H. Simon and Miss Simon, of this city, were in Hamilton on Tuesday attending the wedding of Mr. Harry G.
Levetts, of Montreal, and Miss Lily Birkenthal, a popular and accomplished lady of the Ambitious City.

—Sir John C. Bray, K.C.M.G., a noted Australian statesman who visited these parts eight years ago, died recently. He was a nephew of the late William Bray, of Petrolia, and cousin to Dr. Bray, of Chatham, and Rev. Horace Bray, of Thamesville.

—Mr. James Lutman, assistant relief inspecter, climbed to death an applicant for relief in the inspector's office yesterday.
The caller was in the shape of a large tarantula that had strolled in from a nearby fruit store. Mr. Lutman had a regular war dance after the animal. It measured about three inches across.

—While making a return trip to the city yesterday the steamer Thames was slightly disabled. The paddles of the boat struck a log and five of the buckets were broken.
About 300 passengers were at Springbank, but Capt. Argo Foster had them brought to the city in cabs and rowboats. The crowd was well pleased with the genial captain's good management.

—Mr. Patrick Tynan drew his usual pension envelope at a city bank yesterday, and on opening it in the street found a few minutes later a teller told him he was given the proper amount, but as Mr. Tynan is willing to take oath that he spoke to no one between receiving and opening the envelope, he is very much perplexed. He could ill afford the loss.

—The teachers and children of Christ Church Sunday school, to the number of 300, enjoyed their annual picnic at Spring-bank yesterday. On arrival of the boat at the waterfront, a dinner was had in the dining hall, after which the children separated and rambled about for an hour or so. A programme of games of various kinds was carried out, and some good prizes distributed to the lucky ones.

—Walter Woolway was brought before Judge Wm. Elliot this morning, and first elected trial by judge on the charge of having stolen a gold watch from Thomas Logan. He afterwards entered a plea of guilty. Sentence will be passed on Tuesday. Woolway will also have to answer the serious charge of robbing the postoffice at Melrose on June 30 of $8 50. Squire Smyth will hear this case on July 10.

—The Rev. A. Parent, a veteran missionary of the French and Indian work in the Province of Quebec, has been lecturing in this Province for the past few months in the interests of missionary work, and is now in this city, and will remain here for a few weeks. Although 70 years have passed over this veteran Canadian missionary, his power of thought and right reasoning, his power of thought and right reasoning, and his clearness of intellect is unimpaired.
His lectures are full of information concerning the French and Indian missionary work in Quebec Province, and are well attended.
G. T. R. Car Shops Resume.

The Grand Trunk car shops in this city have resumed work with a force of 200 men.

hours a day.

Enforce the Bylaw.

The city bylaw relating to thistles and noxious weeds, if enforced, would give a few days' work to someone. On many corners in the city luxuriant growths of these pests are now forming seed, which will cause ruin and trouble to lawns and gardens. People naturally ask why not enforce the law and compel each citizen to do his full duty in this matter? In the northern portion of the city there are many eyesores of this kind, and on the property

Canada's Great Fair for 1894.

The Toronto Industrial Exhibition has now become one of the great events of the year in Canadian history, and is looked forward to by the people in all parts of the Dominion. We have received a copy of the prize list for this year's fair, which is to be held from the 3rd to the 15th September next. The amount of prizes offered is as large as ever and there is every prospect of this year's show excelling all others, and the directors have voted a large amount for novelties and special features which are bound to attract the people. The grounds are also being vastly improved this year.

Anyone desiring a copy of the prize list can obtain one by dropping a postcard to Mr.
H. J. Hill, the manager, Toronto.

The Pullman Strike.

It was hinted yesterday by railroad men that the strike on the C. and G. T. would affect the G. T. R. in this city at midnight.
By those who are in a position to know it is denied that the strike will reach this city at all. Superintendent Tiffin spent yesterday in Sarnia, and returned on the Erie last night. It is said that American organizers were in Sarnia yesterday, but met with very indifferent success, and it is believed that the men will be loyal to the company. The Erie was made up in Sarnia.
One Pullman car came in on it, and two more were added here and carried east.

Railroad men who were in Port Huron yesterday say that the firemen are asking to be re-employed. It is thought over there that citizens will force the two parties to arbitrate.

A Successful Pastorate.

Four years ago Rev. W. J. Clark was inducted into the pastorate of the First Presbyterian Church, and the congregation last evening held an anniversary service and a social gathering. Mr. Robt. Rehl, as chairman of the board of managers, and Mr. John Cameron, representing the session, made congratulatory addresses. Rev.
W. J. Clark followed in reply and spoke on the work of the congregation. In 1890 there were 182 members on the roll; at present there were 415. In 1889 the church collected slightly over $3,000, including a $500 legacy; last year the congregation gave over $9,000, which included the church building fund. The choir supplied several choice anthems, and Miss Lillywhite sang a solo very sweetly, accompanied by Mr.
Barron on the organ and Mr. Saunders on the cello. The gathering then adjourned to the lecture room, where refreshments were served.

After the Collector.

There was a meeting of the London West Council on Tuesday night, and Reeve Macdonald informed the members present that a warrant had been issued for the apprehension of the late tax collector, John M. Lord. The reeve fully explained the situation in regard to Mr. Lord's books and the collector's probable deficiency. The whereabouts of the late official is still unknown to the authorities. Bylaws were passed for the appointment of John Simpson as clerk and James H. Jones as collector, Mr. Jones to receive a commission of 1 1/2 per cent on all moneys collected. H. B.
Tozer applied for the position of assessor,
at a salary of $60, or $85 with an assistant.
The appointment was deferred until the next meeting. Sheriff's Officer Graham produced the books of the village, which were in possession of the ex-clerk. An account of $4 from Wm. Spence, deputy returning officer, for rent of a polling booth at the election, was laid over. Several accounts were paid; one from the Canadian General Electric Company was referred to the finance committee, and the sum of $250 was placed to the credit of the school board. A special meeting will be held on Thursday next to discuss breakwater affairs.

In Love With London.

"Traveler," writing in Wednesday's Mail, says: "Will you kindly allow me a small space to pay a tribute to one of the finest cities of our great Dominion—the Forest City, the London of Canada, where I have just concluded a delightful visit of two weeks. For the last two weeks I have been driving through its spacious streets, filled with busy teams and lined with fine shops, well filled with choice goods and busy customers. No empty stores; everything on the hum. Then through its beautiful long avenues, with handsome residences, lovely lawns and shrubbery, everything denoting taste, culture and wealth. Space will not permit me to describe all its fine churches, colleges, hospitals, homes and convents, amongst the most conspicuous being the new St. Paul's Cathedral, the Catholic Cathedral, the First Presbyterian Church, Queen's Avenue and Dundas Street Methodist Churches, and the celebrated Helmuth Ladies' College, two miles north on a lovely elevation overlooking the city, where parents from all parts of the continent send their daughters for a finished education.
The Sacred Heart Convent, St. Joseph's Hospital, new Collegiate Institute, and many other public institutions stand out as marks of wealth, culture, enterprise and business activity, such as no other city of its population in Canada can boast, and nowhere else have I met with businessmen so gentlemanly, quick and active in all transactions."
