A friendly game of ball was played on Carling's Farm between the Anchors of London South, and the London North Sangers, resulting in favor of the Anchors by a score of 9 to 0. The Anchors are open for challenges from any club under 14. Apply to F. Stettner, 2 Horse street.
There is not a left-handed pitcher on the Cincinnati team.
Clark, New York's first baseman, in a recent game, had 19 put-outs without an error.
There is talk of an impending "shake-up" in the Pittsburgh team if their playing does not improve. Their pitchers are in pretty good shape, but it takes more than a pitcher to win a game.
A rumor is floating about the effect that John T. Brush, the owner of the Cincinnati club, will shortly buy out the Louisville club, and transfer the franchise to Indianapolis, thus making the Hoosier team a league city.
"Give me the outfielder who studies the opposing batsmen and their way of hitting the ball," says my Uncle Anson. "I don't give a straw for an outfielder who makes brilliant catches unless he places himself for each hitter."
The spectators do not always understand why a player makes errors. A pitcher can be "rattled" more by the bleachers than by the hardest kind of hitting by the opposing team. The "take him out" cry would render a Rube ineffective.
Capt. Anson has decided to pair his batteries, and will work only three pitchers hereafter so long as they keep in condition. Donahue will catch Friend, Dalley will handle Terry's curves, and Griffith and McFarland will be held for emergencies.
"Locate the plate. A pitcher should never forget these words," says "Silver" King. "Once the plate is located, the rest—mix of delivery, curves and so forth—comes quite easy. But pitchers can never master command of the ball unless they have a plate for a mark during practice. Pitching is marksmanship, and how can a crack shot, for instance, improve his aim unless he picked out a mark to practice on?"
Harry Davis has been laid off by New York.
There is not a left-handed pitcher on the Cincinnati team.
Leavenworth may succeed Quincy in the Western Association.
Empire Gaffney last week fined Wright of Toronto for giving "Patsy" Donovan in putting up the name of his life with Pittsburgh.
Chicago's life is losing its popularity. Opposing bats are at the bottom of it.
Burkett, of Cleveland, was fined the price of a new ball belonging to Brooklyn for throwing the ball over the fence in a fit of disgust at losing the third consecutive game. The amount was deducted from the Cleveland's share of the gate receipts.
There is talk of an impending "shake-up" in the Pittsburgh team if their playing does not improve. Their pitchers are in pretty good shape, but it takes more than a pitcher to win a game.

Clark, New York's first baseman, in a recent game had nineteen put-outs without an error.
A very interesting game of ball was played at Dorchester on Saturday before about 200 people, between the McClary Manufacturing Company's team and the Dorchester club. The game at the close stood 5 to 7 in favor of the McClary club. Batteries—Watson and Cook; Miles and McCarthy.
It is not likely that any of the London City League teams will participate in the baseball tournament at Lucan on Friday next. Teams from Goderich, Point Edward, Alisa Gals and the Irish Nine of Lucan, together with the London West Stars will be there. This would be a great opportunity for the Barracks nine to distinguish themselves.

WINDSOR RACES.

RACES IN BRITAIN TODAY.
London, June 15.—There were great crowds at Ascot today, upon the opening of the royal season there this afternoon, including the usual heavy turning out of members of the aristocracy. The demand for admittance to the royal enclosure was so great that the issue of tickets was stopped a week ago. The racing will last until Friday next, inclusive. Eight horses started in the race for the Ascot stakes of 20 sovereigns each, with 1,000 sovereigns added, and M. De Stalery's brown colt Arlequin won. The owner of the winner, M. De Stalery, fought a duel in Paris yesterday and was wounded in the breast. In spite of this he was present at Ascot today to see Arlequin.

TIPS.
Rose Atkins, 2, was killed by the cyclone which struck Ambler Park last week. She was in John E. Turner's stable. J. M. D., 213 1-2, was badly scared up, but not seriously injured.
George Saunders has a strong stable this spring. He includes Schie Giff, 2:10; Maud C, 2:10 1-4; Dick Mason, 2:14 1-4; Atlantic, 2:18 3-4; Mackey, a fast gelding by Wilton, and several others.
The American stallion Endymion seems destined to make his mark in history, when in the near future he will be sired by him. Every one of them judged worthy of being entered in the yearly richest purse of Italy.
Wallace, the famous Australian horse, son of Carbine, in the Sydney cup, bruised his heel, and could not be exercised on the ground. He took his work in swimming, and in a few days after won the Cumberland stakes, two miles.

Farm and training expenses are not the only things which help to eat up the winnings of Village Farm. In the past twelve years C. J. Hamlin has paid out $90,000 in insurance premiums, and has received but $20,000 for deaths.
Following are the records for trotting in different countries: United States, 2:03 3-4; Australia, 2:14 1-5; by Fritz, Australia, 2:15 9-10; by Stopford, Russia, 2:15 1-2; by Mily on a two-mile track; Italy, 2:17 3-5; by Walky; France, 2:20; by Kelp; England, 2:24 1-2; by Rowley; Norway, 2:44 2-5; by Alf.

Nancy Hanks, 2:04, and fly by Arion, 2:07 3-4, are getting along nicely. Nancy is perfectly agreeable to all visitors, and apparently enjoys having them pet her daughter, but was to the house of the approaching season, and his head over the paddock fence. The filly is halter broken, but not as yet named.

The brood mare Daisy James, dam of Hammock, 2:17 3-4, and Bonnie Bell, 2:24 1-2, by Rockwood, 1:47, dam of Oregan, 2:18 1-2, are being trained in a manner. The mare was being ridden to water by a boy, when, stepping on the end of a stout stick, it flew up, striking her near the udder. The mare lunged forward, when the end of the stick cut her neck, dismembering her. She had a foal at foot by Atammon.

CRICKET.
LONDON VS. ASYLUM.
A good game of cricket was played Saturday afternoon on the asylum cricket grounds, between the Asylum and London Cricket Clubs. Double figures were made by but one batsman for the Asylum, England, an always reliable bat, running up to 14, while for the London club, up to 15. MacLaren did some splendid work for 30, and Smith batted heavily for five 4's and a 1, making a total of 21. The score was as follows:
ASYLUM.
Walker, b H. Pope, b Dalley, 14
Terry, b Dalley, 14

THE WHEEL.
MARY.
Mary had a little lamb,
But both have long been dead;
If Mary were alive today,
She'd want a wheel instead.
SPOKES.
Two young Londoners took a run to St. Thomas Sunday, and upon arriving one found his bicycle disabled, making it impossible for them to return; but meeting the traveling agent of the Columbia Wheel Company, who was kind enough to exchange wheels, they made their return in safety. The boys now say the Columbia is a good thing to punt, and are heartily thankful to the obliging agent.
The London Bicycle Club will hold a run this (Tuesday) evening to Springfield, the committee, composed of Dr. Balfour, Dr. Belton, M. R. Kingsmill and H. C. McBride, have arranged to hold a reception for the members.

Washed Their Feet.
Berlin, Ont., June 15.—The annual camp meetings of the new Mennonite Church have been in session in Snider Grove, Ontario, since last Monday, and at every meeting the six o'clock in the morning one included, the attendance has been large. On Sunday the climate of the day was reached, when it is believed that more than ten thousand people were present. All day long, from 6 a.m. until ten o'clock, the camp was without interruption, and it is reported a large number were converted. The manner of conversion was peculiar in some cases when struck by the spirit, women would shriek and scream until overcome, when they would fall to the ground and the dust. Some would rise to their feet, overcome to speechlessness, and would remain standing for some time. Others, coming from them. Meantime the other worshippers would go on with their service, oblivious of the other surroundings. The scene was so great that the big meeting, which is held in the center of the camp grounds, the tents forming a circle around it, had to be put into five or six, and held in different parts of the grounds.
Saturday afternoon a feet-washing ceremony was held, which was taken part in by a large number. This ceremony is very important to the Mennonites. After one brother had washed another's feet, the other would turn around and wash the feet of the first. The women would arise and embrace and kiss, the ceremony then being complete.

HANDS OFF THE MOON!
A Telescope That Will Bring It So Close That Observers Will Want to Touch It.
London Daily News.
The huge block of crystal which will become the mirror for the great telescope has safely arrived in Paris. It will go to the exhibition of 1900, and will be able to boast of a distinct feature. While the moon's features will be equally distinct is another question. Prof. Lowry, who is in charge of the telescope, is still determined to carry through his idea.
"The moon one yard off." It was thus the scheme of the gigantic telescope was spoken of in the papers, but M. Deloncle, however ambitious he may be in Central Africa, protests that he never had so preposterous a notion. He claims that it will be possible to throw on to a screen views of our satellite from the distance of 100 miles. This remains to be seen. However, everybody will wish M. Deloncle, and still more, especially his shareholders, every success. The time must still regard as an experiment.
The new telescopic mirror is the largest ever made. It was cast in a furnace at a melting temperature of the last French station on the line to Liege, Cologne and Berlin. This splendid blue crystal, says the manufacturer, weighs 3,000 kilograms. Its diameter is 2.06 meters and in its present rough state it cost $4,000. Of course it was not intended for a special train. It was wrapped up in heavy felt blankets, protected by hoops of soft wood, and was carried on a special train. Thus packed, the mirror was tightly wedged in a case that was placed in a wagon on a bed of hurdles and lashed by a railway inspector. It was insured to its full value. The same afternoon it was removed from the northern terminus to the workshop of the inventor, before leaving Jeumont. The mirror, before leaving Jeumont, went through a second grinding of its faces, being as smooth as a fine plate glass. But for this purpose the sort of smoothness is roughness itself. The finishing process will take two years and six months, and by more than a hundred times as much as it is to be used, which, moreover, will give greater accuracy than anything known. Hitherto astronomical mirrors have been polished by hand by slowly rubbing the glass with the naked hand, sometimes, but not always, with cloth, and sometimes with other substances which are the maker's secret. The drawback of this process is that the mere heat of the hand may cause the surface to warp. The new mechanical process, of which particulars are not given, will produce a surface approximating a plane, within one ten-thousandth part of a millimetre. Even this marvelous finish will leave a margin, astronomers tell us, for errors. The finishing process will cost $5,000. The silvering will not cost anything to speak of.
The mirror will be mounted on two arms ten metres long, and will be set in motion by machinery of the usual sort. The rays gathered from planetary space will be reflected horizontally through a mammoth tube 60 metres long, laid on piles of masonry. The lenses of flint and crown glass will be 1 metre 25 centimetres, the largest in the world, and the images, enlarged 6,000 times, will be thrown on to a screen, which thousands of people will view at a time.
The moon will, if all goes well, be brought within 38 miles, but it is doubtful whether images on this scale will prove correct. M. Lowry, the assistant director of the Paris Observatory, who has submitted some splendid photographs of the moon, believes that the limit of 94 miles he has reached is the utmost practicable for a long time to come. Larger images will be indistinct.

Special trains, those magnificent first-class coaches, fast time and a good day generally, is the programme mapped out by the C. P. R. employees for their annual picnic at Chatham on Friday, the 28th inst. A great turnout is expected. There will be baby shows, bicycle races, foot races, jumping, greasy pigs to catch, greasy poles to climb, baseball, tennis, and so on. In fact, everything that goes to make life worth living. Wait for it. Remember the date, June 26. Return fare from London only 50 cents.

Rubber-Tired Cabs.

All the Rag in Paris, but They Have to Be Belled.
The easiest way of dying in Paris, as everyone knows, is to get run over. The coachmen of other capitals run over people once in a way, and more often than not by accident. Parisian jellies look upon bowling over pedestrians as part of their profession, and when victims do not crop up of themselves they drive out of their course to find them. Latterly things have gone from bad to worse. A sudden freak of fashion has brought the India Rubber tire into favor in the City of Light. The start was given to the new fad by the Anglo-maniacs who imported rubber-tired safety hansom cabs from London and gilded round in them, amid the stares of their fellow-citizens, whom they knocked over like nine-pins while feeding their curiosity. Vehicles of this sort have been all the rage among young blades about town and smart Stock Exchange men.

Still, had the matter ended here, it would have had no further effect than to produce a little extra animation in the vicinity of the Bois de Boulogne, but there was more to follow. President Felix Faure got wind of the innovation through his son-in-law, M. Jolain, who is a thorough-paced sportsman and up to all the latest moves in the horsey world. The President's wish was to run a hansom of his own, but the chief of the protocol, the functionary whose business it is to see that he does not outrage the proprieties denigrating the dignity of the State cannot keep up his dignity in a carriage with less than four wheels. A compromise was made accordingly, and one afternoon M. Faure made the round of the lake—the classic drive in the Bois de Boulogne—in a brand new victoria furnished with the comfortable but deadly rubber tires. The day after carriages with rubber-tired wheels were the correct thing, and the damage was done.

The most ardent followers of the new fashion had proved to be the ladies, and especially those who are fond of the strolling, noiseless, and out of it. No professional beauty who respects herself will consent to her precious person being subjected to ever, they spirit about on times as bulky as those of their pneumatic predecessors, still taking a grocer's cart to the death rate in a big city, but before these rubber tires had been in vogue a month they had come near being the cause of a revolution. The ladies stole upon you like a dead unguessed, and their privileged coachmen were so successful that they got tired of counting the scraps they took. Fortunately the chief of the Paris police has belied the cat. Paris awoke one morning to find its streets posted with a new police regulation ordering the owners of rubber-tired vehicles to attach a full-length bell on a chain to their small bells to their horse's harness. The result is that in the aristocratic quarters of the town and on the big boulevards the sound of the tinkling troika—Paris Correspondence New York Journal.

A Substitute for Amputation.
A new and simple mode of treatment has been introduced in France, by which, it is claimed, a large proportion of injured limbs now usually amputated, can be saved. The method, which is due to Dr. Reclus, was recently described before the French Congress of Surgery, and is thus described: "Whatever the extent of gravity of the lesions, he (Dr. Reclus) never amputates any circumstance, amputates the injured limb, but merely wraps it in antiseptic substances by a pliable material, and, leaving it in nature to separate the dead from the living tissues. This method of treatment possesses the double advantage of saving the patient from the surgical excruciations, and of preserving for the use of the patient, if not the entire limb, at least a much larger part than would be left after amputation. He advocates this very conservative treatment on account of the excellent effects of hot water, which he uses freely. After the skin has been shaved and cleaned from the fatty substance by ether, etc., by the usual way, a jet of hot water 60 to 62 degrees C. (140 to 144 degrees) is not higher, is made to irrigate all the injured surfaces, and to penetrate into all the hollows and under all the detached parts of the wound, the exception. This is the only way of removing all clots, and to wash away all foreign bodies, together with the micro-organisms they may contain. The advantages of hot water at this high temperature are threefold—(1) hot water at this temperature is antiseptic, it kills germs; (2) it is hemostatic (that is, stanches the flow of blood); (3) it helps to compensate the loss of heat, resulting from the bleeding, and especially from the traumatic shock. After the irrigation, the dead tissue has been separated from the living, the surgeon has nothing to do except to divide the bone in a suitable spot. According to Reclus the results obtained are remarkable."

The Advertiser

PUBLISHED BY JOHN CANNON IN 1868.

London, Tuesday, June 16.

Six more days, and then the bright new era of the Laurier-Mowat Administration will be assured. The country is determined to have a change.

Ex-Patron Welch has fallen very flat.—Toronto Star.

Flatter than a pancake. No one in the West cares what that individual either says or does.

Sir Charles Tupper has been telling Toronto reporters that his reception in Western Ontario was far more enthusiastic than was the reception of Sir John Macdonald when he toured the Province. But no one believed him. Sir Charles Tupper has reached the stage which men of his stamp are apt to get at—he imagines that every bushel of his grain is a train load.

Western high tax candidates are all on the stump this week, but the indications are that next Tuesday evening they will find themselves up a tree.

There was no summer weather in the British Columbia mountains till the last week in May, till which time the snow kept missing prospectors from getting into the hills. The season is the latest ever known. Has this fact anything to do with the remarkably cool June weather?

When Premier Tupper talks large talk about the victory being already won, he is talking for effect. But so far the effect is not appreciable among his followers within the Hamilton city limits.—Hamilton Herald.

Nor, for that matter, within the limits of any Canadian city. Sir Charles is remarking through his headgear.

At a recent meeting in favor of the candidature of Hon. Henry Aymer, in Sherbrooke, Quebec, Mr. Boas, who has large manufacturing interests at St. Zéraphin—employing as he does over 500 persons—made a strong speech, in the course of which, referring to the Paton Manufacturing Company, he said it could not be prejudicially affected by Mr. Laurier's policy, as it had risen on its own merits to a condition of great prosperity, and had been paying handsome dividends long prior to the operation of the National Policy.

Misfortunes never come singly. No sooner was it announced that Mr. John Hewitt, Puslinch, had a nine-acre field of barley eaten by grasshoppers right into the roots, and that other farmers in Wellington had suffered in a similar manner, than the head of the Tupper Family Compact came along with its demoralizing influences. But a change is at hand.

Says the Montreal Witness: "What is needed is a change of government. Governments when too long in power become arrogant and despotic, masters instead of servants of the people. Especially are they despotic towards servile constitutions."

The London Star, referring editorially to recently revealed racialities in public management at Ottawa, argues that "a clean sweep should be made of all the jobbers who have fattened on the result of twenty years' bribery."

The Canada Presbyterian says: "One of the undoubted signs of hardened political corruption is a marked tendency to over-estimate the power of bribery and under-estimate the power of conscience. Once in a while the public conscience wakes up and shows that the people are not so bad as corrupt politicians thought they were."

About Tuesday evening next, look for cold weather—for the other fellows.

The Government has no right to take from the earnings of anyone anything except what is needed to carry on the government.—Hon. Wilfrid Laurier.

Among speakers doing effective work in the present campaign are the following well-known Irish-Canadians: Mr. Frank A. Anglin, Mr. Peter Ryan, and Mr. O. K. Fraser, brother of the late Hon. C. P. Fraser. They are ardent advocates of the Liberal policy.

"Mr. Laurier is the only hope of the country," said Sir Oliver Mowat to a large gathering in Berlin the other night.

London (England) Dispatch: "The economic position of Canada is not sound, and her Government is rotten at the core." A change will be decreed on June 23.

For so old a man Sir Charles Tupper has remarkably good insight.

June will give the aggregation now in power at Ottawa the cold shoulder.

The people have rights which even the Tupper Family Compact will be compelled to respect.

Special trains and palace cars are too rich altogether for the blood of this young country.—Brookville Recorder.

They come high, but as long as we have Sir Charles Tupper on top, the country must foot the bill.

Laurier, Mowat, Peace and Prosperity.

Sir Charles Tupper's tactics of brusque intimidation turned the House of Commons into a bear garden during the greater part of the late session at Ottawa. He had been so long absent from the country, living a life of luxurious ease in England, at Canada's expense, that he grew out of touch with the people of the Dominion. Were Sir Charles Tupper to be retained as Premier, after the 23rd of June, the same elements of disintegration exist in his party to turn the House, and in a sense the country, again, into a bear garden. What the country needs is rest from the internecine conflicts of Tupper versus Conservative, and rest from racial and religious controversies. The rough paths of coercion pursued by Tupper can lead only to disquiet and disruption. The one way, at present apparent, to obtain for Canada a period of peace, progress and prosperity, is to follow the paths of conciliation by voting on the 23rd of June for those who will uphold in the Dominion Government and Parliament the hands of Wilfrid Laurier and Oliver Mowat.

Some City Indications.

Dr. Gardiner, of this city, who recently returned from Montreal, says that it was conceded on all hands in that city that the Liberals would carry six out of the eight seats in Montreal and suburbs. In Montreal, also, the general belief is that both seats in Ottawa will go to the Liberals. Coming nearer home, the indications are that the Liberals will carry Hamilton. The "double-headed calf" ticket, which the Conservatives have placed in the field in that city—one candidate pulling one way, and the other taking the opposite tack—is playing the mischief with the high tax machine. A well known Hamiltonian yesterday sent word to London that he was ready to bet any Londoner that the Liberal candidates would be elected. His reason for so doing, he says, is that no Hamiltonian can be prevailed on to put up money upon the Conservative candidates. A like condition of affairs prevails in London, the sporting supporters of Mr. Beattie generally refusing to endorse their faith in a substantial way. The "Advertiser" is no advocate of betting in elections, but it notes this significant indication of the way in which the tide is flowing.

The Manitoba Schools.

Resolutions by Principal Caven Before the General Assembly.

Opposed to Separate Schools but Favor Reasonable Redress for the Minority.

Toronto, June 15.—At the General Assembly Saturday Principal Caven presented the following resolution on the Manitoba school question: "That the General Assembly, while in common with former assemblies attaching great importance to the religious character of public education, is strongly opposed to the restoration of separate schools in Manitoba as involving the application of public funds to sectarian purposes, a thing deemed both inexpedient and wrong in principle.

"The Assembly expresses disapproval of any legislation or governmental action in the matter of education which is intended to confer privileges upon one section of the community that are not accorded to all. In particular, the Assembly disapproves of any attempt to remove alleged grievances connected with the establishment of national schools in Manitoba by remedial legislation of the Dominion, and especially by remedial legislation, such as has been proposed. Legislation of this character, while competent according to the letter of the constitution, is not required by it, is at variance with its spirit, and is also certain to be followed by very harmful consequences. The Assembly cannot indeed regard the establishment of separate schools as in any case a satisfactory solution of the educational problem occasioned by diversity in religious belief.

"In the interest of civil and religious liberty the General Assembly deems it its duty at this time to lift up its testimony against all procedure which confuses temporal and spiritual authority, thus inevitably impairing the sanction of both, whilst the province of Manitoba may remove existing difficulties on the subject of public education by such adjustments as, while preserving the principle of national schools, may satisfy any reasonable claims of the minority."

The notice was received with great enthusiasm and applause, and a motion was carried that it should be printed.

The resolution was remitted to the committee on bills and overtures.

THE PORT HOPE TRAGEDY

Arthur Prentiss Charged With Shooting Thomas Lingard.

Port Hope, Ont., June 15.—The adjourned inquest into the circumstances surrounding the killing of Thomas Lingard was resumed yesterday afternoon. Mr. D. H. Chisholm, who has been retained by the accused, has come into possession of facts which it is claimed will prove that the story of Albert Ruel, the main witness for the defence, is true. Ruel swore at the inquest that after Prentiss had shot Lingard he took the victim's head upon his knee, and the blood ran upon his pants. This was directly contradicted by the story told by Mrs. Lingard, who swore that Prentiss immediately ran away after shooting, and did not go near the old man. The gun was found on Friday in a cedar tree, where he had placed it in his excitement on the day of the shooting. The weapon was covered with blood. Albert Robinson, Prentiss' employer, is prepared to swear that the gun was unloading on account of a defective lock, and would go off without the trigger being pulled.

The jury returned the following verdict: "The deceased came to his death by a gun shot wound, inflicted by a bullet in the hands of Arthur Prentiss."

Slim Conservative Meeting in Westminster Rink.

One Hundred and Fifty People and 2000 Chairs—Addresses by Joseph Judd, Matthew Wilson, Q. C., Chat-ham, and the Candidate.

The meeting called in the interests of the Tupper candidate in Westminster Rink last night was not a great success numerically, nor was there enthusiasm to burn. It took Mr. Hume Elliot, in whose interests the meeting had been called, until 15 minutes to 9 o'clock before he could prevail on an audience of the gentlemen present to take the chair. The rink had been seated to accommodate at least 2,000 people, but at no time were there more than 150 persons present. And from the very first speech the rear half of the audience appeared to hesitate between the dampness outside and the dryness inside. Applause was not very frequent, the rain beat a mournful dirge on the roof, and the voices of the speakers sounded hollow in the emptiness of the vast interior. The white glare of the electric lights on the empty chairs emphasized the proportions of the meeting, and caused the speakers to tenaciously face the audience.

Mr. Ed. Weld was prevailed on to take the chair. He said he had not the remotest idea of doing so, or he would not have attended the meeting at all. He stated plainly that he would have liked time to prepare for the ordeal. Declining an offer to go into any of the questions of the day, he bespoke for the speakers a hearing, and introduced Mr. Joseph Judd.

Mr. Judd said that there were two principal questions before the country—that of the trade policy of the Government and opponents of the Government, and that of the Manitoba schools. Incidental to them, and perhaps just as important, was the question as to which of those two parties was the proper party to represent the people. Mr. Judd went on to accuse Mr. Laurier of being as great a wobbler on the trade question as he himself was on a blunder on the school question. The Liberal chieftain was an annexationist at heart, and he quoted from unreliable articles in American papers to prove that free trade and annexation was what the Liberals wanted. He compared Buffalo and Toronto markets to uphold an argument that Canada was a free market at least, was paying the highest price for wheat. Respecting the Manitoba schools, Mr. Judd was unqualifiedly indorsed the Conservative stand for the coercion of Manitoba, and in conclusion said that Mr. Laurier did not dare to bring his Quebec followers through Ontario, or the Globe would put them in jail.

Mr. Matthew Wilson, Q. C., of Chatham, was the next speaker. He began with a reference to the Macdonald Government, upholding it as a model of all that is to be guarded against in the matter of government. The bone and sinew of the Patrons of Industry were, he said, composed of Liberals who could hardly turn a mental somersault and come out as straight Conservatives. A large portion of Mr. Wilson's address was devoted to the trade question. He awarded the credit for the invitation extended by Joseph Chamberlain for a conference in England to negotiate preferential trade to Sir Charles Tupper and the Conservative Government. In conclusion, he spoke for nearly an hour on the Manitoba school question. The Conservatives had taken a stand for the constitution, and he complained that the Liberals had not stated what they would do if Greenway would not grant a conditional assent. At 25 minutes to 11 o'clock Mr. Elliot began to speak, after the chairman had asked them not to leave, as Mr. Elliot was very sorry the night was so wet, as his arguments would sound the full force of the discussion. There was one thing he could do, however, than any Liberal, and that was to state the policy of his party. Instead of talking about questions of day, Mr. Laurier made some sneering remarks about one gentleman's nose and another gentleman's beard. There was never any discussion in Liberal ranks over the policy of slander—slander not only of public men, but of the country.

Further Mr. Elliot alluded to "a gentleman who delights to write Q. C. of doubtful validity after his name," who had been asking the farmers in the north riding that "silly" question, "Has the National Policy made you rich?" He said that he was a commercial funeral in the country under the N. P., and the Liberals would be glad to adopt a policy that would bring about a commercial smashup in the country.

Mr. Elliot concluded at 11 o'clock, the audience having been leaving the building without a cheer. In the moment or so elapsed, when Capt. Booker asked Chairman Weld if some one ought not to call for a cheer. "The cheers for the Queen!" shouted Mr. Booker. These were given, and with three more the balance of the audience withdrew.

FISHERMEN LOST

Gloucester, Mass., June 15.—The schooner "Louisa Keny," of Bayville, Nfld., reports that six dories, containing twelve of her crew, went astray while the men were attending trawls, and that only one of the boats had been heard from. On May 27 a dory, containing Gerring Roberts and John Hornish, capsized, and both men were drowned.

He Will Take No Risks.

Shrewdness of a Well-Known City Merchant.

He Knew What Was Good for Him.

In winter, when Canadians spend a large portion of their time indoors and cannot have the same variety of fresh food as in summer and fall indigestion and dyspepsia afflict a majority. "If anybody will tell me that dyspepsia in its advanced stages is perfectly curable," said a Toronto merchant, "I will take his word. Personally I run no risks. As soon as I feel a sense of weight in the stomach after a meal, I know that my blood is sluggish in circulation. In my business I cannot take much exercise, and I fight the first sign of stomach troubles with Scott's Emulsion. It has never failed me, and has saved me many a doctor's bill."

Scott's Emulsion possesses medicinal properties superior to all other so-called sarsaparillas made. As a remedy for indigestion, rheumatism, pimples, scrofula and all blood diseases, physicians state that its value was never known. Sold at 25¢ per bottle, of all dealers.

Agony Short and Lively

The wonderful cure related below is by no means unusual with Hood's Sarsaparilla. This great medicine has given health to suffering children, even when health seemed impossible. The secret of its success is that it purifies, vitalizes and enriches the blood.

"I wish to tell of a wonderful cure effected by Hood's Sarsaparilla. Five years ago my little boy was suddenly seized with a severe lameness, apparently in his right knee, which some physicians said was rheumatism, while others said it was hip disease and that it was

Incurable

During the next winter and spring he became rapidly worse. We took Jimmie to a specialist, who said it was hip disease. At this time the affliction became so severe that we could not move him without causing screams of agony. He became reduced in weight to 30 pounds, and was but a shadow of his former self. We had about given up hope when we read of a cure by Hood's Sarsaparilla of a similar case. We resolved to try this medicine. Jimmie was decidedly improved after taking the first bottle. He was even after the second. We have since used over a dozen bottles of the medicine, and the change has exceeded our expectations. James is now able to walk without the aid of crutches and goes to school every day. He has been wonderfully cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla." J. O. RUNDLE, Oakley, Michigan.

YANKEE OARSMEN HONORED.

Welcomed by the Mayor and Corporation of Henley-on-Thames.

Henley-on-Thames, June 16.—The party of oarsmen from Yale University who are to compete in the Henley Regatta, in the contest for the Grand Challenge cup, arrived here at 11 o'clock this morning from Southampton. The young men from New Haven were under the guidance of Mr. Robert Cook. When the train stopped there, the oarsmen were welcomed on the platform by the mayor and corporation of Henley, and as the crew emerged from the cars there were murmurs of approval from the crowd of people assembled about the station, among whom were many old Henley water men, who have seen crew after crew arrive there for an age.

"They are a fine-looking lot," said one unburned water-man, as the crew from New Haven, with bare heads, were heartily shaking hands with Mayor Simmons.

THEY ARE GIVING WAY.

Physicians Commence to Realize the Value of Hood's Kidney Pills.

Ottawa, June 15.—The inveterate reluctance to admit the success of patient medicine usually evinced by physicians is rapidly giving way as Dr. Dadd's Kidney Pills are concerned. The cases of Dr. Rose and Dr. McCormick, who published details of their recovery from diabetes and Bright's disease, through the agency of this remedy, were the first attacks on the citadel of their skepticism, and now it appears as if the remarkable recovery of Mr. G. H. Kent, of this city, the details of which have been transmitted to the press, would complete what has been so auspiciously begun. The published interviews with Mr. and Mrs. Kent, and the sworn statement of the former, leave no foothold for disbelief.

Were the Nominations at the City Hall Today.

Mr. Hyman's Name the Signal for Cyclone of Cheers.

Speaking Postponed Until 2 p. m. at the Conservative Request.

Much to the Disappointment of a Large Crowd of Electors.

Who Seemed to be All Hyman Supporters—The Petitions for Each Candidate and the Signatures Thereon.

Today's nomination proceedings at the City Hall resulted in a great disappointment to the big crowd of electors, which had gathered to hear the speeches. It was supposed, as had always been customary, that the speaking would be held during the two hours in which nominations are in order. But for some unexplained reason on the part of the Conservative managers it was held to be illegal to do this on the present occasion, and an adjournment was made until 2 p. m. There were many comments on the action of the returning officer, and many workingmen who had strained a point to be present during the dinner hour felt very bitter because of the unexpected turn affairs had taken.

An hour or so before noon the crowd began to arrive, and in a short time the seats in the body of the hall and the galleries were all filled. Those who came after were content to stand. The reverberations of the 12 o'clock bell above the hall had scarcely ceased, when Returning Officer Wright arose in his place on the platform, and said that if the gentlemen would give him their attention he would read to them the writ ordering the election.

He then read the writ which was signed with a red seal at least four inches in diameter. Mr. Wright had not proceeded far in the cumberously worded document when a voice was heard:

"Little louder, please."

"If you can't hear," answered Mr. Wright, "come up nearer."

When he was through the writ he read the proclamation, and then said he was open for nominations.

"I may say," said he, "that I have received two nomination papers already, which I will proceed to read to you."

Mr. Wright then read the names on Mr. Beattie's paper. The reading was received in silence.

A few moments later, however, Mr. Wright began to read Mr. Hyman's paper. The words "Charles Smith Hyman," aroused such an outburst of cheers that Mr. Wright's voice was vainly shouted for order, could not be heard a foot from the platform.

Mr. Wright stopped hurriedly to the edge of the platform and shouted to Sergeant McGuire:

"We want your officers to keep order here. We want you to take out the first man that disturbs."

Three rousing cheers for Hyman followed these remarks.

"Just come around here," shouted Mr. Wright to the burly police sergeant, "where you can see the disturbers."

Mr. Gibbons—He will have to take us all.

Mr. Wright then announced that Richard Bayly, Q.C. would be Mr. Beattie's agent, and Mr. W. J. Harvey Mr. Hyman's agent.

"Three cheers for Hyman," shouted some one.

"Hip, hip, hurrah, hurrah, hurrah!" yelled the crowd, as Mr. Wright danced a jig and shouted wildly.

Then Mr. Gibbons mounted the platform amid cheers, and announced that the as it had been pointed out according to law the returning officer had until 2 o'clock to receive nominations, and the returning officer felt that it would be illegal to leave his position and give the place over to public speaking, it had been agreed that the meeting stand adjourned until 2 o'clock. At that time Mr. Beattie and his supporters would have an hour in which to address the meeting. Mr. Hyman and his supporters would follow for one hour and twenty minutes, and then Mr. Beattie or his supporters would have twenty minutes to reply. Mr. Gibbons expressed his regret that the audience should be disappointed.

Mr. Bayly concurred in the arrangement, and the crowd slowly and sullenly wended its way to the street.

NOMINATE MR. HYMAN.

THE SPEAKING BEGINS.

At 2 o'clock another great audience assembled in the City Hall to hear the candidates' speeches. Mr. Hyman received a tremendous ovation.

Mr. Beattie was the first on the programme, and commenced his address shortly after 2 p. m.

EAST MIDDLESEX.

A fair crowd assembled at the London West nominations in Collins' Hall this afternoon. Returning officer Capt. Robson announced that two candidates, Mr. Hyman and Mr. Beattie, had been nominated.

Mr. Hyman was the first to speak, and at the time of going to press was in the midst of a splendid effort.

THE NEW BARLOT.

How It Should be Marked on June 23.

Below will be found an exact representation of the new ballot, which will be used for the first time in the Dominion elections on the 23rd of this month. The ballot is marked for C. S. Hyman, as a large majority of the ballots of the electors of London will be marked on general election day.

Be Careful

The thrifty housekeeper usually exercises care in making purchases. She is not too proud to examine into the quality of an article. That's the kind of people we like to deal with, as the more careful they are in buying the more certain we are to get their trade. It is pretty generally known that every article in our store will pass a most critical examination, and our prices are always low, high quality of goods considered. Here are a few items from our Linen Department that are of utmost importance to the ladies who have to do with looking after the supplies of the home:

TOWELS

We have a number of splendid Towels, manufacturers' seconds, just a little imperfect in the weave, otherwise all that could be desired. We received a liberal discount from the manufacturers, and are willing to give customers the entire benefit. Prices 5c, 8½c, 10c, 12½c, 20c.

A 15x29 Damask Towel, colored and plain borders, at 5c. Damask Towels, 18x38, pretty pattern, at 10c. Another lot of those special value Towels at 12½c received. A reduction of 5c in those Red-Bordered Damask Towels, were 25c, now 20c. Bath Towels, in white and natural colors, at 12½c; while the cheapest Pure Linen Bath Towel ever shown in London is going at 25c—size 20x45. The most careful buyer will pronounce these genuine bargains, and that's what they are.

TABLECLOTHS

It isn't often that a good Bleached Damask Tablecloth, two yards wide, 2½ yards long, can be bought for $1 35. We used to sell them at $1 50. A finer make at $1 50, formerly $1 75. Extra Quality Bleached Damask Table Linen by the yard at 50c.

COUNTERPANES

Two special lines of American Cotton Quilts at 65c and 75c, were 75c and 90c. Heavy English Marcellies Quilts at $1 35, were $1 75. These are genuine bargains.

Sterling Silver Shirt Waist Sets, consisting of collar button, three front buttons and two links for cuffs. These are 925-1000 fine, and we are asking but 35c a pair. Couldn't be cheaper, couldn't be prettier.

PERFORATED TEXTILE BUCKSKIN is the coolest, cleanest, lightest summer dress interlining. All colors, 25c per yard.

The Methodists

Pass a Resolution on the Manitoba School Question.

Opposed to Coercion—Sunday Bicycling Disapproved—M. P.'s Reprimanded.

(Special to the "Advertiser.")

Toronto, June 16.—At the Methodist General Conference this morning was submitted the report brought in by a special committee appointed to report on the Manitoba school question. The report affirmed that while the Methodist Church did not identify itself with any political body, or assume to dictate to its members how they should vote, yet as a conference it was deemed its duty as laymen and ministers to place on record their uncompromising opposition to any attempt of any Federal Parliament in endeavoring to re-establish separate schools in Manitoba, and that any measure carried by such a body which would result in the spirit and principles of free representative government, which it is the duty of all to defend.

Dr. Ogden moved the adoption of the report, and J. F. Ockley seconded it. After a short discussion the motion was put to the conference and carried without a dissenting voice.

The report on the state of the work showed an increase of 700 members.

The use of bicycles on Sunday was mentioned and disapproved of.

The committee on temperance deplored the action of members of the Dominion Parliament at the last session, and declared that no liquors should have been available.

BRIGHT AND ECONOMICAL WOMEN

Make Use of Diamond Dyes.

Bright and economical women find Diamond Dyes the greatest helps in housekeeping.

The thrifty housewife, with the aid of Diamond Dyes, can re-color old and faded dresses, capes, jackets, pants, vests and coats, and make them look like new garments in thousands of homes this work of renewing and re-creating by the aid of Diamond Dyes, saves scores of dollars every year. The wonderful Diamond Dyes make such lovely and lasting colors that goods dyed with them cannot be told from new.

Success with Diamond Dyes is always certain and sure. The use of common adulterated dyes means destruction to your materials, and loss of temper and money.

Guard against substitutes: see that each package bears the name "Diamond."

SAD ACCIDENT ON THE G. T. R.

Point Edward, June 16.—A Hamilton boy named Wm. Gray, aged 19 years, was run over by a Grand Trunk train just outside of Point Edward yesterday about 5:40 last night, both legs being cut off above the knees. The doctors give no hope of his recovery.

Failure and Success.

It is often all the little things that constitute the wide difference between success and failure. Some men, earnest in purpose, capable in many ways, seem unable to discern the import of minor, nevertheless important elements, and neglect in consequence to grasp the opportunities that if accepted would carry them on to victory.

In the same way people are imposed upon by mercenary druggists, who, to gain an additional profit, practice the dishonest method of substitution. Call for Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor, they accept some worthless, flesh-eating substitute, only to be disappointed or suffer injury. Putnam's Corn Cure is the only reliable one.

A Double Courtship

"All that I shall tell you is that it was my fault. Any ordinary man would have been exceedingly happy. Now, I am no ordinary man, unfortunately."

"That is true."

"All the same."

"I shall be sorry to say good-bye to you," said Gilbert earnestly. "I have a feeling that something untoward is going to happen to me, and I should like to have a man like you to advise me. I have had a great deal of experience altogether, but I fancy you, with all your oddities, have a good fund of solid sense. Two heads are better than one."

"It depends on the quality. Twice one is two, but twice nought is nought."

"I am not prepared to disprove that calculation. But yours is a good head, and I—well, I wish we were not going to part."

"God bless you!" said Ford. "I shall think about you a good deal. We needn't say good-bye now, though."

He went out, and Gilbert took off his coat. His bedroom was the next room, and he shed the coat through the open door on to the bed. The bed had a puffed, inflated little scarlet counterpane on the top, which seemed to be placed there in order that it might slip off during the night. Gertrude had a style of humor that is peculiarly her own.

"For a man," said Gilbert, swinging his arms as athletic young men do when retiring to bed—"for a man who has done an uncommonly base action I feel, on the whole, singularly comfortable. I suppose, after a time, it will become a positive source of delight."

Mr. Ford reappeared at the doorway. He took a Tall Mail Gazette from his pocket and glanced at it.

"I found this down stairs, Mr. Gilbert. If you haven't seen a London newspaper for a day or two, you may care to have it."

He shook hands. At the door he stopped.

"Any orders for the morning, sare?" he asked deferentially.

"No, thank you, Fritz."

"Good-night."

The newspaper had a piece of late news inserted hurriedly in the "fudge," he said.

NEWS AS WE GO TO PRESS.

Warrants have been granted against the directors of a well-known financial scheme. The Old Jewry authorities are taking steps for the immediate arrest of those concerned.

"Ah!" said Gilbert philosophically; "if people will dabble in shady matters they must expect to be tripped up."

He glanced at the clock scores.

"Well done, Gracie!" he cried, approvingly.

CHAPTER XIII.

It was a heavy, close morning when Gilbert opened his window; there were grey-brown clouds above, and the sun had apparently risen up the back of the engravings to pierce them. A sound of grumbling came now and again from the skies. The youth at the window hastily attributed his vague feelings of depression to the atmosphere, and forced himself to ignore the fact that he had not been able to sleep till a late hour. The tiny book-stall leaning against the office on the side of the river was being arranged by its proprietor, and Gilbert observed that the proprietor opened and flattened out two London morning papers.

"Good morning, sare," said Ford, respectfully. "You take coffee or tea, eh?"

"Coffee, Fritz."

"You sleep well, eh?"

"No, Fritz," said Gilbert. "I slept badly. I began to think; and to think, you know, is always fatal to a night's rest. Ask the head waiter, will you, where I can buy a good bouquet."

A few large spots of rain splashed lazily on the cobble-stones as Gilbert went out to the market in quest of flowers. The trains with a bright brass bell in front were running round the town from the Rhine to the Moselle station, but he preferred to walk.

"I forgot to buy that Daily Chronicle," he exclaimed to himself. "I must get it when I return."

He looked at the board outside the Coblenzer Zeitung office, and felt surprised to find that the news blue-pencil had upon it was not his engagement to Gertrude Brentford, but a mere everyday item announcing the assassination of a Bulgarian statesman. In the market he caused such intense commotion by demanding the best bouquet the crowded little space could furnish, that he ran some danger of being smothered by the offerings of enormous ladies, whose figures were rather more jumps than the average sculptor conceives to belong to Flora. He pencilled on a card, "With all my love," and walking down the Mainzer Chaussee, left the bouquet at the Villa Hermosa, with a message to the effect that he would call again later. The voice of Miss Campbelltown, singing merrily as she descended the staircase, made him hurry incontinently away.

"I'm going to have a bath," said Mr. Ford.

He was in tweeds and was standing at the entrance to the small bath attached to the bridge of boats on the Ehrenbreitstein side. It was odd to notice how completely (despite the dominion of black whiskers) the man was able to put off the German waiter with the dress suit.

"It is terribly close," he added.

"Good idea," cried Gilbert. "I'll do the same. I've walked to, and from the Villa Hermosa, and—"

"You have been there this morning?"

"A friend of mine, Mrs. Brentford, has rented it for a month or two. I spend most of my time there."

There was a roll of drums from the skies that seemed almost to prepare one for a shrill march from fife.

"Oh!" repeated Mr. Ford thoughtfully. "You spend most of your time there. But Miss—Miss Reade is not there, is she?"

"Miss Reade," said Gilbert, with some frigidity of manner—"Miss Reade, as a matter of fact, is not there. Miss Reade is in town."

"Charming young person?"

"Yes, she is. Oh, yes, certainly. I should think she will marry very well some day. She is clever, and she is—"

"But excuse me! I understood that you were engaged to her?"

"Did you?" said Gilbert airily. "There must have been some mistake."

"Evidently," said Mr. Ford, with sudden gravity of manner. "Will you wait for me, if you come out first? I want to speak to you on rather an important subject. We can walk along this side of the river and cross by the little steamboat. How long shall you be?"

A good plunge into the delicious cold water did Gilbert a great deal of good. After all, as he argued with himself, after all one often feels a sensation of impending evil, and the only way to rarely arrives. He was to lunch at the Villa Hermosa at 1 o'clock, and there would be the graduation of feeling that he was master in embryo of the house; that next year, if he and Gertrude were to come here, it would be his duty to assist his agreeable wife in dispensing hospitality. He thought as he rubbed himself into a ruddy glow, and he was, in fact, rather a poor Bradley Webbe, and Gertrude could ask Killy.

"Really," said Gilbert generously to the warped, undecided slip of looking-glass, "really, one ought to try to do some good in the world."

Mr. Ford was seated on the wooden rail of the bridge, swinging his stick in a thoughtful way and humming softly. He slipped down and took Gilbert's arm and the two strolled on.

"Can you spare ten minutes, Mr. Gilbert?"

"Twenty."

"Ten will do. Perhaps two will do."

About the Liver.

A lazy, slow or torpid liver influences the whole system, causing biliousness, sick headache, sallow complexion, languor and dizziness. Burdock Blood Bitters regulates the liver, purifies the secretions and cures all forms of liver troubles. We say so and here is the proof.

I hereby wish to thank you for the great benefit derived by me from your Burdock Blood Bitters. For three years I was troubled with liver complaint and tried everything to no purpose. I had almost given up hope, until one day I determined to try Burdock Blood Bitters. I can say now that marked improvement resulted from the use of the first bottle, and at the end of the sixth bottle I discontinued its use, being completely cured.

THERE is not a more dangerous class of disorders than those which affect the breathing organs. Nullify this danger with Dr. Thomas' Eucalypti Oil—a pulmonary of acknowledged efficacy. It cures soreness and lameness when applied externally, as well as swelled neck and crick in the back; and, as an inward specific, possesses most substantial claims to public confidence.

A MAYOR'S CONVERSION.

Winnipeg's Chief Magistrate, Eltherto a Conservative, is Working for the Defeat of the Government.

Winnipeg, June 15.—Mr. R. W. Jameson, Mayor of Winnipeg, is one of the old followers of the late Sir John Macdonald, who comes out and takes strong ground against the policy of Sir Chas. Tupper and Hon. Hugh John Macdonald. In an interview with a Tribune representative yesterday he gave his reasons for opposing the Tupper-Macdonald policy and endorsing the candidature of the Hon. Joseph Martin. As those acquainted with the Mayor know, he is not a strong partisan, but representing as he does well over half a million dollars of English capital in this country, as well as large personal interests, he is deeply interested in the material prosperity of the country, and there are few, if any, men in Canada whose words on the material condition of the people have greater weight with the masses of the electorate in their west than those of Mayor Jameson. He says: "While I have not been taking any active part in this election, I have no hesitation in expressing my views on the subject. I believe that a change of Government at Ottawa would be greatly to the benefit of Winnipeg and Western Canada. In a general election like this we must not be guided by our preferences for this or that man, but must vote for the man who is the champion for the time being of the cause which we believe to be right. Mr. Hugh John Macdonald is a citizen of whom any city might be proud, and he is a man who would do credit to our constituency as its representative, but he has, unfortunately, allied himself to a Government which during the last ten years has grossly mismanaged the affairs of the Northwest and has largely contributed towards producing the great stagnation and depression from which we are suffering."

A CHILD'S SAD DEATH.

Port Perry, Ont., June 16.—A sad accident occurred on Scoug Island. A child about 15 months old, daughter of Mr. Wm. McLaren, was playing in the yard, when the little one climbed the fence and put her head through the rails. When the father went to help the child he was horrified to find her dead.

unfortunate

Cod-liver oil suggests consumption, which is almost unfortunate.

Its best use is before you fear consumption; when you begin to get thin, weak, run down; then is the prudent time to begin to take care, and the best way to take care is to supply the system with needed fat and strength. Scott's Emulsion of cod-liver oil, with hypophosphites, will bring back plumpness to those who have lost it, and make strength where raw cod-liver oil would be a burden.

Men and Women Drop Off Every Day from Heart Disease.

Paine's Celery Compound Cures This Prevalent and Terrible Trouble.

Testimony of a Lady Who Suffered for Long Years

Day after day the newspapers give accounts of very sudden deaths from heart disease. The trouble is a common and a prevalent one in this busy and rushing age, but too often lightly regarded by those who experience the symptoms daily.

Symptoms may be summed up as follows: The nervous system is usually out of condition; there are sharp pains in the heart; it is impossible to take a long and deep breath; the pulse is irregular; there is phlegm in the throat; a dry, irritable cough, and the sufferer is full of gloomy thoughts.

In order to cure heart disease, every one of the symptoms must be forever banished. The medicine to cure must possess the virtues and powers to strengthen the entire nervous system. Paine's Celery Compound is the only medicine that can build up and the nerves and give to the life-stream the blood—that purity and richness that guarantees freedom from all disease. Hundreds of physicians are prescribing Paine's Celery Compound every day for all forms of heart trouble, and their success is marvellous and encouraging.

Those who experience all the awful symptoms of heart disease, those who are brought to the verge of the grave by nervous debility, mental depression, sleeplessness, dyspepsia, liver

FAIR AND WARM; THUNDER STORMS.

Toronto, Ont., June 15—11 p.m.—The depression of the Middle Atlantic States yesterday has passed out to sea, after causing strong winds or a moderate gale, and rain in the Bay of Fundy and off the Nova Scotian coast.
The pressure is high over Ontario and Quebec, with fine weather in the Northwest. Warm weather and local showers are prevalent.
Minimum and maximum temperatures:
Calgary, 38-76; Prince Albert, 46-80;
Qu'Appelle, 52-84; Winnipeg, 58-84;
Port Arthur, 50-70; Parry Sound, 52-80; Toronto, 50-70; Ottawa, 45-75;
Montreal, 64-70; Quebec, 48-70; Halifax, 46-58.

PROBABILITIES.
Toronto, June 16—1 a.m.—Probabilities for the lower lakes region:
Light to moderate winds; fair, warm weather; thunder showers in a few places.

LOCAL TEMPERATURES.
The highest and lowest readings of the thermometer at the observatory on Monday, June 15, were: Highest, 69; lowest, 63.

IT WAS JAMES ANGER.

St. Thomas, June 16.—James Anger, postmaster at North Woodlee, who lives three miles from North Woodlee, has identified the man who was asphyxiated by gas at the Queen's Hotel as his son. Mr. Anger recognized his son's watch, knife and other effects, and also identified him by the photograph. The deceased's name is Morris Alfred Anger, and he was 25 years of age. He left his father's home three weeks ago and went to Windsor.
His brother saw him in Windsor two weeks ago Saturday, and deceased said he was going to Buffalo. When he left home he had $48 50 with him.
There was $1 25 found on the deceased.
The father says deceased was in good health, and only drank moderately.
The body will be exhumed and taken to North Woodlee for interment.

Other men are lenses through which we read our own minds.—Emerson.

SLEEPLESSNESS is due to nervous excitement. The delicately constituted, the financier, the business man, and those whose occupation necessitates great mental strain or worry, all suffer less or more from it.
Sleep is the great restorer of a worn-ed brain, and to get sleep cleanse the stomach from all impurities with a few doses of Parmentier's Vegetable Pills, gelatine-coated, containing no mercury, and are guaranteed to give satisfaction or the money will be refunded.

Money is like manure, of very little use, except when it is spread.—Bacon.
Thin or gray hair and bald heads, so distressing to many people as marks of age, may be averted for a long time by using Hall's Hair Renewer.

visiting relatives in this city.
—Mrs. Robt. Middleton, of Toledo, O., is visiting her sister, Mrs. E. Fleming, at 27 Colborne street, city.
—Miss Gertrude Bartholomew, of Norwich, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs.
(Capt.) Wilson, of the city.
—Mrs. C. W. Austin, of this city, and Mrs. J. E. Haines, of Norwich, are visiting Mrs. J. M. Whealy, at Woodstock.

—Rev. James Ballantyne has accepted the professorship in Knox College to which he was elected by the Presbyterian General Assembly.
—On account of a printer's error in the Merchants' Line ad. Saturday (Frank B. Clarke), it read "31 days."
It should have been "three and one-half days."

—Mr. Andrew Greenleaf, barrister, city, attended the recent re-union of the class of 1886, Provincial University. Of the 25, 20 are living. They had a good time.

—Mr. Charles Rolston, of Burwell street, was riding his bicycle on the Dundas street pavement on Saturday, when he came into collision with another rider. Mr. Rolston was thrown from his wheel, and had his right arm badly dislocated. He will be kept up for several weeks.

—The second year pass list at the Toronto Law School includes the names of Messrs. W. B. Laidlaw, J. E.
McKenzie and H. C. Becker, of this city. Messrs. David Mills, jun., P. E.
Perrin and J. F. Pearson were successful in the first year, and P. E.
McKenzie passed the third year. All the seven Londoners who were examined were successful.

—The strawberry festival postponed on Thursday evening last on account of the political demonstration, was held last evening in the basement of the First Congregational church. There was an abundance of good berries and fine cream, that sold readily to the large number present. The weather no doubt kept many away, but notwithstanding this, the affair was a success. The proceedings were opened with a short programme, consisting of the chairman's address, addressed by Messrs. Anderson and Ernest Wrighton, and a recitation by Miss Olive Langridge. George Annandson presided in the chair in the absence of Rev. Mr. Pedley, who is in Montreal attending the Congregational meeting.

MEETING AT SILOAM.

The quarterly meeting of the auxiliaries and mission circles of the London Methodist district was held in Siloam Church yesterday afternoon and evening, and notwithstanding the wet weather, the attendance was betwixt four and five hundred. About one hundred and fifty ladies drove out from this city in "busses." The afternoon session was principally devoted to the reception of reports outlining the progress made during the quarter. Miss Crozier, of Siloam, and Mrs. (Rev.)
A. L. Russell, of this city, delivered papers on "The Indian Work" respectively. In the evening, Miss Hane reports were received, and much helpful information given through the medium of the question drawer. Rev.
J. E. Ford, of Lucas, made an interesting address on the opening of the world to Christian influences, his thoughts being that there would be a great revival of Christian influences in the latter part of the present century. A dialogue, entitled, "Jacob's Ladder," was given by the young girls of Siloam Church, and assistance was also rendered by the choir.
Rev. A. G. Harris, of the Centennial Church, Saratoga, part in the evening service. The ladies of Siloam served tea to the gathering from 5 to 8 o'clock.

No. 3 district of the G. T. R. Providential Society has nominated H. Wilson, of Stratford, and George Popsal, of Toronto, to represent it at the approaching meeting to be held in Montreal.
The claim of $20,000 made by Capt.
Delpler and crew of the mud scow arrested last year at Amherstburg for dumping garbage in the Detroit River, has been returned by the British Government to the Canadian Government.

A bold daylight robbery was committed at St. Thomas on Friday. Miss Bromell, of Karm & Co.'s music store, had occasion to go into the Kennington Restaurant between 4 and 5 o'clock. When she returned, her pocketbook, containing $12 belonging to her, which was in a drawer, was missing. Two cash books were also taken. Miss Bromell has been notified by a young lad that he saw two newsboys commit the robbery.
One watched while the other went inside and took the money.

The crown's prosecution of Thomas George, of Derham, who, it is alleged, subjected the young Barnardo boy, Arthur Edmonds, to cruel treatment while the latter was employed on George's farm, was proceeded with Friday. After the examination of a few witnesses, both for the prosecution and for the defense, the case was again adjourned to procure further evidence for the defense. Those witnesses examined for the defense were chiefly neighbors, all of whom swore that they had seen the boy around the George farm, and that he had always, as far as their observations went, been well treated. In fact, Edmonds had told some of them himself that he was contented while living with his employer. The case will be proceeded with in a week.

Some time during last week a young man named Wm. Sanders, of Watford, who travels as an egg buyer for S. S. Annett, of that place, went to Sarnia in company with another man named Arthur Mandeville, of Glenora. Friday they visited Port Huron and proceeded to do the town.
Sanders had considerable money with him belonging to his employer, and was spending it lavishly. The various saloons in Port Huron were visited, and the couple were drinking to excess. Sanders purchased some laudanum there, and was seen to put some of the drug in his liquor. He was taken ill and died Saturday afternoon, and will be held as a witness in case an inquest is decided on. On Sanders' clothes being searched no money was found, but one of his pockets contained a check for $100.
Deceased was a good-looking, respec-tably-dressed man, aged about 32 years, and is well known in Sarnia and vicinity, where he had numerous friends.
