FIGHTING CONTINUES FROM GIVENCHY TO WYTSCHAETE IRELAND IS AS YET CALM ON ISSUE OF CONSCRIPTION

Attacking Teutons Suffer Severe Losses For Small Gains

BRITISH WITHDRAW FROM ARMENTIERES ON NORTH FRONT

Violent Fighting Continues From La Basse to Ypres Canal; Two Days of Heavy Engagement Results in no Gain of Strategic Importance to Foe

FOE TO ATTEMPT TO WIPE OUT BRITISH?

By Courier Leased Wire. London, April 11.—The British have withdrawn from Armentieres on the northern battle front, the office announces.

Violent fighting continues all along the front from La Basse to the Ypres-Comines canal. The statement follows: "The battle is continuing on the whole front from La Basse canal to the Ypres, Comines canal."

"Severe fighting is taking place in the neighborhood of the Lawe and Lys Canals, from about Lestrem to Armentieres. Our troops have been withdrawn from Armentieres, which is full of gas."

"North of Armentieres there is little change in the situation. Heavy fighting was continuing at a late hour last night in the neighborhood of Ploegsteert, Messines and Wyttschaete."

"On the remainder of the British front there is nothing to report."

SITUATION IN REVIEW. Desperate fighting continues uninterruptedly on a 25-mile front between Givenchy and Wyttschaete with the Germans suffering severe losses for small gains against the strong British defence.

In two days of heavy engagements the enemy has not yet gained any point of strategic importance and the British still dominate the battlefield from the heights of Messines Ridge, on the north, and Givenchy on the south.

Below Armentieres, where the attack was launched Tuesday, the Germans have made little additional progress, although they have crossed to the left bank of the Lys, between Estaires and Bac St. Maur. Repeated attacks against British line between Estaires and Givenchy toward Bethune have been checked sanguinarily. Berlin claims the capture of 6,000 men and 100 guns on this sector Tuesday.

North of Armentieres, the Germans, after driving the British from their first defences in the lowland, have been unable to gain the crest of Messines Ridge, despite many furious assaults.

Emperor William and the German military leaders, it is reported in despatches from the battle front, plan the wiping out of the British army. It is believed that the Germans now are seriously attempting by swinging their attacks to the north, to annihilate British resistance. In consequence further assaults along the British front and much desperate fighting is expected.

Infantry fighting on the Picardy battle front has quieted down momentarily. The French and German artillery fire has been violent north of Montdidier and along the Oise Canal, northwest of Soissons. There have been artillery exchanges on the British front which has not as yet been linked up with the northern battlefield. There has been no infantry activity on the Loos-Lens-Vimy sectors, the connecting link, although the German artillery fire is increasing.

American gunners and infantry holding a certain sector on the front in France drove back in disorder on Wednesday a strong German attack. The enemy effort was the heaviest yet made against an American position, but the Germans did not get through the wire entanglements and suffered numerous casualties.

London, April 11.—The German barrage plan yesterday from Croix du Bac, southwest of Armentieres, and parties of them are reported in the neighborhood of Armentieres, and parties of the enemy are reported in the neighborhood of Steenwerke (about five miles west of Armentieres). Reuters' correspondent at British headquarters reports.

Yesterday noon the enemy occupied Lestrem, but in the course of the afternoon the British drove him out and across the River Lawe.

SAMMIES IN FIGHT. With the American Army in France, April 10. (By the Associated Press)—The Germans attempted an attack against the American positions northwest of Toul just before sunrise this morning and were completely repulsed. Two German prisoners said the enemy planned the attack with a force of 800 men, but that it was stopped in its full strength by the effective fire of the American artillery.

For seventy-two hours before their effort, the Germans had been firing an increasing number of shells at the American positions and making extensive use of gas shells. At noon yesterday the enemy began a harassing fire against one of our strong points and kept it up throughout the night, dropping hundreds of shells of all calibres on both front and rear positions. The American artillery replied vigorously, the men in some batteries working with their gas masks on for two or three hours at a stretch.

About five o'clock this morning, German infantrymen in the front line, signalled their batteries for a barrage and started for the American front line. The American gunners laid a counter barrage almost immediately.

The attackers, who were especially trained for this operation, were selected from among the best men in three regiments. They were preceded by shock platoons, but the American barrage caught them before they were able to reach our wire entanglements.

A terrific fire against the advancing enemy was kept up. The Germans probably suffered severe casualties as several bodies were seen hanging across the barbed wire after the enemy retired. The attack was made in a heavy morning mist.

As soon as the American barrage lifted, American infantrymen climbed from their shelters and attacked the enemy with heavy machine gun and rifle fire, driving back those who had not been dispersed by the artillery fire. The attack was followed by a violent artillery duel which was still going on at a late hour tonight.

FOE REPULSED. With the British Army in France and Belgium, April 11.—The fighting was continuing this morning north of Armentieres with the British still holding Messines Ridge and Wyttschaete, which yesterday changed hands several times. During the day the enemy succeeded in entering not only these positions, but La Creche, Nieppe and Hellebeke. Vigorous counter-attacks forced the enemy from all these places.

The Germans this morning were in possession of about half of the village of Ploegsteert and Ploegsteert wood, on the Flanders battle front, just to the north of Armentieres.

The U. S. Federal Reserve Bank is appealing to institutions throughout the States to eliminate long period loans. Three U. S. privates have been sentenced to long penitentiary terms at Atlanta, Ga., for passing worthless cheques.

BRITISH FOOD CONTROLLER SAYS FOOD SUPPLY IS UP TO CANADA

There Never Was a Time When Food Was More Needed and the Allies Depend to a Vital Extent Upon the Dominion

The following message addressed to the Organization of Resources Committee has just been received:

London, April 11, 1918. "In these stern days it is inspiring to learn that Ontario is tackling the food problem with redoubled energy. The terrific pressure of our military front makes it all the more imperative that those behind the lines shall strain every nerve to defeat the enemy's avowed object of destroying the British Empire."

Many hoped first to starve the old country by the submarine campaign and then to smash her land forces. She has failed to starve us and she will fail to smash us, but we cannot achieve victory without food. There never was a time when it was more needed. The Canadian farmer and Canadian farmhand now have the opportunity to make an effective reply to the enemy's present onslaught by bending their undivided energies to the increased production of those food supplies for which we depend to such vital extent upon your great Dominion."

BOLO PASHA CONTINUES REVELATIONS TO GOVT.

"Others Will Surely Follow Me," Says French Conspirator, Under Sentence of Death—Authorities Divulge No Inking of Nature of His Confession.

Paris, April 11.—Bolo Pasha, condemned to death for treason, but granted a reprieve of indefinite duration on his plea that he had important revelations to make to the military authorities, enters today no doubt as to what his ultimate fate will be, according to the Petit Journal today. It quotes him as saying to his keeper on Monday: "I will go to Vincennes, but others will surely follow."

It is at Vincennes that French military executions take place. Bolo is continuing his "revelations" but the utmost silence is preserved in official circles as to their trend. He will be heard again today, which is expected to conclude the hearings. The newspaper La Victoire does not take the view that the prisoner's execution is imminent. Whatever importance may be attached to Bolo's eleventh hour confession, it says, one result is certain, which is that several days will elapse before his execution, as the things he reveals will have to be investigated and corroborated or disproved "and the wily Bolo has doubtless gained an indestructible post-mortem."

ALLIED MARINES LANDED AT VLADIVOSTOK IN ORDER TO QUELL ANARCHY THERE

Forces Will Be Withdrawn as Soon as Order Has Been Restored, Consuls Give Assurance—Russia Loses Thirty Two Per Cent. of Her Entire Population Under Terms of Peace Treaty Signed With Germany.

London, April 11.—The foreign consuls in Vladivostok officially have informed the president of the local zemstvo that the landing of allied marines there was due to anarchy and that the forces will be withdrawn as soon as the consuls consider that order has been restored, according to a Vladivostok telegram received in Petrograd and forwarded by Reuters' correspondent.

A despatch from Moscow to The Ivestia says that the Bolshevik Government has opened negotiations with Berlin for a temporary suspension of the Brest-Litovsk treaty as regards the article on demobilization of the Russian army in view of the possible necessity of defending Russian territory against foreign invasion.

Reuters' Petrograd correspondent also reports that the Germans have occupied Lgov, 130 miles northwest of Khar'kov, which they recently captured. After taking Lgov, they sent an ultimatum demanding the surrender of Kursk, capital of the government of that name, 36 miles west of Lgov. The local Council of Workmen and Soldiers' Deputies decided to resist.

Owing to the military situation, the Council of Finnish Commissioners has announced its intention of installing itself in Petrograd.

The Council referred to is the governing body of the Finnish Reds, or Bolsheviki, who have been carrying on civil war with the White Guards. The Germans have gone to the assistance of the White Guards, seriously threatening the position of the Reds.

BEIGIAN FRONT. Paris, April 11.—A Belgian official statement issued last night reads: "During the nights of April 8-9 and 9-10 our patrols made several raids into enemy advance works, especially near Lombartzryde, St. Georges, Dixmude and Zevecoete. After the fights several prisoners were brought back to our lines. Similar advance attempts against certain enemy posts in the region of Merckem and west of Houthof Forest were without result. Along the coast the two artillery batteries have been very active, employing a large number of gas shells."

RUSS LOSSES. Petrograd, April 11.—By the Associated Press.—Under the terms of the peace treaty, the commissioner of commerce announces, Russia has lost 790,000 square kilometres of territory with 56,000,000 inhabitants, or 32 per cent. of the entire population of the country.

The announcement says Russia has sustained the following losses: One third of her total mileage of railways, amounting to 8,530 kilometres (53,000 miles). Seventy-three per cent. of the total iron production.

Eighty-nine per cent. of the total coal production. Two hundred and sixty-eight sugar refineries, 918 textile factories, 374 breweries, 138 tobacco factories, 1,684 distilleries, 244 chemical factories, 815 paper mills, 1,073 machine factories.

The territories which now become German formerly brought annual revenue amounting to $45,838,000 rubles and had 1,800 savings banks.

FO. AT LONBIA. London, April 11.—A German squadron with several transports is reported to have arrived at Lonbisa, midway between Helsinki and Viborg, Finland, according to a Reuters dispatch from Petrograd. The squadron came from the direction of Revel, and a small force was said to have landed and occupied Lonbisa.

HUNS AT WORK. Stockholm, April 11.—German troops, numbering 15,000, are now operating along the southern coast of Finland where they already have had several small battles with the Finnish rebels, according to information received by the Swedish Government.

Entente diplomats here have received reports that thirty to forty Russian submarines and destroyers, and four or five battleships are still off Helsinki, the capture of which is probably part of the German aim. It is believed, however, that the warships have all been rendered unseizable by their crews.

TO JOIN BESSARABIA. Basel, Switzerland, April 11.—The Bessarabian Diet, according to a telegram from Bucharest, has decided in favor of the Union of Bessarabia with Roumania.

The Russian province of Bessarabia borders Roumania on the east. The northern part is almost wholly inhabited by Roumanians, and Roumania has long desired that these people should be united with her. Count Czernin, the Austro-Hungarian foreign minister, in explaining the Roumanian peace treaty recently, said that Roumania would be compensated for the loss of territory on the Transylvania border by taking the southern part of Bessarabia, which, however, has no great percentage of Roumanian population.

IRISHMEN RESERVE RIGHT TO SAY WHETHER THEY ARE TO BE CONSCRIPTED OR NOT

Action of British Government Will Rouse Open Hostility, Says Redmond

IRISH DISTRUSTFUL

Enthusiasm of Early Months of War is Being Gradually Alienated

By Courier Leased Wire. London, April 11.—Irishmen maintain the right to say whether they shall be conscripted or not, Captain William A. Redmond, son of the late John R. Redmond, declared today in his first speech in the House of Commons since he was elected to the constituency formerly held by his father. His speech was during the discussion of the government man power bill.

The captain was in military uniform and occupied his father's old seat in the House.

In 1914, he said, Ireland was almost ablaze with enthusiasm on the side of the Allies, but the sentiment of the Irish people had since changed toward the war, owing to distrust of the British Government and in the word of British ministers.

By the Government's present action, the Ireland of tomorrow, he added, would be in open hostility to the war. It would require armies in Ireland to recruit battalions, while if the Government trusted Ireland, that trust would not be betrayed.

Captain Redmond warned the House that if the government pursued its present policy, there would soon be no Irish party in the House of Commons, but there would be a much harder nut to crack—Ireland.

TARRED AND FEATHERED

The Experience of a Well Known Socialist

Who Used to Give Addresses on Brantford Market Square

Brantfordites will remember Madison Hicks, a Socialist, who for some weeks held forth on the market square in this city. He has dropped out of the sight of citizens for quite a while, but now comes into public attention once more in connection with this dispatch from the States:

"Belle City, Ohio, April 10.—William Madison Hicks, ex-minister and Socialist lecturer, now under Federal indictment for promoting the world peace league, was taken from the police last night by a mob of 100 citizens and given a coating of tar and feathers. Hicks was ordered to leave the county."

The ex-minister had been jailed for alleged propaganda against Liberty Bonds.

The U.S. shipyard at Hag Island has been held up by the "unbelievable greed" of an individual who demanded a $15,000,000 fee, according to ex-chairman Dennon, of the Shipping Board.

CALM PREVAILS

London, April 11.—Absolute calm seems to prevail among the Sinn Fein party, says a Canadian News dispatch from Dublin, but it is understood orders have been given to all sections of the Irish volunteers regarding action to be taken in the event the Irish conscription is agreed upon.

At meetings of many public bodies, the dispatch adds, fiery speeches have been made and strong resolutions passed against the application of the man-power bill to Ireland.

IS LYNCH LAW AT HAND IN CANADA?

Tarring and Feathering of Suspected Pro-German in Toronto Censured

By Courier Leased Wire. Montreal, April 11.—The Gazette commenting editorially this morning on a recent incident in Toronto, anticipates lynchings in Canada. It says:

"At Toronto a band of 40 or 50 hooded soldiers dragged a citizen from his home at night, made him kiss the Union Jack and sing 'God Save the King' after which they tarred and feathered him. The charge against the victim was that he was said to be of German parentage and to have threatened a widow. The punishment savored of a tremendous controversy a few years ago. Today it excites passing attention. In Canada to have lynchings before long in some big centres the law is being ignored and openly defied."

NEWS FROM NORFOLK COUNTY

SEWER SYSTEM Basis For Economical and Permanent Street Improvement

Simcoe, April 10.—The text of the report of Guy R. Marston, C.E., on the problem of surface drainage has come in for universal commendation. The engineer was requested by the 1917 council to prepare a report and plans which would systematize all underground drainage work, so that any future outlay would be expended on permanent work, which should in time become part of a connected system.

Mr. Marston in his report, deals with the existing systems of sewers, separate and storm, and points out that the River, Lyon and Keat Creek offer very good assistance in the design of a general storm sewer system, as there are 17 distinct outlets provided by these streams crossing the various streets of the town. This eliminates the use of extra large pipes thereby reducing the cost of construction. He also points out that during the last few years a demand for permanent streets has become more and more pronounced and it is in contemplation of this work that storm sewers are absolutely necessary. In fact, they must precede permanent roadways. The report continues:

It has been suggested many times that a pavement should be laid from the Air Line station to the southerly limit of the town. If this pavement, either along Norfolk street, or Norfolk and Colborne streets, is to be laid, more than three fourths of the storm drainage outlets must be provided for or at some future date it would be necessary to tear up the pavement to lay the necessary sewers, a process to be avoided if at all possible.

Past Policy Expensive—Roadways

During the past twenty years, over $100,000 has been expended on the streets of Simcoe. Much of this has been due no doubt to the fact that the roadways are too wide. Outside the business section no roadway should be more than 30 feet wide and in many instances they might be narrowed to 26 or 24 feet. This can be accomplished by whitening the boulevards and constructing concrete curbs and gutters, which should be installed in accordance with the storm sewers, and which should be so placed that they will be in accordance with the completed grade of the street when improved.

Five Main Areas

While most of the outlets to the river and creek are, as shown in the plans, utilized, there are five main areas:

(1) The area which is known as the Innes subdivision, now empty into the Robinson sewer. In the proposed system it is diverted at the intersection of Robinson and Maple streets and thence easterly to Colborne street, where it enters the pond.

(2) This will reduce the area flowing into the Robinson street area. In 1913 was requested by the Town Council to make an examination of the Robinson St. drain and report. I recommended the construction of manholes at all intersections. This report was adopted but the manholes were not built.

(3) The using of the Court House drain will depend upon its condition. There are no manholes on this drain and it is therefore impossible to examine it without breaking a tile and digging up the street at various places.

(4) An area which has given considerable trouble in surface drainage is the area contained in block 87, according to the registered plan of the town. This water has been brought along the natural course across the land lying between Chapel and Stanley streets to Talbot, and then turned southerly along Talbot, creating too large a volume to be carried on the surface. This water is diverted on the plan, on Queen street to Chapel, thence along Chapel to Talbot, thence to Stanley and Victoria streets to the river. This diverts a very large area which at the present time drains to Agricultural street and meets all the waters from the southern end of the town, which causes considerable trouble during all freshets.

(4) The southern area may now be treated alone and I make provision for this in an outlet into the river along the extension of Woodhouse street.

The northern part of the town is broken up into small areas and does not present any particular difficulties.

Extent of Work.

The entire scheme as laid out, involves the construction of 7 1/2 miles of storm sewers, together with 380 catch basins and street inlets, and 115 manholes.

To Be Done as Required.

While I understand that there is no intention at the present time to do this work till required, I have made an estimate of $111,500.

The plans as prepared, can be used in all future work on the streets and any underground work required.

The Front Line

Received by a Simcoe lady from one of the Norfolk boys now in England and for repairs, with the terse observation that the author, whoever he was, knew of what he spoke.

"In front, a ragged shell torn waste.
Barb wire and noisome weeds;
The grave of many a gallant man,
Who died for his country's needs.
The bar between two mighty foes,
Alert, watchful and still,
Like savage beasts as they pause and wait,
Ere they spring to rend and kill.
The rattle of the machine gun,
Spraying death along the line,
The boom of the distant field gun
Shows a shrill, increasing whine.
A crash, an acid, blinding smoke,
A shower of stones and dirt,
Then casually some one asks,
"Is anybody hurt?"
A dazzling streak of light shoots up,
And bursts; a pretty sight,
Transforming No Man's Land into
A fair land of light.
"This hard to think a thing so fair
Is but by means of death,
Yet as each star shell shoots aloft
We crouch and hold our breath.
And then a low voiced call comes
For "stretcher bearers here,"
Men hurry by and soon a moan
Falls on the listening ear.
"Somebody hit," "You merely think
And no one stops at all.
Because, out here, one soon gets used
To seeing comrades fall.
Inside the dugout damp and foul,
A candle's flickering light
Shows a sleeping form, oblivious
Of the ever ceaseless fight.
"Their bed is just a haversack,
Or a coat-of-armor.
Maybe a cat-of-armor.
Damp with a comrade's blood,
Day after day, night after night,
The same grim weariness strike;
Men come and go—some stay, those
Who for right gave up their life.
For yes, we know the right is ours,
Our cause is just and true,
And so we care not what we bear,
Or what we have to do,
No matter what our task may be,
What sacrifice we make,
For honor, our religion and
Our liberty's at stake,
Our comrades too, both dead and maimed.
Also demand that we
Fight on until the very end,
To death or victory."

DEAD AFTER FALL
By Courier Leased Wire
Ottawa, April 11.—Victor V. Rogers, one of Ottawa's leading business men, died at his home last night of injuries which he received when he slipped while boarding a car. He struck his head on the pavement, but while dazed, was able to proceed to his home at Rockcliffe on another street car. Shortly after his arrival at home he lapsed into unconsciousness, and died while in that condition.

The names of the priests was today demanded of Sir Sam by Le Canada, Montreal.

WOMEN EVERYWHERE
Use Lemon Juice
To Beautify Skin

The beauty lotion which is becoming so popular throughout the country is easily prepared by anybody, and a whole quart of it doesn't cost any more than a small jar of the common, ordinary cold cream.

Add the juice of two fresh lemons to three ounces of orchard white and shake well in a bottle. Strain the lemon juice two or three times through a fine cloth so no pulp gets into the lotion, then it will keep fresh for months. Regardless of what price you pay or how highly advertised, there is nothing else really more effective in beautifying, softening and clearing the skin. As a tan and blemish remover, also to remove oiliness and sallowness, lemon juice has no rival. Massage into the face, neck and arms once or twice each day, and for any skin doesn't bring out the pores, and hidden beauty!

Lemons have always been used to bleach the skin, but pure lemon juice is too highly acid, therefore should never be used except in this manner.

If properly prepared, this sweetly fragrant lotion will speak for itself. Any drug store will supply the three ounces of orchard white at very low cost, and the grocer will supply the lemons.

MAGISTRATE IS BUSY MAN

Several Cases Heard in Simcoe Police Court Yesterday

OTHER SIMCOE NEWS

Simcoe, April 11.—(From Our Own Correspondent)—The next setback to work on the new school, and we have had a few of them, comes from the fact that Contractor Gunton and Magistrate Gunton cannot supervise building operations and conduct court at the same time. If one room in the school were rushed to completion and fitted with a long table, four chairs and a few benches at an attempt, the work might be partially successful, and if the refractory element does not subside such might be advisable.

The second phase of the pirate ship voyage passed yesterday with an adjournment by consent by T. J. Agar on behalf of the inspector and H. P. Innes on behalf of the accused session another unfortunate received $200 and costs, pleading guilty. He was charged with consuming his own goods in a place other than his dwelling, or with giving of his goods to a weak brother-in-law in such place, which was an old stable on Metcalf street north.

The wife of the brother-in-law resenting the repeated Sunday invitation of her brother to her husband, lifted the lid and let the cat out of the basket.

Mr. Kelly pleaded for mercy for just this once, but the magistrate had no alternative. The good-natured victim was able to make a first payment, and the prosecuting solicitor was gracious enough to suggest that the friends of the accused must come to his assistance temporarily to keep him out of jail. It was his second offence since prohibition came in force. The young man has quite a family of small children and is not financially able to carry the load. The case should be a warning.

L. E. and N. Rates Up.

Beginning on Monday, freight and passenger rates on the L. E. and N. will increase by 15 per cent. to conform to the increase on steam roads. The ticket to Brantford will, therefore, cost probably 75 cents, and the return $1.15, plus 5 cents war tax. Will Feed Fry Till Finger Lengths.

Local anglers began yesterday to subscribe to a fund for the purpose of feeding brook trout fry in a pond here, till they are more able to take care of themselves in the streams.

Odd Ends of News.

Yesterday's gale made matters unpleasant for the Lyonville Women's Institute billed to meet at the home of Mrs. Cecil Yeager, and discouraged some from attending the splendid concert given at the Parish Hall by the Cherniavsky Glee and Chorus, and a most brilliant offering, thoroughly enjoyed by a liberal patronage.

The sale of suburban lots advertised yesterday by Dr. Baird and Baird was postponed on account of the weather.

The announcement that something is at last to be done by way of harbor improvement at Port Dover was received here with satisfaction.

Twice on Tuesday the chemical motor truck demonstrated its value in extinguishing a fire on each of two runs with a total damage of perhaps less than five dollars.

Up till a late hour last night the silent policemen had not been replaced on the streets, though several narrow escapes, and on account of collisions have taken place.

Apply a little as directed and within ten minutes there will be an appearance of abundance, freshness, fluffiness and an incomparable gloss and lustre, and try as you will you will not find a trace of dandruff or falling hair; but your real surprise will be after about two weeks' use, when you will see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—sprouting out all over your scalp—Dandrin is, we believe, the only sure hair grower, destroyer of dandruff and cure for itchy scalp, and it never fails to stop falling hair at once.

WOMEN EVERYWHERE
Use Lemon Juice
To Beautify Skin

The beauty lotion which is becoming so popular throughout the country is easily prepared by anybody, and a whole quart of it doesn't cost any more than a small jar of the common, ordinary cold cream.

Add the juice of two fresh lemons to three ounces of orchard white and shake well in a bottle. Strain the lemon juice two or three times through a fine cloth so no pulp gets into the lotion, then it will keep fresh for months. Regardless of what price you pay or how highly advertised, there is nothing else really more effective in beautifying, softening and clearing the skin. As a tan and blemish remover, also to remove oiliness and sallowness, lemon juice has no rival. Massage into the face, neck and arms once or twice each day, and for any skin doesn't bring out the pores, and hidden beauty!

Lemons have always been used to bleach the skin, but pure lemon juice is too highly acid, therefore should never be used except in this manner.

If properly prepared, this sweetly fragrant lotion will speak for itself. Any drug store will supply the three ounces of orchard white at very low cost, and the grocer will supply the lemons.

CANADA'S WAR EXPENDITURE 835 MILLION

Estimates For Current Fiscal Year Add 516 Million More

MUST GET MORE MEN

Ottawa, April 10.—Sir Robert Borden, Prime Minister, gave figures in the House of Commons today showing that by the end of the present fiscal year the Government of Canada will have expended approximately one and a half billion dollars on account of the war.

Major-General S. C. Newburn, Minister of Militia, stated that the Military Service Act had produced sufficient men to keep the four divisions in the field up to full strength, but in order to maintain them, it must produce more men. "We have got to get more men overseas," said General Newburn. "I have always felt, and I still feel, that Quebec was its duty," he added.

It was a fascinating chapter of the story of Canada's part in the war which Sir Robert Borden gave to Parliament this afternoon when this year's war vote of $500,000,000 was under consideration. The Prime Minister produced figures showing that expenditures on war account to date totals $835,950,019, with some very large items for overseas still to come, while the estimates for the present year involve a further expenditure of $516,000,000. Thus, by the end of the present fiscal year the Canadian Government will have spent on war account something like one and a half billion dollars. This, of course, does not include millions of dollars expended by the various Provincial Governments, by the municipalities of Canada, the Patriotic Fund, the Canadian Red Cross Society, and other organizations. Nor does it take into account the generous contributions made by private citizens to the British Red Cross, the Secours National and such funds as the Belgian and Serbian Relief Funds.

Estimates for Present Year. Following is the estimated expenditure for military forces for the present fiscal year based on an enrollment of 100,000 men in Canada: To be spent in Canada, $217,887,500. To be spent overseas, $225,162,000. Expenditures to be made by other departments will bring the total war expenditures this year up to $516,000,000. The principal items in the other departments are as follows: New Registration Board, $1,000,000. Department of Justice, $1,100,000. Marine and Fisheries (for ship-building), $34,735,470. Naval Service Department (for naval defense), $19,000,000. Public Works Department, due to need for further buildings, for military service and including cost of repairs to Government buildings in Halifax, $3,864,000.

Some Interesting Items

The Government expects to require some $180,000,000 to pay 120,000 troops in Canada and 290,000 troops in England and France, the respective amounts being $50,137,500 and $132,312,500. Besides another big item of $115,000,000 to maintain the troops in France at $8 43 each per day. Assigned pay of overseas troops will amount to $54,000,000, while separation allowances will total $21,750,000 for men in Canada and $6,000,000 for men overseas. Rations for 110,000 troops in Canada at 50 cents per day will cost the Government $20,675,000, and for 150,000 men in England at 38 1-2 cents per day, $21,000,000. The estimated cost of clothing for the troops in Canada and England is $19,040,000; outfit allowance to officers, nursing sisters and warrant officers, $1,700,000; equipment, not including rifles, machine-guns, small arms, etc., will cost $20,000,000; ammunition is to cost $5,000,000, and machine-guns $2,000,000.

Most of the ammunition is to come from the Lindsay Arsenal; medical services overseas will cost $2,800,000; ocean transport, $4,125,500; railway transport, $11,000,000; and "miscellaneous" services overseas, $7,000,000. The estimate of $15,675,000 is for the railway and ocean transport of 100,000 men eastward. In other words, the Government estimates that transportation will cost an average of about $150 per man for each of the 100,000 men to be sent to the front under the Military Service Act.

Soldiers' civil re-establishment, $12,000,000. How Half-million is Made Up. The estimates are based on the assumption that this year Canada will have raised the full half-million men promised by the Premier. It is perhaps significant that Sir Robert, in presenting his estimates this afternoon, noted that the appropriations were based on the assumption that this year Canada will have raised the full half-million men promised by the Premier. Holland, manager of the Dominion Permanent Loan Company, who was arrested on a charge of conspiracy to defraud, was called in the police court this morning. Holland is still very ill and confined to his home, and Crown Attorney Corley asked for a week's remand and stated that he hoped to have Manager Holland committed for trial at his home this afternoon. It is understood the Crown will visit his home and hear just enough evidence to justify a committal for trial. It is understood M. H. Moran, counsel for Holland, has consented to this arrangement.

COAL SHORTAGE

By Courier Leased Wire. New York, April 11.—Warnings that a shortage of bituminous coal exists were issued to-day by fuel authorities here to-day. The situation is so serious, according to Harry T. Peters, chairman of the state fuel conservation commission, that "we will be back where we were last winter, unless something is done to relieve matters."

March was the worst month in point of production during the past year and a half, Mr. Peters asserted, and some factories have been forced to continue working with barely enough fuel to meet current needs. The situation is due chiefly to the shortage in railroad cars, the fuel authorities agreed.

A PATRIOT ASSAULTED. By Courier Leased Wire. Quebec, April 11.—Following an alleged assault upon Frederick Deschambault, a member of the army, and who was alleged to be a "spotter" for the militia, the small parish of Deschambault, in the county of Beauce, was yesterday threatened with an insipient riot when four or five youngsters of the parish marched to Deschambault's residence and smashed windows in the place. One of the alleged disturbers was arrested in Quebec last night just as he was alighting from a C.P.R. train. He is charged with assault against Frederick Deschambault. The provincial police were dispatched to Deschambault to quell the threatened trouble and are expected back here to-day with a number of miscreants. Telephone Economy

The Need of the Hour

THE vital need of the hour is for economy!

Q We are urged to save, to conserve our resources. Nothing is so important, so pressing.

Q We must economize, we are told, in food, in fuel, in clothing, in railway travel—all along the line, in order that the war efforts of our Empire and its Allies may have a clear track to victory.

Q The telephone, by the very nature of the work it does, is a powerful agent making for economy and efficiency. Without it, business would slow down with a fatal reaction on war effort.

Q But the increasing scarcity of telephone material of all kinds, and of skilled labor demands that our subscribers should practice a rigid telephone economy.

Q That they should order only such telephone equipment as is indispensable.

Q That they should be careful of present telephone apparatus in home or office so as to avoid breakage and repairs.

Q That they should refrain from unnecessary telephone conversations and make their talks brief so as to keep the lines open for the next caller.

Q We ask your co-operation in our efforts to keep our service equal to war-time demands.

THE SITUATION.

Mr. Gerard, who was Ambassador in Germany before the United States entered the war, reports the Kaiser as saying to him on one occasion: "From childhood I have been influenced by five men, Alexander the Great, Julius Caesar, Theodor II, Frederick the Great, and Napoleon. Each of them dreamed a dream of world empire. They failed. I have dreamed a dream of German world empire and my mailed fist shall succeed."

Just now that mailed fist is being concentrated especially against the British on the Western front. Ten fresh divisions have recently been hurled against Haig's men. The latter, although under a heavy continuous strain, are fighting magnificently, but have had to give some ground and it is admitted the foe have reached the north bank of the river Leys. As an offset the British retain Givencyh, which changed hands several times. General Maurice, Chief director of British military operations, regards this of great importance as it is a gateway on the road to Bethune. Briefly summarized the Hunns have suffered very heavy losses and have made no gain of strategical importance.

The official record with regard to the number of British vessels sunk last week shows a very great improvement. Four were sunk of over 1,600 tons and two under that figure—fishing boats.

A protest has been sent to Washington from Russia, protesting against the landing of Japanese troops at Vladivostok. The impression quite generally prevails that had it not been for our neighbors the Mikado's men would have gone much further long ere this.

The Nationalist leader and his supporters make no bones about the fact that there will be civil war in Ireland if any attempt is made to enforce conscription there. Just why Irishmen should be free from drafts which are enforced and cheerfully met in England, Scotland and Wales is not at all clear, but they have set up for themselves a law of immunity in this respect and the deplorable spectacle is more than likely to be presented of armed resistance.

Berlin claims that the troops of the Kaiser have taken 5,000 prisoners and 100 guns between Arras and La Bassée canal.

CANADA'S WAR EXPENDITURE.

It is officially announced, that Canada's war expenditure to date has reached $835,000,000, and that for the current fiscal year the outlay in the same regard will be $516,000,000 more.

These are large figures and the end is not by any means yet, but who is there with one ounce of red blood in their veins who will regret these and all other necessary expenditures of a similar kind for the future?

What Canadian troops have accomplished on the Western battle front has been of priceless value. Many brave men have fallen in connection with those memorable achievements, but their lives have been given as an offset to an attempted world atrocity and for the precious cause of humanity.

It is unfortunately true that some people in these Dominions do not even yet seem to realize what the men at the front are accomplishing for them and theirs. Excluding the fratricidal element in Quebec and alien enemies of the remainder, there are not a few who are taking this war in a very easy fashion and with a lamentable lack of appreciation with regard to the vital issues at stake. If the Hun should, by any possibility, win, Canada would be one of the first countries to be subjected to his exploitations, and his methods and the iron heel of Prussianism would crush from our daily lives all that now makes life most worth the living. In the face of such a possibility, no effort and no expenditure can be too great to offset the menace and all people will be falling far short of their duty if they falter in any way with regard to ungrudging help.

Rep. Britten of Illinois, claims the existence of a "military clique" which is detaining 12,000 marines in the States.

FATHER AND SON WEEK.

"Father and son week has for its purpose the challenging of boys and men to come together in closer fellowship in their common service to the country, and the awakening of parents and communities to the importance of boy life, and the enlisting of men and boys under the standard of Jesus Christ."

The above is an extract from the avowed object of those having the above movement in hand. Somehow it has never seemed necessary to have a "Mother and daughter" observance on the same basis for the reason that in the natural order of things they always seem closer together.

The tie between fathers and sons is quite generally much too loose. That is not the boys' fault, because in the first place what dad does and says holds very great weight with him. It is when they get to the questioning and bothersome age that the tendency of the "sterner parent" is to turn them over to mother, or else to let them run more or less wild without regard to future consequences. The home is the great moulder of true citizenship and of the impressionable age the youngsters are moulded very much indeed after the pattern of the domestic environment. The man who makes a chum of his boy and enters interestedly and wholeheartedly into his aspirations and healthy pleasures is doing much not only for the lad, but also for the country at large.

It is the appeal to manliness and right ideals which has made the Boy Scout movement such a valuable asset and the "Father and son" movement is worthy of all encouragement in a like regard.

Winter is not only lingering in the lap of Spring, but also has a strange hold into the bargain.

Don't forget the fact that the Portuguese troops are helping the British in the present great struggle, and doing heroic work.

Peter Kyne, one of the best known literary men in the States, enlisted, and his wife, during the course of an article in an American magazine, says with regard to the matter: "Some women think I do not love my husband because I let him join the army. Some have told me so. They told him he was foolish to go; that he could accomplish so much more by staying home and writing things to stir the other fellow's pulse. But he couldn't see it that way and I didn't try to make him, for Peter is an old soldier—though only thirty-seven years old. I realized also that he is 100 per cent American, and that his ancestors for centuries participated in election riots and free-for-all fights at Galway fairs. So I let him go, because I knew it would break his heart to have to stand on the sidewalk and see troops marching off to war without him. If he comes back he will take up his literary work again, and if he doesn't come back—well, he is an idealist, and I shall know that he has left me in a manner most pleasing to him."

BRITISH LINE IN PALESTINE IS ADVANCED

By Courier Leased Wire. London, April 11.—British troops on April 9th advanced their line north of Jerusalem, in Palestine, to a depth of one and a half miles along a front of five miles, the British war office announced today. Notwithstanding the stubborn resistance of the Turks, the British captured the villages of Rafat and El Kefr.

The text of the statement reads: "Early on the morning of April 9, our troops on the Tulkan-Ramleh railway advanced their line to a depth of one and a half miles on a front of five miles. We captured the villages of El Kefr and Rafat despite stubborn resistance by the enemy, whose counter-attacks were broken up by our artillery and machine gun fire. Among the prisoners taken were a few Germans."

Advance in Africa Also. London, April 11.—Allied troops are advancing on the remnants of the German forces which escaped from German East Africa to Portuguese East Africa. The following official account of these operations was given out here today: "In Portuguese Nyassaland, despite the difficulties caused by heavy rains and flooded rivers, our columns from the coast and from Lake Nyassa are approaching Meco and Masu respectively and their advanced troops are in contact with those of the main enemy forces concentrated in these localities."

WAR LABOR BOARD. Washington, April 11.—Creation of a national war labor board to adjust all other labor disputes during the period of the war has been proclaimed by President Wilson, with its members the same men who recently framed the labor policy of the government for the war period. The board is headed by former President Taft, selected by employers, and Frank P. Walsh, selected by employees, representing the public.

FATHER AND SON WEEK IN PARIS

Banquet in Y.M.C.A. Follows Services in Churches on Sunday

SPLENDID SPEAKERS

Paris, April 10.—(From Our Own Correspondent).—Paris, in keeping with all progressive places in the Dominion, is loyally winning its part in the "Father and Son Week."

Following up the grand services in the downtown churches on Sunday, a banquet was given in the Y.M.C.A. hall, evening of the fathers and sons of Paris. The large room in the building was appropriately decorated, while the tables were well laden with wholesome and inviting fare. And it was an inspiration, as also a pleasing sight to see the head of the family and his offspring around the festive board.

The proceedings were solely in charge of the men in preparing the supper, while the young ladies waited on the tables. The chair was taken by Dr. Dunton and after simple remarks the happy gathering was called to order when a capital program was put through. For about fifteen minutes the boys, led by Mr. Kinsey, gave their own show of songs, many much enjoyed by the gathering as the singers themselves. Addresses were made by Mayor C. B. Robinson and Mr. F. Scott Davidson.

Brantford favored at intervals with notes in capital form. Devotional exercises were taken at this part of the proceedings by Rev. J. C. Nicholson and Rev. Mr. Wells. The speaker of the evening was Captain T. F. Best, who has recently returned from active service from the Y.M.C.A. overseas. He made it plain to all that the Y.M.C.A. was accomplishing among the boys in khaki, and how much this was appreciated by the men themselves, which fact was also pointed out by Mr. Davidson in his remarks, his son in France having received such kindness at their hands, wrote his father to do all he could for the Y.M.C.A. at home at times.

At the close a hearty vote of thanks was given to the speaker by Rev. Mr. Langton, for the excellent address he had given, which was seconded by Rev. Mr. Davidson. It was decided to undertake a campaign in Paris and surrounding district for funds on behalf of the Y.M.C.A. huts overseas, and we speak a generous response from this neighborhood.

A vote of thanks was also passed to all those who in any way helped to make the proceedings such a successful one. The meeting was closed with the National Anthem.

To The Editor of The Courier

PALESTINE RESTORATION FUND. To the Editor.— 123 Brantford, April 10, 1918. To the Editor of The Courier: As you no doubt are aware of the fact that our campaign for the Palestine Restoration Fund is now on in full swing, I desire to call your attention to the fact that there is a rumor afloat that the donations and money now being received by our authorized canvassers is to be used for the War Sufferers Fund, which fund has been in existence for the past three years. This rumor is false and without foundation. The receipt book which the canvassers carry is enough to convince any fair-minded citizen for what purpose the fund is being raised. In fact, I may state that at the present time the Zionists of Brantford have a nice sum of money for the War Sufferers Fund, and have been advised by the Central Committee in New York to hold such money until our banks have been re-opened in Russia. At the present time the Anglo-Palestine Bank is open for business in Jerusalem under the supervision of the British Government, and the fund now being raised will go direct to this bank from the Central Committee in Montreal. So let me assure your readers that any receipt received by them from our canvassers for any donation, it will give them all the information desired as to the genuineness of the campaign and the fund now being raised in your city. Thanking you for your valuable space, I remain, Respectfully yours, SAM. FOX, Campaign Chairman.

PARIS RESIDENT IS LAID TO REST

Funeral of Mrs. Robert J. Elliott Took Place Tuesday

Paris, April 10.—(From Our Own Correspondent).—The remains of Jeanette (Nettie), beloved wife of Robert J. Elliott, were laid quietly to rest in the Paris Cemetery yesterday afternoon. The funeral, which was private, took place from the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Walker, and was conducted by the Rev. J. C. Nicholson. Deceased had not been well for some time, but had only been confined to her bed for the past two weeks. Besides her husband and parents she leaves two sisters, Miss Helen Walker of Boston, Mass., Miss Vera at home, and three brothers, James of Oregon, Gordon in France, and Jack at home, to whom the sympathy of the community will be extended. The death took place somewhat suddenly Monday afternoon at her residence, Dundas street, of Alice Bean, beloved wife of Harry Field, in the 42nd year of her age. Deceased had been ill for about four years and death came as a release. She was married nine years ago. The funeral takes place to-morrow afternoon at 2.30, when services will be held in St. James Church and thence to the new cemetery.

What might have been a bad fire occurred yesterday afternoon near the dumping ground on the Brantford road. Burning paper had set fire to the grass, which reached a large barn belonging to Miss Cassidy, one corner of which had ignited. Fortunately the barn was built on a high stone foundation which had prevented the burning, except at the east corner.

Margaret Garrett's Husband

By JANE PHELPS

A DOORSOME WEEK END Chapter XXVI. I slept soundly regardless of my fixed determination that I should not close my eyes. I said as much to Della, and she never properly sympathized because of the character of the man for whom she formerly had worked, replied.

"Oh, yes you will wake! You've nothin' to lay awake for. Now if Mr. Garrett was like that sporty Mr. Green, worked for you might have something to say. He was the kind that he never come home unless he had to, I guess."

"You shouldn't talk like that about your employers, Della!" I reproached. "Perhaps his home wasn't as pleasant as it should be."

"Oh yes, it was ma'am! Mrs. Green was just like you! she made an awful fuss when Mr. Green went out and—"

Della stopped suddenly. "And what?" I asked, ashamed in a way to question a servant, but anxious to know why Mr. Green would not remain with his wife. "And—why—he used to say he wouldn't go half an inch if she would keep still and not try to make him think he had no business to be goin' out without her. She used to carry on somethin' awful."

"What do you mean by carrying on somethin' awful?" I asked. "Oh, cryin' and scoldin' him and tellin' him that he didn't love her—oh, a lot of things like that. And honest, Mrs. Garrett, he was that good to her, let her do anythin' she wanted to, and never found no fault at all. I used to be ashamed of her carryin' on, even if it wasn't none of my business."

"She didn't know how to manage I guess, Della," I said. Then commenced to talk of something else. Yet several times during the next day I thought of Mrs. Green, and felt sorry that she had not known how to make her home attractive.

that she had not impressed upon her husband his duty toward her: "I fussed about the house all day Friday, keeping busy, which was easy as every good housewife knows, until time for father and mother to come to dinner."

"Well, dear, have you been out to-day?" mother asked after she had seated herself on the library with her knitting. "It has been a fine day, and it is wrong to remain indoors."

"No—I haven't been out," I returned. "You see, mother, if Bob thinks I amuse myself when he is away he will not hesitate to leave me; but if he feels that I am alone and lonely he will not spend his time away from me."

Mother looked at me as if she had not understood, and father, who had appeared immersed in the stock market quotations, said: "Don't get foolish ideas in your head, daughter. It's a mistake to try to drive a horse with too tight a rein, and it's a greater mistake to try to drive a man with a curb bit. Give Bob his head. He's a sensible fellow, and won't be the worse for it."

"Why do you all talk as if it were right for Bob to leave me, to have the same friends, do the same things, he did before we were married?" I asked. "Oh, cryin' and scoldin' him and tellin' him that he didn't love her—oh, a lot of things like that. And honest, Mrs. Garrett, he was that good to her, let her do anythin' she wanted to, and never found no fault at all. ried apple, cauliflower with hollandaise sauce and a salad with a delicious Russian dressing. They both ate heartily, then when we finished father challenged me to a game of chess.

Really I did not feel like playing. My mind was with Bob. I was wondering what he was doing, and if he were lonely without me. Then I recalled my decision. I would do everything I could to keep him at home, to break up his friendship for the men who had been his intimates in his bachelor days; and whom I now considered an undesirable influence. Bob was fond of chess. I must learn to be a worthy antagonist. So I heartily agreed, and we played until ten o'clock when father and mother left me. Father had won of course, but I had had a lesson, and that was worth something.

After they had gone I beatified about telephoning Bob and wishing him good-night. Finally I called up the club.

"Yes, Mr. Garrett is stopping here, but he is not in. Any message?" "Please ask him to call his wife when he comes in."

Where could he be? Surely he should have been at the club. It was too dark to play either golf or tennis, and had he been playing chess he could easily have been found. Really it was not right for him to be out when I called. At least so I reasoned.

I waited until nearly eleven o'clock, then commenced to prepare for bed. Yet all the time I listened, anxious, fretful because he did not ring me up. I would wait until half past eleven I thought, then call him again. Something might have happened to him at the thought. I had decided I could wait no longer he to-morrow—Renewing Old Acquaintance.

GIRL'S ONE PIECE DRESS. By Anabel Worthington. A cleverly designed little dress which requires no buttons or fastenings of any kind is shown in No. 871. It is to be slipped on over the head and it hangs straight from shoulder to hem. A broad box plait under each arm gives extra fullness. The dress may be made with or without the belt, but if it is used it passes under the plait. The full bishop sleeves are gathered into straight cuffs. Even children's clothes are showing the popular shawl collar, so this dress is finished with a very good looking pointed one. The girl's one piece dress pattern No. 871 is cut in five sizes, 6 to 14 years. The 8 year size requires 3 1/2 yards 36 inch, or 2 1/2 yards 44 inch material. To obtain this pattern send 16 cents or two for 25 cents to the Courier Office.

INTEREST GROWS IN BIBLE CONFERENCE
 Increase in Attendance at Park Baptist Church Last Night

HELPFUL READINGS
 There was a notable increase in the interest and attendance at the bible conference in Park Baptist church last night, these services will close with the evening-meeting of Friday.
 At the afternoon meeting yesterday, Mr. Chafer gave a bible exposition on a phase of the keeping power of God. He took up such themes as being "castaway" and "falling from grace" in relation to the keeping power of God. To-day he will present the great unconditional promises of God for the keeping of those whom He has saved. To-morrow afternoon Mr. Chafer will deal with the question: "How does God deal with the sins of Christians?"

Addresses were given last night by Rev. A. W. Roffe of Toronto, and Rev. Lewis S. Chafer of New York. Mr. Roffe spoke on the effect of the Divine touch on a human soul. He presented the passages of Scripture wherein it is stated that men were touched by the Divine hand. These are both in the ministry of Christ here in earth and in the life of the prophet Daniel. In every case, it was pointed out, there was a transformation wrought in the life of the one who was touched. This devotional message was a great blessing to all.

Mr. Chafer continued his studies in the doctrine of the church. "This," he stated, "is a body of truth that has been greatly neglected. Even theological studies have been centered about other great themes, revelation more than this. Ministers and people too often think of the Church as the human organization, while the real revelation is neglected. It is not some obscure portion of the bible either. It is the great prison revelation, and includes the letters to the Ephesians, Philippians, and Colossians. In these epistles there is a development of what Jesus had in mind when He said: "On this rock I will build my Church." It is seen to be a growing body and temple made up of both Jews and Gentiles, and includes every saved person from Pentecost until He comes again. When this company is all gathered in, which may be at any time, He will come again. This is the plain teaching of scripture. Christian service is not directed to transform a world. The sin goes on in deener forms to the end of this age. Christian service is to be directed toward getting individuals saved and built-up in Christ. "After this," it is said, "I will return and build the tabernacle of David which is fallen down." So, also, after the present blindness of Israel is passed, which must continue until the "fulness of the Gentiles be come in," the Deliverer shall come out of Zion and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob.

Mr. Chafer will speak to-night on the two farewell discourses of Christ, or "The two-fold promise." There will also be an address by Rev. I. R. Dean, of Toronto.
 There is special Gospel singing at each session of the conference.

WANT ST. RAILWAY SYSTEM EXTENDED TO TERRACE HILL

Trades and Labor Council Criticized Inaction of Railway Commission. CENSURE SALARIES
 Increases Given City Officials Were Viewed With Disapproval

There was the usual attendance and about the usual enthusiasm at the Trades and Labor Council last night. All the discussions were brief. The salaries of the higher paid officials of the city, the street railway, and the proposed milk distributing scheme were severely criticized, and resolutions opposing these were passed.
 It is believed that the presence of the Trades and Labor Council last night will be followed up by their active participation in the business of the body.
Increased Salaries
 It was moved by Delegate Neal and seconded by Delegate Belshaw, that:
 Whereas a movement is on foot looking for its effect on the salaries of the higher paid officials in the employ of the municipality, and
 Whereas the increase in the cost of living falls in proportion to income much more severely upon the citizens in receipt of smaller incomes than it does upon those in the enjoyment of larger ones, and
 Whereas the general circumstances of the country, as well as the finances of the city demands that the greatest possible economy should be exercised in the expenditure of public funds,
 "Be it therefore resolved by the Brantford Trades and Labor Council against the increase of salaries of any official in receipt of an income of more than twelve hundred per annum."
 The resolution was carried.
 Delegate Neal suggested that a badge or card be given to members of the Trades and Labor Council as a mark of recognition. The matter will be considered.
 The organization committee waited on the Moulders union, and Boot and Shoe Workers' union, who promised co-operation at T. and L. meetings. It is not yet known whether or not it will be possible to organize horse-shoers of the city.
Street Railway and Terrace Hill
 "Whereas the Terrace Hill taxpayers gave all assistance possible in the receipt of an income of more than twelve hundred per annum, and at the time were promised an extension to the Hill.
 And whereas the said promises were repeated of the selling of part of the road, viz. between Paris and Galt, and the selling price, $30,000, was to be a nucleus for the commencement of the work.
 And whereas there are various reasons in favor of the said extension, viz. the Catholic and Mount Hope cemeteries, and also the direct road to the hospital, and last the accommodation of our 4,000 population.
 And whereas the taxpayers on the Hill are paying their full share without receiving the direct benefit which they would receive if they were in village of their own, with paying less taxes.
 And whereas this is also a money-making scheme for the city, and utility that should not be lost to the citizens, more so, since the city fathers show an inclination to throw away money on raising salaries, after having to sham meetings upon cutting down expenses.
 Be it therefore resolved that the Brantford Trades and Labor Council on record against the discrimination shown by the Street Railway Commission against any undertaking of the railway system being extended to relieve the burdens of the residents of Terrace Hill.
 Be it further resolved that copies be sent to the Street Railway Commissioners and the city council of this resolution.
 This resolution was moved by Peter Noble and seconded by Frank Neal.
 It was in the outlying districts of the city that the street railways were needed," claimed Mr. Noble. "People won't walk five blocks to ride two."
Want Two
 Delegate Neal, seconder of Delegate Noble's resolution, who was discussing the Terrace Hill end of the street railway, also touched upon West Brantford. "If we only had a new bridge," said Mr. Neal, "a street car line to West Brantford would be easily possible." He was however satisfied to assist the people of the Hill until a more opportune time was occasioned for the West Brantfordites.
 Opportunity was taken by a number of delegates to express pleasure because of the presence of two lady delegates from the Boot and Shoe workers union.
 In General.
 Delegate Neal took a stand against the proposed milk distributing scheme in Brantford. He believed the pasteurization very advisable, but the giving of the entire trade of the city to one vendor, inopportune. Delegates James and Pierce were appointed a committee to investigate the matter.
 A short discussion then took place, several delegates asking that an investigation be made of the statements that it is impossible for Brantford to get any road oil this summer. Delegate Moore believed that we could do very nicely with water.
 Delegate Aid. Symonds presented the situation, and gave the facts of proceedings of the city council in the matter.
 Delegate Kye believed that the city council were quite capable of

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES LOVETT.
 "The Maples," Brantford Township, the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lovett, was the scene of a pleasing event on Monday, April 8th. It being the golden wedding anniversary of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lovett, Banfield St., Paris. About thirty-five guests were invited, some of whom were at the wedding fifty years ago.
 The dining-room decorations were white and gold, and daffodils were used profusely.
 Their son, John W., and two grandchildren, were present, being their only surviving descendants.
 Mr. and Mrs. Lovett were the recipients of many beautiful presents and congratulations from friends, both near and far. Ex-Mayor Armstrong of Paris very fittingly expressed the sentiments of all present in a short address which was responded to by the host.

looking into the matter, and the discussion was dropped.
 Poor street lighting conditions in Brantford will be investigated. Besides every other light being off, numerous others are also out of commission, due no doubt to improper switches. The T. and L. Council will take the matter up.

DIDN'T THINK GAS COULD BE PURIFIED
Brantford Aldermen Discussed Question With Woodstock Men

Woodstock, April 11.—Free discussion was had, but no definite conclusion was reached at the meeting in the Council Chamber yesterday afternoon, when two delegates from the Brantford city council, Ald. Simpson and Montgomery, were present to discuss the question of purified gas with members of the local council and Board of Trade. Delegates were to have been present from Paris and Galt, but the Brantford men were the only ones to put in an appearance. However, they expressed very strongly their disbelief in the possibility of having the gas now being supplied them and several other places, including Woodstock, purified by any action of the company.
 Mayor West explained that the purpose of the meeting was to make some arrangements for the elimination of sulphur, set off hydrogen from the gas supply, and felt that the thing to do was to "get after the gas company to either install individual purifiers in the places where they are required, or else purify the gas at the plant from which it is distributed.
 Alderman Montgomery said that Brantford was using the Filbury process, and Woodstock, and said that conditions were very similar there.

MINNETONKA WAS SUNK BY SUBMARINE
British Steamer Torpedoed by German U-Boat in Mediterranean

By Courier Leased Wire
 New York, April 11.—The big British steamship Minnetonka, 13,528 tons gross register, formerly in the New York-London passenger trade for the Atlantic Transport Line, was sunk by a German submarine in the Mediterranean during February, the Maritime register reports to-day.
 Officials of the International Mercantile Marine Company, owners of the vessel, said the Minnetonka had been engaged in British Admiralty service, and no official information of her loss had been received here.
 The ship was launched in 1902. The Minnetonka was one of four passenger ships of the line aggregating 55,099 tons gross, all of which have been sunk since the war began. The three others were the Minnebaha, sunk September 7, 1917, and Minnewaska, sunk November 29, 1917.

AT SCHOOL UNDER FIRE
 Paris, April 11.—The attendance at the Paris schools, which were reopened yesterday after the Easter holidays, was only eight per cent below the normal in spite of the menagerie of bombardment from the German long range gun. Spacious alleys have been chosen in the vicinity of most of the schools to which the children will be transferred if circumstances make such action necessary.

Austrian Chancellor's Sentiments at Variance With Emperor's
IN GERMANY ALSO
Public Feeling is Against Von Hertling and Von Kuehlman

By Courier Leased Wire
 London, April 11.—The position of Count Czernin, the Austro-Hungarian foreign minister, is said to be much less secure since his recent speech, and the publication of a French official statement that Emperor Charles considered the French demand for Alsace-Lorraine just, according to an Exchange/Telegraph dispatch from Copenhagen.
 There is growing dissatisfaction in Germany with Imperial Chancellor von Hertling and Foreign Secretary von Kuehlmann, and efforts are being made to replace von Hertling with Dr. von Helfferich, former vice-chancellor.
 The Austrian embassy in Berlin officially denies the French statement, attributed to Emperor Charles, but does not insist that there was never any talk of an acknowledgement by the emperor of the justice of the Alsace-Lorraine demands of the Oppressed Nationalities.
 Washington, April 11.—Greatest importance is attached by official dispatches from Rome to the Congress of Nationalities oppressed by Austria, which began sessions in the Italian capital Tuesday.
 "While Vienna raises her defiance against the sacred rights of the nations," the dispatches say, "Rome listens to the voice of the oppressed Austrian subjects who have met there to discuss the means of obtaining liberty and a permanent peace under the auspices of the free Italian institutions.
 "The congress is the best evidence of Italy's sympathy for the aspirations of the peoples suffering under the Austro-Hungarian domination. The Slavic races will receive from Italy all the support and co-operation which they may need for their free development and progress if they succeed in setting themselves free from the Austrian yoke. To this effect Italy offers all the assistance she can give."
Premier Adopted Boy
 Washington, April 11.—During a recent review of shock troops on the Italian front, official dispatches received here say, Premier Orlando was attacked to a fifteen year old boy soldier. Inquiry disclosed that the boy, David Marcella, had followed the Italian soldiers across the Piave during the Austrian invasion and insisted that he be allowed to remain with the troops. The boy since had acquired an extraordinary ability in throwing hand grenades.
 Young Marcella, fearing he might be obliged to abandon his post on account of his age, implored Premier Orlando to allow him to remain, which the Premier did, instructing the general in command to the effect. Then the premier announced his decision to adopt the boy soldier as his own son, saying:
 "You will be one of my children I shall provide for your present and future needs. Now remain and work for your country."
Italian Official
 Rome, April 10.—The official statement from the Italian war office to-day reads:
 "Both armies were active throughout Wednesday between the Astico and the Brenta. Our batteries carried out concentrations of fire in the Guidicaria valley and in the region northwest of Mount Grappa. "At Asiago enemy patrols faced

FOCH-ALLIED LEADER

Gen. Ferdinand Foch, new allied generalissimo, is of Basque origin. He was born at Tarbes in 1851, but was raised at Metz. Rather than become a German after the annexation of Lorraine, Foch preferred to return to France and help prepare France for the struggle with Germany which he believed ultimately would take place.

He entered the Polytechnic school with the number 72. He left at the 45th of his class—a rank that was not considered as justifying hopes of a great future. He never dazzled by his brilliancy, but he showed that wonders could be accomplished by application.

Foch began by mastering the strategy of the war of 1870 in its minutest details. Knowing the mentality of the Germans, he counted upon their repeating in future combats the manoeuvres that had succeeded. He also expected them to make some of their old mistakes. In his teachings at the superior war school, and his writings he held always to the idea of an inevitable aggression by Germany.

Given Stars in 1907.

The stars of a general were Foch in 1917, and the command of the superior war school, where he left his mark as a professor. Preferring a more active command, he resigned in 1917 and commanded successively the eighth and twentieth army corps, and proved that he was one of the few military writers or professors who also was an efficient handler of men in the field.

The war found Foch at Nancy, the headquarters of the twentieth corps. His corps was attached to Gen. Castelnau's army, and he was selected to command a new army concentrating behind the centre forces marching to the Belgian frontier to meet the Germans.

This army was not ready in time to take part in the battle of Charleval but it contributed singularly to the victory of the Marne.

Defeat of Von Hausen.

After the Moroccan riflemen by three furious charges had captured the chateau of Mondement, reports brought by aviators showed that in their retirement, the forces of von Buelow had left a gap between their left wing and von Hausen's right. It was by promptly profiting from this situation in massing his troops against von Hausen's exposed flank that Foch dispersed Gen. Langelle de Cary's troops on his right and contributed largely to the defeat of the German army.

After the battle of the Marne, Foch was given command of a group of armies operating in the north of France and promoted to grand officer in the Legion of Honor. King George conferred upon

PRODUCED EGGS AT 2 1-4c EACH It Can Be Done by Feeding Chickens on Table Waste

Professor Elford, of the Poultry Division of the Experimental Farm, in a lecture before the Ottawa Poultry Association, declared that with a flock of twelve pullets in his own back yard he produced eggs at a cost of 2 1-4 cents each, feeding table waste at the Experimental Farm from hens fed on regular chicken feed. Table scraps in Canada, he asserted, would produce five and a quarter million eggs worth over $3,000,000. He urged city people to set eggs this spring and rear chickens.

While in Hamilton so satisfactory was the plan by which a number of neighbors saved scraps of food for a returned soldier's home, where some forty chickens were kept, that a community chicken yard is now being established in the next block, and some ten or twelve families will save from their garbage cans enough to at least provide one-fourth of the feed for a block of from thirty to forty hens.

PESSIMISTIC VIEW OF JOHN DILLON

Declares Ireland, North and South, Solid Against Conscription

London, April 11.—John Dillon, M.P., successor to John Redmond, as chairman of the Irish Nationalist party, gave to the correspondent today this signed statement regarding the Prime Minister Lloyd George's announcement in Parliament yesterday that conscription will be extended to Ireland:

"The British War Cabinet has arrived at the momentous decision to apply conscription to Ireland without consulting a single Irish member of Parliament or any representative man acquainted with the conditions of Ireland. No indication of the machinery by which the bill is proposed to be worked in Ireland, that is all left for an order in Council, which cannot be discussed in Parliament, and as it will be impossible to set up tribunals such as those that have worked the Act in England, and as Ireland, North and South, is solidly opposed to conscription unless with the consent of a free Irish Parliament, it must be assumed that the old methods of the press gangs in its worst days will be resorted to."

"If this measure is persevered in, an Irish settlement becomes impossible, and Ireland will have to be held down by strict military law. I need not point out to the fact results of such a condition of things on the morale of the allies."

"No explanation has been given of the reasons which have caused the present cabinet to depart from the decision not to apply conscription to Ireland, which was arrived at three times by successive Governments since the war broke out, the reasons for that decision being that, as there is no government in Ireland which can freely express the opinion of the people, it would not be either just or expedient to attempt to apply conscription to that country."

"It remains a mystery why that policy should be changed now, at a time when all the reasons against conscription to Ireland have enormously increased in force."

"The Irish Nationalist party will resist the passage of this bill by every means in its power."

"Ireland, north and south, including the Nationalist districts of Ulster, is solid against the proposal, and in my opinion, the most horrible and far-reaching consequence will result from any attempt to enforce the levy."

"(Signed) JOHN DILLON."

BILL ON MAN-POWER PASSED

Adopted on Second Reading by Vote of 323 to 100

ATTACK BY DILLON

London, April 10.—The House of Commons to-night passed the second reading of the Government's Manpower Bill. The vote was 323 to 100.

In moving the second reading, Sir George Cave, Unionist member for Surrey, said it was the duty of the country to do everything it could do, and then only should it be entitled to use to the fullest extent the help given by its allies. Germany had made Europe an armed camp, he added, and the necessity of taking every man who could be spared was overwhelming.

Sir George declared that he had been advised that the application of the Man-power Bill to Ireland would yield a large number of men, but if only five divisions could be got from Ireland it would be worth while. He did not believe the army would be needed to force the operation of the measure.

With Imperial House.

The speaker added that even if there was an Irish Parliament today the question of conscription in Ireland still would rest with the Imperial Parliament.

Sir George's belief continually interrupted by Nationalist members, said he doubted whether the voice of Ireland had yet been heard in the matter. The speaker of the House appealed to the Irish members to give Sir George a fair hearing.

After Sir Charles Hobhouse, the former Postmaster-General, and bill, expressing the opinion that the number of men over forty who were fit for service did not justify raising the age limit. John Dillon, the Nationalist Leader, said that, apart altogether from Ireland, no case had been made out for the bill itself. As to the Irish proposals, he would destroy the hope of an Irish settlement during the war.

He challenged the Government to take a plebiscite in Ireland, and declared that Antrim would vote with Clare against conscription. The speaker said, "No more than the farmers of England."

Only 80,000 at Most.

The estimate of 400,000 men from Ireland, continued Mr. Dillon, was nonsense. Two years ago the figure was put at 20,000, and since then 20,000 had volunteered. He believed that no more than 80,000 could be obtained without doing infinitely more injury by destroying the food supply.

The real purpose of the bill was to divert public attention and inquiry into the true causes of the failure on the Western front. The attempt to extend the bill to Ireland would open up another warfare in Ireland, all the more formidable because it would be a moral front, in which Britain would be wrong; it would be front which, whatever form the conflict took, would spread to America and to Australia, and to all the corners of the earth where the Irish race were scattered. The prospect before the Government was that for the remainder of the war it must hold Ireland under strict military law with ever-increasing bitterness.

RELAXATION OF GAME LAWS INADVISABLE

Work of Years Would be Undone and Food Supply Not Materially Increased

(From "Conservation")

The scarcity of food has resulted in various government organizations, directly concerned, being flooded with suggestions for the relaxation of game laws, and the Commission of Conservation has taken some pains to ascertain just what effect such a course would have. The conclusion reached is that it would have no appreciable effect in relieving the shortage of meat and would result in the very same depletion, and in some cases the total extinction, of valuable game species. Many well-intentioned persons in making such suggestions overlook the fact that wild game, once it is depleted to a certain point, will, even under natural conditions, continue to decrease until extinct and can never, as in the case of domestic animals, be restored.

Dr. C. Gordon Hewitt, Dominion Entomologist, in referring to such proposals, said in part: "While these suggestions are undoubtedly made with the best of intentions, they would, if put into practice, undoubtedly result in consequences of a most serious nature which are not realized by those who are lax in their enforcement. The struggle to prevent extermination has been very uphill work, but owing to the attitude of the real hunters and game hogs, and of the public generally, steady progress has been made.

To relax these efforts at the present time would more than undo the results of the hard work and effort of years and would be catering to those individuals who have been the greatest enemies to game conservation, men who are entirely selfish in their point of view and who have very little interest in the welfare of the country as a whole. In the West, this class is largely made up of foreigners. To all these persons who violate the game laws on all occasions, food conservation has no meaning and any relaxation of the game laws would simply legalize their destructive tendencies to the detriment of the rights of game and the rights of those who are accustomed to observe the law."

"The amount of wild meat that would be obtained would be comparatively small, but the destruction involved in obtaining it would affect, in the most serious manner possible, the future of our game animals. In cases of absolute want or necessity it is always possible for the provincial game officers to make special arrangements under permit."

Ottawa, Ont., April 10.—The Canada Food Board states that the new anti-waste and anti-hearing orders made by the board have been responsible in part at least for a large reduction in the surplus of apples and potatoes in Canada. The quantity of apples in the Annapolis Valley and in leading marketing centres was reduced during the month of March by nearly one hundred thousand barrels. Very considerable supplies of onions are reported to be held in British Columbia. Dealers are warned that they are liable to prosecution if any part of these stocks be allowed to spoil.

ARMY AND NAVY HEADS ATTEND WAR CABINET

Representatives of Fighting Forces Give and Receive Information

London, April 11.—(Correspondent of The Associated Press).—Representatives of the British fighting forces on land and sea attend every meeting of the British War Cabinet, communicate to the members of the cabinet the latest information concerning the war and consult with them on important questions.
At these conferences the army is represented by Major-General Sir Henry Hughes Wilson, Chief of the Imperial Staff, and the navy by Vice-Admiral Sir Rosslyn Wemyss, First Sea Lord of the Admiralty.
How the British War Cabinet operates in deciding upon war policies and directing Britain's share in the war is told in the annual report of the cabinet now published for the first time in history.
"At each meeting," says this official statement of the workings of the inner circles of the British Government, "the cabinet begins by hearing reports as to the progress of the war since the preceding day. Unless it wishes to confine its deliberations to general questions of policy, it then proceeds to deal with questions awaiting its decision. As these questions in the vast majority of cases affect one or more of the administrative departments, almost all its meetings are attended by the ministers and their chief departmental officials concerned."
"The majority of the sessions of the War Cabinet consist, therefore, of a series of meetings between members of the War Cabinet and those responsible for executive action at which questions of policy concerning those departments are discussed and settled. Questions of overlapping of conflict between departments are determined and the general lines of policy throughout every branch of the administration co-ordinated so as to form part of a consistent war plan."
"Ministers who are not members of the War Cabinet are permitted to bring with them to the cabinet meetings experts from their own departments or from elsewhere and often do so when expert opinion is needed to decide an important question."
"In peace times, sessions of the British Cabinet were infrequent, but under war pressure this has changed. The War Cabinet has held 300 sessions in the past year."

AIRCRAFT PROGRAM IS DISAPPOINTING

Washington, April 11.—The United States Government's aircraft program is characterized as "gravely disappointing," and a drastic reorganization of production machinery was recommended in a report by the Senate military committee today, which charges government officials with misrepresenting the situation and misleading the people and with "procrastination" and "indecision."
"One man control of production is proposed, and the committee suggests that building be taken entirely out of the hands of the signal corps. Delay is charged not only in the manufacture of liberty motors and machine parts, but in the fitters as well. The committee recommended that the one-man administration be appointed by the President and assisted by a corps of expert engineers and designers."
The Liberty motor, the committee declares, "is just emerging from the development of experimental stage, and is not designed for or can be used in the swift single-seated fighting machines."
Of 2,200 Liberty motors ordered, the committee said only 122 have been completed for the army, 142 for the navy and four shipped overseas.
The prospects for the future, the committee said, looked more favorable, and the production of the last few weeks promises to get the program under way to such an extent that a sufficient number of planes will be furnished later to meet all requirements of the troops in France.

LANDLORD THE LOSER.

(Associated Press).
Paris, April 11.—The remarkable inequalities resulting from the French moratorium of rents, which has been in effect ever since the war, is seen in a case which has come up in the courts here. An aged Frenchman, whose only source of income was a large house, rented it just before the war to a tenant who was mobilized and is still serving. Consequently he is not obliged to pay rent. His wife meanwhile is occupying the house, which she sublets to a number of weekly tenants at a good price. The poor land lord, deprived of his only source of revenue, lives on money which he borrows at a high rate of interest, the lender being the tenant's wife. He is trying to obtain some adjustment of his borrowings through the French courts.

STANDARD GARMENTS.

(Associated Press).
Amsterdam, April 11.—Eleven hundred German towns and cities have applied for supplies of the new "State standard" garments for men and women. Half a million pairs of standard trousers are to be distributed during the next three months, and a proportionate number of other garments. Women's skirts will sell at $4.50 to $9; dresses at $15 to $21. Nobody who has an income of over $30 a week will be permitted to buy State clothes.

WHERE WILL GERMANS NEXT STRIKE?
There is some evidence that the enemy finds the British front between Arras and Albert too strong for him and that the British stand in that sector makes it difficult, if not impossible, for him to develop further his drive westward through Amiens to the Channel. His next plan may be to tackle the permanent line between Lens and Arras.

U.S. SOLDIERS KING'S GUARD

Accompanied King and Queen of England on Visit to War Plant
By Courier Leased Wire
London, April 10.—American soldiers acted as a guard of honor to King George and Queen Mary yesterday when their Majesties inspected a certain famous works where thousands of hands are employed day and night. Their Majesties conversed freely with officers and men and commented on their smart and soldier-like appearance.
Queen Mary, responding to a request for an autograph, used a sergeant's back as a writing pad, while she wrote "Mary R. 1918." The King also added his autograph, whereupon an American officer remarked: "This is not war, but it is very human."
"Yes, very human," replied the King, smiling. The King, speaking to several Americans with whom he and the Queen conversed, said: "I am very glad indeed to see American soldiers in England and a fine stamp of men they are. When I was in France not long ago I had the opportunity of seeing troops from the United States. They impressed me very much, with their excellent bearing and I was told they are becoming efficient very rapidly."
Among the surroundings of implements of war, their Majesties displayed another human touch by despatching the following message by pigeon post to Prince Harry, who has just arrived at Sandringham on a holiday.
"Hope you have arrived safely. Give messages to all our friends at Sandringham."
During their tour, which included a visit to the ancient city of Lincoln, the King rode in a tank amid the cheers of British and American soldiers. The King said to the officer in charge: "This is my fourth adventure in a tank. I want you to take me over the most awkward places."
The officer did so. One moment the tank's nose pointed skyward and the next moment it was lurching head foremost down a precipitous decline. The King laughed and said: "The motion is not as bad as that in a heavy sea. It was a very exciting experience. I enjoyed it."

FRANCE SHARED IN NO OVERTURES

Former French Premier, Ribot, Denies the Statements of Czernin
By Courier Leased Wire
Paris, April 10.—Former premier Ribot said today that the French Government of which he was the head at the time that Count Czernin's conversations concerning peace had been held between Austria and France, never took, directly or through a neutral intermediary, any initiative such a proceeding as the Austrian official communication asserts.
NEVER AGAIN.
Amsterdam, April 10.—The Vienna Zeitung An Mitler says it has been authoritatively informed that the Austrian Government had decided never again to negotiate with the Clemenceau cabinet even in connection with the cessation of the war as M. Clemenceau openly admitted. It was stated that the Austrian government had decided to continue with the purpose of obtaining information for the purpose of espionage. The newspaper adds that Count Czernin, the Austro-Hungarian foreign minister, adheres to everything he said concerning the peace in Switzerland and that further sensational disclosures are being prepared.

SENATOR STRICKEN

Washington, April 11.—Senator Stone of Missouri, chairman of the Foreign Relations committee, was stricken with paralysis to-day while riding in a street car en route to his office in the capital.
The Senator was removed to the Senate office building, where medical assistance was summoned, and later taken to his home. The attack affected the Senator's left side. A physician who made a hasty examination, declared while his condition was serious, it was not critical.

BAD COLDS? TAKE "CASCARETS" FOR BOWELS TONIGHT

They're tired! Tired your liver and bowels and clear your head.
No headache, sour stomach, bad cold or constipation by morning.
Get a 10-cent box now. Colds—whether in the head or any part of the body—are quickly overcome by urging the liver to action and keeping the bowels free of poison. Take Cascarets to-night and you will wake up with a clear head and your cold will be gone. Cascarets work while you sleep; they cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and fat masses; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter and poison from the bowels.
Remember the quickest way to get rid of colds is one or two Cascarets at night to cleanse the system. Get a 10-cent box at any drug store. Don't forget the children. They relish this Candy Cathartic and it is often all that is needed to drive a cold from their little systems.

Scene from the "Brat" at the Grand Opera House to-night.

Sporting Comment

"THE BRAT"
It was not the play, but the girl playing the leading part, that made one want to see her off the stage. And so it was that we were conducted to one of the dressing-rooms behind the stage after the first production of "The Brat" last evening, said the society editors in the "Toronto News."
And there she sat, rather an embarrassed little person in her petticoat and dressing jacket, just about to retrace the sticky eye-lashes and blue grease paint from her eyes.
"I don't mind if you don't," she laughed.
"How old are you?" we dared, confident that her youth made it safe.
"Nineteen in June," and smeared her face with cold cream, eyes and all.
"How long have you been on the stage?"
From the depths of the towel came the answer—"Six years." Then with the last dab of grease paint gone she looked up a sunny, smiling, grey-eyed girl, looking very wavy red gold hair back from a very white forehead.
"And what is your ambition?"
Her eyes twinkled. "Oh, to be a star, of course. To create a part. I like these little human plays. Did you like it to-night? Not as well as Peg O' My Heart? No—I don't either—not quite, though I like this part better than Peg's. There's more to it."
"But it's funny," and she giggled like an eighteen-year-old. "My aunt's awfully afraid I'll get into the habit of using all that bad English—all those 'Oh, but she keeps warning me.' 'Oh, but she keeps warning me.' 'I eyes were very much a child's.' 'I have another BIG ambition, and that is to be able to knit without watching my needles. Sure, I'm learning. I'm making one of those sweater coats. I knit it around everywhere."
"What you anyone at the war?"
"None! None!—unless they call out the boy's of sixteen. My biggest brother's sixteen. I had a letter from him saying he wants to join the navy, and he wants to know what I think. So I'm going to write him a special delivery. I do think he is too young, don't you?" The voice was very pleading. "But," and there was a bit of "The Brat" in her, "I'd have him go rather than be one of those things—a shirker."
But it was quite time for curly-haired girls of eighteen to be in bed, even if they are actresses, so we left her, glad to find her very unaffected girl, in spite of her six years on the stage.
"The Brat" comes to the Grand Opera House on Thursday, April 11. A special return engagement.

RUSS ADOPTS RED FLAG

By Courier Leased Wire
Moscow, April 11.—(By the Associated Press).—Russia's national flag henceforth will be red with the inscription "Rossiyskay Sotsialisticheskaya Federativnaya Sovetskaya Respublika" (Russian Socialist Federative Soviet Republic). This was decided upon yesterday in a resolution passed unanimously by the central executive committee of the All-Russian Soviets.
Chairman Sverdlov, proposing the resolution, said it was important to decide the question of the flag immediately as "the Russian flag will have to wave over the embassies in Berlin and Vienna, and we cannot have the old tri-color, and I think it most proper to adopt the red flag under which we fought and gained victory."

NEW RELIGION TO FOLLOW THE WAR
Change in Sentiment Will Evolve From Present Great Conflict

SOLDIERS IMPRESSED
A young Canadian volunteer who earned a commission for bravery but is incapacitated for active service, writing his story as "Private Peat," mentions the chaplain's standing among the men in the army.
As the religion of the Gurkha follows him to the battlefield, so in a different sense does the religion of the white men. We have our thoughts, our hopes, and our aspirations. Some of us have roses and crucifixes. All of us have deep in our hearts love, veneration and respect for the sky-pilot-chaplain, if you would rather call him so. To us, sky-pilot, and very truly so, is the man who not only points the way to higher things, but the man who travels with us over the rough road which leads to peace in our innermost selves.

It does not matter of what sect or of what denomination these men may be. On the battlefield there are Anglican clergy, there are Roman Catholic priests, there are ministers of the Presbyterian, the Methodist, the Baptist, and other non-conformist faiths. Creed and doctrine may not part when men are gasping out a dying breath and the last message home. The chaplain carries in his heart his comfort for the man who is facing eternity. We do not want to die. We are all strong and full of life and hope and power of doing. Suddenly we are stricken beyond mortal aid. The chaplain comes in and in a few phrases gives us the password, the sign which adumbrates us to the peaceful Masonry of Christianity. Rough men go "west" with a smile of peace upon their pain-tortured lips if the padre can reach them in time for the parting word, the cheerful colloquial "best of luck."

Does the padre come to us and sanctimoniously pronounce our eternal doom should he hear us swear? The clergyman, the minister of old time, is down and out when he reaches the battlefields of France. No staid tracts are handed to us, no whining, and groaning, no morbid comments on the possibility of eternal damnation. No, the chaplain of to-day is a real man, maybe he always was. I don't know. A man who risks his life as we do who are in the fighting line. He has sermons, talks, addresses, but he never preaches. He practices all the time.
Out of this war there will come a new religion. It won't be a sin any more to sing rag-time Sunday, as it was in the days of my childhood, it won't be a sin to play a game on Sunday. After church parades in France we rushed to the playing fields behind the lines, and many a time I've seen the chaplain umpire the ball game. Many a time I've seen him take a hand in a friendly game of poker.

The man who goes to France to-day will come back with a broadened mind, he'll be a chaplain or be a fighter. There is no room for narrowness, for dogma, or for the tenets of old-time theology. This is a man-size business and in every department men are meeting the situation as real men should.

Hard to hand with the chaplains at the front is the Y. M. C. A. It is doing a marvelous work among the troops. The Y. M. C. A. huts are scattered all over the fighting line. Little coats of engaged in the real "white-sleeve" religion of the trenches. Here there are all possible comforts. In little luxuries for the boys. Here are concerts - the best and best known artists come out and give their services to cheer up Tommy.
Here the padre will hold five or six services an evening for the six of the five or six fellows but whom you can attend. Here are checker boards, chess sets, cards, games of all sorts. Here is a miniature department store where foot-clothes, mouth organs, pins, needles, buttons, cotton, everything can be bought.
What's the phrase with the red "single"? "asked the Irish soldier later joined up and lately out, from a Scotch-Canadian who stood near by.
"You? D'ye mean to say ya dinnit know the meaning of you? Why mon, you're the place whair ye get a packet of rags, a bar of six inch soap, a soft drink and salvation for 25 cents.
Yes, we get all that in the Y. M. C. A. hut where the padre tells and the boys sweat day and night for the well-being of the soldier men. In some of the huts it is actually possible to get a bath. It is always possible to get dry.

NONE KILLED BY MACHINE GUN IN QUEBEC OUTBREAK
Stray Bullets From Rifles Caused Bloodshed, Says Militia Commander

Quebec Que., April 10.—Major G. E. Rogers, Toronto, who had charge of the militia in St. Roch on the night of the riot, Monday, April 1, was the main witness to-day at the coroner's inquest into the death of the four civilians killed during the clash between the mob and the militia.
He explained that he had 1180 men under his command that night with ten machine guns stationed here and there throughout the riot zone.

He said only one of the machine guns was fired, and that was in St. Sauveur near Bagot street, where the four civilians were killed. He says it worked barely a few seconds and that about thirty-six bullets were fired from its muzzle.
Witness also stated that the riot act was read about nine that night near the Jacques Cartier Market Place by Captain Halkins. He says Captain Hastings read the Riot Act by heart, both in French and English. He said he had received orders to subdue the trouble as much as possible by the presence of the troops and to fire among the crowd at the very latest possible moment, to prevent, if possible, any blood shed. His special mission that night was to prevent the holding of a grand Lavalogue's anniversary meeting and to prevent any groups from gathering.

Major Rodgers then related how he saw the mob shoot against the houses from behind posts and also from a hiding place behind the cab stand at the corner of St. Joseph, St. Valerie and Bagot streets.
It was then, the riot growing to a high pitch of activity, that he himself ordered the machine gun brought to the fore, backed against a stone wall. He ordered his men to fire the machine gun, but just a few seconds, enough to scare the mob away. He says the machine gun barked a mere second or two, firing at the most, thirty-six bullets.

The major added that he was positive the machine gun hit no one, that all those who were hit were touched by stray bullets.
Questioned by Armand Lavergne, attorney for families of some of the victims, Major Rodgers said that all the soldiers who helped quell the riots in Quebec City were drafted, none of them having seen fire at the front. He said that some of the officers, however, were returned from the front.

Joseph Tremblay, cousin of Edward Tremblay, one of the victims, testified that they went to Jacques Cartier Square to attend Lavergne's meeting, and that finding the meeting was cancelled, walked along St. Joseph street. He says he remembers reading the notices in the press, ordering citizens to desist from forming groups, but that he never thought the military would enforce the orders to such an extent.

GOODWIN SUED FOR DIVORCE
Fifth Wife Seeks Separation From Noted American Actor

New York, April 11.—Mrs. M. C. Goodwin, the fifth, who was Miss Margaret Moreland before she became the wife of the star of "Why Marry?" now at the Astor Theatre, has begun an action for absolute divorce.
The summons complaint and affidavit of service were filed in New York City on March 14 last by Max D. Steiner, lawyer for the latest Mrs. Goodwin.

Although the papers were filed so long ago, and the summons is reliably said to have been served on Nat in his dressing room on March 4, no authentic word of the suit has been made public till now.
"Nothing in it," Mr. Goodwin said. "When I saw Mrs. Goodwin two nights ago we dined together. She was very amicable then. I will admit she isn't living with me now. But the truth is we don't do it in the same places. She likes subdued lights and rummy staircases and all that sort of thing. And I don't."

He also said that his second and third marriages were errors, while his fourth was a catastrophe. This is the fourth divorce suit that has popped into Mr. Goodwin's life. He and Miss Moreland, who had been his leading woman, were married at Santa Monica, Cal., May 24th 1912.
Mrs. Goodwin, No. 5, asks, was learned, for reasonable and suitable provision for her support and for rest of her life.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready to use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyn's Sage and Sulphur Compound." It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply misten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the grey hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyn's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also protects that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire a more youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

PROTEST AGAINST LANDING OF JAPS
Russ Indignation Roused; "Interference in Domestic Affairs" Charged

Moscow, April 9.—(By the Associated Press)—A protest against the landing of Japanese armed forces at Vladivostok has been sent to the Japanese Consul there by a committee representing the All Siberian Soviets.
The protest says that the feeling of indignation among the Russian masses caused by the landing has been intensified by the statement issued by Admiral Kato, the Japanese commander. It is stated that Japanese participation in the civil war at Vladivostok are in danger and the declaration is made that the landing is an interference in domestic affairs similar to the Japanese participation in the civil war at Blagovestensk, in the Amur province, where the Japanese are charged with having taken up arms against the authority of the Soviet.

The murder of Japanese at Vladivostok, it is said, was clearly of a provocative character and cannot be charged to the legal authorities.

THE submarines go subbing forth, manned by heroes as they journey east and west and north and don't come back again. The Kaiser sees his costly boats go sailing from his shores; but something frightful gets their goals, and they come back no more. There is a hole the Kaiser sighs, "somewhere beneath the sea; there U-boats go, no more to rise, alas, and woe is me! When first my U-boat grates was sprung, I called for volunteers; the chosen seamen then gave tongue to loud and happy cheers. They sailed away to break and burst old Britain's power and might; ach, schweitzerknecht and liverwurst! who are my boys tonight? And when to save the Fatherland I now ask volunteers, I'm fain to sailer lifts a willing hand—"I'm fain to save the Fatherland, and I'm afraid of that great hole, somewhere beneath the sea!" And still the Kaiser's U-boats go, by crews reluctant manned; and some grim monster, down below, is seeing that they're canned.
