THE HERALD

WEDNESDAY, JULY 21, 1886

A Word With the "Patriot"

To charge the HERALD with being a mendacious sheet comes with a particularly good grace from a paper which, day after day, is convicted by its contemporaries of the most atrocious and willful falsehoods...

The Editor of the Patriot says that he has neither part nor lot in the doings of the Orange Society...

With respect to the whole circular business, we are all of opinion that it was originated with the Tories...

None so blind as those who will not see. We ask the Patriot who were the authors and promoters of the "Political Platform"?

When will our citizens awake from their lethargy and return men to the Council Board who have some sense of the responsibility incumbent upon them as guardians of the city's interests?

Elsewhere today, we publish the letter of Mr. C. A. McPhail, to which we alluded last week...

Whether the Toronto Sentinel is the official organ of the Orange institution, is a question upon which we possess no information...

Mr. McPhail makes the bold assertion that the "Facts for Protestant Electors" were printed and distributed by Tories...

Civic Matters

Now that it has been decided which political party is to rule the destinies of the Island for the next four years, it may not be amiss for our citizens to turn their attention to civic affairs and enquire how they are being governed...

Mr. McPhail denies that the Protestant Union is the official organ of the Orange institution. Whether this is so or not, the fact remains that it has occupied the attention of the Grand Lodge to a very considerable extent...

That it is the opinion of this Grand Lodge that it is absolutely necessary that the Protestant Union newspaper be determined and energetically supported by the Order throughout the Province...

The entire field of barley at Glyndole farm is a level as a floor, running from 4 feet 9 inches to 5 feet in height. You can hear this for 2 months old barley—Examiner.

We had the pleasure of a call last week from Mr. James Davison, M. P. Thom, Pictou Co., N. S., father of the proprietor of the Rankin House. Mr. Davison is a splendid specimen of physical manhood, and displays his strong conservative sense in adhering firmly to the principles of the great Liberal-Conservative party. This is his second visit to the Island, and he expresses himself greatly pleased with what he has observed, as also with the kindness and attention which have been shown him.

At a meeting of the St. Charles C. T. A. and B. Society of Summerside, on Sunday last, the following members were elected officers for the ensuing year: Charles Murphy, President; M. A. McInnes, 1st Vice-President; Patrick J. Flaherty, 2nd Vice-President; W. Wickham, Treasurer; John E. Strong, Recording Secretary; J. J. Gaffney, Corresponding Secretary; Jas. Hickey, Sergeant-at-Arms; John Shaw, Marshal; Walter Harrington, Librarian; A. Wedge, Assistant Librarian. Committee—Peter Gillis, George A. Kelly, John Shea, John Creighton, A. J. McInnes, D. McKinnon, S. J. Cameron, Patrick Ryan. Auditing Committee—A. J. McInnes and J. Gaffney.

The Excelsior Dramatic Club of Summerside gave an entertainment at the Market Hall of that town on the evening of July 2nd. The attendance, owing to the Salvation Army Umbrella procession and other attractions, was poor. The fair present expressed themselves as highly pleased with the performance, the leading features of which were Mr. Watson Clark's Dutch and Negro impersonations, Mr. James Hickey's Irish comicalities, the singing of Messrs. McInnes, McInnes and Kenney; Mr. W. S. Bowens' Tomboleso Solo, Mr. J. E. Wright's recitation of "Eugene Aram's Dream," and the music by the (orchestra). The same programme was reported in Kensington Hall a week later, on the 9th inst., to a very fair audience, who pronounced the concert to have been the best ever given in Kensington. Here, as in Summerside, Messrs. Clark and Hickey brought down the house by their comical recitations of the farce "Sicario Trigo." The only thing that marred the evening's enjoyment was the conduct of the Kensington holdovers, who assembled en masse around the hall, forced open the windows, tore down the blinds, threw stones and other missiles into the hall, and kept up a continual howl during the entire performance. As a result of the two concerts the club found themselves financially in the same position as when they organized, some four months ago, and having achieved all the glory they could bear up under.

The seed from which this barley was grown was imported from Canada last spring, and planted on the 14th May. The entire field of barley at Glenwood farm is as level as a floor, running from 4 feet 9 inches to 5 ft. in height. Who can beat this for 2 months old barley?—Examiner.

We had the pleasure of a call last week from Mr. Angus Davies of Mount Thom, Pictou Co., N. S., father of the proprietor of the Rankin House. Mr. Davies is a splendid specimen of physical manhood, and displays his strong common sense in adhering firmly to the principles of the great Liberal-Conservative party. This is his second visit to the island, and he expresses himself greatly pleased with what he has observed, as also with the kindness and attention which have been shown him.

At a meeting of the St. Charles C. E. A. and B. Society of Summerside, on Sunday last, the following members were elected officers for the ensuing year: Charles Murphy, President; M. A. The Excelsior Dramatic Club of Summerside gave an entertainment in the Market Hall of that town on the evening of July 20th. The attendance, owing to the Salvation Army Umbrella procession and other attractions, was poor. The few present expressed themselves as highly pleased with the performance, the leading features of which were Mr. Watson Clark's Dutch and Negro impersonations, Mr. James Hickey's Irish comic songs, the singing of Messrs. McInnis, McInnis and Kenny; Mr. W. R. Brown's Trombone Solo, Mr. J. E. Wright's recitation of "Eugene Aram's Dream," and the music by the orchestra. The same programme was repeated in Kensington Hall a week later, on the 9th inst., to a very fair audience, who pronounced the concert to have been the best ever given in Kensington. Here, as in Summerside, Messrs. Clark and Hickey brought down the house by their comical recitation of the farce "Blanche Trine." The only thing that spoiled the evening's enjoyment was the concert of the Kensington hoodlums, who assembled as usual.

THE "ISIS" MYSTERY

By LEON LEWIS.

CHAPTER IV.—[CONTINUED.]

But I have often told you, Mr. Ryell, that I must respond to you now, Mr. Ryell, as I have so often declared to her, that her love is not essential—that it does not matter. ...

... that day to this not another word had been heard about her. ...

... 'I accept your proposal, Mr. Ryell, with all my heart. ...

... 'I am not a man of great fortune, but I am a man of great spirit. ...

... 'I am not a man of great fortune, but I am a man of great spirit. ...

... 'I am not a man of great fortune, but I am a man of great spirit. ...
