HALF A DOZEN NEW GRAIN ROUTES AND MANY ELEVATORS WILL FACILITATE THE MOVEMENT OF CANADA'S MAMMOTH CROP

Brain Crop Must Quadruple Within the Next Few Years to Keep Pace With What is Being Done to Store and Transport It.

Much of It Will go Out to the World West Over Several New Roads and the Panama Canal, or East by Lake and Rail, or Hudson Bay.

Three Terminal Elevators and Many Co-operative Elevators to Be Built in Alberta; Saskatchewan Will Build 100 Elevators This Season.

Within another year the problem of transportation for western Canada has been to some extent solved. The much more satisfactory than at present. The old cry for cars for shipping out of the grain, or about grain, or cars sailed at various points, will have been largely dispensed with. The sudden growth of grain-crop is such that a quadrupling of the means of shipment is not sufficient to carry it out of the country. It may well happen in the order of things that the means of shipment will come the greater means of it. This will remove all the old grievances of the wheat, blockades, standing in the stocks and, by the time the harvest is over and the wheat all threshed, there will be an abundance of eager hands to remove it. The means of shipment will be the means of the many shipping points, where it may proceed in its course across the sea.

Panama Canal Route.
The Panama Canal on which the eyes of all the world are for the moment centered will be open by this time. The west of Canada, at times taken a keen interest in this great venture, made by the means of the south and has always been a hope that the route from the furthest west of the prairie province would be taken advantage of so that wheat would go hence direct to the coast and hence through the great canal to the European continent.

There are now three routes to the coast through to the east and the grade has been such that hauling of heavy loads was almost impossible. With two new roads nearing completion both with lower grades and will be an easy haul all the way. The premier road has been in the course of completion for some time, and as a result the tracks through the mountains on the Canadian Pacific road will not only be completed but will be constructed this summer a tunnel which will greatly facilitate the haulage through Vancouver and will make the traffic over the Rockies much simpler.

Bread Wrapping Bylaw to be Enforced; Summonses Will be Issued at Once Against All Bakers Not Complying

Following the dismissal by Justice Walsh for a writ of certiorari to quash the bread bylaw, instituted by Dr. Peacock on behalf of his client, J. W. Shelley, action is being taken by Dr. Mahood, medical health officer, for the rigid enforcement of the bylaw. Yesterday afternoon he communicated with Chief Cuddy on the matter, and summonses will be issued against all bakers who do not immediately comply with the regulation.

Court Upholds City Bread Bylaw; All Loaves Must be Wrapped Up

Judge Walsh Dismisses Action Brought to Quash Bylaw by Shelley's Bakery; Says the Bylaw is Reasonable

Mr. Justice Walsh has dismissed the motion for writ of certiorari to quash the judgment of Magistrate Sanders upholding the bread bylaw of the city of Calgary, calling for the wrapping of all bread when placed for sale in the city. The appeal arose from the decision given by the magistrate on January 24, when he fined J. W. Shelley, of the Shelley Bakery company, the sum of $1 for failing to have his bread wrapped. The case was regarded in the light of a test case for the enforcement of the bylaw which had been passed by the city in October. The appeal was made on the ground that the bylaw was ultra vires of the city council.

The learned judge, who heard arguments of counsel in the appeal in his court last week, now finds that the bylaw is within the powers of the city and must be upheld and observed by all bakers in the city. In giving judgment, he dismissed the action with costs. Mr. B. Peacock appeared for Shelley, and D. S. Moffatt for the city of Calgary.

COURT UPHOLDS CITY BREAD BYLAW

Of Dominion legislation. No authority was quoted to me in support of this argument. The bylaw was passed under sec. 117 sub sec. 19 of the city charter which gives the city power to pass bylaws for the health of the city and against the spreading of contagious or infectious diseases. The right of the legislature to confer this power upon the city is not questioned. If the aim of the bylaw is as it purports to be to provide for the health of the city, the mere fact that it applies to men who are engaged in trade and commerce and that it incidentally affects their business cannot, without more, render the bylaw relating to trade and commerce.

TENSION ARISING OVER THE FATE OF SCUTARI IS BEING LOOSENED, BUT DANGER NOT PASSED

London, May 1.—No date has yet been fixed for the re-assembling of the peace conference at London, but the powers are urging Turkey and the Balkan allies to send their delegates as quickly as possible in the belief that the conclusion of peace will result from the settlement of other problems. Also the tension arising over the fate of Scutari has been loosened, the danger is not passed. It is understood that Montenegro is willing to evacuate that town on condition that the compensation be allowed, but Austria heretofore has insisted on unconditional evacuation and if she still persists in this attitude, a peaceful arrangement will hardly be possible. The Austrian emperor has summoned an extraordinary congress for tomorrow, which will include the premiers and war ministers of both Austria and Hungary.

WINNIPEG WHEAT.

Winnipeg, Man., May 2.—The wheat market was dull and quiet and trading light in options, with prices lower on the Liverpool cables. Following the opening there was a further drop of 1-8 to 1-4c. May and July. About noon there was a decided rally from low points, on rumors that Montenegro had declined definitely to evacuate Scutari. Winnipeg opened 5-8c to 1-2c lower and closed unchanged to 1-8c lower at the opening, following which American markets were 1-2c to 5-8c lower at the opening, following which there was a further decline. Noaring the close there was a partial recovery, but not sufficient to restate the decline. Minneapolis closed 1-2c to 1-8c lower and closed 1-4c to 1-2c lower than Thursday. Chicago opened 1-2c to 5-8c lower and closed 1-4c to 1-2c lower than Thursday. Liverpool's closing cables were 2-4c to 7-8c lower; Berlin, 1-8c lower; Huda Pest, 1c lower; while there was no comparison given for Paris and Antwerp. The cash demand at Winnipeg was good for all grades, while offerings were fairly plentiful and export business quiet prices being out of line. Cash prices were 1-2c to 1-4c lower, oats and flax were both weaker.

DESPICABLE DOLLAR DIPLOMACY

No sane person will say that the attitude of the Great Powers towards the youthful Chinese republic does them the least credit. The softest term to use is that it is utterly and shamefully disgraceful, and has reflected discredit more particularly upon the three great democratic peoples, viz., Great Britain, France and the United States of America.

Editorial Notes

Though there was much of the information at the meeting of the Board of Trade which was misleading and the conclusions were far from the mark there was some criticism which was not without value. The comment upon the work of the Industrial Bureau, much as we all regret to say it, was not without justification. It is possible that the bureau is working under difficulties at the present time, but it is even more certain that the results are not as great as the citizens had expected and no fraction of what the bureau promised.

City's Credit Better Than Other Western Cities

Mayor Insists That Difficulty is Due Entirely to Attitude of Bank

"The city's credit is good. There is really no cause for all the criticism which is being made just now," said Mayor Sminot yesterday, when he was asked how the resolution passed by the board of trade had appealed to his judgment.

"EQUAL WORK AND EQUAL PAY."
Address to Suffrage Society by Miss Coutts; Tribute to the Late Dr. Amelia Yeomans.

That woman had been taught to consider herself the inferior of man for so long, and not having chosen the various fields of industry now open to her, so much as remaining, content with their position by economic conditions, was the reason put forward by Miss Coutts as to why woman is content to accept whatever remuneration her employer cares to give her for her services.
In a very able manner Miss Coutts addressed the Calgary Women's Suffrage society yesterday afternoon in the Public Library, a large and enthusiastic number of women being present.
"Although meekness is an admirable feminine quality," said Miss Coutts, "it can be carried too far, when it becomes allied with 'fear,' and its offspring are selfishness and oppression."
In Miss Coutts' opinion, when a woman depreciates her own value to her employer, she puts before him a temptation which, if he be an exploiter of labor, he finds it hard to resist. On the other side, the sense of injustice which a woman feels who is doing equal work in equal quantity and quality with a male worker, and is yet not receiving equal remuneration, results on the woman and embitters her, making a tremendous loss to society.
"This request of equal work and equal pay is a determined effort to break down artificial fancies," said Miss Coutts.
Continuing, she urged that those women who felt that they could do certain work should go out and do it, even if it lay outside of marriage and home, for when the right man came she knew feminine instinct would be too strong to let them forego their highest sphere.
Miss Coutts spoke of the economic rulers who objected to paying a woman an equal wage lest they turn her mind aside to single blessedness. No such provision, she argued, was made for men. If the idea was that each young man expected to marry some day, and was preparing for this day, she added, so with each woman, and her preparations were often more sane than his.
On the other hand, the woman might be laying by for old age, or assisting her brother through college, or her brother's children through school, or her father because he was too degenerate to help himself. "Why

Dr. H. A. Gibson's Scholarship Result

A unique and interesting examination took place in the board room of the Public Library last evening, for Dr. H. A. Gibson's scholarship in Social History. The examination was divided into three general divisions, the industrial, and social history of England, France and Germany throughout the nineteenth century, as well as the contemporary situation in those countries.

The question put to the candidates by Professor Eastman demanded a thorough knowledge of the work, and covered wide reading and thoughtful consideration of facts presented both in lectures and books.

The students examined are to be congratulated on their application to the work as shown by their answers. A group of subject, and ability to express themselves. To those who "took" history a few years ago and to whom history had no personal interest, except as a story, the making of this subject into a live personal issue appealing to, and affecting us all, is a great change and much to be applauded.

The examination consisted of sets of questions tracing the various social changes in their development down the centuries. All the candidates answered exceedingly well, showing admirable knowledge and intelligent appreciation of the questions involved.

The scholarship was awarded to Orrin E. Wright, Mr. Alfred received honorable mention.

Then, in the name of common justice," asked Miss Coutts, "should women be placed under a man, and not be granted the rewards of her labors, even with the idea of not requiring help from the country later on?"

On the conclusion of Miss Coutts' address, some discussion arose as to the conditions of work and pay in Calgary. One member stated that she thought the schools of the city gave equal pay for equal work, irrespective of sex; while two other members challenged the statement, declaring that it was not so, but that men started higher and could reach a greater height of salary than a woman could. With regard to stenographers, another member stated a case of a woman stenographer who, after five years in one office, during which she had created her work and proved her value, attained the princely salary of $85 per month. On talking of leaving she received $5 of a rise, but when she finally left, a boy, several years her junior and without experience in her special line, began with $90 per month. Other cases were mentioned, a question arising as to whether store hands received equal wages without consideration of sex.

Before closing the chairman paid a tribute to the memory of the late Dr. Amelia Yeomans, stating, among other things, that Dr. Yeomans, though out of sight, was not out of thought. She was woman and human, and we were proud to have her one of us," said the chairman. In connection with the Suffrage society, she stated that Dr. Yeomans had done splendid work, and round the growth of the movement her spirit still seemed to hover and give its blessing, as she herself had given it from the Library platform.
The secretary was authorized to tender the sympathy of the society to the relatives of the dear old lady.
A vote of thanks was afterwards tendered Miss Coutts on her really excellent address.

The written examination was held a week ago, and on Wednesday there was an oral examination. Mr. Wright stood first, while Mr. Moseley gained honorable mention, being a good second.

Local Regulation for "Movies" Wanted

"Managers Give Public What It Wants," Says Rev. A. D. McDonald

That local regulation is the one way in which to cope with the moving picture problem, was given as his opinion by Rev. A. D. McDonald yesterday afternoon in the Y.W.C.A.

Addressing a meeting of the committee for dealing with objectionable pictures, Mr. McDonald stated that while the "movies" had a good educational value and made a strong demand on the feet in keeping children away from school and causing them to obtain money by questionable means, the majority of the show was its chief attraction, he said, while many of the films were full of adventure, depicting the exploits of heroes and heroines, and the various managers of Calgary shows, Mr. McDonald stated having written them asking their co-operation in keeping children from attending such shows during school hours, and after 8 p.m., unless accompanied by parents or guardians. From each of the managers he had received a courteous reply and promise of assistance with promises had been fulfilled, many of the shows now posting notices prohibiting children inside during the hours mentioned.

Under local regulations, however, Mr. McDonald said, more than requesting could be done, for then in the event of anyone finding fault with any film, that person would be justified in informing the police who would be legally forced to act in the matter.

The committee, with Mrs. Kerby in the chair, thanked Mr. McDonald and agreed to hold another meeting, the committee meantime to visit all the shows in the city and report on the same.

A letter was read from the convenor of the local in the National Council of Women, asking for notification of progress made by the Local Council's committee here.

At the Theaters

NEXT WEEK'S ATTRACTIONS.

Sherman Grand.

First performance in Calgary of Franz Lehár's famous Viennese operetta, "The Merry Widow," with several members of the original cast and a company of 82 people. Last three nights, with daily matinees. Orpheum vaudeville, offering as a special feature Kathryn Osterman and Louis Simon in a notable musical production, "A Persian Garden." Lyric.

Every night, with usual Wednesday and Saturday matinees. The Toronto Stock Company, presenting the famous old pastoral drama, "Way Down East." Empire.

Every night, including two performances Saturday night. Matinee daily. Pantage's Vaudeville. Change of bill Thursday.

Paget Hall.
Saturday night, at 8:15. Lecture by Elbert Hubbard, the famous author and philosopher. Subject, "Making a Living."

LOCAL STAGE GOSSIP OF THE WEEK.
The Green Room Club certainly justified its existence this week when it recommended, through the Play-going committee, the bright little farce comedy, "Little Miss Brown." Not in many months has a play received such an enthusiastic reception from local theatre-goers, and yet, notwithstanding the endorsement of the Green Room club, and the enthusiasm aroused on the opening night, the production did not extend in any great volume to the box office, which, after all, is the thermometer in the theatrical business. It seems unfortunate that in two important productions Mr. W. A. Prady has sent us this season "Thought and Paid For" and "Little Miss Brown"—the attendance has been most disappointing, although the standard of the productions in each instance fully justified large audiences at every performance.

"Little Miss Brown" is one of the cleanest and brightest little farce comedies that has ever visited Calgary, and nobody could wish to see a better-balanced company than presented the play here. There is some encouragement in the fact that the audience in attendance at the last performance was the largest of the season, but the attraction received nothing like the patronage it deserved.

"The Merry Widow," the joy of all milliners and modistes and elixir of life to the "tired business man," will be here in all her glory next week, and her appearance promises to be the big amusement event of the month.

The press agent has extolled the wonders of his production, but a few facts about the composer of this famous operetta may not be amiss at this particular time, in order that the credit may be given where it belongs.

For a man who has written so world sweeping a success as "The Merry Widow," little is known in this country about Franz Lehár. He was born in 1870 at Komorn, which is a royal free city of Hungary, and he calls himself a child of the knapsack.

Lehár was just 25 when he composed "The Merry Widow," which had its production at the Theatre an der Wien in Vienna, along with a few dozen other operettas. Certain Viennese theatres had a habit of producing operettas very rapidly one after the other, giving to each a two weeks' run, and "The Merry Widow" got its premiere along with many commonplace works in this fashion.

When Lehár was composing "The Merry Widow," Leo Stein, who was the author of the book, found endless fault with the composer of this famous operetta, but he was not to be deterred. "This waltz has no movement at all," or "Is this a military or funeral march air?" Stein was a dilettant with a reputation—Lehár was little known.

Lehár is so modest as almost to be devoid of personality in the sense of being unusual, striking, interesting. Two striking facts that are little known in this country are that Lehár started writing first not operetta, but grand opera. With these ambitious undertakings he had no success. So he dropped into the less pretentious work and great has been his reward. Another fact that should interest Americans is that Dvorak, the composer, was the man who advised Lehár to become a composer. Lehár tells of this as follows:

"My mother often told me that I always could find a four-year-old boy to each melody the right accompaniment on a piano. I composed my first song at six years, and dedicated it to my mother. When 11 years old I left the house of my parents to study at a German gymnasium at Sternberg.

It very often happened that I faint-ed in the streets from hunger, but as my mother visited me once in Prague, I had the courage not to complain.

"My director observed that I neglected my violin, and he recommended to me to study with Dvorak. In 1887 I submitted to Dvorak two compositions, "Sonata in Antique" in G major and "Sonata in Antique" in D minor.

"Dvorak looked at the work and said: 'Hang your fiddle on a nail and write a composition.' This was spoken out of the soul, but my father insisted that I become a first-class violinist.

"Weber said once: 'The first dogs and the first operas belong in the water.' This also refers to my first opera. In April, 1894, I was musical director of the Austrian navy band and conducted a concert for Emperor William II, who expressed great satisfaction. On November 25, 1896, my opera "Kukuska," later called "Tatiana," was produced for the first time in Leipzig, but was no success.

"I had to give up my position as conductor of the navy band on account of financial difficulties, and had to take my jewels to the pawnshop. I accepted a position as conductor in Trieste. I was sick and tired of composing operas, and now started composing operettas. With this I had more luck, but about this some other time."

It was a happy thought which prompted the Calgary-Hamilton Old Boys' club to extend some social courtesies to Mr. Charles Meakin, the leading tenor with "The Merry Widow" company. Mr. Meakin was for many years a rule and a law to the Calgary Paper company, and now started composing operettas. With this I had more luck, but about this some other time."

Mr. Meakin was for many years a rule and a law to the Calgary Paper company, and now started composing operettas. With this I had more luck, but about this some other time."

"Handkerchief No. 15" is the title of a very funny sketch put across by Frederick Bond and Fremont Bennett, a splendid pair of entertainers. Ever since the day of Adam—who had no mother-in-law—the august personage has been the butt of humor, some good natured, some distinctly otherwise, and it has remained for this team to devise a new method of producing humor with her.

Joe Jackson has travelled all over the civilized globe gathering material for his act, in which he presents many fine characterizations, the best of which is wherein he appears as a hobo bicyclist. His act has but one purpose, and that is to amuse, and Joe's batting average is just about 1,000, or about 800 better than his famous Cleveland namesake.

"A Song Sketch at the Piano" is the very appropriate title that has been chosen by Eunice Burnham and Charles Irwin for their musical presentation. In addition to being a finished pianist, Miss Burnham is a splendid comedienne. Miss Burnham will also be remembered by many devotees of vaudeville as a member of the team of Burnham and Greenwood; while Mr. Irwin, an ex-officer of the English army, is making his first tour of the leading English colony.

Louis London is a famous singer of character songs, having been associated in musical comedy with such stars as Eddie Foy and James T. Powers. He is one of the latest acquisitions to the ranks of vaudeville, and has a number of songs to which he has secured the exclusive rights.

Montambo and Wells are acrobats first and humorists afterwards. While the comedy element predominates the greater part of their stunts, there are some that they have to go about in a very serious manner, so startling are they.

BURNS' BOXING MATCH PROMOTING GAME ONLY LESS ATTENDANCE IS BETTER

Seven Hundred Dollars Was Dropped on Thursday's Contest—Promoter Is Less Than Thousand Dollars Ahead After Eight Months of Boxing.

(By Joe F. Price.)
"I feel like quitting altogether. I don't know but what I will," it was Tommy Burns who said this yesterday after he had checked up the past-board which was taken at the double-headed boxing which was staged on Thursday night at the Monarch Arena. The net receipts of the affair were $1462, the expenditures were $585. Leaving a balance on the wrong side of the column of $701. Not very encouraging, eh?
After eight months of promoting the boxing game in Calgary Tommy Burns finds himself with a deficit of $585. In addition to promoting the famous taking chances and acting as referee, Burns has participated in one battle himself.

A great many people in Calgary have the idea that Burns is a professional thing of it in this promoting game, but all is not gold that glitters no more in any boxing game, money-making affairs. There are a thousand and one sources connected with the boxing show, of which the ordinary individual has no conception.
Thursday's Disappointing. The crowd on Thursday night was a great disappointment. For some reason or other the people were not there. A great many fans preferred to take the statement of a sportsman's journal that Burns was a professional to Calgary in preference to the judgment of Tommy Burns who is the very angle of the game and the result was that a mere corporals guard was on hand on Thursday night when the best boxing program ever staged in Canada was held.
Right now Burns is thinking seriously of quitting the game, in fact, yesterday he wired to McCarty not to leave Philadelphia until he heard from him.
The expenses of Thursday night's bout were just about the average for any contest. At the very least the expenses connected with the proposed McCarty contests will be $7,500. Is it any wonder that Burns is hesitating about his venture into the ring?
The writer has no love to lose. He will be no money out of pocket if the boxing game continues or not. He has written purely as an explanation of the facts of the case. The boxing game from the promoting standpoint at this minute, is on the verge of being abandoned by the present promoter and the reason is the poor attendance and the ingratitude of the fans. The writer is convinced that Tommy Burns has made an earnest effort to open up the game in Calgary and conduct it properly, principally because he wanted it to be one of the best sports. Naturally he does not feel like working for nothing and he would not be surprised if he were to lose his money. In addition, it is a legitimate business proposition and should yield a legitimate profit. But it is not so yet and principally because the fans have not been interested in the promoter was getting the big end of it. If these spectators ones will remember that at the very least he is getting fifty per cent. of the gate receipts when they are working on percentage. It is hard to get boxes and a percentage. In fact, only once has a bout been held in the Monarch Arena when the boxes did not get a guarantee that their end of the purse would not be less than a certain amount.

BIG LEAGUE BASEBALL WESTERN CANADA COLLEGE BEAT HI BOYS

In First School Lacrosse Game of the Season—The Score Was 4 to 1.

Western Canada College won the first game of the local intercollegiate lacrosse series yesterday afternoon from the High School team by the score of 4-1. Cappy Smart accompanied by a number of other prominent officials journeyed out to the college grounds in an auto to see the boys' workout. Cappy performed his usual little stunt of facing-off the ball at the onset of the game.
Although there are only two schools playing lacrosse this spring, Mount Royal having dropped the national game, it can be expected some very closely contested matches will be played throughout the series.
Jimmy Sewell acted as referee, giving satisfaction to everyone on the field.
The line-up was as follows:
W. C. C. Wier, goal; McComb, point; Carter, c. point; West, 1st defence; Macpherson, 2nd defence; McTavish, 3rd defence; Mitchell, centre; Lusker, 3rd home; McKenna, 2nd home; Dobbin, 1st home; Hokes, outside home; Chambers, inside home.
C. C. L. Williams, goal; Fraser, point; Kavanaugh, c. point; Shearer, 1st defence; Cornett, 2nd defence; Brydon, 3rd defence; Low, centre; Wright, 2nd home; Carr, 1st home; Bass, 1st home; Stuckey, outside home; Carlsen, inside home.

CRICKET.

The Calgary Cricket club will have the first real practice of the season on the barracks grounds this afternoon. The managers hope to have a good crowd out that a real game may be played. The first match of the season will be played next Saturday. The regular practice nights are on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, from 8 o'clock until dark. The club is looking for other grounds and after this season will probably play on the barracks grounds. The barracks grounds will be used for this season.

HAYNES IS SATISFIED

Calgary, May 2, 1913.
Sporting Editor, Morning Albertan.
Please publish that I am going back to Swift Current satisfied, and had been given time to train, you would have seen a faster bout. Tommy Hanson is a clean fighter and should hold his own with any of them of his weight. I throw an open challenge to any bantamweights in Canada, preferring Tommy Hudson of Windsor, who claims the title.
Hoping I will be in action here again with some of my weight.
I am,
KID HAYNES.

SOME LIVE LACROSSE TALK FROM COAST

(By V. E. Andrew.)

New Westminster, B. C., May 2.—If ever there was a man who hoped and prayed that New Westminster would fall into the with Vancouver and Victoria as to the national lacrosse commission idea at the meeting of the B.C.L.A. held last Monday, that man was Con Jones.
The manager of the Vancouver team is at the moment time thanking his lucky stars that the crisis was passed last Monday for had a break occurred that day a new manager and a new team would have been formed in Vancouver the following day which would have left Jones standing out in the cold and his lacrosse commission, the only thing he had left to remind him that he was once the greatest lacrosse man that ever came out of the golden west.
Back of this proposed new team was no other person than Matt Barr, who until a few months ago, was the close friend in lacrosse of Conard Jones. Matt was the chief adviser of Jones. It was he who was sent over to New Westminster time and again in order to patch up the tangles caused by the hot-headed work of Jones. It was he who would be seen with Jones board the Imperial Limited for the east every spring preparing to raid the N. L.U. and Big Four of their best players.
Times have changed during the past few months. Ascribing his reason for being out of lacrosse to the fact that he has built a summer cottage on Howe Sound and intends to spend his week ends with his family there, Matthew Barr has been the dark horse.
The truth of the matter is that he is through with Jones for keeps. It would not be surprising to see the former friend of Jones sitting in the private lacrosse box of the New Westminster club during the progress of the games played in the Royal City this season.
Well, any way, a deep, dark plot was discovered by Jones early Monday morning, the day the league meeting was held.
It was to the effect that Matt Barr had met the Bohines, of the Toronto, one of the best lacrosse players on the Vancouver team last season, were working to field an entirely new team in Vancouver. Leaving Con Jones standing outside the breakwaters.
Everything had been quietly arranged. The players whom Jones figured on signing-up for this season were all agreeable to join the new club while Manager Gifford was all for the good with the idea, for he would sponsor work with Barr than anyone else on the coast.
Con Jones realized he was up against tough proposition. He knew that Matt Barr had the necessary cash and that he holds such a position in Vancouver, being the head of well known hardware firm that sufficient capital would be forthcoming to back a new team. He was willing to give New

Ty Cobb Now Back in Good Graces of the American Baseball League

His Reinstatement Marks the Close of One of the Biggest Publicity Campaigns Ever Conducted in Baseball; Why Tyrus Demanded His $15,000

Ty Cobb has just completed one of the biggest publicity campaigns in the history of baseball, with the possible exception of Frank Chance's feat which was a less than a year ago. Cobb has been in the news for the past few months. He has been "reprimanded" for his action in holding out but all this representing effort is just meant for the covers of the club.
Tyrus proved that he was in the same class as the Nelson when standing advertising and he also proved that it pays to advertise when the boxes do not get a guarantee that their end of the purse would not be less than a certain amount.

Tyrus proved that he was in the same class as the Nelson when standing advertising and he also proved that it pays to advertise when the boxes do not get a guarantee that their end of the purse would not be less than a certain amount.

IN THE THOUSANDS

Immigration Agent Says Most Settlers Are Coming to the Most Westerly of the Prairie Provinces

During the past week fully 7,000 of the immigrants who have come to Canada have made their way out west beyond Winnipeg and most of them have taken up their homes in Alberta. This was the statement of J. H. Black, an immigration agent from Winnipeg, who was in Calgary yesterday and who has recently made a tour of the old country and Europe examining conditions there. Mr. Black says that the majority will in the future come to Alberta. There are so many homesteads still to be taken up in this province and such a great and vast fertile country to the north, which will hold thousands and thousands more settlers that Alberta is the "province of the future." Mr. Black thinks that not only Britain but also the continental countries like Scandinavia, France, Russia and Germany will send large numbers of settlers in the next few years.

CALGARY MAY GET RAILWAY CONVENTION

Industrial Bureau Gives Invitation to Railway Development Men to Meet Here in May, 1914

Another convention may be secured for Calgary in 1914. Yesterday an special meeting of the executive of the Industrial Bureau held at noon, it was agreed to extend to the Railway Development Association an invitation to hold its May conference here next year. This was done at the invitation of Mr. J. H. Black, commissioner of the Canadian Pacific railway. This association is composed of the industrial commissioners of the railways in the United States and Canada and it holds two meetings every year—in May and November. The coming of this conference to Calgary will be a great affair for the city and will bring more publicity to Calgary than many of the larger conventions.

CALGARY BUILDERS WANT HOME SUPPORT

Say Many Contracts Are Being Passed Over Their Heads to Firms from Outside; Seek Some Remedy

The movement on the part of the members of the builders' exchange to stir up feeling among the contractors of the city is attracting considerable attention. The exchange is being formed by a conference between members of the exchange and it is being formed in the matter of the city. It is possible of the work done in the city is given to contractors from outside points. The builders of Calgary have a grievance and it is being voiced by president Brockbank, at the board of trade meeting on May 2. He said that many of the big works of the city they are not asked to tender, while other firms are asked to tender. This is explained by some as being due to the fact that on many pieces of work outsiders can tender at a lower price and also guarantee better work. "Charles Meskins is one of the many Hamilton boys who has made good in the theatrical profession, and the local club is glad of the opportunity to do him honor. The Old Boys will occupy special reserved seats on Monday night, all information can be secured from the secretary, Mr. M. M. Barr, telephone M. 1318, or Mr. W. R. Pope, telephone M. 3392.

On the Street

Thomas Wallace, an Old Timer, Expired Suddenly Yesterday Afternoon

Thomas Wallace, who has for 20 years been a resident of Calgary, died on Third street east, quite suddenly yesterday afternoon, about 2 o'clock. For the past few years he has been employed as a cook by J. Breckenridge. Death was quite instantaneous and before any aid could be brought to him he had passed away. Graham and Thompson's ambulance was summoned and the body was removed to the undertaking rooms. The coroner was notified of the death, but no inquest will be necessary, as the death was due to natural causes. Wallace was well known in the city and was about 40 years of age.

NEW IMMIGRATION OFFICES WILL BE OPENED MAY 15

Opening Will Follow An Inspection By Official of the Immigration Department.

The handsome new immigration offices at the corner of First street east and Tenth avenue are to be formally opened on May 15. The opening will follow a thorough inspection of the building by J. Bruce Walker, commissioner of immigration at Winnipeg, and C. W. Johnson, superintendent of western immigration agencies. Mr. Johnson will, before that time, make arrangements for the furnishing of the building in the most modern style, and the various offices will then be open to inspection by the public. The building will be the largest and best of its kind outside of Winnipeg in Western Canada, and will give full accommodation for newcomers to these parts, while at the same time a thorough study will be made of their needs and requirements, under James Craig, the present superintendent. The work of the department will be carried on with much more comfort and success in these new quarters than has been possible heretofore in the small and cramped offices.

HOMESTEAD ENTRIES

The homestead entries for the district of Calgary for the month of April were 270 which comes pretty near to being a record for the month.
