

FOR BIG BEAR'S BENEFIT.

Nearly Nine Hundred Men Nave Battled For It.

Indignation of the Queen's Own at Edmont... A Letter from Col. Sergt. Cooper.

WINDSOR, June 1.—A despatch from Battleford this afternoon states that Gen. Middleton did not start to the relief of Gen. Strang's unit this morning.

The contingent left in the morning, the Marquis and Northwest and comprised 1,000 men, 250 of whom are of the 27th, Grenadier and 250 of the 10th and 25th battalions and two companies, 60 men.

Boulton's scouts, 60. Denham's scouts, 50; Brittain's (late French) scouts, 50 mounted police also started this morning, but went by the south trail.

The force is expected to reach this side of the Indian position to-night and with Gen. Strang's column on the other side surround the enemy.

The fight is expected on Tuesday. There are only 300 troops at Edmonton, with Col. Oulmes of the 60th in command.

The exact number of men that left Calgary yesterday for Edmonton was 223 with 11,385 tons of supplies. They were escorted by twenty-five men of the 9th battalion under Capt. Dupuis.

Dr. Orton, who has just arrived in the city from being surgeon to the 90th battalion, has in his possession, as souvenirs of the campaign, rebel bullets taken from the bodies of the wounded.

The killed of the 60th. MONTREAL, June 1.—Joseph Marotte, reported killed in the fight with Big Bear, was a resident of St. Lawrence.

He was 23 years of age, and came with his family to this city eight years ago. He was a private in the 60th.

He was a private in the 60th. He was a private in the 60th. He was a private in the 60th.

The Queen's Own Indignant. The following telegram was received here yesterday from an officer of the Queen's Own Rifles:

BATTLEFORD, N. W. T., May 31.—All troops marching against Big Bear except O. R. F., Grenadier and 25th, will be subjected to the treatment.

There is great indignation among members of the Queen's Own at the front and in the city that the four companies now at Battleford were not taken to Edmonton in the expedition against Big Bear.

Private telegrams from Battleford refer to the fact that the Q. O. R. feel that the Government is not doing its duty.

Two possible explanations have been offered. One is that the men who were with him at Battleford were not taken to Edmonton in the expedition against Big Bear.

Another explanation is that the men who were with him at Battleford were not taken to Edmonton in the expedition against Big Bear.

Color-Sergt. Donnelly of the Terrapin is a very interesting letter from the Terrapin World has been permitted to make a few extracts as follows:

I am not able to tell you, and altogether I am a poor helpless mortal. There are fifteen of us poor fellows and we are in a narrow, all-enclosed space.

You have no doubt read a detailed account of the expedition. We got the assistance of a day, May 1st, at which there was great rejoicing and preparation for the start.

ENGLAND'S HUMILIATION.

The Story Told in the Official Papers.

The King of Denmark Signifies His Willingness to Act as Arbitrator—Sir Peter Knudsen's Report.

LONDON, June 1.—A portion of the dispatches relating to the attack by the Russians on the Afghans on March 30 was published. They show that on March 29 Sir Peter Knudsen telegraphed the government that the Russians were moving heaven and earth to get the Afghans to fight and that fighting was certain.

On April 21 he repeated his statement that the attack by Gen. Komaroff was deliberately planned. The subject of arbitration was first proposed by Earl Granville. Declaration was made by the Emperor of Germany would be the only Emperor to arbitrate, and he would refuse. Earl Knudsen stated that the Emperor must consent if asked.

The King of Denmark Will Act. LONDON, June 1.—The news states that it has been definitely agreed between England and Russia to invite the king of Denmark to arbitrate as to the responsibility for the Penjdeh incident, and it is believed his willingness to act.

FAIR TRAFFIC HE COULD NOT KILL. Perry Davis, the Notary Vendor, in an attempt to kill a man, was killed.

PITTSBURGH, June 1.—It has just been discovered that Perry Davis, the originator of the celebrated "pain killer," has for the last fifteen years been an inmate of the Mercer county almshouse. A correspondent on night duty on the 29th of May discovered Davis and came to the United States years ago and at once embarked in the business of manufacturing and selling his medicine.

VICTOR HUGO'S FUNERAL.

An Immense but Orderly Crowd Present.

Grand Orator by M. Plouquet at the Arc de Triomphe—A Number of Red Flags and Revolutionary Emblems Displayed.

Paris, June 1.—Victor Hugo was laid to rest in the Pantheon to-day. Enormous crowds lined the streets forming the route of procession while other masses passed the intersecting street for a great distance on either side.

The police seized several red flags, which were unfurled at the starting point of the revolutionary procession. There has been no serious collision yet. M. Plouquet delivered the principal oration at the Arc de Triomphe. He hailed Victor Hugo as an immortal patriot, who bequeathed to humanity that gospel which could lead the people to the definite conquest of liberty, equality and fraternity.

The pressure of the packed masses of people was trifling to contemplate. Many of the crowd were "in the packs" were seriously crushed.

The obsequies to-day surpassed everything within the memory of the oldest Parisians. Before the procession the police seized and destroyed fifteen red flags. Twelve cars laden with floral garlands preceded the hearse. Besides these floral tributes were carried by various deputations.

Many owners of red flags cut them to pieces and put them out of sight to avoid surrendering them. The crowds in the Place de l'Etoile bore down the long steps leading to the Pantheon. The Arc de Triomphe, and carried away the pieces as trophies.
