What the Passenger Sees,

Along this line of route are spots of interest to all visitors, which many for want of time do not see: St. James' Cathedral, St. Lawrence Hall. All Saints' Church, the Hortiget their spikes on as Harry Ray, an old-time sprinter, is on the track again and it is rumored that he will run for $25 or $50 a side.

Agnes Herndon.

This lady began a week's engagement at Jacobs & Sparrow's Opera House last night in "La Belle Marie." The play is not a happy effort of the playwright's art. In the first place its moral atmosphere is not good, Broadway Methodist Tabernacle, Broadway Hall and its suite of meeting rooms, Cecil-street Disciples' Church, Western Cengre-gational Church, St. Phillips' Anglican Church, Phobe-street Public School, S. Mar-garets' Anglican Church, Government House, St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church. This list shows how convenient the route will be for access by day or night to the places indicated, apart from the host of places of business and thousands of contiguous residences. Yesterday working men crowded the cars morning and night, during the afternoon ladies coming down town to do shopping were the principal occupants. Many were the transfers to the various lines touched in the seven-mile route. Further Changes. Complaint is made by reason of the change from 8 long to 16 short cars on Spadinaavenue. A deputation yesterday waited on the Mayor and City Engineer to complain of the change under which Yonge-street cars no longer call at the market. They were street of the control of the

The city placed two-horse cars on the route on account of the heavy traffic. The large cars were transferred from Church-street, and nights and mornings they were not sufficient for the number of passengers. Now the in-convenience of the smaller cars is severely Bloor-street Cars Run to Dufferin. Yesterday witnessed a consummat resented at the Grand Opera House last which had long been desired in the opening night before a large audience. The play, which has been seen here many times, is so familiar to Toronto theatregoers that it requires no further description. The scenic effects are fairly good, and the many thrill-increments of the street car service in Boor-street to Dufferin-street. For several weeks the track had been ready for the service. It had been a long and expensive work to fill in the hollow and lay the rails. Whilst this was being of the street car service in Bloor-street to Dufferin-street. For several weeks the track had been ready for the service. It had been a long and expensive work to fill in the hollow and lay the rails. Whilst this was being done the cars only ran to Clinton-street. The Bloor-street service has been much appreciated. The ears which run from Sherbourne-street have been well patronized so rne-street have been well patronized s far, and now that the route is extended t Dufferin, the service will be more acceptable

> The Baron and His Trans The case of Earnest Albert Macdonal against the Toronto Street Railway Company came up in the Police Court yesterday and was adjourned until the 22nd at the request of the company's counsel. Mr. Mac-donald wanted a transfer from a King-street car to one which would leave him at the car to one which would leave him at to Union Station. There being no car passin he had to get off. When he got on the othe car he refused to pay fare, and the drive William McBrien, had him ejected. Ma donald now charges McBrien with assault.

Want More Money. The Street Railway Company turned of about 50 men yesterday whom they had kept about the stables during the week of the fair. These men consider they have been unfairly dealt with. They were kept about the stables and told not to leave as they might be wanted any minute. Nevertheless they claim they have only bee paid for the actual time they were driving on the cars. This they think an injustice, and they intend testing the legality. The men will meet at the stables on Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock to discuss what steps should be taken. Another Suggestion, Editor World: In regard to street railway transfers how would this idea work: Use both kinds of tickets now in use and have them in use all day, the eight for 25 cents to be only available for a continuous trip on one line and the six for 25 cents to be used where a transfer is required, the "conductor to be provided with transfer checks some what similar to the one lately printed in The World.

Complaints.

One of The World's Young Men made an afternoon trip on the new route of the Street Railway Company. At King and Yonge-streets he boarded an already crowded car labelled "Sherbourne, Bloor, Spadina, King." The conductor said the crowded state of the car was owing to its being the opening day of the belt-line. Every car had been well filled. It is likely to be a very usual mon.hly meeting at the office of the society on Thiraday, 24th inst., at 4 p.m.

An inquest was held by Coroner Pickering last evening, on the body of an unidentified man whose body was fished from the Don recently. Found drowned was the verdict returned.

W. Mooney was arrested yesterday afternoon as a drunk, but on examination by Dr. Aikins it was ascertained that the poor fellow was sufference in the city.

The instructions to the conductors were more liberal than at first foreshadowed. Passengers were taken on at any part of the extended route and were readily transferred to any passing cars on various routes.

The Belt Line is a pleasant ride. En passant one sees the shops and crowded side walks of King-street; the fine residences in Sherbourne-street, with its trimly-kept gardens and tree-bordered walks; the fashionable quarters of Bloor-street, with its palatial homes; the quiet and eminently respectable ing business houses of Toronto's Broadway.

"Feak and Weeble."

A friend of mine had an odd way of mixing her words. Perfectly unconscious of it, she would often make folks laugh. She would speak of feeling "frak and weeble," for weak and feeble, and "castor ill poils," for castor oil pills. But she was weak and feeble, until she took that powerful invigorating tonic, "Favorite Prescription," which so wonderfully imparts strength to the whole system, and to the womb and its appendages in particular. For overworked women, run-down women, and feeble women generally, Dr. Plerce's Favorite Prescription is unequaled. It is invaluable in allaying and subduing uervous excitability, irritability, exhaustion, prostration, hysteria, spasms and other distressing nervous symptoms, commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease. It induces refreshing sleep "Feak and Weeble."

The tenders for city coal, two in number, were opened. They proved to be identically the same. Ald. Gowanlock moved that Tender No. 2 should be accepted since it was accompanied by cash. C. J. Should it be determined to order an election, however, it is understood that William Creelock will be one of the candidates to fill the vacance.

All other boasted preparations were eschewed and considered as useless. I became somewhat interested, and was curious to know why this should be, and asked the opinion of several draggists of high repute. By them I was told that such a feeling really existed throughout Manitoba, and that Paine's Celery Compound was indeed the great home remedy whenever a reliable medicine was wanted. These druggists spoke to me of most remarkable cures it had effected in their districts, and predicted for it a great future."

The sentiment of the street is in favor of higher prices and there seems to be no reason why such hopes should not be realized. There is a something to the market which sends it up in spite of every effort to hold it back, and all people can do is to join in the procession and get in the swim.

was caused by higher English quotations, 488,000 bushels here, and a rumor that another "hold your wheat" circular is being mailed by lecturers in interest of higher prices. The weak features were lower continental cables, receipts at 12 points over 1,000,000 bushels in excess of shipments. Opinions of speculators are generally divided on a north and south line running through Chicago. East is bullish and long on the market and seems now to be endeavoring to induce farmers to hold back their surplus until Europe digests the shipments already made. Western traders see an unprecedented crop just secured and an increased acreage stimulated by comparatively high prices, and are inclined to sell on every rally to dollar point.
