Chas. Higgins and Anthony Decker, Experts and Ex-Convicts, Caught by Shrewd and Patient Detective Work.

COINTEGRATED OFFERS RUN TO EARTH HAD PLACE IN ARCH ST. OFFICE

Chas. Higgins and Anthony Decker, Experts and Ex-Convicts, Caught by Shrewd and Patient Detective Work.

Col. Perry Sherwood, chief of the Dominion secret service, was in Toronto last Wednesday. He had a conference with Inspector Stark. The result of his visit was the placing under arrest yesterday afternoon of Alfred Rose, alias Anthony Decker, 11 Peter-street.

Charles Higgins, alias Charles Edwards, 254 East Front-street. They are charged with being counterfeiters, of making and uttering coin of the realm.

Both these men have done time before on practically the same charges. Anthony Decker, for instance, under the name of Rose at police headquarters, is the older criminal of the two. He is about 63 years of age, and was convicted on March 16, 1900, at Woodstock, for counterfeiting, and sent to the Kingston Penitentiary for five years. He was liberated on March 15 of this year.

Higgins, under the name of Edwards, was arrested two years ago. He was found guilty of "shoving" a counterfeit $5 Molson's Bank bill. The principal sufferers were merchants on West Queen-street. He disposed of about $200 worth of this "stuff" before he was put away. He was given two years, and his time expired May 17 last.

Caught While at Work. Before Col. Sherwood left Toronto he had an understanding with Inspector Stark. It was the intention then to put out the drag net, but the time was not yet ripe. So it was arranged that Detective Parkinson of Col. Sherwood's staff arrive here on Monday. He came; so did E. R. Carrington of Montreal, the Canadian manager of the Thiel Detective Service Company of Chicago. They saw Inspector Stark and he placed at their disposal Detectives Cuddy, Black, Mackie and Twigg of his staff. They proceeded to make a "raid" on their first visit was made to room 18 in the Cornell Building at 88 Church-street. They found the door locked. The door was forced and Cuddy rushed in and grabbed the only occupant. That was Higgins. They caught him with the goods on him. He was in his shirt sleeves, busy making counterfeit $5 Dominion Canada notes.

The officers also found a press, plates, counterfeiter's outfit, press, plates, stones, acids and all the necessary preparations for turning out a good sample of the "queer," one that would easily deceive the public. There was nothing crude about the work that was being done. They also found a number of bills which were printed on one side only. These expert officers say that the work was as clever, if not better, than any counterfeiting they have come in contact with during their experience. Higgins was locked up and the contents of the room removed to police headquarters.

Prisoners Kept Separated. The next visit was to 11 Peter-street, where Decker was boarding. He had only been there a week, coming from Buffalo, where he had been since he left the "pen." He was arrested and locked up in No. 2 Station, so that he would have no chance of speaking to Higgins, who was in No. 10. His personal effects were also taken to headquarters. In his trunk there was found a plate which looks like a $5 limitation on some bank, but as it was covered with a preparation to protect it, it was not clearly examined last night.

Neither of the prisoners made any statement to the police.

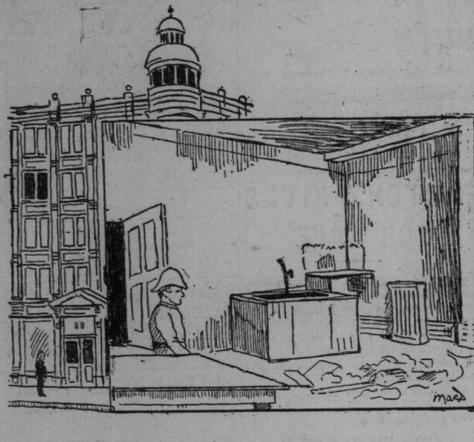

Decker's Career. Decker's first connection with the police, as far as known, resulted in his arraignment five years ago, when he was convicted. This same Detective Parkinson ran down a gang who were flooding the country with counterfeit bills. There was old man Decker, his son Paul, who also got a sentence of five years; Hartz Kuntz of London, whose duty it was to circulate the bad money, got 18 months in the Central; another man, Newberger, a Montreal saloon keeper, who was supposed to be the man who furnished them with living expenses until the "new" money was ready. He was acquitted. Decker was formerly employed as an engraver by the Burdall Lithographing Co., now the British American Bank Note Co.

Two Years on the Trail. It was three Carringtons that Higgins was first arrested. When the Molson Bank people became aware that the counterfeiters on their $5 notes were circulating, they engaged his services. Higgins was only convicted of "shoving" the "phony" money.

When Higgins was arrested then no plates were found, from which the bogus bills had been printed. As far as Carrington knew, these plates were still in existence, and might be used again. At the same time he was not a "tool," but a maker of counterfeit.

The detective has been in the employ of the bank ever since. He now claims that his suspicions of the ex-convict were correct and that Higgins is one of the most expert counterfeiters of these times.

Worked Transferring Process. He can make a duplicate of a bill in 10 hours, and destroy the plate in 10 minutes, if necessary. This is done by a "transferring" process. In Higgins' room at 88 Church-street, five genuine $5 bills were found, which showed that

JAPS CONTINUE TO ADVANCE

Russians Report Many Minor Engagements, All Preliminary to General Clash That is Considered Imminent.

St. Petersburg, June 27.—The general staff has received the following despatch from Lieut.-Gen. Sakharoff, dated June 26:

There is reason to suppose that a considerable force of the enemy proceeded in the direction of the Maotien Pass, northward toward the Chapin Pass. Our patrols on June 25 noticed that the Japanese were beginning to move along the northern Suyen-Kaichow road from Toutsau and Pantaisai, in the direction of Wain Pass.

The enemy on June 25 undertook to advance from Seluchan toward the Liaoyang main road, and also along the road leading to the Maotien Pass, thru Tangputze and Tafangku, 11 miles northwest of Seluchan. A battalion advanced along the Liaoyang main road and a regiment of infantry and two squadrons of cavalry along the valley of the Tso River. A battalion and two squadrons marched westward in the direction of the mountains.

The enemy on the main road was first stopped by two companies of sharpshooters constituting our vanguard. Three stragglers were reinforced by two companies, the enemy at 2.30 in the afternoon occupied Tangputze. The sharpshooters retired north toward Phakhsuan, 22 miles north of Seluchan. Our losses were Lieut. Ogloloff and five sharpshooters wounded.

On June 25, about a battalion of Japanese infantry marching out from Seluchan in the direction of the Maotien Pass, was repulsed by two companies of sharpshooters. The Japanese retreated toward Tangputze. The sharpshooters fell back at first upon Urtingi and then upon Kentsiputze. Capt. Yanchukovsky was being carried to the rear on a stretcher when the Japanese rushed on. The sharpshooters were wounded and captured and Capt. Yanchukovsky and Ryshchoff were also captured. Lieut. Serpukhovitch and thirteen sharpshooters wounded.

Japs Continue Advances. During the night of June 25 the enemy, a regiment of infantry and a regiment of cavalry strong, remained at Tangputze. The morning of June 26 a Japanese battalion marched along the Suyen-Haicheng road from Seluchan in the direction of Tangputze. The enemy's infantry and mountain guns followed the vanguard of the Japanese. The enemy reached Tangputze on the morning of June 26 from Tangputze in the direction of Phakhsuan, along the road to the Maotien Pass, turning northward. The enemy located in the Maotien Pass. At least a regiment of infantry, with artillery, was ordered to proceed along the road to Liaoyang. This detachment reached Tangputze at 9 a.m. We have received no news since this movement.

Following are the details of the reconnaissance of the Japanese on June 26 at Aiyangmya (Aiyangmye), from 10.30 a.m. the cavalry of our advance guard drove the enemy from the mountain. The enemy fell back in confusion, our infantry came up and the enemy's right flank, which they bombarded with great success, the cordons retiring. The enemy's right flank was also repulsed. A violent fusillade, which, however, was almost without result. At 4 p.m. our companies were thrown against the right flank of the enemy's position, our companies being held in position, our right flank, which was repulsed, the Japanese were advancing.

The strength of the enemy was estimated for a distance of two or three miles, evacuating their trenches at 4 p.m.

Many Cosacks Killed. At the moment that our Cosack battery approached the enemy's principal position it was exposed to the concentrated fire of eighteen mountain guns. The Cosacks were killed and twenty were wounded. The gunners at that time changed their position and fired from a stone building, but our two companies continued to repulse the enemy, until the main position being held, the Cosack battery was discovered. Having ascertained the position of the enemy's principal position it was determined to stop the advance and ordered the mountain battery not to expose it to unnecessary losses. The Cosack battery was repulsed. The Cosack battery took the offensive. The Cosack battery was repulsed. The Cosack battery was repulsed.

At 8 p.m. Our two companies of sharpshooters and a company of cavalry, commanded by Second Captain Serbenberg, having dismounted, repulsed the Japanese battalion to full retreat by full sustained point blank volleys, which inflicted considerable losses.

Until Night Fell. The fight continued until nightfall. Thanks to the darkness we were able to move our guns. A volley was fired by the enemy's infantry. The Cosack battery was repulsed. The Cosack battery was repulsed.

JAP BOAT SUNK. Chetoo, June 27.—Chinese arriving in junks from the vicinity of Port Arthur report that the Russians have ordered all Chinese to leave the place. A number of shells fell in the town of Port Arthur during the bombardment by the Japanese on June 25, but no damage was done, many of them failed to explode. A Japanese officer, who went on board one of the junks of the Misato Islands, 75 miles south of Port Arthur, told the Chinese that one Japanese torpedo boat was damaged during the engagement of June 25 and sank in the Gulf of Pechili. The officers stated that two other Japanese torpedo boats were badly damaged.

CONDAMNED ALLANTON. Vladivostok, June 27.—The prize court has condemned the British steamer Allanton (captured by the Russian Vladivostok squadron recently in the Straits of Korea) for carrying contraband of war, and has confiscated the ship and her cargo of 600 tons of anthracite coal, valued at $500,000. The firm at Singapore, which the coal was consigned to, is the same concern that supplied Japan with contraband during the Japanese-Chinese war. The Japanese schooner captured by the Russian torpedo boats at the time of the recent raid has also been condemned. The captain and prizes are allowed a month in which to appeal.

BREAKING THE NEWS. St. Petersburg, June 27.—Emperor Nicholas has received the following telegram from Viceroy Alexieff, dated June 27:

"According to reports received from Rear-Admiral Witthoff and Rear-Admiral Grigorovitch, dated respectively on June 20 and 22, the sortie of the Port Arthur squadron was preceded by prolonged work in destroying the enemy's mines by means of nets carried on the torpedoes and on all the harbor dredging boats.

On the night of June 22-23 a fight occurred off Port Arthur between our torpedo boats and the Japanese torpedo boats, in which Captain Bliesoff and Lieut. Smirnov were slightly wounded.

At 2 o'clock in the afternoon our torpedo boat put to sea, when eleven Japanese ships and twenty-two torpedo boats were visible on the horizon."

33 CAUGHT IN A CONDUIT AND DIE FROM ACCIDENT. Water Turned on While Workmen Were Engaged in Making Repairs to It.

Kingston, Jamaica, June 27.—Thirty-three persons were killed by an accident which occurred near Spanishtown (ten miles west of Kingston) to-day in the main conduit of the West India Electric Co., which operates the street cars of Kingston and the shareholders of which are principally shareowners.

Nearly 100 laborers have been detailed to remove sand from the enormous pipe, which is 15 miles long, and which conveys water from the in-take on the Coburn to the turbines of the powerhouse. The work had been practically completed when orders were given to allow a small quantity of water to enter the conduit.

Through misapprehension, accident, or carelessness the full force of water was turned on and a mad struggle to escape by means of the manholes ensued, with the result that 33 persons were killed.

An investigation into the cause is now in progress.

WEST WEARS ONE BIG SMILE EXPECT FINE WHEAT CROP

Less Acreage Likely, Owing to the Lato Spring Retarding Seeding.

James Hartney, local immigration agent for Manitoba, who returned on Saturday from the west, where he conducted the first of the homekeepers' excursions, which left here on June 14, will leave again this afternoon with a second contingent. He expects to fully 800 will go to-day. There were 400 on the first. A third excursion will be run on July 10. All are good for 60 days at the round-trip fare of $30, and that now course gratis will be taken advantage of the trips are of Ontario's best granger class.

As to the crop prospects, Mr. Hartney said they were never better for the season than now. The government report for June will be issued soon, and will give full details as to acreage. It is likely that the wheat acreage will be less this year, and that more course gratis will have been sown, owing to the late spring. The wheat had practically all to be sown in two weeks. He expects, however, that this year will average as well as 1902, which was a record year.

There is lots of building in Winnipeg and in all the towns in Manitoba, and the farmers are also erecting substantial residences. Many are taking in the trip to St. Louis just now.

"Everybody you meet has a smile," says Mr. Hartney.

WILL FIGHT MR. MACLEAN'S BILL EVEN TO THE LAST DITCH RAILWAY OFFICIALS AT OTTAWA

Representatives of Many Lines Doing Business in Canada Reach the Capital Keen to Oppose Campaign for Two-Cent Passenger Rate.

Ottawa, June 27.—(Special.)—To-night representatives of the Canadian Pacific, the Grand Trunk, some smaller Canadian lines, and several American railway companies, held a meeting to agree upon common lines of action in regard to the proposed two-cent passenger rate in Canada. Tomorrow they will appear before the railway committee, when it is expected there will be a lively time in connection with Mr. Maclean's bill to amend the Railway Act.

Mr. Maclean proposes to apply the provisions of the Michigan Act to Canada in the matter of passenger rates. One of his strongest arguments is the fact that the railways operating in both Canada and the United States give a two-cent passenger rate to the people of New York and Michigan and charge Canadians at the rate of 3c a mile. The railway representatives who are here will be asked to explain why Canadians should be thus discriminated against.

To-night were: O. W. Ruggles and W. H. Underwood, Chicago; C. E. Ussher of the C.P.R.; Mr. Bell of the G.T.R.; J. B. Morford, the assistant general manager of the Michigan Central; E. Backus of the assistant general manager of the same company.

The Pere Marquette line is the one which the Canada Southern is trying to acquire thru a bill now before parliament. This bill was held up by W. F. Maclean on the ground that no legislation should be given till the Canada Southern gives to Canada the same right which it gives to the people of Michigan.

This afternoon the visiting railway men were given a drive about the city. They declined to indicate the nature of the conclusions which they reached to-night. It is only known that some of the distinguished visitors have been doing considerable talking with members, and that they will fight Mr. Maclean's bill to the last ditch.

TOLSTOI ON WAR. Writes a Thunderous Philippic Against the Russian Government.

London, June 27.—The Times this morning prints a 10-column dissertation on the Russo-Japanese war, written by Count Tolstoi in his most violent style. The trend of this remarkable document is a thunderous philippic against the Russian Government and the Russian Orthodox Church, and generally against the existing order of things.

Tolstoi says that the revolutionists throughout Russia are dissatisfied, disgusted and exasperated, and the old appeal for faith, king and fatherland has lost its spell over the Russian masses.

The 10 columns breathe gloomy foreboding and preach a revolution. Tolstoi holds the emperor up to contempt as an "unfortunate and entangled young man, recognized as the leader of 130,000,000, continually deceived and compelled to contradict himself."

Tolstoi, however, does not stop with Russia, for Japan is given a share of his stringing comments for having forcibly resisted what he terms the "unprovoked aggression of Russia."

NO CONDITIONS ATTACHED TO AUDITOR'S RESIGNATION

And Government Has Not Yet Seen Fit to Accept It, Says Mr. Fielding.

Ottawa, June 27.—(Special.)—R. L. Borden to-day brought to the attention of the government certain matters mentioned in the press in regard to the auditor-general. First he read the following from the Hamilton Times:

"The auditor-general is not so anxious for superannuation that he is willing to unconditionally resign. He wants ten years added to his length of service. How does that square with his Spartan honesty and integrity in the matter of the public accounts? Does he want pay without performing service? Perhaps the next auditor-general would refuse to pass his accounts."

Mr. Borden also quoted from The Globe: "The auditor-general makes his application for superannuation conditional on adding ten years to his length of service. The government are doubtful whether this can be done."

Laid Resignation on Table. Outside of the immediate offices of the house, Mr. Borden observed, the auditor-general is more than any public servant an officer of parliament, and if they had a superannuation bill, his resignation in their possession it should be laid on the table of the house. Mr. Borden asked whether the auditor-general's resignation was made conditional in the manner mentioned in these two newspapers, which are supposed to be in the confidence of the government. He wished also to ask if the government had any objection to bringing down a copy of the auditor's letter of resignation if such exists. It was only thru the government, he said, that this information to which the house was entitled could be obtained.

"While I am on my feet," added the opposition leader, "I may say that I do not think there is anything in the conduct of the auditor-general in the past to justify the somewhat sneering remarks in one of the paragraphs which I have just read. Whatever else we may say about the auditor-general, however much we may differ in our appreciation of his work, at least we agree that on all occasions he has endeavored to do his duty to the best of his ability, and that he might do so, regardless of consequences or persons."

they had been thru the transferring process. They were faded, the colors having been used up in making the counterfeit.

The theory of the officers is that Higgins and Decker framed up a plate while in the penitentiary to commence their counterfeiting work as soon as they were free. They were kept under surveillance from the time they left Kingston until they were placed under arrest yesterday and the police beat them out.

It is a rather strange coincidence that all who are supposed to be connected with this gang have worked in London, Ont., in lithographic establishments at one time or another.

Hoped for Holiday Business. The officers are of the opinion that it was the intention of the counterfeiters to put the result of their labors in circulation on Dominion Day, as they were evidently preparing for a big business.

Higgins rented rooms at 18 and 58 Church-street, under the name of E. Williams, for the purpose of running a small printing office. Other occupants of rooms in the building noticed a steady "thump, thump" on the floor at times, but imagined it was from the workings of an ancient printing press. "We wouldn't have thought of counterfeiters in 55,000 years," said one who, when he reported had previously asked the way up to room 18, had told him he'd better stay away, that the others had been arrested.

The two men will appear in the police court this morning. While the detectives are confident they have the counterfeiters, they also believe that two or three men were under contract to "shove the queer," and these men may be located to-day.

FOREIGN NOTES OF INTEREST.

Fresh operations against the porpoises which are spoiling the sardine fishery on the coast of Brittany, are to be undertaken by the French torpedo boat No. 50.

Having thrown buckets of cold water over his consuming head, a Maori medicine man at Gisborne, in New Zealand, was charged with manslaughter and fined $50. Some years ago a Maori medicine man in England imported goods to be marked "Made in France," "Made in Germany," etc. As many of these goods are of excellent quality, it has been found that the law actually benefits the foreign makers, and an effort is accordingly being made to have it changed so that goods from the continent shall have newly a label marking them as "Imported."

Eugene Shimizu, chaplain of the Russian embassy in London, says that the Russian church maintains flourishing missions in Japan and China. Her Japan mission began in 1865. The head of it is Bishop Nicholas, and it numbers 25,321 converts and 34 rectories. The Japanese priest and one deacon are Japanese, and the mission is perfectly loyal to the country, and teaches the same doctrine as is their duty to fight for Japan.

The last railroad built in India has American rails. American expert priority iron and motors, their machinery, and cable wires to South India. The railway has more than one Philadelphia bridge. Three hundred railroad cars from Jersey City have found their way into the hands of the Pharaohs, and in the foundations of Pittsburg electrical tramways were forged to connect Cairo with the pyramids.

Have You Proved It?

You can't if it's a fact and you're not afraid to look it squarely in the face by a ten days' shift to and leaving off coffee entirely. The trial involves no hardship or expense for you will find well-brewed Postum delicious, satisfying, and having the color and appearance of strong, black coffee with the flavor of the milder grades of Java.

You will prove something one way or the other, but don't be surprised if you suddenly feel as if a great weight had been lifted from you, for Postum in place of the drugs of coffee will show you a taste of the joy of health and vigor, making you stronger and clearer in brain, muscle and nerves.

PARKDALE CHURCH SCHOOL.

Closing Exercises and Prize-Giving Held Last Evening.

The Parkdale Church School, which is an off-shoot of the Bishop Strachan

School for Girls, has outgrown its present premises at 151 Dunn-avenue, and the school council is at present in treaty for larger premises. The closing exercises in the Western Y.M.C.A.

auditorium last night indicated the summa making the success of the school. Miss Middleton, the principal, and Miss Elwood, the first assistant,

presented a program of great attraction to a large and fashionable audience, among whom were Provost Street

Several novel features were introduced, one being a pretty butterfly drill

by little girls. A debate was another feature, the relative merits of town and country life being up for decision. Canon

Welch took refuge in the device of commending the arguments of one and the oratory of the other side. A lengthy French dialog followed, in which eight young ladies acquitted themselves

most ably. The most successful selection of essays were also given and a pretty feature was presented by several of the gentlemen present, the list being:

RELIGIOUS NOTES.

says further: "No one can much ex-

light and his religious faith strengthened. This poet's whole being is wrapped around the central thought conception of man in his relation to
