WILL BRING MORE TRADE NEXT YEAR

D. McNicol General Manager of C. P. R. Predicts Busier Season for St. John--We Must be Prepared to Handle Larger Freight Business.

The great need of increased facilities for handling the business of the port was the keynote of the interview with David McNicol, vice-president and general manager of the C. P. R., this morning.

Mr. McNicol came to the city yesterday to see his wife, son and daughter away on the Empress of Britain, which sailed last night. He is a guest at the Royal, and will leave on his return to Montreal this evening.

Mr. McNicol Sees Mayor

About noon Mr. McNicol and Mr. Downie called upon the mayor and had a talk on various matters. The need of more wharf accommodation was touched upon and also the recent tie-up in the west, as well as the orders placed by the company for more rolling stock.

The C. P. R., he said, have had millions of dollars worth of rolling stock ordered for some time, and owing to the fact that the Canadian factories are taxed to their utmost extent, they have had to place orders in the United States.

His worship suggested that Mr. McNicol embody his views in a letter to the council and he would present it for their consideration. He pointed out that he was going to comply with the law and issue licenses, if the council did not take out licenses there was another department to deal with.

MONCTON'S EX-POLICE CHIEF STOPS A FIRE

At Risk of His Life He Threw Can of Burning Benzine Out of Leger's Jewelry Store--Girl Burned by Gasoline.

MONCTON, April 6--(Special)--Prompt action on the part of ex-Chief of Police Chappell prevented a bad fire in Z. M. Leger's jewelry store last evening. A can of burning benzine, which looked ominous for a time, was picked up by Mr. Chappell and thrown down the street before the fire had time to spread.

MURDER THE OUTCOME OF A DRUNKEN BRAWL

George Wood, of Edmonton, Alberta, Killed by a Chum in a Fight.

EDMONTON, Alb., April 6 (Special)--Murder, as the result of a drunken row, was discovered yesterday morning when George Wood, a carpenter, was missed from his usual haunts. A search was begun, which resulted in finding his body in a shack where he and two chums, Dick Hood and John Peacock, had lived together for some time.

JEROME WILL ASK FOR VERDICT OF GUILTY OF FIRST DEGREE MURDER

In His Address to Jury in Thaw Case He Will Contend That Jealousy and Revenge Not "Brainstorm" Actuated Thaw to Kill White.

NEW YORK, April 6--Now that District Attorney Jerome has decided that he will not apply to the appellate division of the supreme court for a writ of prohibition relative to the report of the commission in January as to Harry K. Thaw's sanity, it is almost certain the trial of this remarkable case will duly proceed to its end.

As soon as the last one of them has left the witness chair Delmas will announce "The defence rests," and the last phase of the trial will be entered upon. Mr. Jerome, having announced that he will call no more witnesses, it is almost certain, however, that to justify his position Mr. Jerome will make a brief but probably characteristic protest against the confirmation of the report of the lunacy commission.

ed to impress upon the jury that it is its duty to find the young man guilty of deliberate murder. Since he has said that he will strive to convict Thaw, the district attorney will be forced to ignore all that he has said in court and out of it as to the prisoner's mental breakdown, and to argue simply that he went up to Stamford White on the Madison Square roof garden that tragic June night and shot him to death through motives of revenge and jealousy.

PREMIER PUGSLEY FAVORS NEW BRIDGE AT THE FALLS

FREDERICTON, N. B., April 6--(Special)--The house met at 10 o'clock. Mr. King presented the petition of the Imperial Dry Dock Company in favor of their bill.

The house then went into committee on bills and agreed to the following--An act to correct an error in printing the acts relating to the town of Woodstock; also, an act to amend the St. John Street Railway act with reference to carrying the street railway across the suspension bridge.

pany were to contribute one half cent per passenger for crossing the bridge the amount so raised would go a long way towards paying the interest of the cost of a steel bridge wide enough for two cars to pass and also allow of a sidewalk. The cost of such a bridge would be about $150,000, and the interest on the sum would not exceed $4,000 a year.

THE TIMES NEW REPORTER

SOCIETY ITEM. Social circles are much grieved to learn that the lovely Miss Birdie McKeen is suffering from a temporary indisposition, and will not be able to go out for a few days. It is really a pity, as she is so popular and has caused the trouble. Owing to the frequent changes in the weather Birdie has had to make a lot of spring frocks that she is quite exhausted.

A SERENITY POEM. Oh Spring! Oh Gentle Spring! Try again. We are all in sympathy. We've had enough; We want a thaw. Right now. Please don't be discouraged. Give us mud, Sleigh, Pelting rain, fog, Anything but Northeast winds and snow

In April. Br r r r R r r r! THIS IS SERIOUS. A serious condition of civic affairs is threatened. Several of the present aldermen are thinking deeply and may decline to be re-nominated. One of them is the Times new reporter this morning-- "I don't think I can afford to be an alderman any longer. Nobody else wants the job. Why should I take it and have people say about me something like this: 'Oh! He's no good. Why, he wanted to be an alderman. I don't think I could stand that. You see, if it was a job that anybody wanted, there might be some satisfaction in being elected; but then you wouldn't have if you threw it a them. I don't believe I'll run this year. If other aldermen feel as this man does we may have no city council at all. The situation is critical."

BURIED WITH FULL MILITARY HONORS

Funeral of Late Lieut. Col. J. E. March M. D. This Afternoon Was an Imposing Spectacle--Crowds Lined Streets As Procession Passed.

With all the pomp and ceremony characteristic of a military funeral, the body of the late Lieut. Colonel J. E. March, principal medical officer, military district No. 8 was laid to rest in Fernhill cemetery this afternoon. The beauty of the splendor and yet the solemn dignity in the very nature of the occasion, was very evident to the great throngs of people who lined the streets from the church along the adopted route of the funeral procession, and it needed no tongue to tell that the citizens mourned the loss of one of St. John's best men.

Following was the gun carriage drawn by six horses with artillery riders and non-commissioned officers on liners, while on top of the gun carriage was the caisson containing the remains of the late Dr. March. The coffin was wrapped in the Union Jack flag, and on the top of it were the helmet, sword and belt of the deceased. Then marched the guard of honor, composed of twenty-eight members of the field hospital corps, and outside of them the officers, who bore the remains from the church to the carriage. Immediately following the gun carriage came the late Col. March's horse, fully saddled and equipped, with the boots reversed in the stirrups.

The spectacle of the horse without its master was indeed a sorrowful sight. Following came the relatives of the deceased and chief mourners. Then came officers of the different militia corps throughout the province, with the junior officers in the front ranks. The army medical corps followed next, and then the 7th army corps, the 62nd regiment, the artillery, cavalry and staff officers, who were followed by a lengthy concourse of citizens.

The Medical Society and the Masonic order walked in the rear. Upon reaching Fernhill cemetery the usual military service was conducted at the grave by Rev. Mr. McMaster. After that the firing party fired three volleys, which was followed by a roll of muffled drums. After the first volley there was one roll of the drums, after the second volley, two rolls, and after the third three rolls.

At 2:30 p. m. Rev. W. W. McMaster, assisted by Rev. G. F. Scovill, Masonic chaplain, and Rev. Wellington Camp conducted the burial service, and Dr. Arnold Fox presided at the organ. The remains were then conveyed from the church and placed on the gun carriage by members of the pall, who were Lieut. Col. H. H. McLean, Dr. J. Armstrong, J. R. Armstrong, Surg. Lieut. Col. T. Walker, Lieut. Col. E. V. Wedderburn and G. W. Jones.

The music during the service was under the direction of Dr. Arnold Fox and consisted of the singing of the Masonic anthem "Remember Now Thy Creator" by a male quartette consisting of W. H. Holme, D. Arnold Fox, G. B. Hagan and J. T. Hart. The second number rendered was "Remember Now Thy Creator" by a male quartette consisting of W. H. Holme, D. Arnold Fox, G. B. Hagan and J. T. Hart. The final number was "Jesus died for us" by mixed quartette consisting of Mrs. Carter, Mrs. Lugin, Charles Knight and S. J. McGowan.

The O. C. 3rd regiment, C. G. A., provided the gun carriage, which was drawn by six horses with artillery riders and non-commissioned officers. The coffin was placed on top of the gun carriage and draped with the Union Jack, and on the top of that rested the helmet, sword and belt of the late Col. March. The Royal Kenneborensis Yacht Club. Many beautiful bouquets were sent by others.

Flags were flown at half mast today on all the shipping in port and on all of the marine Dominion buildings and the Union Club, out of respect for the late Doctor March.

CAPTAIN'S HEROISM SAVED ALL ON BOARD

Passengers of Burned Steamer "City of Troy" Say Captain Bruder Was Bravest of All.

NEW YORK, April 6--Seven passengers and a score of the crew of the steamboat City of Troy, which was burned in the Hudson river at Dobbs' ferry, arrived here early today. The passengers looked little the worse for their experience, but it was different with most of the crew. They were asleep in their bunks when the fire was discovered and as their quarters were close to where the fire started they had no time to get together their belongings.

HOPE GONE FOR DR. DRUMMOND

MONTECAL, April 6--(Special)--A despatch received from Cobalt this morning says the condition of Dr. Drummond is so critical that he will probably not last throughout the day.

Dr. L. W. Fowler, of Boston, Mass., who was called to Lakerow, Queens Co., by the illness and death of his brother, Alonzo B. Fowler, has been in the city for the past two days. He leaves for home this evening.

NEWS OF THE WORLD AS TOLD IN SHORT METRE

Today's Happenings Boiled Down to a Line for Busy Times Readers.

The largest battleship in the world, to have a displacement of 23,000 tons, is to be built in England for the Japanese government. The cost of this battleship will be about $11,250,000. Harry Hillman, of the New York Athletic Club, broke the 220 yards American indoor low hurdle record last night at the military athletic games in Brooklyn. His mark was 26 3/5 seconds, a fifth below former record, which he also held. Despatches from Albania tell of death and devastation from the epidemic which swept through the southern and eastern portions of the state yesterday. At Bradley, the home of Hugh Farmer, was blown down, instantly killing Mr. Farmer and his six-year-old son, and fatally injuring Mrs. Farmer. Probable loss of life is reported from North Ferris, where a row of houses was blown down. During a storm last evening lightning knocked down a part of the wall of the prison at Salama. President Manuel Cabrera, of Guatemala, authorizes the Associated Press to make the following statement: "The government of Guatemala works assiduously for peace and it would welcome with particular pleasure an arrangement between all the parties concerned, for arbitration by the Washington government. The Guatemalan government regards this as the only solution of the problem in Central America."

The Viper of Milan.

A ROMANCE OF LOMBARDY.
BY MARJORIE BOWEN.

"This is an hour of great need, Count," he said gravely. "The downfall of Visconti cannot mean to you what it does to me—it cannot mean so much to any man—but am I not right in thinking it means all to you to see the Lady Valentine Visconti free?"
"All I care for under heaven. By all the saints, Prince, I will give my right arm to serve your cause, since it serves her," cried Courat.
Della Scala's brown eyes observed him keenly.
"I will ask a service of you, Count," he said; "not that hand, nor any feat of knight-errantry, but something less difficult to render."
"Even if it be living on roots in a dungeon, I will do it!"
And, excited at the thought of some adventure, Count Courat waited expectantly, his hand upon his sword.
The Prince smiled sadly.
"If fear it is a harder task than that, Count Courat, and so distasteful that I would not burden you with it," he said.
"But all the men here are mercenaries—Captain Vanvilliers is a boor; Ligozzi goes with me to Brescia, where I am instantly bound to confer with Ferrara."
"Prince, I am proud to execute your commands," interrupted Courat eagerly.
Della Scala turned to Ligozzi, who stood silent behind him.
"See that no one listens," he said; and as Ligozzi disappeared, and he turned to him, the Count fell back, impressed by the eagerness of the noble face.
"But the Prince took him by the hand affectionately.
"Dost thou remember the huts outside thy villa, Conrad—and Francisco who rescued thee? I am giving thee a trust. For his sake will thou be faithful?"
"To the death!" cried Conrad.
"I will be faithful to the death!"
"Count," said Mastino earnestly, "I return from Brescia tomorrow, bringing d'Este with me to join in an assault on Milan that will make the city ours, I trust, within a week. Of necessity I leave Carrara for these hours in command—almost all the men are his providing—but his voice sank still lower, "I do not completely trust him—I doubt his loyalty. I have misgivings as to the use he may make of my absence, therefore," he paused and laid his hand on Conrad's shoulder. "I leave you, Count von Schulemburg, privately in charge. Watch him—never leave him out of your sight till my return."
"Good! I understand! I swear!" cried Conrad again.
Mastino Della Scala looked into his eyes.
"I trust thee," he said simply. "Thou knowest how my wife's safety lies on my son—and if Carrara play false, we are well-nigh ruined. These weeks have I had him under Ligozzi's eyes, day and night, and now thou must take my place." Conrad kissed Mastino's hand in silence, his emotional nature overcome to tears.

SUFFERED EIGHT YEARS FROM KIDNEYS

Doctor's said Female Trouble.
Mrs. Charles Lewis, Collingwood, Ont., writes: "For eight years I suffered from Kidney Complaint, and until twelve months ago doctors said I was suffering from Female Trouble." Last November (1905), I was seriously ill, resulting I believe from kidney trouble. Finding doctor's medicine doing me no good, I persuaded my husband to purchase a box of Doan's Kidney Pills, after having read of a case somewhat resembling mine. I commenced taking them according to directions (not taking the doctor's medicine), and on second day a swelling commenced in my feet, legs and body. The following day I was so charged and swollen my husband, in alarm, hastened to Mr. Johnson's drug store, who told him to tell me he thought the pills were drawing something out of the blood, and to keep on taking them. I did so and after taking them a week, the swelling disappeared leaving me with a complexion free from pimples, tired, weary feeling gone, constipation, from which I suffered for years, gone, pain in the back, gone, and a general feeling of joy and light heartedness. I have not felt since a night, took place in me.
My sister-in-law (Mrs. Ryan), seeing the action of Doan's Kidney Pills, and the change for good they accomplished in me, sent for a box and they completely cured her. When there is an opportunity of telling people what Doan's Kidney Pills did for us, we always take advantage of it, and tell them to give them a fair trial."
Doan's Kidney Pills are 50c. per box or 3 boxes for $1.25, for sale at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The Doan Kidney Pill Co., Toronto, Ont.

And again he glanced toward the German's tent. Conrad had not appeared, and the prisoners wound away out of sight into what was once Barnabas Visconti's summer residence, and where Barnabas Visconti not long since had died.

CHAPTER SIXTEEN.

For a Game of Chess.
The day was wearing into evening when Conrad gave a last look in the little polished mirror hanging on the tapestried wall of his tent, and prepared to set out on a tour of inspection, including a visit to Carrara, who in this moment's interval, he thought, could not have gone astray.
Della Scala had been gone four hours or more, but to the light-hearted German it seemed he had only an instant ago turned from his tent.
He had employed the time in writing some verses (in imitation of the fashionable Petrarch) a production with which he was perfectly satisfied, and put aside to be fair copied by some one, a better talent in spelling than himself, in teasing Vittore to dance, and in changing his doublet.
Count Conrad was very careful of his doublet. He had a great many, and kept them carefully locked in the large coffer that stood at the head of his tent bed.
The one he donned today was elegant in the extreme; peacock purple over an under garment of rose, curiously shaded with cream and blue, and with a page, was silent at the magnificence.

Lighting a Room

When the drawing-room, reception-room or living room is lighted up at night, the fault often lies with the chandelier. A room that is lighted only from a centre light is apt to have a glaring, cold appearance, particularly when the room is long and narrow. Side lights are the only remedy for this, unless there are plenty of lighted shades around the apartment. A high central light is rarely cozy, nor in the case of a long room does it brighten it evenly. Candle brackets on the side walls are better if there are no gas fixtures there.
It must be remembered that a room does not seem to be lighted up at all until the light is well-distributed, soft light is better upon all occasions. Soft lights do not necessarily mean low lights, as a poorly lighted room is equally bad. It remains for the clever woman to arrange her lighting so that it leans to neither extreme.

A SPRING DANGER

Many People Weaken Their Systems by Dosing With Purgative Medicines.

A spring medicine is a necessity. Nature demands it as an aid to enriching the blood and carrying off the impurities that have accumulated during the winter months. Thousands of people recognizing the necessity for a spring medicine, dose themselves with such purgatives as castor oil, senna, and other such drugs. This is a mistake. Ask any doctor and he will tell you that the use of purgative medicines weakens the system and cannot possibly cure disease. In the spring the system needs building up—purgatives weaken. The blood should be made rich, red and pure—purgatives cannot do this. What is needed is a tonic, and the best tonic medical science has yet devised is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Every dose of this medicine actually makes more rich blood, and this new blood strengthens every organ and every part of the body. That is why these pills banish pimples and unsightly skin eruptions. That is why they cure headaches, backaches, rheumatism, neuralgia and a host of other troubles that come from poor watery blood. That is why the men and women who use Dr. Williams' Pink Pills at well and sleep well and feel active and strong. Miss Mabel Symont, Erie, Ont., says: "I was pale and weak and suffered greatly from headaches, and I found nothing to help me until I began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. These have completely restored my health and I bless the day I began taking them."
But be sure you get the genuine Pills with the full name "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People" on the wrapper around each box—all other so-called pink pills are fraudulent imitations. Sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.
Rev. George E. Lloyd, now archdeacon of Saskatchewan, and former principal of the Robtessay College for Boys, is on his way from England with thirty or more gentlemen who will assist him in his work. While on a tour through Ireland, Archdeacon Lloyd aroused great interest by his lectures, and received a number of donations, one to the amount of £400, from a wealthy lady.
They are best remembered who forget themselves.

Daily Fashion Hint for Times Readers.

STOLE EFFECTS ARE A FEATURE OF NEW COATS.

The clever use which striped materials are finding in the spring costumes is aptly illustrated in this costume, made by Solovici, a newcomer in the costume field of Paris, but one nevertheless, who promises much. The material is an ombre-striped cream-white and lavender-gray prunella. The back of the short coat is arranged in draped folds simulating a capuchin hood, and the fronts in stole effect, finished with heavy silk tassels just above the knee-line. A narrow belt of the cloth inset with gray satin defines the waistline in the back, while the front shows a very short pelum set between the underarm seam and the stole ends. The draped sleeves are simply finished with machine stitching below the elbow. In the skirt the material is used on the cross and the bias as well as the straight, the front panel being straight with a yoke effect and foot trimming described with bias pieces of the cloth. Gray chevron stripe metal buttons trim the coat fronts and the sleeves, and a charming color contrast is afforded in the tomato-collared, with vestment embroidered in gold, silver and several shades of gray.

WHY DO WOMEN WORRY?

First Sign of Falling Health
Worry is a disease—and it's more—it produces other diseases, because it breaks down the nerves and saps the vitality of the body.
What a pity women don't realize that if they were well—if the blood was nutritious—she sleeps poorly. If it only lasted for a day or two it might be of small consequence—but she grows limp, miserable, unhappy—worse day by day.
She needs Ferrero's which cures worry by curing the conditions that render worry possible. For nervous, weak women, no tonic is so good; thousands of women have cured just like Mrs. M. E. Eberhart, of Troy, who writes: "I am quite willing to give a public testimonial for Ferrero's, believing it to be a tonic of superior excellence and one that will rapidly build up strength and supply new energy to anyone not feeling well. Last spring I was in a very poor condition of health. I was nervous, felt tired, and completely worn out. No doubt it's quite a common complaint with ladies of my age, but I placed great reliance in Ferrero's, and took it for several weeks. It made me quite strong, and in fact I can heartily recommend Ferrero's."
Ferrero's cures by making good blood strong nerves and a healthy body.
This is why it gives color, clearness to the skin, buoyancy to the step, brightness to the eyes—because with good digestion and activity of the body in all its parts there's a health. Price 50c. per box at all dealers.

NEW STRIKE ACT IN FORCE

Labor Department Sends Warning to Coal Miners and Operators.
Ottawa, April 5.—The department of labor is in receipt of a telegram from the solicitor of the Cumberland Coal & Railway Company stating that an application is being forwarded asking for the appointment of a board of arbitration under the new labor act passed this session to investigate matters in dispute between the company and its employees at Springhill, Mines.
This is the first application made under the act. The men have already stopped work despite a provision of the law which imposes a minimum penalty of $10 per day on every employee who goes out on strike without first asking for an investigation by an arbitration board. The men in this instance claim that they have not gone on strike, but have simply quit on account of unwillingness to work with non-union men. The department has wired them that the penalties under the act may be invoked by any one who makes application to the Nova Scotia courts. The matter of enforcing the act in this respect, does not devolve upon the labor department, but as in the case of any other infraction of the criminal law within the jurisdiction of local courts, which must take action when an information is laid.
A similar intimation has been made to the operators of the Tabor Coal Mine in British Columbia where, according to press despatches, the employees have been locked out.

OBITUARY

The death of Mrs. Catherine Conway, formerly Miss McKeever, of this city, occurred in Boston last Saturday. She leaves two sons, two sisters, Mrs. Jane Mullin and Mrs. Matilda Gallagher, of New England, and two brothers, Bernard McKeever, of Moncton, and John McKeever, of Roxbury.
Samuel Johnston, painter, died at the home of his mother, 104 Winter street, Friday, in his 32nd year. He had been ill for several days.
Besides his mother, Mr. Johnston is survived by four brothers, William, Fred James and Joseph Johnston, all of this city, and two sisters, Mrs. M. Boyle, of Pennfield, and Mrs. Arthur Towitt, of this city. Many friends will sympathize with the family in their bereavement.

CARNEGIE GIVES $6,000,000 MORE

Pittsburg, Pa., April 5.—W. N. Frew, president of the board of trustees of the Carnegie Institute, made public a letter today he received from Andrew Carnegie, in New York, announcing that Mr. Carnegie has made an endowment of $6,000,000 to the institute. This gift is in addition to the $1,000,000 given by Mr. Carnegie some time ago.
The previous endowment provided $2,000,000 for the departments of fine arts and museum and a like sum for the Carnegie schools of technology.
The endowment today provides $4,000,000 for these three departments. Mr. Carnegie also established a pension fund for the benefit of those connected with the institute which, after the death of the recipient is to be continued to the widow in all cases, where needed.
Soul culture is a matter of spiritual championship.

WANT CONDUCTOR PUT BACK ON ROAD

Moncton, N. B., April 5.—The general revenue committee of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen on the I. C. R. were in session here all today. This afternoon the committee had an interview with General Manager Pottinger. The business consisted of some minor matters affecting the interests of trainmen, and it is understood also had to do with the case of Conductor John F. Doyle, who was on the working train in the disastrous wreck at Beaver Brook a few weeks ago. Conductor Doyle had been under suspension since the accident, as well as Driver Harry Cameron. It is stated the Brotherhood are urging Conductor Doyle's reinstatement, especially in view of the verdict of the coroner's jury, exonerating the trainmen from blame.

Blood Humors

Coursing the veins cause such disfiguring and painful troubles as pimples, boils, carbuncles, abscesses, ulcers and other eruptions and sores, and also weakness, languor, general debility and great susceptibility to disease.

The best medicine to take is Hood's Sarsaparilla which thoroughly cleanses the blood, and effects radical and permanent cures by giving healthy functional activity to the stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels and skin.

Hood's Sarsaparilla purifies, enriches and revitalizes the blood in its own peculiar and unequalled way, and this is the testimony of tens of thousands who have given this great medicine an opportunity to do them good. Accept no substitute for

THE EVENING TIMES, ST. JOHN, N. B., SATURDAY, APRIL 6, 1907.

THE EVENING TIMES.

ST. JOHN, N. B., APRIL 6, 1907.

The St. John Evening Times is published at 27 and 29 Canterbury street, every evening (Sunday excepted) by the St. John Times Printing and Publishing Co., Ltd. a company incorporated under the Joint Stock Companies Act.

A TIMELY VISIT. The visit of Sir Wilfrid Laurier to St. John was timely. The premier was so impressed by the case as presented to him by the mayor that he wired Hon. Mr. Fisher, to impress upon the latter the importance of prompt attention to the matter of dredging in St. John harbor.

A Boston paper has this statement from a Maine correspondent: "With the Canadian Pacific shut out from Halifax by the government and Grand Trunk control of the Interoceanic and with the inadequacy of the facilities at St. John, it is apparent that to properly handle the business which now comes to it and which is increasing to an enormous extent year by year, the question of a new port for the former road is one of the utmost importance."

Premier Clemenceau of France has issued to prefects of departments a circular which says in part: "The abuse of spirituous liquors, which is attracting increased attention on the part of the public, cannot leave the government indifferent. In agreement with the anti-alcoholic groups of the senate and the chamber of deputies, they hold that, awaiting the voting of new measures, it behooves them at least to prescribe the rigorous application of existing laws, which place at their disposal certain means for repressing drunkenness and for reducing the number of drinking places."

A BRIGHT OUTLOOK. General Manager McNeill of the Canadian Pacific once more emphasizes the need for increased facilities at this port for next winter's business. He points out that the company have given orders for an enormous increase of rolling stock, and there is little likelihood of such a condition of congested traffic next year as has been caused by a falling off in shipments from the various seaports, St. John included. The growth of business in the west outstripped the railway facilities last year, but the companies are making strenuous efforts to meet the demand of next season, and with increased wharf and warehouse facilities there should be an enormous increase in business here next winter.

A CHEERING RECORD. The report of the education committee of the London county council on the subject of reformatories and industrial schools gives a number of striking illustrations of the conversion of wayward boys into respectable citizens. The London Globe summarizes this portion of the report in a very interesting way, and the subject is of sufficient interest and importance to make it worth while to present the statement for the encouragement of reformers in this part of the world.

Mr. Jerome accepts the verdict regarding Thaw's sanity, and the murder trial will be resumed next week. It should now be brought to an early termination.

Persevering scholars from the Industrial School at Regent's park have since become owners of a large hotel in Adelaide, sergeant-in-charge of a military band which accompanied the Prince of Wales on one of his journeys, headmaster in typewriting and shorthand department at a college, and a postmaster in the Isle of Wight.

HIGH SHERIFF COULD NOT FRIGHTEN THIS OFFICER
North Sydney Policeman Enforced Town Bye-Laws in Spite of Angry Sheriff's Vehement Protests and Threats.
NORTH SYDNEY, April 6—(Special)—"The town by-laws be d—d." Do you know who I am?" and other strong epithets uttered by the high sheriff for Cape Breton county, attracted a large crowd of people on North Sydney's busiest street yesterday afternoon. The object of the sheriff's frenzied conversation was plain every day Policeman Mike McGrath, and that counts for something.
Some time ago the police were strongly reminded of certain clauses in the town by-laws regarding the posting of printed matter on posts and otherwise circulating it about the streets. For some time they have endeavored to carry out their instructions and succeeded fairly well, and when, yesterday afternoon, Officer McGrath found Cline McDonald tacking up some Sheriff's sale posters on the telegraph poles, he promptly ordered the man from Sydney to desist, at the same time tearing the paper down.
McDonald remonstrated, saying the work was being done for the sheriff. "Can't help it," said the officer, "its against the law no matter whom you're doing it for without a permit."
Shortly afterwards the officer was accompanied by the high sheriff.

RUSSIAN SAILORS SEE OLD LONDON WRAPPED IN A FOG
Interesting Story From a London Exchange of How "John" Entertained "Ivan" on a Misty Moisty Morning.
(London Leader, March 27)
The Russian sailors, to the number of 120 officers and men saw a few yards of London yesterday morning. They arrived in a dense fog, and after this had partially cleared they were given four opportunities of admiring and appreciating the marvels of the metropolis which lie between Charing-cross and two places of entertainment near Leicester square.
It would really have been interesting to know what the hardy, taciturn fellows thought was going to happen to them when the special train that brought them from Portsmouth ran into the "sea-scraper," and it gradually got darker and darker till Waterloo Station was reached. They didn't move from their seats when the train stopped.
By and by porters opened the doors of the carriages and the men ventured out into St. Flag-Commuter, Macdonald and Lieut. Turtie, with five British petty officers, who got on splendidly without speaking a word of Russian, chaperoned the visitors. Baron Graveston, who does speak English, and the officers of the Slava, Tear-witch, and Bogday, were all in mufti, and the former having ascertained that the scheme was to pile the sailors on five waiting omnibuses, orders were given which resulted in the men storming the buses in splendid style.
The officers took their seats in the open landaus, and encouraged by a cordial cheer from hundreds of would-be spectators who were hidden behind the fog, our guests started for the Grand Hotel.
They hadn't got any further than York-road, before they were rubbing their eyes in pain. For it was of the stingiest variety which brings tears to the eyes of the most hardened pickpocket.
A crowd had assembled near Trafalgar square to greet the Russian tars. They seemed quite pleased at the kindly way they were received, and made at once for the tables spread at the Grand Hotel.
A nip of vodka for those who liked it gave a thoroughly Russian send-off to the luncheon, but after that the menu became quite English.
The sailors, too, had an English repast, the staple dish of which was haunch of mutton, with cabbage and potatoes, and to wash it down the men had the choice of claret, beer, or stout, with a glass of port with their dessert.
Much to the gratification of the officers and men, it was made known during lunch that it was the express wish of King Edward that they should be entertained in London.
Most of the party visited the Hippodrome in the afternoon where Lieut. Turtie, the letter an officer who took part in the sea fights against the Japanese while serving on the cruiser Almaz.
Lieut. Poppenko, in the course of the entertainment, said in conversation that he was very much in sympathy with the Anglo-Russian rapprochement, and spoke on behalf of the men, declared how pleased they were to have been greeted by so many people at the station and in the streets.
The Russian naval officers in London last evening, at their dinner at the Grand Hotel, decided to send the following telegram to King Edward at Biarritz:
"The Russian officers and men visiting London from the squadron at Portsmouth, having drunk your Majesty's health, now respectfully wish you all happiness, and desire to express their gratitude for their visit to your capital."
In the evening the Russian tars visited the Alhambra, at the invitation of the management, and they waxed enthusiastic over a troupe of Russian dancers. The circle occupied the front rows in the upper circle, and the officers were accommodated in private boxes. In the box nearest to the stage were seated the Russian ambassador, Lord Tweedmouth, Sir John Fisher, and Sir Edward Grey, and in the interval they strolled round the grand circle, much to the satisfaction of a huge crowd. At the close the Russian National Anthem and "God Save the King" were sung amidst great enthusiasm.

CRYING BABIES
Babies do not cry for the fun of it, nor is it always because they are hungry as so many young mothers think. Nine times out of ten baby's cry indicates that his little stomach is out of order. Mothers will find instant relief for their suffering little ones in Baby's Own Tablets. A few doses will cure the most obstinate cases of constipation, indigestion or vomiting and a Tablet given now and then to the well child will keep it well. Mrs. Mary Pollock, Gawas, Ont., says: "Baby's Own Tablets have been a great benefit to my baby. They have made him happy, peaceful and contented, when before he used to cry all the time. I have more comfort with him since giving him the Tablets than I ever had before. He now sits and plays and laughs while I do my work. What greater praise can I give Baby's Own Tablets?" For sale at drugstores or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medical Co., Brookville Ont.

A BIG FIRE IN B. C. TOWN
Five Hundred Chinamen Rendered Homeless by Fire in Chinese District of Steveston B. C.
VANCOUVER, April 5—(Special)—Five hundred Chinamen were rendered homeless yesterday by a fire which totally destroyed the Chinese district of Steveston, the seat of the Fraser River canning industry. The fire started from a defective pipe in a house near the river bank and was driven by a southwest gale straight on the collection of Chinese houses, and over them into other parts of the town. Fires broke out all over and for a time it seemed as if the whole town was doomed. So hopeless did the outlook seem that the proprietor of the Star Hotel, within one hundred yards of where the flames were raging, offered to sell his complete interest in the building for a ten dollar bill. No one would take the offer, yet in the end, the building escaped undamaged. Everybody in town turned out to fight the common enemy, and though appliances were the most primitive, they succeeded in confining the flames to the district in which they originated. As it was thousands of dollars worth of dwellings, stores and personal effects were destroyed and many of the inhabitants of the burned district narrowly escaped being burned to death.

WOULD TEACH PUPILS DUTIES OF CITIZENSHIP

(Toronto News)
A strong advocacy for the introduction of a course of civics into the schools was an outstanding feature of this morning's discussions of the Ontario Educational Association in session at the University of Toronto. It formed part of an address by R. S. Neville, barrister, of Toronto, delivered before the Trustees Department.
It is surely imperative," said Mr. Neville, "that our children should be taught to understand the meaning of citizenship, a general view of our constitution and our relations to the empire. To that end, I believe, the study of civics should be initiated. Children should be taught the responsibility and solemnity of exercising the franchise and the high trusts imposed upon public men with a view to creating higher ideals in political life. The child should acquire a comprehensive view of things. He should look beyond his own parish, province and country to the wider fields of imperial interests."
Mr. Neville illustrated how this could be done in the teaching of geography and history. While commencing putting the flag upon school houses and keeping it before the eyes of the rising generation, he advocated as more important still, teaching our own children and the foreigners who are coming among us the more material side of the value of British connection. Children could easily be made to understand how British leadership of the nations had benefited the whole human race, and how necessary it was that all parts of the Empire should stand together if that leadership is to be continued. Children should be taught the inestimable value to Canada of a continuance of British connection, and that Canada is the keystone of the whole imperial arch.

THE CANADIAN CLUB
The executive of the Canadian Club held a meeting in the Evening Times office yesterday afternoon. The vice-president, Rev. Father Gaynor, was in the chair, and there were present Rev. G. A. Kuhring, Dr. T. D. Walker, M. E. Agar, and A. M. Belding.
Arrangements were completed for a luncheon to be held in White's restaurant on Thursday, April 11, to be addressed by H. Cockburn, president of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association.
The secretary was asked to communicate with W. P. Archibald, dominion parole officer, and ascertain whether it would be convenient for him to address the club on Tuesday, May 7. He was also asked to write to W. T. Stead, who will be in New York next week, and later in Toronto, asking him to address the club.

The Edison Phonograph Is Like Magic

WE think it is wonderful when we read about a magician who can pour out of a bottle any kind of wine that may be asked for—champagne for one, sherry for another and so on. How much more wonderful then that a single instrument can pour out at will any kind of music that anyone may want! Yet such an instrument is invented by the great American wizard, Thomas A. Edison. By simply changing a record you can have any music you want, from a magnificent aria of one of the world's great song birds to an irresistibly funny rag-time coon song. It does each equally well and pleases everybody who hears it.

You should have one and you can buy it on the easy-payment plan.

NATIONAL PHONOGRAPH CO., 100 Lakeside Avenue, Orange, N. J., U. S. A.

Live dealers in any line who have a store and established trade on other goods, are wanted to take up the agency for the Edison Phonograph in towns where we have no dealers now.

BOWLING
Smith Won Roll Off
George E. Smith won the monthly roll-off on Black's alleys last evening from sixteen competitors. Some very fine bowling was done, Mr. Smith making 117, while five others made more than 90. The prize was a handsome twisted gold pin.

Next Wednesday evening the roll-off for the season will be held. To qualify, bowlers are required to make more than 110 and thirty-eight have qualified. The prize, which was donated by J. S. Gregory, is a valuable pair of gold cuff-links. The contest will be held on the evening of the 13th.

BASE BALL
St. John Players Away
Messrs. Ramsey and Hold, who have been signed by J. Page to play on the Quebec base ball team in the Eastern Canadian League, left last night for Quebec to report. Donald McEachern is to report to the Patterson team of the Hudson River League next week.

A VETERAN CATCHER'S HANDS
Thirty-six broken and twisted bones in one hand is the record disclosed in the life of James McGuire, N. Y., official photographer and examiner of prisoners for the United States government at the federal prison at Atlanta, Ga., presented the veteran catcher with an X-ray picture taken and said that they couldn't understand how it was possible for a man to keep playing ball and remain strong and steady under the terrific shocks to the hand. The X-ray photograph shows thirty-six broken places in the bones of the fingers and huge knots resembling the gnarled places on an old oak tree are clustered around every joint. The bones in the small fingers were knitted and warped in shape of an inverted letter "Y" instead of fitting in the sockets, regularly, the ball on the ends of the bones is flattened and set on one side. So remarkable was this fact of a hand that several of the doctors had copies made of the X-ray photograph for future study.

DIAMOND NOTES
Manager Joe Castillon of the Washingtons has knocked off his mustache, and now looks like a youth of 23.

George Davis has neither joined the White Sox nor signed a contract to play. He probably has a hat or a suit of clothes up with Johnny Kling as to who will be the last man in.

WRESTLING
Tremblay Defeats Both.
Chicago, April 5—Joe Gans and Harry Lewis of Philadelphia, have been managed to fight within the next three months for the best purse obtainable. Four bets of $5,000 each were placed on the contest, and $20,000 is to be considered. Neither man will be permitted to fight a contest less than during the life of the article. Battling Nelson, before the referee by Gans, but the Chicago man declined, saying that he had no money to back him.

YACHTING
NEW YACHTS, MODELLED AFTER CIBOU.
G. Herriek Duggan, the famous designer of the peerless Cibou, and a host of other fast sailers, including the Zephyr, which last year successfully defended the Coronation Cup against Commodore Caruth's Niemara, sailing under the colors of the Bras d'Or Yacht Club, has completed designs for a type somewhat larger than the present one, says the Sydney Post. It is understood that a number of the members of the Club have agreed to order boats of this design, and by the opening of the season some half a dozen of these craft will be added to the already large fleet. Jimmy Kendall and A. E. Nash, of the Bank of Montreal, are each having constructed a boat of this pattern at Embury's yards, Port Hawkesbury. The measurements of the new class will be: Length over all, 28 feet; length water line, 18 feet; breadth extreme, 6 feet; beam, 10 feet; W. L., 5 feet; sail area, 350 square feet; iron keel, 1,500 pounds. The boats will be of the sloop type, with mainsail and jib.

Constant Backaches I Cure Quickly
My remedy goes right to the spot. It gives quick results because it removes the conditions that make your back ache and drag.

Bearing down pain, backache and draggy limbs are all caused by kidney trouble. My pills, commonly known as Dr. Hamilton's Pills, make the kidneys do their work. In doing so, they cure backache.

Good kidney action means pure blood and freedom from the poisons that make life unbearable.

By using Dr. Hamilton's Pills your strength and weight get a chance to catch up.

You store up a surplus of vital power that simply decays further danger from kidney weakness.

You feel brisk, enjoy your food and digest it easily.

Color comes to the cheeks, because circulation improves with new blood tone. Every organ is strengthened, including the nerves, because there is sufficient nutriment in the blood.

You can't imagine the enormous gain in health and spirits from Dr. Hamilton's Pills; you must use them to know how great is their power to restore and rebuild any person run down through defective kidney or liver action.

The aged and the young—women or men—if sick, rundown and miserable—health and vigor await you in Dr. Hamilton's Pills; they mean new life, 25c per box or five boxes for $1.00. Sold everywhere in yellow boxes.

ATHLETIC
LONGBOAT AFTER RECORDS.
TORONTO, April 4—Whether Tom Longboat, the Indian, possesses the marvellous speed and endurance as a runner distributed to him, will be satisfactorily demonstrated within the next few weeks, and upon his showing in the two big events he is scheduled to take part in this month will probably depend upon his future as a long-distance runner.

Longboat will be runner under the colors of the West End Y.M.C.A., and the two events, which will either wreck or enhance his brilliant career, will be run on April 13 and April 19.

On the first day mentioned, as previously reported, Longboat will go after the five-mile record in the Armories, Toronto, while six days later, he expressed the intention of making an effort to reduce the Boston Marathon record, established by Jack Caffery, of Hamilton in 1901.

Caffery covered the twenty-five miles in 2:29:23 3/5, and no one has since come within eight minutes of that time. This is an average of about a mile every six minutes, while Longboat's time in the Hamilton Herald race last November averaged about 5:34 minutes to the mile. This allows Longboat little chance to set an easier pace than he set in the Herald race, and he has six miles farther to travel. He is said to have come very close to Caffery's record in a trial, but as he has lost race over the Boston course as yet,

THE SPRINGHILL STRIKE
Halifax, N. S., April 5—The miners of the Cumberland Coal Company at Springhill find themselves in a quandary today as a result of the announcement that the industrial dispute law is applicable to Nova Scotia and that in going out in contravention of the act they are liable to a fine of not less than $10 a day. The men say that what they did was in ignorance and that had they known they would have taken some other course.

Grand Secretary Moffatt, of the P. W. A., has advised them to resume work and this they will doubtless do on Monday. In the meantime they have enrolled practically every workman in the mines who is eligible, except seven, and they have the fees of those. The two P. W. A. judges now have a membership of 1,350, all who are eligible out of the 1,700 employed by the Springhill Coal Company.

When the gift of a little for charity seems to put a man into mortal pain you may be sure the root of evil is striking down into a vital spot.

ST. JOHN GETS GO-BY AGAIN

Another Allan Line Turbiner at Halifax and Will Stay There.

Halifax, N. S., April 5—The turbiner Virginian, Captain A. H. Vipond, which sailed from Liverpool Friday, March 29, arrived in port at 8 o'clock this evening after a rough winter passage, head winds and heavy seas having been encountered the entire voyage.

The steamer brought 1,379 passengers, the largest number of passengers landing at Halifax this season. They were mostly English, and are an interior class of settlers. They were mostly destined for Manitoba and Alberta. Among the saloon passengers was a Chinaman named Hum Kip, a large real estate owner in Hong Kong, who was not allowed to land until the ship put up the $500 head tax.

The steamer brought 1,700 tons of cargo, all of which will be landed at Halifax. Only the first class passengers landed tonight. The remainder will remain on board till the morning.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system; thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by all Druggists. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

At the meeting of the slaughter house commissioners yesterday the following returns of killing for the past month were read by the secretary: Kane & McGrath, 208 cattle, 12 calves, 16 sheep; McCarthy, 223 cattle, 13 calves, 12 sheep; John Collins, 5 cattle, 8 calves, 6 sheep.

On Sunday, April 21, an offering in aid of Canadian missions will be taken in the Anglican churches of the city. Bishop Richardson and Rev. Dr. Norman Tucker will speak in some of the churches. On the afternoon of the same day Bishop Richardson will preach the anniversary sermon before St. George's Society in Trinity church.

Anna May Hears a Small Voice

Anna May's mother had gone away for the day and before her departure she told Anna May that she might have a few of her little friends in for luncheon with her. But she warned Anna May against taking her young company into the parlor, as they might accidentally break some of the choice bric-a-brac in their childish play or do some damage to the rich hangings and dainty sofa cushions. But the big, cheerful sitting-room was theirs to romp in as much as they chose. Also the library might be visited if they wanted to enjoy the illustrated books and magazines. But the parlor must not be entered during the mother's absence.

FIND JOHN PAUL JONES

Anna May had got her jacket from the hall and put it on, but as Polly would rather have frozen stiff than to have admitted that she was cold the other guests followed her example and played about the cold room, shivering. Then, Polly becoming too cold to longer endure the cold said: "Well, perhaps we'd better go out here; something might get broken. And that would be a-f-u-l." They returned to the sitting-room, where they played games till the clock struck

5. Then the guests departed, declaring they had had a lovely time. Anna May, being left alone, ran to the parlor and arranged everything in order. After she was through no one could have told that a dozen little girls had played and romped off there for fully an hour. "Mamma will never know that we've been in here," whispered Anna May as she drew the massive door shut. "If anything had got broken or injured then I would have told mamma all about it," she consoled herself with saying. But all the time there was a feeling of wrong-doing, of deception, that made Anna May very unhappy. Never had she deceived her mamma in anything before and she disliked the idea of beginning to do so now. Still, she argued to herself, there had been no harm done, so she could see no reason for confessing to her mother that she had disobeyed her. She would never, never do so again. Indeed, she had made up her mind fully to drop Polly Penn as an associate. Her conduct had been rude and ugly that afternoon and Anna May would no longer call her a friend. And Helen should be dropped from her list also. She would not allow herself to be led into doing wrong by such mad mannered girls. That evening Anna May was so silent that her mamma questioned her about her play, fearing the little girl might be ill. "Didn't you have a nice time today?" asked the anxious mother. "I'm half sorry I did not take you to the country with me, dearie, since you seem so indisposed. I fear you played too long and hard." For a moment Anna May did not reply. Then a small voice whispered: "Tell your dear mamma all." Throwing her arms about her mother's neck, she said, sobbing as though her little heart would break: "Mamma, dear, I've been a very naughty girl today. I disobeyed your orders about going into the parlor with my company."

Story of Little Bunchup and the Giant like some foolish girl or weak-minded woman. Beware how thou provokest me. I'll fly thee alive if I hear another whimper from thee. This meant he was off to sleep that night, and he would be up before the sun and at his tasks or I'll make thee have some thing genuine to sleep salt tears for."

When he awoke the day was well advanced, the sun pouring down from overhead. Bunchup rose quickly and looked about him. Now, what would the old miser say? He had been out of his bed for hours and was no doubt hunting the mountain over for Bunchup. If he were found it would be the worst beating he had ever had in his miserable life. Bunchup shuddered at the thought. What should he do? Should he go at once to the miser's hovel and try to make the best of the scolding and beating he was sure to get?

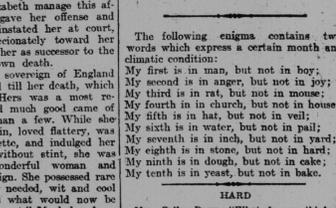

The Lament of the Baby Fish

"I'm just a little in a brook, Ah, sad the day! And I'm fearful of a hook— A hook that may—"

Queens of England

Elizabeth, second female sovereign of England succeeded to the throne at the death of her half-sister Mary. Elizabeth was born in September, 1533. She was the daughter of Henry VIII, and the ill-fated Queen Anne Boleyn, who lost her head on the scaffold when her little daughter was but three years old. After her mother's cruel and promiscuous death Elizabeth was robbed of her just inheritance and rightful succession to the throne. In company with her half-sister Mary she was sent to live in a castle far removed from the residence of their royal and most monstrous sire. The title of princess was denied both Mary and Elizabeth, and they were called "lady."

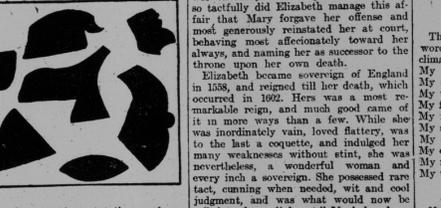

Queen Elizabeth.

The giant took him upon his shoulder.

"I live with him, sir," said Bunchup, looking up into the great giant's friendly blue eyes. "I am very, very unhappy, too, for he beats me and half starves me. I have to work all day gathering fagots for the fire and trapping game for the table. I also have to angle fish to broil for the old miser, though he never allows me a bite of the good things. All I eat is the leavings from his plate. Oh, Sir Giant, I am most unhappy, and I'll get a terrible beating for being away from home this morning."

Pioneer Lodge of Oddfellows, last night began a series of weekly meetings to discuss the duties of boards of health in preventing tuberculosis.

Nine burial permits were issued by the Board of Health authorities this week. They were from the following causes: Heart disease, four; consumption, two; scurvy, one; pneumonia, one; cerebral hemorrhage, one each.

G. E. Logan, who left a short time ago for Saskatoon, to go into the real estate office of Ross & Leonard, has formed a partnership in the real estate business with a man named Bates, under the firm name of Bates & Logan.

The West India steamer Oruro, Captain Seely, arrived at Partridge Island at 11:30 o'clock this morning, from Bermuda, Windward Islands and Demerara.

The Head line steamship Bengore Head, Captain Campbell, arrived in port this morning from Belfast, Ireland, via Port Talbot, in ballast. The captain reports a very boisterous passage, with strong westerly winds.

The outward cargo papers of the C. P. R. steamship Lake Manitoba, were filed at the Customs House today. Her cargo for Liverpool is valued as follows: Canadian goods, $92,588; foreign goods, $215,183. Total, $307,771. She has on board 923 bales cotton and 16,028 bushels of wheat.

The twelfth anniversary of Johnston Lodge, Ladies' Beneficial Orange Association was celebrated last evening in the Orange Hall, Germania street, Mrs. McLeod, mistress of the lodge, presiding. Officers and members were present and an enjoyable programme was carried out.

Mrs. John Boyle, of Carleton, who with a Dutchman, figured in public print recently, as having left her husband and gone to the States in company with the Dutchman, was, like her new love, turned back at the border, and is again returned to St. John.

Steamer Aberdeen which has been undergoing repairs and alterations during the winter, will be taken on Tuesday next from Indiantown to Hilyard's blocks, where some necessary additions will be made, after which her new furniture will be installed and she will then be ready for work as soon as navigation opens.

Band and races at the Queen's Rollaway tonight. After the last band all the fast ones will take part in a novel race. When the gun is fired none of the starters will know how far they have to skate. The number of laps has been put in an envelope, and the judges will open this after the start and they will then know how many laps the skaters have to go, but the latter will not know until the going is rung, after which there will be one more lap to skate. This race will test the judgment and speed of all the skaters.

Sunday, April 21st, will be observed in most of the Episcopal churches in the city, as Missionary Sunday. Special procedures will fill the various pulpits, including Bishop Richardson, Dr. Norman Tucker, Canon Cowie, Newham and Montgomery, and probably the Rev. Mr. Armstrong, the new rector of Trinity. The sum apportioned to the St. John churches for home, Canadian and foreign missions amounts to more than $3,000, and it is expected that a large part of this amount will be raised on the Missionary Sunday.

Archdeacon Lloy, the founder of the Rothesay Boys College, and former rector of Rothesay, is returning from England with a staff of about thirty clergymen and catechists, who will work in the Canadian northwest. The archdeacon's tour in Ireland awakened great interest, and even enthusiasm, as he told of the wonderful development of western Canada. He obtained many donations for his work, including the sum of $1,400 sterling from a lady in Ireland.

Reports this morning indicate no new developments in the disagreement between the carpenters' union and the contractors. All the men who quit work are now back, save those working for Clark & Adams and Contractor Dodge. It is understood that Contractor Dodge will accept the union's terms, but has no contracts on hand on which to employ the men.

Clark & Adams are willing to pay the union figure of $2.50 per day, provided the men are worth it. The contractors are opposed to the union in the matter of the closed shop.

The union will meet again Wednesday night unless something occurs to justify a special meeting being held in the meantime.
