Make Gains East of Poitiers—French Capture Powerful Position But Lose a Little Ground—Bad Day For German Aeroplanes

London, Aug. 2—Further progress has been made by the British troops to the east of Poitiers in the river Somme region. This was officially announced this afternoon.

Paris, Aug. 2—North of the river Somme last night, the French troops took a powerfully fortified German position between Hux Wood and Monacq Farm. This was officially announced by the French war department this morning.

On the right bank of the river Meuse, north of the fortress of Verdun, there was a violent series of engagements throughout the night at Vaux-Le-Chatre Wood and Chenois, expanding to the east as far as the south of Dunlop.

During the action the French took prisoners 100 Germans, including three officers. A Russian reconnoitering party made a bayonet charge in the Champagne region, dispersing a German detachment.

Along the Somme front aviators yesterday showed great activities. A total of thirty-three encounters took place over the lines of the enemy.

REPAIRS TO THE HOSPITAL IN ST. JAMES STREET

Some Work Necessary and Some Equipment Needed

LOCAL NEWS OF SOLDIERS

Farewell to Major Bishop—Some Transfers—First Pay Checks For the Kilties—The Matter of War Ribbons

That the military hospital in St. James is greatly in need of general repairs in order that it might be put in proper shape for the winter months was the verdict of Lieut-Colonel P. A. Guthrie, New Brunswick command, who inspected the hospital this morning, assisted by Major Laurie and Lieutenants Groves and Connan.

It is understood that patients have to be carried up the stairs on the shoulders of orderlies, owing to the fact that the stairway is too narrow to allow a stretcher to be used.

It is also understood that no instruments have been supplied for the hospital, and when they are required they have to be borrowed from some of the practitioners.

Some work necessary and some equipment needed, and that those in charge may have the necessary articles with which to work.

A special parade was held in the army this morning by the members of the new Field Ambulance Corps, including the warrant officers, N. C. O.'s and men, in honor of Major Bishop, who has severed his connection with the unit.

A farewell speech was delivered by Sgt. Major Westall and was brilliantly responded to by Major Bishop, who explained to the boys the unit how grieved he was in not being able to see them off.

The following transfers have been approved: From the 104th Battalion, C. E. F. N. E. Ferguson, lance Corporal, to the 104th Battalion, Pte. Caudet.

The members of the Kiltie battalion were much pleased this morning when it was announced that their pay checks had arrived.

It has been brought to the notice of the military officials at Ottawa that soldiers are in some cases wearing ribbons purporting to have been issued in connection with the present war.

ASQUITH HUNG AT POSSIBLE RE-APPOINTMENT?

Churchill and Carson May Be Back in Cabinet—Sensational Report About a High Official—The Irish Situation

London, Aug. 2—Some of the morning papers attach great importance to a remark made by Premier Asquith in the House of Commons yesterday, when replying to an enquiry concerning certain routine matters at the autumn session of parliament, he said:

"I do not know who will be responsible for the conduct of the business at the next session. I have not the faintest idea."

"This," says the Daily Graphic, "may be a preliminary hint that he intends to retire."

The Daily Chronicle says: "Things have not gone well with the government in the house during the last fortnight and in actual conditions. Some members are disposed to real a good deal into these words of the premier, hence a revival of the reports of a cabinet reconstruction, which rumor says will be accomplished in the autumn, with Col. Winston Spencer Churchill and Sir Edward Carson again in ministerial office."

London, Aug. 1.—(Mail and Empire, Toronto) "We have declared war on the coalition government, and we shall not be satisfied until we get them out," declared Joseph Devlin, Nationalist M. P., today. "We now believe that in the more generous atmosphere which has been created it is possible, and likely, that Catholics and Protestants will unite in finding a solution of the Irish question. British statesmanship has been proved bankrupt."

These, in substance, are the resolutions passed by the Nationalist members of parliament at a meeting in the House of Commons today. John E. Redmond presided.

The Vacant Judgeship

How the vacancy in the Supreme Court of New Brunswick is to be filled has provided material for much speculation. A seat on the supreme court bench is always regarded as a most desirable plum and many mouths are said to be watering at the thought of it.

The theory is, that after a careful canvass of the most eminent barristers of the province, the man whose qualifications set him pre-eminently above his fellows shall be chosen for the honor, but here politics usually puts a spoke in the wheel, and the man whose political claims are the strongest is liable to receive greater consideration.

For several years the name of M. G. Teed, K.C., has been mentioned as the one entitled to such an honor on the basis of merit and ability, but somehow or other, his name does not seem to creep into the discussions these days.

One reason is that the judge whose death has caused the vacancy, was an Acadian and a Catholic, and there are many who argue that none other should succeed him. Another reason is the well known desire of certain members of the government and the legislature to send a safe harbor before the storm breaks on the day of the next general election.

A despatch from Ottawa says that F. X. Robitaille, M.P.P. for Kent, is likely to receive the appointment, and Daniel Mulvihill, M.P. for St. John is also mentioned in this despatch.

Other rumors put Hon. A. D. Richards, a former member of an old-time provincial government, in the running. These rumors do not take into consideration the reported desire of both Premier Clarke and the attorney-general, Hon. J. B. M. Baxter, to escape the next election campaign and seek shelter in the quiet of the supreme court. It had been expected that opportunity would be given to one of these gentlemen in the quiet of the supreme court. Whether they will have the patience to wait for future events is another question.

It is said that Hon. Mr. Baxter is a supreme court judge than a candidate in the city of St. John. His leader, however, should have stronger claims on the party and, if either of them is to desert the ship, Hon. Mr. Clarke might be the man to go.

The powers that make the appointments also direct the political destinies of the party, and it is probable that they would be unwilling to make the confession of anticipated defeat that would be read into the retirement of any of the political leaders.

No matter who is appointed there are bound to be disappointments and the hard feelings engendered over other appointments of recent date, will be added to by the feeling which will follow the casting to the ground of hopes which have inspired some of the faithful friends.

And there, too, there is Hon. Mr. Haasen who certainly has prior claims if he cares to press them.

Paris, Aug. 2—An official statement issued today says: "We are now in possession of precise information regarding the rebellions of which two Hungarian regiments were the object. Two hundred and seventy men of this regiment were shot. The other regiment was the Thirteenth Landwehr. The 125 men who escaped from the Russians were shot by order of the chief of staff of General Von Linsingen."

Col. Wedderburn's Battalion, The 115th, Safely In England

Many St. John Officers and Men in This Fine Regiment; Their Work Here and Their Training at Valcartier; The Staff

Ottawa, Aug. 1.—It is officially announced through the chief press censor's office that the following troops have arrived safely in England: 103rd British Columbia Battalion; 109th Ontario Battalion; 112th Nova Scotia Battalion; 115th New Brunswick Battalion; 116th Ontario Battalion; drafts and details.

After several months of training on this side of the water, in St. John and at Valcartier, the 115th Battalion, New Brunswick, under command of the genial and popular Lieut.-Col. Wedderburn, is now in England to complete the special periods of instruction necessary before their going to the front. It is fully expected that they will uphold the enviable name already well established on the western front by thousands of other gallant Canadians, for the calibre of the men and officers of the battalion is of the highest.

They are a good, clean lot of men—a battalion of which any province might well feel proud, and the months which they have spent in drill have transformed them in appearance, movement, general efficiency and the various characteristics which are essential in the making of a soldier. Their stay in Valcartier was comparatively short. They were under canvas just about five weeks, but it was soon recognized that the battalion was the peer of any in camp, and they were warned for overseas.

Organization.

It is now some seven months since the battalion was organized. The recruiting was slow and rather discouraging, certainly not in keeping with what should have been, considering the fine class of men who joined the unit. "A" company is made up entirely of St. John boys and there are some scattered through the other companies, but the quota of local men with the unit is far too small, proportionately. Other battalions have taken "nick-names" into themselves, or have had them applied by the press. Those who know Wedderburn's motto was: "Well wait until we make a name for ourselves, before we are christened." Those who know the leader, his officers and men feel confident that they will easily acquire a name such as these other battalions. Canada have made when the time rolls round for them to take up their places in the long trench line.

When They Left St. John.

The departure of the 115th from St. John was not accompanied by the usual ceremonies of a farewell nature because of the railway orders regarding their removal in the early morning. Few people were in the streets—a small handful of relatives of the men who were going. It was to be regretted that they could not have had the send-off which others had, but the boys were happy for they realized they were on their way to the first stage of their journey toward the more stirring adventures awaiting them overseas. While in St. John, their conduct was excellent, for in the whole battalion, while the black sheep. They were well entertained by some of the church societies, and the men, especially those who were not in the city, deeply appreciated the kindness extended.

A most enviable name was won not only in St. John, but in other parts of the province by the battalion hand under Bandmaster Perkins, and their bands were further adorned at headquarters camp, for on several occasions they were selected from among the many bands here to play concerts at head-quarters, and to go to Quebec on special duties. The members of the band are artists, every one, and that they are regarded as a unit will be particularly gratifying to their numerous friends.

It is to be hoped that the battalion

The Yellow Sky Of Sunday

To the Editor of the Times:

Sir,—The appearance of the sky last Sunday has given rise to many opinions as to the cause of it, the general opinion being that it was the reflection of forest fires in Ontario. I do not pretend to have the scientific knowledge sufficient to settle the question. I do not believe that any other person can do so. As far as the cause is concerned, so far, none of the explanations have any scientific basis, nor even that of common observation or even common experience. Every theory advanced must be carefully investigated by the expert. Here is one suggestion which comes from only a cursory knowledge of astronomy, taken from the basis of the motions of the earth—which are too elaborate to describe here, but which may be referred to as the earth revolving on its axis, its annual motion round the sun in common with other celestial bodies and so on ad lib, with the largest motion of the earth universe sweeping along no one knows where through infinite space at the rate of millions of miles per hour or day as the case may be—I fear to state the rate of speed because I do not know, but scientists claim they can demonstrate it.

If this latter is true we are passing through the ether which may vary in its constituent elements, and produce different phenomena as we come into different sections of it, but which do not vary enough to interfere with life or continuity. It baffles imagination, but it is not possible that the effects may be produced by what a novice may be pardoned for stating—a new atmosphere for the time being—just as the aeroplanes strike an bird-like wing of his machine?

Take the idea of reflection, if it was a city burning, the volume of smoke would be small in comparison with forest fires, the glare of a city on fire would naturally go farther than any other form except that of a volcano, the height of which gives radiating power, and overcomes the earth curve. As far as I can recall, I have never heard of a city or town on fire radiating over 150 miles. If Montreal was on fire, I am doubtful if the reflection could produce the effects of Sunday as far east as St. John and Halifax. Smoke alone, without the glare of flame, is grey, not yellow, as a rule. The sun's rays might effect it under some conditions. It could only be when the smoke was dense, dense enough to smell it. No one has yet claimed they smelled the smoke in this city.

This looks to me as if the fires in Ontario are an impossible factor of that yellow sky. Why? I wonder how many have really watched a forest fire. Did they ever see a huge fire in a continuous blaze? I think not. It burns in flashes—the yellow of Sunday did not. It was continuous. Watch the forest fire and if you are near enough hear it as it climbs the balsam carrying foliage, with its rust and roar, and then note how quickly it dies down, two or three minutes, and then repeating the process further on, but the smoke is so dense that it hardly lights up the local sky. It may flash its brilliancy through the clear space around it, or be obscured by other trees. As a rule forest fires make too much smoke in comparison with the flames to warrant a reflection over the earth's curve a thousand miles or more.

Yellow skies such as those of last Sunday have been noted in New Zealand during volcanic eruptions and earthquakes—so that in common speech there it would be termed "an earthquake sky" why I am not competent to say. The whole thing is a mystery unsolved, and I for one would like to learn on a true scientific basis the reason for it. Some have regarded as trivial the results of the eclipse, or rather effects of it; that may have more to do with it than we imagine. The effects of the sun's rays, passing through the largest possible volume of the earth's atmosphere, just before the eclipse ended, and catching the atmospheric envelope at the particular point of a sun rise, continuing an hour or two after may have more to do with it than we are aware of. It is apparently one of the problems we have yet to solve.

Yours,
W. G. LANE.

YOUNG WOMEN HAVE CHANGE TO GO ON DUTY OVERSEAS

An urgent call has come from the St. John Ambulance Brigade, overseas, through the assistant commissioner, Dr. C. J. Copp, to Mrs. G. A. Kühring, commander of the voluntary aid detachment of this city, instructing her to enroll volunteers from her detachment to serve as probationers in the military hospitals in England. This call for help is strongly urged in a telegram received last night from Colonel Birdwhistle, general secretary of the Canadian branch of the St. John Ambulance Association. The terms of service are as follows: Probationary nurses, who should be between the ages of 28 and 38 years, of good health and education, will, if selected, serve for a month on trial, and if approved of their matron will be required to sign for six months or for the duration of the war, if it ends sooner. They will receive a salary of $20 per annum, board, laundry allowance, lodging and $1 per quarter for the upkeep of uniform. They will be required to work

NEW N. S. BATTALION

The new battalion to be called the 246th Reserve Battalion, C. E. F., has been authorized. This battalion is to supply drafts and reinforcements for the Nova Scotia Highland Brigade when they proceed overseas. This is to insure that the places of those who fall will be filled by men from this province. In this battalion one company will supply reinforcements for the 80th, another for the 180th, another for the 190th and another for the 210th. There are men who could not join the brigade at the time of the recruiting campaign. They should join the 246th Battalion and, on joining, say what battalion they wish to reinforce.

Service in Church of England Apohaqui—Gave up His Life in Defence of Empire

Apohaqui, July 31.—The service in the Church of England here, yesterday, was held as a memorial to the late Corporal Ralph Nelson Scott, who gave up his life "Somewhere in France" in defence of the Empire. A large congregation assembled, extra seats having to be provided. Special memorial services were added to the usual "common prayer" of the church, and the deep solemnity of the occasion brought tears to many an eye. Handsome flowers and banners were furnished for the church and other parts of the sacred edifice; the Communion table being entirely covered by a large flag and decorated by well arranged and displayed bouquets of flowers. Among the banners, which were for the most part "Union Jacks," some flags of the allies were shown. The music for the occasion, chosen from "the book of common prayer" of the Church in Canada, consisted of hymns 181—"Abide With Me," "Fast Falls the Evening" 188, "Holy Father, in Thy Mercy," 560, "My God, My Father, While I Stray," and 640, "There is a Green Hill Far Away." There were all favorites of the deceased.

The rector, the Rev. Mr. Shewan, founded his discourse upon the text—"Greater Love Hath No Man Than This, That a Man Lay Down His Life for His Friend." He paid a touching tribute to the young soldier and hero, Ralph Nelson Scott, who gave his life for home and country, fighting for truth and righteousness, "dying a sacrifice for you and me"—said the preacher—and now dead, resting in a hero's grave. Mingled feelings of sadness, Christian pride, hope, victory and a glorious triumph were caused by his noble death, and his burial, away beyond the wide ocean, "Somewhere in France." The only son of his father and mother, he left a comfortable home here to go out with the armies of the empire, not thoughtlessly, or from a mere spirit of adventure, but because he firmly believed it to be his sacred duty to offer himself to fight in the battles of the empire and his own homeland Canada, and if needs be to die. He has made the supreme sacrifice, and today we cherish his name and memory and true honor him. It is an honor to this community, his many friends, his father and mother, this church to which he belonged, to know that Apohaqui sent out this brave young man, among others to fight as a brave soldier and die a heroic death, even death has been for him, a glorious victory.

The whole sermon was a worthy tribute to the deceased and true earnest words of "truth and wisdom" showing the necessity, duty and glory of sacrifice. The service was a most inspiring one, with the bereaved friends and the near and dear ones present.

At the close of the service the entire congregation stood while "the dead march" and "God Save the King" were being given on the organ, the congregation joining heartily in the national anthem.

A very pleasing entertainment was given under the auspices of the Salvation Army in the Foresters' Hall, a few evenings ago. Excellent pictures of the war, of the British navy and celebrities of the war were thrown upon the screen. As usual in S. A. meetings, devotional exercises were engaged in, consisting of a short address, prayer and singing. "The Holy City" was given, without accompaniment, with fine effect by the army sister present. There was a good attendance, those present being evidently well pleased.

The new residence being erected by Mr. McCready, father of the editor of "the Sackville Post," is approaching completion. It will be a convenient and comfortable home, of good size, well planned and fitted up with all conveniences necessary for all year round accommodation. The site is a nice one, overlooking a pleasant view, and when "Campbell street," so-called in honor of one of the Canadian defenders of "King Hill home and country," who has gone overseas for the front of his battle, is laid out and opened up, Mr. McCready will be able to make his surroundings "a thing of beauty and a joy."

Great Success of Russians Continues; What The British Drive Has Done

London, Aug. 1.—The second anniversary of Germany's declaration of war on Russia finds the relative positions of the belligerents very different from the first anniversary. The Entente Allies are now pursuing a successful offensive on all fronts, and the Central Powers are virtually everywhere on the defensive.

The operations on the eastern front continue to surpass those in the west in dramatic interest. The military critics express great admiration for the Russian tactics, one of the important objects of which, in their opinion, has been to isolate the Austrians from the German armies on the Russian front. This it is now claimed has been virtually accomplished by the Russians driving a wedge into the Austro-German positions along the front of Kovel-Vladimir-Volynski.

The view here is that if the Russians have thus accomplished severance of the Germans from the Austrians, the most decisive result of the whole of the Russian General Brussloff's strategy will have been obtained, it being argued by the military observers that without German support the Austrian armies will become demoralized and collapse. They say that Austrian forces, commanded by Von Bothmer, between the Lipa and Dniester rivers, are doomed.

There has been no confirmation of reports received in Rome that Kovel and Vladimir-Volynski have been evacuated, but Rome is unusually well informed on Russian news.

Since Sunday's combined advance on the Somme line by the British and French, the situation there has been comparatively quiet. The French have sustained the brunt of the German counter-attacks launched against positions captured in this region. The Germans claim to have driven back the British, who had penetrated on a narrow front territory west of the Fouraux Wood, and to have successfully repulsed French attacks in the neighborhood of Maupas.

Paris, Aug. 1.—The efforts of the Germans last night were directed mainly against the extreme right wing of the French troops operating in the Somme region. From Sunday evening to last night, the Germans launched not less than sixteen regular attacks against the line between the Hem Wood and the Somme.

Paris, Aug. 1.—The net result of the British offensive on the River Somme, from July 1 to 15, was stated officially today to be that the whole first German position between Ovillers and Montauban, and the greater part of the second German position fell into British hands. Seven villages were retaken, and 32,000 officers and men were made prisoners. The military material captured included thirty-five field guns, a naval gun, an anti-aircraft gun, several large howitzers, and an enormous quantity of machine guns, trench cannon and munitions.

"Twenty-one enemy aeroplanes were brought down beyond question. A dozen were seen falling head downwards to earth."
The German losses in men, the statement says, must have been serious. The Germans have had to call numerous reserves and have brought to the Somme front within the period treated twelve divisions which were reposing or in other sectors. The average loss is correctly estimated, at about one division daily. This means a total during July of from 360,000 to 600,000.

German Strength in West.
Paris, Aug. 1.—The German army on the western front, according to authoritative sources here, consists of 122 divisions, comprising much more than half the German forces in the field. The precise strength of the divisions is unknown, some consisting of two brigades and others of three. Two brigade divisions on war footing have 14,000 men, and three brigade divisions 21,000, hence the total strength of the force on this front is assumed to be somewhere between 1,700,000 and 2,000,000.

Numerous prisoners recently taken are of the 1917 class, that is from 19 to 20 years of age.

BOARD OF HEALTH

At the monthly meeting of the board of health yesterday afternoon the business transacted was of a general routine nature, there being present Senator Daniel, Secretary T. M. Burns, the health officer, Dr. G. G. Melvin, and other officers of the board.

The quarterly report of Dr. Melvin was submitted, dealing with board matters to the end of June.

Dr. T. Fred Johnston, dairy inspector, submitted reports with respect to his inspections of the various premises which come under the direction of the board both in the city and the rural districts. In the matter of the inspections so far made in the counties of Queens, Kings and Sunbury the report showed that in Kings county there are 158 milk producers and 290 producers of cream. Of this number the applications of three milk producers and one cream producer had been rejected. In Queens county there are sixteen cream producers and in Sunbury twelve. The total number of cream producers now operating in the three counties is 277 and 153 producers of milk. The total of both is 430. Since the inspection one milk producer and one cream producer have made the necessary improvements and have been passed. Twenty-five others visited are not shipping their produce. There are yet several premises in these counties to be visited.

Instructions were issued for the procuring of badges for the inspectors.

Red Cross Work In Connection With Our Wounded NEVER OUT OF SIGHT

More Than 10,000 Dominion Patients in Hospitals in England at End of June—Red Cross News From Canadian Points

The official Canadian casualty list now contains more than 25,000 names. This constitutes a large army of wounded whose treatment devolves upon the Canadian Medical Service assisted by the Red Cross.

From the beginning to the end of his weary pilgrimage of pain the wounded Canadian soldier is never out of sight of the Canadian Red Cross. No matter how great the number of casualties—in the last week of June, there were more than 10,000 Canadian soldier patients in hospitals in England—the Canadian Red Cross informs itself of the condition of each individual, visits and relieves his immediate wants and makes provision for his comfort. The staunch support given by the Canadian Red Cross to the medical service has been the means of restoring thousands of fellow Canadians to health and life.

The Canadian Red Cross Society requests all workers to make no more surgical pads, compresses, or wipes, or roller bandages, until further notice. Col. Fogarty, the commissioner overseas, and Col. Noel Marshall, the chairman of the central executive, who have together made a recent tour of inspection in England and France, announce that for the present the Red Cross have a sufficient supply of these articles.

Workers are requested to continue making socks, shirts, pyjamas, dressing gowns, housewives, kilts, and comfort bags.

25,000 pairs of socks were sent out in one day from the Canadian Red Cross Depot at Boulogne.

The Red Cross Prisoners of War Bureau at Bern, Switzerland, sends weekly parcels to more than 14,000 prisoners. Each parcel contains four pounds of bread.

In the big Canadian hospital at Trepport, France, where treatment has been given to nearly 11,000 soldier patients, the death rate has been only three-fifths of one per cent.

The Victoria, B. C., Red Cross has in the last six months collected $27,088 and shipped 208,588 articles.

Since the first of the year seventy-five new branches of the Red Cross have been formed in Canada, thirty-seven of which were in Saskatchewan.

The Kingsville Convalescent Home for Canadian nurses has recently been opened near Margate, England.

There are 780 Canadian nurses in the various Canadian hospitals in England and France.

The St. Dunstan's Red Cross hospital for blinded soldiers has now 180 patients.

The Canadian Red Cross recently contributed 1,000 cases of supplies to the Russian Red Cross.

At each of the Canadian hospitals in France a recreation hut has been erected.

St. John Leads In Recruiting

From a report compiled yesterday by the chief recruiting officer of the province, it may be noted that since November 4, 1915, the province of New Brunswick has given no fewer than 8,405 men to the defence of the empire, or nearly 1,000 men a month. In the total for that period the county of St. John stands out prominently, having given 2,188 men, and the second highest contributor being Westmorland county with 1,292 men. All the other counties throughout the province are far below these totals quoted. Separate figures for New Brunswick prior to November, 1915, are not available, but there is little doubt quite as many men, if not more, were raised during the first fifteen months of the war, as in the last nine months. If this was the case, then New Brunswick, with a total of 16,000, has accomplished the task of raising as many men as Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island.

During the month of July St. John gave over four times as many recruits as any other part of the province, having 224 men to her credit, the total of the entire month in the whole province being only 527 men.

The official report for the period is as follows:

Toronto, Aug. 1.—Word was received here today of the safety of the Hollinger, West Dome, Consolidated and Moneta mines. The letter has property on Kirkland Lake, where it is believed that eight to ten men perished.

News of the safety of the Hollinger mine at Timmins will be gladly received in St. John as several former residents are interested. A. R. Globe is manager there and his wife is also a St. John girl with her sister also living at Timmins, while Rev. C. H. Sampson's son is also at Timmins. Previous press reports said twelve buildings were burned at Timmins and that there was considerable anxiety regarding the Hollinger property.

THE EMERSON MOTORS COMPANY is incorporated with a capital stock of one million shares, each of a par value of $10.00. Three hundred thousand (300,000) shares of this stock is 7% preferred, but at the present time all the Preferred Stock is in the Treasury. The Treasury also holds at present $1,000,000 par value of the Common Stock. The company has no debts, has a substantial cash treasury and is actively engaged in manufacturing its first cars at its factory in Long Island City, New York. DEMONSTRATING CARS ON DISPLAY IN NEW YORK CITY TODAY AT SHOWROOM, 1748 BROADWAY, CORNER 56TH ST. The Officers and Directors include:— Willis Geo. Emerson, Chairman Board of Directors. T. A. Campbell, President (formerly Treasurer and General Manager of the Imperial Automobile Company). R. C. Hupp, Vice-President (formerly Vice-President and General Manager of the Hupp Motor Co. and automobile engineer of international repute). George M. Campbell, Secretary and Treasurer (formerly Secretary and Factory Manager Imperial Automobile Co.). M. L. Shanks, Assistant Treasurer (formerly Secretary of the Mowrach Motor Car Company, of Detroit, Mich.). J. L. Sullivan, Assistant Secretary.

George B. Gifford, Director (General Manager of the Standard Oil Company (Bayonne Works) 25 Broadway, New York, N. Y.). Jesse R. Leonard, Director (Director Columbia National Bank, Pittsburg, Pa.). Charles A. Towne (Ex-United States Senator from Minnesota, now of the firm of Towne & Spellman, Attorneys, 115 Broadway, New York, N. Y.). Amos H. Stephens, General Counsel (30 East 42d street, New York City). In addition to these the Advisory Board contains the names of many men prominent throughout the United States in the banking and business world. The books of this Company are audited once every month by the American Audit Co. This new five-passenger touring car, to sell at the low price of $395, is the result of Mr. R. C. Hupp's many years' experience. During Mr. Hupp's long experience in the automobile world, and in the course of the evolution of the automobile industry for the past fifteen years, during which period his fame has become international, he says, after carefully checking everything over, that this new creation is without question the most perfect in design, durability and line of any low-priced automobile ever made. It is well known that Mr. R. C. Hupp's approval and opinion of this new car is eminently worth while. He started with the Oldsmobile in 1902. At that time the car was sold at $650, when other automobiles were selling from $2000 up. Mr. Hupp was graduated from the Oldsmobile Works to the Ford Company, in 1905. Through Mr. Hupp's knowledge and experience while making the lowest priced automobile in the world, with the Oldsmobile Works, he became one of the factory with Henry Ford in the production of the first $500 Ford runabout. In 1908 Mr. Hupp and associates organized the Hupp Motor Car Company, producing a car at $750 which at that time was lower in price than the car while the Ford Company was turning out, as the Ford Company had advanced the price of their cars to $975. Under Mr. Hupp's management the Hupp Company sales jumped from 500 cars the first year to 5000 cars the second year, and an original investment of less than $10,000 grew to a cool million dollars by 1912. When Mr. Hupp disposed of his interest and retired from the company, owing to the fact that he did not agree with the policy of his associates in bringing out a higher priced car. This same year Mr. Hupp organized the R. C. H. Corporation, manufacturing and selling a touring car that was lower in price than any other car made except the Ford, and the very first year produced 8000 cars, and had contracts with dealers for 19,000 additional cars, making a total sale of 27,000 for the first year. Mr. Hupp has also had some experience in manufacturing higher priced cars, but his hobby has always been, and it has been his aim and ambition to make and sell the lowest priced car in the world. For fifteen years he has concentrated upon this one dominant idea, and at last has perfected a car so cheap to buy and so economical to operate that it can be owned and used by practically every family head in this country. This new design, approved by Mr. Hupp, is the result of fifteen years' effort to make a low priced car and a car that can be operated at a low cost and that will stand up and give a greater service for the money than any other automobile made. The car itself is as well built, good to look at and easy to ride in as its higher priced competitors. It is a pure stream line body, with all late improvements, and will not only appeal to the public at large, but will prove a consistent, satisfactory method of transportation suitable for the man or woman in any walk of life. While the car will particularly appeal to those of limited means because of its low price, yet its graceful lines, ample power and economical expense of operation will create for the car a demand among every class. An itemized estimate of the cost of manufacturing and marketing these cars, based upon a production of 30,000 cars per annum, beginning in 1917, indicates a net profit of $69 per car, after making a liberal allowance for the cost of manufacturing, advertising, selling, overhead expenses, &c. After allowing the 7% dividend on the entire issue of Preferred Stock, it indicates a profit of $1,850,000, or sufficient to pay dividends of 20% per annum on the Common Stock, besides setting aside $460,000 to surplus.

These figures are based on an estimate carefully compiled by men who know the automobile business and successful pioneers in the industry. This new car should average 20 to 27 miles or more to a gallon of gasoline, and at the present high price of gasoline this in itself is a decided argument in favor of the use of this car. The profits in the automobile industry are too well known to require comment. The day of experiment has passed. To-day the industry, the third largest in the United States, is on a substantial and highly profitable basis. The greatest profit is being made in the manufacture of low priced cars. The demand for the car that we propose to build is apparent to everyone. The cost of manufacture has been carefully worked out, and after proper allowance has been made for the increased price of raw material and for any contingencies that may arise, there yet remains a net profit of $60 per car, based upon an annual production of only 30,000 cars. That this profit can be and should be increased by the increased production is self-evident. That the sale of the Preferred Stock at par will insure a sufficient capital to enable this company to go on a profit-earning basis seems an assured fact. That the Common Stock will soon become more valuable than the Preferred seems inevitable. The Company proposes to adopt the most modern business methods, paying cash as it goes, and carrying a conservative, business-like administration. The most progressive methods of manufacturing and selling will be adopted.

DUCEMAN FALLS IN WITNESS STAND

Robert and Ward Stevens, brothers, are in the police court this morning argued with drunkenness, willfully making windows in the saloon conducted by Richard Caples in Brussels street, using obscene language and also with slitting the police. They pleaded guilty to the first charge, but say they could remember nothing as to the others. Policeman Hayes told the court of what happened. Policeman Fuller was next called, and then in the act of stepping into the witness stand became weak and collapsed, falling to the floor. Court officials ordered with him for some time, and he covered sufficiently to be removed to a guard room. Dr. W. F. Roberts was not for and had the man removed to his home. In falling, Policeman Fuller struck his head and face against a sharp corner of the witness box. However, nothing serious was anticipated and it is thought he will be around again in a few days. The two prisoners were remanded tomorrow. In the course of Police Officer Hayes' evidence he said that the proprietor of the saloon refused to come court to give evidence. The magistrate replied that "if they do not come willingly, then we will take them by force." In consequence a summons will be sent to the saloon keeper. L. King was fined $8 or two months' jail for using abusive language to man named Kimball. King endeavored to explain to the court that Kimball had threatened to shoot him and attempting to get an explanation of a threat from the complainant, he used a language. The place the affair occurred did not seem to meet with the view of the court, and the defendant was fined.

FURTHER WORDS COMES FROM W. F. HATHWAY

A delayed postal card from W. Frank Hathway, dated Paris, July 6, says:—
"We arrived here two days ago and go to Italy on the 22nd. We will go to England for all of August. We are getting details about trade. France buys only $1 from Canada for every $3 we buy in France. The people are expected to buy of us if we deliver. I saw San Bay College annual meeting in the Salle at Blois."
La Presse of Montreal, in its issue of July 27 prints a picture of the Canadian trade delegates inspecting the serial transport at Bordeaux, and the clearest photo in the group is that of Mr. Hathway, who is easily recognized.

The Man In The Street

Preserving season again and the aromatic odors from the preserving kettle fill the house with suggestions of good things to eat when winter comes again. While they are at it, 'tis a pity the housewives cannot preserve a bit of this weather for use later on.
But when it comes to dealing with the provincial government it will not be preserved; it will be "canned."
There was almost as many explanations of the atmospheric conditions on Sunday morning as there were explanations.
But it must have been an opponent of the present government who started the rumor that the murky skies were due to the reflection from the ruddy highways throughout the province.
In addition to the minister's promises we would like to see some work on these roads.
It takes more than a promise to swing votes in New Brunswick.
The foundations for the new grain elevator will not cost much money so long as the elevator continues to remain up in the air.
The government officials should get together and make their stories agree before they begin to tell why the elevator should be built in Water street.
Meanwhile, the Courtenay Bay works are dismissed with a lordly wave of the hand.
Everyone has forgotten about the U. S. war with Mexico, except the National Guardsmen who are still doing duty on the frontier.
Carranza backed down when Uncle Sam showed signs of going to war. Why doesn't our esteemed neighbor make a few shapes of the same kind at the nation which has murdered more of her citizens than Mexico has?
The hyphenated vote across the border seems to be about as popular with the presidential candidates as skunks would be at a garden party.
And just about as popular as the provincial government is with the electors of New Brunswick.
Here's hoping that the "Deutschland" never reaches Deutscher Land.
Full Details
Captious critics occasionally have objected to accounts of weddings in which no mention is made of that insignificant member of the cast, the bridesmaid. The reason for this is that, on this ground, in a recently contrived story which not only gave the bridegroom's name, address and family history, but going further into details, admitted that he "looked very nice in a neat blue suit with white collar and cuffs."
Every Hammer Was Hammered
Even if Every Hammer did hammer, Johnny O'Leary could hammer a bit more, judging from the result of the fistic encounter last evening in which the Canadian light-weight used Hammer, the American ring artist, as an avvil. A name like that is a handicap when one can't deliver the goods.
No, Uncle Sam
You can't always tell by appearances. A citizen who is always ready to crack a joke met on the street an old man whose whiskers and other attributes coincided closely with the commonly accepted idea of that fabled person who stands for the United States.
"Hallo, Uncle Sam," he said.
But "Uncle Sam" did not appreciate the compliment, and he expressed his views on the subject with fluency and profanity. It was not so much what he said as the way he said it that convinced the would-be joker of his error. The brogue in which the remarks were clothed were convincing evidence of the error. The joker bowed before the storm and blew away.

A GERMAN TRIBUTE TO CANADIANS

Pte. L. E. Ogler of Carleton Sends News Home

PERSONAL EXPERIENCE

Sees Gallant Act at Ypres Performed by Slight Young Soldier—A Touching Tale of the Battlefield

In a recent letter sent from Flanders by Pte. Leonard E. Ogler to his mother in West St. John, was a clipping from an English paper which reads as follows:
"How the Canadians fought at Ypres is now related by the Germans themselves. The Cologne Volks Zeitung today in an otherwise fanatic report, says: 'Many of the Canadians made an obstinate resistance, and preferred to be killed rather than surrender. Many little groups of Canadians, who resisted desperately and refused all mercy, had to be cleared out with bombs. A general and several officers, who refused to surrender, were killed. The general drew his sword, and when a sergeant demanded his surrender he cut him through the face, whereupon an infantry bayoneted him while he was still fighting like a madman.'
Private Ogler adds the following, and as he was in the thick of the battle where so many Canadians fell, he speaks with authority:
"This story is quite true for lots of brave deeds are done right here in the trenches of which the world will never hear. For instance, I saw a slight young fellow about the height of brother Powell, half drag, half carry three big husky soldiers who were wounded out of the line of danger and then came back and fight like mad. All the time the shells were bursting and bullets flying around him. That is the kind of fellows this battalion is made up of. They seem to be fighting for something more than the love of war. You would have laughed had you seen me the first time on my way to the trenches, dodging the bullets which were flying hundreds of yards above my head, but when I got in the first line of trenches it was different. We made the Germans dance to the tune of our bullets. Would like to be with you today in God's own country. Canada for mine, but we intend to fight to the finish and some day see the British flag flying over Berlin. Hurrah, boys!"
"You said in one of your letters that Rev. Mr. Sampson held special prayers every Monday for our soldier boys. I bet the old home church is crowded or should be. It is good to go forth to battle knowing that the people are praying for God to watch over and protect us in the time of danger. I especially am thankful for being spared after coming through that big fight. It was one of the worst bombardments since the war started. I am sending also this clipping, taken from an American newspaper:
"Quite near me lay two soldiers mortally wounded; one, a Bavarian, young and fair-haired, with a gaping wound in the stomach, was lying close to a young Frenchman, hit in the side of the head. Both were in horrible pain, groaning piteously and piteously.
"In the midst of my own distress I saw a feeble movement on the part of the Frenchman, who painfully slipped his hand under his coat for something hidden away in his breast. At last he drew forth his hand, and in it a little silver crucifix, which he pressed to his lips. Feebly but clearly he began 'Hail, Mary, full of Grace.'
"Then, as I watched, I saw something which moved me to tears. The Bavarian opened his blue eyes, which were already glazing with approaching death, turned his head toward the Frenchman, and with a look not of hate but almost of love, finished in a murmur the prayer, 'Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners now and at the hour of death.' The eyes of the two men met and they understood each other. They were two Christians who, companions in like misfortune, wished to die as Christians.
"In a sublime outburst of charity the Frenchman held out his crucifix to the other, who kissed it, and taking him by the hand said: 'Having served our country, let us go to God reconciled.'
"Their eyes closed, a shiver ran through their bodies, and they passed away. The sun disappearing behind a purple cloud, shed a golden gleam on the two blood-stained bodies."

BOYS ESCAPE
Two boys escaped from the Boys' Industrial Home last evening, and so far no trace of them has been found. The report reached police headquarters this morning and the police are on the watch for the youths. One figured prominently in the W. H. Thorne & Co. robbery, and also in several other local breaks. He escaped about a month ago and was captured at Montreal.
