Alkali in Shampoos
Bad for the Hair

If you want to keep your hair looking its best, be careful what you wash it with. Don't use prepared shampoos or anything else, that contains too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it. The best thing for steady use is just ordinary unperfumed coconut oil (which is pure and practical), and is better than anything else you can use. One or two spoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply massage the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get unperfumed coconut oil at any pharmacy, it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.

Removes Hairy Growths
Without Pain or Bother

(Modes of Today.) It is not necessary to use a painful process to remove hairy growths, for with a little delicate handy you can keep the skin entirely free from these beauty destroyers. To remove hair, make a stiff paste with a little powdered delatone and water. Spread this on the hairy surface and in about 2 minutes rub off wash the skin and the hairs are gone. To guard against dis- appointment, be careful to get real delatone.

The annual meeting of the St. Martin's Telephone Company was held yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the law offices of Barnhill, Ewing & Sanford, Princess street. The usual reports were read and adopted, showing that the company was in a very flourishing condition. The same officers and directors were re-elected, and are as follows: President, W. A. Ewing; vice-president, Richard

O'Brien; secretary, George Black; directors A. W. Mackin, Robert Carson and T. B. Carson. "How did your husband's gardening turn out?" "Not well so far," responded the serious woman. "The outdoor work gave him such an appetite that he ate the potatoes instead of planting them!"

The Man Who
Banished Corns

Blue-jay was invented by a scientist of distinction. By a man whose lifetime has been spent in the study of surgical dressings. This is a master's method—correct, complete and efficient. And the millions of people who know it, never think of enduring a corn.

All in One

The first step is to stop the pain. This is done by removing all pressure—by the soft protecting ring marked A. The next step is to gently cause the corn to disappear. This is done by the remarkable B & B Wax, which no corn can resist. This bit of wax—marked B—is centered on the corn. It cannot spread. So, unlike old-time methods, it acts on the corn alone. C is rubber-coated adhesive. This snugly wraps the application, protecting everything. You apply this Blue-jay in a jiffy. The corn pain stops at once. The wrapping is comfortable and you forget it. In two days you remove it and the corn can be lifted out. Only rare corns need a second application. This is the scientific way, the easy, sure and right way to end corns. You will never return to any wrong method when you try a Blue-jay once. Try it tonight!

THEY MUST KEEP FAITH.

Canada cannot have two governments at the same time. If public officials, sworn to do their duty to the public, break that oath at the command of any group of citizens and go on strike they are trying to set up another authority than that constituted by the votes of the people. Obviously the government cannot at the same time maintain authority and permit it to be set at naught by employees of one of its own departments. The postal employees in Winnipeg went out on a sympathetic strike, and so interfered with the rights of the people of Canada, whose mail should be forwarded and their business carried on without any such interruption. Sir Robert Borden is perfectly right in the stand he has taken in this matter when he says—

"The people of Canada cannot tolerate the proposal that, under such circumstances, civil servants shall be permitted to violate their engagements, to dilate the public service, to occasion the public inconvenience and suffering and to put aside all respect for public duty. The government cannot restate men who have deserted their posts under such circumstances, unless it is prepared to abandon all effective attempts to maintain the national services."

A FITTING MEMORIAL.

The proposal to provide Acadia University with a thoroughly equipped modern gymnasium as a memorial to the heroes who went out from its halls to make a noble part in the great war is one that must commend itself to the Baptist people of the maritime provinces. Acadia's record is a very notable one. Of those who had been students within its walls six hundred went to war and sixty gave their lives. One hundred and fifty received wounds and forty-eight received decorations for bravery. That is a proud record. These young men had to be physically fit, and the war has shown that physical fitness is a necessary part of the training of youth. There is sometimes a danger that a student will devote too much attention to physical culture and not enough to the cultivation of the mind, but such are extreme cases, and the young man who is physically fit can better stand the strain of mental effort. Hence the Acadia memorial will not only be a fitting tribute to the memory of strong young men but a most valuable addition to the educational plant of the university, for the benefit of students of both sexes.

ANOTHER COMMISSION.

The cost of living is to be investigated again. The country would be more impressed by the announcement if anything had happened after former investigations were completed. Not only is there to be a "wide open" enquiry but the mayors of cities are asked to investigate on their own account. The people are not half as much interested in the enquiry as in what the government proposes to do. The mayor or any citizen of St. John can go out and have several different prices quoted for the same article of food in different stores, the difference in some cases being very marked. That is apart altogether from what may be the difference between the original cost and what the consumer pays. This habit of appointing commissions and getting nowhere in the end is not one to be commended. Divided statements tell why some prices are too high, and in other cases the explanation is found in the eagerness of individuals to get rich at the expense of the mass of the people. "All the trade will stand" is their motto. Unless the government provides machinery to reach the small as well as the large producer the ordinary consumer will go on paying more for many things than they are worth. The unorganized consumers have no redress, except to deny themselves things they need until lack of demand brings prices down.

VOCATIONAL TRAINING.

The provincial vocational training board which held a session in this city yesterday is setting out in a practical way to get results. The suggestion that the governments of the three maritime provinces should exert their combined influence at Ottawa to ensure favorable treatment for the smaller provinces is an excellent one and will of course be supported heartily by the maritime members of parliament. The federal government will be of much benefit in getting the system of vocational training properly established. In the meantime the New Brunswick provincial board has a fairly good appropriation, and is taking practical steps to provide for the training of teachers, without which the system would fall down. The board will also carry on an educational campaign, and has appointed a committee to prepare a tentative course of vocational instruction along commercial and industrial lines suitable to this province, and in home economics, for pupils of high school age. The town of Woodstock has the honor of being the first to get a local vocational board. St. John should be next. In the discussion at the city hall last week the question was raised whether the board would have authority to make unlimited assessments for its purposes. A careful reading of the section relating to that question shows that in the case of cities and towns the authority to assess rests with the city or town council, and not with the board, which can only recommend. This may not be always agreeable to the board, but, as Director Pencock observes, it is the democratic way, and recognizes the principle of responsibility to the tax-payers. The way is clear for a practical movement that should give St. John vocational classes next winter, but no time should be lost in making a beginning. It is desirable that a vocational board composed of active and progressive citizens be appointed to inaugurate the system.

What will today's budget do to the high cost of living? The whole country is asking that question. Unless the tariff is reduced where reductions will be of benefit to the ordinary consumer of limited means there will be a bitter budget debate.

If the West End Improvement League turns its playground into an out-door boxing arena the city council should have something to say. That would certainly be a new use for a public playground.

The one big union idea is still being promoted in the west, but it is not making much headway in Winnipeg, where the authorities and veterans are preparing for more aggressive action.

The British commons is again considering a federal system of government for England, Scotland and Ireland—which means home rule for each in regard to local concerns.

The Anglican synod of Ontario still bars women from membership. If the women should decline to give aid to the synod in its work there would soon be a different story.

The landing at St. John of the airman on route from Halifax to Three Rivers will add greatly to local interest in the matter of airplane service.

MODERN JOAN OF ARC IS FLORENCE WOOD

Schomberg Honors Number of Returned Soldiers—Miss Wood's Record

Schomberg, Ont., June 5—About three hundred citizens of Schomberg and vicinity tendered a banquet to a number of returned soldiers in the Market Hall. Among those was a modern Joan of Arc, Miss Florence Wood, who, after recruiting seven hundred soldiers in the west, went overseas and served for two years and a half under the French government, by the courtesy of the British authorities. During this time she rendered gratuitously first aid to the wounded and served as an ambulance driver. She was at the fighting front and was wounded three times, treated twice, and has the distinction of having been decorated by the French and Belgian authorities.

EMPLOYES TO GOVERN MILLS

Large Hosiery Plant at Durham. North Carolina, to inaugurate New Republican Plan at Once. Greensboro, North Carolina, June 5.—Going even a step farther than the employer representation plan which is being inaugurated in a few of the large industrial plants in the United States, the eleven hosiery mills at Durham, North Carolina, largely owned and operated by Gen. Julian S. Carr, banker and mill owner, are to be turned over to the employees under a form of government similar to that of the United States.

The general Carr announces that the experiment is to be put into operation at once and that its primary object is to avert any possibility of trouble between capital and labor. It is understood that the employees are much pleased with the proposal and will enter into the plan with enthusiasm.

The miniature government to be set up in the mills is already outlined, and under it the employees of the factories will constitute a house of representatives, the managers forming themselves into a senate. The organization will work on practically the same plan that operates in the United States Congress. Meetings will be held at which all questions will be discussed and legislation passed in concurrence by the two branches. It is hoped that by this method differences which have arisen in the past will be exhaustively discussed and settled upon their merits in a true co-operative spirit.

"I guess you are right. But you know I never had any use for medicines." "Not many people have so long as they are well, and you were always well until you had this nervous breakdown. That was just the trouble, you thought you could stand anything, and overworked until you had not an ounce of nerve force left. Now you have to build up the nervous system again." "Oh, I will soon be all right." "Yes, I think you will if you use Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, but you know you have not improved one bit in the last three weeks, and it's time you got something to help you. I was not a nurse for nothing. I know what you need and I never found anything in all my nursing experience that would build up exhausted nerves so thoroughly as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food."

To-day she lives in England: is the sphinx of Europe and holds in her hands the keys to the political secrets of the world. She sees no one. But a girl got to her: walked and talked with her and she tells the fascinating story.

Suppose You Spend $500 a Year in a Store: You Get $60 Back at the Year's End: When Your Husband Loses His Job, Your Bread Comes Just the Same Without Cost, The Doctor Comes, Smiles, But Takes No Fee

The nurse comes when the baby comes, stays a week and charges nothing. A dream? Not at all. It is actually happening to millions of women who have found the way out of the problem of high prices. An actual remedy. It is not a theory. It is being done. And any community can start it. Read about it in the June LADIES' HOME JOURNAL. This article alone is worth the 20 cents you pay for the magazine.

The Greatest Peace Conference in the History of the World

You have often wondered what the conference looks like. Here you can actually see it exactly as it looked in a full-page painting showing the famous Clock Hall in Paris, the President of the United States speaking; with Clemenceau, the French Premier; and Lloyd George and the entire Conference listening intently to the President's words. It is a souvenir painting to treasure. Thousands will be framed. It is one of 6 colored paintings in the June LADIES' HOME JOURNAL.

What is the Englishwoman Going to Do Now?

She helped in the war. Now what? Here is the story from her viewpoint: for the first time. We have heard what others think. But what does the Englishwoman herself who helped think? What are her plans? What is her future? Meyer Bloomfield went to England, saw hundreds of women, talked with them, and what he writes is what they said to him. It goes to the very core of the woman problem.

Both Articles are in the June Ladies' Home Journal

As Buffalo Bill's Bride—Where?

The wife of the great Western scout tells, in her autobiography, of her strange honeymoon in the Far West: of her first sleepless night on the plains, waiting for dawn; her first experiences in a frontier saloon and her first baptism of fire. So thrilling a romance could not be told by any other woman. It is in the June LADIES' HOME JOURNAL.

A Girl on a 5th Avenue Bus Had a Cough

She sat down next to an aviator. The girl coughed and rasped and gasped. The "nos" stood it as long as he could, and then applied his cure. And it wasn't medical either. "Breathe," said the girl. "Climb down," said the ace. And you're in the midst of one of the most interesting stories in the June LADIES' HOME JOURNAL. Two illustrated full-color beautiful pictures.

A New Way of Shopping

The war has brought it about. It has happened: it is upon us and we hardly know it. But every woman should. Do you know about it? Read "The Idea of a Pioneering Woman" in the June LADIES' HOME JOURNAL.

A French Girl and a Borrowed Son

When the world loaned its sons to France, the Frenchwoman said "I will protect," while they, the homesick lads, oft sorely tempted, kept strong the faith in fact, though slippery the path. One such story of "A Borrowed Son," that charms and holds, is in the June LADIES' HOME JOURNAL.

Can You Write 500 Words on a Postal Card?

It isn't easy. Now think of writing over 3000 words. And then 4700 words! And then, most amazing of all, 12,191 words on one postal. Written with the naked eye and a pencil too. All three postals are in the June LADIES' HOME JOURNAL.

Carpets of Flowers Near the North Pole

It is almost unbelievable. Thousands and thousands of acres of buttercups, heather, bluebells, rhododendrons: flowers, flowers everywhere; literally carpets of them, with pigeons and trout and birds by the thousands, and all 12 degrees from the North Pole, in the most northern village in the world. It is hard to believe, but here are the photographs and the facts to prove it in the June LADIES' HOME JOURNAL. And not a single flower has an odor!

How Can I Start a Community Kitchen?

Scores are asking this all over the country. For the community kitchen is coming. It is already here in scores of communities. Here is told the simplest way of starting one: 3 or 4 families as a beginning. Two home demonstration agents tell it in the June LADIES' HOME JOURNAL.

We Must Know the World Woman Today

A woman has just traveled half around the world and gives you a picture of women that will surprise you. It shatters many a notion; upsets many a theory. You think you know women until you read "The World Woman." It is in the June LADIES' HOME JOURNAL.

There are New Bridal Cakes

Entirely different from those that we have known before. They are pictured in the June LADIES' HOME JOURNAL.

When One Woman Says Another Woman is "a Cat"

Every other woman seems to know what she means. Some men think they do, too, but they are wrong. It is too deep for the masculine mind, unless it gets the idea from a clever story of "The Cat That Got the Bird," which explains what it all means. But will women agree with what the story discloses? Read it in the June LADIES' HOME JOURNAL. It is one of nine delicious bits of romance; all in one number.

BUILDING HOMES FOR AUSTRALIAN SOLDIERS

Adelaide, South Australia, June 4.—There will be many tributes in Australia to the gallantry of her soldiers. In Adelaide, at least three are already contemplated, including a large hall to be erected by the returned soldiers to their fallen comrades, and a monument the cost of which will be subscribed by the women. However, the greatest tribute of all, perhaps, is the practical one of home building for the soldiers and their dependents. It is estimated that the cost to the Commonwealth to build the necessary houses will be between £50,000,000 and £60,000,000. South Australia alone spends to spend £2,000,000 to £3,000,000 on these homes. Although a large number of the men will settle on the land the great proportion will be domiciled again in the city and suburbs. The state government is now considering an offer from a private contractor to erect some thousands of homes a year, probably at the rate of $,000 and it may be accepted as a means of disposing of a difficult and pressing problem. Extensive agricultural schemes are also in course of preparation for absorbing these returning troops and several training farms have been established along the banks of the Murray.

PARIS SUGGESTION FOR USE OF THE GREAT GUNS

Paris, June 5.—The most astonishing of all the suggestions made for beating the sword into the ploughshare is that of M. de la Baume Pluvet, president of the French Astronomical Society. He believes that the German "Berthas" or long-range guns of the type that was used to bombard Paris can be utilized to study the composition of the upper atmosphere. His plan is to have the big cannon fire into the air special shells equipped with devices to register the density, temperature and pressure in the higher reaches of the air. Pointed vertically one of these guns would fire a shell 78,000 meters (nearly fifty miles) in 125 seconds, or about two minutes. M. Duchesne, a naval artillery engineer, is studying the problem and experiments are expected soon.

Consumers' Coal Company Service Goes Far Back of the Mere Delivery of the Coal by Team

It starts with the selection of Coal at the mine. The quality from all mines varies, some being good, others indifferent or very poor. At a cost of thousands of dollars and careful investigation, we have learned the best and most reliable sources of supply; and with this knowledge our Service begins. Coal cannot be selected with too much care.

Again, we place at your command, a large stock, comprising all sizes of Coal, at all seasons of the year. True, we can serve you more cheaply in summer than in winter, but, think of the convenience of our all-the-year-round Service.

Our facilities for taking the "raw" Coal, as it comes from vessels or cars, and screening out the slack and dust, so detrimental to a good fire, and giving it to you in absolutely the best condition, is another part of our Service.

Our Delivery Service—The above illustration represents the Consumers Coal Company delivery equipment in August, 1917, which has since been enlarged by three new horses and three new motor trucks, bringing up our delivery capacity to the household to 195 tons per day.

Opera Company in Imperial Lift St. John Out of its Reserve and Audience is Most Enthusiastic

St. John music lovers experienced some old time thrills in Imperial Theatre last evening when Gounod's powerful story of Goethe's immortal story of Dr. Faust's pact with the Devil was presented by an all-star cast of the Boston English Opera Co.

There was a popular belief that the rate of exchange between Canada and the United States would settle to more equal terms upon the conclusion of the war.

Joseph Sheehan and Hazel Eden were satisfying to the fullest degree as the great Marguerite (Miss Eden) and Mephisto (Mr. Green).

The staging of the opera was true to story and simple and the effects in fire, electricity and facial make-up employed to make Mr. Gite a regular devil.

St. John is certainly having a feast of good made this week, sung by artists of international repute.

NICE TODAY.

Ideal summer weather prevailed today, the thermometer registering sixty-eight degrees in the shade with a light breeze blowing. Weather conditions were reported good in other parts of Canada, with the warm wave still existing. The probabilities for tomorrow are for a continuation of warm weather.

AFTER LONG ABSENCE.

Dr. Vernon C. Stewart of Woburn, Mass., son of Rev. Dr. W. J. Stewart, formerly pastor in several Baptist churches in this city and now living with his son, is in the city at the Royal. Dr. Stewart is renewing old acquaintances after a long absence dating back to his leaving High School here. He has been salmon fishing in the province and will return Saturday.

NOT KNOWN TO BE FACT.

A rumor has been busy about the city that men were required for work of reconstruction in France and Belgium, but so far as local military authorities know there is no foundation for the report. It seemed to spread, however, and apparently quite a few believed in it for some thirty men have applied to be sent. While there is undoubtedly a vast amount of work necessary in re-establishing the devastated areas of Belgium and Northern France, so far as is known no call has yet been sounded for help from other parts and indeed it is believed that sufficient labor will be forthcoming from the other side to deal with the work.

IN COUNTY COURT.

In the county court this morning, His Honor Judge Armstrong presiding, the case of the King vs. John Hayes was taken up. The defendant is charged with stealing a quantity of liquor from the premises of the O'Neill Pharmacy, Brussels street, a vendor. The prisoner was tried at the last court on the charge of breaking and entering and stealing, and on the charge of breaking and entering and acquiring property by fraud. He agreed on the theft charge. Daniel Mullin, K. C., is appearing for the prisoner. The court had to adjourn to allow additional jurors to be summoned and the case was to be resumed this afternoon.

MATTERS AT CITY HALL

The matter of granting permission to the N. B. Power Company to place a track connection at the corner of Union and Sydney streets and to operate across the block between King square and Union streets came up before the commissioners this morning. Commissioner Fisher had moved that the company be granted the permission under the usual conditions, but with the added condition that the payment of two bills for paving done in 1918 and which the railway company had refused to pay be demanded.

Commissioner Thornton objected to this clause on the ground that the granting of the present request was a public benefit and he recommended that Commissioner Fisher should try to arrange the matter with H. M. Hopper, general manager of the street railway. This was agreed to.

The matter of an increase to the men engaged on the city works was laid over until Monday's meeting.

Commissioner Thornton reported progress on the work of the new electrical bye-law, which was now in the hands of the city solicitor. Commissioner Fisher said that he was opposed to the general conditions of the new bye-law, as he thought that the terms laid down would make the installation of electricity too expensive.

NO GRANT YET FOR VOCATIONAL TRAINING

Commissioner Bullock's Motion Not Seconded

Messrs. Jones and Thornton Speak in Opposition—Decided to Ask School Board to Appoint a Vocational Training Board

The question of a grant of $5,000 from the city for vocational training came before the city council in committee this morning. Although a motion was made by Commissioner Bullock that a grant be made, there was no seconder and the meeting adjourned after passing a resolution that the school board be petitioned to appoint a vocational training board, in accordance with the terms of the vocational training act. There was some adverse criticism to the introduction of the system.

Mayor Hayes presided and all the commissioners were present. The mayor said that this province was perhaps behind the others in the launching of the vocational training system and he thought something should be done so that the work could be commenced concurrently with the opening of the fall school term, or soon afterwards.

Commissioner Jones said he was not sure that this scheme was what was required at present and thought the manual training and night schools should be incorporated in the school system. He did not see any particular need at present and the money spent on vocational training could be put to better use in the school system.

Commissioner Fisher said that the night schools were carrying out a different line of work than that planned under the vocational training scheme. "Vocational training should be taken up by the city," he said, "but was not fully in accord with the construction of the vocational training act."

"If the city is in control of grants for this education," he said, "I am in support of the enterprise."

Commissioner Bullock said the public schools were too much crowded to admit of the introduction of vocational training along with the present subjects. He said the act provided for education in industrial, commercial and home economics after a child had reached the age of 12 to 14 years. He favored voting $2500 towards carrying the process started and then await the requirements of the board for 1920.

Commissioner Thornton said he opposed a grant for this purpose. He said there was not sufficient money to carry out street repairs, etc., and he was therefore not in favor of it.
