WEDDING BELLS RING MERRILY

Happy Nuptial Events Were Celebrated in the City Today

WEDDINGS WERE MANY

The church of St. John the Baptist was the scene of a very pretty wedding at six o'clock this morning, when Miss Alice Teresa Alexander, daughter of Thomas Alexander of Charlotte street, was united in marriage to Harry E. Crowley, son of the late Timothy and Mrs. Frances Crowley. The ceremony was performed by Very Rev. W. F. Chapman, V.G. The bride wore a handsome champagne silk dress with Parisian border, and carried a bouquet of white roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Jean Alexander, who wore a dress of Alice blue silk with pink trimmings. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations. The groom was supported by his brother, the Rev. Mr. Crowley. After the wedding, the bridal party went to the home of the bride's parents, 85 Charlotte street, where a wedding breakfast was served. The house was tastefully decorated for the occasion. At nine o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Crowley left on the S.S. Governor Cobb for a trip to Boston and New York. On their return they will reside at 22 Wall street. Both the bride and groom have many friends in the city and elsewhere, and received a large number of handsome presents. The groom is employed as city traveller with the Schofield Bros. paper dealers.

HEARDON-MARTIN

Two popular young people were married this morning in St. Peter's church, when Rev. J. H. Borgmann, C.S.S.R., joined in wedlock Ernest William Heardon, of North End, and Miss Katherine Agnes Martin, daughter of Thomas Martin of Chapel Grove. The bride was given away by her father. Many friends were assembled to witness the ceremony, after which a wedding breakfast was served at 29 Adelaide street. Later in the morning the bride and groom left on the steamer to Boston and other eastern states cities.

MISS MARTIN

Miss Martin was given in a nestling costume of cream silk and wore a veil trimmed with lilacs-of-the-valley. She was assisted as bridesmaid by her sister, Miss Edith Martin, and as bridesmaid by Miss Mary McCarthy while J. J. Gallagher supported the groom. Miss Hanlon was nicely dressed, in cream lace over green satin and wore a white picture hat. She carried a shower bouquet of white carnations. The bridesmaid, Miss McCarthy, was attired in a pretty gown of pale blue silk and wore a black picture hat. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations. After the wedding a dainty breakfast was served at the home of the bride in City Road and later Mr. and Mrs. McCarthy left on the D. A. R. steamer for a trip through Nova Scotia. On their return they will reside at 137 City Road. They were happily remembered by friends who showered them with useful and valuable souvenirs of the nuptial event.

ROBERTSON-ARMSTRONG

At the home of the bride's parents in Moore street, this evening at seven thirty o'clock, Miss Lillie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Armstrong, will be united in marriage by Rev. J. J. Walsh, to John Allingham Robertson. The bride will be dressed in blue silk. She will be unattended. After the wedding a reception will be held and luncheon served, and Mr. and Mrs. Robertson will drive to their new home in Broad street. The groom gave to his bride a diamond ring and a gold bracelet and each of them was remembered by his and her parents with a check for a well rounded figure.

COOBY-ROBSON

A very pretty wedding took place this afternoon at half-past two o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, 240 St. John street West, when Miss Myrtle E. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Robson, was united in marriage to Charles T. Cooby, a popular motorman of the St. John Railway Company. The bride was given in a very pretty travelling suit and hat to match. The officiating clergyman was Rev. Mr. Scovill. After the wedding a repast was served the bride and groom left on the 5.05 train for a trip to Fredericton. On their return they will reside at 131 Guilford street, West.

SIR RUFUS ISAACS IN CABINET

Recent Changes in British Cabinet Arranged by Wireless, First Time in World's History

New York, June 12.—A cable from London this morning to the New York Times says: The announcement that the king had approved the appointment of Attorney-General Sir Rufus Isaacs to be a member of the cabinet, creates a precedent, inasmuch as he is the first attorney-general ever included in the cabinet. The chief ministerial whip, authorizes the statement that the appointment is entirely personal to Sir Rufus, and is not intended necessarily to be a permanent appointment. An explanation of the appointment is the desire of the premier to strengthen the legal element in the inner council of the ministry in view of the withdrawal of Lord Lorburn, but the Daily Mail points out that in no cabinet in recent times has the legal element been stronger, thus justifying H. G. Wells' criticism that the country is governed by lawyers. Sir Rufus is a barrister, and a solicitor by profession, namely: Asquith, Lloyd-George, McKenna, Balfour, Lord Haldane, Lord Morley and Sir Rufus Isaacs. "Thus," says the Daily Mail, "the legal profession steadily strengthened, and its grip on the government of the country, and displacing the business and land owning elements." Lord Lorburn's resignation as lord high chancellor and Lord Haldane's acceptance of the post were arranged by wireless, probably the first time in history that such an event was conducted in that manner.

GOLD COINS FOR TRIPLET

Little Bank Account in Canadian Gold For The Trio

Toronto, June 12.—Three of the new Canadian gold pieces have passed into the possession of three little babies just the same age themselves. The gold coins had reached Toronto from the mint when Mrs. George Moore, 32 Broadway Avenue, North Toronto, presented to her husband a set of fine and healthy triplets. The husband, who is employed by the Warwick Bros. and Beatty Company, was given the new arrivals as good-luck tokens. The babies are two boys and a girl and weigh five pounds each. Mr. Moore is a recent arrival from England.

GIVEN UP FOR LOST

No Word of Steamer Mound Oswald Since February—Forty or Fifty Men Aboard

Berlin, June 12.—One of the unreported tragedies of the sea has just come to notice in the mysterious disappearance of the Hamburg-Trans-Atlantic freighter, Mound Oswald. The steamer left Baltimore on Feb. 17 with a heavy cargo of merchandise and was due in Hamburg in the first week in March. She has never been heard of since her departure from Baltimore. A few days ago the consignees of the cargo were officially informed that the insurance companies which were responsible for amounts aggregating $100,000, were now ready to pay the total due on the policy. She was a first-class boat of 5,000 to 6,000 tons and carried a crew of forty or fifty men.

LITTLE LADS, PLAYING WITH MATCHES, ARE BURNED TO DEATH

Quebec, June 12.—Ernest and Rene Casagony, eight and four years old, children of Ouis Casagony, were burned to death in their home this morning. Playing with matches they set fire to window curtains.

CONGRESS OF CHAMBERS OF COMMERCE VOTES ON TRADE MATTERS

London, June 12.—The Congress of Chambers of Commerce of the Empire today adopted the proposal of the Toronto Board of Trade in favor of preferential trade within the British Empire, by 122 votes against nine. Fifty-eight chambers of commerce abstained from voting. Another resolution urging trade reciprocity and close political union between the British West Indies, Canada and Newfoundland in view of the approaching completion of the Panama Canal, was also adopted. The new congress is to be held in Toronto in 1915.

C. P. R. GETS THE QUEBEC CENTRAL

London, June 12.—A special meeting of debenture holders and shareholders of the Quebec Central Railway Company today unanimously ratified the leasing of the railroad for 999 years to the C. P. R.

EX-GOVERNOR HUGHES AS COMPROMISE CANDIDATE

That is The Rumor In Republican Convention

THE MANIPULATORS

A Study of the Men Who Make and Work the Machines Which Are at Work in the Convention for Either Taft or Roosevelt

(Registered in accordance with the copyright act of Canada, unauthorized use either in whole or in part or colorable summaries thereof forbidden.) Special to The Telegram and Toronto Star. By H. F. Gadsby. Chicago, Ill., June 11.—Of course each candidate has his machine, if you mean by machine, a campaign committee. Taft has his on the floor of the Congress hotel which, by the way, they are now calling the Taft floor. Roosevelt has his on the thirtieth floor. There is no discouragement in thirteen, and Senator Cummins of Iowa, who may be a compromise choice, has his on the next floor, or somewhere near. Senator La Follette, another dark horse, stables at the Grand Pacific Hotel far from the maddening crowd's ignominious "Tedy" will have to do more than go round the corner to get him.

MORE BIG DEALS IN LOCAL REAL ESTATE ARE REPORTED CITY TODAY

Several in Negotiation—Winnipeg Man Buys Courtenay Bay Property—Mr. Finnegan Sells—Brussels Street Transaction Closed—Sale at Lakeside

That the activity in Courtenay Bay real estate has barely commenced is shown by the fact that negotiations are in progress for some of the largest deals in property in that section which have yet taken place, yesterday when H. F. Gordon, of Winnipeg, bought the two lots on the south east corner of Broad and Loch Loche. The lots were originally sold to a local man who was turning them over at an advance sale of more than 100 per cent. The sale was arranged by Armstrong & Bruce. A new real estate firm, under the name of Jardine & Rive, has been formed the members being A. C. Jardine and Rupert M. Rive. The new firm will have offices at the Dearborn Building, Prince William street, on the ground floor. Henry Finnegan has sold his freehold property with three story brick building, on the corner of Prince William and Duke streets to outside purchasers. The price shows a substantial increase in the selling value of the property. The sale of a large block of property on the south-east corner of Brussels and Richmond streets to a western syndicate headed by W. E. Chambers of Winnipeg has been completed and the transfer of the following properties to Mr. Chambers has been recorded today: Michael Higgins, one freehold and leasehold properties in Brussels street; H. H. Waterbury, two leasehold properties, one in Brussels street and two in Brantford street; D. H. Haley to John Duffin, one leasehold; J. MacMillan, one leasehold; and J. MacMillan, one leasehold. The following sales of leasehold properties have been recorded: W. A. Reed to J. H. Armstrong; J. H. Armstrong to Mrs. Eliza J. Armstrong; Mrs. E. J. Armstrong to J. B. Armstrong; and J. B. Armstrong to W. E. Scully. Wm. Palmer to Miss Catherine G. Palmer. Wm. Walker to W. A. Steiger, property in Hillyard street.

MUST BE LARGER SALARIES FOR THE MINISTERS

Declaration of Rev. Dr. Grant at Presbyterian General Assembly—Greetings From Methodists

Edmonton, Alta., June 12.—Ten superintendents will be named by the Presbyterian general assembly to supervise the work in the newer districts. Almost a dozen men of the west protested that the number was quite insufficient but Rev. Dr. A. Grant, the general superintendent, was dead to the point, saying there was no provision in the budget for more than ten. There was a determination in the church he said, that the present low and inadequate salaries of the ministers must be increased. This task was undertaken it would be impossible in his judgment to set apart more than ten men for this work of supervision.

REFORM OF FRANCHISE IN ENGLAND

The bill will give one man one vote on a short residential qualification, with the simplest possible form of registration, the voter being at the public expense. A clause fixing all the elections for one day may be added. The official women suffrage amendment to the bill cannot be forthcoming until the bill is printed.

MAY BE TROUBLE OVER WOMEN VOTERS—UNIONISTS HOLD SEEN

London, June 12.—Premier Asquith announced in the House of Commons today that a franchise reform bill would be introduced at an early date. The bill will give one man one vote on a short residential qualification, with the simplest possible form of registration, the voter being at the public expense. A clause fixing all the elections for one day may be added. The official women suffrage amendment to the bill cannot be forthcoming until the bill is printed.

SULPHURIC ACID IS FORMED IN AIR

People of Land Stricken by Eruption of Volcano Have New Trouble

Cordova, Alaska.—Although six days have passed since the Katmai volcano burst forth in eruption, there has been little relief here from the volcanic smoke, and ashes. The first real danger from the volcanic action was made apparent last night, when a heavy rain began to fall, the water mixing with the ashes in the air, forming sulphuric acid which burned painfully whenever it came in contact with one's face or hands. The slightest whispering from the Pomoran brings a food cart from the owner. Expensive hair wash is rubbed on the dogs, and gold and silver mounted combs and brushes are adjuncts to each cage. Bouquets of carnations and roses adorn several of the cages. There has been a heavy fall of snow in Nottinghamshire. According to the Daily Mirror, the roads are covered with lumps of ice, and the fruit crop is badly damaged. King George, at the local agricultural show at Guildford yesterday, won the special prize of the short horn society for the best bull calved in 1911, and first prize for the two year old heifer class.

MR. BENTLEY WELL PLEASSED WITH THE COUNTY OUTLOOK

A. F. Bentley of St. Martin, the opposition candidate for St. John county, arrived in the city last night. In conversation with those reporters this morning he said that he was highly pleased with the manner in which the opposition campaign was being carried on in both the city and county, and predicted that the opposition would have a sweeping majority in both.

SCHOONER AND STEAMER ASHORE ON COAST OF NOVA SCOTIA

Halifax, N. S., June 12.—A telegram to the marine and fisheries agency from North Sydney this morning reported that the schooner Eliza, lumber laden, 100 tons, had struck on the north side of Cranberry ledge while entering North Sydney Harbor last night. She was obliged to jettison her deckload of shingles. The vessel is considerably damaged and is still aground. Steamer Atlantic, a small coaster, ran ashore at Ivy's Point in Halifax harbor this morning, will come off at high tide.

FOUR-MASTER ABANDONED CAPTAIN AND CREW OF THE JUDGE PENNEWELL ARE RESCUED IN GALE

Beaufort, N. C., June 12.—The four-masted schooner Judge Pennewell, from New York for Jacksonville, founded in a gale off the coast of Charleston on Sunday night. Captain Moore and his crew of six men were compelled to abandon the ship and seek refuge in nearest lifeboats, from which they were rescued, all by the steamer Santiago from Brunswick, N. Y. The revenue cutter Seminole is searching for the derelict vessel. The 329 ton schooner was owned by Deane J. Fooks of Seaford, Del.

FIFTY-NINE RUSSIAN LABORERS BURNED TO DEATH IN A BARN

St. Petersburg, June 11.—Fifty-nine field laborers were burned to death early this morning while sleeping in a barn near Tombove, central Russia, on a property belonging to Count Orloff Davidoff. The cause of the outbreak is not known.

TOWN FLOODED BY WATER FROM CLOUDBURST

Sheridan, Wyoming, June 12.—A wall of water from a cloudburst in the mountains last night swept down Clear Creek canyon on the town of Buffalo, partly wrecking the place and probably causing several deaths. Early today the water was entering the second story windows of the telephone exchange. Buffalo has about 2,000 inhabitants.

KERR WILL NOT GO

Hamilton, Ont., June 12.—Bobby Kerr, one time champion of Canada, and a selection for this year's Canadian Olympic team will not go to Sweden. He says that his showing this year has been disappointing to himself, and that he does not feel he can get back into his oldtime form.

A SCHOOL FINANCE PROBLEM

Montreal, June 12.—According to reports to the Catholic school commission to provide school books and accessories gratuitously to all the children in attendance at local Catholic schools, would entail an annual expenditure of from $20,000 to $40,000. The matter has been left with the finance committee.

THE JUNIORS

On Victoria Square last night the Pirates defied the Bugtown Woodchoppers, 8 to 4. The battery for the winners was Dunlop and Pirie, and for the losers Logan, and Sharkey. McClelland was the umpire.

DEATH OF INVENTOR

Moorehead, Mass., June 12.—Chester H. Pond, aged sixty-eight, inventor of the self-winding apparatus generally used in clocks, died here last night. He was a native of Medina, Ohio.

AGAINST TOBACCO AND THE BAR

Toronto, June 12.—At yesterday's session of the Genesee Conference of Friends, a resolution was carried, protesting against the growing of tobacco and another resolution in favor of the abolition of the bar.

WORK GOES ON AND IT LOOKS AS IF SAILORS AND FIREMEN WILL NOT JOIN IN TROUBLE

London, June 12.—With the exception of half a dozen ports where there has been a partial response to the demand of the London leaders of the Transport Workers' strike for a national stoppage, the call to strike has thus far been abortive. Work in provincial shipping centres is proceeding almost normally today. According to the opinion of well informed persons it is safe to prophesy that the ballot being taken among the members of the Sailors and Firemen's Union will not result in the necessary two-thirds majority being obtained for the whole union to join in the strike and, falling the party of its 60,000 members, the strike is foredoomed to failure. About 10,000 non-unionist strikebreakers are now working in the London docks.

STEALING DELEGATES IS THE GAME NOW

Roosevelt's greatest strength with the masses is the bunch of delegates that flock about him, and Roosevelt knows it. That is why men like Pinchot and Lindsay are rushed post haste to the Congress Hotel. Their silent presence is a help and an inducement to the masses. It is safe to say that the scene of confusion in the Congress Hotel lobby. They are under orders to do something better than keep quiet. Stealing delegates is the game just now and there are many ways of stealing them, including moral suasion. To make moral suasion most effective there must be some one on the spot and to make sure of their kind of suasion you must have men who are experts at it. Colonel Roosevelt is in spite of the burralls and the brass band, a cautious and careful campaigner. He overtook no chances.

HUGHES AS A COMPROMISE?

Taft's margin of safety in the convention will be small. If the seventy unattached delegates from New York were withdrawn from the Taft column for any purpose it would mean deadlock. Already there is talk of Taft delegates giving him the double cross. The cooler heads are thinking of a compromise candidate, say Charles M. Hughes of New York, who has not been either a Taft or Roosevelt supporter. Such a candidate might prevent the republican party running on the rocks. Meanwhile, Senator Cummins, Senator La Follette, Governor Hurdley of Missouri and other possible dark horses are being urged not to take sides. They are candidates for the presidency.

NATIONAL STRIKE IS FAILURE

Chicago, June 12.—To dispose of the Arizona and California cases, set for today, and the Louisiana cases next on the list of states, the republican national committee set its meeting for nine o'clock today with the prospect of an all day and long night session. The California case, in view of the statement made on Monday by former Senator Dick, promised to bring the title to the whole state delegation into question, owing to an alleged conflict between the California state primary law, and the official call of the republican national committee issued last December at the meeting in Washington.

THE BEST PART OF THE MACHINE

The unofficial end of the Roosevelt machine is the best part of it. Men like Clifford Pinchot, James Garfield, Judge Ben Lindsay, keep dropping into the Congress Hotel to plug for Roosevelt. These men are volunteers, not regular, they stand for friends who go shoulder to shoulder fighting for good causes. They represent gratitude and the crusading spirit and they are the best kind of help because they are in earnest. They are about as ideal as it is possible to get on the rough rider's side.

THE ENGINEER OF THE ROOSEVELT MACHINE

The engineer of the Roosevelt machine is Senator Dixon, the colonel's campaign manager. He is ably assisted on the floor of the national convention by Senator Pinchot. The Chicago end of Colonel Roosevelt's organization is in the hands of Edwin W. Sims, who was born in Canada. He has been a citizen of the United States ever since he was five years of age. Mr. Sims has many relatives in that part of Canada. The machine work of the national committee is in charge of two clever lawyers, Dick and MacHarg, the former for Taft, the latter for Roosevelt. Their duty is to stand by disputed delegates and to make the worst appear the better reason as often as possible. So far Colonel Roosevelt's agent has had about as much success as the devil's advocate in a case for condemnation. The last presidential nominating convention, Dick and MacHarg were on the opposite sides of what they are now. That they have changed sides means no inconsistency. It simply means that a fat bribe knows no party difference what machine they drive.

CONGRATULATIONS

Doctor and Mrs. F. H. Neve are today receiving congratulations on the arrival of a son at their home in Carleton.

PUT THEM OFF. A street car conductor last evening proved to two rowdies who got on his car going to North End that he was capable of taking charge of it without any assistance from his porters, and they probably regret the fact that they interfered with him in his duties, for they bear testimony to the event in their consciences. The two young men, who hail from Carleton, began to make some nasty remarks which were audible to female passengers and the conductor promptly stopped the car and, though they resisted, was fully successful in ejecting them. The car was crowded and the affair caused some excitement.

WOR FOR WILLIE. During the morning school the children had been examined and their eyes tested according to the education authorities' latest decree.

Those who were suffering with any defect had notes given them to take to their parents. Among the note-bearers was one William Thomson, and the note he bore was as follows: "Dear Sir,—I beg to inform you your son William shows signs of astigmatism, which ought to be attended to at once. Yours truly, John Wise, headmaster."

In the afternoon Willie brought this note. "Dear Sir,—I don't know just what it is that Willie's been doing, but I walloped him well this dinner time, and you can have another go at him if he's not better."

NOTHING LIKE SYSTEM. "Don't tell me you can't remember things!" murmured Jobba to Dobba. "Memory is all a matter of system. Now, in what year was the Battle of Agincourt fought?"

Dobba pleaded that his memory failed him on that interesting historical fact. "Exactly!" replied Jobba. "Now, how many days are there in a week?"

"Seven," came the answer. "Multiply by a hundred—fourteen hundred. Number of days in June, thirty. Half of thirty, fifteen. Fifteen and fourteen has dried?"

"Fourteen hundred and fifteen," hazarded Dobba. "Right! That's the year of the battle. System, my boy. That's what does it—system!"

Father (to his daughter's suitor)—I have had news for you. I am ruined! I have lost everything!

Insulting Ladies in Streets — A Vigorous Complaint and a Call to the Police

A vigorous complaint against the activity of young men who loiter around the principal streets during the evening and insult unprotected ladies by their attention has been made to the editor of The Times by a young woman who has been annoyed in this manner. From her own experience she knows the annoyance and the frequency of this annoyance and asks if nothing can be done to put an end to it.

The matter is one which deserves the attention of the police. St. John has always prided itself on the safety of people in its streets and those who endanger this reputation by their conduct will receive little sympathy if they are given the treatment they deserve.

His Honor acceded and made an order, similar in all cases, that the registrar of the court, Dr. T. C. Allen, make the appointment. Mr. Penney is the only other master who can be appointed.

Everything the season offers in headwear newness for the little ones is represented in this select assemblage, in which extra quality white Milans are most prominent. ST. JOHN IS IN LINE

Last night's Liberal meeting in the north end has given new force and vigor to the fight for better government. The large attendance, the keen interest shown by the audience, and the very hearty reception given to Messrs. Foster, Knowlton, Mahoney and Kierstead, proved beyond question that the citizens of the north end will do their part on June 20 to roll up a majority for the opposition candidates.

It will be achieved, its services become of incalculable value. It cannot be said of the present government that it has been a pathfinder in the way of progress. The money which it has expended has not produced the results which the people had a right to expect. The members of that government are politicians and not statesmen. They have thought too much about political results and not enough about the public good. They have been tried and found wanting. The manifesto of the premier does not give any assurance that its future will be any more productive of public benefit than the past. Mr. Copp, on the other hand, appeals to the people with a policy which, if carried out, will put the government of the province in the right place, at the head of a general forward movement along new lines of development of the highest value to the province. His platform is an appeal to the young and vigorous manhood of New Brunswick to rise to the height of a splendid opportunity.

Another week and the campaign will be over. Make that week count for good government. The Grand Chief Templar of the I. O. G. T., though a Conservative, opposes the Fleming government because of its duplicity. It has a bad record. The Fleming government has attempted to conceal its gifts to political friends by inventing the names known as Mr. Various Persons. "Take the road monies absolutely out of politics and put them as closely in the hands of the people as possible, is my policy."—A. B. Copp. Mr. Copp was given a great reception in Milltown last evening. The opposition candidates in Charlotte are clean and able young men, who will make splendid representatives in the legislature.

Commissioner Wigmore finds a pump out of order and the city's water supply in danger. The citizens will be glad to know that the commissioner has found something to do of more value than attemping to bolster up a falling provincial government. The Standard asserts that if the independent ticket in Northumberland is elected it will support the Fleming government. Then why does it oppose a member of the Fleming government? Tell that story to the marines. Speaking at Moncton last night Hon. H. R. Emmerson made a striking statement concerning the relation this election bears to the policy of the C. P. R. in this province. The Fleming government has given entirely too much to the big corporation. "If we can get young men, who are members of large families, instead of leaving the province to take up new land with money secured at a low rate of interest, or to improve the land already in possession of the family so that it supports a larger number, then we are doing a splendid service for New Brunswick."—A. B. Copp. Mr. Foster's exposure of the reckless methods of the government in the matter of the Southampton railway and others is in itself enough to convince the people that we have had enough of this sort of public policy. This province has no money to throw away. Hon. Dr. Pugsley at Little River last evening exposed clearly the weakness of Mr. Hazen as an advocate of the claims of St. John as a ship-building centre. The charge made is unanswerable. Yet Mr. Hazen is here to support a government weaker than himself. The Standard once again reads another explanation. Day after day it has been assuring them that there would be no opposition to the government in Northumberland Co. Yesterday the news came that an opposition ticket had been selected. Not a single seat therefore in the whole province will go by default. The opposition to the government is strong in every constituency. Mr. Fleming has realized the fact for some time and has been hurrying about the province trying to mend the fences. The Standard has unwisely continued to shout that there was no opposition worthy of the name and that things were going swimmingly for the government. Only another week remains for active work in this campaign. The friends of the opposition should make it a week of earnest work in the interests of better government. So far as St. John is concerned the sentiment in favor of the progressive policy laid down by Mr. Copp is steadily growing, and the Liberal candidates are meeting with a cordial reception on every hand. St. John has much at stake in the election. This city wants the Valley railway pushed through to Grand Falls and operated as part of the Intercolonial system. The attitude of the Fleming government toward this important work is such as to arouse the gravest suspicion concerning their motives and intentions. Mr. Copp is pledged to carry out the original plan of construction of the Valley Railway, giving through connection and competitive rates. St. John, therefore, should support the candidates who uphold the policy of Mr. Copp.

It is stated that when a Charlotte county man picked up the Standard this morning and glanced at its first page he fervently ejaculated:—"Thank Heaven!" Being asked by a curious bystander why he gave thanks, the Charlotte county man pointed to the following announcement, set forth in very large type:—"Mach-rakes are at work in Charlotte." The bystander was still unlightened. "I don't understand," he said. "Why, don't you see," said the Charlotte county man. "They have begun work on the roads." The man from the border county added that he supposed the fight put up by Messrs. Mann, McAllister, Gilmore and Bryon had so frightened the government that they felt that something must be done, and they had tackled the roads. "They are a little late," he said. "But I must congratulate them on the unerring instinct with which they have selected the proper machine to use on our roads down there. The muck-rake's the thing!"

The political platform outlined by Mr. Copp in his manifesto is one which should appeal with special force to the young men of the province of New Brunswick. Far too many young men have found it necessary in years past to go beyond the bounds of their native province to earn a livelihood. There has been too much stagnation at home. The back to New Brunswick week is in itself a confession that in the past the policy of governments has not been of a sufficiently progressive character, and the development of the province has not proceeded with sufficient vigor. There were, of course, special reasons for failure to make the most of the opportunities which were offered by a province rich in resources, but that is past; and the citizens are today face to face with an opportunity which, if they take advantage of it, will mean a rapid growth in population and in wealth, the development of resources and the creation of new industries. The policy which Mr. Copp presents for the approval of the electors is one which must appeal to young men. It proposes to make the most of the opportunities which a government may have to encourage the development of resources and to build up the province. It will give new hope and confidence to the farming community; it will make country life more desirable, and check the exodus which, in some counties of the province, has actually lessened the population during the last ten years. If the towns and villages are to grow and prosper, they must have a growing and prosperous country behind them. When we say that a certain policy is of benefit to the farming community we say also that it is of benefit to the towns and cities. At the present time in the city of St. John the people are looking forward to rapid growth of population, as a result not only of the new relation into which this port has entered with the great transportation interests of Canada, but because it is recognized that there is also to be a growth of profitable industry. Of what benefit would it be to the province of New Brunswick to have St. John become a larger city of, at the same time, the rural communities lost population and the product of the farms diminished? It is obvious that city and country must progress together. It is pretended that any government can of itself make a province prosperous, but if the government pursues a wise and progressive policy, encouraging every legitimate forward movement, and so directing the expenditure of public monies that the best possible results will be achieved, its services become of incalculable value. It cannot be said of the present government that it has been a pathfinder in the way of progress. The money which it has expended has not produced the results which the people had a right to expect. The members of that government are politicians and not statesmen. They have thought too much about political results and not enough about the public good. They have been tried and found wanting. The manifesto of the premier does not give any assurance that its future will be any more productive of public benefit than the past. Mr. Copp, on the other hand, appeals to the people with a policy which, if carried out, will put the government of the province in the right place, at the head of a general forward movement along new lines of development of the highest value to the province. And then I fled, because I found, Alas! it was her brother.—Minna Irving in New York Sun.

"Yo' jes' remind me, pabson," the man in the back seat answered meekly, "what' Ah let' mah knif."

Plays and Players

CHARTER NEWS OF THE GREEN ROOM

Emma Dunn, since she played in St. John, has met with distinct and lasting success in the American cities in which she is a prima favorite. She attributes her success chiefly to stock experience, and it is a young player who makes his range for acting very limited.

While it is true that some stars by their beauty or personality have had their names emblazoned in electric lights without stock experience, they are suited to comparatively few roles and are the exception that proves the rule.

It pays to take your work seriously, and this is the advice I wish to offer young players who have yet to climb the ladder of success. It is a long tedious journey, with many unpleasant experiences and means leading an artificial life.

Now that the Governor's Lady has made its success, I want to make a confession and it is that my one ambition for a number of years has been to star for Mr. Belasco. Even when I was in stock I would see that he received a copy of all the press notices that meant anything to me, and I never allowed him to forget that Emma Dunn was knocking at his door.

Although I bothered Mr. Belasco a lot, he sent me cordial answers to my various communications. At last I had my chance, and I am going to make good, because I have the confident feeling that I can.

As she talked of the Governor's Lady, which has yet to make its Broadway appearance, the star became intensely serious. While she does not pose as a moralist, she believes that it is possible to teach various moral lessons in a pleasant way by means of the drama. This evident sincerity is responsible for her success.

I love the part of dear old Mrs. Slade. The lines are so human, the character so well drawn, that I actually live in the part. I am really afraid that off the stage also I set the part of the little hard-working, dried-up old woman. Every day a while I brace up and smile to convince myself that I am still young.

This part makes me desire to play comedy. Tragedy and emotion are things I know I can play comedy capably. The managers can not see it, what I want to do if they could see me in the summer time, playing in my bare feet with my little kiddies up in Connecticut, and see that there is a lighter vein to my nature just as strong as the somber one they play on I am sure of my success.

Off the stage Miss Dunn is Mrs. John Stokes, her husband being well known to theatrical people for his short plays and sketches. Their country place is at Milford, Connecticut, where Dunn hopes soon to retire for vacation.

Florence Webber, who played here in "The Glass" and who is in the original company, is in Boston this week, playing at the Castle Square Theatre. She has returned to her home in the successful season in "Naughty Marietta."

A minstrel troupe some time later they separated and Lew Dockstader organized a minstrel company of his own. He also appeared in vaudeville, winning considerable reputation for his features and impersonations. He has been busy with the burnt cork every season in the memory of the present generation, and even now to deliver political speeches in Mama's Baby Boy.

Jack Kohler and Mabel Spencer, both of whom were seen here with the Chicago Stock Co., are playing leads with the Gallop Stock over Turner time in the states. Harry Sheik, who is playing the title role in "The Gay Musician," at the Opera House, and who incidentally has acquired a position of note on the baseball diamond, was heartily welcomed back to St. John by many friends who had the pleasure of his acquaintance on his last visit, when he made people laugh in the role of "Theophilus," in "Madame Sherer."

Pauline, the hypnotist, well known in St. John, through his attorney, O'Brien and Malinsky, received a verdict against William Morris before Justice Greenbaum in the Supreme Court last week. Dr. Pauline sued for $10,000, that being the amount due him under his contract for eight weeks' work that he was not allowed to play.

The attorneys for Morris contended that the contract was void inasmuch as it called for Sunday performances, which are illegal in this state. Pauline's contention was that he had only contracted to work on Sunday in such places as he might legally do so, and after fifteen minutes' deliberation the jury returned a verdict in his favor.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Sothorn (Julia Larlow), announced in Cleveland last week, through their press representative, Frank J. Wistach, that it is their intention to retire from the stage in 1914. Next season they will play forty weeks in Eastern cities, the season afterward in the West, and make their farewell appearance at the Manhattan Opera House, in this city, in June, 1914.

In the outer office of Florenz Ziegfeld, Jr., suite in the New York theatre are posted two pertinent mottoes signed by Abraham Brinkner. They are: "I am never stung twice by the same person," and "Two minutes spent in meddling in another person's business are two minutes lost from your own."

The sketch which Thomas A. Wise and W. H. St. James have been playing in vaudeville, and which was called a Chip of the Old Block, has been sold by Mr. Wise to Mr. St. James, and the latter will engage a new act for the part that the former presented.

sent to each of the former Irish friends, who inscribed their sentiments toward her and perhaps passed their own photographs on it. The leaves, recollections by Margaret Gordon, reached Miss Harmed in most calligraphic form. Each day that she tears from the calendar a leaf Miss Harmed will be greeted by a remnant from some near or remote part of the globe.

David Belasco will not join the stream of European travel, nor will he bid him to spend or seashore for rest. He will maintain or the theatre between seasons, as usual, at work. Already a period of immurement, to continue until the premiere of the Governor's Lady, has begun.

The numerous admirers and friends of Florence Lawrence will be interested to learn that she is back at work as the head of her own company, which will be known as the Victor. The company has been organized by H. L. Bolters, a director of long experience and administrative ability. A. Powers, and Joseph Eng.

Harry Cashman, the popular comedian who has been touring the country since the advent of the highest compliment possible some few days ago when a letter came to the Essex office from a lady residing in Baltimore. She said she had seen Egan's comedy, entitled Getting a Hired Girl, and had recognized the "actress" playing the part of the discharged servant girl as a lady friend for whom she had been searching over seven years in all the large cities of America. The following is her letter: "This is the second time I have seen the same girl in your film. The other picture she took the characters of a washerwoman. She is a tall, large looking, heavy woman, and quite suits the parts of maid and washerwoman. Please be kind enough to give me the name of this actress, as I have been very much worried over her disappearance."

The truth is that Mr. Cashman is the lady who played the part of Bridget in your film. "Daddy" Richardson, as he is affectionately known by his fellow-players, is a member of the Selig Western forces, will play the principal part in a Western play of the Concord-coach days, now being prepared by Director Hunsay at Selig Pacific Coast studio. "Daddy" Richardson long held down one of the most dangerous duties of the mining days—a night run out of San Andres to the mines with Wells Fargo Express in addition to many wealthy passengers, so that his stage was usually tempting bait for Black Bart and other famous highwaymen of the region. The stage always travelled under heavy guard of express messengers. The reproduction of "Daddy's" life in those days is not, however, a wild and woolly tale of road agents and other crude happenings, but a pretty bit of sentiment, showing youth, love and reminiscent old age in charming proportion. Both the famous Selig stage coaches are used. These stages are genuine relics of the days and the route justared on the film.

Roy Appligate, late of the Shubert forces, has joined the Lubin Stock Company. His position is assistant director of the company managed by Arthur V. Johnson, which is strictly confined to drama.

John Bunney, a former Harkins favorite here, has sailed for Europe in connection with a series of Vitagraph pictures soon to be commenced. The Biograph forces, who have been operating from the Los Angeles studio during the past winter and spring, have closed their work at that point and last week started for the east by way of the Southern Pacific. The company is stopping at Albuquerque, N. M., for a week or so to produce important pictures in that section, and will probably be chosen from last season will probably be chosen. Mr. Frawley said that in the majority of cases, the casts would be made up from the former company.

Biograph business and production will be transferred to the new home. The laboratory building, which was the first of the new structures to be commenced, is now completed, and that branch of the production work will be moved from the old New Jersey quarters to the new building in a week or two.

A ROUSING MEETING AT LITTLE RIVER

Candidates and Hon. Mr. Pugley Speak—The Campaign in Westmorland and Sunbury

That the people in the district around Little River are solid for the Liberals in this campaign was shown last night when the Little River school house was crowded and the Liberal candidates, A. F. Bentley and Amador Anderson, and Hon. William Pugley were given a rousing reception. The audience heartily approved the criticism of the Fleming government, by the three speakers, was made plain by round after round of hearty applause and cheers.

The charge that Mr. Fleming and his colleagues had been tried and found wanting was proved to the entire satisfaction of the electors that filled the room, and the reference to the almost impassable condition of the roads created great interest.

The appearance of Hon. Mr. Pugley in the district which has benefited so much through him was the signal for an ovation and every reference to him, whether by the chairman or the candidates, was greeted with cheers after cheer. It was a meeting, as the chairman properly termed it, of farmers, and that they have but little use for Premier Fleming and his candidates, Messrs. Baxter and Catson, was not hard to see. There can be no doubt that Messrs. Bentley and Anderson will come out of that part of the county with fine majorities.

The meeting was called to order soon after 8 o'clock, and on motion of ex-Councillor J. M. Donovan, Joseph Lee was chosen chairman. In introducing Mr. Anderson as the first speaker, Chairman Lee referred to him as the farmer's representative on the ticket and said that he had no doubt but that both he and Mr. Bentley would be among the supporters of the coming administration of Mr. Copp. (Applause and cheers).

The Liberal speaking campaign in Moncton was opened with a rousing meeting last evening addressed by the candidates, Mayor Robinson and Hon. H. R. Emmons. Mayor Robinson dealt effectively with local issues, advocating, among other reforms, a change in the assessment law which would relieve the I. C. R. employees of the unfairly heavy proportion of the taxes which they now pay.

BOARD OF HEALTH

There were forty-eight dealers who failed to take out licenses in the city and seven who were reported for having unsanitary premises. The board reported 138 persons for not complying with the orders issued by the health officer to install better and more sanitary toilets.

A committee was appointed to supervise and look after the remodeling of the plumbing facilities at the isolation hospital, and improve the drainage system there. A very satisfactory and encouraging report was received from the dairy inspector in reference to the examination of cows supplying milk in the city. Communications were ordered with the department of agriculture at Fredericton requesting that there be an inspection of herds, barns, milk cans and all appliances that may in any way tend to the infection of milk and other produce.

The new health act and new regulations for the provincial board of health were submitted. The nurses reported on the cases of tuberculosis looked after and the efforts made in the fight against tuberculosis by means of the distribution of literature, etc. Their report was satisfactory.

"Johnny" said the pretty teacher, "what is a kiss?" "I can't exactly put it in words," returned the boy, "but if you really want to know, I can show you."

MONEY "TRUST" IS UNDER FIRE
 Bankers Testify Before Congressional Committee As To Their Powers

ENORMOUS POWERS

New York Clearing House Controls the Destiny of Banks—Secretary of Stock Exchange Parries Queries About the Workings of the Institution

New York, June 11—The action of the clearing house in calling the loan certificates of the Oriental Bank during the storm of the panic in 1907 as a precedent of which the bank failed was conceded today by A. Barton Hepburn to have been a mistake. Mr. Hepburn is chairman of the clearing house committee at the time.

Mr. Hepburn, together with Frank A. Vanderlip, president of the National City Bank, came as a voluntary witness today before the subcommittee of the house of representatives which is investigating the so-called money trust.

In the course of his testimony Mr. Hepburn also conceded that it "may be true" that a few men in New York practically dominate the money market of this country and throughout the world.

Mr. Hepburn, as did Mr. Vanderlip, refused to disclose the names of the persons who should be placed under legal control, but admitted that if the rule fixing among the banks a common rate of interest for the collection of country checks were abrogated, smaller banks would be able to compete with the larger ones.

The witness said the failure of congress to enact adequate monetary legislation was the reason why clearing houses were obliged to extend their activities beyond their legitimate functions, especially in the issue of clearing house certificates in financial panics. The banker in advocating the central reserve plan, as proposed by the monetary commission, said that it "would greatly lessen the constantly growing concentration of money in this city."

Had a Poor Memory.
 The committee also took up today the functions of the stock exchange and got little satisfaction from George W. Ely, secretary of the exchange, as a witness. Mr. Ely's memory proved to be very poor and the sharp-edged questioning by Mr. Undermyer failed to elicit information that the committee was seeking.

Mr. Undermyer read a clause in the regulations of the exchange which provides a penalty of expulsion for any member who has communication directly or indirectly with any member of Consolidated Stock Exchange, the "Little Board."

"Is this clause in operation?" asked Mr. Undermyer.

"You can see it in the book, can't you?" said Mr. Ely.

"So this is your book of operations, is it?" the witness did not answer.

"The stock exchange is incorporated," said Mr. Ely.

"Don't you know?" asked Mr. Undermyer with a show of anger.

"I don't know anything about it," said Mr. Ely.

"Do you think the New York stock exchange should be under judicial control?" asked Mr. Undermyer.

"I have no opinion on that matter," the witness admitted that no new member can be admitted to the exchange unless he has no opinion on that matter.

"He must be admitted by the membership committee of fifteen and ten of them must agree that he can be a member," Mr. Undermyer asked.

"So he must be admitted by the committee before he can be a member?" asked Mr. Undermyer.

"He has to get ten white ballots before he can be a member," Mr. Undermyer asked.

"The stock exchange is not in any business," Mr. Undermyer said.

"But the stock exchange charges a fee for listing stocks and bonds, does it not?" asked Mr. Undermyer.

"Oh yes, $50 on the million but that is not business," Mr. Undermyer said.

"It is," said the witness without a smile.

There will be a fight in every constituency on June 20. The Liberals are in earnest, and will deal with the men who deceived them in 1908.

The government ticket as constituted is a fairly strong one but not as strong as a judicious selection of candidates for nomination might have made.

WAS ALL RUN DOWN.
 Doctors and Medicine Failed To Cure Him.

Many people become run down, but don't know just exactly what their trouble is. As a rule it is improper circulation of the blood, owing to not just taking proper care of themselves. All they want is a good tonic to build up the system and put their blood in proper shape, and for this purpose there is nothing to equal Burdock Blood Bitters. It regulates the stomach, liver and bowels, purifies the blood and tones up the entire system. Mr. Murdoch A. Morrison, Tarbot, N.S., writes—"I am now writing to tell you what Burdock Blood Bitters has done for me. Last Summer I was all run down, and doctors and medicine failed to cure me. At last I decided to try a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters, and after taking one bottle I began feeling better, and after I had taken the remedy for two months I was completely cured. I can safely recommend your remedy to anyone."

MURDER OF F. P. SHAW
 Slain in Honduras Evidently in Revenge For Term In Jail

THREATS HAD BEEN MADE

He Was Fearless and Met His Death—Wife in New Brunswick—Wife a Grand Daughter of Alex. Gibson of Marysville

Frederick Pierpont Shaw, formerly of Lowell, Mass., who was well known in this province as president of the Canada Coal Corporation, was assassinated by a native at Black River, Triona, Honduras, on June 5. Mr. Shaw was in South America on a mission for the Central American Commercial Company. Mr. Shaw is survived by his wife, formerly Miss Beattie Gibson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Gibson of Marysville, N. B., one son, Gibson, and his father, Dr. Thomas F. Shaw, of Lowell, Mass.

The New York American of Saturday gives the following account of the circumstances attending Mr. Shaw's death:

News was received yesterday of the assassination in Honduras of Frederick Pierpont Shaw, a New York lawyer, who lived at No. 140 Clarendon avenue. The date, which was revealed first by the Star Department at Washington, gave no details except that the assassin had been captured. It did not give his name.

Mr. Shaw went to Honduras about two months ago with George A. Malachy, also of New York. They represented the Chicago Title and Trust Company, receiver of the Central American Commercial Company and their mission was to take possession of certain plantation property owned by the latter company.

They were acting under orders of the federal court of the Northern District of Illinois, and as such were really federal officers. This leads to the belief that international complications may follow the death of Mr. Shaw.

Found Squatters in Possession.
 When the agents reached their destination, according to Mr. Terry's representative, they found a man named Brunner and several others on the property as "squatters." These men were ordered off, and when they refused to go were evicted and some of them placed in jail. Mr. Shaw threatened to "get even" with Shaw and Malachy when they were liberated. They were free about ten days.

It is believed that at one time tried to make good their threats and that Mr. Shaw was shot by a man named Brunner, thirty years, very powerful and athletic, refused to be frightened, determined to fight it out with them and was slain.

Neither Mr. Malachy nor Mr. Shaw anticipated trouble after the men were killed. This is shown by the fact that Mr. Malachy returned to New York, arriving here Thursday. He could not be located last night, and so far as known, is ignorant of Mr. Shaw's death. Mr. Malachy had completed his share of the business in Honduras and left Mr. Shaw there as resident manager of the property.

The dispatch to the state department from Harold D. Cham, the American consul at Tegucigalpa, who received his message information from Frederick D. Cham, the American consul at Tegucigalpa, the state department has called Mr. White, instructing him to make a thorough investigation of the tragedy, and it is possible that a special agent of the state department will be sent to Honduras to attend the trial of the assassin. Mrs. Shaw is a niece of Mr. R. S. Blye, city editor, and grand-daughter of Alex. Gibson.

SEYBOLD SAYS NONE 'HE HAS SEEN YET HAVE MEASURED UP'

Frederick Gleason—Big Socke Seybold has just left for St. John, without having seen the Fredrick team in action. Where he will go from St. John he is not exactly certain, but he is to look the New England and International League over for material for the Cleveland American League clubs within the next few weeks and will go from St. John to either Boston or Montreal.

Seybold said—"I am not down here to look over any players in particular, but I want to see if there is any material ready to go up to the big show and so far I haven't seen any."

Frederick Mall—Rube Dinmore, another twirler, who was in the box for Fredrick at the opening of the season, is expected to leave Boston on Friday morning and report here on Friday night. With him, it is expected, the team's pitching staff will be strong enough to go up away by her father, Bartholomew Antel, who was in the Westville club of the Nova Scotia League and left for there last night.

The ceremony was witnessed by a large gathering of relatives and friends. Luncheon was served afterwards at the parsonage and later in the day Mr. and Mrs. Watson left on a honeymoon trip through the eastern part of the province. The bride wore a costume of blue and gold shot tulle with ruffled trimmings and wore a tulle hat with marvane lace and certain piping. The church was decorated tastefully in honor of the event. NORTH END STRONG FOR THE LIBERALS IN THIS CONTEST

Stirring Addresses by City Candidates at Fine Meeting Last Night

Clear Cut Argument is Feature of Speeches — Failure of Government Shown up and Sound Reasons Given Against Their Return to Power at Fredericton

The personal assurance of hearty support which the St. John city Liberal candidates have been receiving from the electorate during the last few weeks were given a most decided emphasis last night in the Temple of Honor hall, Main street, when W. E. Foster, F. J. G. Knowlton, W. J. Mahoney and J. W. Keirstead made their first public addresses at a campaign meeting.

It argues well for the cause of the opposition in this contest that, on such a fine June night, when the appeal of the doors is so strong, there responds to the invitation to attend a political meeting such a large representation of the electorate as gathered last evening to hear the Liberal candidates lay their case before the people.

The meeting, too, was full of enthusiasm and fire, the points made by the speakers found quick and hearty response and time and again the hall rang with the applause which marked features in the clear cut and logical arguments of the candidates against the Fleming government's administration of the affairs of New Brunswick.

Rising above the mark set by some of the orators on the Conservative side, the speakers last evening declared themselves utterly opposed to personal attacks upon their opponents. They read in their own minds the motto of the Liberal party, "to try to get the government at the bar of public opinion and to let the verdict be rendered there, not by the press or the pulpit, but by the people."

The Liberal government is what the North End wants," said Chairman Gregory in introducing one of the speakers, and all present last night felt no doubt that the want would be satisfied one day.

Make Fine Impression.

All the candidates made a most favorable impression on their initial appearance and they did much to clear up the Fleming failures and the broad policy of Mr. Copp, there was no lack of subject matter. They made a plain business-like presentation of the facts upon which the voters must decide when they go to the polls. They pleaded their service to the people and support to Mr. Copp in carrying out his projects for advancement of the province, and they rested their case, knowing that to be all sufficient. All were given a rousing reception and at the close of the meeting there were ringing cheers for the king, Mr. Copp and the St. John candidates.

W. E. Foster, the first speaker introduced by the chairman, J. Fraser Gregory, caught the attention of all at the outset and he held them closely following his business-like presentation of the Liberal case. The Conservative speakers had given but a rebuff of the matters of the last campaign; nothing new. There was no outline of what they would do for roads or for agriculture, and the Fleming manifesto also was barren. On the other hand, Mr. Copp laid down a definite, broad policy and the speaker had no doubt of the result if the voters were left to read those two documents and decide on them alone.

Mr. Foster made a strong arraignment of the government for incompetency in financial affairs as instanced in the Pinder railroad guarantee of bonds, the Minto and Gibson railway deal and the proposed handing over of the Central railway to the C. P. R. practically as a gift. He judged them from the business man's viewpoint and he found them sadly lacking.

Mr. Knowlton showed the piling up of a million dollar debt by the Conservative government despite the enormous revenue enjoyed, greater than ever in the history of the province, and he attacked their road administration with vigor and promised support to the project to let the roads out of public control. He spoke of Mr. Fleming's mysterious statement about aid to the pulp and paper industry and on the premier's assumption of Hon. Mr. Puzley's idea in connection with holding New Brunswick's representation at Ottawa undiminished.

Mr. Mahoney made a pleasing, fluent address. He showed that the Liberals held the Hazen government into power last noon found they were deceived. The Liberals now should unite and show their resentment. He emphasized several of the matters in Mr. Copp's policy such as resurvey of crown lands, the road administration taken out of politics, public contracts by public tender, fair wages in all contracts and aid to settlement on crown lands with the idea of keeping New Brunswick boys at home.

Mr. Keirstead arraigned the government for its duplicity in the temperance matter and the graft methods shown in the road and bridge administration. The old government, he said, had been attacked but he could find nothing in its record to compare with the Jones-Macaulay record.

nearly $1,200,000 earned last year by the Central railway.

The speaker then made an appeal for the support of the independent voters and particularly the young voters, those who perhaps will cast their first vote in the coming election. "Unite with the Liberal party—the common people. Put us in power," he continued. "Great applause. I am glad I am associated with these gentlemen and I ask you gentlemen to vote for the whole ticket and give us a sweeping victory at the polls on the 20th day of June." (Prolonged applause.)

F. J. G. KNOWLTON MAKES ROUSING SPEECH

F. J. G. Knowlton, on being introduced and on rising to speak, was given a magnificent reception. His attention was attracted to the speaker by the Liberal party today is representing the government which we are not here to uphold or administer, but we are here to call the Fleming government to account for the labor and material. If the old government was had, it seemed to him the present one was worse. He also criticized the government for its delay at union labor in turning down W. P. Hatheway and arranged the government severely on the St. John Hydro-Electric Company franchise legislation in connection with this $5,000,000 organization he asked: "What is the meaning of all this, gentlemen?"

"The answer," he said, "is 'Boodle.'"

Mr. Keirstead—"That seems to be the answer."

And the hall rang with applause.

THE GOVERNMENT'S GIFTS TO THE C. P. R.

The chairman, J. Fraser Gregory, in opening the meeting, expressed confidence in the victory on June 20. "A Liberal government is what the North End wants," said he, amidst the applause of the electorate of that district.

W. E. Foster, who was introduced as the first speaker of the evening, was greeted with great applause. In opening he marked that the opposition ticket was opposing the present government because that government had not kept the pledges they had made and because they did not even now guarantee that they would keep their promises in future. "The government candidates in their speeches," he said, "are only rehashing what was said four years ago with reference to the aid of the former government."

"But we are not concerned in the old government, and the members of it have retired from the political arena. We are concerned in the administration of Mr. Fleming."

A Chance to Judge.

"I ask any fair-minded man to read the manifesto of Mr. Fleming and then read the manifesto of Mr. Copp and I am sure his verdict will be in favor of the Liberal party on June 20." (Applause.)

"Some nights ago a gentleman supporting the government on this evening made a personal attack upon me. When I entered into this campaign I did not intend to discuss personal matters. Nor am I going to answer that gentleman here tonight because I know you are here to listen to a discussion of the affairs of the province and not to hear personal attacks. But if these attacks on me are continued, I will answer them in an unmistakable manner." (Hear, hear and applause.)

Pinder's Road.

The speaker then made reference to Mr. Pinder's railway. "The government," he said, "has guaranteed the railway at the interest on $120,000,000 at 5 per cent being $6,000,000 per annum, and when operated at the rate of 40 per cent of the gross earnings it will take gross earnings $16,200,000 or $1,200 per mile for thirteen miles."

"Now, in looking into the railway statistics I find that there is not a railway in New Brunswick, not a railway in Nova Scotia, nor one in the whole Dominion of Canada having a length of only thirteen miles $120,000,000 at 5 per cent."

"The earnings of branch railways in New Brunswick, I find as follows: Elgin & Havelock railway, $392 per mile; Kent & Northern railway, $764 per mile; North & South railway, $400 per mile; N. B. Coal & Railway Company, $1,146 per mile."

"The New Brunswick railway promoted by Mr. Pinder costs $800 or even $700 per mile, for thirteen miles, equal to $10,400, forty per cent of which would be $4,160, there would be a deficit of about $3,000 in the operation of this railway, which the people will be called upon to pay."

Mr. Foster also referred to the Minto branch railway, and showed that the earnings of this road also could not possibly pay the interest on the bonds guaranteed by the government.

The Central Road.

"Again, gentlemen, I ask anyone in this audience what he thinks of giving away the Central railway to the C. P. R.?"

"Not only the Liberal government but their own government has been carrying this railway on their books at a valuation of over a million dollars, and what do you as business men think of giving away an asset that you value at over a million dollars? What is their excuse for making a gift of it to the C. P. R.? They say it does not pay. And why doesn't it pay? The statistics which I have read to you, and which I obtained from the department at Ottawa, show that every branch railway in New Brunswick is paying a cent over a million dollars, and what do you as business men think of giving away a road that would not be made to pay under good and proper management. Why are they going to give this asset to the C. P. R. for nothing? They are putting up the campaign fund, that's why they are doing it." (Applause.)

"Have you found any branch lines in this province being given away? The C. P. R. have been looking for railways in this part of the country and they attend their operations and we find in the report of the directors to the shareholders published last year they consent to the lease of the holders and sanction a lease made by them for 999 years of the New Brunswick Southern railway at $15,000 per annum, a road not equal in any way to the Central railway I refer to and whose gross earnings only showed $300 per mile against

A WARNING

If the provisions of the Election Act are enforced, nothing can save the government from defeat. Let Liberals everywhere be on their guard and ready to secure evidence necessary to convict the man who gives or accepts a bribe, but for anyone who, having knowledge of such a transaction refuses to give the necessary evidence concerning it.

There are many grave issues at stake in this contest, too grave to permit any thoughtless elector to be influenced by bribery, direct or implied.

Advices from various points in the province indicate that the government forces are making the most shameless use of money and political intimidation in their efforts to prevent the fall of the Fleming administration.

Liberal committees in every parish and ward should be on their guard against the corruptionists, and should take measures to see that the provisions of the election law are strictly observed. The law against bribery and corruption was recently strengthened materially through the intervention of the Reform League of Westernland, and very severe penalties are provided not only for the man who gives or accepts a bribe, but for anyone who, having knowledge of such a transaction refuses to give the necessary evidence concerning it.

When we learned of the temperance question (Hear, hear.) He had approved what they had promised but had been disappointed that they had performed. He had advocated the acceptance of the amendments of the license law offered by the Liberal government, but neither the amendments nor those associated with him had known that the amendments carried a clause which was of as much value to the liquor interests as the other clauses were to the temperance people.

Their Duplicity.

"When we learned of this," the speaker said, "we asked how the other clause had gone through without the knowledge of the temperance people. I was told that the Liberal leaders, even though they were not present, could not tell. It must have been by mistake of the printers. I afterwards learned that it was put through as a result of a visit of a delegation of liquor men to Fredericton, and when I heard of this, I was indignant. I asked the speaker if the Liberal government was to be trusted to keep New Brunswickers on their feet, and he answered that he would not be surprised if the Liberal government were to encourage immigrants to settle in New Brunswick, our main issue in this regard will be the retention of the people already residing in the province."

Mr. Fleming, said the speaker, made much of his own record, but he arranged that New Brunswick's representation in parliament should be decreased; that as extensions of boundaries had been given Ontario and Manitoba by the federal government there should be compensation for this province and that there should be no lessening of her representation at Ottawa. This had a familiar sound. It appeared to the speaker that the Liberal government had made a secret compact with the lumbermen, and he wondered how it had come close to final judgment in the brain of Premier Fleming.

Mr. Fleming, too, now promised to assist the pulp and paper industry in New Brunswick. But he did not say how. He had made a secret compact with the lumbermen, and he wondered how it had come close to final judgment in the brain of Premier Fleming.

CONCEDE THREE SEATS TO OPPOSITION IN ST. JOHN CITY

The prospects of the Liberal party in St. John city and county are growing brighter every day as the campaign progresses. When it commenced the government was willing to concede one seat in the city and two in the county to the Liberal party, and since then many Conservatives are willing to admit the loss of two seats in the city and one in the county to the Liberal party. The Liberal forces are becoming more and more encouraged as they see the voters receiving aid are confident of capturing the whole city.

The Liberal who supported Mr. Hazen at the time of the last provincial election are not to be misled this time and their loss will greatly weaken the government party. Many Conservatives have also been convinced of the possibility of defeating the government in the interests of the province, and will lend their aid to the Liberal party.

Mr. Keirstead—"I am afraid that may be the right answer."

Tracing the history of the bill through the committee, he showed the peculiar circumstances attached to its progress which gave further grounds for suspicion regarding it.

"These are some of my reasons for opposing the present government," said Mr. Keirstead, "and I believe you will agree with me as to their soundness." (Cheers.)

"It has been asserted that we are the successors of the former administration," he continued. "We are not, and I am not to be deceived, but if all that our opponents have said against them were true I say that beside many of the members of the present administration they were as white as snow." (Laughter and cheers.)

ROADS NEVER WORSE THAN NOW

W. J. Mahoney, who was next called upon, was given a hearty reception. He expressed his appreciation of the honor of the speaker, and he showed the peculiar circumstances attached to its progress which gave further grounds for suspicion regarding it.

"These are some of my reasons for opposing the present government," said Mr. Keirstead, "and I believe you will agree with me as to their soundness." (Cheers.)

PROGRESSIVE POLITICS

Turning to the policy of the opposition, the speaker said that one of the policies which he would advocate would be a greater measure of home government for St. John, and a larger measure of responsibility in the conduct of civic business.

In conclusion, Mr. Keirstead predicted a victory for the Liberal ticket and urged every elector to vote the ticket, the whole ticket and nothing but the ticket. The speaker then closed his address.

THE GOVERNMENT'S DUPLICITY EXPOSED

Mr. Keirstead, who was greeted with vigorous cheers, referred to the fact that he had taken the platform at meetings of temperance and other reform organizations, and he considered the platform which he now advocated was no different from that to any on behalf of which he had ever addressed himself. (Applause.)

He had been a hidebound partisan and in the previous provincial election he had felt it his duty to support the party which formed the present administration. Since then he had found that he could not excuse them for what they had done and on their own record he was forced to oppose them.

Addresses Rousing Meeting in Charlotte County — Revolt There Against the Government is Pronounced, and Hazen is Brought in to Try to Win Supporters Back

St. Stephen, N. B. June 11—Members of the opposition party in Charlotte feel they have been neglected entirely without cause, in the predictions of victory which have been made with respect to candidates for the party in other counties of the province.

Two fine meetings tonight in what are regarded as Conservative strongholds furnished striking evidence of the popularity of the candidates—H. V. Mann, Harrison McAllister, D. P. Gillmor and Geo. M. Byron—and of the bright chances for their success in the coming election.

The meeting closed with stirring cheers for the candidates, the Liberal leader and his majesty the king.

Mr. Gregory also drew attention to the fact that New Brunswick has always been a Liberal province and appealed to the electors to do their part in placing a straight Liberal administration in power at Fredericton.

FORCES FEEL DEFEAT.

So pronounced is the revolt against the government in Charlotte, particularly among the Conservatives, as party lines are now drawn very closely here, that the aid of Hon. Mr. Hazen has been invoked and he will address a meeting here tomorrow night.

The general party now is that Attorney General Gimmer will be defeated and a ready attempt has been made to sacrifice other candidates to save him.

It is generally admitted that a great mistake was made by the government convention in bringing out a ticket with three professional men, two of whom are from the province, and the practical work of the party is being done by a party of partisans representing the opposition are making great headway.

Mr. Gillmor was cheered again and again as he referred to the personnel of the opposition ticket tonight, he referred to the fact that Mr. McAllister as a non-partisan representative from Milltown being particularly well received.

Mr. Mann represents the farmers, and Mr. Byron, better than any other man, understands conditions on the seacoast and needs of the fishermen, while Mr. Gillmor is a young man of brilliant promise, who has chosen St. George as his home and will make his life work there.

These names were brought out with great effect, and the Liberal party was given a hearty vote.

Mr. Gillmor spoke briefly to his fellow citizens, and remarked on the turning down of any representative from the town by the government convention. He said that he supported a larger party, and he was doing a splendid service for New Brunswick." (Applause.)

WILL TAKE HIGHWAYS OUT OF POLITICS

Mr. Copp made a most effective criticism of the government's administration of the roads, and said the chief cause of the exceptionally bad roads was that the money was expended under partisan direction for political effect.

Mr. Copp went on to speak of the increase in taxation, and said that the additional money never got on the roads, but went into the pockets of party friends. He gave several instances of cases of this sort and charged that about 50 per cent of the money which was voted for roads was paid to contractors in salary and commission. Mr. Copp said that in visits to nearly every county in the province during the present campaign he had found the roads, except within a few miles of the larger cities, in most cases in a deplorable condition, and often almost impassable.

"Take the road money absolutely out of politics and put them as closely in the hands of the people as possible, is my policy," declared Mr. Copp, and the standing applause which greeted his statement showed at least that it is a most popular one.

The meeting closed with cheers for the king and candidates.

Gaybird (miserably)—Doctor, is it all right?

Doctor—Yes, unless you care to go to warmer climate.

Gaybird (miserably)—Oh, no, I think I prefer the operation.
