ADVISABLE TO IMPROVE THE ST. JOHN RIVER

Consulting Engineers Report to International Commission

JOINT ACTION

Field Work of Engineers is Nearly Completed and They Recommend That Plan of Storage Reservoirs on Upper Waters is Feasible

Bangor, August 1.—That the improvement of the St. John river for the benefit of the lumbering industry and whatever water powers may be developed in the future on that waterway is both feasible and desirable, a question that has been under investigation by the International St. John River commission, a commission appointed by the United States and the Dominion of Canada, is now secured through a recent report to the commission from its board of consulting engineers—Harley S. Ferguson of New York city, and S. Chapman of the Department of Public Works of Canada.

In their report the engineers, who are the best trained and most skillful hydraulic engineers of the two countries state:—

"We have no hesitation in stating that what we have already learned makes it appear to us that it is both feasible and desirable to develop a system of storage reservoirs and to improve the river channels in many places, and that much can be accomplished towards making the driving of logs safer and less expensive, and toward increasing the low water flows for the benefit of any water powers which may be developed along the river in the future."

Those who are interested in the work of the commission and those who have their interests along the St. John river are advised that the consulting engineers in most significant, and means if adopted by the government, that eventually the government may take steps to carry out some comprehensive scheme for developing the waters of the St. John river to the benefit of both the lumber industry for which it is chiefly used at present and of the future development which may take place in the future. CRISIS PASSED IN MOROCCO DIFFICULTY

Map of Morocco and surrounding territory showing points in dispute. The news summary received by Messrs. J. C. Mackintosh & Co. this morning by private wire from New York contains the information that the crisis has now passed and that the situation continues to improve.

Paris, Aug. 1.—Paris newspapers in general express the opinion that the danger point in the Moroccan situation has passed and that a compromise will be arrived at very soon. With the arrival of the German Emperor at Swinemunde, the French press has become decidedly hopeful. There is no doubt that the change of front reveals a strong belief in the Kaiser's pacific intentions.

The Radical in this connection says:—"Happily William II. is less impulsive than some of his papers would lead one to imagine, and it will be the case, his power will be used on the side of peace, and moderation, it will not be the first time that he will have repaired the blunders of his ministers."

The Republic says:—"It is evident the powers are negotiating for a reasonable ratification of the frontiers in Africa in order to facilitate the occupation of the respective colonies." Regarded from such a standpoint the question is capable of a peaceful solution."

ROBBER SHOT DOWN IN BANK

Accidental Discharge of Revolver Brings Montreal Town Marshall to the Scene When Burglar's Plans Are Working Well

Montreal, Aug. 1.—Three masked men robbed the First National Bank at Hamilton yesterday, but the man who carried the booty was killed and the money recovered. The other two bandits escaped. Armed men are in pursuit.

The three men robbed the bank shortly before noon. Two of the men with revolvers covered the cashier, and his assistant, the only persons in the bank. The third went behind the counter and filled a sack with $1,000 in coins and other money. Persons outside the bank noticed nothing wrong until one of the robbers, evidently nervous, accidentally fired a revolver. This brought Marshall Towell to the bank door. He entered one of the robbers fired at him.

The marshal fired, killing the man who was just going out with the money. The other two ran from the building, mounted their horses and raced off at full speed.

THE TIMES' NEW REPORTER

Mr. Peter Binks says that the sad case of Mr. F. B. Carvell in Carleton county entitles him to the tender compassion of a more or less story-heard public. The Standard says he has returned from England "just in time to be licked," and its Woodstock correspondent adds:—"Mr. Carvell's friends are chagrined over the disheartening outlook. His chances for election are practically nil and all the American hoodlums that can be brought in here to try to win for the Standard say so, and the Standard would have no objection in saying so unless it was so; for the Standard is a fair and honest high-minded journal without political bias. This revelation will shock the people almost as much as the 'licking' Mr. Carvell got in 1908—before the votes were counted."

THE STATE OF THE ROADS.
The Standard has received two communications to the effect that the roads in St. John and Charlotte counties are in a deplorable state. Copies of these letters have been sent to Dr. A. Pierce Crockett, who says the roads are awful. The letters were brought by a courier on foot, as the roads were not safe for fast driving.

EIGHT PATIENTS DIE IN TERRIBLE FIRE IN ASYLUM AT HAMILTON

Many Others Injured While Hundreds are Driven Into Mad Hysteria—Firemen Show Great Heroism and Narrowly Escape With Their Lives—Motor Truck Does Good Work

Hamilton, Ont., Aug. 1.—Fire early this morning broke out on the top floor in the Hamilton Asylum for the Insane, caused eight deaths, injuring many others, some probably fatally, and drove hundreds into hysterics before the flames were controlled.

The complete official list of the dead follows: Charles Bilyard, Dunnville; John Hefferman, Arthur, Ont.; Thomas Evans, Glora, Ont.; Edward Sodke, Welland; John T. Mohaway, Kintlandwood, Ont.; W. W. Storr, Brockton, Ont.; Albert Bowler, Dundas, Ont. The fire started at 1:30 in the store-room near the hall on the top floor. Night Watchman Fred Bisset, who discovered it, turned in an alarm of the asylum department, and this was followed by a hurried call for the city brigade. In the meantime Chase Piper, an attendant, fought the fire over the transom door of the store-room until he was driven back and carried out unconscious. He claimed that if another extinguisher had been available he could have put the fire out. The asylum department was powerless to check the flames.

Five in One Room
It was not until 4 o'clock this morning that the police and firemen were able with the assistance of lanterns to grope their way through the dark to a small room, a veritable chamber of horrors in which five charred corpses lay. Some of them were burned almost beyond recognition.

The stretcher carried all that was left of three bodies. They presented a ghastly sight.

The attendants had a terrible battle with the panic stricken patients on the top floor trying to drive them to safety. Nearly 200 patients are quartered in that side of the building. Many of the patients persisted in rushing into the fire as if being safely escorted to the corridors.

Alderman Birrell of the fire committee, donned a rubber coat and worked with the firemen. He saw a terrible sight on the doomed floor. Two struggling inmates were fighting at a window to save themselves. Suddenly a sheet of flame and a cloud of smoke blotted them out. They gave up despairing cries and sank back.

Provincial Detective Rodgers and some of his assistants arrived from Toronto this morning and will make a rapid investigation into the cause of the fire.

Dan Parker, a colored patient, on one fourth floor, had one of the most remarkable experiences of the fire. In the room above him five patients were found dead. He saved the lives of two patients by least six people unharmed and nearly lost his own. He saved the lives of two patients by least six people unharmed and nearly lost his own.

STRICT INQUIRY INTO FRIGHTFUL B. & A. WRECK

Railroad Commissioners Take Investigation From Coroner

BEGINS TOMORROW

Conductor of Excursion Train Will be Asked to Tell Why Orders Were Violated Resulting in Death of Nine Men

Millinocket, Me., July 31.—The cause of Friday night's catastrophe at Grandisland, in which nine persons, including George Gallagher, of St. John, N. B., lost their lives and nearly twenty-five were injured, appears here to be fairly clear at present. The state board of railroad commissioners has taken the investigation out of the hands of Coroner Harry F. Bragdon of Millinocket, and, assisted by County Attorney Thompson of Bangor, will hold a hearing in an endeavor to fix the blame on July 3 o'clock Wednesday in the Millinocket municipal court-room. H. G. Tibble of Houlton, the conductor of the excursion train will be the principal witness.

There are many questions which the commissioners wish to ask him. Coroner Bragdon Saturday forenoon empaneled a jury, consisting of William Martin, Frank C. Case, William Heber, R. E. Wyman, W. S. Matthews and G. B. Moran, all of Millinocket.

Then came the news that the railroad commissioners were to take charge of the investigation themselves and that Coroner Bragdon and his jury were not needed. At 1:40 the special train from Bangor with Chas. Moran and Railroad Commissioners William Spooner and Railroad Commissioner Bragdon on board, drove into Millinocket. With them in President Grant's private car, were Judge Louis G. Stannard, general counsel for the Bangor & Arden, and Wingate F. Crane, son of the president, and George F. Giddings, of Augusta, clerk of the railroad commission.

The crowd surged forward and many who were anxious to get up the line waited for a long time to board the train. Orders were strict, however, and no passengers could be taken. After a delay of a few minutes, the special continued on up the line, arriving at the scene of the wreck at 2 o'clock. It was the first train to reach there since the relief train immediately after the accident.

A stop of forty minutes was made during which the railroad commissioners made a minute inspection of the scene of the wreck. Only the shattered remains of the locomotive and tenders and the wreck of the combination baggage and smoking car in which all of those killed, save Essie Garcelon and the two firemen, had been seated, was left. The five coaches which made up the excursion train had been shunted back to Millinocket. They were filled with collars, hats and other articles of clothing and big splashes of blood were on the walls and floors.

The wrecking crews were still hard at work. The boiler of the locomotive, attached to the down train had been derricked back on to the embankment. The front was crushed in a manner which plainly showed the terrific impact which the two trains had come together. The roof of the cab was torn off completely and was lying, bottom side up, in the ditch to the west of the track.

At the scene of the wreck, the railroad embankment was some eight or ten feet high. The ditches on either side were filled with muddy water into which wreckage had been hurled. The work of removing the injured in the pitiful darkness and rain had been attended with enormous difficulty. All agree, however, that the surviving members of both trains (Continued on page 5, fourth column.)

ENGLISH AVIATOR LANDED IN SWAMP AT HAMILTON MEET

Hamilton, Ont., July 31.—J. F. Martin, the English aviator, who miraculously escaped from serious injury, if not death, at the second night's meeting of the local aviation meet Saturday, when his Farman machine got beyond his control and plunged nose first into a swamp. The aviator luckily was not thrown from his place in the machine, and after he had succeeded in getting it out of the swamp, he gamely attempted another flight, which landed him in the grounds.

The propeller used by Martin yesterday was too large, and last night he used one proved too small, and which accounted for the accident.

J. D. McCurdy, the Canadian aviator, triumphed in his McCurdy machine, and succeeded in reaching a height of 2,300 feet. The machine is speedy and McCurdy's manoeuvres in the air bring forth much comment.

An effort was made to make tests in wireless telegraphy, but no success was attained. Many local people had signified their willingness to go up with the birds, but few were able to do so, they were either absent or in the rear.

CAR RUNS OVER BOY WEAK FROM STARVATION

Child Too Weak To Get Out of The Way is Killed—Mob Demand Life of Crew in Revenge

New York, July 31.—Three-year-old Morvia Goldberg, emaciated by a seven days fast, tottered in the path of a trolley car in front of his home yesterday. Too weak to run out of the way, the little fellow was crushed to death beneath its wheels before the eyes of his brothers and sisters watching him from a window.

The resultant police investigation revealed the fact that the entire Goldberg family of nine were starving, and that Morvia's mother was seriously ill in her cheerless room without food or medical attention.

Two thousand persons stormed the car-demanding the lives of the crew. They captured the motorman and conductor, laid them on the tracks and were about to run the car over them when a lone policeman intervened, but no success was at hand. A newsboy blew the bluecoat's whistle, summoning aid, and the mob was dispersed. The crew were later held blameless by the police and released.

NO GARBAGE TENDERS IN AT NOON TODAY

Board of Works Will Have To Order New Specifications at Meeting This Afternoon

Although tenders were called some time ago for the removal of garbage from the public and private buildings about the city, none had been received today up to noon at the office of H. E. Wardrop, common clerk, and it is thought that it will be necessary to make several changes in the specifications before contracting parties will offer for the work. It is an opportunity to consider the matter.

La MARQUISE de FONTENOY
Fourth Prince and Duke of Wagram Descended From One of Napoleon's Most Brilliant Generals—Rich and Powerful Prince With Interesting Connection

(Copyright, 1911, by the Brentwood Company)
Alexandre Berthier who has just succeeded his father as fourth Prince of Wagram, has in his veins the Wittelsbach blood of the reigning house of Bavaria mingled with that of the Rothschilds. His mother belonged to that great Jewish financial dynasty, having been Bertha Rothschild of Frankfurt, and abandoned Judaism for Christianity on wedding the late Prince of Wagram.
The first Prince de Wagram was Alexandre de Berthier, the most famous of all the generals of the first Emperor Napoleon. The emperor secured for his favorite Berthier a royal bride, in the person of Duchess Marie of Bavaria, of that illustrious branch of the Wittelsbachs to which the late Empress of Austria, the late Duchess d'Alencon, and the famous oculist, Duke Charles Theodore of Bavaria, belonged. Berthier, whose family had been ennobled by King Louis XV. in 1768, and which hailed from Versailles, was the hero of the battle of Wagram, and a leading actor in most of Napoleon's victories. In fact, Napoleon was wont to remark, in speaking afterwards of the battle of Waterloo, "All if I had only been defeated by Wellington."
Berthier, however, had killed himself just three days before the battle of Waterloo took place. His was a tragic end. On the overthrow of Napoleon in 1814, and his exile to Elba, Berthier, who had been created by Napoleon prince and Duke of Wagram and sovereign prince of Neuchatel, allowed himself to be persuaded by his wife, and by her royal relatives at Munich, to abandon the cause of the emperor, and to make his peace with Louis XVIII., who bestowed upon him the highest honors. Napoleon resented this more bitterly than anything else in connection with his overthrow. When he quitted Elba a year later, and resumed for one hundred days the possession of his throne in Paris, Berthier, who was in Bavaria at the time, felt unable to resist the longing to rejoin his old friend and master, and sent a message to ask whether he would receive him. While Napoleon gladly welcomed all his other former officers, without reproaching them for their desertion, not even Marshal Ney, he sent back an intimation to Berthier that he would only consent to receive him if he would appear before him arrayed in the uniform of the rank, and with the insignia of the Order bestowed upon him by Louis XVIII. On receiving this message at Bamberg, Berthier was so overcome with remorse, that leaving his wife and children, he threw himself out of one of the windows of the castle, killing himself instantly by the rocks over a hundred feet below.
Thanks to the influence of the widowed duchess's royal relatives, her husband's titles of Prince and Duke of Wagram were confirmed as French peerages, upon her boy Alexandre, though of course there was no question of his being constituted sovereign Prince of Neuchatel, a principality which was handed over to the King of Prussia, and which now belongs to the Swiss Republic.
Marshal Berthier's son and namesake, Alexandre, second Prince and Duke of Wagram, on growing up, married Zenaide Clary, niece of Queen Desree of Sweden, and also of the emperor of King Joseph Bonaparte, who lived so many years at Bordentown, N. J.
The third duke and prince who has just been laid to his rest was the son of this union. Until a few years before his death, the duke was in receipt of an annuity from the French government, amounting to almost $50,000 a year, bestowed upon his grandfather by Napoleon I. in recognition of his victories. But now the annuity, like all those others that figure on the "Grand Livre de France," as bestowed by Napoleon, have been commuted.
The new duke and Prince of Wagram is the Chateau of Grobois, in the Department of the Seine-et-Oise, within forty minutes by motor from Paris. It is a mistake to assert that the place was a gift by Napoleon, and there is no truth in the story, according to which it was given to the marshal for assuming the blame when Napoleon accidentally shot the eye of Marshal Massena, Duc de Rivoli, at a battle in the forest of Fontainebleau, Massena, who was perfectly sound, to whom he owed the injury, had the presence of mind to immediately turn upon his comrade, Marshal Berthier, and hit him in the latter for "infernal carelessness," while Berthier, taking the cue, instantly acknowledged that he was at fault, and expressed his deep contrition. Napoleon having the incredible impudence to also abuse him for his stupidity.
The fact of the matter is that Grobois, a grand old place, built of brick and stone in 1690 by Samuel Bernard, and surrounded by a superb park, full of majestic trees, was confiscated by the Revolutionary Government in 1793, put up for auction, and purchased by the Dictator Barras. Barras sold it to General Moreau, who in the late war was arrested in connection with his alleged complicity in the Capoual conspiracy against the life of Napoleon, and eventually released on the condition of his leaving the country. He transferred his Grobois property to his mother-in-law, Mme. Helyet, who sold it to Fouché, Duke of Otrante, and minister of police. It was from him that Marshal Berthier purchased it for a sum of $ million francs, although it is worth today at least five times that amount. It is full of the most interesting relics of the first Emperor, and of the Napoleonic era, including some loot brought back from the Kremlin at Moscow by Marshal Berthier on the occasion of the disastrous retreat in 1812.
The new Duke and Prince of Wagram is unmarried, very rich, about twenty-eight years of age, and is a first lieutenant of the 11th Regiment of infantry. He has two sisters; one of them married to Prince Jacques de Broglie, son of that Prince Armand de Broglie who was Marie Say, heiress of the French sugar king; while a brother of Jacques de Broglie is that Prince Robert de Broglie whose unsavory performances in the United States contributed so much to bring discredit upon his historic name.
Another sister of the new Prince de Wagram is the wife of Joseph de La Tour d'Auvergne-Lauraguais, whose right to the name of La Tour d'Auvergne, and to the title of Prince, are open to very serious question, and are contested by leading genealogists and experts.
In connection with the announcement of the death of the late Prince of Wagram, and the succession of his only son, Berthier in the direct male line, it may be mentioned that the wonderful sale of medieval gold and silver plate, which has just taken place at Paris, attracting collectors from all parts of the universe, and creating great stir in the art world, was not, as has been alleged, the Rothschilds' collection of plate, but that of the late Prince de Wagram. The collection disposed of at Paris, consisted of 199 pieces, brought in the neighborhood of three million francs, and constituted only a free-

The Evening Chit-Chat
By BUTH CAMERON

YOU are angry, "Hurt," you call it. As a matter of fact, that way of expressing it is merely a graceful fiction of implying that the blame of your disgruntled state of mind belongs with someone else.
And in the absence of the friend who has angered, or rather "hurt" you, you are going over in your mind your side of the case.
You mentally rehearse what you would like to say to her:
"I had a headache when I got up and yet I worked hard all day," you justify yourself. "And then everything went wrong. There I walked away down to the dressmakers in the broiling sun and she disappointed me, and then just as I was trying to get a little nap, that woman from the church called to ask if I wouldn't give something for the next supper, and to cap the climax, that meat for dinner was had and I had to walk way down to the market for more and the man was rude to me. So when she called me up, I was just as tired and nervous as I could be and my head was simply splitting. And to have her say that she thought I ought to do something more on that committee, was just the last straw. When you think of what I've done already. And now she thinks I ought to say I'm sorry I spoke out as I did. Goodness, I think it's she that ought to be sorry. And I thought she was fond of me. If she knew all I've been through with today and all I've done on that old committee, I guess she'd be sorry, too."
Such is your natural train of thought.
From it you emerge more "hurt" than ever and more determined not to say you are sorry, but instead to extort such an admission from her.
But later, my friend, from the same station from which that train departs, another one goes out at the same moment. Very few people take it, so if you do, you will have a novel experience.
It is the train of thought that leads into the land of the other side of the question.
That is, instead of trying to marshal all the conditions that make you excusable, this time you are, to try to marshal all the conditions that make your friend excusable.
You are to say to yourself, "She is really much more tired than I am. She works under a terrible strain all the time in that hurried, noisy, hot office. Besides, this is just the last week before her vacation and she is at the end of her rope. And then she has had that anxiety about her mother the last few months. So I suppose she thought she was being perfectly reasonable and when I snapped out so, she felt that I was unjust. And then she didn't know how tired I was and that I had a headache and anyway she may have had a terrible hard day herself. So I suppose she has some reason for thinking I ought to say I'm sorry."
Altogether, your grievance has a very different aspect when you emerge from this train of thought, hasn't it?
And yet the facts haven't changed a bit—only your way of looking at them and for them.
Which train will you take, my friend?
Yes, it certainly requires more courage and altruism and more of a sense of justice and fairness, than the average person has to climb into that second train. But surely you are glad of an opportunity to prove that you have all that?

CONCESSION TOWARDS WIDENING MILL STREET Curb Has Been Lowered to Permit Teams to Cross if Street is Merged With C.P.R. Yard—Prince William Street Work

Work was begun yesterday in Prince William street, near the corner of King in the laying of the concrete pavement, which is to be placed in that section. This makes several streets which are being opened or have been opened for the laying of pavement on the roadway, including Mill in different sections; Dock, Nelson, and Main streets.

So far the work goes along in Mill street without any provision for widening, except the concession of lowering the curb of the sidewalk on the western side of the street, down to within a few inches of the pavement. In case, at some future time, the street may be joined with the C. P. R. property.

Worship Mayor Frank, Ald. McGoldrick, chairman of the board of public works, and Wm. Downie, superintendent of the eastern division of the C. P. R., had a conference this morning in the mayor's office relative to the widening of Mill street. While nothing would be said by any of the three after the meeting, it is understood that there is more prospect of the street being widened as much as possible.

PROBATE COURT Argument Regarding Order of Sale of Late Count DeBury's Property to Be Heard August 25

Estate of Count R. V. DeBury. On the passing of the accounts in this estate it appeared that there was not sufficient personal property to pay the debts, whereupon a citation was issued calling upon all persons interested in the estate to appear at a hearing to be held on August 25, 1911, at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon of that day, at the court house, for the purpose of having the accounts of the estate audited and the same approved and allowed. A sum of money payable to two infants, but two claims have been filed against the estate, which are disputed. These have been filed to the detriment of the estate, and it is the duty of the court to see that the estate is properly administered.

RECOMMENDATIONS TO BOARD OF WORKS Engineer Brings Many Matters Before Meeting This Afternoon—New Wharf Surface at Red's Point—Recommend Purchase of Heating Plant

Several matters of interest are to be dealt with this afternoon at the meeting of the board of public works, which is expected that the meeting will be fairly lengthy. Tenders will probably be called for various civic works, and the replanting of Rodney wharf, a revolving marsh for the stone cracker, and for the laying of asphalt in Murray, Spruce, Marsh, Goodrich, and Factory streets. Besides this there will be the matter of the garbage tenders.

As the gravel pit at Golden Grove used for some time by the city, has become exhausted, it is planned to abandon it, in order that the city may not pay taxes on a valueless property. The engineer recommends that the surface at Red's point wharf be renewed, south of the portion leased to the Eastern S. S. Co., the cost being approximately $800. He also recommends the purchase of a Menier one-horse pick-up sweeper at a cost of $800, delivered in St. John. Another recommendation is that a retaining wall be renewed in Portland street, passing through the property of Miss Mary Morgan, and others, the cost to be about $350.

The Liberal executive for St. John has been called to meet on Monday next, and the convention to nominate candidates on Thursday following, August 10.

This prompt action shows the Liberal party ready for the campaign. Delegates to the convention were selected at the primaries some time ago. It only remains to nominate the minister of public works and a strong man as his colleague to ensure victory in these two constituencies.

There is no scarcity of strong men. It is only necessary to unite upon one as the colleague of the minister, and this the convention will do. St. John city and county have every reason to return supporters of the government, not only because reciprocity will greatly benefit the city and province, but because of the great works already accomplished and others projected for the rebuilding of this national port.

Since Dr. Pugsley became minister of public works the government has taken over the work of building wharves; has constructed one additional wharf; has completed plans and dredged a large part of the site of a series of wharves to follow; has facilitated the transfer of the shore lots to the C. P. R. and is calling for tenders for a seawall to enable the railway company to fill in those lots; has dredged the harbor channel to a depth of 34 feet, enabling the largest steamers to enter at the lowest tide; has called for tenders for a dry dock, ship repair plant, breakwater and wharves in Courtenay Bay, where since Dr. Pugsley became minister the Grand Trunk Pacific selected the site for its terminals and the Canadian Northern announced its intention of doing the same; has let the contract for an armory to cost a quarter of a million, on which work is now progressing; has secured a vote to purchase a site for a modern post-office; has provided for a public building in Fairville; has looked after country wharves and breakwaters; and done other things of great benefit to the people.

With this record Dr. Pugsley comes back to his constituents, and there can be no shadow of doubt that they will empower him to continue his splendid work for this city and province and for the whole of Canada. Nor can it be doubted that he will be strengthened by the election of his colleague in the local campaign.

Arrangements are being made to hold a Liberal convention for Kings-Albert at Sussex on either Wednesday or Thursday of next week. The Liberals of this constituency have been delighted to hear of late that their present representative, Dr. McAlister, gave the prime minister, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, his assurance that if his friends in Kings-Albert wished him to be a candidate again he would not permit his personal preferences to stand in the way of the party; so it is fair to assume that Dr. McAlister will be the Liberal candidate for the election September 21. There is rumor to the effect that Mr. George W. Fowler, who opposed Dr. McAlister at the last election, does not desire to re-enter politics, and that the prominent men among the Conservatives in Kings-Albert are considering the question of a likely man to carry the opposition banner.

In Westmorland there is no reasonable doubt that Hon. H. R. Emmerson will again lead the Liberal forces to victory. Mr. Emmerson is a tower of strength in that section of New Brunswick. He is probably nearly as well known in Albert, Kent and Northumberland as in Westmorland, where his popularity is always on the increase.

Kent County has chosen Ex-Sheriff A. T. Leger as the Liberal candidate, and there is every probability that he will be quite as successful in its canvass and campaign as the popular political veteran, Hon. O. J. LeBlanc, who has retired from public life after so many years of effective service.

Mr. W. S. Loggie will be the candidate in Northumberland for the Liberal party, having been chosen there during the adjournment by a large convention of his followers. His old opponent, Mr. Donald Morrison, will oppose him. Mr. Loggie's majority at the last election was nearly a thousand, and judging from the reports that come from that large county, he has no reason to be afraid that there will be any reduction.

In Gloucester the gentleman who has been its efficient representative, Mr. O. Turgeon, will again be the Liberal candidate, and in Restigouche Mr. James Reid of Charlottetown is conceded the nomination if he is willing to accept it. It is a well known fact that for some time Mr. Reid has been willing and often anxious to lay aside the party leadership for any Liberal who is the choice of the party in this county, but so far as can be learned there is no desire to supersede the gentleman who has so ably represented Restigouche for so long a period.

THE ADVANTAGES OF THE Asepto Premium Plan

TALK NO. 1

Our sales increased 18,000 cases of 100 packages each from May, 1910, to May, 1911; That means an increase of 1,800,000 5c packages, over one to every family in Canada.

We want to increase our sales 18,000 cases more before May, 1912, and we are going to do it.

That is why we are selling Boots and Shoes and many other articles at such low prices, or giving them as premiums.

You cannot get a premium from us until your purchases total $25.00, but you do not have to buy the total $25.00 at one time, and you cannot get a premium on your $25.00 order from us unless you have purchased a dollar's worth of Asepto products either from us or your grocer.

Many hundreds of families in this city have started on the $25.00 order and many have nearly completed it. Have you started?

HARD TO PLEASE EVERYBODY
We take a daily paper here
For all of us to read,
And every day all round the year
We struggle to succeed
In getting it apportioned right,
So all may wear a smile,
It is a task that's hardly light,
To please each one the while.
Big brother Jim the front desires,
Sue wants society,
The sporting page our Bud requires,
Sam's Mary says that she

Just wants the children's page—that part
That pleases little tad—
And mother reads the "heart to heart,"
While father reads the "ads."
On every day we parcel out
The paper, part to each,
Yet some will frown and some will pout
And some of hurry preach;
But all today are in a rage—
Before the rest were up,
One got the paper, every page—
It was the family pop.

HON. DR. PUGSLEY IS COMING TO ST. JOHN

Minister of Public Works to Visit
All New Brunswick Constituencies—Better Train Service in Albert County

Ottawa, July 31.—As soon as I can leave Ottawa, and this will not be for a few days yet," said Hon. Dr. Pugsley to your correspondent tonight, "I shall visit my constituency and the others in New Brunswick and arrange for the holding of a series of meetings.
"In regard to the issues of the campaign now opening, I can hardly add to the excellent and convincing address which the prime minister has issued to the Canadian people. He has made it perfectly plain that the sole issue before the electors is whether we should vote in favor of accepting the offer of the United States to give to us a better trade relations as far as natural products are concerned, a boon which our leading public men on both sides of politics have been seeking in vain for nearly half a century.
"This is the issue which is right up to the Canadian people and as Sir Wilfrid puts it so clearly, it is for the electors to say whether they will accept or reject. We welcome the fight on this issue and confide in the good judgment of the electors of Canada to cast their votes in its favor by an overwhelming majority. I hope to be able to leave for New Brunswick the last of the week.
Dr. McAlister, member for Kings-Albert, who is still in Ottawa, interviewed the ministers of railways and public works in St. John in regard to conditions on the Salisbury & Albert Railway, which is not being operated between Hillsborough and Albert. He has strongly urged that pending the passing of legislation for taking over the various branch lines of the intercolonial, the government, and for which object a measure was introduced into the house, the question of the branch line in Albert county should be immediately dealt with, that the people of the section of the country may obtain relief from the great inconvenience they are now suffering through a porphyry of trains on both sides of the section.
Your correspondent saw the minister of public works after the meeting of the government today and public works in St. John is of the opinion that a satisfactory solution of this difficult problem will be arrived at. It is understood that the minister will be further considered tomorrow, when the report on the road of the engineer and the offer of the company will be submitted.

COMMISSION REDUCES EXTENSION SET RATES
Board of Public Utilities Considers Other Telephone Charges Fair—Mr. Powell Has Offer From Another Company
That with the exception of charges for extension and wall sets the general schedule of the New Brunswick Telephone Company's rates for service in this city is neither excessive nor discriminatory, was the text of the judgment delivered by the public utilities commission yesterday afternoon in the matter of the complaint of the board of trade committee against the company. The rates charged for the extension sets they held to be in no way proportionate with the service rendered, and in order to place them on a fair and equitable basis they ordered a decrease of 50 per cent. In this regard the rates were neither excessive nor discriminatory, the commissioners said they took St. John as an integral part of the whole provincial system, giving it as their opinion that St. John could not be considered as a separate unit as urged by A. Powell, K. C.
The meeting was held in the admiralty chambers, Pugsley building, and D. McLeod, vice, of Woodstock, chairman, F. P. Robinson, Fredericton, secretary, and G. O. Buchanan, St. John, president, were present. The other members of the commission were all present. The judgment, which was very lengthy, was read by Commissioner Oddy.
The inquiry which was begun here at the instigation of several members of the board of trade who held that in comparison with other parts of the province St. John was not being fairly treated by the New Brunswick Telephone Company in the matter of rates and tolls, was a most exhaustive one a few months ago. Numerous sessions, some as long as a week, others only lasting for a day, were held. It is expected that the judgment given yesterday will be final as neither the attorney for the complainants nor the attorneys for the respondents, all of whom were present yesterday afternoon, gave any intimation of an appeal.
A. P. Barnhill, K. C., one of the counsel for the respondents, said that his side would accept the ruling and at the expiration of the present quarter, would have the new schedule of rates calling for a decrease of 50 per cent in the rates charged for extension sets, go into effect. The price charged for extension sets at present ranges from $5 to $12 per annum, and one of the lawyers interested in the case estimated last night that the decrease in the revenue in St. John as a result of the decision would amount to about $2,000.
In discussing the judgment yesterday after the meeting Mr. Powell, counsel for the complainant, said that an offer had been made to him, on behalf of the Tri-State Telephone Company, of Minneapolis, to install in St. John a telephone exchange with a larger switch board than the one now here, with everything new and up to date, the equipment fully capable of handling all present business and being expanded to meet all future needs, and the cost of the whole plant to be $250,000. Mr. Powell pointed out that the earnings of the St. John exchange according to the testimony heard before the commission, were $31,000 last year. If an independent St. John exchange were introduced to meet the needs of telephone subscribers, the New Brunswick Telephone Company would be compelled, under the present law, to give St. John subscribers long distance service whenever they needed it.
Associated with Mr. Barnhill, K. C., as counsel for the respondents were J. M. Baxter, K. C., and M. G. Teed, K. C.

TRANSCONTINENTAL TO HANDLE GRAIN CROP

G. T. P. Officials See Government With View to Taking Over Large Section of Road - Free Coal in West

Ottawa, July 31 - President C. M. Hays of the Grand Trunk Pacific, was here today in conference with Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Hon. Geo. P. Graham and Commissioner Young of the National Transcontinental Railway with regard to the taking over of the Grand Trunk Pacific of the completed section of the National Transcontinental Railway from Superior Junction to Winnipeg, under the terms of the company agreement with the government as provided by the act.

The company expects to handle a large share of the wheat crop over this road to Fort William this fall. The question of taking over other parts of the National Transcontinental, as completed, and putting on a train service, was also discussed. No definite arrangements have yet been made, and a further conference will be held later.

The government today took effective measures to meet the serious danger of a coal famine in the West, consequent upon the long continued strike in the western coal mines and the shutting off of the usual supplies from this source.

An order-in-council was passed providing for the free entry of all coal imported into Canada at all ports of entry along the International boundary, west of Sault Ste. Marie for consumption in the provinces of British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba.

The taking off of the duty is to be effective until the government-in-council is convinced that the mines are again in a position to produce sufficient coal to meet public requirements.

The remission of duties, which affects bituminous coal only, anthracite being on the free list, goes into effect on August 1, unless the parties to the strike effect a settlement and resume operations before then. The strike has now been in progress for four months and practically all the western mines are tied up.

Any way the workman who turns out a poor job is a decided improvement on the one who does nothing but sit around and make remarks.

POLICE LIABLE FOR USE OF HANDCUFFS SAYS JUDGE RITCHIE

Judgement in Stilwell Case Deferred Till Tomorrow Morning—Prisoner's Counsel Scores Policeman for Entering Shop

"The police had better use more precaution in the use of their handcuffs when making an arrest, or some day they may be taken to court and sued for damages," said Judge Ritchie in the police court this morning in commenting on the arrest of Walter Stilwell by Sergeant Campbell and Policeman Kane.

Stilwell was remanded from yesterday morning and the case was brought up again at 10 o'clock this morning. Policeman Kane and Mrs. Stilwell were recalled, but nothing new was brought out in the evidence, except that Kane testified that Campbell hit the prisoner on the head three times with his baton. Sergeant Campbell wanted to have the case laid over until tomorrow morning in order to have other witnesses present, but the court did not grant the request.

In summing up the case for the defence, Mr. Wallace, K. C., contended that the manner in which the prisoner was arrested was nothing short of an outrage.

"A man's house is his castle," continued the counsel, "and to think that these two police officers should go into this man's house and not only arrest him but beat him over the head with a baton, is shameful. It is a question whether these men had any right to go into Stilwell's home and arrest him without a warrant, and I believe that they could be called upon to pay heavy damages."

His Honor in summing up said that he had warned the police time and time again about the use of handcuffs and batons, and would not be surprised to see some of them before a court some day being sued for damages.

"The only time that handcuffs can be used on a British subject is when he is trying to escape from custody, and if used on other occasions the officer is liable for damages. I will think this case over carefully and consider whether or not the police were justified in making the arrest as they did."

Judgment in the case will be given tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

BARRISTERS' HONOR LATE SHERIFF RITCHIE

Resolution of Appreciation and of Condolence With Relatives Adopted at Special Meeting of Law Society This Morning

At a special meeting of the St. John Law Society this morning at which the attendance was quite large, a resolution was passed, on motion of W. V. Ewing, K. C., seconded by Daniel Mullin, K. C., expressing sympathy in the death of Sheriff Ritchie. The following is the text of the resolution:

Whereas the Saint John Law Society has learned, with regret, of the death of Mr. Robert Rankine Ritchie, High Sheriff of the City and County of Saint John, formerly an active member of this society and a barrister for over twenty-five years' standing;

And, whereas, during the period in which he was engaged during the ten years of his occupancy of the office of High Sheriff of the City and County of Saint John he came in close contact with most of the members of the profession, and by his upright and honorable conduct he enjoyed the confidence and respect, not only of the members of the profession, but of the community at large;

Therefore resolved, that the members of this society, as a token of respect for his memory, place on record their appreciation of his worth as an honorable member of the legal profession and as one who filled to the satisfaction of the whole community the responsible office of High Sheriff and as an honorable and estimable citizen;

And, further resolved, that a copy of this resolution be forwarded to his immediate relatives with expressions of sympathy and regret on the part of the members of the Saint John Law Society.

ONE THOUSAND CHILDREN IN PARADE THIS MORNING TO CATHEDRAL PICNIC

Annual Event at Torryburn Bids Fair To Be Big Success Today—Games and Amusements Being Well Patronized

The Bishop's picnic is being held at Torryburn today, and this morning's train took large crowds out to the grounds. At 9 o'clock this morning the Cathedral bell was rung, announcing that the picnic would be held. The Sunday school children, assembled in their halls, the girls at St. Joseph's and the boys at St. Malachi's and headed by the City Cornet Band marched to the Union depot where they were put on board the train.

The streets all along the route of march were crowded, and the children, about one thousand of them, presented a very nice appearance. They were accompanied by their Sunday school teachers and several of the Cathedral clergy. His Lordship Bishop Casey drove down to the depot with the little folks.

Two other trains went out from the depot, one at 12:30 and another at 2 o'clock and both were crowded. At the picnic grounds everyone seems to be enjoying themselves. Many games and attractions are in full swing and several ball games were being played in the large field. After the sun broke through the mist the day has proved an excellent one for the affair and the attendance today is expected to be a record breaker. Trains will return to the city at 4, 6 and 8 o'clock.
