

BUSINESS NOTICE

The "Miramichi Advance" is published at Chatham, N.B., every Thursday morning in time for the weekly market.

Advertisements, other than yearly or by the season, are inserted at the rate of $5.00 an inch per year.

CARD

R. A. LAWLOR, Barrister-at-Law, Solicitor Conveyancer Notary Public Etc.

The Factory

JOHN McDONALD & CO. (Successors to George Cassidy.) Manufacturers of Doors, Sashes, Mouldings.

DRS. G. J. & H. SPROUL

Suburban Dentists. Teeth extracted without pain by the use of the latest methods.

MAGNANIE'S

Quinine Wine and Iron. THE BEST TONIC AND BLOOD MAKER.

Insurance

SCOTTISH UNION AND NATIONAL IMPERIAL LONDON & LANCASHIRE LANCASHIRE.

Mrs. Jas. G. Miller

WE DO Job Printing. Letter Heads, Note Heads, Bill Heads, Envelopes, Tags, Hand Bills.

Printing For Saw Mills

WE PRINT: ALL KINDS OF WOOD, LINEN, COTTON, OR PAPER WITH OUR WORK FACILITY.

SQUADS OF THE NAVY

The Forward is the first of the new class of Ships is Speedy.

Miramichi Foundry

STEAM ENGINE AND BOILER WORKS Chatham, N. B. JOSEPH M. RUDDOOK, PROPRIETOR.

Can Dies

Iron Pipe, Valves and Fittings of All Kinds. DESIGNS, PLANS AND ESTIMATES FURNISHED ON APPLICATION.

The address slip pasted on the top of this page bears date on it. If the date of the paper is later than that on the slip, it is to remind the subscriber that he is taking the paper without paying for it. See Publisher's announcement.

MIRAMICHI CHATHAM, NEW BRUNSWICK OCTOBER 27, 1904

The Power Behind the Throne

Wallace Blake sat facing Mr. Vermont, his employer and guardian, in his private office. The merchant wore that beaming smile of complacency that belongs to prosperous middle age.

About the House

To Cure a Ham.—Boil together for half an hour six quarts of water, one pound of brown sugar, one ounce of salt, and two pounds of molasses.

PLACES GOOD TO LIVE IN

HYDROPHOBIA IS UNKNOWN IN FLORIDA. No Burglars in Christiania—You Can't Catch Cold at the North Pole.

ESTATE WAS ALMOST LOST

BECAUSE OF A RICH WIDOW'S FAD FOR FALSE NAMES. Reported Coupons Stolen and Where Afterwards Found.

DANGER FROM THE CAT

Said to be a Source of Disease in Households. The wandering cat is the greatest danger to any city or village.

ENGLISH NURSES

Are in Great Request in All Royal Nurseries. There are many to rejoice over the birth of a son to the Earl.

STRICTLY BUSINESS HERE

A man who has four marriages daughters has posted the following rules in his parlor in big type.

USEFUL HINTS

To extinguish a chimney on fire take a large handful of sulphur and throw it into the fire.

DIET IN FRANCE

This fact led to the discovery that the owner had died as a hotel in Nice, and that the French authorities had stepped in and taken possession of her effects.

PUZZLE TO ACQUAINTANCES

If her object had been solely that of the concealment of the possession of property she would have assumed in one quarter that the woman had other means than those left by her husband.

NO INTOXICANTS

There are, however, two American towns where the liquor traffic is practically unknown. One is Ocean Grove, founded some years ago by the Methodists on the coast of New Jersey.

ILLUSTRATING THE MEANING

Teacher—"Have you looked up the meaning of the word 'lubbers'?" Fanny—"Yes, ma'am."

THE END

When a man can do almost anything except make a living he is dubbed a genius.

THE END

When a man can do almost anything except make a living he is dubbed a genius.

GREAT LIBERAL RALLIES!

Hon. Henry R. Emmerson, MINISTER OF RAILWAYS AND CANALS, LIBERAL LEADER OF NEW BRUNSWICK, WILL ADDRESS PUBLIC MEETINGS

Newcastle at 2.30 p.m. AND Chatham at 7.30 p.m. Saturday next, Oct. 29th on the issues of the Campaign and in support of the candidacy of W. S. LOGGIE, Liberal Candidate for Northumberland.

Miramichi Advance, OCTOBER 27, 1904.

Mirrored Business

Last Friday night, ships of Russia's Baltic fleet, passing down the North Sea, fired upon a number of British fishing vessels belonging to Hull and adjacent points. They killed several of the fishermen and sunk some of their craft. The wantonly cruel act has very properly called forth intense indignation throughout the British Empire and is condemned by the press and public men of Europe. It looks as if the Russian officers' chronic condition of panic and fear of the Japanese led them to think that the innocent fishing fleet was a Japanese fleet of torpedo craft, upon which they fired in their cowardly scare. They will no doubt have to pay dearly for their brutality. Great Britain will demand the dismissal of the guilty officers, an apology to the nation, full payment of compensation to the owners of the injured and destroyed vessels and their crews, together with indemnity to the bereaved families.

It is the duty of every elector to go to the poll and vote! Remember the struggles of our forefathers to obtain this right. What would we think of our country if we are still denied citizens if we are so indifferent as to stay at home on polling day, 3rd November. It is important that Northumberland should have a government supporter at Ottawa; therefore, let every man go to the poll and mark his ballot for William Stewart Loggie.

Political Notes

The present political contest in Northumberland is one of great importance to the people of the County. We have, on the one hand, an avowed opponent of the Government and of Hon. Mr. Emmerson, who have on the advice of leading local Liberals and, for the benefit particularly of the North Shore and central New Brunswick, made the railway running along the Miramichi and Nashwaak valleys a part of the Intercolonial. The Government has also, on the same advice, done much dredging service both down river and up, and has more such work arranged for next season; its friends on the Miramichi are asking for other facilities which will aid the business interests of the county and assist in its development. Mr. Robinson, who has for years been having it understood that under certain circumstances he would cease to oppose the Government, has chosen to abandon that pretence and he now squarely asks that he be returned by Northumberland as an uncompromising opponent of the Government. This means that he will range himself with those who so strenuously oppose Mr. Emmerson in all he has tried to do and has accomplished for us.

Are the electors of the county so insensible to their own interests and so unappreciative of the attitude of the government towards us that they will send to Ottawa a man who will be forced by his party pledges to vote with our enemies? Mr. Robinson will be called upon, no doubt, to condemn Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Mr. Emmerson for purchasing what his champion, The Moncton Times, asserts is "two streaks of rust" between Loggieville and Fredericton, and which Mr. Robinson's railway leader, Mr. Haggart condemned in parliament as a worthless investment, saying it would be better to throw the purchase money into one of the "numerous bogs" along the line than acquire the Canada Eastern with it. In a few days—on 3rd November, Thursday next—the electors will go to the polls to vote for either Mr. Loggie, who, if elected, will go to Ottawa to hold up the hands of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Mr. Emmerson and other Liberal leaders who have done and will do so much for the Miramichi, or Mr. Robinson who will do all he can against those gentlemen and their policy, holding up the hands of Messrs. Borden, Haggart and other people who despise New Brunswick and are practically strangers to our people, their requirements and interests. This is not a personal contest. It is one between the party, whose administration has been most favorable to the progress and development of the whole Dominion and particularly of Northumberland, and the other party which has done all its power to discourage and prevent that policy from being carried out. Mr. Loggie is pledged to support the former and Mr. Robinson the latter. Those who are loyal to Northumberland's interests will therefore mark their ballots for Mr. Loggie.

When the Liberals were in power under the late Alexander MacKenzie the Conservatives condemned them because of a false economy which withheld money that was necessary for the establishment of public works and other aids to the development of the Dominion. The Laurier Liberal Government has pursued a different course. Its tariff policy has assisted in bringing good times to Canada, and the revenue has been large. The money has been used in the up-building of the country as well as reducing the public debt. Now, the Conservatives are claiming that the Government is extravagant, etc. They condemn Mr. Emmerson for making the Canada Eastern a part of the I. C. R.; also for improving winter port connection in this province and Nova Scotia and they would, no doubt, even cancel the pending arrangements for further dredging the North-west and Southwest Miramichi and for wharf facilities for Escomiac and other points down river. Miramichi voters should be on the safe side and take no risks, but vote for W. S. Loggie, who will see that Northumberland's interests are even better promoted than they have heretofore been owing to the County's peculiar opposition attitude.

It is true that Mr. Robinson asks the electors of Northumberland to send him to Ottawa to vote against the Laurier Government, but his views of the merits of that Government and its claims upon the people of Canada ought not to be as weighty as those of high authorities, such as the London Financial Times which says— "The prosperity of the Dominion, thanks to a government which, with Sir Wilfrid Laurier at its head, has reached as near the ideal of a self-governing British colony as is possible in this imperfect world, has been extraordinary, and yet it has had few of those ephemeral features which will tend to the belief that it is short-lived."

Which course ought citizens of Northumberland to pursue—to vote for Robinson to sit with a discredited Opposition at Ottawa, or for Loggie, who is to go there to promote the country's and the county's interests by supporting the Laurier-Emmerson Government?

The Moncton Conservatives have peculiar notions of the spirit which should pervade their party gatherings. The Transcript gives the particulars of a meeting in a local hall at which certain things in the way of refreshments were available. By and by, some of the younger men became noisy and annoyed the more elderly and staid members of the party, who remonstrated with them. Finally, the young men made it known that they would do as they pleased, whereupon the janitor was directed to eject them. He didn't undertake the job, however, but went for a policeman and when the latter appeared he was ordered to get out. He felled one of the offenders, but at last was forced to retire and leave the disorderly ones in possession.

An admiring friend of a certain editor, on whose mind the idea that all other editors in the country were purchasable seemed to have been impressed by the admitted one, was discussing the subject of political venality with a third party, who was inclined to the opinion that the particular editor in question was a bidder for office and not above placing himself in the way of receiving offers for his support. "Indeed," said the enthusiastic and interested admirer, "Jayell" has often told me that if money could tempt him to be anything

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Take cold easily? Throat tender? Lungs weak? Any relatives have consumption? Then a cough means a great deal to you. Follow your doctor's advice and take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It heals, strengthens, prevents.

but a Conservative he would have been a Liberal long ago, for he has had plenty good offers to induce him to join that party. "Why?" retorted the other, "he joined the Conservatives for twenty five cents—an old shilling—I have it from the best of sources. He was on the fence and looking for money. He hadn't any paper then. Dr. Charles Tupper was passing along in a kind of procession and thinking his chance had come, 'Jayell' shouted 'Hurrah for Dr. Tupper.' Dr. Tupper immediately recognised the supposedly enthusiastic shout and gave 'Jayell' the shilling I mention, and I don't call that a very high priced purchase, although the Doctor paid all that it was worth and I am sure that the Liberals never offered him a higher price."

The party who gives the ADVANCE the foregoing, says it is nauseating to hear the interested admirers of the chap who took Dr. Tupper's quarter expressing themselves on his high priced partyism.

Mr. Ganong of Charlotte County, who appealed for votes to a granite Company in St. George, on the ground that their business required more protection which the Conservatives would give if it put in power as a result of the pending elections, received a reply which is such excellent reading matter that we publish it in these notes. Mr. Ganong made the mistake of assuming that the Utopia Granite Company did not know when they had sufficient protection. He imagined they were like the sugar, candy, agricultural implement, and musical instrument makers, who are growing wealthy out of the profits of their business. Mr. Ganong, himself, who has been made wealthy by the protection given in the tariff to his business wants more protection. Like most large manufacturers he doesn't know when he has enough. The consumer, however, sees these gentlemen growing rich out of their businesses, and as the small wage laborer, and the farmer, who have to buy their products realise that it is out of their earnings that income has come to these barons of the factories they, very sensibly, conclude that the Conservatives, who have promised to increase the tariff, must be kept out of power. The only way to do this is to vote for Liberal candidates who will strengthen Sir Wilfrid Laurier's hands in resisting the higher tariff advocates' demands.

Mr. Loggie is fully accepted as the Liberal Candidate for Northumberland by Hon. Mr. Emmerson, New Brunswick's Liberal leader. Mr. Emmerson, as all our readers know, is the Minister of Railways, through whose influence upon the government and in spite of the opposition of the leaders of Mr. Robinson's party, the Canada Eastern Railway was made a part of the Intercolonial. It would be the basest ingratitude, therefore, for any Northumberland man, and especially for any elector along the Miramichi valley not to vote for the candidate who will support Mr. Emmerson and the Laurier administration, rather than the candidate who has promised his support to those who opposed Mr. Emmerson in the railway purchase, and who is pledged to restore John Haggart—our railway enemy—to the Intercolonial. Let us stand by our known friends, rather than our enemies. Mr. Haggart has a supreme contempt for the railway between Loggieville and Fredericton, and in the last session of parliament did not hesitate to express it. Now is the time to resent his attitude, by voting for W. S. Loggie.

The best young men are assisting Mr. Loggie in his campaign, or showing their good will towards him. They attend at the Liberal club room in Chatham every evening and display a manly, intelligent interest in the canvassing and campaign work. A dozen of them are assisting Mr. Loggie in meetings throughout the parishes. These are doing yeoman service. Mr. Robinson must not rely too much on his forbearance when his principal organ, the St. John Sun, rails at the ADVANCE because it supported him in the last Dominion election and is not doing so now. The ADVANCE supported Mr. Robinson in the last election at the request of Mr. Blair, who was, at that time the recognized Liberal leader of New Brunswick. Mr. Robinson's own pretensions to be an independent and it was understood that he was to support Mr. Blair in parliament. It is not the ADVANCE's fault that Mr. Robinson was induced to change in a night and issue a Tory card. The Sun knows it was a Tory trick and not a creditable one either. If Mr. Robinson's course in the matter tallies with his and the Sun's sense of political integrity, it is not to be wondered at that it abuses the ADVANCE in its interest now that we are again supporting the candidate approved by the Liberal leader of the Province.

Mr. Blair must be very much interested—he can hardly feel flattered—over the persistency with which the Conservatives are setting him up as a political bogie, or "boo-man." Mr. David Russell, too, is no doubt, pluming himself on the big swath he is cutting since he bought the St. John Telegraph and established that excellent paper, the St. John Evening Times. He will, however, after, he has purchased a little more experience,—we don't think he wants any more papers—which those who are managing him says he is still willing to do, realize that "feed" is all right in its place but, with intelligent people, it is only looked upon as a physical necessity which any chef can supply at a price. It would be interesting to know Mr. Blair's real opinion of the whole arrangement. Meantime, he will, no doubt, continue to play "boo-man," as long as it is profitable; and he may ask, in the words of our own Billy Jones: "Do you blame me?" Mr. Blair "shot his bolt," before he became chairman of the Railway commission. Even if he should take the stump now for the Conservatives he can have nothing new to tell us.

Monday's St. John Star brings about as wickedly conceived an accusation against Mr. R. L. Borden as any we have yet seen. It had in its issue of Monday, in bold type the assertion: "Mr. Borden says: 'St. John demonstration was the greatest ever saw.'" The Star ought to prove or withdraw its assertion.

The "Commercial" is hardly acting up to its management's professions of party fealty, as it intimates that there is to be a third candidate nominated to-day in Northumberland. This and its stock abuse of the ADVANCE because it supports the Liberal candidate in Northumberland, constitute its chief contributions of Liberal support. It ought to be able to do better.

The following letter, published in the St. Andrews' Beacon last week, is very much to the point. ST. GEORGE, N. B., Oct. 10, 1904. Mr. G. W. Ganong: Dear Sir,—We have received your letter of the 5th asking our support in the coming election, and have decided to answer it in an open letter.

You say that the liberal administration has deprived us of the protection we had by giving the preference. We ask you what you will do in case of a conservative victory? Are not Mr. Foster and a large majority of your party committed to the so-called Chamberlain policy? How would this policy affect our business, if you say we need protection?

We might say, in connection with the granite industry of St. George, without fear of contradiction, that it never flourished as it has during the liberal administration of the past eight years. The best proof of this lies in the fact that there are now six or seven granite businesses where before there were but four. That under the administration of the conservatives the employees worked ten hours a day and eight months was a long working year. That they now work nine hours a day and are employed the year round; that in place of the ten per cent reduction of wages under conservative rule, the men are now enjoying a twenty per cent increase of wages.

The policy of the liberal administration has not only been of benefit to the stone works of St. George, but has increased and kept us in every line. We have only to point to the new stores of Messrs. Fraley, Row, Grant & Moran, Hanson Bros.—all new, first-class, up-to-date stores; and no man living can imagine such a success flourishing under conditions existing prior to 1896.

Conditions are better here, Mr. Ganong, and the increased output and enlarged capacities of your own business, the saw factory, and Halsey & Seale owe us in your own town, must be proof positive to you that we in this county have shared in the general prosperity of the Dominion under the friendly tariff.

We would ask you what your views are on the immigration policy of the present government. And in the connection would say that where formerly our only markets was Ontario and Quebec, the liberal government has opened up an enlarged and ever-increasing market in the Northwest and Manitoba. One half of our export now goes to the West. Think of the market the Grand Trunk Pacific will open up to us! Can you in justice to ourselves, your country and your own town ask us to go back to the days of stagnation and conservative administration of 1896? We are convinced that, taking into consideration the present prosperous condition of the whole Dominion, the certainty of the return to power of the liberal government, and the flourishing condition of the granite industry here, it would be decidedly against the interests of our county, to support you in the present campaign. Yours very truly, UTOPIA GRANITE CO.

Mr. Geo. V. McInerney, who got tired of Kent county after it rejected him four years ago when he offered for re-election to the House of Commons, appears to be the only candidate of political standing who can be induced to oppose Mr. LeBlanc. The Conservative convention nominated him only after Mr. Richard O'Leary had declined to run. Its members felt that Mr. McInerney could not win, having been beaten by Mr. LeBlanc by nearly 600 votes in the last election, when he had come out to the constituency fresh from the House of Commons. But a man had to be found, and although Mr. McInerney had left Kent and had no chance to do any better than he did in the last election, he was induced to again be put up against sure defeat. His loyalty to his party is, therefore, to be admired and that goes for much. His personal friends, however, regret that he has placed himself in so disadvantageous position.

The Conservative cause in Gloucester County is already a lost one. Mr. Landry, who was put to oppose Mr. Turgeon had a fighting chance. He did some canvassing and became ill, so much so that he abandoned the field. The party must, of course, put up a candidate and the best they could do was to select Mr. Theo. Blanchard, whose weakness in the constituency was made so discouragingly manifest in the last election. It is absurd for the Conservatives to pretend that they can overcome the nine hundred and odd votes by which Mr. Blanchard was defeated in 1900.

The St. John Sun appears to have the Champion preparator of the press as its Chatham telegrapher. It published, on Friday, a special from Chatham in which it was stated that Mr. Robinson and Mr. R. A. Lawlor had held meetings in Bay du Vin and Mr. Robinson and Mr. Donald Morrison had done so in Alnwick, and that Mr. Robinson was satisfied with the prospects in those parishes. We understand that while Mr. Robinson and Mr. Lawlor were in Bay du Vin and some other parts of Hardwick, they did not hold meetings in that parish. It is said that Mr. Robinson was given no reason to believe that Hardwick was for him. As to Alnwick there may have been a Robinson meeting or two there. Indeed, as Mr. Donald Morrison was with Mr. Robinson, it would go hard with him if he were not given a chance to talk. Mr. Morrison loves to have people hear him talk. Some people think that he talks too much. At all events, whether he talked and Mr. Robinson did or did not hold meetings in Alnwick, it is known that Mr. Robinson's chances with the electors of that parish are no better than they are in Hardwick.

The Sun's Chatham telegrapher says Mr. Morrissey's friends are going to resent Mr. Loggie's nomination on 3rd November. It is rather a big contract for the Sun's man to speak for Mr. Morrissey's friends. Some of them may, like Mr. Morrissey himself, be apathetic. These may even be so incoherent as to stay at home or vote for Mr. Robinson, but neither the Sun's telegrapher, nor Mr. Morrissey himself, is strong enough to prevent the majority of the latter's friends from voting for the Liberal candidate, especially as that candidate is W. S. Loggie, who so loyally supported Mr. Morrissey in the last Dominion election and who would have done so in the present one had that gentleman been the choice of the Liberal convention.

The most silly assertion in the Sun's telegram, however, is as follows: "It is reported that he has required urgent efforts on the part of the promoters to keep Mr. Loggie out of 'noisy' pitch," and that he would have thrown up the candidates before this was put out for the interested efforts of two or three who are able to pull the wool over Mr. Loggie's eyes."

Every mother should know that McLean's Vegetable Worm Syrup is the original and genuine worm syrup.

Good Work Appreciated Abroad. The Sun's and Moncton Times' abuse of the ADVANCE is quoted approvingly by a local paper professing to be liberal. The Transcript, which, in the past, has said the most bitter things it could about this paper, takes a different course however. It says: "The Chatham ADVANCE, which did not support the Liberal candidate in the federal election of 1900, is to-day putting up a splendid, able and well presented case in support of Mr. W. S. Loggie as the Liberal standard bearer. Its course, cannot fail to have appreciable influence upon the result. The ADVANCE reveals in solid print some facts about the last federal election in the county which are worthy of reproduction. The Transcript quotes our explanation of how the liberals accepted Mr. Robinson in 1900 at the request of Mr.

it. But within a few days several things have happened, and now a few conservatives claim to know that other things are going to happen and are very confident that their party will be returned to power. This much, at all events is certain. There is a conspiracy in operation backed by apparently unlimited money, the object of which is to defeat the government of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. We must wait for further developments, but they are assuredly near at hand. There is money to throttle the free press. There is money to induce a judicial officer to come down from the bench. There is money to use against the government in every way that money can be used against the government. Its use is directed by champions of monopoly in Montreal."

The St. John Globe of Saturday says: Reports coming in from every part of New Brunswick today show that the liberal party is sure of success. There is not a single constituency which the conservatives are sure to carry, while in Restigouche, Gloucester, Kent Westmorland, York and Victoria the conservative opposition is not considered as at all serious and has only been made for the moral effect on the rest of the province. The liberal majorities in all these constituencies will be in the hundreds. Conservatives themselves admit that in Charlotte Mr. Ganong is having the fight of his life. From every section that county word comes of liberal gains, and the party is most hopeful of success by Mr. Gilmour. Carleton County is even surer to return to the liberal fold. Many causes have combined to add strength to the liberal candidate, Mr. Carvell, and to weaken his conservative opponent, Mr. Hale. Travellers and others who have been over that county say Mr. Carvell will win a great victory. It is known that in Kings and Albert and Queens and Sunbury the liberals are fighting with the greatest vigor and energy and with every confidence. The frantic appeals to conservative workers to come out and help along the work in the wards shows the desperate straits in which the party is in St. John. From Northumberland comes word that Mr. Loggie is putting up a great fight and that many liberals who in past years did not support the party because of local differences are now working enthusiastically and this should bring success to their candidate. Everywhere over the province the party is strong, united and aggressive, and in every constituency the workers are hopeful. It has been predicted that the liberals will carry ten of the thirteen seats, and there is every reason to believe that this prediction will be verified. It may even be exceeded.

The Advocate is doing campaign work for Mr. Robinson and its best efforts are abuse of the ADVANCE, expressions to jealousy over this paper's advertising patronage and wild assertions to the effect that its candidate is going to get all the votes in the County. Meanwhile, the ADVANCE contents itself with presenting reasons why the friends of good government and of the Miramichi should vote for Mr. Loggie. We believe in the electors' intelligence, especially as they are laughing at the Advocate's ridiculous assertions.

The number of voters on the Dominion electoral lists for Northumberland is 6392, but of these 133 are on the non-resident list, leaving 6259 on the resident.

"Twelve a Liberal in the West, a Conservative in the East" is the display heading placed by a local paper over an alleged Montreal Herald interview with the premier of New Brunswick, but in the text of the interview there is not a word in favor of the Conservatives. Such warfare against Mr. Tweedie is on a par with the treatment he always receives from that quarter. The writer of the slander knew that Mr. Tweedie is loyally assisting the Liberal cause and helping those who are working for Mr. Loggie in Northumberland.

Every mother should know that McLean's Vegetable Worm Syrup is the original and genuine worm syrup.

Good Work Appreciated Abroad. The Sun's and Moncton Times' abuse of the ADVANCE is quoted approvingly by a local paper professing to be liberal. The Transcript, which, in the past, has said the most bitter things it could about this paper, takes a different course however. It says: "The Chatham ADVANCE, which did not support the Liberal candidate in the federal election of 1900, is to-day putting up a splendid, able and well presented case in support of Mr. W. S. Loggie as the Liberal standard bearer. Its course, cannot fail to have appreciable influence upon the result. The ADVANCE reveals in solid print some facts about the last federal election in the county which are worthy of reproduction. The Transcript quotes our explanation of how the liberals accepted Mr. Robinson in 1900 at the request of Mr.

Blair, the then Liberal leader, and the course Mr. Robinson took in publishing a conservative card just on the eve of nomination and says— "It is surprising in the light of the above that the Liberals failed to carry Northumberland! But how changed is the situation—how different Mr. Emmerson's policy compared to Mr. Blair's!" The Transcript further quotes from the ADVANCE and closes by saying:—"The above appeal has the right ring about it. With a united Liberal party making all personal differences into a recognition of a fact that a vote for Loggie really a vote for Laurier and the Liberal party, the outlook is bright for the Liberal cause in Northumberland."

CARD.

To the Electors of the County of Northumberland.

GENTLEMEN—At a regularly called convention of the Liberal Association of the County of Northumberland I was chosen as the Liberal candidate for the pending election. I appreciate the honor conferred upon me and in the hope that my candidature will unite the party and be the means of once more placing Northumberland on the Liberal side in Parliament. I have been induced to lay aside personal considerations and place myself in your hands. The Liberal party has always had my undivided support. Under the able leadership of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, with Hon. Henry R. Emmerson as Minister of Railways and Canals and our leader in New Brunswick, it has the strongest claims not only upon the people of this Province, but the Dominion at large. Its period of power, beginning in 1896, has been one of unprecedented commercial and industrial prosperity. Its record is one of treasury surplus and decrease of public debt—last year of over one million dollars—while its expenditures for the upbuilding and development of the country have been more liberal than those under any former government, and the affairs have been honestly administered. The Liberal party will in this election be handsomely sustained all over Canada, and I am sure you must agree with me that it is time the grand old Liberal party of Northumberland should fall into line by electing a Liberal representative.

I therefore ask you to rally to my support, and, laying aside any personal considerations or differences, and forgetting the past mistakes which have tended to weaken Northumberland Liberals, let us again unite and, fighting together, we are sure of success. I cannot in the short time between now and polling day meet and address you all as fully as I would like to do, but I confidently ask for your influence in my favor and your votes on the 3rd November. If I am elected, as I confidently expect to be, you may rely on my services for the promotion of the best interests of the Dominion at large and of the Miramichi in particular. I have the honor to be Your obedient servant, W. S. LOGGIE.

OUR BEEF IRON AND WINE. Is made from the best Beef Extract obtainable, combined with a fine imported Sherry Wine and an easily digestible preparation of Iron. It will build up the System and give renewed Health, Strength and Vigor. HICKEY'S DRUG STORE.

Drugging Won't Cure Catarrh. All the medicine in the world taken into the stomach won't cure catarrh, and it's useless to squander money on tablets, bitters and liquid remedies. Catarrh is a disease of the nasal passages, throat and bronchial tubes. Search medicines can't reach these parts. It's only fragrant healing Catarrh-o-ne which is breathed all through the air passages that is sure to reach the seat of Catarrh. No failure ever known if Catarrh-o-ne was used. It heals and doesn't irritate; it soothes, kills the germs and therefore cures. Use only Catarrh-o-ne, the one certain cure. Two months treatment $1.00; trial size 25c.

37 Years Old, AND GETTING BETTER ALL THE TIME. In experience, in Teaching Methods, in knowledge of the wants of the public, in facilities for providing for those wants, and in up-to-date features, we are improving all the time. Our catalogue tells the story. Send for it. S. Kerr & Son, ODDFELLOWS' HALL.

THE CANADIAN OLIVER TYPEWRITER. The Standard Visible Writer. AGENTS WANTED. Write for our special offer. CANADIAN OLIVER TYPEWRITER COMPANY, 183a St. James St., Montreal.

INTERCOLONIAL RAILWAY. Tender for Buildings. Appeal Sealed Tenders addressed to the undersigned and marked on the outside "Tender for Station at Drummondville," "Tender for Station at Montserrat," or "Tender for Station at St. Armand," at the case may be will be received up to and including SATURDAY, THE 27th DAY OF OCTOBER, 1904, for the construction of a Brick and Stone Station at Drummondville, P. E. I., for the remodeling and enlarging of the existing Station at Montserrat, P. E. I., and for the construction of a Station and extension of Freight Shed at Montserrat, P. E. I. Plans and specifications for the work at Montserrat may be seen at the Station Master's Office, Drummondville, P. E. I. Plans and specifications for the work at Montserrat may be seen at the Station Master's Office at Montserrat, P. E. I. Plans and specifications for the work at Montserrat may be seen at the Chief Engineer's Office, Montreal, P. E. I., where forms of tenders may be obtained. All the conditions of the specifications must be complied with. D. POTTINGER, General Manager, Railway Office, Montreal, P. E. I., 12th October, 1904.

CANADIAN PACIFIC RY. MONTREAL EXPRESS. PALACE SLEEPER STANDARD COACHES. HARLEY AND COLONIST SLEEPERS. HALIFAX TO MONTREAL THROUGH COACHES. DUNDAS CAN TRAVEL TO MONTREAL. Leave Montreal 8:30 a.m. Daily, except Sunday. Arrive Montreal 8:25 a.m. Daily, except Monday. PACIFIC EXPRESS. Leave Montreal 9:40 a.m. Every Day for Manitoba, North West and Pacific Coast. PALACE SLEEPER, STANDARD COACHES AND COLONIST BLUE-PARTS EXCEPT DAY. TOURIST SLEEPERS. Every Thursday and Sunday FROM MONTREAL FOR VANCOUVER. For particulars and Tickets call on our writers. C. B. POSTER, D. P. A. C. P. R., ST. JOHN, N. B.

HARDWOOD LOGS WANTED. Delivered on cars at any station I. C. R. on river bank, or at factory. Enquire at office, over Millers' Grocery Store. THE ANDERSON FURNITURE COMPANY, LIMITED, Newcastle. 1039-304.

DENTISTRY! Henry G. Vaughan, D. D. S. Office Hours—8:30 a.m. to 12 p.m., 2 p.m. to 6 p.m. Wednesday—2 p.m. to 6 p.m., Saturday—8:30 a.m. to 12 p.m., 2 p.m. to 6 p.m. GAS ADMINISTERED. PAINLESS DENTISTRY A SPECIALTY. OFFICE—OVER MACKENZIE'S MEDICAL HALL CHATHAM, N. B. HARRY R. LOGGIE, DEPUTY CROWN LAND SURVEYOR, CHATHAM, N. B.

Fureka Harness Oil. Keadrick's is King over all pain-Lameness-Rheumatism-Neuralgia-Sore Throat and Loosy.

BIBLE SOCIETY-The eighty fourth annual meeting of the Miramichi Ladies' Auxiliary Bible Society will be held in the Temperance Hall, Chatham, N. B. on Oct. 27th, at 3 o'clock p. m.

DEPARTURE-D. Vaughan's funeral will be held on Wednesday from 9 a. m. until 2 p. m., being in the duties at death services at the Hotel Eden requiring his presence at that institution.

TRUCKS-Several new trucks are being sold by the Miramichi Trucking Co. M. Brock and Howard Nelson were having 15 days in the field making repairs on the latter of Douglasfield's engine and Allan Mather, of Robb's, took care on 18th with a moose and cabin.

WANTED-Faithful person to travel for established house in a few towns, calling on retail merchants and agents. Salary $1000 a year, and expenses, payable $100 a week in cash, express advanced. Position permanent. Business successful and thriving. Standard House, 324 Dearborn St. Chicago.

HARVEST THANKSGIVING SERVICES-Harvest Thanksgiving Services will be held (D. W.) in St. Mary's and St. Paul's Churches on Sunday next at the usual hour. The Communion will be celebrated in St. Mary's at 7.30 a. m., and in St. Paul's at 11 o'clock Sunday. The Special Services will be for payment of loan from Education Fund. Grass, fruits and flowers for church donations will be thankfully received on or before Saturday next, and it is hoped there will be a general attendance at all the Sunday Services.

Professional. Dr. A. P. Crockett, eye, ear, nose and throat specialist, of St. John, will be at the Bowler House, Chatham Thursday Oct. 27th, where he will attend to all cases of these organs as well as application of glasses.

To Cure a Cold in One Day. Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. Ad drugists refund the money if it fails to cure. K. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c.

Personal. Mrs. Warren C. Winslow, of Chatham, N. B., pronounced the coronation of the Ladies' Auxiliary of A. O. H. and Miss May G. Pennington, of Moncton, provincial treasurers, returned from Halifax on Monday, having successfully organized a new auxiliary in that city. Mrs. Winslow's coronation was a few days ago, the guest of Mrs. Chandler.

Are All Women Fretful? Quite an unnecessary question, because as many women have such poor complexions. We want to tell all women with pale, sallow cheeks about Ferronox, which quickly restores fine color and gives the skin a clear, rosy appearance. It's pure blood that makes fine complexion, so by producing less of that blood, building up the debilitated system, increasing the circulation, Ferronox quickly brings the glow of health to faded cheeks. It's no trouble at all to testify you look simply as Ferronox. Try it. Free 50c. ad. gratis.

Death of Samuel Thomson. E. O. As we go to press the announcement is made that Samuel Thomson, Esq., K. C., the oldest barrister in the province, opposed dead on the street in Newcastle, opposite the Baptist Church yesterday afternoon about three o'clock. Mr. Thomson was in his 80th year. He was 79 on 17th inst. He was Judge of Probate, Clerk of the County and Circuit Courts, Clerk of the Peace and Secretary of the County. He is survived by Mrs. Thomson and leaves eight children-five daughters and three sons. He was a prominent Presbyterian and a member of the Masonic order. No man in the county was better known or more universally esteemed.

Begetting the Question. A local paper states that a "Coy" has been made to have Principal Cox dismissed because he attended a conservative meeting. If any such coy has been made, we have not heard it, or, if it, until the paper referred to stated it. Such a dismissal would be unreasonable. Dr. Cox, or any other teacher, has the right to attend any political meeting, the same as any other citizen, and there would be no impropriety in his doing so. There has, however, been some adverse comment made on his appearance at such a meeting as a partisan political speaker. It is held by everybody-excepting, perhaps, the Doctor himself-that, as a matter of principle, he should not do this. The most thoughtful citizens of both parties agree that the principals of our public schools should not be active political partisans; that they should, so far as their public expression, be held in reserve as between political parties. Otherwise, they might be the means of rousing their pupils into hostile political camps and thus divert their attention from their legitimate work and studies. Moreover, in Dr. Cox's case, it is only a few weeks since the same were induced to provide him with an assistant, on the ground that he had more work than he could properly attend to. It appears that he takes time to get notes for his party speeches, and, to that extent, loses the time, for which taxpayers of both parties pay him.

CLOTHING

We have FALL CLOTHING of every description for Men, Boys, Youths and Children.

Our $10.00 suits for Men are unequalled in Quality, Fit or Price. A special line of Overcoats, Ulsters and Reefers now open for inspection. Cravenette Coats and Rubber Coats in quantity and quality.

Buy a Cravenette Coat and it will take the place of an Overcoat for Fall and Spring, or a Raincoat at any season of the year.

NOW IS THE TIME TO INVEST.

W. S. LOGGIE Company, Ltd., COMMERCIAL BUILDING.

Public Banquet. A public banquet was given to Rev. M. A. O'Keefe, in Kerswell's Hall, Grand Falls, on 17th inst., when the reverend gentleman was presented with an address, which was accompanied by a purse of $300 in gold, which was handed to him on a gold and silver tray by one of the ladies of his late congregation, while a beautiful bouquet of flowers was presented by another. The address was as follows:-

To the Reverend M. A. O'Keefe, Pastor of the Assumption Church, Grand Falls, N. B.

Reverend Dear Father-It is with deep sorrow and regret that your parishioners and friends learn of your intended departure from our midst. You, Reverend Father, have associated with, and been amongst us for more than twenty years, to all, you are endeared by the ties of affection, and your earlier years and strengthened by experience and long residence.

You are known and esteemed by all as a most amiable and energetic priest, a warm and ever-active friend of the poor, and a truly a sincere promoter of everything which had for its object the interests and honor of the Church, and welfare of the people.

We feel that we cannot let this opportunity pass without some tangible proof and worthy recognition of the heartfelt gratitude and love which we have for you. We do this, we beg of you to accept the accompanying purse.

With a loving farewell and so loving your kind remembrance, hoping you may be enabled to return to the City and wish you good success in your new field of labor. We have the honor to remain,

Your devoted and loving Parishioners and Friends, Grand Falls, N. B., Oct. 17th, 1904.

The above address was read by Mr. J. F. McElroy, and one in French was read by Dr. C. B. Sullivan.

Dr. C. B. Sullivan. Dr. C. B. Sullivan made replies to both addresses and speeches were made also by Rev. John Corrigan, Rev. C. E. Maimon, Rev. Meyer McCloskey, J. L. Conroy, Rev. J. A. Bradley, W. F. Kerston, Dr. B. A. Peggington, Dr. C. B. Rowan, J. F. McElroy, G. W. Day and T. G. May.

Between three and four hundred persons were present at the banquet.

For a Stiff Neck. Or any stiffness in the muscles of the back or neck, get anything but a good as Nerviline, the most powerful liniment made. "My neck was so stiff I couldn't turn it a quarter of an inch," writes Paul T. Baldwin of Portsmouth. "I had it rubbed with Nerviline for a week and all the stiffness and aches disappeared. I don't know another liniment you can depend on like Nerviline; it's splendid for colds, rheumatism, and for bruising or sprains and neuralgia pain." Try Nerviline yourself. Price 25c.

Mr. James Kelly of Loggville has a Serious Accident in St. John. The St. John Telegraph of Friday says: The remains and fragments of a falling small boy had the effect of bringing to rest street car No. 35 on the Parade Row line about 7 o'clock last evening.

The boy, who was found on the street, was identified as James Kelly, but it could not be determined whether or not his home is in this city.

When found he was taken to the hospital and required consciousness at 10.45 o'clock, but was too dead to give any version of his experience. When first brought in he was examined by the resident physician, but no external wounds were found; it was thought his condition was possibly due to electric shock but the street railway people were unable to see how this could have happened.

The conductor of the car was asked to tell what he knew of the occurrence but declined to tell anything. From another source it was learned that Kelly was standing near the corner of Main street and Parade Row and after the car started ran round to the blind side and attempted to get aboard. As he persisted, his position became dangerous for the car was immovably increasing its speed. A spectator attempted to extricate it but found he could do so, and was obliged to see the car go round the bend with Kelly still visible somewhere around the feeder.

When in the neighborhood of West street corner the conductor and motorman were told by boys at what they had seen, Kelly was found and lifted from the feeder and carried into Wade's drug store. He was totally unconscious.

Dr. Wm. Christie, Jr., was summoned and he was by his advice that the ambulance was sent for and in it Kelly was conveyed to the hospital.

Nobody knew him, but in his pocket was found a paper bearing the name of James Kelly, and a couple of railway tickets, one from Bangor to this city.

The lady who saw him first on the feeder said that electricity had something to do with his loss of consciousness for that she saw light blue flashes played from time to time about his body.

The Globe says Kelly's injuries are not serious; that he was found from Loggville to Bangor and that the railway people ridicule the idea that he received any electric shock while on the feeder.

To Cure a Cold in One Day

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. Seven Million boxes sold in past 12 months. This signature, E. H. Allen.

Cures Croup in Two Days. On every box. 25c.

It has been my lot to stand beside Henry Emerson, the friend of the laborer in Canada, and fight for the right and the privileges of the working men, all I want is the friendship of the working men."

"Like the history of labor legislation in Canada, I challenge the conservative press to point out one single spot where, during the eighteen years of conservative rule, anything was done along the lines of labor legislation, except the creation of Labor Day, and the imposition of a tax of $50 a year on chimney."

(Laughter.) The conservative came in power in 1878. The I. C. R. trackmen, men who worked hard, long hours-the boiler the sun the ladder the work, the worse the more the heat for the work, men who have to be tried in that profession-four years after the National Policy came into force, were receiving ninety cents per day. On the eve of the election in 1882, the conservative party saw that another must be done, and they raised it to $1 per day, and remained in power for fourteen years longer, going out paying $1.15 to their workmen."

"The liberal party came into power in 1896. They have given, in the seven years of power, three increases for the wages of the I. C. R. trackmen. Today a trackman in Moncton who received $1.60 to $1.65 in 1896 is now receiving $2.25 per day. The trackman and the maintenance of way men, who in 1896 received $1.15, are today receiving $1.60 (Cheers)."

"In 1887 the conservative party were on the eve of a general election, and saw that something must be done in regard to the working men, and the betterment of the condition of labor, and they put up a little bluff. They sent out a labor commission, who, four years later, on the eve of another general election, reported that there was no such system, but after the liberals went into power Mr. McKensie King reported that women were working in Montreal on army uniforms for less than twenty-five cents a day.

"In 1896 we had against us the Alien Labor Law of the United States. Canadians could not go to work in the United States, but the whole population of the United States might go to work in Canada. But after 1896 we had an alien labor law, copied exactly as that of the United States."

"The conservative party had a $30 tax upon Chinese. Within the last few years they have established the department of the railway corporation, the tax was doubled and made $100, and then, to the request of the working men, raised to $500, and that is the present rate of the tax on the border area." (Laughter and Cheers.)

"Then the liberal government passed a conscription bill by which some of the greatest strikes in Canada were settled. Then they also established the department of labor at Ottawa, one of the most advanced in the world.

"Then this government passed a fair wage law which would have made it possible for a contractor to employ what labor he liked, black, white, or yellow, and pay what wages he pleased. Certain sections of the fair wage schedule would have been cancelled, and the contractor would have been able to employ what labor he liked, black, white, or yellow, and pay what wages he pleased. Certain sections of the fair wage schedule would have been cancelled, and the contractor would have been able to employ what labor he liked, black, white, or yellow, and pay what wages he pleased.

"We established the Labor Gazette, the labor paper of Canada, giving the best information to be secured about labor."

Why Burn Your Flesh. With cold corn salve when 25c. buys a bottle of Paterson's Famous Corn Extractor. It's the best remedy ever known, never causes sores, and acts entirely without pain. Use only Paterson's-the best.

Hon. Mr. Blair's Resignation. The most sensible and unprejudiced article we have seen on the subject of the resignation of Mr. Blair, is that in the chairmanship of the Dominion Railway Commission is that of the Montreal Witness, which is one of the most really independent newspapers of the Dominion. The Witness, on the day following the announcement by Mr. Blair, said:-

"Mr. Blair's resignation of the chairmanship of the R.W. Commission, after less than a year's service, and in the midst of a political campaign, has naturally excited a sensation throughout the country. Mr. Blair's reasons, formally stated before the commission, is that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and that the misgivings, which he started had been intensified instead of removed. These misgivings, whose source is not explained, are not due to aversion to the task, which is highly congenial or unbusinesslike in his opinion, but to the fact that he is in the way to better his position. There is some shade of mystery about this statement. Mr. Blair tells his fellow commissioners and the country that he accepted a place on the commission with many misgivings, and

AWAY TO THE MISSING WILL

CHAPTER XXV. It was plainly too late to seek information of a man in an omnibus, and as Philip drove back to his own quarters near Hyde Park...

"I have thought that it will not be necessary," he replied. "You were with a man named Ashwin, this evening," he added. Claude moved away from the lamp he had turned up on entering...

"That is my concern. I can look after myself and those who depend upon me. It is very plain that you don't wish me to know him, since you bought his silence a few hours since and told him that he would repeat nothing to me of anything that day of his life..."

So Philip had heard from the man who had wronged him the story of his own shame. He was the son of Algernon Medway, the Mr. Algernon of the last generation, a name so notorious for its misdeeds in this...

It is equally good for the boy or girl who is thin and pale and not well nourished by their food; also for the anemic or consumptive adult who is losing good flesh and strength.

SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, Toronto, Ont.

DON'T BUY JAPAN TEAS

They acquired consumption, and that regrettable relapses may thus be avoided.

DEYLON NATURAL GREEN tea is natural leaf, light color in the cup, and with a peculiar leaf fragrance, captivating to all.

At Marwell Court, he had seen Philip's name in newspapers and the Army List, and learnt all that was known of his private life...

Babies do not cry unless there is some good reason for it. The cry of a baby is nature's cry for help, and there is something wrong.

CONSUMPITIVE WORKERS. Sanatorium Will Provide Employment for Patients. The National Committee for the relief of consumptive workers...

PROTECTING THE CZAR. An Elaborate System of Police Espionage. In Russia the safety of the emperor is a sufficient excuse for setting aside...

CAN DRINK TROUBLE. That's One Way to Get It. Although they won't admit it, many people who suffer from headaches and other ailments get their straight...

TIRED AND DEPRESSED. The Condition of Many Young Women in Shops and Offices. Thousands of young women have to depend upon their own efforts to gain a livelihood...

THAT'S ONE WAY TO GET IT. Although they won't admit it, many people who suffer from headaches and other ailments get their straight...

SCHOOL IN A FOREST.

A new kind of school is about to be started, the authorities at Charlottenburg, Germany, for the benefit of children who, though not exactly blind, are so near-sighted...

STRAINED HIS BACK WHILE LIFTING

They Removed the Bad Effects and Now William Sharam is as Well as Ever Again. Murray Harbor South, P.E.I., Oct. 10.—(Special)—Through straining his back while lifting Mr. William Sharam, general storekeeper...

HEART RELIEF IN HALF AN HOUR

A hint is a girl who is afraid she will be left all the post. Heart relief in half an hour—A hint in ten years, writes the cure by Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart...

DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT

When you think you have cured a cough or cold, but find a dry, tickling cough remains, it is danger. Take Shiloh's Consumption Cure...

SHILOH'S CONSUMPTION CURE

When you think you have cured a cough or cold, but find a dry, tickling cough remains, it is danger. Take Shiloh's Consumption Cure...

THE TUNING-FORK

A very simple method of locating fractures in bones, particularly in long ones, by the aid of a tuning-fork, is practiced by a well-known surgeon. A stethoscope is placed over the bone as near as possible to the point of suspected fracture...

BRILLIANT CLOCKS

The municipality of Berlin has decided to hang clocks in all the principal streets of the leading streets. The dials of these clocks will be illuminated at night. The first clock was set up by the police supporting the electric lamps which light the streets...

Comprehend facts not advertisements. The popularity of Blue Ribbon Soap is a fact.

"ISLAND CITY" HOUSE AND FLOOR PAINTS. Will Dry in 8 Hours. P. D. DODS & CO., Montreal, Toronto, Vancouver.

Potatoes, Poultry, Eggs, Butter, Apples. THE DAWSON COMMISSION CO., Limited. Can be had in Pails, Wash Basins, Milk Pans, &c.

South American Kidney Cure is the equal to correct all the evils that are likely to befall these physical organs. Fibre Ware. Lower Prices. Better Quality.

Dominion Line Steamships. Moderate Rate Service. H.B.K. BRAND. CLEANING LADIES' SHIRT. Made big enough for a big man to work in with comfort.

Minard's Liniment Relieves Neuralgia. The man who had to ask his wife for car fare every morning has no use for a mother-in-law. Piles. Dr. Chase's Ointment.

Minard's Liniment Cures Dandruff. Theories cause more worry than they cure. Minard's Liniment Cures Burns, etc.

Minard's Liniment for sale everywhere. WHY HE LOST THE PATENT. The physician—"Did the patient in this case. Your husband eats too much. That is a feature of the disease."

Could Not Eat Without Suffering. Sixteen Years of Great Distress From Indigestion and Liver Trouble—Doctors Failed, But Dr. Chase's Kidney Liver Pills Brought Quick Relief and Effected a Thorough Cure.

JAPAN'S NEWSPAPERS. Nowhere else in the world has the "progress of the Press" been so rapid as in Japan. The first "daily" newspaper was published in 1857.

How that woman hates me. "But she spoke nicely enough." "But she spoke just as if she were a man." The woman who says "I hate you" is often a woman who is suffering from chronic indigestion.

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. In most cases of chronic indigestion the liver and kidneys are affected as well as the stomach. And though treated by three doctors and a specialist I received no benefit.