PRESIDENT'S REPORT.

GENTLEMEN,

We have this day met according to custom to receive the Annual Reports of the Society's operations for the past year, and your Managing Committee in resigning their trust beg leave to present you with the following record.

Each preceding report has spoken of the increasing claims upon the bounty of the society, but it is as pleasing a fact, as it will we trust be gratifying to you, to learn, that while the calls upon its bounty have been more numerous, your committee have had the satisfaction of meeting every difficulty and rendering the aid needed to meet the wants and necessities of our indigent and deserving fellow countrymen.

Since the last annual meeting, the accession to our numbers is not as great as we had to reason to hope, being only four ordinary members and two ordinary members becoming life-members.

On the other hand we have to deplore the loss by death of several of its oldest members, viz: Henry Jessop, Esquire, formerly Collector of H. M Customs, who was a zealous member of the society: and Hammond Gowen, Esquire, a retired merchant and one of its earliest members; and the Revd. R. R. Burrage, chaplain to the society till he was removed from Quebec,—a gentleman of high classical attainments and a most earnest, indefatigable, and useful member.

We have also to mention the death of Mr. George Harvey, Mr. J. C. Stokes and Mr. Edwin Hawkins, the latter who met his death at that memorable and lamentable occurrence, the explosion of the laboratory at St. John's Gate.

Our Patron Saint's day was celebrated as usual. Divine Service was held in the cathedral in the morning. A touching and eloquent sermon was preached by his Lordship the Bishop of Quebec, who forcibly shewed that, by the discharge of duties of one towards another, the social compact is held together, and thence, the individuals who compose this and societies that are kindred to it, become bound to each other by a more immediate relation, than that in which they stand to others of the community; urging us to go on in the good work, as it was by such compacts, that we recognize the combined triumph of amiable, charitable and social feelings.

An excellent musical service was performed by the Ladies and Gentlemen of the Voluntary Choir, conducted by our able organist, Mr. James Pearce, Mus. Bac. Ox.

The collection amounted to $51 14.

On reference to the Report of the Charitable Committee it will be seen that the amount expended considerably exceeds the past year to the extent of $109.96 and has been attended not only with corresponding but most satisfactory results.

The arrangements with the Finlay Asylum still continue and the advantages the Society derive from it, the members cannot be supposed to know, as such have fallen only under the notice of the Charitable Committee who for the information of the Society will place before them, in what these benefits consist. Ever since the Society has been in existence (till within the last two years) there has been no place, no institution, or asylum where Emigrants from our native land, in indigent circumstances, could be sent to: the result of which was, with the temporary relief given them they sought accommodation where best they could, in crowded inns, or taverns exposed to insult, discomfort, and imposition, apart from the contamination likely to ensue. Since however, by the suggestion and influence of our estimable and respected Chaplain, the Revd. Mr. Housman, a temporary arrangement has been sanctioned on the part of the Trustees of the Finlay Asylum, Mount Pleasant, permitting the Society to send Immigrants direct to that Institution, where they remain till either occupation is found for them, or fitting opportunity occurs to forward them to their destination, the trifling sum of a shilling a day being charged for their board at the Asylum.

We have also to allude to a similar Institution in this City, which has also opened its doors to the protection of such of those who come under the auspices of the society, as in the former there was not the accommodation or convenience for their reception.—Such your committee think is a great boon to the society, and one which it is an object to cherish and support—(neither of these Institutions, your Committee learn, is free from encumbrance, being dependant on the contributions of the charitable) and would suggest to the consideration of their successors in office, the propriety of making a Donation to these establishments when circumstances would permit and in so far as is consistent with the Charter of the Society.

The subject of the Repairs of the Wolfe and Montcalm Monument has not been forgotten, and your committee have been waiting the action of the government in the matter.

Your Committee regret to see the lukewarmness shewn on the part of most of the members, that at the Quarterly and Monthly meetings (in a society numbering 200) so few attend. In the latter, frequently we can not form a Quorum, and desire to urge on its members the desirability of their taking a more lively interest in the operation of the society as well as in recruiting to increase our members.

I cannot resign my office, Gentlemen, without expressing my acknowledgement to the several gentlemen composing the Charitable Committee for their assistance and more particularly to one, I believe of its oldest, most staunch, and zealous members, I mean Mr. George Fitch, whose assiduous, untiring, and self sacrificing action in the interests of the society have rendered my office nearly obsolete.

It now remains with you to elect the officers for the present year.

A. J. MAXHAM.

consequences of which the labour of investigation of case, has fallen heavily upon the President, who discovered several attempts, by unworthy characters, to impose on the Society; and there is reason to believe that not more than one or two such persons received any thing.—Several deserving cases presenting strong claims have been assisted to the extent of $20 00 each and it is believed much good has been effected during the year.

Through the liberality and influence of the 1st Vice-President (Joseph White, Esq.,) who has ever been active and energetic in promoting the interest of the Society, several free passages have been procured, thereby effecting a considerable saving of the funds.

The objects of the Society have also been forwarded by the assistance of Mr. Rogers, as frequently mentioned in former reports:

It may be worthy of mention that several letters from a distance have been received expressing gratitude for the aid granted.

GEORGE FITCH,

Chairman Charitable Committee.

[P. S.—Since the above was presented, the chairman has had the pleasure of receiving another sum of Five Pounds, returned by a worthy countryman.]
