HON. EDWARD BLAKE. We publish in another place two condensed reports of the speech delivered at ed Official Reporter. London, Ont., recently, by the talented leader of the Opposition, the Hon. Edward Blake, than whom perhaps there is no more graceful speaker in the Dominion As might be anticipated, a great speech was expected, and if we are to judge by the verbatim reports of Mr. Blake's utterances on that occasion his friends had no reason to feel disappointed. In this connection however we may perhaps be warranted in excluding from the roll of ac the friends who were more than pleased with the opposition leader's able address those gentlemen of Quebec who have been so active and outspoken in their efforts to create an intense national feeling against the Government in connection with the execution of Riel who so richly deserved his fate. If the dissatisfied representatives of the neighboring province have been sincere and hon est in their support of the Government and its policy, the leader's invectives against the Government's administration of the affairs of the country, so often indulged in and again and again reiterated in the Commons and on the hustings, could not fall upon their ears as a pleasing refrain. FREDERICTON'S NEW CHURCH, Mr. Blake appeared in excellent health and spirits and spoke in robust tones, which were sustained through an hour and a-halfs oration ending at 10.30. He thanked the assembly for their kindness and the compliments showered upon him for so many years, especially during the dark and trying times since he took the lead. He congratulated the Liberals of the past few years in order to see which party was entitled to public confidence.—He charged the Government with extra-the energy of the past few years in order to see which party was entitled to public confidence.—He charged the Government with extra-the energy of the mande under the habeas corpus act to have the prisoners released, who had been indicted for murder as two sessions of the Supreme court had passed without their being arraigned. They were accordingly released, and bail was taken for their appearance to answer the charge of rioting at the next sitting of the Supreme court. It is not at all likely that they will be again tried, as the prosecution will be dropped against them, so as to avoid resurrecting the old religious feud.
