The Bill of Lading Union.

CHICAGO, Sept. 2.—The second attempt to put into affect the uniform bill of lading on all railroads eastward from Chicago, has resulted in another failure. It was to have been adopted yesterday in accordance with the recent arrangement of the committee of the Central Traffic Association, but the Wabash Road declined to use it on the shipments in connection with the Canadian Pacific and the Chicago and Grand Trunk refused to use it unless the Wabash applied it on all through business. The Big Four would only adopt the bill in case all other roads adopted it and the result was that three of the Chicago roads continued giving their patrons the old form of receipt. The outlook for the new bill of lading is generally regarded here as even more gloomy than heretofore.

THE GREAT CONGRESS.

Trades Union Delegates in Session at Liverpool, Eng.

LIVERPOOL, Sept. 1.—The Trades Union Congress opened here to-day. Five hundred delegates are present. The congress is the largest ever held. Among the delegates are a number of women. John Burns, the Socialist leader, made a motion expressing the sympathy of the congress with the men who are now on strike in Australia and urged that material help be sent them. The London dockers and gasworkers, the Liverpool woodcutters, lightermen and leatherworkers, are represented now for the first time in a general labor conference. Among the prominent representatives of labor present are Messrs. Broadhurst, Burst and John Wilson, members of Parliament; John Burns, Tom Mann, Ben Tillett, Ben Pickard, Clem Edwards, Hayden Saunders, and George Shipton. Lady Dilke, Beatrice Potter and Miss Rutledge, secretary of the Women's Trades Council, are looking after women's interests. The programme of the congress, subject to possible modifications and additions, is as follows: (1) Employers' Liability Bill; (2) certificates of competency for men in charge of steam engines and boilers; (3) the desirability of increasing the number of factory and workshop inspectors; (4) public contracts and fair wages; (5) the right of relatives of deceased miners to be represented at coroner's inquests; (6) co-operation and its relation to trades unionism; (7) representation of labor in Parliament; (8) eight hours a day. The discussion on the last-named question will probably be exceedingly animated, as its opposers and defendants are nearly equal. This afternoon and evening were devoted to excursions and sight-seeing.

SHERMAN'S MOVE.

Reciprocity with Canada To Be Offered —The Proposed Amendment.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—Senator Sherman to-day added a section to the tariff bill amendments of the Senate Finance Committee providing for reciprocity or closer trade relations with Canada as soon as the Dominion Government has certified its willingness to adopt such a policy. Mr. Sherman's resolution reads as follows:

That whenever it shall be certified to the President of the United States that the Government of the Dominion of Canada shall by law or regulation admit free of duty into all its ports coal mined in the United States he shall make proclamation of the fact, and thereafter, while such law or regulation is in force, coal mined in the Dominion of Canada shall be admitted free of duty into all the ports of the United States; and whenever it shall be duly certified to the President of the United States that the Government of the Dominion of Canada has declared a desire to enter into such commercial arrangements with the United States as will result in the complete or partial removal of duties upon trade between Canada and the United States, he shall appoint three commissioners to meet those who may be designated to represent the Government of Canada to consider the best method of extending the trade relations between Canada and the United States, and to ascertain on what terms greater freedom of intercourse between the two countries can best be secured; and said commissioners shall report to the President, who shall lay the report before Congress, and the necessary expenses of the commissioners appointed by the President, including their compensation at the rate of $10 a day for the time necessarily employed in said duty, shall be paid out of the appropriation for the collection of the customs revenue.

The mill and stock were entirely destroyed at a loss of $125,000 on plant and finished stock. The residences of Ald. Curtze, G. V. Claus and Mrs. M. Netz were also destroyed, adding $20,000 to the loss. The insurance was but $15,000. The fire is believed to have been incendiary.

Collided with the Dock.

SARNIA, Sept. 1.—This morning at 2:30 the steam barge W. H. Barnum, loaded with grain, on her downward trip got lost in a fog while opposite Sarnia and ran into Loughead's dock, staving a hole in her bow just at the waterline mark, damaging the dock to the extent of $400, and injuring a pile driver which was lying there to the extent of about $200. She was aground until 6:30 a.m., when the tug Kitty Haight pulled her off.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—The New York Central will argue that the State Board of Arbitration's term of office has expired, and that therefore it has no jurisdiction in regard to the strike.

A Dinner Pill.—Many persons suffer excruciating agony after partaking of a hearty dinner. The food partaken of is like a ball of lead upon the stomach, and instead of being a healthy nutriment it becomes a poison to the sytem. Dr. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are wonderful correctives of such troubles. They correct acidity, open the secretions and conver the food partaken of into healthy nutriment. They are just the medicine to take if troubled with Indigestion or Dyspepsia.

HAMBURG, Aug. 31.—Dr. Carver, the shooter and Wild America proprietor, beat his own record here to-day by four minutes and twenty seconds in breaking 1,000 glass balls with a rifle in exactly 34 minutes. The shooting took place in the presence of 30,000 people.

Failed for a Million.

LIVERPOOL, Sept. 2.—Steenstrand, the cotton merchant, known as the "Cotton King," has failed. He is estimated to be worth $750,000 to $1,000,000, and carried a line of 100,000 to 125,000 bales of near options. The failure is due to the recent heavy declines in spot and early delivery cottons.

The Squandron Will Not Go.

PARIS, Sept. 21.—No French fleet will be present at Spezzia at the launching of the new Italian war ship at that port. The order for the sending of a squadron to Spezzia to honor King Humbert has been countermanded in consequence of the dispute regarding the formalities to be observed.

Loss of a British Steamer.

LONDON, Sept. 2.—The British steamer Portuguese, Capt. Hews, from New York Aug. 17 for Para and Mexico, has foundered near Anegoda Island, British West Indies. Nineteen of her crew are known to have been saved. The captain, first and third officers, chief engineer, two stewards, boatswain, carpenter, a fireman and a seaman are missing.

Alarmed at the Congress.

LONDON, Sept. 2.—The Times commenting upon the Trades Unions Congress at Liverpool doubts whether the public at large or even the mass of employers have yet realized the nature and scope of the assault that is preparing upon industrial property and social liberty. It says that unless timely means are employed to check the violence that is now openly advocated the awakening will be rude indeed.

Accident to the California.

LONDON, Sept. 1.—The steamer California, from Hamburg for New York, which passed the Lizard yesterday, returning with three of her propeller glades gone, arrived at Plymouth to-day. She reports that the accident occurred on Aug. 25 in latitude 50 north, longitude 26 west, during the gale. The same line's steamer Rhaetia, Capt. Kuhlwein, from New York, Aug. 20, arrived at Hamburg Sept. 1.

The Great Floods in the Tyrol.

BERNE, Sept. 2.—Telegrams concerning the floods in the Tyrol say that the flood area is much greater than it was in 1888, and the damage has been immense, although as yet but two human lives have been lost so far as it is known. All railroad travel through the afflicted districts is stopped. Some dams have been broken down and partially carried away. Those people who still remain in the neighborhood live in upper stories of their houses, while many have even been driven to the roofs.

Help has been asked and is readily extended from every quarter in the shape of money and clothing.

Labor Troubles.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—The Tribune's London correspondent cables the following: Immense interest is being taken by the British workingman in the labor strikes which appear to have broken out in the form of an epidemic throughout the civilized world. Although the Knights of Labor have never succeeded in establishing a kindred organization in Great Britain, considerable interest has been felt in the New York Central and the Chicago difficulties, because at the present moment the British workman has similar disputes on hand. There is serious difficulty at Southampton, which may not only affect the railways entering that port, but also the leading shipping companies. The employers are not unwilling to give substantial concessions, but decline absolutely to deal with unions. The Tilbury dockers, who failed to terrorize the company there into discharging two or three blacklegs, have now a serious dispute with their own chiefs. The leaders of the Dockers' Union have refused to grant strike pay to the dockers at Tilbury because they went out without sufficient reason or authority. The men are vowing vengeance against the leaders, and threatening to start a rival union.

THE GREAT STRIKE.

Commencement of Evidence as to Its Cause Before the State Board of Arbitration.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—The State Board of Arbitration began its investigation here to-day as to the difficulties existing between the New York Central Railroad and the Knights of Labor. Mr. Webb was the first witness. He said the company had no controversy with its employes. On the evening of Aug. 8 a large number of employes left and their places had been filled. The alleged cause was that 78 members out of 20,000 had been discharged. They were discharged for good cause, but only seven of those men applied to the company for information as to why they were discharged. Subsequently a gentleman from another State called and wanted to know why the men were discharged. Witness declined to give the reasons. This gentleman was Mr. Holland.

Upon being cross-examined by Roger A. Pryor, Mr. Webb said he had nothing to do with the road outside of the transportation and operation departments. Mr. Depew was abroad. Witness had discharged the men on reports from members of the secret service of the company. Those reports are not in existence. They conveyed to him the charges and evidence. The charge itself was unsatisfactory service.

Where Bachelorship Is Not Tolerated.

There is a prejudice in the rural districts of this State against bachelors. People in every outlying settlement are opposed to bachelors taking up claims in their vicinity. An exchange says: "There are some splendid claims on Deadwood Creek not yet taken as good as any on the coast. The citizens want men with families to settle on them. Three of these claims were taken by bachelors last fall. The ladies of Deadwood passed a resolution placing a three-years' limit on celibacy in that district, and providing all bachelors not married at the end of that time be run out of the settlement or hung." That fixed things. Five bachelors moved out, one got married and two have gone into the sparking business. —[Portland Oregonian.

The Arkansas State and county elections yesterday passed off quietly so far as known. Partial returns and estimates from 30 of the 75 counties in the State indicate a largely increased majority for Governor Eagle and the Democratic State ticket.

To avoid catching cold, many plans have been suggested. Probably if one never went anywhere or did anything out of the usual routine of life, they would be free from many of the ailments that flesh is heir to, but this is not a satisfactory solution of the question. Wilson's Wild Cherry will cure a cough or cold in the shortest possible time, and by its tonic effects, strengthen and invigorate the system at the same time. Sold by all druggists, in white wrappers.

EXCITEMENT INTENSE.

Barrundia's Daughter Tries to Shoot American Minister Mizner.

The Family of the Deceased General Demand Restitution from President Harrison.

CITY OF GUATEMALA, Sept. 2.—A daughter of Gen. Martin Barrundia, who was shot to death in the cabin of the Pacific mail steamship Accaptio last week, attempted to shoot United States Minister Mizner yesterday. Mr. Mizner was at his desk translating the guarantee given to him by the Government, that Barrundia's life would be spared in case he was surrendered, when the young woman came into the office. As the Minister looked up from his work she was standing within three or four feet of him with a revolver in her hand. She saluted him, saying: "Are you the American Minister?"

Mr. Mizner replied: "I am; can I be of any service to you?"

With flashing eyes she accused him of having been directly the cause of her father's death, and announced that she meant to kill him. Mr. Mizner took the matter coolly and tried to reason with the girl who was apparently frenzied with excitement, and in the most terrible manner hurled at him the bitter invectives of which the Spanish language is capable. At last she pulled the trigger of the pistol. Mr. Mizner had taken up a heavy law book which he, with apparent carelessness held between himself and the girl, and the bullet which was meant for his heart was caught in the leaves of the book. The sound of the shot attracted attention, and before a second shot could be fired assistance arrived and the pistol was taken from the young woman. Throughout the entire exciting interview Mr. Mizner maintained the utmost coolness, which fortunately saved his life. Policemen were called in, and the young woman was arrested. She proved to be Christina Barrundia, a daughter of the murdered general. As soon as President Barrilas heard of the occurrence he sent his respects and offered the power of his Government to protect the American legation. Mr. Mizner, however, declined the offer, and will not prosecute the lady, and insists that no further notice shall be taken of the affair. It is generally believed Barrundia would have been in no danger of death had he not resisted arrest.

CITY OF MEXICO, Sept. 2.—The widow and eight children of Gen. Barrundia have sent the following from Oaxaca, to President Harrison: "The wife and children of Jose Martin Barrundia protest before you with the greatest indignation and sorrow that our husband and father has been vilely assassinated on board an American steamer where he was found under the shelter of the American flag and his death, illegally consummated by the Government of Gautemala, is due to the officious and criminal co-operation of Minister Mizner, who ordered the captain of the steamer to deliver up the general. We protest before you against this savage deed and we expect from you restitution and justice, that you well demand due reparation for the outrage of which we are the innocent victims."

The talk of the city is the shooting of Barrundia, and inquiry is made as to what action the United States Government will take in the matter.

John Rose, of Bay City, received a curiosity in the shape of a $5 gold piece. It differs from an ordinary coin by being alloyed with silver and having on the crown of the goddess of liberty the name "Clark & Co." On the other side is stamped "Pike's Peak gold, Denver, 1860." The piece weighs six pennyweights and is worth by weight $5 28. The man from whom he purchased it had tried to pass it, but failed.

LONDON COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE

A Former Master Suggests Mr. Little for the Principalship.

To the Editor of the ADVERTISER:

Kindly allow me to suggest to the Board of Education the advisability of appointing Mr. Little, the present classical master, to the principalship of the institute. His literary qualifications meet the requirements of the school law regulations for that position. He is an enthusiastic teacher, an excellent disciplinarian and organizer, and would command the good-will and co-operation of every member of the staff. His appointment would obviate the necessity of any further addition to the staff. According to the time table which I have before me, last term the staff had about twenty hours per week, or nearly the full time of one teacher, unoccupied. With a little readjustment of the table, for which there is ample room, a saving of at least ten hours more per week might be effected without detriment to any part of the work of the school. I am convinced that the interests of the school need not suffer in the least by the proposed reduction in the staff, and that the principal would notwithstanding have sufficient time at his disposal for general supervision. Indeed, I consider it a mistake to assume that a principal should spend the greater part of his time in supervising the work of the other teachers. The legal qualifications of those teachers and the test afforded by the results of their work is the best criterion of efficiency, and the less meddling on the part of a principal the better.

But to return to my suggestion, I might add that the appointment of a new man would be more or less of an experiment while the promotion of a promising member of the staff would not only be right in principle, but judicious in practice. Further, every department in the school is at present in charge of a specialist in accordance with the regulations governing collegiate institutes. If an outsider were appointed, his taking charge of a department, as he should, would disarrange the work of the whole staff. Again, with Mr. Little's knowledge of the circumstances and requirements of the school, it is questionable if an equally good, or even a better man, could handle the school to the same advantage.

Briefly, my arguments in favor of his appointment are the following:

1. Other things being equal, the principle of promotion is the proper one to pursue.

2. Mr. Little's past efficient services in the employ of the Board furnish a reasonable guarantee of his success in a position with the duties of which he is quite familiar, and in the discharge of which as first assistant he has already had more or less experience.

3. His appointment would insure harmony in the management of the school, as he would unquestionably enter upon his duties with the sympathy and co-operation of both pupils and teachers.

4. The appointment of a new man would necessitate a rearrangement of the departments and retard the work of the school in consequence.

5. Dispensing with any further addition to the staff would effect a saving of at least $1,200 per annum to the Board without detriment to the interests of the school.

By way of apology for presuming to offer any suggestion in this matter, I may state that this is the first time that I have expressed an opinion on any of the questions which have been agitating educational circles in this city for the past few years, but on this occasion I thought that my knowledge of the internal management of the school and its affairs warranted me in giving public expression to what I deemed the best course to be followed in this matter in the interests of the institute. I assure you that I have no personal motive in writing upon the subject, and indeed I am not sure but that I am taking undue liberty in suggesting Mr. Little's appointment, as I have not met or communicated with him this season, and I do not know what his feelings are with respect to the vacancy. I am yours truly,

London, Sept. 1. R. FERGUSON.

The Reason Why.

"Why don't I work, madame? Because I am a philanthropist. Do you read the papers, ma'am?" She confessed that she did. "Then you have occasionally noted the bitter contests between labor and capital. I cannot be a capitalist, and I will not make the workman's lot—already too hard—harder still by entering the ranks against him. I am satisfied to bear the world's scorn because I know the purity of the principles that actuate me." He thanked her and looked doubtfully at the pie she gave him. "I may die of starvation or poison, madame," he continued, "but I will never assist in making labor cheaper by competition."

TALKING ABOUT DANIEL.

The Lessons Drawn from the Lions' Den.

Rev. Dr. Talmage's Sermon to the People of Waco, Texas—"Have a Decision of Character."

WACO, Tex., Aug. 31.—Dr. Talmage today delivered the following discourse on the text: "Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel and cast him into the den of lions." Daniel vi. 16. Darius was king of Babylon, and the young man Daniel was so much a favorite with him that he made him Prime Minister, or Secretary of State. But no man could gain such a high position without exciting the envy and jealousy of the people. There were demagogues in Babylon why were so appreciative of their own abilities that they were affronted at the election of this young man. Old Babylon was afraid of young Babylon. The taller the cedar, the more apt it is to be rived of the lightning. These demagogues asked the king to make a decree that anybody that made a petition to any one except the king within 30 days should be put to death. King Darius, not suspecting any foul play, makes that decree. The demagogues have accomplished all they want, because they know that no one can keep Daniel from sending petitions before God for 30 days. So far from being afraid, Daniel goes on with his supplications three times a day, and is found on his housetop making prayer. He is caught in the act. He is condemned to be devoured by the lions. Rough executioners of the law seize him and hasten him to the cavern. But what a strange welcome Daniel receives from these hungry monsters. They fawn around him, they lick his hand, they bury his feet in their long mane. That night he has calm sleep with his head pillowed on the warm necks of the tamed tions.

But not so well does Darius the king sleep. He loves Daniel, and hates this stratagem by which he has been condemned. All night long the king walks the floor. He cannot sleep. Darius goes to the den of lions; he looks in. All is silent. His heart stops. He feels that the very worst has happened; but gathering all his strength he shouts through the rifts of the rock, "O Daniel! is the God whom thou servest continually able to deliver thee?" There comes rolling up from the deep darkness a voice which says: "O king! live forever. My God has sent his angel to shut the lions' mouths that they have not hurt me. Then Daniel is brought out from the den. The demagogues are hurled into it, and no sooner have they struck the bottom of the den than their flesh was rent. While God will defend his people, the way of the ungodly shall perish.

Learn first from this subject that the greatest crime that you can commit in the eyes of many is the crime of success. What had Daniel done that he should be flung to the lions? He got to be Prime Minister. They could not forgive him for that; and behold in that a touch of unsanctified human nature as seen in all ages of the world. So long as you are pinched in poverty there are people who will say, "Poor man, I am sorry for him; he ought to succeed, poor man!"

But after a while the tide turns in your favor. Those men who used to sympathize with you stand along the street, and they scowl at you from under the rims of their hats. Just as soon as in any respect you rise above your fellows, if you are more virtuous, if you are more wise, if you are more influential, you cast a shadow on the prospects of others. Young merchants, young lawyers, young doctors, young mechanics, young artists, young farmers, at certain times there were those to sympathize with you, but now that you are becoming master of your particular occupation or profession, how is it now, young lawyers, young doctors, young artists, young farmers—how is it now? The greatest crime that you can commit is the crime of success.

Again: My subject impresses me with the value of decision of character in any department. Daniel knew that if he continued his adherence to the religion of the Lord he would be hurried to the lions, but having set his compass well he sailed right on. For the lack of that element of decision of character, so eminent in Daniel, many men are ruined for this world and ruined for the world to come. A great many at 40 years of age are not settled in any respect, because they have not been able to make up their mind. Perhaps they will go west; perhaps they will go east; perhaps they will go north; perhaps they will go south; perhaps they make that investment in real estate or in railroads; perhaps they will not. They are like a man who starts to build a house in the Corinthian style and changes it to Doric, and then completes it in the Ionic, and is cursed by all styles of architecture.

Young man, start right and keep on. Have decision of character. Their old associates make sarcastic flings at them. They go on excursions and they do not invite them. They prophesy that he will give out. They wonder if he is not getting wings. As he passes, they grimace, and wink, and chuckle and say. "There goes a saint." O, young man! have decision of character. You can afford in this matter of religion to be laughed at. What do you care for the scoffs of these men, who are affronted because you will not go to ruin with them? When the grave cracks open under their feet, and grim messengers push them into it, and eternity comes down hard upon their spirit, and conscience stings, and hopeless ruin lifts them up to hurl them down, will they laugh then?

I learn also from my subject that men may take religion into their worldly business. Daniel had enough work to do to occupy six men, and yet we find him three times a day bowing before God in prayer. There are men in our day who have not a hundredth part of Daniel's engagements, who say they are too busy to be religious. They have an idea somehow that religion will spoil their worldly occupation, that it will trip the accountant's pen, or dull the carpenter's saw, or confuse the lawyer's brief, or disarrange the merchant's store shelf.

They think religion is impertinent. They would like to have it very well seated beside them in church on the Sabbath, to find the place in the psalm book, or to nudge them awake when they get sleepy under the didactic discourse. But to have religion go right along by them all through life. They think that is an impertinent religion. They would like to have a religion to help them when they are sick, and when the shadow of death comes over them they would like to have religion as a sort of night-key with which to open the door of heaven; but religion under other circumstances they take to be an impertinence. Now, my friends, religion never robbed a man of a dollar. Other things being equal, a mason will build a better wall, a cabinet-maker will make a better chair, a plumber will make a better pipe, a lawyer will make a better plea, a merchant will sell a better bill of goods. Of course, when religion gives a man a new heart it does not propose to give him a new head, or to intellectualize him; but the more letters you have to write, the more burdens you have to carry, the more miles you have to travel, the more burdens you have to lift, the more engagements you have to meet, the more disputes you have to settle, the more opportunity you have of being a Christian.

Again: I learn from this subject that a man may take religion into his politics. Daniel had all the affairs of state on hand, yet a Christian. He could not have kept his elevated position unless he had been a thorough politician; and yet all the thrusts of officials and all the danger of disgrace did not make him yield one iota of his high-toned religious principle. He stood before that age, he stands before all ages, a specimen of a Christian politician. It is absurd to expect that men who have been immersed in political wickedness for 30 or 40 years shall come to reformation; and our hope is in the young men who are coming up, that they have patriotic principle and Christian principle side by side when they come to the ballot-box and cast their first vote.

Daniel stood on a most unpopular platform. He stood firmly, though the demagogues of the day hissed at him and tried to overthrow him. We must carry our religion into our politics. But there are a great many men who are in favor of taking religion into national politics who do not see the importance of taking it into city politics; as though a man were intelligent about the welfare of his neighborhood, and had no concern about his own home. Now you can always tell without asking, in any contest what candidate I will vote for. It is always for the man who is most badgered, and most abused, and most spit upon, and most howled at. You have a right to contest a man's political sentiments; you have no right for base political purposes to assail his private moral character.

TRADE WITH THE INDIES.

Mr. John Law, of this city, the enthusiastic promoter of trade between Ontario and the West Indies, is out with a new proposition on the subject. It is that a vessel should be built at Port Stanley to take goods to and from Jamaica and other important islands, to be followed by others as the trade grows. In the winter the vessels need not be laid up, as they could be used to carry freight between ports on the Gulf of Mexico and the West Indies. Mr. Law's alternative scheme is to have a trade established between the West India Islands by way of Port Stanley, Cleveland and Pensacola, or some other port in the South. He says he believes good returns could be obtained by either of the routes.

These suggestions are worthy of consideration by the enterprising citizens, and meanwhile it is not out of place to suggest that the chief need of trade between Canada and the West Indies is a reduction in the taxes charged by the Dominion Government on the products of those islands.

All profitable trade will come to us if it is not hindered by vexatious imposts.

NOT A GAME AND NOT DEGRADING.

The Marquis of Ripon recently unveiled a bust of the Right Hon. John Bright, which had been presented to the town of Rochdale by the workpeople in the employ of the manufacturing firm of which John Bright was the head. In a speech of much power the noble Marquis warmly resented the attacks of those people who regard the men that take part in politics—who interest themselves in public affairs—as self-seeking persons. Mr. Bright's whole career, it was pointed out, rebutted the charge. When Bright and Cobden went forth to destroy the iniquitous Corn Laws, they were met with a storm of insult and invective, they had to fight most powerful classes and great interests. They fought unhesitatingly and unflinchingly, and won their battle. Mr. Bright also fought the battle of education, and of the extension of the franchise, and among many other noble causes, that of peace. And while John Bright's force of character, constraining eloquence, powerful logic and earnestness were great, yet no one could call in question his honesty of purpose or simplicity of life. The Marquis of Ripon, taking Bright as an example of the type of manhood which many men had striven to reach and were still striving to emulate, said he believed the statement recently made—that politicians generally regarded politics as a game—to be a most unjust calumny upon public men, and, although there might be in the democracy of England, as there had been in the courts of absolute monarchs, men who looked upon politics as a personal game, there had always been signal examples that it was not those men who secured the confidence of the English people.

Therein have the British people set us in Canada a good example. While we follow it, let no one be so unpatriotic as to refrain from taking an intelligent interest in public affairs because some discouraged one has failed to find the business of the people conducted with as much efficiency or by as good men as he could desire.

No organization, whether it be the House of Commons, the Legislature, the Board of Aldermen, or the Board of Education, can be made as efficient as it should be if good citizens, through a mistaken notion of their duty, stand aside and refuse to take their fair share in the conduct of public affairs. Not by decrying public men—not by saying that "politics" is dirty and civic affairs corrupt, and not to be touched with a 40-foot pole—can honesty and efficiency in the public service be secured. The honest man must himself lend a hand as Bright and Cobden did, or be contented to witness the triumph of those who regard public affairs as a game, and the public purse as something to be depleted for the special benefit of themselves and their associates.

THE FALL SHOWS.

We are now on the eve of the Fall Shows. The first of the large central ones has opened this week at Kingston, the Industrial Fair opens next week at Toronto, the London Fair follows on the 18th, and numerous county and township shows will stretch out the line down to the middle of October.

For the first time in more than 40 years we shall have no Provincial Fair. That institution did good service to the industries of the country in its day, and agriculture and manufactures are indebted to it for no small share of the excellency to which they have attained. But there is no doubt that to a large extent the Provincial Fair survived its usefulness, partly, we think, because in recent years it had ceased to be as well managed as formerly, but chiefly because rival fairs were managed with much greater tact and ability. The Provincial had a grant of $10,000 from the Legislature to aid it in making up a prize list and paying ordinary expenses, and as often happens in such cases this help only made the managers indifferent and lax. It has been otherwise with the Western, Industrial and others, which, having to depend upon themselves, have succeeded because they have been managed by energetic business men.

The Provincial Fair will probably be missed, and we do not say that it might not still do the country some valuable service. But it has lost public confidence, and it remains to be seen how well the others can supply its place.

The Toronto one has been eminently successful, and is in almost all respects Provincial in its character. It has been fortunate so far in its board of directors as well as in its energetic manager, and besides its central location in the Province it has a city of nearly 200,000 population to help in swelling up the number of paying visitors.

But in some respects the London Fair has advantages which its great rival does not possess. Its location is inland, and therefore it can draw visitors from all points of the compass; whereas the Toronto Fair is flanked on one side by a wide expanse of water. Then, too, the London Fair has the finest agricultural section of Ontario to draw upon. Northward to Georgian Bay, westward to Lake Huron, Lake St. Clair, and the St. Clair and Detroit rivers, southward to Lake Erie, and eastward to Lake Ontario, embracing the whole tableland above the Niagara escarpment, there is a tract of land unequaled for fertility and general husbandry elsewhere on the continent. Whether it is grain-growing, or dairying, or grazing, or fruit culture, or the breeding of horses, cattle, sheep, hogs and poultry, no other part of Ontario and no State of the American Union can approach it; and it continues to prosper in spite of all the trade restrictions and high taxes which an unwise and illiberal Government can impose.

The London Fair, therefore, has opportunities which promise to insure its success as long as its management is reasonably prudent and energetic, and we have good reason to believe that the fair of this year will surpass all others in the fullness and quality of its exhibits.

We sincerely trust that this may prove to be the case, for as an educating factor a successful exhibition carried out upon a large scale is possessed of far-reaching influences. Every visitor sees something that stimulates him to nobler exertions along some particular line in agriculture, horticulture, stock breeding, manufactures or the arts; and scores of local fairs are improved in their management by the force of a good example.

It is also well worth bearing in mind that the county and township shows themselves are every year rendering excellent service to our several industries through the influence of their example, extending to almost every home in the land, and they are deserving of all the aid and encouragement which the Government and the people may bestow upon them.

PERSONAL AND GENERAL.

The Gurneys are well off. They have manufactories for the same class of goods in both Boston and Toronto. Thus they enjoy two protections.

‡‡‡

—Fall wheat is turning out well in the western counties, according to some accounts. Charles McLaren, of Orford, threshed his crop of 36 acres and got 1,080 bushels from the machine, an average of 30 bushels per acre of plump grain.

‡‡‡

Nearly $2,700 will be spent in tinkering up the old Central Fire Station rookery. Really it seems a penny wise and pound foolish policy to spend so much money in trying to make habitable a structure that seems to be ill-adapted for the service.

‡‡‡

—Tecumseh Park has, for the time being, been rescued from the despoiler. The sale of the grounds has been postponed in accordance with the desires of a large number of citizens, and it is to be hoped that the Council will not soon have cause for reversing its decision. The Athletic Association and the many citizens who wish them success in the promotion of manly sports and in their endeavors to attract visitors to the city, will now have an opportunity to vindicate the stand taken by their friends in the Council.

—One objection to compulsory voting has been raised by a contemporary which shows that it has not studied the arguments favorable to the proposition, or if it has, it chooses to overlook them. It asks its readers to "only fancy an elector being hauled to a polling place, unwillingly, like a thief in a policeman's clutch." Now, no one has ever suggested that a voter shall be treated in this summary manner. Under a compulsory voting law the simple penalty for refusing to go to the polls would be disfranchisement. The loss of his vote, at least for a time, would be enough punishment for any self-respecting man.

—The May report of the Bureau of Industries stated upon the authority of its correspondents that farmers, in anticipation of the McKinley tariff, were sowing less barley than in previous years. The August report confirms the observation of May by showing that the barley crop of 1890 is about 75,000 acres less than the one of 1889. What the crop of 1891 will be, with a duty of 30 cents per bushel in operation, is not hard to foresee. That duty means to the farmers of Ontario a loss of revenue on one crop alone of not less than $5,000,000 a year. That is a big price to pay to keep a Tory Government in office, but it is only part of what the country must pay.

—Abram Jasper's dream, published in the ADVERTISER a few days ago, has been cleverly adapted by Grip, and a cartoon tells the story much better than words. Sir John takes the place of Gen. Mahone, and he is seen going up hill to the office-holder's "gate of heaven," mounted on the back of a farmer who clambers hard on hands and knees. Behind is the rotund figure of a monopolist mounted on the back of a workingman. The farmer and the workingman give us the typical idea of beasts of burden, and when in a side-scene we see both hitched up outside while Sir John and his friend the monopolist are inside the "pearly gate," we can fancy that we hear Sir John and his friend smile. Jasper's dream as Grip hits it off is worth many campaign speeches.

—Canadians will persist in devising means to make trade between Canada and the United States as easy as is possible under a system of high taxation that finds defenders on both sides of the border, much to the loss of the general public. The construction of the Sarnia tunnel should have been prohibited by the Dominion Government if it were consistent in its objection to trade intercourse with our neighbors, and so should the extension of the Galt Railway into Montana. Indeed, every new channel of trade opened up makes it so much more difficult to keep the commerce of the two countries apart. The lamentable aspect of the matter is that the moment trade increases the ubiquitous tax collector is sent along to seize enough of the profits to make it as difficult as possible to continue the interchange of commodities.

—At the request of the Ontario Government, Mr. A. Blue, Deputy Minister of Agriculture, and Mr. Aubrey White, Assistant Commissioner of Crown Lands, will represent the Province at the meeting of the American Forestry Association, which convened in Quebec to-day and continues till Friday. In the hands of these energetic and well-informed officials the interests of this Province in the important matters to be discussed will be safe. Dr. P. H. Bryce, Secretary of the Ontario Board of Health, will represent the American Public Health Association. The gathering in the ancient capital is the result of the labors of Ex-Premier Joly, of Quebec, who is an enthusiastic advocate of the conservation of the forest wealth of Canada, and who, at the last meeting of the association, invited the members to hold the 1890 convention in Canada.

A CURE FOR CENSUS GRUMBLING.

New York Sun.

We trust that the report that the Omaha census was stuffed, Minneapolis and St. Paul style, is incorrect. Still the obliging thing for the Government to do is, as we have pointed out before this, to let each Western city take its own census and make it as large as it chooses on condition of paying into the treasury $1 for each name taken.

CONSUMPTION,

IN its first stages, can be successfully checked by the prompt use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Even in the later periods of that disease, the cough is wonderfully relieved by this medicine.

"I have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral with the best effect in my practice. This wonderful preparation once saved my life. I had a constant cough, night sweats, was greatly reduced in flesh, and given up by my physician. One bottle and a half of the Pectoral cured me."—A. J. Eidson, M. D., Middleton, Tennessee.

"Several years ago I was severely ill. The doctors said I was in consumption, and that they could do nothing for me, but advised me, as a last resort, to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. After taking this medicine two or three months I was cured, and my health remains good to the present day."—James Birchard, Darien, Conn.

"Several years ago, on a passage home from California, by water, I contracted so severe a cold that for some days I was confined to my state-room, and a physician on board considered my life in danger. Happening to have a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, I used it freely, and my lungs were soon restored to a healthy condition. Since then I have invariably recommended this preparation."—J. B. NOTHING LIKE IT.

MR. JOAB SCALES, of Toronto, writes: "A short time ago I was suffering from Kidney Complaint and Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach and Lame Back; in fact, I was completely prostrated and suffering intense pain. While in this state a friend recommended me to try a bottle of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. I used one bottle, and the permanent manner in which it has cured and made a new man out of me is such that I cannot withhold from the proprietors this expression of my gratitude."

WONDERFUL CURES.

FOR THIRTY YEARS.—Mrs. L. Squire, Ontario Steam Dye Works, Toronto, says: "For about thirty years I have doctored for Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia without getting any cure. I then tried Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, and the benefits I have received from this medicine are such that I cannot withhold this expression of my gratitude. It acts immediately upon the Liver, and its good effects are noticed at once. As a Dyspepsia remedy I don't think it can be equalled."

INDISPUTABLE EVIDENCE.

HARDENED AND ENLARGED LIVER.—Mrs. H. Hall, Navarino, N.Y., writes: "For years I have been troubled with Liver Complaint. The doctors said my Liver was hardened and enlarged. I was troubled with Dizziness, Pain in my Right Shoulder, Constipation, and gradually losing flesh all the time. All food soured on my stomach, even with the closest attention to diet. I was under the care of three physicians, but did not get any relief. A friend sent me a bottle of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, and it affords me much pleasure to inform you that the benefit I have received from it is far beyond my expectation. I feel better now than I have done for years."

FLYS.

Donovan played two games last week.

Sunday's contract with Philadelphia is for three years.

Von der Ahe is put out because he did not secure Daley.

Eddie Burke and Anderson played their first game with Pittsburg on Saturday.

Hutchinson, of the Chicagos, has pitched more games than any other National League pitcher.

Mickey Jones, of the Louisvilles, is to be released. He is a good pitcher, but with Daily on the team there will be no work for him.

As the season draws to a close there seems to be a noticeable increase in the attendance at both the National League and the Brotherhood games.

Hemming, of the Brooklyn Players, has won five out of the six games he has pitched. The New York papers at the start said he was no good.

The Pittsburg National League Club is being sued for $740 for uniforms, bats, etc., purchased from A. G. Pratt & Co. before the opening of the season.

Joyce, of the Brooklyn Players, formerly with Toledo, made seven errors in his games on Friday and Saturday. He never has played good ball, and is not fast enough for a major league.

As Daley has been signed by Louisville, two of the latter club's pitchers will be released. Mickey Jones will have to look for another slt. It is safe to say Mickey will not be idle very long.

The Dauntless baseball club will play a match with the Maroons on the Military School grounds on Saturday afternoon. A good game is looked for, as the Dauntless club has not sustained a defeat this season.

A game of baseball was played last Saturday between the rangers along the river and a club of the 1st con. of Westminster. The game was an even one, but the rangers would not play it out, so were declared beaten 9 to 0. Umpire, Mr. Plews.

The next league game will be played on Tecumseh Park Saturday next at 4 p.m., the Alerts vs. G. T. R. These clubs have played two games this season, both being eleven innings, and each took a game. Saturday will be the deciding game of the series. A big attendance is looked for.

THE WHEEL.

SPORTING EDITOR ADVERTISER: On July 29 last, in reply to a challenge from Mr. S. F. Lawrason for the road championship, I declined to race for said championship, as it had been decided for this year, but offered to ride him a race at any time after Sept. 1, leaving my offer open till Aug. 9. In answering this he stated I knew he was going away from town in August, and therefore could not be here after Sept. 1. This I denied and still deny. Sept. 1 is now past, and he is still in town, in spite of the assertion that he was going away. Furthermore he did not accept said offer. I now offer to ride him a race open to all members of the F. C. C. C., over the St. Johns course, under the direction of the race officials of the F. C. C. C., any time this month, leaving my offer open till Sept. 8. I wish it distinctly understood that unless Mr. Lawrason accepts this offer as it stands and in no no race shall take place, and whatever may be the result of said race I shall hold the road championship until next season when I shall again try and defend the same. My reason for making the race open is that other members of the F. C. C. C. think they can beat Mr. Lawrason, and this will settle the question. I may add that if beaten I shall admit it like a man and not become a kicker. Yours truly, W. G. OWENS.

SPRINTING.

THE TRIGGER.

THE DOMINION RIFLE MATCHES.

OTTAWA, Sept. 1.—The annual meet o the Dominion Rifle Association was opened at Rideau range to-day. The attendance thus far is 400—a trifle less than last year. The navy is not represented, and but one sergeant is here from the West Riding Regiment, Halifax. There is a good attendance from the rural corps. All the Provinces are represented by teams. The day is clear, but a stiff wind is blowing. Following are the winners from No. 1 military district: In the nursery match, Lieut. Revell, 22nd Batt., scored 24 points and won $15. In the Macdougall challenge, Lieut.-Col. Anderson, 33rd, 41, $10; Lieut. Robinson, 30th, $10; Pte. Gillard, 28th, 38, $6; Staff-Sergt. Ogg, 1st B. G. A., 38, $6; Lieut. Wilson, 33rd, 37, $5; Major Wilson, 33rd, 37, $6; Pte. Purcell, 26th, 37, $5.

The Electric Light

Is a matter of small importance compared with other applications of electricity. By this agency Polson's NERVILINE is made to penetrate to the most remote nerve—every bone, muscle and ligament is made to feel its beneficient power. Nerviline is a wonderful remedy, pleasant to take, even by the youngest child, yet so powerfully far-reaching in its work that the most agonizing internal or external pain yields as if by magic. Neglect no longer to try Nerviline. Buy to-day a ten cent trial bottle and be relieved from all pain. J. Wilson, druggist, Goderich, writes: "Nerviline gives good satisfaction." Sold by druggists and country dealers everywhere.

The Vote Stood Eight to Eight When Mayor Taylor Changed It.

Standing room was at a premium in the City Hall last evening when the City Council began business. In the audience that assembled could have been noticed several prominent members of the different sporting and athletic associations who were drawn there no doubt that they might see what fate befell their petition respecting the disposal of the Tecumseh Park. The following members were in their places when Mayor Taylor called the meeting together: Aldermen Wyatt, Heaman, Taylor, Moule, Fitzgerald, Wallace Jones, Garratt, Glass, Boyd, Dreaney, Bartlett, Anderson, Luney, Thomas and Shaw and Secretary Kingston.

THE SALE POSTPONED.

A communication was read from Mr. Edwin Paull and other ratepayers in the vicinity of Tecumseh Park urging that the grounds be not sold as proposed, but that they be turned over to the Citizens' Athletic Association.

Ald. Bartlett moved that the petition be filed, but the motion received no seconder. It was then decided to hear the supporters of the petition. The power of the Council to deal with the question being challenged, Secretary Kingston read a copy of a motion passed at a meeting of the London Trust. It was to the effect that the Trust would be guided by the wishes of the Board with respect to the disposal of the park.

Mr. John Christie said that he hoped that the city would do its best to have the land sold. For years he had advocated the sale of the old fair grounds and had accomplished it, for which none were sorry. The permission that would leave the grounds as they were would be a great drawback to property in that vicinity. The buildings that would be erected would afford a large revenue, and even if the price secured for its sale in the first place was not what might be expected, the other consideration should counteract it. The holding of the land was simply breaking faith with those who had built there and the continuance of a nuisance.

Mr. Harding indorsed what the previous speaker had said. He also thought that good prices should not be the only consideration.

Mr. George C. Gibbons was the next speaker. He said he was willing to stand up and support the petition for the retention of the park. He thought it necessary for every city to have a recreation place. Such things made a city popular. The general public had shown by the petitions that they were in favor of the retention of the grounds. No person ever complained of the parks for recreation in Toronto or Montreal and in the latter place the park was kept in the center of the city at an enormous expense for several years.

Ald. Fitzgerald—Did they have a twelve foot fence around it?

Mr. Gibbons—"Yes, more than that, a twenty foot fence." The speaker continuing said that he thought an effort would be made to purchase the grounds and that as far as he was concerned he would be willing to pay his quota to the cost. The grounds were leased until November, and in any event they should not be sold before that time. There was as far as he could see no reason why the sale should be forced, and he thought that its retention would greatly help the city.

Mr. W. J. Reid was the next to say a few words in favor of the retention of the grounds. He thought it was necessary to have a recreation park, and the Tecumseh Park would fill the bill. It was well known that several gentlemen had put about $7,000 in repairs and fittings for the defunct ball club, and the speaker thought that these men should receive encouragement. Professional ball was dead in Canada, and for the most part had been forgotten. The men who had erected the stand and fences were willing to turn them over to the new association at 25 cents on the dollar. The Tecumseh Park was the proper place for recreation, because if a man spent a day in Queen's Park he would put in half of the time coming and going. He could not, he said, see where the Trust would profit by the forcing of the sale. The petition presented was signed by almost every ratepayer in that neighborhood, which showed that the matter had a good crowd of sympathizers.

Ald. Jones—I have never changed my mind in this matter, and I am prepared to contradict a statement made by one of the previous speakers. The lots on the land adjoining the park were not sold on the understanding that the park would be disposed of. Hyman street was never promised a through street. The speaker had bought property and sold it at the same time on the understanding that he understood that the park was not to be sold.

Ald. Taylor asked Mr. A. B. Powell of the Trust whether it was understood that the grounds were to be sold.

Mr. Powell in reply said there were no reasons for thinking that the park would be sold or that the street would be opened.

Ald. Taylor—There was a bylaw passed deeding the land to the Trust and would it not take a two-thirds vote to rescind the bylaw?

Mr. Pritchett said he was satisfied that the act of Parliament called for the opening of Hyman street.

Ald. Moule moved that the Trust defer the sale.

On the suggestion of Ald. Jones the words "until requested to do otherwise by the Council" were added.

Ald. Boyd moved in amendment that the lease be extended for one month out of respect for the petitioners.

Another form of petition was then handed to Secretary Kingston, who read a big moderation in the petition. It now asked that no sale take place in the "immediate future." The petition was signed by Mr. John Labatt.

Ald. Thomas spoke in favor of retaining the grounds.

In explanation Mr. Gibbons said that the land had to be sold to retire some money on fair ground debentures.

Ald. Boyd's amendment was defeated.

The motion of Ald. Fitzgerald extending the time for two months was defeated, and Ald. Moule's motion was carried. Ald. Moule, Jones, Heaman, Wyatt, Anderson, Luney, Thomas and Shaw voted with it, and Ald. Taylor, Fitzgerald, Wallace, Garratt, Glass, Boyd, Dreaney and Bartlett voted against the motion.

Mayor Taylor gave the casting vote in favor of retaining the grounds.

Their terms of office having expired, the members of the London Trust were, on motion of Ald. Fitzgerald, re-elected.

NUMBER TWO COMMITTEE.

By Ald. Jones, chairman.

1. That J. Mann's tender for glass for the Exhibition buildings be accepted.
2. That the petition of the residents of Emery street be granted by the laying down of a plank walk.
3. That a new caretaker be secured for Queen's Park on the understanding that the Western Fair Board pay the expense.
4. That Assistant Engineer Graydon be granted three weeks' leave of absence on account of illness.
5. That the petition of Mr. John Bland and other residents of Wellington street be granted by the alteration of the sewer, provided that the Engineer reports a proper fall for the same.

The first two clauses passed without discussion, but when the third was read Ald. Taylor moved that it be struck out. He could not, he said, understand why a new caretaker should be appointed when the present one performed his duties. Ald. Boyd seconded the motion.

Ald. Garratt seconded Ald. Jones' motion to adopt the clause. If the city had to keep the caretaker, he should be kept in a poor-house and not in his present position.

Ald. Anderson spoke in support of the motion to retain Mr. Scragg.

Ald. Taylor's motion carried.

The report as amended was adopted.

TRADE WITH THE INDIES.

Mr. John Law, of this city, the enthusiastic promoter of trade between Ontario and the West Indies, is out with a new proposition on the subject. It is that a vessel should be built at Port Stanley to take goods to and from Jamaica and other important islands, to be followed by others as the trade grows. In the winter the vessels need not be laid up, as they could be used to carry freight between ports on the Gulf of Mexico and the West Indies. Mr. Law's alternative scheme is to have a trade established between the West India Islands by way of Port Stanley, Cleveland and Pensacola, or some other port in the South. He says he believes good returns could be obtained by either of the routes.

These suggestions are worthy of consideration by the enterprising citizens, and meanwhile it is not out of place to suggest that the chief need of trade between Canada and the West Indies is a reduction in the taxes charged by the Dominion Government on the products of those islands.

All profitable trade will come to us if it is not hindered by vexatious imposts.

NOT A GAME AND NOT DEGRADING.

The Marquis of Ripon recently unveiled a bust of the Right Hon. John Bright, which had been presented to the town of Rochdale by the workpeople in the employ of the manufacturing firm of which John Bright was the head. In a speech of much power the noble Marquis warmly resented the attacks of those people who regard the men that take part in politics—who interest themselves in public affairs—as self-seeking persons. Mr. Bright's whole career, it was pointed out, rebutted the charge. When Bright and Cobden went forth to destroy the iniquitous Corn Laws, they were met with a storm of insult and invective, they had to fight most powerful classes and great Interests. They fought unhesitatingly and unflinchingly, and won their battle. Mr. Bright also fought the battle of education, and of the extension of the franchise, and among many other noble causes, that of peace. And while John Bright's force of character, constraining eloquence, powerful logic and earnestness were great, yet no one could call in question his honesty of purpose or simplicity of life. The Marquis of Ripon, taking Bright as an example of the type of manhood which many men had striven to reach and were still striving to emulate, said he believed the statement recently made—that politicians generally regarded politics as a game—to be a most unjust calumny upon public men, and, although there might be in the democracy of England, as there had been in the courts of absolute monarchs, men who looked upon politics as a personal game, there had always been signal examples that it was not those men who secured the confidence of the English people.

Therein have the British people set us in Canada a good example. While we follow it, let no one be so unpatriotic as to refrain from taking an intelligent interest in public affairs because some discouraged one has failed to find the business of the people conducted with as much efficiency or by as good men as he could desire.

No organization, whether it be the House of Commons, the Legislature, the Board of Aldermen, or the Board of Education, can be made as efficient as it should be if good citizens, through a mistaken notion of their duty, stand aside and refuse to take their fair share in the conduct of public affairs. Not by decrying public men—not by saying that "politics" is dirty and civic affairs corrupt, and not to be touched with a 40-foot pole—can honesty and efficiency in the public service be secured. The honest man must himself lend a hand as Bright and Cobden did, or be contented to witness the triumph of those who regard public affairs as a game, and the public purse as something to be depleted for the special benefit of themselves and their associates.

THE FALL SHOWS.

We are now on the eve of the Fall Shows. The first of the large central ones has opened this week at Kingston, the Industrial Fair opens next week at Toronto, the London Fair follows on the 18th, and numerous county and township shows will stretch out the line down to the middle of October.

For the first time in more than 40 years we shall have no Provincial Fair. That institution did good service to the industries of the country in its day, and agriculture and manufactures are indebted to it for no small share of the excellency to which they have attained. But there is no doubt that to a large extent the Provincial Fair survived its usefulness, partly, we think, because in recent years it had ceased to be as well managed as formerly, but chiefly because rival fairs were managed with much greater tact and ability. The Provincial had a grant of $10,000 from the Legislature to aid it in making up a prize list and paying ordinary expenses, and as often happens in such cases this help only made the managers indifferent and lax. It has been otherwise with the Western, Industrial and others, which, having to depend upon themselves, have succeeded because they have been managed by energetic business men.

The Provincial Fair will probably be missed, and we do not say that it might not still do the country some valuable service. But it has lost public confidence, and it remains to be seen how well the others can supply its place.

The Toronto one has been eminently successful, and is in almost all respects Provincial in its character. It has been fortunate so far in its board of directors as well as in its energetic manager, and besides its central location in the Province it has a city of nearly 200,000 population to help in swelling up the number of paying visitors.

But in some respects the London Fair has advantages which its great rival does not possess. Its location is inland, and therefore it can draw visitors from all points of the compass; whereas the Toronto Fair is flanked on one side by a wide expanse of water. Then, too, the London Fair has the finest agricultural section of Ontario to draw upon. Northward to Georgian Bay, westward to Lake Huron, Lake St. Clair, and the St. Clair and Detroit rivers, southward to Lake Erie, and eastward to Lake Ontario, embracing the whole tableland above the Niagara escarpment, there is a tract of land unequaled for fertility and general husbandry elsewhere on the continent. Whether it is grain-growing, or dairying, or grazing, or fruit culture, or the breeding of horses, cattle, sheep, hogs and poultry, no other part of Ontario and no State of the American Union can approach it; and it continues to prosper in spite of all the trade restrictions and high taxes which an unwise and illiberal Government can impose.

The London Fair, therefore, has opportunities which promise to insure its success as long as its management is reasonably prudent and energetic, and we have good reason to believe that the fair of this year will surpass all others in the fullness and quality of its exhibits.

We sincerely trust that this may prove to be the case, for as an educating factor a successful exhibition carried out upon a large scale is possessed of far-reaching influences. Every visitor sees something that stimulates him to nobler exertions along some particular line in agriculture, horticulture, stock breeding, manufactures or the arts; and scores of local fairs are improved in their management by the force of a good example.

It is also well worth bearing in mind that the county and township shows themselves are every year rendering excellent service to our several industries through the influence of their example, extending to almost every home in the land, and they are deserving of all the aid and encouragement which the Government and the people may bestow upon them.

PERSONAL AND GENERAL.

The Gurneys are well off. They have manufactories for the same class of goods in both Boston and Toronto. Thus they enjoy two protections.

‡‡‡

—Fall wheat is turning out well in the western counties, according to some accounts. Charles McLaren, of Orford, threshed his crop of 36 acres and got 1,080 bushels from the machine, an average of 30 bushels per acre of plump grain.

Nearly $2,700 will be spent in tinkering up the old Central Fire Station rookery. Really it seems a penny wise and pound foolish policy to spend so much money in trying to make habitable a structure that seems to be ill-adapted for the service.

—Tecumseh Park has, for the time being, been rescued from the despoiler. The sale of the grounds has been postponed in accordance with the desires of a large number of citizens, and it is to be hoped that the Council will not soon have cause for reversing its decision. The Athletic Association and the many citizens who wish them success in the promotion of manly sports and in their endeavors to attract visitors to the city, will now have an opportunity to vindicate the stand taken by their friends in the Council.

—One objection to compulsory voting has been raised by a contemporary which shows that it has not studied the arguments favorable to the proposition, or if it has, it chooses to overlook them. It asks its readers to "only fancy an elector being hauled to a polling place, unwillingly, like a thief in a policeman's clutch." Now, no one has ever suggested that a voter shall be treated in this summary manner. Under a compulsory voting law the simple penalty for refusing to go to the polls would be disfranchisement. The loss of his vote, at least for a time, would be enough punishment for any self-respecting man.

—The May report of the Bureau of Industries stated upon the authority of its correspondents that farmers, in anticipation of the McKinley tariff, were sowing less barley than in previous years. The August report confirms the observation of May by showing that the barley crop of 1890 is about 75,000 acres less than the one of 1889. What the crop of 1891 will be, with a duty of 30 cents per bushel in operation, is not hard to foresee. That duty means to the farmers of Ontario a loss of revenue on one crop alone of not less than $5,000,000 a year. That is a big price to pay to keep a Tory Government in office, but it is only part of what the country must pay.

—Abram Jasper's dream, published in the ADVERTISER a few days ago, has been cleverly adapted by Grip, and a cartoon tells the story much better than words. Sir John takes the place of Gen. Mahone, and he is seen going up hill to the office-holder's "gate of heaven," mounted on the back of a farmer who clambers hard on hands and knees. Behind is the rotund figure of a monopolist mounted on the back of a workingman. The farmer and the workingman give us the typical idea of beasts of burden, and when in a side-scene we see both hitched up outside while Sir John and his friend the monopolist are inside the "pearly gate," we can fancy that we hear Sir John and his friend smile. Jasper's dream as Grip hits it off is worth many campaign speeches.

—Canadians will persist in devising means to make trade between Canada and the United States as easy as is possible under a system of high taxation that finds defenders on both sides of the border, much to the loss of the general public. The construction of the Sarnia tunnel should have been prohibited by the Dominion Government if it were consistent in its objection to trade intercourse with our neighbors, and so should the extension of the Galt Railway into Montana. Indeed, every new channel of trade opened up makes it so much more difficult to keep the commerce of the two countries apart. The lamentable aspect of the matter is that the moment trade increases the ubiquitous tax collector is sent along to seize enough of the profits to make it as difficult as possible to continue the interchange of commodities.

—At the request of the Ontario Government, Mr. A. Blue, Deputy Minister of Agriculture, and Mr. Aubrey White, Assistant Commissioner of Crown Lands, will represent the Province at the meeting of the American Forestry Association, which convened in Quebec to-day and continues till Friday. In the hands of these energetic and well-informed officials the interests of this Province in the important matters to be discussed will be safe. Dr. P. H. Bryce, Secretary of the Ontario Board of Health, will represent the American Public Health Association. The gathering in the ancient capital is the result of the labors of Ex-Premier Joly, of Quebec, who is an enthusiastic advocate of the conservation of the forest wealth of Canada, and who, at the last meeting of the association, invited the members to hold the 1890 convention in Canada.

A CURE FOR CENSUS GRUMBLING.

New York Sun.

We trust that the report that the Omaha census was stuffed, Minneapolis and St. Paul style, is incorrect. Still the obliging thing for the Government to do is, as we have pointed out before this, to let each Western city take its own census and make it as large as it chooses on condition of paying into the treasury $1 for each name taken.

CONSUMPTION,

IN its first stages, can be successfully checked by the prompt use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Even in the later periods of that disease, the cough is wonderfully relieved by this medicine.

"I have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral with the best effect in my practice. This wonderful preparation once saved my life. I had a constant cough, night sweats, was greatly reduced in flesh, and given up by my physician. One bottle and a half of the Pectoral cured me."—A. J. Eidson, M. D., Middleton, Tennessee.

"Several years ago I was severely ill. The doctors said I was in consumption, and that they could do nothing for me, but advised me, as a last resort, to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. After taking this medicine two or three months I was cured, and my health remains good to the present day."—James Birchard, Darien, Conn.

"Several years ago, on a passage home from California, by water, I contracted so severe a cold that for some days I was confined to my state-room, and a physician on board considered my life in danger. Happening to have a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, I used it freely, and my lungs were soon restored to a healthy condition. Since then I have invariably recommended this preparation."—J. B. NOTHING LIKE IT.

MR. JOAB SCALES, of Toronto, writes: "A short time ago I was suffering from Kidney Complaint and Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach and Lame Back; in fact, I was completely prostrated and suffering intense pain. While in this state a friend recommended me to try a bottle of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. I used one bottle, and the permanent manner in which it has cured and made a new man out of me is such that I cannot withhold from the proprietors this expression of my gratitude."

WONDERFUL CURES.

FOR THIRTY YEARS.—Mrs. L. Squire, Ontario Steam Dye Works, Toronto, says; "For about thirty years I have doctored for Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia without getting any cure. I then tried Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, and the benefits I have received from this medicine are such that I cannot withhold this expression of my gratitude. It acts immediately upon the Liver, and its good effects are noticed at once. As a Dyspepsia remedy I don't think it can be equalled."

INDISPUTABLE EVIDENCE.

HARDENED AND ENLARGED LIVER.—Mrs. H. Hall, Navarino, N.Y., writes; "For years I have been troubled with Liver Complaint. The doctors said my Liver was hardened and enlarged. I was troubled with Dizziness, Pain in my Right Shoulder, Constipation, and gradually losing flesh all the time. All food soured on my stomach, even with the closest attention to diet. I was under the care of three physicians, but did not get any relief. A friend sent me a bottle of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, and it affords me much pleasure to inform you that the benefit I have received from it is far beyond my expectation. I feel better now than I have done for years."

FLYS.

Donovan played two games last week.

Sunday's contract with Philadelphia is for three years.

Von der Ahe is put out because he did not secure Daley.

Eddie Burke and Anderson played their first game with Pittsburg on Saturday.

Hutchinson, of the Chicagos, has pitched more games than any other National League pitcher.

Mickey Jones, of the Louisvilles, is to be released. He is a good pitcher, but with Daily on the team there will be no work for him.

As the season draws to a close there seems to be a noticeable increase in the attendance at both the National League and the Brotherhood games.

Hemming, of the Brooklyn Players, has won five out of the six games he has pitched. The New York papers at the start said he was no good.

The Pittsburg National League Club is being sued for $740 for uniforms, bats, etc., purchased from A. G. Pratt & Co. before the opening of the season.

Joyce, of the Brooklyn Players, formerly with Toledo, made seven errors in his games on Friday and Saturday. He never has played good ball, and is not fast enough for a major league.

As Daley has been signed by Louisville, two of the latter club's pitchers will be released. Mickey Jones will have to look for another sit. It is safe to say Mickey will not be idle very long.

The Dauntless baseball club will play a match with the Maroons on the Military School grounds on Saturday afternoon. A good game is looked for, as the Dauntless club has not sustained a defeat this season.

A game of baseball was played last Saturday between the rangers along the river and a club of the 1st co. of Westminster. The game was an even one, but the rangers would not play it out, so were declared beaten 9 to 0. Umpire, Mr. Plewes.

The next league game will be played on Tecumseh Park Saturday next at 4 p.m., the Alerts vs. G. T. R. These clubs have played two games this season, both being eleven innings, and each took a game. Saturday will be the deciding game of the series. A big attendance is looked for.

THE WHEEL.

SPORTING EDITOR ADVERTISER: On July 29 last, in reply to a challenge from Mr. S. F. Lawrason for the road championship, I declined to race for said championship, as it had been decided for this year, but offered to ride him a race at any time after Sept. 1, leaving my offer open till Aug. 9. In answering this he stated I knew he was going away from town in August, and therefore could not be here after Sept. 1. This I denied and still deny. Sept. 1 is now past, and he is still in town, in spite of the assertion that he was going away. Furthermore he did not accept said offer. I now offer to ride him a race open to all members of the F. C. C. C., over the St. Johns course, under the direction of the race officials of the F. C. C. C., any time this month, leaving my offer open till Sept. 8. I wish it distinctly understood that unless Mr. Lawrason accepts this offer as it stands and in torto no race shall take place, and whatever may be the result of said race I shall hold the road championship until next season when I shall again try and defend the same. My reason for making the race open is that other members of the F. C. C. C. think they can beat Mr. Lawrason, and this will settle the question. I may add that if beaten I shall admit it like a man and not become a kicker. Yours truly, W. G. OWENS.

SPRINTING.

THE TRIGGER.

THE DOMINION RIFLE MATCHES.

OTTAWA, Sept. 1.—The annual meet o the Dominion Rifle Association was opened at Rideau range to-day. The attendance thus far is 400—a trifle less than last year. The navy is not represented, and but one sergeant is here from the West Riding Regiment, Halifax. There is a good attendance from the rural corps. All the Provinces are represented by teams. The day is clear, but a stiff wind is blowing. Following are the winners from No. 1 military district; In the nursery match, Lieut. Revell, 22nd Batt., scored 24 points and won $15. In the Macdougall challenge, Lieut.-Col. Anderson, 33rd, 41, $10; Lieut. Robinson, 30th, $10; Pte. Gilfard, 28th, 38, $6; Staff-Sergt. Ogg, 1st B. G. A., 38, $6; Lieut. The Electric Light

Is a matter of small importance compared with other applications of electricity. By this agency Polson's NERVILINE is made to penetrate to the most remote nerve—every bone, muscle and ligament is made to feel its beneficient power. Nerviline is a wonderful remedy, pleasant to take, even by the youngest child, yet so powerfully far-reaching in its work that the most agonizing internal or external pain yields as if by magic. Neglect no longer to try Nerviline. Buy to-day a ten cent trial bottle and be relieved from all pain. J. Wilson, druggist, Goderich, writes: "Nerviline gives good satisfaction." Sold by druggists and country dealers everywhere.

The Vote Stood Eight to Eight When Mayor Taylor Changed It.

Reports of the Several Committees Discussed and Adopted—A Long-Winded Session of the Board of Aldermen.

Standing room was at a premium in the City Hall last evening when the City Council began business. In the audience that assembled could have been noticed several prominent members of the different sporting and athletic associations who were drawn there no doubt that they might see what fate befell their petition respecting the disposal of the Tecumseh Park. The following members were in their places when Mayor Taylor called the meeting together: Aldermen Wyatt, Heaman, Taylor, Moule, Fitzgerald, Wallace Jones, Garratt, Glass, Boyd, Dreaney, Bartlett, Anderson, Luney, Thomas and Shaw and Secretary Kingston.

THE SALE POSTPONED.

A communication was read from Mr. Edwin Paull and other ratepayers in the vicinity of Tecumseh Park urging that the grounds be not sold as proposed, but that they be turned over to the Citizens' Athletic Association.

Ald. Bartlett moved that the petition be filed, but the motion received no seconder. It was then decided to hear the supporters of the petition. The power of the Council to deal with the question being challenged, Secretary Kingston read a copy of a motion passed at a meeting of the London Trust. It was to the effect that the Trust would be guided by the wishes of the Board with respect to the disposal of the park.

Mr. John Christie said that he hoped that the city would do its best to have the land sold. For years he had advocated the sale of the old fair grounds and had accomplished it, for which none were sorry. The permission that would leave the grounds as they were would be a great drawback to property in that vicinity. The buildings that would be erected would afford a large revenue, and even if the price secured for its sale in the first place was not what might be expected, the other consideration should counteract it. The holding of the land was simply breaking faith with those who had built there and the continuance of a nuisance.

Mr. Harding indorsed what the previous speaker had said. He also thought that good prices should not be the only consideration.

Mr. George C. Gibbons was the next speaker. He said he was willing to stand up and support the petition for the retention of the park. He thought it necessary for every city to have a recreation place. Such things made a city popular. The general public had shown by the petitions that they were in favor of the retention of the grounds. No person ever complained of the parks for recreation in Toronto or Montreal and in the latter place the park was kept in the center of the city at an enormous expense for several years.

Ald. Fitzgerald—Did they have a twelve foot fence around it?

Mr. Gibbons—"Yes, more than that, a twenty foot fence." The speaker continuing said that he thought an effort would be made to purchase the grounds and that as far as he was concerned he would be willing to pay his quota to the cost. The grounds were leased until November, and in any event they should not be sold before that time. There was as far as he could see no reason why the sale should be forced, and he thought that its retention would greatly help the city.

Mr. W. J. Reid was the next to say a few words in favor of the retention of the grounds. He thought it was necessary to have a recreation park, and the Tecumseh Park would fill the bill. It was well known that several gentlemen had put about $7,000 in repairs and fittings for the defunct ball club, and the speaker thought that these men should receive encouragement. Professional ball was dead in Canada, and for the most part had been forgotten. The men who had erected the stand and fences were willing to turn them over to the new association at 25 cents on the dollar. The Tecumseh Park was the proper place for recreation, because if a man spent a day in Queen's Park he would put in half of the time coming and going. He could not, he said, see where the Trust would profit by the forcing of the sale. The petition presented was signed by almost every ratepayer in that neighborhood, which showed that the matter had a good crowd of sympathizers.

Ald. Jones—I have never changed my mind in this matter, and I am prepared to contradict a statement made by one of the previous speakers. The lots on the land adjoining the park were not sold on the understanding that the park would be disposed of. Hyman street was never promised a through street. The speaker had bought property and sold it at the same time on the understanding that he understood that the park was not to be sold.

Ald. Taylor asked Mr. A. B. Powell of the Trust whether it was understood that the grounds were to be sold.

Mr. Powell in reply said there were no reasons for thinking that the park would be sold or that the street would be opened.

Ald. Taylor—There was a bylaw passed deeding the land to the Trust and would it not take a two-thirds vote to rescind the bylaw?

Mr. Pritchett said he was satisfied that the act of Parliament called for the opening of Hyman street.

Ald. Moule moved that the Trust defer the sale.

On the suggestion of Ald. Jones the words "until requested to do otherwise by the Council" were added.

Ald. Boyd moved in amendment that the lease be extended for one month out of respect for the petitioners.

Another form of petition was then handed to Secretary Kingston, who read a big moderation in the petition. It now asked that no sale take place in the "immediate future." The petition was signed by Mr. John Labatt.

Ald. Thomas spoke in favor of retaining the grounds.

In explanation Mr. Gibbons said that the land had to be sold to retire some money on fair ground debentures.

Ald. Boyd's amendment was defeated.

The motion of Ald. Fitzgerald extending the time for two months was defeated, and Ald. Moule's motion was carried, Ald. Moule, Jones, Heaman, Wyatt, Anderson, Luney, Thomas and Shaw voted with it, and Ald. Taylor, Fitzgerald, Wallace, Garratt, Glass, Boyd, Dreaney and Bartlett voted against the motion.

Mayor Taylor gave the casting vote in favor of retaining the grounds.

Their terms of office having expired, the members of the London Trust were, on motion of Ald. Fitzgerald, re-elected.

NUMBER TWO COMMITTEE.

By Ald. Jones, chairman.

1. That J. Mann's tender for glass for the Exhibition buildings be accepted.
2. That the petition of the residents of Emery street be granted by the laying down of a plank walk.
3. That a new caretaker be secured for Queen's Park on the understanding that the Western Fair Board pay the expense.
4. That Assistant Engineer Graydon be granted three weeks' leave of absence on account of illness.
5. That the petition of Mr. John Bland and other residents of Wellington street be granted by the alteration of the sewer, provided that the Engineer reports a proper fall for the same.

The first two clauses passed without discussion, but when the third was read Ald. Taylor moved that it be struck out. He could not, he said, understand why a new caretaker should be appointed when the present one performed his duties. Ald. Boyd seconded the motion.

Ald. Garratt seconded Ald. Jones' motion to adopt the clause. If the city had to keep the caretaker, he should be kept in a poor-house and not in his present position.

Ald. Anderson spoke in support of the motion to retain Mr. Scragg.

Ald. Taylor's motion carried.

The report as amended was adopted.

SMITH'S PATENT HYDRANT.

This hydrant is acknowledged by all mechanics to be far ahead of all others. Its superiority is shown by the popular favor it has attained. The public are warned against other dealers who claim to have a hydrant which can be compared to a straight-way valve. A straight-way valve has no seat to be subjected to the action of any liquid, therefore a hydrant to be compared to a straight valve must have no seat to be subjected to the action of the water, and there is no other hydrant made except Smith's Patent Hydrant without a seat, and we claim to have the only straight-way hydrant. All others have a seat subjected to the action of the water, and the majority of them will have to be dug up 1 side of a year to be repaired, and at extra cost. This we are prepared to guarantee the users of our hydrants against. For sale by the patentees; price, $5

Live Stock Markets.

EAST BUFFALO.

EAST BUFFALO, Sept. 1.—Cattle—There were 300 carloads on sale, a supply in excess of the demand, and buyers were slow in taking hold; prices dropped off 15c to 25c per 100 lbs. Export stock in limited demand and fair supply; sold at $4 to $4 75, latter price for a very select load of 1,430 lbs average; $4 33 to $4 50 was the general range in this department. Butchers' cattle had a heavy run, and choice, heavy, fat stock was off fully 15c per 100 lbs, selling $3 65 to $4 40, only a couple of car lots brought outside figures. Most of the offerings approaching 1,200 sold at $3 80 to $4. Medium butchers of 1,050 to 1,150 lbs sold about $3 65 to $3 90. Light, handy butchers were not in as good demand as usual, and sold at $3 25 to $3 75; generally, average stock in this department sold at $3 40 to $3 55. Mixed butchers were off 20c to 25c; common to fair, $2 to $2 50; fair to good, $2 25 to $2 75; good to choice, $2 75 to $3 25, with few bringing the outside figures. Stockers were in fair supply from Michigan, and a few loads from Canada. They were dull and lower at $1 75 to $3; some ordinary sold at $1 90, but generally $2 50 to $2 60 for average quality; feeders, $2 60 to $3 20; mostly $3 to $3 10. The bull trade was dull and irregular, and prices generally a quarter lower, good milch cows and springers brought a shade less than last week's supply. Calves were scarce and sold higher and stronger than last week, veals being quotable as high as $6 50.

Sheep and lambs—Offerings, 60 cars; eastern markets were reported as well stocked, and representatives of Boston and New York houses were not particularly anxious to purchase for shipment. As a result sheep here were dull and lower and lambs barely steady; choice to extra sheep, $4 85 to $5 15; most of the sheep were of fairly good quality, selling $4 50 to $4 75; those of 90 lbs and fat bringing the outside price. Lambs, quiet; choice to extra, $6 to $6 40. Canadas sold generally at $6 25 to $6 35 for best offerings. Most of the American offerings were fairly good lambs, which sold at $5 85 to $6 15. A lot of very common at $4 50. The Canadian offerings were liberally culled, and the prices above quoted were for selected lambs.

Hogs—Offerings, 80 cars. Light hogs and pigs were hard to sell, but good hogs were stronger and higher. Mediums and heavy, strong and higher. The outside figure got for a lot of 300-lb hogs, generally $4 55 to $4 60; good corn-fed Yorkers, $4 25 to $4 65, and grassers, $4 to $4 25; pigs, $3 to $3 75.

CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, Sept. 1.—Hogs—Estimated receipts, 22,000; official Saturday, 9,773; shipments, 6,203; left over, 2,500; market 5c higher; light mixed, $3 80 to $4 45; mixed packing, $3 85; to $4 35; heavy shipping, $3 80 to $4 40; rough grades, $3 80 to $3 90.

Cattle—Receipts, 16,000; market steady.

The Cheese Markets.

In the report of last Saturday's London cheese market the statement was made that Mr. J. Slater had offered 9½c for cheese, but had been refused, while another dealer had been bought a small lot for 9½c. To render this more clear and to prevent misconstruing it may be remarked that Mr. Slater's offer was made for selected cheese and for the whole month of August, as in the London cheese district the prices vary from ¼c to ¼c, according to the quality.

UTICA.

UTICA, N. Y., Sept. 1.—The boom that struck the cheese market last Monday gathered strength during the week, and to-day assumed large proportions. The biggest advance of the season was recorded. The improvement in the market is due to the increased demand for cheese to supply the house home trade, which is now becoming active. Transactions: Four lots, 300 boxes, at 8½c; 87 lots, 780 boxes, at 8½c; 12 lots, 1,219 boxes, at 8 lots, 721 boxes, at 8¾c; 13 lots, 1,219 boxes, at 9c; 21 lots, 1,700 boxes, at 9¼c; 11 lots, 7,738 boxes, at 9¼c; 7 lots, 330 boxes, at 9¾c; 1 lot, 270 boxes, at 9¾c; 3 lots, 250 boxes, private; 7 lots, 435 boxes, commission. Total, 159 lots, 13,819 boxes; ruling price, 8½c. Transactions same time last year aggregated 14,728 boxes; ruling price, 7¼c.

BUFFALO.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Sept. 1.—Cheese—Quiet, but in better demand and prices better; the offerings were only 2,000 boxes. 1,200 of Springville and 1,400 of Cloverfield; all sold at 9½c.

LITTLE FALLS.

LITTLE FALLS, N. Y., Sept. 1.—Cheese—Active at an advance in price at about ¼c. The shipment comprises fine August goods, and the general condition of the market is considered satisfactory. Transactions: 42 lots at 8¾c; 54 lots at 8¾c; 24 lots at 9c; 18 lots on commission; total, 9,019 boxes. Farm dairies—The sales of farm dairy cheese are 1,015 boxes at 8¾c to 9¼c. Three lots only at top price, the bulk at 8¾c.

Butter—Quiet; a few packages of creamery sold at 23½c.

Petrolea Oil Market.

PETROLEA, Sept. 2.—Oil opened to-day at $1 31½ and closed at $1 31½.

CANADIANS LEAD.

Out of $1,600 of prize money given at the Detroit Fair as prizes for sheep, Canadian exhibitors captured $1,200. This is practical annexation.

Systematic Fruit Thieves.

A number of residents of Talbot street north, complain of a systematic plundering of their gardens and injury to their fruit trees. Since the fruit has begun to ripen their property has suffered from nightly raids and they have now their season's labor for nothing. On Sunday morning before the people were awake the thieves made a clean sweep, visiting the gardens of Messrs. John Green, Ridout street, and Messrs. Gilmour, Bartlett and Donald McDonald, of Talbot street, and carrying off everything in the way of fruit that was ripe. The victims have an idea who the thieves are and will likely prosecute them.

DIANA WENTWORTH,

Or, The Professor's Daughter.

"That's Miss Wentworth; she's staying at the Abbey. Do you know her?" asked John's companion, who was not a butcher, but a veterinary surgeon.

"I know her very well. She was in Jacewo part of the time I was there."

"Ay! I heard she came from foreign parts. It's odd that you should be on friendly terms with one of that brood." (Some how the Mereditns were not popular among their tenants and townspeople. "She can't be like them."

"She is not; she is very unlike them. You have only to look at her to see that. Does she look like them?"

He looked after the group as he spoke, and his companion looke too—first at Dora's pretty little figure and her small, fair features, with their spoiled-child expression, set in a frame of flaxen locks, and then at Diana's tall slimness, delicate yet command ing, her chiseled, rather haughty features, and her masses of dark hair. Both men looked after them until they were out of sight; then John smiled, and his companion said,

"No; she's not like them."

Diana met with blame.

"The sight of that fellow makes me ill,' said Rupert, who had only heard a very much modified account of Diana's extraordinary conduct the day before the sale. "I wish you would not look at him when you are with me. Infernal cheek, taking off his hat! If he had scraped a bow, and pulled his hair, he would have shown a better knowledge of his position."

"You see," said his cousin, who was in a mischievous mood, "he has lived much abroad, where even the peasants take off their hats to ladies."

"It is a pity he did not stay abroad. Such a coat too. It is quite like a gentleman's coat."

"Yes. I have seen that coat before, and I assure you it is made of the best cloth and the most expansive fur."

He was going to say more, when Dora's rather shrill treble came from behind.

"Really, Diana, I wish you would not force your disagreeable acquaintances upon us. After the way that man has behaved to papa and Guy, I should think you would have known better than to take any notice of him."

"He has done me no harm, Dora, and I cannot identify myself with your quarrels. I have been too long a stranger to you all for that."

"Nothing more was said. It never occurred to Rupert to think of John as a rival. To him he was only one of "those Garthwaites"—a semi-civilized lot, despised for their ill luck by all who knew them, and remarkable for their uncouthness even in this land of rugged Northerners. His jealousy was of the young men round about, of former acquaintances of Diana in Whitfield.

Diana was mistaken in thinking that Rupert had not told the others of her rejection of him. The very next day he had gone to his father in the study and made a scene which neither Mr. Meredith, nor Guy, who was present, wished to go through again. He said they had made a fool of him; Diana did not care for him in the least, and, unless she was coerced, he felt sure she would not consent to marry him. He was determined to marry her, and he requested that pressure might be used; he had done all he could. If his father and her mother insisted on it, she would give way; she could not hold out against them all. He said he would wait a week; if at the end of that time they had not reconciled her to marry ing him, he swore he would go straight to Muriel Hope, and the consequence might be what they would. It was the old threat, but it was not uttered in the old way. There was something about Rupert this time which showed he was in earnest, and caused both his father and brother the gravest anxiety. If Rupert were really driven to extremity, he might do mischief which could never be repaired; and they promised every effort should be made to induce Diana to change her mind. Since the affair with John, there was additional reasons why this marriage with Rupert should take place; and the young lady was made to understand that her personal wishes must give way before the family need. They did not ask themselves what Diana might do if driven to extremity. No doubt she would be harder to move than other girls; but that she would, in the end, do as they wished, they did not doubt for an instant. They therefore told Rupert to be of good cheer.

Mrs. Wentworth and Gertrude were consulted, and only one opinion prevailed among them. Gertrude, who had at first been on Diana's side, was now heart and soul with her father and Guy. The more she thought of the tone in which Diana had spoken of John, the more uneasy and alarmed she felt. Her cousin was undoubtedly peculiar, there was no possibility of measuring to what lengths she would go in this matter. Shocking mesalliances had been made before now in families of distinction, ending always, as she firmly believed, in disgrace and ruin. At all costs, Diana must be shielded from such a fate as that. Before long, Gertrude had come to feel convinced that, in promoting this marriage with Rupert, they would be effecting not only his happiness and salvation, but Diana's also. She would have been glad if the task of "persuading" Diana might have been intrusted to her; but Mrs. Wentworth was not disposed to forego her rights as a mother, and no one could dispute her decision that she would manage the matter herself.

Nevertheless, she shrank from it, and put of the explanation from day to day; and it was only on this day, when Diana had seen John in the market place—the last day of grace accorded them by Rubert—that she made up her mind to speak.

It was in the afternoon, and mother and daughter were sitting together. Diana had been reading; but pausing at the end of a chapter and looking at her mother, she saw that she lay with her eyes closed as if tired or asleep. She laid the book down, and, leaning forward in her seat in the window, looked out upon what had now become so dear to her. It was late in the autumn, and the trees were almost striped of their beauty, between their half-naked branches she could plainly see the river flowing full and sullen after the heavy rains. The sky was gay, more rain would yet fall, and the gray walls of the Abbey rose against it. Diana, looking at it, she felt she had lived much and deeply since that summer night when she had first looked upon all these things in their haunting beauty. Just now she seemed to have reached a pause in her life. This present calm she felt to be deceptive—it rather sharpend her senses than lulled them; and she wondered what note would be struck next. She had not long to wait. Even as she sat there her life took a step onward. Her mother spoke.

"Diana," she said.

She turned, startled out of her reverie.

"I thought you were asleep. What do you want?"

"I was not asleep; I was thinking. I want to speak to you. Is the door shut?"

"Yes, shall I look it?"

"No, but come nearer to me, and then I shall not have to speak so loudly."

Diana obeyed, but she did not sit down; she leaned her elbow on the mantelpiece, and stood looking down at her mother.

"Rupert has asked you to marry him," said Mrs. Wentworth, going to the point with a directness worthy of her daughter.

"Yes," replied the girl, with equal directness.

"What answer did you give him?"

"Did he not tell you?"

"He said you refused him."

"Yes, I did. Why do you ask what answer I gave him?"

"I wanted to hear it from yourself. And why did you refuse him, if I may ask? Perhaps you do not think me worthy of being treated with such confidence."

"I don't want to marry him."

"Why not? What have you against him?

"I could not possibley marry him. For one thing, I have no respect for him."

"Really!" said her mother, sarcastically. "How has he failed to win your respect?"

But Diana had no intention of telling of the confession Rupert had once made. Instead of that she asked a question.

"How did you know Rupert was going to ask me to marry him?"

"We had agreed that it was desirable that he should marry and settle down. By we, I mean your uncle and Guy, myself and Gertrude."

"But why did you think it advisable that he should marry me? They are not fond of me; why was I chosen?"

"Rupert is fond of you, and there are family reasons why he should marry you rather than any one else."

Diana did not speak at once. Everything was becoming very clear. She had guessed well. It was all as she had thought. Her heart beat fast with excitement, but she forced herself to keep calm, and to say steadily,

"What are these family reasons? If you wish me to marry Rupert, you ought to tell me them."

"There is no necessity at all. It is quite enough that I, your mother, know these things, and see in them no obstacle to the marriage."

"It may be enough for you, but it does not satisfy me. These reasons concern my marriage, not yours. I think it probable that Rupert will ask me again; and although I should not have consented, any chance of my doing so is quite done away with by the idea that the marriage is being gotten up for family reasons which I am not to know."

"You are a wicked, undutiful girl," said Mrs. Wentworth, as usual meeting argument with the form of persuasion peculiar to her. "You have no respect for me or any one else, and you are behaving with abominable ingratitude to you uncle. You will do as you are told."

"I don't understand why you want Rupert to marry," went on Diana, ignoring these remarks. "You told me, and Rupert also told me, that his father would never consent to his marriage. Why have you all changed your minds?"

She was watching her mother narrowly as she spoke and saw plainly the change which came over her face at these words. It was a look of fear, which changed to relief as her daughter stopped. She said nothing and Diana hardened her heart, and, going to the couch, stood looking down into her mother's face. Her own face was pale, and her eyes were dry, but there was a look in them which startled Mrs. Wentworth and made her say,

"Why do you look at me like that? What do you want? Are you not well? And she might well ask, for the look in Diana's eyes was the lock of a soul in pain.

In the Toils at Last.

For the past few days Detectives Rider and Phair have been on the lookout for a man known around the city as J. H. Graham, who, it is alleged, has been working a series of advertising fakes in the city. Their man was in Toronto on Sunday and the officers got word that he was coming through on the C. P. R. to Detroit. When the telegram was received the detectives had not sufficient time to reach the station before the train pulled out, so a description of Graham was wired to the officers at Windsor, where he was arrested by Detective Campau and Chief Bains. Detective Rider went down in the evening, but the Montreal authorities were there before him and were allowed to take both Graham and his accomplice back to Montreal where they are wanted on charges of fraud.

He Called Her Bad Names.

Allan Daniel, a respectable looking man, dressed in his Sunday clothes, sat on a bench this morning in the Police Court, where he appeared in answer to a summons charging him with using abusive language to Mrs. Ametha Stephens. His counsel, Mr. Toothe, explained that the parties had a wrangle over some money affair, and in a moment of anger the defendant had used some hard language, for which he was now ready to apologize. The apology was accordingly written out and signed, but the complainant announcing her intention to publish it in the papers, the defendant withdrew it. Mrs. Stephens went into the box and testified that Allen had stood on the railway track over her back fence and called her vile names, reflecting on her character and the nature of her house. After some more wrangling the defendant settled the matter by tendering his apology and paying the costs.

It is no Wonder that invalids lose faith in all specifics, when so many worthless medicines are advertised to cure various diseases, but which, when tried, are "found wanting." We have yet to learn, however, of the first failure of DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY to cure coughs and pulmonary disease.

To ascertain whether or not a man loves his family mark how he provides for it.

Mr. J. R. Allen, upholsterer, Toronto, sends us the following: "For six or seven years my wife suffered with Dyspepsia, Costiveness, Inward Piles and Kidney Complaint. We tried two physicians and any number of medicines without getting any relief, until we got a bottle of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. This was the first relief she got, and before one bottle was used the benefit she derived from it was beyond our expectation."

Welcome is better than pie for dinner.

Advice to Mothers.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhœa. 25c. a bottle.

An Enviable Reputation.

Gentlemen desirous of obtaining the best possible value for their money in cigars should smoke the "Highland Lassie" 5-cent cigar, manufactured by H. McKay & Co., of London. This cigar has been subjected to the most complete tests by the great majority of the smokers of the Dominion, and all of them pronounce it one of the best articles in the Canadian market. Messrs. H. McKay & Co. take a special pride in its manufacture and are particular that none but the choicest specimens of fillers and wrappers enter into its composition. The "Highland Lassie's" reputation is of sufficient repute to satisfy the most skeptical of its worth.

"ASSISTANCE"
Is all nature needs in nine cases out of ten to remedy sickness. The old idea of bleeding, blistering, purging, etc., has been superseded by that of assisting nature, that is, seeing to diet and sanitary surroundings and giving medicine to act gently but just as certainly as the old style. In all cases of Stomach Troubles, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, etc.,
MALTOPEPSYN
(an artificial gastric juice—formula on every bottle) aids the weakened stomach by putting into it what it lacks, namely, gastric juice, which assists the digestion of the food, relieves the pain or heavy feeling, and cures the constipation usually accompanying stomach troubles. As you value your future health avoid Bitters, Blood Purifiers and Purgatives, which only irritate and weaken the stomach, aggravating the Dyspepsia. The disease is in the Stomach, so aid the Stomach. Endorsed by physicians. Send 2 cts. in stamps for valuable book to HAZEN MORSE, INTERNATIONAL BRIDGE, ONTARIO.

What is Lime Juice?
The question is rendered necessary by the prominent attention Lime Juice is attracting as the Best Temperance Beverage. The answer is that it SHOULD be the juice of the Lime Fruit without admixture.
By the "MONTSERRAT" Company alone is the Lime Fruit cultivated for this purpose, and great care should be taken to obtain this brand (as supplied to the British Government) in lieu of the numerous concoctions sold under the name of Lime Juice Cordials, Prepared Lime Juice, etc. Sold by all Druggists, Grocers and at the leading hotels.
