Tupper Has Done More Harm Than Good by His Visit.

A Liberal Sweep in Manitoba Confidently Predicted.

Winnipeg, May 11 .- Sir Charles Tupper was so anxious to get back to Ottawa, where a number of offices are to be parceled out, that he started on Sunday afternoon. A few personal friends saw him off. Grossly exaggerated reports of his reception here have from the truth than to say that there was what might be called an outburst of popular enthusiasm at the depot on the arrival of Sir Charles. It was with great difficulty that a stranger to Winnipeg, Mr. W. W. McDonald, ex-M.P., of Assiniboia, could raise a cheer for the Premier, notwithstanding that thousands of people had congregated for the purpose of gratifying curiosity and looking at the man. The statement that there were 5,000 people walking in the procession in the middle of the street is simply a plain falsehood. There were not a dozen people, nor half a dozen, in the procession as it moved past the postoffice, less than five-eighths of a mile from the depot and en route to the Manitoba Hotel. Mr. R. J. Whitelaw, a leading merchant, who, up till lately was an ardent Conservative, says: "I must warn people at a distance not to augur success from reports (highly colored in nost cases) of enthusiasm over Sir pany, in repertoire of popular plays. Opening with successful comedy-drama, "The Buckeye," Change of play nightly. Monday night ladies admitted to best reserved seats when accompanied by one paid 30-cent ticket. Prices 10c., 20c. and 30c.

Charles Tupper's reception in this city. It is not the noisy, excitable element on the surface from which Conservative candidates in Manitoba have most to fear. The feeling against our Otservands. tawa rulers for their conduct towards the Province during the past two years is deep-rooted in the minds of the solid, thinking citizens of the Prairie Province, and party lines are powerless to bind it down. If it is silent n many instances, it is none the less sullen and determined. A few months ago, when an appeal was made to the electors of the Province by the Provincial Government, the verdict was un-LOR SALE-HORSE-GOOD DRIVER-6 mistakable, and at the coming Dominyears old; quiet and good mover. verse the verdict of our electors with the egotistical sophistry and the empty promises with which he has entertained some and amused others of our Winnipeg citizens, he will be a sorely disappointed man on the 24th of June next. Still another lately prominent Conservative, Mr. D. H. Cooper, well acquainted with all sections of the Proince, and a prominent lawyer, writes: "I believe that Friday night's meeting has decided scores of voters, who were waiting to hear Hon. H. J. Macdonald's declaration on this matter, that they cannot act the traitor to our Province, and will be compelled to vote against the party which they have so long followed. Sir Charles Tupper will learn that he cannot come to this Province and settle the school question by corrupting the electorate with promises of public works or other expenditures."

Mr. R. W. Jameson, mayor of the city, and in former years a staunch and loyal supporter of Sir John Mac-donald, says: "The bulk of the cheering on the night of Sir Charles Tupper's arrival was done by the 100 odd delegates from the country who were in to attend the Conservative convention and rode in cabs. All the cheer-as there were no citizens on foot in the procession. Had it not been for these delegates the reception would Mr. Gilbert Fowler, formerly a loyal supporter of Sir Charles Tupper in Nova Scotia, a leading business man in this city, says: "I have always been a supporter of Sir Charles Tupper, and I felt great regret when he eft his position as High Commiscame into politics to up a corrupt Government and own with it, as it certainly will go down. As far as influencing the electorate is concerned, I think the cently a Conservative, says: "The reception given to Sir Charles Tupper and the subsequent meeting cannot be compared with that given to Hon. Wilfrid Laurier on his recent visit here. And it can already be seen that Sir Charles Tupper's visit here has done no good to the party, in which respect it is in marked contrast to the result of Mr. Laurier's visit. But for the strong personal friendships which Hon. Hugh John Macdonald has here the whole affair would have been tame to a degree, and he cannot be elected as a Tupper supporter in Winnipeg." A Winnipeg correspondent tele-graphing regarding the Tupper meeting says: "Sir Charles belittled every Conservative leader, from Sir John Macdonald down, in the effort to show that he was the man who had done everything that had been done in Canada. Sir Mackenzie Bowell was mentioned in connection with the cable conference, and Sir John Thompson not at all." Mr. Martin told the correspondent this morning that his canvass was more satisfactory than it was at the bye-election when he defeated Colin Campbell by over 400.

Senator Boulton presided at a meeting of the electors of Marquette, held at Russell on Saturday night in the interest of Mr. Ashdown, the Liberal been telegraphed to eastern high-tax journals. Nothing could be further from the truth than to say that there hitherto been a strong Conservative. SUCCESS ASSURED IN KENT.

Chatham, May 11 .- Mr. Arch. Campoell, the Laberal candidate in Kent, was in the city on Saturday, and looked as though the labors of the campaign were resting lightly on his shoulders. "You seem to be growing younger," said a leading Conservative who came up to give him a greeting. "But I'm not," was Mr. Campbell's laughing rejoinder. "I have just turned 51, and am getting gray as a badger After my next term in Parliament I expect I shall be quite patriarchal."

"Then you expect to win this time?" "I never was more certain. "What majority do you want?" "I am counting on 800 at least." "That's modest," said the Conservative. "Suppose we give you Kent, what do you say as to the country at "I want that, too. You may smile, my dear friend," he continued, "but I tell you soberly that I am persuaded Mr. Laurier will find a majority of perhaps 50 at his back when the new House meets." Mr. Campbell thereupon proceeded to present an epitome of the reasons which he declared existed to justify his belief that the Canadian people desired a change, and at the close of the brief remarks his auditor appeared glad to beat a hasty retreat. Mr. Campbell is pusuing a quiet, but vigorous canvass. He will hold meetings later on. Men of both parties have a friendly word for him. The non-resident cry which the local Government organ has raised against him and made a chief issue is regard-

A THIRD CANDIDATE. Goderich, May 11 .- The convention of est Huron Independents held on Saturday at Carlow nominated Mr. Kilty, teacher, of Summerhil, township of Hullett, to represent the McCanthy wing of the Conservative party at the approaching election for the Dominion House.

VICTORY AND ITS SEQUEL. In his latest address in Quebec, Hon. tawa were counted, and that the best ment were fleeing from their constituencies to accept fat situations from the Federal Government. Continuing, the speaker remarked that he was sure country $200,000 at every revision of the South Africa Company, and maps of lists. The present pension are the return of the King to to Africa.

Liberals are returned to power. SHOWING HIS TEETH. Quebc, May 11.-Sir A. P. Caron has declared that he is going to give the Tupper Government his heartiest support. But his acts rather conflict with his words. A few days ago he with-drew his candidate, Mr. Roy, from Dervishes are deserting the Khalifa. He says there is no man whom the Conservatives could put forward who would have a ghost of a chance against him. And this, indeed, appears to be the truth. At any rate, there is a holding back on the part of the local organizations with respect to the center division. It is felt that the only man who could carry it is an Irishman, and the difficulty is to find an Irishman who

The Haldimand and Monck Liberal convention will select a candidate on May 20. A convention of Cardwell Liberals will be held at Caledon East on Friday, May 15. W. L. Walsh, of Orangeville, is the Conservative candidate in Caldwell. W. Boulter, of Picton, was nominated by the Conservatives of Prince Edward. Mr. James Stevenson, the late member, was nominated by the Conservatives of West Peterboro. He only had a majority of 3.

A. H. Pettit, of Saltfleet, was nominated by the Wentworth Conservative convention on Saturday, on the third ballot, Mr. Pettit had 75 votes, Mr. Wardell 24 and Dr.Potts 22. Mr. Wardell regretted that at the South Wentworth Conservative convention such tactics as stuffing the ballot box had been resorted to, and Dr. Potts spoke along the same lines. More ballots than there were delegates were found in the box.

PRISON REFORMS. London, May 11.-Many people may be surprised to learn that by order of the Home Secretary, the principle of separating juvenile offenders in prisons from adults is for the first time officialy affirmed in England. To some extent it has already been adopted in practice, but hereafter it is to be the universal rule. Unfortunately, as the laws stand, 16 is now the age limit, beyond which offenders become adults, so this administrative reform misses altogether a large class of youths who perhaps need it even more than their juniors. THE CHOLERA. London, May 11.-A dispatch rrom Cairo says: The sanitary authorities and medical specialists here regard the increase in cholera, after the unsuccessful efforts made last winter to stamp out the disease, as indicating an approaching epidemic. An official bulletin reports nineteen new cases in Alexandria, and grave fears are entertained respecting many others. Further army enlistments at Alexandria have been suspended. It is feared that the Mahmoudiyeh Canal, from from which is drawn Alexandria's water supply, has been infected. There have been two doubtful cases in Cairo. There were 32 new cases of cholera and 16 deaths from the disease reported in Alexandria on Sunday. Three

Very Excellent Pianos-Most Elegant Instruments Seen Anywhere-Singing Qualities all that an Artist Could Desire-Broad, Rich, Massive Tone-Nothing to Fear from Foreign Competition.

Tecumseh House, London, April 28, 1896.

THE BELL PIANO COMPANY (LIMITED), GUELPH, ONT.

Dear Sirs,—It gives me pleasure before leaving Canada to testify to the very excellent Pianos of your manufacture which I have met with and used in connection with my song recitals in this country. The Upright Concert Grand which was placed at my disposal by your manager in London I unhesitatingly pronounce as one of the most elegant instruments that I have seen anywhere, and whilst its singing qualities were all that an artist could desire, it possessed in addition that broad, rich, massive tone which is absolutely indispensable for solo purposes. I heartily congratulate you on your latest achievements in piano construction, and believe that so long as the present high standard of your instruments is maintained R. WATKIN-MILLS. I am faithfully yours, your company can have nothing possible to fear from foreign competition.

Wheaton (secretary of the Dairymen's Association).

R. M. Ballantyne and R. Robertson were the only buyers present. ELECTION OF OFFICERS. Mr. John Cochrane moved that Mr. M. R. Brown (Appin), be president, and Mr. Wm. Elgie seconded. Mr. M. R. Brown took a great deal of pleasure in nominating Mr. J. S. Pearce, as president of the board for the coming season.

Mr. Wm. Geary seconded Mr. Pearce's nomination and said that Mr. Pearce had made an admirable president during the past two years. Mr. Pearce stated that he was not anxious to be elected and suggested that the position should go 'round." Mr. Brown was declared elected by a close vote and thanked the board for the honor conferred.

The other officers were elected as Relieving Insanity.

Wonderful Results of Clever Surgical Operations,

Conducted by Dr. Hobbs at the London Asylum,

Radical Departure From Old Theories With Splendid Results.

Visitors to the Asylum for the Insane will be much struck by the appearance of a tall, raw-built man, a patient, who is generally to be seen operating a lawn mower in the front portion of the grounds. He is a strong man, though spare, and until a few weeks ago was an inmate of the refractory, or north ward. Today he is trusted in any portion of the grounds, and is in his right mind again after five years of torture. This man's case able recoveries which have occurred at the Asylum during the last year or so, as a result of clever surgical operations conducted by Dr. A. T. Höbbs, and the several local physicians who have from time to time assisted in these operations.

The remarkable cures of insanity by surgical treatment are all the more wonderful, since London is the second place on the whole North American continent where such means are taken. A great many State boards of control have interfered with special operative work, especially for the relief of pelvic disease, causing insanity, and cried down the same as "brutal but the results at th London Asylum have been most en-couraging, and far from being brutal, are doing much to relieve the condition of the insane.

The patient referred to in the opening sentences had been troubled by noises in his head for five years. At short intervals the pain in the head The closing meeting of the season for would become so distressing as to treated in several of the largest American cities, and finally given up as hopeless, going into the London Asylum. Miss Graydon, the clever cured this year who have been sucand obliging president of the club, was cessfully operated on; indeed, the ex-Last year Dr. Hobbs and associates confined themselves to surgical gyneher. She also referred to the excellent cology, and a short time ago the doctor embodied the result in a very instructive paper, which he read before the London Medical Association. It was afterwards published in the American Medical Surgical Bulletin, and also Moore; second, Mrs. C. B. Hunt; third, appeared in the New York Polyclinic, of April 15. It aroused a great deal of interest, and has been issued in pamphlet form by the Danbury (Conn.) Medical Printing Company.

In his paper Dr. Hobbs referred to and its relation to insanity was a subject which had aroused much controversy, and no small amount of bitterness in the United States. It was modern methods for the cure of insanity had been carried away by false theory and misplaced sympathy, and could not have had any practical ex-perience of the undoubted benefit ac-Quartet—Rakoczy March Liszt

Collections Asked For-Need of Help Emphasized.

To the Editor of the "Advertiser": Dear, Sir,-Will you allow me, as representing the Women's Council of London, to say a few words about the needs of Armenia, and to ask the women of London and the vicinity for their help. While it is quite true that through the various channels offered, churches, societies and individuals have given largely and generously, there is still great need for more assistance. Hundreds and thousands of destitute people in that unhappy country are looking longingly to civilized nations for practical help.

The Review of Reviews for April gave an interesting account of the manner in which the funds were applied. Bakeries were instituted which gave out 3,750 loaves a day to 500 families. Clothing was also made by women paid for their services, and 200 sewed garments given out every day. Miss Grace Kimball is in charge of the distribution of moneys. Further information may be had through the pamphlets and slips issued by the Armenia Information Bureau, 3 Arundel street, Strand, London, England, where Rev. Canon Scott Molland receives subscriptions and gives inthe fact that utero-ovarian disease formation. In order that every one might give something, it has been decided to ask only for 5 cents from each person. The Women's Council of Halifax has raised $3,300 in a similar way, the contributions ranging from 5 cents to $200. We ask women of every race and party to help in this effort for the sake of God and one common womanhood. Let us remember the golden rule, and exert ourselves in this matter. Exertion is all we need. People are willing to give if some one asks them, and such a small sum tissues acted as a source of irritation, will not be a heavy drain on any We ask that every should interest itself in asking for this amount. London women have kind hearts, which must often have been touched by the ofttold tale of Armenian sufferings. Will they not now let those sympathetic thoughts blossom into further acts of beneficence, when they contrast their own safety with the sorrows of these heroic sisters? By and bye, when these matters have fallen into a right perspective, we shall be very sorry if we have not each done our part in helping those in such dire distress. The Leading Conservative in Halifax Joins Laurier.

A Manly Speech on Renouncing His Former Party,

He Found That the High Tax Policy Has Bred Corruption and Robbery.

Halifax, N. S., May 11.-A striking feature of the big Liberal demonstration the other night was the presence of a large number of gentlemen whose sympathies had hitherto been with the Conservative party. Indeed, the chairman of the meeting was no less a person than Mr. J. A. Chipman, one of our leading merchants and manufacturers, and a gentleman who has hitherto been not only a member of the Conservative party, but one of its leading workers. For many years Mr. Chipman has fought for the Conservative party, and in every contest his voice has been heard and his best endeavors used in behalf of that party. On Thursday night he not only countenanced the meeting by his presence but acted in the capacity of chairman and delivered a speech setting forth his reasons for joining the Liberal forces, which was eloquent and convincing, and which was received with great applause.

In assuming the responsibilities of presiding at the unanimous call of the meeting, Mr. Chipman said it was in cumbent upon him to make some personal observations before calling on the speakers of the evening. "As you are aware," said Mr. Chipman, "I have been a life-long Conservative, and although my friend the Senator is pleased to refer to this occasion as the baptism of my conversion, I may say tha I am not the convert of a night, but that I have for years past revolved this question in my mind; the policy and the statesmanship by which we are governed. During the past ten years I have revolved the question in my mind: Are we on the road to pros-perity or are we going backward? On all previous elections I gave a full support to the Conservative party. At the last election I was somewhat retiring However, on that occasion I took un my old interest in the party, but not with the same hopefulness as on pre vious occasions. I had compared the present policy of Canada with the policy of Great Britain and also that of the United States. While I could see no limit to the prosperity of the great mother country under her sys tem, I detected signs of decay in the institutions across the border under 'protective' system.

"The last occasion on which I spoke in the interests of the Conservative party was at a meeting at Jeddore, and the Hon, Mr. Fielding, who was present, may recall the remark I made on that occasion. I then said that unless there were remedial measures applied to the firscal policy of the Gov-ernment, it would be the last time I would speak in their defense. I watched with no small degree of anxiety the developments of that policy, and when Mr. Foster brought down his reform tariff I said: 'Now is the opportunity of the Conservative Government,' the Conservative leader having in 1878 started out with the pronounced utterance that the National Policy was to give an incidental protection to infant industries. When he had finished went to the exponents of that tariff in this city, when I soon learned that the combines had their hands so firmly upon it as to make reform impossible (Applause.) It was then I felt I could no longer follow in the tracks of the Conservative party. Of course, there are little things to be met in making now on his way home from East a break of this kind. I had to meet the name of 'the third party,' and found it somewhat difficult to sever entirely from the party I had been attached to for so many years. But I felt with a number of sober-minded Conservatives that that policy was leading to a policy of corruption, that it was robbing the masses to enrich The rivers are rising throughout the few. It is true of Canada as it is who forsakes his party is a marked This is unlike Great Britain, where, when a Government does not do right, the people turn them out. Here, however, a man seems to be under an obligation to adhere to party-to support it in its corruption. I might have remained in the retired position of a man who would sit still and watch the battle, but the affairs of the last session of Parliament finished what had been begun. When I saw the great autocrat of the people, almost a resur-rection from the dead, spring upon the platform, seize the coercion bill and undertake by fair means or foul to force it upon the people of Manitoba, I decided not to sit still. He tried to force this measure on the people in the face of and against the protesta tions of the greatest patriot Canada ever saw, the Hon. Wilfrid Laurier. (Cheers.) Mr. Laurier distinguished himself for the honorable and able manner in which he handled this great question. He was a French Roman Catholic, who would do all and seek to do all that was in reason for his own people. But when he said, 'You cannot by coercion remedy the grievance, but must use conciliation,' I say the Hon. Wilfrid Laurier stands today the noblest patriot Canada ever saw. When I read that great spech of his the blood in my frame tingled from the soles of my feet to the crown of my head in admiration of that great man. They will say, and they do say, he is not honest. No man could face Parliament and the country with that speech and be false. I have nothi to say against those I am leaving, bu I will say that one of the greatest blessings that could befall Canada and the Conservative party would be to stains which had adhered to their garments during the past eighteen years. many Conservatives There are throughout the Province who will poll a silent vote for the patriotism of the Hon. Wilfrid Laurier." (Cheers.)

Sometimes persons become blind from impure blood, which develops scrofulous ulcers on the eyeballs, iritis, granulated eyelids, etc. In such cases Hood's Sarsaparilla has been marvelously successful in restoring sight. Chatham, May 11 .- John Macdonald, who until recently kept a restaurant on Thames street, was before Justice Frohan on Saturday on a charge of forgery. The young man, who comes from the farm, has been rather unfortunate in his commercial speculations. His latest venture was a store at Dover Center. In order to get an interest in this business he gave W. J. Martin, a city lawyer and money lender, a chattel mortgage, and as collateral a note for $205, purporting to be signed by David Brodie. Boys Charged With Breaking Windows -A Fighter Fined-Girls Discharged.

Police Magistrate Park had a rather 'full house" this morning, and the docket was as varied as it was large. It contained cases from the inevitable small boy of 10 years to very old men. The first case called was that of Wm. Wespler, who was arrested in a C. P. R. car on May 3, and appeared this time for sentence. He comes from Ottawa, and is on his way to Detroit. The magistrate sympathized with the young man, and gave instructions for the South London officers to see him out of town.

Frank Tinsley, aged 13; Jacob Fox, 10; John Weaver, 14; Fred Allen, 12; James Harris, 12, and John Pritchard, aged 14 years, were arraigned before the police magistrate on a charge of malicious damage to property, preferred against them by W. E. Saunders and others. Mr. Saunders said the boys had given much trouble, and had broken windows in his property to the value of $6, and he wanted an example made of them. The magistrate thought the boys too young to deal with, and questioned them all as to the number of stones they threw. All threw one stone, with the exception of James Harris, who threw two. Fred Allen was the one boy who had any money to may the damage, and that was only 25 cents. Chief Williams asked for an adjournment of the case for a week, and in the meantime he will communicate with the parents of the boys. Mr. Saunders wanted the boys fined, as it took six weeks of watching to catch His Honor granted the chief's request.

The penalty was omitted in the case of Mr. L. Leonard, charged with auctioneering without a license. Leonard said he was unaware the law had been broken. Thomas Evans, who was arrested in

Rev. R. J. Hunter, B.A., of Ridgetown, occupied the pulpit of St. James' Presbyterian Church at both services yesterday, and preached two very scholarly sermons. CONSERVATIVE DISLOYALTY.

An Ex Cabinet Minister Prouder of United States Than Great Britain.

If any Liberal had said what the Hon. T. M. Daly, the ex-Minister of at Chicago last Wednesday evening, he would have been charged by the Conservatives with "rank treason," what else. Mr. Daly said:

"Proud as we are of our British cousins over the sea, we are prouder yet of our great kinsmen who have made this great Republic. * * In our political divisions one party charges the other with looking over to this side of the line. As Scotland is to London, so is Canada to the United States. There are 400,000 Scots in London, whether archbishop or tradesman. So it is natural for many Canadians to come over here to this land of liberty and of a common English-speaking ancestry."

The Conservative Government's policy has driven a million and a half of the people of Canada to the United States, and here is a former Conservative Minister of the Crown who "land of liberty" to which it was "natual" for Canadians to go, as if Canada was not a country of the free, is outrageous. Has a Conservative Minister of the Crown to be "loyal" and "patriotic" only while he is in of-fice or while he is looking for political favors. If Mr. Daly is sent to England to work up emigration to Canada and talks in the same strain there as he does in Chicago, the emigrants will all pass through Canada to the United States.-Montreal Witness.

up, he is well and favorably known, and his many friends and acquaintances of all denominations will unite in wishing him godspeed in his new field of labor. Inflammation of the lungs has been very prevalent around here these two weeks past. One day this week Dr. Ovens, of Forest, called on six, all suffering from it, four of the cases being on the Lake road.

As was expected, the sermon on "The short bed and the narrow covering," preached by Rev. H. D. Tyler, at Ravenswood, attracted a large crowd, some from Arkona and Thedford circuits and from the Indian reserve, owing to the church closed so much on account of the long continued illness of the pastor,

LUCAN

"Advertiser" Agent, W. Hodgins. Lucan, May 11.-Mr. T. Orme, an old man of 84 years, had his leg broken in two places on Saturday while trying to stop a runaway horse. The hub of one of the buggy wheels struck the old man, with the above result. Dr. Clarke set the limb, and the patient is doing well.

Rev. John Campbell, the former rector of the Presbyterian Church here, preached in Granton and Lucan yesterday. Mr. Campbell spent the last six months in California for the benefit of his health. Mr. D. McCosh caught a large trout weighing a pound and a half one day last week.

Torture of Children.

A correspondent of the Evening a Canadian ex-Minister to talk like a Yankee of the United States being the with what looked an admirable for country people of the island under Italian rule. According to this writer nearly the whole population of Sicily are at the starving point. They have been brought to this condition by excessive taxation, the extortion of absentee landlords and excessive industrial competition. The suffering and wretchedness are seen at their worst in the farming regions and the mining districts. It would be difficult to picture a situation more distressing and pitiable than that of the peasantry of these regions. Even the sufferings of the Armenians at the hands of Kurdish flends seem scarcely worse than those which the poor Sicilians are enduring from cruel landlordism and It Is Highly Important that Every gross misgovernment. In the mining regions a notary of the place said to an Italian journalist who had been sent into the country on a tour of investigation, "Here the people die of hunger. No one can understand or describe their wretched state. Their destitution may be seen. But hunger is felt, and does not speak to others. The Parisian lady who has won esteem in the press under the pen name of Arvede Barine returned from a tour of observation "with a nightmare of skeletons, of worn faces, of children, pale and rickety, that cry 'I am hungry!" And she adds that it is not a few suffering from want, such as might be seen in France itself. It is whole populations. She asked one day of a young girl, "What do people do here for a living?" The girl answered, as if it were a matter of course, "Here people die of hunger!" bread-winner of the family. All her labor earned her 3 lire (not quite 60 cents) a month. But the most pitiful gists. part of the story is that relating the hardships and sufferings of little children in the Sicilian sulphur mines. A condition of things exists here which cries aloud for redress to the heart of all humanity. In all the small sulphur mines the ore is carried out through the long steep galleries on the backs of young boys. They are sold for the purpose when 8 or 10 years old. The employer pays from 50 to 300 lire ($10 to $60) for these carusi, as they are called; and they are henceforth his until death or the military service claims them. More than one of these children, trying to escape from their intolerable sufferings, have been deliberately beaten to death by their owners. The bystanders did not dream of interfering—"he has the right!" If they live, they are paid 10 cents for twelve hours' labor a day. It is saved up for them until the sum | amounts to what was paid for them to their parents. Then they should be free, but the day of liberty comes not in Sicily after many weary years. Signor Rossi, an Italian newspape writer, describes the visit made by him to one of these mines, which gave employment to 1,300 men. His companion was the Socialist member of Parliament, De Felice, who has been condemned to long and painful imprisonment because all that he had se and heard in this United Italy only bred in him dreams of a fantastic revolution. As they came to the entrance of the mine they started at the sight of what seemed a gathering of dwarfs. naked, hump-backed, with of them took torones to light the visitors on their way.

"We began the descent, stooping over and holding our hands to the vaulted roof. The steps, dug in the soil, are very irregular, dusty, and then wet and slippery. We had gone a few yards when we distinguished a faint light. It was the lamps of a few bending carusi who were coming up, under their load of sulphur. Then we heard their sighs of anguish, growing more and more distinct as they drew nearer to us-the sighs of young children scarcely able to go forward, yet obliged to stagger on for fear that the miner should come to beat them with his stick or burn their legs with his lamp. De Felice and I felt our hearts bursting as we stood to one side to let pass this procession of pariahs. As we saw them, bent under their burdens, trembling on their unsteady legs, pity so seized on us that we ourselves wept like two children. "We stopped some of them and saw for ourselves that they had the skin of their shoulders and of the spine o. W. RUGGLES, JOHN G. LAVEN, Gen. Pass. Agent. Can. Pass. Ag

Price 25c a bottle. Sold by all Drugall the way down the back either red and raw or callous where it had been abraded; and there were scars and bruises. Further on, in a gallery where the steps were higher and more difficult, we came on another procession of these carusi, bending under their terrible load (it is from sixty to one hundred and fifty pounds; enough, we would think, to kill a child by exhaustion). I heard one say, weeping, to a companion, 'I can go on no more; I must let the sack fall.' At a third turn there was another, with his burden on the ground. He wept as he crouched beside it. He had fair hair and blue eyes; but the eyes were reddened with weeping, and the fell over pale, hollow cheeks. In my career as a journalist I have seen men shot, hanged, lynched, massacred; I have seen horrors of every kind, deaths in every way; but I have seen nothing which affected me like this."

Montreal, Que. May 8.—A private cable from Thos. C. Nelson, of Glasgow, by W. G. Elliott, live stock agent, states that the prospects are about the same, and unless kliott, live stock agent, states that the prospects are about the same, and unless supplies are restricted prices cannot be maintained. Average State steers, 10je; sheep, 13c. There have been no turther cables received from Liverpool or London since Monday, and the general impression here is that the markets are unchanged. A fairly active trade has been done in export cattle here. The demand at at Toronto on Tuesday was good and all the offerings were picked up at 32c to 4c per 1b, consequently the market here today was bare of this class of stock, and although some shippers were present they could not get any suitable stock for shipment. The receipts of American sheep, so far this season, have been large there. About 3,000 head arrived at the Canadian Pacific stock yards, of which over Coo were shipped on the steamship Concordia to Glasgow, and over 2,000 will go forward on the Ottomau to Liverpool, salling on saturday. The shipments of live stock from the United to Glasgow, and over 2,000 will go forward on the Ottoman to Liverpool, salling on saturday. The shipments of live stock from the United States ports for the week ending May 2, were 7,648 head of cattle and 10,311 sheep. The ocean freight market is, no doubt, in a very unsettled state, and it is hard to quote reliable rates at present; for instance, a report was circulated today that a vessel salling for London this week was let at 30s, and it was stated that space had been secured to other ports at 35s and 37s 6d. The steamship Christiania, sailing for Bristol temorrow, goes out without any livejetock. Whether this is on account of scarcity of cattle, the bad markets abroad or scarcity of cattle, the bad markets abroad or the rate of freight asked, it is difficult to say.

Seeding in Manitoba. Winnipeg. Man., May 11.-Reports from the country state that seeding is in full swing. The discontent at the late spring seems to be confined for the new Dundas Center Church to the city, as the farmers are universally jubilant over the prospects for the coming crop. All records for rapid growth are expected to be broken this summer. In every place where it is possible the stubble is being burnt and the seed put in with-

General Superintendent Whyte, of the Canadian Pacific, said on Tuesday that farm work was being transacted with great activity in all parts of the Province, according to the railway reports. Father of the Murdered Hendershott Sues for Insurance

On the Deceased's Life-Judge Armour is Presiding.

There was a large attendance at the court house at 1 o'clock, when the Middlesex spring assizes were opened, Judge Armour presiding, through the illness of Justice Falconbridge.

The following jury was empaneled and sworn: Simon McLeod, West Williams, foreman; Ebenezer Aitcheson, Wardsville; John Abbott, lot 20, con. 4, Biddulph; James Bennett, lot 12, con. 4, and John Trueman, lot 9, con. 1, Metcalfe; Robert Clifford, James Weir and Augustus Yorke, North Dorchester; Charles Fisher, lot 22, con. 4, London township; Angus McLeish, lot 8, con. 10, West Williams; Thomas Prest, Mc-Gilhvray; Henry Thomas, Adelaide, and Wm. Ward, 474 King street, city. Judge Armour called attention to the important cases on the list, and explained the duties of the jury clearly. The first case called was Barnes vs. the Dominion Grange. This was an action brought by Sarah Barnes, of London township, to recover the sum of $1,500, the amount of an insurance policy. The case was settled. E. Meredith, Q.C., for plaintiff; Creasor

Swindlers Foiled.

They Nearly Cheated a St. Mary's Man Out of $2,000.

Did They Come From London?-An Old Game That Almost Worked.

An extra edition of the St. Marys Journal on Saturday reports that a most barefaced swindle was attempted in that neighborhood Friday, when Mr. John Skelly, of Water street, by awakening to the fact at the last moment, discovered that he was being made the dupe of two strangers who within fifteen minutes more would have been off with not less than $2,000 of his money.

The game was the old one so effectually played at Galt last season, by which a wealthy farmer nearly lost his farm in a deal. About a week ago a gentleman called on Mr. Skelly, saying that he understood Mr. Skelly would sell his farm. The stranger chatted agreeably for some time about the farms and affairs of the neighborhood, said he was wishing to make a deal for a Mrs. Taylor, of London, a widow, who wanted higher interest than she was getting. In the conversation Mr. Skelly asked the stranger if he knew his son-in-law, Mr. Macdonald, of the firm of Pethick & Macdonald, London, and if he had started to build yet. The stranger familiarly replied "Yes, he knew him well and that he had started to build last week, and had the foundation just finished." During the visit the deal was made and the farm purchased, the buyer saying he would be back in a week with the lady to pay over the money and complete The week was up Friday, and the buyer was there all right. He said the lady was down town (St. Marys), but was unable to come up, so he would drive Mr. Skelly down. The two started for St. Marys, and on the way met a man in a slouch hat and large coat who told a tale about searching for a sister, for whom he had $10,000. He said he had been fleeced by a card game in Buffalo. The buyer who was with Mr. Skelly said he could play the game, and the man with the slouch hat bet him he could not. The two started to play, and Mr. Skelly was drawn into it.

and won $2,000. He did not wish to take the money, but his companions insisted and stuffed it inside Mr. Skelly's vest. Then they drove on, but the stranger called back and asked for the money, which was returned to him, on his representation that the game was unfair, because Mr. Skelly and the buyer had no money to put up. The buyer asked the third party to come with them, and he would get the money from the lady, as he had none with him, that Mr. Skelly would go back and get his bank book and they would play over. All agreed. Mr. Skelly returned and got the book and all three drove to town. oming to the quarries the man with the slouch hat got out and said he would wait on the sidewalk till they returned. The buyer also got out, saying he would go and get the money from the lady, and would meet Mr. Skelly in a few minutes. On his way to the bank it dawned on Skelly that the man with the slouch hat and the money was the man who had originally come to buy the place. Although disguised, when he laughed he disclosed that he had his full set of commons, would, if he ran again, first called. Until then Mr. Skelly nad not suspected that they were dif-

And Declare Their Intention of Support ing Hon. Wilfrid Laurier.

Ottawa, May 11 .- The defection of Mr. J. A. Chipman, one of the leading merchants of Nova Scotia, and until this election one of the foremost workers in the Conservative party, is a serious blow to the Government His appearance as chairman of the big Liberal meeting in Halifax leaves no doubt as to where he now stands, and his speech should be circulated in every city and county of Canada. is the speech of a business man thoroughly posted in public affairs, who wished to remain a Conservative, but who found it impossibleto do so, chiefly on account of the trade policy of the Government. Ex-Mayor Mulhern, of Cornwall, has also written to the local press to say that he has left the Conservative party, and given his allegiance to Mr. Laurier.

Mr. H. A. McKeown, barrister, of St. John, N.B., who stumped for the Conservatives last election, addressed the Liberal ratification meeting in St. John on May 6 in favor of the Liberal candidates.
Mr. John F. Forbes, head of the Forbes Manufacturing Company, of Halifax, N. S., hitherto a Conserva-tive, has joined the army marching behind Mr. Laurier.

Hon. Wm. Pugsley, Q.C., put in nomination by the Conservatives of King's County, N. S., has thrown up the nomination because he is opposed to the policy of the Government. Mr. Calvin, the late Conservative as he is entirely opposed to the high protective tariff and completely dis-gusted with the policy and conduct ferent men. He scented a swindle, and instead of going to the bank to of the Government generally. He has finally decided to retire from public life, but it is to be hoped that it will not be for long, as Mr. Calvin is a young man and well fitted to render good service in Parliament. He is of opinion that the present tariff im-poses inordinate and unjust burdens on the people. He is in all matters in practical agreement with Mr. Laurer's platform.

Dr. McLennan, the Liberal candidate in Inverness, N.S., was the Con-servative candidate at the general elections of 1890 for the Nova Scotia Legislature. Before that he had been elected and sat as a Conservative member of that House. He left the Conservative party, and, upon his de-claring himself a follower of the Liberal leader at Ottawa, was chosen by the Liberals to oppose Dr. Cameron, the Conservative candidate.

The Montreal Shareholder, a finan-cial and commercial journal, has supported the Ottawa Government till recently, but it is now opposed to it. There are others, such as Mr. Howell, Q.C., of Winnipeg, and the list will swell as the contest goes on. The dissensions within the Conservative ranks are as widespread as the defections. In the capital itself, the party is hopelessly divided. There are two Conservative associations clashing with each other.

for Infants and Children.

OTHERS, Do You Know that Paregorie, most remedies for children are composed of opium or morphine?

Do You Know that opium and morphine are stupefying narcotic poisons?

Do You Know that in most countries druggists are not permitted to sell narcotice without labeling them poisons?

Do You Know that you should not permit any medicine to be given your child unless you or your physician know of what it is composed? Do You Know that Castoria is a purely vegetable preparation, and that a list of its ingredients is published with every bottle? Do You Know that Castoria is the prescription of the famous Dr. Samuel Pitcher. That it has been in use for nearly thirty years, and that more Castoria is now sold than of all other remedies for children combined? Do You Know that the Patent Office Department of the United States, and of other countries, have issued exclusive right to Dr. Pitcher and his assigns to use the word "Castoria" and its formula, and that to imitate them is a state prison offense!

Do You Know that one of the reasons for granting this government protection was because Castoria had been proven to be absolutely harmless?

Do You Know that 35 average doses of Castoria are furnished for 35 cents, or one cent a dose? Do You Know that when possessed of this perfect preparation, your children may be kept well, and that you may have unbroken rest: Well, these things are worth knowing. They are facts.
