TWELVE PERISH WHEN ORPHANAGE BURNS

Ireland Pays Last Tribute To Chieftain of Dail Eireann

GRIFFITH LAID TO REST ALONG WITH PATRIOTS

Dublin Cathedral Is Scene of Impressive Funeral Ceremony.

THOUSANDS GO TO GRAVE

All Activities in Irish Capital Cease During Funeral.

Dublin, Aug. 16.—Ireland buried another of her distinguished sons today. Arthur Griffith was laid to rest in historic Glasnevin Cemetery, where so many famous patriots lie, after services of impressive solemnity in the beautiful cathedral of the Immaculate Conception.

Many attended the solemn requiem high mass for the repose of the soul of the departed leader—celebrated with all the rites and ceremony of the Roman Catholic Church. The cathedral was crowded, and the thousands unable to gain admission to the edifice stood in the streets outside, following as nearly as possible the service they could not see.

The body reposed on a catafalque before the main altar directly under the dome with its beautiful painting of Christ ascending to heaven. Farther back in the nave could be seen the paintings of the church's patron saints, St. Bridget and St. Laurence, and to the left the splendidly molded marble statue of the eminent Cardinal Cullen, celebrated in Ireland's earlier church history. The living Catholic church was represented by Archbishop Byrne of Dublin, who, in the full robes of his office, sat on a red brocaded throne to the left of the altar. On either side of the celebrant was a canon, and he was assisted by a deacon, sub-deacon and master of ceremonies.

The Venerable Cardinal Logue, primate of all Ireland, was prevented by the infimities of age from attending the ceremony, but sent a fervent message of sympathy.

The procession to the cemetery was headed by a cavalry guard, followed by a detachment of infantry with a band. Then came the clergy and the hearse, with a guard of honor. The widow and children rode behind in carriages.

Next came Michael Collins, Griffith's main support in the fight to set up ordered government in Ireland, and commander of the army on which the Free State advocates rest their hopes. Next in line were the lord mayor of Dublin and representatives of various public bodies.

All activities in Dublin were suspended during the funeral.

HERBERT WILSON PLACED ON TRIAL

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 16.—The trial of Herbert Wilson, former evangelist, of Oregon and Canada, and alleged mail robber, for the murder of Herbert R. Cox, said to have been his companion in numerous crimes, opened in the superior court here today before Judge J. Perry Wood.

Cox was shot and killed here a few months ago while he, Wilson and Eddie O'Brien, alleged mail robber, now held at Toledo, Ohio, were attempting to escape from the county jail. Cox's last words were "Herbert did it."

Federal charges against Wilson have been held up, pending the result of the murder trial.

EMPLOYE SUFFERS PAINFUL ACCIDENT

Pierced through the liver by a file, as he was caught by a planer in motion at Beatty Bros.' plant, East London, Wednesday at 9:15 a.m., Harry Paige, 103 William street, is now reported as being in a serious condition in the city hospital. Dr. Duncan is in attendance.

CANADA'S MERCHANDISE EXPORTS SHOW INCREASE

Ottawa, Aug. 16.—Canada continues to cut down her expenditures abroad, and according to the summary of Canadian trade for the month of July, 1922, at the same time is increasing her exports of domestic merchandise. Imports entered into Canada for home consumption during July, 1922, were valued at $60,757,019, a decrease of nearly two million dollars from July, 1921. In the four months ending July, 1922, imports for home consumption were valued at $236,242,576, as against $253,862,462.

Exports of domestic merchandise during the month of July, 1922, were valued at $70,430,235, as against $54,518,036 in July one year previous. For the four months period of 1922, domestic exports were valued at $243,254,469, as against $215,927,956 the same period of last year.

Foreign merchandise exported during last month was valued at $1,390,393, as against $1,922,107 in July last year.

Jumbina Objects to Scrubbing

Trumpets Disapproval as Her Keeper Proceeds

LONDON, England, Aug. 16.—Jumbina, the giant African elephant in the National Zoological Park here, hates to get her ears washed just as much as any child. Here her keeper is getting rid of the high-water mark she left when she washed herself.

GETS 30 DAYS ON ABDUCTION CHARGE

Magistrate Gravely Warns Louis Biancofole After Sentence.

"I consider that I am showing you great leniency. Let this be a warning to you, and other young men, as well."

With this grave warning, Police Magistrate A. H. M. Graydon, presiding in the city police court Wednesday morning, declared Louis Biancofole guilty of the charge of abduction, as preferred by Fred Smith, 173 Grey street, father of Ethel Smith, 16 years old, and sentenced him to 30 days in the common jail.

The prisoner was represented by E. W. Scatchard, who delivered an eloquent appeal for leniency, holding first that no case of abduction had been shown, and secondly that the accused had been shown to be a hard-working youth who had never been implicated in any previous trouble, and was, further, not one who had gained the habit of taking girls to shows and dances.

"I must conclude that this man is guilty, however," the magistrate declared. "The very fact of his good conduct aided him to gain the confidence of the parents of this girl, Miss Ethel Smith. She is a respectable girl. I'll admit that she is not apparently over-bright, and didn't need much encouragement.

"It is fortunate for both her and the prisoner that they were apprehended before they got away. Her life might have been blighted. Let this be a warning to others."

STRIKE MAY THROW STEEL EMPLOYEES OUT OF WORK

Supply of Soft Coal at Sydney Insufficient To Keep Plant Going.

Sydney, N. S., Aug. 16.—Approximately 2,000 steel workers will be thrown out of employment here if the coal strike continues for any length of time.

Stocks of coal on hand are insufficient to keep the steel plant going. The supply of domestic coal available is only sufficient for a few days.

The Cape Breton Electric Company has 25 days' supply on hand for light and power purposes, but ferry services are to be curtailed to save fuel.

NOTABLES OF WORLD PAY TRIBUTE TO NORTHCLIFFE

London, Aug. 16.—World-wide regret at the death of Viscount Northcliffe continues to be evidenced by the flood of telegrams and cable messages received by the family and published in Northcliffe papers. The messages sent to Lady Northcliffe by the King and Queen and other members of the royal family, and the Tribune from President Harding, are significant of the esteem in which the great publisher was held, says the Times.

The president of France, the viceroy of India, and the Dominion and Commonwealth premiers are at one with distinguished men of the United States in attesting to Northcliffe's work, and the evidence of his achievements. The scores of messages published this morning occupy more than a page of the Times.

EXPECT DRURY TO DISCUSS BREACH

Premier to Address Gatherings at Grand Bend and Ailsa Craig.

In his addresses, one at Grand Bend on Wednesday afternoon, and the second, at Ailsa Craig, the following day, Hon. E. C. Drury, premier of Ontario, is expected to deal exhaustively with the alleged threatened breach between J. J. Morrison and himself, pertaining to the future destiny of the United Farmers' Party of this province.

To date, the premier has declined to offer any comment whatever upon the statement credited to J. J. Morrison, to the effect that "The farmers' political movement was brought into being, not by individuals, but by the central organization," supposedly as a protest to the earlier report that the premier had "decided to drop the distinctive farmer character of the movement."

Followers of the U. F. O. throughout the province, the great bulk of the rank and file appeared but little perturbed, however, relative to the suggestion from Toronto that a serious breach in their ranks is inevit-

LAUD POINCARE ON REPARATIONS

French Cabinet Members Approve of Premier's Stand at Conference.

Report Pronounces Germany in Wilful Default of Payments.

Rambouillet, France, Aug. 16.—The French cabinet today unanimously approved of the German reparations policy of Premier Poincare and congratulated him on the stand he took at the London conference of Allied premiers.

The entire morning session of the cabinet, presided over by President Millerand, was devoted to Premier Poincare's exposition of what took place at London and discussion on that subject. The cabinet planned to meet again in the afternoon, when the question of convening an extraordinary session of parliament and financial plans prepared by Minister of Finance DeLastyre were to be discussed. A communique, issued after the morning meeting had ended, said the premier made a complete exposition of the London negotiations and the reason why it was found impossible to reach an agreement. The cabinet, said the communique, was unanimous in approving of his attitude, and declared itself entirely with him in his view of the reparations situation.

M. Poincare desires parliament called together so the deputies and senators can be made acquainted with the exact situation and the program of the government, and give the ministry a vote of confidence. This would be taken as a mandate to execute the plan which Minister of Finance De Lastyre is bringing before the council for discussion during the day.

The plan, which is reported to have been prepared in case the reparations commission's decision on the moratorium question pronounces Germany in wilful default of her payments, deals with measures to be taken in Alsace-Lorraine and the French occupied territory of the Rhine land, including the cities of Dusseldorf, Ruhrort and Duisburg. It is understood no military measures have been contemplated thus far.

When the ministers alighted at the Rambouillet station, the assembled crowd gave cheers for England as well as for France, although there were some cries of "Down with Lloyd George!" Neither Marshal Foch nor General Degoutte, commander of the Allied troops on the Rhine, was present, despite previous reports that they had been requested to attend.

ACADIANS MEET TO HONOR ANCESTORS

Grand Pre, N. S., Aug. 16.—Acadians from all parts of Canada and from the United States are assembled here today to witness the dedication of a chapel, a memorial to the French settlers of the land of Evangeline, expelled by the British in 1755.

The chapel is a duplicate of the original Acadian place of worship, as far as it has been possible to determine the architecture of that building. It is constructed of native stone. Bishop R. A. Leblanc of St. John, N.B., the first Acadian bishop in the Maritime Provinces of Canada, is to preside at the religious services, while representatives of the Canadian and provincial government are in attendance.

EXPECT GOVERNMENT TO WIN QUEBEC BY-ELECTION

Quebec, Aug. 16.—Hon. L. A. Taschereau, prime minister, expresses the belief that the government will win the Labelle by-election tomorrow.

"I believe," said the premier, in response to a query regarding Labelle, "that the Liberal candidate will be elected by a large majority, larger than on the previous occasion, which was in the last general election in 1919, when M. Honore Achim, now a magistrate, was called to the lower house by 800 votes over his opponent."

DEBATE POLICY OF EXTENSION

U. F. O. May Admit Citizens Generally to Ranks of Party.

Drury and Morrison View Proposals From Opposite Angles.

Toronto, Aug. 16.—The Toronto Star today publishes the following: To broaden out or not to broaden out—that is the question which is being discussed in every harvest field from one end of the province to the other. Whether it is better for the U. F. O. party to pursue the even tenor of its way as a class organization or welcome to its fold urban citizens who favor its views, is the subject of debate that has been set in the letter of Premier Drury anent the suggestion that the broadening-out policy be put into effect. It is a question fraught with great importance to the farmers and citizens generally, and its final settlement will have a far-reaching effect on the destinies of the province.

Premier Drury, who has time and again enunciated his belief that the scope of the U. F. O. movement should be so widened as to include urban citizens who favor its platform under the broad banner of progressiveism, has a strong following. Indeed, it is not thought likely that the premier would have indited the letter which he wrote to his followers in order to give the movement an impetus had he not canvassed thoroughly the views of all his followers and their prominent supporters in the province. There are those, however, who believe with J. J. Morrison that such a step would mean the wrecking of the farmers' party, which, they say, in the first place, was opposed to alignments of any kind, and that carrying out the proposal would be a drastic departure from the principles on which the organization was founded.

BESIEGE MINE OFFICIALS AT NEW ABERDEEN WORKS

Strikers Prevent Workers Entering to Operate Pumping Machinery.

Sydney, N. S., Aug. 16.—(Canadian Press).—Officials of the Dominion Coal Company are practically besieged in number two power house at New Aberdeen and will probably not be able to obtain relief until the arrival of troops from Halifax some time this afternoon. United Mine Workers' pickets do not prevent the officials from leaving the building, but they do prevent fresh workers from getting inside.

The result is that after 24 hours continuous duty the officials and volunteer workers, unused to such hard labor, are unable to keep up the steam to pump the mines and the water is gradually goining in number two colliery.

This information was given out at noon by H. J. McCann, assistant general of the company. Mr. McCann further denied there was any trouble at number two last night.

PET BULLDOG BITES MISTRESS

Toronto, Aug. 16.—Affected by the hot weather, Jack, the pet bull terrier of Mrs. John Dunn, 1 Earl Grey Road, viciously attacked his mistress last evening in the back garden, biting her over forty times in the ankles. At the time Mrs. Dunn was carrying her 7-month-old baby in her arms, and her four small children were beside her. The timely arrival of Patrol Sergeant William Walsh, of Dundas street east police station, who choked the dog into submission, saved Mrs. Dunn, and protected the little ones from serious injuries.

Dublin Manufacturer Believes Erin Has Great Future

—ALFRED KAPP TOURS CANADA.—

OTTAWA, Aug. 16.—A splendid commercial future exists for Ireland and her merchants and manufacturers are already taking steps to improve their export trade, according to Alfred H. Kapp, Dublin manufacturer and special representative of the Irish Industrial Association, who was in Ottawa last night. Mr. Kapp prophesied a great future for Ireland, commercially, agriculturally and industrially.

He has been touring Canada and will now proceed to the United States with the object of obtaining information that would be valuable to the Irish exporters. The Irish Industrial Association was formed 16 years ago, but was never very active. Today it has a membership of 900 merchants, and is responsible for the placing of the Irish trade mark on all goods exported from the country.

Mr. Kapp stated that there was plenty of money in the country, but that the capitalist would not invest his money until all fighting and disorder ceased. From personal observance, he expressed the opinion that there would be some definite move before the end of the month to settle all differences in the country. The farmers were looking for such a break in hostilities soon in time to harvest their crops, as they were suffering from lack of help.

Mr. Kapp, who, besides being the representative of the Irish Industrial Association, is managing director of the firm of Kapp & Peterson, Limited, pipe manufacturers, Dublin, stated that the industrial man was remaining neutral during the present disturbances. His factories were burned out during the rebellion of 1916, at a cost of £500,000. It was rebuilt and during the present trouble had suffered only slight damage.

The new planet is five times as large as any other known body, according to the astronomer.

KELLEY RESIGNS AS G. T. R. HEAD

Major Graham Bell, C.M.G., to Fill Vacancy on Directors' Board.

Ottawa, Aug. 16.—Canadian Press.—Official announcement of the resignation of Howard G. Kelley from the board of directors of the Grand Trunk Railway was made this morning. Ceasing to be a director, Mr. Kelley automatically ceases to be president of the road.

Mr. Kelley's resignation, in common with those of other directors of the Grand Trunk and Canadian National boards, has been in the hands of the government for some time, in view of the impending reorganization. It is understood that the acceptance of Mr. Kelley's resignation at this time arises out of the fact that his contract with the Grand Trunk expires on the 31st instant. It is expected that he will leave shortly on a vacation, long-deferred by the difficulties attending Grand Trunk and Grand Trunk Pacific management in recent years.

Pending the reorganization of the Canadian National board, the government has appointed Major Graham Bell, C.M.G., deputy minister of railways, to fill the vacancy on the board created by Mr. Kelley's resignation. The question as to the selection of an executive head will be dealt with at a meeting of the board to be held tomorrow morning in Montreal.

BOMB NATIVES FOR ATTACK ON ARMY

Simla, British India, Aug. 16.—In retaliation for an attack on a member of the Royal Welsh Fusiliers near Ladha, three fighting planes flew over the village of the tribesmen and dropped heavy bombs. Three persons were killed and two were wounded, four houses were wrecked, a large area of crops was damaged, and a number of cattle were killed.

CANADA BAR ASSOCIATION IN SESSION AT VANCOUVER

Vancouver, B.C., Aug. 16.—Right Hon. Lord Shaw of Dunfermline, lord of appeals, and Hon. John W. Davis, president of the American Bar Association, were guests of honor at a dinner given last night by Sir James Aikins to the council of the Canadian Bar Association.

Legal men from every part of the Dominion except Prince Edward Island are gathered here to attend the annual conference of the Bar Association. Sir James Aikins, president, opened the proceedings of the conference in Vancouver this morning. One of the questions which will be introduced in the conference, it is said, is that of the relationship between the privy council and Canadian law, but it is not expected that any drastic change will be advocated in the present procedure of appeal.

HOLD UP PAY FOR LOCAL RAIL MEN

Officials Receives Notice Wages To Be as Effective Before July 16.

Local officials of the Grand Trunk Railway received word Wednesday morning from Montreal that the pay rolls of the shopmen employed in this district, which have been made out according to the new reduced wage schedule put into force by the Canadian Railways Association some weeks ago, will have to be revised immediately, and the men paid according to the schedule in effect before July 16.

This comes as a direct result of the Canadian National, the Grand Trunk and the Canadian Pacific railways heeding the plea of Premier Mackenzie King in a telegram to the heads of the roads two days ago, that in order to avert a nation-wide strike of more than 37,000 shopmen, and a general industrial tie-up in Canada, the railways would have to repeal, temporarily, the reduction in wages.

Considerable unrest was manifested at the London car shops Tuesday when it became known that the pay checks had not arrived, a fact which seemed to forebode that the cut was being enforced. Local employees prominent in Federated Shop Trades circles declared that if the reduction had gone through and had not been repealed within a reasonable length of time the thousands of men employed on the Canadian roads would have walked out.

However, this eleventh hour action on the part of D. B. Hanna, president of the Canadian National Railways; Howard G. Kelly, president of the Grand Trunk Railway, and E. W. Beatty, president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, has halted the strike at the last moment and the feeling of the men throughout the country

Newspapers Object to Premier Publishing His Memoirs.

PARIS, Aug. 16.—Canadian Press Cable. — Several prominent continental newspapers agree with certain British journals in objecting to Premier Lloyd George's proposed publication of his memoirs. Certain French journals never approved of the tendency among personages prominently identified with the prosecution of the war to rush into print, holding that this plethora of explanation, apologia, vindication and condemnation merely clouds popular judgment, which at the present period, it is claimed, cannot possibly gain a true perspective of the events of the last ten years.

FLAMES CUT OFF ESCAPE IN BOYS' HOME IN QUEBEC

Conflagration of Unknown Origin Threatens Shawbridge Town.

INMATES SHOW COURAGE

Lowered Companions to Safety as Fire Rages Around Them.

Montreal, Aug. 16.—Twelve persons perished in the fire which destroyed the Jewish Boys' Orphanage at Shawbridge last night. Eight of the victims were inmates, the others being the janitor and his wife and their two children.

The number of dead in the fire which destroyed the Jewish Boys' Orphanage at Shawbridge, Que., late last night was today placed at 10. The fire at one time threatened the whole village of Shawbridge, but the wind changed in time, and blew the flames in the opposite direction.

Stories of remarkable discipline and courage by the boys in the orphanage and by the lads in the boys' farm and training school nearby are told. When the fire was discovered the youngsters in the orphanage were marshaled in the upstairs rooms by the attendants, and in the face of the rapidly-spreading flames were taken to the windows and through them to a balcony.

Flames Cut Off Escape.

It was impossible to get the inmates down the stairs, because the flames soon cut off this section. The bigger boys made ladders of sheets and coolly lowered the younger ones to the ground with them.

Those who reported on the scenes at the fire stated that there were no fire escapes on the building.

Meantime the lads of the boys' farm brought to the scene their chemical fire apparatus and ran several lines of hose close up to the blazing pile. Their action prevented the fire spreading to the village, it is thought.

The work of ascertaining exactly how many victims were in the ruins was much hampered by the heat of the smoldering building. It was stated that six orphans were missing when the roll-call was made. The orphans were taken to the hospital of the boys' farm, where they were provided with cots. Thomas Legault, the caretaker, and his wife and two children were trapped in the lower rooms and burned to death. It was thought the fire originated in the basement. The Jewish boys' home was a summer annex of a Montreal institution. It accommodated 55 lads between the ages of 7 and 15.

Building of Brick.

The building was of brick construction, three stories high.

The boys' farm and training school at Shawbridge is an institution for juvenile delinquents.

According to an announcement of the orphanage authorities, the dead included three pairs of brothers, and were: Thomas Legault, 42, caretaker of the building; his wife, 41; his son, 12; and his daughter, 14; Isadore Whitet, 10; Sam White, 9; Lazarus Seitelach, 14; J. Fergetson, 7, P. Schlacter, 5; L. Schlacter, 6; I. Breitmann and M. Breitmann.

Investigation of the ruins this morning showed that all those who lost their lives were in the same part of the building, which was apparently cut off by the flames.

GRANTS LONDON REGISTRY SITE

Middlesex County Council Approves Transfer of Land For City Building.

Rural Legislators Also Favor Paving of Lambeth-Southwold Road.

Middlesex County Council, while in special session Tuesday afternoon, granted for the use of the city of London a parcel of land from the court-house property sufficiently large enough for the immediate erection of a municipal registry office, pending the actual transference of the property to the city through sale, lease or other means. This was the first important thing which the council did, the second and only other outstanding thing done being a move on the council's part to petition the provincial government to have the gap on the provincial highway between Lambeth and the Southwold townline paved.

Mayor Cameron Wilson and Alderman Childs of the city council waited on the county representatives in the early afternoon to present the case of the city for the land to be used as a registry office site.

Favors Giving Land.

John Couzens, warden of the county, in opening the matter, said he had been approached by the city council some time ago concerning the building of such an office on county ground. In his opinion it would be a first-rate thing to do, but the matter had to await the decision of the county council.

Mayor Wilson spoke to the council first. "The situation," he said, speaking of the present registry office, "has become so bad that some action must be taken immediately. Many valuable papers of the city and county are being spoilt by the insanitary condition of the present offices, and we believe that a site on the court-house property would be most satisfactory to all."

It might be necessary for special legislation to be passed by the provincial government to have the property transferred from the county to the city, because the court-house property was a grant of crown lands to the county years ago, said the mayor. What the city wanted at present was to have the county deed the land to the city for a nominal fee or rental, while the city and county worked in conjunction to have legislation passed to legalize the transferral.

Plans Combined Building.

"The ideal solution of the whole question would be a combined building for the city and the county," he declared. In ten years, he said, the county registry building would be obsolete, and it was the intention of the city to erect their new office building on such plans that the addition of a building for a county registry office could be made within a few years' time. The city proposed a handsome building, said the mayor.

Alderman Childs said that it had been suggested that some time in the future a combined building to house the offices of the city and county officials might be built, and that when it was proposed he believed the city would co-operate with the county.

After hearing the case the council, on a resolution moved by J. C. Harrison, Parkhill, and seconded by J. Morgan, Ailsa Craig, moved that "this council grant the City of London the amount of land necessary on which to build a city registry office, and that a committee be appointed with power to deal with the city council."

Appoints Committee.

A second resolution, moved by W. S. Laidlaw, Westminster, and seconded by William Boler, Westminster, appointed Warden John Couzens, County Clerk J. Stuart, Reeve E. Douglas, London, Reeve E. F. Reybraft, Mosa, and Reeve A. E. Rosser, McGillivray, as members of the committee to deal with the London municipal body.

It was proven by reference to a copy of the minutes of a meeting of the county council in 1868, that the county council had a right to grant the land to the city, after some of the councillors had questioned the council's prerogative in that matter. In 1868 the warden of the county was authorized to secure from the provincial government the patent to the land on the courthouse square.

A long-drawn-out discussion on the question of the paving of the provincial highway between Lambeth and Southwold followed the registry office question.

Talk revolved around a motion which the council passed at its June session calling upon the department of provincial highways to curtail expenditures. If the Provincial Legislature was to be asked to pave the four or five miles of road in question it was thought by some of the councillors that the motion on curtailment of expenditures should be rescinded.

The warden said he had been in touch with the Hon. F. C. Biggs, minister of public highways, and he had told him that he didn't like spending any more money on Middlesex, while that resolution was on the books of the council.

J. N. Sullivan, Adelaide, was opposed to the rescinding of the June motion. He said that if the present policy of the Ontario government kept on, in ten years the taxes on Middlesex land would be $2 an acre.

Urges Paving of Road.

The matter was discussed pro and con for some space, and then the council approved the recommendation of the council roads committee, which urged the road be paved, and appointed a committee to interview the Hon. Mr. Biggs.

The committee named was as follows: Warden John Couzens, and Reeves E. Douglas, London, J. P. Campbell, Lobo, A. E. Rosser, McGillivray, and C. Ryckman of Delaware.

The council also authorized that its representatives on the suburban area commission be paid amounts equal to those of members of standing committees, the payment to be made retroactive to June 1 of the present year.

ISSUES WARRANT FOR ARREST OF LONDONER

A. L. Cochrane Wanted at Sarnia to Answer Three Separate Charges.

Special to London Advertiser.

SARNIA, Aug. 15.—In the city police court today Magistrate Henry Gorman authorized the issuance of a warrant for the arrest of L. Cochrane of London, following his failure to appear to face three charges, namely, having or keeping liquor in a place other than a private dwelling house, and assault upon Robert Long.

The court also directed that the $500 bail posted be estreated unless the defendant puts in an appearance by Saturday next. The hearing in connection with the trio of charges has been twice postponed.

SECURE IRISH PIPERS FOR BIG OUTING THURSDAY

Members of Famous Toronto Battalion Will Assist in Entertainment at Port Stanley.

There are to be Irish pipes and Irish pipers at the Irish picnic at Port Stanley on Thursday. Acting on the suggestion from George Webb of Horton street, a prominent member of the society, President E. S. Little of the I. B. S., got in touch with George H. O'Neill of Toronto, and told him to get busy and dig up some Irish pipes and pipers for the picnic.

Mr. O'Neill saw Col. Lennox, who took the famous Irish Battalion from Toronto overseas in the great war, and the colonel at once volunteered to get what the Irishmen of London are looking for. The pipers will leave Toronto at 9 o'clock Thursday morning, and will reach Port Stanley by 1 o'clock.

All is now set for the big outing, and all that is required is good weather. It has been arranged that R. L. Brackin, K.C., of West Kent, will be the chief speaker at the banquet in the cafeteria at night, and there will also be others of note present. The invitations sent out include those to the mayors of London, St. Thomas and Port Stanley, the president of the English and Scotch societies, the members of the judiciary, members of Parliament, magistrates and prominent citizens of this and other places.

The Irish sing-song is sure to prove a tremendous hit, and all the old-time favorites will be sung at the free movies at night. The day is to be brought to a close with a dazzling display of fireworks.

William Lashbrook of the Belvedere Hotel has donated $10 for a special prize to be presented for the largest family on the grounds.

3 MINERS INJURED AS CAGE ASCENDS

GLACE BAY, N. S., Aug. 15.—William Cameron had a leg broken, Joseph McNeil received injuries to his head, and Daniel MacDonald was badly shaken when the cage in which they were about to descend into No. 2 mine went up instead of down and struck violently against the head of the cage shaft. Safety catches prevented it from plunging to the bottom of the 900-foot shaft. The men are "overmen" in the mines.

GERMANS NOTIFY ALLIES OF INABILITY TO PAY DEBT

BERLIN, Aug. 15.—The German government today addressed a note to the British, French, Italian and Belgian governments, declaring that in consequence for the demand of foreign currency to pay for urgently needed necessaries of life, and in consequence of the fall in value of the mark, it could not meet the clearing house allotment of £2,000,000 due today in payment of pre-war debts to allied nationals.

FINGAL THRESHER HIT BY SPEEDING MOTOR

FINGAL, Aug. 15.—John Rodgers, a thresher of Fingal, was hit and run over by a speeding automobile on Saturday evening.

The threshing outfit was turning out from a farmer's gate on east Talbot road when Mr. Rodgers stepped from the front of his engine into the path of the car. One of his shoes was completely torn off, and he was badly shaken up. The automobile was estimated to be running at 40 miles an hour.

WED AT STRATFORD.

STRATFORD, Aug. 15.—The marriage took place here this afternoon of Hilda Gibbons and Henry Smithers.

LEAD AMERICA AS SHEEPMEN

J. H. Patrick and Son of Ilderton Maintain International Laurels.

Supply Purebred Stock To Experimental Farms of Japan.

That within a few years Ontario will be recognized as one of the foremost sheep raising provinces in the world, is the prediction made by J. H. Patrick, senior member of the firm of J. H. Patrick & Son, Ilderton, the largest sheep importers and breeders on the American continent.

"At the present time," declared Mr. Patrick, "foreign countries, to a great extent, are depending on Ontario pure-bred ewes and rams for their experimental farms, and that they are satisfied with the Canadian product is proved by orders that are increasing every month."

T. L. Patrick, son of the veteran sheep breeder, left for Salt Lake, Utah, Monday, in charge of a consignment of 40 head for the largest sheep sale in America, held in that city every year.

From there Mr. Patrick will journey to Tacoma, Washington, and to

T. L. PATRICK.

Japan for a four months' tour of the country in the interests of the Ontario sheep business.

Secures Japanese Trade.

Although it is not generally known, it was the junior member of the firm who induced the Japanese government to give Ontario a trial when importing pure-bred sheep for their experimental farms. Up to a few years ago the Japanese trade commissioners, who tour the world endeavoring to improve livestock raising in the eastern country, had imported the majority of their sheep from the United States.

Meeting the commissioners at Salt Lake show in 1920, T. L. Patrick pointed out the advisability of giving the purebred Lincolns, Shropshires and Romneys that are raised in Ontario a trial. The Japanese government was so pleased with the experiment that now practically all the animals shipped to their farms come from this province.

A sired ram, the property of J. H. Patrick & Son, for the past three years carried off the American Sheep Herders' Prize for the best stud ram at the International Sheep Show in Chicago. This show is the biggest one of its kind in America, and besides the thousands that attend yearly from every part of the country, representatives are present from many foreign governments.

The sheep from "Fairfield," as the stock farm at Ilderton is called, have won a good portion of the prizes offered in both the United States and Canada. Mr. Patrick, Sr., announced Monday that he will not show any of his ewes or rams this fall as practically all the sheep he has been raising for show purposes, have either been exported to the United States or some other country.

Was Never Brighter.

"The sheep business has never looked brighter than at the present time," he declared, "and during the next two years I believe that sheep bred in this province will command a higher price than before the war. Business has picked up wonderfully during the last six months, and the growing demand for Canadian-bred animals on foreign markets, shows conclusively that the efforts of the Ontario breeders during the past 25 years has not been in vain.

The average strength of the farm is from 350 to 400 head, and if winter accommodation large enough could be secured Mr. Patrick declared emphatically that he would maintain a flock of 1,000 head.

The last shipment of sheep for the Japanese government was sent from the farm two weeks ago, and consisted entirely of Shropshires. Monday, August 22, a consignment of Holstein cows that Mr. Patrick has been raising specially for the experimental farms in Japan will be shipped to Tokio.

Exports to Mexico.

Mr. Patrick has also sent animals to different breeders in Mexico, but conditions in that country at the present time prohibit much exploitation from foreign countries.

The famous breeder lamented the fact that the Canadian government had not up to a few months ago foreseen the rich fields that await the Canadian stockman in South America.

"The opportunities for marketing Canadian stock, especially in Brazil, are wonderful, and the breeders in Ontario, which is the largest sheep-breeding province in Canada, should take advantage of the excellent opportunities awaiting them there."

Sweet clover will revolutionize the sheep and livestock industry in Canada, was Mr. Patrick's opinion, and he attributes the wonderful growth of this clover in Ontario as being largely responsible for the quality of purebred sheep raised here.

Lincoins, Shropshires and Romneys are the three breeds raised on the "Fairfield" farm.

INWOOD WOMAN DIES AFTER BRIEF ILLNESS

Mrs. Rolland Taken Sick Suddenly While Attending Shetland Picnic.

Special to London Advertiser.

FLORENCE, Aug. 15.—The funeral of Mrs. Rolland of Inwood was held this afternoon to Alvinston Cemetery.

Mrs. Rolland left her home on Wednesday morning to attend the Shetland picnic, and on arrival became suddenly ill, and went to the home of her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. H. Johnston, where she passed away on Friday night.

Besides her husband, four children survive her. She was 37 years old.

CATCHY WEATHER DELAYS HARVEST

Middlesex Representative States Few Carloads of Steers Shipped To England.

Following is a summary of reports made by the agricultural representatives to the Ontario Department of Agriculture:

Harvesting has been delayed by catchy weather. Welland says that while some are drawing in their oats others are only getting in their hay and wheat.

Essex estimates the average yields of wheat, barley and oats in that county to be well over the average. Oats generally will be a heavy crop, although Haldimand says that the yield will not be as much as was expected earlier. In Lanark some fields had to be cut before heading out on account of rust.

Merchants in Halidmand are offering from $7 to $8 a bushel for alsike seed.

Essex states that sweet clover is proving an excellent pasture and soiling crop, but is very uncertain for hay, and that many acres cut for hay have not been brought in.

Most of the wheat marketed during the week sold at about 90 cents a bushel.

Lambton growers of early peaches are complaining of the price, 45 cents per eleven-quart basket.

The price quoted for honey in Oxford is 17 cents a pound. In Lennox and Addington the 5-pound pail is bringing 65 cents.

Lambton reports steers doing well on grass. Buyers are offering 6 cents a pound for cattle on pasture. One buyer is looking for 700 steers from the county.

Ship To England.

Middlesex says that a few carloads of steers were shipped to England during the week.

Dufferin complains that too many of the cattle now being sold are in an unfinished condition.

Ontario says: "Livestock continue to make satisfactory gains, as pastures have not suffered from dry weather. Cattle, however, are somewhat easier, being quoted on the local market from $4 to $7 per cwt."

Poor grade cows are selling at from 2½ to 3 cents a pound in Leeds.

Welland states that the demand is strong for churning cream, factorymen claiming that they can handle three times the quantity now coming in. Other representatives report the supply as fairly steady.

Ontario reports that hogs are plentiful, and are bringing $14 per cwt. Other representatives report prices ranging from $12 to $13.75, and say that there is rather a scarcity of animals. Little pigs are selling at from $12 to $16 per pair in Middlesex.

Eleven dollars is being paid in Dufferin for lambs of the best quality, but too many undocked and otherwise neglected lambs are being offered on the market.

Egg Prices Vary.

Perth reports a wide range in the prices paid for eggs in that county, running all the way from 18 cents to 30 cents a dozen.

Oxford states that considerable progress is being made in fall plowing by tractors, but that very little horse plowing has been done so far.

Essex says that many farmers in that county are practising after-harvest cultivation.

Welland remarks: "Summer-fallows this year are not as free from weeds as most farmers would like. This has been due to the extreme weather conditions retarding cultivation."

Grey says: "The sow thistle is extremely bad in some sections of the county. The damp year has been favorable for its development, and field after field is simply yellow with the weed. Some crops are badly choked with it. There is very little after-harvest cultivation in Grey County. Wild oats are also very evident generally."

SWORDFISH TOWING BOAT TELLS NO TALE OF DEATH

HALIFAX, N. S., Aug. 15.—No fatality was told by the discovery off Prospect, Halifax County, on Sunday, of a swordfish towing a 20-foot empty boat, it has been learned.

A Lunenberg County fisherman had harpooned two of the fish, and while getting one ashore the other went away with his boat and had made more than twenty miles when sighted.

COMBINE NOVA SCOTIAN DIOCESE WITH BERMUDA

HALIFAX, N. S., Aug. 15.—Archbishop Clarendon L. Worrell of Nova Scotia has accepted the Bishopric of Bermuda, it has been learned. He remains Bishop of Nova Scotia, and the Nova Scotia Synod have made provision for the appointment of a coadjutor bishop.

Archbishop Worrell will be in residence in Bermuda from January to April of each year.

TRANSFER STATION AGENT.

Special to London Advertiser.

TARA, Aug. 15.—Hugh Angus, G.T.R. station agent at Tara, has been transferred to Lucknow. Mr. Montgomery of Seaforth, has been placed in charge here.

KIRKTON CLUB IS ALSO SUSPENDED

Played Two Players Suspended by Brantford Federation.

PALMERSTON, Aug. 15.—The N. W. B. A. executive meeting did not close until 4 o'clock this morning, and Kirkton was added to the list of suspended clubs.

Players Taylor and Hayes of the Kirkton club prove to be Brantford men under suspension. Every attention was given this case, and the decision was unanimous when given. The hardship on the other players was admitted great, but the constitution did not provide for ignorance.

Secretary T. A. Wiseman of the Kirkton club was complimented on his straightforward and businesslike manner of handling business.

Reinstated.

Pitcher Young of the Goderich club, suspended through information given through the O. B. A. A. for alleged Sunday ball playing, had his suspension raised, as he and the Goderich club produced evidence satisfactory to both the N. W. B. A. and the O. B. A. A.

Lucan and Exeter juniors will meet to decide the junior group honors, as they are now tie owing to Kirkton's suspension. Stratford's claim for $50 expenses on the Clinton junior club was left in the hands of Secretary Horning for investigation and report. Durham junior club's officers and players were suspended for failing two years in succession in supplying birth certificates and for using players who had already played in the Center Bruce League.

Owen Sound was declared group winners, and will meet the winners of the Wingham vs. Palmerston play-off, which is a sudden-death fixture here today.

Protest Thrown Out.

The Chesley protest against decisions of the umpires handling the sudden-death play-off at Owen Sound between Chesley and Owen Sound clubs was not upheld.

The umpires were at the meeting and explained their decisions, which appeared to be in order and as per rules. The N. W. B. A. back their official umpires where no rule is proven fractured. Umpire Gilmarty explained clearly his decisions as given, which were not at all in keeping with the Chesley claim under oath. The game stands as played, and Owen Sound meets Palmerston in the first game of the second semi-finals tomorrow. Umpire Art Wilson was granted $17 expense money for attending a date of game at Kitchener, the game having been called off and the N. W. B. A. secretary having failed to notify him before getting away on the trip. A bill of $24 owing Umpires Rocker and Savage of Listowel by Kincardine and Lucknow for a game played at Lucknow was found in order, and the clubs will have to make settlement at once.

The question of play-offs was finally put to an executive vote as a test case, with the result that the secretary was upheld, and Wingham and Goderich will be matched in the next round, as Lucan is not ready and Group No. 5 has not yet declared a winners. During the early part of the meeting President MacFarlane took exception to some of the remarks made by Treasurer Gray in connection with protests thrown out.

WEST RESENTS COMMENT ON COAFFEE'S SPRINT

CALGARY, Aug. 15.—Strong exception is taken here to the sport comment of a Toronto afternoon paper yesterday, which questioned the tying by Cyril Coaffee of Winnipeg of the world's 100 yards dash record of 9 3-5 seconds in the national track and field championships Saturday. Coaffee created a new Canadian record, too. Six expert timers, five of them officially appointed, and the other Fred Johnston, a horseman who has timed official records on the race track for many years, clocked the sensational 9 3-5 seconds record of Coaffee.

Four of the five officials timed 9 3-5, while the fifth punched the watch just between the 3-5 and 4-5 of a second. Johnston's watch, making the sixth, registered 9 3-5. It was not a slow track by any means, a breeze was blowing in the runners' backs and the track was in excellent shape for the 100 yards and the 220 yards.

JUNIOR LACROSSE GROUP.

HANOVER, Aug. 14.—Hanover and Shelburne have drawn up the junior schedule for this group of the O. A. L. A., as follows:

Hanover at Shelburne, Aug. 16.
Shelburne at Hanover, Aug. 23.

Goals will count on the round. Shelburne is a strong lacrosse town, and the above league games promise to be keenly contested for the group title.

City Playgrounds

There were several upsets in the Playgrounds League last night, the greatest being the defeat of Birketts' boys by the Lord Roberts outfit. It was a cracking good ball game, and the score, 10—4, gives a fair estimate of the play. The Queen's Park girls battled in enough runs in the first two innings to stop the fast-going Thames Park outfit by the score of 10—6. Queen's Park boys went down to an 8—5 defeat at the hands of Thames Park, while Simcoe made a light lunch of the Riverview team by the score of 14—5. Following are the scores:

Boys.

Lord Roberts 10, Birketts 4.
Simcoe 14, Riverview 5.
Thames 8, Queen's Park 5.
Bottrills 18, Tecumseh 5.

Girls.

Bottrills 11, Tecumseh 7.
Queen's Park 10, Thames 6.
Birketts 6, Lord Roberts 0.
Riverview 13, Simcoe 7.

The standing of the teams is as follows:

Boys.

	Won.	Lost.	Tie.
Birketts	9	1	1
Simcoe	7	4	0
Bottrills	7	4	0
Queens	5	5	1
Riverview	4	7	0
Thames	4	7	0
Lord Roberts	3	7	1
Tecumseh	3	7	1

Girls.

	Won.	Lost.	Tie.
Thames	8	3	0
Bottrills	8	3	0
Queens	8	3	0
Riverview	7	3	1
Birketts	5	3	3
Tecumseh	3	5	3
Simcoe	2	9	0
Lord Roberts	2	9	0

The junior league play yesterday afternoon resulted as follows:

Boys (East).

Simcoe 10, Lord Roberts 7.
Birketts 21, Queens 11.

Girls (East).

Simcoe 21, Lord Roberts 14.
Birketts 16, Queens 10.

Boys (West).

Bottrills 18, Tecumseh 12.
Thames 13, Riverview 1.

Girls (West).

Tecumseh 21, Bottrills 5.
Thames 39, Riverview 19.

MAN AT HANOVER LOSES 2 FINGERS

HANOVER, Aug. 15. — Julius Heincke sustained the loss of the thumb and first two fingers of his right hand in an accident at a local furniture factory Friday.

The injured man moved here with his family from the West a short time ago.

DISCUSS CANADIAN COAL SITUATION

Members of Federal Fuel Committee Meet Transportation Officials.

OTTAWA, Aug. 15.—The coal situation as affecting the Canadian railways was thoroughly canvassed at a conference between members of the federal advisory fuel committee and representatives of the transportation companies today.

Plans for distributing the necessary supplies of coal for use in the Dominion were discussed and arranged. The railway companies, being interprovincial in their scope, it was pointed out, are dealing directly with the federal body, while the provinces are expected to look after their own wants through the appointment of fuel administrators where necessary and draw upon the federal committee as an advisory body which will assist them in securing fuel wherever possible.

So far as could be learned, none of the Canadian railways are facing actual fuel shortages.

J. A. Ellis, fuel controller for Ontario, was also in conference with the federal committee while in Ottawa, and has returned to Toronto to get in touch with the situation throughout the province and also, it is understood, to make an attempt to have the people of the province realize what they are likely to face in the matter of fuel emergency during ths coming cold weather.

LINEMAN KILLED AS POLE BREAKS

Scott Cowan, 62 Years Old, of Palmerston, Dies From Fall.

Special to London Advertiser.

GUELPH, Aug. 15. — When the upper part of a telephone pole on which he was working broke off and fell to the ground, near Palmerston this morning, Scott Cowan, 62 years old, a well-known resident of that town, was instantly killed.

Cowan was a lineman for the Hawthorne Hill Telephone Company and also conducted a pork business at Palmerston.

The pole on which the lineman was working at the time of the accident was 40 feet in length, and when a piece broke off it near the top the workman who was holding to the broken section fell with it.

Cowan was one of the leading members of the Guelph branch of the Salvation Army. He is survived by his widow and one son.

PREPARE PLANS FOR NEW CROSSING AT STRATFORD

Work Will Be Commenced As Soon As Approval Is Received.

Special to London Advertiser.

STRATFORD, Aug. 15.—The plans of the new level crossing over the Grand Trunk-Owen Sound tracks at the foot of Delamere avenue, in the vicinity of the Country Club, have been prepared by the city engineering department and forwarded to the railway board for their approval.

Work will be commenced as soon as plans are approved.

The crossing is to form a connecting link between the new park drive and Romeo street, and is a continuation of William street to a point half a block east of Queen street, where it makes a turn and joins Delamere avenue and thence over the tracks.

SASKATCHEWAN WOMAN RECOVERS

Found Health by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Melaval, Saskatchewan.—"I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised for women's troubles and when a friend recommended it to me I tried it and it has done me so much good in the two years in which I have been taking it that I find I am a different woman since then. I recommend your Vegetable Compound as much as I can and you may use my letter as a testimonial."—Mrs. Wm. J. Thomas, Melaval, Saskatchewan.

These letters recommending Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound ought to convince women of the great worth of this medicine in the treatment of ailments to which they are often subject.

Mrs. Thomas writes that she is a different woman now. If you are suffering from troubles women often have, or feel all run down, without any ambition or energy for your regular work, take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It is a natural restorative and should help you as it has Mrs. Thomas and many, many other women.

This medicine has been helping sick women nearly fifty years—surely a long record of service.

Also makers of Toilet Paper, Indurated Fibreware, etc.

County Constables Relax Vigilance When Motorists Complain

MOVES TO STOP LEFT HAND TURN

Alderman Points Out Danger to Pedestrians at Main Corner.

Award Heating Contract for Fire Hall to Helena Company.

Provided that the motion introduced by Ald. Gordon Drake at the regular meeting of No. 2 committee, held on Tuesday night, passes the city council, a bylaw will be enforced prohibiting vehicular traffic from turning to the left at Dundas and Richmond streets. This means that a motorist coming west on Dundas street and wishing to turn south on Richmond street, must proceed farther west to the Market Lane or turn south on Clarence street.

Ald. Drake pointed out the menace to pedestrians by autos taking the left hand turn, and urged that no turning at all be allowed vehicles at this main intersection. However, he modified his motion to include left hand turning only, and the committee sent it on to the city council, with the recommendation that it be adopted.

Opposed Motion.

City Engineer Brazier opposed the motion, on the ground that it would be unfair to motorists, and would inconvenience them. Ald. J. T. May warned Ald. Drake that businessmen of the down town section would likely protest the passage of such a bylaw on the ground that it would interfere with their trade by the inconvenience caused to shoppers who might drive down town. "Accepting the recommendation of Building Inspector A. M. Piper, the committee recommended that the contract for heating the central fire station be awarded to the Helena Lighting Company at a cost of $953 per year. While the price quoted is regarded as high, and an advance over last year, the building inspector explained that a boiler and coal would cost the city as much, and that the service includes hot water facilities to the firemen.

It was also recommended that repairs to steam pipes in the central fire hall be made at a cost of $750, which is included in the estimates. This work will be done by the Helena Lighting Company on a time and material basis.

Need New Hall.

"What we want is a new fire hall," declared Ald. Drake. "Fire Chief Aitken told me that Tommy Fox wouldn't give him one dollar on the present building."

Following information received from Miss Mary Grant, clerk of the Township of London, to the effect that township residents of Huron street are willing to bear their share of the cost of a sanitary sewer on this thoroughfare, the committee recommended that such a local improvement be constructed. A cement curb and gutter will be constructed by the city engineer on the township side of the same street from Waterloo to Colborne streets, on the township's guarantee that the cost will be paid.

The committee meeting was a short one, all items on the agenda being disposed of before 9 p.m.

DRIVER OF TRUCK FINED FOR SPEEDING

Magistrate Graydon Begins Campaign to Reduce Reckless Driving.

As a direct result of the firm determination expressed by city police officials not long since, that reckless-ness and fast driving through city streets must cease, Frank Dixon appeared before Police Magistrate A. M. Graydon Wednesday morning and was assessed $10 and costs for operating a truck recklessly and in a dangerous manner on Dundas street east.

Preferring the charge, P. C. George Hamlin testified that in his opinion the car was traveling about 25 miles per hour and just missed a collision with another vehicle at the corner of Victory and Dundas streets.

In defense, Dixon asserted that his truck could not attain a speed as described by the officer, and explained further that he had been driving a machine for nearly six years.

"Then you should know better," advised Magistrate Graydon. "You have been pretty fortunate these past years if you were driving as fast as the constable says you were yesterday. This kind of thing has to stop. Only last night there was an accident, and one car struck another and then crashed into a fence."

Weeps Because She Had Her Hair Bobbed.

DETAILS of one of those little tragedies which go to make up human nature were revealed in a back-fence conversation between two not overly sympathetic mothers Wednesday morning. The hour being early, and the streets more or less quiet, the sound of voices carried quite distinctly as one mother said to her neighbor.

"Well, I told her not to have it cut, but she persisted, and now she has been awake all night, crying because it doesn't look nice."

"Well, there's been nothing but trouble since this craze for bobbed hair came in amongst the girls," commented mother two, in a severe tone.

DOMESTIC PLEADS GUILTY OF THEFT

Magistrate Remands Case While Parents of Girl Are Consulted.

Pleading guilty in police court Wednesday morning to the theft of clothes and diamond stick pins, all to the value of $200, a young woman, a waitress and domestic servant by occupation, was remanded for a week for sentence.

In the meanwhile her parents, who reside in this city, will be consulted by the crown in an effort to see what may be done about the case.

The girl, the police explained, purloined certain articles from the residence at which she had been employed, disposing of the same at local pawn shops. She was apprehended Tuesday night in St. Thomas by Detective Bolton of the local police department.

"I don't know what I can do with you," Magistrate Graydon declared, "you were convicted of theft in 1920 and sent to the Alexandra Home. I'll have to send you somewhere else, as you are now too old to go there."

The prisoner has now attained the age of 17 years. Neatly dressed in what was evidently brand new clothes, she looked decidedly out of place beside the prisoners' dock in a dingy courtroom.

A THOUGHT FOR TODAY

He stayeth his rough wind in the day of the east wind.—Isaiah xxvii:8.

We never have more than we can bear. The present hour we are always able to endure.—H. E. Manning.

DR. GEORGE RAMSAY, Park avenue, has returned from two weeks spent in Chicago clinics, and at the Mayo brothers' clinic in Rochester, Minn.

LANDFORD, EDWARDS COMPANY, of St. Thomas, has issued a writ in the county court against Paddon Bros.' Company, also of St. Thomas, for the sum of $682.95.

MEMBERS OF THE JAIL committee of the county council Tuesday afternoon inspected the jail building, and found everything in order. Sanitary conditions and the general aspect of the whole place was good, they report.

WHOOPING COUGH still continues to claim its usual quota of youthful victims in the city, the record for the past week, as reported by Dr. W. S. Downham, medical officer of health, showing another four cases. This brings the total reported cases now isolated at home to 57. Two cases of diphtheria were noted during the week.

THE INTERNATIONAL HARVESTER Company of Canada, Limited, has issued a writ in the Middlesex County court against John Barger and Mrs. John Barger of Ashfield Township, Huron County, for the sum of $279. The claim of the plaintiffs is based on alleged breach of contract by the defendants.

WORD HAS RECENTLY been received from Redlands, California, of the death of William Filmar of Loma Linda. Many Londoners will remember Mr. Filmar, as at one time he was engaged in the retail hardware business in the city, coming here from Hagersville. Mr. Filmar had been living in Redlands for the past sixteen years, and at the time of his death was the owner of the Sunnyside ranch.

WORK ON THE NEW monastery which will be used by the Sisters of the Precious Blood and which will be constructed on the site of the old Carling home on Talbot street, near Hill street, was commenced this week by Hyatt Brothers, who have been awarded the contract. Excavation work for the new building is already under way, and the Carling home has been dismantled. The new monastery will be four stories in height when completed.

DURING THE MEETING of No. 2 committee of the city council Tuesday night, Miss Toll, acting city clerk, read out a recommendation of the city engineer that a cement sidewalk be constructed in Adelaide street "between Maud and Thompson." "Whose Maud Thompson?" asked Alderman John Ashton, chairman of No. 2 committee. Explanations were in order, although Alderman Drake, who was present, declares that Alderman Ashton "knew all the time."

THE FOOTBALL teams of the Grand Trunk Amateur Athletic Association and the Royal Canadian Regiment will clash at the former's athletic field at 6:15 Wednesday night. Referee Wigsworth will handle the game. The G. T. R. line-up will be: Knowles, Green, Crinon, McClannigan, Askew, Astles, Brewer, Evans, Hazelwood, Angus and Beartrill.

THE CORNER OF THE WHARNCLIFFE and Pipe Line roads Wednesday morning was the scene of an accident, when an automobile driven by Percy Foster, of Komoka, collided with a street car. Foster's car, in which his mother was a passenger, was badly smashed, but no one sustained any injuries. Holes were smashed in the side of the street car, but it was not so badly broken up as to make repairing impossible. F. Down was the motorman and James Fleming the conductor.

GEORGE A. WENIGE HAS TAKEN out a building permit to erect a two story brick veneer dwelling at 29 Erie avenue, costing $6,000. Other building permits issued by Inspector A. M. Piper, Tuesday, include one to W. R. Cushing to construct a 1½-story stucco residence on George street to cost $2,500 and A. J. Kernohan for a one-story brick veneer house on Oakland avenue to cost $2,600. Building permits issued here this month now number 53, and the total estimated cost of the work involved is $71,315.

SEIZURE OF ELEVEN LOAVES of bread manufactured by a West London baker was made in a store on the market by Inspector J. W. McCallum, this week, and as a result, the baker will appear in police court Friday morning to answer a charge of selling underweight bread. A shortage of seventeen ounces on the eleven loaves is reported by Inspector McCallum, who states that the bread was not up to the required 24 ounces per loaf. The greatest discrepancy on any one loaf according to the official government weighing conducted after the seizure was about two ounces.

BASE OPTIMISTIC SPIRIT ON HARVEST

Retail Merchants Feel Western Crops Will Help Business.

Based largely on the prospects of a splendid harvest in the west, was the optimistic viewpoint adopted at the seventeenth annual convention of the Retail Merchants' Association, held in Halifax August 7 to 11, according to reports brought back by the Londoner in attendance, Wilfrid Hodgins, of the firm of Hodgins & Fergusson.

"As soon as the wheat in the west is harvested and in the elevators, the country will feel the effect to advantage," Mr. Hodgins said. "The crop outlook was one of the fundamentals in considering business prospects for the coming winter, but without an exception western delegates were of the opinion that the prairie provinces would experience one of the most successful harvests in their history.

Business Picking Up.

"Of a necessity, strikes and the general unsettled condition in Europe came in for weighty consideration, but merchants present seemed unanimously to consider their gloomy aspect outweighed by the favorable forecasts concerning the harvests. Men from the west reported that already business was picking up, and that heavy buying was commencing, and in the province of Ontario symptoms are already forthcoming that business will be greater throughout the coming winter."

The training of salesmen and salesladies as a step toward the betterment of business conditions was a matter brought before the consideration of the delegates. The feeling was evinced that if government training were available in the different lines of salesmanship, the result would be a decided increase in business.

Produced by the feeling that Canadian manufacturing was not developed to its utmost, was a resolution prepared for submission to the Dominion government, providing for the institution of a department of trade and commerce, with the object of seeking out and developing natural resources.

Would Develop Resources.

"There was a decided feeling shown by the delegates," Mr. Hodgins explained, "that were natural resources developed to the fullest, the annual importation of manufactured articles into the province would show a definite decrease. Thousands of articles, an every-day necessity to the Canadian public, are imported, when if our own resources were fully developed their manufacture might be a valuable asset to the situation of employment and industry."

The influx of American tourists was another fact to which the delegates paid particular attention.

"The other provinces will not be content to allow Quebec to claim the larger part of the patronage of these tourists," Mr. Hodgins said. "There will be a Dominion-wide effort to exploit the natural beauty and vacation possibilities of Canada."

Mr. Hodgins is first vice-president of the Ontario Board of the Retail Merchants' Association.

REDECORATE CLASSROOMS DURING VACATION PERIOD

When pupils of certain public schools of London return to their respective classrooms after summer holidays they "won't know them," according to Captain Robinson, superintendent of works, who declares that the rooms in three public schools have been redecorated and another public school has been wired throughout for hydro.

The schools in which the classrooms have been redecorated during vacation period are Rectory street, Simcoe street and Colborne street south. Pottersburg public school has been wired and electrical fixtures installed in every room.

"These schools, prior to being fixed up, were most unclean looking, to say the least," declared Captain Robinson. "Now that they are fixed up, I expect that they will not require any further repairs of any kind for five or six years."

Chickens Await Claimants As Suspects Languish in Cells

There is a real live poultry exhibition in progress at the Carling street station to which are invited all residents of London and Middlesex County who have missed any of their chickens within the past few days.

Viewing the situation on the market square somewhat closely of late, Detective Harry Down looked askance at William and Frank Robinson, brothers and non-residents of this community, who have been offering for sale, it is reported, with remarkable regularity, some very fine birds at a reasonable figure.

Accosted by the detective the Robinsons stated that they procured their chickens "from a guy." Just a trifle skeptical as to the authenticity of this explanation, Detective Down escorted both men and their fowl to police headquarters.

The chickens, 30 in number, all alive and clucking with great enthusiasm are awaiting identification, while the two suspects are also awaiting developments in nearby cells.

ACQUITS ABEL ON BREWING CHARGE

Magistrate Fails to See Argument of Inland Revenue Officers.

"Well, if that argument were to hold good, a person who made dandelion wine could be convicted,' declared Police Magistrate A. H. M. Graydon in police court Wednesday morning, as he discharged Mr. and Mrs. George Abel, 350 Thames street, charged with "brewing fermented liquor without having a permit."

"Yes, the whole system

"Yes, the whole town would be up," concurred William Henderson, attorney for the defendants, who claimed that no evidence had been advanced to prove that any brewing had been in progress within the meaning of the act.

J. G. Gillanders, of the firm of Ivey, Elliott & Ivey, was equally emphatic in his reasoning that Mr. and Mrs. Abel had been brewing wine, for which they should have first obtained a permit from the department of inland revenue.

No evidence was submitted to prove that there had been a sale or attempt to sell. Police Inspector Lucas, Sergeant William Middaugh and P. C. Gavin Monahan testified that they had raided the defendant's residence Sunday, July 23, at 2 a.m., and found, they stated, many bottles, jars, jugs, and what not, containing what they believed to be spirituous liquor of some nature.

Relating that he was roused from bed about 1:30 Sunday morning, Cecil Webbe, inspector for the local revenue department, declared that he took three samples away with him, which, following analysis, proved to be as suspected.

Abel, on the witness stand, explained the liquid as follows: Exhibit 1, medicine; exhibit 2, a beverage containing cherries and red currants and a handful of raisins, and exhibit 3, a bottle of blackberry wine that was made a year previous, and had since turned sour.

In his explanation as to how the various preparations had been concocted, he stated decisively that no brewing had been necessary, and that none had been sold.

Questioned by the defense, Cecil Webbe admitted that a statement had been issued by the Ottawa authorities that persons could make home-made wines without a permit if domestic fruits were employed only. He emphasized that "domestic" fruits only must be used.

Magistrate Graydon concurred the line of reasoning as submitted by Attorney Henderson, that milk bottles and the like, in which it was claimed the liquid had been prepared, were not paraphernalia specially designed for the brewing of liquors.

"I fail to see where this section applies here," said the magistrate. "These are ordinary utensils that are to be found in any dwelling. Because there are 20 or 30 of them as the case may be bears no special significance."

URGES REMOVAL OF RESTRICTIONS

Town Planning Commission Would Allow Erection of Stores in Banned Area.

At a meeting of the town planning commission Tuesday afternoon an amendment in the restricted area bylaw was recommended to permit the erection of a butcher store by S. Kaiser at the southeast corner of Cheapside and Waterloo streets facing Cheapside. Though a quorum not being present no definite action could be taken in the matter.

W. G. R. Bartram who appeared on behalf of Mr. Kaiser pointed out that the new building when completed could be a credit to the community and would be built on the spot where a ramshackle cottage now stands. For this reason, he said the commission ought to grant the permit to build there.

At the next meeting of the commission in September the question of the advisability of making Cheapside street from Renwick avenue to Adelaide street a business area will be discussed. Whether or not Wharncliffe Road south from Elmwood Avenue will also be made a business area will be decided.

The commission refused the request of H. Siemon for the erection of a grocery store at the corner of Emery and Southgate streets as this is a restricted area.

RAPS LIGHTING OF LONDON STREETS

Alderman Drake Urges Span Lights for All Intersections.

That the street lighting system of London is the worst in Canada, was the declaration of Ald. Gordon Drake to the members of No. 2 committee of the city council Tuesday night, when he urged that span lights be placed at all intersections and midway between them.

Ald. J. T. May opined that such a procedure would deprive the sidewalks of sufficient lighting for pedestrian traffic.

"The old arc lights at the corners were the best," declared Mayor Wilson.

Ald. Drake then suggested that three span lights be placed in each block, with more assigned to lengthy ones. However, aside from condemning the present lighting system the committee took no action.

The committee advised City Engineer H. A. Brazier to get busy on cutting noxious weeds which encumber vacant property in the city, particularly in Chelsea Green district. According to law the engineer is empowered to cut these weeds and charge the work up to the owners of the property involved.

H. Simpson, who purchased a home on Beatrice street from the London Housing Commission, and who desires to erect a private garage and workshop on his property, appeared before the committee and requested permission to make this improvement. Building Inspector A. M. Piper pointed out that Simpson had been refused such permission by the housing commission, but the committee asserted that in their opinion this body has no right to prohibit a private garage.

Mr. Simpson attributed the refusal of permission to "nastiness" on the part of the building inspector, and this remark was followed by hot words between Simpson and the inspector. However, Chairman John Ashton poured oil on the troubled waters, and offered to accompany the complainant to the next meeting of the housing commission to assist him in gaining a fair hearing. The offer was accepted, and a temporary settlement of differences reached.

Father Has to Pay $10 Fine for Son Toting Six-Shooter Without Permit

"Toting" a six-gun without a permit cost Leslie Highway's father $10 and costs in the city police court Wednesday morning.

It was Leslie, aged 17 years, who had been carrying the weapon, and when it was accidentally discharged last week-end the bullet struck one of his youthful companions, inflicting a minor wound about the face.

"I have absolutely no sympathy to extend to persons who desire to carry guns," declared Magistrate Graydon. "It is a foolish, silly thing. I receive many applications for permits, but I am continually refusing them."

The defendant's father explained that the weapon had been his for 35 years, but had not been loaded for many years.

Leslie informed the magistrate that he had only taken it out to show the other youth, who had evinced a desire to see it.

"That is no excuse," asserted the magistrate, "are you going to do everything that another boy asks you. Would you break into a bank if someone else suggested it?"

FRIENDS APPEAL IN COLLAR'S FAVOR

Court Remands Taxi Driver on Promise to Make Restitution.

From present indications, John Collar, local taxi driver, who pleaded guilty in police court a week ago to the theft of jewelry to the value of several hundred dollars will be dealt with more leniently than is customary in cases of this nature.

Appearing before Police Magistrate A. H. M. Graydon Wednesday morning, the self-confessed prisoner was remanded for sentence for another week at the suggestion of Acting Crown Attorney A. R. Douglas, in order that complete restitution, as promised, can be made.

On behalf of the defendant, J. P. Moore, delivered a fervent appeal for clemency, explaining that he had been requested to appear by numerous friends of Collar. He pointed out that this was the first occasion upon which the latter had strayed from the straight and narrow path, and expressed the earnest belief that he had suffered sufficient punishment by his arrest and subsequent humiliation.

Explaining that he was not opposed to the plea for leniency, Attorney Douglas reported that nearly all the property had been returned, but expressed himself as unfavorable, however, to a suspended sentence.

In directing a further remand, Magistrate Graydon intimated clearly that he was inclined to view the case with a certain compassion. "It struck me at the trial," he stated, "that this was not the act arising from a criminal mind, but rather from a mind that was not normal at the time by reason of an over-indulgence of liquor."

IRISH ARRANGE BIG TIME FOR OUTING

Executive Plans to Have Thursday's Picnic at Port Best Yet.

Annually the Irish Benevolent Society picnic at Port Stanley gathers speed and momentum on its way to success, and since it is almost fifty years since the first outing of the society, it is to be expected that Thursday, the big day of 1922 as far as local Irishmen are concerned, should prove a successful culmination of the efforts which have been put forth by the various committees in charge.

At a meeting in the Tecumseh House Tuesday night enthusiasm regarding the day's outing ran high amongst the picnic executive, and the chairman of each committee was able to announce the completion of final arrangements and the securing of new features of interest.

The W. O. R. band has been secured to lead the procession from the public utilities building, down Dundas to Richmond and the depot. Later, the band will head a similiar procession in St. Thomas.

Through the kindness of Geo. H. O'Neil, Toronto, arrangements have been made to bring a couple of Irish pipers from Toronto, in addition to those which may be secured in St. Thomas and London.

Although Premier King has expressed himself as unable to attend, efforts are being made to have prominent parliamentarians in attendance.

Obituaries

MRS. MARY CLEGG.

The death took place in Victoria Hospital, Tuesday, of Mrs. Mary Ellen Clegg, wife of Edward Clegg, of the first concession, Westminister. Mrs. Clegg was 39 years old. She is survived by her husband and four children. The funeral will be held from the Geo. E. Logan Undertaking Parlors Thursday at 2:30 p.m. to the Pond Mills Cemetery.

Brigadier Crichton of the Salvation Army will conduct the services.

HERBERT BAKER.

The death took place Tuesday, August 15, at Grace Hospital, Detroit, of Herbert Baker, formerly a resident of Lambeth. Mr. Baker is survived by two brothers, Dr. W. R. Baker, of Detroit, and John S. of Dresden, and three sisters, Mrs. Ida Wilson, Mrs. Elizabeth Stevens and Miss Edith Baker, all of Calgary.

The funeral will be conducted Thursday from the N. J. Griffith Undertaking Parlors to Woodland Cemetery. Rev. Crewes of the Methodist church, Chathan, will preside.

GEORGE NEIGHBOUR.

The death took place in London Tuesday, of George Neighbour, formerly of Windsor but who has lived in London for some time. The funeral will be conducted from the Geo. E. Logan Undertaking Parlors, Thursday to Mount Pleasant Cemetery.

JEREMIAH ROBSON.

Jeremiah Robson of London Township died Wednesday morning at the family residence, lot 30, concession 8. He was 79 years old.

The funeral will be held Thursday from the family residence. Services will be conducted at St. George's Episcopal church, Westminister by Rev. Arthur Shore.

WITH COSTUMES resplendent with color and bands playing more than 300 members of the Orientals, Independent Order of Oddfellows journeyed to Springbank Park Wednesday afternoon for their annual picnic.

Safety Zones and Areas for Angle Parking Mapped Out.

AS a result of the recent action of the city council, which passed a bylaw authorizing angle parking on certain downtown streets, City Engineer Brazier's staff commenced to map out the parking areas in white paint Tuesday. These white lines designate spaces for angle parking of autos on city streets.

In addition, the engineer is having employees map out in white lines the zones in which pedestrians are supposed to cross main downtown intersections of streets in order to reduce the possibility of accidents to a minimum.

REMOVE BAN ON GAMES AT PARK

Provincial Authorities Allow Springbank Owners to Resume Business.

Both games operated in Springbank Park which were closed a week ago by Provincial Officer T. Stratton and Assistant Provincial Police Officer George Tustin have been reopened. Representations to Toronto by the proprietors of the booths at which the games were played, and by others interested in the amusement park, is understood to have been the cause for the resumption of business.

One of the games known as the "Derby Racer" was closed by the officers, though at the time the claim was made by the proprietor that similar racers were running in other parts of the province. The "Derby Racer" is one of the games on which the ban here has been lifted.

Provincial Officer George Tustin could not give any reason for the lifting of the prohibition Wednesday morning. He had received no notification of what was done, he declared.

In such cases the officers have been allowed to use their own discretion to discriminate between the games of chance and games of skill. By the countermanding of the action of the officers last week through Toronto it would seem that the discretion of the officers is not the discretion of authorities in the Ontario capital.

ADMITTED HE HELD SOME OF CORPORATION'S LAND

Some Londoners do not mind claiming city property as their own, according to City Engineer H. A. Brazier, who cites an instance which happened last week in proof of his statement. Construction of cement curbs and gutter was begun on Hamilton road, preparatory to laying a pavement, and accordingly the road was made a uniform width of 66 feet.

While this widening was in progress an irate citizen presented himself at the engineer's office and protested that the city was taking some of his property for the new sidewalk site, and that the hedge on his lawn would be ruined.

After investigating the matter, City Engineer Brazier said to the citizen, "We are not touching your land. You have nine feet of city property?"

"Oh no, I have not," the citizen confessed. "I have only four feet." The complainant then left the office and has not been seen since, although the sidewalk has been moved in on the city property adjoining his lot, and the hedge on the Hamilton road is in danger of destruction in order to complete the right-of-way.

AVER ACCIDENTS WILL JUSTIFY LIMIT TO SPEED

Relate How Cars Crash on Wellington Road and Culprits Escape.

SMASH THROUGH FENCE

Three Women and Man Narrowly Escape Death When Autos Collide.

"Just let them go to it," say the Middlesex county constables, who have relaxed their efforts against the automobile speeders of the surrounding districts, because of complaints from a great number of motorists who have raised their voices in protest against being haled into court for speeding.

The constables are prepared to let the speeders speed, and they aver that the outcome will be so many accidents that before long they will be "bathed in a light of justification' for all to see.

Alex. Shaver Wednesday morning told of conditions on Wellington road through speeders. At a quarter to twelve Tuesday night two cars, both traveling, the constable thought, at a high rate of speed, crashed together with disastrous results to the one car.

In the worst damaged car were three women and a man, and Mr. Shaver says that only a miracle saved them from death. Their car was shoved ten to twenty feet before it turned turtle.

The other car as soon as the accident occurred, reversed and turned at an angle, went into a five-foot ditch, climbed out again, and dashed through a barb-wire fence, across a pasture field and out on to another road, before the occupants of the first car could ascertain the number of the one that had struck them.

When Mr. Shaver arose Wednesday morning he discovered the remnants of the first car on the road. He cites this case as typical of the many unreported accidents which occur through speeding on the county highways, and which would be ten times worse, he believes, if the vigilance of the county constables was allowed to die down.

ADVERTISER STAFF TO PICNIC AT THE PORT

Presses will cease to roll and typewriters to click Saturday afternoon next, when the members of the staff of the London Advertiser will hold their annual picnic at Port Stanley.

The sports' committee are arranging a program which will equal, if not out-do, any held at Port Stanley this or any other season, and the feminine half of the staff are already buying up supplies for a bumper load of refreshments.

Till 6 o'clock, sports and the picnic supper will be in session, and after that all those who are daily responsible for the getting out of London's favorite newspaper will be free to follow their fancy, in the amusement places on the boardwalk, the cooling waters of Lake Erie, or trip the light fantastic in the Stanley Beach Casino.

Strike Not Necessary.

THE LETTER of PREMIER KING sent to the heads of railroads in Canada, makes one point clear, viz., that the government will not sympathize with any move that cuts wages before there has been a board of conciliation or arbitration, or before such board has handed out its findings.

That has been a point that has done more than anything else to foment trouble in the present situation in Canada. The employees of the railroads considered that it was not right nor justified by existing legislation to cut wages before a board had gone into the matter and delivered its findings.

They hold—and their position seems to be reasonable—that for the company to go ahead with a reduction in pay to the extent of $5,000,000 a year is equivalent to carrying out a verdict before it has been delivered by the jury, which, in this case, would be the board of arbitration.

The public refuses to believe that there are any issues between the men and the roads in Canada that cannot be settled by reasonable arbitration, and a give-and-take attitude on both sides.

Just when business is recovering it is unthinkable that we should have a railroad strike in Canada.

Divorce Planned.

CABLES from Paris a few days announced the marriage of HAROLD F. MCCORMICK and MME. GAUNA WALSKA, of theatrical fame. The case has been more or less before the public for months, if not for years.

In short, the operatic singer was married previously, and so was MCCORMICK. MCCORMICK was married to the daughter of JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER, and in this way two of the great fortunes of United States were united. The social leadership of Chicago was their quest when they went there following their marriage in 1895. They poured great sums of money into Chicago opera, and at one of these events MCCORMICK engaged MME. WALSKA to sing, she being then the wife of ALEXANDER SMITH COCHRAN, who enjoyed at one time the reputation of being the richest bachelor in the world. It was known that COCHRAN was opposed to his wife singing at Chicago, and it is also asserted that MRS. MCCORMICK objected.

It must have been about this time that the trouble started. What has happened since then would probably fill a book. Condensed, it is this: MME. WALSKA has been divorced, and MCCORMICK has been divorced, and now the two are married. To the casual observer it looks like a cold-blooded sort of business, with all the earmarks of a plot.

These things happen frequently in some parts of the world, and it is a fact that their very frequency is bringing us at times to regard them with a sort of horrified complacency.

The only test for such procedure is this: Is it right or is it wrong?

If the world is to tolerate the spectacle of men and women getting divorced in order that they can remarry, how long can organized society stand this hacking at the holiest ceremony the world knows?

In this particular case the whole thing seems to have been deliberate from beginning to end.

It makes no difference how many millions are involved on either side, the thing is wrong. If the thing were kept up indefinitely our boasted civilization might as well fold up its tent and depart.

Danger Spots.

WE HAVE agreed to disagree. These few crisp words ended the thirteenth session of the Allied reparations commission in London.

In short, it means that the Allied powers cannot come to any workable understanding in regard to the payment by Germany of her war debt.

There is danger in the situation. If France goes ahead now and takes independent action against Germany it will be in direct violation of the spirit of the treaty of Versailles, and might mean the breaking up of the group of powers brought together in the war, and known as the Allies or the Entente.

The conference in London broke up without even the saving clause that they would meet again at some future date.

As long as these conferences kept up there was always the chance that by some plan of mutual concession a policy might be worked out that would settle the whole business, and in this way lift it entirely out of the range of another European dispute.

It is a poor day's business when these powers find that they cannot agree on the great issue before them. Disagreement opens the door to separate action, to moves that consider only the position of one country and leave out entirely the good of others that were jointly interested in carrying on the war, and that are jointly interested as well in seeing that there shall not be another war.

It was a poor day's business that ended in the phrase "We have agreed to disagree."

That is exactly what the world powers did a few days before the war started.

WHEN WINTER COMES.

Paying for Improvements.

NOT so many years ago when a farmer wanted to retire, he went to one of the towns or villages nearby, because it did not cost a great deal to buy a house, and the taxes were not heavy.

This condition is passing, and passing quickly in many centers, and a number of these retired people must find that their funds are being depleted because taxes and other items have increased to a very considerable extent.

In Wingham this year, for instance, the tax rate is 48 mills. Wiarton has even gone higher, and made it 66 mills for the current term.

The Lucknow Sentinel has this to say on the question:

"How would you like to pay $66 on every thousand dollars of valuation of your property?

"That's what it amounts to. The erection of a comfortable family dwelling at Wiarton will cost not far short of $4,000; and having invested that amount, the householder will begin straightway to pay each year $264 of local taxes. However, he may be more modest and build a house which the assessor would value at $2,000, and he would then get off with an annual payment of $132. That along with the interest on his investment at, say, 6 per cent per annum, will make quite a drain upon the average man's income."

Of course, the Lucknow paper assumes that property is taxed at its full value, a thing that is seldom done. If the assessors in this era of high rates, should some day tag us dollar for dollar on actual value, they'd have us swamped in short order.

The Wingham Times is not inclined to grow hysterical over the rate, and remarks that "the rates in Wingham and Wiarton are but typical of those of the towns and villages throughout the province with the spread of local improvements, including the building of roadways and the laying of sewers, rates have advanced all along the line. It is not possible for a municipality to enjoy modern conveniences and escape paying for them. The main thing for the councillors to see to, however, is that the public money is not wasted, but is expended wisely and with discretion. It is not a question of whether the rate for Wingham is higher or lower than that of some neighboring town or village, but whether we are getting good value for our money."

When a public work such as a road is put down in a town the chances are that it will cost the householder more than in a city. Lots have more frontage, and this class of work in a city is put down at pretty close figures. Likewise the installation of a waterworks system will fall on a fewer number of ratepayers, and probably cost about as much as a plant that would serve a much larger number of users.

All these modern improvements are nice. It's much more pleasant to get water from a tap than cart it from a well fifty feet from the house. And, of course, it's better to have paved streets than to swallow dust in summer and wade through mud in fall and spring. And so we all, big and little, plunged in and got them, and it's taken us quite a little while to get used to paying for them, and all the kicking that we've done hasn't taken a copper off the interest or the sinking fund.

The Manitoba Affair.

NOW that the election is all over in Manitoba, and a new government formed, it is worth while asking what PREMIER NORRIS had done to deserve being shoved out of office, to make way for another set of men with ideas that are very much like his own in almost every line.

It is just possible, and the statement is made with deliberation, that no other premier in years to come will have the opportunity, or the courage when he sees the opportunity, to do what EX-PREMIER NORRIS did for the province of Manitoba.

From the year 1909 to 1915 he led what appeared at times to be a hopeless opposition against a government that was entrenched in graft and cemented by patronage. It was a job that few men would have tackled. It was a place where there was only one thing to do, and that one thing was to fight until some daylight should be let into the secluded corners of the government benches.

The fight succeeded, and MR. NORRIS became premier of the province. He gave good government; he gave a civic service that attended to business, a good administration of justice, a workable election law that provided for the punishment of crooks, gave franchise to the women, and created an educational system that will probably be allowed to stand as long as the province remains.

Throughout the election campaign it was not charged that the NORRIS government had been corrupt or that the electors should throw it out of power to make room for a government that would be clean and more efficient in administering the affairs of the province.

The bare fact remains that MR. NORRIS, now a private member of the Manitoba Legislature, cleaned up one of the worst messes any province ever ran into, and against that put up an administration that was progressive and clean and honest. His conduct since the election leads one to believe that he has taken his defeat in good part. The whole case is one of those strange turns in political life that leads one to wonder if the gratitude of the people is not written more in the matter of the records of history rather than in their present performance.

LITTLE 'TISERS

Our idea of a predicament is when the 5-cent collection giver is the first man they aim the plate at.

A cautious driver is one who tries to keep at least two wheels on the ground when going around a corner.

The Chatham Planet has a good editorial article on "The Heart." It certainly is timely in this vacation period.

A lot of young men who take their girls for a drive in a car pay more attention to the arm clutch than the foot clutch.

When long dresses come back will silk stockings depart? In plain English, what will be the use of wearing them if folks can't look?

Eskimos in far-off Siberia have learned how to make liquor, and many of them get drunk. Thus does our vaunted civilization spread.

Montreal is to quit daylight saving a month earlier than was intended, apparently assuming that people there could get into enough mischief on the ordinary schedule.

Here's a new one. Seeking for a phrase to describe a man who had made a miserable failure after a trumpet start, the businessman said: "He's just a first-class ain't."

The Calgary Albertan says there is going to be a great coal rush there as soon as the strike is settled. Now look, sonny, we don't have to go as far as Calgary to witness a coal rush. Any man in this part of the country who has a few tons will just naturally rush for a musket to guard it.

HON. ARTHUR MEIGHEN is in the West, where he is helping matters out by branding the wheat board legislation as a fiasco, and further declaring the government intended it to be such. East or west, it makes no difference, MEIGHEN remains the same smasher and destroyer. All his knocking is not going to help market the wheat crop.

AGNES MACPHAIL, M.P., in a picnic speech, said: "People are leaving the farms at a rate that is really alarming." PRESIDENT REYNOLDS of the O. A. C. says they are not, and backs up his statement with figures. Might these two not stage a debate some place? They could settle the thing once and for all, after which we could all go to work again and mind our own business.

A correspondent of THE ADVERTISER, MISS ALIDA M. BICE of Clandeboye, has a good word for the sparrow, claiming that right now it is doing what it can to clear the ground of cutworms. If the sparrows will take on the contract of seeing this business through to a finish they may yet carve out a comfortable place and a glorious reputation for themselves in this country.

A Toronto paper carries a dispatch from Windsor, saying that bootleggers are so thick there they have to wear identification badges to prevent them attempting to sell their wares to one another. Say, isn't that putting it on a little too thick? Some of these reports would make one believe that peddling booze was the chief industry in Windsor, and that running factories, stores and attending to business generally was more or less of a side line.

The Vancouver Sun is right when it says we are cheapening the National Anthem by allowing it to be used any place and upon any occasion. It seems to make no difference what sort of a performance is put on, a concert, an entertainment of any nature, at the end a few bars of the National Anthem are played. Some stand, others sit, and the majority race for the door. Would there not be more dignity attached to the National Anthem if it were used on fewer and more fitting occasions?

London has its full share of level crossings, so have other Ontario cities. Toronto probably has the greatest collection of these to be seen in the Dominion. Day after day is the fine spectacle of thousands going to the boats at Yonge and Bay, dodging under gates or past a man with a flag, and in the meantime light engines, freight and passenger trains thunder along as though they were going across the prairies. The small casualty list there is an act of providence rather than a tribute to the ingenuity of the people.

LEARN A WORD EVERY DAY

TODAY'S word is—CAMBRIAN.

It's pronounced kam-bri-an, with the accent on the first syllable.

It means—Welsh; something pertaining to Cambria, or Wales. It is used also to describe a certain division of one of the geological eras.

It comes from—Cambria, the Latin version of Cymru, the native name of Wales.

It's used like this—"In recent international discussions in Europe the Cambrian statecraft of Mr. Lloyd George has proved too much for the Gallic impetuosity of M. Poincare." Or "The Cambrian division of geological time is so called because it was differentiated, or set apart, originally in Wales."

STATISTICS.

Henry Allan Wilson, secretary of the New England Anti-Tobacco League, said in an address in Portland:

"Carefully compiled statistics show us that for every cigar a man smoked he shortens his life three days, while with every cigarette he shortens his life a week."

At this point a prominent Portland physician rose in the rear of the hall.

"Are those statistics absolutely accurate?" he asked.

"Absolutely, sir," said Secretary Wilson. "Why?"

"Because it's rather important," exclaimed the physician. "You see, if your statistics are accurate, I've been dead over three hundred years."

NEW DODGE.

Willis—Didn't your wife bawl you out last night when she woke up when you came home?

Gillis—No; I fooled her. I stood in the hall an hour, delivered a lecture on "Civic Righteousness," told a bedtime story and sang three grand opera selections, and she thought she had forgotten to turn off the radio.

Tramp—I didn't steal it. A lady up the street gave it to me to beat it.

NO. 297—SECOND ANALYSIS.

Here is another test for your ability to analyze handwriting, if you care to undertake it. To give yourself a fair chance, cover up the last paragraph of this article, so that you will not accidentally see the answer before you have registered your own analysis.

Assume that you are considering a specimen of handwriting in which one of the prominent features is the manner in which the writer starts the first letter of nearly all words with a little hook-like stroke. Secondly, you note that, in a given word, there is a tendency of the letters to decrease in size toward the end of the word. You note, too, that the writing has a decided forward slant, and that the cross stroke of the letter "t" generally flies off that letter to the right. Moreover, the writing is rather heavily shaded, though it does not look as though this shading were done for effect, merely to make it a "copperplate" hand. The lines are inclined to slant upward toward the right of the page, and the letters are angular rather than rounded in their formation. Now what would you gather from that?

That initial hook is an unfailing sign of talkativeness. The decreasing size of letters means that the person is lacking in conscientiousness, though probably only in small matters. The forward slant and the right-crossed "t" show impulsiveness, and the shaded writing indicates an amount of willfulness. The ascending lines indicate optimism, and the angular writing a quick mentality. Talkative, unreliable, impulsive, willful, happy, quick. Haven't you known people like that? Try to get a specimen of their handwriting and see if it does not square up pretty well with this.

MARKING HONEY.

Waterford, Aug. 7, 1922.

Editor, Advertiser:

Sir,—I see in your paper of Aug. 5 an article re honey being seized for not having producer's name on containers. Can you give me the law in regard to that? I am a small producer of honey, and wish to comply with the law. Please answer through The Advertiser. Yours respectfully, J. J. CHURCH.

Ans.—The name and address of the manufacturer or producer must be marked in a conspicuous place on every pail or comb of honey offered for sale. The penalty for not complying to the law in this respect is $50 and costs.

A WORD FOR THE SPARROW

By Alida M. Bice, Clandeboye, Ont.

LIKE most farmers, we have carelessly accepted other people's valuation, and considered the house sparrow a noisy nuisance, whose chief occupation was the building of untidy nests in the most inconvenient places—a bird to be kept in bounds by destroying the eggs or by killing off the flocks to a large extent in the winter; but the hitherto despised bird has gained a new consideration from us this summer by displaying an altogether unsuspected fondness for that bane of the farmer, the destructive wire-worm. The man busy disking the summer-fallow finds relief from monotony and considerable amusement in watching the crowds of various birds following the team up and down the field, tireless in their hunting for all sorts of worms and insects. One little house sparrow has become so tame that he attracted special attention. A box is carried on the disk for the purpose of conveying stones to the ends of the field, and at each stop to load up stones it seems impossible for the sparrow to escape injury, so closely does it follow the disk to catch the wire-worms in the freshly-turned earth, before they can disappear. The experiment of walking a few steps to meet him shows him to be utterly unafraid, for he comes almost within reach before taking wing. Following him a few steps has the same result, for he barely keeps from underfoot. He seems to say plainly that his business is to get those wire-worms, and it is the business of clumsy humans to keep out of his way and not obstruct the view and spoil sport.

* * *

DOUBTLESS this little fellow could be made much more confiding if one had the time to spend on his education, and one hates to think that he will probably be killed in one of next winter's inevitable slaughters, for he and his kind are doing the farmers more good now that the ground is being prepared for fall wheat than anyone has imagined, for everyone in the country knows the menace of the unchecked wire-worm when the spring crops are showing green. If every house sparrow carries off as large a load of those destructive worms as the little fellow noticed was carrying, the wire-worms would be largely decreased this fall. It is just possible that some injustice is being done this sparrow, because he hasn't a very attractive song, and seems to be in a continual state of splutter and fuss. A very little watching demonstrates the fact that Mr. Sparrow is a great bluffer, but he deceives or imposes on very few other birds. The tiny wren "calls his bluff" every time, and takes possession of his nest-house as he pleases, and the two families grow up side by side. Other birds mostly ignore the sparrow's demonstrations, and nest quite near him in trees in the orchard. It would be a pity to altogether exterminate the house sparrow, since he is one of the few birds who remain all winter, picking up all the weed seeds that show above the snow. He would be missed, even though we do grow tired sometimes of his unmusical, constant calling for the "Jim" who either never comes or else never satisfactorily finishes the task the birds seem so anxious to oversee to completion.

DR. BISHOP'S ADVICE

HOW TO KILL VERMIN

BY DR. R. H. BISHOP.

ALTHOUGH cockroaches and bedbugs are not important disease-carriers, they are signs of dirty surroundings and dirty habits, which easily give a foothold for the entrance of dangerous diseases.

Roaches usually inhabit kitchens, pantries or bathrooms. Their presence means bad housekeeping, for like every other living thing, they must have food. If the kitchen is kept clean and food is not left around exposed, they'll soon leave for better pastures.

If roaches ever infest your place, dust pyrethrum powder in and around the cracks and crevices of floors and sink. This powder can be obtained at the drug store and is a brownish color when fresh.

The presence of bed-bugs in a house isn't necessarily a sign of neglect or carelessness. They may get on the clothing while riding in street cars or on trains or they may be carried into the house in various ways.

To get rid of them open all windows, examine and shake the bedding and then hang it outdoors to air. Sprinkle liberal quantities of naphtha on mattress and pillows and place them outdoors likewise. Brush the corners of the walls, especially over the door and window frames and moldings. Take beds apart and brush plenty of naphtha into all joints and crevices. Sprinkle naphtha on the carpet, too.

Then, after leaving the room and shutting the door, do not go back until the naphtha has evaporated. Repeat this entire process in about a week in order to kill the young bugs hatched from eggs. Naphtha is clean and not injurious to furniture or bedding, and the odor does not last long.

Excellent Results in Orillia With the Pease PIPELESS FURNACE

Here is a very convincing letter from Mr. L. Newton of Orillia:

"Regarding our Pease Pipeless Furnace, we are more than pleased with same. We found it very satisfactory, and had numerous people in last winter to see it. I would say it is the very best kind of a furnace for the country, as we used wood the beginning of the winter, and the heat was terrible. You may use this letter for further reference."

RAIL HEADS TO RESCIND CUT IN SHOPMEN'S PAY

Accede To Plea of Premier King For Postponement of Reduction.

ACCEPT CABINET RULING

Decide To Obey Department of Justice by Restoring Scale.

MONTREAL, Aug. 15.— In a telegram dispatched Aug. 15 to Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, prime minister of Canada, over the signatures of the presidents of the Canadian National, Grand Trunk and Canadian Pacific system, an undertaking is given to rescind the wage reduction on shopmen on the Canadian roads, effective since July 15th last, and to revert to the rate in force prior to that date.

This understanding is made consequent on the prime minister's letter of yesterday addressed to the railway heads asking them to adopt the view of the federal department of justice that a wage reduction was contrary to law. The railway heads, while still affirming the position that their action in cutting wages is legal, agree to accept the ruling of the department of justice with the proviso that the companies' case before the board of conciliation now sitting here will not be prejudiced thereby.

The telegram over the signature of D. B. Hanna, president of the C.N.R., Howard G. Kelly, president of the G.T.R., and E. W. Beatty, president of the C.P.R., was dispatched under date August 15 to Prime Minister W. L. Mackenzie King at Ottawa.

Claim Course Legal.

"Answering your letter of the 12th instant, we need not assure you of our concurrence in your desire that the important business of the country may be carried on without interruption, and that both employers and employees should co-operate in carrying out the laws which have been enacted to that end.

"It is quite impossible for us to change our view as to the legality of the course which the railways have taken, and we believe that such action afforded full protection to the interests of both parties.

"We must respectfully submit that, notwithstanding the view which the legal advisers of the government may hold, it is the duty of the companies to follow a course which they have been advised is legal and in accordance with binding decisions of the Canadian courts, and necessary to preserve the rights which they consider esssential to the protection of their property.

Will Resume Scale.

"In view, however, of the decision of the government to accept the opinion of the department of justice, we will undertake, pending an anticipated early report of the board of conciliation now sitting, that the scale of shop crafts wages in force prior to July 16 last will be continued, on the understanding that the company's case before the board of conciliation will not be thereby prejudiced, and that the companies shall not thereby be precluded from taking the position in negotiating an agreement during or subsequent to the proceedings of the board, that the new scale should be retroactive to July 16 last."

BOARD ADJOURNS.

MONTREAL, Aug. 15.—In order to give the heads of the three railways of Canada an opportunity of drafting a reply to Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, who contended that the ruling of the department of justice in the matter of the railway shopmen was correct, the conciliation board appointed to deal with the question of wages between the two parties adjourned today after a brief sitting.

R. J. Tallon, president of Division No. 4, Railway Employees Department, American Federation of Labor, appeared before the board today and asked that a decision on the cut in wages be given at once; otherwise, he said, the position of the shopment would be prejudiced. He referred to the fact that Premier King had indorsed the stand taken by the men, namely, that old conditions should be restored immediately, and added that on Aug. 15, being pay day on the Canadian roads, the lighter pay envelope was bound to lead to grave unrest. He insisted that the railways were not subscribing to the spirit of the act.

George Hodge, assistant general manager of the eastern lines of the Canadian Pacific Railway, as spokesman for the railways, objected to the statements of Mr. Tallon that the railways were not following the provisions of the act.

CONSIDER REQUEST.

CHICAGO, Aug. 15.—Railroad executives of roads centering in Chicago at a meeting late today considered the request of chiefs of the "Big Four" brotherhoods at Washington for another conference looking toward the settlement of the shop crafts strike.

While expressing pessimism regarding the outcome of such a meeting they expressed a willingness to accept the suggestion.

AGREE TO CONFERENCE.

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—The Association of Railway Executives granted the request of the five railroad brotherhoods for a conference looking toward the settlement of the shop crafts strike, and agreed to meet the union representatives here next Thursday.

LIFT FREIGHT EMBARGO.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 15. — The Southern Pacific Company lifted its embargo late today on shipment of perishable freight and live stock, which was declined on account of a strke of the train crews at Roseville, California.

An agreement was reached at a conference by which the crews of the Big Four rail brotherhoods returned to work.

ORDERS STRIKERS BACK.

CHICAGO, Aug. 15.—Warren Stone, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Workers, has notified branches of his union in the far west that unless the men who walked out on the Santa Fe without authorization return to work immediately their places will be filled.

Claims Ontario Will Remain Firm In Stand On Prohibition Question

HAMILTON, Aug. 15.—"Many hotelkeepers have an idea that the government will shortly have a change of heart on the liquor question," said Edgar Watson, M.P.P., chairman of the provincial parliamentary committee on hotel accommodation and tourist traffic, which commenced a survey of Hamilton's facilities this morning. "But they are mistaken, I am confident that the province is rigid to this question, and that there will not be any alteration in the policy for some time at least."

The committee has already been at work six weeks, and has made a survey of summer resorts and hotels in many small towns and large cities. Commenting on their findings, they state: "The average small town hotelkeeper is forty years behind the times. His buildings are as old as his methods, and are a distinct discouragement to tourists."

Hotels in large cities compare favorably with those in the United States, however.

BROADER PARTY PLEA EXPECTED

Drury Likely To Continue U. F. O. Controversy At Grand Bend.

May Reply To Morrison's Criticism of Progressive Convention Proposal.

TORONTO, Aug. 15. — When Premier Drury speaks at a U. F. O. picnic tomorrow at Grand Bend, Huron County, he is expected to add another chapter to his controversy with J. J. Morrison, secretary of the U. F. O. regarding the proper destiny of the Farmers' Party in Ontario.

The premier refused today to comment on the statement given out this afternoon by Mr. Morrison in which he bluntly said that the premier had no right to attempt to divert the course of the farmers' movement.

Evidence, however, was not lacking that the prospect of an open break with the founder of the Ontario farmers' party, as Mr. Morrison is regarded, is causing a flurry in Queen's Park.

Gordon Waldron, K.C., whose services as advisor to the premier have been in demand in the past, was a visitor to Mr. Drury's office today. Other members of the cabinet declined to comment, but a member of the house who was elected on the U. F. O. ticket, said: "If there is a break coming let it come."

FAVORS PURE AGRARIANISM.

TORONTO, Aug. 15.—"The farmers' political movement was brought into existence not by individuals nor by the U. F. O. central organization," said J. J. Morrison today in reply to a story appearing in a morning paper to the effect that Premier Drury had decided to drop the distinctive farmer character of the movement.

"It was a spontaneous protest against the shortcomings of the old party system that came from the rural people, and because it came from the farmers themselves the farmers, and the farmers only, have a right to direct its future.

"If the U. F. O. clubs throughout the province are content to see the movement they have so successfully fought for disappear, and throw in their lot with a new party or go back to one or other of the old parties it is their affair. The decision rests with them, not with Mr. Drury nor myself.

"I have only this comment to make upon the premier's letter: One would have thought that before launching definitely a proposal which, if it is successful, must inevitably destroy the distintive character of the farmers' movement, he would have asked his supporters to consult their rural constituents and learn their views. Instead he has chosen to ignore the farmers who have loyally stood by him and made his approach directly and exclusively to people in the cities and towns."

Sends Letter.

The premier's letter to his member followers was worded as follows:

Toronto, July 13, 1922.

"Sir: A proposal has come to me from friends of the Progressive party in the city of Toronto, and in some other cities looking toward the calling at some time in the not too distant future of a Progressive convention for the Province of Ontario.

"It is recognized that the strength of the Progressive party of Ontario is founded in the rural districts, but that there are many in the villages, towns and cities who think as we do politically, and who will be willing and eager to aid us when time comes for a test of our strength in the province.

Proposes Convention.

"With a view to enlisting the active aid of these urban friends it has been proposed that a general convention should be called which these would be invited to attend.

"First, however, it has been suggested that it would be well to get in touch with these urban friends and find out their views on the matter. With that end in view I am writing you asking you to send me in confidence a list of urban friends of the Progressive cause in your riding or in any adjacent riding with which you may be acquainted, and which is not at present represented by a Progressive member.

"Your co-operation in this matter would be greatly appreciated, and will, I am sure, contribute greatly to the success and strength of Progressiveism in the province of Ontario. Any list of urban friends you may send me will be treated as confidential, and I would ask you that you treat this letter in the same manner."

(Signed) "E. C. DRURY."

WILL BANQUET LIBERAL LEADERS AT TORONTO

Ontario Party Organizations Plan Reception to King and Hay.

TORONTO, Ont., Aug. 15.—Arrangements are being made to tender a banquet to Premier W. L. Mackenzie King and F. Wellington Hay, M. L.A., Ontario Liberal leader, under the joint auspices of the Ontario Liberal Association and the Ontario Liberal Women's Association in this city, an Aug. 30.

The Liberal Women's Association will hold its annual meeting here on that date, and it is expected that the executive committee of the Ontario Liberal Association will meet here the following day.

RAINFALL IN WEST IMPROVES CROPS

Prospective Yields Estimated At From 8 to 20 Bushels Per Acre.

WINNIPEG, Aug. 15.—The Canadian National Railway's crop report for the week ended Aug. 12, confirms reports that conditions have been materially improved in central Saskatchewan and Alberta by heavy rains that fell during the week and throughout the extensive area that had been suffering from a prolonged lack of moisture. There will now be a fair crop, prospective yields being estimated at from 8 to 20 bushels per acre, and in some localities more.

Harvesting is now in progress in the three prairie provinces and will be general everywhere this week.

In Manitoba and southwestern Saskatchewan and in the Carrot River Valley, central Saskatchewan, heavy yields of all cereals are indicated, yields of forty bushels per acre being reported for wheat, 35 for barley, 30 to 35 for fall rye, and from 60 to 110 bushels for oats. Such yields are not being obtained as a general rule, though yields from 20 to 30 bushels for wheat will be fairly well distributed in sections where crops are best, but particularly in Manitoba.

Some threshing has been done in Manitoba, and if present weather conditions prevail grain should be moving to market freely by the end of the month.

REPORTS WATER SUPPLY.

KITCHENER, Aug. 15.—The regular monthly report of Superintendent Pequegnat of the water commission, which was adopted by the commission today, placed the maximum daily pumping for the month of July at 2,339,000 gallons, and an average of 1,870,000.

WILL ATTEND CAMP.

BRANTFORD, Aug. 15.—Wednesday, 12 more girls go for a two weeks' vacations to the Kiwanis girls' camp at Port Dover, and at the same time the members of the club will hold a picnic there.

The district convention scheduled for September 14 and 15, has been changed and the date set for a week later.

CADETS STAND UP WELL IN MATCHES

E. Thomas of Hamilton Makes Score of 67 Out of 70.

OTTAWA, Aug. 15.—The Walker match and the military matches, the Gzowski and Dudonald were the principal features at the D. R. A. matches today, although the cadet match, by reason of the large attendance of young shots, caused a good deal of interest. During the later part of the afternoon there was a tricky fish-tail wind from the left, and this served to throw some of the younger shots off. The majority of the cadets, however, stood up well, and, in fact, their shooting in the cadets match, when the winner, Cadet Corporal E. Thomas of Hamilton, put up 67 points out of a possible 70, was up to the general shooting of the seniors.

Montreal showed up well in the Walker match, in which first place went to Sergeant F. A. Morris, 3rd Victoria Rifles, with a score of 68, including a possible at the 500 yard range, which gave him the place over Gunner P. Landrigan, who made 34 at each range.

The Governor-General's Foot Guards won the Aylmer Sard match in connection with the Bankers' match and also the Barlow challenge cup, which is for four officers of any unit.

The G. G. F. G. upheld their reputation as a first-class skirmishing regiment by annexing the Gzowski military match and second place in the Dundonald. The Winnipeg Rifles were the winners in the Dundonald by one point after a very keen contest.

SEIZED WITH CRAMP, GIRL SWIMMER NEARLY DROWNS

Miss Adele Riley of Brantford Rescued by Charles Sterne.

Special to London Advertiser.

BRANTFORD, Aug. 15.—About 8 o'clock last night, Miss Adele Riley, prominent local elocutionist, was seized with a cramp while swimming in Cooper's Pond and narrowly escaped drowning. Miss Riley, who resides on Sydenham street, is an expert swimmer, but was rendered helpless by the severe cramp.

Fortunately some young men were near and Miss Riley was taken to the shore by Charles Sterne. She was taken to her home and a doctor was called to administer medical attention. This morning Miss Riley is reported to be none the worse from her mishap.

BOY SERIOUSLY INJURED IN SOUTHAMPTON PLANT

Special to London Advertiser.

SOUTHAMPTON, Aug. 15.—While engaged in removing wood from behind the polisher at a local furniture factory, Donald McLean, a young lad of town, was seriously injured.

One piece of wood coming through the machine directly behind another, pinned the boy against the wall. He suffered serious internal injuries.

BELIEVE CHINESE WOMAN BEING CURED OF LEPROSY

Hospital Doctors at Vancouver State Patient Ready To Be Released.

VANCOUVER, Aug. 15.—A case of leprosy, under treatment in the General Hospital here for the last five months, is declared by hospital doctors to be yielding to the Chaulmoogra oil treatment. Seven months ago a Chinese woman was removed from a steamship from the Orient suffering from leprosy.

Owing, it was said, to the leprosy station on Darcy Island, B. C., having fallen more or less into disuse, the woman was placed in isolation at the General Hospital here, and soon after the Chaulmoogra oil treatment was commenced. It is now claimed that the patient is so far recovered that she is in a condition to be released.

To Holders of Five Year 5½ per cent Canada's Victory Bonds

Issued in 1917 and Maturing 1st December, 1922.

CONVERSION PROPOSALS

THE MINISTER OF FINANCE offers to holders of these bonds who desire to continue their investment in Dominion of Canada securities the privilege of exchanging the maturing bonds for new bonds bearing 5½ per cent interest, payable half yearly, of either of the following classes:—

(a) Five year bonds, dated 1st November, 1922, to mature 1st November, 1927.

(b) Ten year bonds, dated 1st November, 1922, to mature 1st November, 1932.

While the maturing bonds will carry interest to 1st December, 1922, the new bonds will commence to earn interest from 1st November, 1922, GIVING A BONUS OF A FULL MONTH'S INTEREST TO THOSE AVAILING THEMSELVES OF THE CONVERSION PRIVILEGE.

This offer is made to holders of the maturing bonds and is not open to other investors. The bonds to be issued under this proposal will be substantially of the same character as those which are maturing, except that the exemption from taxation does not apply to the new issue.

Holders of the maturing bonds who wish to avail themselves of this conversion privilege should take their bonds AS EARLY AS POSSIBLE, BUT NOT LATER THAN SEPTEMBER 30th, to a Branch of any Chartered Bank in Canada and receive in exchange an official receipt for the bonds surrendered, containing an undertaking to deliver the corresponding bonds of the new issue.

Holders of maturing fully registered bonds, interest payable by cheque from Ottawa, will receive their December 1 interest cheque as usual. Holders of coupon bonds will detach and retain the last unmatured coupon before surrendering the bond itself for conversion purposes.

The surrendered bonds will be forwarded by banks to the Minister of Finance at Ottawa, where they will be exchanged for bonds of the new issue, in fully registered, or coupon registered or coupon bearer form carrying interest payable 1st May and 1st November of each year of the duration of the loan, the first interest payment accruing and payable 1st May, 1923. Bonds of the new issue will be sent to the banks for delivery immediately after the receipt of the surrendered bonds.

The bonds of the maturing issue which are not converted under this proposal will be paid off in cash on the 1st December, 1922.

W. S. FIELDING,
Minister of Finance.

Dated at Ottawa, 8th August, 1922.

WILL NOT OPEN NEW HOSPITAL TILL OCTOBER

Committee Asking General Sir Arthur Currie To Officiate.

BACK NURSES' HOME

Arrange For Visit To Institution of Imperial Potentate McCandless.

Gen. Sir Arthur Currie, president of McGill University, and former commander of the Canadian forces, will be invited to formally open the War Memorial Children's Hospital. Unanimous approval of inviting Sir Arthur Currie to officiate was expressed by the 29 members who attended the enthusiastic special meeting of the committee called for Tuesday afternoon to make arrangements in connection with the opening and transact other pressing business. The date of the opening has been postponed from September 23, the anniversary of the inception of the War Memorial Children's Hospital movement, in 1919. Lieut.-Col. W. M. Gartshore, chairman of the building committee, was present for a part of the meeting and stated that, though it would be possible to open September 23, it would be advisable to wait two or three weeks until more of the equipment is installed. Under the circumstances the opening will probably take place between October 1 and 10. No patients will be received until after the formal opening.

In addition to being largely attended for the holiday season the meeting was characterized by a most optimistic tone. The members of the committee who have worked indefatigably for three years to make the hospital an accomplished fact expressed their gratification that their efforts will soon be crowned with success and the building completed, equipped and furnished to hand over to the city.

The staffing of the new hospital will involve an added tax on the accommodation for nurses in Victoria Hospital, with which it is connected. Recognizing their obligation in the matter, on motion of Mrs. A. C. Joseph, seconded by Mrs. E. B. Smith, regent of the Municipal Chapter, I. O. D. E., the committee pledged itself to use its influence and assist in any way possible in commending to the public the nurses' residence bylaw to be submitted at the next municipal elections.

A pleasing feature incident of the committee meeting was the making known of the good news of support pledged to Col. Gartshore, chairman of the hospital trust, as well as chairman of the Children's Hospital building committee, who arrived a few minutes after the resolution was passed. Mrs. Smith, as presiding officer, asked Mrs. F. J. Greenaway, honorary secretary, to read the resolution for his benefit.

Vote $2,000 For Sewing.

Mrs. H. J. Sutherland, vice-regent of the Hugh Niven Chapter, I. O. D. E., which has acted as sewing committee for the new hospital, had an interesting report to present of assistance given by various organizations in this way. Mention was made of the fact that the Princess Patricia, 7th Regiment, Lord Roberts, Campbell Becher and Trafalgar Chapters have helped with the linen, having reached their endowment objectives as well. The sum of $2,000 was voted to the committee for buying supplies, and a hearty vote of thanks to the convener and members, moved by Mrs. Cl. T. Campbell, who was warmly welcomed back by the committee, after an absence of several months from meetings. Mrs. Emerson Nichols, regent of the Hugh Niven Chapter, asked to be permitted to second the motion, as her chapter had done all the work in her absence abroad. Announcement was made that the headquarters has been removed from 214 Royal Bank Building to a room in the hospital, and a cordial vote of thanks moved to Manager Cronyn for the use, free of rent, of the room in the bank building while it was required.

Col. Gartshore announced that James S. McCandless, imperial potentate of the Shriners, with Mrs. McCandless, will inspect the hospital in the course of his sight-seeing tour in London Friday forenoon. Mesdames Gartshore, J. J. Foote, E. B. Smith, F. J. Greenaway and A. E. Miller were appointed a committee to be at the hospital to receive the distinguished visitors.

One of the completed tablets for endowed cots, cribs and rooms was on exhibition and approved. Naming of inscription for the Soldiers' Club board endowment was left to Mrs. J. S. Niven. Five chapter regents, Mesdames Ram, F. H. Butler, Emerson Nichols, E. H. Nelles and E. B. Smith, Municipal regent, were asked to look after the inscriptions for the endowments in honor of four of the committee officers, Mesdames A. H. Smith, F. J. Greenaway, Cl. T. Campbell and E. H. Young. Appreciative reference was made of the donation of a piano to the hospital by a member of the Trafalgar Chapter, I. O. D. E.

Gen. King will be asked to take the place of Gen. Panet on the building committee, and Mr. James Gray also to act on it.

To Banish Wrinkles and Freshen Up Quickly

After a strenuous day outdoors, when winds, heat and exhaustion have combined to take away one's freshness and caused the skin to wrinkle and sag—or after a tedious or fretful day indoors—one often has urgent need for some quick rejuvenator. Maybe there's a dance on for the evening, or some other social event. How in the world can one make herself presentable, looking as she does? It's quite easy.

Just get an ounce of powdered saxolite and a half pint witch hazel at the nearest drug store, mix the two and bathe the face in the solution for two or three minutes. Then look into your mirror and behold the wonderful transformation! Wrinkles have vanished, loose, tired muscles have been rested and "firmed up," marks of fatigue have flown, and you look so much brighter and younger you can hardly believe your eyes. No one need hesitate to try this, the witch hazel and saxolite being so perfectly harmless.—Advt.

Alkali In Shampoos Bad For the Hair

If you want to keep your hair looking its best, be careful what you wash it with. Don't use prepared shampoos or anything else that contains too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is just plain Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than anything else you can use.

To or three teaspoonfuls of Mulsified in a cup or glass with a little warm water, is sufficient to cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excess oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo at any pharmacy, it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months. Be sure you get Mulsified. Beware of imitations. Look for the name Watkins on the package.—Advt.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Knox, London, are at the King Edward, Toronto, for a few days.

Mrs. Charles Clark, Maitland street, is a guest in the home of her brother in New Lowell.

The Misses Blackburn are leaving shortly for a holiday visit in Bethlehem, New Hampshire.

Mr. Joseph Maloney, of the Detroit News editorial staff, is holidaying at his home in this city.

Rev. J. Edmonds spent last week-end as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Howson, Woodstock.

Mrs. M. Pope and son William have returned to the city after an enjoyable visit at Port Stanley.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Summers are returning home this week after a delightful outing at Port Stanley.

Mr. Herbert Osborne and brother Stanley have returned from a two weeks' motor trip to Rochester, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Philip will spend a holiday in Port Franks, where they have taken a cottage for a few weeks.

Dr. Roy Routledge and Mrs. Routledge and son Donald spent the week-end at Lake Huron Beach, the guest of Mr. Cameron.

Mr. W. G. Wilson, of Chicago, accompanied by his son Bob, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Cameron, Waterloo street, for the past week.

Miss Florence Wilkey, Lorne avenue, leaves Saturday for an extended visit in Brooklyn, New York, with her brother, Mr. George Wilkey, formerly of London.

Mrs. S. Stevely and Miss Dorothy Stevely, who have been in San Diego, Cal., for the past two years, are guests with Major Frank Spry and Mrs. Spry, Norwood House.

Mr. and Mrs. James Reading and children of Winnipeg, and Mrs. George Davies of Canton, Ohio, are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Reading, 645 Princess avenue.

Mrs. George Wilkey of Brooklyn, New York, who has been visiting her father, Mr. Hugh Newel, for the past five weeks, returns home on Saturday next, accompanied by her sister-in-law, Miss Florence Wilkey of Lorne avenue.

Miss Constance Moule, of Montreal; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Moule of Brantford, and Mrs. Graham Thornton and two sons, of Detroit, are guests with the Misses Moule, Maitland street. Mrs. W. J. Moule of Montreal was also a recent guest with the Misses Moule.

Miss Charlotte Story, president of the Toronto Women's Press Club, spent the first part of the week a guest at the Manoir Richelieu, Montreal. Miss Story is in search of copy such as the little towns on the Lower St. Lawrence offer, and very shortly the observation made on her trip will be published. She has been a frequent visitor in London.

Mrs. Arthur H. Smith, convener of the War Memorial Hospital committee, came down from her summer home at Ipperwash Beach to preside at the special meeting of the hospital committee, called for Tuesday afternoon, to make arrangements with regard to the opening. She is returning Wednesday to Ipperwash, where she will remain for some weeks yet.

A number of members of the Women's Press Club gathered at the G. T. R. station Tuesday forenoon to give a gay little send-off to one of their popular officers, Miss Margaret Wade, when she left for Windsor to assume a responsible position with a loan and bond firm. In addition to being deluged with good wishes she was showered with all manner of traveling gifts, magazines, sweets, flowers, in several cases, accompanied by numerous original poems, written to fit the occasion by the donors. While taking up her residence in Windsor Miss Wade is planning for the present to come back for week-ends to her home in the city. Miss Wade has been the capable editor for several years of McClary's "Wireless."

Mrs. Beyea, brilliant lecturer, who has been with the Canadian Chautauqua in Ontario this summer, paid a brief visit to London the beginning of the week, planning to return on Wednesday. Scottish by birth, and having lived a number of years in the United States, the cool weather of the past summer has more or less fitted in with her preconceived idea of Canada. "This is the hottest weather since I have come here," she commented, "and I like the warm weather. I don't see why they didn't arrange something of this kind before" (laughing).

Chautauqua season is nearing its close, Mrs. Beyea commenting that just another week of the interesting work, in many cases, lies before the lecturers and other artists.

Rev. A. S. H. Cree and Mrs. Cree have returned home after spending their vacation with Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Clements, River road, Port Dover.

In honor of Miss Hazel Gibson, a popular bride-elect, Miss Gwendolyn Woods was the hostess of a bridge of three tables Tuesday afternoon, given at her home in Wellington street. At the tea hour Miss Woods was assisted by Mrs. Welford. The out-of-town guests were: Mrs. Pollard of Winnipeg; Miss Boyle, Toronto; Mrs. McKeon, Buffalo, and Mrs. Pocock, Windsor.

Cynthia Grey's MAIL-BOX

A DELICATE SUBJECT.

Dear Miss Grey,—Your column has been the source of much enjoyment and pleasant reading. How kind and sympathetic your Boxites are to those who are needy and afflicted. I have suffered since January with neuralgia on my lungs. I don't suffer so much now, only when I do my washing, which isn't very small. I have three children; my oldest girl is 5, and she can read every word in the primer.

If the lady who has a boy with whooping cough would use a certain remedy (I will send it to her if she writes; you can give her my address), I think it will relieve him.

Isn't it strange what a delicate subject religion is? I have always been interested in religion. I have investigated the English Church, Baptist, Pentecostal and Latter Day Saints, and have found many worthy friends and sincere people in every sect, but I can't understand why so many sects and only one God, and only one way into the fold. I teach my children the Bible. I related the story of Cain and Abel to them one day, and the next morning my little girl says: "Mam.., I dreamt about Abel and a large garden of flowers. I will inclose a wee mite.

LAUGHING WATER.

Part of your letter would go under the head of advertising, Laughing Water, so I could not publish it. I am sorry that you are not strong, as it is hard enough to do a big washing when one has good health. You could ask for the articles mentioned or, offer something in exchange, but as you offer to pay for them, I cannot publish that part of your letter. It is strange there are so many sects, all believing in the same God, but if we are sincere in our belief, that is all that is necessary, is it not?

WANTS MEN'S CLOTHING.

Dear Miss Grey,—I do hope you won't be offended at me for bothering you, but I am writing to ask if there are any of our readers who would be likely to have any men's clothes they are done with that they would let me have for my husband. He is not able to afford any, and is badly in need of everything a man wears. When I know he is trying his best for me and the kiddes (four and another coming), and gets nothing for himself, it makes me feel sorry for him. Now, Miss Grey, I know there are a number of people bothering you this way, and I hate to do it, but if there is anyone would bother to write and say they have anything, I would be glad to call for it. Inclosed find a hospital mite. Yours respectfully,

DADDY.

Yes, there have been many, many appeals for clothing, but we have such a large family to obtain help from that the needy Boxites usually receive some assistance, one way or another. If any of the city Boxites would like to help you out they could give their addresses and you could call for the parcels. Thanks for remembering the hospital fund when you are in need yourself.

LIKES OUR HOSPITAL WORK.

Dear Miss Grey,—May I come again? It is more than a year since I last visited your corner, although I never fail to read the interesting letters in your Mail-Box. I think Calamity Ann's idea of a cook book a very good plan, and I will try and help if it comes. How the Mail-Box is growing, as well as the hospital fund! Miss Grey, you certainly are a noble woman to stick to your work and just for the sake of those little kiddies. I wonder how many of the readers would be willing to change places in these hot summer days. I made a trip to Hamilton and through the rocky district, which I must tell all about in my next letter, if you will allow. Here's just a mite for the kiddies. How I do love them. I am aunt to two. Of course they are the best children in the world. Must close and will sign as before,

A SINGING LARK.

You used to write quite regularly, Singing Lark. What happened to you? again. Thanks for the tribute to my again. Thanks for the tribuate to my work. We are all human, and like a little praise now and again. I think a description of your trip would be most interesting, so let us hear from you again. Thank you for remembering the kiddie's fund. Of course your little nieces (or are they nephews?) are the best babies in the world. All babies are good, and it isn't their fault if they are not trained to do the correct thing, but it is the parents who are to blame.

Forgotten—Kindly send in your name and address, and I will be pleased to publish your letter. One of the rules of the Mail-Box is to sign your name and address.

DOES NOT ENVY CINTHY.

Dear Miss Grey,—May I peek into your interesting corner for a moment? I am sure you have not a very enviable position there in a hot office with only Mr. W. P. Basket for company. Still you receive some very enjoyable letters—that one from Calamity Ann especially. That is a delightful plan for raising money that she has introduced.

I see where Betty Bee has sent in a couple of riddles. Isn't that pretty little thing which is as round as an apple and as busy as a bee a watch? And isn't that man looking at his own picture?

Say, Lancashire Lass, you sure take your friends to some delightful places. May I join you on one of your trips?

Well, Miss Grey, I had better shut down, or you will think me a regular whirlwind. But, first, I'll send a couple of hints. Lemons will keep for weeks if put in glass sealers. Rubber mats for your sink are made easily by tieing together discarded jar rings.

I will close now, wishing I might see my letter in print. Let us hope.

VIRA VALERIE.

I am sure the editorial staff would not be highly complimented at your saying the only company I have is the waste paper basket. There are not very many uninteresting minutes in a newspaper office. As everyone seems to think Calamity Anne's plan an excellent one, I think she will have to start and collect the recipes. What do you think, Calamity Anne? I should not publish your letter, as you have broken one of the Mail-Box rules by not giving us your name and address. Please send it in as soon as possible. It was good of you to pass on your household hints to the boxites.

WITH THE BRIDES

YAGER—SIFTON.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sifton of Strathroy, was the scene of a pretty wedding at noon on Wednesday, Aug. 9, when their daughter, Atta, was married to Cecil Yager, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Yager, of Selkirk, Ont.

The ceremony was conducted by Rev. M. C. Parr of Appin. To the strains of Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus, played by Miss Vera Sifton, sister of the bride, the bridal party took their place in the living-room, which was prettily decorated in a color scheme of white and green, banks of ferns and flowers making an appropriate background.

The bride, who entered leaning on the arm of her father, was becomingly attired in a gown of white kitten's ear crepe and georgette with pearl trimmings, and wore a tulle veil, caught up with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of Sunset roses. She was attended by the ring-bearer, her little nephew, Master Kenneth Sifton, who carried a pretty basket of sweet peas, in which the ring was embedded.

During the signing of the register Miss Vera Sifton, accompanied by Mrs. M. C. Parr, sang "Until."

Luncheon was served in the dining-room from tables beautifully decorated with dahlias and ferns, and colors of rose and white. Mr. Winston Sifton and Miss Sifton served.

The groom's gift to the bride was a piano, to the ring-bearer a silver cup, and to the soloist a bar pin set with emerald and pearls.

Later the happy couple left, amid showers of confetti and rice, for Hamilton, Toronto, Selkirk, Niagara Falls and Buffalo. The bride traveled in dress of navy georgette and satin, with lip-stick red trimming, and wearing a white picture hat.

Guests were present from Selkirk, Hamilton, Appin, Wyoming and Lambeth.

Monday evening previous to the wedding the friends of the bride met at her home and presented her with many useful and pretty gifts.

SPELLEN—REILLY.

Our Lady of Mercy Church, Sarnia, was the scene of a very interesting event on Tuesday morning, Aug. 8, when Miss Frances Reilly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Mulligan, Brock street north, formerly of London, became the bride of Mr. John D. Speller of Toronto. The bride, who was given away by her father, was charmingly gowned in gray georgette crepe over nasturtium yellow taffeta, and large gray hat, and carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses and baby's breath. The bridesmaid, Miss Evelyn McCanon of Wallaceburg, cousin of the bride, wore a quaint frock of orchid taffeta and floral-trimmed leghorn hat, and carried Columbia roses. Both the bride and bridesmaid wore an antique-carved gold bracelet, set with rubies, a gift from the groom's mother, which she had worn at her wedding. Mr. E. A. Gignac of Windsor, Ontario, acted as best man.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Monsignor J. T. Aylward, and during the nuptial mass Miss Beatrice Hoban of Petrolea, and Mrs. Allair sang several solos, with Mrs. Eugene LaForge presiding at the organ. Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. Mulligan received, wearing a handsome gown of black radium lace, trimmed with long narrow streamers of jet beads and large black hat, trimmed with orchid buds.

Mr. and Mrs. Speller left on a motor trip to Detroit and Cleveland.

"What, particularly?"

"That it was Cayley's idea to drag the pond."

"Oh! Oh! I say!" Bill was rather excited again. "You mean that he's hidden something there? Some false clue which he wants the police to find?"

"I hope so," said Antony earnestly, "but I'm afraid——" He stopped short.

"Well?"

"What's the safest place in which to hide anything very important?"

"Somewhere where nobody will look."

"There's a better place than that."

"What?"

"Somewhere where everybody has already looked."

"By Jove! You mean that as soon as the pond has been dragged, Cayley will hide something there?"

"Yes, I'm afraid so."

"But why afraid?"

"Because I think that it must be something very important—something which couldn't easily be hidden anywhere else."

"What?" asked Bill, eagerly.

Antony shook his head.

"No, I'm not going to talk about it yet. We can wait and see what the inspector finds. He may find something that Cayley has put there for him to find. But if he doesn't then it will be because Cayley is going to hide something there tonight."

"What?" asked Bill again.

"You will see what, Bill," said Antony; "because we shall be there."

"Are we going to watch him?"

"Yes, if the inspector finds nothing."

"That's good," said Bill.

If it were a question of Cayley or the law, he was quite decided as to which side he was taking. Previous to the tragedy of yesterday he had got on well enough with both of the cousins, without being in the least intimate with either.

Yet, though he had hesitated to define his position that morning in regard to Mark, he did not hesitate to place himself on the side of the law against Cayley. Mark, after all, had done him no harm, but Cayley had committed an unforgiveable offence. Cayley had listened secretly to a private conversation between himself and Tony. Let Cayley hang, if the law demanded it.

Antony looked at his watch and stood up.

"Come along," he said. "It's time for that job I spoke about."

"The passage?" said Bill, eagerly.

"No, the thing which I said that I had to do this afternoon."

Without saying anything, Antony led the way indoors to the office.

It was three o'clock, and at three o'clock yesterday Antony and Cayley had found the body. At a few minutes after three, he had been looking out of the window of the adjoining room, and had been surprised suddenly to find the door open and Cayley behind him. He had vaguely wondered at the time why he had expected the door to be shut, but he had no time then to worry the thing out, and he had promised himself to look into it at his leisure afterward. He had decided that three o'clock that afternoon should find him once more in the office.

As he went into the room, followed by Bill, he felt it almost as a shock that there was now no body of Robert lying there between the two doors. But there was a dark stain which showed where the dead man's head had been, and Antony knelt down over it, as he had knelt twenty-four hours before.

"I want to go through it again," he said. "You must be Cayley. Cayley said he would get some water. Now, then, Bill, just pretend you're Cayley. You've just said something about water, and you get up."

"Feeling that it was a little uncanny, Bill, who had been kneeling beside his friend, got up and walked out. Antony, as he had done on the previous day, looked up after him as he went. Bill turned into the room from the right, and came back.

"Well?" he said, wonderingly.

Antony shook his head.

"It's all different," he said. "For one thing, you made a devil of a noise in there and Cayley didn't."

"Perhaps you weren't listening when Cayley went in?"

"I wasn't. But I should have heard him if I could have heard him, and I should have remembered afterward."

"Perhaps Cayley shut the door after him."

"Wait!"

He pressed his hand over his eyes and thought. It wasn't anything which he had heard, but something which he had seen. He tried desperately hard to see it again. . . . He saw Cayley getting up, opening the door from the office, leaving it open and walking into the passage, turning to the door on the right, opening it, going in, and then—What did his eyes see after that? If they would only tell him again!

Suddenly he jumped up, his face alight. "Bill, I've got it!" he cried.

"What?"

"The shadow on the wall! I was looking at the shadow on the wall. Oh, ass, and ten times ass!"

Bill looked uncomprehendingly at him. Antony took his arm and pointed to the wall of the passage.

"Look at the sunlight on it," he said. "That's because you've left the door of that room open. The sun comes straight in through the windows. Now, I'm going to shut the door. Look! D'you see how the shadow moves across? That's what I saw—the shadow moving across as the door shut behind him. Bill, go in and shut the door behind you—quite naturally. Quick!"

Bill went out and Antony knelt, watching eagerly.

"I thought so!" he cried. "I knew it couldn't have been that."

"What happened?" said Bill, coming back.

"Just what you would expect. The sunlight came, and the shadow moved back again—all in one movement."

"And what happened yesterday?"

"The sunlight stayed there; and then the shadow came very slowly back, and there was no noise of the door being shut."

Bill looked at him with startled eyes.

"By Jove! You mean that Cayley closed the door afterward—as an afterthought—and very quietly, so that you couldn't hear?"

Antony nodded.

"Yes. That explains why I was surprised afterward when I went into the room to find the door open behind me. You know how those doors with springs on them close?"

"The sort which old gentlemen have to keep out draughts?"

"Yes. Just at first they hardly move at all, and then very, very slowly they swing to—well, that was the way the shadow moved, and subconsciously I must have associated it with the movement of that sort of door. By Jove!" He got up, and dusted his knees. "Now, Bill, just to make sure, go in and close the door like that. As an afterthought, you know; and very quietly, so that I don't hear the click of it."

Bill did as he was told, and then put his head out eagerly to hear what had happened.

"That was it," said Antony, with absolute conviction. "That was just what I saw yesterday." He came out of the office, and joined Bill in the little room.

"And now," he said, "let's try and find out what it was that Mr. Cayley was doing in here, and why he had to be so very careful that his friend, Mr. Gillingham, didn't overhear him."

HE TRIED DESPERATELY HARD TO SEE IT AGAIN.

CHAPTER XIII.

ANTONY'S first thought was that Cayley had hidden something—but that was absurd. In the time at his disposal, he could have done no more than put it away in a drawer, where it would be much more open to discovery by Antony than if he had kept it in his pocket.

Bill pulled open a drawer in the chest, and looked inside.

"Why did he keep clothes here at all?" Antony asked. "Did he ever change down here?"

"My dear Tony, he had more clothes than anybody in the world. He just kept them here in case they might be useful, I expect."

"I see. Yes." He was walking around the room as he answered, and he lifted the top of the linen basket which stood near the wash basin and glanced in. "He seems to have come in here for a collar lately."

Bill peered in. There was one collar at the bottom of the basket.

"Yes. I daresay he would," he agreed. "If he suddenly found that the one he was wearing was uncomfortable or a little bit dirty, or something. He was very finicking."

Antony leant over and picked it out.

"It must have been uncomfortable this time," he said, after examining it carefully. "It couldn't very well be cleaner." He dropped it back again. But what did Cayley come in for so secretly?"

"What did he want to shut the door for?" said Bill. "You couldn't have seen him, anyhow."

"No. So it follows he was going to do something which he didn't want me to hear."

"By Jove, that's it!" said Bill eagerly.

"Yes; but what?"

Bill frowned hopefully to himself, but no inspiration came.

"Well, let's have some air, anyway," he said at last, exhausted by the effort, and he went to the window opened it, and looked out. Then, struck by an idea, he turned back to Antony and said: "Do you think I had better go up to the pond to make sure that they're still at it? Because—" He broke off suddenly at the sight of Antony's face.

"Oh, idiot, idiot!" Antony cried. "Oh, most super-excellent of Watsons! Oh, you lamb, you blessing! Oh, Gillingham, you incomparable ass!"

"What on earth—"

"The window, the window!" cried Antony, pointing to it.

Bill turned back to the window, expecting it to say something. As it said nothing, he looked at Antony again.

"He was opening the window!" cried Antony.

"Who?"

"Cayley, of course." Very gravely and slowly he expounded. "He came in here in order to open the window. He shut the door so that I shouldn't hear him open the window. He opened the window. I came in here and found the window open. I said, 'This window is open. My amazing powers of analysis tell me that the murderer must have escaped by this window.' 'Oh,' said Cayley, raising his eyebrows. 'Well,' said he, 'I suppose you must be right.' Said I proudly, 'I am. For the window is open,' I said. Oh, you incomparable ass!"

Nobody's Darling

Old Tablecloths a Sweet Frock Now

BY MARGARET ROHE.

Our little home is not the same
As once it used to be;
Belinda's using all the sheets
To make her lingerie;
The roller towel used to hang
Behind the kitchen door,
It's now a dress and hangs behind
Matilda and before;
Our tablecloth that covered once
Our table where we dine
Now covers Dorothea with
Its red and white design.
On using all these household things
For clothes, the girls are bugs,
I only hope they stop before
They use the parlor rugs.

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—Balzac once wrote of a hero in "The Magic Skin," who never fell in love with a lady, no matter how beautiful, unless she were dressed in the richest of fabrics—silks, satins and lace.

What with all the 1922 model, summer girls all dolled up in frocks evolved from the lowly sheet, the sordid towel and the humble tablecloth, to say nothing of the utilitarian blanket, the poor moron would have had a mighty loveless existence in these parts.

Whoever said "Perversity, thy name is woman," certainly had the right idea. Here, when all the manufacturers are turning out dress fabrics and materials as ravishing and exquisite as an Oriental's dream, the dear girls "treat them with spurn" and turn to the homely furnishings of the domestic hearth for their sartorial inspirations.

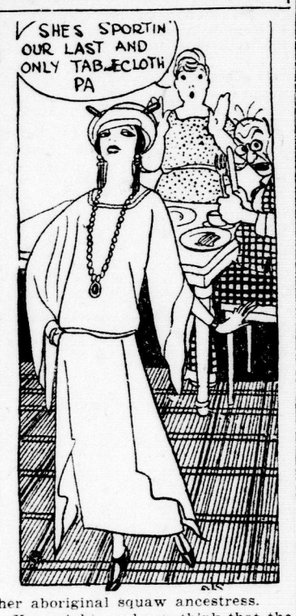
No hand-woven linen sheet is safe in the hands of the summer girl of 1922. Heirloom or no heirloom, with vandal fingers she ravages the linen chest and slashes into the age-yellowed sheets with irreverent but capable and artistic hands.

The smart, one-piece frocks that emerge are models of exquisite chic and simplicity. Certainly sheets as a covering for the human body have taken on unexpected and delightful possibilities.

Blanket Now a Dress.

The old hand-woven blanket that our grandsires used literally for woolen sheets have been turned into the smartest homespun dresses, gay with varicolored yarn embroidery and fringed, fore and aft, around the skirt and sleeves.

The American summer girl takes to the blanket attire with an avidity that shows a reversal to type and her aboriginal squaw ancestress.



You might, perhaps, think that the little old roller towel would be secure in its sequestered nook behind the kitchen door, but no—Miss 1922 has seen its sartorial possibilities and pounced upon it.

Using the plain crash center to fashion her dress, she edges the sleeves, skirt and pockets with the red or blue border and truly looks a high roller herself when she dons her towel handiwork.

Tablecloths, Too.

Tablecloths are also being worn this season. It is quite startling to see the red or blue and white checked farmhouse or kitchen type enwrapping fashionable femininity.

The more elegant imported type of damask cloths in floral designs and pastel tints of blue, pink, yellow and white are used, too, most effectively.

If this craze for tablecloth frocks keeps up we will soon be forced to eat off bare boards or take to oilcloth.

It would be almost worth it, however, as they do make such lovely dresses and, believe me, when a girl is all wrapped up in one of these colored tablecloths, she is sure all that "set" for somebody.

Cynthia Grey's Mail-Box

TEN, WITHOUT BABY.

Dear Miss Grey,—Here is another new-comer to your cosy corner. I am the older girl of the Boxite who signed herself Mother of Nine, and it was she who forgot to put in the small mite promised. We saw in today's paper that you thought it was Sunflower No. 2 who had forgotten, so I thought I would write a letter and tell you. We love to read the letters so much, and I often wonder if any other girls between 16 and 18 would like to correspond with me. If so, I would like them to write first. I will inclose my address. We live on a farm, and have an awful lot of work to do. There are ten at the table without the baby, and she cries every time the meal is ready; then we scold her, although we like her so much at the same time. Well I wonder if there are some more girls who live on farms like myself, who don't get a chance to get away very much. I have no older brother or sister. Find the mite inclosed this time for sure.

OCTOBER.

Your letter reminds me of a story I read once, "The Five Little Peppers and How They Grew," only they lived in the city instead of out in the country, which is so much more healthy for growing children. It would be interesting for you to correspond with some girl who lives on a farm. You could compare notes with her, and in this way find ways of making your work easier. The mite reached the mite-box all right this time, October. You will have to write a most interesting letter when your month comes along. Was October the month you were born in?

SENDS HER ADDRESS.

Dear Miss Grey,—On looking over today's Advertiser I noticed where Rosebud wanted my address so am sending it in. If there are any crochet patterns in the Mail-Box I would be pleased to have them, especially yokes and edges. I will return them as soon as possible. I am sending an envelope for same. Inclosed find dime for S. C. H. MADGE.

Your address is already on the way to Rosebud. I have also sent a yoke pattern and a few crochet edges, which I hope you will like. Many thanks for remembering the hospital fund with a mite.

HELPS HARD-UP LIZZIE.

Dear Miss Grey—I always read letters addressed to your Mail-Box, and love to study the different characters of the writers, for a letter usually reveals much of the heart and nature of the writer, does it not?

I write many letters to my friends, and they are usually long ones, for I am a long talker, you seee. I will curb my failing, state my business and bow myself out. I always feel sorry for those seeking help through the Mail-Box, and heartily wish I could help in a more substantial way, as I, too, am obliged to use every article as long as it can be used at all. Enough said about myself, but am sending several things my daughter gave me, and hope Hard-Up Lizzie will find them fit her children without altering them. I believe there could be even more help given in the way of clothing in the Mail-Box than is, if those who read would just take the trouble to look over their wearing apparel and send on to the needy all they are not using at the time. Don't you think so, Miss Grey?

Inclosed you will find a mite for the S. C. H.

SYMPATHY.

I find it more than interesting reading the characters of my different boxites. We would be more careful in the building of our letters, also of the writing, if we realized how we were judged by our correspondence. It was very good of you to share your clothing with Hard-Up Lizzie, when you are kept busy making both ends meet yourself, Sympathy. But possibly it is because you know what trouble means that you are so sympathetic with others. Thanks, too, for remembering our hospital fund.

A NEW-COMER.

I am just a new-comer to your cosy corner, but I have enjoyed reading your Mail-Box for a long time, so I am sending my mite for the S. C. H. F. Will write again soon if I may. Wishing you and the Mail-Boxites every success,

NEW MOON.

Such a brief little letter New Moon, but your fanciful pen name is a give-away. I am positive you are a dreamer, and could write us a most interesting letter. You are generous too, and many thanks for the mite. We will be looking for that letter, so don't disappoint us, will you?

WANTS ADDRESSES.

Dear Miss Grey,—I think I am writing to your Mail-Box quite often. It is a very interesting corner, I wish you would please give me Dictionary's address, also Kip's. Find inclosed a mite for S. C. H. fund. I think I can answer that riddle Betty Bee gave — a watch. Am I right? MISS MAYFLOWER.

Dictionary's and Kip's addresses have been mailed to you, Miss Mayflower. I don't know if "a watch' is the answer to Betty Bee's riddle or not. She will have to tell you. Many thanks for remembering the hospital fund with your mite. The summer months have not made the Boxites lax with their donations this year. Other years they have fallen off considerably.

Dear Miss Grey—This is my first letter to your Mail-Box, and I think the Mail-Box is a wonderful thing. I just love reading the letters. I am staying with my sister for a little holiday, and she gets the paper with your wonderful letters in. I take a great interest in them. I was reading where some of your readers give a little help in the way of children's and baby clothes. I am in need of both. I have four little children, one a baby of 6 months. My husband is out of work. If anyone could help me in that way I would be much obliged; also if anyone would like to write to me. I am a lone lass myself, and I am always glad to hear from any of the Boxites. I will close now, wishing the Boxites and you, Miss Grey, every success. I would like to write again, if I may.

LITTLE MOTHER OF FOUR.

It is a wonderful Mail-Box. At least, I think so, as there are many wonderful Boxites writing to it. There have been numerous requests for clothing, and I am just thinking, sometimes, that all the attics must be cleaned out, when along comes a Boxite offering clothes. So you may be fortunate enough to receive some, also. I have placed your name on file, in case it is asked for. I hope you are enjoying your visit with your sister. I spent a week-end in that town this spring, and greatly enjoyed it.

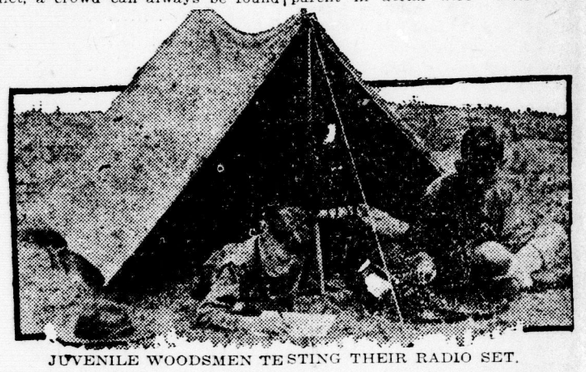
Radio Radiations

CULVER, Ind., Aug. 16.—Lads of today who play at being woodsmen have adopted radio and are learning the code for wireless communication.

In the Culver School of Woodcraft, where 350 boys of 10 to 14 are devoting their summer to the study of woodcraft and the lessons of field and stream, radio is an important feature. They have literally stampeded their three instructors in their zeal to keep apace with Marconi.

When the baseball diamond is deserted and the swimming pier is quiet, a crowd can always be found around the radio shack, an old-time one-room log cabin squatting in the mist of the woodcrafters' tented camp. Or toward evening, small groups of boys may be seen tuning up their own sets up beside their "pup tents."



JUVENILE WOODSMEN TESTING THEIR RADIO SET.

Daily Classes.

Five classes in the elementary principles of radio are held daily in the open air outside the radio shack. Woodcrafters learn the general service code of the Boy Scout Manual and considerable technical matter. They get a good taste of the science in learning how to receive and send and in taking care of an outfit.

As pupils advance they are scheduled for special instruction in the radio shack. There they get their hands on apparatus in actual operation and in contact with the biggest broadcasting stations in the land and overseas. Some progress until they are fitted to take the examination for an amateur's license.

The woodcraft station at Culver is 9NY. It is located on the campus of Culver Military Academy, on the shores of Lake Maxinkuckee in northern Indiana, and is one of five stations on the academy property.

RADIO PRIMER.

SKIN EFFECT—Non-uniformity of current distribution in the cross-section of a conductor. This is apparent in aerial wire where the amplitude of the high-frequency current is largest at the surface and decreases as it nears the axis of the wire. To reduce skin effect, antenna wire is often built up of fine strands.

BASEBALL and LATE SPORTING NEWS

REIS SHUTS OUT BRANTS AS TECS MAUL SALADNA

Seven Runs in Two Frames Mark Concentrated Attack of Londoners—Add Two More in Eighth.

Having a $10,000 price label stuck on him and pitching every other day isn't what big John Saladna conceives as a set of fortunate circumstances, and being blanked 9—0 by the Wetzel gang, as he was yesterday, certainly doesn't tend to put much joy into the big fellow's lot in baseball.

However, that's what happened the Brant pitching ace yesterday after he and Reis until the third frame had started right into the heart of what looked like a high-tension duel.

Hereabouts, with three on, Stimpson one of them through an exceedingly scratchy hit, Jack Schaefer mischievously put a decimal point where the comma ought to be on the $10,000 price ticket with a spanking three-bagger to right field, and the debacle was on, and the Londoners scored seven runs in the fourth and fifth cantos and two more in their eighth.

Toils Easily.

Reis toiled peacefully and easily along, touched up now and again for hits that amounted to the grand total of five, and when he was in sight of danger he put the strikeout sign out, having notched seven on his gun handle yesterday.

Saladna had plenty of the high finance stuff in spots, but it's a hard price—$10,000—to have to live down in the Mint League, and the big fellow, as well as being handsomely mauled, was the target of much verbiage from the fans, who apparently wished to forget if they knew that the big fellow has turned in four wins in the last eight starts of his club, and even if he is a glutton for work, he isn't twins.

The Londoners hadn't succeeded in making a dint in Saladna's armor for three frames, when Stimpson succeeded in knocking a merry-go-round grounder which had the whole Brant infield chasing it, but not in time for a putout. Butler's choice cut Stimpson off at second, but Blake made another dint with a single to right. This is where Jack Schaefer produced his triple and almost an open rupture in diplomatic relations between Big John and his boss, who was doing the receiving. This scored two runs, and Schaefer came in on Mackey's gentle bunt. Coogan struck out.

Break Out Again.

The first two were gone when the Londoners, who were on the verge of getting dubbed "hitless wonders" last week, broke out into hits again in the fifth, Reis starting it with a hot smash at second. Stimpson singled to centre and Butler was hit. Blake stepped into a double at this stage, scoring two, and Schaefer's single to right, which wasn't fielded very promptly, scored the other two runners.

Schaefer put another brick on his batting average structure with a double in the eighth, was safe when Mackey hit a choice and Murman muffed the peg at third. Coogan hit a choice which put Mackey out of the running, and then Boyle singled through the inner works, Schaefer scoring. As Saladna worked over Churry Boyle started for second and drew a peg to second, Coogan stealing Mickey's family plate right under his experienced eyes. Churry flied out to end the inning.

The Brants got as many as two men on several times, but never actually made a real threatening gesture until the ninth, when Donnelly was safe on a hit to the hot corner. Edgren was out on a fine running catch by Stimpson, and Thut drew a walk. Lalonge went out to right, but Murman drew a walk, filling the bases. Hess, a former battery mate of Reis, stepped in as pinch-hitter, but he didn't pinch even a foul and whiffed. The score:

PLAY 5—5 TIE.

Grand Trunks and Greene-Swift tailors played a 5—5 tie last night at Queen's park. The tailors forged ahead with two runs in their final inning, but the one tally the Trunks got in their half knotted up the count.

The Trunks had a two-hit margin, but mishaps to the number of three offset this advantage.

MOONSHINE FROM SUNSHINE PARK

Tonight's game between St. Mikes and St. Marys is billed as a thriller, as it will mean a great deal to the winner, since these two teams are battling tooth and nail for the top of mast.

* * *

St. Martins continue to show real class in their defensive play, as the lately-published fielding averages evince.

* * *

The copping of the honors for this series is still a toss-up between the three leading outfits, as each is going strong and is liable to brace up and leave the best of the field at any time.

* * *

* * *

St. Marys attribute their defeat at the hands of St. Martins the other night to the fact that Noonan, a slow ball artist, was used against them, when they were all set to bump off one of their opponents' fast hurlers.

* * *

There seems to be a strong sentiment in favor of the pennant-winners at Sunshine playing off in an elimination series with the victors in the other two local amateur leagues for the city sandlot title.

* * *

Jimmie Fitzmaurice continues to render universal satisfaction in his impiring. Strange to say, Jimmie seems to remain immune from any harsh criticism on the part of the fans.

HARTLINE'S HOMERS STOP HAMS' STREAK

Weineke Found For Three Hits Less Than Glynn.

HAMILTON, Aug. 15.—Hartline's two home runs scoring Regan ahead of him in each case gave the Kitchener Beavers a 6—5 victory over Hamilton today and broke up the locals' winning streak. Weineke was found for three less hits than Marty Glynn and Don Summers, but the hitting of Hartline was murderous. Kuhn of Hamilton also had a homer, but no one was on ahead of him. The score:

WOLVES WIN TRAVESTY.

PORT HURON, Mich., Aug. 15.—In a travesty on the American pastime the Bay City Wolves hammered two Saint pitchers for 14 hits and 13 runs, and won 13 to 7. They were aided by seven Saint errors. Knoll, with a home run, triple and single, was the batting star of the day.

Burleigh Horne was forced out of the game for an indefinite time when he sprained his ankle when he ran against the fence chasing Knoll's homer.

VEHICS BOOT IT AWAY.

FLINT, Aug. 15.—Flint kicked away another ball game today, giving Saginaw a 7 to 5 victory in the opening game of the series. Six errors paved the way for six runs for Saginaw in the eighth and ninth innings, though Miller hit a homer to the club-house and Robertson got his second triple in the same direction.

Jackson pitched fine ball for the Vehics and deserved to win, but his support wobbled at critical periods.

N. Y. STATE COMMISH HOPS ON 3 SMALL FIGHTERS

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—Jack Sharkey, featherweight, and Midget Smith, bantamweight, both of New York, and Jabez White, bantamweight, of Albany, and their managers, Joe Wagner and Harry Near, were indefinitely suspended today by the New York State Boxing Commission, pending action by the New Jersey State Commission.

The Empire State body acted when the New Jersey commission notified it that the five men were barred from that state until an investigation is held Thursday into their failure to appear in contracted engagements.

The Victor

JOHNNY DUNDEE.

THESE two battled last night for the featherweight championship of the world in New York Italian with the Scotch moniker, won over Danny Frush, the London, England, Jew. Dundee, already the junior lightweight champion, has another title, but probably doesn't know what he'll do with it outside New York State.

TEN TEAMS ENTERED NEW CITY SOFTBALL LEAGUE LAST NIGHT

The City Soft Ball League was further advanced last night at a meeting held in the "Y," and nine teams are already entered with provision made for the entry of a tenth, the Advertiser Mailers.

The games will be played Saturday afternoon on city playgrounds, and if ten teams are entered, double-headers will be necessary to get through even a single schedule.

Distributed over the teams are many stars at the indoor game, and the league should develop some fine soft ball.

The teams entered are: W. O. R.'s, R. C. R., 12th Field Battery, Penmans, Y. M. C. A., West London, Grays, McCormicks, St. Paul's Choir and Thames Park.

W. O. R.'s, 12th, Penmans, Y. M. C. A. and McCormick form one group.

Meet Again.

Birkett Dads and Tecumseh Dads meet in a return game on the former playgrounds tonight. The Birkett gang are confident of repeating their victory over the Tecumseh fathers, and a big crowd is sure to be on hand to see the fest.

ORIOLES BEATEN 22 RUNS TO FIVE

OTTAWAS PULL FIRST COUP OF COMING GRID YEAR

OTTAWA, Aug. 15.—While it is a bit early to start the rugby ramblings, the chatter has commenced to circulate among the knowing ones, and the fans are starting to make inquiry as to the personnel of the probable representatives from the capital in the senior associations. Ottawas are sure to operate in the old circuit, and a meeting will shortly be held to whip things into shape for the coming season. St. Brigids hold a place in the O. R. F. U., but it is not yet decided if they will operate it or hold it open for another year.

The Ottawas are given credit for the first coup of the year in receiving an intimation that G. M. ("Babe") Bradfield is shortly to locate in Ottawa, and has already been lined up for the Senators. Bradfield, at outside wing for the Argos last year, was one of the most useful men on the champions' roster.

PARIS SAINTS TAKE LEAD IN SOFTBALL LEAGUE

PARIS, Aug. 15.—The crucial game of the Holy Name Softball League was played last evening at O'Neil's Park. The Saints defeated the All Stars by a score of 18 to 17 in one of the best games seen at the park this year. Good pitching for the Saints and errors by the All Stars accounted for their win.

The score:
Saints .....802 023 3—18
All Stars .....410 232 5—17

BRITISH GOLFERS WIN.

TORONTO, Aug. 15.—George Duncan and Abe Mitchell, British golf professionals, today defeated W. J. and Frank Thompson, local amateurs, by two up and one to go in a 36-hole best ball match.

GRAND CIRCUIT OPENS AT BELMONT

Rene Azoff Wins Directors' Stakes in Field of Twelve.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 15. — The Grand Circuit harness races opened today at the old Belmont Driving Park with four contests carded, three for trotters and one for pacers.

Keen interest was evidenced in the directors' stake for a $1,000 purse, and the Joshua Evans trophy, which was open to horses owned in Pennsylvania. Rene Azoff, a daughter of Azoff, driven by Walker Garrison, won the race in straight heats from a field of twelve starters.

The Matthews stake for 2:07 trotters, purse $1,000, went to King Watts, driven by Lon McDonald, who won each of the three heats, also taking down the A. B. Matthews Cup.

Nat Ray, driving Robert Direct, got away with the first two heats of the Adelphia, a purse of $1,000 and the Adelphia Hotel trophy, by winning the first two heats.

The novelty of the day was a one-heat dash of one mile, the horses starting 40 yards behind the mark. The purse was $600. Tallahatchie, driven by Fred Edman, took first money.

NEHF.

ARTIE NEHF, the crack southpaw of the New York Giants, has always found the Pittsburg team to his liking. The Pirates haven't beaten him since August 31, 1920. During that time Nehf has opposed the Pittsburg club twelve times and scored a victory each time.

Eleven straight wins over a ball club like Pittsburg constitutes something of a pitching record. In those eleven games the Pirates were able to make only 15 runs, an average of less than a run and a half per game.

Prior to the trade that brought him to New York, Nehf was a member of the Boston Braves. Even with that club he exerted a strong influence over the Pittsburg team, winning 12 and losing 7.

However, when he joined the Giants he began to wield an even more potent influence. As a member of the New York Club he has won 17 and lost only two games to Pittsburg.

LITTLE DRIBBLES

The 1st W. O. R. team will journey to St. Thomas tonight, where they will meet the United Vets in a St. Thomas City League game, which was postponed on the 29th of July. These two teams met at Springbank two weeks ago and the W. O. R. ran out winners by 4—0, but since the Vets defeated the St. Andrew F. C. last Saturday by the tune of 4—1 they feel confident that they can take the W. O. R. into their own camp and send the Black and White Shirts back to London with the same defeat as they sent the Scots home with on Saturday. The following players are requested to meet at the L. P. S. depot at 5:15 sharp and will leave on the 5:20 car for the Flower City: Nudds, Ashton, Dennis, Herring, Whitworth, Moulden, Shortt, Taylor, Turner, Ridley, Perkins, Woods, Ferris.

LONDON IS ONE CENTER NAMED

Takes in Schools From Seven Nearby Counties.

TORONTO, Aug. 15.—The pet scheme of John F. McGarry and P. J. Mulqueen, one big day for the schoolboy athletes of the province, is about to be realized. The Ontario athletic commission, in conjunction with the Ontario amateur union, is arranging for eleven schoolboy meets September 23, and is suggesting that preliminary games be held a week or so earlier to pick out the best for the games of September 23. There are to be no admission fees and the races are to be held in public parks where possible. The program is standardized and the events are all limited to boys and girls of 15 and under.

They are: 13 years and under—75 yards, running broad jump; 15 years and under—100 yards, 220 yards, running broad jump, running high jump, pole vault, 8-pound shot, half-mile relay (4 boys to a team, all from the same school). Girls, 15 and under—75 yard dash.

The following divisions have been made of the province:

1. Counties of Haldimand, Welland and Lincoln, at St. Catharines.
2. Counties of Norfolk, Brant and Wentworth, at Brantford.
3. Counties of Lambton, Middlesex, Huron, Bruce, Essex, Kent and Elgin, at London.
4. Counties of Grey, Dufferin, Peel, Simcoe, Oxford, Wellington, Waterloo and Perth, at Guelph.
5. Counties of York, Ontario, Victoria, Haliburton, Durham, Northumberland and Peterboro, at Peterboro.
6. Counties of Hastings, Prince Edward, Lennox, Addington and Frontenac, at Belleville.
7. Counties of Leeds, Grenville, Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry, at Cornwall.
8. Counties of Renfrew, Lanark, Carleton, Russell and Prescott, at Ottawa.
9. Districts of Muskoka, Parry Sound and Nipissing, at North Bay.
10. Sault Ste. Marie District, at Sault Ste. Marie.
11. Port Arthur District, at Port Arthur.

The commission is donating first, second and third medals for the several events for all these centers. A special die is being made for the commission medals, which will be used in future as the official prize of the commission.

The champions selected at this meet Sept. 23 will be invited to compete at the S. P. A. schoolboys' championship meet at the Exhibition grounds Sept. 30.

16-YEAR-OLD STAR BEATS MRS. BICKLE

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Aug. 15.—Miss Helen Wills, the 16-year-old San Francisco star, defeated Mrs. Harry Bickle of Toronto, the Canadian champion, 6—2, 6—1 in the women's national singles tennis championship at the West Side Club today.

Mrs. Molla Bjursdtet Mallory of New York, the playing-through champion, beat Miss Molly D. Thayer of Philadelphia 6—2, 6—0.

In eliminating a seasoned opponent, Miss Wills exhibited a game that sparkled, though the game was closer than the bare score indicated. Both players varied in placing in a manner reminiscent of the ranking men players, but Miss Wills always held control.

Driving forehand and backhand with almost perfect precision, Miss Wills never permitted her Canadian opponent to become set, and was constantly campaigning to the net, where she smashed and chopped return strokes for placement aces that left Mrs. Bickle flat-footed. Mrs. Bickle's vaunted speed was of no avail.

London Soon To Boast Two Eighteen-Hole Golf Courses With New Highland Club

ROYAL AND ANCIENT GAME GETS 100 NEW DEVOTEES

Members of New Club Playing Now On Nine Temporary Holes—Informally Open Clubhouse Monday.

BY ISABEL C. ARMSTRONG.

"We have made 100 golfers in two months at the Highland Gold Club. Think of it, a hundred golfers!"

The speaker was a conservative London businessman, cautious in speech. He is still. That is the "John" the public has always known. Today there is a new John, not yet a year old. He is a worshipper of the great god "Goff," has been elected to the board of directors of London's new and flourishing club, and never was there more zealous evangelist for any cause.

Up and down throughout the length and breadth of the city can be found a hundred or two just such eager young "Johns," not to mention Mrs. Johns and Miss Johns. Since the advent of the new club the gospel of golf has spread apace, and become a leavening influence. Conversely, golf is rapidly becoming a democratic institution, and not the diversion of idle rich or exclusive few.

Any morning, afternoon or early evening men and women with clubs and caddies can be seen diligently sending their balls over the temporary nine-hole course, which will be replaced by the permanent eighteen-hole course early next season. But the canny Scotch "pro," George Innes, doesn't say they are all golfers. He doesn't even admit the club, with 350 members enrolled to date, has "made" 100 golfers in the past two months. He might go so far as to say, however, that the "Highland" has an exceptionally high average of golf enthusiasts, and quite a number of them, no doubt, will make very good players some day.

Club House Nears Completion.

While playing has been in order for several weeks past, the club house, a transformed farm home, is only now nearing completion, to be ready for informal opening on Monday next. No ceremonies will attend upon this, simply a throwing open of the doors. The real "house-warming" will be deferred till a later date when more of the members are in town.

Where is the Highland Golf Club, and how do you get at it?"

"Exactly twenty-two minutes from the corner of Dundas and Richmond streets, twelve minutes by car to the end of the Ridout line, then a ten-minutes walk," was the answer to these questions given the other day by one of the members.

"Is that an optimistic estimate?" he was asked.

"An absolutely accurate one," he declared. "Timed it over and over again. Took out a man this week who isn't a fast walker and he timed the trip from the end of the car line on Ridout street south to the club house. It took exactly nine minutes."

And they do tell the tale that buses are going to run out regularly for the convenience of people who cannot afford automobiles of their own, and who feel the exercise on the links is sufficient without more walking.

From the foregoing, the inference may be drawn the Highland Golf Club is in a southerly direction. Entrance to the 140 acres of rolling meadow and woodland which now constitute the club property is achieved from the "commissioners' road." Broad verandas are being built around the solid brick farm house, which was one of the features which commended to the promoters the "key" property to the course. In front are green lawns gay with flower beds on either side, alluring old apple orchards with inviting seats already placed on the close-clipped grass under the trees.

An Enthusiast.

Even before a trip over the course, a young business woman exclaimed the other morning, "Instead of going on a trip and paying money to a summer hotel, I'm going to use $25 of my holiday money on the entrance fee and spend every day of my vacation out here under these trees."

Back past the office and "shop" of the pro, the course runs upwards till the crown of the height of land surrounding London is reached and the finest view of the city and district possible in any direction obtained. It is said that on a clear day Kirkton, 25 miles or so north can be sighted, and the smoke of trains leaving Ingersoll to the east.

A little drop to the left and the first green is reached, where The Advertiser's photographer caught a group of well-known businessmen Tuesday critically watching Innes drive from the second tee.

Down below was a grey ribbon of roadway climbing in close company with stately elm trees and bushy hawthorn. Off to the west lay that pride of the club, a valuable bit of white oak woods, and, fringing the view to the north, still more woodland, already showing in spots the vivid crimson and rich brown of autumn foliage.

Wonderful Views.

"All you have got to do is to let the people see the views and go over the course for themselves, and they want to become shareholders or members right away," a director had stated. On a day when it was stifling in the city and the sun beat down relentlessly, the Highland golf course was fanned by a stiff breeze and overhead soared flocks of birds giving voice to joyous notes. Every few yards brought to view interesting new vistas, glimpses of the city, in which church spires stood out in striking relief, and great factories could be distinguished, telling without words the story of London's great industrial activities. On the whole, the Highland Golf Club is not only a credit to London but most flattering to the Forest City. Getting a panoramic view from the vantage ground of the links, the stranger might be excused for sizing up London Town as a municipality of five hundred thousand souls.

The Highland Golf Club, which is already proving a great boon to "tired businessmen" as well as "tired businesswomen," professional people, numbers stricken with "golfitis" who never dreamed they would live to see such a day, is a dream come true which some tired businessmen had less than a year ago. They went north on their vacations. For the first time in their busy lives they were brought into close grips with golf. They may have looked on to criticize, but they remained to appreciate. They liked to be able to hold the clubs properly, and they determined to learn to drive 75, 85, or more yards as a matter of course, and to get the ball safely started without first digging trenches.

They talked the matter over with friends who confessed to the same experiences and attitude of mind towards golf.

It stood to reason that one 18-hole course in the city of London couldn't provide enough golf for all the tired businessmen and others who would like to play. Also it was necessary to learn to play. They said, "Let there be a new golf club."

And there is a new golf club, the Highland Golf Club, in which shares have already appreciated from 100 to 150, and every week sees 25 or 30 new names added to the roll of membership. Incidentally, the ex-Canadian amateur champion, Frank Thompson, is out helping to supervise the construction of the permanent course. A small army of men, under R. W. Oliver, landscape architect, is at work on this momentous task, "housed" in a tented village in the south-east corner of the club estate.

"The beauty of it is," says the "new John" director, "we are mostly all duds together, and we don't mind in the least learning to play there. It is pretty ticklish for a self-respecting man to go into an old club where everyone is experienced."

By the way, "Who's who" in the Highland Golf Club? John Pringle, who has put over many notable enterprises in the history of London, is the president; E. S. Little, vice-president, and C. R. Collyer, secretary-treasurer. Other members of the board of directors are John M. Moore, Arthur T. Little, T. H. Main, J. Kent Campbell and Jared Vining.

New Links Has View Dominating London and Environs

TOP—Shows the rolling and wooded nature of the site of the new course and a view of the fourth hole with some of the enthusiastic members out at morning practice.

PIRATES SHAKE NEHF AS THEIR JINX

Knock Artie Out of Box in the Second Frame.

CINCINNATI, O., Aug. 15.—Donohue was in rare form today and the Reds shut out the Phillies 3 to 0. Meadows was also effective except in the third, when the locals scored all their runs.

The score:			R.	H.	E.
Cincinnati	003	000 00x	3	12	2

Meadows and Henline; Donohue and Wingo.

PIRATES HIT HARD.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Aug. 15.—Pittsburg, by hard hitting, defeated New York today, 6 to 2, shaking off the hoodoo that Arthur Nehf has held on them for years. Nehf was knocked out of the box in the second inning. Cooper held the Glants to five hits.

The score:			R.	H.	E.
New York	000	001 001	2	5	0
Pittsburg	210	010 02x	6	12	1

Nehf, Jonnard and Snyder; Cooper and Schmidt.

CUBS TAKE TWO.

CHICAGO, Aug. 15.—Chicago took both games of a double-header from Boston today by score of 5 to 0 and 8 to 3. The double victory coupled with New York's defeat by Pittsburg, placed the Cubs within three and a half games of the leaders. The scores:

First game:			R.	H.	E.
Chicago	011	200 01x	5	10	0

Braxton, Watson and O'Neill; Kaufmann and O'Farrell.

Second game:			R.	H.	E.
Boston	000	002 100	3	7	2
Chicago	310	000 22x	8	9	1

McNamara and Gowdy; Jones, Cheeves and O'Farrell.

WARTON RED MEN ADD STEVENSON, SOUTHAMPTON

SOUTHAMPTON, Aug. 14. — E. "Bobbie" Stevenson, who played with the Southampton team last winter and the lacrosse team this summer, has signed up with the Wiarton Redmen for the coming hockey season.

"Bobbie" is a fast skater and a good stick-handler, and should prove a valuable addition to Wiarton's famous hockey team.

WHITE SOX PILE UP 25 KNOCKS

Meusel's Homer Ties Tigers, and Elmer Smith's Homer Wins.

BOSTON, Aug. 15.—Chicago made 25 hits today and defeated Boston 19 to 11, the winners using four pitchers and Boston five. A bare-handed stop by E. Collins and a running catch by Strunk were brilliant features.

The score:	R.	H.	E.
Chicago	033 020 227	19	25	1
Boston	200 107 010	11	18	0

Robertson, Courtney, Blankenship, Faber and Schalk; Pennock, W. Collins, Quinn, Russell, Ferguson and Ruel.

HOMERS DEFEAT TIGERS.

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—Meusel's home run in the ninth, which tied the score, and Elmer Smith's circuit drive in the tenth, gave the Yankees a 2 to 1 victory over Detroit today. In his first appearance here as a Yankee, Elmer Smith, substituting for Babe Ruth, smacked out a homer in the final frame, with two out.

The score:	R.	H.	E.
Detroit	100 000 000 0	1	2	1
New York	000 000 001 1	2	11	0

Ehmke, Oldham and Bassler; Shawkey and Schang.

DIVIDE BARGAIN.

Philadelphia, Aug. 15.—Cleveland and Philadelphia divided a double-header today, the former winning the first game, 11 to 4, and Philadelphia the second, 7 to 4. Tillie Walker made his 26th homer in the first game and his 27th in the second contest. The scores:

First game:	R.	H.	E.
Cleveland	012 000 161	11	15	0
Philadelphia	000 000 031	4	9	3

Morton and O'Neill; Naylor, Heimach, Sullivan, Eckert and Perkins.

Second game:	R.	H.	E.
Cleveland	003 001 000	4	11	0
Philadelphia	110 210 20x	7	13	1

Lindsey, Edmunson and O'Neill; Rommell and Bruggy, Perkins.

BROWNS DIVIDE.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—St. Louis split even in a double-header here today, winning 7 to 1, after being defeated in the opener 6 to 1. The scores:

First game:	R.	H.	E.
St. Louis	000 000 010	1	11	1
Washington	201 000 21x	6	10	0

Wright, Pruett and Severeid; Zachary and Picinich.

Second game:	R.	H.	E.
St. Louis	011 002 210	7	12	0
Washington	000 000 001	1	7	3

Davis and Severeid; Francis and Picinich, Torres.

LONDON WEST GREYS WIN 9--2 AT PINAFORE PARK

ST. THOMAS, Aug. 15.—Five hundred fans saw the London West Greys defeat the local Hewitt Athletic Club nine 9 to 2 here tonight at Pinafore Park diamond.

The Londoners got 12 hits to 3 allowed the locals by Taylor, the Greys' hurler.

The score by innings:

	R.	H.	E.
Greys	312 12—9	12	0
H. A. C.	200 00—2	3	2

Taylor and Milne; Cabot and Robertson. Umpires—Hazel and Sherritt.

WALLACEBURG TEN AND CHATHAM PLAN SERIES

CHATHAM, Aug. 15.—For the purpose of determining the best lacrosse team in the county, the management of the Chatham lacrosse club is making arrangements for a series of lacrosse games between the intermediate teams of this city and Wallaceburg. The first game will doubtless be played in Wallaceburg on Saturday next.

DUNDEE K. O.'S DAN FRUSH IN 9TH RD.

Is Now Featherweight Champ of World, Says Commish.

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—Johnny Dundee of New York knocked out Danny Frush in the ninth round of a scheduled 15-round bout tonight at Ebbets Field. Frush had taken a count of nine in the eighth round.

The New York Italian led after a cautious first round. He jabbed away with a straight left to the head, mixing in hard body punches and bouncing away before Frush could counter.

In the early rounds the Clevelander landed severe lefts that jolted Dundee and several times Dundee held on.

The way to a knockout was paved in the seventh, when Dundee changed his style and fooled Frush into rushing into the lead. Johnny met these advances with a straight left to the jaw and an occasional right hook to the ribs and kidney, greatly weakening Frush. In the eighth the crowd was renewing its clamor of the earlier rounds, shouting for action. Then Dundee planted left to the head. He followed quickly with both hands to the jaw, sending Frush to the ropes, where Dundee planted a hard right to the stomach and Frush fell to the floor on his side. The Clevelander calmly awaited the count of nine, but had difficulty getting onto his feet. Dundee rushed at him with both hands, driving his battered opponent across the ring, but the gong saved Frush.

Dundee came springing out like a tiger in the ninth, meeting Frush in the latter's corner. Frush attempted to clinch, but Dundee drew away and placed both hands to the head. He added a hard right to the head and then sunk a terrific left to the stomach. Frush sank to the floor, falling on his elbow. His eyes remained open but he was unable to rise.

Referee Patsy Haley and Dundee lifted the defeated boxer to his corner. By his victory Dundee became the possessor of his second vague title. It gave him the recognition of the New York State Boxing Commission as the featherweight champion of the world, though Johnny Kilbane of Cleveland remains the crown bearer outside this state. Dundee already held the "junior lightweight championship," a creation of promoter Tex Rickard. It was winner's 317th fight, excluding exhibitions, in his 12 years in the ring.

TAKE FINAL VOWS AT SACRED HEART

Large Congregation Witnesses Impressive Ceremony in City Edifice.

A congregation which filled the chapel of the Sacred Heart Convent to overflowing on Tuesday witnessed the solemn ceremony of taking of final vows by six novitiates, the taking of temporary vows by a third, and the receiving of seven young women to begin their five years' experience in the duties of the Sisters of St. Joseph, before pledging themselves to the life of sacrifice and service.

Those who received the holy habit were: Miss Woods, in religion Sister Mary Claudia; Miss Lynn, Sister Mary Edwina; Miss Warentette, Sister Mary Benigna; Miss White, Sister Mary Bonaventure; Miss Doyle, Sister Mary Francesca; Miss Barry, Sister Mary Felicita, and Miss Coveny, Sister Mary Consolate.

Sister M. Fabian made temporary vows, and Sisters Wilfrid, Bernardine, Damian, Cosmas, St. George and Augusta pronounced their final vows. Right Reverend Monsignor O'Connor, vicar-general and administrator of the diocese, officiated, assisted by Rev. Father White, P.P., St. Columban, and Rev. Father Kelly, P.P., Mitchell.

Solemn high mass was celebrated by Rev. Father White, Chatham; Rev. Father Chisholm, London, deacon; Rev. Father O'Neill, Woodstock, subdeacoon; and Father O'Donnell, master of ceremonies.

Rev. Father Sholly, O.S.S.R., in an eloquent sermon, impressed the dignity and beauty of the religious life.

ELECTION MEETING ENDS IN TUMULT

Heated Debate Marks Labelle Provincial By-Election in Quebec.

Buckingham, Que., Aug. 16.—After the biggest contradictory meeting of the Labelle provincial by-election campaign had been proceeding peacefully for the major part of three hours here last night, it broke up in practically a tumult. It was the unexpected action of the timekeepers in the middle of Arthur Sauve's speech which caused the leader of the opposition angrily to take his seat and refuse to go on, although he was cheered by the crowd and encouraged to finish what he had to say. As ninety minutes had been allotted each side by common agreement, the rule was enforced and the meeting broke up with the people alternately hissing and cheering. It is doubtful if ever a stranger political meeting had been held than the one last night, when Liberals and Conservatives staged their last big contradictory battle of words on the local college grounds, where an ambulating circus was giving a performance at the same time.

Ministers, deputies and political enthusiasts of both colors addressed a crowd of over 4,000 people, who were sitting and standing among the gaudily painted tents, the merry-go-round and the side shows, proclaiming in grandiloquent lettering the wondrous sights to be witnessed within.

Where a politician would be speaking from the gallery of the college, Professor Zalouwoff, the marvelous sword swallower, would be on the other side, changing his turban for a black bowler hat.

Facing the speakers was a big sign with the following inscription: "If this don't make you laugh, you're sick!"

TO NAME CITY DELEGATES TO DISCUSS COAL PROBLEM

Appointment of delegates to represent the city at a coal conference of representatives of Ontario municipalities to be held in Toronto Thursday, will be made by No. 1 committee of the city council, which meets Wednesday night. While Alderman H. J. Childs and Mayor J. C. Wilson have been appointed to act for the city on the coal situation, it is likely that other representatives will be appointed as Mayor Wilson has declared that he cannot attend owing to pressure of other business.

The meeting has been called by J. E. Ellis, recently appointed fuel controller for Ontario, and the delegates present will discuss ways and means of solving the fuel problem this winter. The London city council has already authorized purchase of 10,000 tons of Welsh anthracite coal, and action will likely be taken after Thursday's meeting.

Miss Nora Toll, acting city clerk, reports that there are no other important items on the agenda of No. 1 committee which meets Wednesday night.

CITY ENGINEER TO ATTEND ENGINEERING CONVENTION

City Engineer H. A. Brazier has a personal interest at stake in the early completion of paving Dundas street from Ashland avenue to the city limits. At the meeting of No. 2 committee of the city council, Tuesday night, a communication was read which requested the city of London to depute delegates to attend the annual convention of the Engineering Institute of Canada to be held at Winnipeg Sept. 5, 6 and 7.

"I move that City Engineer Brazier be allowed to attend on condition that he finishes the Dundas street pavement and starts that on the Hamilton road before fair week," declared Ald. Drake.

The motion carried, and Mr. Brazier, who is chairman of the London Branch of the Engineering Institute, declares that he will fulfill the conditions. Already the grading has been completed on the north side of Dundas street with concreting under way, while grading the south side has been begun.

Steel ties for the street car tracks have arrived, and the only barrier to progress of the job will be a delay in new rails.

MAGISTRATE FINES AND IMPRISONS DRUG ADDICTS

Toronto, Aug. 16.—When local detectives dropped in at 411 King street west, yesterday afternoon, they found William Heathcote lying on a bed, his baggage alongside, a quantity of cocaine secreted beneath a newspaper in the wall, and a hypodermic needle in the back of a picture. Other portions of the outfit were concealed in a dresser.

Acting on the assumption that it required a year to cure drug addicts, Magistrate Cohen imposed a fine of $200 or two months and twelve months.

Robert Currie pleaded guilty to having drugs and also acknowledged having acquired the habit. A similar penalty was imposed.

Joseph Reilly pleaded guilty to selling three decks of cocaine at $1 apiece. "Just an effort to turn over a dollar the best way he could," said defence counsel, denying the possession of a large supply. Accused was fined $200 or two months, and six months.

INVESTIGATE MAIL THEFT IN ENGLAND

Scotland Yard Detectives Quiz Railwaymen at London Station.

London, Aug. 16.—Canadian Press Cable.—Scotland Yard detectives are working with the postoffice officials here in the effort to clear up the mystery of the registered letter bags from Canada which were tampered with on Monday. The postoffice officials have checked the contents of the bags and have found that over 100 registered letters have been stolen. The value of the missing packets is unknown at present.

It appears that half a dozen of the mail bags were opened and packages abstracted, then the bags were clumsily retied.

The bags were carried on the S. S. Regina, and were chiefly from Montreal, Ottawa and Hamilton. They remained at Euston station for four hours before being taken to the Mount Pleasant mail depot, where the robbery was discovered.

The chief intelligence officer of the postoffice states that as far as can be ascertained at present, the bags were under supervision from the time they left Liverpool until they reached London. The railway company, which disclaims any responsibility for the rifling of the mail bags, asserts the bags were guarded by porters from the moment they arrived at Euston station until handed over to the postal authorities.

Postoffice officials and railway detectives have examined the officials at Euston station, and officers who were in charge of the train which bore the mail bags from Liverpool, as to their possible knowledge of the missing registered mail matter. Similar action is being taken at the Liverpool station and at the docks where the bags were landed.

ADMITS LONDON'S LIGHTING "AWFUL"

Manager Buchanan Says Council Has Been Notified Many Times.

"They are criticising their own street lighting system," said E. V. Buchanan, general manager of the public utilities commission, Wednesday morning, in regard to the action of members of No. 2 committee of the city council, in session Tuesday night, who branded the city lighting on streets as inadequate.

"They might just as well criticise the lighting in their own homes," continued Mr. Buchanan. "The public utilities commission has turned in report after report, telling the city council that the street lighting is awful. The public utilities commission is merely the contractor, engaged by the city council to erect and maintain the street lighting system and to supply electricity in such quantities and locations as the council may desire.

"The council therefore ranks as a buyer, taking such services as it pays for. The span lighting system, as suggested by Alderman Drake, gets away from tree trouble in London. Low lights under the trees on the streets dazzle the eyes of pedestrians. It is a fact worth remembering when considering London's street lighting that no city in Ontario pays less than London.

"I do not want to start any controversy," continued Mr. Buchanan, "but wish to make a calm statement of facts. We want to improve the street lighting, and have done so in Alderman Drake's district by improving facilities at No. 2 sub-station. In fact, the lights are so strong now that a hydro pole caught fire Tuesday night, necessitating a fire alarm being sent in from London East."

HOLD UP PAY FOR LOCAL RAIL MEN

at the present time show that an amicable settlement of the existing differences is expected within the next month.

In repealing the new wage schedule the three railroad executives pointed out clearly in their dispatch to the premier that their action does not indicate that the railways are in the wrong, but still uphold that the enforcing of the wage cut without giving the men a chance of appeal before a board of conciliation was acting within the laws of the country. The action taken Tuesday night, they declare, was solely for the purpose of preventing a walk-out.

Although the checks had not reached the city up till noon today, officials believe that they will be received sometime during the afternoon.

Joseph Corbett, general chairman of the Grand Trunk shopmen of Canada, is at present in Montreal acting on the committee negotiating with the Canadian Railways Association.

HAS SUIT RUINED PUTTING OUT FIRE

Firemen Turn Chemicals on Hydro Employee Fighting Flaming Pole.

Summoned to Egerton street and Hamilton road about nine o'clock Tuesday evening, J. W. Peart, an official of the public utilities commission, discovered that crossed wires had ignited a hydro pole at this corner. Mr. Peart, armed with a small chemical tank, mounted the pole and proceeded to extinguish the flames.

In the meantime a call had been sent in for the fire department, which responded. Arriving at the scene the fire fighters got busy, and in the darkness did not discern Mr. Peart at the top of the pole. In a few seconds the firemen turned a stream of chemicals on the flames from the ground, and Mr. Peart was drenched with the mixture.

The flames were soon put out, and Mr. Peart felt the same way, as his suit of clothes was ruined by the chemicals. No redress is available as General Manager E. V. Buchanan, of the public utilities commission, points out that if Mr. Peart were injured on duty the Workmen's Compensation Act would provide him relief, but there is no clause in the regulations governing payment of damages to clothes.

The unfortunaate victim does not even obtain overtime pay for his fire fighting, and avers that next time there are any hydro poles in flames he will not be on the job.

TO SUPPLY STOVES AT TOURIST CAMP

Utilities to Provide Electricity for Cooking at 25-Cent Charge.

According to plans drafted by E. V. Buchanan, general manager of the public utilities commission, motor tourists who avail themselves of the opportunity of spending the night at the new tourist camp at Wonderland next year, will have the unique experience of cooking their meals on electric stoves.

Mr. Buchanan purposes installing these stoves at the camp, and charging the tourists for the use of the electric current.

"These stoves will be installed with a 25-cent slot meter," said the manager Wednesday. "The tourists will of course pay a much higher rate for their power than the citizens of London, who can use an electric stove all day for five to ten cents.

"The meter will be fixed to allow the tourists to cook a meal for 25 cents, which sum will be more for a rental of the stove than for the power consumed."

Regarding the proposed charge to tourists for the use of camp facilities such as lighting and drinking water, Mr. Buchanan informed The Advertiser that this suggestion has been abandoned because no other municipalities that he knows of charge for the tourist camp, and for London to take the initiative in this matter might cause an unfavorable comparison.

PLAN CHILDREN'S PICNIC AT PORT

In response to an appeal for funds to stage a picnic for 1,500 children who patronize city playgrounds, the public utilities commission has realized $150, subscribed by generous citizens, and as a result plans are under way to hold the outing at Port Stanley Tuesday next. The children will be carried to the lakeside for ten cents, which covers the cost of the return ticket to them. The extra cost will be borne by the subscriptions and $100 more is required to make the affair a success. Sporting events will be held at Port Stanley and the kiddies will be in charge of city playgrounds supervisors. The youngsters will bring lunches and spend the day at Port, and it is hoped that the picnic will prove as successful as the initial affair of this nature, staged at Port Stanley last summer.

EXPECT DRURY TO DISCUSS BREACH

able in view of J. J. Morrison's public statement as reported.

SHOULD NOT MEAN BREAK.

Stratford, Aug. 16.—"I do not apprehend that the present situation will mean any break between myself personally and Mr. Morrison," declared Premier Drury today. "It should not. The United Farmers of Ontario was not constituted a political organization, was not built for a political organization, and the securing in a political way of the co-operation of our supporters in towns and cities does not mean the U. F. O. organization would be deluded, or its work in any sense curtailed or nullified. In my opinion, no one should object to allowing our urban supporters an apportunity to co-operate with the rural people politically."

CONSTABLE BUYS BOTTLE HE CAPTURED IN RAID

Toronto, Aug. 16.—Nine thousand bottles of liquor seized in police raids in the ward were returned to the government vendors from No. 2 police division within the past year. And this was only the "cream" of the lot, so to speak. Some of the stuff was so unspeakably bad that it was dumped down the sewer, just as is done in all other police divisions.

Thereby hangs a tale which Inspector Bond tells with great gusto. One of his men got a prescription and went to the vendors for a bottle of gin. When he got back to the police station he undid the wrapper, looked at the bottle and found his own initials on the bottom of it, together with a notation, "Fined $200 and costs or three months." It was a bottle he had seized in a raid.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

NEW WHEAT AGAIN ON CITY MARKET

Small Quantity Offered at $1 Per Bushel—Plums More Plentiful.

New wheat made its appearance on the local market on Wednesday morning, after being off more than a week. The quantitiy offered for sale, however, was small and the price was firm at $1 per bushel.

Only four loads of hay were brought to the city, and the demand was good at $12@14 per ton.

Potatoes were extremely slow, and the quantity offered was large. The price ranged from 80@90c per bushel.

Apples were offered in abundance, and they found a poor market at 75c@$1 per bushel.

Plums are becoming more plentiful and prices have a tendency to drop. The 11-quart baskets sold as low as 45c; 6 quarts remained steady at 30@35c.

No thimbleberries were seen, and it is said the season for this fruit is just about through.

A shipment of live hogs brought $12 25 per cwt.

FLOUR

MONTREAL, Aug. 15.—A better demand was shown in the flour market. There was little demand for millfeed, and rolled oats prices were quoted unchanged.

Flour—Man. spring wheat patents, firsts, $7.80.

Rolled oats—Bag, 90 lbs., $3.20@3.30.

Bran—Per ton, $25.25.

Shorts—Per ton, $27.50.

TORONTO, Aug. 15.—Good feed flour, per bag, $1.70@1.80.

Millfeed—Car lots, per ton: Bran, $22@23; shorts, $24@25.

MINNEAPOLIS, Aug. 15.—Flour unchanged to 25c lower; family patents $6.75@6.95 a barrel; shipments 46,535 barrels.

Bran—$15.

HAY

MONTREAL, Aug. 15. — Baled hay was unchanged. No. 2, per ton, carlots, $26.

TORONTO, Aug. 15.—Hay, per ton, extra No. 2, $22@23; mixed, $18@19; clover, $14@18.

Straw—Carlots, $12@13.

OILS

Liverpool, Aug. 16.—Turpentine Spirits—92s 6d.

Kerosene—No. 1, 1s 4d; No. 2, 1s 5d.

Rosin—Common, 14s 6d.

LIVE STOCK

Toronto, Aug. 16.—Cattle—Receipts, 1,184. Including holdovers there are 1,600 cattle on the market. Trade is draggy, with no signs of activity. Odd lots of butcher steers brought $6 50@7 50; cows and bulls are dull. Opening prices steady with yesterday. No heavy steers offered. Quotations: Heavy beef steers, $7@8; butcher steers, choice, $7@7 50; good, $6 50@7; medium, $5 50@6 25; common, $4 50@5 50; butcher heifers, choice $6 75@7 25; medium, $5 50@6 50; common, $4 50@5 50; butcher cows, choice, $4 50@6; medium, $3@4; canners and cutters, $1@2; butcher bulls, good, $4@5; common, $3@4; feeding steers, good, $6@6 50; fair, $5@5 50; stockers, good, $4 50@5 25; fair, $4@4 50.

Calves—Receipts, 476. Calves are generally steady with tops selling 50c highly at $12, and the bulk of choice at $10@11. Quotations: Choice, $10@12; medium, $8@10; common, $4@7.

Milch Cows—Choice, each, $60@80; springers, choice, $70@90.

Sheep—Receipts, 1,646. Lambs are steady at $11 75@12 for choice. Sheep are slow. Quotations: Ewes, $2@6; lambs, $11 50@12.

Hogs—Receipts, 1,053. There is a strong tone to the market, with the top price 5½c advance. Quotations: fed and watered: Selects, $13 50@13 75; light, $12 50@12 75; heavy, $11 50@11 75; sows, $9 50@9 75.

East Buffalo, N.Y., Aug. 16.—Cattle—Receipts, 600; slow, uneven.

Calves—Receipts, 125; market steady at $5@13.

Hogs—Receipts, 1,800; steady to 10c lower; pigs 25c lower; heavy, $9@9 75; mixed, $10 25@10 65; yorkers and light yorkers, $10 60@10 75; pigs, $10 50; roughs, $7 50; stags, $4@5.

Sheep and Lambs—Receipts, 600; lambs 15c higher, $6@13 50.

STANDARD EXCHANGE

Toronto, Aug. 16.—Prices were a little weaker and trading fell off during the early session of the Standard Mining Exchange today. Dome Mines was the most active in the golds, and moved to the front with a 90c advance at $34 40 on 1,000 shares. The only other advance among the leaders was ½c by Kirkland Lake at 42. Hollinger receded 8c at $11 87. Lake Shore was back 1c at $2 52, and Porcupine Crown was ½c down at 25c. Schumacher, Teck-Hughes and Atlas were unchanged at 74c, 69½c and 28½c.

In the silvers, Beaver moved ¾c to 32¾c. Nipissing was down 10c at $6 25, and Castle Trethewey unchanged at 23½c.

MONTREAL STOCKS

Montreal, Aug. 16—12:30 p.m.—Buoyancy and strength in pulp and paper stocks were again the outstanding features of the local market today. The star actor was Spanish River common, which rose to 100¼. This price had not been touched since October, 1920. The preferred duplicated yesterday's best price of 106, and near the close of the session touched the new high price of 106¼. The entire pulp and paper group was strong. Abitibi was 62½, Brompton 35, Howard Smith 78, and Laurentide 94½.

The alarming news from Nova Scotia where 12,000 miners are on strike, and the closing of the steel plants of the British Empire Steel Corporation is threatened, did not have any great adverse effect on the shares of the company. The second preferred was again very active at around 31½, while the common sold at 10½, which compares with 11½ yesterday. Steel of Canada maintained its strength at 75½.

PROVISIONS

Chicago, Aug. 16.—Provisions were firm in line with hog values.

Liverpool, Aug. 16.—Hams—Short cut, 117s.

Bacon—Cumberland cut, 115s; Canadian Wiltshires, 137s 6d; clear bellies, 98s; short clear backs, 93s 6d; shoulders, square, 89s.

Lard—Prime western, in tierces, cwt, 65s 3d; American refined, in pails, 28 lbs, 73s 6d.

Cheese—Canadian finest white, cwt, 88s; do, colored, 87s.

GRAIN

Liverpool, Aug. 16.—Wheat—Spot, No. 1 northern, 11s 9d, No. 3, 10s 6d; No. 2 hard winter, 10s 4d.

Corn—Spot, American mixed, 8s.

Winnipeg, Aug. 16.—Futures opened: Wheat—Oct., ⅜c higher at $1 00⅝; Dec. unchanged to ¼c higher at 99⅝@99⅞c; May, ⅜c higher at $1 05.

Oats—Oct., ¼c higher at 39¼c; Dec., ⅜c higher at 37½c.

Barley—Oct., ¼c higher at 52c.

Flax—Oct. unchanged at $1 95; Dec., ¾c higher at $1 85.

Rye—Oct. unchanged at 67¼c; Dec. unchanged at 65½c.

Chicago, Aug. 16.—Wheat made a moderate upturn in price today during the early dealings, no important new selling pressure being apparent. Sides. Liverpool quotations failed to reflect yesterday's weakness in America, and it was announced that world's stocks of wheat showed a decrease of 17,662,000 bushels for July, as against an increase of 1,115,000 for the some month last year. Strength in the corn market tended also to give firmness to wheat. The opening, which ranged from ⅜c decline to ⅜c advance, was followed by a rise all around to well above yesterday's finish.

High temperature and dry weather led to a fresh advance for corn and oats. After opening ¼c to ¾c higher, the corn market scored material further gains.

Futures opened:
Sept., $1 00⅜; Dec., $1 01⅞.
Corn—Sept., 59¼c; Dec., 54⅜c.
Oats—Sept., 30⅝c; Dec., 33⅜c.

TORONTO STOCKS

Toronto, Aug. 16.—Trading was light and scattered this morning. One block of Victory 1937's touched $105 50, and other government securities were strong, particularly the Victory 1933's at $103 15 for high and noon closing sale. British Empire Steel second preferred were down to 31¼, as compared with yesterday's 33, and the ordinary British Empire sold at 10¾ as against yesterday's 11½. The selling today, however, was in small quantity. Easiness in these stocks is attributed to the coal strike situation in the British Empire properties in Cape Breton. Oil and gold shares were fairly active at steady prices.

TOWNSHIP WILL VOTE ON HYDRO

Lobo Councillors Decide To Refer Long-Disputed Issue To Ratepayers.

Authorize Reeve To Prepare Bylaw For Taking of Plebiscite.

Lobo Township will have the opportunity of deciding by vote whether hydro-electric power will be brought into the township or not.

The hydro feud in the township has existed for some time; meetings have been held both by taxpayers and council of the township with no result, so the council has decided to let the voters give their decision.

The following resolution was passed at the last meeting of the council:

"Moved by Donald Gray, seconded by William Chapman:

"That whereas application has been made to the municipal council of the corporation of the township of Lobo to sign a contract with the hydro commission to guarantee the collection of certain sums of money annually for the term of 30 years to meet the expenditure of delivering electric power to certain ratepayers of the township, and whereas the contract covers only a portion of said municipality;

"We, the members of this council, are unanimous in our opinion that the matter be referred to the ratepayers of the said township;

"And that the reeve be authorized to secure a bylaw granting the taking of the vote."

MANY ISSUES AWAIT LEAGUE

Admission of Russian Refugees To Canada Will Be Discussed.

Dominion Delegates Also Interested in Allocation of Geneva Expenses.

OTTAWA, Aug. 15.—(By Canadian Press).—Big issues will come before the assembly of the League of Nations at Geneva in September, when Canada will be represented by Hon. W. S. Fielding and Hon. Ernest Lapointe. Among them is expected to be a proposal for the admission of Germany to the league, while an application for admission has already been field on behalf of Hungary.

The agenda of the sessions, which has been received here, consists of a score of items of varying importance. Canada is especially interested in the proposal made by the Canadian delegates at the last meeting for the excision of article 10 from the treaty. This is the article which binds the signatories to the peace treaty, to respect and to defend each other's boundaries. It is likely that the attitude of the Canadian delegates this year will differ slightly from that assumed by Hon. C. J. Doherty and Sir George Perley at the last meeting. Instead of asking for the repeal of this section of the covenant, it is probable that the Canadian delegates will suggest that instead of an agreement to take military action, there should be, as in the case of the four-power treaty at Washington, merely an agreement to seek a remedy by consultation.

Another subject of special concern to the Dominion is a responsibility the high commissioner appointed by the league in regard to Russian refugees. There is a strong desire in some quarters that Canada should open her doors to these refugees, but as many of them are not regarded as suited for agricultural pursuits, there is a good deal of doubt in government circles here of the wisdom of admitting them.

Other matters on the agenda are:

An amendment to article 18 of the Covenant, which requires that all treaties between members of the league should be registered with the secretariat before they become binding.

Esperanto as an international language.

Report of the temporary commission of the league on the reduction of armaments.

Proposals for the constitution of three standing committees on economics and finance, communications and transit, and health, including the epidemic commission.

Traffic in opium.

Deportation of women and children in Turkey and adjacent countries.

Traffic in women and children.

Amendments to articles 12 and 15 of the covenant, referring to disputes between members of the league which are likely to lead to a rupture.

Amendment to article 6, relating to the secretariat of the league.

Will Discuss Expenses.

The queston of the allocation of the expenses of the league will again come before the assembly. Canada at present pays as large a share as the United Kingdom or France, but an effort is being made to secure an allotment more in proportion to the part played by the Dominion in the affairs of the league.

Mr. Fielding and Mr. Lapointe will sail from Quebec for England on Tuesday next, Aug. 22, by the Canadian Pacific Railway steamship Empress of Scotland. The assembly opens at Geneva on September 4. After the assembly closes, Mr. Lapointe will visit France and will remain in Europe for the International Labor conference, which meets in Geneva on Oct. 18. At that conference, Hon. James Murdock, minister of labor, will be co-delegate with the minister of marine.

FAIL TO AWARD TENDER FOR INCINERATOR AT KITCHENER

Council Finds Contractors Did Not Follow Specifications of City Engineer's Department.

Special to London Advertiser.

CHATHAM, Aug. 15.—Owing to the fact that tenders for the construction of the new civic incinerator did not follow the plans and specifications as prepared by the city engineer's department, the special committee of the city council, appointed to award the tender, did not make any award at their special meeting yesterday afternoon.

Only one contractor out of thirteen followed the plans as prepared.

POLICE, IN RAID, FIND RADIO CAUSE OF DISTURBANCE

PITTSFIELD, Mass., Aug. 15.—"So it's come to this has it, Jim?"—followed by curses and screams, brought the police to the home of A. H. Everest here.

Everest and his family were calmly sitting about their radio set, equipped with a loud sounding apparatus, listening to "The Wolf," Eugene Walter's play produced at the WGY station in Schenectady.

The police sat down and enjoyed the remainder of the fight.

A GREAT LAKES CRUISE.

Listening In—

Whisk
—a pair of these Chamois Gloves into a bath of fleecy soap-suds—hang them up to dry while you get your beauty sleep—and presto—they'll be ready for you to wear down on the 11:15 in the morning for that luncheon engagement. In white and modes, strap-wrist, gauntlet styles. Specially priced at $1.25 to $2.50.

Gingham
—has made everything this season, from the bathing suit that Miss Manhattan has worn into the glad sea waves, to the chic vestee that Elizabeth Ann wears in the front of her frock. So, of course, you'll like these Gingham Trimmed Blouses to wear with the suit of tweed or homespun. In Peter Pan frilled styles, $1.98 to $5.50.

Cuddly
—pink and white, blue-eyed babies coo over these dainty Baby Frocks. Their materials are almost as soft and silky as baby's rose-leaf skin. Tiny embroideries are exquisite. Quite the sweetest frocks for babies we've had for $2.00 to $6.50.

Next
—to knowing what to wear to Mrs. Jones' porch party is the question of what to do after you get there, if they don't play bridge. So consult the Art Needlework Section. Some new things just in may suggest an escape from possible boredom, if you're interested in politics, and your next door seatmate in psychic research.

Parting
—is such sweet sorrow in some cases. It isn't a bit sweet if it means that your petticoat is parting with your camisole, and you're wearing a net waist that "shows through." A Costume Slip of crossbar voile, Habutai silk or nainsook is a good solution. A pretty hem-to-the-hip, crossbar model, $3.50. Others $2.50 to $10.50.

Even
—though you never have the little house in the country with rambler roses, and contented cows and cats rambling 'round it, you can have ruffled curtains. Dotted muslin ones are specially good and specially priced, $3.25 a pair.

Blue

Just
—plain folks, who aren't brides, are wearing these soft, silken Vests of glove silk. They know that they are practical, for they'll outwear several of any other kind. In flesh and white. And they're delightful to wear. Specially priced, $3.00 and $3.75.

Tired
—footsore—weary from the day's storm and stress at the office?—then slip into one of these Jap crepe Kimonos—and forget it! They're pretty, cool, easily laundered. Regulation ones, effectively embroidered, $3.98.

C. H. CLARKE TO MANAGE STORE AT ST. THOMAS

C. H. Clarke, who for two years has been connected with F. Steele, optometrist, here, will leave about the 14th of this month to take charge of a new branch of Mr. Steele's at St. Thomas.

Having a thorough knowledge of his profession, Mr. Clarke is in a position to provide at the St. Thomas optical store the same service which is given by Mr. Steele here. Mr. Clarke, in addition to having passed the Ontario examination in optometry, has had four and a half years' experience in the wholesale end of the business. He is a member of the local Moose Lodge, No. 1205, and also the Manhattan Club.

The new store in St. Thomas will be on Talbot street, near the city hall. It is being fitted up in splendid style, and the equipment will be the best that money can buy.

Mr. Clarke is to handle advertising and publicity for both stores for St. Thomas.
