THE BACCALAUREATE SERMON.

The baccalaureate sermon was preached on the sunday merning in the Baptist church by Rev. G. O. Gates, of St. John, N. B., to a crowded house. Music was provided by the church coor and the University quartette, Mis Amanda Caldwell being the organist. The graduating class arrayed in cap and gown filed in and occupied the front seats. The preacher spoke from Joshua 8: 1, making dlass arrayed in cap and gown filed in and occupied the front seats. The preacher spoke from Joshua 8: 1, making "A Plea for the Bible in College Curriculum." He detailed the circumstances. Moses was dead. The young man Joshua was about to undertake his life work. A book more than a chart a law is given for his guidance with the promise that if he follows it he will be successful. This book new completed the preacher would commend to these young men.

That this is the most remarkable book in the follows it he will be successful. That this is the most remarkable book in the first manner.

THE ACADIAN.

WOLFVILLE, N. S., JUNE 7, 1895.

Acadia's Anniversary.

Another anniversary season has come and gone, bringing with it hosts of old friends and a renewal of chi associations, and leaving behind many pleasant memories. The weather throughout has been most ampicious and the exercises have been of a most successful nature. In its early summer garb our town has presented a pretty appearance, which has been freely commented upon by visitors. Not the least of the attractions of the anniversary is the piessure of spending a few days in Wolfville at its prettiest.

Acadia has sent forth another class of graduates,—to meet, battle with, and overcome life's difficulties and add to the number of those who have gone forth from her halls and brought bonor upon their alma mater.

That this is the most remarkable book of the age no man of intelligence doubts. In view of the fact that many young people think it a book about to be superceded, the speaker gave a long list of quotations from celebrated men teatifying to its worth. The men who have studied the Bible most carefully are those who assert that it is the Word of God. As a book of history, as the most influential classic in English literature it desaves to be placed on the College course. The educated farmer, merchant or lawyer should know it as well as the theologue. Our University should graduate men prepared to systematically teach the Bible. At the close of the seemon the Right Hand of Fellowship was given to a number of recent converts by the pastor, Dr. Higgios.

On Sunday afternoon a large congregation were much pleased and received. on nationalities.

Why all this I To do what one woman could do, by the blessing of God, to put an end to the awfall horrors of drink by organizing women everywhere against it. One, item of my work was to precure the Petition you receive to be translated and put in circulation wherever I went.

I shall never forget the cry of the young queen of Madagascar to me: "If wann to save my people from drink but I cannet. My hands are bound by treaties forced upon me by England and France. I can do nething." Her predecessor, born into a healthen family, and after the remarkable words that have since been attributed to nearly every darky severeign: "I cannot derive benefit from that which harts my people," She lived up to this saying to the day of her death. Every tenth barrel landed was set apart for her, but all of them were stove on the beach where they were placed. Nor can I ever case to be sear the cry of that mother in Freeton the day of the drink from the Godmen's (missionaries') country. It has killed my son. I am a lone woman now."

Honored Reoveemtatives and Rulers of the People of the United States:

You have heard the cry from the heart of motherhood all over the world, voiced in the Petition we present to you te-day. To you, perhaps, it sounds faint and distant. You may not catch the note of agony in it; you may not realize that it rolls up in mighty volume
