CAMERON LOST AGAIN TO WOOD

But This Time the Distance is Only Four Yards—The Time was Fast, 63-6—Time at Five Miles Was Given as 25.31.

St. John, October 16—The twelve mile race between Abbie Wood, of Montreal, and Fred Cameron, Amherst, on the Every Day Club grounds on Saturday afternoon, was won by Wood in the fast time of one hour, three minutes and six seconds.

brush near the end of the fifth mile. Wood made an effort to pass but Cameron held his distance. The relative positions continued the same until within 150 yards of the finish when Wood drew up level and in the last twenty yards spurred ahead, winning by four yards while looking backward at his competitor.

Kent-Northumberland District Division

Applied Strong Censure to Newcastle S. A. Authorities.

The twentieth quarterly session of Kent-Northumberland District Division Sons of Temperance was held in Temperance hall here on the afternoon of the 15th instant, D. W. P. Rev. R. H. Stavert presiding, H. H. Stuart District Scribe. Delegates were present from Richibucto, Harcourt, Douglstown and Newcastle Divisions. Reports were presented from nine of the fourteen divisions in the two counties. A falling off in membership of about 37 was reported since June 30, leaving the estimated membership of the fourteen divisions on Sept. 30 at 662.

Next meeting of District will be held in Harcourt, Friday afternoon, January 20th. Adjournd.

BULLET ENDS KETCHEL'S LIFE

World's Champion Middleweight Shot Dead in Missouri Town—Assailant Captured.

Springhill, Mo., Oct. 16—Walter A. Hertz, who shot and killed Stanley Ketchel, world's middleweight champion, yesterday was captured today at the home of Thomas Haggard, one mile from Niangua (Mo.) Hertz was taken to the Webster county jail at Marshallfield, where he is being closely guarded. After being placed in his cell, the prisoner made a statement in which he said he shot Ketchel in self-defense. He says he ordered the prize fighter to throw up his hands and fired when he did not obey him.

It is readily seen that the only way to cure rheumatism is through the blood. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills afford such a treatment as they contain all the elements necessary to build up and purify the blood. They increase its oxygen carrying capacity enabling the kidneys to pass the uric acid from the body and the other organs to do their work. Thus rheumatism is reached at its root and permanently cured. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are absolutely free from all habit-forming drugs, and are not an experiment as the following case will show:—

Mr. W. Studley Lewis, Pilot Mound, Man, says:—"I am a firm believer in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and always keep some by me in case of need. A few years ago while while teaching school I suffered so much with rheumatism in my arms and shoulders that I had the greatest difficulty in writing on the blackboard, and after trying a number of remedies without benefit I was almost in despair, and felt inclined to abandon teaching. But one day I happened to pick up one of Dr. Williams' almanacs, and read of the cure of a number of severe cases of rheumatism through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. This decided me to give the Pills a trial, and I had only taken them a few weeks when I felt much better. In the course of a few weeks more the pains and stiffness had all left me, and I had no more difficulty in doing my work. I cannot say enough in praise of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for they and they alone cured me of my rheumatism."

CAUSE AND CURE OF RHEUMATISM

Due to Impurities in the Blood—Cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

The most noticeable and immediate result of rheumatism is a marked thinning of the blood, and in no disease does it develop more rapidly. Not only does the blood become weak but it is soon filled with impurities, which the different organs of the body have been unable to throw off. One of the most harmful of these impurities is uric acid, which is formed from the waste products of the body. In health it is really passed off by the kidneys with the help of oxygen from the red corpuscles of the blood. Without oxygen the kidneys are unable to rid the system of this acid and it is retained in the blood and distributed to all parts of the body. The weak back pains across the kidneys and thin scanty, highly colored secretions, which follow show that the acid is already in the blood and often leads the sufferer to think he has kidney trouble. If the disease is not driven out of the blood, rheumatism can never be cured, and the sufferer will always be subject to attacks whenever exposed to damp or cold. With each returning attack the pain becomes more severe and the sufferer often arises making a habit of habit forming drugs to relieve pain.

ROBERT VENNING HAS BEEN FOUND

Located at Hague Hotel—Loss of Memory Prevented Him From Communicating With Home.

Ottawa, Oct. 16. Robert Venning, superintendent of fisheries for Canada, has been located in Brussels. Mr. Venning was in the Hague, as expected, when Hon. A. B. Aylesworth in the fishery arbitration before the Hague. He disappeared about the first of September and his absence has caused great anxiety to his many friends and relatives, and to the marine and fisheries department, of which he was one of the most valued officials.

Douglstown has a Band of Hope with 41 members.

Some of the officers from distant places being absent the following protean appointments were made: Rev. S. J. MacArthur, chaplain; James Falconer, sentinel; Harrison M. Gough, organist; Mrs. Henry Ingram, P. W. P.

Following committees were appointed. On the State of the Order—James Falconer and Rev. S. J. MacArthur, Newcastle; Frank Curran, Richibucto; Sterling Wood, Douglstown.

Program—Mrs. Ingram, Mrs. A. B. Leard, Miss H. M. McLeod. The D. W. P. reported that Harcourt Division was making good progress. Since May 1st, very little liquor was sold. One liquor dealer had paid $110 as fine for violation of law, and a new licensee had been discovered by William Leet and forced to leave the county. Harcourt parish was now orderly; when under license it had been notoriously disorderly.

The treasurer's report was as follows: April 15, Cash on hand, $27.35; Col.lection at Richibucto, $6.42; July 15, Collection at Douglstown, $3.27—total $37.04. Paid: Ap. 15—Printing $2.50; postage $1.25; May, J. D. Phiney, legal expenses, $30.00; Oct. 14, postage to date and book, $1.50—total $35.25. Balance on hand, $1.79.

The Scribe reported $19 on hand collected in aid of Campbellton Division which was burned out on July 11th. Douglstown division raised $17 of this and Burnt Church $2.00.

A vote of commendation was given Douglstown division for its prompt and splendid action re Campbellton. Other divisions were urged to do likewise before end of this year.

The Committee on the State of the Order reported as follows:—"We our committee, have examined the reports before us and find them correct. But we regret that the measure of growth, which we could desire, is somewhat wanting. We are pleased to note that in Kent Co. the number of licenses have been reduced by three in Richibucto and none are granted in Harcourt. In Chatham the Scott Act is well enforced and there seems to be a marked improvement. Many outsiders, we learn, who formerly went to Chatham for their liquor supply now go to Newcastle, in Newcastle the Scott Act is not being enforced. Not for years has drunkenness been so much in evidence on the streets of Newcastle as at present.

(Signed) James Falconer Sterling Wood S. J. MacArthur Frank Curran.

Report was received and adopted and ordered sent to the Press.

Grand Worthy Patriarch E. S. Hennigar of St. John here addressed the meeting. He had held temperance meetings last Monday at Harcourt, Tuesday at Grangeville, Wednesday at Millerton, and had spent Thursday at Chatham, where there was good prospect of reorganizing the Division.

Since May 1st, he had instituted divisions at Bocabe and Mac's Bay in Charlotte Co., and thought Campbellton would soon be going again.

Grand Division was again petitioned to provide a permanent Organizer.

H. H. Stuart, Rev. R. H. Stavert and Rev. S. J. MacArthur were appointed a committee to enquire as to possibility of extending the order in the Province.

A well attended public meeting was held in the Temperance Hall at 8 p. m., D. W. P. Stavert in the chair. James Falconer, in a neat speech, welcomed the District Division to Newcastle. Mr. Falconer, who has for most of his life been a member of Newcastle Division, was heard with much acceptance.

E. S. HENNIGAR G. W. P. Hennigar followed, making an urgent appeal to the audience to support the local Division and uphold the temperance cause. He declared that 90 per cent, of the destitution in St. John was caused by the use of liquor.

REV. DR. H. T. COUSINS Rev. Dr. Cousins said he was glad that the Newcastle Sons of Temperance were still alive. The town needed a Temperance organization. The terrible evils of the drink in Newcastle was very apparent. He was a total prohibitionist, but was, however, not opposed to any measure that would, meanwhile, lessen the evils caused by the liquor business. In Britain Canada was pointed out as a temperate paradise, but it was not. When he had decided to come to Newcastle it had been given a bad name in temperance matters; it deserved it. In carrying out the Scott Act there was too much timidity. He was not satisfied at all with the present representation in Town Council. At next election there should be representatives elected who would stand to their guns. It was a standing disgrace to see drunken men rolling round our streets. We should not rest until we see prohibition in our midst. We had drinking here in the most degraded form. He had seen children, who were suffering from the drinking habits of their parents. The local division should be encouraged. Young men should all join it.

REV. S. J. MACARTHUR Rev. Mr. MacArthur said he had lived where the Scott Act was enforced but that place was not Newcastle. The speaker then told (with evident desire to have the moral applied locally) the story of the Negro prisoner, who, when his lawyer asked him why, in his opinion, the magistrate had acquitted him so promptly of the charge of stealing pork, replied that His Honor or himself had a piece of the pork. Mr. MacArthur went on to say that the street in front of the Manse was a rendezvous of drunken men and that the street behind was often heard drunken shouts and ribald language up to very late hours. The liquor trade was the meanest on earth. He had never seen the town in such a condition as at present. There was much maudlin sympathy wasted on the drinker. Hard drinkers could reform if they would. Total abstinence is not self-sacrifice, but the best thing any did no good to anyone in health, the least intoxicant used except as a drug was harmful. Some men in this town said they drank because of their hard lot but this was cowardly and foolish. For the good name of this town he would not like to conduct strangers round it too thoroughly. Speaking of the Town Administration, he said, in reference to a leading alderman, that when a man solicited for (MacArthur's) vote and then, when he was elected and could stop the liquor traffic, compromised with it instead, he was no man at all. He would not get his vote again. The speaker did not like conditions in this town. Thousands of dollars were being sent out to the T. Eaton Co., but thousands more were being deposited in savings banks here being paid out in liquor business. If he had any men in his charge who sold liquor he would speak plainly to him. He had seen all the good men of the town, and he had never seen a man who had never seen a man

PORTUGUESE REPUBLIC IS NOW A FACT

Country is Quiet and the New Government has Been Recognized by Brazil and Switzerland—British Recognition Expected Soon.

Lisbon, Oct. 14—The Portuguese Republic, proclaimed on the 4th instant and established after a few days fighting in which less than 150 persons are said to have been killed, appears to be an accomplished fact.

All religious orders, except the establishment of the Irish Dominicans, over whose convent the British flag floats, have been expelled from Portugal. The provisional government has received a telegram from President Comtesse of Switzerland, announcing that government's recognition of the Portuguese republic. Brazil also, has formally recognized the new republic. The German minister has been instructed to enter into semi-official relations with the provisional government. The British minister, Sir Francis H. Villiers handed the premier a note stating that Great Britain would recognize the republic as soon as it was convinced that the revolution was absolutely ended, and affairs in Portugal were in a normal state.

The government has issued a decree granting general amnesty to all military and naval offenders. The patriarch of Lisbon, Mgr. Tonti, it is announced, has signified his allegiance to the new regime. Senhor Teixeira Sousa, leader of the Regenerator party, is organizing a new party which will accept republican institutions. The huge iron safes containing the treasure of Queluz convent, which reverts to the government, have been placed in the Bank of Portugal. A commission composed of officials of the ministry of finance has been appointed to make an inventory of the royal palaces and decide what property belongs to the king personally. This commission will also investigate the outstanding debts of the members of the royal family. Joao Chagas, a well known writer, has been appointed minister to Brazil. Jose Reivas, the new minister of finance, said in an interview that one of the first acts of the government would be to impose obligatory secular education. At the same time the Republicans would fully recognize liberty of conscience. They did not desire to destroy religious sentiment but only would obligate the priests to confine themselves to spiritual matters. Speaking with reference to financial conditions, the minister said that the government intended to readjust taxation and make the colonies bear their own administrative charges. This, he added, would meet a third of the existing deficit without injuring the colonies, the preservation and development of which would be of supreme interest in Portugal's policy.

There is an unconscious revelation of the manner of the man who is now at the head of national affairs in the brief autobiography of President Braga written a few weeks ago at the request of the Paris newspapers. At the age of three he lost his mother. At Coimbra his life was an obscure struggle for lack of means of existence. He bore up in this struggle with unconquerable pride. In 1872 he presented himself as a candidate for the professorship of modern European literature at the higher Lisbon classes. All the conservative elements were opposed to him. Catholics, monarchists, metaphysicians, ultra-romanticists and journalists in the government pay, but the public acclaimed him and forced the ministry to appoint him.

It is only by his fees as a professor that Braga lives, devoting his existence entirely to his intellectual work.

thing in any of them like what he had witnessed in Newcastle the last three months. It was time for somebody to do something.

H. H. STUART District Scribe Stuart said he was afraid that the statements made by Rev. Dr. Cousins and Rev. Mr. MacArthur could not be successfully denied. The kind of administration the town should have lay with the people. Last year, while 279 voters went to the polls, about 325—enough to have elected a totally different council had they wished—were disqualified for non-payment of taxes. This indicated either that taxes were too high or interest in civic affairs too low or both. But the remedy for any civic injustice did not lie in keeping away from the polls and then grumbling about what was done by the Council. Every patriotic townsman should make a special effort to pay his taxes so as to be able to vote for the candidate of his choice. If taxes were too high, vote in a new council which would remove the grievance. If the present Council were not carrying out the law, keep the power to remove them and remove them at the first opportunity. No one who could possibly vote should neglect to do so. There was far too little interest taken in civic affairs. The liquor traffic had lots of money but the majority of the electors could, if they wish, down the money power.

REV. R. H. STAVERT The D. W. P. said that women could do much to help along the temperance cause. If they gave up their jewelry, they could have the day of prohibition. So could the churches if they would stop wrangling over immaterial differences of dogma. Immoral parents and immorality are the cause of all the good or evil in the world. With the proper use of the musical selection, by a male quartette consisting of Messrs. Warren, F. S. Henderson, A. B. Saaw and Dr. Estey, with Mr. W. J. Deane as accompanist, and two first class readings from the I. O. O. F. by F. S. Henderson, the service was an encore. Music and readings were much appreciated by the audience. The meeting closed with the National anthem. Collection was $3-50

MORE PINKHAM CURES

Added to the Long List due to This Famous Remedy.

Glanford Station, Ont.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for years and never found any medicine to compare with it. I had ulcers and falling of the uterus, and doctors did me no good. I suffered dreadfully until I began taking your medicine. It has also helped other women to whom I have recommended it." Mrs. HENRY CLARK, Glanford Station, Ontario.

Gardiner, Me.—"I was a great sufferer from a female disease. The doctor said I would have to go to the hospital for an operation, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound completely cured me in three months." Mrs. S. A. WILLIAMS, R. F. D. No. 14, Box 39, Gardiner, Maine.

Because your case is a difficult one, doctors having done you no good, do not continue to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. It surely has cured many cases of female ills, such as inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, indigestion, dizziness, and nervous prostration. It costs but a trifle to try it, and the result is worth millions to many suffering women.

If you want special advice write for it to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass. It is free and always helpful.

Shakeup Promised In Police Circles

Temperance Alliance Gets After the Town Officials and Improvement is Promised

ENFORCE LOCAL OPTION

A warm meeting of the Temperance Alliance was held after the regular service in the Opera House Sunday evening. The attendance was not large, but those present made up in earnestness for the lack of numbers.

The various town officials responsible for the enforcement of the license law, from His Worship Mayor Murray who was present on invitation to the police officers were severely criticised and His Worship promised that he would bring the matter up at once and have the law properly administered.

The Graphic learns that an effort is being made to procure a thoroughly capable man for the police force, and it is likely the matter will be dealt with at today's meeting of the town council.—Graphic.

MONCTON

Moncton is still without natural gas and a street railway, but by this time next year we believe both these institutions will have worn off the novelty.

Mrs. Connolly, who was committed for trial for obtaining money under false pretences, is plying her business as usual and her little time light episode is only advertising her business. She positively avers she had no intention of "doing anybody."

Not many people are seen drunk on the streets these days. If they get boozed (and there are a few places where they can), Chief Rideout sees they are taken care of behind the bars before they have made much of an example of themselves.

The Thomas Connolly trial did not take very long this time. The first trial the jury stood 7 for conviction and 5 for acquittal. This trial there was 10 for conviction and 2 for acquittal. The prisoner is let go on his own recognizances. Why not another trial? Collins had three.

Mr. Gideon D. Reid of Albert Co., is now in the toils for having thrown a stone through a window, but it did not strike anyone. The question which is being asked now is, "Would it have helped Mr. Reid to get clear if the stone had struck a man and killed him?"

Yesterday an old familiar figure was carried to his last resting place. Mr. Alexander MacAulay, who for over thirty years has stood at Main Street Crossing to warn people of the danger of trains, was followed to his grave on Sunday, Oct. 9th. Many a ten was seen to fall and many a sigh was heard for poor old Sandy, for whom everybody had a good word, and who was the soul of honesty and candour. Sandy was as cheerful as could be expected under the circumstances, for when a young man he had the misfortune to have both his arms cut off near the shoulders, and that is why he occupied the place at the crossing. With his artificial arms he was always ready and willing to do his duty as well as he could and many lives have been saved by his timely warning. Many people wondered why Sandy was not sent home and allowed to draw his pay, rather than endure the living death which was his until one day last week when the welcome end came. He was taken to the hospital for an operation, but was not strong enough to stand it. His funeral was conducted by Rev. D. McDerm, pastor of the Presbyterian church here, of which the deceased was a consistent and much loved member.

$100 REWARD, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Liberally destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

BAD ACCIDENT TO DRIVER SMALLWOOD

Had Hip Dislocated and Back Injured While Working Around his Engine.

I. C. R. Driver Smallwood met with a serious and painful accident at the I. C. R. station about 2.30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon in Moncton.

Driver Smallwood was to have taken out the Montreal half of the Ocean Limited, and while kneeling on the driving rod of his engine the shunting engine ran against the other end of the train, moving it ahead about three feet.

In his position, kneeling on the driving rod and leaning over doing the oiling, the rod raised with the revolution of the wheels, catching the unfortunate man and doubling him up against the upper part of the engine.

His leg below the knee was severely cut, his back was injured, and he received several minor injuries about the lower limbs and body.

Dr. Bourque was immediately summoned, and he arrived on the scene of the accident with despatch. He made a hasty examination of Mr. Smallwood's injuries, but at the time was unable to determine whether serious or internal injuries had been received or not.

Mr. Smallwood was removed to his home on Highfield street. On examination of Dr. Price later, it was found that Mr. Smallwood had his left hip dislocated, which was put back into place and also a deep gash was inflicted in his left leg below the knee, which was dressed.

Mr. Smallwood's many friends will be very glad to learn that his injuries are not dangerous, as was at first feared, although he will be laid up some weeks. Mr. Smallwood is a brother of Cameron Smallwood, Newcastle.

OCTOBER MAGAZINES

One of the breeziest descriptive articles of the season appears in THE CANADIAN MAGAZINE for October under the title "Calgary: A Study in Optimism." The author is Miss Jane Pratt, a writer whose name is not as yet very generally known. This article is well worth reading.

While it gives some impression of Calgary in a commercial way, its chief charm is in the naive manner in which an insight is given into the daily life and spirit of the people of this city of the fenchills. A more serious article is contributed by Stuart Jenkins, and entitled "Is the Old Roman Race Still Dominant?" in which the author claims for the people of Great Britain a perpetuation of the Roman type that once dominated the whole world. "Damasus the Trempress" is the title of a fine travel article by A. R. Carman, and "The Continuity of Municipal Policy" is a well thought out consideration of local government.

Frank H. Newton gives a good account of the new domain in Northern Ontario, in which he predicts an important future for that part of the Province. The last act of Arthur Stringers fascinating drama The Blot appears in this number as well as several other good articles and a number of absorbing short stories and sketches.

Delicious Doughnuts

Good doughnuts are good food. Made from the right flour they are not only a delicious treat but the combination of right flour with fat is distinctly nourishing. You see I put special emphasis on right flour. For it is very important. It means the difference between light, flaky, crumbly doughnuts that melt in your mouth and are easy to digest, and tough, rubbery greasy wads of dough, heavy, soggy, indigestible. Try making doughnuts from

"Royal Household" Flour

Notice how rich, soft, and flaky they are. And the reason is that "ROYAL HOUSEHOLD" being richer in high quality gluten than ordinary flour resists the absorption of too much fat in cooking. It doesn't get rubbery, makes a lighter dough, absorbs just enough of the fat for nourishment, but not enough for indigestion. The absolute uniformity of "Royal Household" enables you to get the same splendid results every time both in Bread and Pastry.

Try "Royal Household". Find out for yourself. All grocers sell it or can get it on short notice.

"I HONESTLY BELIEVE 'FRUIT-A-TIVES'"

The Greatest Cure For Rheumatism In The World"

KNOWLTON, QUE., Oct. 12th, 1909.
"For many years, I suffered from severe Rheumatism, and the attacks were very distressing and prevented me from doing my ordinary work. I tried many remedies and physicians' treatments, but nothing seemed to do me much good, and I was becoming very anxious for fear I would become a permanent cripple from the disease.
I tried "Fruit-a-tives" and this medicine has entirely cured me and I honestly believe it is the greatest Rheumatism cure in the world."
R. H. MILLS.

Such a statement could not be bought from a man like Mr. Mills. He thinks too much of his good name, to sell it to an untruth. Mr. Mills tried "Fruit-a-tives" after all other treatment failed—and "Fruit-a-tives" cured him of Rheumatism. In the goodness of his heart, he wrote the above letter in order that sufferers in all parts of Canada would know that there is one remedy that actually does cure Rheumatism. This testimonial was entirely unsolicited on our part. We did not know that Mr. Mills was taking "Fruit-a-tives" until we received the above letter.

It is a case like Mr. Mills' that proves the marvellous powers of "Fruit-a-tives" in arresting and curing disease. It may be stated, without fear of contradiction, that "Fruit-a-tives" will positively cure Rheumatism when properly used. "Fruit-a-tives" is the only medicine in the world made of fruit juices and is the greatest Rheumatism cure known to modern science.

Moose Heads and Bear Skins Coming in Regularly From the Miramichi Woods.

W. S. Rae, R. Oenslager and P. A. Hartman, all of Harrisburg, Penn., returned from the woods Saturday, bringing three good moose heads, the largest having a spread of 56 inches. They had also two bear skins, one nine feet long and the other 8 foot six. Horns and skins were sent to Emack Bros., Calais.

Hubert Sinclair, Weldon Robinson and Ernest Sinclair of California with Mrs. Hubert Sinclair and Miss Helen Harris of Moncton went up to guide John Hare's camps on the first of the month. They went to the head of the settlement in Weldon's touring car about six miles from the hunting ground. They returned last week with three good sized moose and a caribou. To Miss Harris belongs the honor of getting the largest head, hers having a spread of 55 1/2 inches with 28 points and a wide heavy web. Mrs. Sinclair made good her reputation of last fall as a hunter by getting another large head. The party were fortunate in getting some fine snap shots of live game as they saw 26 moose, loup-capeer fox, and partridges.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Kleinjung of New Jersey and Mr. E. Kleinjung of Germany came in from the woods Wednesday where they have been hunting with James Manderville. They each received a nice moose which have been forwarded to Messrs. Emack of Fredericton for mounting, through their agent Mr. Bidlake.

SPEECHLESS AND PARALYZED.

"I had valvular disease of the heart," writes Mrs. J. S. Goode, of Truro, N. S. "I suffered terribly and was often speechless and partially paralyzed. One dose of Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart gave me relief, and before I finished one bottle I was able to go about. To-day I am a well woman."

McDONALD BECK

A very quiet wedding took place at the home of Miss Annie Campbell, Harcourt, on the afternoon of Friday, Oct. 7th, when Miss Nellie Beck of Greenville, Maine, was united in marriage with Mr. Alexander McDonald of the same place. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. H. Stavert. The contracting parties were unattended. After having partaken of a dainty lunch the young couple drove to the home of Mr. McDonald's mother, at Smith's corner. Mr. and Mrs. McDonald will make their home in Greenville, Me.

TWEEDIE—McISAAC

On the morning of Wednesday, Oct. 12th, a very quiet wedding took place at the home of Miss Annie Campbell, Harcourt, when Miss Margaret B. McIsaac of Acadieville was united in marriage with Mr. Joseph Tweedie of Kouchibouguac. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. H. Stavert in the presence of a number of the immediate relatives and friends. The young couple were unattended. After the ceremony was over Mr. and Mrs. Tweedie left on the noon train for Kouchibouguac where they will reside.

BREAKING THE WORLD'S TIPPING RECORD

Canadians usually associate the custom of lavish tipping with American millionaires, believing that the latter hold the record for the munificence of their gratuities. But, as a writer in October Busy Man's points out, the record does not belong to an American but to a Canadian. An ex-cabinet minister of the Dominion, recently returned from a tour of the European continent left behind him an astonished and gasping procession of servants. He had presented tips to an amount that amazed these people, accustomed as they were to huge tips. And he was ably seconded it seems, by a fellow-countryman, a young multi-millionaire. Much more interesting information about tipping is to be found in the same article.

Amatite ROOFING

Ideal for Farm Buildings

AMATITE is the ideal roof for farm buildings. No other approaches it in economy or durability. Here are some of its features:

1. Low Price. Amatite costs, weight for weight, about half as much as ordinary smooth-surfaced roofings.
2. No Painting Required. Amatite costs absolutely nothing to maintain because it has a real mineral surface.
3. Absolutely Waterproof. Amatite is waterproofed with coal tar pitch, the greatest waterproofing compound known.
4. Easy to Lay. No skilled labor is needed for Amatite. It is just a matter of nailing down.
5. Stormproof. Amatite is not a flimsy, paper-like felt. It is one the heaviest and the most substantial ready roofings made, weighing 90 lbs. to the square, against 40 to 60 of material in the ordinary "Rubber" roofings.

The three important points to be remembered are that Amatite has a real mineral surface, that it needs no painting, and is waterproofed with Coal Tar Pitch. You are only sure of getting them in Amatite.

Successful Convention Held Last Week. Scholarship to be Perpetuated.

In annual convention here last week, the Northumberland county division of Ancient Order of Hibernians advanced an elaborate proposition for the maintenance of the scholarships for this district. The number of A. O. H. students at the St. Thomas' College will be increased as a result of the plan undertaken. C. J. Morrissey was re-elected president and the old board of officers were also chosen.

With Mr. Morrissey presiding the delegates in attendance included the following:

William Goggin, county vice-president, W. F. Cassidy, financial secretary, W. J. Moran, recording secretary, Charles A. Cassidy, treasurer, Division No. 4, Newcastle—M. McCarron, Hon. John Morrissey, John Fallon, P. Hennessy, Amurose Ryan, P. J. Ryan, Geo. Duteher, David Neif, John T. Morrissey, Edward Morris, Bryan Hennessy, Fred Daly.

Division No. 5, Nelson—John Ahern, James Ahern, W. J. Walsh.

Division No. 6, Douglstown—Thomas Barnett, Thomas Daughney, James Craig, John Craig.

Division No. 7, Chatham—John A. Buckley, John J. Flanagan, William Lacey, R. D. Walsh, Thos. Fitzpatrick, Wm. Skidd.

Division No. 8, Barnaby River—Richard Gill, William McGrath.

Division No. 9, St. Margarets—James Hackett.

The county president, in his report, which was subsequently adopted, referred to the fact that the various divisions were in a flourishing condition and there was a noticeable increase in the members. The scholarship project had been effectively carried out along the lines adopted at the provincial convention in Sydney. Mr. Morrissey expressed it as his conviction that with a little effort the scholarship fund would be augmented. He said the attendance was gratifying and the interest manifested was encouraging.

The financial secretary submitted a report, showing the finances to be in a healthy condition.

After endorsing the steps already taken in regard to the scholarship fund, the meeting adopted a resolution levying a fixed assessment per month for educational purposes hereby perpetuating the scholarships. The convention was pronounced as the most successful yet held and a vast increase in membership is anticipated.

Action was taken at the county convention of the A. O. H. in the matter of arranging a celebration for St. Patrick's Day, March 17th. The observation it was decided, will be held in Newcastle. A committee, consisting of the presidents of the county divisions and the county president, was appointed to make plans for the observation.

FAVORABLE REPORT OF AUDITOR

(Memorandum of the Committee of the Executive Council upon the report of the Auditor General on conditions existing at Campbellton, N. B.)

The Relief Committee of the Town of Campbellton, appointed by the citizens of that town immediately after the disastrous fire of July 11th last for the purpose of receiving and distributing relief to the inhabitants who were rendered homeless and destitute thereby, having submitted to His Honour the Lieutenant Governor in Council the names and duties of the said Committee, and the manner in which the same had been carried out, the Auditor General was appointed to go to Campbellton and investigate the existing conditions and requirements and to report the results to Council, which he has done.

The Auditor General reports, among other things that "On the 19th of September, at Campbellton I met the Chairman of the Relief Committee, and the Chairman of the Finance Committee, as well as other officers, who explained the methods under which the several committees were working. These methods I found to be entirely satisfactory and would judge that every safeguard is being used for the equitable distribution of the funds and supplies.

All cash received for relief purposes is deposited in the three local banks in the joint names of the three members of the Finance Committee, consequently no monies can be drawn unless the checks bear the signatures of the three members of that committee.

The total amount of cash received by the Relief Committee to the 17th of September inclusive was $98,206.23; total expenditure to same date was $10,392.96; leaving a balance on hand of $87,813.27; $52,000.00 was appropriate to the building committee to give aid to the needy in rebuilding their home, and also to pay for three small houses now in course of erection at a cost of $300 each. The committee are in hopes that the tent now in use as living quarters, may be entirely dispensed with by the middle of October next.

To enable the committee to provide the poor with food and fuel during the winter months, they estimate that $25,000.00 more will be required and are depending upon the good people of Canada to forward that amount.

The said report also gives a statement of the bonded debt of the said town which at the time of the fire amounted to $300,400.00 the annual interest charge upon which was $12,900.00.

The amount required in the immediate future to provide for the usual town services, such as Electric Light Plant, Water & Sewerage Plant, Fire Protection Plant &c., and for which it is proposed to make a new issue of debentures is estimated at $136,919.00, which sum is reduced by insurance from old school building and Electric Plant to $113,119.00.

After a reference to the industries that are being rebuilt, and the epidemic of typhoid fever and its causes, the report concludes with the statement that "considering the great individual losses the people suffered by the fire, they appeared cheerful and have strong faith in the future prosperity of the new Campbellton."

Upon consideration of the said report the Council is of opinion that the measures adopted by the Relief Committee of the town of Campbellton to meet the requirements of the unfortunate situation in which the inhabitants of that town were placed in consequence of the almost total destruction of their homes and effects have been in the best interest of the afflicted people, and that the distribution of the relief placed at their disposal has been made with due care, honesty and impartiality, and that their strenuous labours merit commendation and the committee of Council therefore recommend that upon His Honour the Lieutenant Governor, approving this Minute that a copy thereof be furnished the said Relief Committee.

A MOTHER'S ADVICE TO OTHER MOTHERS

Mrs. Nicholas Breaux, Rogersville, N. B., writes:—"I can highly recommend Baby's Own Tablets to all mothers whose little ones are afflicted. I gave my little girl the Tablets and they regulated her bowels and now she sleeps well, eats well, is fat and good all the time. I am really delighted with the Tablets and I always keep them in the house and as soon as my little girl becomes troubled or feverish I give her the Tablets and she is soon well again. Please send me another box for they are the very best medicine I know of for little ones." The Tablets are sold under a guarantee to contain nothing injurious to even the youngest child. Sold at 25 cents a box by all medicine dealers or from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville Ont.

Don't tittle with a cold is good advice for prudent men and women. It may be vital in case of a child. There is nothing better than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for coughs and colds in children. It is safe and sure. For sale by all dealers.

SMALLPOX
A man named Casey, belonging to Fair Isle, Nguak, arrived in town today from Sinclair's lumber camp on the Northwest. He was suffering with what was supposed to be smallpox. The local board of Health chairman refused to allow him to remain here, and started him back for the camp last night. Councillors Vanerbeck and Doyle were of opinion that the town authorities had not right to unload the patient upon the county, however the man was sent out of town. While here he was sheltered in an outbuilding belonging to L. Comfort. He was not at the stage when infection was very liable.

ORANGE MASS MEETING
There was a large attendance at a mass meeting held in the Moncton Baptist church Friday evening under the auspices of the Orange order, the church, which seats about 1,200 being filled. Rev. B. H. Thomas, county master, of Dorchester, presided, and speeches were made by the chairman, Revs. E. B. McLatchy, D. MacOdrum, J. J. Pinkerton, W. E. Clarke and J. L. Batty. The principal speaker was Mr. Batty, who replied to Dr. Roche's articles in the press recently. The speeches generally were in defence of Protestantism, and in reply to Father Vaughan's utterances at the Montreal Eucharistic Congress.

MRS. SUSAN JARDINE
The death of Mrs. Susan Jardine, relict of late John Jardine of Williamstown in this County, occurred last night at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. S. A. Demers. Deceased was 97 years old last August. She was born in County Cork, Ireland, and shortly before her departure for Canada in 1840 she married Mr. Jardine, who died in this County 29 years ago. Mrs. Jardine was the daughter of John Goggin and his wife Ellen (Brown) Goggin. Deceased was in excellent health up to last March, when she became bedridden in consequence of a fall. She retained all her faculties till she last endured her suffering with Christian fortitude. She was a devout member of St. Mary's R. C. congregation. She leaves to mourn their loss the following children—Mrs. Ellen M. Keal, Boston; Michael and John Jardine, Newcastle; Miss Kate Boston; Miss Julia, Hantsport, N. S.; Mrs. Patrick Keough, Blackville, Peter, U. S. A., and Mrs. S. A. Demers Newcastle. Funeral tomorrow morning at 9.30, interment in St. Mary's Cemetery. Family have sympathy of community.

GAVIN COPELAND
The death of Gavin Copeland, one of the oldest and most respected residents of Newcastle, occurred yesterday afternoon. Mr. Copeland was born in Douglas town on Nov. 22nd, 1826. He was the son of the late David Copeland of that place. Early in life he removed to Newcastle, and up to four years ago, when, at the age of eighty he retired from active work, he was engineer in Hickson's mill. Deceased had been a remarkably robust man never having been sick a day up to the time of taking his bed about two weeks ago. He was for many years a member of No. 1000, L. O. L. No. 47, always taking a deep interest in all matters pertaining to the Orange order. He was a member of the Presbyterian church in which body he was much respected. By his second wife, who was Miss Sarah Woodworth of Moncton and who died in 1897, deceased leaves the following children—Mrs. Oliver Williamson, Chicago; David, foreman of Nathan Sawyer & Co's printing office, Boston; Mrs. David K. Cool, Newcastle; Fred, of the I. R. C., Moncton, and James of Vancouver, B. C. The only surviving brother is Robt. Copeland of Eureka, California. With the bereaved family much sympathy is expressed.

Fishman had been conversing diligently with an ancient countess and her two attractive daughters near the fountain. Again the dapper director came forward to lead the musicians, and again he was most enthusiastically received. This time Chase was not where he could watch the princess. He found, therefore, that he could devote his attention to the music and the popular conductor. He was amazed to find that the fellow seemed to be inspired. He was also surprised to find himself carried away by the fervor of the moment.

With the final crash of the orchestra he found himself shouting again with the others. Oddly, this time he was as mad as they. A score or more of surprised, disapproving eyes were turned upon him when he yelled "Encore!"

"There will be no encore," admonished the fair girl at his side kindly. "It is not New York," she added, with a sly smile.

Ten minutes later Chase and the Englishman were lighting their cigars in an obscure corner of the gardens.

"Extraordinarily beautiful," Chase murmured reflectively as he seated himself upon the stone railing along the drive.

"Yes, they say he really wrote it himself," drawled Baggs, puffing away. "I'm not talking about the music," corrected Chase sharply.

"Oh!" murmured Baggs apologetically. "The night?"

"No; the princess, Baggs. Haven't you noticed her?" with intense sarcasm in his tone.

"Of course I have, old chap. By Jove, do you know she is good looking—positively ripping."

They lazily observed the approach of one couple, attracted no doubt by the disparity in the height of the two shadows. The man was at least half a head shorter than his companion, but his ardor seemed a thousandfold more vast. Chase was amused by the apparent intensity of the small officer's devotion, especially as it was met with a coldness that would have chilled the fervor of a man much larger and therefore more timid. It was impossible to see the faces of the couple until they passed through a moonlit streak in the walk quite close at hand.

Chase started and grasped his companion's arm. One was the Princess Geneva and—was it possible? Yes, the nimble conductor—the sensation of the hour, the musical lion! Moreover, to Chase's cold horror, the "little freak" was actually making violent love to the divinity of Rapp-Thorberg!

The princess had not seen the two men, nor had the fervent conductor, whose impassioned French was easily distinguishable by the unwilling listeners. The sharp, indignant "No" of the princess, oft repeated, did much to relieve the pain in the heart of her American admirer. Finally, with an unmistakable cry of anger, she halted not ten feet from where Chase sat, as though he had become a part of the stone wall.

"I have asked you not to touch me, sir! Is not that enough? If you persist I shall be compelled to appeal to my father again. The whole situation is loathsome to me. Are you blind? Can you not see that I despise you? I will not endure it a day longer. You promised to respect my wishes."

"How can I respect a promise which condemns me to purgatory every time I see you?" he cried passionately. "I adore you. You are the queen of my life, the holder of my soul. Geneva, Geneva, I love you! My soul for one tender word, for one soft caress! Ah, do not be so cruel! I will be your slave!"

"Enough! Stop, I say! If you dare to touch me!" she cried, drawing away from her tormentor, her voice trembling with anger. The little conductor's manner changed on the instant. He gave a snarl of rage.

"By heaven, I'll make you pay for this some day! You shall learn what a man can do with a woman such as you are! You!"

Just at that moment a tall figure leaped from the shadows and confronted the quivering musician. A heavy hand fell upon his collar, and he was almost jerked from his feet, half choked, half paralyzed with alarm. Not a word was spoken. Chase whirled the presumptuous suitor about until he faced the gates to the garden. Then, with more force than he realized, he applied his foot to the person of the offender—once, twice, thrice!

The princess stared, wide-eyed and unbelieving, as the brief episode unfolded toward the gates and then, with new ardor, saw him pick himself up from the ground, nothing with pain and sweat. She saw his hands raised from his eyes, and she saw his face of rage, he turned to knew him to be the American—she saw Chase, lightly leap aside, avoiding the thrust for his heart. Then, as if he were playing with a child, he wrested the weapon from the conductor's hand, snapped the blade in two pieces and threw them off into the bushes.

"Skip!" was his only word. It was a command that no one in Rapp-Thorberg ever had heard before.

"You shall pay for this!" screamed the conductor, tugging at his collar. "Scoundrel! Dog! Beast! What do you mean? Murderer! Robber! Assassin!"

"You know what I mean, you little shrimp!" roared Chase. "Skip! Don't hang around here a second longer or I'll— And he took a threatening step toward his adversary. The latter turned tall and ran twenty paces or more in heart-breaking time, then, realizing that he was not pursued, stopped and shook his fist at his assailant.

"Come, Geneva," he gasped, but she remained as if rooted to the spot. He waited an instant and then walked rapidly away in the direction of the palace. Baggs crossed Chase by the shoulder, shook him and exclaimed when it was too late:

"You blooming ass, do you know what you've done?"

"The — miserable cur was annoying the princess," muttered Chase, straightening his cuffs, vaguely realizing that he had interfered too hastily.

"Confound it, man, he's the chap she's going to marry."

"Marry?" gasped Chase.

"The hereditary prince of Brabets—Karl Brabets."

"Good Lord!"

"You must have known."

"How the dev— Of course I didn't know," groaned Chase. "But, hang it all, man, he was annoying her. She was flouting him for it. She said she despised him. I don't understand."

"The princess came forward into the light of the path. There was a quaint little wrinkle of mirth about her lips, which trembled nevertheless, but her eyes were full of solicitude.

"I'm sorry, sir," she began nervously. "You have made a serious mistake. But," she added frankly, holding out her hand to him, "you meant to defend me. I thank you."

Chase bowed low over her hand, too bewildered to speak. Baggs was pulling at his mustache and looking nervously in the direction which the prince had taken.

"He'll be back here with the guard," he muttered.

"He will go to my father," said Geneva, her voice trembling. "He will be very angry. I am sorry, indeed, that you should have witnessed our scene. Of course you could not have known who he was."

"I thought he was a— But in any event, your highness, he was annoying you," supplemented Chase eagerly.

"You will forgive me if I've caused you even greater, graver annoyance. What can I do to set the matter right? I can explain my error to the duke. He'll understand."

"Perhaps you'd better go at once," said the princess, rather pathetically. "My father will not overlook the indignity to—to my—to his future son-in-law. I am afraid he may take extreme measures."

"Forgive me," muttered the hapless Chase.

"It would not be proper in me to say that I could bless you for what you have done," she said, so naively that he lifted his eyes to hers and let his heart escape heavenward.

"The whole world will call me a bungling, stupid ass for not knowing who he was," said Chase, with a wretched smile.

"If I were you I'd never confess that I did not know who he was," she said. "Let the world, think that you did know. It will not laugh then. If you can trust your friend to keep the secret I am sure you can trust me to do the same."

Again Chase was speechless—this time with joy. She would shield him from ridicule!

"And now please go! It grieves me to feel that I may be the unhappy cause of misfortune to you."

"No misfortune can appall me now," murmured he gallantly. Then came the revolting realization that she was to wed the little musician. The thought burst from his lips before he could prevent: "I don't believe you want to marry him. He is the duke's choice. You!"

"And I am the duke's daughter," she said steadily, a touch of hauteur in her voice. "Good night. Goodby. I am not sorry that it has happened."

She turned and left them, walking swiftly among the trees. A moment later her voice came from the shadows, quick and pleading.

"Hasten," she called softly. "They are coming. I can see them."

"It's a devil of a mess," sighed Baggs when they were far from the walls. "I'm sure it will cost you your job, if nothing else. You'll be relieved before tomorrow night my word for it. And you'll be lucky if that's all. The duke's a terror. I don't for the life of me see how you failed to know who the comp really was."

"An Englishman now uses a joke until it is too late. This time it appears to be an American who is slow-witted. I don't understand why he was waiting that contended land."

"My word, Chase, everybody in Europe except you, knows that Brabets is a crank about music—composes, it is said all that. He's a contumacious little wonder just the same. He doesn't care a hang about what the worst kind, don't you know, a shame he has to marry his chap. You A it. Chase I say, you'd better come over and stop with me tonight. It will be better if they don't find you just yet."

Three days later a man came down to relieve Chase of his office. He was unconsciously supplanted in the duchy of Rapp-Thorberg.

It was the successful pleading of the Princess Geneva that kept him from serving a period in durance vile.

CHAPTER V.

THE ENGLISH INVADE.

THE granddaughter of Jack Wyckholme, attended by two maids, her husband and his valet, a clerk from the chambers of Bosworth, Newnes & Grapewin, a red cocker, seventeen trunks and a cartload of late novels, which she had been too busy to read at home, was the first of the bewildered legatees to set foot upon the island of Japat.

She was very pretty, very smart and delightfully arrogant after a manner of her own.

Mr. Saunders was the polite but excessively middle class clerk who went out to keep the legal strings untangled for them. He was soon to discover that his duties were even more comprehensive.

It was he who saw to it that the luggage was transferred to the lighter which came out to the steamer when she dropped anchor off the town of Arata; it was he who counted the pieces and haggled with the boatmen; it was he who carried off the hand luggage when the native dock boys refused to engage in the work; it was he who unfortunately dropped a suitcase upon the hallowed tail of the red cocker, an accident which ever afterward gave him a tenacity of grip that no man could understand.

If Lady Deppingham expected a royal welcome from the inhabitants of Japat she was soon to discover her error. Not only was the pictured scene of welcome missing on the afternoon of her arrival, but an overpowering air of antipathy smote her in the face as she stepped from the lighter, conquest in her smile of conciliation.

She glanced from right to left down the lines of swarthy islanders and saw nothing in their faces but surly, bitter unfriendliness. They stood stolidly, stonily at a distance, white robed lines of resentment personified.

Not a hand was lifted in assistance to the bewildered visitor; not a word, not a smile of encouragement escaped the lips of the silent throng.

"Is there no British agent here?" she demanded imperatively, perhaps a little more shrilly than usual.

No one deigned to answer. Glances of indifference, even scorn, passed among the silent lookers-on, but that was all.

"Does no one here understand the English language?" she demanded. "I don't mean you, Mr. Saunders," she added sharply as the little clerk set the background of a hat and stepped forward, again fumbling his much fumbled straw hat. This was the moment when the red cocker's tail came to grief. The dog arose with an astonished yelp and fled to his mistress. He had never been so outrageously set upon before in all his pampered life. Seizing the opportunity to vent her feelings upon one who could understand, even as she poured soothing words upon the insulted Pong, whom she clasped in her arms, Lady Agnes transformed the unlucky Saunders into a target for a most ably directed volley of wrath.

Lord Deppingham, a slow and cumbersome young man, stood by nervously fingering his eyeglass. For the first time he felt that the clerk was better than a confounded dog after all.

"My dear," he said, waving Saunders into the background, "I think it was an accident. The dog had no business going to sleep." He paused and inserted his monocle for the purpose of looking up the precise spot where the accident had occurred.

"Oh, rubbish!" exclaimed her ladyship. "I suppose you expect the poor darling to apologize."

"All this has nothing to do with the case. We're more interested in learning where we are and where we are to go. Permit me to have a look about."

His wife stared after him in amazement as he walked over to the canvas awning in front of the low dock building, actually elbowing his way through a group of natives. Presently he came back, twisting his left mustache.

"The fellow in there says that the English agent is employed in the bank. It's straight up this street. By Jove! He called it a street, don't you know," he exclaimed, disdainfully eyeing the narrow, dusty passage ahead.

"There's the British flag, my lord, just ahead. See the building to the right, sir?" said Mr. Saunders, more respectfully than ever and with real grins up his heart.

"So it is! That's where he is. I wonder why he isn't down here to meet us?"

FIRST TASTE OF WINTER

It snowed here on Wednesday and was a cold blustery day. On Tuesday the wind blew a gale and many of the tar paper shacks lost their paper and some tents were blown down.

FEVER ABATING

No new cases of fever have been reported this week and fever patients are gradually recovering. A prominent member of the Board of Health, informed the Graphic that there are no more cases of fever in town this year than last year, but more fuss is being made about it.

WORK PROGRESSING

Three months ago Tuesday, Campbellton was destroyed by fire. Anyone who visited the town in the few days succeeding the fire and again at the present date would hardly realize that this was the same town. Houses have been erected in all quarters and things are rapidly assuming every appearance of a good substantial town.

ALEXANDER F. MONTGOMERY

Unusually sad was the recent death of Mr. Alexander Fraser Montgomery of New Richmond Centre, P. Q., which occurred on Monday, Sept. 26th at Campbellton Hospital, from typhoid fever. He was 21 years of age. He leaves to mourn their loss a mother and father, six brothers and sisters. The sisters are, Mrs. John Anningson, Broadlands; Mrs. Jos. Anningson, Campbellton; Mrs. Leon St. Martin, Quebec; Florence, Elsie and Winnie of New Richmond Centre. The brothers are Albert, Leslie, Harold, Edgar, Bryce and Kenneth, at home.

His remains were taken to his home from whence the burial took place. Deceased spent over a year in Campbellton, where he made many friends.

RETURN THANKS

The Relief Committee of the Town of Campbellton gratefully acknowledge the splendid work done by David Russell, Esq., formerly of St. John, N. B., but now of Montreal. He not only subscribed personally the large sum of $1000.00 for the benefit of Campbellton fire sufferers, but in addition to this amount he obtained the further amount of about $7000.00 among his many friends throughout Canada. This work was undertaken by Mr. Russell voluntarily so far as our Committee are aware, and the splendid results of his appeal has greatly strengthened our Committee's hands in the granting of aid to our unfortunate and needy citizens.

THE BIGGEST ELEVATORS IN THE WORLD

It is really astonishing to read about the way the wheat crop of Western Canada is poured each fall through the elevators of the Twin Cities on Lake Superior—Port William and Port Arthur. Last year 45,000,000 bushels out of a crop of 125,000,000 bushels, went through the big terminal elevators in eighty days. The real significance of this is made clear by T. M. Ralston in the course of a remarkable article in October Busy Man's entitled "Pouring Grain through the Big Funnel." He points out that during the past year eighty-nine million bushels were handled by the Twin City elevators, that it required eighty-nine thousand cars to hold this quantity and that this involved the despatch from Winnipeg of thirteen thousand trains of seventy cars each. The method of handling the grain is a most interesting fashion and a description of the mammoth elevators—the largest in the world—is given.

A Brief for "Beaver" Flour

"Beaver" Flour

- 1. That more bread made from BEAVER FLOUR and less meat, and you will be better nourished, at the same time reducing the cost of living. 2. No special pastry flour is needed, for BEAVER FLOUR makes the best pies, cakes, biscuits and rolls. 3. It contains the valuable gluten and protein constituents of Manitoba No. 1 Hard Wheat, but makes finer, whiter bread than if made from that alone. 4. It owes its delicacy and lightness to the carbohydrate-constituents of Ontario Wheat in just the right proportions, but is more nourishing than if made from that alone. 5. It readily takes up water, and makes larger loaves and more of them. 6. It tickles the palate of the whole family, and does them good. 7. A few good reasons are as good as a thousand, so we will now, Your Honor, rest our case.

Be sure to note that the decision is for BEAVER FLOUR,—with the costs assessed to those who do not use it.

COUNTY COURT

County Court opened this morning, Judge McLatchy presiding.

The Grand Jury found true bills against Henry MacKay for common assault and Patrick Maher for theft.

Thos. Daughney is being tried for the third time on charge of beating his step children. Evidence is all in and case goes to the jury tomorrow morning.

In the case of M. R. Benn vs. Harris, appealed by Harris from Town of Newcastle civil court, the appeal was sustained and verdict set aside, on grounds that no particulars had been attached to summons served upon defendant.

Judgement was also given in case of Hotel Touraine vs. policeman Peter Coughlan, setting aside writ of replevin for liquor seized by officer in discharge of his duty as Scott Act Inspector. Conviction had been secured against proprietor and liquor ordered destroyed. The proprietor replevined liquor. R. A. Lawlor moved to set aside writ on grounds (1) That County Court jurisdiction in actions of replevin had been taken away by Judicature Act; (2) That replevin could not lie as liquor belonged to the King; (3) That liquor was in custody of the law. The Writ was set aside on third ground.

The new star, whose approximate position is right ascension 16 hours, 31 minutes, 4 seconds, declination minus 52 hours, 10 minutes, six seconds, was discovered by Mrs. Fleming in the constellation Ara, on October 13, 1910.

MOUTH BROKEN BY KICK

A serious accident occurred to Robert Glenn, of Big Brook, Coal Branch, Kent Co., a few days ago. His father, Andrew Glenn, was in the act of chasing a colt in to where its mother was and Robert was standing beside his father when the mare, turning suddenly and running after the colt, kicking as she went. The calf of her shoe entered the mouth of Mr. Glenn, jr. and broke the roof of his mouth. Dr. Girvan of Harcourt was summoned and had the young man taken to the Moncton hospital. A silver plate was put into the roof of his mouth to keep the broken parts together and food is administered artificially. At last accounts he was doing well. The injured man is about 24 years of age.

ORE SHIPMENT HAS COMMENCED

Steamer Skogstad Arrived Friday. Shipment Now in Full Swing. Other Vessels Expected Soon.

The steamer Skogstad arrived at the Drummond terminal Thursday for iron ore. She has been arriving daily since the 5th instant, at the rate of about a thousand tons a day. Much interest has been manifested in the work and there have been many visitors to the terminals. The cars of the Northern New Brunswick and Sea Board Railway are large and specially constructed for the purpose. Five thousand tons was the first shipment. Several steamers, capable of carrying 5,000 tons, are chartered for the work. The development of the ore means much to Northern New Brunswick.
