Life's path is rough, the old man said,
"I'm weary, I would that I were dead."
I asked what ailed him, and he feebly sighed
In humbling accents he to me replied,
"It is not that I am feeble, old, or failing,
'Tis a tight load, and an infernal CORN."
Note.—Those who are similarly afflicted will please call at E. Harvey & Co's and get box of Briggs' Curative, and in a few days or her Corns, with all its ornaments, will disappear. For sale by all druggists. C. H. Wright & Co., agent for British possessions. The summer is gone, and the autumn is past. Jolly old winter has come in at last. The snow-dakes are falling quick thro' the air, covering the ground with a mantle rare; The ice King his joys is quickly in winning, the merry sleigh-bells are gaily ringing, And whether it be by day, or whether by night, Lamp, or candle, or least twinkling star, The breeze doth whisper, "This winter, take care!" And the night wind both hallow "Beware! Beware!"
But if you should suffer from asthma or cold, Toothache, lameness, rheumatic pains, colds, Coughs, bronchitis, or other fatal diseases, do not stop a minute, but hurry inlander, and purchase a bottle of Briggs' Curative. For sale by E. Harvey & Co., and all druggists. C. H. Wright & Co., Hamilton, general agents for British Possessions.

Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.
Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, Croup, Whooping Cough, Quinsy, and the numerous as well as dangerous diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs, prevail in our changeable climate at all seasons of the year. It is so fortunate enough to escape their baneful influence. How important then to have at home a certain antidote to all these complaints. Experience proves that this exists in Wistar's Balsam to an extent not found in any other remedy; however severe the suffering, the application of this soothing, healing and wonderful Balsam at once vanquishes the disease and restores the sufferer to wonted health.
Mr. J. H. B. writes: "I was urged by a neighbor to get one bottle of the Balsam for my wife, being assured by him that in case it did not produce good effects, he would pay for the bottle himself. On the strength of such practical evidence of its merits I procured a bottle. My wife at this time was low with a cold, and was unable to raise herself from the bed, coughing constantly and raising more or less blood. I commenced giving her the Balsam and in a few days she was entirely cured. I feel that I obtained another bottle, and continued giving it. Before this bottle was used, she ceased coughing, and was strong enough to get up. The fifth bottle entirely restored her to health, doing that which several physicians had tried to do but had failed."
Prepared by SETH W. FOWLE & SON, 18 Tremont-st., Boston, and for sale by druggists generally.

Defeat of the Narrow Guaguers in East Garafraxa.
To the Editor of the MERCURY.

SIR.—We have had a desperate hand to hand fight with the Messrs. Laidlaw, McNab and Dickie, the celebrated narrow guage agitators. At their first meeting in Switzer's hall, village of Mars, on the 24th ult., they were defeated—five voting in favor of a by-law being submitted and twenty-one against it. Their next meeting was held on the 3rd inst., in the brick school house near Orangeville, where they had 30 in favour of a bonus and 9 against it. They had another meeting the same evening in Woolner's school house in the Gore, where they were so strongly opposed by Mr. Chisholm that at the close only four ratepayers voted in their favor, while about 100 opposed the proposition to submit a by-law. On Thursday evening they addressed a large audience at Hudson's, on the 14th concession, near the Grand River. Their eloquence seems, however, to have been entirely thrown away; for when they called for a division of the house not one ratepayer remained on their side to console them. At Atchison's tavern, 9th concession, on Friday evening, Mr. Chisholm once more troubled them with a few facts and arguments. At the close of the meeting nothing remained on their side but the old stove.

The grand fight, however, came off in Mars Village, Switzer's hall, on Saturday evening—Mr. Thos. Handley in the chair. After explaining the object of the meeting he called on Mr. Dickie to address the audience, who explained the sinking fund system—the average yearly amount which would be required to be levied on each farm of 100 acres to pay off the debt in twenty years, and the great profits which after the construction of the T. G. & B. Railway the farmers would be enabled to make on cordwood, barley, geese, turkeys, and other farm produce. Mr. Chisholm was next called upon; not being very well he came forward with reluctance. In the first place he spoke of the inequality of the contest, the poor farmers of Garafraxa attempting to oppose the great orators of Toronto; and the good face which lawyers and public speakers could put on a very bad subject. He next exposed the ridiculousness of a fly sheet addressed to the ratepayers by the T. G. & B. Company, and showed conclusively that according to statements contained in it a man could make $4 by taking one sleigh load of butter from Orangeville to Toronto. He also showed how the Toronto merchants and grain dealers would be able, on account of the transhipment necessitated by the narrow guage, to control both the export and import traffic of the road. He also said that the advocates of this road were continually harping almost every minute under the nose of the W. G. & B. Company. "Now, gentlemen," said he, "whenever a man needs to speak so much of his honesty, just you lay it down as a rule to watch him or you'll get your pockets picked." Mr. Chisholm continued to speak in the same scathing and ingenious style for about half an hour, the depiction winning almost every minute under the eagle's wing of the W. G. & B. Company.

THE INSURRECTION IN MEXICO.—The Mexican insurgents under Gen. Negrete have been totally routed by the National forces under Gen. Alarce. Unfortunately, Gen. Negrete, as well as another ringleader, Gen. Amador, escaped. The insurrection in Yucatan has been completely put down. Thus the Government, with greater success than any of the preceding administrations, prevents the insurrection from expanding into civil war. There is, however, in all parts of the Republic, and especially at the capital, a great deal of violent agitation. Some of the papers charge the President with corruption, and many are making fierce attacks upon the United States, which are still suspected of entertaining aggressive intentions with regard to Mexican territory.

THE INTERNATIONAL BRIDGE.—The corporation of the City of Buffalo have at length consented to guarantee the bonds for the money required to construct the international bridge at Fort Erie. The structure is to be a most substantial one, and is estimated to cost from $2,000,000 to $3,000,000. The railway companies interested in the building of the bridge agree to pay annually a sufficient rent for the use of the bridge to meet the interest on the investment.

TOWN ITEMS.

The complimentary concert to Miss Jennie Fraser comes off in the Town Hall to-night. Secure seats in good time.

THE REGISTRARSHIP.—It is understood that the Ontario Gazette of Saturday will contain the official appointment of Mr. James Webster to the Registrarship of this County.

We have been requested to state that Mr. Carroll will, for the last time at present, address the weekly congregational meeting to be held in Knox's Church this (Thursday) evening. All are cordially invited to attend.

A very pleasant gathering of the members of the Good Templars Lodge in this town took place on Tuesday evening, when the proceedings were agreeably varied with music, singing, speeches, &c. A similar meeting is held monthly, to which the general public are admitted.

A few minutes after ten o'clock this morning, one of the chimneys over the stores of Messrs Carroll and Risk Day's Block, caught fire; but after burning up all the soot and flue accumulating in it from three stovepipes which led into the chimney, it extinguished itself, and the services of the firemen, with the engine, who were at hand, were not required.

We have received from Mr. W. E. Tunis, Clifton, the March number of that capital periodical, Harper's Magazine, which is replete with the most entertaining and useful articles by some of the best American and English writers. Amongst these we may enumerate, Pelecan of the sea; South Coast Saunterings in England; the Lands of the Earthquake; My Enemy's Daughter; Laban's Daughters, and many others. For sale at Day's Bookstore.

POURTRAIT OF MR. PANSION.—Mr. J. B. Thornton, bookseller, has sent us a splendid cabinet portrait of the Rev. W. Morley Pansion, the distinguished Wesleyan divine. It is photographed by Notman, of Montreal, who is perhaps the best artist in Canada, and all who have seen Mr. Pansion will bear testimony to the faithfulness of the portrait. Mr. Thornton has been appointed agent for the sale of these photographs in Guelph, and all admirers of the great preacher and orator should secure one.

A meeting of the managers of Knox's Church, in this town, was held on Tuesday evening last, when the subject of the completion of the new church was fully discussed, after which the meeting adjourned till the following day, when the tenders of Messrs. G. & A. Bruce, for the carpenter's and joiner's work being found to be the lowest, it was accepted. In the course of a few months the congregation of Knox's Church will have an edifice to worship in more keeping with their numbers and respectability than the one used at present.

SILVER CREEK BREWERY.—Our readers will notice by the advertisement that Mr. George Sleeman, the enterprising proprietor of the above brewery in Guelph, has made arrangements with Messrs. E. Carroll & Co., Grocers, Wyndham-st., to keep on hand a constant supply of his ale and porter in all size casks, which will be supplied on the same terms as at the brewery. This will be a great convenience to the many customers of the Silver Creek Brewery, which we are glad to know, is now doing a large business.

MORE SNOW.—Early yesterday (Wednesday) morning a heavy snow storm set in which lasted all day, accompanied with a heavy wind, which in many places created high drifts. By night fall the snow was over twelve inches on the level, blocking up the railway track, and preventing the visits of many of our country friends. The storm appears to have been general throughout this Province and at least part of Quebec. The atmosphere was also pretty sharp, particularly during the night. Should the weather turn out soft and mild, as we may now reasonably expect at this season, with rain, there will be a heavy flood.

A MISAPPREHENSION.—A misapprehension has arisen in this town from recent proceedings at Toronto, in consequence of a recent decision by Judge Wilson, based on the letter of the existing liquor, which for a time left the Police Magistrate no other resource than to acquit persons brought before him charged with drunkenness only. The law under which this decision was given is not a provincial one, as some suppose, as all city, town and village councils have the power under the act to prevent drunkenness and punish persons drunk or disorderly on the streets or public places. On Monday night last the Toronto Council amended the by-law in question, and it now reads "drunk or disorderly," instead of as before "drunk and disorderly." The 18th section of By-law No. 164 of Guelph provides that due punishment shall be meted out to all devotees of old rye, gin and brandy, who may be "found drunk or disorderly in any street, highway, or public place within the limits of the said town of Guelph."

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

One of the fiercest snow storms of the season raged in Toronto all day on Tuesday.

Lord Monck has been created a Knight of the Grand Cross of the Order of St. Michael and St. George.

A railway traveller of our acquaintance informs us that he secretly caught cold through sitting next to a wet nurse.

A diligent reader of Scripture has discovered that the velocipede, of the one-wheeled variety, was predicted more than 2,000 years ago. See Ezekiel i, 15 to 21.

On Tuesday afternoon Mr. Jas. Ross, of Belleville, brother of the Hon. John Ross, was sworn in Clerk of the Executive Council, of Ontario, vice Mr. John Shuter Smith, resigned.

On Wednesday and Thursday, 21st and 22nd of April, the Ontario Poultry Association will hold an exhibition at Toronto. The entries are to close on the 31st March. Certificates of entry may be obtained from Thomas McLean, Box 26, Toronto.

SALE OF TORONTO STREET RAILWAY.—The Toronto Street Railway has been sold to Mr. Kirby, a stage proprietor of London, for $48,800. Mr. English, the late manager of the road, expected to buy it at a merely nominal price, but was disappointed. The road was a much mismanaged affair, or it would have paid well.

LOOKING OUT FOR THE THAW.—The mill owners at Galt, and at other places along the Grand River, are afraid of high floods, and are making preparations accordingly. The probabilities now are that, in consequence of the vast quantity of snow on the ground, there will be higher spring freshets than have been known in Canada for many years.

We observe that at the cheap readings given in the Mechanics' Institute, Toronto, on Tuesday evening last, Dr. Griffith, of Salem, took a part. The Leader says that Dr. Griffith, the author of a new story, called, "Help in the Distance," read a comic Irish piece entitled, "Tim O'Rourke's trip to the Moon." The Dr. read it with a genuine Irish brogue, and proved, beyond a doubt, that his powers of mimicry are first-class. He also recited "The Charge of the Light Brigade," and at the conclusion received the marked approbation of the audience.

The Buffalo Express, with laudable pride records the fact that at a recent ball at the Tuilleries, "Napoleon the Third" patted Mr. Burlingame very cordially on the back! "This is important intelligence, and doubtless the Express thinks that it is calculated to fill the minds of foreign diplomatists with dire forebodings. Before we have heard the last of it, it will probably be given out that this cordial 'pat on the back' in reality indicated the conclusion of a treaty, offensive and defensive between France, China and the United States against 'perfidious Albion.'"

English sparrows have become quite favourites in New York. It is believed that there are as many as ten thousand of them already on the Island. They are gradually spreading themselves, and have extended in couples for more than forty miles around. Such interest is taken in them that houses are built for them and placed in the trees. The double are the best, with one and five eights of an inch entrance on each end, placed on sandy trees about twenty feet from the ground and nearer to dwelling the better. No doubt they will soon come to Canada; as they are hardy, enterprising little fellows.

PER ATLANTIC CABLE.

Despatches to the Evening Mercury
LONDON, March 11th. — The Spanish Government has telegraphed to General Dules to suspend the execution of insurgents condemned to death in Cuba.

American Despatches
Washington, 11th. — No one doubts that Secretary Washburne will very soon retire from the Department of State. Yesterday after he had received the Foreign Minister, Mr. Thornton remained for the purpose of having some conversation with him on important business pending between the United States and British Government, when Mr. Washburne said he could not enter upon the consideration of matters of moment as he did not expect long to remain as Secretary of State.

Does Anybody Drink Wine?
The following, which we take from the New York Tribune, will lead many to ask themselves the question we give above: Before deciding abruptly whether the Coming Man will drink wine, it might be pertinent to ask whether the present man drinks wine. For if he does not—the variously-tinted concoctions now so freely imbibed should turn out not to be wine after all, then the deleterious effects so fairly ascribed to them cannot be charged to the genuine article, and the discussion begins all over again. Or, rather, a new discussion opens of the question whether anybody drinks wine; and if that inquiry be answered in the affirmative, the further query arises, What is the effect of it? Now the reply to this first question is by no means as simple as some good folks suppose. There is ground for thinking that pure wine is the one thing that never comes into the market, or is never tasted, if it does. England, the country of wine-bibbers and wine merchants we are told by so high an authority as The Pall Mall Gazette, is fested with hosts of scientific chemists, who imitate, with more or less success, the growths of the Douro and Guadalquivir. The wines of Andalusia are invariably branded when intended for exportation. The sherry of Calpe, England's destined wine, is intercepted on the road from the Spanish wine merchant to the London docks, and made to undergo the same mysterious change that renders them congenial, it is supposed, with the constitutions of the phlegmatic islanders. Men habitually indulge in a straw-colored beverage which they mistake for sherry, and go down to their graves as little conversant with sherry as the Marchioness was with beer, and ignorant of her acquaintance with Mr. Richard Swiveller. As for Port, the trade with Oporto has been an artificial one from first to last; artificial in its origin, and artificial in its exports. The wine is pronounced to be, at its best, a deformed Burgundy—a chameleon from the cradle or the vat, reared in spirits or cheap sweetmeats.

Nasty on the Fence.
Our old friend, the Rev. Petroleum V. Nasby, has been greatly exercised in mind concerning the suffrage amendment in the States, and, sleeping or waking, has been unable to think of anything else. He says in his last letter from the X Roads:

"'Tis an evidence 'iv how much it ez absorbed me, I would merely menses that twice while sittin in Bascom's think-in-it-over, strangers in the place hev askt the crowd up to take suthin, without my heerin us on at all, when in fact I went there, and wuz sittin there, and waitin there, for the express purpose uv avallin myself us such chances. I stay at Bascom's solely to accept invitations to drink for his benefit."

He has more than half made up his mind to go for the "Constitutionnel Amendment," solely for the benefit of the Democracy; for if it be truth in the declaration that the "nigger is an inferior race," the Democracy never fail to get possession of the inferior classes. He thus discourseth:—"Now the question which agitates my mind is, wood the niggers of given the ballot rise above us, or sink below us? They wouldn't have far to go either way. Ez a matter uv course, we should cultivate em. Ez a matter of course the nigger hev the ballot, they become to us Objects of Interest. The nigger hev the fate uv a member uv Congress in their hands, that nigger Democratic candidate for Congress goes for em. He cannot avoid eatin with em, drinkin with em, and sleepin with em. Trained by us and mixin with us, how long would it take to bring em down to us? Kia Pollock and Bigler hold them niggers at Garrettstown in their hands for ever! I don't believe it. The polls is opened at Bascom's, the caucuses is held at Bascom's and Bascom's likker would fetch em in time. It hev made many uv us loathsome objects, and why not ours?"

Mr. Wm. Rastall, of Chairman of the Harbour Committee, in the County Council of Bruce, was in Ottawa on Wednesday, and interviewed with the members of the Cabinet on the question of the harbour improvements of Kincardine and other ports of Lake Huron.

OFFICE MACDONNELL STREET
THURSDAY EVEN'G, MARCH 11, 1869.

Job Printing of every description executed cheaply and promptly at the Mercury Steam Printing House, Macdonnell Street, Guelph. An immense assortment of the latest and most elaborate designs in plain and ornamental type has just been added to our previously large stock, rendering our establishment the most complete office in all its appointments to be found West of Toronto. Our charges are the lowest, and our work the best in the country.

An Unfortunate Country.

Of all nations of the earth, Mexico is perhaps entitled to the palm of being the "wickedest," at all events on this continent. From the day when Montezuma resigned his mild sway to the iron hand of Cortez, the country has been more or less the theatre of intestine strife, bloodshed, and rapine, with their host of concomitant evils. Its rulers have been changed to suit the whims of the lazy thieving rascals with which Mexico abounds—and the small minority of those who would abide by good laws if they were carried into force, seem powerless to have a voice in the control of public affairs. Even the man who, during the war with the United States in 1846, won a reputation for bravery and generalship not excelled by any of his contemporaries, and which elicited the admiration of all beholders, afterwards turned out a curse to his native country. Who, in America, has not execrated the name of Santa Anna? It is well known that this man carried with him when expelled from the shores of Mexico, a fabulous amount of wealth, and the use he made of it was quite as unscrupulous as the means by which it had been raked together. Going to the United States, Santa Anna kept himself comparatively quiet until Maximilian was enthroned in the position he might have occupied, were it not that he was too great a scoundrel for even his countrymen to put up with. Devoid of influence, the General had to give up his idea of invading the land from which he had been exiled. Now, he is at his old tricks of using his wealth for the disturbance of Mexico, and greedily stretching out his palsied arm for the exercise of despotic authority, perhaps calculating upon American assistance to carry out his designs. The efforts of foreign powers to restore something like peace and civilization to Mexico, however, have proved so disastrous, that it is not likely that even the Americans will care about enlisting in the cause of Mexican conquest, and will conclude that their best policy is to let Mexico severely alone. They probably entertain a different opinion about the hopefulness of inducing, by shot and powder, the half civilized inhabitants along the Rio Grande to regard them as friends, than they did some twenty years ago or more, when the popular opinion was thus admirably satirized by Mr. Jas. Russell Lowell, in his "Bigelow Papers":—

"I do believe whatever trash
I'll keep the people in blindness—
That see the Mexicans can't grasp
Right inter-tribe kinship.
The beautiful, grape, an powder 'n' ball,
At good will's strongest business,
That peace, to make it stick at all,
Must be driven in with baguettes."

Since that time England, France, and Spain have tried their hand with a somewhat similar design, but we all know how their endeavors to benefit the Mexicans were brought to a sudden stop by the murder of the best ruler the latter had had since the days of Montezuma. When will the measure of infamy be full in that unhappy country, where centuries of misrule, bad faith, public and private, have gradually produced one of the most degrading spectacles the world has ever seen? And all this amidst a wealth of material and physical riches which very few other nations can boast of.—Mexico must be allowed to work out her own salvation; and if the Americans are wise they will let things take their course without interference on their part. She is apparently on the eve of another revolution—and in the bloodshed which is to follow, let her own half-bred thieves, ruffians, and lazzaroni participate, and fight it out among themselves. Their own conduct has lost them the sympathy of outsiders—and it matters very little to any one which party wins when all are rogues.

ANOTHER OF THE NINE MARYS CONDEMNED.—The Globe's special of the 11th says: An immense concourse assembled here to-day, to hear Mr. McGill's explanations. Amid cheers they passed resolutions denouncing Dr. McGill, and declaring that he had entirely forfeited the confidence of the Reformers of South Ontario, and thanking the Globe for the course taken in the Reform cause. The last resolution was passed unanimously; two or three out of five hundred were the only ones opposing the former resolution. An amendment, moved by Mr. Chester Draper, expressing satisfaction with Mr. McGill's course, only commanded about a dozen supporters. Mr. McKellar then addressed the meeting.

"GRIFFITH GAUNT."—Harper & Bros, have published a beautiful edition of this celebrated work, finely illustrated, and sold at the astonishingly low price of 25 cents! Mr. T. J. Day has copies for sale at his Bookstore, opposite the Market.

Most of the Montreal merchants are said to have been successful in buying in England before the rise in prices of cottons and other lines of goods, and little if any alteration in the retail prices of these articles is looked for this spring.

An old Brahmin widow burned herself with her husband's corpse some time since in India, and the English Governor has sent all the men engaged in the "suttee" to prison for seven years.

The following typographical error shows the vast importance of the comma. At a banquet this toast was given: "Woman—without her man, is a brute."

SHAW & MURTON, in returning thanks for the very liberal patronage bestowed on them while partners of the late firm of A. Thomson & Co., beg to intimate that they have purchased Mr. Thomson's share of the stock, and intend carrying on the Merchant Tailor business as heretofore in the Guelph Cloth Hall, where they will devote their whole time and attention to keeping up a large and well assorted stock of Cloths, Ready-made Clothing, Hats, Caps, Ties, Collars, &c.
Mr. Shaw having, during a residence of fifteen years in Guelph, made full proof of his ability as a Cutter, intends as heretofore to pay particular attention to Ordered Work, and parties leaving their measure can rely on as good a fit as in any house in the Dominion.

PUBLIC NOTICE.

ALMA BLOCK RETAIL GROCERY!

WYNDHAM STREET, GUELPH.

JOHN A. WOOD

HAVING LEASED OF MR. MASSIE

The most Spacious and Elegant Grocery in the Dominion of Canada.
And having (thanks to the liberality of his friends and customers for the last twelve years) bought the Stock on very favorable terms,
He is able and determined to take the lead in the Grocery Trade in Guelph.
Many of the Goods will be sold at less than they would cost to lay down at the present time.

TEAS, TEAS!

AT A VERY SLIGHT ADVANCE.

SUGARS AND SYRUPS

Will be sold at market rates.

FRESH COFFEES!

CHEAP AND GENUINE.

And as he intends to confine himself strictly to the Retail, no Goods will be bought but those of guaranteed quality. Every article sold to a customer will be sure to please, or will be exchanged.

THE WINES & LIQUORS

Are all sound and of good age, carefully selected, and guaranteed genuine.

The Crockery and Glassware Department

Has also received great attention in selecting such Goods as are useful and necessary in every household. Parties who have been in the habit of going to the cities when in want of anything superior are now saved the trouble, for at the ALMA BLOCK is kept everything from the common Black Teapot to the costly Dinner, Tea and Dessert Service. A large lot of Cut and Pressed Crystal, such as was never before exhibited in this part of the country.
My Store on Wyndham street will still be carried on on the same principles as hitherto, giving a good article at a fair price. It will be conducted by Mr. ROBERT MITCHELL, who, having been with me for a number of years, is favorably known to all my old customers. The prices of Goods will be the same at both places, so that there need be no trouble in selecting at which store you will deal on that account.

THOSE WHO HAVE NOT YET PAID A VISIT TO THE

ALMA BLOCK

RETAIL GROCERY!

Should do so at once, as I promise them that we will sell at low rates, owing to the great facilities for buying which we possess over any other store in Guelph.
RECOLLECT, my friends, that although this is a NEW STORE, I am not a stranger to you. With one exception, I am the oldest Grocer in the Town of Guelph. I began to supply your wants thirteen years ago in the same spot that I now solicit your patronage. I have not been unsuccessful during this time in giving satisfaction to those who have honored me with their custom, and I hope to be found as watchful of their interests and my own as hitherto.
ALL ORDERS, however small, will be delivered by HORSE and VAN a short time after purchased.
Attentive and obliging Clerks, all old friends of the Guelph public, will be found at all times ready to show Goods to parties, no matter whether they want to purchase or not.
NEW AND SEASONABLE GOODS WILL BE ADVERTISED AS SOON AS RECEIVED.

Glover, Timothy, Tares, Flax and Turnip Seeds

Of every description, in stock and arriving. We shall not in getting Seeds care so much about the price as the quality, as it has been proved often enough to the farmer's disadvantage that economy in the purchase of Seeds is false.
Caledonia Plaster, Liverpool Coarse & Fine AND CODERICH SALT,
And all other kinds of Manures suitable for Agricultural use will be kept on hand, or obtained for customers as required. As a list of all the articles kept in stock would take up the whole of this paper, I shall not at the present time attempt to particularize, but would ask all to pay a visit to the ALMA BLOCK RETAIL GROCERY before they lay out their cash, as I am determined not to be undersold by any one, and HAVE A LARGER STOCK OF FIRST-CLASS GOODS THAN ANY OTHER STORE IN TOWN.
You will not be charged more on account of the Store being the handsomest and most comfortable for you to be supplied at, and I am sure that one visit will induce you to pay another and become regular customers.

TEAS.

Every one should know and have confidence in those they buy their Teas of, as all who sell watches are not watchmakers. JOHN A. WOOD HAS SPENT 17 YEARS IN THE GROCERY TRADE, and knows exactly what Teas are, and does not deal in damaged goods of any kind; consequently every pound of Tea sold is warranted as represented or the money returned.
Every article wanted in Families, Hotels, Saloons, Boarding Houses, &c., is sold by JOHN A. WOOD, who is a real live man, working 14 hours a day for the last 17 years. He is a steam engine compared with the ordinary style of Grocers. In a word, John A. Wood is as far ahead of the trade as a velocipede run properly is to a pedestrian. He is the man for the people—quick as lightning and punctual as time.

JOHN A. WOOD,

Guelph, March 9. Alma Block, Upper Wyndham Street

Jeannie Sinclair, THE LILY OF THE STRATH.

She was quite passive when he drew her arm within his own. And slowly they walked side by side by the margin of the silvery, softly murmuring sea.

"This has been a deeply interesting day to me, Jeannie," he observed. "Death and grief, evil and virtue, have strangely mingled themselves in the experience."

"How is Robert?" she asked in a tremulous tone. "He feels the bereavement much. His father and he seem to have been much to each other."

"Friends and companions, rather than father and son, since Robert returned from the University," she answered.

"He was worse than his father's death to grieve him, however," added William. "He is made the victim of a vile fraud, which is to rob him of Cloverlea, and cast him penniless upon the world."

"Oh! how is such a dreadful thing as that possible?" asked Jeannie.

"Possible only through villainy. The folks of the strath, I find, are not all virtuous. There are one or two of them who must be set down as black sheep. Do you know anything, Jeannie, of the factor of the Abbey—Mr. Jacob McQuirk?"

"I have heard very bad accounts of him," she replied. "He deals very oppressively with the tenants, and is disliked by almost every one. Is it he who has done this terrible evil to Robert Douglas?"

"Even he, McQuirk, it seems, held a bond over Cloverlea, which Mr. Douglas paid off some time ago. But some how or other, the factor managed to retain the bond, and now he claims payment of the money again, or the possession of the property."

"How dreadful, how cruel, how sinful!" exclaimed Jeannie. "How can any man do such a thing?"

"Don't you think, Jeannie, that the proprietor of the Abbey is much to blame for having such a man as his factor?"

HAIR-DRESSING PARLOR

HAVING had large experience in Cutting and Dressing Hair in the Old Country and in the British Army, where a great deal of good taste had to be displayed to meet the requirements of aspiring young officers, and having carried on the business for half a year, and prospered well in Guelph, I will only add that being now assisted by Mr. JOHN THORN, long and favorably known to Guelph, I am better able to give satisfaction than any in the profession. Having observed a good deal of carelessness in many barbershops in regard to the latter cuts and hair brushes, I am determined to keep them clean, as is well known I have done in the past. Best Hair Dye used: A call is solicited where dyeing is needed. Come, gentlemen of Guelph, come all. Satisfaction guaranteed or nothing charged. Special attention paid to Ladies' and Children's Hair—the latter only charged 10 cents for hair cutting. Remember the shop—St. George's Square, behind the English Church, Guelph.

The Political Situation in Washington.

The Tribune's Washington correspondent says:—New York politicians claim that Mr. Stewart should have the privilege of naming his successor. It is conceded, however, that ex-Governor Bantwell, of Massachusetts, will be tendered the position. In fact, it will be necessary to withdraw Judge Hoare, in which case Lyman Tremaine or Edward Pierpont will succeed him. James T. Wilson's friends say that he may now be tendered the State Department. Should Judge Hoare be compelled to retire from the Cabinet, he will be offered a foreign mission, or when the bill for the reorganization of the Supreme Court becomes a law, Judge Hoare will be appointed to the Supreme Court. Mr. Stewart's course is warmly applauded, and the people appear to be relieved at the final termination of the difficult and unfortunate state of affairs that has existed for the last few days. A special Cabinet meeting is called for tomorrow. The number of nominations for foreign missions will be submitted, and then sent to the Senate. Mr. Washburne goes to France. Mr. Bancroft will remain at Berlin. Mr. Motley will be returned to Austria, and Governor Curtin will be offered the mission to Italy. No one has yet been appropriated to England. Several prominent persons are suggested, but Gen. Grant, to-day, had not decided upon the one whom he should select. Gen. Schofield will probably retire from the War Department tomorrow, and Gen. Rawlins will be appointed to his place, if he will accept.

To Be Looked After.—We learn from the St. John Freeman that the fisherman of the Gulf of St. Lawrence, Bay of Chaleur, and Bay of Fundy, complain loudly of the invasion of their rights by the American fishermen in those waters. These Yankees fish up close to the rocks, and not content with this, will not allow the Canadians to approach their long nets which stretch from boat to boat, often forming a blockade for miles. Our fishermen venture too close, revolvers are pointed at them, and they are ordered away with threats and curses. These Yankees need looking after.

The Columbus (Ohio) Journal pointedly remarks that "every cord of wood given to the poor here will be so much fuel saved from use in the other world."

Queen Victoria wears her hair as she did 25 years ago. Coiffures, waterfalls, chignons, curls and back hair are naught to her.

NEW SABBATH SCHOOL BOOK.

THE MORNING STARS. A collection of Religious Songs for Sunday Schools and the home circle. This book of religious songs for children was undertaken because the authors could find no book which appeared to them to be well adapted for the use of Sunday Schools, and the choir of children, whose musical instruction they have in charge. Great care has been taken in this selection that the words might suitably reflect the sentiment of the music as well as equal it in elevation of tone. Price in boards, 35 cents; paper, 30 cents.
