

Weekly Monitor.

BRIDGETOWN, NOVEMBER 8, 1876.

OFFICIAL WRONG-DOING.

It will be remembered by many of our readers that some three or four years ago, our County affairs, financially and otherwise, were in a disgraceful...

As Prothonotary, in the drawing of juries, it was found that he acted unfairly and grossly illegal. The Grand Jury every year, was so constituted that business was clogged, and the affairs of the County suffered in consequence.

When the Sessions opened the other day, as we intimated in our last, it was seen by every body in Court that the Grand Jury had been illegally drawn; and it was asserted by some of the Justices on the Bench that for many years the Prothonotary, in utter disregard of law and fair play, had invariably packed Grand Juries to suit himself...

OUR RECEPTACLE.

Few of our readers are aware of the tax imposed upon our time, to read the correspondence with which we are favored (7) by a multitude of long-winded Seribes, who seem intent upon beautifying literature, and upon upholding the various interests of our busy world.

About once a month—generally at the change of the moon—we devote a day to the contents of our Receptacle. For this work we prefer a rainy day—and we can scarcely tell why. Our preference for cloudy weather while thus employed may be but a whim; but it is so.

The other day we thrust our hand into our Receptacle, and drew there a manuscript of several closely written pages of foolscap, headed "Our dear little Roxanna, now a saint in Heaven."

ing minuteness, from the moment when its first cry fell upon the mother's ear till the sexton placed the last sod on its grave. The mother's feelings at the christening—at its first smile—at the first indication of teething—at his last sickness—at his death and burial—all elaborately detailed with marvellous circumstantiality and pathos.

The foregoing description of specimens of what is found in our box every month, will afford some idea of the ambition of notices to appear in print. The art of writing well is only acquired by adequate training and a thorough acquaintance with language.

AUTUMN EXAMINATION.

The examinations in both departments of the Bridgetown school took place Nov. 1.—The Primary department being examined in the morning, and the Advanced in the afternoon.

The pupils in the Advanced department were examined in Spelling, Geography, Algebra, Geometry, Arithmetic, Reading, Grammar, and Analysis. Different classes in each of the above branches were examined separately, and in a manner that was eminently calculated to test to the fullest extent the knowledge of the pupils.

We are unable to speak in detail of every branch on which the school was examined; but may briefly state that it was most thorough and satisfactory, and reflected the highest credit on both teacher and pupils.

After the close of the examination, the teachers present and trustees spoke in the most flattering terms of what they had said and heard.

One of the Trustees read the report of the Inspector from the school register, which report gave forth no uncertain sound, and every one present was fully convinced the teacher had earned it.

They have a queer law in Minnesota whereby a murderer escapes the gallows by confessing his crime. The Northfield bandits will probably have to test themselves by it, unless the indignant populace take a notion to string them up in a advance.

MURDER WILL OUT—REMOSE AND TERROR OF A MURDERER.

Frank McConchie, who was arrested some time ago on suspicion of being the murderer of little Maggie Bane, was taken from the Jamaica Town Hall to the place where he was committed, says the N. Y. World. The terrible crime committed by him has evidently preyed heavily upon his mind, but he nevertheless obtained his discharge from the Grand Jury.

Monday evening a widow lady entered a well-known grocery store at the South End and engaged in conversation with the proprietor. The latter was taking down a barrel of flour; from a high stack of barrels for one of his customers, when the lady remarked that she should like a barrel of that flour, whereupon the grocer pleasantly replied, "I will give you a barrel if you will carry it home."

THE prisoner's confession was as follows: On the afternoon of the 14th of August, when the murder was committed, he was in a court-yard at the corner of the street which went to show Kate Hoffman the way through the woods to the Valley Stream depot.

DEATH FROM STARVATION.

It is a distressing fact that, in this land of plenty, deaths from starvation occur. What invented story, for instance, can be more surprising and touching than the history and death of Arthur P. Jones, who died at the request held by Dr. Hardwick, a few days ago?

DEAD OR DROWNED.

A well-known water-side character named Thomas Corbett, came to his death very suddenly on Saturday evening. His occupation was that of a picker-up of junk, &c., in the harbor; and on Saturday he had been out pursuing his calling, having with him a young lad named Sullivan.

How had he to shake the man when he grasped him? asked the attorney in a Virginia City, Nev. police court the other day. "Well," said the witness, "I guess I can show the court." Rising from his seat and springing upon the case, he laid his hands on the witness's collar, and with a strong impulsive jerk landed him on the floor and betwixt him and the benches.

SUICIDE BY DYNAMITE.

In the annals of suicide few cases are more remarkable than one which occurred a few days ago at Bridgetown. Scarcely a minute named Duncan deliberately blew himself up with dynamite. It seems that the unfortunate man, who was about fifty years of age, was much distressed at some remarks about him by his neighbors.

TOOK HIM AT HIS WORD.

Monday evening a widow lady entered a well-known grocery store at the South End and engaged in conversation with the proprietor. The latter was taking down a barrel of flour; from a high stack of barrels for one of his customers, when the lady remarked that she should like a barrel of that flour, whereupon the grocer pleasantly replied, "I will give you a barrel if you will carry it home."

SEIZURE OF CONTRABAND GOODS AT CAPE CASCO.—Mr. John Jeffrey, the newly appointed Customs officer for the outpost of Cape Casco, made a seizure on the 22nd ult. of liquor unlawfully landed—the property of one whose skill in the art of smuggling has never before been overtake—having baffled all efforts to check him previously.

New Advertisements.

NOTICE.

ALL parties indebted to the subscriber by Note or Book Account, are hereby notified to pay the same without further notice. My terms will be CASH from this date.

G. W. STUART, Produce Commission Merchant, COLONIAL MARKET, HALIFAX, N. S.

CONSIGNMENTS SOLICITED. Guarantee Sales made in all cases, and in no case more than 5 per cent commission charged. Prompt returns.

Annapolis County RIFLE Association. THE Annual Competition of this Association for 1876, will be held at Paradise, on Monday, Nov. 14th, at 9 o'clock sharp.

No. 4 SMALL! Smaller! Smallest! Being the order of the day in the Matter of Profits, I have determined to come at once to the FINE POINT, and will now dispense of my entire STOCK OF CLOTHING at a PER CENTAGE ON COST.

Blue & Black Pilot Overcoats, Blue & Black Pilot Reefers, Brown Elysian Reefers, Olive Beaver Reefers, WALKING COATS, PANTS and VESTS, HEAVY PANTS, SOUTH SEA SEAL VESTS, Boys Clothing.

R. D. MACDONALD, MIDDLETON. A few of the Celebrated ULSTER COATS, superior to the rest of the world.

J. E. SANCTON. Bridgetown, Nov. 18, 76. y

New Advertisements.

1876 Fall 1876. Per S. S. "Nova Scotia" & "Casplan" direct from Glasgow & Liverpool.

DRY GOODS. Per Intercolonial Railway, 10 Cases Boots, Shoes & Rubbers, 2 Cases Gent's Hats, Late Styles, 2 Cases Ladies' Fur Mitts, 4 Cases Men's Winter Clothing.

Ground Spices, strictly pure, and put up expressly for the JOHN LOCKETT. Bridgetown, Nov. 18, 76. n29 if ULSTERS, REEFERS, OVERCOATS, in variety, at B STARRATTS. Paradise, Nov. 18, 76.

Notice. ALL persons having legal demands against the Estate of John H. Barreux, late of Nictaux, in the County of Annapolis, deceased, are requested to render the same duly attested within three months from this date; and all persons indebted to the said Estate, are requested to make immediate payment to W. A. MORISE, Administrator.

NOTICE. WHEREAS, some malicious or evil disposed persons have wilfully broken the glass and otherwise injured the Hare belonging to the Estate of the late Dr. J. E. Forst, a Notice is hereby given to any person (not being the actual perpetrator) who has or may have any claim against the said Estate, to produce the same to the undersigned, on or before the 15th day of November next, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, at the residence of the undersigned, at Nictaux, in the County of Annapolis, so that the same may be examined and the same may be paid to the person entitled thereto.

W. M. FORSTH. Paradise, Nov. 18, 76. 2131

Closing Up Business! THE subscriber, thanking her friends and patrons for past favors, wishes to intimate that she intends closing up business, and therefore her Entire and Well-Assorted Stock, consisting of—

Complete Line of MILLINERY GOODS at reduced rates for Cash. MRS. W. M. MILLER. Bridgetown, Oct. 24th, 76. n28 if

LADIES' FELT and STRAW HATS, MUFFS, FUR CAPS, HAT & BONNET SHAPES, FUR TRIMMED GLOVES and MITTS, FEATHERS, Clouds, Ties, COLLARS, FLOWERS, Ribbons, Sarcous, BELTS, FELT SKIRTS, SHAWLS, TWEEDS, FLANNELS, Dress Goods, LUSTRES, FANCY GOODS, PRINTS & COTTONS.

Just received at J. W. TOMLINSON'S. Lawrence, Oct. 23rd, 76.

NEW STORE! NEW GOODS! Having removed to the Store, under the Moore's Office, and fitted the same up in Good Style, and put in a New Lot of Watches Clocks, and Jewelry, at Lower Prices than they could be obtained for some years past.

Watches, Clocks, and Jewelry. W. B. REYNOLDS & Co. General Hardware Merchants. A Large Stock of ENGLISH and AMERICAN Hardware. Kept constantly on hand and disposed of at LOWEST MARKET RATES.

W. B. REYNOLDS & Co. General Hardware Merchants. A Large Stock of ENGLISH and AMERICAN Hardware. Kept constantly on hand and disposed of at LOWEST MARKET RATES.

W. B. REYNOLDS & Co. General Hardware Merchants. A Large Stock of ENGLISH and AMERICAN Hardware. Kept constantly on hand and disposed of at LOWEST MARKET RATES.

W. B. REYNOLDS & Co. General Hardware Merchants. A Large Stock of ENGLISH and AMERICAN Hardware. Kept constantly on hand and disposed of at LOWEST MARKET RATES.

W. B. REYNOLDS & Co. General Hardware Merchants. A Large Stock of ENGLISH and AMERICAN Hardware. Kept constantly on hand and disposed of at LOWEST MARKET RATES.

W. B. REYNOLDS & Co. General Hardware Merchants. A Large Stock of ENGLISH and AMERICAN Hardware. Kept constantly on hand and disposed of at LOWEST MARKET RATES.

W. B. REYNOLDS & Co. General Hardware Merchants. A Large Stock of ENGLISH and AMERICAN Hardware. Kept constantly on hand and disposed of at LOWEST MARKET RATES.

New Advertisements.

ESTABLISHED 1831. EDWD. ALBRO & CO. Ship Chandlers, IRON & HARDWARE MERCHANTS, 207 Lower Water St., Head of Mitchell's Wharf, South of Queen's Wharf, Halifax, N. S.

Halfpenny, N. S. OFFER for Sale at LOWEST MARKET RATES a large and well assorted Stock of Hardware.

Ship Chandlery, —CONSISTING OF— Ensigns, Canvas, Oakum, Compasses, Tuck, Drill, White Lead, Colored Paints, Wire Rope, Cordage, Portable Forges, Chains, Chain Cables, Boiler Tubes, Saws, Rosin, Tar, Pitch, Turpentine, Steel, Copper, Lead Lights, Binnacle Heads and Lamps, Augers, Anvils, Bellows, Vices, Turn Plates, Tin Plates, Lead, Sheet & Pig, Lead Pipe, Grain and Logot Tin, Bar, Bolt, Hoop & Sheet Iron, Zinc, Muntz Metal bars, Roofing Felt, Linseed Oil, Lubricating Oils, Chores, Nets, Lines, Twines, Fish Hooks, Cutlery, Axes, Hatchets, Galvanized & Copper boat Nails, Olive Oil, Varnishes, Cut and Wrought Nails & Spikes, Shelf Hardware.

In Endless Variety. The above Stock is receiving continual additions of NEW GOODS by successive Steam Ships from Europe and the United States. Oct. 15, 1876. 131 140

Chebucto MARINE INSURANCE ASSOCIATION OF HALIFAX, N. S. R. S. HART, President. T. S. TWINING, Secretary. HULLS, CARGOES and FREIGHTS OF VESSELS. Insured by the above Association on reasonable terms. OFFICE: 44 BEDFORD ROW, - HALIFAX, N. S. Oct. 15, 1876. 131 140

ALMON & MacINTOSH, BANKERS & BROKERS. INVESTMENTS Made in best Securities, Stocks, Bonds, &c. Interest allowed on deposits subject to cheque. Exchange bought and sold. 166 Hollis Street, 1y n27 HALIFAX, N. S. Corner Granville and Buckingham Streets, Halifax, N. S.

OUR Autumn Stock of STAPLE and FANCY DRY GOODS, purchased by our Mr. Payne, direct from leading Manufacturers in England and America of exceptionally low prices, is now open and ready for inspection. JOHN SILVER & CO. Sept. 26th, 76. 3m n27

W. B. REYNOLDS & Co. General Hardware Merchants. A Large Stock of ENGLISH and AMERICAN Hardware. Kept constantly on hand and disposed of at LOWEST MARKET RATES.

W. B. REYNOLDS & Co. General Hardware Merchants. A Large Stock of ENGLISH and AMERICAN Hardware. Kept constantly on hand and disposed of at LOWEST MARKET RATES.

W. B. REYNOLDS & Co. General Hardware Merchants. A Large Stock of ENGLISH and AMERICAN Hardware. Kept constantly on hand and disposed of at LOWEST MARKET RATES.

W. B. REYNOLDS & Co. General Hardware Merchants. A Large Stock of ENGLISH and AMERICAN Hardware. Kept constantly on hand and disposed of at LOWEST MARKET RATES.

W. B. REYNOLDS & Co. General Hardware Merchants. A Large Stock of ENGLISH and AMERICAN Hardware. Kept constantly on hand and disposed of at LOWEST MARKET RATES.

W. B. REYNOLDS & Co. General Hardware Merchants. A Large Stock of ENGLISH and AMERICAN Hardware. Kept constantly on hand and disposed of at LOWEST MARKET RATES.

W. B. REYNOLDS & Co. General Hardware Merchants. A Large Stock of ENGLISH and AMERICAN Hardware. Kept constantly on hand and disposed of at LOWEST MARKET RATES.

W. B. REYNOLDS & Co. General Hardware Merchants. A Large Stock of ENGLISH and AMERICAN Hardware. Kept constantly on hand and disposed of at LOWEST MARKET RATES.

New Advertisements.

ALBION HOUSE. FALL AND WINTER DRY GOODS. We have now completed our importation for this Season's Trade, and are showing a large Assortment of Fall and Winter DRY GOODS in each Department, which we offer WHOLESALE AND RETAIL upon the most Liberal Terms, and Solicit Inspection.

BEARD & VENNING. Just Opened! Moir's Musical Warehouse, WILMOT, ANNAPOLIS CO., N. S. IN STOCK: A variety of New Mathushek PIANO FORTES AND ORGANS. Also, second-hand Organs, &c. Expected by next Steam or a supply of PIANO FORTES from the celebrated Firm of Smith Bros. & Co. of Liverpool, G. B. Also, Fisher Piano-Fortes from N. Y.

As the subscriber is not under heavy tax or rent, he feels confident that he can sell musical instruments at lower prices than any City Dealer or Travelling Agent. GEORGE MOIR, Importer and Wholesale Dealer in Piano Fortes and Organs. Sept. 19th, 76. 3m n24

MacFarlane & Adams Forwarding & Commission MERCHANTS. Agents for Canada Paper Co. HALIFAX, N. S. Oct. 16th, 76. 6m n27

Notice! WE take this opportunity to inform the Public that we have secured better rates for getting SP. A. CO. XXX from Western Canada, and will supply dealers at a very moderate percentage above cost for cash, or ready pay will take CASH WOODS. FLOUR LANDING TO-DAY: "Mistake" (superior extra); "Gleaner" (superior extra); "Globe" (superior extra); CORN MEAL—OATMEAL, Graham flour, cracked; Wheat, E. Wheat, Barley, Rice, Tea, Tobacco, Sugar, &c. &c. ALSO—Line on commission. RANDALL, HIGGINS & CO. Annapolis, July 10th, 1876.

HARDWARE —AND— CARRIAGE STOCK Emporium! Middleton, Annapolis Co. Particular attention of House Joiners & Contractors is directed to our Spring Stock of English and American HARDWARE! CUT NAILS—from 3d to 30d; CLINCH NAILS—do, do; CUT SPIKES—from 2 1/2 in. to 7; BELGIAN SHEET ZINC; SWEETENED and FOREIGN GLASS—from 9 x 7 to 36 x 18; BRANDEMAN LONDON LEAD—No. 1 25c, 50c, 100c; HUBBARD'S—do, do; PAINTS—Black, Red, Yellow (25c keg); BLUNDELL & SPENCE'S LINSEED OIL—Bottled and Raw; LEAD PIPE, Sheet Lead, Dry and Tarred Paper; MORTISE LOCKS, Mortise Latches, Front Door Locks, MORTISE KNOBS—Mineral & Porcelain; BUTT HINGES—Fast and Loose, Jap. Acorn Butts, &c., &c. In addition to a full assortment of Builder's SHELF HARDWARE, too numerous to mention.

We have also in House Furnishing Goods, TABLE and DESERT KNIVES—Ivory, Bone and Cocco Handles, Plated Steel, Balanced Handles; ROGER BROS' PLATED TEA & TABLE SPOONS, FORKS, &c.; CASTORS, Glassware, Tinware, &c., &c.

We would also call the attention of Harness Makers & Carriage Trimmers to our large Stock of LEATHER, Consisting of DASHEE No. 1, Enamelled No. 1; COLLAR, Winker, and FANCY ENAMELLED or Welting—Red and White.

The above have been purchased direct from the MANUFACTURERS, and we are in a position to offer SPECIAL INDUCEMENTS. All of the above with our usual large and varied stock of GENERAL HARDWARE, Box and Bolt Iron, &c., will be found well worth inspection. P. S.—We WARRANT Brandram's Lead. Beware of Imitations.

Bessonet & Wilson

Bessonet & Wilson

Bessonet & Wilson

Bessonet & Wilson

Bessonet & Wilson

Bessonet & Wilson

Local and other matters.

American people pay $5,000,000 per year for dentistry.

The widow of Abraham Lincoln is staying with some friends in California.

Go Sam, a Cincinnati Chinaman, has married Sallie Brown, an American girl.

Wild geese are reported on the wing, moving aerially in a westerly direction.

A Pennsylvania man has died in consequence of hiccup, caused by a drink of water.

Beirs is in the south of France for a bronchial trouble, and the doctor says he must stay there till spring.

New York, Nov. 1.—The decrease of the national debt in October was over three millions and a quarter dollars.

To Correspondents.—Several communications are unavoidably crowded out of this issue. They will be attended to in our next.

At a cabinet meeting, yesterday, Secretary Fish presented papers relating to the extradition treaty with Great Britain.

There is said to be something troubling for every ill in this life. For instance, if a man is bald-headed, his wife can't pull his hair.

A young lady of Chicago, returning from church recently, was asked what the text was, when she replied: "Blessed are the dressmakers."

The Board of School Commissioners for the Eastern District of the County, will hold its semi-annual session at Lawrenceville on Friday.

The bishop of Manchester, England, is shaking his finger at the young clergy because they marry in such haste.

Four men in England were indicted for stealing beans. "What have they been doing?" asked the judge. "Been stealing," said the clerk.

A man who had been at a crowded ball said he was fond of rings on his fingers, but he didn't like bells on his toes.

Pittsburg's late coal king, W. H. Brown, who left an estate worth three and a quarter millions, began life for himself by digging coal at a cent and a half a bushel.

The varying aspects of affairs in the East keep the price of stocks and the grain markets in a state of continual fluctuation both in Europe and America.

A French lady teacher will be sent from Paris to the son of the Shah of Persia. The young man is twenty-two years old, which is rather advanced for that kind of teacher.

SHELTERING, Nov. 1.—The schooner "Agos," Goodwin master, from Argyle, bound to Halifax, struck on Bamton Rock, off Port LeBar, and sunk. The crew were saved.

New York, Nov. 1.—A false alarm of fire in the Chinese theatre, San Francisco, created a panic, and twenty persons were trampled to death, many others injured.

The latest instance of "married in haste" was that of a couple united in matrimony on an Erie express train while it was humming along at the rate of forty miles an hour.

Altogether Stokes has spent in prison, first in the Tombs and afterward in the Sing Sing and Auburn State Prisons, four years, nine months and twenty-one days.

A despatch from Rome says, "Cardinal Antonelli is dying. The Pope on Sunday, ordered a consultation of physicians, who declared the cardinal's case hopeless."

Moody and Sankey are drawing large crowds at Chicago. It is said their religious services are making a deep impression upon the minds of many in that notoriously wicked city.

"You haven't got such a thing as a pair of old trousers, have you?" "No, my man," said the merchant, "I don't keep my wardrobe in my counting-house." "Where do you live?" rejoined Pat, "and I'll call in the morning for the old ones you've got on."

The Grand Central Hotel, New York, "teaches the lesson of the times," by leading in a reduction of rates. It offers the same accommodations as heretofore, at a reduction from $4.00 to $2.50 and $3.00 per day.

—We have been told that thirty or forty years ago, the fruit in the apple orchards of this County was of an inferior type, and was mostly made into cider; but since then the grafting of better varieties of apples in the old trees of that day and the planting of choice ones have so improved the fruit that comparatively little cider is now made. The orchardists find it more profitable to sell their apples than to manufacture them into cider.

Four years ago two California planted a thousand acres of walnuts and almonds, and this year will clear $250,000. That is the story, and any "Go-West" fellow may believe it if he wants to.

The Rev. Thos. Gales, Secretary of the Dominion Alliance, will hold a Religious Temperance Meeting in this town next Sabbath evening, in the Baptist Church, commencing at 7 1/2 o'clock. A collection will be taken.

QUICK PASSAGE.—The barque Amagolla, Capt. Albert Delap, left Boston Saturday last, and arrived at New York on Monday, making the passage in 47 hours, which is said to be the quickest on record. She was in charge of Capt. Maloney, coast pilot.

A porcelain tureen was recently sold in Paris on which is a painting representing the execution of Louis XVI at the moment the executioner is holding the head up to the view of the people.

The Baptists of Yarmouth, we understand, have undertaken to raise twenty thousand dollars towards the permanent endowment fund for Acadia College. One wealthy, large-hearted merchant has pledged half that sum from his private resources.

The Commissioners of Fairmount Park have agreed to allow the main exhibition building to remain for exhibition purposes, the only admissions to be 25 cents, except Saturday, when it shall be 10 cents, the privilege to be terminable on two years' notice.

The Continental Life Insurance Company of New York has suspended—that is, it has suspended payment. It may be that there is fraud in the matter, and that if the claims of right and justice were judicially recognized, the directors, instead of payment, would be suspended.

An old gentleman informs us that 63 years ago, a deep snow fell on the night of the 8th of November, and did not disappear till the March following. He was a mere boy then, but remembers that early and hard winter quite distinctly. The date is certified in an old folio of family records.

Irate young lady—"Mr. Cox, I declare your machines are the worst I ever saw! There's not even a looking-glass!" Proprietor of bathing machine—"Why, Miss, if there was looking-glasses, we shouldn't get you ladies out of 'em 'ere machines for hours and hours!"

A very interesting ceremony is to take place at Western Cornwallis this morning, in which one of our enterprising manufacturers will play a prominent part. We refer to the nuptials of matrimony about to be entered into by Mr. W. A. Craig, Proprietor of the Bridgetown Foundry. May long life and prosperity attend our good friend and his future partner in life.

"Do you want employment?" inquired a Chicago merchant of a dapper-looking applicant, one day last week. "Well, no," haughtily replied the young chap, as he twirled a twoshilling cane, "I can't say that I want employment, but I—aw—I would like—aw—a good soft berth somewhere." He didn't get the place.

The Sessions.—The business before the General Sessions of the Peace for the County, was not concluded until after 8 o'clock on Saturday night last, in consequence of which the Clerk of the Peace could not get the documents ready for us to publish the proceedings in this week's issue of the Monitor. They will appear in our next.

The French-Canadian volunteers in Montreal do not know how to behave themselves when off parade. A number of them coming home from drill made an abominable disturbance in the street and one of their number was looked up. The next morning this "noble defender of our country" was duly fined five dollars. Discipline seems to be wanting among the French Canadian volunteers.—Halifax Chronicle.

The Y. M. C. Associations throughout the world, intend holding a series of special services, for the purpose of invoking the blessings of God upon themselves and others, during the week, commencing on Sunday the 12th inst. The Bridgetown branch of the Society will hold their first meeting on Tuesday evening in their rooms, Tupper Hall, when further announcements will be made. All are cordially invited to attend.

MISSIONARY MEETING.—On Monday evening there was a most interesting Meeting in Providence Church of this Town. The gathering was strangely small; but the devotional services and addresses were more than ordinarily impressive. The Rev. Mr. Temple was in the Chair. In opening the evening's discussion, he gave a luminous account of the extent, success and claims of the missions, which are sustained by the Methodists of the Dominion. It was shown that they have evangelical laborers in Germany, Japan, among the French Catholics of Quebec, the Aborigines in the far North-west, &c., &c. He showed that a large increase of funds were needed at the present crisis. Some parts of his address were marvellously thrilling. Mr. Robson followed with modest and appropriate remarks. Rev. Mr. Smith then gave one of the most animated and animating missionary speeches to which we have ever listened. Rev. Mr. Brethle, who had previously read extracts from the general Report, concluded the discussion in an excellent speech. Collections were taken and about twenty-five dollars were contributed and subscribed by the comparatively few people present.

BOSTON COMEDY COMPANY.—For four nights this favorite company has delighted large and appreciative audiences of the inhabitants of this town with their excellent performances. Our space will not permit of any critique of the several plays. Miss Howard, in her impersonations of the male character, is unequalled, and sustained her difficult part with grace, ease and modesty. Miss Blanche Slader, as usual in every character she plays, was charming, and her songs were encored again and again. Mrs. May Theodore, a new and important addition to the company, was a great favorite. Miss Lattie Page is also an actress of merit. Mr. Charles Theodore is an inimitable Comedian, and has few equals in his line—the audience bursting into roars of laughter with every word he uttered. Mr. T. F. English in his singing and dancing, as well as his acting, was well received. Last night closes the Company's season in this Province, and we are sure they will carry away with them the hearty good-will and wishes of all.

The greatest living egotist, whose utterances are most thickly studded with "big I," can have no adequate conception of the disgusting effect of his self-prominence upon those who listen to him. The frequent repetition of "I—I—I," becomes so monotonous that nervous people shrink from his society. The editorial "we" is quite another thing, and is in perfect harmony with that amiable modesty which is characteristic of that different class of people who usually preside over the destiny of newspapers. The matrimonial use of "we" is tolerated, because it is significant of "the twin made one flesh." August potatoes, too, eschew the "big I," and modestly, like editors, use instead the unobtrusive "we."

MIDDLETON.—This place has always been considered one of the most pushing and energetic business centres in the County, and we are pleased to say that Mr. R. D. Macdonald, who lately established himself at that place, seems to be thoroughly imbued with the same spirit. This gentleman who has hitherto imported his Stock of Ladies' Trimmed Hats, Jackets, Mantles, &c., has taken a New Departure in this matter by opening a Millinery & Dressmaking Department in connection with his extensive Dry Goods business. It is gratifying to hear that already success is crowning his efforts to cater to the wants of the Ladies, and trust that our friends will give themselves the pleasure of visiting this attractive Department of Mr. Macdonald's Establishment.

WANTED.—WE WANT reliable, energetic canvassing agents in every town in the Dominion for the new "Illustrated History of the Dominion of Canada." This work is truly magnificent, containing over 2,000 double column quarto pages, and over 300 superb full page engravings. The work is published in Paris, on a plan which insures its welcome to every English reading family. To energetic young men or ladies, who are willing to work, we will guarantee a permanent position for two years, and non-pay! Don't fail to write for our private terms, sample pages, &c. This is a grand opportunity for school teachers to make more than double their salaries without interfering with their professional duties. The work is being manufactured at a cost of over $20,000 for the literary, artistic and mechanical work of producing the plates, by the old well-known, reliable Lovell Printing and Publishing Co., of Montreal. All letters from agents must be addressed to the Publishers general agents as follows:—

HAZEN B. BIGNÉY & CO., 28 and 30 St. Francis Xavier Street, MONTREAL, QUE.

It is a curious fact that in the whole of Newfoundland there is not a single grain mill of any description. Little grain is ripened in the country, though as fine oats and barley can be grown there as in any part of the world, and in western regions the wheat ripens well. The people have been so accustomed to import everything that it is difficult to get them out of the old ruts. There can be no doubt that the erection of grain mills would lead to wider growth of grain. A move in the right direction has just been made in the erection of a flour mill. The last steamer from Montreal brought the first shipment of wheat to be ground in the mill. The millstones and machinery have arrived, and the mill will shortly be in running order. Prince Edward Island Patriot.

CANADIAN PACIFIC RAILWAY.—We learn that the contract for erection of 15 of the Pacific Railway has been awarded to Messrs. Charlton, Byrd, Howley & Co., for $1,500,000. This work embraces the construction of about 30 miles of railway in a rocky section, west from Port George, on Lake of the Woods, to Cross Lake, which latter lake is about 75 miles west from Winnipeg. The same contractors have the ballasting and track-laying on section 14. We understand that Messrs. Percell & Ryan are making good progress on their work, 104 miles of road from Thunder Bay westward.

A sand and shell crane in the North Carolina flew at and smashed the head-light of a locomotive and the engineer would not proceed until daybreak.

Telegraphic News.

(Special Despatches to the Morning Chronicle.)

MATLAND. MATLAND, Nov. 3.—There was launched from the yard of Alex. Ross, Matland, on Thursday, a boat of about 20 tons, registered, called the "Reviva." She is owned by Mr. J. B. Elliott, of Halifax, and is commanded by Captain John McElean.

BRIDGEWATER. BRIDGEWATER, Nov. 4.—Two mills owned by George Wain, Waterloo, were destroyed by fire last night. Loss about seven hundred dollars. The fire is supposed to be the work of evil disposed persons in the neighborhood—being the fourth mill burned within a few months.

NEW BRUNSWICK. ST. JOHNS, Nov. 5.—It is understood that Hon. Mr. Will's opposition to the Attorney General and party in the local contest had led to a determination on the part of the Government that he must retire. The local contest is now between Marshall, Everett and Maher, who all declare they will go to the polls.

OTTAWA. OTTAWA, Nov. 4.—The following cablegram has been received here: "Lospos, Nov. 3.—At a conference of trunk lines the Grand Trunk obtained no advance on through rates. The American companies cannot agree with reference to the Baltimore and Philadelphia rates. Ex-President Potter has issued a committal circular, but he is not desisting his desire to go to Canada to look after the interests of the road in consideration of this."

MONTREAL. MONTREAL, Nov. 4.—A story is current that the next Lieutenant-Governor of Quebec will be Hon. Joseph Cauchon.

The prohibition question was discussed to-day in several pulpits. Mr. J. H. G. of New York, was elected on the 4th inst. as the perpetrator of the Lazarus pawn-broker robbery $5,700 worth of melted bullion was found buried; one hundred watches were melted and the work destroyed, making a total loss of $10,000. $39,000 worth of diamonds are missing yet. The soundest effected his entrance by means of false keys.

The barque "Ocean Gem" sailed on Saturday for Sydney with a miscellaneous cargo, part of which is intended for exhibition at the Australian Exposition.

EUROPE. LONDON, Nov. 4.—The great maritime canal connecting Amsterdam with the German Ocean was formally opened yesterday.

The Times correspondent declares that the Porte has accepted Russia's ultimatum, and that a month's armistice has been agreed to; it also states that a levy on mezz has been contemplated.

Whatever may be the result of the negotiations for permanent peace, Serbia will not likely to come again to fight for her.

It is reported that a third of the Russian privates and half of the Russian officers in the Serbian army have been killed and wounded.

The correspondent of the "Daily News" says of Sunday's battle: "The full weight and significance of the Serbian defeat is not easy to estimate, and it is too early to form an opinion of the loss incurred, and we do not know where the troops are, to say nothing of the wounded, many of whom are thought to be in the hands of the Serbs. The deluge of the army is in a state of demoralization, and at least temporary dispersion. Russian officers are leaving; they decline to be massacred for people who are not likely to do anything of all martial spirit. They have no words to express their contempt and disgust for the pusillanimity of the Serbian soldiers."

It is reported that a third of the Russian privates and half of the Russian officers in the Serbian army have been killed and wounded.

The correspondent of the "Daily News" says of Sunday's battle: "The full weight and significance of the Serbian defeat is not easy to estimate, and it is too early to form an opinion of the loss incurred, and we do not know where the troops are, to say nothing of the wounded, many of whom are thought to be in the hands of the Serbs. The deluge of the army is in a state of demoralization, and at least temporary dispersion. Russian officers are leaving; they decline to be massacred for people who are not likely to do anything of all martial spirit. They have no words to express their contempt and disgust for the pusillanimity of the Serbian soldiers."

The correspondent of the "Daily News" says of Sunday's battle: "The full weight and significance of the Serbian defeat is not easy to estimate, and it is too early to form an opinion of the loss incurred, and we do not know where the troops are, to say nothing of the wounded, many of whom are thought to be in the hands of the Serbs. The deluge of the army is in a state of demoralization, and at least temporary dispersion. Russian officers are leaving; they decline to be massacred for people who are not likely to do anything of all martial spirit. They have no words to express their contempt and disgust for the pusillanimity of the Serbian soldiers."

The correspondent of the "Daily News" says of Sunday's battle: "The full weight and significance of the Serbian defeat is not easy to estimate, and it is too early to form an opinion of the loss incurred, and we do not know where the troops are, to say nothing of the wounded, many of whom are thought to be in the hands of the Serbs. The deluge of the army is in a state of demoralization, and at least temporary dispersion. Russian officers are leaving; they decline to be massacred for people who are not likely to do anything of all martial spirit. They have no words to express their contempt and disgust for the pusillanimity of the Serbian soldiers."

The correspondent of the "Daily News" says of Sunday's battle: "The full weight and significance of the Serbian defeat is not easy to estimate, and it is too early to form an opinion of the loss incurred, and we do not know where the troops are, to say nothing of the wounded, many of whom are thought to be in the hands of the Serbs. The deluge of the army is in a state of demoralization, and at least temporary dispersion. Russian officers are leaving; they decline to be massacred for people who are not likely to do anything of all martial spirit. They have no words to express their contempt and disgust for the pusillanimity of the Serbian soldiers."

The correspondent of the "Daily News" says of Sunday's battle: "The full weight and significance of the Serbian defeat is not easy to estimate, and it is too early to form an opinion of the loss incurred, and we do not know where the troops are, to say nothing of the wounded, many of whom are thought to be in the hands of the Serbs. The deluge of the army is in a state of demoralization, and at least temporary dispersion. Russian officers are leaving; they decline to be massacred for people who are not likely to do anything of all martial spirit. They have no words to express their contempt and disgust for the pusillanimity of the Serbian soldiers."

The correspondent of the "Daily News" says of Sunday's battle: "The full weight and significance of the Serbian defeat is not easy to estimate, and it is too early to form an opinion of the loss incurred, and we do not know where the troops are, to say nothing of the wounded, many of whom are thought to be in the hands of the Serbs. The deluge of the army is in a state of demoralization, and at least temporary dispersion. Russian officers are leaving; they decline to be massacred for people who are not likely to do anything of all martial spirit. They have no words to express their contempt and disgust for the pusillanimity of the Serbian soldiers."

The correspondent of the "Daily News" says of Sunday's battle: "The full weight and significance of the Serbian defeat is not easy to estimate, and it is too early to form an opinion of the loss incurred, and we do not know where the troops are, to say nothing of the wounded, many of whom are thought to be in the hands of the Serbs. The deluge of the army is in a state of demoralization, and at least temporary dispersion. Russian officers are leaving; they decline to be massacred for people who are not likely to do anything of all martial spirit. They have no words to express their contempt and disgust for the pusillanimity of the Serbian soldiers."

The correspondent of the "Daily News" says of Sunday's battle: "The full weight and significance of the Serbian defeat is not easy to estimate, and it is too early to form an opinion of the loss incurred, and we do not know where the troops are, to say nothing of the wounded, many of whom are thought to be in the hands of the Serbs. The deluge of the army is in a state of demoralization, and at least temporary dispersion. Russian officers are leaving; they decline to be massacred for people who are not likely to do anything of all martial spirit. They have no words to express their contempt and disgust for the pusillanimity of the Serbian soldiers."

The correspondent of the "Daily News" says of Sunday's battle: "The full weight and significance of the Serbian defeat is not easy to estimate, and it is too early to form an opinion of the loss incurred, and we do not know where the troops are, to say nothing of the wounded, many of whom are thought to be in the hands of the Serbs. The deluge of the army is in a state of demoralization, and at least temporary dispersion. Russian officers are leaving; they decline to be massacred for people who are not likely to do anything of all martial spirit. They have no words to express their contempt and disgust for the pusillanimity of the Serbian soldiers."

The correspondent of the "Daily News" says of Sunday's battle: "The full weight and significance of the Serbian defeat is not easy to estimate, and it is too early to form an opinion of the loss incurred, and we do not know where the troops are, to say nothing of the wounded, many of whom are thought to be in the hands of the Serbs. The deluge of the army is in a state of demoralization, and at least temporary dispersion. Russian officers are leaving; they decline to be massacred for people who are not likely to do anything of all martial spirit. They have no words to express their contempt and disgust for the pusillanimity of the Serbian soldiers."

surgents in the eastern part of the Island; similar to a boat in the east, and then flying columns to scour the rebel country. General Camp is instructed to take severe measures against all Croak accomplices and not to spare any.

The ship "United States," bound from Liverpool for San Francisco with a cargo of coal, was abandoned at sea. No date given and nothing stated about the crew, which is supposed to have been saved.

The fall trade, which closed with October, has been generally good. There has been no time since 1873 when sales have footed up so well and collections have been so prompt.

St. Johns, Nov. 1.—About eight o'clock last night a number of young men and boys were loitering at the corner of Jefferson and Pacific streets, in the western part of the city. Something peculiar in the style of the horse attached to the buggy caused the boys to hoot and utter coarse jokes, whereupon the men in the buggy pulled up, and considerable badinage followed, during which some perturbation of the horse. This enraged the men in the buggy, one of whom jumped out and demanded to know who did it. A young man named George Williams, aged 21, who was simply a looker on, was pointed out as the practical joker, and the man from the buggy attacked him, and a scuffle ensued in which a pistol was discharged. Young Williams fell to the pavement, and died within three minutes, the bullet entering his back and passing out through the groin. The assassin, rendered so furious, which was once driven off at the group, and was out of sight before the witnesses recovered from their surprise. Soon after midnight Henry and Hermon were arrested as two of the occupants of the buggy. The third man, named William Weber, has not yet been arrested. The victim was a son of Charles Williams, a master mechanic in the Pacific Railroad shops, and is said to have been a very steady, inoffensive young man.

New York, Nov. 4.—The national political canvass, which closes with the election next Tuesday, has been of extraordinary vigor. Both parties appear sanguine, and betting is indulged in to an unusual extent.

The British steamer "Britannic" arrived to-day, in 7 days, 13 hours, 20 minutes, from Queenstown. This is the shortest time yet recorded.

James E. Ford, editor of the "Irish World," died yesterday.

New York, Nov. 6.—Report of a defeat of a large band of Indians, under Sitting Bull, by Gen. Miles, is confirmed.

A small detachment of United States troops has been stationed at Petersburg, Virginia, and four companies in South Carolina, to prevent trouble between whites and blacks in the election to-morrow.

Martin James Breen, St. John's, N. B., says that after being troubled with a pain in and around the heart, and in the left shoulder, for many weeks, he has found perfect remedy in SPENCER'S VEGETARIAN LINTMENT. One-half of a 3 cent bottle effecting a radical cure.

Services on Sunday Next. Episcopal Church, 7 p. m. Methodist, " " 3 p. m. Baptist, " " 11 a. m. 7 p. m. Presbyterian, " " no service. Y. M. C. Association, Prayer Meeting at the Church, 7 p. m.

MARRIAGES. DAVES—CROCKER.—At Kingston, on the 23rd of October, by the Rev. E. O. Reed, Mr. William B. Daves, to Miss Annie M., daughter of Mr. James Crocker, of Newbury, Annapolis County.

BOVEN—EMM.—On the 28th of October, at the residence of the bride's father, J. D. Bower, of Annapolis, N. S., to Mary, eldest daughter of John Bell, Esq., of St. John's, N. B.

MURPHY—MARSHALL.—At the Parsonage, Bridgetown, on the 29th ult., by the Rev. J. Clark, Rev. P. P. Murray, Mrs. Willett Marshall, all of Bridgetown.

DEATHS. MILLER.—Suddenly at Boston, Mass., on October the 12th, C. Robert Miller, aged 37 years, youngest son of the late George Miller, Wesleyan Minister.

MILBERRY.—At Young's Mountain, on the 18th of September last, of Typhoid Fever, Mr. Stephen Milberry, aged 60 years.

New Advertisements. NOTICE TO BUILDERS. TENDERS, PARADISE, will be received by the Secretary of the Building Commission till noon of NOVEMBER 1st, 1876. Plans, Specifications, &c. may be seen on application to the Chairman or Secretary. The time for receiving the above is extended to NOVEMBER 13th noon.

FLANNELS AND BLANKETS! WHITE LANCASTER FLANNELS; WHITE MEDIUM; WHITE IMITATION WELSH; WHITE DO DO DO; WHITE ANTI-RHEUMATIC; WHITE SASKY UNION ALL; WHITE SERGES, all wool; WHITE PLAININGS; SCARLET SCOTCH; SCARLET MEDIUM; GREEN; INDIGO BLUE, HEAVY PLAIN; INDIGO BLUE TWILLED; SCARLET SASKY; COLORED; CANADIAN ALL WOOL GRAY; AMERICAN WHITE, GRAY, SCARLET.

BLANKETS! WHITE, BROWN AND GRAY. FOR SALE BY W. G. LAWTON, Cor. King and Canterbury Streets, St. John, N. B. October 1876.

New Advertisements.

SITUATION WANTED. A First Class Music teacher, who has had considerable experience, is in want of a situation for the Winter Term. Apply to EDW. F. NEVILLE, Granville Ferry, Ann. Co. Sep. 19th, '76. 51 129 pd

Fall and Winter, 1876. STOCK now arriving. Every department being well assorted with New Goods! EXCELLENT VALUE, CHOICEST STYLES, and offered at POPULAR PRICES. Wholesale and Retail. Comparison Invited. Patterns by post. E. D. WATTS, Prince William Street, St. John N. B. Oct. 4th

LONDON HOUSE I Queen St., Bridgetown. R. H. BATH, Prop.

To the Inhabitants of Annapolis County: I HAVE received Ex Steamship "Olympia" from GLASGOW, 4 CASES and 2 BALES DRY GOODS, Being part of my Fall and Winter Stock of Staple and Fancy Goods. From Montreal 10 Cases BOOTS & SHOES, Ladies', Misses', Children's and Men's Wear. Also, from BOSTON, 5 Bales and 2 Cases American Goods, In Bleached and Unbleached Cottons, Prints, Flannels of all kinds, Bed Ticking, Wool Batts, Wadding, &c. &c.

The above Goods comprise the Largest, Best Selected and Cheapest STOCK Ever offered in Bridgetown, and together with my usual large and Well Selected Stock of Groceries, Hardware, &c., will be offered in lots Wholesale or Retail, at Prices which have never been equaled before in this Province, for CASH or prompt pay. I invite all intending purchasers to call and inspect my Goods, before purchasing elsewhere, and be convinced that I am selling CHEAPER than any house in the Trade.

R. H. BATH, Bridgetown, Sept. 25th, 1876. P. S.—All parties having Accounts or Notes standing over three months will please call and settle at once, to save cost, as I shall leave over-due accounts with a lawyer for collection after the 1st of October. R. H. B.

ANNOUNCEMENT. ALL parties having any legal demands against the Estate of the late Albert Starck Desbrizay, will please present the same duly attested to either of the Executors within 12 months. All parties indebted to the Estate are requested to make immediate payment.

LEAVITT BISHOP, EDMUND BENT, Executors. Bridgetown, Oct. 16th, '76. n27

Murdoch & Co. BEG to call the public attention, and solicit an inspection of their stock for the Fall Trade, comprising: Builders' Shelf Hardware, Strap, Iron and Plate Hinges, Hoes, Fats and Japanese screw bits, Screw-Bits, Wood Screws, from 1/8 to 3 inch, Files, in variety, Horse Rasps, Horse Shoe Nails, Clinch and Cut Nails, Spikes, Shovels, Potato Forks, Spades, &c., &c.

We are also prepared to supply SHOEMAKERS with Nails, Pins, Wax, Awls, Thread, &c. 50 Sides Best Selected American Sole Leather.

We have just received a lot American ORTONE, PRINTS, &c., good quality, and marked low to suit the times. FALL BOOTS AND SHOES to arrive in a few days. Old Stock now on hand will be sold for Cash. MURDOCH & CO. sept20

HORSES! HORSES! THREE Horses for Sale by the subscriber, which will be sold cheap. MILLER BROS., Middleton. October 17th, '76. n27 if

Dental Notice. Dr. S. F. Whitman, Dentist, WOULD respectfully inform his friends that he is now at the ELM HOUSE, LAWRENTOWN, (Opposite Fred Leavitt's) and will remain until Saturday, 14th inst. Persons requiring his professional services will please take notice. Oct. 9th, '76

New Advertisements.

H. Chubb & Co., PRINTERS, Stationers & Bookbinders. THE CHEAPEST PLACE! in the City for STATIONERY and PRINTING. BOOKBINDING! Done at Short Notice and on REASONABLE TERMS. Send your old numbers of Magazines and Periodicals and get them substantially and neatly bound. Music and Old Books Rebound. As we are the Oldest House in the City in our line, we claim that we have all the EXPERIENCE to enable us to be the CHEAPEST HOUSE, and for verification of which we solicit from all a fair trial. QUALITY GUARANTEED. H. CHUBB & CO. ST. JOHN, N. B., May 3rd, '76. if nt.

Perpetual INK STAND! THE great desideratum of the age is the EVERLASTING INK STAND! By simply pouring water into it, it produces Ink of Superior Color for Many Years. No Freezing! No Spilling! For you can pour out the water when you are done writing. A MINIMUM OF COST! Sent by Mail Fair at $1.00!

H. CHUBB & CO., ST. JOHN, N. B. may4

Corbitt's Packet Line THROUGH FREIGHT Between Boston, Portland, and Annapolis, and All Stations on the W. & A. Railway. The New Sch. "ATWOOD" WILL run regularly between the above places, carrying Freight and passengers. Her cabin having been fitted up in first class style, with all the latest improvements, can accommodate both lady and gentleman passengers. Favour by this line will be handled with the greatest care, and forwarded immediately on arrival of Schooner. Passage to Boston, $4.00. Freight exceeding $100 in value must be accompanied by a U. S. Consul Certificate. For further particulars apply to Kimball & Bates and John G. Hall & Co., Boston, J. Percival, Portland, P. Innes, General Manager, and the several Station Agents of the W. & A. Railway. J. V. CORBITT & SON, June 25 28 1876. Annapolis Royal.

TOBACCO & TEAS. Receiving to-day and in Store. 200 Boxes, Butts & Caddies Tobacco, comprising the following choice brands. Challenge, 12's, Princess Louise, 12's, Charter Oak, 12's, Florence Bright, 6's, Mahogany and Rich Dark-Salters Soling, 1's & 2's, Sweet, 16's, Little Central, Little Gem, &c., &c. 100 Chests, Hf. Chests, & boxes Congou Tea, from 30 cents per lb. upward. Prices all Low to the Trade.

GEO. MORRISON, JR., NO. 12 & 13 SOUTH MARKET WHARF, ST. JOHN, N. B. Ang. 9th, 1876.

McCarty & Cook, Importers, Wholesale and Retail Dealers in Pianofortes and Organs. PIANOFORTES BY WEBER, MATHEUSIK, and OTHER FIRST CLASS MAKERS. THE MATCHLESS Burdett Organ A SPECIALITY. George A. Prince & Co's ORGANS AND MELODIANS. Office and Warerooms, Cor. Union and Charter Streets, St. John, N. B. Mr. A. J. Hall, Berwick, is our Agent for Annapolis and Kings Counties. May 29th, '76. 13.

(Continued from first page.)

lations, the standing orders, and mutiny act, and conduct unbecoming a soldier, and so forth.

Dick quietly resigned his pipe to this indirect claimant.

'Come now, Dick, let us have a verse, my son, your own favorite.'

'Why now?' said Dick, 'I think I feel as though I should like to have a drink of water.'

'Come fetch Dick the bucket,' and with a draught long and deep he slaked his thirst.

'Now,' said Dick, 'the very best day of my life I should prefer a good pull of yale to that there pure stuff of yours.'

'Ay, ay, Dick we don't doubt you, but let us have the song,' and Dick after a few lines to clear his pipes, with a full harmonious voice trolled forth this merry ditty.

SOLDIER'S SONG.
Come, my love—Come with me
And oh! how happy we shall be;
Over the mountains o'er the sea,
We'll roam along so merrily.

We shall never see our night,
Sorrow always pass us by,
Leaving, reckless as I live,
Care a long day's march behind.

'Bravo Dick—that you may never lose the use of your voice!'

'Bravo, bravo' was echoed from all quarters.

Still O'Flanagan lay extended motionlessly on the guard-bed, undisturbed by the noisy mirth around him.

'Now,' said Dick Anderson, with the tone of one who is right to make a demand, 'I should like very well to hear Moran, then, spin us a yarn about these ere ferries, and such like folk as he knows so well about.'

'No excuse, Moran, you heard Dick's song, and you must give him a story; out with it, old boy.' 'Oh!' said another, 'let him alone for that, Moran was never back-washed in his part where fun or fighting was going on.'

'Well, an sure boys,' began Moran, with all the readiness of his nation, and the rich patois of a Connacht brogue, 'myself id be sorry to refuse you anything in reason, when we're so reg'lar entirely. Now I'll tell you about an aun's cousin of my own, and what happened him one night.

'Do you know where Long Corrib is? O the serra know I suppose; well, it's not, don't I do; and that'll do for us all, so you'll all know Long Corrib as well as I do. Well, there was a young man, once upon a time, cootin' a purty well girl, over course they were cootin' for a long time, and used to meet every night in a sheelt little spot down by the lake. But one day my long story about a blackguard deceiver the crethur, till she didn't know what had become of her. Will you marry me, beauty jewel?' says she, one night, 'an I'm the condition I am in, I'll give you a bit at this present, Aileen,' says he, 'I'm going to go to England, but maybe it'll do phen come back.' 'Well, comes her,' says she, 'I'll go to the Long Corrib with my cousin Biddy's aun's daughter's second cousin's son, and you'll see if he won't do something on you, you bad man. With that you see, 'Tiddy got frightened, and then he grew vexed, and that I may never encounter a sentry boy, but the villain nuthered her on the spot, and threw her into the lake.'

'Here O'Flanagan started up, his feet with a deep, hoarse smothering groan of agony, and wildly exclaimed "O God!"

'The soldiers stood up alarmed, and inquired what was the matter? "Nothing," nothing," said he, recovering his self-possession, and he lay down quietly again and Moran resumed his tale.

'Well, you see, after the devil temptin' things, said he, recovering his self-possession, and he lay down quietly again and Moran resumed his tale.

'The sergeant, a keen old veteran, fixed his penetrating eyes steadily on O'Flanagan, and observed with astonishment the workings of his countenance.

'My God! what a horrible dream I've had, I'm not right even yet,' and he panted as if re-collecting his scattered thoughts.

'No,' said the sergeant, 'I dare say not, nor will be for so me time; a mind ill'ness giv' a fig'ntil dream.'

'What do you mean?' said O'Flanagan fiercely, 'my mind is at ease; 'yes, he added, lowering his high tone, 'my mind is quite at ease.'

'Why,' said the sergeant, 'I mean what I say just; but few folks say what they mean as I do, and I always suspect people to be either fools or knaves, who act differently from other men, without having some good reason for what they do.'

'Pshaw!' said O'Flanagan, assuming a manner half careless and half contemptuous, and again extended his length in silence and darkness on the guard-bed.

'Nods and winks were exchanged among the men and half whispered surmises went around little to the credit of O'Flanagan.

The conversation gradually flagged round the fire, till at last it ceased entirely. The song of the singer was done, and the story-teller was silent for the night. The weary watchman began to slumber about the fire, now waxing faint and dim, and the candles were fitfully flickering in their sockets, throwing the shadows of the Hercules group in gigantic figures on the opposite wall. Jim O'Flanagan was sleeping alone, and nearly in the shade of the cold grate; but his countenance was broken and disturbed; he moaned painfully, and a slight convulsive shivering ran through his frame; his breathing became thick, short, and heavy; his moaning gradually grew loud and low, till at length, extending into one wild, terrific, unrecalled shriek, O'Flanagan again stood erect, panting and motionless; the sickle light exhibited his features pallid and distorted, as he screamed in horror conveying yells—who, said I killed Uncle Maguire?—and who called me a murderer?—ch?—and the last sound seemed to expire hollowly and fearfully in the uttering.

'Ha,' said the sergeant, 'is that the quarter the land lies; my fine fellow, I think I am right still!'

'What is that you say?' asked O'Flanagan, 'was it you that said that I was a murderer?—there, there, and with one desperate blow, he felled the veteran to the earth.'

He was soon overpowered, and made a prisoner. The sergeant, next morning, made a formal report of the transactions of the night.

The colonel inquired the time O'Flanagan joined the regiment; exactly the 25th of August last; answered the clerk.

'Let me have the hue-and-cry of that week,' said the colonel; it was handed him, and he examined it with attention. He then proceeded to the prisoner's cell, accompanied by the sergeant and one or two of the officers.

O'Flanagan stood before him without changing a feature; he was much altered in his appearance, by even one night; his face was pale as his lips were compressed, and his look firm and determined, yet tempered with something like calm resignation.

'Flanagan,' said the colonel, 'you are from—'

'I am,' said O'Flanagan, coldly and collectedly.

'Listen, while I read,' said the colonel O'Flanagan in a low voice, and bent his eyes on the ground.

On the night of the 12th of August, on his return from the fair of—, a farmer named Ulick Maguire was barbarously and inhumanly murdered and a man accused of the murder, named James O'Flanagan otherwise Schemus duu Moran O'Flanagan has since absconded. The said O'Flanagan is about 6 feet 2 inches in height, black hair, dark complexion, and—'

You need read no more, colonel,' interrupted the prisoner, 'I am the man.'

'You are an unfortunate man then,' said the colonel, 'and I am sorry I can't do anything for you.'

'I thank you, Sir, but I don't want you to do anything for me,' said O'Flanagan, firmly. 'I couldn't live with the load of such a crime bending me through life. I thought to live—I thought time might relieve me of the burden; but I daily grow worse, and worse, I don't wish to live, couldn't live now. Day and night he was before my eyes, mangled and bloody; now my life will pay for his, and I am satisfied to give it up; but I wish to be alone with my bosom. It relieved of its fearful secret.'

The soldier who brought O'Flanagan's dinner, found him calm and easy; he merely requested a drink of water. He then requested the constables to remove him from the military; they opened the cell, but Schemus duu Moran O'Flanagan was a lifeless corpse; they found him hanging by his breeches out of a clothes rack, and the chair on which he mounted was lying broken against the wall, on the opposite side of his cell, with such violence and determination did he kick it down under him. He was buried that evening in the dark, and without the honors of a soldier.

THE SUBLIMITY OF THE HUMAN MIND.
The soldier who brought O'Flanagan's dinner, found him calm and easy; he merely requested a drink of water. He then requested the constables to remove him from the military; they opened the cell, but Schemus duu Moran O'Flanagan was a lifeless corpse; they found him hanging by his breeches out of a clothes rack, and the chair on which he mounted was lying broken against the wall, on the opposite side of his cell, with such violence and determination did he kick it down under him. He was buried that evening in the dark, and without the honors of a soldier.

THE SUBLIMITY OF THE HUMAN MIND.
The soldier who brought O'Flanagan's dinner, found him calm and easy; he merely requested a drink of water. He then requested the constables to remove him from the military; they opened the cell, but Schemus duu Moran O'Flanagan was a lifeless corpse; they found him hanging by his breeches out of a clothes rack, and the chair on which he mounted was lying broken against the wall, on the opposite side of his cell, with such violence and determination did he kick it down under him. He was buried that evening in the dark, and without the honors of a soldier.

THE SUBLIMITY OF THE HUMAN MIND.
The soldier who brought O'Flanagan's dinner, found him calm and easy; he merely requested a drink of water. He then requested the constables to remove him from the military; they opened the cell, but Schemus duu Moran O'Flanagan was a lifeless corpse; they found him hanging by his breeches out of a clothes rack, and the chair on which he mounted was lying broken against the wall, on the opposite side of his cell, with such violence and determination did he kick it down under him. He was buried that evening in the dark, and without the honors of a soldier.

THE SUBLIMITY OF THE HUMAN MIND.
The soldier who brought O'Flanagan's dinner, found him calm and easy; he merely requested a drink of water. He then requested the constables to remove him from the military; they opened the cell, but Schemus duu Moran O'Flanagan was a lifeless corpse; they found him hanging by his breeches out of a clothes rack, and the chair on which he mounted was lying broken against the wall, on the opposite side of his cell, with such violence and determination did he kick it down under him. He was buried that evening in the dark, and without the honors of a soldier.

THE SUBLIMITY OF THE HUMAN MIND.
The soldier who brought O'Flanagan's dinner, found him calm and easy; he merely requested a drink of water. He then requested the constables to remove him from the military; they opened the cell, but Schemus duu Moran O'Flanagan was a lifeless corpse; they found him hanging by his breeches out of a clothes rack, and the chair on which he mounted was lying broken against the wall, on the opposite side of his cell, with such violence and determination did he kick it down under him. He was buried that evening in the dark, and without the honors of a soldier.

THE SUBLIMITY OF THE HUMAN MIND.
The soldier who brought O'Flanagan's dinner, found him calm and easy; he merely requested a drink of water. He then requested the constables to remove him from the military; they opened the cell, but Schemus duu Moran O'Flanagan was a lifeless corpse; they found him hanging by his breeches out of a clothes rack, and the chair on which he mounted was lying broken against the wall, on the opposite side of his cell, with such violence and determination did he kick it down under him. He was buried that evening in the dark, and without the honors of a soldier.

THE SUBLIMITY OF THE HUMAN MIND.
The soldier who brought O'Flanagan's dinner, found him calm and easy; he merely requested a drink of water. He then requested the constables to remove him from the military; they opened the cell, but Schemus duu Moran O'Flanagan was a lifeless corpse; they found him hanging by his breeches out of a clothes rack, and the chair on which he mounted was lying broken against the wall, on the opposite side of his cell, with such violence and determination did he kick it down under him. He was buried that evening in the dark, and without the honors of a soldier.

THE SUBLIMITY OF THE HUMAN MIND.
The soldier who brought O'Flanagan's dinner, found him calm and easy; he merely requested a drink of water. He then requested the constables to remove him from the military; they opened the cell, but Schemus duu Moran O'Flanagan was a lifeless corpse; they found him hanging by his breeches out of a clothes rack, and the chair on which he mounted was lying broken against the wall, on the opposite side of his cell, with such violence and determination did he kick it down under him. He was buried that evening in the dark, and without the honors of a soldier.

THE SUBLIMITY OF THE HUMAN MIND.
The soldier who brought O'Flanagan's dinner, found him calm and easy; he merely requested a drink of water. He then requested the constables to remove him from the military; they opened the cell, but Schemus duu Moran O'Flanagan was a lifeless corpse; they found him hanging by his breeches out of a clothes rack, and the chair on which he mounted was lying broken against the wall, on the opposite side of his cell, with such violence and determination did he kick it down under him. He was buried that evening in the dark, and without the honors of a soldier.

THE SUBLIMITY OF THE HUMAN MIND.
The soldier who brought O'Flanagan's dinner, found him calm and easy; he merely requested a drink of water. He then requested the constables to remove him from the military; they opened the cell, but Schemus duu Moran O'Flanagan was a lifeless corpse; they found him hanging by his breeches out of a clothes rack, and the chair on which he mounted was lying broken against the wall, on the opposite side of his cell, with such violence and determination did he kick it down under him. He was buried that evening in the dark, and without the honors of a soldier.

THE SUBLIMITY OF THE HUMAN MIND.
The soldier who brought O'Flanagan's dinner, found him calm and easy; he merely requested a drink of water. He then requested the constables to remove him from the military; they opened the cell, but Schemus duu Moran O'Flanagan was a lifeless corpse; they found him hanging by his breeches out of a clothes rack, and the chair on which he mounted was lying broken against the wall, on the opposite side of his cell, with such violence and determination did he kick it down under him. He was buried that evening in the dark, and without the honors of a soldier.

THE SUBLIMITY OF THE HUMAN MIND.
The soldier who brought O'Flanagan's dinner, found him calm and easy; he merely requested a drink of water. He then requested the constables to remove him from the military; they opened the cell, but Schemus duu Moran O'Flanagan was a lifeless corpse; they found him hanging by his breeches out of a clothes rack, and the chair on which he mounted was lying broken against the wall, on the opposite side of his cell, with such violence and determination did he kick it down under him. He was buried that evening in the dark, and without the honors of a soldier.

THE SUBLIMITY OF THE HUMAN MIND.
The soldier who brought O'Flanagan's dinner, found him calm and easy; he merely requested a drink of water. He then requested the constables to remove him from the military; they opened the cell, but Schemus duu Moran O'Flanagan was a lifeless corpse; they found him hanging by his breeches out of a clothes rack, and the chair on which he mounted was lying broken against the wall, on the opposite side of his cell, with such violence and determination did he kick it down under him. He was buried that evening in the dark, and without the honors of a soldier.

THE SUBLIMITY OF THE HUMAN MIND.
The soldier who brought O'Flanagan's dinner, found him calm and easy; he merely requested a drink of water. He then requested the constables to remove him from the military; they opened the cell, but Schemus duu Moran O'Flanagan was a lifeless corpse; they found him hanging by his breeches out of a clothes rack, and the chair on which he mounted was lying broken against the wall, on the opposite side of his cell, with such violence and determination did he kick it down under him. He was buried that evening in the dark, and without the honors of a soldier.

THE SUBLIMITY OF THE HUMAN MIND.
The soldier who brought O'Flanagan's dinner, found him calm and easy; he merely requested a drink of water. He then requested the constables to remove him from the military; they opened the cell, but Schemus duu Moran O'Flanagan was a lifeless corpse; they found him hanging by his breeches out of a clothes rack, and the chair on which he mounted was lying broken against the wall, on the opposite side of his cell, with such violence and determination did he kick it down under him. He was buried that evening in the dark, and without the honors of a soldier.

THE SUBLIMITY OF THE HUMAN MIND.
The soldier who brought O'Flanagan's dinner, found him calm and easy; he merely requested a drink of water. He then requested the constables to remove him from the military; they opened the cell, but Schemus duu Moran O'Flanagan was a lifeless corpse; they found him hanging by his breeches out of a clothes rack, and the chair on which he mounted was lying broken against the wall, on the opposite side of his cell, with such violence and determination did he kick it down under him. He was buried that evening in the dark, and without the honors of a soldier.

THE SUBLIMITY OF THE HUMAN MIND.
The soldier who brought O'Flanagan's dinner, found him calm and easy; he merely requested a drink of water. He then requested the constables to remove him from the military; they opened the cell, but Schemus duu Moran O'Flanagan was a lifeless corpse; they found him hanging by his breeches out of a clothes rack, and the chair on which he mounted was lying broken against the wall, on the opposite side of his cell, with such violence and determination did he kick it down under him. He was buried that evening in the dark, and without the honors of a soldier.

THE SUBLIMITY OF THE HUMAN MIND.
The soldier who brought O'Flanagan's dinner, found him calm and easy; he merely requested a drink of water. He then requested the constables to remove him from the military; they opened the cell, but Schemus duu Moran O'Flanagan was a lifeless corpse; they found him hanging by his breeches out of a clothes rack, and the chair on which he mounted was lying broken against the wall, on the opposite side of his cell, with such violence and determination did he kick it down under him. He was buried that evening in the dark, and without the honors of a soldier.

THE SUBLIMITY OF THE HUMAN MIND.
The soldier who brought O'Flanagan's dinner, found him calm and easy; he merely requested a drink of water. He then requested the constables to remove him from the military; they opened the cell, but Schemus duu Moran O'Flanagan was a lifeless corpse; they found him hanging by his breeches out of a clothes rack, and the chair on which he mounted was lying broken against the wall, on the opposite side of his cell, with such violence and determination did he kick it down under him. He was buried that evening in the dark, and without the honors of a soldier.

THE SUBLIMITY OF THE HUMAN MIND.
The soldier who brought O'Flanagan's dinner, found him calm and easy; he merely requested a drink of water. He then requested the constables to remove him from the military; they opened the cell, but Schemus duu Moran O'Flanagan was a lifeless corpse; they found him hanging by his breeches out of a clothes rack, and the chair on which he mounted was lying broken against the wall, on the opposite side of his cell, with such violence and determination did he kick it down under him. He was buried that evening in the dark, and without the honors of a soldier.

THE SUBLIMITY OF THE HUMAN MIND.
The soldier who brought O'Flanagan's dinner, found him calm and easy; he merely requested a drink of water. He then requested the constables to remove him from the military; they opened the cell, but Schemus duu Moran O'Flanagan was a lifeless corpse; they found him hanging by his breeches out of a clothes rack, and the chair on which he mounted was lying broken against the wall, on the opposite side of his cell, with such violence and determination did he kick it down under him. He was buried that evening in the dark, and without the honors of a soldier.

THE SUBLIMITY OF THE HUMAN MIND.
The soldier who brought O'Flanagan's dinner, found him calm and easy; he merely requested a drink of water. He then requested the constables to remove him from the military; they opened the cell, but Schemus duu Moran O'Flanagan was a lifeless corpse; they found him hanging by his breeches out of a clothes rack, and the chair on which he mounted was lying broken against the wall, on the opposite side of his cell, with such violence and determination did he kick it down under him. He was buried that evening in the dark, and without the honors of a soldier.

THE SUBLIMITY OF THE HUMAN MIND.
The soldier who brought O'Flanagan's dinner, found him calm and easy; he merely requested a drink of water. He then requested the constables to remove him from the military; they opened the cell, but Schemus duu Moran O'Flanagan was a lifeless corpse; they found him hanging by his breeches out of a clothes rack, and the chair on which he mounted was lying broken against the wall, on the opposite side of his cell, with such violence and determination did he kick it down under him. He was buried that evening in the dark, and without the honors of a soldier.

THE SUBLIMITY OF THE HUMAN MIND.
The soldier who brought O'Flanagan's dinner, found him calm and easy; he merely requested a drink of water. He then requested the constables to remove him from the military; they opened the cell, but Schemus duu Moran O'Flanagan was a lifeless corpse; they found him hanging by his breeches out of a clothes rack, and the chair on which he mounted was lying broken against the wall, on the opposite side of his cell, with such violence and determination did he kick it down under him. He was buried that evening in the dark, and without the honors of a soldier.

THE SUBLIMITY OF THE HUMAN MIND.
The soldier who brought O'Flanagan's dinner, found him calm and easy; he merely requested a drink of water. He then requested the constables to remove him from the military; they opened the cell, but Schemus duu Moran O'Flanagan was a lifeless corpse; they found him hanging by his breeches out of a clothes rack, and the chair on which he mounted was lying broken against the wall, on the opposite side of his cell, with such violence and determination did he kick it down under him. He was buried that evening in the dark, and without the honors of a soldier.

THE SUBLIMITY OF THE HUMAN MIND.
The soldier who brought O'Flanagan's dinner, found him calm and easy; he merely requested a drink of water. He then requested the constables to remove him from the military; they opened the cell, but Schemus duu Moran O'Flanagan was a lifeless corpse; they found him hanging by his breeches out of a clothes rack, and the chair on which he mounted was lying broken against the wall, on the opposite side of his cell, with such violence and determination did he kick it down under him. He was buried that evening in the dark, and without the honors of a soldier.

THE SUBLIMITY OF THE HUMAN MIND.
The soldier who brought O'Flanagan's dinner, found him calm and easy; he merely requested a drink of water. He then requested the constables to remove him from the military; they opened the cell, but Schemus duu Moran O'Flanagan was a lifeless corpse; they found him hanging by his breeches out of a clothes rack, and the chair on which he mounted was lying broken against the wall, on the opposite side of his cell, with such violence and determination did he kick it down under him. He was buried that evening in the dark, and without the honors of a soldier.

THE SUBLIMITY OF THE HUMAN MIND.
The soldier who brought O'Flanagan's dinner, found him calm and easy; he merely requested a drink of water. He then requested the constables to remove him from the military; they opened the cell, but Schemus duu Moran O'Flanagan was a lifeless corpse; they found him hanging by his breeches out of a clothes rack, and the chair on which he mounted was lying broken against the wall, on the opposite side of his cell, with such violence and determination did he kick it down under him. He was buried that evening in the dark, and without the honors of a soldier.

THE SUBLIMITY OF THE HUMAN MIND.
The soldier who brought O'Flanagan's dinner, found him calm and easy; he merely requested a drink of water. He then requested the constables to remove him from the military; they opened the cell, but Schemus duu Moran O'Flanagan was a lifeless corpse; they found him hanging by his breeches out of a clothes rack, and the chair on which he mounted was lying broken against the wall, on the opposite side of his cell, with such violence and determination did he kick it down under him. He was buried that evening in the dark, and without the honors of a soldier.

THE SUBLIMITY OF THE HUMAN MIND.
The soldier who brought O'Flanagan's dinner, found him calm and easy; he merely requested a drink of water. He then requested the constables to remove him from the military; they opened the cell, but Schemus duu Moran O'Flanagan was a lifeless corpse; they found him hanging by his breeches out of a clothes rack, and the chair on which he mounted was lying broken against the wall, on the opposite side of his cell, with such violence and determination did he kick it down under him. He was buried that evening in the dark, and without the honors of a soldier.

THE SUBLIMITY OF THE HUMAN MIND.
The soldier who brought O'Flanagan's dinner, found him calm and easy; he merely requested a drink of water. He then requested the constables to remove him from the military; they opened the cell, but Schemus duu Moran O'Flanagan was a lifeless corpse; they found him hanging by his breeches out of a clothes rack, and the chair on which he mounted was lying broken against the wall, on the opposite side of his cell, with such violence and determination did he kick it down under him. He was buried that evening in the dark, and without the honors of a soldier.

THE SUBLIMITY OF THE HUMAN MIND.
The soldier who brought O'Flanagan's dinner, found him calm and easy; he merely requested a drink of water. He then requested the constables to remove him from the military; they opened the cell, but Schemus duu Moran O'Flanagan was a lifeless corpse; they found him hanging by his breeches out of a clothes rack, and the chair on which he mounted was lying broken against the wall, on the opposite side of his cell, with such violence and determination did he kick it down under him. He was buried that evening in the dark, and without the honors of a soldier.

THE SUBLIMITY OF THE HUMAN MIND.
The soldier who brought O'Flanagan's dinner, found him calm and easy; he merely requested a drink of water. He then requested the constables to remove him from the military; they opened the cell, but Schemus duu Moran O'Flanagan was a lifeless corpse; they found him hanging by his breeches out of a clothes rack, and the chair on which he mounted was lying broken against the wall, on the opposite side of his cell, with such violence and determination did he kick it down under him. He was buried that evening in the dark, and without the honors of a soldier.

THE SUBLIMITY OF THE HUMAN MIND.
The soldier who brought O'Flanagan's dinner, found him calm and easy; he merely requested a drink of water. He then requested the constables to remove him from the military; they opened the cell, but Schemus duu Moran O'Flanagan was a lifeless corpse; they found him hanging by his breeches out of a clothes rack, and the chair on which he mounted was lying broken against the wall, on the opposite side of his cell, with such violence and determination did he kick it down under him. He was buried that evening in the dark, and without the honors of a soldier.

THE SUBLIMITY OF THE HUMAN MIND.
The soldier who brought O'Flanagan's dinner, found him calm and easy; he merely requested a drink of water. He then requested the constables to remove him from the military; they opened the cell, but Schemus duu Moran O'Flanagan was a lifeless corpse; they found him hanging by his breeches out of a clothes rack, and the chair on which he mounted was lying broken against the wall, on the opposite side of his cell, with such violence and determination did he kick it down under him. He was buried that evening in the dark, and without the honors of a soldier.

CENTRAL BOOKSTORE, Spring Importations.

Just received ex SS. "India" from Glasgow, and S. "Anglia" from London.

300 CASES OF STATIONERY, —ASSORTED—

FOOLSCAP PAPERS, Cream and B. Laid, Large and Small Post, Flat, Legal Cap, Bill Cap Commercial Letter and Note Papers, Antique Parchment Note Paper, Ordinary Letter and Note Papers for Jobbers, Bank, Post, Letter, Thin Linen, Letter and Note, Cream Laid and Antique Envelopes—Square and Business Sizes. White and Colored. Printing Paper, Printing and Visiting Cards, MOURNING STATIONERY all grades. Gillott's, Mitchell's, and other makers' PENS, Quill Pens. A. W. Faber's and Rowley's LEAD PENCILS. Programme and Carpenter's Pencils, Stephens's Blue, Black and Jet Black Writing and Copying INKS, Ink Powder, Chalk, Crayons, Seals, Letter and Parcel Wax, Wafers, Red Tape, Slates and Pencils, &c., &c.

Our Stock of BLANK BOOKS will be found complete in sizes and bindings.

THOMAS P. CONNOLLY, Cor. Granville and George Sts., Halifax, N. S. Aug. 18th, '76. 10 p 19.

GREAT REDUCTION! FOR CASH.

Tweed Suits, $20 to $24. FORMER PRICES, $26 to $39. MEN'S FURNISHING and all other Goods

PROPORTIONATELY LOW. J. E. WHITTAKER, Cor. Germaine & Princess Sts., St. John, N. B.

Farm for Sale.

The subscriber will offer for sale a Farm in the Parish of PORT GEORGE, consisting of LAND, well watered, with House, Barn and other Outbuildings. An ORCHARD, consisting of Apple and Plum Trees is also on the place.

The above will be sold at AUCTION, Friday, the 12th day of May, if not sold before at Private Sale. EDWIN GATES, 152 1/2

ESTABLISHED 1861.

Parks' Cotton Warp.

White, Blue, Red, Orange & Green.

THE COTTON WARP made up so very for the past fifteen years having proved so satisfactory to consumers, we feel justified in recommending it to all who use the article as the BEST IN QUALITY and actually the CHEAPEST in the market.

We warrant every bundle to be full length and weight and to be numbered correctly. Our name and address is on the label. For sale by all dealers.

WM. PARK & SON, New Brunswick Cotton Mills, St. John, N. B. August 15th, '76. 3m 19

FRED. LEAVITT, LA WRENCETOWN.

Invites the attention of purchasers to his Large and Complete Stock of Dry Goods, Ready-Made Clothing, BOOTS AND SHOES, Hats and Caps, &c., &c., &c.

Molasses, Tea, Sugar, Groceries of all Kinds, Brooms, Pails, Tubs, Farming Implements, Nails, Cordage, &c., &c., &c.

All of which are offered at LOW FIGURES to suit the times.

Parke, Eagle, Doe, Prouty & Mear's PLOWs,

at Berwick Prices.

SHEFFIELD HOUSE, Market Square...St. John, N.B.

Jewelry and Watch Department. THE Sheffield House having engaged the services of First-class Manufacturing Jewelers, is prepared to make to order, Wedding and Signet Rings, Ladies' and Gents' Gold Chains, Gold Lockets, Brooches, Ear-Drops, Charms, Studs, Solitaires and General Jewelry. In the Watch Department a First-class Practical Watchmaker gives his special attention to the Repairing and Regulating Watches, Clocks and Fine Pieces. Repairs on Watches and Jewelry carefully attended to.

In the Stock Department, New and Fashionable Goods in Ladies' and Gents' Watches and Jewelry, Silverware, Electro-Plated Household Goods, Paper-mache and Fine Parian Ware, Artistic Bronzes, Tables and Pocket Cutlery, &c., and Foreign Novelties of French and German manufacture are being constantly added by frequent importations from the best markets.

These Churns are manufactured at Berwick, N. S., and will be kept constantly on hand after the 30th October, 1876. Orders strictly attended to.

AGENTS WANTED To canvass the Counties of Annapolis, Kings, Hants, Colchester and Pictou.

D. H. SHAW, BERWICK, N. S. November 17th, 1876. 11 p 33

SEND 25c. to G. P. ROWELL & CO., New York, for a Pamphlet of 100 pages, containing lists of 5000 newspapers, and estimates showing cost of advertising. Jy 148

TO MAGISTRATES! A large stock of MAGISTRATE'S BLANKS for sale at this Office.

THE RETRIFYING SILICATE PAINTS, As supplied to the Admiralty, Board of Works, Austrian Lloyd's, Woolwich Arsenal, Cunard Company, &c.,

For House, Ship and General Use, Indoors and Out, and in all Colors.

Manufactured by THE SILICATE PAINT COMPANY, LIVERPOOL, having no chemical action on Iron and other Metals; will stand any degree of heat without blistering—1 cwt. being nearly equal in bulk, and doing the work of 2 cwt. Lead Paints.

Artificial Stone Paint, For preserving Wood, Zinc, and other Buildings, giving them the appearance of White or Bath Stone, &c.

DAMP WALLS, DAMP CHURCHES, &c. Cured by the RETRIFYING LIQUID, at a cost of about 2d. per square yard.

For Particulars and Testimonials apply to the Agent, at Bridgetown, Annapolis Co., Nova Scotia.

Porous the Roofs, Wet Walls, Wooden Structures, Ships' Bottoms, &c., made thoroughly WATERPROOF, and Iron-work preserved from Oxidation, by GRIFFITH'S PATENT ENAMELING PAINT. Manufactured by THE SILICATE PAINT COMPANY, LIVERPOOL, G. B.

Agent for Nova Scotia—HUGH FRASER, BRIDGETOWN.

ALSO—CONSTANTLY