VOL. XXXVIII.—No. 13,873 TWO CENTS

GERMANY HAS ARMISTICE TERMS MUST ACCEPT OR FACE DEBACLE

10,000 PRISONERS, 200 GUNS CAPTURED BY THE BRITISH QUICK ANSWER EXPECTED TO DEMANDS OF THE ALLIES

German Front Broken for 30 Miles and Advance Made to More Than Three Miles East of Sambre Canal—Canadians Advance Along the Scheldt, Passing Beyond Estreux.

London, Nov. 4.—Breaking deeply into the enemy positions along a 30-mile front today, the British captured more than ten thousand prisoners and two hundred guns, Field Marshal Haig reports tonight.

The line of the Sambre Canal was stormed and the British made an advance of more than three miles beyond it to the east. The statement says: "This morning the British, the third and first British armies attacked between the Sambre Canal, Oisy and the River Scheldt north of Valenciennes. On the whole of this 30-mile front, troops from the United Kingdom and New Zealand have broken deeply into the enemy's positions. Over 10,000 prisoners and 200 guns are already reported captured."

"On the right of the attack the first and thirty-second divisions advanced to the assault in conjunction with French forces operating to the south of them. With great dash and gallantry these two divisions stormed the formidable obstacle presented by the line of the Sambre Canal, and in spite of strong resistance from the enemy have pressed on to a depth of over three miles to the east of it."

"In these operations, the first division, under command of General Strickland, having captured the Town of Catillon, forced passages of the canal opposite that place, and near the lock two miles to the south of it. At the latter point, assisted by Royal Engineers, the first Cameron Highlanders effected the passage of the canal in six minutes."

"In its subsequent advance, this division captured the villages of Feemy, Hauteve and La Grosse, with 1300 prisoners."

SEVERAL VILLAGES ARE TAKEN BY THE FRENCH

Advance of Two Miles is Made and 3000 German Prisoners Taken.

Paris, Nov. 4. — The first French army, attacking in conjunction with the British on the Sambre-Oise Canal, has captured several important villages and advanced nearly two miles, the war office tonight announced. Three thousand prisoners and 50 cannon were captured. On the Argonne front the French occupied the south bank of the Ardennes Canal, between Semuy and Le Chesne. The statement says: "The first army attacked in conjunction with the British on the Sambre-Oise Canal, between Oisy and Valenciennes. We crossed the canal and gained a footing on the high ground on the east bank reaching the villages of Boue, La Caulette, La Neuville-les-Dorengt and Iron and passed beyond Les Quilles, making an advance at certain points of three kilometres."

"On its left, the 32nd Division crossed the canal at Ors, and after several fighting took Ruedenhaut. Having cleared the line of the canal to the south and north of this village, it continued its advance, and drove the enemy from the villages of Mezieres, La Folie and Sambroton."

"In the centre of the attack the 13th Division, under General Morland, the Fifth, General Shute, and the Fourth Corps, General Harper, attacked the western face of Mormal Forest."

"After heavy fighting, the infantry and tanks drove the enemy from his positions in the western outskirts of the forest, capturing the villages of Soyereux, Preux-au-Bois, Heeq, Futuy and Louvignies."

"Thenceforth our infantry continued the advance, overcoming alike the great natural difficulties of the heavily wooded ground and the resistance of the enemy."

"Moving thru the enclosed country on the southern edge of the forest, the 25th division forced crossings of the Sambre Canal opposite Landreles and captured the town. Further north the 18th and 50th divisions penetrated deeply into the forest itself and are still advancing."

"The 35th division has reached Les Grandes Patures and the 17th division has captured Loquignol, in the centre of the forest."

"Severe fighting took place this morning in the neighborhood of Le Quesnoy, where the enemy counter-attacked in force and was repulsed by a New Zealand division with great loss in killed and prisoners. Our troops have passed to the south and north of this fortified town and are now several miles to the east of it."

"On the left, English troops, having followed up the enemy closely through the withdrawal yesterday morning, attacked and drove him from his new positions on the line of the Aunelle River. East of this river the guards division has captured Preux-au-Sart, and the 24th division has captured Wargnies-le-Petit and Wargnies-le-Grand. The 13th division has crossed the Aunelle and is continuing on the whole battlefield."

"On the extreme left, to the east of Valenciennes, the Canadian troops have made progress along the right bank of the Scheldt and have passed beyond Estreux and Onnang. Our advance is continuing on the whole battlefield."

PASSES OUT OF WAR BY ABJECT SURRENDER

Terms Imposed on Austria Compel Evacuation of Much More Territory Than Italians Had Originally Sought.

Washington, Nov. 4.—Austria-Hungary, the last and most powerful ally of Germany, passed out of the world war today, under terms of abject surrender.

Not only have the armed forces of the once powerful, Austro-Hungarian empire laid down their arms to await the end of the war, and peace terms dictated by the allies, but Austria-Hungary territory is open for operations against Germany. Even the munitions of the former ally are to be used against the Kaiser's armies, if refused to accept conditions now being prepared for them, making prolonged fighting necessary.

The terms which stopped the victorious advance on the Italian front were accepted by the Austrian commander-in-chief in the field, in the name of the Vienna government, and their execution is guaranteed by the thorn beating already administered, which had converted the defeated army into a disorganized fleeing horde. Even the terms imposed previously were so drastic, in addition to all of the military precautions, the Austrians are compelled to retire from a wide strip of territory within the borders of their empire when the war began, surrendering all of Italy Irredenta and thereby losing any advantage for argument over boundaries around a peace table. A map survey of the geographical lines fixed for Austrian evacuation shows that the area is even greater than that set by the Terms Follow Closely Those Imposed on Austria and Mean Absolute Surrender—Versailles Conference Unanimous in Agreement as to Stipulations in Final Draft Sent to Germany.

Washington, Nov. 4.—Terms upon which Germany may obtain an immediate armistice and end the war were completed and signed today in Paris. Secretary Lansing announced the fact tonight in a brief statement, adding only that complete diplomatic harmony had been achieved by the allied and American conferees at Versailles.

It may be stated authoritatively that the terms, not yet given out for publication, follow closely those under which Austria-Hungary surrendered today and passed out of the war leaving Germany to stand alone against the world.

The presumption in official circles here tonight was that the stipulations would be in the hands of the German Government in less than 24 hours. If they are accepted, a reply setting the issue of peace or further fighting may also be received within that time. The uncertainty caused, President Wilson to cancel tonight his proposed trip to New Jersey tomorrow to cast his vote in the congressional elections.

Also the complete text of the historic Versailles document probably is only now on the cables for Washington. Its substance had been reported upon fully and approved by the president before the final draft was prepared. Secretary Lansing made this statement:

According to an official report received this evening, the terms of the armistice to be offered to Germany have just been agreed to unanimously and signed by the representatives of the allies and the United States in Paris. The report further states that diplomatic unity has been completely achieved under conditions of the utmost harmony.

On Mercy of Victors. Subjected to analysis by military officers here, both allied and American, the terms of the Austrian armistice, which are said to be no more drastic than those for Germany, are interpreted to mean absolute surrender. Nothing is left to the good faith of the vanquished, and no restrictions or limitations are imposed upon the victors. These officers believe Germany, left alone, also must throw herself without reserve upon the mercy of the victors.

Final adjustments, territorial or otherwise, are all deferred to the peace conference for which the cessation of hostilities paves the way. The German appeal for an armistice was submitted on the basis of acceptance of the peace terms already outlined by President Wilson, and when the discussion starts the allies and the United States will be in a position to dictate its results. In fact, the real peace conference has been sitting at Versailles.

Must Face Debacle.

The judgment of army officers as to the situation on the western front in a military sense is that Germany must accept the armistice conditions or face a debacle of her armies. Signs of disintegration of the German forces facing the Franco-American lines have been evident for two days. The German official statement yesterday admitted an American breakthrough. If the breach is widened, the German armies will be cut in half as effectively as were the Austrian armies in Italy. They then may be crushed separately. So strong is the impression here that Germany will accept, that when word came that a statement was to be issued by the state department tonight, a Washington newspaper put out an extra saying the war was over, and Germany had surrendered. It caused no excitement.

The Versailles conference evidently did not sign the final draft of the armistice terms until late today. Just before 6 p.m. it was stated at the state department that the work had not been completed. An hour later word went out from the department that an important statement would be forthcoming at 9 p.m.

Throwing in the Monkey Wrench.

There's a nice muddle on in Mittel Europa. Hindenburg saying if Germany holds together she will yet be saved, the he knows, when he says it, it can't be! The German Government squealing because German towns are being bombed! Others blaming the dead Von Moltke and his crowd for starting the war.

Germany charging Hungary with blocking supplies on the way to Berlin! Russia refusing to pay Germany any more instalments of the indemnity that she signed for!

And the little nations grabbing any German ships they can now get their hands on! Turkey turning Turk on the Kaiser in the Black Sea!

The way for you to appreciate this condition of affairs is to lend to the Victory Loan.

The Imperial Limited!

The Czar of Russia and the Romanoffs, Old Czar Ferdinand of Bulgaria, and Emperor Karl of Austria and the Hapsburgs, all took passage by the Imperial Limited; also tried to stop at Berlin for Kaiser William and the Hohenzollerns to get on board.

ITALIANS CAPTURE 300,000 AUSTRIANS

Entire Army is Destroyed Before Armistice Takes Effect—Soldiers Continue to Flee in Disorder and Austrian Front Crumbles.

Washington, Nov. 4.—Three hundred thousand Austrian soldiers and not less than 5000 guns had been captured by the victorious Italian armies before the armistice went into effect at 3 o'clock this afternoon, said an official despatch tonight from Rome. This included all captures since the offensive began Oct. 24.

The soldiers of the once powerful Austrian army, the despatch said, continued to flee in disorder. Since the offensive started, 63 Austro-Hungarian divisions were put out of combat by 51 Italian divisions, three British and two French divisions, with Czechoslovak units and an American regiment.

"The war against Austria-Hungary, which was conducted under the high command of His Majesty the King of Italy, with an army inferior in number and still inferior means, since the 24th of May, 1918, has come to an end," said the despatch. "With unshakable faith and indomitable valor, the Italian army waged a continuous and hard war for a period of forty-one months, and won the stupendous battle begun the 24th of October and in which were engaged in their entirety all the resources of the enemy."

"So far the enemy has left in our hands 300,000 prisoners and not less than 5,000 guns. The soldiers of what used to be one of the most powerful armies in the world are now fleeing in disorder and without hope from the valleys which they had invaded with triumphant confidence."

"On Oct. 31, after having overcome on strongly fortified positions the resistance of powerful enemy rear-guards, our troops, consisting of 51 Italian divisions, three British and two French divisions, with Czechoslovak units and an American regiment, put out of combat 63 Austro-Hungarian divisions."

"The rapid and most daring advance of the 23rd army corps to the City of Trent, preventing the retreat of the defeated enemy troops, pressed from the west by the seventh army corps and from the east by the first, sixth and fourth army corps, determined yesterday the complete crumbling of the Austrian front."

"From the River Brenta to the sea, the irresistible impetus of the 12th, 10th and 8th army corps pressed inexorably the enemy retreating across the plains. The Duke of Aosta is advancing rapidly at the head of his invincible third army, anxious to return to the old positions which he had once heroically conquered."

"The Austro-Hungarian army is destroyed. It has suffered heavy losses in the tenacious resistance during the first days of the offensive and in the pursuit, it lost an enormous quantity of material and artillery."

"In Albania our advance guards have occupied Scutari."

DON'T QUIT BECAUSE THE KAISER'S QUITTING

THIS OLD MAN DID HIS DUTY

An old man who took out a bond for $100 during the 1917 Victory Loan went into one of the local banks yesterday and asked to see the manager. He told that official in quivering tones that he understood the time for paying the interest was due, and that he had no money. "But," he added, "I thought maybe I could raise the money on the bond and as soon as I get work again I'll pay it up." When he was told that there was no interest for him to pay, but that some money would be paid him, he could scarcely believe it. Then he decided to borrow enough to pay the first instalment on a 1918 bond.

DAVIES DO WELL.

Nearly $700,000 From Officials and Men. The Wm. Davies Company have won the honor flag in the Victory Loan campaign in competition, as 87 per cent. of the employees have taken bonds to the extent of 14 per cent. of the payroll. #### SOMEONE MISSED A GRAND CHANCE

Oh where is my wandering boy tonight? This was the song that the Victory Loan goddess was heard to sing as she watched the crowds that swept up one side of the street and down the other last night, keyed up with excitement and on the qui vive for something to happen. Like Mowbray the people of Toronto were looking for something to turn up last night. And nothing happened. What a chance a canvasser missed of getting a huge crowd in a few minutes.

BUYING BONDS FOR CHILDREN'S NEST EGGS

Little children in the Earlscourt district have been made beneficiaries of Victory Bonds by their parents who have taken the opportunity of investing in the bonds for them so that at the age of 21 they may have a nice little nest egg upon which to begin life.

Last Enemy Line in France Must Soon Be Left Behind

Germans Facing Franco-American Armies Have No Option Left But to Retreat.

With the French Army in France, Nov. 4.—The splendid success of the Franco-American operations in the Argonne opens the way to another field of battle, on the front of Mezieres-Sedan-Montmedy, which will cover the last line of retreat the Germans hold on French territory.

The Americans apparently have Stenay within their grasp, and when that place falls the Metz-Charleville railway will be under allied fire and the position of the German armies greatly endangered. The Germans facing the French first, tenth and fifth armies will have no option but to retreat, and then a favorable line of departure will be reached for development of a Franco-American attack toward Mezieres and Sedan.

G. H. Wood, the provincial chairman, handed out the following comments on the Ontario campaign: "We commenced the second week with a good day's return for the province, the total being $10,527,900, of which $2,788,000 comes from Toronto and $7,739,900 is reported from the rest of the province. This brings our grand total for the seven campaigns days up to $30,648,200, which compares with $23,744,000 in the last campaign, but leaves us about $7,000,000 short of our quota at this date. We made a record tonight, every one of our 68 units having wired or phoned their report before 11 o'clock.

"Five of our counties passed the million mark today, viz., Grey, Oxford, South Waterloo, Huron and Kent. Fifteen municipalities were also added to the list of those winning honor flags. This week we are asking our entire organization to concentrate upon canvassing teams subscriptions. To make the position of the canvassers clear in relation to where they ought to be, we are tonight, at our complete bulletin, giving only the percentages of the canvassing teams. "The county club returns given below are now reaching a very interesting stage."

War Summary.

THE DAY'S EVENTS REVIEWED

With the German armies defeated everywhere and threatening to fall to pieces, the German Government in 24 hours will have before it the allied terms of armistice. These in harshness resemble the terms imposed on Austria-Hungary. They are scarcely harsher, because the allies are scarcely in a position to enforce them. The German Government will have to accept the terms, for it is a matter of world power or downfall, so they may still hesitate for a few days at accepting their downfall, for world power they can never obtain. An early answer, however, is expected by the allied camps.

Three British armies, the first, third and fourth, made an attack on a 30-mile front between the Sambre Canal and the River Scheldt yesterday, broke deep into the German positions, took 10,000 prisoners and 200 guns, and continued the advance during the night. On the right the British stormed the Sambre Canal, advanced three miles to the east, captured Caillon, a considerable town and the village of Fenny, Hauteve, La Croix, Orly, Rues, and Mezières. The British attacked the west face of the Mormal Forest, broke through the German lines, and captured the village of Soyere, Preux-au-Bois, Recq, Futy and Louvignies in the western outskirts. A strong German force, however, penetrated the forest, reached Les Grands Pâturés and captured Louvignies in the centre of the woods. Near Le Queux, the German counter-attack repulsed the British, but the German position on the left of the British drove the Germans from the line of the Amelie River.

On the extreme right of the British, French troops launched an assault on the Sambre Canal, crossed the waterway, like the British, advanced eastward two miles, gained a footing on the east bank of the canal, and passed beyond Les Quilles, and passed beyond the village of Fenny, Hauteve, La Croix, Orly, Rues, and Mezières. ## Business and Rivalry!!

There are two classes of citizens who have so far in Toronto subscribed to the Victory Loan. They are the man of money, who was looking for a gilt-edged security—to him it was a matter of business, a matter of the 5 per cent. interest with the Canadian Government behind it and peace in sight. The other is the worker, who has been keyed up to buying by the organization of the firm for which he or she is working. To him or her it was a matter of competition, a matter of pride in seeing the factory or store or firm for which he or she worked get the honor flag before the rival firm did so.

Business and rivalry!

Is the Victory Loan of Canada for 1918 to be put across on such motives? Shame to the memory of the boys who fell at Ypres and Passchendaele. Well may the people of Toronto hang their heads and blush with mortification if such be the case.

Flesh and blood, not dollars and cents; patriotism and pride, not a decimal system of statistics is what is needed if Toronto is to raise the $80,000,000 that is asked at this time.

As well measure the deeds of the men of Toronto in France by quarts of blood and pounds of bones left whitening on the battlefields as to measure up the Victory Loan by percentages of quotas! The deeds of the men are measured in the tears of the wives, the pride of the mothers and the heart throbs of sisters. So should the Victory Loan be measured by the sacrifices and the small gifts and the deep-down resolve to give, give until no more gifts are possible.

Gifts? Yes, let the people look on their bonds more as gifts to their loved ones at the front than as securities, bonds, that will yield them so much miserable interest.

Why cheapen the loan by such drivel as kites, men hanging in mid-air by their limbs and such paltry vaudeville stunts? The open-mouthed populace who stare in wonderment at the hair-raising deeds performed on street corners seldom if ever enrich the treasury to any great extent.

With the wonderful war news of yesterday putting the idea of some kind of demonstration into the people of Toronto, what a marvelous opportunity for the Victory Loan publicity committee to have started a real live thanksgiving mass meeting in Toronto last night and, having enthused the people and put the real patriotic fervor into their souls, there might have been subscribed to the Victory Loan a sum out of the fulness of the heart that would have exceeded all the cold hard business proposition canvassing that could be done in many days.

EXEMPTION GIVEN TWO APPLICANTS

Twenty Applied, But Eighteen Were Rejected by Tribunal.

When a Military Service Act tribunal, with Judge Winchester presiding, held proceedings at the city hall yesterday, only two out of about 20 applications for military exemption were granted.

One of the applicants whose plea was granted was John Stanley Barker, 556 Church street, a Grand Trunk Railway air-brake expert. The G.T.R. stated it would take four years to train a man to replace him. His exemption papers date to May 4.

The other applicant who succeeded in gaining exemption was Harry A. Young, 100 Wright avenue. He was exempted until Dec. 4 because he needed time to dispose of a shoe business purchased last March. "You'll be back from the front in that time," Judge Winchester said when the applicant asked for six months' exemption.

MINISTERS CO-OPERATE ON FUEL CONSERVATION

Members of Toronto Ministerial Association in Conference With Commissioner.

Members of the Toronto General Ministerial Association had a conference yesterday afternoon with R. Home Smith, Ontario fuel commissioner. They were told positively that the supply of anthracite this winter would be so reduced that a consumption of 50 per cent. less would be necessitated. The ministers were asked by the fuel commissioner to co-operate in the efforts to relieve the fuel situation. Unless effective action was taken, the suffering among the public during the winter would be as much, or more, than that caused by the influenza epidemic.

Rev. R. J. D. Simpson, president of Toronto Methodist conference, stated that last winter the churches co-operated voluntarily and must do the same again this winter.

The fuel administrator would not state whether a cut of 25 per cent. in the churches would meet the requirements, as he did not wish to commit himself on that point. He wanted the utmost possible to be done in that direction.

It was stated that the Salvation Army had decided to reduce its anthracite consumption from 165 tons last year to 27 tons this winter. A resolution advocating co-operation was adopted. Among the suggestions which may be dealt with by the ministerial associations of the various denominations, or by individual churches, were that wherever possible stumorous coal be utilized, the number of week night meetings be reduced, and electric, oil and wood heaters be used.

President Wilson Sees the Need

IN a recent letter to President Wilson, this statement is made by Secretary McAdoo: "It is obvious that every part of our industrial and economic life should be maintained at its maximum strength in order that each may contribute in the fullest measure to the vigorous prosecution of the war."

"Our local public utilities must not be permitted to become weakened."

President Wilson said in his reply: "It is essential that these utilities should be maintained at their maximum efficiency and that everything reasonably possible should be done with that end in view."

In telephone service, as in other utilities, the costs of labor and all material for operation, betterment and upkeep have increased heavily and steadily. It has been necessary to increase radically and quickly both service and facilities.

A readjustment of rates, of minor importance to the individual subscriber, will enable the telephone company to keep up its standard of service.

The smoke from Canada's factories signals to the world that Canada's army of workers is "carrying on."

These fires must be kept burning

As long as Canada is busy at home she can continue her glorious part in the war.

Canada's factories are a source of great national strength to-day.

They send across the sea a steady stream of vitally needed war supplies.

They employ our people at home at good wages.

They enable Canadians to earn the money to carry on the war.

To let those factories slow down now would be a crime against the boys in France—a disaster to the great army of workers at home.

The fires under the boilers must be kept burning.

That is one of the great purposes of the Victory Loan 1918.

When you buy Victory Bonds, when you lend your money to Canada, you are supplying the capital on which our industries depend. You are contributing directly to our prosperity at home, and lending your personal weight to our mighty war effort in France.

Issued by Canada's Victory Loan Committee in co-operation with the Minister of Finance of the Dominion of Canada.

BRITISH STORM RIDGE NORTH OF ELSEGHEM

German Attempt to Hold High Ground Costs Dear—Easy Advance in Belgium.

With the Allied Forces in France, Nov. 4.—In the Ghent sector the French and American forces now hold Seveghem, Zwerende, St. Denis-Western, Aune and Trenchard. The line runs to Mariakerkebrug.

The Belgians hold the line from the canal to Langerbrugge, east of Ertvelde, west of Delkate, and thence to the Dutch frontier.

In the last few days the advance has been comparatively easy, owing to the enemy's withdrawal to the Scheldt, but the advance cost the Germans dear, especially in the Elsegheem area. The enemy fought strongly for the high positions north of this unqualified warfare was seen yesterday, when German machine gunners turned rapidly against civilians with household belongings seeking refuge behind the allied lines.

OPPOSITION STIFFENS TO AMERICAN ADVANCE

German Centre Continues to Give Way on Sedan Front, While Wings Hold.

With the American Army on the Sedan Front, Nov. 4.—The German resistance encountered by the American troops on virtually all parts of the front was the feature of the fighting today. The opposition was especially stubborn on the right and left flanks where the enemy brought up reinforcements and defended himself with machine guns and artillery.

The American left wing pushed forward slowly, but doggedly. The Americans occupied Verrieres and Ochies. The right wing worked its way down the River Meuse and reached a line between Beaufort and Beaulair, and north of Haies and Wiseppe. This flank met the most stubborn resistance from the enemy, who fought bitterly to prevent encroachment on the important Town of Stenay.

American troops in mass made no effort to cross the River Meuse. Patrols encountered heavy machine gun and artillery fire at every attempt. They remained at nightfall upon the west bank.

The centre moved so fast that they took prisoner German reinforcements coming to aid their comrades in the front lines.

Gen. Pershing's forces continued to take their toll of prisoners today in the wake of the retreating German army, and captured well above 5000.

PLAYS, PICTURES AND MUSIC

THE PALMOLIVE CO. OF CANADA, LTD.

PREMIERE OF "ASK DAD" AT ALEXANDRA THEATRE

"Ask Dad" had its premiere at the Royal Alexandra last night, and turned out to be a laudable and fairly successful attempt to produce something different in the line of musical comedies. The idea seems to be to get more music and less noise, more beauty and less nudity, more dancing and less gymnastics, more wit and less slang. The changes are not so marked, however, that old frequenters would feel out in the cold, while for those who have been seeking something a little better it is refreshing. There is no plot. If there was, of course, it would not be a musical comedy. But there is a location, Dr. Rockett's health farm, which becomes for the time being, the special haunt of dilettantes. The stage is still anti-prohibition, but the fun is quite amusing enough for a testotale.

Settling in both acts are achievements of real artistic value, and with the singularly charming costumes of the lady principals and the chorus form a series of very charming pictures. The music is light and bright, not as tuneless as Sullivan, but decidedly above the average, and the dancing contributed to this as much as the singing. There was less frolicsome, and much that was graceful and clever. Many of the chorus dances were novel and ingenious. The favorite numbers were "I Shall Be All Right Now," "Let's Pretend," "Come Where Nature Calls," "Phoebe Snow," "You Never Know," "Simply Shows It Can Be Done," "The Land Where Journey," and "If They Ever Parted From You." These were all enjoyed several times.

An aviation accident lands Bruce Allenby (Joseph Santley) and Bagshot, his mechanic (Joseph Allen), at the farm, Broadway West (Bank (Roy Atwell) arrives to make the cure. Dr. Rockett (Frederick Graham), who is very much heckled, and his wife (Miss Georgie Caine) and daughter Hilma (Miss Ivy Sawyer) are the home party. Jenny Wren (Miss Juliet Day) proves to be Broadway West's wife, and an under-chieftain completes the materials for the action. Dr. Rockett, for reasons which turn on his explanation that he can think of something to say but his wife would give him time to say it, confuses the identity of his guests. Jenny Wren makes much fun by pretending that the doctor is a lunatic, and Bagshot as a lunatic pretending he was Julius Caesar was very laughable. Mr. Atwell worked hard and great good.

Mr. Graham was excellent as the nervous and scheming doctor. Miss Day had the best of the comedy scenes and her wheedling rapid changes have a unique charm. "What are the wild wives saying?" is an example of her glee. Her song of "Phoebe Snow" "Who buys your ticket to Buffalo?" You're too good to be true, you know," is probably the most effective number of the score. When the performance has shaken down, it will be as lively a piece as Manhattan has sent us. Louis A. Hirsch has written an attractive score, and an orchestration of which is worth listening to. Guy Bolton and P. G. Wodehouse are responsible for the book and lyrics.

GEORGE MACFARLANE AS POPULAR AS EVER

Popular as ever is George MacFarlane, the man who not only sings sentimental and comic songs in a fine baritone voice, but who has also a host of stories that keep his audience in an unending bubble of laughter. MacFarlane headlined the bill at the matinee at Shea's yesterday, making a special hit with his patriotic song, "When You Come Home."

Lillian Shaw and a number of character songs which she interpreted in her own versatile way. McIntosh and the Musical Males are an attractive combination of Scotch dancers, singers and instrumentalists, who give an artistic and clever performance. Frank Gaby gave one of the cleverest exhibitions of ventriloquism conceivable, in a number of amusing impersonations.

Variety was given the program in the sketch "Show Me," presented by Fenner & Co. in which a bet is made between a woman and a man, that every woman, no matter how degraded, has a heart, but it took some time to prove it. Other numbers were John and Winnie Hennings in an amusing comedy feature; Mlle. Nadji in a posing offering; May Ritchie and Fred St. Onge in a Variety Duo, the British Gazette thru the Kinetograph, and the Victory Loan feature film, "A Mother's Heart."

SPLENDID PANTOMIME PRESENTED AT GRAND

Who has forgotten the thrill which came with the first reading of that most wonderful of all fairy stories, the story of the little neglected girl who in a night found all that her heart most desired. The pantomime "Cinderella" at the Grand Theatre this week tells the old story which is ever new most delightfully, and Miss Sue Parker, as "Cinderella," is as dainty and charming as one could wish for. Zara Clinton, as "Prince Charming," is as gallant and handsome as a prince should be.

The story itself is so old that it is unnecessary to repeat it, and is interspersed with some clever and catchy songs, "The Land of I-Dunno-Where," sung by Cinderella in the first act, being particularly good, while "My Meatless Day," sung by the Baron, Cinderella's father, made a real hit. Many local and timely hits on passing events were most appreciated by the audience.

Herbert Sydney and Harry Hoyland, as "Tobacco" and "Peppercorn," the ugly sisters, and John Barrett-Lennard, as the father, were as funny a trio as have been seen in Toronto for some time.

The dancing of Miss Blanche Young was particularly graceful and pleasing. The company is well balanced, and their interpretation of the old fantasy is a most pleasing one.

BILLIE BURKE LEADS GOOD BILL AT LOEW'S

Headlined by Billie Burke, in a clever production of "In Pursuit of Polly," Loew's Theatre presented an exceptionally well balanced bill this week. Confronted with the problem of choosing a husband from three men, all of whom profess to be in love with her, Polly is at her wit's end as to how to choose one from the other. She finally decides on a race with motor cars and speed boats and the man who is fortunate enough to catch her wins her for his bride. Many interesting and exciting situations crop up during the hot pursuit. She is mistaken for a German spy. She is arrested by Colby Mason of the secret service, who after the skin is unpeeled, ultimately wins her for his bride. Thomas Melighan is the leading man.

Leading the vaudeville is McKay's Scotch Trio, featuring the jazz bagpipes and drum band. The number is a novelty, and is superior to anything of this type ever attempted. Anderson and Goines have an original dark comedy act. Barlow and Hurst are good singers. Alexander Brothers and Evelyn have something new in a far-reaching comedy act. Albert and Rogers are versatile artists. Homer and Dubard complete the bill with their musical skit "The Song Salesman."

MADGE KENNEDY STARS IN THE STRAND BILL

"The Kingdom of Youth" with charming Madge Kennedy at the Strand Theatre, is one of those delightful little plays that make every one who sees it say, "It is a gem." It is a play of two very youthful people who are very much in love and who marry on the quiet. The young husband (Tom Moore) reveals to his wife his guardian's widow that she wishes him to come and manage his estate. Jimmy leaves the young wife and goes to the widow's home. Mrs. Rice professes to be an elderly lady of the vampire type who tries to steal the affections of the young husband. When the young wife appears it makes no difference to her, and a series of amusing situations arise, caused by the attempts of the passive widow to make herself fascinating. She does succeed in causing the rift with the wife, but it is finally squared away when the little life almost loses her life thru drowning in an attempt to make her husband jealous, and they both promise to be good ever after.

The Victory Loan bill should make its appeal to all. Wallace Reid presents "His Extra Bit."

DOROTHY DALTON SEEN IN PLAY AT THE ALLEN

Dorothy Dalton in "Green Eyes," the feature film at the Allen Theatre, is given a splendid vehicle for her many charms. The story is one in which jealousy, the green-eyed monster talks abroad seeking whom he will get within his clutches. Into the home of the master of Hunderland he comes, and chuckles when he gets its master within his grip.

Dorothy Dalton as the mistress of the beautiful estate is given some wonderful backgrounds when the hunters the little green-eyed god gets the buffy-haired girl in his clutches, and her jealousy of her fiancé and his brother's wife, while unfounded, leads to some terrible results.

Several Victory Loan propaganda pictures, starring Douglas Fairbanks and Dorothy Dalton, are also shown. Douglas is giving a number of autographed photos which he will personally mail to anyone purchasing a bond thru the Allen Theatre.

STILL THINK BILLY KELLY IS CHAMPION

Polson, His Former Owner, Saw Him Defeated by Eternal at Laurel.

A New York exchange says: The defeat of J. K. L. Ross' crack two-year-old, Billy Kelly, by Eternal, in their matched race at Laurel on Monday, was a decided disappointment, and few can be found who will admit that Mr. McDaniel's son of Sweep is a better colt than the Canadian-owned youngster. The race has since been a popular subject of discussion in local turf circles, and every one seems to have a convincing argument as to which of the two was the better horse.

"With riders reversed, Billy Kelly could have won the race," says one of the most popular of the local turf writers, "but he was not a commanding lead in the first quarter," is another argument advanced for the downfall of the son of Dick Valley.

W. P. Polson, the former owner of Billy Kelly, and J. H. Madigan, president of the Niagara Race Association, at Fort Erie, made the trip from Buffalo to Mr. Madigan's express him to see the race, of the opinion that Billy Kelly was being quite up to the top of his form, and is not inclined to blame today's defeat for what was thought to be a poor ride.

According to advice from Baltimore, Eternal will not be seen under colors again this year, it having been announced by his owner that he will be immediately turned out in anticipation of a "prep" for the Kentucky Derby next year.

This means that the two great colts will not come together again this season, and the question of the two-year-old championship of 1918 will remain undecided in the minds of Canadian turfites, at least.

The superior jockeyship displayed by Schuttiger on Eternal over his rival, when the colt was in the struggle for supremacy, nevertheless, Sande told his race in the hands of the veteran, permitted Schuttiger to secure a commanding lead with Eternal. When it came to the final drive in such a case, there is no disputing that the veteran is capable of outwitting his lighter and inexperienced opponent.

Jockey Sande, after the defeat of Billy Kelly, was the most downcast of any of the stable connections, not even excepting Mr. Ross, with whom Billy Kelly is a great favorite. The boy was pale and trembling when he had been weighed, and was returning to the paddock. It was no disgrace for him or his horse, however, for both horses ran a wonderful race, and Billy Kelly made a remarkable showing.

"Of course, I am disappointed," said Commander Ross, "but I should have been glad if the race had been a bit farther. I believe Billy Kelly was wearing Eternal out at the end. Of course, I would be glad to run the same race over again, but, naturally, no such thing is likely to happen."

Montreal, Nov. 4.—If there were anything else necessary to emphasize the local downfall of Canada's national game, lacrosse, after last season's fiasco, could be furnished by the spectacle of a number of lacrosse sticks for sale in the window of a second-hand store on St. James street. These sticks, which a couple of years ago could be bought for a dollar and a half apiece, now command, when in good condition, from $4.50 to $5 apiece.

The Patriotic Pay-Roll and the Honor Emblem

Seventy-five per cent. of your employees subscribing ten per cent. of your pay-roll puts your establishment in the 100% class and wins the Honor Emblem. Whether you employ five or five thousand people, your store, shop, warehouse or manufactory is eligible---and the duty is just as plain.

Look here, Mr. Employer—

Do not let your enthusiasm stop at your own Subscription to the Victory Loan 1918, for from the patriotic standpoint you will have done your bit "to the utmost" only when you have seen to it that every last employee on your pay-roll has subscribed to the Victory Loan—HAS BOUGHT VICTORY BONDS.

What About it?

Will you take it as your duty—make it your business that "to the utmost" gets its full meaning through your effort?—

"Over the top."

"Lend as they fight."

These slogans are not idle words!

They are as full of meaning as your heart is full of love of your country—love of your home—love of your loved ones—and it may take your greatest effort—and the last dollar you can lend—or influence—to bring them to the fullest realization.

Heed the Impulse!

Yes, of course, you are a busy man, and without shifting responsibility for the work being well and truly done, pick a "key" man—or woman—in your employ to represent you, and see to it that they get not less than 75 per cent. of your employees and 10 per cent. of your annual pay-roll.

Organize To-day!

Organize for the 100 per cent. class and win the Honor Emblem for your employees.

Your influence—enthusiasm—and their co-operation will do it.

Help pave the way to Victory—and to your continued prosperity.

Altogether, to-day! You and your employees

Canada is Behind Her
Fighting Sons
With All Her Might!

---and intends to stay behind them until the job is finished right!

Don't be content to give the cause your moral support—that isn't sufficient.
Buy a bond. Let us get behind the boys with our dollars as well as with our hearts.

It's good patriotism and first rate business. You were never offered an investment with greater security. You've never been able to so combine patriotism and investment.

You can't buy too many--- buy up to your limit and then some more. Every dollar goes to back up our boys in their drive to the Rhine.

The Loan of this district must be over subscribed. We must show ourselves to be legion of fighters. Our dollars must be mobilized for fighting.
