GREEN-EYED JOHNSTON

President J. A. Johnson of the Halifax Board of Trade is doing more to create illfeeling between the city and St. John than all the other people of both cities. The Halifax papers which print his libellous statements could be better employed, in an interview which the Chronicle printed on Saturday President Johnson said: "The C. P. R. purchasing the D. A. R. means that some of the large passenger boats will go beyond Halifax next winter, which will relieve the nightmare which the officials of that road had every time those boats had to navigate the Bay of Fundy."

This is equivalent to saying that the approach to St. John by way of the Bay of Fundy is dangerous. Yet since the winter port business at St. John began, the C. P. R. steamers and the steamers of other lines have come and gone with greater safety and less fear than they experience in the fog outside of Halifax. There were 14 sailings in the winter port trade of St. John in the season just closed, and the testimony of the steamship men is that the Bay of Fundy is safe and St. John easy of approach. President Johnson has been asleep. He deals in exploded charges and seeks to arouse forgotten prejudices. If he hopes to advance the interests of Halifax by slandering a neighboring port he has less business than should be possessed by the president of a Board of Trade. When in St. John recently he amused St. John people by whining over the proposal to construct a dock here when there is a dock at Halifax. If the president of the Halifax Board of Trade will take a little friendly advice he will drop his references to St. John and the Bay of Fundy and dig up some legitimate reasons for advancing the claims of his own city. Petty jealousy and abuse of a neighbor does not add to the dignity of a leading citizen of a city as great as St. John. Johnson believes Halifax to be St. John dipped down into its pockets to prove that this was a safe winter port, and to build up its trade. It did not abuse its neighbors and pray for some railway corporation to come along to show the way and shoulder the burden.

HALLEY'S COMET

Halley's comet has been this way before. It will doubtless come again. Astronomers knew when and where to look for it, because its course in the heavens has been mapped, and it moves pretty close to schedule time. Within a few months a comet was visible in our heavens, and attracted very little attention. It was a celestial wanderer of an old acquaintance, appearing at long intervals and pursuing an orderly course. For two reasons the people of the earth are not fearful of any disaster to this planet. The first is that they have faith in the Director of the affairs of the universe, and the second is that past experience has shown this celestial visitor to be subject to the reign of law. It is of course conceivable that some body rushing through space might collide with the earth and shatter both to fragments, but there is no reason to expect such an event, or to assume that the universe is merely a chaos of blind force. Halley's comet will come and go, and those astronomers are probably right who say that its passing will have no appreciable effect, even upon the atmosphere of the earth. Persons having paper falling due on Wednesday may as well make the provision usual in such cases.

SOME PLAIN TALK

At the present time much is being said in St. John about the importance of home investment. To "think something, say something and do something for St. John" is the motto pressed upon public attention. This is the new "spirit of the east." There is an article in the last issue of the Maritime Merchant which bears on this point, and which is worthy of universal consideration. Referring to the enormous losses suffered by maritime provinces people in foreign mining and other ventures, it says:

"We have frequently had to deplore the disposition of our people to invest in distant enterprises. Now that the question is, 'Doctor-No.' Just think of the to the fore again we wish to ask why our people as a whole, all over the Maritime Provinces, are so ready to invest in things that they know nothing about, except what they have learned from a clever fiscal agent, and at the same time often look askance at home enterprises, even when they have obviously good chances of success and are promoted by men of integrity and patriotic purpose.

"It seems that there are people who are afraid to invest money at home. They have a strange faith that enables them to trust people of whose integrity and ability they know nothing, and a strange distrust of people whose character they know to be perfectly sound. They just fear—that is all—to invest their money at home. This habit of thought ought to be cured by repeated experience. It ought to be displaced by a willingness to take chances for patriotic reasons.

"There are other people who will not invest in local enterprises because they can't get certain others that have failed. It doesn't occur to them that there are industries which succeed, and that the cause of the failures in the one instance, is just the difference between the men who have conducted the failures and the men who have conducted the successes. Either that, or a hopeful enterprise has been choked off because this senseless fear has prevented people from subscribing the necessary capital.

"The time to have a wholesale renunciation is at hand. Let the fearful man forsake his ways and let the man who dwells on failures turn from his habit of thought; and let him return to a normal, healthy-minded, sensible spirit of enterprise. There are lots of possibilities for small industrial requirements but small capital, and yet would pay well and in the aggregate employ a large number of people. No doubt some such investment opportunity will occur here soon. Will the people embrace it? Hitherto their thrift has lined the pockets of a few foreign scoundrels. Perhaps they will yet learn to encourage the promoter of home enterprises and put their savings back into the country out of which they have taken them."

Another citizen in today's issue of the Times-Star urges the importance of a King Edward memorial playground for the children of St. John.

If the automobile service on the Millidgeville route will save off some of the horses seen there on rush days, it should be decorated with the medal of the S. P. C. A.

What the liquor interests most desire is a division in the ranks of their opponents. Any such controversy in St. John would therefore weaken the cause of local option or of total prohibition.

The Standard is wrong. Hon. Dr. Page by does not stand in the way of a rail road from St. John to Grand Falls, connecting with the Grand Trunk Pacific. He is against a cheap line connecting two points on the C. P. R.

The removal of the body of King Edward from Buckingham Palace to Westminster Hall tomorrow will be one of the most imposing funeral pageants in the history of London.

The boy who received a gold watch for the daring rescue of a child will cherish the gift, but he has a greater in the possession of a courage and presence of mind which will enable him to meet successfully the difficulties of life.

Sir Thomas Shingnessy confirms the statement that there is likely to be a change of ownership of the Dominion Atlantic. The new owners will be "favorable to the Canadian Pacific." Such a change would mean progress and development.

The comments of the starburst press will cause some uneasiness in London, during the stay there of so many crowned heads; but the police arrangements will doubtless be so complete as to prevent any overt acts on the part of any of these fanatics.

The Toronto Telegram has misgivings, it says—"Hope these pensions that are being planned for R. L. Borden in Ontario will turn out better than the pensions that were arranged for Mr. Borden in Quebec and didn't come off."

The oil and gas wells in Albert county near Moncton, show greater value with the progress of development work. It is suggested that the gas might be piped to St. John as well as Moncton, and help to solve some industrial problems here. If the deposits are great enough there are vast possibilities associated with their exploitation.

Evidence is not lacking that there is plenty of money in St. John for worthy purposes. In one of the churches yesterday it was stated that recent extensive improvements had all been paid for, the church was out of debt, and had a building fund of $1,700. In another church it was announced that $9,500 had been pledged absolutely toward paying off the debt, and another $2,000 conditionally.

DIDN'T MIND IT.
The preacher—"Doesn't it worry you to have so many patients die on your hands?"
Young Doctor—No. Just think of the experience I am getting.

"TOUJOUR AMOUR"

(Edmund Clarence Steadman)
Prithce tell me, Dimple-Chin,
At what age doth love begin?
You bid me love you ever since
Summer three, my fairy queen,
But a miracle of sweetest
So oppositely, she retreats,
Show the little archer there,
Hidden in your pretty hair,
When didst thou learn to win?
Prithce tel me, Dimple-Chin!

"Oh, the rosy lips reply,
"I can't tell you if I try,
"Is so long I can't remember,
Ask some younger how the time
Toll, O tell me, Grizzled-Face
Do your heart and head keep pace?
When does hoary Love expire?
When do frosts put out the fire?
Can its embers burn below
All that chill December snow?
Are you still soft hands to press,
Bony heads to smooth and bless?
When does Love give up the chase?
Tell, O tell me, Grizzled-Face!

"Ah!" the wise old lips reply,
"You'll may pass and strength may die;
But of Love I can't foretoken:
Ask some older age than I!"

NOT ALONE.

Two young women went to the matinee. They could not get seats together, but were told at the box office that each could have an end seat, centre aisle, in adjoining rows, and most likely somebody who came alone and had a chair next to one of them would obligingly exchange seats. Near the close of the first act, one of the young women timidly whispered to the heavy, middle-aged man at her side, who had been sitting stiffly and looking straight ahead.

MR. W. F. ROUSELDER
Gunnar Knudsen, erstwhile premier and now vice president of Norway's parliament, who received a reliable home report for using his name and quoting him as a partisan in Norwegian politics.

ROOSEVELT IS KNOCKED

(From the New Haven Journal Courier, Iud.)
In organizing a Norwegian Annapolis club, Mr. Roosevelt can hardly be congratulated, and it is deplorable that he should abuse into its membership a distinguished statesman of that country, a former premier. It is impossible not to believe that the regrettable incident was wholly the result of Mr. Roosevelt's indiscretion and that the apology he forced from the distinguished son of Norway was made out of sheer politeness. Mr. Roosevelt's friends and admirers at home have endured with patience his not infrequent details of statements attributed to him, but it is not easy to do this when he selects as his victim a resident of another country, whose representatives at the time showing their respect for this country while entertaining him as its representative. Obviously, Mr. Roosevelt has not learned to control his tongue, as for the harm he has done Mr. Knudsen, that can only be calculated by the abuse he is receiving from the newspaper, four columns of belated huzzies.

World's Longest Lawsuit

The concluding statement has just been made of the longest lawsuit in the world, which has been pending in the courts of Mexico for the past three hundred and forty years. The suit was over the boundary lines between two towns, Yodocoame and Munn, and both towns held titles to some land, the conflicting grants being made by the colonial government. The titles of private properties were also involved.
The suit dragged on for the first hundred years, several legal steps being taken, and two more centuries passed and still the suit was unsettled. All during this time the residents of both cities were arrayed against each other, and many conflicts have taken place since the matter was first brought to the eyes of the Mexican courts. The matter was finally laid before the people of the two towns and, after many conferences, a settlement of the case was made, a settlement of the case was formally dissolved. President Diaz had a hand in the settlement, being a native of the town of Yodocoame.

MODERN BARBER POLES

The Revolving Pole, Electric or Wind Driven—Steel and Cast Iron
(From the New York Sun)
Electricity within recent years has been applied to the barber pole. The electric or revolving barber pole has for a middle section a glass cylinder that is two feet or more in height by about eight inches in diameter, this section being supported on an ornamental base or on a stout brass rod rising from the sidewalk. The glass section of the pole is surmounted by an ornamental cap.
Within the glass section of the pole is another cylinder made of a thin, lightweight, translucent material, upon which are painted the traditional spiral stripes of red, white and blue, the familiar sign of the barber. This inner cylinder is pivoted top and bottom and made to revolve by means of a tiny electric motor attached to the top. Current is carried to this motor on a wire leading from an electric light fixture within the building and up out of sight made the pole's base. Within the inner cylinder of the electric revolving barber pole are two translucent electric lights by which the pole can be illuminated at night.
The electric barber pole, without a base support, is also made in the form of a bracket pole which can be attached to the front of the building and both these styles of revolving barber poles are also made to be wind-driven. Instead of a motor within it, with wiring connecting, the wind-driven revolving pole has surmounting its ornamental cap a gilded windmill in form no unlike a globe-shaped ventilating fan. The windmill is attached to the pole's inner striped cylinder, and when the breezes turn the mill it turns the inner cylinder.
Formerly all barber poles were made of wood, as still great numbers are; and if a wooden barber pole is made of sound timber and set where the base will keep dry it will last for many years but if the pole is set where water collects at its foot it will rot there.
A few years ago there was produced a

Sorry They Couldn't

The teacher in charge of the primary department at a school in West Philadelphia was talking the other day about her work and her pupils.
"They are dear youngsters," she said, "but they sometimes make curious remarks. Several times lately I have had occasion to reproach a little boy who isn't bad, but who is very mischievous and annoying. He is always getting into trouble and making a disturbance."
"The other day," he had been more than usually uproarious, and I was very tired. Instead of scolding or punishing him, I began, in rather exasperated tone, to talk to him."
"Tom," I said, "I'm afraid I'm never going to meet you in Heaven!"
He looked up with the most shocked face. "Why, teacher," he said, "isn't that just too bad. Whatever have you done?"—Philadelphia Times.

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

"BE noble, and the nobleness that lies in other men, sleeping but never dead, shall rise in majesty to meet their own. I heard two newspaper men talking about their experiences in the profession the other day.

One said: "The more I see of men the more I like dogs. The set of half-baked cranks, hypocritical, overbearing men and women I've met since I've been in this business makes me ashamed of being human. I've a good mind to go on a long ocean voyage, and see if I can't get shipwrecked on a desert island."

The other said: "I guess you've had bad luck. I didn't know there were so many obliging, well educated, interesting people in the world as I've met since I took to newspaper work."

Now I disagree with what the second man said on one point. I don't think the first man had had bad luck at all.

I have an idea he simply got exactly what he expected, exactly what his own mental attitude called for, very much what he gave.

"I don't believe most of us realize to what a large extent we get what we expect of the world."

"Courtesy begets courtesy," says someone. "The surly man finds a world of disagreeable, disobligeing people; how good everyone in the world is," rejoices the kindly soul.

And yet it's the very same world.

And that isn't true of courtesy alone, by any means. Suspicion begets dishonesty, trust begets honor, ill temper and impatience, hypocrisy begets hypocrisy, and an overbearing disposition begets the desire to overbear, and so on down the infinite line of vice and virtue.

When Judge Lindsey has to send one of the boys whom he tries in his famous juvenile court to jail, he gives the boy the money necessary for fares and sends him absolutely alone and unwatched to the prison. "Sometimes the boy has had to travel many miles to his destination, and yet had though this too is, I believe it is in but three cases in over one hundred, that the judge's attitude of trust has failed to result in the boy an answer of trustworthiness that carried him straight to his prison cell."

Elbert Hubbard writes, in description of his wife:

"Her mental attitude brings out the best in each, so in her presence the boor becomes gentle, and the loud and coarse moderate their voices and are on their good behavior. She carries with her an aura in which vulgarity cannot thrive nor pretence flourish."

I think this is one of the highest compliments a man or woman could receive.

Are you a cynic? Do you find most of the world deceitful and self seeking? If you do, suppose, instead of being proud of your cynicism, you remind yourself that the world the mirror of life shows you, is only a more or less accurate reflection of the little world within you.

For:

"Life, like a mirror, both but show
The moving shows that pass in view; Give to the world the best you have—
The world's its best will give to you."

ACTS DIRECTLY ON THE LIVER

WELCOME TO LATE KING WHEN IN ST. JOHN

St. John, N. B., May 14, 1910

Good night sweet Prince
And flights of Angels sing thee to thy Rest!"

It is but natural and right that reminiscences of the notable visit of our late King Edward VII. to St. John, "the City of the Loyalists," should be of interest and value to all our citizens, but particularly to those still living who participated in the festivities connected with the King's visit. Fifty years ago, to who has been just summoned the trust to the court of the King of Kings, and who was then Prince of Wales.

I recall to mind the great enthusiasm displayed on that occasion and our own say that I have never seen it equalled since. I certainly have never been so impressed and have special pleasure in recalling the fact of my taking part as a lad of ten years old, connected with St. John, in the great gathering in the hall of the United Sunday Schools of St. John, Portland and Carleton, on the Judge Chipman grounds. Two conspicuous figures in our school group were our revered rector, "Parson" Robert Middlemore, worthy church clerk, Robert Middlemore, such cheering and hurraing and such a bounding of the King's carriage at the gate, and walked up the avenue leading to the Chipman residence. How handsome and how brightly he looked, as smiling and bowing he passed through our joyous and well ordered ranks, and how justly we sang our ode of welcome. This really being the "National Anthem," "God Save the Queen," with one or two verses subjoined for the special honor of our royal guest, our queen's son.

At the moment recall all of these verses, but I remember these words: "Hail Prince of Brunswick's line, 'New Brunswick shall be thine, 'Still loyal true and brave, 'Here Britain's flag shall wave, 'And Britons may to save 'A nation's heir, 'God bless the Prince of Wales.'" The latter line was in evidence everywhere throughout the city and suburbs, on flags and banners aloft and astir, on house and shop windows and most notably on arches, in connection with that famous talisman and emblem of victory, won by our Prince of Wales' predecessor, the renowned Black Prince at the battle of Crecy, the crest of three black plumes with the exquisite appropriate and characteristic motto: "Ich Dien" ("I Serve").

Fifty years have passed away since that day, doubtless but a small proportion of the merry spirited Sunday school scholars and their parents could now be recalled here. Many "have gone before," across the Bar! "Some are scattered along the shore of the Seven Seas," as is the way with many of "the men of our breed," and those of us who may still be clustered around the "old home town," "Our City of the Loyalists," have our heads frosted by the winter snows of half a century, yet know that all of those living, still continue to cherish the lesson so impressively taught that day to:

"Fear God, 'Love the Brotherhood,' Honor the King, 'Love the memory of the great, Apostolic Saint Paul, are the dying words of our Saviour, Jesus Christ, King Edward VII. 'I think I have done my duty!' He can have no more fitting epitaph in addition to his well earned title of 'Peacemaker.'"

In conclusion, may we say in Tempus's most beautiful words: "Christ Present him, 'God Receive him.'" And so mote it be!"

RAILWAY PIONEER DEAD

Mr. Forse Took Part in the Building of the I. C. R. in New Brunswick

After taking a strenuous part in the railway development of the Dominion, Edwin Forse, C. E., died last week in the Hospital for Incurables, Toronto. One of the most prominent railway engineers in Canada, Mr. Forse took part in the building of the Intercolonial Railway in New Brunswick. He was with the construction staff of the C. P. R. when the line was carried across the Prairies and over the Rocky Mountains. The Crows Nest Pass Railway owes its share to the work of Mr. Forse, for he was engaged on its construction with M. A. Haney, remaining until the Canadian Pacific Company took over the line.

In 1881 Mr. Forse married Miss Nellie Brough, whose death took place some years ago. About eight years ago Mr. Forse was stricken down by a paralytic shock, from which he never recovered. He leaves one son, E. B. Forse, who resides at Niagara Falls, N. Y., and who is manager of the Cataract Hair Cloth Co.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Nearly Every One in Albion Mich., Praises Mi-o-na the Money Back Cure for Indigestion

Albion Mich.—The people in Albion are elated to an unusual extent because of the many and remarkable cures which have lately been made by Mi-o-na, a dyspepsia cure with a worldwide reputation. Everybody is endorsing Mi-o-na. Here is what some respected citizens say:

Mrs. E. J. Gagnier says: "Mi-o-na cured me of a stomach trouble that had bothered me for some time."

W. H. Hatt says: "I had suffered for months without help. I used Mi-o-na and since using it three years ago I have been free from the distress."

Mr. Emma Overy says: "For months I had dyspepsia, had much distress, pains and nausea. Nothing would relieve or cure till I used Mi-o-na."

Chas. R. Wason, a resident in St. John, tells the wonderful dyspepsia cure Mi-o-na for 20 cents a large box and thinks so well of it, that he will give you money back if it doesn't cure."

Mrs. Emma Overy says: "For months I had dyspepsia, had much distress, pains and nausea. Nothing would relieve or cure till I used Mi-o-na."

MOVE AGAINST CLARK AS NEXT SPEAKER OF HOUSE

Washington, May 16—Definite plans are under way to prevent the election of Champ Clark as speaker of the next House in the event that the Democrats are in the majority. This statement was made today by a Democrat who has heretofore been regarded as one of Clark's followers.

"There are between thirty and forty Democrats," said this member today, "who have already pledged themselves to vote against Clark for speaker, and there will be many more before the next congress. The plans to prevent Clark's election have gone so far that at least one Democrat will announce his candidacy for the speakership in a few weeks."

It is declared that the overthrow of Clark will be attempted by a coalition between disgruntled Southern and Northern Democrats, the latter being under the leadership of Fitzgerald of New York.

PIPE GAS FROM ALBERT TO CITY

Then we have the St. John and Kennebec rivers, affording unexcelled opportunity for pleasure excursions, amid beautiful scenery; also we have many lakes, at short distances from the city, which are easily reached by good roads for driving, automobileing.

Sidewalks

St. John has nearly 100 miles of wide, roomy, well-kept, asphalt sidewalks, which are far ahead of some to be found in more pretentious cities of Canada, and in the United States. Has an alert and efficient department, excelled by few cities of its size. Has a never-failing and abundant supply of good, clear, cold water for all purposes. Has a large number of first class, wholesale and retail stores, in all lines, supplying everything at reasonable prices.

The country in the immediate vicinity produces abundantly the most vegetables and small fruits, which, with eggs, poultry, good milk, and the best quality of butter obtainable anywhere, are brought to the city every day, fresh, which makes living cheap; these, and other features, ought to make St. John one of the best summer resorts in Canada, if not on the American continent, and I think the city ought to be advertising more as a summer resort, than as a winter port.

Good Spring Tonic

"We have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla for a spring tonic and as a result, I feel better than I have for some time. I went to bed last night and in the morning I would feel as if I had a new spring in my step. I had a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, which I took. I feel better than I have for some time. I had finished that bottle. We always have some of Hood's Sarsaparilla in the house." B. J. ROSS, St. John, N. B.

There is no "good" medicine. In-stead of having "good" medicine, Get it today in a usual liquid form or chocolate tablets called Sarsapats.

THE END OF DE JANON KIDNAPPING CASE

Philadelphia, Pa., May 15—As the last echo of a sensational episode of the Grand Jury, there is a certainty that a much larger city will have to be built in the near future. I predict that you will see built, on the north, and east of Courtenay Bay, inside of ten years, a city of 20,000 to 30,000 population, and the buildings will be of better construction and of better architectural design than the present St. John. This addition to the city will be necessary to accommodate the increase of population, which is sure to follow the building of the railways, and the other improvements now assured, and I feel confident that an investment in real estate in that direction is certain to prove highly remunerative, and will also increase the value of real estate over the city.

There is another opportunity for a paying investment, and one which would add greatly to the prestige of the city, and which has long been needed; it is the building of a large first-class modern hotel and some of our present hotel men had better wake up and get alive to their opportunities, for if they wait much longer they will find that some of the railway companies will be ahead of them, and put these among the back numbers.

CURED OF CONSTIPATION

Mr. Andrews praises Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills.

Mr. George Andrews of Halifax, N. S., writes:

"For two years I have been troubled with chronic constipation. This ailment after every single-handed, and I have been a victim to the many ill-effects that constipation brings in its train. Medicine after medicine I had taken in order to find relief, but to no avail. It was indeed a lucky day for me, for I was so impressed with the statements made that I determined to give them a fair trial.

They have regulated my stomach and bowels. I am cured of constipation, and I claim they have no equal as a medicine."

For over half a century Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills have been curing constipation and clogged, inactive kidneys, with all the ailments which result from them. They cleanse the whole system and purify the blood. Sold everywhere at 25c a box.

MORNING CALLS

While responding to a call for a slight fire in the premises of the Maritime Dairy Co., Union and Sydney streets, last night, Chief Kerr's wagon, driven by Alex. Chisholm, collided with a street car. The wheels of the wagon went through the car windows, but no one was injured. The accident occurred at the corner of Carleton and Princess streets.

In the report of the police after taking the census of unlicensed dogs, it is shown that in the Southern division there are 625, and in the Western division, 123.

Mrs. Elmer Shaw has been reported by policeman John Smith for plucking flowers in the Church of England Burial Ground, Westmorland road.

Rev. W. B. Robinson expects to interview Judge Wallace in Halifax this month on the subject of an industrial university for the maritime provinces, supported by the governments of Newfoundland and the maritime provinces. Its purpose would be to assist boys, who are going wrong.

Yesterday morning very Rev. W. F. Chapman, in St. John the Baptist church, announced that the building was out of debt. The recent high tide brought in $1,267.65. There is a building fund of $7,790.

As a result of the preliminary vote on the subject of church union, affecting the Congregational, Methodist and Presbyterian churches, thirty-three ballots in the Congregational church were in favor of the union vote, against, scarcely half the number voted.

Lawrence Sullivan son of Mr. and Mrs. John Sullivan, of Duke street, was killed in Boston on Thursday, having been struck by a freight train. He was about twenty-nine years of age, left here three years ago. For a time he worked about the Elliot Hotel, received on their premises an address and a gold headed cane for the former and a gold brooch for the latter.

DEGREES MEAN MUCH IN GERMANY
High Standard for Doctor's Degree in Philosophy Required

"A man who can get a doctor of philosophy degree at Leipzig, Berlin, or Jena, ought to amount to something in a world where brains count, for the attainment of that distinction calls for an amount of study and mental digging and exact scholarship that the youth of our Yankee colleges have no conception of," said Dr. G. Willis, of Chicago, at the Stafford.

DEPENDS CHIEFLY ON THE CROPS
Henry Clews Discusses the Financial Outlook in the United States—J.S. Bache & Co. on the Situation

New York, May 14.—The outlook in this country depends chiefly upon the crops. Thus far the outlook in this respect is satisfactory. Some damage was done by recent unfavorable weather, but only in recent months, and the injury was much exaggerated. Should the results of the crops be such as to give us a very considerable surplus, the consumer who has been compelled to pay inordinately high prices during the past year, it is true that Western farmers show a more conservative spirit than was anticipated a month ago, and somewhat higher rates of money are expected to prevail at the West in consequence.

Medicine Free in Every Case Where it Fails to Relieve

Chocolate As a Stimulant
(From the London Chronicle).
Chocolate, according to Balmie, is even more dangerous as a stimulant than tea or coffee. The decline of Spain from the proud position it once held is ascribed to the introduction of chocolate, and its speedy adoption by all classes as an habit is ascribed to the fact that it is a stimulant. The British Government, Balzac test, as reprieved three criminals condemned to death, who were allowed to live long a man could live nourished exclusively on tea, coffee or chocolate.

A NEW STORY

The Furnace of Gold; Opening Chapters in the Times-Star Wednesday

A new serial story of absorbing interest, as its name indicates, will be begun in the Times-Star on Wednesday. It is well told and will be found to grip the attention at the outset and hold it to the close.

Judgment will be given tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock in the case of Albert McIntyre, charged with assault on Policeman Lucas in the discharge of his duties.

As far as could be learned today, what looked like a fire serious nature in the vicinity of Silver Falls was brush burning.
