BRAZIL HAS MUTINY IN THE NAVY

Two Ships Seized and Rio
Janiero is Shelled
By Them

OFFICERS KILLED

Guns Turned, Too, on Loyal Ships
Fighting Ceased Last Night
With Rebel Crews Still in Possession of the Battleships

Rio Janeiro, Brazil, Nov. 24.—The crews of the battleships of the Brazilian navy mutinied yesterday. They turned their guns upon the loyal ships and also threw a few shells into the city. During the outbreak several officers were killed. The fighting ceased at night, but the rebels remained in possession of the two vessels. Today the battleships with their mutinous crews were anchored outside the harbor awaiting action by the government. Congress was summoned in session at 1 o'clock this afternoon to deal with the situation. The mutiny is a direct result of the trouble caused by the government's refusal to grant a raise in pay to the sailors. It is officially stated that the trouble is not of a political character, and should be described as a mutiny among the sailors to enforce certain concessions from their officers, rather than a revolt against the administration of President Ponce de Leon.

For some time the men of the navy had been agitating the matter of more pay. They also objected to the practice in the navy of inflicting corporal punishment upon subordinate or otherwise offending sailors. The matter came to a head yesterday when the crews of two of the bigger warships turned upon their superiors. It is reported that the captain of the battleship Minas Geraes was killed. Following the fighting the mutineers made a formal demand for increased pay and the abolition of corporal punishment and then withdrew to the harbor.

The mutineers expect congress to pass a measure this afternoon granting them amnesty. It is believed that if this is done the trouble will be at an end. Should congress refuse amnesty to the rebels the subsequent attitude of the latter is in doubt. The situation is tense and there is considerable anxiety among the people of the city.

Rio Janeiro, Brazil, Nov. 24.—The crews of two Brazilian battleships mutinied demanding an increase in pay and the abolition of corporal punishment in the navy. Several officers were killed in the fighting that ensued. Some shells were fired into the city from the battleships.

London, Nov. 24.—A private cable despatch from Rio de Janeiro says that a little before noon today says that the captain of the Brazilian battleship Minas Geraes was killed during naval disturbances.

Earlier despatches conveyed the news that the crews of several warships had mutinied. A vigorous censorship has withheld further details.

Another cablegram says that firing is in progress between the warships in the harbor there. It is reported in London that Admiral Farragut, commanding the fourth British cruiser squadron now at Buenos Ayres, has been ordered to Rio Janeiro.

The admiral confirms the report that the fourth squadron was going to Rio Janeiro, but asserts that this is only in pursuance of the original itinerary of the squadron, and not in connection with the outbreak.

Hamburg, Nov. 24.—The Norddeutsche Bank, which has close financial relations with Brazil, received the following cablegram from Rio Janeiro last night: "A movement is in progress among the sailors of the navy for the improvement of their position."

From the message it is assumed by the bankers that the trouble at Rio Janeiro is of a non-political character.

WEALTHY BREWER ON TRIAL AS MAN WHO PLANNED BURGLARY

Was Convicted and Sentenced,
But Verdict Was Reversed and
Now Second Hearing is On

Lima, Ohio, Nov. 24.—Christian Geiger, seventy-five years old, once a wealthy brewer and contractor, is on trial for the second time, charged with having planned one of the most sensational burglaries on record in Northern Ohio. At his first trial Geiger was found guilty and sentenced to seven years imprisonment. The verdict was afterwards reversed and a new trial ordered.

The burglary occurred in January, 1908, when James Youkum and his wife, both octogenarians, were bound and gagged in their home by robbers who secured $6,722. Two of the thieves were arrested and after conviction they made an alleged confession in which they said that the robbery had been planned by Geiger, who supplied them with blue prints of the plans of the Youkum home.

THINK END OF TROUBLE NEAR

Despatches Indicate That Mexican Government Has Upper Hand of Revolutionists

Washington, D. C., Nov. 24.—"Order has been reestablished in all the republic of Mexico with the exception of the district of Guerrero, (Chihuahua) where a fraction of about 200 are not yet completely reduced."

The foregoing is the text of a telegram dated Nov. 23, received today from Enrique C. Creel, the Mexican minister of foreign affairs by Ambassador De La Barre.

El Paso, Texas, Nov. 24.—While it is admitted that, with the tightening of the censorship established by the Mexican government only such information as is favorable to the government is being allowed to come through, it is the general belief that the situation is now pretty well under control. Sympathizers of the revolutionists, however, claim that the present lull merely marks the strengthening of the insurgent organization and that the real force of the uprising will be felt within a few days.

The most important development of the night was the report that disturbances had broken out in the territory of Tepic on the west coast. This is a new field, no disturbances having been reported from any point in this section of the country before. Some 5,000 troops have been sent to Tepic from Mexico City.

No fighting was reported last night from any of the revolutionists' strongholds. Parrel, apparently affords the government the most anxious and fully 1,000 federal troops were sent there yesterday.

All points along the line of the Mexican National Railway including Terreon and Chihuahua, were reported tranquil at 2 a. m. and the absence of further news from these places indicates that quiet still reigns.

It is declared that the insurgents still hold the Madera branch of the Mexican Northwestern Railway running from Chihuahua to Madera. Earlier reports last night stated that the government troops had recaptured the railroad. Nothing has been heard from Yucatan and the great south country. Terreon and the surrounding country is quiet.

Paris, Nov. 24.—General Beyer, the Mexican soldier who came to France on a special military mission was still in the city today and it is said he has no intention of returning to Mexico at this time. Beyer was reported to have been the head of the revolutionists had been circulated.

AWAKENS FROM SLEEP OF THIRTY TWO YEARS

Memory Returns Gradually to Caroline Kronbock Who Went to Sleep in 1878

en sleep extending over 32 years, Caroline Kronbock has awakened to find the world changed considerably. This extraordinary case of amnesia has occurred at Okone, a village near Moenster, Sweden, and is described by Dr. Fredericström of the Stockholm Hospital.

Caroline Kronbock fell asleep when she was 14 in the winter of 1877-78, and remained until recently in a comatose condition. Consciousness returned to her suddenly. She did not know where she was, did not recognize her father or the room where she had lain for thirty-two years.

Presently she felt hungry and asked for a baked herring—her favorite dish when she was a young girl. She also felt tired and somewhat dazed.

Her memory came back by degrees, how she walked the mile to school, the names of the teacher and those of her school friends and what the local parson looked like. She remembered having a headache but could not say whether she had suffered from headaches or whether she had hurt her head. As to her long period of suspended consciousness her mind is a complete blank. Her eyes remain very sensitive to light, but her appetite was excellent from the time of her awakening and she has since slept normally every night. Strange to say she has forgotten nothing of what she learned at school and at once wanted to go on with her lessons.

SERIOUS DISTURBANCES FOLLOW TOLSTOI'S DEATH

London, Nov. 24.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Times describes the extraordinary disturbances which followed the death of Tolstoy as serious. A large force of police scattered the crowds last night outside the university, and twenty students were injured. The trouble is said to have been caused by the death of Tolstoy and the students making demonstrations against capital punishment. The bridges leading from the university quarter to the city were closed. The police and several regiments of infantry and Cossacks cleared Nevsky Prospekt of would be demonstrators. A number of persons were injured but none seriously.

TAFT SETTLES DOWN TO WORK ON HIS MESSAGE

Washington, Nov. 24.—President Taft returned to Washington last night from the isthmus of Panama. He announced that he would make no engagements during the next five days. In that time he hopes to have his message to congress completed. The message will be ready either the night of the 28th or early in the 29th.

Say's She's Not a Levee
Queenstown, Nov. 24.—A young woman, supposed to be Ethel Clara Levee, boarded the steamer Majestic when the vessel touched her on her way to New York today. She denied her identification. Those in close touch with her movements say that Mrs. Levee is still in England in seclusion.

O'CONNOR AT IRISH LEAGUE

Tay Pay Says Canadian Statesmen all Favor Home Rule

London, Nov. 24.—At a meeting of the United Irish League last night, T. P. O'Connor challenged the Tories to produce a single prime minister or a cabinet minister in the Canadian provinces who did not believe that the home and safety of the British empire demanded the concession of home-rule.

The post-master-general speaking at a banquet in honor of Hennessey Heaton said the chief cable companies were ready to adopt a system of accepting deferred telegrams and non-urgent telegrams at half the rates now charged. No effort would be left unmade to carry into effect reforms which would be the means of drawing closer the bonds of imperial unity.

At a meeting of the evangelical alliance today, Archdeacon Madden and Rev. Geo. Hansen gave vivid descriptions of their tour in Canada. Rev. Mr. Madden said that the dominion was determined to have a Canadian evangelized alliance. He believed the best thing to do was to travel in Canada and Ireland and to be in after hands in Canada but they would want the guidance of the parent body, which if the organization was to be permanent it must be worked on Canadian soil by Canadian people for Canadian purposes.

Rev. Dr. Hansen said it seemed to him perfect folly on the part of the churches of Canada to erect four or five churches in a single small area when one church and one parson were sufficient. They should form a joint committee and formulate a scheme of co-operative action which would enable them to avoid the overlapping that existed with the consequent waste of men and material.

In the commons today, Hon. Mr. Asquith said if the vote were passed he could not guarantee the country would have an opportunity of discussing home rule. He said that the government was not in a position to discuss home rule until the vote was passed.

Melbourne, Aust., Nov. 24.—Premier Murray and his colleagues in the cabinet entertained Thomas Dal, a farewell banquet last evening. Cordial speeches were made praising the rumors repeatedly denied by the premier that Mr. Dal's head of the railways retirement was hastened by friction with the cabinet.

FOOT CAUGHT IN TRACK; WOMAN HIT BY TRAIN

Aged Mrs. Shannon Crushed By Fast Express in New Jersey

New York, Nov. 24.—With her foot caught in a frog on the track of the Northern Railroad, near Englewood, Mrs. Mary Shannon, sixty-five years old, was run over by a fast express. The train was running at a high rate of speed, struck the woman, and her foot was badly injured.

Mrs. Shannon's foot was caught in the frog and she was unable to get free. The engine driver tried to stop his train but the distance between it and the frog was so short that he was unable to slacken speed appreciably. When the locomotive struck the woman it cut off her right leg.

Mrs. Shannon lives in Boston and has been visiting her daughter.

TO COMBAT COCAINE EVIL IN MONTREAL

Montreal, P. Q., Nov. 24.—(Special)—In order that the ravages of the cocaine evil, which has such a hold on the younger element in this city, may be stamped out Dr. J. T. Flinn, M. J. C. for St. Lawrence will introduce a bill in the provincial house for abolition of this traffic.

THE TIMES' NEW REPORTER

JAMESIEY IS VEXED.
"What's this talk about a police-nation?" demanded our esteemed fellow citizen Mr. Jamesiey Jones this morning. "There's always some silly folk to take up people's attention. What's the matter with Chief Clark and Detective Killen? Are they not nobler fellows who can soothe the hysterical female, and also search her when necessary? Why have a refined lady on her way to the station, the contaminating influence of bad women? She might be demoralized by contact with them. She might learn to smoke in the guard room. Why should we have an consideration for a girl who gets herself arrested? Or a lady, either? It's absurd. Jamesiey declares that he will take action in the matter if any attempt is made to thrust a police-nation upon the throat of a self-respecting people."

THE REAL SCIENCE.
The Times new reporter desires to say to boastful scribbles on other papers that he can roll ten boxes on the bowling alley and make many pins standing as the best of them. Anybody can get pin down. The real science is in getting the ball through without hitting them, and in this the new reporter is an expert.

THE VERDICT.
Mr. Hiram Hornbeam says that the school board's report on the Barr charges reminds him of the verdict of a coroner's jury in the Settlement when a young man was drowned. The jury said:—

"We find on enquiry that the said Bill Smith, who is reported to have drowned himself, is dead, as we saw the body. It also appears in evidence that he did not come down to breakfast the morning after his body was found. Also that he had $1.15 in his pocket. Bill was a good boy."

The meeting was representative of the various denominations and a large amount of detail work was arranged.

Mrs. E. A. Smith was appointed presiding officer at the meeting and Mrs. G. M. Campbell, secretary. Mrs. Smith presided with much skill and the organization work was accomplished quickly and effectively. A number of committees were appointed as follows:

MONEY, OR DEATH FOR CHILDREN

Two Boys of Eight Kidnapped
In New York for Ransom

Decapitation of Lads and Wrecking of Homes With Bombs if $5,000 Not Paid for Return of Each Boy

New York, Nov. 24.—New York has a double kidnapping case, eight year old Giuseppe Largo and eight years old Michael Fritz, having been stolen and held for ransom.

Letters declaring that the heads of the children would be cut off and sent to the families of the kidnapped children are now in the hands of Brooklyn detectives. The letters demand $5,000 each as the price of the children's lives, and beside threatening decapitation, assert that the homes of the Largos and the Fritzes would be shattered with bombs unless the money were paid and the police kept in the dark. The letters also said the bodies would be cast into the bay.

Michael Fritz lived with Nicola Fritz, his grandfather, his mother, three brothers and a sister at No. 720 Fifth avenue, Brooklyn. His grandfather keeps a grocery at that address. The boy was lured away from his home on Saturday.

The police were not informed of the disappearance of the boy until Sunday. The missing boy's relatives reported to Acting Captain Irving, of the Fifth avenue station. According to them, the boy's relatives were in a state of fear, which was increased by the letter.

Investigation confirmed the neighbors' stories and Policemen Prociano and Devoti were assigned to the case. They learned that the boy and a chum, Charles Curry, were playing in front of the Fritz home. A man asked them if they wanted to go to a moving picture show. They went to a nickelodeon around the corner and then the man said they would take them to a better show down town, walking the two boys to an elevated station on the Fifth avenue line.

At this point young Curry refused to go further and warned the Fritz boy. The warning was unheeded.

Young Giuseppe Largo, on Saturday, was playing in front of his father's store at No. 1,088 Twenty-first street, around the corner from the Fulton street car line. His father declares his son was led away by two men who promised to give him a nickelodeon around the corner.

Both letters are written in three separate hands and are in Italian. They are unsigned. They do not fix a place for the depositing of the ransom money, but say that a second letter will follow and that it will contain instructions.

SUFFRAGETTES GO TO JAIL FOR TWO WEEKS

All Found Guilty—They Decline
the Option of $10 to $25 Fines

London, Nov. 24.—All of the suffragettes who were charged with assault and willful damage of property as a result of their rioting of the past two days were found guilty in the Bow street police court today and sentenced to pay fines of $10 or $25, or to spend two weeks or a month in jail, according to the seriousness of their offences.

All elected to go to jail.

THE ROSSI CASE

In view of the fact that a jury has again disagreed in the trial of Andrew Rossi, for the murder of Diego Sirausa, there is much interest in the next step in the case. It was rumored this morning that Rossi might plead guilty to the charge of manslaughter.

The authorities are said to feel that it would be of little use to place him again in the dock. The company was ordered to two trials that have been held. Attorney General Hazen said this morning that he had not decided what steps would be taken and the counsel for the prisoner was also non-committal.

HALF MILLION LOST IN STREET

Worst Sort of Squandering
Says Judge in Hearing of Irving W. Childs Case

New York, Nov. 24.—That Irving W. Childs, who five years ago inherited $1,250,000 from the estate of his father, William H. Childs has lost $500,000 of his inheritance in Wall street during the past four years is alleged in statements by counsel in a hearing before Justice Blackmar in the supreme court, Brooklyn. The fact of the young man's alleged plunging was the basis of an application in behalf of his wife, Mrs. Gertrude E. Childs, for a bond to protect her alimony granted when she obtained a decree of separation. Counsel for Childs opposed the motion and said there was no necessity for a bond.

"Is it true?" asked Justice Blackmar "that your client squandered half a million dollars within the past four years?" "No, he did not squander it," replied the lawyer, "he lost it in Wall street."

"Lost it in Wall street," said the judge. "Don't you call that squandering it? I do, and the very worst way of squandering money."

FIVE-SIXTHS WHO DIED IN YEAR LEFT LITTLE PROPERTY

Lloyd-George's Comments—Of
Those Who Died 2,000 Left
$750,000,000

London, Nov. 23.—In a speech at the City Temple on the subject of destitution among the English masses, the chancellor of the exchequer, Lloyd George, said that of the 420,000 adults who died last year in the British Isles five-sixths were in poverty. They left not property worth anything while to pick up, he said—a few articles of cheap clothing and furniture which the broker's man would find a few pence for.

The other sixth of the British adults who died in the twelve-month period left $1,500,000,000 in property of one kind and another. Of that large, gigantic surplus, approximately one-half—$750,000,000—had been accumulated by 2,000 persons. Commenting on these figures, the chancellor said:

"Did the 350,000 who died in penury lead lives of indulgence, dissipation, thriftlessness and extravagance? Did the 2,000 people who left half that enormous sum pursue careers of arduous toil, of frugality, of industry, of economy? Is it facts such as these—the gigantic wealth at one end that a man cannot spend in a lifetime of luxury, at the other end millions burning with semi-hunger and the pains of anxiety and poverty—which are producing the murders at the heart of England which show there is some disease in the system?"

MINISTER AND WIFE MURDERED

Aged Couple in New Jersey
Shot Down by Burglars

HOUSE RANSACKED

Aged Woman, Terror Stricken,
Hides Under Bed Stricken
Shots Are Fired Down Stairs—
Jewelry and Money Carried Off

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 24.—Rev. Andrew L. Armstrong, the eighty-year-old pastor of the Presbyterian church at Dutch Neck, ten miles east of here, and his wife, were murdered last night at their home by burglars. The aged couple were shot, and it is believed they died instantly.

The pastor and his wife had not retired when the burglars entered the house, about 11 o'clock, and that fact probably accounts for their having been murdered. The custom of the couple to retire early probably led the burglars to expect that everybody in the house would be sleeping when they entered the place. The burglars, it is believed, being detected, immediately shot the minister and his wife.

Mrs. Armstrong, an aged woman, who had been for years housekeeper in the Armstrong family, was up stairs when the shooting occurred, and was so afraid that she might be shot herself that she hid under a bed until the arrival of her son, who also lived in the house, but who had been spending the evening away.

Meanwhile the burglars ransacked the house and carried away jewelry, money and other articles.

Prosecutor Cressley and County Detective Kirkham left here for the scene of the murder this morning. It is believed that the murderers left a clue behind.

TEMPERANCE PARTY BIG FACTOR IN HULL MUNICIPAL FIGHT

License Reduction Candidate to Be Nominated in Each of the Six Wards of the City

Ottawa, Nov. 23.—The Hull Temperance Association on the suggestion of Rev. Father Peitler, has decided to enter candidates in the coming municipal election. Each candidate nominated will be pledged to the reduction of the license of houses of business existing in the city from sixteen to ten. A meeting of the association has been called for Wednesday evening next when a committee will be formed to nominate a candidate for each of the six wards.

The temperance party in Hull claims to control 1,340 votes which will be used in the coming elections for the cause of temperance. Several prominent citizens were named as possible candidates, among them were Ald. Fairclough, J. Binet, Jos. Delaurier and B. Normand.

The advent of the temperance association in the municipal election is important in view of the great wave in favor of temperance which is slowly but surely sweeping over the entire province of Quebec, and it would not be surprising to see at least four aldermen on the new city council elected on the temperance ticket.

In view of the fact that there are no fewer than four candidates for the mayor, which would leave their four seats on the council to be contested, and that a temperance candidate will be in the field in probably every ward in the city, the municipal elections this year in Hull will be of an unusually interesting nature.

PAYS $2,000 FOR CIGARS

An Expensive Box But Shuts Gets
His Horse Back With Them

New York, Nov. 24.—A box of cigars sold for $2,000 last night at Madison Square Garden. Senator Jos. W. Bailey, of Texas, sold them and John H. Shultz, of New Chester, N. Y., bought them. He offered $3,000, but the senator was content to take two.

Shultz is a well known horse breeder, who for years has known how to procure never to buy or sell except at public auction. His handsome black stallion, Prince McKinney went to Senator Bailey tonight at the old glory sale for $1,750, and the moment the hammer fell Shultz was sorry he had sold at the money.

"Senator," he said, "I'll give you $3,000 for a box of cigars if you'll throw in the field in probably every ward in the city, the municipal elections this year in Hull will be of an unusually interesting nature."

THE SCHOOL BOARD

Behind closed doors the school board last night discussed the report of the committee on the Barr charges. There was a majority report, and also a minority report. The majority report is somewhat like that of the city council committee in the Main street paving affair. In the latter it was stated that the engineer had full power, and in the school board matter it seems to be the architect. The report sustains some of Mr. Barr's statements. It notes that in one case there is a disagreement between the architect on one side and two tenders on the other. Special emphasis is placed upon the statement that the architect had power to make changes. It is also stated that he had in his possession an unperfected check payable to the order of the school board, for the protection of the board. Why should the architect hold a check that was the property of the board? The report does not express any opinion whatever upon its findings, or make any recommendations in connection with the whole matter. The board appears to have adopted opinion with regard to future contracts. So far as the record goes there is merely a report upon which the board appears to have felt itself incompetent to express an opinion. The exclusion of the reporters from the meeting was a high-handed proceeding. The public have a right to know what is said and done when public business is being transacted, especially when it is a matter affecting the competency of the board to attend to the business of the board.

GIVING BOYS A CHANCE

Last week's Canadian Century had a very interesting article on a rational way to train delinquent boys. The article is from the pen of Mr. George W. O. Mathew, superintendent of the boys' home at Shawbridge, in the province of Quebec. Prior to last year Protestant delinquents under the age of fifteen years were sent to the jail at Sherbrooke. Believing that better results could be got from another method, the Corporation of the Boys' Home of Montreal secured legislation enabling them to take a farm of 300 acres at Shawbridge, and utilize it as a boys' farm and training school. Now, instead of being sent to jail the youthful delinquents are sent to Shawbridge, and the superintendent tells in a very interesting way how the boy, who in the city had become a menace to society, becomes a useful member of the fraternity at Shawbridge, and has his physical, mental and moral nature developed along right lines. The boy is taken to the farm by a constable in plain clothes, and after he has had a bath, a change of clothes and a square meal, is talked with in a kindly way by the superintendent. There are no high walls to prevent his escape, nor is he ever reminded of his previous career. Every encouragement is given him to become a good member of the community, to develop self-control, and to fit himself for a life of honesty and usefulness. The boys work on the farm or in the workshop, and a good deal of latitude is allowed them in the choice of what they shall do, though all must work. They have, however, their time for play, and there is also a school room where they are given instruction. Among other things that the boys at Shawbridge did this year was the construction of a concrete silo, thirty-seven feet high, with fifteen feet inside diameter, and a seven inch wall. They learn to do blacksmith and carpenter work, to darn their own stockings, to take care of live stock, and to till the soil. They are also given military drill. This institution has proved its value, and the only regrettable fact about it is that the financial support is not equal to its needs. It is, however, helping very materially to solve the problem of the delinquent boy. The boys at Shawbridge are being converted into useful citizens.

In a letter to the Montreal Star, Supt. Matthews says:—

"We have been open since March, 1900, and in that time thieves, gang leaders, house-breakers, vagrants and insubordinates have been gently but firmly broken into habits of regularity and orderliness, into respect for property, morality, obedience and cheerfulness, by careful training. These fellows, who gave so much trouble to police, parents, and citizens, are conforming to the conventions of modern life, and under gentle but compelling influences are qualifying for a place amongst useful citizens. Of these boys the majority were rather older than most we may reasonably expect to admit in the future, since they were transfers from jail and reformatory, and however humane and thoughtful the influences there may be, they are not calculated to do much good to boys who require expert training. Yet in spite of the advanced age of the admissions we have had a remarkable measure of success. These boys came to us knowing that there were no walls or bars, and had planned to break away at the first opportunity. Yet when they found the kind of treatment they were to get, the influence of kindness and reasonable authority worked a charm on their minds, and they are with us yet doing well."

Even if we make some allowance for the natural enthusiasm of the superior tendent of the home, it is evident that the work is based on right principles and is yielding good results. The people of New Brunswick, and especially the citizens of St. John, may well give thought to this subject, which so vitally affects the citizenship of the future.

THE WHITE PLAGUE

The Toronto World in an article on preventable diseases states that one person dies every day in Toronto of consumption, and in the province of Ontario ten die every day of that disease. The total for the province is about three thousand people per year. Every day ten families are desolated. Commenting on this fact the World says:—

"If ten horses died every day of a preventable disease in Ontario, or ten cows, or ten sheep, or ten hogs, what an outcry there would be. If 3000 animals died every year of hog cholera, the government would be driven out of power if it did not act."

How is it with us in St. John? Over one hundred people died in this city last year of tuberculosis. More than two persons per week die of the disease, and in the year over one hundred homes are desolated. Is there not the very strongest reason for universal public support of the movement that has been begun to stamp out this disease? More people are interested and more agencies are at work than ever before, but the greatest difficulty to be overcome is the lack of funds. Premier Hazen has expressed the view that municipal, provincial and federal authorities should unite to provide the means. Doubtless this will some day be done, but in the meantime victims are dying in this city at the rate of two per week and it becomes the duty of the citizens in self-protection to take action on their own account.

The city council will this afternoon consider matters of vital importance to the development of St. John harbor east and west.

The Public Utilities Commission now has the question of telephone rates in St. John formally before it for investigation. The board has an opportunity, the very first one, to demonstrate its usefulness.

A correspondent makes in today's Times a well-founded plea for a police-matron. Another illustration of the need of better treatment of female prisoners is found in the fact that one evening this week a well-dressed young girl, weeping and protesting, was thrust into the Water street lockup. That is no place for a woman, and especially for a young girl.

Rev. Dr. Shearer not long since declared that Winnipeg was the wickedest city in Canada. He was speaking with special reference to intemperance, gambling and the social evil. His statement was challenged by citizens of Winnipeg, and it is now announced that the attorney general of Manitoba has appointed Judge Robson to investigate the charges. In a city like Winnipeg, where people from the ends of the earth meet, and where the population is made up of representatives of many races, vice is apt to flourish. The investigation, therefore, will probably discover undesirable conditions and lead to measures of reform. One of the pictures thrown on the screen by Mr. Henry Vivian, M. P., when he addressed the Canadian Club in St. John, was a view of the interior of an underground room without windows which was used as a human habitation. This picture was taken in the city of Winnipeg.

STUCK TO THE CUSTOM.

Even the brightest boy in the class can be scared into stupidity by the wrong kind of teacher.

"You boy over in the corner!" cried the man behind the desk.

The boy over in the corner shot up like a bolt.

"Answer this," continued the examiner: "Do we eat the flesh of the whale?"

"Yes, sir," faltered the scholar.

"And what," pursued the examiner, "do we do with the bones?"

"Please, sir," responded the boy, "we leave them on the e-sides of our p-plates."

A superior manner is one thing; a superior person is another.

THE HELPERS

He that turneth from the road to rescue another.
Turneth toward his goal:
He shall arrive in due time by the foot-path of mercy.
God will be his guide.

He that taketh up the burden of the fainting.
Lighteneth his own load:
The Almighty will put his arms underneath him.
He shall lean upon the Lord.

He that speaketh comfortable words to mourners.
Healeth his own heart:
In his time of grief they will return to remembrance.
God will use them for balm.

He that careth for the sick and wounded.
Watcheth not asleep:
There are three in the darkness together,
And the third is the Lord.

WANTED THE RIDE

"Did she promise to go to the dance with you?"
"Not at first. She said she had another engagement for that evening, but when I told her I'd call for her in a taxi, she jumped at the chance."

NASTY THING

Mrs. Dushaway—"Yes, while we were in Egypt we visited the Pyramids. They were literally covered with hieroglyphics." Mrs. Newrich—"Light! Wasn't you afraid some of 'em would get on you?"

SAME THING

"I cannot understand zee English language," said the desperate French man. "I learn how to pronounce zee word 'hydrophobia,' and zen I learn zat zee doctors pronounce it 'fatal'."

LONG CHANCE

"I took a long chance when I asked her to marry me."
"She rejected you, eh?"
"No, she was the long chance I took. She accepted me."

A FALSE START

The referee held up his hand. "Them last two rounds don't count," he hoarsely announced. "Th' fight will have to start all over again."

A low growl ran through the vast audience.
"What's the trouble Reddy?" shrieked a fiery-faced man in the tenth row. The referee squared his jaw. "Th' trouble is," he explained, "that the movin' picture man has struck a bad spot in his film, an' the pictures is no good. Are you ready up there perforce? All right; shake hands boys!"

AT DAWN

How fresh the air at early dawn;
How cool the morning breeze;
How sweet the music of the birds
That twitter in the trees.
The world is surely fairest then.
As all the poets say.
For Nature wears her loveliest garb
At the breaking of the day.

The morning sky is full of light;
The shadows disappear.
The beautiful auroral rays
Of crimson then appear.
And then the sun comes into view,
And tinges all with gold.
I do not know all this myself
But so I have been told.

I rather like to lie abed
And get my needed rest.
It's usually ten o'clock
Before I'm up and dressed.
But I enjoy a pleasing sight,
I'm sure, as well as you,
And some day I shall brace
And see the sunrise, too.
—Somerville Journal.

Perhaps the most frequent cause of ill-smelling breath is some acute or chronic disorder of the stomach. In all such cases, an aperient should be taken, and great care must be paid to the diet, so as to restore the stomach to health. Sometimes this very offensive condition is due to neglected teeth, in and between which food accumulates and then ferments and decays.

CALLS ON ST. JOHN
WOMEN TO RALLY TO GET POLICE MATRON

Here's a Vigorous Plea Arising Out of Recent Cases in the Police Court

Editor Times-Star:—
I am judge is reported as advising a father to "soundly trounce" his twelve year old itching son. Is it not time we had a children's protective agency and probation officers, male and female? Are parents who are not capable of keeping their children out of court and their bodies free of venereal disease, suitable people to be given a free hand to mete out punishment?
Surely this is "meeting evil with evil." We surely have need of revival meetings and missionary associations, when such conditions exist. Fancy a boy in such a sad plight as Victor Colman in court with no police matron in attendance! A short time ago a boy had to be forcibly taken from his convicted mother's arms, in the same court; also, several women have recently been in the police station, some almost children, others aged, yet there is no woman to speak to them or for them, our sisters, our children!
Where are all the patriotic societies of women? The Woman's Council, The King's Daughters, The Daughters of the Empire, and the women missionary societies and all the other women's societies, banded together for women's rights and God and home and native land, that they do not march on masses and storm the sheriff, if he is who has the say whether St. John shall have a police and jail matron.
Our city needs a little mothering and needs it now. It is time for women not only to meet and freely protest about existing evils but to insist that their appeals be acted upon and that a police matron be appointed and a children's protective bureau be established as a beginning of a bigger and better St. John.
MISSIONARY.
St. John, Nov. 22.

WEDDING BELLS RING

Three Nuptial Events in The City and Vicinity

The Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception this morning at 8 o'clock was the scene of a pretty matrimonial event when Miss Mary, daughter of John Collins, of Milford, became the bride of Charles A. Conway, of the Royal Hotel tonsorial staff. Rev. A. W. Meslin officiated in the presence of a few friends and relatives. After the wedding, Joseph T. Conway, was best man, while Miss Helen Armstrong assisted the bride.

Miss Collette was prettily gowned in a dainty tailored costume of light broadcloth, with black beaver hat, trimmed with wisteria willow plumes. She carried a white prayer book. Her bridesmaid was neatly attired in a very becoming blue suit, with a hat of a corresponding color.
After the wedding, the bridal party drove to their future home, 25 Exmouth street, where an inviting breakfast was served. They received a handsome array of wedding presents from their friends, including a costly cut glass berry set from the clerics in the Royal Hotel and a valuable silver pitcher from the groom's associate barbers. Mr. Conway presented to the bride a beautiful gold watch and chain, and to the bridesmaid a gold bracelet.

Coleman-Ryan
Rev. David S. O'Keefe returned last night from Hampton, where he officiated at the wedding of George P. Coleman, a popular railway mail clerk, and Miss Mary Loreta Ryan, both of that place. Ernest Loran, brother of the bride, supported the groom, while Miss Alice Marshall assisted the bride. The wedding took place in St. Alphonsus' church, and when the ceremony was over, the bride and groom came to St. John whence they will go on a wedding trip through Upper Canada.

Warneck-Horgan.
In St. Joseph's church, Silver Falls, on Wednesday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock, Rev. A. J. O'Neill officiated at a happy event, when he united in marriage Miss Katherine Gertrude, eldest daughter of Michael Horgan, of Lakewood, and James Warneck, of Golden Grove. Wm. J. Horgan, brother of the bride, gave her in marriage, while she was attended by her sister, Miss Marguerite A. Horgan. John Warneck supported his brother.

The bride was attired in a pretty costume of navy blue silk crepe de chene, with a hat of the same shade, and carried a white prayerbook. She wore a handsome set of furs, the gift of the groom. Her sister was gowned in Copenhagen blue broadcloth, with hat to match. She also carried a white prayerbook. Her gift from the groom was a handsome gold brooch with ruby setting.

Following the wedding, supper was served at the home of the bride, and a pleasant social evening enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Warneck will live in Golden Grove.

CATHEDRAL HIGH TEA
The rush to the Cathedral high tea in the Keith assembly rooms continues each evening. On Tuesday evening some 300 people sat down to the dinner tables and last evening more than 600 enjoyed the excellent repast bountifully supplied by the ladies in charge of the tables. Then the other attractions furnished much interest for all—games, fancy tables, ice cream and other refreshment parlors, music—all tending to make two or three hours spent at the high tea very pleasant indeed. The high tea will end this evening but there will be an afternoon for the children tomorrow.

GLENWOOD RANGES
Are Made in St. John
No Better Ranges Made in Canada

Yes, every range we make is made in St. John, in one of the most up-to-date plants to be found in the Maritime Provinces. We put material and workmanship in our stoves and can guarantee them. They make your cooking easy, they save you fuel and will give you every satisfaction. We have Cabinet Glenwood and Modern Glenwood in the plain finish, and we have our Glenwood E, that has the figured castings; then we can give you a Glenwood Cook Stove that has a large oven with four covers that will suit small spaces. All these Ranges have removable grates, removable nickel and changeable centres, and are sure bakers. They are giving others satisfaction, they will do the same for you. If you have not seen the Glenwood Ranges, come in and we will be pleased to explain the workings of them, whether you intend to buy or not.
