

CABINET MINISTERS PREPARE FOR THE CAMPAIGN TO BE LAUNCHED TUESDAY NEXT

Clean Sweep for the Government in Manion Constituency is Predicted—British Columbia Expected to Return Majority for Meighen's Policies—Farmers' Party Due for Jolt in Saskatoon—King, After Much Hesitation, Declares He Will Contest North York, Where Defeat Awaits Him.

Special to The Standard.

Ottawa, Ont., Sept. 23.—Tomorrow will see the return of most of the Ministers to their several provinces. Hon. R. J. Manion goes to Fort William and will supervise the government campaign in his own constituency, Port Arthur, East and West Algona, Temiskaming and Nipissing. The result in the Minister's constituency is a foregone conclusion, and also there is no doubt of the return of a Government supporter in Port Arthur. In the other constituencies there will be keen contests, but the new Minister is hopeful of making a clean sweep for the Government. There are certain to be three cornered contests in East Algona, Temiskaming and Nipissing. Thos. Simpson, M. P., Sault Ste Marie, will again be the Government candidate in East Algona, and Chas Harrison, M. P., will run again in Nipissing while R. T. Shillington will contest Temiskaming with Big Angus McDonald, M. P., Labor Farmer, and a Liberal yet to be selected.

Outlook in B. C.

Hon. H. H. Stevens also goes West tomorrow. In discussing the political outlook in British Columbia the Minister of Trade and Commerce expressed the greatest confidence in the result to the Government in his Province. "British Columbia is now represented by thirteen supporters of the Government," he said, "and there is no doubt but thirteen supporters of Premier Meighen will come from British Columbia to the next Parliament. My Province is strongly pro-Government and will not commit its commercial future to either the McKenna King Liberals or the Wood-Creer Conservatives." Mr. Stevens expects to be opposed in his constituency by Mayor Gale, Vancouver, who will probably run as a Liberal Protectionist.

P. E. I. Situation.

J. McIsaac, M. P., Kings, P. E. I., is in the capital. He will again be opposed by J. J. Hut for their own seat in this constituency from 1904 to 1908 and from 1911 to 1917. He was chiefly noted in parliament by his anxiety over the cost of civilian clothes of the soldiers, and by dissenting on Prince Edward Island's war contribution in selling potatoes to the Government. Mr. McIsaac is confident of the Government success in the "Island." At present the representation is two Government and two Liberals. James O'Neil, nominated in Prince's, is an exceptionally strong candidate and that with Liberal feelings drove Hon. McKenna King back to North York and defeat. In Queens County there will be a hard fight with a McKinnon leading each ticket.

Saskatchewan Looks Good.

Senator H. W. Laird, Regina, who has been a Saskatchewan politician for twenty years, claims that the Farmers party will receive their own seat in that Province on the night of the election. Hon. James Wilson, he says, will have no difficulty in carrying Saskatchewan. In Qu'Appelle there will be an interesting contest between Levi Thompson, P., and Ernest Perley, son of the late Senator Perley, one of the first representatives from the Northwest territories in the House of Commons. Messrs. Thompson and Perley are one of the largest farmers in Saskatchewan and will run as a

Fishery Conference Closed Friday

Protection of River Fish Was Discussed—Paper by Inspector Hanson.

Special to The Standard.

Charlottetown, Sept. 23.—Maritime fishery conference closed here today—terminated either in St. John or Fredericton. At this morning's session a paper on the development and protection of river fishing, especially with reference to salmon fishing, in New Brunswick, was read by Inspector or Harrison, of Fredericton, who dealt with the difficulties of preventing illegal fishing, in certain large areas, with a small force—handicapped by the feeling of people towards the law. Some relaxation might be made in cases where people in certain neighborhoods require to fish for their own use. A demonstration on curing herring was given by Inspector Fitzgerald, of Georgetown, P. E. I. In the afternoon a mock trial was held to illustrate the procedure to be followed in the cases of violation of the law. Resolutions were passed relating to revision and codification of regulations of most and canned were ordered today to withdraw all films from exhibition in which appeared Virginia Rappe, the actress for whose death Roscoe (Fatty) Arbuckle is held at San Francisco on a charge of murder. It was announced here today. Thirty-two hundred exhibitors are represented in the action.

Los Angeles, Calif., Sept. 23.—All First National film exchanges were ordered today to withdraw all films from exhibition in which appeared Virginia Rappe, the actress for whose death Roscoe (Fatty) Arbuckle is held at San Francisco on a charge of murder. It was announced here today. Thirty-two hundred exhibitors are represented in the action.

Serious Accident At Newcastle

Automobile Crashes Into Wagon Throwing Occupants—One Badly Injured.

Special to The Standard.

Newcastle, N. B., Sept. 23.—A very serious accident was narrowly averted on Castle street, on Wednesday, when a car driven by two young men from Richibucto, and driven at a high rate of speed crashed into a wagon containing two young men from Chatham and Charles Bagan, of Newcastle. The wagon was badly smashed up and young Bagan quite badly injured. The Richibucto couple were arrested charged with driving a car under the influence of liquor but were later allowed out on deposit to $50.00 each for appearance in court today.

Damages Claimed For Negligence

C. N. Railways Defendant in Exchequer Court.

Fredricton, Sept. 23.—Evidence in an action against the C. N. R. in which $25,000 damages are claimed for negligence resulting in the death of George Harris of this city, a teamster who was killed on May 24, 1919, while engaged in unloading a car at the C. N. R. yards here, was completed this morning in the exchequer court before Mr. Justice Audette, Ottawa. Argument will be held this afternoon.

European Prince Paid For Position He Does Not Hold

Constantinople, Sept. 23.—One of the stories which men tell one another here to illustrate the confused diplomatic situation in Central Europe is attributed to Prince Furstenberg. He was appointed as a diplomatic representative of the old Austrian government to the Ukraine which then was ruled by Hetman Skoropadsky. Describing his diplomatic status to friends in Kiev, the Prince said: "I am the representative of a government that has ceased to exist and am accredited to one that never existed. The most extraordinary part of it is that I am paid for performing the duties of this position that I do not hold."

Americans Eager To Welcome Foch

French Embassy Deluged With Invitations To Meet Commander.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 23.—Marshal Foch will be the guest of the American people during his visit in the United States, when he comes here as the chief military adviser of the French delegation to the arms conference.

In a larger sense he will be an unofficial representative of the French people to those of the United States already the French Embassy is being deluged with invitations for Marshal Foch to visit various portions of the United States, and it is understood that he is expected to accept these invitations so far as his duties will permit. Marshal Foch has been made the recipient of many invitations to visit the United States since the armistice, but his duties in France have made this impossible.

A despatch from Brest, France, says that Marshal Foch, who sails on October 23, has gone into training for the trip on his British estate a few miles from that city. He will stay there for a month, getting in condition to meet the rigors of a series of parquets he expects to attend while visiting the United States.

"Poor Marshal Fayolle was on the verge of despondency when he returned from America," Foch is said to have remarked jokingly, "and he has a much better stomach than I. If the Americans insist upon banqueting me as they propose I am afraid the 'table of America' will be my undoing."

The French people are not oblivious to the sentimentality which the American people have in the great military chieftain. The wave of hearty enthusiasm which can be accorded a visitor from France was shown at the time of the visit here of Marshal Joffre. Of all the foreign visitors who came to Washington during the war period it was Marshal Joffre who made the most favorable impression on their hearts with enthusiasm.

It is recognized that it was Foch's strategy in 1918 which made it possible for the freshly arrived Americans to defeat the German army. It is for this reason that the American people are so anxious to see him. The Marshal has already accepted an invitation to appear in Philadelphia at a public function.

De Valera Finds Solace In Piano

Seeks Relief from Strain and Tension of Negotiation by Returning to First Love.

Dublin, Sept. 23.—Ignace Paderewski, at the height of the Polish crisis took his greatest love—piano—for dangerous game, international politics. Throughout his term of office as Premier, his fingers never touched the ivory and black keys, which were his life's passion. Eamon De Valera, harassed president of the Irish Republic, at the most critical moment of negotiations which will determine whether war or peace will come to his country, is seeking relief from the strain and tension by returning to his own love—the piano. There was a time when De Valera was called a brilliant musician. But in the stress of politics he neglected his talent. Now, however, he forgets the troubled world for an hour or more each day playing Beethoven melodies he loves, or hymns or anthems of the church to which he is passionately devoted.

IMPOSSIBLE TO DISCUSS IRISH SEPARATION

Members of British Cabinet Divided on Nature of Reply to De Valera.

QUESTION NOW BEING DEBATED

Pertains to Whether or No Conference Shall Begin With Reservation.

(United Press.) London, Sept. 23.—With two distinct views held by members of the British Cabinet regarding the nature of the reply to De Valera's demand for the Irish question rests upon the final approval of the full Cabinet of a draft already completed by the Premier and forwarded by him to those Ministers found the Liberal cabinet members.

The conference in Scotland from the Liberal cabinet members in the majority, and Lord George, it is understood, had refused to move with out the unqualified sanction of the entire body. The new note involves first of all, the consideration of the capacity in which De Valera's colleagues will attend the Peace Conference; and second, the basis upon which the conference will be held.

The question now being debated within the Cabinet, therefore, is whether the Conference shall begin with a reservation that Britain will not discuss the question of separation at all, or whether the demand should be made that De Valera renounce all claim to Irish independence, and accept the principle of British sovereignty in advance. It is believed that in the present form the reply emphatically states that separation will not and cannot be discussed, but that this expression will not be couched in terms so strong as to offend Sinn Fein and prevent the conference being held. The prevailing opinion at De Valera's camp is that the British Government is not prepared to discuss the question of separation, and therefore, it is expected that De Valera will be asked to make himself more explicit on this point. The Government still holds the view that the only possible basis for meeting is the retention of Ireland as part of the Empire. Cabinet members from whom Lord George has now sought opinion, are expected to reply to the Premier Monday, and a new note to De Valera accordingly should go forward early in the week.

Police at Dublin are watching every Irish port for the possible import of arms. ANTI-BEER BILL BEFORE SENATE

Senator Stanley Makes Vigorous Attack Against Measure and Pleads for Drinks.

(United Press.) Washington, Sept. 23.—The Anti-Beer Bill came to the Senate in the afternoon and was subject to a desultory debate during the afternoon and in an extra session which extended into the night. Senator Stanley, enemy of the Anti-Beer Bill, and sponsor of the amendment to it which is now the object of the struggle, spoke at length in opposition to it. "I shall not be a party to the passage of this bill," he said, "for the sake of perpetuating in all its vigor untouched and unaltered the constitution of the United States."

Speaking of what he said was to be an effort to rewrite the history of the relations between this country and Great Britain Senator Stanley suggested that some future historian will find Washington was a distiller, Franklin a brewer and Patrick Henry a bar tender. He did this in a caustic allusion to the fact that the colonists made a practice of smuggling rum into the country.

Churchill Speaks To Idle Workers

In behalf of the Government, speaking at Dundee to deputations representing many idle workers of the United Kingdom, declared, Friday, that since the Armistice, the British Government had spent one hundred and five million pounds in relief. This, he added, was unparalleled in any country in the world. America, he pointed out, "whose vaults overflowed with the gold of Europe during the war is now in an infinitely worse position as regards unemployment than that of Great Britain."

Moncton, N. B., Sept. 23.—At tonight's meeting of the Board of Trade a resolution was passed favoring the making of a levy contract with the Tramways Company, rather than the purchase by the city of the Company's plant. A plebiscite on the question of purchasing the plant from the Company will be held Monday next.

PRINCE OF WALES TO TAKE 11 BLACK CATS WITH HIM ON TRIP TO INDIA

London, Sept. 23.—The battleship Renown, which is to leave October 26 to take the Prince of Wales on a visit to India and now is taking on stores, will be no ark of self denial, nor does her equipment resemble in any way that taken by "Pussyfoot" Johnson on his recent trip to the same Eastern empire. Among the stores for the officers are 24,000 bottles of wine; 150,000 cigarettes and 9,000 cigars, in addition to 5,000 specially made Havanas which the prince is taking for his own use.

For the enlisted men there will be 5,860 gallons of rum, 4,000 gallons of lime juice (without which no British seaman puts to sea), 10,000 pounds of flour, 15,000 pounds of "corned willy," 6,000 pounds of canned salmon and 2,000 pounds of hard tack. In the ship's complement are Prince Charles, second son of King Albert of Belgium, who is a midshipman of the British navy, 16 drummer boys who will escort the Prince on shore. There are 11 black cats for luck.

WAS JEALOUSY OR DISAPPEARANCE OF LIQUOR CAUSE OF THE MURDER

Divorcee Shoots Her Friend Whom She Introduced to "Man About Town."

(United Press.) New York, Sept. 23.—"Too much high life in New York, and the pace is too fast. The liquor here has driven me crazy, mother dear. Can't stand this sordid, tinsel life any longer." Whether or not these two quotations from the last letters of Mrs. Grace Lewis, who by in wait for Miss Mildred, granddaughter of the late millionaire shoe manufacturer shot her friend so seriously she may die, and then killed herself, contain the seed of the tragedy may never be known. But they are looked upon by police as significant.

Mrs. Lewis is known to have taken a quantity of morphine before she did the deed. Another motive may have been jealousy. Miss Hannan, unconscious at Long Island College Hospital, is suffering from bullet wounds in lungs, trunk and arms. Mrs. Lewis' body is at the morgue awaiting the autopsy.

Jealousy Crops Up.

Mrs. Lewis, Miss Hannan, John S. Borland, importer and collector of goods, and Miss Dorothy Gottschalk had been close friends. It is said that Mrs. Lewis' beautiful divorcee, had introduced Borland to Miss Hannan, a new social party at Miss Gottschalk's apartment last night and ended when Borland and Miss Hannan left early this morning. At the foot of the stairs Mrs. Lewis was waiting. As Miss Hannan came within range she fired three shots, all of which struck Miss Hannan. Borland was too paralyzed by the strange attack to interfere. Mrs. Lewis was fired another shot into her own brain dying almost instantly. At the police station Borland is said to have admitted that Mrs. Lewis may have been jealous of his attention to Miss Hannan. But the police in reading the last letters of the woman slayer are inclined to make a different diagnosis of the case. They say it was due to hotheadedness.

Dr. Walter Dill Scott, President of the University, says Monday was not hazed and expressed the hope that he would turn up soon. He issued a statement outlining the work already done by the University in furthering the search for the missing freshman, and explained the authority under which classes rushes are held.

"Having Dr. Scott said, 'it is not permitted at Northwestern University. Our investigation thus far shows no one was abducted from the campus.' The police are proceeding on these theories:

1—Abduction. An automobile has disappeared from a garage near the University, and the police think students may have taken it for use in the class rush.

2—Unintentional manslaughter. Bejevo it possible that in the excitement of the free-for-all young Mowg was thrown into the lake and drowned. The police assisted the students and dragged the lake bottom.

3—Love affair. Police say missing youth left a farewell note with a college sweetheart.

The motion car crew given most consideration by the police. Investigation revealed prior to the class rush, that students visited numerous garages in the vicinity and borrowed cars without permission. All but one returned. Students are "cutting" classes without faculty permission to aid in the search. The University authorities have asked Student Council to do what they could to solve the mysterious disappearance.

Agreement Reached On Peace Treaties

Ratification of Pacts Between U. S., Germany, Austria and Hungary is Expected.

Washington, Sept. 23.—President Harding, Secretary Hughes and the majority of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee are in agreement on the Peace treaties with Germany, Austria and Hungary as the pacts have been reported without reservations attached. This, it is thought, will expedite a ratification of the treaties by the Senate as President Harding desires. Senator Borah, ir-reconcilable leader, is alone among ten members of the committee voting against the treaties Friday, and will continue to fight against them on the floor. Senator Johnson, who stood with Borah in a vigorous fight against the Treaty of Versailles, announced that the new pact as altered is satisfactory to him. Borah bases his objection on acceptance of certain clauses of the Versailles treaty in the new pact. It would, he contends, involve America in European affairs.

Sent Up Charged With Robbery

Special to The Standard. Moncton, Sept. 23.—At Dorchester, today, Norman Phinney and Albert Bugley were committed for trial by Magistrate C. G. Chapman on the charge of breaking into A. C. Leblanc's store in the parish of Shediac and stealing goods therefrom. The accused admitted the charge. The accused hail from Amherst.

ARBUCKLE'S PARTY BEING AIRED IN COURT

All the Wretched Details of "Gin Jollification" Described by Witnesses.

RECEIVED GUESTS IN PAJAMAS

Arbuckle in Negligee Attire When Friends Arrived for the Celebration.

(United Press.) San Francisco, Sept. 23.—Roscoe "Fatty" Arbuckle's Labor Day "gin jollification," which ended in "Fatty's" arrest, charged with murdering Virginia Rappe, was described in detail by Arbuckle's guests at today's session in his preliminary hearing on the charge of murder. The famous comedian sat listening intently at every word spoken, now and then glancing down at his diminutive wife, Minta Durfee, who huddled close to him.

Mrs. Arbuckle, dressed in dark street clothes, silently watched the proceedings which carry her husband the shadow of a gallows. Now and then she grasped his hand, but seldom showed any signs of emotion. Her mother and sister were in court with her.

The story told, was practically the same as related at the coroner's inquest. It was in review how Arbuckle was alleged to have entertained with gin, Scotch, whiskey and orange juice a handful of his friends and San Francisco show girls. The guests wore conventional clothes and the host was in pajamas, bathrobe and slippers. Plainly "an informal gathering of friends," one witness described it. The courtroom was filled with San Francisco club women, sent there as a committee "to see if our presence will not eliminate some of the morbid features from this case."

Men Not Interested.

The only men present were newspaper men, police court officials and attorneys.

No one was allowed on the second floor of the Hall of Justice without permits, and many were turned away unable to satisfy their curiosity to see the fat comedian facing the bar of justice.

Al Semmacher, first witness called, testified that he took Virginia Rappe and Mrs. Bambina Maude Delmont to Arbuckle's apartment in the St. Francis Hotel in the early afternoon of Labor Day. There they joined a party consisting of Arbuckle and Lowell Sherman, who were seated at a table eating breakfast. Arbuckle was clad in pyjamas, slippers and dressing gown. Fred Fischbach, Ira Portlouis, Zey Pyron, Alice Blake and Mrs. Mae Taube all were in street clothes and seated around the table singing, and some drinking. Semmacher did not know of his movements when one witness described it.

Rappe was absent from the room. The two girls, whose names he could not state, went into the adjoining room and in a moment rushed out crying. "Miss Rappe is very fine," everyone ran into the room, Semmacher testified. He said Miss Rappe was lying on one of the twin beds. At this point the attorneys went into a verbal engagement, the defense demanding that the State declare witness a "hostile witness" and the examination be made cross-examination.

After a long argument the defense won the point and court took recess.

REDISTRIBUTION CAUSING MUCH DISCUSSION AMONG POLITICIANS

The Scheme Based Upon the Quebec Unit of Representation and Points Relating Thereto—Unit of Representation This Year Based on 40,000 Population.

Ottawa, Sept. 18.—(Canadian Press)—Discussion on the coming general elections are replete with reference to redistribution, the Quebec unit of representation and points relating thereto. How is redistribution to be effected? What is the so-called Quebec unit of representation, and how does it affect representation from the other provinces?

First, let it be explained that representation in the House of Commons is based, under the British North America Act, on the population of the Province of Quebec. It is provided that Quebec shall have an unchanging representation of 55 members, and that the other provinces shall have a membership in the House which will bear the same proportion as do their populations to that of the province of Quebec. With the taking of each decennial census, the law requires that there be a distribution of seats, and had the forthcoming general election been delayed until, say next summer, that course would have been followed.

The unit of representation in the last parliament, based on the Quebec 1911 population of 2,093,232, was roughly 30,600. Estimates made thus far as to the 1921 census have indicated that the unit of representation will be nearer the 20,000 mark. The redistribution act based on the 1911 census was passed in 1914. Previous to that time the House of Commons consisted of 221 members. The 1914 act brought the number up to 235, distributed by provinces as follows: Alberta, 12; British Columbia, 13; Manitoba, 15; New Brunswick, 11; Nova Scotia, 12; Ontario, 32; Prince Edward Island, 4; Quebec, 55; Saskatchewan, 16, and Yukon, 1.

The effect of the next redistribution bill, whenever it is passed, will be, it is expected, to decrease the Ontario and Maritime Province representation and add seats in the Western Provinces. No accurate forecast of the effect of redistribution can be made, however, until the census returns are officially completed and the population by provinces issued by the Census Commission.

Changes made by the 1914 redistribution act were: Nova Scotia: Antigonish absorbed into Guysborough; Richmond by Cape Breton, and Digby by Annapolis.

New Brunswick: Restigouche and Madawaska united; Victoria, previously with Madawaska, joined to Carleton Place.

Western Union Conference Ends

Three Days' Gathering Brought to a Close Yesterday.

The three days' conference of the officials and managers of the Western Union Telegraph Company, held in this city, was concluded yesterday. The conference was called by Supt. C. W. McKee, of the Maritime Provinces, and the daily sessions held in the telephone building were conducted by T. W. Carroll, general manager. A. C. Kaufman, general commercial agent of the company, of New York, and Geo. M. Robertson, manager for the company at St. John.

The conference was attended by H. Flaherty, district commercial manager; G. H. Whitney, supervisor; W. G. Barber, general commercial superintendent, Canadian National Telegraphs; Toronto; S. H. Hines, district commercial superintendent, Canadian National Telegraphs, Montreal; A. C. Wilbur, chief operator, Canadian National Telegraphs, Montreal; N. E. R. Burns, manager, Montreal; N. B. A. R. Morrison, manager, Charlottetown, P.E.I.; L. W. Smith, manager, Summerside, P.E.I.; Miss E. G. Cole, manager, Amherst, N.S.; L. L. Black, manager, Sydney, N.S.; Miss M. M. Proulx, manager, Woodstock, N. B.; Guy Lawlor, manager, Florenceville, N. B.; R. E. Hyslop, manager, St. Stephen, N. B.; Miss F. L. Winchester, manager, Digby, N.S.

Mr. Robertson advised that the information received at the conference brought out the fact that indications point to a general improvement in business conditions in Canada as reflected by the telegraph, which is a safe barometer of business conditions. The business reaction so far registered throughout the country is of a healthy nature and business concerns all over the country who are really bidding and pressing for business are being rewarded with growing orders; that reports emanating from well established and authenticated commercial sources point out unerringly that the tide is now turning.

The obligation of the Western Union Telegraph Company during the adjustment period was fully and forcibly reviewed with the attending managers, and great stress was laid upon the personal responsibility each employee bears at this important time when the telegraph is playing so large a part as a first aid to business reconstruction.

A conference similar to that held in St. John will also be held at Halifax which will be headed by the managers of the office in Nova Scotia and other officials.

Don't get the habit of hiccup—stop the hiccup at the beginning. Nothing brings such magical relief as slowly sipping a few drops of Nervine in sweetened water. For stomach spasms, hiccups, cramps, diarrhoea, nothing will prove more useful in every home than a 35-cent bottle of good old Nervine.

Judgments Given In Appeal Court

St. John County Cases Among Those Concerned.

Fredericton, Sept. 23.—At this morning's session of the Supreme Court of Appeal, which was adjourned from last week, and at which Sir Douglas Hazen, Chief Justice, and Judges Grimmer and Crockett, presided, judgments were delivered in the St. John County appeal of James Hovey, plaintiff, vs. J. H. Doody, defendant, and also in the Northumberland county lumber case of James Robinson, appellant, defendant, versus H. A. Berry, respondent, plaintiff.

In the St. John case, which was tried before Judge Armstrong with a jury, being an action arising over a claim for extras for repairs upon the Deaf and Dumb Institution at Lunenburg, the judgment of the appeal court was read by Mr. Justice Grimmer, sustaining the judgment of the St. John County Court in favor of defendant for $129 as directed by the order of Judge Armstrong upon the answer of a number of questions submitted to the jury. One of these questions answered by the jury in the negative was whether the defendant told the plaintiff to go ahead with the work and he would see him paid, and another, which was also answered in the negative, was whether the contract was made verbally between Captain Young and James Hovey for extra work. The appeal court decided that the finding of the jury were amply supported by the evidence and the appeal was dismissed with costs.

In the Robinson-Berry case, which was tried at King's Bench Division, before Mr. Justice Barry and a jury, and in which the claim of the plaintiff, Berry, was for breach of contract for the sale and delivery of two million laths at $3.25 per thousand, defendant contended that the agreement entered into was upon conditions and conditions that never had been fulfilled and it was also set up in his defence that the contract was wholly oral and unenforceable at law under the statute of frauds, as it did not contain the complete terms of the contract. Damages in the court below were assessed against defendant for the sum of $4,300 and costs. Chief Justice Hazen read the judgment prepared by Chief Justice McKee, of the King's Bench Division, who sat upon the hearing of this appeal, the appeal court sustaining the claim of the defendant and the appeal being allowed with costs of appeal and costs in the court below.

There were no common motions yesterday and the court adjourned sine die.

Physicians know absolutely that appendicitis is as much a "filth disease" as is Typhus or Diphtheria. They know that if it is not removed in practically every case, by chronic constipation. Waste matter, which should be eliminated every day, is allowed to remain in the bowels three or four days. Defecate from the lower bowel work into the appendix, rot there and inflame the appendix. Sometimes, pus forms and the appendix bursts, bringing on peritonitis. "Fruit-A-Tives" the wonderful fruit medicine, is an absolute corrective of constipation. It acts directly on the liver, stimulating the flow of bile and strengthening the bowel muscles, so that the waste matter is eliminated regularly. "Fruit-A-Tives" are sold by all dealers at 60c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c, or sent postpaid by FRUIT-A-TIVES LIMITED, OTTAWA.

Physicians know absolutely that appendicitis is as much a "filth disease" as is Typhus or Diphtheria. They know that if it is not removed in practically every case, by chronic constipation. Waste matter, which should be eliminated every day, is allowed to remain in the bowels three or four days. Defecate from the lower bowel work into the appendix, rot there and inflame the appendix. Sometimes, pus forms and the appendix bursts, bringing on peritonitis. "Fruit-A-Tives" the wonderful fruit medicine, is an absolute corrective of constipation. It acts directly on the liver, stimulating the flow of bile and strengthening the bowel muscles, so that the waste matter is eliminated regularly. Calling For Tenders For West India Line

Two Forms of Tenders Asked—Alternate Sailings from St. John-Halifax.

The Board of Trade has received from the Trade and Commerce Department, Ottawa, a copy of the call for tenders for steamship service between Canada, the British West Indies and British Guiana. The tenders, which will be received up to noon January 31, 1921, call for two forms of service, one weekly or fortnightly from St. John or Halifax, and the other weekly or fortnightly from St. John and Halifax alternately. The alternate form of sailings from the two ports was recommended to the department by the St. John Board of Trade. The service is designed to cover a period of five or ten years. Tenders are requested to state the earliest date on which they can establish the service proposed. The steamers to be employed shall be over 5,000 to 6,000 tons gross, capable of maintaining an ocean speed of 12 knots, and providing accommodation for 100 first-class, 30 second-class, and 100 steerage or deck passengers, and shall be provided with two decks. The contract will provide that there shall be reasonable proportionate allocation of passengers and cargo accommodation between the colonies mentioned. There shall be no unfair differentiation in rates of freight against the smaller colonies as compared with the rates of larger colonies situated at a similar distance from St. John or Halifax. Freight and passenger rates will at all times be subject to the approval of the Minister of Trade and Commerce. The steamers shall be so constructed that so far as the traffic warrants, cold storage shall be provided, but alternative tenders may be submitted offering the service with or without cold storage. Provision is also made for the carrying of mail. The contract provides that on the outward sailings the steamers shall call one week at Bermuda, Barbados, Trinidad and British Guiana, and on the homeward passage at Trinidad, Grosset, St. Vincent, Barbados, St. Lucia, Dominica, Montserrat, Antigua, Nevis, St. Kitts and Bermuda, and on alternate weeks calling on the outward passage at Bermuda, St. Kitts, Nevis, Antigua, Montserrat, Dominica, St. Lucia, Barbados, St. Vincent, Grenada, Trinidad and British Guiana, and on the homeward passage at Trinidad, Barbados and Bermuda.

TARIFF FOR REVENUE

By the time a few more Liberal leaders have spoken the public may perhaps get some idea of just where the party is at in regard to its programme. That section of the public which keeps itself in touch with political matters was under the impression that the Liberal programme was decided at the Convention of that party held in Ottawa in 1919; in fact it was so definitely decided upon that the party solemnly pledged itself to implement the programme by legislation "when returned to power."

When a year or so ago, the Hon. Mackenzie King was casting around for a constituency that would provide him with a seat in the House of Commons, that of Prince, P. E. Island, was chosen. He has received a pressing invitation from the electors of that constituency to again become their representative, but has declined on the ground that he thinks it would give him a better standing as leader of the Liberal party if he sat for an Ontario constituency.

There are people in Canada who profess to believe in such a tariff "with incidental protection." Presumably they would meet revenue needs, with such a tariff of protection as the customs duties would involve. But Mr. King and his friends declare that they will have nothing to do with protection in any form; it is anathema to them, so they say. But a tariff for revenue, except in so far as applied exclusively to goods of a class or kind not produced in this country, would be the most uncommercial and costly fiscal expedient that possibly could be considered.

Our esteemed contemporary The Globe apparently does not think very much of the Senate, and seems to feel that now that it is composed of Liberals, the present would be a very good time to reform it. The composition of the Senate when Sir Wilfrid Laurier went out of power—some 65 Liberals and 22 Conservatives—was quite satisfactory to The Globe however, which at that time did not seem to think reform at all called for.

Mr. Mackenzie King at Toronto, "Was it not the Tory leader Walpole who said that 'Every man has his price'?" For an educated man with aspirations to statesmanship, Mr. King is shockingly ignorant in regard to political history. What Walpole did say, referring to certain politicians who were opposing his policies, was: "All these men have their price, and I know the price of each one of them." Possibly every man that Mr. King consorts with may have his price, but there are men who cannot be bought.

Those people who are so assiduously engaged in promoting the suggestion of the wearing of a red poppy on Armistice Day as a memorial to those who fell are to any the least of it, exceedingly thoughtless. We may tell these people that the relatives of the 60,000 Canadians who gave their lives do not need any special reminder of their loss; the memory of it is with them every day. They have seen red poppies enough in war pictures to satisfy all their fancies in this direction.

After the exhibition had closed down in Portland, Me., the chief of police summoned to his office all the concessionaires on games of chance. "You are not under arrest," he said. "All I want is to induce some of you to explain to me how it is possible for the public to win anything. If the chief succeeded in finding out, he might let the public into the secret. It would be worth anything."

WHAT OTHERS SAY

Prices Must Go Down. It is a generally conceded fact that retail prices of confectionery are too high. But when it comes to finding the reason for this we find the retailer blaming the manufacturer and the manufacturer blaming the retailer. It is known that there is a vast surplus in the hands of the manufacturers and that manufacturers have in many instances reduced their prices to the jobbers who in turn have made corresponding decreases to the retailer. But have the retailers reflected these reductions in their prices?

Some retailers have their refusal to reduce their prices on the ground that clerk hire and other help which is one of the big items of expense, has not decreased, and that their rent and overhead is practically the same as during the high prices. But whatever the reason, the fact remains that the price of confectionery in the average retail store is too high. The spreading ability of the people is being reduced as factories close and with this will go a corresponding decrease in the sale and consumption of confectionery unless the retail price is properly adjusted.—Confectioners' Review.

Talking About Unemployment. Sound Common Sense.—The following is from the Ottawa Citizen (news column) of August 31 last: At the reunion of ex-service men under the auspices of the Western branch of the G. W. V. A. in Beatty's hall, Westboro, last evening, C. G. MacNeill, secretary of the Dominion command, delivered an address in which he laid much emphasis upon the seriousness of the unemployment situation, and said the only way to avert a disaster was by the co-operation of all the leading interests in a great effort to provide work for the big army of unemployed. Economic conditions were running too deep to be remedied by the action of government. The time had arrived for everybody to put aside selfish interests and center their attention upon what should be regarded by all as the great crisis of the country today.—National Liberal and Conservative Bulletin.

Chaining Men to the Land. The suggestion of Mr. Tom Moore that immigrants who have obtained admission to Canada for the specific purpose of working on the farm and that have removed to the cities be deported, was undoubtedly well intended; but can it be said to be reasonable or practicable? The movement away from the land in Canada is not confined to immigrants. Thousands of young men and women born and brought up on farms in Canada are leaving it every year for the urban centres. Can one rule be established for immigrants who come to this country with the idea of becoming Canadians, whether they remain farmers or the lives of not, and another for those who are already Canadians by the accident of birth on Canadian soil? Would it not be better to attempt to make life on Canadian farms more profitable and consequently more attractive to those who start out in the city, and all indications point to the strong probability that when the elections are over, he'll wish he had accepted Prince's invitation again.

A BIT OF VERSE TO IRELAND. O little island green and fair Beyond the breaking sea, Whose sons have charmed the world with song And minstrel melody, Whose daughters wearing beauty's crown In dance and banquet hall With witchery of glance and grace Have held men's hearts in thrall! Killarney's peerless beauty lures The traveller from afar And Antrim glens to Wicklow hills—North, south, from east to west—A paradise beyond compare, Yet soothing with unrest. What alle the trees, Ireland, that the voice Of mirth is heard by fears And all the pleasant countryside Is bathed with blood and tears. Arson and murder, hand in hand, While Justice faints in the streets And Judgment makes delay. Like battlement for truth and right The mighty Causeway stands, Firm as the purpose of the North To cling to Empire bands. The dispersion of the sea Has severed the divine order. Sounds the refrain that Ulster loves—"Loyal for evermore." Thy men have died for Britain's flag, Thy statesmen framed her laws And in her council chambers won A listening world's applause. What alle the trees, country of my love? Wake from thy troubled dreams! Wherever Britain's banner floats There Freedom reigns supreme.—Emeline Stuart Godfrey, Ottawa.

TEA BETTER LIQUID THAN COFFEE TO FACE DEATH ON, ASSERTED. The increased mental activity and endurance of the British aviator is due to his constant indulgence in tea, according to Dr. Allen Starr of Columbia University, in a recent lecture Starr declared. "While the American troops in France at first generally preferred coffee, American aviators invariably preferred tea before making hard flights, therein following the example of British aviators." "The American aviators' testimony to tea is the greatest that has ever been given, for it is absolutely pure of any suspicion of undue predilection or prejudice," concludes Starr. "These United States flying fighters faced death on tea in preference to any other drink."

BOLSHEVIKI IS ACCUSED OF BREAKING P. Great Britain Charges Moscow With Red Propaganda in Afghanistan.

London, Sept. 23.—The British Government has despatched a stern worded note to Moscow calling the attention of the Soviet Government to alleged serious breaches of faith involved in the purloining by the Russians throughout the Soviet and Afghanistan of a campaign of intrigue hostile towards Great Britain. An explanation is demanded from the British Foreign Secretary asking for full assurance that these activities constituting breaches of the agreement, shall cease. The note, which was written by Lord Curzon, details fully the alleged hostile acts complained of, most of which were in Afghanistan. It is stated that the Moscow Government has been invited to Moscow last July to discuss the best means of bringing about a revolution in India, also refers to the activities of R. Stein, the Russian representative in Tehran, who is considered to be plotting large sums and known to subsidizing Persian newspapers carry on an anti-British campaign. It complains that the Soviet are reporting the Turkish Nationalists. The gravest charge pertains to Russo-Afghan treaty and M. Tichoff's insistence upon a clause in the treaty providing for the opening consulates in Eastern Afghanistan. Lord Curzon says the Government proceeds to Afghanistan and superintend these consulates are regarded by Soviet Government as prospective centres of propaganda and have done also of the activities of J. Pasha, sent to Afghanistan by Soviet to provide the hostile tribes with funds, arms and ammunition. The note accuses the Soviet of trying to induce the Indian Amir Hafiz, who has been studying manufacture of bombs in Vienna, proceed to Afghanistan and superintend a bomb depot on the borders of India in order to facilitate the importation of bombs into India. It declares that the Soviet are every persuasion to prevent the Soviet Government from arriving at a peaceful solution with the Emir of Afghanistan and are endeavoring to force on the borders of Afghanistan suggesting that they should be sent into Anatolia for the support of Kemalists. An Afghan mission, which had been in London for some weeks endeavoring to install an official Afghan representative to enter direct political relations with the British Government has left in a deuceon for Paris via mission unfulfilled. The attempt of the Afghans with failure because of the insistence of Lord Curzon, the British Foreign Secretary, that relations with Afghanistan should be direct only at the present through the India Office and that the question of an independent treaty now being negotiated with the mission persistently refused enter into any relations with India Office.

BOLSHEVIKI IS ACCUSED OF BREAKING PACT

Great Britain Charges Moscow with Red Propaganda in Afghanistan.

London, Sept. 23.—The British Government has despatched a strongly worded note to Moscow calling the attention of the Soviet Government to alleged serious breaches of faith involved in the pursuance by the Russians through their agents in Afghanistan of a campaign of intrigues hostile towards Great Britain.

The note, which was written by Lord Curzon, details fully the alleged hostile acts complained of, most of which were in Afghanistan. It was delivered to the Moscow Government two days ago. It details a number of "flagrant violations" of Russia's undertaking under the trade agreement (signed by Krasnov) with Great Britain to cease anti-British propaganda, and particularly enumerated the activities of the Third International of Moscow in India and Afghanistan, quoting in substantiation thereof a statement by M. Stalin, president of the Eastern section of the Third International, urging the Eastern Secretariat to devote itself to undermining the external power of England and France.

It is declared in the note that the British Government has evidence of continued intrigue with India revolutionaries in Europe, some of whom were invited to Moscow last June to discuss the best means of bringing about a revolution in India, and also refers to the activities of Bolshevism, the Russian representative at Teheran, who is declared to be importing large sums and known to be subsidizing Persian newspapers to carry on an anti-British campaign. It complains that the Soviets are supporting the Turkish Nationalists.

The gravest charge pertains to the Russo-Afghan treaty and M. Tchitcherin's insistence upon a clause in this treaty providing for the opening of consulates in Eastern Afghanistan. Lord Curzon says the Government possesses indisputable evidence that these consulates are regarded by the Soviet Government as prospective centres of propaganda and subversion also of the activities of Jamal Pasha, sent to Afghanistan by the Soviet to provide the hostile tribesmen with funds, arms and ammunition.

The note accuses the Soviet of trying to induce the Indian anarchist Hafiz, who has been studying the manufacture of bombs in Vienna, to proceed to Afghanistan and supervise a bomb depot on the borders of India in order to facilitate the importation of bombs into India.

It declares that the Soviet used every person to prevent the Anglo Government from arriving at a peaceful solution with the Entente Powers and assembled considerable forces on the borders of Anatolia, suggesting that they should be sent into Anatolia for the support of the Kemalists.

An Afghan mission, which had been in London for some weeks endeavoring to install an official Afghan envoy to enter into direct political relations with the British Government, has left in a dejection for Paris with its mission unfulfilled.

The attempts of the Afghans met with failure because of the insistence of Lord Curzon, the British Foreign Secretary, that relations with Afghanistan should be conducted only as in the past through the India Office, and that the question of an envoy depends upon the conclusion of a treaty now being negotiated at Kabul. The mission persistently refused to enter into any relations with the India Office.

Morning Post in Editorial Takes G. B. Shaw To Task

Says He is Straining Tolerance in John Bull's Most Tolerant Island.

London, Sept. 23.—The Morning Post, which was supplied by Henry Arthur Jones with a copy of his message to the New York Times, also publishes George Bernard Shaw's rejoinder. The Morning Post, in an editorial headed, "The Playboy in Politics," says:

"Mr. Shaw is straining the toleration with which he is treated in the most tolerant of John Bull's two lands. A bright, ingenious boy is permitted a certain amount of indulgence in the nursery, but if he seeks to carry out his pranks and experiments in the laboratory, he is soon taken to task by people who have an objection to devastating explosions. Mr. Shaw, who, if he may not have reached the years of a Methuselah, has certainly something of a Peter Pan imperviousness to the moderating influences of time, has, in the stage, a wide field for the display of his lively capers. Why, then, should he rush into the laboratory of international politics, with its infinite possibilities for mischief and destruction. Early this month Mr. Shaw wrote for an American newspaper which is noted for its anti-British sympathies, an article on the Irish crisis in which he gave utterance to the following remarks:—

"What is the next military enterprise to which Mr. Lloyd George has expressly committed himself? Nothing less than a conflict with the United States for the command of the sea. 'This country has its enemies in the United States as elsewhere, and it requires a great effort of mind to imagine the propaganda which can be and probably has been, made out of such sentences. Mr. Henry Arthur Jones, who is a student of affairs as well as a playwright, properly took his brother dramatist to task for such a gross breach of propriety. Mr. Shaw's reply is flippant and unconvincing. The Morning Post then combats Shaw's argument that the statement Lloyd George made last June on the question of disarmament 'was in effect a declaration of war on America, to mature twenty years hence.'"

A Mild Ultimatum.
"If Mr. Shaw be right," says the Morning Post, "this is the flimsiest ultimatum ever sent by a fire-eating Celt in the history of man. We doubt if even Mr. Hearst could take offense at the enunciation of such a platitude. Only Mr. Shaw, or Mr. de Valera, could see in such a mild opinion of an historic truth, a challenge to a great neighbor, and a defiance which is the harbinger of war. And the childishness of Mr. Shaw's argument becomes all the more obvious when we read alongside the Prime Minister's remarks the public invitation of Lord Lee's predecessor at the Admiralty for an equality of shipbuilding between Great Britain and the United States, or more so, when we compare the present rate of battleship construction in this country with that now proceeding across the Atlantic."

"Lethal command of the sea is not right," exclaims Mr. Shaw, but what is there lethal in a policy that seeks only to maintain the fabric of the British Empire and the channels by which the people of these islands are fed. Nobody could call Mr. Shaw lethal because he takes the necessary precautions to safeguard the copyright of his books and the royalties which plays. Mr. Shaw is unjust to this country. He always is, but he is even more unjust to America. The plain fact of the matter is that he doesn't understand Englishmen and Americans. He understands Irishmen and Germans. Americans and Englishmen know perfectly well that war between their two countries would mean not only the destruction of the British Empire—a minor calamity doubtless to Mr. Shaw—but the break-up of civilization and the relegation of even jokers to the jungle. But Mr. Shaw can sleep safely in his super-civilized bed. America and England can share the seas as they have shared Mr. Shaw's."

Henry Arthur Jones in a letter to Sir Squire Bancroft dated Sept. 17 regrets that he (Jones) has been obliged to withdraw his name from the committee which is arranging a testimonial matinee performance in recognition of the well-known actor J. H. Barnes "as I see the list of its members includes the name of Mr. George Bernard Shaw." Jones then gives the text of his letter to the New York Times, cabled on Sept. 10, and asks Sir Squire Bancroft to read it to the committee.

"It will," he says, "explain my position in this matter." Jones concludes: "I hope my withdrawal from your committee will be justified in the eyes of all who can see this very plain fact that the security of Great Britain and the peace of the world depend upon a good understanding between America and England."

Poverty is no disgrace, but there is precious little else that can be said for it.

GIRLS! LEMONS BLEACH SKIN WHITE

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, which any drug store will supply for a few cents, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of harmless and delightful lemon bleach. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day, then shortly note the beauty and whiteness of your skin. Famous stage beauties use this lemon lotion to bleach and bring their soft, clear, rosy-white complexion, also as a freckle, sunburn, and tan bleach because it doesn't irritate.

On Face and Hands, Itched and Burned, Cuticura Heals.

"My baby was only a month old when her face and hands started to get red and sooty. The rashes started in the form of water blisters and itched and burned. Obituary

Harry W. de Forest.
Word was received at noon yesterday by C. W. de Forest, 155 Sydney street, that his brother, Harry W. de Forest, had passed away early that morning at his home in Evanston, Ill. He was a son of the late George S. de Forest, and was formerly in business with his father here. Later he was manager of the Union Blend Tea agency on Mill street. Three years ago he moved to Chicago to take charge of the Salada Tea branch there.

Mr. de Forest is survived by his wife, three sons, George W. John W. and Harry W., all of Evanston; one brother, C. de Forest, of this city, and two sisters, Mrs. C. S. Paterson and Miss Edith de Forest, all of St. John.

Mr. de Forest was in his fifty-eighth year. He was very prominent in athletics here in earlier days. He was a member of the old National Baseball team and also took part in hockey, bowling, curling and other sports. The body will be brought to St. John for burial. Many friends in the city will be sorry to learn of his death, and will extend much sympathy to the bereaved relatives.

Twila Elizabeth Beatty.

Much sympathy will be extended to Mr. and Mrs. William Y. Beatty, 159 Waterloo street, in the death of their infant daughter, Twila Elizabeth, which occurred late Thursday night. She took sick only Thursday morning, and only Mr. de Valera, could see in such a mild opinion of an historic truth, a challenge to a great neighbor, and a defiance which is the harbinger of war. And the childishness of Mr. Shaw's argument becomes all the more obvious when we read alongside the Prime Minister's remarks the public invitation of Lord Lee's predecessor at the Admiralty for an equality of shipbuilding between Great Britain and the United States, or more so, when we compare the present rate of battleship construction in this country with that now proceeding across the Atlantic."

Paris, Sept. 23.—French astronomer, and especially Abbe Moreau, director of the Bureau Observatory, are hearing ridicule on Prof. MacAfee's calculations that by utilizing a mine shaft as a barrel for his mercury and telescope he will be able to produce photographs of Mars similar to those which would be made were the planet photographed from a distance of five miles.

U. S. PUBLISHERS CALL FOR OPEN SHOP, OCT. 1ST

Unless Typographical Union Agrees to Arbitrate on Wage Reductions.

New York, Sept. 23.—The National Publishers' Association, Inc., having a membership of more than 200 magazines, periodicals and trade publications, with a combined circulation of more than 25,000,000 each issue, announced today the adoption of a resolution urging the New York Typographical Union No. 6 to do not agree to the arbitration of a new wage scale. The present contract expires on October 1.

The union demands an increase of $5 a week over the scale of $50 for forty-four hours. The employers seek a reduction of $10 a week. An offer of arbitration has been refused by the union, on the ground, it was said, that arbitration of so large a reduction would be unfair.

Weddings

Killorn—Ring.
Newcastle, Sept. 23.—A wedding of much local interest was solemnized at St. Thomas' Church, Redbank, at eight o'clock on Monday morning, when Miss Margaret Bernetta Ring, only daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Ring, St. John, became the bride of James Killorn, of St. John. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. C. Ryan, who also celebrated nuptial mass, with full choir. The bride looked charming in a travelling suit of heavy velour, embroidered with silk, large picture hat with ostrich and sequin trimmings and carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses. She was attended by Miss Stella Power, of Redbank, as bridesmaid, who wore a taupe velour suit, with hat to match and carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses and fern. Mr. Patrick Power was best man. Citizens and Voters

Save New Brunswick from This Fate

The Montreal Standard says that "Montreal is the Canadian Metropolis of the Boozie Business. That it is seething with crime. That crime in Montreal is open; wide open.

Every iniquitous practise conceivable is being carried on by the dwellers of crook-dom, cocaine peddlers, hold-up men, thieves, confidence men. All these and more ply their trade with no apparent fear of apprehension.

Crime in Montreal is not secret. The traffic in vice and drugs is an open letter to those who would read and so confident has the Montreal criminal become that now even a cursory attempt at concealment is considered unnecessary.

Drugs are as easy to buy in Montreal as a loaf of bread and a score or more of boot-leggers are ready to slake the thirst of the rum-hounds."

Contrast this with what the St. John Standard says about conditions in St. John during Exhibition week:

"The traffic police about the gates announced that over two hundred cars had been parked under their supervision during the evening. The police and liquor inspectors within the grounds reported the large crowd a most orderly and law-abiding one. The inspectors state that they have not even seen a sign of liquor within the gates of the big show this year. The prevailing sobriety establishes somewhat of a record and a most commendable one at that."

The Prohibition Act in New Brunswick in operation helps make the difference on October 10.

A Vote will be taken to decide as to whether the importation of Liquors may be forbidden.

We submit below a copy of the ballot to be used.

Mark your ballot opposite "YES" and so help to make New Brunswick a better place to live in and save us from the fate of Montreal.

A BABY'S CAP

DESIGNED BY
WILSON MECKE JR.

FOR the little baby's head I am offering a unique design that has the advantage of being in one piece. Its beauty is before you, and you have only to work the design here shown on linen or pique, fasten the parts together by buttons, and the daintiest cap imaginable will be the result.

worked over with buttonhole stitch. It is a favorite method that many embroiderers are using. I hope that this new cap for the baby meets with your approval. It is lovely when finished, fitting over the little one's head like a bowl and staying on as well as any posch-basket cap of straw.

The center can be used for the top of any other style of hat or cap. The little sprays can be utilized as decorations for front panels and yokes on baby's dress. I am highly in favor of and worked over with buttonhole stitch. It is a favorite method that many embroiderers are using. I hope that this new cap for the baby meets with your approval. It is lovely when finished, fitting over the little one's head like a bowl and staying on as well as any posch-basket cap of straw.

The curved-out side is lapped over the opposite edge. This work is very easy, solid stitches done in soft mercerized cotton, or colored silks, if you wish it, is used to fill the petals of the flowers and the leaves that complete the design. First pad the oval's lengthwise and work across in solid stitch. The centers of the flowers can be French knots or single weaves.

Outline the stems in stitches, which can be whipped again into a cordlike appearance by catching together the overlapped stitches. The center is the main part of the design. It is planned for punched work, which every embroiderer knows how to do by this season. The flowers should be worked first in solid stitch and the punched work made to come quite close up to the outline. A tapestry needle or a three-sided needle comes for punching. The straight stitches appear on the upper side. Make them between two holes in parallel rows. When passing from the upper hole to the lower one a diagonal stitch is taken. Work all stitches in the horizontal direction, then all in the vertical direction, which completes the squares. When finished there will be four stitches radiating from the holes, and the needle will have passed through each hole eight times.

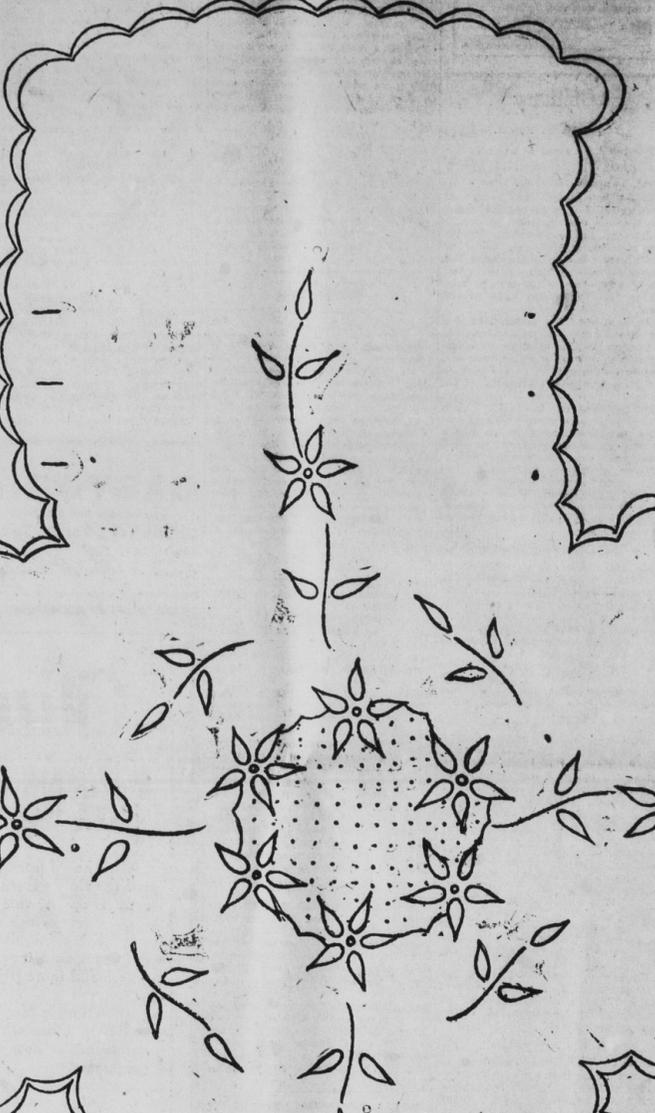

If you do not care for a punched-work center, inset a medallion of Irish lace, crocheted lace, fillet or silver lace of a strong weave. Baste it in place before working the flowers. Cut out the center and hem the edges down. Other methods of filling in are by using French knots, seed stitches or the darned stitch with double thread. These are especially effective in colors. Any baby colors, such as pale blue, pink or darker shades of both, are lovely on this design.

working up one design on many articles. To let a beautiful lace suffer from discoloration because you do not care for the article of the week is foolish. All embroiderers ought to have an aptness at twisting and turning and making a design play a double role. At any rate, try this one on something.

A Centerpiece Roll
It is sometimes a difficult matter to keep centerpieces from becoming crushed after laundering, so many women make a case in which to roll them. Purchase a piece of cretonne one and a quarter yards long and at one end turn up a hem wide enough to cover a pole an inch in diameter and in length a trifle shorter than the width of the cretonne. When choosing the material select a dainty design showing alternate stripes of flowers and a delicate color.

Bind the three sides with half-inch washable ribbon, stitching it neatly either by hand or on the machine. Attach three pieces of ribbon to the end. These are used to tie the case when the centerpieces are rolled in place. This is an especially useful article and should be added to the linen chest, and there will never be any need of prussians, centerpieces before it is fit to place on the dining table. It requires only a short time to make an attractive case of this variety, and you will never cease to sing its praises when it has saved you much inconvenience.

Now that you have supplied a case for the centerpieces, provide like articles for the dollies or lunchboxes. From cardboard cut two circular pieces an inch wider than the plate dolly and two others an inch wider than the diameter of the tumbler dolly. Cover these with cotton wadding and sprinkle with lavender. A hand-made bag, especially one of the new fabric bags, will surely be appreciated by any woman who is fortunate enough to receive one. The combination of rich oriental embroidery and fur is a note of this season's accessories. One bag of silver fox is particularly attractive. It is made from two squares of fur and lined with rose-colored silk.

The Design

HAND-MADE BAGS AS GIFTS

WHEN the problem of what to give a woman at the eleventh hour of a gift-giving day, she usually rushes off and buys something utterly unrelated to the needs or desires of the friend for whom the gift is planned.

A hand-made bag, especially one of the new fabric bags, will surely be appreciated by any woman who is fortunate enough to receive one. The combination of rich oriental embroidery and fur is a note of this season's accessories. One bag of silver fox is particularly attractive. It is made from two squares of fur and lined with rose-colored silk.

PARISIAN NOVELTIES

AT PRESENT there is a vogue for the attractive little articles made in Paris to adorn the boudoir of Missy Dainty. These are pin-cushions, glove boxes, trinket and work baskets fashioned of pompadour silk, gold lace and ribbon flowers. If purchased at the shops, these fascinating bits of handiwork cost fabulous sums; but the handy woman can, if she desires, duplicate any one of them at home for much less.

To fashion an exquisite workbasket select a shape resembling a small posch-basket. After lining it with cotton wadding, cover with rose-colored silk, leaving a full heading at the top a half-inch in width. Over the exterior smoothly fit a covering of gold net having a coarse mesh. Band the top and bottom of the basket with gold braid and festoon garlands of the tiny flowers about the basket.

A circular pin-cushion is made by using for a foundation a circular box. Cover the outside with pretty silk and over this fit the gold net. Fill the box with lamb's wool until it extends some distance above the top. Over this stretch a layer of silk, then one of gold net. Bind the top and bottom with gilt braid and decorate the top with a weath of pompadour ribbon roses. Arrange frills of narrow ribbon and gold lace about the sides and trim these with the ribbon flowers. Gold or silver roses can be fashioned of gauze wove from these metals and are sometimes preferred to the colored flowers. There is no denying the charm of these articles, and if you have never examined them closely, do so when next you visit the shops.

Candle shades, opera and vanity bags are also fashioned in this manner. The needlewoman who enjoys sewing on dainty materials which require fair-like stitches and nimble fingers to produce the best results will find making these Parisian novelties work after her own heart.

Folded in Shape

How to Transfer

HERE are suggestions for transferring the pattern before you to any material before working. Perhaps the easiest way is the "window-pane" method. This is successful when the material is thin, like linen, batiste, etc. Pin the sheet of paper and the material together and hold them up against the glass of a window. With a sharp pencil draw on the material the design, which can be easily seen through the goods. If one-half of the design only is given, unpin the paper and turn the other side to the fabric. The strong light behind will make it plain.

Summer Pillow Slips

SPRING and summer call for a discarding of velvet, damask and tapestry pillow covers and the replacing with light, fresh-looking covers that can be laundered and that fit appropriately with summer hangings and furniture.

If you have planned to have cretonne decorations allow for two or three yards extra when you order, so that pillows to match will complete the attractive idea. These need not be made entirely of cretonne. They can be combinations of this material and any other fabric, preferably plain. One of the simplest summer slips is of white or unbleached muslin edged with a four-inch band of flowered cretonne or poplin. Long pillow can have six-inch borders at each short end. The heavier fabric gives a firmness at the ends where the most wear is.

The checked gingham pillow in all sizes is a summer feature that is good for bungalows or porches. Green and white, blue and white and red and white are staple patterns. They can form entire pillows, or in combination with plain muslin can be relieved. They are fresh and cool looking and launder well.

To Hold Needles

AN UNUSUAL needle case can be made by covering two tin bottles with either silk or mercerized cotton in a simple crochet stitch. One of these bottles is used for large needles and the other for finer ones. The covers are drawn closely about the neck of the bottles and fastened. Then crochet two or three springs of chainstitching and connect the two bottles. A good plan is to use different colors for the covers, so that the needles can easily be distinguished.

General speaking, the most considered and should decide the type of design and fabric combination. Make summer pillows just as important as winter ones. They can make or mar the effect of a home.

Fourteen Heats

In Three Races

Hotly Contested Goes to Closing of Race Meeting

Fredericton.

Special to The Standard

Fredericton, N. B., Sept. 23.—The exhibition harness closed this evening with the hotly contested racing of the four days, three races produced fourteen heats and two of the races were called the money divided by agreement because the heat was drawing late out three heats being won by horses.

The 2:34 trot, converted into a race, was the first out of three. Four horses each took a share of that division of money was announced from the Lou Miller, taking first, Uscita, Ograntha Boy dividing second third, and the Finlander getting 50. The Finlander, the only St. John entered in the race, won the first, and in the second and fourth finished in front. In both heats was set back to last position. In the second heat it was for averting interfering, causing a protest by drivers, and in the fourth for pushing. Driver Ryan, who was unfortunately and lost the crowd's heart in so doing, although it was early admitted that in the fourth the horse was going very well.

The 2:21 trot, after Admiral had two heats to his credit, was the Admiral taking first, The Manor second and did glory Billy Kopy, who has been prominent right through the circuit, had hard luck in this race. He finished to second position in the heat and to two heats after that to have the mare go so lame that had to be drawn in the fourth. In heat while scoring Sakka injured himself. Had the St. Stephen remained good the race would have been.

The 2:15 pace was a race between Buster and Roy Volo. To the disappointment of the Fredericton crowd, Lunt's stallion lost. It had light, Volo captured the first heat with Buster Boy a good second in each. The third heat was a ping finish Buster Boy winning a few feet. The fourth heat saw Volo again making a great fight with the Arcotook horses. The heat was called just before sunset was the slowest of the race. Buster Boy, with the pole, held his position throughout. In the last half Roy showed that he did not have to serve speed to come up. Local believe that if his owner had believed that Volo would have won it was Red Hanafin drove a good race. A light rain in the afternoon injured the racing.

Improvement In General Conditions, Says Market Expert

Money Situation Easy, Bond Market Advancing—Banks Show Stronger Position.

New York, Sept. 23.—The improvement in general conditions which has been under way for several months becomes plainer day by day, according to Evans, of E. & C. Randolph. The money situation continues to ease, the bond market continues to advance and the bank statements show a constantly stronger position. He says there cannot be a man who can fail to see that the worst is over. Problems, and curious ones, are ahead of course. Perhaps the most serious of the meantime the stock market liquidation was definitely concluded at the last triple bottom the market made in August and from now on the movement should be steady, if slow. No real bull movement may be expected right away, but a man who will buy stocks when they are weak and will stay with the m/s sure to make money in the long run.

People You Hear Spoken Of DANTE.

Dante was the greatest of Italian poets and, just a few weeks ago, people all over the world were remembering that it was just six hundred years since he lived. When only nine years old he saw a very beautiful girl called Beatrice and afterwards he wrote a wonderful poem about her which is still read.

Italians were fighting each other then and Dante was sent away from his home and never allowed to come back.

His finest poem is long enough to fill a big book. It's put into English by the poet Longfellow and several other writers. It is called The Divine Comedy and is about Heaven and Hell.

Dante was a good man and worked hard so that today he is remembered as a true poet and a fine Italian.

And Now He's Suffering

Teacher—"How is your brother, Tommy?"

Tommy—"Sick in bed, miss; he's hurt himself."

"How did he do that?"

"We were playing at who could lean the farthest out of the window, and he won."

SPANISH RIVER MILL REOPENS MONDAY

Montreal, Sept. 23.—All the importances attached to certain interests to the closing of Spanish River's Espanola Mill for a short time appears to have been "much ado about nothing," as the service is informed that the mill will again be in operation Monday next. Major P. B. Wilson, vice-president of the company is in town today in an interview with "The Service" expressed surprise that so much weight had been attached in some quarters to the closing of the mill for a few days.

Montreal Market Acted Favorably Throughout Day

No Large Quantities of Stock Likely to Come on the Market.

Montreal, Sept. 23.—Despite the continued inactivity of trading on the local exchange yesterday, the market may be said to have acted very well and quite according to the expectations of those who have been following its movements during the past few weeks.

New York developed firmness in the afternoon, and at once there was a better tone here with corresponding advance in prices. It took but little buying to bring about the modest improvements noted, and this is said to be excellent evidence that there are no large quantities of stocks likely to come on the market at present prices, unless the unexpected happens. The trading continues largely professional in character and is generally expected to continue so till higher prices all through the list convince the trading public that the long expected upward turn is under way.

Several brokers report small purchases of stocks, which are being taken out of the market. Money for market purposes continues firm here, but cashness is noted in New York with the possibility of further declines in the rate, and the hope is expressed that it will not be long before improvement in that respect will be apparent here. After six days of trading, the average prices of twenty active securities has now advanced 18 to 52.02.

Loan To China By Dominion Concern

Transaction is Direct Negotiation of British Policy Under Consortium.

London, Sept. 23.—The Times prints a Peking despatch today stating that a Canadian banking syndicate is lending China three million gold dollars against one year's bonds secured on surplus, discount, and interest, giving a return of over 20 per cent. per annum. It is called that an international consortium was formed to prevent loans to China under which there was no provision for supervision of expenditure to protect China against the present chaotic state of administration. The four governments concerned agreed to give exclusive support to their respective banking groups on conditions that they comply with this agreement. The Times says the Canadian bank transaction is a direct negotiation of the British Government's policy in China. If the loan goes through, Franco Japan and the United States will think the British Government subscribes to one policy with the right hand and another with the left hand, and the consortium will end. From reliable information obtained it is understood that only one Canadian bank was interested in this loan and the contract was made with China by a financial corporation in Vancouver. The position is that the British Government made arrangement with other powers not to give approval to any issue of Chinese loans except through the medium of the consortium in order to prevent China from borrowing imprudently abroad, and also to limit extravagant expenditure. It is not understood that the consortium brings any political pressure on China or to interfere with private enterprises. It is felt over here that few houses of standing would be likely to enter a financial operation of this sort for private profit, which is opposed to the efforts made to improve China's financial position.

Believed Market As A Whole Has Been Sold Out

Bullish Operations Expected to Expand With Rails and Affiliated Issues Prominent.

New York, Sept. 23.—Bullish operations are expected to continue to expand with rails and affiliated issues prominent. The short interest in the industrials is large with offerings comparatively small. Selling of long stock in any large amounts during the past week is declared in specialist quarters to have been comparatively small. It is suggested that moderate bidding would raise prices easily. There is a disposition developing to pay more attention to favorable news. It is inferred in some quarters to mean that the market as a whole has been sold out.

There is talk in professional quarters of a large operator putting out a line of long stocks, with the assistance of the uptown crowd, which has been offering down prices whenever selling orders appeared.

Good buying is reported in Kansas City, Southern, Corn Products, A.C. M., N.Y.C. Attention is directed to the bonds over the country, with the daily total showing a steady expansion, which is expected to continue.

Time Changes.

Starting next Monday there will again for a week, be a discrepancy in time of one hour between the business hours of the Montreal and New York stock exchanges, when the daylight saving arrangement ceases in the latter city. As daylight saving obtains in Montreal until the following week, the New York tickers will operate from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. in both cases. In the spring the situation was the reverse, New York opening at 9 a.m. and closing at two in the afternoon, local time. It is about a toss-up which of the two cases causes the most inconvenience.

What the Arms Parley Means to the World

Something worse than failure may be the alternative to success when the representatives of five nations meet in Washington on November 11th to discuss the limitation of arms. For if the twenty men who will speak for the United States, Great Britain, Japan, France, and Italy fail to reach an agreement, some editorial observers aver, they will leave the world in a far more desperate position than if the conference had never been held. The failure of this portentous experiment could "sow throughout the earth the dragon's teeth of distrust," declares the San Francisco Argonaut, which is convinced that "will not be a case where it was better to have tried and failed than never to have tried at all." Lord Northcliffe declared the other day at Honolulu that "if the conference on disarmament should fail, the consequences will be utterly disastrous to the whole world."

There is much in THE LITERARY DIGEST this week (September 24th) that will throw a flood of light upon the coming arms conference at Washington. The leading news-feature takes up the question of what would be the outcome if some understanding is not reached, and its effect upon civilization. "British Hope in the Washington Conference" is another article that outlines, in the words of great British newspapers, what the British nation hopes to achieve at Washington, while still another article explains the reason why the churches of America have fixed upon November 11th as a day of prayer for a limitation of arms.

Grain Shipped Below Capacity

Over Two Million Bushels of American Wheat Held in Store.

Montreal, Sept. 23.—Further evidence that the amount of grain now being shipped from Montreal does not approach the maximum capacity of the port is contained in figures supplied at the Harbor Commissioners' office, which show that 750,000 bushels of grain were taken into the harbor elevators on Tuesday while only 843,000 bushels—considerably less than half—were shipped out.

The comparatively small amount shipped is due to the fact that the orders necessary for the delivery of grain to the rest of the waiting vessels have not been received by the Harbor Commissioners. The four million bushels of grain in the harbor elevators two and a quarter million are American wheat, a million bushels of which are in the hands of the American Commission, a considerable time. None of this is being shipped out, and the holding of it, according to Mr. M. P. Fennell, secretary to the commissioners, is diminishing the handling capacity of the port by about 80 per cent.

New Quarters For The I. M. M.

Announcement is made by the International Mercantile Marine Company that it expects to occupy its New York quarters at No. 1 Broadway in November. The building is the old Washington building, known for a generation as the first skyscraper of lower Manhattan, whose roof and copula were landmark features from far distances. The building has been reconstructed in steel and out, the latter having been given a new exterior of white granite. The site of No. 1 Broadway is historically one of the most interesting in New York. It overlooks on the Broadway side the old market place and the bowling green, the early settlers, and to the south the site of the first fort in New Amsterdam, and the Battery. In 1626 Peter Minuit, Director-General of the Dutch Amsterdam settlement, bargained with the Indian owners for Manhattan in the clearing that is now Bowling Green, and bought the island for $24. In a hour of the site of No. 1 Broadway was in 1766, by Archibald Kennedy, a captain in the British Navy, George Washington twenty years later held many conferences with his officers. Water the house was occupied in turn by Sir William Howe and Sir Henry Clinton, British commanders. It was from this house that Major Andre wrote the letters to Benedict Arnold which preceded the American officer's betrayal of his trust, and Andre's capture and execution. The Kennedy house was destroyed by fire in 1876, and at one time housed "Talleyrand, Napoleon's exiled ambassador."

He directed in his sentence that Chief Fitzmorris stand committed to jail for a period of not exceeding five months if he failed to pay the fine.

When asked if he had any comments to make Chief Fitzmorris smiled and said: "Not until it is safe."

MURDER TRIAL BROUGHT ON LEGAL BATTLE YESTERDAY

Lawyers for Defense Strongly Oppose Entry of J. King Kelley, K. C. for Norris Family — Evidence Practically Same as Presented at the Coroner's Inquest.

The preliminary hearing of the case against Edward P. O'Brien, and James Thomas Spellman, charged on suspicion of the murder of Albert Norris, will be continued in the police court this morning at 10 o'clock.

Legal Battle. Yesterday's hearing gave indication of the legal battles that are to come. M. Ryan appeared on behalf of O'Brien, and G. Earle Logan, of Spellman.

Mr. Ryan further objected that Mr. Kelley had not made known his standing at the opening of the hearing, and had the advantage of listening to the cross examination of witnesses...

Dr. R. M. Pendrigh, interne at the General Public Hospital was the first witness. He said that Norris was admitted to the hospital at 12.30 on the night of Sept. 8. He was unconscious at the time, frothing at the mouth, and his heart beating irregularly.

Dr. H. L. Abramson, gave a report of the autopsy he had performed on the body in the hospital morgue, September 10. Death was due, he said, to fractured skull, which had caused hemorrhage of the brain.

Mrs. Alma Smith, 155 Erin street said that between 8.45 and 9 o'clock on the night of Sept. 8 she saw three men go into the shipyard off Erin street. A short while later, about five minutes, she heard a noise, and on looking out of her window saw an object fall. The two men came out of the yard, one ran towards the Bannockburn, and the other towards the Bannockburn.

Mrs. Margaret Moore, 128 Erin St. said that on the night of September 8, three men came across the street from the Bank of Montreal to the Ryan building. They came up to her flat on the top floor, and one of them she recognized as Spellman, who asked her if Fred Keefe were in. He was not, so the three went down stairs, and after standing in the doorway a while, went around the corner to wards the shipyard.

John Leonard Steeves, stated that in company with Judson Totten and Roy Shannon, he took a short cut up an alley from Erin street and heard some moaning, and then saw a man lying on the ground. He lit a match and seeing who it was, said, "That's Mr. Norris." Leaving the other boys he ran to Mrs. Linton's house on Marsh Road and brought Harry Norris, a son of the injured man to where his father lay. Some men then picked Mr. Norris up and took him into the Bennett store, where after being examined by Dr. Nugent he was, on his recommendation removed to the hospital.

Judson Totten, 346 City Road corroborated the evidence of Steeves, and after standing in the doorway a while, went around the corner to wards the shipyard. Mr. Logan moved that the hearing be postponed to Monday, but the magistrate refused, stating he wished to send his findings on the two murders after standing in the doorway a while, went around the corner to wards the shipyard.

Mr. Logan suggested taking the case up at 7 in the morning, to which the magistrate acquiesced, but as the prosecution were unable to get their witnesses to the court at that time, 10 o'clock was agreed upon as the hour.

Naval Officers Guests of Mayor

Addresses at Union Club Last Night by Lt.-Gov. Pugsley, Capt. Adams and Others.

The last public function at which the officers of the Canadian ships will be present at the visit to the city, took place last night at the Union Club, when they were the guests of Mayor Schofield and the city, and it was a most pleasing function.

The first toast was that to the Navy, drunk with the usual ceremonial honors. Before calling on Lt.-Gov. Pugsley to propose the toast to the Navy, the chairman extended a welcome on behalf of the city. He thanked Capt. Adams for the other officers present, the citizens were more than pleased to have the Canadian Navy honor the city with a visit.

It is rising to propose the toast to the Navy, Lt.-Gov. Pugsley said he appreciated the honor conferred in proposing a toast of this kind. We were all proud that, for the first time, we had in the harbor a Canadian frigate, and he extended a most hearty welcome to the officers and men on behalf of the people of the province and was only sorry they could not visit other portions for he and seeing them that beautiful as St. John was, there were other spots just as beautiful. Capt. Adams and his officers had endeavored themselves to the people of the city and he hoped they would soon return.

He was glad to say to Capt. Adams that so far as the Navy was concerned there was no politics for all the political parties of Canada were behind it and would see that it was expanded as the years went by. The Navy was doing good work in that it was making the country known in other parts of the world.

Capt. Adams was given three hearty cheers when he rose to respond to the toast. He thanked the speakers for the many kind words which had been spoken about the Navy and its officers. The Navy was one of the mainstays in teaching love of country, and he hoped that many of the boys of the Maritime Provinces would, instead of adopting shore going professions, take up that noblest of all professions, the Navy. Since its organization ten months ago, the Navy had travelled 22,000 miles, had always been warmly welcomed, but at no place had they received a warmer welcome than in this city.

Lt.-Gov. Pugsley, the senator for Canada in the fleet, in a few well chosen remarks thanked Capt. Adams and the other imperial officers and in union, not dissimilar to the training of the men and boys of the navy the best wishes of all true Canadians.

New Brunswick. The next toast was that to New Brunswick and coupled with this were the names of Hon. J. B. M. Baxter, K. C., minister of customs and excise, as proposer and Hon. W. F. Roberts, minister of health, as responding.

The singing of "Auld Lang Syne" brought the function to a close. Those Present. Among those present were: Gov. Pugsley, Mayor Schofield, Commissioners Jones, Thornton, Bullock and Frink, Mr. Justice McKowen, Judge Armstrong, A. A. Wilson, C. B. Lockhart, R. E. Armstrong, Capt. Mulcahy, H. C. Schofield, C. B. She said they first gave her chase on Erin street, and she fled out across Haymarket square and sought refuge in a store on the Marsh Road, the proprietor was absent and her pursuers entered the store and took her out on the street by the arm. The rap between the store and Brookville remains unexplained.
