RYAN NOW CAPTURES EQUITABLE MILLIONS

Company Seems to Have "Jumped from Frying Pan into Fire"

New Napoleon of Finance Has Control of Every Franchise of Value in New York, Besides Swaying a Dozen Giant Corporations--New Deal Means Consolidation of Big Trust Companies, Life Insurance Companies and Other Colossal Combines.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

New York, June 12--As might have been expected, the Equitable reorganization has aroused in some quarters the fiercest criticism.

Two sharply distinct views are taken. One is that the Equitable's troubles are now over and that it will go on progressing under clean and intelligent management, with a square deal all around, even to the policyholders.

The other is that the giant corporation has simply been gobbled up by another and stronger group of financiers, who seized the opportunity created by the now forgotten Hyde-Alexander row. Some of the adherents to this view even go so far as to declare that the whole thing is the result of a long and carefully prepared plan; that the Hyde-Alexander troubles were fortuitous conditions that were taken advantage of and exploited and fomented by men for their own ends.

The sudden appearance in the limelight of Thomas F. Ryan brings before the public a new giant among the world's financiers. The general public has not known the name of Ryan, but for many years the American world of finance has known him as the man who has made his name in the Equitable.

Ryan, the New Napoleon of Finance.

One of the big metropolitan dailies hailed him in big headlines in this fashion: "Thos. F. Ryan now the dominant figure in American finance." It is indeed curious that Ryan has figured so long in the popular mind. For years he has been so influential in Tammany that he has been really the actual boss of that organization, in matters of finance, although probably not in those of politics.

Years ago William C. Whitney said: "If Ryan lives twenty years he will be the richest man in America."

Among other things Ryan controls the city's lighting and he is in a very fair way to control the city's water supply. It may be noted that the interests of J. P. Morgan have for many years coincided with those of Thos. F. Ryan, and that they have been strong allies personally and financially.

The "Three Giants" May Consolidate.

What some financial experts profess to see in this most recent Equitable development (and it is given for what it is worth), is a consolidation, or at least a coming together of financial interests so common control of financial interests so great that it is almost beyond the power of imagination to realize such a combination. The three great life insurance companies--the New York Life (in which Mr. Morgan is most influential), the Mutual Life, and the Equitable, are included in this "harmony of interest."

The combined assets of these three institutions alone run over the billion mark. In them are railroads, banks, trust companies, street car lines, subways, and the biggest combines of gas and electricity corporations in the world.

Among the many corporations in which Ryan is either dominant or very influential are the Metropolitan Securities Company (which controls the surface transportation of New York), the American Surety, the American Tobacco Company, Bethlehem Steel Company, Consolidated Gas, Hoeking Valley Railroad, Industrial Trust Company of Providence, National Bank of Commerce, Seaboard Air Line, Union Elevated of Chicago, United Lead, The Morton Trust Company, American Smelters and the Guggenheim Exploration Company.

It was Mr. Ryan who brought together and organized interests representing assets of $1,000,000,000 behind the Bank of Commerce, the only rival to the National City Bank. He is the vice-president and real head of the great Morton Trust Company. He is the financial organizer and financial master of the Consolidated Tobacco Company. He is a director and important stockholder in the Flint and Pere Marquette Railroad Company. He is one of the most important directors in the Cuba Company which, under the leadership of Sir William Van Horn, is providing Cuba with railways.

Will Control Three Great Trust Companies.

By acquiring the Equitable Mr. Ryan acquires the Mercantile Trust Company and the Equitable Trust Company. The combination of these three will make the most formidable trust company of history to date.

Mr. Ryan has various interests that are allied to those of the Standard Oil group and he has been considered as maintaining very friendly relations with them, if not actually allied with them. H. M. Flagler, of Standard Oil, is one of the directors of Mr. Ryan's Morton Trust Company, for example. H. H. Rogers besides being influential in the Mutual Life has had very friendly relations with Paul Morgan, one being a director of and the other vice-president of the Santa Fe Railway. Another of Morton's Santa Fe friends is T. P. Fowler, the big railroad man who is trustee of the New York Life and also a director of the Santa Fe. Mr. Fowler is also a director of Mr. Ryan's Metropolitan Securities Company.

Thos. F. Ryan is only 54 years old. He was born in Virginia. The civil war ruined the family and the boy went to Baltimore, penniless, looking for work. His first start-up in a dry goods commission house, won the confidence and the daughter of the proprietor, and in 1874 became a member of the New York Stock Exchange. With William C. Whitney he brought about the consolidation of the street railway lines into the Metropolitan system. Mr. Ryan is six feet two inches tall, retiring and shy of publicity. Money making is his passion. His wife is noted for her many contributions to the Catholic church.

Just as an illustration of the sort of criticism that the new Equitable deal receives in some quarters, the following may be cited from the New York World:

"Proofs of the power and the purpose of the new master of the Equitable Life Assurance Society are already apparent. As Mr. Thomas F. Ryan has said: 'The day of proclamations is past. The day for definite action has arrived.'"

"Definite action" began on May 24 in anticipation of the "settlement" when the great insurance company which is captured by Mr. J. P. Morgan instructed its agent to cease attacking the great company which Mr. Ryan is henceforth to exploit. A gentlemen's agreement not to kill the goose that lays the golden egg is in accordance with methods of those two daring manipulators.

Insurance Money Used in Northern Pacific Fight.

"The Northern Pacific war of 1901 was fought out with insurance money. The hard earned savings of three million insured men were used to buy up the stock of the Northern Pacific and sweep into Wall street were used against their will without even their knowledge to buy for those insurers panic and disaster. They knew that they were hurt in a fight not of their choosing. They did not know that they themselves by their faithless stewardship were actually waging war upon their own prosperity."

"An echo of that gigantic struggle occurred only recently, when it was announced that the Equitable should throw upon the market more than $20,000,000 of new speculative Harman securities."

"Eighty per cent of the savings of 600,000 men to be for such a cause at hazard in evil-deeds seeking to render oppressive. Wall street with cynic readiness began to figure upon the chances of a new 'war' if the Equitable should throw upon the market more than $20,000,000 of speculative Harman securities."

"The money of the people hoarded with loving self-denial to safeguard their own use was used in 1904-1901 to build up the Northern Securities merger in defiance of public rights and the laws of the nation. It has taken the power of the federal government four years to destroy their monstrous menace--and four years have not nearly cleared away the financial wreckage then wrought."

"Now the people's money is to be used by a strong and unscrupulous man to bend millions of them more inextricably in the chains of a gigantic public service monopoly--to exploit them by the harmonious management of every important franchise monopoly in the metropolis save one, and in other cities as well."

This, it may be said, is the extreme presentation of one of the two views regarding the Equitable settlement. The other is that Mr. Ryan and his confederates are altruistic in their desire to put an end to a scandal, that was seriously troubling the whole financial world. The exponents of this view point to the trusteeship of Grover Cleveland, George Westinghouse and Judge O'Brien, three men of unquestionable character, as proof of Mr. Ryan's good intentions.

Already the Pennsylvania Railroad officials are discussing the possibility of reducing the running time between Chicago and New York to sixteen hours.

WRANGLE IN HOUSE OVER MILITIA ORDER

Conservatives Charge That Soldiers Were Sent from London to Prevent Them Voting

Hyman Wires Minister of Militia to Give Them a Chance to Cast Their Ballots, and His Request is Granted--Opposition Object to Increased Militia Expenses.

Ottawa, June 12--(Special)--On the motion of J. G. H. Bergeron, the clerk of the house, was authorized to furnish members of parliament with certificates entitling them to free transportation on all the railways of the country.

Two years ago the railway act was amended, requiring the various roads to carry soldiers and members free. The certificate of identity, signed by the clerk of the senate and the clerk of the commons, respectively, will take the place of the passes with which the parliamentarians were formerly provided.

The opposition made arrangements for an onslaught upon the minister of militia for an alleged order that six or seven Conservatives in the permanent corps depot at London, were to be deprived of a chance to vote in tomorrow's election.

Col. Sam Hughes called attention to the complaint from London, that those men had been ordered off to Niagara camp for the deliberate purpose of preventing them from marking their ballots against Hon. Mr. Hyman. The troops, he said, could not reach Niagara till Tuesday night for the camp. Therefore they might very well have been left in London till time had been given them to vote.

Hyman Wants Soldiers to Vote.

The minister of militia answered that his notice had already been given. He was in receipt of the following telegram from Sir Charles Hyman--

"Reported number of men at barracks here ordered to Niagara today. Tuesday is election day. I should like arrangement made to have them vote before they leave."

Sir Frederick remarked that the foregoing message it was not quite so clear, to which political party the detachment of permanent corps men belonged. At all events there was no politics in the affair. According to the adjutant-general the force of the permanent corps troops at London was much larger than at Toronto. The latter, moreover, were in readiness to set out any day for Halifax, to replace Imperial troops in that garrison. That was the non-commissioned officers for instructional duty at Niagara camp were taken from London.

The minister went on to say though that the detachment was already on its way to Niagara when the subject came before him in the forenoon. He had therefore been under the necessity of informing Mr. Hyman that the troops at Niagara were urgently required at Niagara. The militia order could not be cancelled. That's all the explanation," concluded Sir Frederick, "that I have to offer and it ought to be accepted as ample."

Hon. David Tisdale, ex-minister of militia appealed to Sir Frederick to arrange matters so that the non-commissioned officers to record their votes. There was yet time if the minister took steps without delay.

After some further discussion the minister of militia promised to meet the wishes of the opposition and give this detachment an opportunity to exercise their franchise in London if they wish to do so.

The South African minister had proven that what he wanted for an efficient defence is a large force of men, not necessarily trained soldiers but acquainted with the use of the rifle.

"No Intention of Creating Standing Army."

Sir Frederick Borden replied that Mr. Foster might get his mind at ease. The government had no intention whatever of setting up a standing army in Canada. (Continued on page 7, first column.)

Mrs. Susan Campbell Petitions for Interest on $13,000 Left Church by Her Husband, as She is in Want and Has a Dying Son--Substantial Gains of Denomination for the Year.

Kingston, June 12--(Special)--At the General Assembly today a report of the finance committee of the eastern division was presented by J. C. Macintosh, of Halifax. It showed receipts of $95,328.42, not quite so large as in the preceding years.

Rev. Douglas Fraser presented the report of the committee on Sabbath school publications. This committee was appointed seven years ago. Since then the publications have been trebled and the receipts doubled. The Canadian Presbyterian publications are gradually displacing those from abroad which formerly occupied the field.

J. K. MacDonald, of Toronto, who succeeded the late Principal Caven, as speaker of the Lord's Day Alliance, spoke briefly of the legislative work regarding the Sabbath during the past year. He sounded a note of warning regarding the encroachments made upon the Sabbath and pleaded for a more active interest on the part of the people in behalf of Sabbath observance.

Mr. Fraser presented the report of the committee on the proposed amendment to the constitution of the denomination, which was adopted by the assembly last year. The amendment was asked to put into effect, as soon as possible effective Sabbath legislation.

Widow's Petition Turned Down.

A petition was presented from Mrs. Susan Campbell, of Folly Village (N. B.), asking the assembly to rebate to her late husband's Presbyterian fund. She is in want through illness of her son in Denver. The latter cannot recover and she cannot afford to pay for him. Rev. Dr. Sedgewick moved that no action be taken. The assembly could not do anything to help her. Similar requests had been refused before. The motion passed.

Rev. Dr. Torrance presented the report of the committee on statistics. There was an increase of $47,000 more Presbyterians in the past year of 450 self-supporting and 183 augmented congregations. There has been an increase of 2,295 in number of sittings in churches. The total number of families is 127,700, an increase on the previous year of 3,004. They may be taken as representing a population of 628,950. The number of communicants on the roll is 232,734, an increase of 3,194. The congregations have paid during the past year for stipends $1,203,826, an increase of $47,000. There was an increase of $3,043 to the schemes of the church, the total was $432,949. Of this the Woman's Foreign Mission Society contributed $79,025. The total payments for all purposes were $2,886,922, an increase of $143,430. The debt on churches increased $500,000, the whole amount being now $1,712,284.

Roosevelt Decides It is Inexpedient to Do So

Cassini and Takahira Have Long Conferences With the President--Much Speculation Over Meeting Place to Discuss Peace Terms--Russian Officers Charge That Rojstvensky by His Carelessness and Worse is Responsible for Annihilation of Fleet.

Washington, June 12--Official assurance that the president's efforts to bring Russia and Japan together to discuss peace terms will be crowned with success, was brought to the White House today by Count Cassini, the Russian Ambassador, who called by appointment and in the name of Emperor Nicholas, formally accepted the president's "offer of good will."

The following official statement regarding the conference was issued at the White House:

"Ambassador Cassini has called to express the Russian government's assent to the president's proposition and to state that they would appoint plenipotentiaries to meet the plenipotentiaries of Japan to discuss the question of peace. The place of meeting it at present being discussed."

During the past two weeks the president's efforts have been directed toward bringing the belligerents into amicable contact on the basis of a mutual agreement to consider terms of peace. It is now accomplished finally today. It remains now for the belligerent powers to name their plenipotentiaries and to agree upon a time and place for them to meet to discuss terms and to negotiate a treaty of peace. These details are now under consideration with a bright prospect that such minor negotiations as may exist will be resolved within a few days.

Conferences of supreme importance were held today in Washington. The blue room of the White House was the scene and President Roosevelt, Count Cassini, the Russian ambassador, and Kogoro Takahira, the Japanese minister, were the principal conferees. President Roosevelt now has unequivocal assurances from both Russia and Japan of the acceptance of his proposition that they enter on negotiations for peace. The president likewise is assured of the absolute sincerity of both governments in according to his suggestion.

Japan was the first of the two powers to indicate its acceptance of President Roosevelt's proposition. The formal response to his identical note of Thursday last was received from the Japanese government, Saturday. Informal assurances of acceptance of the president's suggestion were received from the Russian government a little later; but the assurances from St. Petersburg were not of the same definite character as had been received from Tokio.

Early today Ambassador Meyer, at St. Petersburg, informed this government that Russia had accepted the president's proposition and would name representatives with plenary powers to meet plenipotentiaries of Japan.

While satisfactory, the response of Russia was not in the name definite form as that of Japan. It had been the expectation of the president to publish to the world the replies of the two governments to his identical notes, but under the circumstances this could not be done.

A few hours subsequent to the receipt of Ambassador Meyer's cablegram, Count Cassini, the Russian ambassador, made an appointment to see President Roosevelt at 11 o'clock today. The ambassador, in the conference which followed, presented verbally Russia's acceptance of the president's proposition for a conference to discuss peace terms. He had been instructed by the St. Petersburg government to convey to the president the willingness of Emperor Nicholas to appoint plenipotentiaries to meet like representatives of the Emperor of Japan to negotiate a treaty of peace. While the response of the Russian government was not reduced to writing, it was regarded for the time as sufficient for the negotiations. Shortly afterwards the official statement quoted was made public.

In addition to indicating the acceptance by the Russian government of President Roosevelt's proposition, Count Cassini informed the president of Russia's desire as to the place of meeting of the plenipotentiaries and named those who probably would be delegated to represent the Russian emperor. At the conclusion of the conference Count Cassini declined to discuss for publication the details of his interview with President Roosevelt.

Takahira Confers With Roosevelt.

Mr. Takahira had a conference with President Roosevelt at 3 o'clock this afternoon. The interview lasted thirty-five minutes. After the conference Minister Takahira had a brief talk with Secretary Loeb. The minister, in response to inquiries, said that the situation was so delicate that he did not feel free to talk about it. He expressed the opinion that the situation would be solved satisfactorily in the due time, but declined to indicate, even in a general way, the contents of the Japanese reply to the president's identical note, saying that such information should come only from the president.

It can be said that the place of the meeting of the plenipotentiaries of the two governments has not been finally selected.

Discussing Place of Conference.

Count Cassini, the Russian ambassador, called at the White House tonight by appointment, to discuss the likely to be made public from Washington in precise form, inasmuch as the Russian reply is not available in similar form.

St. Petersburg and between Washington and Tokio are in progress and the final arrangements for the peace conference in its essential details are likely to be completed definitely. An armistice will be agreed upon and the great emergency courts will lower its sails. The final negotiations of the permanent treaty of peace.

On one point Count Cassini and Mr. Takahira are agreed, and that is the undeniability of Washington for a midsummer conference. Whatever else was talked about at the conference it is not known, Count Cassini not feeling at liberty to discuss his visit in any particular. Nor is it known whether the ambassador's verbal, though thoroughly official assurances delivered this morning, were presented in writing tonight.

It is understood in a high official quarter here that Marquis Ito, Baron Komura, minister of Foreign Affairs, and General Yamagata, chief of staff, are the three plenipotentiaries of the emperor, as plenipotentiaries, and that the inclinations of the belligerents is that each select two plenipotentiaries. Mr. Nelsoff is understood to have been tentatively selected by Russia, and it is suggested as possible that he may be assisted by Baron Rozen, though this lacks official confirmation.

Elimination of Washington as the probable place of peace-making would not preclude the selection of an American city. Briefly the situation is this: Japan does not wish Paris and Russia is unfavorable to Mukden or Chefoo. Both are opposed to Washington for climatic reasons, though neither would oppose the selection of an American watering place, and among those already mentioned are Newport and Manchester-by-the-sea. This idea is especially favored among the representatives of the neutral powers, who establish their embassies and legations in New England for the summer. Of the places under consideration in Europe, it is said, Russia might accept the Hague. Geneva is also considered, and it would not be objectionable to Japan. A long conference at the Russian embassy this evening between Mr. VanSvinderen, the Netherlands minister, and Count Cassini, strengthened the belief that Russia was seriously considering the selection of the Hague for the scene of the negotiations.

A point raised by the representatives of both belligerents here and which had been emphasized in their dispatches is, that in order to take advantage of the president's offer to give any advice or assistance that might be solicited, the selection of an American city for the conference would facilitate the negotiations by accepting in close touch with the president.

FREDERICTON.

Fredericton, N. B., June 7—A social event which has been long looked forward to on the Miramichi now held by the William Richards Company, Ltd. Several representatives of large pulp and paper companies of the United States have been here and looked over the properties. In March last the Bayless Pulp & Paper Company of Birmingham (N. Y.) sent H. H. Schaeffer, of Chatham, to inspect the property at Boiestown and on the Miramichi. They secured an option on the property here, which will expire on June 15. The property comprises about 100,000 acres. Part of it, about 115,000 acres, is on the Tuxis river and it is all excellent timber land. Yesterday the William Richards Company received a telegram asking them if they would send a representative to New York to close arrangements for the transfer of the property. In response to this message H. H. Gunter, of Boiestown and J. H. Rendell, of Chatham, left last evening for New York. It is thought that the property or tomorrow the transfer of the property at about $800,000 and $700,000 will take place in New York. If the company takes over the property they will install an up-to-date lumbering plant and within a few years they propose to build pulp and paper mills. Their headquarters will probably be at the mouth of the Tuxis river on the line of the I. C. R. or else at Chatham and they may have offices in this city. THE NEW ST. JOHN FERRY STEAMER "LUDLOW"

Launching, Which Was Intended for Next Saturday, May Be Deferred—Arrangements for the Ceremony of Sending New Craft into the Water Are Not Made Yet.

It is not likely that the new ferry steamer will be launched on Saturday next, the date previously arranged. The contractors say the probability now is that the event will take place early next week.

It is understood that as yet no arrangements have been made to christen the boat, and the name of no lady on whom the pleasant duty of naming the Ludlow will fall has been announced. These matters will doubtless be arranged within the next few days.

Friday and Saturday next will see the tide at its highest point for the month, and after that there is a decline. The reason why the launching will be deferred from Saturday, if it is could not be definitely learned, but Director Cushing and Superintendent Glasgow were aboard the new steamer yesterday morning, and it is said they want some changes made. This picture of the new boat was taken Saturday by the Telegraph by Isaac E. Son, and gives the first idea, except to those who have gone to Hildyard's yard where the boat, of what the new harbor highway craft will be like.

LOCAL AND PROVINCIAL

The New York capitalists who have been after the Wm. Richards property on the North Shore reported about to close the bargain for $200,000.

George Bell, of Prince Edward Island, the unfortunate insane man who became violent in a local hotel Friday night, was taken to P. E. Island Saturday by his brother and Sgt. George Baxter.

The local government had appointed Gilmore Brown, C. E., of Fredericton, as the engineer to go over the Central Railway in connection with the report of Messrs. King and Mackay, and make a report to the executive.

A telephone was installed on Saturday in the residence of Mr. Hunter, the water works engineer near Douglas lake on the Loch Lomond road. The wire is on the St. Martins telephone system which runs to Salmon River.

Inspector Balyea has secured from local weir owners about 100 salmon fish on these waters placed in the Carleton pond. Ten burial permits were issued last week as follows: Tuberculosis, three; cancer, old age, aethenia, insanity, consumption, erysipelas, heart failure, one each.

Rev. James Richardson, rector of Trinity church, and Canon S. Ford, organist of the church, have gone to Providence (R. I.) to consult with organ makers there with reference to the new organ for the church. It is understood that they will also visit other American cities inspecting the organs of the large churches and gathering all information possible before an order is placed.

One of the new Venturi meters was placed in No. 3 water main near the new Catholic cemetery on Saturday. In consequence the water was shut off from the higher levels in the city from 8 a. m. till 8 p. m. The Venturi meters are designed to give an accurate measurement of the flow of water and the water works department consider that they will now be able to obtain more reliable information than by the old methods. Another meter will be placed in Main No. 2 at an early date.

It is expected that all the members of the provincial legislature will be gathered here this Wednesday night. They have been invited to visit the Macdonald Consolidated School at Kingston, Kings county, on the following day, June 15. All will meet in this city at 8 o'clock in the morning the party, which will also include Lieut.-Governor Snowball, Hon. A. R. McClellan, the school inspectors, and press representatives, will leave Kingston by steamer Champlain. The return will be made the same evening. Dinner will be had on the boat, and supper in the hotel at Kingston.

MONTREAL ALDERMEN TO SUE FOR LIBEL

Montreal, June 12.—(Special)—The city council of Montreal today passed a resolution instructing the city attorneys to take action against the Toronto World for libel. The action arises over the World's criticism of the twenty aldermen who voted for the extension of the Montreal Gas Company franchise. The World hinted at boodling and asserted that a French-Canadian Tammany Hall was in power at Montreal City Hall and that Alderman L. A. Lapointe was the leader. Today the Montreal Gas Company rejected the city's offer for extension of its franchise for $1,200,000 in return for a reduction of from $1.20 to $1 for lighting gas and from $1 to 90c. for heating gas.

The Southern Baptists will convene at Moncton, P. E. I., on Wednesday next, the meeting commencing on the 15th and continuing for about three days.

The wedding of Miss Blanche Ready, youngest daughter of James Ready, of Fairville, to Joseph O'Brien, accountant of the James Ready company, will be solemnized in St. Rose's church, Fairville, Wednesday morning.

Richard Watson, of Pokok, who was so badly burned about the face, hands and chest a few weeks ago by the exploding of a small lamp in the Miller line kiln, was able to be out to church last Sunday evening. Mr. Watson has recovered from the face and body burns, but his left hand is yet in a sling.

The West End lad, Frank Gardiner, who was arrested some days ago suspected of stealing the bicycle of one of the Western Union messenger boys and also stealing money from the room of Robt. Chey on one of the river steamers, was sentenced for four years in the reformatory by Judge Ritchie.

George S. Cushing, of this city, has been granted United States patents on a grinding machine and process of making wood pulp. Perry H. Eaton, of Newcastle (N. B.), for a fire alarm; Frederick E. Woodworth, of Gratton (N. S.), for saw mill feed; Walter S. Morris, of Halifax, for improvement in manuscript holders and lighting appliances.

H. W. Robertson, barrister, received Monday a telegram from his sister, Mrs. J. W. Keast. Just one week ago he received a letter from her, written on May 21, and yesterday another on May 29. She did not intrude in either letter that she was not in her usual good health. Mr. Robertson's friends will extend sympathy on the sad occasion.

Rev. W. H. Binney, of Northwich (Columbia Co.), is in the city on a vacation. Speaking at a representative of the Telegraph yesterday at the Hotel Dufferin, Rev. Mr. Binney said he arrived in Canada on the Victorian on Monday and would make a stay of about two months, which time would be spent in the maritime provinces. He added that he would preach in Halifax on Trinity Sunday for the Bishop of Nova Scotia. Rev. Mr. Binney is the son of a former bishop of Nova Scotia, and spent his early days in the sister city. In this connection it is interesting to recall that prominent gentlemen was himself prominently mentioned as a candidate for the see of Nova Scotia last year at the time of Bishop Courtney's resignation.

SUSSEX DISTURBED

Kings County Record Tackles the Sun and the Fire Underwriters.

(Kings County Record.) A few days ago the St. John Sun published an article on the fire system of Sussex in which most damaging and ridiculous statements were given circulation. Evidently the article was inspired. It came from some quarter in close touch with the board of underwriters, and the Record has it on good authority that the Sun's statements were contained in effect in a report made to the board by some person high in authority. We suppose that the board is composed of men of ability who have some concern as to the accuracy of statements given to the press as the official utterance. If this be so, it is up to the underwriters to make most humble apology to Sussex for the absolutely untrue information given to the press concerning this town. Whoever gave the alleged facts to the board, either did not know what he was talking about, or maliciously misrepresented the position of Sussex in the respect of its fire-fighting appliances. It would be hard to decide which is the worst position for an expert insurance man to place himself in. Unless the underwriters wish to become the laughing stock of this province they will bring different methods to bear in their business transactions with the people of Sussex. Knowledge of the matter is, that a few days ago Mr. Peter Clinch, representing the underwriters, came to town and interviewed a number of persons. Evidently he was looking for defects in the water system but he did not take the trouble to call on Mayor McKay or any of the members of the water and sewerage committee. One would suppose that those gentlemen, being in a position to give Mr. Clinch very important data, would have been consulted. The first thing the first thing the committee knew, it was told that the underwriters would not allow the town to install a gasoline engine at the pumping station. The St. John Sun told the rest. Mayor McKay immediately wrote to Mr. Clinch and asked for an explanation, but up to the time of writing he has not even stated to the St. John Sun what he was looking for. "How long do the people of this province propose to stand for this kind of treatment?" there are a number of places in Canada where the boards of underwriters have found that they were not steven custodians of the public's welfare and united action on the part of the town and committee in New Brunswick might serve to awaken them to a sense of their responsibilities. The case of Sussex is unfortunately not an isolated one. The article is too utterly untrue for comment, and before making its thirteenth onslaught on Sussex, the board of underwriters should first make sure that their own statements are true. BOSTON MAN JUMPS FROM WHARF AND SAVES BRITAIN STREET BOY

Plucky Rescue of Joseph Cullinan by J. J. Wait at Leonard's Wharf Saturday Afternoon—Sprang Over Fully Dressed and Was Aided by Friend in Getting Laid Back on Wharf.

A deed of heroism which brought forth the admiration of those who witnessed it was performed Saturday afternoon, when a seven-year-old lad named Joseph Cullinan, of Britain street, was rescued from drowning by a couple of American visitors to St. John.

It was after 5 o'clock. As usual, Leonard's wharf, just off Britain street and opposite German street, was the scene of amateur fishing. This spot is a favorite one for the boys of the South End and several were indulging in the pastime Saturday. Among these was young Cullinan. By some means the young fellow went over the cap of the wharf and into the water. His companions were unable to do anything for him, but calling loudly for help. About fifteen feet away, engaged in fishing were J. J. Wait and M. Fox, who reside outside of Boston. Both ran to the scene of the accident. The unfortunate lad had gone down twice and was in imminent danger.

Without any hesitation, not even waiting to remove any of his clothing, Mr. Wait plunged into the water to the boy's rescue, the water being some ten feet below the edge of the wharf.

Mr. Wait managed to seize the drowning boy and safely reached the subments of the wharf with him. Meanwhile Mr. Fox had climbed down the slippery logs and helped the boy to get up to the wharf. He was in a very exhausted condition and was removed to his home nearby.

Mr. Wait was badly chilled by his immersion in the cold water, but refused to go to any nearby house. Leonard's establishment was closed and an unsuccessful attempt was made to secure a coach to take him to the Hotel Edward. King square, where he is staying. Finally after getting his circulation restored by walking up and down the wharf, Mr. Wait and his companion walked to the hotel.

Those who witnessed Mr. Wait's action speak in the highest way of his bravery, he having shown the manly quality to a degree.

He was obliged to remain in bed on Sunday on account of the chill and has a heavy cold, but beyond this and spoiling a suit of clothes he did not suffer any evil effects. Both gentlemen have been in St. John only a couple of days.

A Mother's Praise.

In every part of Canada you will find mothers who speak in the highest praise of Baby's Own Tablets. These are Mrs. Jas. H. Konkle, of Ontario, who says: "I have used Baby's Own Tablets for over three years and I would not be without them. They have done more for my children than a medicine I have ever used. My little girl, now five years old, was always troubled with colic and indigestion, and although other medicines were tried temporarily, Baby's Own Tablets were the thing needed to cure her. She also gave the tablets to my baby from the time she was two weeks old. She has never had a colic since. She is now two years old and a more healthy child would be hard to find. The Tablets are certainly a life-saver." These Tablets cure all minor ailments of infants and young children. They contain no poisonous soothing stuff, and there is no danger of giving an overdose as there is with liquid medicine. Sold by all druggists or sent by mail at 25 cents a box by writing The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

PRESBYTERIANS HAD RECORD YEAR

Receipts for Schemes of the Church Totalled More Than $500,000

Kingston, June 9.—(Special)—At the Presbyterian General Assembly today the board of trustees reported an uncommonly prosperous year throughout the churches. The receipts for the schemes of the year now closing have been greatly in excess of the schemes amounted to more than $500,000.

The trustees regretted to report the serious illness of Dr. Warden, agent and treasurer of the church. The board recommended and the assembly sanctioned it, that for a period of six months, Dr. Warden should be relieved of all duty and be requested to take a thorough rest and change. It was further agreed by the assembly that Alexander Warden, agent and treasurer of the church to be assisted by an honorary advisory committee composed of the lieutenant-governor of Ontario, Robert Kilgour, and Hamilton Cassels, K. C.

The matter of the endowment of Queens University by an addition of $300,000 was given a chief place on the docket for the afternoon. The purpose of the endowment is to secure an additional $20,000 per annum for the better equipment of the arts and theological faculties of the institution.

Principal Gordon entered into the history of Queens and gave details of the operations since the last assembly. More than one-fourth of the $300,000 already assured. A resolution was unanimously passed repeating the conviction that the money was needed and urging immediate prosecution of the scheme among all graduates and friends of Queens. Rev. Robert Laird, of Vancouver, was appointed special agent of the fund.

Some time was given to Principal Mackenzie of St. Andrew's College, Toronto, to relate the doings in that institution. The sales by the Oxford Press of the Presbyterian books were reported upon by W. B. McMurich, K. C. The amount of royalty received by the hymnal committee was named as $2,700, two-thirds of which was for the purchase of books and infirm ministers, and one-third to the widows and orphans fund. The last payment on a total expenditure of $1,200 was made during the year for the completion of a new version of the Psalms which will be ready for use in Canada in 1907.

The fund for widows and orphans is operated in three departments. In the western division of the church, 187 widows and children drawing from the fund. Expenditures made from the fund for the year for the past year amounted to $2,300. The assembly sanctioned an increase to the annuities as well as an endeavor to increase the endowment. SERIOUS FOREST FIRES THREATEN North Shore Reports Woods in Several Points Attacked, and if Dry Weather Continues the Outlook is Bad—Mills Close Down to Let Crews Fight the Flames.

Reports to The Telegraph from Chatham, Newcastle and Fredericton tell of fires burning in the North Shore woods and threatening much damage if the dry spell continues. Fredericton, N. B., June 10.—A Blackville telephone message says serious forest fires are raging on the Alexander Gibson Company's lumber lands in a westerly direction from Weaver's siding on the Intercolonial Railway. It is seventeen miles southwest of Blackville and seven miles northwest of Dacktown, on land regarded as very valuable property. The two Gibson mills there closed down Saturday and about eighty men went to fight the fire. The steam mill at Dacktown was also closed down, and their crew sent out to fight the fire. Dacktown reported the fire about Otter Brook, running thence to Rocky Brook. There are about 150 men fighting the fire and at 10 o'clock Saturday morning the flames were about three miles northwest of the I. C. R. track at Weaver's siding.

A Newcastle message to The Telegraph last night said fires were reported near Rogersville, Blackville and Barnaby River but details could not be given.

From Chatham the report was received that the fires so far as known had not been of great extent but that the outlook if the dry weather continues, is serious. Crown lands and the Alex. Gibson Company property are reported to be attacked. It was added that one fire had started from the work of clearing land being done by a very old man named Fitzsimmons of Blackville and that he was to surrender himself to the authorities for trial.

June Weddings.

Mage-Allen. At Worcester (Mass.) on June 7, Miss Madeline L. Allen, daughter of Mrs. George L. Allen, of the Belmont, 667 Main street, Worcester, and Frank Conrack Magee, of St. John, were married in St. John's Episcopal church by Rev. Eliot White, rector. Robert Magee, brother of the groom, of St. John, was one of the ushers. The church was nicely decorated. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white liberty satin over white tulle and trimmed with princess lace; a tulle veil caught with lilies of the valley and carried a shower bouquet of large flowers. The matron of honor, Mrs. Frank Dodge, sister of the bride, was gowned in white tulle over tulle and trimmed with duchesse lace. She carried white bird's nest roses. The bridesmaids were Miss Grace Sprague, of South Framingham, and Miss Anna Taft, of Worcester, and they wore white muslin over pink tulle and carried large bouquets of bridesmaid roses. The groomsmen were Alexander Fowler, of St. John.

A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's mother and the house was decorated in pink and white. The bride couple stood under a canopy of separate fern and palms and were assisted in receiving Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Magee, parents of the groom; Mrs. Geo. L. Allen and Mrs. Frank Dodge.

Mr. and Mrs. Magee will live in St. John. Butler-Nightingale. Harold Leslie Butler and Miss Mary Edith Nightingale, of Canning, Queens Co., were married Saturday at the Free Baptist parsonage, Victoria street, by Rev. David Long. They left by steamer Majestic for Fredericton.

Pickle-Sweet. At the home of Mrs. S. Pickle, Springfield, on June 7, her son, James T. Pickle, was united to Miss Annie L. Sweet, of St. John. The bride was dressed in white tulle. She was given away by Dr. B. Campbell. The house was very prettily decorated with green plants and white flowers. The presents were numerous. The happy couple left by the steamer Beatrice E. Waring for a short visit to the bride's home in St. John.

Tinker-Brittain. Charles S. Tinker, the genial and popular C. P. R. agent at Bristol and Miss Lorena, youngest daughter of G. A. and Mrs. Brittain, Bristol, were married at the bride's home on Thursday, June 8. Nearly 300 invited guests were present to witness the ceremony, which was performed by the rector, Rev. E. W. Simons. Mr. Tinker has purchased a quiet home in Bristol and, after an extended wedding tour, the happy couple will return there and reside.

HUSBAND CHARGES WIFE WITH ABDUCTION OF CHILD

The sound of childish laughter and the running to and fro of tiny feet are not matters of everyday occasion within the grim walls of the central police station. Last evening two persons, Mrs. Annie Metcalf, and her little son, were occupants of the guard room, the mother at least being detained against her will, while the child's mother was ready to call any place a home. Had not the law intervened the two would have been well on their way to the states and the shelter of a friendly roof. But by order of W. R. Slade, the stipendiary magistrate at Oxford (N. S.), who had received Chief Clark's message briefly stating that the child was one of abducting the child, the husband followed with the official papers on the next train and that the pair were to be detained here pending his arrival. So the train was met and the identification having been telephoned from Amherst, Mrs. Metcalf and the baby were recognized and their journey was stopped. Mrs. Metcalf, who is a bright and pleasant looking woman of 23, had also her tale to tell. She admitted she was leaving her husband—who is a dyer in the Oxford Woolen Mills and was on his way, she said, to her father's home in Attleboro (Mass.) The cause she gave for her flight was ill-treatment and she added that her father, Paul Prow, of Attleboro, had sent her the means to make the journey. So the matter rested till late last night the little boy playing round the guard room all unheeded by the burly men in blue who went and came.

As no train from the east could reach the city until 6.25 this morning mother and child was made as comfortable for the night as circumstances permitted. The end of the story should be reached today.

SAIL OR BARREL BURNED BY EXPLOSION ON VESSEL

North Sydney, N. S., June 9.—(Special)—An explosion of a five-pound can of powder in the Gloucester schooner Panther today resulted in a sailor named McLennan, of Archaic, being badly burnt about the face and body. The explosion occurred in the captain's room, where McLennan was asleep. The injured man was brought ashore and is doing well.

The satisfaction of having the washing done early in the day, and well, does belong to every user of Sunlight Soap.

SUSSEX DISTURBED

Kings County Record Tackles the Sun and the Fire Underwriters.

(Kings County Record.) A few days ago the St. John Sun published an article on the fire system of Sussex in which most damaging and ridiculous statements were given circulation. Evidently the article was inspired. It came from some quarter in close touch with the board of underwriters, and the Record has it on good authority that the Sun's statements were contained in effect in a report made to the board by some person high in authority. We suppose that the board is composed of men of ability who have some concern as to the accuracy of statements given to the press as the official utterance. If this be so, it is up to the underwriters to make most humble apology to Sussex for the absolutely untrue information given to the press concerning this town. Whoever gave the alleged facts to the board, either did not know what he was talking about, or maliciously misrepresented the position of Sussex in the respect of its fire-fighting appliances. It would be hard to decide which is the worst position for an expert insurance man to place himself in. Unless the underwriters wish to become the laughing stock of this province they will bring different methods to bear in their business transactions with the people of Sussex. Knowledge of the matter is, that a few days ago Mr. Peter Clinch, representing the underwriters, came to town and interviewed a number of persons. Evidently he was looking for defects in the water system but he did not take the trouble to call on Mayor McKay or any of the members of the water and sewerage committee. One would suppose that those gentlemen, being in a position to give Mr. Clinch very important data, would have been consulted. The first thing the committee knew, it was told that the underwriters would not allow the town to install a gasoline engine at the pumping station. The St. John Sun told the rest. Mayor McKay immediately wrote to Mr. Clinch and asked for an explanation, but up to the time of writing he has not even stated to the St. John Sun what he was looking for. "How long do the people of this province propose to stand for this kind of treatment?" there are a number of places in Canada where the boards of underwriters have found that they were not steven custodians of the public's welfare and united action on the part of the town and committee in New Brunswick might serve to awaken them to a sense of their responsibilities. The case of Sussex is unfortunately not an isolated one. The article is too utterly untrue for comment, and before making its thirteenth onslaught on Sussex, the board of underwriters should first make sure that their own statements are true.

BOSTON MAN JUMPS FROM WHARF AND SAVES BRITAIN STREET BOY

Plucky Rescue of Joseph Cullinan by J. J. Wait at Leonard's Wharf Saturday Afternoon—Sprang Over Fully Dressed and Was Aided by Friend in Getting Laid Back on Wharf.

A deed of heroism which brought forth the admiration of those who witnessed it was performed Saturday afternoon, when a seven-year-old lad named Joseph Cullinan, of Britain street, was rescued from drowning by a couple of American visitors to St. John.

It was after 5 o'clock. As usual, Leonard's wharf, just off Britain street and opposite German street, was the scene of amateur fishing. This spot is a favorite one for the boys of the South End and several were indulging in the pastime Saturday. Among these was young Cullinan. By some means the young fellow went over the cap of the wharf and into the water. His companions were unable to do anything for him, but calling loudly for help. About fifteen feet away, engaged in fishing were J. J. Wait and M. Fox, who reside outside of Boston. Both ran to the scene of the accident. The unfortunate lad had gone down twice and was in imminent danger.

Without any hesitation, not even waiting to remove any of his clothing, Mr. Wait plunged into the water to the boy's rescue, the water being some ten feet below the edge of the wharf.

Mr. Wait managed to seize the drowning boy and safely reached the subments of the wharf with him. Meanwhile Mr. Fox had climbed down the slippery logs and helped the boy to get up to the wharf. He was in a very exhausted condition and was removed to his home nearby.

Mr. Wait was badly chilled by his immersion in the cold water, but refused to go to any nearby house. Leonard's establishment was closed and an unsuccessful attempt was made to secure a coach to take him to the Hotel Edward. King square, where he is staying. Finally after getting his circulation restored by walking up and down the wharf, Mr. Wait and his companion walked to the hotel.

Those who witnessed Mr. Wait's action speak in the highest way of his bravery, he having shown the manly quality to a degree.

He was obliged to remain in bed on Sunday on account of the chill and has a heavy cold, but beyond this and spoiling a suit of clothes he did not suffer any evil effects. Both gentlemen have been in St. John only a couple of days.

Scott Act and Maine Officers Get $4,000 Worth of Wet Goods TAKEN TO WOODSTOCK

Jack Hanson Thought to Have Had Help from Outside in His Escape from Jail—Fire Damaged P. Bradley's House Sunday Morning.

Woodstock, June 12.—No word has yet been received from John Hanson, arrested for assault upon a girl eight years of age, and who escaped on Friday evening from the county jail. Shortly after 7 o'clock Sheriff and Mrs. Hayward, after seeing that all doors were secure, went for a drive returning about 8 o'clock. Hanson had been in the corridor of the jail. Some of his friends must have managed to pass in to him a bar of iron with which he pried open the large steel bolt and regained the street, where, no doubt, a team was ready to carry him out of town.

A grand picnic will be held by the parishioners of St. Agnes' church, Debec, Rev. M. T. Murphy, pastor, on Tuesday, July 4.

Early yesterday morning fire broke out in the dwelling house of P. Bradley, Main street. Firemen responded quickly and the fire was quenched, but a great deal of damage was done to the stock of I. E. Slippy on the lower flat of the building; the loss is covered by insurance.

Mrs. D. Thompson, who has not been enjoying very good health for some time, was afflicted with a nervous shock yesterday, and the doctor was called in. Her many friends hope for a speedy recovery.

Saturday morning, at daylight, a posse of constables, headed by Scott Act Inspector Colpitts, went out to the boundary line to co-operate with the prohibition officers of Maine, in a raid upon the line stores. Nothing was secured at Jake Wise's place of business and Mr. Wise himself was in danger. Jack McLean suffered the loss of only about $20 worth of liquid goods. He had received word of the approaching raid and had removed his stock.

MESSRS. MOONEY MAKING GOOD PROGRESS WITH THE WATER EXTENSION

A Look Over the Works Saturday Shows a Great Deal Already Accomplished--150 Men Engaged on Their Two Sections--The Commissariat, An Important Feature from the Men's Standpoint, Well Handled.

The work on the waterworks extension is now sufficiently advanced for some estimate of the progress made to be formed. Through the courtesy of Messrs. Mooney a representative of the Telegraph on Saturday spent the day on their sections.

On the long drive out with Mr. Mooney some down town each laden with bags of cement for the concrete pipes were passed. Owing to the long haul from Water street to the works, but one trip can be made a day in most cases, and the process of removal is a lengthy one. As the drive continued openings were seen through the woods on the right, which lead to Messrs. MacArthur & McVey's sections on the city side of Lake Latimer.

At last a turn was made off the main road about a mile below the Barker House, and following the new right of way which the city has rented through the Waters property, the Mispic stream was reached. It takes but a glance to tell that considerable strides have been made since Messrs. Mooney signed their contract some six weeks ago. The eye at once catches the new coffer dam, stretching bow-shaped out into the stream, or more correctly Robertson's lake, which is here about 100 yards wide. Within the arc of the circle which it makes with the right bank is enclosed that section of the stream on which the fish-way, the log-race and gates will eventually be built. A powerful centrifugal pump is already in position, and within a few days the foundation of the temporary coffer dam have been strengthened, the water will be drawn off at the rate of 3,000 gallons a minute, until the river bed is bare and building can be started on a rock bottom.

Stretching out towards the opposite bank from the centre of the temporary dam and about 100 yards from the bridge which spans the stream, is a high trestle work to be used while the dam proper is under construction immediately above it.

The dam, which is the all-important feature of the new system, will be built of concrete and extend 200 feet across the stream, from the gates above referred to, to the left bank. From seven feet at the bottom to four feet at the top and over it will flow all the surplus water to supply the river below.

The gate-house, with the intake beneath it, will be built on the right bank immediately above the gates, and from this spot will start the pipe line to Lake Latimer rather less than a mile away. Lake Latimer, as is well known, is two feet higher than the waters in the Mispic, and will require to be lowered several feet to make the Loch Lemond water available. All the grading that will therefore be necessary from the gate-house throughout the length of the pipe-line is about two and a half feet. Sufficient to secure a flow in the right direction and no more. The country through which the line will pass is level with the exception of one hill, almost on the margin of Lake Latimer, and there a tunnel 775 feet long will be necessary. Beyond the tunnel to the outlet beneath the water of Lake Latimer is 670 feet, and here a wood-stave pipe will be used.

With this exception the whole course of Messrs. Mooney's pipe will be constructed of reinforced concrete. This combination, which is the best qualified for use where no pressure is needed, consists of three-eighths an inch half-inch rods embedded in trestle work fashion in concrete. The rods are bent to the shape of the pipe, which is forty-eight inches in diameter, and the whole, when finished, is covered with sufficient earth to prevent any attack from frost.

Wet But Busy Italians. A walk up the pipe line from Latimer Lake shows the different conditions of soil met with. On the margin of the lake a number of Italians are working in a trench, and the work when finished, in a pit eighteen feet deep, from which point the tunnel will be commenced on that side.

Then a stiff climb over the hill through which the tunnel will pass, and a half-mile of trench stretches away in a straight line dotted with some fifty or sixty more Italians, all wet but busy. A short section of cleared but unbroken ground follows, and then the rock section is reached. Here five steam drills are constantly busy preparing holes for dynamite. Considerable progress has already been made, but the work is necessarily slow. The rock reaches almost to the gate-house, where soft ground is again met with.

Messrs. Mooney are now employing about 150 hands, half of whom are foreigners. The Italians, wily and dark complected, are a contrast to the Galicians, who are fairer and of a stouter build. There is every appearance of perfect harmony on all sides--Latin and Anglo-Saxon working without sign of friction.

A word of praise is due to Messrs. Mooney's commissariat department, an all-important item, where hungry men are concerned. A spacious dining hall has been built, light and scrupulously clean, where 150 men can dine at one meal. The bill of fare is varied and of the best. The Telegraph's representative was hungry, and he tested it thoroughly on two occasions, and no better meal could have been put before him in a city restaurant. The price to the men works out at a fraction more than fourteen cents per meal for twenty-one meals a week. One item worthy of mention. It takes three hams to supply the crew with breakfast. The opinion formed after a look round all divisions of the works is one of surprise at the progress made. With six months for the contract still to run the work is well forward.

Tunnel to Be Started Wednesday. On Wednesday a start will be made on the tunnel. In a week's time the coffer dam should be drained and the preliminaries under way for the building of the dam itself. Messrs. Mooney's policy is evidently one of haste, and the men that work for them, from the engineers downward, are clearly the men to carry it out.

VALUABLE INVENTION BY DR. MARCH, ST. JOHN

Successful Test of Suction Gas Producer of Marine Type at Hampton and Marvellous Results Claimed.

Hampton, Kings county, June 9.—A circumstance which is of importance and far-reaching consequences may be said to have occurred in the workshop of George M. Wilson, of this city, on the 7th inst., when in the presence of a number of gentlemen interested in mechanics, a new producing plant of the suction gas producer type, capable of producing a steady and constant operation of a suction gas producer of marine type, nominally of four horse power, designed by Dr. J. E. March, of St. John, and built, together with the engine, by the inventor, was put to a test. The plant consists of two parts—a producer and a scrubber. The producer is produced by the combustion of coal which is contained in a chamber in the producer through a series of chambers in the scrubber and thence carried direct to the engine, where it is converted into power by an electrical spark.

The producer is a boiler standing three feet six inches high, and one foot six inches in diameter. The scrubber is of irregular form, two feet high, one foot seven inches long, and one foot two inches wide. Single as it is, the scrubber appears, the first revolution of the wheel on the engine, in today's test, brought the spark and the gas into contact, and in a minute the nominal capacity of the little producer was not only reached, but doubled, and with a smoothness and regularity which called forth expressions of satisfaction from all present.

The inventor claims not only compactness and efficiency for his plant, but its perfect adaptability to any system of gas, whether marine or stationary. It is so constructed that it is adaptable to any vessel may careen to an angle of at least sixty degrees without interfering with its effective working, and probably no ship ever exceeded that divergence from the perpendicular, without running turtle. In fact, as to cost of power produced, it is claimed that it will be one-third that of steam, and one-twelfth that of gasoline. With gasoline at 20 cents a gallon, that will run for three cents. But with this machine a ton of coal costing $2, and by combustion giving two thousand horse power hours, would cost only a quarter of a cent per horse power hour. This seems almost like economy run mad, but the test has been made and the result proved.

Suction gas producers have been in successful operation for some years past, but the changes and improvements made by Dr. March are of such a far-reaching nature that they will probably supersede all that have gone before. Certainly the results as shown today were little short of marvellous.

The process of producing this wonderful power is after all very simple, and therein lies one of its chief points of value. The producer being charged with coal and ignited by a forced draught, the by wheel of the engine is turned over by hand, when the down stroke of the piston draws a current of air into the producer through the surface of water

HEROIC ACT OF J. C. RENGINEER

Moncton, June 12.—A further change was made today in I. C. R. express drivers which may cause the removal of Driver George Storey from St. John to Moncton.

Driver John Hunter has taken Nos. 133 and 134 between Moncton and St. John and Driver Storey, who formerly ran Nos. 83 and 84 between Moncton and Truro. Other shifts have been made, but none that will involve the removal of any of the men from their present place of residence.

I. C. R. Driver James King, running between Moncton and Campbellton, made a brave rescue of a little girl from certain death, near Campbellton, on Friday evening last. A special freight with Driver King in the engine cab was running into Campbellton, when a little tot—too young to realize the danger of her position—was sitting in the middle of the track. Driver King whistled for brakes, applied the emergency brake and did everything possible to stop the train. But it was too late, the tot was impossible to stop the heavy train before the child was reached.

The speed of the train was perceptibly slowed and Driver King acted promptly in a desperate effort to save the child's life. After reversing his engine he climbed out through the cab window and quickly ran his way to the front of the train, where he snatched the tot from the track. When within a short distance of the child Driver King leaped from his engine and snatched the little one from the track and escaped out of harm's way just as the huge iron monster rolled past. The act was a most daring one and showed great presence of mind.

Mother Sworned. The mother of the child was an eye witness of the impending danger to her tot, and she gallantly rescued him by Driver King. The mother sworned immediately the child was returned to her by Driver King.

The tot to a length or more past the spot where the child had been snatched from the rail before being stopped. Driver King took his place at the throttle and the gallant rescue was completed by all who heard of the incident.

Moncton's new steamer, the Wilfrid C. Hillabrand, left for the north on Monday morning. The steamer is owned by the Atlantic Manufacturing Company.

D. J. Welch, secretary of the Maritime Horsemen's Association, gives notice of a race meet at Sydney on the 17th inst. The first day's racing will include 2.19 class, purse, $300; 2.28 class, $300, and 2.35 class, $200. The second day's racing will include 3.00, miners' class, $300; free-for-all, $300, and 2.23, $300.

L. V. Alward and bride, of Chicago, are in the city today on their way to the wedding at Clifton, succeeded him, then came an Englishman, Mr. Major, who in his turn was succeeded by George Walker, an excellent teacher and good manager, while the rest of the school were in the hands of the old grammar school under the hill at Kingston.

But the removal of the shiretown to Hampton and, as for a time seemed to change the face of the map for those who knew little of the other spot, Raymond's school followed the town as night follows the day. The school to Kingston, the big court house was turned into a superior school. Confraternity, Puddington, Fiewelling, Welmore and others taught the older boys and girls of Kingston while, on the mountain, a dealer of a mile distant, a maiden lady decelerated after decade taught the infants the shape of their letters on the mountain, and on Sundays their Catechism. None of those who spent any time in Miss Pickett's school will soon forget the loving, gentle control she exercised over them.

Now, after nearly twenty years of what may almost be termed lethargy, Kingston, by the unexpected generosity of Sir William Macdonald, has come to its own again, with modern buildings and new methods and name and fame far greater than in the days of yore.

Kintore News. Kintore, June 9.—There was sorrow in Viger, and in the news of the sudden death of Mrs. Wm. Paul and a great number of people from here and Upper Kintore were present at her funeral yesterday. Mrs. Paul will be greatly missed, not only in the home but throughout the country. No truer or higher tribute can be paid to the memory of the deceased than the words expressed by the Rev. Mr. Pringle at the funeral service.

Miss Cressy Gendall is ill of typhoid fever. Miss Elsie Phillips and Mrs. Workman arrived from Boston to visit their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Phillips. Mrs. C. Kellman is at home from Boston.

MACDONALD SCHOOL AT KINGSTON AND ITS SURROUNDINGS

Some Account of the Famous Schools Years Ago and the Present Consolidated One.

Kingston, N. B., June 9.—Much interest is being taken in the proposed visit of the Hon. Mr. Hamilton and the members of the legislature to the Macdonald school and there is no doubt many others from the adjoining districts and counties will make it convenient to see what is being done in the much-talked of Consolidated school in the old shire-town of Kings county. The visitors will sail up the Kennebecasis in the steamer Champlain, it is said, and when they arrive they will no doubt receive a pleasant and hearty welcome from the principal, teachers and pupils as well as the people of Kingston.

The grounds around the school, which are very spacious, are beginning to give some evidence of the plans and intentions of those who have worked to make them beautiful. The trees and hedges and lawns are showing all the signs of vigorous growth, the walks have been improved and the drives kept in splendid order. The garden adjoining the grounds, which is divided into many small plots, is looking as neat as possible and much care is given to it by the pupils in their friendly ambition to excel each other.

The introduction of the domestic science department last week, has but an additional interest to the usual work. Miss Young, who is in charge, is a graduate of Sackville College, and at the start was accompanied by an experienced teacher from that institution. It is understood that for the remainder of this term Miss Young will be in charge of this department.

Some of those who visit the Macdonald school next Thursday will be returning to old and historic ground. Perhaps no spot in the province is more alive with history than this quaint Kingston village. Where the school now stands many of the lawyers and judges of the province have their offices, and the distance in the old Kingston court house, which was burned about twenty years ago, and upon the
