CHINA REPORTED TO HAVE YIELDED MOST OF JAPS' DEMANDS, THUS AVERTING WAR

Dispatches Say That Only Details Remain To Be Settled and That Conflict Will Certainly Be Prevented—Ultimatum Was Delivered.

(Special Cable to The Advertiser.)

London, May 7.—Special dispatches from Peking say that China has yielded practically all of the Japanese demands, and that only details now remain to be worked out. The dispatches say that this will surely prevent war between China and Japan.

ULTIMATUM DELIVERED.

(Canadian Press.)

Peking, May 7.—Eki Hoko, the Japanese minister to China, went to the Chinese foreign office between 3 and 4 o'clock this afternoon and presented the Japanese ultimatum, which insists that China accede to the demands presented by the Tokio Government.

Previous to this action on the part of the minister the secretary of the legation visited the foreign office and informed Vice-Minister Tsao Yu Lin that the ultimatum of the Japanese Government contained certain modifications of the twenty-four demands presented by Tokio.

KAISER WARNS ITALY THAT BRITISH TROOPS ARE USELESS

Also Says Russians Will Be Driven Out of Galicia in Two Weeks—Italians, Unmoved, Continue To Prepare For Entry Into Struggle.

(Special Cable to The Advertiser.)

[BY ALICE ROHE.]

Rome, May 7.—Italy has been warned of the consequences of entering the war on the side of the Allies. Telegrams from Berlin, to which she had returned, after an inspection of both battlefronts, the Kaiser notified Prince Von Buelow that British troops in the west were useless, and that within a fortnight the Russians will be driven out of Galicia.

Italy was warned, under direct instructions from the Kaiser, that Austria's cause is Germany's, and that Austria's enemies must be Germany's. Because of this, should Italy come into the war she will be opposed by the great German army.

The Italian Government continues its war preparations. The army is concentrated at strategic points, and the fleet is ready for action, and the first thing to be done after war is declared will be the gazing of the Duke of Alrucci as commander-in-chief of the royal fleet.

The Government has issued a royal decree authorizing the suspension of telegraph and telephone services without notice.

Austria Preparing. The Government has sent a sharp note to Turkey, questioning the truth as to the report that Turkish officers now command the rebels in Tripoli. Advice from the frontier show that Austria is continuing all of her war preparations at top speed. Enormous guns of the latest Austrian type have been mounted at various points where an Italian invasion is possible, and troops now on the border are declared to be first-line Hungarian soldiers and first-line Germans.

[Special Cable to The Advertiser.] By Carl W. Ackerman. Berlin, May 7.—German officialdom refuses to abandon hope for a peaceful settlement of the Austro-Italian crisis.

No attempt, however, is made to disguise the seriousness of the situation. The chief hope is that Italian officials who have tried to do business with Austria will, in the last analysis, be influenced by Italian pledges to the Triple Alliance and will accept the Austrian concessions, which it is declared are almost as great as Italy could hope to secure, even though she was able to prosecute a successful war.

Italy Watching Fighting. The German success on both fronts is declared to be a powerful factor in present negotiations. Italy is not losing sight of the fact that with success on the east assured and the Russians driven back on a new line, a powerful German army, fired with the spirit of victory, would be released for service with the Austrians in the south.

The Lokal Anzeiger, in an inspired editorial discussing the situation, says: "Despite the undeniable seriousness of the situation, slight possibilities exist, even at this late day, that we will be able satisfactorily to overcome the great difficulties in way of a peaceful settlement."

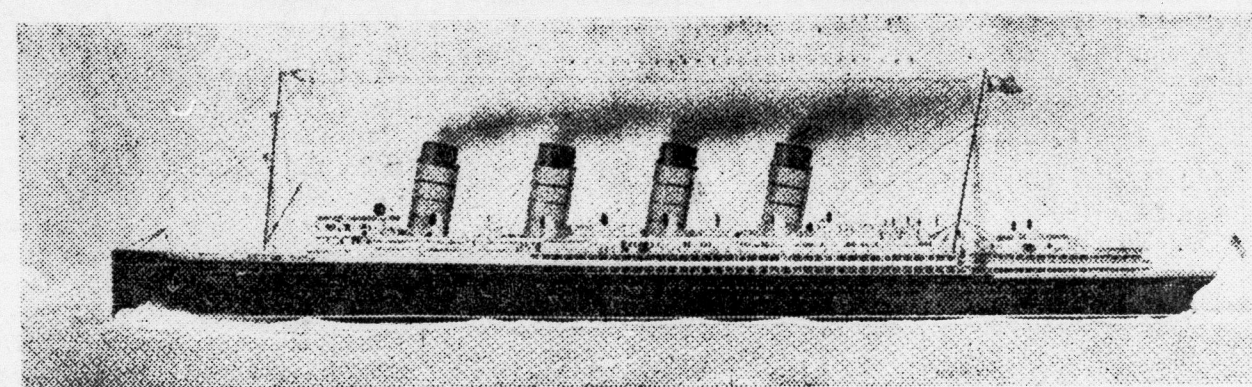

The Tazepblat says: "While there is no new development pointing toward improvement, it also is true that nothing has happened which points to a change for the worse."

GREAT PASSENGER SHIP WITH 1,200 ON BOARD IS TORPEDOED OFF THE COAST OF IRELAND

A VICTIM OF GERMAN "FRIGHTFULNESS"

Advertiser Illustration.

WARNING GIVEN U.S. OF POLICY OF FRIGHTFULNESS

German Advertisements Warned Passengers That the Boats Were Liable To Destruction—Announcement Did Not Cause Cancellations.

(Canadian Press.)

New York, May 7.—The Cunard Line officials would only admit this afternoon that they had received dispatches from London that the Lusitania had been torpedoed at 2 o'clock this morning off Kinsale, and had sunk thirty minutes later.

PASSENGERS WARNED OF INTENTION. When the Lusitania sailed she had aboard 1,130 passengers. Some nervousness had been caused because of the publication in the morning papers of Saturday of an advertisement warning intending travellers that a state of war existed between Germany and Great Britain and his allies; that the zone of war includes the waters adjacent to the British Isles; that in accordance with notice given by the German Government vessels flying the flag of Great Britain are liable to destruction in those waters, and that travellers sailing in the war zone on ships of Great Britain or her allies do so at their own risk. This advertisement was signed "Imperial Germany Embassy."

WARNING DID NOT CAUSE CANCELLATIONS.

This warning apparently did not cause many cancellations, for the ship sailed with a very full passenger list. Charles P. Sumner, general agent of the Cunard Line, was at the pier, and in a statement made then said that the voyage of the Lusitania would not be attended by any risk whatever, as the liner had a speed of twenty-five and a half knots, and was provided with unusual water-tight bulkheads. In commenting on the report of the torpedoing of the Lusitania today marine men pointed out that in their opinion the Lusitania could not be sunk by a single torpedo.

Did Infernal Machine Sink the Lusitania?

(Special Cable to The Advertiser.) London, May 7.—A report received tonight said that it was reported the Lusitania was sunk by an infernal machine, and not by a torpedo from a submarine. This report lacks confirmation.

Washington Aroused.

(Special to The Advertiser.) Washington, May 7.—Secretary Bryan was at lunch when news of the torpedoing of the Lusitania reached him. He hurried at once to the State Department.

At 2:15 no official information had been received.

The department was much upset. Every effort was being made to establish communications with consular representatives nearest to the scene of the disaster.

Many Boats Seen.

New York, May 7.—Confirmation of the report was received in a dispatch dated Queenstown, 4:59 p.m. today.

MANY PROMINENT U.S. AND CANADIAN CITIZENS WERE ABOARD SHIP

(Canadian Press.) New York, May 7.—The following is a list of the first cabin passengers on board the Lusitania: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Adams, Boston; A. H. Adams, New York; W. McM. Adams, New York; Lady Allen and maid, Montreal; Miss Anna Allan, Montreal; Miss Gwen Allan and maid, Montreal; M. N. Ailes, New York; Julien A. Aubrey, Consul-General at Liverpool; Jas. CONSTANTINOPLE HIT BY AVIATORS' BOMBS

Russians Make First Attack On Turkish Capital—Fleet Throws Shells Within Ten Miles of the City.

(Canadian Press.) Paris, May 7.—12:20 p.m.—The first attack of the war on Constantinople is reported in an unofficial dispatch from Athens. It is said three Russian aviators flew over the city, dropping several bombs, which are believed to have caused extensive damage.

2 LONDONERS ON LUSITANIA

Mrs. Herbert, Wife of Quarter-Master Sergeant Herbert, of 18th Battalion, and Felwin Warner Are Those From This City Who Were Aboard Ill-Fated Cunarder.

(Canadian Press.)

The sinking of the Lusitania is of vital interest to Londoners as two citizens are known to be aboard. They are Mrs. Herbert and Felwin Warner. Mrs. Herbert is the wife of Quarter-master-Sergeant Herbert, of the 18th Battalion. He was quite well known in this city, and left with the battalion several weeks ago for England. Mrs. Herbert sailed on the Lusitania, intending to remain in England until after the war. She had boarded with Mrs. M. Smith, 690 King street, for nearly a year.

Selwyn Warner. Selwyn Warner, one of the Londoners on the Lusitania, was a golf professional of the London Golf Club, 12 had been with the club for the past three years, and was returning to the old country to be married. Before he left he had expressed his determination to enlist in the old country.

Up until the time he left, Warner had made his home with Mr. E. Parnell, 75 Bruce street. His mother is a resident of this city, and lives with F. E. Parnell, 75 Bruce street.

JITNEY BUSES ARRIVE IN CITY

The Jitney bus has arrived in London.

Tomorrow morning five seven-passenger cars will start to compete with the London street railway on Dundas street.

Later six regulation jitney buses capable of carrying fifteen passengers will replace the touring cars. The jitneys will be placed on the main traffic routes, and it is said that they will also run to Springbank on Sunday.

The Hendrick Garage is financing the venture, and is confident that it can be made to pay. The street railway will not take any steps to combat this competition, but if business is affected seriously it may apply to the city council for a reduction of the number of cars.

First-Class Service. The coming of the jitney will bring the question of liability for accidents to the city council, and it is probable that the jitney owners will be required to put up a bond accepting responsibility for accidents. Whether the city will demand a fixed number of tickets and a percentage of earnings, in lieu of the paving done by the street railway is not yet known, but the Hendrick people say that they intend to give the city a first-class jitney service, adding to the number of cars as the demand increases.

Ocean Queen With 1,200 Souls Attacked by Kaiser's Pirates, But Reports Indicate Safety of the Passengers—Warnings Given Before Sailing.

LONDON, MAY 7—5:20 P.M.—THE PASSENGERS OF THE LUSITANIA ARE BELIEVED TO BE SAFE.

New York, May 7.—The Cunard liner Lusitania, fastest ship afloat, was torpedoed and sunk this afternoon off the coast of Ireland, ten miles south of Kinsale.

She had aboard 1,253 passengers. She sailed from this port last Saturday, May 1, and carried, in addition to her own large passenger list, 163 passengers transferred to her from the Anchor liner Cameronia.

Cunard Co. Notified From Two Sources

(Canadian Press.)

New York, May 7.—The Cunard Steamship Company announced today that it has received from its agents in England an unconfirmed report that the steamship Lusitania had been torpedoed off the coast of Ireland.

A dispatch from London printed on the Dow-Jones news bureau ticker states that a report to the Lloyds says the Lusitania has been sunk off Kinsale, Ireland.

Officials of the line here announced that they would promptly make public any confirmation or denial of the report.

The Lusitania sailed last Saturday from New York, and was due in Liverpool today.

NEWS HITS WASHINGTON LIKE BOMB, SAYS DISPATCH

(Canadian Press.) Washington, D. C., May 7.—News of the torpedoing of the Lusitania struck official Washington like a bomb. While disposed to await full details before expressing opinions, all administration officials realized that the incident was probably the most serious Washington has faced since the beginning of the war.

(Canadian Press.) New York, May 7.—The New York office of the Cunard Line announced this afternoon that the Lusitania had been sunk.

London, May 7.—5:32 p.m.—The Lusitania sunk at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon.

Kinsale, off which the Lusitania was torpedoed, is a seaport of Ireland, 13 miles southwest of Cork. It lies near the entrance of St. George's Channel, between Ireland and England, through which trans-Atlantic vessels pass on their way to Liverpool.

PASSENGERS MAY BE SAVED. Officials of the line here reported that the Lusitania was torpedoed at 2 o'clock this morning, and that she did not go down until 2:30 this afternoon, she was afloat for more than twelve hours, a period of time which undoubtedly gave opportunity for efforts at the removal of her passengers.

It is not known just how far from shore the Lusitania was when she was struck.

A dispatch from London set forth that assistance was sent to her.

Many Ships Go To Assistance. New York, May 7.—A third cable dispatch reads as follows: "Queenstown, May 7.—All available craft in harbor dispatched to assist."

The cablegram was preceded by the following message: "Liverpool, May 7.—Land's End wireless reports distress calls made by Lusitania as follows: 'Come at once! Position, ten miles west of Kinsale.'"

Lloyd's Says All Are Saved. New York, May 7.—The Dow-Jones & Co. ticker service, in a report from London, declares the Lusitania was beached and passengers and crew, according to Lloyd's, saved.

ASSISTANCE SENT. (Canadian Press.) London, May 7.—5 p.m.—The Lusitania was sunk off Old Head, Kinsale, by a torpedo. Assistance has been sent to her.

QUEENSTOWN CONFIRMS. Queenstown, May 7.—The Cunard liner Lusitania has been torpedoed and sunk.

LONDON GUNS IN GREAT ACTION HAD TERRIFIC TASK

Roads Choked With Carcasses Which Riders Had To Get Over.

LOSSES WERE NOT HEAVY

One Gun In Two Days Fired One Thousand Shells At Enemy.

In a special cable to the Toronto Telegram, Douglas S. Robertson says: London, May 6.—Worthy of and equal with the splendid courage of the infantry was the cool gallantry and wonderful efficiency of the Canadian artillery that terrible afternoon last Thursday week and succeeding days of the inferno.

A witness of their sangroid was Major D. A. Clark, regimental surgeon, 3rd Brigade Artillery, Toronto, which includes St. Catharines, Hamilton, London and Peterborough men.

"Col. Currie, of the 48th, had just dropped in to tell Col. Mitchell that he would take a day to point out the German headquarters. Fire, which was known the alarms were sounded that the line was breached, and we were called to arms.

Behaved Like Veterans. "Those artillery officers and men behaved like veterans, and presently our guns were pounding away for all they were worth. One gun in two days fired 1,000 shells.

Jumped Carcasses. "The road out from St. Julien was left almost impassable," continued the major, "blocked by dead horses and wreckage. The horsemen had hard work to get their charges past, and frequently it was necessary to jump the carcasses and burn Canadian ambulances wrecked by incendiary German shells.

"Nevertheless surprisingly few were killed in proportion to the shells. A huge one may burst twenty feet away, and if men were lying on the ground, probably not one would receive a scratch, though a big excavation would be made in the ground.

"At Ypres twenty thousand people ten days back were carrying on business. Eating restaurants are now a heap of ruins. The Cloth Hall is destroyed."

"Capt. G. Rodgers, 4th Battalion, Harrier, in the same hospital as Clark, and slightly wounded near St. Julien last Friday week, has 11 bullet wounds, but will soon be up.

SMALLMAN & INGRAM MAN IS WOUNDED

Sapper Brooker, Once Reported Killed, Is in English Hospital.

In the list of Canadians admitted to the hospital at Longmeath, England, cited by The Advertiser yesterday, appears the name of Sapper Brooker, of the divisional engineers. The nominal roll of this unit gives Sapper Clement Brooker, who enlisted with the 7th Field Company, Canadian Engineers, of this city, as the only Brooker. Therefore, it is but natural to suppose that he is the one. No details were given as to the cause of his admission to the hospital.

It will be remembered that Sapper Brooker was supposed to have been killed some time ago. Similarity of names, corps and age were at that time responsible for the report.

The Sapper Clement Brooker, whose death was announced in English papers gave rise to that rumor, was the same age as the local man and was attached to a divisional engineers unit of the British army.

While in London Sapper Brooker was employed at Smallman & Ingram's. He was a member of Nassau Lodge, C. O. L., and Recording Secretary Harry Bennett of that lodge heard from him a short time ago. At that time Sapper Brooker was in France and serving in the trenches.

A brother of Sapper Brooker enlisted here in the 18th Battalion. He was heard from only a short time ago. Sapper Brooker was a West Indian and his next of kin is given as Edwin Grant Brooker, Church View, St. John's, Barbadoes, British West Indies.

OVER $100,000 LOSS ON PRINCESS THEATRE

Toronto Playhouse To Be Replaced By a Fine Building.

(Canadian Press.)

Toronto, May 7.—Fire, which was noticed by a passing policeman, who turned in a general alarm at 2:30 this morning, practically gutted the Princess Theatre here, causing a total loss of $117,000.

The fire is supposed to have started in the rooms on the King street front of the building occupied by the Metropolitan Racing Association, of which Abe Orpen is president. They had gained such a hold on the structure that the best efforts of the firemen failed to check them, and the whole interior, auditorium and stage has been completely gutted, leaving little but the walls and steelwork of the galleries standing in the interior.

The loss to the building is placed at $120,000, and the Metropolitan Racing Association estimates its loss at $5,000. The insurance in force is $65,000, of which $27,000 is on the building and $7,500 on the properties.

The theatre was not a new structure though modern in its appointments and presented the latest theatrical productions. It was built some 25 years ago. B. C. Whitney wired this morning that work would proceed at once on the construction of a new theatre, to be one of the best in Canada.

Is Greece Going To Take Plunge?

Former Premier Venizelos, War Advocate, Recalled From Cairo.

(Canadian Press.)

Toronto, May 7.—A special dispatch from Rome says that Former Premier Venizelos of Greece, who is now at Cairo, has been recalled suddenly to Athens in view of events which are impending.

M. Venizelos and his cabinet resigned when King Constantine declined to accept his recommendation that Greece enter the war on the side of the Allies. He exiled himself voluntarily from his country, when a question of venality arose between the King and himself, declaring he would not return until he had been vindicated.

DR. CAMERON WILSON TOLD TO BE READY FOR SPECIAL MISSION

Letter Home Apparently Forecasts Move to Front for Big Fight.

Capt. Dr. J. Cameron Wilson, who left Canada with the No. 2 Canadian Army Medical Corps, and who was chosen with 19 others to go to France with the British expeditionary force, has been ordered again to his original unit, and is now at Le Trepot, in France. In a letter to his mother in the city he stated that he had just received word from the various points in readiness to proceed at 30 minutes' notice on a "special mission." Of what that mission is he gives no hint, but Mrs. Wilson suggests that the order presages a movement right up to the front of the battle line.

It is possible to indicate that a big battle was in progress in the time he wrote and that medical units were being moved up to the front in view of the probability of large casualties.

WARNS FAST DRIVERS

Jack Smallman's Speedometer Wins in Contest With Officer.

In dismissing Jack Smallman on a charge of speeding, Police Magistrate J. C. Judd today gave out a final warning to "speed fiends," and announced that one of these days he will fine some offender an amount that will open the eyes of those who persist in breaking the city bylaws.

Conflicting evidence got Mr. Smallman off. It was a case of Platincothesman Harpur and his stop watch against the word of Mr. Smallman and his speedometer. Theonus being on the prosecution the police magistrate dismissed the case.

During the trial it was intimated that the police were not to "get" Mr. Smallman, to which his worship said that the police were not out especially to get Mr. Smallman, but were out to get any man who broke the laws, whether he was rich or poor, and if there were any members of the force who did not do this they were not wanted on London's finest.

Voice of the People

Ald. Lerner's Rejoinder.

To the Editor of The Advertiser: Will you allow the space in your paper to reply to Ald. W. A. Wilson's letter that I "swelled" on the stockyards vote? I will verify his statements, he called me by telephone and asked me whether I would attend the meeting for the third reading of the bylaw. I asked him whether the mayor would be there, but I did not promise which way I would vote, although I had supported the stockyards proposition since it was originated by Ald. Haney, on the principal of municipal ownership, and voted that the vote should be taken on May 27. The latter was with the understanding that the board of control proposition would also go to the people at that time, together with the grant of $10,000 to the Western Fair, and a plebiscite on spending $1,000,000 on the Federal Square.

With all this in view, I considered it justified to spend $2,000 for a special election, but when these other projects were not realized, I considered it my own responsibility to spend $2,000 for a special election.

MAX LERNER, Alderman.

BEST OUTLOOK EVER.

BLITH, May 6.—The Blyth farmers have now about completed their seedling operations, and the growth has been very rapid, so much so that if frost comes the damage will be severe. The fall wheat and clover is looking the best it has for a number of years, and if suitable weather conditions follow, there should be one of the best crops ever known in this district, especially when it is considered that most farmers are putting more of their land into crop this year.

SITUATION BAD IN WESTERN POLAND

Food Prices Terribly High—Many Thousands Depend On Charity.

(Canadian Press.)

Warsaw, Russian-Poland, May 7.—Via London, 11:20 a.m.—A detailed report of the desperate situation prevailing today in the mining district of Western Poland, now in possession of the Germans, has been received by the Rockefeller Commission, which was organized to assist the suffering people of this region.

A comparison of food prices before the war with those prevailing as of January of this year show the following contrasts:

Rye flour increased from $40 to $90 per ton, wheat flour from $40 to $102, buckwheat from $60 to $125, and peas from $60 to $250. The price of oats has risen there are 5,000 hungry subjects out of a population of 135,000 in the district of Sosnowitz, 12,650 persons are now dependent upon charity. In Bendin there are 6,000 hungry subjects out of a population of 50,000, and in Dombrow 5,000 out of a population of 60,000. These figures do not include the unemployed 500 per cent in Bendin and Dombrow so situated number about 45,000, or, counting their families, about 100,000 persons.

Ravages of Disease. Continuing, this report says that during the last five months the population of this region suffered serious epidemics of typhus, scarlet fever, dysentery and cholera. Of cholera, there have been 35 authenticated cases, and the death rate among non-combatants has increased from 10 to 12 per cent.

Two chief causes of the misery in this region have been the cutting off of imports, upon which this part of Poland always has depended, and the closing of the coal mines, which in normal times give employment to 50,000 men.

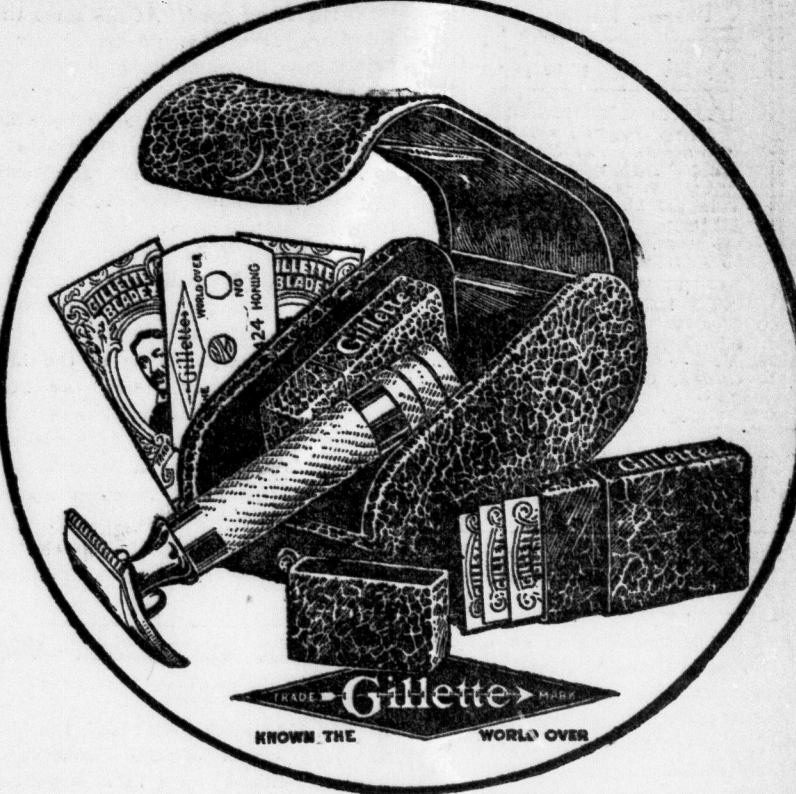

LIEUT. GREENE IS GERMAN PRISONER

Hume R. Elliott, barrister, has received word from his sister, Mrs. Greene, Toronto, to the effect that she has received a cablegram from her son, Lieut. Gerald E. Greene, who was reported missing, to the effect that he is a prisoner in the hands of the Germans. Lieut. Greene, who is well-known in this city, was in the battle of Langemark with the 48th Highlanders, and was among those who gallantly defended a position until the force was surrounded by an overwhelming mass of the enemy.

GODERICH DISTRICT W. M. S. BLYTH, May 6.—The Women's Missionary Society of Goderich district met in the Methodist Church here in annual meeting Tuesday afternoon and evening, with an attendance of 100 delegates from the various points in the district. The session opened with devotional exercises by Mrs. W. Andrews, of Auburn, followed by prayer by Mrs. King, of Blyth, and Mrs. R. Buchanan, of Westfield. Routine business was followed by a solo by Mrs. Conway, of Auburn. The reports from the different places were given, also the organizer's report. All were encouraging. Miss M. Aitken, of Goderich, sang a solo, after which various questions on the work were given and discussed. The re-election of Mrs. S. E. Hicks, of Goderich, as organizer, and Mrs. W. Andrews, of Auburn, as secretary-treasurer, took place. Tea was also served, at which an address of welcome was given by Mrs. (Rev.) Jewitt, of Blyth, and responded to by Mrs. S. F. Treleven, of Dunganom.

Rev. George Jewitt presided in the evening and gave an address, followed by a solo by Miss Aitken, of Goderich. Miss Courdeir, a returned missionary from Japan, gave an address. A paper was also given by Mrs. Baker, of Senforth, on "The Study Class."

shall yet have some whipper-snapper of a German Dernburg arguing that the Huns under Attila had a righteous cause because they were as united and solid as the onward blast of a hurricane, and because some foolish people dared to resist them, any methods of warfare the Huns chose, to employ were right and good. At the same time Dernburg & Co. would be slower to admit that the plundering onslaught of a united France upon Napoleon after Japan was a justifiable proceeding. Apostles of violence, the Prussians do not, however, approve the application of their philosophy made by Napoleon to their grandfathers.

ANOTHER CANADIAN VICTORY.

THE MAIL AND EMPIRE, the leading organ of the Conservative party in Ontario, says in a large type headline: "NO ELECTION THIS SUMMER." In other words, the Rogers wing of the Government has been crumpled up, not by the other division of the Conservative forces at Ottawa, but by a strong advance of the army of public opinion. Liberals and Conservatives of the rank and file were called to prevent an attack upon the internal peace of the country. Rogers' militarism was downed, and the Liberal party, which stood at least as good a chance as it will have in another year of being returned to power, deserves much credit for having stood up against an election.

One thing that has been emphasized is that the public does not want any political bickering. It would welcome a return to the early days of the war, when each political leader paid tribute to the other, and Gen. the Hon. Sam Hughes saw fit to consult the former Minister of Militia. It would be gratified to see all the talent for statesmanship possessed by this country utilized to the full advantage. It is an error to war grating, and has confidence in the man appointed to the purchasing commission.

POISON IN AIR.
 THE USE of asphyxiating and poisonous gases by the Germans has led to a declaration by the British Government that the adoption of similar weapons is under consideration by the Allies. This method of warfare is prohibited by one of the resolutions of the Hague Convention. That Germany agreed to the prohibition, and now violates it, is only in accord with their common practice. But in this case they would doubtless make the excuse that neither Great Britain nor the United States accepted it, and therefore cannot be held to it. The exact reason for Great Britain's action in this matter at the convention does not appear; but, at all events, it leaves the way perfectly clear for the British war office to adopt any measures of this kind that it sees fit.

To an outsider, it may be confessed, there does not seem much difference between firing explosive shells and dropping bombs which crash into massed troops, killing or giving ghastly wounds in every direction, and sending a poisonous gas over them, and putting them out of action. Either practice is horrible to contemplate; either one is destructive. On the whole the gas clouds would seem to be the least dangerous, as by the use of respirators, or even putting cotton in the nostrils, the evil effects of this weapon may be minimized.

At all events, if the Germans are going to use poisonous gases to fight the Allies, the latter will be justified in giving the Kaiser's men some of their own medicine. War is a horrible and unnatural thing under any circumstances; and it is not easy to permitable and those that are not. The very best are inhumane. And we fear that the average man would be very apt to show some prejudice in giving an opinion. No matter how severely he might feel disposed to condemn certain weapons used by the enemy, he would find some excuse for the use of the same method of warfare by his own country.

MR. ROGERS AND THE OLERGY.
 THERE is a quiet indignation among the homes of this country that a man of the type of Hon. Robert Rogers should have been seen in his recent skyrocket speech at Montreal to attack the clergymen of Canada, who have raised their voices in protest against the mishandling of war funds. Mr. Rogers sent up this speech as a flare is sent up on the European battlefield. He wanted to see his enemy re-are no doubt perfectly informed from German-Russian sources, close sources has been kept, but on general principles we should expect an shortage. The Russian demand must be at least as great as that of the Allies in the west, and had to make a special effort, even with free access to all the markets of the world. Russia has had no such access, and since the closing of Archangel the inadequate and circuitous Siberian route from the Pacific.  They were actually bought at so low a price that the customs house stopped them for further information. We understand that men from department stores testified that the materials alone could not be bought at the prices, and as the customs house is no respecter of persons, we had to prove that we really paid as little as we claimed. In all this the customs officials were quite within the proper discharge of their duties, even though it caused us the temporary disappointment of not getting the goods just when we wanted them. But now they are here, and you can readily see they must have been bought reasonably or they wouldn't have been thus delayed.

Dear Miss Grey—I have always been an interested reader of your column, but this is my first venture. I was attracted by the question regarding "Mothers' Day" in tonight's paper. Do you not think it would be kinder in consideration of our friends who have lost that "friend of friends" to discard that day altogether? THE BACKYARD GARDEN

CHAPTER XXI.
PUTTING THE YARD IN SHAPE.
[By Prof. Spade.]
Don't waste a foot of that backyard. Remove all obstacles, such as rubbish, heaps, barrels and boxes and such, and burn them. Have all the unnecessary things carried away, or bury them in one corner of the yard. Wood ashes can be put on the land and turned under.

Clean up the yard thoroughly, removing all the sticks and stones that have collected there. You are out to make every foot of ground produce food, and it is just as easy to cultivate the whole backyard as a small part of it, and far more profitable.
Among the grass of your backyard there has undoubtedly been a full share of weeds. When the earth has been turned, these weeds will sprout up again, some far ahead of the planting, and others just as your seedlings are appearing above the ground, thus robbing them of the plant food. These are the larger and stronger weeds as a rule, and the vegetables stand little chance alongside of them.
To cover your backyard with a hoe after you have spaded and raked it, and before planting. You will be sure to eradicate scores of weed seeds, and to prevent them from having submitted to the Dominion Educational Association definite proposals for carrying out the scheme, the association passed a resolution that the school day immediately preceding May 24, should be set apart as Empire Day, and that the educational part of the province in Canada should be asked to arrange for suitable patriotic exercises in the public schools.

The educational department of Nova Scotia was the first to issue directions for the keeping of Empire Day in all schools of that province, formal action being taken in Ontario and Quebec in the same year, 1898. In our celebration throughout Canada had become fairly general. By the efforts of the League of Great Britain, and the colonies, and now, Empire Day observance is held in Cape Colony, Adelaide, Perth, Ceylon, Barbados, Gibraltar, Nigeria, Torquay, and practically all parts of the British Isles.

Poor, Miserable Husbands.
Dear Miss Grey—I have read so many letters in answer to "Star That Guides" letter, I'm sure she is sorry she ever wrote her imagination for the public to read. I think that some married women who "chew the rag" about their husbands are old cranks. They had no business to get married if they were cranks. If some women would have rather been old maids, let them keep it to themselves. I would enjoy reading the men's opinions on this subject as I do on the other. I am, your obedient servant, C. DOLLY YARDEN.

Beginnings of Empire Day.
Dear Miss Grey—Will you be kind enough to give me all the information about Empire Day you possibly can? Thanking you in advance, JIGGS.

Dear Miss Grey.—I would not want to turn your column into a drug store, but when there are so many readers of your column, I would like to ask if any of them has a cure for sore throat and deafness. I have paid dollars and dollars, and got no permanent relief. Someone here has some remedy.
2. Also if anyone has the song "The First Music Lesson?"
DOLLY YARDEN.

Send Her Address.
Dear Miss Grey—I saw where one of your readers asked for a recipe for peanut cake. I have one or two, so I thought I would send them along.
Now, Miss Grey, I must thank you for putting my long letter in print. I also wish to thank "A Constant Reader" for so kindly coming to the rescue with that old song, which I had almost forgotten. I am as before, A SCOTCH READER.

Ans.—Please accept thanks for the recipes. The song sent for you has been for a long time, and will probably receive it by today's mail.
Cards and Calling.
Dear Miss Grey—I have read with interest your column, and now come to the following questions as soon as possible:
1. I have just moved to this town, and some of the ladies called when I was out and left their cards. What should I do? I am a stranger here.
2. When receiving cards, is it necessary to serve refreshments?
Thanking you in advance,
ONE IN DOUBT.

Ans.—Return the cards at once. In ten days or a fortnight—no longer. If the "at home" day of the ladies who left cards is printed on a bit of pasteboard, be sure and make the return call on the afternoon indicated. I presume you are a married woman; if so, leave a card of your own and two of your husband's, when calling upon a married lady; if upon a widow, one of your own and one of your husband's cards. At a home where there are several ladies, say a mother and daughter, a card of both yourself and your husband should be left for each lady in the home—that is, all who are "in society."

COULD HARDLY STRAIGHTEN UP FOR THE PAIN IN HER BACK.
Many women suffer from an excruciating pain in the back. They are not even able to look after the common duties of their household, and cannot even walk at times.
The whole trouble is that the kidneys have become affected, and when the kidneys get "out of kilter" the whole system becomes deranged. On the first sign of a weak, aching back you should not neglect it, for if you do, you may be sure that some serious kidney trouble will follow.
What you want is a kidney medicine. Doan's Kidney Pills are made for kidneys only. This you will find. Doan's Kidney Pills. Doan's Kidney Pills know nothing but kidney disease, because they're made for kidneys only.
Mrs. George Craigie, Rose Valley, P. E. I., writes: "I am writing to tell you what a wonderful cure Doan's Kidney Pills did for me. I was suffering with a lame back, and for several days I could hardly straighten up for the pain. I had used quite a lot of other kinds of pills, but received no relief. Just then my sister told me about what "Doan's" had done for her, so I decided to try them. I used three boxes and I am completely cured. I do not hesitate to recommend them to all."
Doan's Kidney Pills are in a small box, 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Millburn Company, Limited, Toronto, Ont.
When ordering direct, specify "Doan's."

A BIG SUIT SCOOP

For the Greatest "May" Selling In Our History. We went out two weeks ago, loaded with "Cash," after a big suit-killing. Manufacturers, short in cash, fell for our offer, and we purchased suits in big quantities of five to six hundred suits at a shot, at prices little over the present cost of the cloth and trimmings. Every garment is of this season's cloth and styles, tailoring of good taste—style without extravagance. There's not a man within a hundred miles of Dowler Stores (London and St. Thomas) should spend a dollar for his spring clothes before examining our values.

PETROGRAD DENIES REPORTS OF VICTORY SPREAD BY ENEMY

"You Are Asked To Contradict the Reports Most Emphatically," Russian Foreign Minister Wires To Embassy At Washington—Effort At Gorlice Failed.

[Canadian Press.]

WASHINGTON, May 6.—The Russian embassy today received the following dispatch from the Russian Minister of Foreign Affairs:

PETROGRAD, May 5, 1915: "The reports from Berlin and Vienna of a victory gained by the Germans and Austrians in western Galicia are absolutely unfounded. The battles that are proceeding now in that region give no foundation whatever to talk even of a partial success of our enemies. You are asked to contradict most emphatically the reports spread by the Germans."

(Signed) "SAZANOFF."

GENEVA HEARS OF FAILURE.

GENEVA, May 6.—The Tribune De Geneve has received a dispatch from Vienna saying that the desperate effort of an Austro-German army of 250,000 men to break through the Russian centre at Gorlice has failed. The losses have been heavy and the Austro-German forces were compelled to retreat to the west to Neu Sandoe.

German troops continue to arrive at Craeov, and the fighting near there is said to be the most cruel of the war. The Vienna telegram relates also that an Austrian army corps, under Archduke Eugene, arrived yesterday at Noravitz, ten miles from the Servian front.

AUSTRIA CLAIMS SUCCESSION OF VICTORIES IN W. GALICIA

VIENNA, via London, May 6.—11:45 p.m.—An official communication issued this evening by the war office says:

"At 4 o'clock this afternoon the last Russian position on the heights east of the Dunajec and Biala Rivers were gained by our troops."

"During the day the following communication was issued: 'Forces of the Teuton allies are advancing successfully along the entire front in West Galicia. Troops of the enemy, still intact, are attempting by taking up favorable defensive positions, to cover their hasty retreat.'

"The strong Russian forces in the Beskid region are being seriously menaced by the flank attack of our victorious armies. Already we have forced the fighting in the regions of Jaslo and Dukla, and the engagement now in progress will complete the annihilation of the third Russian army. The number of prisoners in our hands has been increased to more than 50,000. 'On the remainder of the front the situation remains unchanged. In the Grova Valley a strong Russian attack on the Hill of Ostry has been repulsed with great slaughter of the enemy.'

"Desperate struggle. A battle of the most desperate character continued all night long and throughout today without a break on the West Galician front. The Austro-German armies continued to gain ground on the southern section of the battle front, capturing position after position from the Russians. The fighting is taking place in the difficult country of mountain spurs and foothills of the northern Carpathians, and the Teuton armies are gaining ground in spite of the stubborn resist-

200 MORE NAMES IN CASUALTIES; WORST TO COME

So Far Wounded Have Been Mainly Announced In the Lists.

RECORD SOON COMPLETE Great Care Being Taken In Compiling Names of Killed and Missing.

[Canadian Press.] OTTAWA, May 7.—That the heaviest and saddest part of Canada's toll in the great battles around Ypres is yet to be told in the casualty lists being issued from the militia department, is officially stated. Since the names of the Canadians who suffered in the engagements have been coming forward from the record office in London, the main casualties announced, aside, of course, from those of the officers, have been wounded, although a few names of the men killed in action and missing have been included.

It is expected here that the record office will complete the lists of wounded shortly, and that the killed in action and missing will begin to come through in greater numbers. Great care is being taken in compiling the lists of killed in action and missing, and no names will be sent out until absolute certainty exists of the accuracy of the information received from France. In fighting such as is going on in France it is sometimes difficult to speedily secure the names of the killed owing to the closeness together, and the danger of emptying sorties to bring in the bodies.

This morning's list, close on two hundred names, follows:

Aviator Cuts Smyrna Off From Supplies

DESTRUCTION OF BRIDGE ALSO INTERRUPTS MOVEMENT OF TROOPS.

LONDON, May 6.—11:10 p.m.—A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph from Athens says that as a result of the destruction of the Panderna bridge by a British aviator, communication between Smyrna and the Dardanelles is interrupted and that both the movement of Turkish troops and the transport of supplies from the interior of Asia Minor have been rendered difficult. The strong Russian forces in the Beskid region are being seriously menaced by the flank attack of our victorious armies. Already we have forced the fighting in the regions of Jaslo and Dukla, and the engagement now in progress will complete the annihilation of the third Russian army. The number of prisoners in our hands has been increased to more than 50,000. 'On the remainder of the front the situation remains unchanged. In the Grova Valley a strong Russian attack on the Hill of Ostry has been repulsed with great slaughter of the enemy.'
