AGAIN PROVED GREAT SUCCESS

Central School Thousand Present Repeat Concert to Another Crowded House

Several New and Novel Features Introduced—The Closing "Mizpah" Ochorus

The repeat concert of "The Central School Thousand" was almost as well attended as the initial performance. The plan was sold out early in the evening but it was not found necessary to sell standing room. In this respect alone the second presentation differed from the first in attendance.

The Central school teachers are all glad that the concert is over so that they can now have a rest. They worked hard and it was gratifying to see their arduous labors have such successful results.

Several interesting and delightful features were added at the second performance. One of the most pleasing of these was the trained pony game presented by the little tots from the Central school afternoon kindergarten. These children were under the direction of Miss Helen McTaggart, assisted by Miss Edith McCrae. Miss Rose Morrison presided at the piano. This number was a tribute to Miss Helen McTaggart, as an instructor of the little ones. The children were not practiced up for a public appearance, but one of the games they learned in the school room was selected and the little ones were given an opportunity to show their parents what they were learning at school. The little kindergartens did remarkably well and the large audience was delighted with their work.

The pupils of this morning kindergarten presented the same very entertaining games that they did on Friday morning, adding, however, to their repertoire. The bowing game was really too cute for anything and the manner in which the wee pupils of the kindergarten raced around the ring and then bowed to each other was very pleasing. And interesting. Miss Green, the director, with the aid of Miss Dottie Lawrence, assistant, and Miss L. Walker, pianist, successfully directed the children in their movements. The little ones gave a very gratifying exhibition of what they have accomplished under the close instruction of Miss Green and her able assistants. Miss Green during her regime as director of the Central school kindergarten has made a name for herself as an instructor of the young. The results of her efforts have always been most successful. Miss Green is a model of neatness and taste herself and this fact was evidenced by the pupils themselves. When the little ones have a good example they are quick to follow it.

Little Viola Marshall's recitation of "My Sister" was charming. The little maiden's marvellous elocutionary ability and this is all the more remarkable in one so young. Viola Marshall's recitation last evening won the house and the Central School Thousand applauded as rapturously as did the large audience.

Miss Donalda Foreman, one of the pretty girl graduates, gave an exquisite piano solo. The young lady exhibited both clever execution, lightness of touch, and played with power and expression. Miss Foreman is a pupil of Miss Lillian Pratt.

One of the best choruses of the evening was the song "Mizpah." This was given by the Central School Thousand with Opera House fire effect and Chatham salute. The song effect was very unique and attractive.

Another very pleasing feature of the concert was the chorus "Sons of the British Empire" with solos by Miss Pearl Wanless and Master Putnam, the boy soprano. Both young people have voices of wonderful range, power and sweetness. The teachers of this school will hold a meeting to-night to wind up affairs in connection with the concert and decide what they will do. The house was sold out again last night and enough money was taken in at the door to pay the Opera House expenses both nights. The receipts were over $300 for both nights and about $200 was cleared. This has been the most successful concert ever put on by the Central school. Mr. Elwes has put on several concerts during his successful regime here, but this was the success of successes.

UPTON WILL DIE.

Fanny McGarvey, the Prisoner, May be Examined at London.

London, Ont., Nov. 10.—At a late hour yesterday Patrick Upton, who was so frightfully injured by his niece, Fanny McGarvey, was still alive, though unconscious, and no hopes are entertained for his recovery. The mental condition of the prisoner remains the same. She did not rest much last night. She will come up for preliminary examination on Friday, and it is said by the jail officials that if her condition does not improve, the examination will be held at the court house here. If her condition warrants her removal, she will be taken to Strathroy for examination.

THE ESSAY PRIZES.

To-day A. H. VonGuten, the expert jeweler and engraver, on behalf of THE PLANET JUNIOR, is suitably engraving the watch and locket to be presented to Miss Norma Wardell and Mary Park respectively, the successful essayists in the recent county competition, on the occasion of the McKeough School concert on Thursday evening.

The teaching staff of McKeough School have generously decided to supplement these awards by a series of handsome prizes to be given to other pupils of the school who secured especial and honorable mention from the judges.

The judges, Dr. Geo. T. McKeough and Mr. W. J. Twohey, have been asked to make the public presentations.

HE PREFERRED DEATH.

THE ITALIAN FINANCE MINISTER COMMITTED SUICIDE.

Was Apparently Afraid of Charges of Corruption Lodged Against Him by the Socialists.

Naples, Nov. 10.—Minister of Finance Rosano committed suicide by shooting during the night. He was found dead yesterday in his room, a revolver at his side.

Signor Rosano was given the position of Minister of Finance in the Italian Cabinet, the formation of which was announced only last Wednesday. Since the formation of the new Cabinet the Socialists had attacked Signor Rosano, charging him with corruption during his political career, challenging him to disprove the charges and adding that otherwise they would bring the matter up at the opening of the Chamber of Deputies.

A LAWYER'S LIABILITY.

Canadian Express Co. Paid Money to Wrong Party.

Toronto, Nov. 10.—Judge Morison yesterday reserved judgment in the interesting action of the Canadian Express Company against Frank W. McLean, barrister. In January last a money order on the company for $393 was mailed to John W. Carter of the Sons of England. The order was presented at the company's office by a man representing himself as the payee. The company demanded his identification, and he sought the defendant's assistance. Mr. McLean suggested that, if he were the proper party, he should make a statutory declaration to that effect. Mr. McLean telephoned the company's manager, who consented to accept this identification. The declaration was made by the claimant and the money was paid over to Mr. McLean's stenographer, who took the document to the company's office. After deducting legal charges the balance was paid the claimant, who then disappeared. Mr. John W. Carter, the person properly entitled, later traced the payment to the company, and on making application for the money learned that it had been paid out. The company now sued Mr. McLean on the ground that he had guaranteed the man who received the money was the party entitled.

KEEP BRITISH CONNECTION.

Mr. Aylesworth at National Club Dinner.

Toronto, Nov. 10.—The annual King's birthday dinner of the National Club last evening was a most enjoyable social affair. Covers were laid for about ninety. The chair was occupied by Mr. Noel Marshall, the President, and the proceedings were of a purely domestic and informal character. The royal toast was honored by the singing of the national anthem and "God save our noble Emperor." The toast of "The Empire" was responded to by Mr. A. Aylesworth, K.C., and Col. Geo. T. Denison. Mr. Aylesworth spoke strongly of the advantages from the Canadian standpoint of British connection, and said there should be a scheme of Imperial unity. Col. Denison again advanced arguments for Canadian contributions toward Imperial defence. He said that while general taxation for that purpose could not be undertaken without representation, yet we might undertake the defence of our own shores without demanding Imperial representation. The toast of "Our Own Special Birthday" was happily responded to by Mr. J. F. Ellis and Mr. J. S. Willison, whose natal anniversaries also fell yesterday. The toast of "Ourselves" was responded to by Mr. Frank Arnold, Mr. J. F. Ellis and Mr. G. T. Irving, while Dr. Paton, a Canadian, now of Cologne, Germany, spoke in reply to an impromptu toast. The songs of Mr. Arthur Blight constituted one of the features of the evening.

WHY ELECTION STILL DELAYED?

Both Spirit and Letter of the Law Violated by Defaulters

Official Record of the North Renfrew Vacancy—Text of the Statutes

Chapter 12 of the Revised Statutes of Ontario is explicit in providing for the election of a member to the legislative assembly to fill the vacancy caused by the death of a member. J. W. Munro, who was elected for the riding of North Renfrew by a majority of nearly 500 on May 29, 1902, died on May 30, causing a vacancy in the constituency. The legislature met on March 10 of this year, and the constituency is still vacant. Here is what Sections 36 and 37 of the act say:

ACT COVERING VACANCIES.

Section 36.—(1) If a vacancy happens in the legislative assembly by the death of a member, or by his accepting any office, commission or employment, or by his becoming a party to a contract, as mentioned in Section 9 of this act, the Speaker, on being informed of the vacancy by a member of the said assembly in his place, or by notice in writing under the hands and seals of two members of the said assembly, shall forthwith address the warrant to the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery for the issue of a new writ for the election of a member to fill the vacancy, AND A NEW WRIT SHALL ISSUE ACCORDINGLY.

Section 37.—(1) A warrant may issue under the hands and seals of two members elect of the legislative assembly to the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery, for the issue of a new writ, for the election of a member of the legislative assembly to fill any vacancy arising, subsequently to a general election, and before the first meeting of said assembly thereafter by reason of the death or other of the causes aforesaid, and the writ may issue at any time after such vacancy.

The journal of the legislature contains the following references to North Renfrew:—

THE SPEAKER NOTIFIED.

March 20.—Col. Matheson and Dr. Willoughby notify the Speaker of the death of J. W. Munro, M. L. A. for North Renfrew.

March 23.—The Speaker informed the House that he had received notification of a vacancy which had occurred since the general election in May last, and he asked the warrant to the Clerk for a new writ for election of a member to serve in the present legislature for the North Riding of the County of Renfrew.

March 31.—Motion by Col. Matheson, seconded by Thomas Crawford, that the House register the provisions of Section 37 of the act respecting representation of the people in the legislative assembly had not been complied with by the issue of a writ and that a direction be given that said writ be issued without further delay. Voted down by Government.

April 24.—Col. Matheson asked: Has the writ been issued to fill the vacancy in North Renfrew? If not, what was the cause of delay, and on what day did the Speaker issue his warrant? The Premier replied: The Speaker's warrant for the issue of the writ in North Renfrew was issued March 23, 1903. The Government has directed the Clerk not to issue the writ, pending the present investigation in re charges by the member for Manitoulin. On motion of Col. Matheson it was ordered that there be laid before the House a return of copies of all correspondence between any member of the Government and any other person or persons since the death of J. W. Munro, M. L. A., with reference to the issue of the writ for the election to fill the vacancy in North Renfrew. Not brought down.

Anthony S. Rowe's Case.

Toronto, Nov. 10.—The fate of Anthony Stanley Rowe is in the hands of Mr. Justice Britton, who will give judgment on his application for his release at Osgoode Hall to-day. Yesterday Mr. T. C. Robinette, K.C., made the last effort to save his client from being handed over to the English police. Rowe is charged with forgery and theft from the Great Fingall Consolidated Company of London, England, was committed for extradition by Magistrate Denison on October 19. Deputy Attorney-General Cartwright and Crown Attorney Curry appeared yesterday for the Crown, and Mr. C. W. Kerr for the Great Fingall Company. Inspector R. Sager of Scotland Yard arrived in the city yesterday to take Rowe back to England.

A Royal Betrothal.

London, Nov. 9.—It is said that King Edward has approved the engagement of Prince Alexander of Teck to Princess Alice of Albany.

CHURCH SOCIAL A GREAT SUCCESS

One of the most successful church socials in the history of Christ Church was held at the residence of Mr. Chas. Kellar last evening. It was given under the auspices of the Ladies Guild, and standing room was almost at a premium. There were nearly one hundred and fifty present. There was no admission charge made; those who desired to give deposited their offerings on a plate near the entrance. The offering for the evening was between forty-four and forty-five dollars, and it is expected to reach fifty.

An excellent program of music and readings was given and much enjoyed by all present. Those who kindly gave their valued assistance were Master Harry Kellar, Miss F. Stephenson, Miss Eva Barassan, Miss Smith, Miss Dolsen, Miss Heyward, Miss E. Hogart and Mr. W. Wilson. Mrs. Chas. Kellar deserves much praise for the excellent arrangements. She was ably assisted by the members of the Guild. It was a thoroughly sociable time and all were delighted.

Christ Church Guild is a very active organization and is doing an excellent work. A hot adjoining the church was purchased by the Guild for $650 cash and donated to the Church. Light refreshments were served during the evening.

Wm. Richards, Esq., barrister, occupied the chair at Christ Church social last night.

GLORY WHALEN MURDER.

MAN ARRESTED AT COMBER SUSPECTED OF THE CRIME.

Mr. Richard McKee of Comber Informs the Windsor Police that He Believes a One-legged Negro is the Murderer.

Windsor, Nov. 10.—Richard McKee of Comber, yesterday telephoned Chief Wills of Windsor that he had discovered the slayer of Glory Whalen, who was brutally murdered at Collingwood three months ago. There is a reward of $1,000 for the capture of her assailant. A one-legged colored man was arrested on the premises of McKee last week, and sentenced to serve six months in Sandwich jail on a charge of vagrancy. From conversations which Mr. McKee had with the prisoner he believes that he is none other than the man who is responsible for the murder of Glory Whalen. The prisoner will be brought to Windsor, accompanied by McKee. Chief Wills believes Mr. McKee is right in his conjecture that the fellow is the murderer.

CALLS FOR EXPLANATION.

Says the Windsor Record of yesterday:

"The reference to the treatment of the Chatham and Sarnia guests to the opening of our new library by The Chatham Planet, which appears in another column, calls for some explanation from the Library Board. If these invited guests were treated as alleged then it is a serious reflection upon the city. We hope in this matter that The Planet has been drawing upon its imagination."

A MOST DISGRACEFUL APPOINTMENT.

The Dominion Government has become sponsor for another of the Ontario election celebrities. It will be remembered that after the provincial general election in Ontario, Mr. Donald Sutherland, the Conservative member for South Oxford, was offered a bribe to support the Ross Government. The offer was indignantly rejected and then the Liberal machine attempted to unseat Mr. Sutherland. The case was conducted for the Ross Government by a Mr. Jackson, who, in order to secure evidence to prove his charges, engaged convicts from the Central Prison to swear away Mr. Sutherland's character. Several of these scoundrels after giving evidence, admitted in court that they had committed perjury. Mr. Justice Street commenting on Jackson's conduct at Woodstock, on October 21st, 1902, said "Mr. Jackson, of Ingersoll, has associated with men of the lowest possible character. It is evident he must have desired evidence to have been made to procure the proving of charges in the petition. There is no doubt of it. I have seen nothing like it in court in my life."

Such wholesale condemnation, instead of relegating Jackson to a back seat, has proved such a splendid recommendation for him that he has been appointed Canadian agent at Leeds. This associate of "men of the lowest possible character" will be commissioned from time to time to transact important business for this country. Like Preston, he has been rewarded for his offences against the sanctity of the ballot. His nomination for a position of trust stands as an everlasting disgrace to Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his confederates.

MAY GO TO LONDON

The London Free Press of yesterday says:

It has been known for a week past that the Talbot street Baptist congregation had particularly made up their minds to extend a call to Rev. J. J. Ross, of St. Catharines. The Reverend gentleman preached from the pulpit of the church here on Sunday week and the people were delighted with him. During the past week the matter was much discussed and it was conceded upon all sides that Mr. Ross was the man wanted as successor to the pastoral work in a church that had been placed by the effort of his predecessor, very largely upon a most enviable footing.

Rev. Mr. Ross went to St. Catharines from Chatham only in April last, but as pastor of the Queen street Baptist church he made a host of friends, and his leaving there will be very greatly regretted. The call which is now to be sent to him from the Talbot street church is not the first intimation, however, that Mr. Ross has had that he might be wanted here. When, some time before it actually occurred, it was intimated that Rev. Dr. Sowerby might leave London the name of Mr. Ross was prominently mentioned in connection with the charge here.

OZARD--WALKER

A pretty home wedding took place at noon yesterday at the residence of Mr. C. H. Walker, architect and builder, 445 Spence street, when Miss Rhoda Walker became the bride of Mr. W. H. Ozard, assistant day foreman of the Free Press newspaper. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a large gathering of friends by Rev. Mr. Burman. The bride was attended by Miss Margaret Ozard and Mr. Parry Walker escorted the groom. The bride looked charming in her bridal dress of white Persian lawn over tulle, with conventional veil and orange blossoms. Her going away gown was a becoming suit of brown cloth with hat to match. Mr. and Mrs. Ozard left by the C. P. R. Atlantic express for Ontario, where they will spend their honeymoon. On their return to the city three weeks hence, they will take up their residence at No. 222 Selkirk street.

The wide acquaintance and popularity of the young couple was attested to by the large number of gifts of which they were the recipients on the happy occasion. The gift of the bride's father to his daughter was a very substantial cheque—Manitoba Free Press.

Mr. Ozard was formerly a valued employee of The Planet and is spending part of his honeymoon in this city.

YOUNG OFFENDERS

City Editor, The Planet,
Chatham, Ont.:

The following letter has been sent by the Attorney General's Department to the various Magistrates and Crown Attorneys throughout the Province:

Sir,—By section 550 of the Criminal Code it is provided that "the trials of young persons apparently under the age of 16 shall take place without publicity and separately and apart from the trials of other accused persons." As you will understand, this provision is intended as far as possible to protect young persons who presumably are not as yet hardened from unnecessary exposure before the public. There is reason to believe that the above enactment has not been obeyed in all cases, and I am to impress on you that the desire of the Attorney General is that the enactment should be scrupulously carried out. The object we must all have in view is, where possible, to save and reclaim young persons, and it has been considered by those most competent to give an opinion that this is one effective means.

Yours truly,
J. R. CARTWRIGHT,
Deputy Attorney General.

Crown Attorney H. D. Smith says in reference to the above letter that it is quite right for the children to be tried privately but that he felt the children were not being punished sufficiently. He instanced a recent case where a lad had been in the hands of the police on several occasions and had been let go with warnings. The other day the boy was discovered ransacking a house on Victoria avenue. On this occasion the lad had his younger brother in tow. Now if the other brother had been sent to the Reformatory in the first place, he could not have been able to instruct his young brother in the crime of stealing.

THE FEAR OF HUSBUB

Prevents Many People From Trying a Good Medicine

Stomach troubles are so common and in most cases so obstinate to cure that people are apt to look with suspicion on any remedy claiming to be a radical permanent cure for dyspepsia and indigestion. Many such pride themselves on their astuteness in never being humbugged, especially in medicines.

This fear of being humbugged can be carried too far, so far, in fact, that many people suffer for years with weak digestion rather than risk a little time and money in fully testing the claims made of a preparation so reliable and universally used as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Now Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are vastly different in one important respect from ordinary proprietary medicines for the reason that they are not a secret patent medicine, no secret is made of their ingredients, but analysis shows them to contain the natural digestive ferments, pure aseptic pepsin, the digestive acids, Golden Seal, bismuth, hydrastis and nux. They are not cathartic, neither do they act powerfully on any organ, but they cure indigestion on the common sense plan of digesting the food eaten thoroughly before it has time to ferment, sour and cause the mischief. This is the only secret of their success.

Cathartic pills never have and never can cure indigestion and stomach troubles because they act entirely on the bowels, whereas the whole trouble is really in the stomach. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets taken after meals digest the food. That is all there is to it. Food not digested or half digested is poison as it creates gas, acidity, headaches, palpitation of the heart, loss of flesh and appetite and many other troubles which are often called by some other name.

They are sold by druggists everywhere at 50 cents per package.

NEW PASTOR

Rev. Mr. McGilvray, of New Market, preached in the First Presbyterian church Sunday. He is a good preacher and made a very favorable impression. The congregation will meet next Monday night for the purpose of extending a call for a pastor. If they can decide upon a suitable preacher. They have now heard five

GUY BROS. MINSTRELS.

Notwithstanding the heavy rainstorm which prevailed last night, the Opera House was packed from the orchestra chairs to the "nigger head" with people who had gathered to see Guy Bros. Minstrels. The huge audience were in no way disappointed by the performance. They were kept in continual merriment by the funny sayings and doings of the six talented brothers and their excellent troupe. When the curtain went up it revealed the members of the troupe seated in a circle dressed in red plush coats and blue knickerbockers of the same material. The men were in their usual costumes and black faces. The show was first class in every respect, and one that the most refined lady could attend without witnessing anything that would annoy her feelings.—Kingston, Ontario, News.

EXECUTORS' SALE

of Valuable Farm Property

Under and by virtue of the powers contained in the last will and testament and Obedient thereto, of John Josiah Walrath, late of the Township of Harwich, in the County of Kent, in the Province of Ontario, Farmer, deceased, there will be sold by public auction at the Rankin House, in the city of Chatham, in the County of Kent, on Saturday, the 21st day of November, 1903, at the hour of 12 o'clock noon, the following lands:

All and singular that certain parcel or tract of land and premises situated, lying and being in the Township of Harwich, in the County of Kent, and being composed of the northeast half of lot number sixteen in the front or first concession from the River Thames, in the said Township of Harwich, containing 130 acres more or less.

This is one of the best farms in the County of Kent, lying on the south side of the River Thames in the Township of Harwich, about seven miles from the city of Chatham and five miles from Kent Bridge. On the premises there are two good frame houses, two barns, a granary, implement shed and other small buildings. The land is all cleared except about one and a half acres on which there is some valuable timber. The farm is well fenced and the buildings are all in first class repair. The soil is a clay loam of the best quality, there being no waste land on the whole farm. A church and school house lie within one mile of the premises.

Terms of sale—Ten per cent. of the money will be required at the time of the sale and the balance within 14 days thereafter. Arrangements may be made by which a portion of the purchase money may be secured by mortgage on the land.

Further particulars and conditions may be learned from Mrs. Maria Walrath, on the premises, or on application to Detroit Specialist Discovers Something Entirely New for the Cure of Men's Diseases in Their Own Homes.

You Pay Only if Cured

Expects No Money Unless He Cures You—Method and Full Particulars Sent Free—Write For It This Very Day

A Detroit specialist who has 14 certificates and diplomas from medical colleges and boards has perfected a startling method of curing the diseases of men in their own homes; so that there may be no doubt in the mind of any man that he has

DR. S. GOLDBERG,
The Possessor of 14 Diplomas and Certificates Who Wants No Money That He Does Not Earn.

both the method and the ability to do so he says, Dr. Goldberg, the discoverer, will send the method entirely free to all men who send him their name and address. He wants to hear from men who have stricture that they have been unable to get cured, prostatic trouble, sexual weakness, varicocele, lost manhood, blood poison, hydrocele, emaciation of parts, impotence, etc. His wonderful method not only cures the condition itself, but likewise all the complications, such as rheumatism, bladder or kidney trouble, heart disease, nervous debility, etc.

The doctor realizes that it is one thing to make claims and another thing to back them up, so he has made it a rule not to ask for money unless he cures you, and when you are cured he feels sure that you will willingly pay him a small fee. It would seem, therefore, that it is to the best interests of every man who suffers in this way to write the doctor confidentially and lay your case before him.

He sends the method, as well as many booklets on the subject, including the one that contains the 14 diplomas and certificates, entirely free. Address him simply

Dr. S. Goldberg, 208 Woodward Ave., Room P, Detroit, Mich., and it will all immediately be sent you free.

This is something entirely new and well worth knowing more about. Write at once.

An inside carful of travellers was toiling up one of the long hills in County Wicklow, says Tit-Bits.

The driver leaped down from his seat in front and walked by the side of the horse. The poor beast toiled slowly and wearily, but the six inside were too busily engaged in conversation to notice how slowly the car progressed.

Presently the driver opened the door at the rear of the car and slammed it to again. The passengers started, but thought the driver was only assuring himself that the door was securely closed. Again the fellow opened the door and slammed it to again. The travellers turned around angrily, and asked why he disturbed them in that manner.

"Whist," whispered the fellow, "don't spake so loud—she'll overhear us."

"Who is she?"

"The mare. Spake low," he continued, putting his hand over his nose and mouth. "Shure, I'm desavin' the creature! Every time she hears the door slammint' that way she thinks one of ye is gettin' down to walk up the hill, and that rises her sperrits."

The insiders took the hint.

The illa which vex so many women at the change of life are entirely avoided or cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It makes weak women strong, and enables the weakest to pass through this trying change with the tranquillity of perfect health.

"I have been a very healthy woman, and this time has been very hard with me," writes Mrs. Maggie Morris, of Munson Station, Clearfield Co., Pa. Box 16. "I am come to the time of change of life, and I have been sick a great deal. When Mrs. Hemmis moved beside me I was sick in bed, and when she came to see me and was talking over our sickness, Mrs. Hemmis told me to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery,' also 'Pellets.' I got her to bring me a bottle of each from the drug store and I used them. They did me a great deal of good, and I got two more bottles of 'Favorite Prescription.' I never saw such a wonderful cure. Before I commenced your remedies I was good for nothing; was in such misery I hardly knew what to do with myself; now I can do all my work myself and feel well."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are easy and pleasant to take.

Circulars from the Department of Agriculture call attention to the fact that the butter act of 1903 prohibiting the manufacture, importation or sale of oleomargarine, butterine, adulterated butter or process butter, prohibiting the improper marking of butter and a greater percentage of water than 16 per cent., is now in force. The penalties for violations of the act range from ten dollars to four hundred, according to the gravity of the offence.

The department points out the following pressing needs of the Canadian creamery buttermaking industry:—

- (1) Better constructed and more sanitary creamery buildings.
- (2) Improved refrigerators at the creameries where the temperature can be kept at least below 36 degrees Fahr.
- (3) Delivery of the cream in a fresher and sweeter condition where the cream gathering system has been adopted.
- (4) Stronger and neater finished packages for export butter.
- (5) Heavier and purer vegetable parchment paper for lining packages.
- (6) Frequent and regular shipment of butter from the creamery to a cold-storage warehouse where lower temperature can be secured.
- (7) Greater precaution in transferring butter from the creamery to the cars to prevent it from becoming unnecessarily heated.

Cream That Will Keep.

I will give our method of making a fancy cream, which will keep for weeks without souring, in a very few words, as the whole secret of our success lies in absolute purity and cleanliness in everything, from beginning to end. It requires much more care to produce clean milk than any other food product, and were the consumers aware of the impurities in the larger part of the dairy products on the market, there would be small sale for the same. The consumer is much to blame for this condition of things. If the people would demand a better article, and will be willing to pay for the extra cost, there are many dairymen who would be willing to take the pains required to furnish clean milk and cream.

Our first aim is to keep the stables and cows as clean as possible. The cows are brushed and the udders washed before milking. No hay is fed at this time, as the dust in falling will carry into the milk the germs which are found floating in all cow-stables. The bacteria thus introduced will give to the milk the same disagreeable flavor as the filth from the cow. To keep the dust and dirt from the milk we use a pail covered with two thicknesses of cheesecloth, between the folds of which is placed a layer of absorbent cotton. In this way the milk comes to the dairy house nearly free from all impurities. The greatest care is taken to have every utensil in the dairy thoroughly cleaned and scalded every time it is used. No half-way work will answer here. No sour germ can lurk in the can or strainer without affecting the cream. In fact, no odor or germ must be allowed in or around the dairy house.

After separating, the cream is cooled quickly and kept in a tank of ice water until bottled for shipment. You will see from my description of our methods that it is simply keeping the milk absolutely clean, and cooling as soon as possible after milking, that give our cream its fine flavor and keeping qualities. Choice cream and butter cannot be made from filthy milk, and our dairy inspector will have filled an important part of his mission, and rendered to the public a most commendable service when he shall have awakened the dairy farmer to the importance of producing a pure, clean milk.—C. S. Pope, Manchester Me., in American Cultivator.

Storing Root Crops.

Every farmer knows the difficulty of so storing roots as to facilitate the handling of them in winter. Some have no pits or cellars convenient in the barns, and consequently store the roots in pits outside. Of course, the outdoor method is not always the best, for the roots will sometimes keep in as sound condition when stored in that manner as by any other process, but when the season is well advanced and the ground is hard and frozen it becomes a very difficult matter to get at the crop when wanted for use.

If a large crop is stored inside the barn, unless the location is so situated as to be under the influence of an even temperature, the handling of the roots endangers them when the weather is extremely cold, and causes them to sprout as the temperature becomes high. Here, then, are two difficulties to be avoided, which are heat and cold. What the farmer wishes is to store the roots in such a manner as to keep them at an even temperature, preserve them in a good condition, and to be easily handled when he wishes to use them for feeding. Of course, it is well known that the time for storing the crops is in the fall, but it is never too late to repack them, which can be done when the weather is only moderately cold. The best plan for so doing is to get some dry dirt, coal ashes or dry sawdust. In a bin, barrel or box lay two inches of the packing material, and upon this make a layer of roots and do not let them quite touch one another. Fill the spaces with packing material, and so continue until the receptacle is full. By this method they can be taken out for use in any quantity desired, and they will keep much better than if stored in heaps, will not freeze nor heat, and will keep until the next crop comes in. Even potatoes, both sweet and white, may be thus preserved. Be careful that the packing material is dry. Moisture should be avoided as much as possible. At the present time the difficulty is to procure dry dirt, which is the best material to use, while wood ashes are not plentiful. Fine sawdust is the next best substance, but not equal to dry dirt. Plaster is excellent, but somewhat expensive. Wheat chaff is good, and so is straw when cut in half-inch lengths. It is best to do such work, however, at the time of harvesting the crop.—Philadelphia Record.

There is no keener agony than that which results from the itching, burning, stinging sensations of eczema, salt rheum, tetter and other forms of Itching Skin Disease.

In despair you feel that you could tear the skin from the flesh if it would only bring you relief and allow you rest and sleep. But in spite of the best efforts of leading physicians these torturing diseases often grow worse instead of better, until they seem to be almost incurable.

It is not claimed that Dr. Chase's Ointment performs miracles, and yet many of the cures brought about by this famous preparation are truly marvellous.

When Baby Millar became a victim of eczema her parents did everything that could be done to get her cured. Three doctors tried every means in their power, but without success, and then all sorts of remedies were used with the vain hope that something would bring relief from the disease that seemed to be burning up the living flesh.

This case, which is certified to by a prominent school teacher and Sunday school superintendent, further confirms the position of Dr. Chase's Ointment as first among all soothing and healing preparations.

Dr. Chase's Ointment is standard the world over, and it is for this reason that when a dealer offers you any other ointment he tries to make a sale by saying it is just as good as Dr. Chase's.

MARY MILLAR.

The record of cures brought about by Dr. Chase's Ointment is unparalleled in the history of medicine, and you cannot afford to experiment with substitutes.

Mrs. Wm. Millar, St. Catharines, Ont., writes:—"My daughter Mary, when six months old, contracted eczema, and for three years this disease baffled all treatment. Her case was one of the worst that ever came to my notice, and she suffered what no pen could ever describe. I had her treated by three different doctors, but all to no purpose whatever, and all sorts of balms, soaps and lotions were tried with no beneficial results.

Finally I decided to use Dr. Chase's Ointment, and to my surprise she began to improve immediately, and after regular treatment for a time the disease of so long standing completely disappeared. As that was four years ago, and not a symptom of this distressing ailment has ever shown itself since, the cure must certainly be a permanent one. At the time of this cure we were living in Cornwall, Ont., and the doctors there feared that if she was not cured of eczema she would go into a decline."

Mr. S. Richardson, Jun., Superintendent Christ Church Sunday School, St. Catharines, Ont., writes:—"I am acquainted with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Millar and believe they would not make any statement knowing it to be in any way misleading or untrue."

Learn to laugh. A good laugh is better than medicine.

Learn to attend strictly to your own business; very important point.

Learn how to tell a story. A well told story is as welcome as a sunbeam in a sick room.

Learn to stop creaking. If you cannot see any good in this world keep the bad to yourself.

Learn to keep your own troubles to yourself. The world is too busy to care for your ills and sorrows.

Learn to greet your friends with a smile. They carry too many frowns in their own hearts to be bothered with any of yours.

Learn to hide your aches and pains under a pleasant smile. No one cares whether you have the earache, headache or rheumatism.

She writes: "I was so run down that I was not able to do my work, was short of breath, had a sour stomach every night and could scarcely eat. My heart palpitated, I had faint and dizzy spells and felt weak and nervous all the time. My husband got me a box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills but I told him it was no use, that I had given up hope of ever being cured. He however persuaded me to take them and before I had used half the box I began to feel better. Two boxes made a new woman of me and I have been well and have been able to do my work ever since."

FOUGHT AT SIX PACES.

Singular Duel That Took Place in London in 1803.

Duelling in England in 1803 was often a very singular business.

On a Friday morning in March of that year a most extraordinary duel took place in Hyde park, London, between Lieutenant W. of the navy and Captain J. of the army. The antagonists arrived at the appointed place within a few minutes of each other.

Some dispute arose respecting the distance, which the friends of Lieutenant W. insisted should not exceed six paces, while the seconds of Captain J. urged strongly the rashness of so decisive a distance and insisted on its being extended.

At length the proposal of Lieutenant W.'s friends was agreed to, and the parties fired per signal, when Lieutenant W. received the shot of his adversary on the guard of his pistol, which tore away the third and fourth fingers of his right hand. The seconds then interfered to no purpose. The son of Neptune, apparently callous to pain, wrapped his handkerchief round his hand and swore he had another which never failed him.

Captain J. called his second aside and told him it was in vain to urge a reconciliation.

They again took their ground. On Lieutenant W. receiving the pistol in his left hand he looked steadfastly at Captain J. for some time, then cast his eyes to heaven and said in a low voice, "Forgive me!"

The parties fired as before, and both fell. Captain J. received the shot through the head and instantly expired. Lieutenant W. received the ball in his left breast and immediately inquired of his friend if Captain J.'s wound was mortal. Being answered in the affirmative, he thanked heaven he had lived thus long, requested a mourning ring on his finger might be given to his sister and that she might be assured it was the happiest moment he ever knew. He had scarcely finished the words when a quantity of wood burst from his wound, and he expired almost without a struggle.

Origin of the Frock Coat.

The frock coat is unquestionably an English invention, and its first recorded appearance is in 1540, in the reign of Henry VIII. It is described as "a coat of velvet somewhat shaped like a frock, embroidered all over with flatted gold of damasks."

Those who have no desire for holiness will find no delight in heaven.

Miss Alice Bailey, of Atlanta, Ga., escaped the surgeon's knife, by using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I wish to express my gratitude for the restored health and happiness Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought into my life.

"I had suffered for three years with terrible pains at the time of menstruation, and did not know what the trouble was until the doctor pronounced it inflammation of the ovaries, and proposed an operation.

"I felt so weak and sick that I felt sure that I could not survive the ordeal, and so I told him that I would not undergo it. The following week I read an advertisement in the paper of your Vegetable Compound in such an emergency, and so I decided to try it. Great was my joy to find that I actually improved after taking two bottles, so I kept taking it for ten weeks, and at the end of that time I was cured. I had gained eighteen pounds and was in excellent health, and am now.

"You surely deserve great success, and you have my very best wishes."—Miss ALICE BAILEY, 50 North Boulevard, Atlanta, Ga.—$5000 forfeit if original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

MERRY WAR

Seems to have Waged Strenuously between husband and wife—Peculiar Case.

F. E. Urquhart was tried in the County Court yesterday and found guilty of assaulting his wife and doing actual bodily harm. He was remanded until November 16th for sentence.

The case revealed a rather unusual state of domestic felicity. The couple were married in 1884 and have seven children, the oldest a girl of 15. According to the evidence the father wanted the girl to go out and work and the wife said she couldn't go unless the 18-year-old son went. The father then told his daughter to take her clothes and go. The wife replied that the son would have to go, too.

The difference developed till Urquhart struck his wife. She replied with the teapot. He then struck her on the nose, breaking it. The husband then left the house.

The wife admitted that they didn't get on well together. So did the husband. He said that his wife was jealous of him and his acquaintance with two other women. He said that he had struck his wife before in self-defense.

Hurry Out Sale of Furs

The weather we have had for the last month has been glorious in many respects—good for the farmers, good for the pavement makers and scores of other lines, but it has NOT been good fur weather, and that's the reason for our story to-day.

We know there is lots of cold weather coming, but we cannot afford to wait for it. The fur manufacturers look to us for their money promptly, no matter what the weather may be like. We want the money to pay for all these furs, and we want it right away, so that's why we are going to sell furs at the prices indicated below.

Please remember that all our furs were bought early in April last, and are fully 10 per cent. cheaper than present market prices. When we quote regular price we mean our present market price which is, as we said, fully 10 per cent. below the present market value of the same goods.

2 only Astrachan Fur Capes, 24 in. long, medium curl, reg. price $14.00, sale price, $10.60

SMALL FURS,

Such as Ruffs, Capelines, Stole Fronts, Boas, etc., in almost endless variety here to choose from as well. You will find prices on them all that are decidedly in your favor.

We haven't said anywhere that the prices in the wholesale ones, or that they are either above or below cost, we simply assure you that the values are better than we have ever offered you at any time of the year heretofore. Back of every garment sold stands our guarantee of satisfaction or your money back.

If you have a fur want, it will pay you to see these offerings, and quickly, too, as once any advertised furs are sold we cannot take any special orders to replace them at the same prices

LET US HAVE A WORD WITH YOU

ABOUT CLOTHING.

There are at least half a dozen reasons why you should at least know what is being shown at Austin's, before you make your purchase. 1.—The breadth of the stock, variety. 2.—Handsome fabrics shown anywhere. 3.—Correct and stylish cut of the garments. 4.—The excellence of the hidden linings and workmanship. 5.—Finish excelled only by the finest custom work. 6.—Lasting, prices that are decidedly lower than can be found elsewhere, on clothing of equal character. These are only a few of the reasons which have built up this enormous clothing business here in so short a time. There had to be tangible and decisive evidence of betterness, or the business would neither have come to us nor stand with us. Isn't it to your interest to find out whether you have getting the best for your money in clothing? Look, for instance, at our made suits and overcoats at $10, $12 and $15.

Men's Suits.—Our great special sale of men's suits this week now in full swing. Handsome pattern worsteds and tweeds and plain black and blue serges and worsteds, single and double breasted styles, regular $12 to $15, all sizes, at $10.00.

Men's Overcoats.—Another lot of our tailor-made overcoats at $10 and $12, of plain dark Oxford cheviot, in the long full garments so popular this season, made with breast pocket and the ordinary overcoat pockets, a gentler and dressy coat, also swaggy mixtures and stripe goods, in 48 and 50 inch Raglanettes, from $7

A Hot Water Cure.

We all know what pain is—and yet we don't. We know what its sensations are, and that it can be cured by two agents—drugs and heat. If heat will answer it is the better, of course. Drugging pain may be temporary relief only. It heat helps at all it is also curing.

HOT WATER BAGS

Are a potent aid in a hundred ills. Emergencies and pain will come where nothing will answer so well. Can be applied anywhere. We have all sizes of the best kinds at prices just as comfortable as the bags.

Officer Dezella Brought the Joy Club Robbers to Time—An Expensive Experience.

The Joy Club was robbed on the Wednesday following Thanksgiving day. Some 700 shells, canned goods, bait and a revolver were taken. In all, about $50 worth of stuff was taken from Col. Sam. Holmes' shooting box. There was a threshing on the Cartier farm, which adjoins Col. Sam. Holmes' preserve. After the threshing a number of the men went over to the club house and rifled it. P. C. Dezella and Detective McGregor, after some clever work on the case, found out all about it, and the result was the arrest of Frank Carlier and Joseph Matt, two young men who live on the adjoining concession.

The date of the trial was fixed for to-day, but the case was settled before it came to trial.
Col. Holmes offered a reward of $200 for the capture of the robbers. This was the second occasion upon which the Joy Club had been broken into this fall and the Colonel was determined to put a stop to it.
The young men implicated paid the reward of $100, $50 in over the value of the goods and $28.72 costs of the court. By the time the young fellows paid their lawyers they had a pretty good lesson.

J. B. Rankin, K. C., acted for Carlier and O. L. Lewis for Matt.

Dodd's Kidney Pills are Clearing out Kidney Disease

Richard Quirk, One of a Score Cured in One Neighborhood, Tells How Pains of Twenty Years Standing Vanished Before the Great Kidney Remedy.

Fortune Harbour, Nfld., Nov. 9.—(Special).—There are a score of people in this neighborhood who suffered from Lame Back and other symptoms of Kidney Disease and who are now strong and healthy, thanks to Dodd's Kidney Pills. One of the most serious cases cured is that of Mr. Richard Quirk, and in an interview he says:

"I suffered for more than twenty years from Lumbago and Kidney Disease. I almost always had a severe pain in my back, so severe that during intervals for years I was totally unable to work.

"Doctors and medicines gave me little relief and after ten or twelve years I had almost made up my mind that my trouble was incurable. Then reading of cures by them led me to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. I had not taken half a box before I experienced relief and after using seven or eight boxes I was a perfect cure and a new man. The cure was permanent.

Cure your Backache with Dodd's Kidney Pills and you will never have Bright's Disease.

JOKER AT WORK

Miss Ann Smith and Mr. J. C. Colby were married yesterday. During the hours of darkness some of their friends decided to play a practical joke upon them. This morning their home was adorned with the following revised version of a popular song, topic "Please go away and let us sleep."

The sign was painted in good large letters on a large piece of yellow manilla wrapping paper. Roy Tobey, Con. E. Shea, Dan Anquetil and other early risers saw this sign, but those who get down to work at the usual hour missed the unusual sign.

FINE CONCERT

Dr. Thornton was in Botany last evening attending the tea meeting, which followed the opening of the new Methodist church there on Sunday.

Dr. Thornton was the chairman of the evening and presided over the program, which included solos by Misses Lucy McKellar and Ada Ross, of this city, and addresses from Ned Watson, of Mull, and Rev. Jasper Wilson, of Ridgeway.

There was a good crowd present at the tea meeting and it was pronounced during the evening that the church had been opened entirely free from debt. On Sunday the services were very successful. Rev. A. L. Russell, of Highgate, preached at both services. Rev. Mr. Blackford, of Timonville, is the pastor of this congregation, and he was to be congratulated that he is able to take charge of his magnificent new church free from all debt.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS

In the Matter of the Estate of John Josiah Walrath, late of the Township of Harwich, in the County of Kent, Farmer, deceased.

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to "The Revised Statutes of Ontario, 1897," Chapter 129, that all creditors and others having claims against the Estate of the said John Josiah Walrath, who died on or about the tenth day of October, 1903, are requested on or before the 21st day of November, 1903, to send by post prepaid or deliver to W. F. Smith, of the City of Chatham, Solicitor for the Executors of the last Will and Testament and Codicil thereto of the said deceased, their Christian and surnames, addresses and descriptions, the full particulars of their claims, the statements of their accounts and the nature of the securities, if any, held by them.

And further, take notice, that after such last mentioned date the said Executors will proceed to distribute the assets of the deceased among the parties entitled thereto, having regard only to the claims of which they shall then have notice, and that the said Executors will not be liable for the said assets or any part thereof to any person or persons of whose claims notice shall not have been received by them at the time of such distribution.

Dated at Chatham this 28th day of October, 1903.

To Settle Differences.

Little credence has been given to rumors that have appeared from time to time in European papers, to the effect that the Mohammedans of Asia and Africa were making an effort to sink their differences, and present a united front against the inroads of Christianity. The smoky between the two great sects of Islam, the Sunni and the Shia, has for generations been as bitter and virulent as that between any two branches of Christendom at any time in its history, and it would seem impossible that this animosity could be quelled. Moreover, the Mohammedans have no means of intercommunication, no religious newspapers, nor other method of moulding public opinion and bringing scattered peoples to think alike on any subject. The great focus of intercommunication, the Mecca pilgrimage, is losing its influence. Its numbers are steadily diminishing, and last year it was altogether prohibited by Government, on account of the plague.

It appears, however, says Public Opinion, that neither missionaries nor publicists may have given sufficient importance to one uniting force, the fraternalism which are rapidly springing into being among Mohammedans. Professor Nalino of Naples has recently published in a Geneva paper an article upon the "Present tendencies of Islamism," treating of these fraternalisms as a movement demanding serious attention. It appears that these orders existed a century ago, but have been suppressed and opposed by orthodox Mussulmans, who deemed them to be opposed by the Koran. Even as recently as 1840 there were about 500,000 of the Mohammedans of the Sahara belonged to them. But the conquest of Algeria and the ensuing conflict with the aboriginal "Roum" (Roman Catholics or Christians) not only aroused a new effectiveness of zeal through all Mohammedan Africa, but gave a preponderant importance to the hitherto despised fraternalism. Now, Professor Nalino says, fully 25 per cent. of the Arabs of North Africa are affiliated with one or another of these fraternalisms, and in all of them the Mecca is kept alive by hatred of the Christians. Thus pan-Islamism, which even ten years ago was a mere Utopian dream, may now become at almost any moment a reality. It would suffice for half a score of the great Moslem potentates, Mecca at the time of the pilgrimage, to agree upon time and method, and all Islam, from the Atlantic to the Malay archipelago, would unite in an uprising against Christians.

An Interesting Letter.

The Globe recently had a brief quotation from a letter written to The London Times by a citizen of the United States visiting his country after several years' absence. Following are lengthier extracts from the communication, a decidedly interesting one in its way. In minutely analyzing America's future in the world of trade the writer says:—

In the matter of foreign trade, the manufacturer in America has definite aspirations instead of concrete ambitions. He would like to trade with all the world. He could not explain this aspiration, but he might fall back upon his belief in destiny, which is as strong in him as it is in a Mahomedan soldier, whom death in battle carries into paradise. The American has come to have the strongest faith in his gift for direction. He is convinced that other people, somehow, are losing that power, and he is convinced that it is only a question of time when the financial centre will be shifted to New York or Chicago. He does not take into account the fact that he has not yet developed a banking system flexible enough to adjust itself to a commercial crisis.

Trades unionism, the writer declares, has weakened the United States, and while the wages in skilled trades advance those in unskilled trades decline. Replying to a question as to how long the present period of prosperity is likely to continue, the writer says the general feeling in the United States predicts it will last "until the next Presidential election is settled." He concludes with the following remarks on foreign trade:—

To my mind nothing is clearer than that whatever chances Americans had at one time of getting slowly but surely a paying foreign trade in manufactured products have been lost for the present:

(1) Through ignorance in not knowing and not learning the conditions existing in foreign countries.

(2) By trying to make a place for their products in crowded communities, whose peoples have great experience and ample capital, instead of in outside or neutral markets.

(3) By inability to seek or take the advice of those who knew or who had the chance to know.

(4) By inopportune effort, and, as these were not enough.

(5) By rushing blindly into combinations, many of which are purely speculative, and then proceeding to advertise all over the world their intention to take everything and leave nothing for anybody else. This thundering in index has not left much for the text to say or threaten, and little for the authors to do.

These, however, are mistakes that will be overcome in time. When the home demand declines, when prices and profits both in America and everywhere else have come down to their natural level, when half or three-fourths of the so-called trusts have gone to the wall, when the overweening desire for publicity and advertisement has given way to a careful study of the conditions in the four quarters of the globe, then will American goods find a market, and they will find it without being of necessity hurtful or dangerous to the industries of other countries.

Tariff Changes.

The market for United States cattle and meats in France is now virtually closed, the French Government having made changes in the tariff which form an even more serious embargo on American meats declared by Germany several years ago. Henceforth, cattle, sheep, hogs, etc., and fresh and salted meats produced from them will be subjected to the maximum tariff if imported into France directly from the United States; or if imported indirectly, through European countries, there will be a duty of 50 cents per 220 pounds.

An Irish Gentleman.

Mr. McGroarty, the Independent Irish-American gentleman who has chosen to reside at Donegal Workhouse, writes to the London Daily Mail, explaining yesterday why he had taken this course, says The London Daily Mail of Sept. 11.

It is not because he is disappointed with the attention and comfort of the Irish hotels, but for the purpose of meeting the charges of it is worth for board and lodging, explained yesterday why he had taken this course, says The London Daily Mail of Sept. 11.

A successful engineering contractor in the States, Mr. McGroarty came to his native county of Donegal for the purpose of having some sport, but particularly for the benefit of his health. For some time he stayed in a Donegal hotel, but afterwards removed to a country village some distance out.

The only furniture in his room in the workhouse consists of two beds, but he has his own bed brought in from the States. When his health improved, he intends going to the south of France. Yesterday Mr. McGroarty was up and moving about for the first time since he was admitted to the workhouse infirmary.

Labouchere.

To understand the character of Labouchere one must know that this mocking spirit, who has broken more knaves and more shame than almost any man, who has figured in a hundred fights to the death in law courts, and has never, or rarely, been worsted, is human, like the rest of us. He is considerate to all those around him; sometimes even he is shy and timid. It is said that when he rings a bell for a servant with any impatience he runs out of the room before the servant has time to answer. And he has often seen this spirit of almost sardonic mockery blush like a girl. The face of the man, who is so full of character. When first you look at it you are conscious only of its mockery. The eyes—black, cold, penetrating—are made even more quizzically funny by eyebrows that twist and turn as though they were prepared by some artist to play Mephistopheles. But the mouth reveals that other side of the spirit; it reveals the man of iron resolution, of inflexible opinions, of enemies that do not die. Napoleon used to be called Jupiter-Scorpion; might sum up Labouchere—Crown-worm.

Interesting Incidents.

Patrick Calhoun, grandson of John C. Calhoun, tells some interesting incidents of ante-bellum days. One of the incidents relates to Daniel Webster, and is published in The New York Times. "I have forgotten the year," said Mr. Calhoun recently at the Waldorf, "but it was when Mr. Webster was visiting my grandfather at Columbus, S.C. At dinner, which was eaten at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, incalculable guest studied glowing terms the Madeira wine served with the dessert. He dilated on its color, its bouquet, and closed his panegyric by saying:—

"Mr. Webster, the interest on a quart of this wine at the market price would pay your fare back to Washington, sir."

When starting for a drive soon after dinner Mr. Webster put one foot on the carriage step, and remained in that position so long that Mr. Calhoun said to himself, "I hope, sir, that you are not thinking of giving up the ride." Calhoun said Webster, with a profound bow, "whether I should go on the ride or remain here and help consume some more of the interest on the irreproachable Madeira."

A Worthy Act.

Andrew Carnegie has settled a pension of fifty English pounds per annum on the granddaughter of the poet Burns, who has care of the little house in Dumfries in which the poet died. This is the agreeable news to Scotchmen all over the world, for the old lady is worthy to represent the Burns family, and she needs the annuity—Brooklyn Citizen.

Our Prison Systems.

The savagery of our prison systems, as they existed previously to the time of John Howard, says The Literary Digest, appears to have been so far mitigated that that great prison reformer might be considerably astonished if he could visit some of our American penal institutions of the present day. We learn from the Mississippi papers that it is no uncommon thing for convicts who escape from the Mississippi Penitentiary to the inhospitable outside world to come back and ask to be admitted again, and the Pennsylvania papers are filled with accounts of the discovery of a counterfeiting plant that has been running for months in the Eastern Penitentiary, in Philadelphia, and which had escaped the notice of the prison attendants. It had escaped their notice so completely, indeed, so the papers say, that they unsuspectingly received from the prisoners large numbers of the dimes, quarters and half-dollars turned out by this rival Philadelphia mint, and which had been running for months in the Eastern Penitentiary, in Philadelphia, and which had escaped the notice of the prison attendants. It had escaped their notice so completely, indeed, so the papers say, that they unsuspectingly received from the prisoners large numbers of the dimes, quarters and half-dollars turned out by this rival Philadelphia mint, and which had been running for months in the Eastern Penitentiary, in Philadelphia, and which had escaped the notice of the prison attendants.

The Philadelphia Inquirer thinks, as they had nothing else to say about it, that there is a great deal of time to pass, and the recollection of the old saying about time and money might suggest the passing of the latter. Most of the prisoners engaged in the counterfeiting are said to have been employed in the plumbing department, learning to become plumbers, and the material for the coins is thought to have been obtained by them from the counterfeiting was carried on at night, when only the night watchman, who was formerly a Philadelphia policeman, was supposed to be on duty. The newspapers comment very severely on the prison management, and the critics of the Republican State administration profess to see a connection between the alleged mismanagement of the State and the deterioration of the prison officials. The Washington Post remarks satirically:—"Inmates of the Pennsylvania penitentiary have been robbing the State with just as much during as though they were outside and holding office."

That George Washington is not the only fellow who ever handled a hatchet was proven by one of Dresden's most popular young men on Sunday night; or was it early Monday morning? Anyway the electric lights were out when this young man wended his way to the room above the bank, only to find the place in darkness and no fire in the coal stove. Of course the fire had to be started and as the other fellows refused to turn but and help him, he was forced to tackle the job himself. He found the hatchet and a small pine board and for a few minutes George Washington was a back number. But the young man's thoughts were far away, consequently he missed the block and cut a bad gash in his right foot near the big toe. For a while the were lively "doings" in these bachelor apartments, but at last the rescue party got the suffering young man to his bed and bound up the injured member, and now the hatchet is under lock and key in the cashier's cage, and will be given to the juniors only on presentation of an order from the manager. The victim of Sunday night's accident is now a firm believer in the strict observance of the Sabbath and will do no more labor on Sunday, even if it should be almost Monday morning.
