Be it enacted by the Governor of British Columbia, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:—

I. The Governor shall, by virtue of his office, be Commander-in-Chief of the Volunteer Force of the Colony. Governor to be Commander-in-Chief.

II. It shall be lawful for the Governor, on behalf of Her Majesty, from time to time to accept the services of any persons desiring to be formed under this Ordinance into a Volunteer Corps, and on such acceptance, the proposed Corps shall be deemed lawfully formed under this Ordinance, as a Corps of the Colony; and all Volunteer Corps may be disbanded from time to time, and reorganized by authority of the Commander-in-Chief, as may in his opinion best tend to further the purposes of this Ordinance and the public good. Volunteer Corps how formed.

III. All arms shall be supplied by the said Colony to the non-commissioned officers and privates of the Volunteer Force, and for these the Commanding Officer of the Corps shall be responsible; and said arms shall be renewed and kept in repair at the expense of the Colony, when it becomes necessary on account of wear in service. Sufficient ammunition also shall be supplied for practice at the expense of the Colony, as the Commander-in-Chief may direct. Arms.

IV. Every Volunteer Corps shall be officered by persons commissioned by the Governor of the Colony, on behalf of Her Majesty, and a Commission so granted shall not be deemed vacated by the revocation or other determination of the Commission by which such Governor was appointed; and Officers of the Volunteer Force shall rank with Officers of Her Majesty's Regular and Militia Forces, as the youngest of their respective ranks. How officered.

V. The establishment of each Corps formed under this Ordinance, and the general regulations for its management, shall be in accordance with the regulations of the Volunteer Force of Great Britain, as from time to time officially published, and obtainable in Colony. Regulations.

VI. No person shall be an Officer of the Force unless he is one of Her Majesty's subjects. Officers, British Subjects.

VII. Every

Volunteer Ordinance.

- Oath of Allegiance. VII. Every Officer shall on receiving his Commission, and every Volunteer shall on his enrollment on the Muster Roll of his Corps, or in either case as soon afterwards as he is called upon to do so by his superior Officer, take the Oath set forth in the Schedule to this Ordinance, before either the Governor, any Judge, Magistrate, or Commissioned Officer of the Corps, who has himself taken the said Oath.
- Resignation. VIII. Except when on actual military service, any Volunteer may quit his Corps on complying with the following conditions, viz.:—
1. Giving to the Commanding Officer of his Company fourteen days' notice in writing of his intention to do so.
 2. Delivering up in good order, fair wear and tear excepted, all arms, clothing, and appointments, being public property or property of the Corps issued to him.
 3. Paying all money due or becoming due by him under the Rules of the Corps, either before or at the time, or by reason of his quitting it. Every Officer and Volunteer so called out, shall be bound to assemble as the Commander-in-Chief directs, and to march or proceed according to orders within the Colony, and from the time of his Corps being so called out, shall be deemed on actual military service. If any such Officer or Volunteer not certified by proper authority to be incapacitated by infirmity for military service, or specially exempted by the Commander-in-Chief, refuses or neglects so to assemble and march, he shall be deemed a deserter.

- How officered when on active service. XI. When Volunteers are on actual military service, the Governor of the Colony may put them and their Officers under the command of a General or Field Officer of Her Majesty's Army, senior in rank to every Officer of the Volunteer Force so put under command; but so, nevertheless, that the Volunteers put under such command, and while under it, shall be led by their own Officers; and all Volunteer Officers and Volunteers when called on for actual military service, shall be subject to the provisions of the Mutiny Act, the same as the officers and soldiers of Her Majesty's Army.
