MARRIED AT KENTVILLE

On Monday Feb. 25th the marriage took place at Kentville of Mr. John Alexander MacInnis, foreman, at A. L. "ton. & Co.'s Garage to Miss Edna Alice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gillingham. Only the immediate friends of the family were present the ceremony being performed at the residence by Dr. A. C. Borden. Mr. and Mrs. MacInnis left the same morning for St. John and Southern N. S. returning on Monday last. They are residing in the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Gillingham.

On Monday evening of this week the young people of St. Stephens Methodist church membership about 35 gave a shower to Mrs. J. A. MacInnis. They met at Mrs. Palmeters and proceeded to the home of the bride. After the gifts had been opened, and the rhymes which accompanied each one were read. Rev. A. C. Borden, the pastor, presented Mrs. MacInnis with a purse from the congregation.

THE AWAKENING.

(James Blyth in London Chronicle.)

On England! Thine enemies believed thee decadent,

Sunk deep in sloth, drugged with narcotic gold,

Thine ancient vigor dead, thy courage spent,

Thy might forgotten, and thy story told.

They saw thee over-run by secret spies,

And welcoming with open hand thy foes

They thought no miracle could clear thine eyes,

Or rouse thee from thy perilous repose.

They portioned out the world by land and sea

Amongst themselves, regardless of thy will.

They rushed on war without a thought of thee,

And then, thank God, thou wakedst, England still.

And now, old Queen of Nations, far and near

Thy banner greuous with its ancient splendor,

Thy sons of Empire bear the British cheer—

That cheer at once so virile and so tender—

To battlefields which stretch from East to West

O'er oceans which extend from pole to pole.

And martyred peoples rise and call thee blest,

Since thou hast proved the mistress of thy soul.

NICKLET THEATRE FRIDAY AND SATURDAY.

Marguerite Clark in "Daring Horseback Stunt."

Marguerite Clark as a "stunt man" is a new feature in pictures, but in "The Amazons," her latest Paramount picture, director Joseph Kaufman and cameraman, William Marshall, have featured the dainty star as hardest of "stunt men." This is quite literal for during most of the five reels the star wears boy's clothes. She jumps out of a third story window onto a nearby tree, swings along branch and down the trunk as cleverly as any trained athlete and as for her daring ride and jump from her horse into the arms of her sweetheart in a passing automobile well, you'll have to see it for yourself at the NICKLET THEATRE on FRIDAY and SATURDAY, Mar. 8th, 9th.

Mrs. James E. Harris of Windsor was in Hortonville on Thursday last visiting Mrs. Maria Harris at the home of Mr. E. B. Harris.

This was accompanied by a most appropriate and impressive address.

Mrs. MacInnis has been a most efficient organist for years and untiring in her efforts.

Mr. and Mrs. MacInnis have the best wishes of St. Stephens congregation for their future happiness and prosperity. During the evening, Mrs. A. C. Borden, on behalf of the Ladies Aid Society, presented to Mrs. George Gillingham an edition of bromionings poem as a slight token of appreciation of her efforts during the years she has been a member.

Mrs. Gillingham and family left the following day for their future home in Liverpool N. S. Refreshments were served and music enjoyed. The National Anthem was sung and all left for the homes after spending a very pleasant evening.

FRANCE NOT AFRAID.

A special cable despatch to the New York Herald carries the information that there is still no sign of the opening of a sustained German offensive on the western front.

The Herald's correspondent points out, however, that other military experts, including, he thinks, the Allied generals in command on the western front, are of opinion that the German military chiefs, even if they wanted to, cannot avoid making a desperate attempt to break through the Anglo-French lines and the Channel coast.

The correspondent goes on to say that no matter what the plans of the Germans may be, the enemy will not catch the Anglo-French commanders napping.

Our paper is only four pages this issue. We hope to be running again at full size hereafter.

CROSBY—LOCKHART.

A very quiet but pretty wedding took place Tuesday, March 5th 8.30 a. m. at the home of
Mrs. Lockhart, Church Ave.,
when her daughter, Janet Lewis was united in marriage to Mr. Raymond Crosby of Yarmouth.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. B. Layton in the presence of immediate friends and relatives. The bride was becomingly gowned in cream silk
poplin with gold embroidered net and carried a bouquet
of pink and white carnation.
She entered the parlor on the arm of her brother, Mr. C. B.
Lockhart.

Little Miss Marjorie McCoy, niece of the bride acted as flower girl. The parlors were prettily decorated with cut flowers and potted plants.

The grooms present to the bride was a cheque and to the flower girl a necklace. A dainty breakfast was served
after which Mr. and Mrs.
Crosby left on the morning express for their future home in Yarmouth. The bride's travelling suit was of navy blue with hat to match.

Many useful and valuable
gifts were received including cut glass. Silver linen, china etc.

CANAAN.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jones are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son.

Miss Hilda Kinsman has been visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Harriet Thomas, of Kentville.

Miss Helen Jones, who has recently returned from Alberta, is visiting friends in Halifax.

Mrs. Sanford is to be congratulated on the efficient way she is conducting the school. The children are making good progress.

Our farmers are busy getting out logs and cord wood. Messrs Wood and Brown will be sawing here again this spring.

Mrs. Hutchinson of Hantsport, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Charles Jones.

The Box Social of Feby. 14th was quite a success the sum of $35 being realized. Some of our friends do not think all of the proceeds were passed in. The ones this accusation points to, are not in the habit of appropriating friends that do not belong to them.

Mrs. Angus Wambolt is visiting her son John Wambolt of Kentville.

NEW ROSS.

Aden Hennegar Shot a wild Cat in our woods.

New Ross has refugees of the disaster at Halifax.

Mrs. J. D. McLean and infant daughter, John S. Murphy, who immediately went to Halifax as soon as the news arrived. After some search found his daughter and infant and brought them home. Her husband was also among the heavy losses. But the lives of himself, wife and babe escaped without injury. Mrs. McLean will remain in New Ross until the spring advances. Mr. McLean is attending to duty in Halifax.

Emmanuel Bennotte whose daughter and family were all killed save one little boy has just brought the little orphan to New Ross to make his home with his grandmother Barkhouse was the family name.

His Grace, the Archbishop of Nova Scotia, paid a visit to New Ross. He visited St. Augustine of Hippo Chapel on Address the large congregation and in the evening confirmed 28 candidates in the parish Church Charing Cross and gave a stirring Address.

The burning of the property of the mareson mine was a sad loss to workers as well as the company. There are many at work at the other mine and tons of ore have been shipped over our ice bound roads.

The house of Edw. Walker (a son of the veteran soldiers who founded New Ross) was burned to the ground on the 18th Jany. with contents. The potatoes, turnips, etc. in the cellar together with most of their furniture and clothing are a total loss.

Ice cutting is the order of the day. Our streets are very dangerous for pedestrians, but well shod horses slip along swiftly.

BOYS SPENT A FINE TIME AT CHRISTMAS.

The following letter was sent us by Mrs. A. Warden, Kingsport.

Pte. B. Rogers,
102 Batt. C. E. F.,
Care Of Army P. O. France.

Dear Grandma:
Just these few lines to let you know that I received your letter and was very glad indeed to hear from you, we have not left England yet but expect to any day now. I have not heard from Joe for some time so must write him another letter the last time that I saw him was in November at Bramshot Camp, he was looking fine then.

Well how are you all Grandma, I hope none of you are sick and did you spend a Merry Christmas. We did over here in camp had a fine time and enjoyed ourselves too but wished we were home just the same which I hope we will all be next Christmas.

I haven't received my Christmas boxes yet but hope to soon as mother said she sent one. I got quite a few letters from home last week and have answered them all, but hope there will be some more before long. Will write more next time. With love and kindest regards to everyone. Your Grandson,
A Soldier Boy,
BYRON ROGERS.

Mrs. Marlan Forsythe will be at home to her friends at the home of her mother, Mrs. A. N. Neary, North's Corner on Wednesday, and Thursday afternoons, March 13th and 14th. 1 a.-6 o.
