Poetry.

ODE FOR ST. ANDREW'S DAY.
Anno Domini 1849 by Adèle.
Sons of Saint Andrew, stand True to your native land, Warm heart and ready hand, Live to defend her;
Land of the lake and glen,
Wild wood and lofty ben, Fair maids and gallant men, Growings we send her.
Chorus—Hail! to the banner blue, Pennon of Alpine dhu;
Hail! to the brave and true, Round it that gather;
Shoulder to shoulder stand, Greet each Scottish hand,
Now for our native land, Shout for the leader!

Sizes of needless fame, Heroes of olden name, Mistlers whose notes of flame, Kindle the leader;
Guard your mountain hold,
Pendant and horn hold,
Handed together,
Chorus—Hail! &c.

Woeens to win her name, Roman, and rover Dave, Saxon and Norman, then Thought to have bound her.
Up went the crown of flame,
Laid of his lion's mane, Claymore—Laid it for in shame Laid as he found her.
Chorus—Hail! &c.

Far from Clan Alpine dhu Wanders the bonnet dhu, Still as the sunset glow, Turn his thoughts thither; Far though his fate may part,
Laid of his lion's mane,
Ever the Scottish heart Warm to the hearth.
Chorus—Hail! &c.

Planting in Beauty's bowser, Striking when tempest lower,
Ours is the summer tree, Blooming to weather;
Up on the mountain crest, Shrouding the eagle's nest, Braving the tempest's rest, Grows the red heather.
Chorus—Hail! &c. ROBERT ROSELL.

NEWS BY THE "CANADA."
New-York, Nov. 29.

The steamship Canada, Captain Harrison, arrived at Halifax at 8 o'clock yesterday morning. She sailed from Liverpool on Saturday, the 17th instant, and thus made a very short passage across the Atlantic—She left Halifax at 15 minutes past 10 vesterday morning for New York, and will arrive here on Friday noon.

The political news is uninteresting, but the commercial news is of the highest importance.
Cotton has again advanced, and Consols are higher than they have been for a long time.

TURKEY.—Advices from Constantinople to the 1st inst., state, that a British fleet was at anchor in Aboukir Bay, and would remain there till the arrival of the Czar with the assent of the Porte.
The intelligence by the Turkish Government that the English fleet had unanimously agreed to form an offensive alliance with the Porte in the event of hostile proceedings on the part of Russia, is confirmed. Also, that a similar communication had been made by General Arnica, on behalf of the French Government.

RUSSIA.—The presence of the English naval forces at the Dardanelles and the hourly expected arrival of the French fleet, occasioned some excitement at Constantinople, and the Emperor of Russia continues to show not a little irritation at the decisive attitude taken by France and England.

THE FRENCH REPUBLIC.—The most gratifying feature in the week's news is the interview between the President of France and Mr. Rives, the American Minister, at Elyse Nationale. The American Minister, it now appears, made an address adapted to the occasion, but observed a total silence respecting the misunderstanding between the Republic of France and that of the United States, arising out of the conduct of M. Ponsin. The President, however, alluded to the affair in terms disparaging to the American Minister and his council, adding, that in consequence of that misunderstanding, if Mr. Rives had been a member of the French Cabinet, he would have been deposed of the honor of receiving him. There are again rumors afloat with respect to the vacant post of Foreign Minister in the French Cabinet. Mr. De-Kaye's refusal to accept the appointment is certain, but should be eventually declined, either Mr. Flourens or M.
Thouvenin is spoken of as being likely to receive the appointment.

HUNGARY.—We learn that fresh condemnation are taking place, and not fewer than 15 additional executions have taken place at Arad, and more threatened. The valdey address of Kosuth to his countrymen, and written at Orsova, has been published. It is written in his most enthusiastic and poetic style.

ROME.—We have but little certain and interesting news from Rome. It seems, however, that the Pope really meditates an early return to Rome, and indeed, his arrival at one moment was actually announced.
The Spanish troops at present at Rome, have received orders to return to Spain.

had cost him per bushel. Thus, wheat 38c cents 15, barley 29, beans 37, &c. Now you cannot see that this farmer can at once determine whether the course he is pursuing is the one best for his interest, or whether a change is necessary? and if so, he knows where to make it.—Genesee Farmer.

WATER FOR STOCK.—This is a subject of great importance. In order that stock of all kinds may be comfortable and thrifty, they should have constant access to pure water; and if possible they should be supplied with water in the barn yard, as much manure is wasted, besides animals being liable to accidents, in going at a distance for water. When it is near, animals will drink often, but when at a distance they often go without, and suffer in consequence, and are at a disadvantage to the owner, too; for an animal can be profitable without the requi-sities to its growth, health, and productivness. Even sheep, that some farmers think can use snow and ice as a substitute for water, will drink frequently when water is near.

When animals have constant access to water, they usually drink a little and drink often, but when not properly supplied, they will often injure themselves by drinking to excess.

Some farmers have prepared water works so as to have a constant supply of good water in the barn yard, at an expense of some 25, 50, 75, or 100 dollars, and they would not be deprived of it for the interest, annually, in five times the cost.—Boston Cult.

The fact was announced in the French Assembly by the minister of foreign affairs on the 9th inst.

SPAIN—OPENING OF THE CORTES.
—We learn from Spain that the session of the Cortes has been opened without the usual ceremony, which has given rise to numerous attacks by M. Olzaga and his friends upon their implacable enemies, Narvez and his colleagues.

MOROCCO.—The dispute between the Emperor and the French seems to increase in violence. The French Consul at Mogra-dore has been treated harshly and ignominiously, and a Frigate has been sent to his relief. There is now every probability of the affairs ending in the bombardment of Tangier.

CAPE OF GOOD HOPE.—Advices from the Cape of Good Hope are to the effect that the Neptune with the con-voicts on board had not arrived.

PROGRAMME OF THE NEW MINIS-TRY OF FRANCE.
In the Chamber of Deputies on the 2nd inst., General Hauppol rose and read the following programme:—
The programme contained in the message of the President of the republic is sufficiently explicit to place beyond all question the policy which he has called us to follow.

When he applied to us for our co-operation he has already thought proper to use his constitutional initiative. We shall not certainly be precluded from seeking in the acts of the Cabinet that exceeded us more than one example of glorious devotedness to the country and of an exalted appreciation of its interests.

In the situation in which we were placed, all individuals sympathizing ought to give way, rather than in an adhesion to a signal and solemn testimony of friendship and gratitude.

The future was held up to us, and we became convinced of the urgency of providing for its security.

The new Cabinet, our previous opinions sufficiently indicated, has not been formed against the majority. On the contrary, it developes with energy its avowed principles.
It has not, and cannot have others.

We must maintain the union of all shades in one party, for it is that party which will save France. We shall arrive at that unity of views, by confidence in the strength of the power elected on the 19th of December, supported by the majority of the Assembly, and finally by the imperial sentiment awakened everywhere in the minds of the functionaries of the State.

Such is the object which the chief of the Government invited us to pursue with him, engaging according to his right, nobly understood, his responsibility along with ours in that difficult but patriotic effort.

Peace abroad, guaranteed by the dignity becoming to France; energetic maintenance of order at home; an Administration more than ever vigilant and economical of the finances of the State; such is the programme dictated to us by the interests of the country, the confidence of this Assembly, and the personal conviction of the chief of the Government.

In the first rank of our duties we place the protection of labour in all its degrees and forms. We wish that the farmer and the labourer, more and more reassured respecting the future, should find a last compelling that confidence which is beginning to revive.

We also desire that that security should spread to other regions, re-animate the spirit of intelligence, and restore to capital and credit a spring too long relaxed.

The Cabinet, in accepting the burden of affairs which it did not seek, has counted on your sympathy and support; your exalted reason and patriotism have given it that right.

ITALY.
THE ROMAN STATES.—Mr. Moore, the British Consul at Ancona, has received the Cross of St. Francis from the King of Naples, for the protection he afforded to the King of Naples when the personal safety in that town was in danger, and was sailing and Commander Vanstert, of H. M. S.
Flores, has been presented with a similar decoration for conveying the Consul General and his family to Trieste.

Since the deposition of the King of Rome, the Roman National Assembly, the pope is least important towards the pope, than it was before, and many have been allowed to return to Rome—amongst them Bishop Palmieri, the intimate friend of Count Montanini.

The plastering of the walls with existing placards still continues. On the 18th ult. a large bill was posted on the walls of the Palazzo Chigi, headed "News from France," and announcing a fresh revolution, and the triumph of the Mountain.

Baron Metzger, the Austrian envoy, has arrived in Rome to conclude a treaty of commerce for the navigation of the Po.

M. Palaza late officer of the ex-royal guards who had been amnestied in 1836, has been received on the part of the French ambassador, in order to save him from the Pontifical police. M. de Corelli intended giving him a passport for France.
The association of French soldiers continued daily. It was not expected the Pope would return, or that the French army would leave immediately. Great hostility was still manifested by the people towards the Pope.

SARINIA.—In its sitting of the 29th, the Senate of Turin rejected, by 43 votes to 10, the bill voted by the Chamber of Deputies on the 23rd ult., by which all Italian refugees residing in the Piedmontese territory were ordered to evict and political rights in the country.

The chambers had broken out in the southern provinces of Sarinina.

The Turkish Government had brought forward a motion in the Chamber of Deputies on the 25th, to the effect that it should be empowered to levy the taxes for two months, but it was only granted the power for one month. This is considered a check to the Government.

TURKEY.
Constantinople, Oct. 26, 1849.
Private letters from Constantinople announce the arrival of the British fleet, under command of Admiral W. Parker, at the mouth of the Bosphorus.

The instructions by the British Envoy on 24th October expressed still more strongly the determination of the English government to grant material support to the Sultan, in case of emergency, and to form a defensive alliance with the Porte in the event of Russia attempting hostile measures.

The French Envoy's instructions were newly to the same effect; but though there was no doubt in the Chamber of Deputies should set in concert, it was not certain that a defensive alliance would be formed with the Sultan in the event of war. It was understood, however, that France would support Turkey so long as she acted with prudence.

The Sultan and his Ministers were greatly pleased in the support of the two great powers, and still more so by the approval of their conduct by the London and Paris press.

No communication had been received from the Emperor of Russia relative to the results of the Porte. The demand of Prince Rasko had remained in the same state, and diplomatic intercourse was still suspended between Turkey and Russia and Austria.— It would be impossible for the Emperor to conquer hostile operations by land against Turkey until May next year, and it was hoped in the meantime that the dispute would be adjusted.

THREATENED RENEWAL OF THE WAR IN SCHLESWIG HOLSTEIN.
Frankfurt, Nov. 6, 1849.

The Colony Gazette—"There are many symptoms of a new eruption that will be followed by a fresh outbreak.
The report is already current, that the army of the Danube under Gen. Puchk is in readiness to march, and that preparations are being made in the Duchy of Nassau which tend to confirm these warlike reports.

PERSIA.
Persia is a very disturbed state. The Shah appeared incapable of maintaining order.

CALIFORNIA.
Order must be beginning to be established in California. Tax paying is a privilege unknown to the savage. The levying of custom House dues at San Francisco by the United States authorities—however large the amount collected—has not sufficed to prove of the civilized state of the San Franciscans. A decree of the Common Council of San Francisco furnishes evi-

MELANCHOLY OCCURRENCE.

The Courier of November 28, has the following letter...

Our village was this morning thrown into deep gloom by a report that a young lady had probably committed suicide here...

The train of cars yesterday morning brought hither a young woman of fine personal appearance...

Enough has been found to set at rest the belief that the unfortunate lady leaped from the bridge that leads to God Island...

HURON SIGNAL.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1849.

THE MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS.

On Monday, the 5th of January, the New Municipal Act will come into practical operation. The Householders and Freeholders of each Township throughout the Province will have to perform the important duty of electing five Councilors to manage the affairs of their Township...

That no provision in the foregoing enactments of this Act which requires that any person be possessed of any property qualification, or be assessed for any particular amount, in order to his having a right to vote, or to be elected by any electors...

Thus, in so far as the qualification of Councilors for the townships are concerned, there is, certainly, no ambiguity in the Act—the thing is as plain as language can make it—and those who contend that the present property qualification of three hundred pounds, is still intended to exist till the introduction of a new Assessment Law...

We are glad to understand that the inhabitants of Godrich are taking some interest in the coming Corporation. We have, hitherto, abstained from noticing the subject, merely because we are desirous that no political feeling should influence the choice of our first town Councilors...
