A CRISIS IN THE RAILWAY SITUATION

Grand Trunk Question in Government Caucus

Reported Plea for Large Money Grant, Also More Time for Arbitration—Proceedings in House of Commons.

Montreal, April 2—The Gazette's Ottawa correspondent says: In the government caucus yesterday, the premier placed before his supporters the problem arising out of the Grand Trunk arbitration. It is understood that the Grand Trunk is asking for an extension of time to complete the arbitration proceedings and also for a large money grant to meet pressing liabilities. The arbitration proceedings were to have been completed by April 9, and the government is opposed to both extension of time and further financial assistance. It is said that the railway company insists on the necessity of financial aid, and the negotiations are threatened with complete rupture, leaving the railway company to extricate itself. In the caucus, it is reported, Sir Robert Borden made a strong speech in favour of the acquisition of the Grand Trunk as necessary to the success of the national system. He also defended the government operation of a national system. The premier left the impression that he was very much opposed to further delay in reaching a decision in the arbitration. There is no doubt that a crisis has been reached in the railway situation, and interesting developments may be expected during the next few weeks. In Parliament. Ottawa, April 2—(Canadian Press)—Yesterday in the house of commons, a committee was appointed to consider Canada's future fuel supply. Bills were introduced to make three and a half per cent the salary of the chief justice of Canada exempt from taxation, and to amend the Judges act in regard to the payment of travelling expenses to retain judges attending court or chambers. The premier announced that a motion would be submitted for the government of a special committee of government railways and merchant ships. A bill incorporating the General Synod of the Church of England in Canada was read a third time. In supply, the appointment of Canadian trade agents in the United States was urged on the government. There were lively exchanges between the government and progressive members on discontinuance of Canadian subsidies. In the senate, tributes were paid to the late Senator Crosby. Second reading was given several bills.

COACH AND UMPIRE COME TO BLOWS

Cozy Dolan and Edward Lauson Arrested—Giants' First Baseman Also—Late Sport News.

New York, April 2—The New York American League team was at New Orleans today for the opening contest of a two game series with the Brooklyn Nationals. The New York and Brooklyn squads will reach this city next Friday night and will resume their exhibition feud at Ebbets' Field on the following afternoon. Thirty players are in the Yankee squad. There are ten pitchers, three catchers, eight infielders and nine outfielders. Only twelve were with the Yankees last season. Manager Miller Huggins of the Yankees, remained in Shreveport today suffering from a slight attack of appendicitis. His condition is not considered serious. As a result of the fight at Mobile yesterday between Cozy Dolan, coach of the New York Nationals, and Edward Lauson, western league umpire, both were arrested and called into a Mobile court today. Lauson, it is said, came to blows with Dolan following disputed decisions. It is alleged that Lauson drew a knife from his pocket and attacked Dolan. Kelly, the Giants' first baseman, also was arrested in connection with the affair. Marathon Today. Detroit, April 2—Fifty-two long distance runners including some stars were ready to start in the annual auto city marathon today. The course was from the Oakland County Court House at Pontiac over a paved road to Grand Circus Park in downtown Detroit. TEA AND SALE. A successful tea in aid of the Provincial Memorial Home for Children, was held in Centenary Methodist church parlors this afternoon, under the auspices of the committee in charge of the home. Mrs. T. A. Graham, the general convener, was assisted by the following: Pouring, Mrs. James Manning and Mrs. J. Silliphant; serving, Mrs. F. Kerr and Mrs. Mowry; in charge of kitchen, Mrs. H. A. McKeown; cooking table, Mrs. E. R. Taylor, Mrs. Barnham and Mrs. J. F. Emery; tickets, Mrs. Powers, candy, Mrs. Elliston and Mrs. Lawton, and treasurer, Mrs. Schofield. The parlors were splendidly decorated and the tea tables were adorned with bouquets of pretty spring flowers.

Bell Co's Gets Some Advance Allowances But Not the Measured Rate

Ottawa, April 2—(Canadian Press)—The board of railway commissioners in their judgment on the application of the Bell Telephone Company for increased rates, refuses the measured rate system to the company on the ground that the present situation is an emergency one. The company is granted increased long distance and service connection charges, together with a ten per cent addition on exchange services.

SIGNS OF CONTEST IN LABOR CIRCLES

International Union and Catholic Workers' Organization

Ottawa, April 1—(Canadian Press)—That a bitter fight is coming between the international labor union in this country and the newly formed National Catholic Workers' Union, whose membership is restricted to Catholics, was indicated by vigorous speeches delivered here last night by Tom Moore, president of the Dominion Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, and Secretary P. M. Draper. Opposition forces are understood to be planning an attack on labor department estimates, and more particularly on the attitude taken by Senator Robertson, minister of labor, in regard to the Catholic labor unions of Quebec. Recently when a deputation representing the Catholic unions met Senator Robertson asking that they be given representation on the forthcoming National Building Trades Conference, they were informed that such a request would have to be submitted to the executive of the Dominion Trades and Labor Congress, and the Canadian Federation of International Unions, which had arranged the conference. Montreal, April 2—At a meeting of the Bricklayers incorporated, of Montreal, and the International Stone Masons and Tile Layers, No. 4, a proposal by the builders exchange that the bricklayers of this city accept a wage reduction of ten per cent was rejected, and those assembled agreed to make no contract either separately or collectively during the ensuing year on that basis.

WORKING OF THE PERMIT SYSTEM

Provisions of B. C. Liquor Act Which Has Passed Legislature.

Victoria, B. C., April 2—The liquor control bill, which has passed by the British Columbia legislature, is expected to go into effect on May 1, although the date has not yet been set. Under the measure, the government will establish and maintain stores wherever it is considered advisable, and at these sales will be made under a permit system and only sealed packages of liquor will be sold. A package is defined to mean any receptacle used for holding liquor. The administration of the act, including the general control, management and supervision of all government stores, will be vested in a liquor control board consisting of three persons, one of whom shall be chairman. Most of the powers of this board will be subject to the lieutenant-governor-in-council, but in the purely administrative end it will have certain rights. Under the permit system, residents of the province of adult age and who have resided here for one month, can take liquor. Most of the powers of this board will be subject to the lieutenant-governor-in-council, but in the purely administrative end it will have certain rights. Another permit, costing fifty cents, allows for a single purchase limited to two quarts. There are special permits covering the cases of druggists, physicians, dentists and veterinarians and also affecting wines for sacramental purposes. The act provides for a tax on all liquor imported for private use under the federal law. This tax will be equal to the profit which the government would have made had it sold such liquor, plus ten per cent. It is the incumbent on all those importing for private purposes to notify the liquor control board of any shipments, so that provision may be made for taxation.

JAIL KEEPER IN LUCK. Guelph, Ont., April 2—Governor McNab, of the county jail here, has been lauded for his control of the institution being empty of prisoners, the usual spring cleaning could not be accomplished, but yesterday the outlook brightened when James Millard, a colored citizen, who is a kalsomner and whitewasher, was sentenced to jail for six months.

HON. A. K. MACLEAN, M. P.

As Hiram Sees It

"I see," said Mr. Hiram Horneback to the talker up to Fredrickson about makin' the game shootin' season shorter. That's a good idee—but what I'd like to see is some way of stoppin' a lot of law-breakers from shootin' all the time—even when its the close season, an' not leavin' out Sundays. I think we orto hev more said in the country schools about obeyin' the laws. Now there's Silie Jones's boys. Them fellers haist got no more respect for the law than Silie hes a square deal in a boss-trade. You kin hear their guns goin' off Sunday long afore the open season begins—an' if they could shoot ten moose an' forty deer in a season they'd do it—an' they don't take out no license nuther. An' they aint the only ones. "Why don't you report them?" queried the reporter. "Mister," said Hiram, "if you knowed Silie Jones's boys as well as I do you wouldn't want to live with 'em after you'd got 'em into a scrape—nd, sir, what we got to do in this country is to train up a generation that hes respect for the laws—an' we aint doin' it—By ten!"

NEW PLAN FOR BONDS FOR OUR RETURNED MEN

Ottawa, April 2—(Canadian Press)—Details of a new plan of re-establishment for returned soldiers calling for the issue of government industrial bonds to each returned combatant has been put before the special committee on pensions and re-establishment by E. F. Kidner of Victoria, B. C. He suggests that a bond for $2,000 be given to each such returned soldier. He estimates that there would be 250,000 men eligible for this aid. The outlay would be in the neighborhood of $500,000,000, under the plan, would be taken over by the banks and would be repayable to them by the government at the rate of $200,000 a year for fifty years, paying at the rate of three per cent. Mr. Kidner would grant each soldier an industrial bond not exceeding $2,000 in value to be used for the purpose of allowing returned soldiers either to start in business or buy homes. The bonds would be non-transferable and non-negotiable with a high rate of interest, "say eight and a half per cent," which would remove any likelihood of the returned men failing to hold them as a good investment.

ENTERS POLITICS.

Lady Rhonda, foremost business woman in the British Empire, has definitely entered politics. She is a prominent advocate of women's rights in both political and industrial life.

LOWER RATES ON THE GREAT LAKES

Holland, Mich., April 2—Expected reductions in operating costs will bring over passenger and freight rates on the Great Lakes, according to J. S. Morton, general manager of the Graham and Morton Steamship Co. "The drop in the cost of coal and labor anticipated," he said, "will warrant a lowering of the rates." Navigation will open in about two weeks.

Strike of Building Trades Workers in Boston Is At End

Arbitration; Meanwhile Dollar An Hour

Vote on Matter in Chicago—Would Start $100,000,000 Worth of Building Work—Labor Matters in United States.

Boston, April 2—The strike of 15,000 workers in the building trades, which has been in effect since Jan. 19, was ended here early today, the United States Building Trades Council accepting the state board of conciliation's $1 an hour proposition pending arbitration of its differences with employers. The arbitration decision was reached after an all night debate. It was reported that all of the workers involved will return to work Monday. Chicago, April 2—The building trades council of Chicago today submitted to a referendum vote a proposal of the Building Contractors' Association for a reduction in wages of skilled mechanics and building laborers. The council claims a membership of 88,000. The contractors proposed a reduction from $1.25 an hour to $1 for mechanics and from $1 an hour to seventy-five cents for laborers, which was refused. Acceptance of the reduction, the contractors said, would result in letting of one hundred million dollars in building contracts within thirty days. It is estimated by union officials that 35,000 building tradesmen are unemployed. Street Car Men. Toledo, Ohio, April 2—Officials of the street car men's union yesterday agreed to defer a proposed strike resulting from announcement by the Community Traction Company that a fifteen per cent wage reduction would go into effect yesterday morning. Detroit, April 1—Detroit shops and factories during March recalled 25,694 men, according to the survey of the Employers' Association of Detroit. Of this number, 6,865 returned to work during the week ending March 29. Washington, April 2—Tentative approval was given by the shipping board yesterday to a reduction in the wages of seamen employed on United States vessels on the Atlantic and Gulf coasts. The question was up at a conference between Chairman Benson and representatives of the American S. S. Owners' association. Approximately 60,000 men will be affected. Cleveland, April 2—Automobile plants here yesterday closed for a day because they did a month ago, a gain of twenty-four per cent, according to the official monthly survey. Looks Like Strike. Toronto, April 2—Local packers refused yesterday to back down from their recent ultimatum that the employees of the packing houses must accept a general reduction of 15 1/2 per cent in wages. Another conference is to be held tomorrow. A strike appears inevitable. Lawrence, Mass., April 2—The plant of the Champion International Paper Co., employing 600, was shut down next Monday for at least one week, it was announced today. Business conditions were said to be responsible. Chicago, April 2—Construction work in a number of middle western cities was halted following the refusal of building trades workers to accept reductions in pay scheduled to take effect yesterday. Most of the reductions average twenty per cent. New York, April 2—More than 14,000 workmen were affected by ten per cent wage reductions put into effect yesterday by all shipyards in the New York district. They accepted the cut without protest. More For Divorce. Ottawa, April 2—(Canadian Press)—Marie A. Drury of Jordan Station, Ont., and Wentworth Barnes of Toronto have given notice that they will apply for divorce at the next session of parliament. SIR A. GRIFFITH BOSCAWEN.

SOME COAL MINES FLOODED

Strike Comes at a Very Bad Time

Some Indication, However, That British Struggle Will be Short—Strike of Shipbuilders a Possibility.

London, April 2—Six British coal mines, left to the mercy of inushing waters by the strike of miners and pumpmen, have already been flooded and some of them are said to be in such a condition that they may be permanently wrecked. Four of these mines are in South Staffordshire, one in the Forest of Dean, County of Gloucester, and one in Flintshire, Northeastern Wales. Several of the older pits in the Lancashire district and in the Rhondda Valley, Wales, are in imminent danger, and in most of the other coal districts of the island, clerks and volunteers are manning the pumps. Scores of telegraphic appeals reached the government yesterday asking that sailors be sent to help fight against the floods of water pouring into the mines. Various coal dealers associations are publishing appeals in newspapers calling upon volunteers with engineering experience to give assistance. Cut Train Service. The government apparently is taking a grave view of the crisis and is laying plans to deal with emergencies. Restrictions on train service will begin on next Wednesday and a cut of twenty per cent will be made effective before the end of next week if the coal strike continues. Race meetings were scheduled at Warwick, a racing centre, next Monday and Tuesday, but they have been cancelled at the government's request. Another step taken has been to reduce coal consumption for industrial purposes fifty per cent, while domestic users of coal will be permitted to purchase only small amounts. Some of the illuminated signs in London already have been voluntarily extinguished, and it is expected that orders will soon be issued prohibiting all such signs. The government is also planning to impose restrictions on shop and street lighting and the public has been asked to economize in the use of gas, electricity and gasoline. Another effect of the embargo on the exports of coal has been an increase for the demand of tonnage to carry United States coal to British bunkering stations. Some ships received orders last night to prepare to distribute supplies of wood for the nation's breeze should the railroads be shut down. These supplies will be landed at various ports along the coast. All wireless stations were "tuned up" and constables were being enrolled everywhere last night. The chairman of the London Coal Committee declares London has a supply for about three weeks but if the present summer-like weather continues it will last five or six weeks. There were no reports yesterday or last night regarding disturbances anywhere, dispatches stating that the miners were enjoying a holiday. Generally Bad Time. London, April 2—The coal strike has come at a difficult time for industry generally. Official statistics show there has been an increase of 30,000 in the ranks of the unemployed this week as compared with last week. The total on the registers of the unemployment exchanges is now nearing 1,500,000, exclusive of more than 800,000 who are on short notice. The change in persons increased by more than a million in the coal fields. John J. Jones, Labor M. P., in a speech at Ilford last night, asserted that within recent weeks notices have been issued in sixty industries that wages were to be reduced by from ten to twenty shillings a week. A conference in the shipbuilding trade was held at Carlisle yesterday to discuss the claims of employers for a reduction of six shillings on time rates and fifteen per cent on piece work. The workmen demanded that the matter should be submitted to arbitration under the Industrial Court act. The employers refused to entertain the demand, and the conference ended without a settlement having been reached. The workmen are now asking the ministry of labor to intervene, but it is feared a strike may result. A minor sequel to the coal dispute is that the House of Lords will reassemble eight days before the time stipulated for them to do so. The House of Commons has adjourned until April 4, and the House of Lords until April 12. Under the emergency program the government is bound to convene parliament within five days. Hence a royal proclamation was issued last night convening both houses for Monday. Washington, April 2—Denunciation of the British coal miners' strike is expected to be short, according to the best opinion in England, so Commercial Attache Dennis, at London, advised the department of commerce today. Funds of the miners' federation are low, the message said, adding that the strike was not supported by public opinion. NEW AIRPLANES FOR U. S. Washington, April 2—The first important move since the armistice toward rehabilitating the United States army's air service was taken yesterday when the war department placed orders for 200 Thomas Morse type pursuit airplanes and 35 Martin bombers. CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET. Chicago, April 2.—Wheat, No. 1, $1.35 1/2; No. 2, $1.35 1/2; Corn, No. 2, $1.15 1/2; Oats, No. 2, $1.15 1/2; Soybeans, $1.15 1/2.

CHARLES LEAVING FOR SWITZERLAND

At One Time Nearly Had Crown in Grasp

Crisis in Austrian Government Probably Averted—Some Effects of the Attempted Hapsburg Coup.

Vienna, April 2—Former Emperor Charles will leave Steinhilber, Switzerland, Sunday evening or Monday, so it is reported here. It is planned for him to make the trip by way of Italy, and the delay in his starting for Switzerland has been occasioned by negotiations with the Italian government for permission for him to pass through that country. Newspapers here appear to be certain that the episode resulting from his attempt to re-establish himself as king of Hungary is ended. The social democrats plan to introduce in the National Assembly resolutions demanding that the government take steps to hurry ratification by France and Great Britain of the Trianon treaty providing for the surrender of West Hungary to Austria, and making provision for the protection of Austrian frontiers by the Entente. They declare this action is necessary to prevent further royalist attempts at restoration. Advice from Belgrade says the government of Jugo-Slavia has been notified that Hungary is irrevocably opposed to the return of the Hapsburgs. Jugo-Slavia, it is said, purposes to establish three army corps at strategic points along the Hungarian frontier, and in the event of another attempted coup will occupy the Fuenfkirchen coal district, 103 miles southwest of Budapest and Segedina, 105 miles southwest to the Hungarian capital. Rome, April 2—The Osservatore Romano, the Vatican organ, denies that the Vatican had advanced knowledge of the intention of former Emperor Charles to return to Hungary.

COMMENT ON NEW IRISH OFFICIAL

Times Discusses Appointment of Lord Talbot

Does It Mean Change of System of Administration?—More Trouble in London—Alleged Speech by O'Esmond.

London, April 2—The London Times referring to Lord Edmund Talbot as the most popular chief Unionist whip for a generation, says editorially: "Whether his qualifications as the foremost lay Catholic in England will recommend him as strongly to the Irish people as the government seems to expect is an important question; but he would scarcely have accepted the appointment without some assurance that the system of administration which marked the later years of Viscount French's viceroyalty will hardly be maintained in all the unintelligent rigor, he may enter his most important office under favorable auspices." The Times further remarks that the Irish problem cannot be solved by a change in persons unless there be a change in policy, and concludes by speaking of the new appointments as a whole as follows: "The comparative insignificance of the extensive shuffle and deal in the circumstances indicates that it contains no clear indication of policy. It is a whirl of persons effected apparently without intelligible method or plan." Trouble in London. Belfast, April 2—Serious disorders occurred in Londonderry last night. Constable Higgins was shot and killed by assailants, who escaped. Two bombs were thrown at the electric light station, and two soldiers were wounded, and in the firing that followed the attack two civilians were injured. The station property was not damaged. An attack was made on the police barracks on Lecky road, and two constables were wounded before police reinforcements, which arrived in an armored car, beat off the attacking party. Rifle firing could be heard during the night, and great excitement prevailed, it is said in a dispatch received here. Reply Embassy. Washington, April 2—Frank P. Walsh, as "counsel for the republic of Ireland," issued yesterday a rejoinder to the statement of the British embassy made in reply to the report of the "commission of the committee of One Hundred" investigating conditions in Ireland. He characterized the British statement as a "gross perversion of facts," and challenged Ambassador Geddes to appear before the commission or some international tribunal and present his evidence to disprove the commission's findings on penalty of being branded by Mr. Walsh as a "wifed and mischievous falsifier." PROFESSOR KILLS COLLEGE DEAN AND SUICIDES

Grim Tragedy in Institution in Syracuse

Belief Was Unpopular Teacher Meant Self-Destruction and Slew Dean When Latter Tried to Prevent Him.

Syracuse, N. Y., April 2.—J. Herman Wharton, dean of the College of Business Administration, Syracuse University, was shot and killed by Holmes Beckwith, professor of financial and insurance subjects in the college, this morning.

Beckwith then turned the gun on himself and committed suicide. The shooting occurred in the offices of the School of Administration. Professor Beckwith had been unpopular with the students and petitions had been circulated among them asking for his removal.

In a statement issued soon after the shooting, Chancellor Day declared that it was his belief that Dean Wharton died trying to prevent Professor Beckwith from committing suicide.

This was indicated in a note left for Dean Wharton by Professor Beckwith, said the chancellor, "in which he intimated that he was going to kill himself and referred to alleged unjust treatment of himself based on the fact that he had been dismissed, the dismissal to take effect at the end of the year."

GOOD THINGS COMING TO THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

HOY SISTERS SCORE A HIT

Their Presentation of "Sweetness" at Opera House Was a Treat—New Bill Has a Mint of Comedy and Many Good Features.

The new week-end bill at the Opera House is one of the best booked for some time. The acts were all well received last evening and it was evident that the large number of patrons present at the two performances thoroughly enjoyed the variety of talent participating.

One of the feature acts on the new programme was that of the Three Hoy Sisters, who formerly were one of the big attractions on Broadway. They are three diminutive girls, who appear in a quaint offering entitled "Sweetness."

They sing and dance well and give a highly entertaining performance. Their costuming is dainty and, combined with their stage appearance, makes them very popular.

Charles Sweet scored a decided hit in his comedy musical monologue "The Musical Burglar." His years of experience on the stage are apparent by the manner in which he presents his highly amusing and entertaining offering and he evoked rounds of appreciative applause.

Ross and Ashton, in a comedy singing skit "The Hold-Up" have an amusing offering with a touch of pathos. The act is well presented and both merited the rounds of applause that greeted their efforts.

Their singing was also good and was one of the features of their offering. Bernice Howard and Jack White scored a hit in an original comedy "The Gadabouts."

The scene depicted a man and wife who spent their evenings playing poker and dancing and the methods used to avoid detection. The comedy is well brought out and their antics are highly amusing.

Their concluding scene brings out the truth that they are drifting apart and their decision to start over again.

Billy Rogers gave one of the best imitations of various instruments, automobiles, engine, etc., ever heard on a local stage. His mimicry of a banjo, Hawaiian guitar and cornet were exceptional good.

In addition to this varied and pleasing programme of vaudeville attractions there are another episode of the serial "Bride 13" which was even more thrilling than the preceding episode. This bill will be repeated tonight and again on Monday afternoon and evening.

Commenting on the fact that Mr. Esmond is supposed to have pledged himself not to address any public meetings in his passage through Canada, the Sun states that its representatives gained admittance to the meeting, which had not been announced, and heard the anti-British speech of the young Irishman.

Esmond was given the right to land in Canada only in order that he might proceed to England at once. He had been previously refused entry to Australia and other British countries in the Pacific. Esmond is quoted by the Sun as accusing the "drunken gang" of Ireland and the "murderous gang" of the British government with particular reference to Sir Hamar Greenwood, as being responsible for Ireland's trouble.

"The Lass of Limerick Town," a musical Irish Opera, will be presented in St. Peter's Hall, Elm street, next Monday and Tuesday evenings by St. Patrick's Dramatic Club. The cast scored a distinct success in a recent presentation and are sparing no effort in an attempt to make it a greater success.

MILLIONS OF DOLLARS WORTH OUT OF MONTREAL

That thirty-four millions dollars' worth of intoxicating liquor was shipped out of the Quebec province—mostly from Montreal—to the other Canadian provinces during seven months, and that thirty-four million dollars' worth is exclusive of illicit sales to bootleggers and shipments destined for smuggling purposes, is one of the startling features brought to light by Charles Christopher Jenkins in an article, "J. Barleycorn and J. Canuck" appearing in the April 1 number of McLean's Magazine.

McLean's of April 1 abounds in illuminating articles on Canadian political circles. J. K. Munro, is back on the job, this time with "Carrying On by Marking Time." Geoffrey Grey, a Canadian song maker, tells how he made his start and other authors whose names appear with stories and articles are Alan Sullivan, Agnes C. Lunt, Frank L. Packard, Arthur Heming, W. Merriman Rouse, Fred V. Seiber, D. L. S. and Ethel M. Chapman.

RAISING THE BRIDGE

The plea that the new railroad bridge at the falls cannot be raised with safety to the height of the highway bridge below it does not impress Mr. Monsarrat, consulting engineer of the public works department at Ottawa. He writes to a St. John shipping man—

"For your information I would say that I have made no report to the Hon. Mr. Carvell nor have I said that it would be unsafe to raise the pier of the C. P. R. bridge at St. John, but on the contrary have reported that there are no engineering reasons why the bridge should not be raised if necessary."

It is admitted that the grade offers no obstacle to raising the bridge, and Mr. Monsarrat agrees with Mr. R. H. Gushing that there are no engineering reasons why the bridge should not be raised. That should settle the matter. It is only necessary now to convince the latter of public works that the interests of navigation at St. John demand the raising of the bridge.

It has taken much effort on the part of a few persons and a long time to get the facts in regard to this matter brought out clearly. Now that it is made clear that the bridge can be raised with safety and without increasing the grade, the citizens should press the matter at Ottawa with such vigor as to get the desired result. The City Council, Board of Trade, Commercial Club and Retail Merchants' Association should make their efforts and do it at once.

JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOLS. President Stanley, of the Alberta Educational Association, declares that there is need of decentralization of our educational institutions for the benefit of the great majority of students who cannot take a university course. He contends that we must spread our high schools, and put them within the reach of all. The system must be suited to the needs, instead of subordinating the needs to a system.

In the United States the junior high school is accepted as a means of doing much that President Stanley of Alberta would have done. It provides a bridge between the elementary school and the senior high school and replaces the eight-grade elementary and four-grade high school system with one that gives six years for elementary, three years for junior and three for senior high school. The subject is discussed in a very interesting way by the New York Evening Post, which says:

"Progress of the junior high school movement in the United States is one of the miracles of recent educational development. Advocated in principle more than thirty years ago by President Eliot of Harvard as part of his programme of educational reform, and urged by many educators after him, the idea was at first slow in taking hold in actual practice. It was not until about 1910 that city school systems in any number actually began to reconstruct their educational organization on the basis of what Commissioner Claxton and others called the 'six-six' plan—six years of elementary school and six years of high school—two of its most usual forms, the 'six-three-three' plan, the secondary period involving a junior and senior high school, each of three years. In 1914 Prof. Thomas H. Briggs of Teachers' College, Columbia University, found 107 cities that claimed to have junior high schools, but he accepted only fifty-seven as qualifying under his definition, that a junior high school was 'an organization of grades seven and eight or seven and nine, to provide by various means for individual differences, especially by an introduction of pre-vocational work and subjects usually taught in the high school.' In 1917 Prof. Briggs reported 377 junior high schools, and recent estimates put the number at over a thousand with enrollments totalling several hundred thousand."

This is a remarkable record of growth. It was argued in support of the new system that it meant economy of time, but later, "more fundamental arguments were developed, based on careful study of the illogical distribution of grades and the relation of education to the needs of all the people." The Post goes on:—"The amazing pupil mortality revealed by the investigations of Thorndike, Ayres, and others came to be regarded as an indictment of the eight-four system and the rigid programme of studies that seemed to go with it. Numerous inquiries into the problem of school leaving and employment between 1910 and 1916 showed that much of the loss of pupils at the sixth grade was due not to economic pressure, as is usually assumed, but to dissatisfaction with the offerings of the traditional eight-grade school. It was felt that the eleven-year system actually encouraged early school leaving. Not only was the break between the old elementary school and the high school unnecessarily abrupt, as it came at the wrong time. The junior high school, by taking boys and girls two years earlier, would, it was believed, largely do away with this break; it would make it possible to provide different types of courses to suit the varying needs of adolescent youth; it would tend to tide over the old organization the chance of carrying them forward into more advanced high school work. Thus Berkeley, Cal., where one of the first junior high school organizations was effected, was able to show that after the new type of school was established, 94.73 per cent. of the pupils completing the eighth grade went on to the ninth and 95.29 per cent. of those completing the ninth grade continued on into the tenth, whereas under the old organization the city had eight-grade classes in which as few as forty-one per cent. entered high school."

It is asserted that American educational opinion has decided definitely against the eight-four organization and in favor of the six-six plan. The new plan has been made part of the official programme of the United States Bureau of Education and most of the state departments. Indeed the Evening Post says that there is "some danger that the movement may be too rapid; that the mere form of the junior high school may be adopted without the fundamental modification of methods and subject matter that alone can make the new organization permanently worth while."

It is worth while for Canadian educational authorities to look into this matter, and consider the merits of the new system, with a view to its possible application to conditions in this country. Mr. Peck of Albert was able to say in the legislature this week that there seemed less of the fighting spirit and a greater friendliness among the members than prevailed in the former house. The joint action of the members in paying a tribute to the veteran Mr. Pinder on his birthday confirmed the statement of Mr. Peck. The brief debate on the address and the brevity also indicated that the house desires to expedite business. Mr. Baxter's leadership of the opposition in this respect has had a good effect. There is every prospect that the business of the session will be concluded without waste of time in the sort of discussion that adds nothing to the dignity or the usefulness of the house.

The Commercial Club desires to create a deeper interest in civic affairs. To that end it will have at its next meeting a discussion on the question whether the commission form of government as applied to St. John has been a success. Some citizens say it has, and some are of the contrary opinion. An open discussion should have the effect of awakening a more general interest in the whole subject.

A crisis has been reached in the matter of the Grand Trunk Railway, and it is announced that interesting developments may be expected in the next few weeks. The Grand Trunk Company and the Meighen government have come to a point where the latter must take a definite stand, and the premier is said to be strongly opposed to any further concessions to the company.

Ireland has a new lord-lieutenant. Attention is now centred chiefly upon the question of the coming Irish parliament, under the home rule act. The record of casualties shows that a practical state of war exists in some sections of the country.

It is declared in official circles in Washington that the United States agrees with her allies that Germany must pay her obligations to the full extent of her ability. This will be sad news for Berlin.

The rule of the road should be changed in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia, to correspond with that in Maine and Quebec. It would involve no great hardship on anyone.

Winnipeg, April 2.—Word reached this city last night from Toronto that a New York syndicate, headed by Col. W. B. Thompson, holding an option on the Elia Plan mining property in the Pas district of Manitoba, had allowed it to lapse. The low price of copper and the financial situation generally were given as the reason.

B. C. LIQUOR ACT. Victoria, B. C., April 2.—The new provincial liquor act will come into effect May 1, so it is expected by government officials. A. M. Johnson, deputy attorney-general, and J. H. Falconer of Vancouver are spoken of as probable commissioners. It is said the third will be a returned soldier.

THE AIM OF LIFE. (By Archibald Lampman.) There is a beauty at the goal of life, A beauty growing since the world began, Through every age and race, through hope and strife, Till the great human soul complete her span. Beneath the waves of storm that lash and burn, The currents of blind passion that appeal, To listen and keep watch till we discern The tide of sovereign truth that guides it all; So to address our spirits to the height And so attune them to the valiant light. That the great light be clearer for our light, And the great soul the stronger for our soul; To have done this is to have lived through fame, Remember us with no familiar name.

LIGHTER VEIN. A Minor Role. It is certainly unusual to find an actor as modest as the one who inserted the following advertisement in one of the London papers: "Engagement Wanted—Small part, such as dead body or outside shouts."—Windsor Magazine, London.

Nearly Caught. (London Tit-Bits.) A negro was brought before a justice of the peace. He was suspected of stealing. There were no witnesses, but appearances were against him. The following dialogue took place: "You've stolen no chickens?" "No, sah." "Have you stolen any geese?" "No, sah." "Any turkeys?" "No, sah." "The man was discharged. As he stepped out the dock he stopped before the justice and said, with a broad grin, "Squire, if you'd said ducks 'ould 'ad me!"

In Dispute. (London Tit-Bits.) "Who discovered America?" asked the teacher. Jack looked panic stricken and made no reply. "Please ask me something else, miss," he said after a while. "Why should I do that?" asked the teacher. "Well," said Jack, "the fellows were talking about it yesterday. Pat said an Irishman discovered it. David said it was a Welshman, and Andrew said it was a Scotchman. And if you'd seen what happened to them you wouldn't ask a little fellow like me."

Good Target. (London Tit-Bits.) A minister spoke very strongly against betting. One of the wealthiest members of the congregation was a great gambler, and some one told the preacher about this. After the service he went up to the gambler and said: "I'm afraid I must have offended you today, but—" "Oh, don't mention it," was the reply. "It's a mighty poor sermon that doesn't hit me somewhere."

Old Enough. A quiet, patient man had been pushed about and trodden on by the other passengers in a crowded tramway car. For a long time he suffered in silence. At last, however, in a meek voice, he addressed an awkward youth standing next to him. "Young man," he said, "I hope you will not think me rude, but may I ask your age?" "The youth stared at him for a moment and then replied: "I'm eighteen, sir."

(Halifax Chronicle.) For the last week or two there have been reports of worthless checks being "worked" on city retail stores, being accepted in payment for articles bought and the balance handed over in cash. For instance, for wearing apparel to the value of $10 a check for double the amount would be accepted and the $10 in cash handed to the buyer. Checks bore the signatures of Ungar's Laundry, Globe Laundry and other concerns and a remarkable feature of them was the fact that the figure 8 appeared in the amount of each check. The amounts of different checks reported were $20, $18, $5, $20 and $28.

In fact it was that figure that helped Detective Reyno to land on Tuesday night a girl of eighteen, suspected of the whole business. He had warned storekeepers against checks for amounts in which the figure 8 appeared, and the result was that last night when a check bearing the fatal 8 was tendered at Myers' store, Gortingen street, the detective soon received word and then followed the crest of the young woman, whose home, a very respectable one, is in another part of the province. She was a stenographer out of work and her funds drove her to the forged check game.

The girl was arraigned before Deputy Stipendiary Magistrate yesterday and remanded for a week. She is a girl who has borne a perfect reputation morally and this check business was a big surprise to her friends. The girl practically admitted guilt as to the checks on which she was charged.

Mystery surrounds the burning of a small hotel owned by John McKay at Clyde River, N. S., recently. No trace has been found of Leonard McKay, son of the proprietor, and Eva Crowell, a domestic employed there. So far as is known neither were seen after the fire broke out. The bodies have not been found but two or three small bones were picked up in the vicinity of where Leonard McKay's room was.

Gary, Ind., April 2.—Leonard Conditine, fifteen years of age, woke at the Mercy Hospital in Gary and smiled across the hallway at his eleven-year-old sister, Mary Katherine, who also lay weakly smiling in the cot she has occupied for the past six weeks. G. I. T. GIRLS
HAVE JOLLY TIME

A contest for original banners and original group songs was the chief feature of the annual rally of the G. I. T. girls at the Y. W. C. A. recreational center last night. Almost all of the forty G. I. T. groups in the city were represented in the large gathering and seventeen churches took part in the competition. The Patriotic Methodist group led in the two first competitions and was awarded the cup for one month.

Mrs. J. D. Hunter, the retiring president of the co-operative committee on girls' work, welcomed the gathering and introduced Miss Katherine Amos, the new president of the co-operative committee.

The banners were judged by Miss

by Miss Olive Zeigler, of Toronto, gen-

Methodist denomination and by Miss L.

AR CROP IN CUBA
MILLION TONS SHORT

There is No Reason for Any Advance in Price, Says Head of Caribbean Company.

(New York Times.)
Although the Cuban sugar crop is illegal to be a million tons below the estimate for this year, there is no reason for any advance in price here in the opinion of Henry De Ford, president of the Caribbean Sugar Company, who returned yesterday from an inspection trip in Cuba. He was a passenger on the West-star of the Munson Lines, which carried fifty cabin passengers.

"The cost of labor has gone down on $3 and $4 to $2.50 a day in the sugar industry in Cuba," Mr. De Ford said. "I was surprised at the thousands of acres of uncultivated sugar cane which because the season is now late, cannot be sown in this year's crop. The lack of money to finance the cutting, and the recent rains are given as reasons why so much cane remains standing in the fields."

"On this basis, I believe the crop will be a million tons short of export tonnage, which placed it at 4,000,000 tons, and despite this, there should be no higher price. The existing price is sufficient to guarantee the growers a return on their investment, especially if the sugar plantations are in the newer and richer territory of Eastern Cuba. The growers are located, where the older tracts are located, will suffer by comparison, their plantations are less fertile," Hubert Edson, a director of the West-star Finance Corporation, returned on a trip to San Domingo and Cuba.

John A. Jacobs, who "commutes" to St. John, finished his 100th trip on a Munson Line steamer. Other passengers on a Munson were Bradley W. Palmer, lecturer M. Cutler, Gervasio Casas, a merchant of Santiago, and Luis Berges color of Porto Rico.

At a meeting of the vocational committee, yesterday, arrangements were made for a closing exhibit of the work of the scholars of the vocational classes.
Mrs. Milligan reported for the household committee, and the director, W. C.
Lawson, told of the work since the opening on February 28. The matter of invitations and arranging for the exhibit was discussed with the director. A letter from Elmer F. Morrell requested that the exhibit be held in the Y. M. C. A. hall increased to $8. Dr. Emery presided.

Plans for the annual meeting were made by the St. John branch and the Union of the King's Daughters at its meeting in the Guild yesterday afternoon.
Mrs. C. A. Clark, the president, was in the chair. All reports submitted were very satisfactory. Mrs. R. A. Sinclair and Mrs. Edith Stevens conducted the devotional exercises. The hospital committee report showed that the visiting had been done by the comfort circle members. The King's Daughters are to have charge of Queens ward for Rosebud Day and Mrs. S. K. Smith is to be the convenor for the day. Details in connection with the tagging were arranged at the meeting yesterday.

The St. John High School Alumnae's recent tea was shown in the results to have made a record of financial success.
At a meeting of the executive of the alumnae held last night at the residence of the president, Miss Grace Campbell, 44 Haven street, it was announced that the proceeds of the tea, when all expenses were paid amounted to $290. The scholarship fund reports were also encouraging. The fund was said to have climbed up to within $175 of its objective, $3,000. Arrangements were made for the April meeting when the subject of the programme is to be John Drinkwater and Miss Jessie Lawson is to have charge.

An "at home" was held in the Masonic Hall last evening, under the auspices of the Carleton Tower Lodge, No. 48, K. of P. The occasion was the observance of its first anniversary, and it is hoped the event will be repeated each year.
During the supper interval, a short programme was carried out, and A. C.
Smith, D. Allen, S. Stout, M. Stout, E.
C. Girvan and Mrs. Murray Long took part. The following composed the committee in charge: Frank Gardiner,

RECENT DEATHS

St. George, April 1—Mrs. McAdam, widow of David McAdam, died yesterday morning after an illness dating from a fall on the ice several weeks ago. Mrs.
McAdam was born in Pennfield and has lived more than seventy years in this vicinity, coming with her husband to St.
George more than thirty years ago. She was well and active until the two paralytic attacks which resulted in her death.
Two sons, T. S. McAdam, of St. George, and William of St. John, and a daughter, Mrs. Fred Greason, of Bane (Vt.), are left of a large family to mourn. Mrs. Greason was with her mother during her last illness. The burial will take place tomorrow with interment in the rural cemetery.

The many friends of Mrs. Frederick Rous, of Toronto, formerly Miss Hilda Harrington, of this city, will deeply regret to learn of the death of her husband, on Thursday evening, at the early age of thirty-nine years. Mr. Rous served overseas in the 4th Battalion, C. M. R., and received the Military Cross for valorous service. He was wounded at the second battle of Amiens, and the bullet wound then received resulted in serious trouble, which has ended fatally.
There are four small children.

Abram E. Kipley died at the Fraser
Memorial hospital, after a lingering illness, at the age of sixty-five years. He is a native of Kingston, Kings county, and leaves one son, one daughter and one brother.

LIQUOR CASES

In the police court, yesterday afternoon, a case against Charles Duffy was resumed and Inspector Evans gave evidence. The case was postponed until Monday. A. Dougherty and Joseph Doody, charged with selling beer stronger than the law allows, were fined $200 each. Hyman Taxar was also found guilty, but the case was postponed to decide whether the accused would be fined the maximum penalty or the minimum one. The case against George Langan, vice-president George T. Polly, secretary-treasurer; John Thornton, J. W.
Vanwart and A. W. Estey, directors.

queen learnt that the little maid is work-

MINNEDOSA PARTY
FAREWELL CONCERT

A farewell concert was given last evening in the armory by the Minnedosa concert party under the auspices of the St. John garrison and under the patronage of Brig-General A. H. MacDonnell, C. M. G., D. S. O., and Commander G.
S. Webster, R. D. B. N. B., commanding the R. M. S. Minnedosa. Owing to the absence of both the patronus, caused by necessary duties calling them elsewhere, the entertainment was under the joint chairmanship of R. O. Jones, O. B.
E., and R. Q. M. S. Bentley, D. C. M.

The concert was given in the main drill hall of the armory and there were nearly 1,000 persons present. The concert was one of the best that has been put on by this clever troupe during the season. A certain proportion of the proceeds are for a fund to supply cigarettes and such little gifts for the patients in the D. S. C. R. and St. John County hospitals and the remainder is to be used in connection with the promotion of sport among the garrison units.

The programme consisted of selections from the jazz band, and those taking part were: C. Casper, L. Nolan, W. S.
Owen, J. Walker, F. Boden, J. Jones,
"Billy" Rogers, E. Travis, J. Jones, H.
Collins, F. Laing, W. Haines and A. E.
Daniels. The band conductor was T.
Mason and the accompanist W. Haines.

ing very well, and that another juvenile out-of-work is also to go into service in the first household in the land very shortly.

The women the queen saw at the Exchange on that occasion were "dilly" domestic workers, including waitresses and scrubbers. Dressmakers, typists, clerks and so on, it was explained, are dealt with on their special days. Many of them were married women, who are obliged to take their babies with them to the Exchange, as everywhere else their search for work takes them.

One little toddler, attracted by the queen's kindly face, broke away from his mother, and before anyone could interfere, ran to the queen and stopped her progress for the moment.

The queen lifted the little one up in her arms, commented on his chubbiness, and returned him to his mother with a smile.

The queen thought that many of the children, who, technically, are "out-of-work," looked very young. She was interested in learning from the children what their ambitions and plans are.
"What do you want to be?" she asked one boy.

"I should like to be an electrical engineer," was the shy reply, and the queen immediately asked what could be done to help the boy to fulfil his dream.

SCIENTISTS GET SECRET OF STRONG ALUMINUM

Philadelphia, April 2—Scientists in a Pittsburgh steel mill have discovered a formula, long sought by British and United States naval authorities, which the Germans used in the construction of the framework of Zeppelin dirigibles, according to an announcement from the Philadelphia navy yard. Hitherto, it was said at the navy yard nothing has been known of the composition of the aluminum alloy used in the framework of Zeppelins, save that it was lighter than steel, and of a great tensile strength.

MRS. THAW REFUNDS
INCREASES IN RENTS

Provides That Miners Shall Have Homes
Free While Out of Work.

Pittsburgh, April 1.—The crusade of this city against profiteering landlords brought to light today the fact that Mrs.
William Thaw, mother of Harry Thaw, notorious for the shooting of Stanford White, has not only refused to permit her agents to increase the rents on her properties, but she has forced the return of increased rentals to tenants imposed by an agent who acted without her consent or authority.

Following this action Mrs. Thaw instructed her agents in the Mount Pleasant district of the "Connellsville region," that her mining tenants were to be charged only $8 a month rent for their houses and $1 for coal, and that when the mines were shut down because of insufficiency of coal, the district depression these miners were to be given fuel and rent free.

A Word of Appreciation Too Often Kept Back Until It is Too Late

(By W. H. Sharpe.) The raising of Lazarus caused such excitement that Jesus retired for a while with his disciples. He went into the mountainous district north of Jerusalem...

It seems to me it would be a good thing if we could die sometimes and then come back in a few days and see the flowers on our coffins and read what our friends and neighbors say about us.

The other day I was reading of a minister who preached at the funeral of two soldiers in the late war, apposing them to be dead, but they both returned alive.

JUDGE RUSSELL
ON THE LEAGUE

He Still Has Hope That the United States Will Associate Herself With It.

Mr. Justice Russell spoke on "The League of Nations" at the Y. M. C. A. assembly hall, Halifax, last week. He stated that the League of Nations is the only great organization ever formed to prevent war, and that its ultimate success depends upon the developments now about to take place in the United States. He said that the League of Nations, which had its birth in the brain and of a small select group of thinkers to meet together not many months after the outbreak of the European war, is the only great organization ever formed to prevent war, and that its ultimate success depends upon the developments now about to take place in the United States.

Cabot Lodge for the formation of some kind of a league, which is in striking contrast to the part he subsequently took in the senatorial debate. He then spoke of the great work of Theodore Roosevelt whose plan, said Judge Russell, was that all the civilized powers which were able and willing to use force, when force was required to back up righteousness, should join to create an international tribunal, and to provide rules in accordance with which the tribunal should act. Under these conditions, to make matters concrete, Belgium would be safe from any such attack as that made by Germany, and Germany would be relieved from the haunting fear lest the Russians and the French, backed up by other nations, should smash the Empire and its peoples.

Borden's ST. CHARLES EVAPORATED MILK
The milk that is always ready for your every cooking need.
With the cream left in.

"But History, unless she is a liar, will be bound to mention failures as well as successes. How comes it that while the League of Nations is actually established under the covenant embodied in the Versailles Treaty is actually functioning with forty-seven nation members and 75 per cent. of the world's population, that the United States seems content to find itself in the outer darkness in the company of such detestable companions as Germany, the road-hog of Europe; Mexico, the scandal and shame of the western hemisphere; and Soviet Russia, the visible realization of Dante's terrible vision of Inferno? It is a sad and pitiable tragedy, at whose door must be laid the blame? President Wilson was surely justified in representing his people to the peace conference at Paris as overwhelmingly favorable to the project. If it had not been for his clear vision and indomitable will in keeping the question in the centre of the stage, the League would never have been even the maimed and defective reality that it is. It may well be hoped that when the storm of contemporary passions and the clouds of partisan prejudice have been cleared away, that Wilson will shine out on the page of history as one of the greatest benefactors of the human race. Hope For the Future.

"What may we hope for the future of the prospect of the league in the years that are before us? The hasty expression of President Harding that the result of the election must be that the League of Nations must be scrapped, was not creditable to his good name, nor consistent with his utterances during the election campaign. In his speech of August 18th, in which he is said to have reached the high-water mark of his campaign, he distinctly held out to the friends of the league the hope of a final adjustment based upon an amendment of the Versailles covenant. All through the election Mr. Harding conceded, or rather he insisted upon the necessity of an association of nations to secure the peace of the world—that the United States must before many moons associate themselves with the 47 nations now grouped in the present league.

Omen of Good Cheer.
"It is an omen of good cheer that the new Secretary of State of the Harding form of resolution to be adopted by the administration, in outlining a desirable course of the United States, by which in his judgment the covenant could safely be adopted, not one of these proposed reservations is of the least consequence with the exception of the one regarding Article X; and as to that article Mr. Hughes does not go so far in the direction of elimination as our own Minister of Justice and Mr. Balfour. Now Mr. Hughes is not a man to be lightly moved from his moorings, and he is the one man of the cabinet to whom the president has given a free hand in the administration of his department. I have faith in his political wisdom and his good will, and I conclude that under his leadership that the good work so auspiciously begun by Mr. Wilson in Paris, will be crowned and consummated by Mr. Hughes in America. "May we not cherish the hope that before the next assembly of the league, the good sense and the good will of the United States will lead her to associate herself with it. What's in a name? A rose by any other name will be just as sweet. Call the aggregation of states thus to be brought about an Association

WIN This 1921 Model Car!
HERE are four riddles for boys and girls with wise heads. We told the artist to draw the pictures to represent the riddles, but he guessed the right answers—and put them in too! So we barred him from the contest and told him to keep it a secret. Luckily, he got the answers all jumbled up, so you won't be any the wiser.
If you can unscramble the jumbled letters beneath each riddle picture and put them in their right order to spell the right words, you will have the right answers. It isn't an easy task. Good thinking, patience and perseverance may find you the answers. Try it.
If you think you have found the answers, write them carefully on a sheet of white paper. Put on nothing but your four answers and your name and address in the upper right-hand corner of the paper. Handwriting, spelling, punctuation and general neatness will count if more than one answer is correct.
We will write and tell you immediately if you are correct and send you a handsome illustration of all the prizes that you can win.

Short By United States intervention During Costa Rican Attack — President Thinks Country Should Stand Alone.

Panama, March 12—(Associated Press, Mail)—The hostilities with Costa Rica over disputed border territory, which began last month and evoked an ultimatum from the United States government, broke just at the right moment for the administration of President Porras to attempt to utilize in its campaign to assure the Panamanian republic the right to conduct its affairs without foreign interference. National spirit has been developing in Panama since November 8, 1903, when the fifth and last time, Panama declared her independence. It was hardly explicable during the first decade of the republic's existence, but in his New Year's message of January 1, 1921, President Porras gave utterance to the belief in his administration that the time was ripe for Panama to stand alone.

Protests to the State Department at Washington over the taking over of land by the American government for canal purposes was the first step in the independence program. The Porras administration asserted that the occupation territory under the Hay-Varela treaty would be consumed through regular automatic channels and that, if the United States government continued its policy to its logical conclusion, it would swallow the entire republic without pausing to notify the victim.

These protests, aimed at the utilization of rights on Taboga Island, on the Pacific, and on the Bahía de las Minas, Caribbean shore, were almost simultaneous with a protest against a writ of habeas corpus issued by Judge John W. Hanan, United States district court of the Panama Zone, in which the court stated that the United States had occupied the position of a protector of the United States. President Porras declared that he counted upon the support of Latin-American republics in his protest.

The next incident upon which the Porras administration took a decided stand was during the last week in February, when the President, in an interview given to the Associated Press, announced that he had decided to name a Panamanian to succeed Addison T. Ruan, American, as special agent. During the incumbency of Ruan the republic had piled up a surplus of $2,500,000, which the administration intended to utilize in an extensive building program. In this connection the president said:

"The American Minister, William Jennings Bruce, is opposed to the appointment of a Panamanian citizen, claiming we must appoint a candidate selected by the American government. This position seems to be connected with the mission of the International Banking Corporation as a subsidiary of the government's funds and receipts, which I have decided not to renew because we have a national bank manager today by a very efficient manager and which is in a prosperous condition." Immediately after this interview, it was announced that the government had awarded road building contracts to two companies, one North American and the other Panamanian, in a program involving the expenditure of about $7,000,000. Even while the president and the American minister were conferring over the affair of the fiscal agent, Costa Rican forces, on February 31, occupied the small town of Costa, on Golfo Dulce, the most extreme Pacific side frontier point of Panama. Without following the 18-year old custom of advising the United States authorities, the president dispatched a force of national police from Panama to dislodge the alleged invaders. In official American quarters here it was noted that Panama's determination to live her own life manifested itself at a time when the national administration at Washington was changing and that it was marked by the failure to advise American representatives of the steps taken to preserve Panama's territorial integrity, even though the United States guaranteed this integrity in the canal treaty.

Despite efforts to keep the expedition secret, the American authorities learned of the movements of the two Central American governments promptly and in advance of most of the residents and in Panama. The prompt dispatch of American warships to Bocas del Toro and the note sent to Panama and Costa Rica by Secretary of State Hughes on March 8 calling a halt in the hostilities came as a shock to plans of the Panama adminis-

DEVELOPMENT OF ELECTRIC POWER AT MUSQUASH

Report of Power Commission Shows Progress Made Toward the Production of Electricity

SALIENT FEATURES OF THE PROPOSITION

Expenditure to Date Has Been $79,552.79—Power For the North Shore Being Arranged For—Private Hydro Projects.

Fredericton, N.B., April 1.—The progress report of the New Brunswick Electric Power Commission was placed before the legislature this afternoon. The formation of the commission is reviewed in detail. Continuing the report deals with the Musquash development as follows: First this report was submitted to Henry Holgate, consulting engineer of the commission, and received his approval. About the time Mr. Holgate found that his rapidly increasing interests made it quite impossible for him to attend to the details of designing the hydraulic and electric equipment, so on his recommendation Messrs. C. H. & P. H. Mitchell of Toronto, were engaged. They too, fully approved of the feasibility and desirability of developing the Musquash first.

Bowel regularity is the secret of good health. Without forcing or irritating, Nujol softens the food waste. The many tiny muscles in the intestines can then re-move irregularly. Absolutely harmless—try it.

CHAMBERLAIN'S Old Age and Happiness

Old age should mean experience, knowledge and wisdom. Not poor digestion, sluggish liver and a general feeling of ill-health, despondency and misery. One of Chamberlain's Tablets taken immediately after supper will improve the digestion, tone up the liver and regulate the bowels. That feeling of despondency will give way to one of hope and good cheer. Try Chamberlain's Tablets. You'll like them. Tablets 25c.

TRENCH ITCH

TO BE DYSPEPTIC IS TO BE MISERABLE

The poor dyspeptic suffers untold agony and misery and any one who has dyspepsia knows what joy it would give to eat three square meals a day and not be punished for it after. Nothing enters the stomach and even the little that is eaten causes such torture and is digested so imperfectly that it does little good. Before you can eat heartily, and not pick and choose your food, you must put your stomach into such a condition that it will manufacture its own digestive ferments. For over forty years Burdock Blood Bitters has been toning up and restoring weak stomachs to a normal healthy condition so that the food no longer causes distress, but is thoroughly digested and assimilated, and enables one to partake of all the wholesome food required without fear of any unpleasant after-effects. Mrs. Alice Bodenroth, Ottawa, Ontario, writes: "I have been a great sufferer from indigestion and dyspepsia for several years. I could not eat anything, and was almost dying from the pain in the pit of my stomach. Seeing Burdock Blood Bitters highly recommended I tried a bottle, and can gladly say it relieved me. I can eat anything now, and am in perfect health." B. B. B. is manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co. Limited, Toronto, Ont.

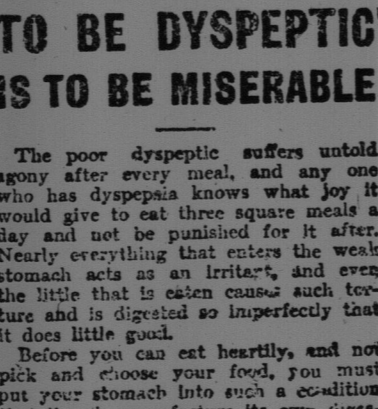

TO BE DYSPEPTIC IS TO BE MISERABLE

Early in January S. R. Westcott, the resident chief engineer of the commission, made a careful examination of the country bordering the West Branch above Log Falls, and found that a sufficient quantity of yellow birch of excellent quality located on crown land could be obtained within one and one-half miles from the site to construct the required dam, and an agreement was made with the New Brunswick Contracting Co. to proceed at once with the work on which the dam is to be built. Upon examination of the country bordering the East Branch it was found that there is no timber on which to build the necessary dams at the outlet of Loch Alva, so the necessary timber, about 400,000 feet, will have to be hauled in from the mainland about five miles. On Jan. 17, 1921, the commission took tenders for supplying the timber and received the following tenders:

Table with 2 columns: Name, Amount. Includes J. P. Mosher, Joseph Roderick, Fred Cameron, Haley Bros.

The commission also took tenders on Jan. 24, 1921, for the construction of the dams based on alternative propositions: (1) The contractor to take the timber furnished by the commission at the mill and haul it to the sites, provide all the fastenings and erect the dams; or (2) The contractor to furnish all the material and haul it to the sites and erect the dams. Only one tender was received in the requirements set out in the call, that of the New Brunswick Contracting Co. as follows: (1) To haul from Musquash and erect only timber to be supplied by the commission. (a) Under conditions permitting a snow road $45.50 per f. b. m. (b) Under conditions requiring a wagon road $50.50 per f. b. m. (2) To supply all timber and materials required for the erection of the dams, including the material for the structures in accordance with plans and specifications to be furnished by the commission. (a) Providing that conditions permit of the development of a winter road $60.50 per f. b. m. (b) Under conditions requiring the development of a wagon road $65.50 per f. b. m. The lieutenant-governor-in-council was asked to approve of the acceptance of the latter figures, as the cost to the commission will be less than if they supplied the timber and paid for the erection of the dams. The price quoted, this having been done a formal contract was signed with the New Brunswick Contracting Co. for these dams. During the construction of the dams the commission will build other storage dams on both branches of the Musquash. As there may be some criticism of the policy of building timber storage dams rather than permanent earth and concrete, it may be well to give the reasons which have determined the use of timber. In the case of the main power dams the cost of necessity be built of permanent material as they must hold water to their tops to provide the head, so that there will be no opportunity of repairing or renewing them, but in the case of the smaller storage dams they will be practically empty near the end of each water period, thus making it easy to repair or renew the tops of the dams as they decay, and as the cost of constructing timber dams will be less than that of earth and concrete, and the latter material is so scarce and expensive, these dams in a self-evident manner are economically to use timber. The commission estimates that the price to be generated at the Musquash will take care of the present requirement of St. John, but to meet any considerable additional requirement it will be necessary to begin the development of the Lepreau, a condition that is sure to occur in the near future.

Various Contracts. Up to date the commission has, with the approval of the executive council, let the following contracts: To the New Brunswick Contracting and Building Company—Contract which covers the construction of power dam on N. E. Branch; pipe line grade on N. E. Branch. Storage dam on West Branch; two small side dams on West Branch; canal and pipe line grade on West Branch. To the S. Morgan Smith Company—Three turbines and all their connections and equipment. To the Canadian General Electric Company—Three generators and equipment. To the Pacific Pipe Company, Limited—7,420 feet of 8 foot inside diameter wood stave pipe. To the Pacific Pipe Company—100 feet inside diameter wood stave pipe. There remains to be contracted for: The power house and switching apparatus; the substitution and its equipment; two surge tanks which protect the pipes against damage in case the turbines are suddenly stopped; the transmission line. North Shore Power. The commission is negotiating with the Bathurst Lumber and Pulp Company with a view to obtaining power from them to supply Newcastle, Chatham and other points. The same will be replaced by development of the Tetagouche, when

What One of the Best Known Traversers in Canada Says.

"Now I am going to give you an unqualified testimonial, as they say in the patent medicine advertising. Heretofore I have had a profound contempt for patent medicines, particularly so-called liniments. Perhaps this is due to the reason that I have been blessed with a sturdy constitution, and have never been after a hard day's tramp in the slash of 4,500 h. p. each with provision for a third, in all 13,500 h. p. Frasers, Limited, Montreal, I developed a severe pain in my legs and of course like a man who has never had anything wrong with him physically, I complained rather boisterously. The good little wife says: 'I will try them with some liniment I have.' 'Go ahead,' I said, just to humor her. 'Well, in the middle with a bottle of MILBURN'S HEART & NERVE PILLS. Believe me, the pain disappeared a few minutes after, and you can tell the truth I said so.' (Sgd.) FRANK E. JOHNS, Montreal.

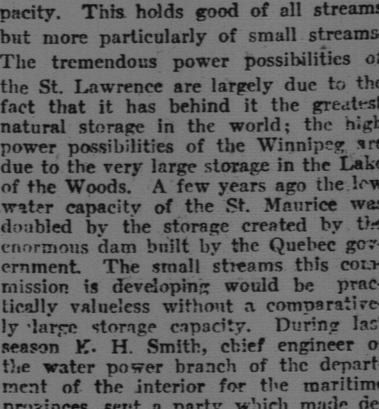

Physician Explains Who Should Take Nuxated Iron

"Lack of iron in the blood not only makes a man a physical and mental weakling, nervous, irritable, easily fatigued, but it utterly robs him of that vital force, that stamina and strength which will when necessary to success and power in every walk of life." Dr. James Francis Sullivan, formerly physician of Bellevue Hospital, (Outdoor Table, New York, and the Westchester County Hospital. "It may also transform a beautiful, sweet-tempered woman into one who is cross, nervous and irritable. I have strongly emphasized the great necessity of physicians making blood examinations of their weak, anemic, run-down patients. Thousands of persons go on year after year suffering from physical weakness and a highly nervous condition due to lack of sufficient iron in their red blood corpuscles without ever realizing the real cause of their trouble. Without iron in your blood your roller merely passes through the body, leaving nothing behind, and old mill with rollers so wide apart that the mill can't grind. 'For want of iron you may be an old man at thirty, dull of intellect, poor in memory, nervous, irritable, and all run down,' while at fifty or sixty with plenty of iron in your blood you may still be young in feeling, full of life, your whole being brimming over with vim and energy. But be sure the iron you take is organic iron—Nuxated Iron—and not metallic iron which people usually take. Organic iron—Nuxated Iron—is like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples, while metallic iron is just as it comes from the action of the strong acids on small pieces of iron filings and is therefore an entirely different thing from Nuxated Iron. Nuxated Iron represents organic iron in such a highly concentrated form that one dose is estimated to be approximately equivalent (in organic iron content) to eating one-half quart of spinach, one quart of green vegetables or half a dozen baked apples. It is like taking extracts of beef instead of eating pounds of meat. Over 4,000,000 people annually are using Nuxated Iron. It quickly helps make rich red blood, revitalizes worn-out exhausted nerves and gives increased strength and energy. Your money will be refunded by the manufacturers if it does not produce satisfactory results. For sale by all druggists.

CURED HIS PILES

Now 83 Years Old but Works at Trade of Blacksmith and Feels Younger Since Piles are Gone. The oldest active blacksmith in Michigan is still pounding his anvil in the town of Homer—thanks to my internal method for treating piles.

Mr. Jacob Lyon, Homer, Mich.

I wish that you could hear him tell of his many experiences with hemorrhoids, piles, dilators, etc. before he tried my method. Here is a letter just received from him: Sir, E. R. Page, Marshall, Mich. Dear Sir: I want you to know what your treatment has done for me. I had suffered with piles for many years and used suppositories and all kinds of treatments, but never got relief until I tried yours. Am now completely cured. Although I am 83 years old, and the oldest active blacksmith in Michigan, I feel younger since the piles have left me. I will surely recommend it to all I know who suffer this way. You can use my letter any way you wish and I hope it will lead others to try this wonderful remedy. Yours truly, J. L. LYON.

THE EVENING TIMES AND STAR, ST. JOHN, N. B., SATURDAY, APRIL 2, 1921

AN ISLAND KINGDOM WITHIN A KINGDOM CALLED OLD LUNDY

Barrier of Granite on West Coast of England, It is a Siren Rock That Has Lured Many Ships to Doom.

"Old Lundy lay some leagues away, Guarding the middle sea; A silver mist his low length kissed, Yet rugged and cold looked he."

A tiny island kingdom, within an island kingdom, rears its shaggy outline on the sea some dozen miles off Hartland Point in Western England, where the Severn estuary indent the rugged coastline. The tiny kingdom is Lundy Island, part of the British Empire, which was purchased late in 1817 by Augustus Langham Christie, a brother-in-law of the Earl of Portsmouth, and the owner of extensive properties in North Devon.

Lundy is just about to receive its first automobile. Its contour is not suited to vehicular travel. But its caretaker grew old, and a special car has been built with gears adapted to the brief mile or so of semi-precipice it will have to negotiate. Also it will carry the infrequent visitors to the famous rock-head whence may be seen one of the wildest seascapes of all that famous rock-spitted coast.

Once the rendezvous of pirates and smugglers and still earlier, the home of the Marisco family, whose activity forms an important chapter in English history, the island still preserves a measure of independence which can be likened only to that of the feudal barons, and makes feet below the summit of the plateau, yawns a smooth abyss, in shape like an inverted wedge, known as the Devil's Line. The bottom is strewn with huge boulders, which are sucked backward and forward by the surge that rushes moaning through a narrow cavern—A Satanic Legend.

There is a local tradition—referred to by Kingsley—that the Shutter once exactly filled the pit, until the devil, perceiving the possibilities for mischief then wasted, plucked it out and set it up in the sea. A swift race pours across a sunken reef between the Shutter and the Black Rock, a low, treacherous crag about 150 yards from the shore. This rock, and not the Shutter, is Kingsley's "huge black fang rising amid a column of salt smoke" on the seaward side of the tide race, and if the place of "Shutter" we understand "Black Rock" the mystery—which has puzzled many—how the armada galleon (in "Westward Ho!") could go ashore between the Shutter and the land is explained. Twice the island has been in the hands of foreigners—once when it was captured by a band of Turkish pirates, who threatened to burn the town of Ilfracombe; and, secondly, in the time of William III., by French privateers, who gained possession by landing a coffin filled with arms and ammunition, on pretence that it contained the body of their captain, whom they were anxious to bury in consecrated ground. Lundy, in 1836, was purchased by the late Mr. Heaven's father, a West Indian planter, who attributed his comparative poverty to the emancipation act and free trade in sugar. Father and son in succession, ruled the island as benevolent autocrats until a year or two ago, when the son died, rich in years and honor. As far as money, good intentions and energy could go, he had made Lundy, in a popular punning phrase, the "kingdom of Heaven," and recent reports indicate the tradition is being upheld.

penetrable fog, its western cliffs exposed to the full fury of the Atlantic breakers—a siren rock that has lured many a good ship to its doom. In shape Lundy is not unlike the leaf of the dandelion. It is about three miles long and a bare mile in breadth at the south shore, tapering to a point at the northern end, and either side of its coast-line is very irregular and indented with numerous coves. The plateau is divided by the quarter, the half-way and the three-quarter walls into four unequal parts; of these only the southern portion is under any sort of cultivation; the remainder, beyond the quarter wall, is all sheep and cattle runs. On the east coast there are some abandoned granite quarries; the difficulties of trans-shipment were so great that it did not pay to work them, though some of the stone is of so close and fine a grain that it was used for the facing of the Thames embankment. The grandest scenery is on the west coast, which is a long succession of rocky promontories, at whose feet, in a westerly breeze, the long Atlantic rollers thunder as they break in clouds of spray. Here is the smooth slope of the Devil's slide, with its fall of some 400 feet to a pool of deep, green water, inclosed in rock, and here is the largest brook on the island. Issuing from a rocky pond at the head of a valley of rocks, it falls from ledge to ledge in tiny cascades of foam until it pours down a precipice almost at the foot of a tall pillar of granite called the Devil's Chimney. Off the next headland the sharp outline of Needle Rock rises against a background of blue sky and green and white sea.

One Landing Place Only.

The only landing place is a small bay with a shingle beach on the southeast side of the island. The cliffs here are of slate, crossed in places by narrow veins of greenstone. At high tide they shelve precipitously to the very water's edge. On your left, as you enter the bay, the tide swirls swiftly around the black rocks at the base of the green-topped South Point; then comes a dip, above which, rising to a height of 300 feet, is the steep cliff of Lundy, with the lighthouse, a sharp ridge of rock joins this to the sheer crag faced with greenstone.

From the summit, 100 feet above the sea level, the dark, grey battlements of Marisco Castle frown on the landing-place at its foot.

DISABLED SURGEON OPERATES ON BRAIN

Left Arm Paralyzed, He Takes Bullet From Head of Sing Sing Prisoner—Eight Physicians Look On

Ossining, April 1.—Dr. William L. Chapman, a noted surgeon, removed a jagged-edged bullet from the brain of Roman Leondowski, a prisoner in Sing Sing, in the hope of restoring his sanity. Dr. Chapman, who lives at 522 Lincoln Place, Brooklyn, was so ill himself that he had to be taken from Warden Lawes' automobile into the prison hospital in a wheel chair. There he was lifted to a stool, from which he performed the delicate operation.

Last November Dr. Chapman suffered a stroke of apoplexy that left him partly paralyzed. He now has but slight use of his left arm and side.

Warden Lawes reported that Leondowski's condition was favorable and surgeons who witnessed the operation believed the patient had a fair chance of recovery. Recovery would mean eventually release from prison.

Eight doctors watched Dr. Chapman perform the operation. The bullet was embedded in the brain two inches below the top of the skull, where it had lodged nearly four years.

A second bullet, embedded at the base of the right ear, in the visual area, was not disturbed, as it was enclosed in tissue, and its removal, it was feared, might leave a scar that would be as disturbing as the bullet.

X-Ray Photos Reveal Bullets.

Before operating, Dr. Chapman studied X-ray photographs showing the location of the bullets. He decided the one in the motor area was causing Leondowski's mental disturbances, consisting of attacks of epilepsy, hallucinations and depression. Doctors believe if Leondowski recovers from the operation his mind again will function as it did before he was shot in Schenectady nearly four years ago.

The operation was performed at Leondowski's request. Before he was taken into the operating room the last rites of the Catholic Church were administered to the prisoner by the Rev. Father William E. Cahin, the prison chaplain. Leondowski's mind was clear for several days prior to the operation.

"I'm willing to take a fighting chance," he said, "for I might as well be dead as to have to go through life this way."

In the operating room Dr. Harold Morris and Dr. K. N. Barnes of the Swedish Hospital, Brooklyn; Dr. John R. Ross, superintendent of Dannemora Hospital; and Dr. Theodore D. Reed, assistant; Dr. W. L. Chapman, Jr., son of the operator; Dr. Amos O. Squire, head physician and psychiatrist of Sing Sing; and Dr. Abraham Kossel, his assistant; Dr. George Simrell of Brooklyn and Joseph Harrison, technician of Dannemora Hospital, were waiting.

Dr. Reed Explains Operation.

When Leondowski had been placed under the influence of an anesthetic, Dr. Chapman made the scalp incision, using only his right hand. Another surgeon then trophined under Dr. Chapman's direction, removing a section from the top of the skull as large as a silver dollar. Then said Dr. Reed, explaining the operation, Dr. Chapman opened the dura cautiously running his finger into the brain, located the bullet in the motor area. Loosening the bullet, he slowly worked it backward about three inches to the inner wall of the skull. Then he slid it upward to the aperture he had made, and lifted it out with forceps. It was rough-edged, rather flattened and about a half inch in length.

No brain tissue was destroyed in removing the bullet and there was no bleeding. The incision was closed thirty-five minutes after the skull had been pierced.

Dr. Chapman then opened the skull under the right ear to determine just how the second bullet was lodged. When he found it deeply embedded inside the brain tissue, he decided not to disturb it. Leondowski was on the operating table about an hour.

After the operation, Dr. Ross said, Leondowski would be kept in Sing Sing until his condition improved sufficiently to remove him to Dannemora. If the operation had the desired result, Leondowski would be given his freedom. He already had served his sentence for assault, but was being kept in prison because it was feared that his release would prove a danger to society.

watch over the patient and noted several favorable symptoms.

James Brackett, a nurse in attendance at Clinton Prison when Leondowski was there, was assigned to care for the patient. As soon as Brackett walked into the ward Leondowski, who had not seen him for two years, said:

"Hello, Jim, how are you?"

This was one of the first favorable signs that the patient's reaction to the operation probably would not be disappointing and tended to show that Dr. Chapman's judgment was correct when he decided to remove a bullet embedded in the motor area of the brain and leave undisturbed an encysted bullet in the visual region.

Convict Shows Signs of Mental Regeneration Following Sing Sing Operation—Doctors Have High Hopes.

Ossining, April 2.—Marked absence of unfavorable symptoms today led surgeons to believe that Roman Leondowski, a convict from whose brain a bullet was removed on Tuesday, had an excellent chance to recover, physically and mentally. The attending doctors in Sing Sing prison hospital, while admitting the crisis would not be passed for another forty-eight hours, said they discerned not only signs of post-operative recuperation but even glimmerings of that mental regeneration in the hope of which Dr. William L. Chapman of Brooklyn operated.

Dr. Chapman, whose performance in the operating room, despite the paralysis which afflicts one of his arms, has won the admiration and thanks of the whole prison, did not see Leondowski today. Dr. Amos O. Squire, Sing Sing's chief physician and psychiatrist, kept close Close study of the patient throughout the day led the physicians to believe his mind was perfectly clear and gradually was growing keener and that there was excellent prospect of him being free from the hallucinations and fits of maniacal depression which made it necessary to send him to the State Hospital for the Insane at Dannemora instead of freeing him when his sentence had expired.

"I feel good," said Leondowski tonight at sundown. "I haven't as much pain as this morning."

Then he turned to Dr. Squire and asked—

"Doctor, who performed the operation?" He was told it was Dr. Chapman.

"Is his brother an actor?" he asked, smiling.

"You mean Charlie Chaplin?" asked Dr. Squire.

"Yes," replied Leondowski, explaining he thought Dr. Squire used such an operating surgeon's name was Chaplin instead of Chapman.

"I am very confident of his recovery. He has no pain in the head. His pulse is a little high but good and his respiration normal. He has no temperature. His mind is very clear and the reaction from the operation is very favorable," Dr. Squire said.

"Leondowski wanted to know where the hole was made in his head. So we told him. We took the packing out of one of the wounds. He has required no artificial stimulant. His condition seems to be wonderful. However, the crisis will not be passed for forty-eight hours, anyway, after the operation. But he is improving all the time."

Leondowski asked to see the extracted bullet, so it was shown to him. He slept fairly well today.

AFFECTING ST. JOHN BEFORE LEGISLATURE

Mr. Richards introduced a bill to amend the Church of England Act 1912. Mr. Hayes introduced a bill to enable the city of St. John and public institutions therein to borrow money. He estimated that in St. John, as in other municipalities, estimates were made up at the beginning of the year. The taxes levied were not paid in until July or August and in the meantime loans were made from the banks in order to allow different services to be carried on. Late banks were becoming more fussy and were asking that legislation be passed to protect them against emergencies and similar contingencies. It was to meet this request that legislative authority is now being sought. Mr. Smith (Albert) introduced a bill to authorize the municipality of Albert to effect temporary loans. Mr. Degre introduced a bill relating to the Grand Falls Company, Limited. He explained that the company was the holder of power rights at Grand Falls in Victoria county, which rights were con-posed an extension of two years from May 1 next. Hon. Mr. Veniot introduced a bill relating to storage waters on rivers, streams and lakes. He said the bill would not apply to driving dams on rivers and brooks, and that he would like to see the bill enacted as a protection to the bridges. Hon. Mr. Robinson introduced a bill to amend the Forest Fire Act. He said the object of the bill was to perfect the act and make it more effective in preventing fires. Mr. Jones introduced bills to make legal the adoption of Sybil Ann McAnn and also to incorporate the Sussex Amateur Athletic Company. Hon. Mr. Veniot introduced a bill to make further provision for permanent bridges and works of a permanent nature. He explained that an expenditure of $75,000 had been incurred on bridges under construction up to the first of March, and a further sum of $200,000 would be required to complete them. The chief engineer estimated that it would require $300,000 to complete the bridges contemplated for the coming year. The amount called for under the bill, therefore, was $375,000. He had a list of seventy-nine bridges, large and small, now under construction, and 194 were contemplated, including 118 of a permanent nature. He would not say that it was possible to complete all this year, but surveys had been made and bridges would be constructed wherever they were most needed. A number of applications had been received by the department for the construction of bridges, which would have to be of a permanent nature. A survey had been made near the Barony, York county, for a bridge that would cost $250,000, and plans made of a bridge in Victoria county estimated to cost $225,000. There was also an application for a bridge at Rockland, Westmorland county, that would cost $225,000. He wished to say that with seventy-nine bridges under construction, and 118 pending attention, it would be impossible for the province in the near future to build bridges on new sites. Personally he would like to accommodate the hon. members and build bridges wherever they were required, but that was not possible.

WANT CHANGE IN RULE OF THE ROAD

An unusually well attended meeting of the New Brunswick Automobile Association was held last evening in the board of trade rooms with the president, T. P. Regan, in the chair. The Good Roads convention, to be held in Halifax, May 10, 11 and 12, was under discussion and it was decided to send a special delegation to represent the association, consisting of ten members from various parts of the province. It is hoped that a large number of representative car owners will attend the convention, which is to be held for the first time in the maritime provinces. The drive to the right rule was brought up at the meeting and Mr. Regan and J. F. Tilton soon will go to Fredericton to interview the government with a view to having it enforced without further delay. This measure has been passed by the house and the association is making every effort to have it put in operation. A large amount of routine business was transacted also and the meeting was a most enthusiastic one.

CAVALRY PLANS FOR SUMMER CAMPS

The 8th Princess Louise New Brunswick Hussars and the New Brunswick Dragoons have been notified by district headquarters that they are now authorized to train in camp this summer up to sixty-five per cent of their establishment. The 8th Hussars, in all probability, will go to Sussex Camp and there is some talk of the New Brunswick Dragoons going to Fredericton. The services of the permanent force instructional personnel, Lieut. J. Wood, Royal Canadian Dragoons, Toronto, and Sgt.-Major A. M. Doyle, R. C. D., from St. John's (P. Q.), are being retained until after the summer camps. Classes for the 8th Hussars are being started at Sussex and Moncton, and for the New Brunswick Dragoons at Stanley, Keswick and Campbellton. Both units hope, with the work so far accomplished, to turn out this year and surpass all former years at camp.

BACK TO THE OLD PRICE. A hand holding a box of Gin Pills. The box is labeled 'GIN PILLS FOR THE KIDNEYS' and 'NATIONAL DRUG & CHEMICAL CO. TORONTO'.

DURING the long period of increasing raw materials, labor and advertising rates, it was our policy to maintain the price of Gin Pills at 50c. a box just so long as it was possible to do so—in fact, we maintained this price long after many other products had increased in price.

In September last we felt we had reached the point where the increased cost of production and advertising rates made an increase in price imperative and Gin Pills were raised to 60c. a box. It was our firm resolution, however, to bring the price back to 50c. again just as soon as it seemed possible to make the reduction.

Recently circumstances have affected the cost of production and we are pleased to announce that the price of Gin Pills has been again set at

Notice of Resolution.

Mr. Peck gave notice of motion, seconded by Mr. Young, for Tuesday next, as follows: "Resolved, that in the opinion of this house it is desirable that the government should take such action as will make it clear that the legislation enacted in the year 1916, shall not be deemed to interfere with the then existing rights of the owners of the soil under grants from the Crown."

Trade With West Indies.

Mr. Magee, seconded by Mr. Baxter, gave notice of motion for Thursday next: "Resolved, that whereas a preferential trade agreement between the British West Indies and Canada is about to be completed by the Federal House; and Whereas such agreement is of vital interest to the people of the Maritime provinces; therefore Be it resolved, that this house express itself as being favorable to such preferential tariff being limited as soon as possible only to such importations as come through Canadian ports."

The House then went into committee with Mr. Hayes in the chair, and took up consideration of a bill to amend the Motor Vehicles Act.

Mr. Scully said that the section prohibiting the operation of five ton trucks on the highways had been examined in connection with conditions in the city of St. John, and it was found that it would not cause inconvenience. He would suggest that the minister make provision that the motor vehicles owned by towns and cities and operated within their limits exclusively, be not required to pay tribute to the province in the form of license fees.

Hon. Mr. Veniot moved an amendment whereby a license fee of one dollar would be required for each motor vehicle owned by a city or town and used exclusively within its borders; also an amendment fixing the license fee for each garage at two dollars.

The committee agreed to the bill; also to the bills to amend the Tunes Act of 1919, to amend the act respecting rates and taxes and to amend an act to provide for the sale of various short lines of railway to the Dominion of Canada.

The Game Act.

The house went into committee with Mr. Hayes in the chair and took up consideration of the bill entitled the Game Act of 1921.

Hon. Mr. Messersau said that a considerable number of guides, twenty or twenty-five, were located in his own county. He believed that they would recognize the wisdom of reducing the length of the open season if explanations were made to them. The committee rose and reported progress.

Hon. Mr. Foster said for the information of the members that supply would be the business for Monday night.

FRANK C. BANCROFT, BASEBALL MANAGER.
DEAD IN CINCINNATI.
Cincinnati, April 2.—Frank C. Bancroft, for many years business manager of the Cincinnati Baseball Club, died at a hospital on Thursday. He had been ill for several months of neuritis. He had been business manager of the Cincinnati team since 1880.

Born in Lancaster, Mass., May 11, 1846, he enlisted in the Union army at the beginning of the Civil War as a drummer boy and served until peace was declared.

His first big success in baseball came in 1883 and 1884, when he was manager of the Providence team of the National League. In his second year his team won the National League pennant and then played the famous Metropolitan of New York, winners of the championship of the old American Association, in the first world's series on record.

Providence won three straight games and became the first world's champions in baseball history.

Frank Bancroft had a long and remarkable career in baseball, covering a period of nearly fifty years. "My only regret," he said upon his retirement, "when he was pensioned early this year, being seventy-five years old, is that I can't remain young indefinitely so that I could be active in the game that I love, and which has become a part of my life."

The grand old scout had done his bit. Frank Bancroft was born in Lancaster, Mass., in 1846. He enlisted for war service in 1861, and served throughout the war. He then opened a hotel in New Bedford, and became interested in baseball as a diversion, and shortly afterward abandoned the hotel business to engage in baseball exclusively. He recruited and managed the club which represented New Bedford in 1877. He had presented a team and two years later he was offered the management of the Worcester Club.

He was with the Worcester team for two seasons, and had among his players Jim Mutrie, who years later was manager of the Giants; Harry Stovey, who established a world's record for base-stealing; Arthur Irwin, J. Lee Richmond and Charley Bennett, one of the greatest catchers ever seen in the game. From Worcester he went to Detroit to manage the club there. This was in 1881. The following year he moved to Cleveland.

He was manager of the Providence team in 1883 and in 1884. In the latter year Radbourne pitched that club to the National League championship. Of 113 games "Rad" pitched, seventy-seven were won, sixty-three lost, twelve, and tying two. From July 23 to Sept. 29 he pitched thirty-six out of the thirty-nine games played, winning thirty-one, losing four, and tying one. It was in this run that he won eighteen games in succession, in which he allowed only thirty-two runs. Providence then turned to and won the world's championship from the New York Metropolitans.

Bancroft remained with Providence in '85 and '86, and then became manager of the Philadelphia club. He shifted to Indianapolis in 1889. He laid off during the Brotherhood war in 1894, but in 1891 he became manager of the Cincinnati club and was with it until his retirement a short time ago.

He had much to do toward popularizing the game in Cuba. He took a club to Havana in 1879 and gave the islanders their first view of baseball, which is so popular there at present. Later he made another trip to Cuba, and in 1913 took an All Star team to Honolulu.

Baseball owed a whole lot to Frank Bancroft.

3rd Troop (St. Andrew's).
An interesting and exciting game of basketball was played at St. Andrew's Sunday school floor on Tuesday afternoon, March 29. The home team carried off the score of 25-0. Scoutmaster Stewart Allan referred to the satisfaction of both teams. The home team was greatly spurred on by the C. G. I. T. of their church, and by the end of the first half the score stood 17-0 in favor of the home team. In the second half, St. Luke's came back strong and managed to limit their opponents' score to 8-0 for that period. The lineup was as follows: St. Luke's—Centre, Walsh, forwards, Adams and Green; defence, Morley and Pelea, St. Andrew's—Centre, Bishop; forwards, Wark and Noble; defence, Plumpton and Steele. The winning team, not satisfied with one victory, challenged the C. G. I. T. girls, and in an interesting but less exciting game defeated them 14-2, with one hand tied.

FOR CLEAN SPORT.
YOUNG WOMAN IS HELD FOR MURDER.
Montreal, April 1.—In court today a charge of murder was laid against Mrs. Condetta DeFrancesco, twenty-two years of age, who yesterday, it is alleged, shot and killed Salvatore Marandola, twenty years of age, after, as she said, he had made an attempt to attack her.

CANON'S DEATH.
Male Nurse Sentenced to 18 Months' Hard Labor.
London, April 2.—Found guilty of the manslaughter of the Rev. Canon William Banham, vicar of Worsborough Dale, near Barnsley, Thomas Edward Wilcock, a nurse, of Manchester, was sentenced at Leeds assizes to 18 months' hard labor. Wilcock, who was nursing the Canon, had leave on the evening of December 26. About midnight Miss Banham heard him say to her father (who was eighty-eight years of age), "I have had some drink, and I am in no mood to stand any nonsense."

ABOUT TWO O'CLOCK in the morning she heard a sound as of someone falling in her father's room. Later he told her that Wilcock had kicked him.

The canon died on December 28, and according to the medical evidence death was due to exhaustion following the injuries.

IN CHANCERY DIVISION.
In the case of Catherine Austin et al against Rev. James J. McCaskill, formerly pastor of St. Matthew's Presbyterian church, Douglas avenue, but now of Montreal, and his wife, Frances D. C. McCaskill, which is an action in the Chancery division brought for the recovery of the properties formerly owned by the late Alexandrina Clark valued at about $20,000 alleged by the plaintiffs to be held in trust, judgment was heard before his honor, Mr. Justice Grimmer, yesterday on a motion by the defendants to set down questions of law raised by the defendants for a hearing, and for the appointment of an administrator. A motion by the plaintiffs for leave to exhibit interrogatories was stood over until judgment is rendered on the defendants' motion. William R. Scott and Dr. F. R. Taylor are for the plaintiffs and George H. V. Belyea, K.C., and M. G. Teed, K.C., contra.

ARRANGEMENTS are being made at Provincial Headquarters, to hold a two summer holidays, at Lake during the summer holidays. It is expected that the cost will be $7 a boy, in addition to railway or boat fare. Start to save now "the prepared." There will be room for only 300 scouts from the whole province, so make up your mind and give your name to the scoutmaster. Only those boys who have passed their tender foot tests and have been invested as scouts will be taken.

A GAME FOR YOUR NEXT HIKE.
Seeking the Scoutmaster.—The patrol leaders of a troop are each handed a set of envelopes, one being told that the envelopes are important, are put upon their honor not to open them before a certain time. This waiting makes the game exciting.

When the moment for opening the envelope arrives, they find inside a rough sketch of a patrol route, with directions stating that all are to meet at a certain point. Patrols will form themselves, and each patrol, proceeding by its special route, will make for the place depicted in the map where the scoutmaster will be hiding. Naturally, the boundaries of the patrolmaster's discovery will quickly take place.

A reward is offered to the patrol which first finds the scoutmaster, so that each patrol should work together, searching the ground carefully in extended order. If the scoutmaster is still concealed at the expiration of an hour—some agreed upon time—after the patrol's arrival at the spot, he blows a whistle and the game is at an end. Then the troop could go on with other scouting work.

The spot selected should contain undergrowth in plenty, and should be physically suited for concealment. The scoutmaster should be placed in a position where he will have an advantage over another. This is done so that the patrol will feel that they are working independently.

The sealed order should keep the scouts to restrain their curiosity. This game can be played after dark, if necessary.

THE PRINCE OF WALES SCOUTS AND THE BOY SCOUTS.
To the Editor, Times.
Sir:—The Prince of Wales's appeal for funds for the Boy Scouts Association is gradually realizing the amount asked for by His Royal Highness, viz. £20,000. At the time of going to press the sum of £55,000 had already resulted in addition to which the Council of the National Service League, an extraordinary general meeting voted the assets of the league, estimated at £10,000, to the fund the Prince has so much at heart.

His Royal Highness invites the colonies to support this worthy object. With the compliments of W. H. RICHARDS, Capt. Press Secretary.

Letter From the Prince.
St. James Palace, S. W.
During my recent tour I had an opportunity of seeing the strength of the Boy Scout movement; it has spread to every land and corner of the Empire, and its possibilities for the future, both at home and overseas are very great.

There is an erroneous impression abroad that the work of the Boy Scouts is carried on without money; unfortunately, this is a complete misconception of the position. Considerable sums are required to meet the expenses of the association. At least £200,000 is essential in order to "carry on" and to put the movement on a sound footing.

On all sides I hear of grateful admiration for the men who have voluntarily carried out this work for their younger brothers during the past twelve years. I want to suggest that everybody who feels with me should express it by subscribing to a fund, which we could then offer to the Scouts Association as a mark of appreciation for its splendid work.

The movement, as I have seen for myself, is healthy and growing steadily; its possibilities in numbers and efficiency beyond all expectation. Will you help it to double its numbers this next year? EDWARD P. Chief Scout for Wales.

Maritime Championships.
The Y. M. C. I. has decided to send their representatives to the Maritime Amateur Boxing Championships, which will be held at Glouce Bay in the near future. Williams will be entered in the 135 pound class; Collins in the 145 class, and Codrill in the 158.

Secretary G. L. Short of the local Boy Scout headquarters spoke on scoutercraft at the Boys' Club in City Road last evening. This was in addition to the usual night programme.

FOUR ARRESTS
IN ST. LOUIS IN BASEBALL CASE

St. Louis, Mo., April 2.—Nate Evans of New York, said to be the missing link in the 1919 major league baseball scandal, and three other men, who, according to the police, are known as professional gamblers in the east and at Florida resorts, were arrested yesterday on charges of being fugitives from justice.

YOUNG WOMAN IS HELD FOR MURDER.
Montreal, April 1.—In court today a charge of murder was laid against Mrs. Condetta DeFrancesco, twenty-two years of age, who yesterday, it is alleged, shot and killed Salvatore Marandola, twenty years of age, after, as she said, he had made an attempt to attack her.

CANON'S DEATH.
Male Nurse Sentenced to 18 Months' Hard Labor.
London, April 2.—Found guilty of the manslaughter of the Rev. Canon William Banham, vicar of Worsborough Dale, near Barnsley, Thomas Edward Wilcock, a nurse, of Manchester, was sentenced at Leeds assizes to 18 months' hard labor.

AN EXPLANATION.
To the Sporting Editor of the Times:
Sir—I notice in your issue of today's date a report re football game between the C. A. A. and S. S. Pretoria scheduled for 31st March, in which it is stated the city team failed to turn up. I was on the ship on Wednesday afternoon and talked with several of the football players, and told them that it was impossible to play the game as owing to the keen frost, the grounds were unplayable. If any of the ship's team turned up it was entirely the fault of their own officials.

When the C. A. A. have a game play they will not fail to turn up. Trusting you will give this the same publicity as the former report remain, Yours sincerely, A. COUTTS, Pres. C. A. A., 28 Paradise Row, St. John, April 1, 1921.

MONDAY'S BIG SPECIAL!

"HALF A CHANCE"
with Maillon Hamilton & Lillian Rich

From the novel by Frederic S. Isham

A virile-pulsed drama of a prize fighter, battered by Fate, bleeding in body, seared in soul, who gets half a chance by a shipwreck accident, and comes back to claim the fruits out of which he was cheated. A gigantic play with climaxes that rise like Pike's Peak, and heart interest with the sweep and surge of Niagara. A tremendous production!

ANG BANG CIRCUS
A BIG SUCCESS

Any clever athletic stunts both by men and by individuals marked the Bang Circus which was staged in Y. M. C. A. gymnasium last night which will be repeated there this evening. The troupe of clowns added a dash of comedy to the program.

The show opened with the triumphal entry of the entire company of 200 persons led by the Clown Jass band. The opening number had plenty of comedy.

The senior leaders gave an exhibition parallel bar pyramid work and also acted a French drill.

The mat pyramid act of the Intermedias was well done. The tumbling exhibition by the expert squad including Ewing, S. Ellis and A. Noble showed considerable acrobatic ability on the part of the lads.

Perhaps the funniest act on the whole was the boxing match between two two-folded youngsters.

The vaulting-horse work by the junior boys provided an entertaining athletic feat and likewise furnished some of the best of the evening.

Misses Cromwell gave a specialty in which she displayed a wide diversity of talent. Clad in kilts, she catered playing a bag-pipe; then she gave an exhibition of twirling a drum major's baton, besides this she did several juggling acts with bottles, hoops and clubs and completed his comprehensive offering by using the Highland fling.

C. J. Messereau was the ringmaster of the circus. Others who took leading parts were H. Burley, W. Stirling, W. Evans, Johnston, F. Cross, C. Urquhart, K.

JOHN DEMANDS DRASTIC CHANGES

Declares Thirty Per Cent. of Club Owners Must Be Driven Out for "Good of Baseball."

Cleveland, April 2—Certain owners of major league clubs have not been true to their trust and will be driven from baseball, John Johnson, president of the American League, declared. These facts, Mr. Johnson said, developed from the recent investigations into the baseball scandals. "Thirty per cent of the owners of teams in the American and National leagues must go," Johnson said. "Changes in ownership are necessary for the good of the game, and I expect to see the other owners combine with me in helping to bring about the much needed changes."

Mr. Johnson refused to state which of the owners he referred to.

"Baseball suffered a temporary setback as a result of the 1919 world's series scandal and the recent dismissal of the indications returned against the Chicago players and others involved in the case," Mr. Johnson continued, "but new indications have been returned, and I pledge myself that the cases will be prosecuted to the limit. Baseball must be cleaned of all the poison that was injected into its system by a few petty gamblers and several easily tempted players, and I will not rest content until the general public says of the national game that the wound has been thoroughly healed and the guilty have been sufficiently punished."

Mr. Johnson delivered an address here tonight on "Keep Baseball Clean" before the Cleveland Recreation Council.
