MR. BORDEN AND THE WEST

What the west is thinking about Mr. Borden and his policies is indicated in a very significant paragraph which appears in the Winnipeg Tribune. Referring to the speeches at a dinner given in Mr. Borden's honor by one of the most prominent members of the Tory party, and to which all the members on the government side were invited, the Tribune says:

"The whole talk was as to how Mr. Borden represented Canada in England. Isn't it about time to think more seriously as to how Mr. Borden is representing Canada in Canada?"

The people of the west are able to see through the game of the Tory leaders. These hope to maintain themselves in power and to be able to serve their friends, the protected manufacturers, by keeping the public mind centered upon the question of imperial relations and the alleged danger to the Empire which can only be averted by Mr. Borden and his policy. The western folk are not easily fooled. They know there is no emergency. They know that so far as imperial relations are concerned Mr. Borden surrendered to the Yankees. They know that it would be much better for the government to devote itself to the task of lifting some of the burdens from the people than to be boasting about the wealth and loyalty of Canada, waving the flag, singing the national anthem and holding up the British taxpayer with the burden of manning and maintaining three more Dreadnoughts. The west wants re-distribution. It wants better transportation and wider markets. It will not be satisfied until it gets them. No amount of imperialistic blarney at Ottawa will divert its attention from its own needs and their relation to the welfare of the whole country.

A MODERN TEACHER

Mr. Randall J. Condon has been made superintendent of the schools of the town of Yarmouth, Maine, and as a youth followed the fishing industry. At the age of sixteen he was captain of a lobster smack. He had, however, higher ambitions. He worked his way through Colby Institute and took a course in Colby College, where he was a classmate of Mr. A. B. Chipman of this city. His rise was rapid. From the principalship of the high school at Richmond, Maine, he went to Everett, Massachusetts, at a salary of $2,200, thence to Helena, Montana, at $3,000, and thence to Providence at $3,000. Cincinnati has no doubt that salary to secure his services.

The Journal of Education tells the secret of Mr. Condon's success. It says:

"Mr. Condon has everywhere stood for the most pronounced advancement in school activities. Everywhere he has been opposed by the anti-progressive people in school and out, but he has never complained. He has often astonished his friends by his extensive and intensive demands upon the school board and public. When he was elected at Cincinnati, he was making the most far-reaching demands upon the city of Providence that any superintendent has ever made upon any city, so that Cincinnati knows for whom and for what it is paying $10,000."

Mr. Condon was so much appreciated in Providence that an organization of the younger and more progressive business men did everything in their power to retain his services, and they were backed by the board of trade, the Teachers' Association, the Kindergarten League, and many other organizations. These are the reasons set forth by the business men in favor of the retention of the services of Mr. Condon.

"The present and particularly the future of an industrial centre like Providence, remote from raw materials and not centrally located as to markets, is dependent upon the encouragement and development of skilled industries to produce products of relatively small bulk and great value; and such development is largely dependent upon a high degree of general intelligence and education as well as the training of skilled workers."

From an article in the Colby Alumnae giving a very interesting sketch of the career of this great teacher, it is worth while to note a statement of some of the progressive ideas which he will endeavor to put in effect in Cincinnati as he did in Providence. They are as follows:

"The full conservation of the health of the children.

The introduction of manual training and home economics into the elementary schools.

Adopting provision for all children who are mentally and physically defective, the

BIRTHDAYS OF NOTABILITIES

FEBRUARY TWENTIETH.

James L. Hughes, chief inspector of public schools in Toronto, and brother of the minister of militia and defence, celebrates his sixty-seventh birthday today. He has been inspecting the schools of Toronto since 1874, prior to which time he was principal of the model school. He was born near the town of Bowmarville and became a schoolmaster as a young man. He has always been greatly interested in education and has held many offices in educational associations. He is also the author of numerous treatises on education and text books.

W. S. Fisher, prominent citizen of St. John, and one of the most public spirited men in the maritime provinces, was also born on February 20, in the year 1834. He is a nephew of the late Hon. Charles Fisher, one of the fathers of Confederation. Entering on a mercantile career, he has become vice-president and secretary of a large hardware firm in St. John, while he also is interested in the St. John Board of Trade, the Canadian Manufacturers' Association and other organizations.

This is also the natal day of Her Royal Highness, the Princess Royal, Duchess of Fife, eldest daughter of King George, who was born in 1897. She married the Duke of Fife on July 27, 1890.

LIGHTER VEIN

"So you insist that your boy John is a genius?"

"Yes," replied Farmer Coranston. "I don't know exactly what a genius is, but we've got to give some excuse for his not doing any regular work."—From the Washington Star.

HAPPENED MANY YEARS AGO.

The floodgates, complaining that he was overworked and underpaid, threw down his tools and went on a strike.

Efforts were made to induce him to return to work, but without avail.

He turned a deaf ear to all offers of compromise.

He refused to arbitrate.

His job has been vacant ever since.

ALL HEADLINES.

"Our family is most interesting. John dances divinely. Tom sings like an angel. Harry is a famous football player, and Susan especially demonstrated by the fruit growers of Nova Scotia."

AN AWKWARD APOLOGY.

A kindergarten teacher in Washington, with a job of books on her arm, was about to get off a street car just as a gentleman whom she thought she recognized as the parent of a pupil in her school got on.

Instantly she saw, by the quizzical expression on the face of the man addressed, that she had made a mistake. Intending to correct it, she added quickly:

"Oh, pardon me! I thought you were the father of one of my children."

COMPUNCHER PHILOSOPHY.

This world is no doggone big and bright. I'd like to pack my grip and start out from the ranch some night. On some wide, endless prairie. I'd like to go and never stop. Until, when comes death's call; I'd simply say: "All right, old top—I've seen it all!"

This life is such a thing of joy. Why some folks kick and beat me; How kin they find heart to destroy The good in all they meet. I'd have each day stretched to a week—Each week into a year. But joy and some folk never speak—It sure is queer!

This thing called me, it often seems Ain't mine a little bit; It's just a part of someone's schemes. And I don't own it. But while this thing called me is here I'm going to treat it right. And work to keep its record clear. With all my might!

—From the Denver Republican.

SHE COULD NOT STOP IT.

She tried and tried, this thing, that thing, then the other thing. All no good. Then she thought of Hall's Hair Renewer. Talked with her doctor about it. Then bought it, used it. Her hair stopped falling out at once. Now she is telling her friends. No coloring or staining of the hair, either.

CHARLOTTE COUNTY FISHERMEN'S STAND

At a meeting of weir workers, owners, fishermen, and packers in St. George, yesterday attended by about 150 representatives of all districts from Beaulieu to Mace's Bay, a resolution was passed protesting strongly against the preference clause in the weir leases.

The speakers for the fishermen and the fishing interests said that they wanted a more open market and that unless they could depend upon the American factories and buyers their trade would not amount to much. Four employees of the Glanville concern alone voted against the adoption of the resolution against the Canadian preference clause. Commissioner Cowie of the marine and fisheries department, Ottawa, was present.

At the home of the bride's parents in Prince William street, a pretty wedding was being held, beneath a floral arch, last evening, when Miss Alice Maud Sullivan became the bride of John Anderson, Esq., of North End, Rev. B. H. Nobles of Victoria street church officiating. The house was nicely decorated. Only close relatives and friends of the principals were present. The bride was nicely gowned in blue satin with lace trimmings and carried a bouquet of roses. A tempting luncheon was served after the ceremony. The bride and groom received many handsome remembrances from numerous friends, with whom both are very popular. The array of presents included a nice assortment of useful and valuable gifts. The groom's present was a handsome pearl ring. The bride received a substantial check from her parents.

PULL STRINGS TO MOVE KINGDOMS

Powerful "Buntys" of Courts In Europe

ONE CONTROLS THE CZAR

Fearless Prince Oloff Holds Mighty Sway in Russia—Rich German Who Has Marked Influence Over the Kaiser

(Times Special Correspondence) Berlin, Feb. 19.—Events of the last few weeks have reminded official circles in St. Petersburg of the continued existence of Prince Vladimir Oloff, one of the most picturesque characters in present-day Russia. Bluff, strong, fearless and unswerving, in the past he exerted an all-powerful influence over the czar. Of late his influence has waned, but he has not demonstrated to those who have been behind the scenes, that he is once more pulling the strings.

It was Prince Oloff who dictated the recent royal ukase that banished Duke Michael Alexandrovich from his country, at the same time relieving him of certain rights as regent in the event of the young Czar's death. It is Oloff's way of dealing with the plotting of the czar's brother and the Dowager Empress Maria to oust the young Czar from the throne that has won him the respect of the czar's courtiers. To casual observers this strong action on the part of the czar was a surprise, but to those who know the man who stands behind him the explanation is simple, for Oloff is one of those masterful men to be found at most of the European courts, and who, holding small official positions or none at all, exercise their force of personality direct the affairs of their countries. Russia has seen many such, and even Germany, proud of her headstrong Wilhelm, owes to the strong hand and masterful brain of a billeted prince.

Comes of Masterful Race

Of all the numerous countries who have disputed with priests and spiritualists for influence over Czar Nicholas II, by far the strongest and most dangerous is Prince Vladimir Oloff. Oloff has beaten down half-dozen rivals, and even dislodged Prince Putiatin, the czar's secretary, during the days of the first Duma, dictating Russia's court policy.

Oloff is a worthy sprig of a courageous, talented and unswerving line. He is the son of Prince Nicholas Oloff, who lost an eye and arm at the siege of Olska in 1831. This Nicholas was another distinguished Oloff, Alexei, who forced Turkey to sign the humiliating treaty of Adrianople in 1829. Oloff in turn was the legitimate progeny of Feodor Oloff, and himself also Alexei, thirdly Peter III, with his own hands. Another uncle, Grigori, was the handsome, giant, and notorious lover of Empress Catherine II.

Most of the Oloffs have been diplomatic and literate as well as hardworking and adventurous. The present, Vladimir, is more a strong, courageous animal, and to this he owes his influence over Nicholas II, who is weak and in person he is big and stout and likes to think he resembles an old Russian boyar. In early days he had a great reputation as a fighter of skill. Intellectually, he stands far below his rival, Putiatin, but as a bodyguard and watchman, Oloff has control over Nicholas, whom he accompanies everywhere, always insisting upon giving the imperial motor car himself.

Despite his lack of genuine qualifications, Oloff has great influence in politics. His only political principle is "when you see an enemy's head, hit it." That is, he has enough intelligence to distinguish between enemies and reformers; and knows that the only counsel Nicholas will take is to support the reactionaries. The late Peter Stolypin, whom Witte had quarrelled with the imperial office, had all had cause to complain of Nicholas' subservience to Oloff. It was his intermeddling in 1903 which decided Witte's dismissal from the post of minister of finance. Oloff took it upon himself to decide upon a complicated question of the state bank monopoly, upon which Witte had quarrelled with the imperial controller. Oloff's enemies declared ironically that he was qualified to judge this question, only because he himself was given to excessive drinking.

Oloff's position as all-powerful unofficial adviser to a stranger whom he holds no official post worth mentioning. As a consequence he has the rank of "wing adjutant" as officer of the rank of colonel, and he also holds the key position of his Imperial Highness. This last means that when Nicholas goes on manoeuvres it is Oloff's duty to look after the imperial camp. The work takes only a few days in the year; and it is done by the favorite's underlings. Being up to his neck in political intrigue, Oloff has no time for official work. This fact is well known to his enemies, who made use of it in 1908 to damage his position, and, in fact, nearly brought him to a fall.

The Kransoo Solo annual manoeuvres and army inspection are always run on lines of domesticity which amaze the foreign military attaches. The imperial table is served in precisely the same extravagant style as when Nicholas is at home; the tents resemble palaces, and ballet girls or French actresses from the Michael Theatre are brought down to keep Nicholas in good humor. In 1908, everything went wrong. Wrong wines were sent him; one of the czar's tents collapsed in a slight wind; and the Michael Theatre artists had to perform in dirty peasant hats. The anti-Oloff faction so exploited this disaster that Oloff himself accused them of engineering all the blunders. By bluff, threats, and even violence he re-established his position.

Unlike other preparations for a like purpose, they do not create a habit, but instead they act to overcome the cause of habit acquired through the use of ordinary laxatives and harsh physic, and permanently remove the cause of constipation or irregular bowel action.

We will refund your money without argument if they do not do as we say they will. Two sizes, 25c. and 10c. Sold only at Watson's & Rexall Stores, King Street, Main street and Haymarket Square.

A one per cent. grade on a road means a rise of one foot for each hundred feet of distance travelled up the hill. A ten per cent. grade means 100 feet rise in each hundred feet so travelled. A one per cent. grade, then, means that in travelling up one mile, an ascent is made of 22.5 feet, while a ten per cent. grade means a rise in altitude of 225 feet a mile. Accurate tests have shown that a horse which can pull 1,000 pounds on a level road can pull only 180 pounds on a rise of one foot in fifty, and on a rise of one foot in ten he can pull only 520 pounds.

STAR OF BETHLEHEM RECEIVES EXCELLENT PRESENTATION BY THE HOUSE OF COMMONS AT UNIQUE

The Unique Theatre presented yesterday a special Lenten feature in the Titanic production of "The Star of Bethlehem," which is conceded by critics to be this company's finest effort, and which they themselves regard as their crowning achievement.

For this production it is said two hundred people were required, one month was consumed in its preparation and eight thousand dollars expended before it was released from the studio. It is truly a remarkable representation of historic events fraught with great interest to the Christian world. The lighting effects were most elaborate and added greatly to the charm of the excellent subject. The scenes of war in the first portion of the picture were admirably handled and took one away back to the days before the coming of Christ. The court of Herod was a masterpiece in the art of stagecraft and in fact the entire production is worthy of the highest praise. It is such subjects as "The Star of Bethlehem," which very clearly show that the motion picture is not to be scoffed. The industry is at the present time only in its infancy, and outside of the press it is steadily becoming the greatest educational force in existence. The character of the subjects are undergoing a change and their standards being raised. Every man, woman and child should see "The Star of Bethlehem," for those who have never read the Bible it will be the means of enlightening them somewhat, and for those who know the history it will brighten their thoughts and make them feel good for having seen it.

THE GEM

Those who witnessed the production of the two-act Lubin feature, "The Mexican Spy," at the Gem Theatre, were greatly pleased with its strength of appeal, its clear enunciation, and the pretty vein of pathos and tenderness dominating the whole. It was a carefully arranged drama, and the attention given to the various details of its enactment materially helped its success. The war scenes and in-

Miss Hersey became interested in Ware while he was in prison, when many social workers and society women were endeavoring to obtain his freedom. Their efforts finally resulted in his release.

Since gaining his freedom Ware has lived in New Jersey, where he has gained a livelihood by painting and sketching.

Millions of Dollars Are Being Made in SILVER BLACK FOXES

Are You Getting Your Share? If Not, Why Not?

WE ARE HERE---RIGHT IN ST. JOHN

With a Proposition Which Guarantees 40 Per Cent Dividend on the Capital Invested unless the Ranch is Wiped Out by a Calamity

Here is a golden opportunity for New Brunswick investors to participate in the enormous profits being made in the raising of Silver Black Foxes

The Chas. Dalton Silver Black Fox Company has purchased from Hon. Chas. Dalton, of Tignish, P. E. Island, for the sum of $625,000, the world's record Fox ranche, containing forty of the best silver black breeding foxes in the world and Mr. Dalton Guarantees an increase of not less than fifty young foxes to be raised to July 1st, 1913. For every young one under this number he agrees to pay in cash to the company $5,000.00, thus guaranteeing $250,000 or 40% to be paid out in dividends the first year.

$550,000 of this stock has already been sold and the remaining $75,000 is now being offered to investors in New Brunswick. What are you going to do about it? Will you get your share?

We are now at the Royal Hotel, St. John, N. B., where we will be pleased to see you. Call in and let us talk it over.

For prospectus and information apply to any of our agencies.

The Greatest Good To The Greatest Number

Although the Silver Fox industry has been paying large dividends to breeders for at least 26 years, this is the first time in its history that the man with a limited amount of capital has had a chance to share in the enormous profits being realized.

The Provisional Directors of this Company having faith in the future of this industry, and believing that in order for it to benefit the Provinces as a whole, as many as possible should have an active interest in it, placed the shares at $100 par value, thus making it possible for many who had been debarred from reaping any direct benefit, to invest their small savings in this industry, which is destined to revolutionize the earning power of money in the Maritime Provinces.

The time has arrived when the people of the Maritime Provinces will have a voice in its most profitable industry.

This company was organized for the people, and will be managed by the people, and instead of the already rich man pocketing the enormous profits which the Fox industry produces, they will be divided among hundreds of investors whose holdings range all the way from a $100 share to fifty shares, amounting to $5,000.

Now, then, what are you doing with your savings? Have you been satisfied with 3 per cent? Are you satisfied now with 3 per cent when you know that you can make 40 to 60 per cent? Get into the stream of success, but get into the right boat. Don't let anybody persuade you that another is "just as good." There is only one BEST Fox Ranch in the world and that is Dalton's.

For Your Information

The "Dalton Ranch" has a world-wide reputation for the excellence of its foxes.

In the year 1910 Mr. Dalton sold twenty-four pelts on the London market, and they averaged $1,385 a pelt, making a world's record for a group of pelts.

One pelt from the Dalton ranch brought the handsome sum of $2,800, which is the world's record for a single pelt.

Mr. Dalton is the most experienced Silver Black Fox breeder in the world.

The new Company retains his services for one year or three years if desired.

The Company has engaged the services of a veterinary surgeon who has made a special study of small animal life (to act in conjunction with Mr. Dalton) thereby insuring perfect health and clearness.

You Will Have No Excuse

We have told you the plain unvarnished truth about this great money-making industry.

You know a number of the people who have made large amounts of money raising Silver Black Foxes.

You know that this is the first opportunity you have had to participate in the profits of this industry.

You know that this is the only Fox Ranching Company in existence that gives a guarantee of dividends.

You know that this Company practically guarantees you 40 per cent on the money you invest, and you must believe that if there is a ranch in the world capable of paying more than 40 per cent, it must be the Dalton Ranch.

Therefore, if you delay too long, and your application reaches us too late for allotment, You Will Have No Excuse,—you yourself will be to blame.

Don't Miss This Great Opportunity

For the benefit of those who cannot make it convenient to call at our Hotel to make their applications for Stock in this Company we have inserted the accompanying application form.

As our stock is so nearly all sold, we do not anticipate being in St. John longer than ten days. Those who make up their minds slowly will not be in time to buy this stock, so we strongly advise, if you intend to invest, to do so by return mail; you are thus practically sure of getting your stock allotted, but at the end of ten days, judging from past sales, we are sure there will be none to be had. So fill in the Application Form TODAY.

Application Form

I the undersigned hereby subscribe for and agree with Waldron B. Prowse, Royal Hotel, St. John, N. B. to take the number of shares at $100 a share, as set opposite my signature hereto and to pay 10 per cent. of said stock down, and the balance on allotment. Should said shares not be allotted the money paid on them to be refunded in full.

Reversal of Form Often Makes Really Good Boxers Look Very Poor

By TOM ANDREWS

It is a hard matter to account for the reversal of form shown by boxers at times. Boxers are a great deal like race horses; at times they are in tip top form and fight like champions and again they appear like novices. Dave Smith, Australian champion middle weight before Jimmy Clabby took it, was considered a world beater at home and he put up some splendid battles; but when he got away and finally landed in New York he was put to sleep in one round by Eddie McGoorty. It may have been a "flake" at that, but just the same McGoorty got the credit of a rapid fire knockout. Later on Smith put up a creditable fight in Boston and also in Philadelphia, but the damage had been done and he returned to Australia without having a chance to wipe out the McGoorty stain. Ericole DeBlaine, French middle weight, who has been in Australia for some time, recently put up a great fight against Ernie Zanders and also against others, but when he faced Smith he seemed to go to pieces and was whipped in three rounds. It helped to bring Dave back to notice, but was an awful reverse for the Frenchman.

It was the same with Jack Read over there. He put up a miserable fight with a couple of mediocre fighters and then turned around and whipped Jean Possey and Grover Hayes in good style. Jimmy Clabby fought so well in Australia during his first trip there that he could command all kinds of backing to meet any man of his weight in the world, but when he landed in England and was put against a second class man—Harry Dunlop—he put up such a poor fight that Hugh McIntosh wanted to cancel his contract at once. Then again Jimmy came to Milwaukee and fought poorly against Mike Gibbons, but went to Buffalo and fought like a champion. It was a big reversal of form and no mistake.

Rudie Upholz fought in Milwaukee like a novice once and then went to the coast and put up a great battle against Battling Nelson, Joe Gans and others. Tommy Burris once appeared like a novice in Milwaukee and not long afterwards he went to the front and became world's champion. Ad Wolgast fought so poorly down east that the critics said Knockout Brown and others would beat him sure, but the Cadillac wildcat turned around and scored the best kind of wins over good light weights. Eddie McGoorty put up very poor fights at times, but he turned around a year ago and scored some of the best wins of his career. Bob Fitzsimmons came near being put to the bad by Peter Maher once and made to look easy, but he came back and turned the tables so effectively that Peter was never in the same class afterwards. The same can be said of most high class fighters—they show a big reversal of form at times and no mistake.

Volgast Down to 134-4. San Francisco, Feb. 18—When Ad Wolgast, the former lightweight champion, arrived last Saturday to begin training for his bout next Saturday with Tommy Murphy, he weighed 138 pounds. Fight fans did not think he could make the 133 mark.

Wolgast stepped on the scales at the close of his afternoon's work yesterday and showed 134-4 pounds, which his trainer says will be easy to reduce to the 133 mark.

Rivers the Favorite. Los Angeles, Cal., Feb. 19—Joe Rivers will be an overwhelming favorite over K. O. Brown for their fight next Saturday afternoon unless some Brown money shows on the market soon. Opening at 10-10-9 favorite last week, odds on the Mexican have gradually tightened with the absence of Brown money, until Rivers is quoted by all betting commissioners at 10 to 7.

"I expect to get 2 to 1 for my money," declared Dan Morgan, Brown's manager, several days ago, and it begins to look as though "Dumb Dan" will get it.

Although the only chance credited to Brown is via the knockout route, he is an awakened miller, and some of Rivers' admirers fear the Mexican will find it difficult to adjust himself to Brown's new style of fighting. This might enable Brown to land a crack on Rivers' jaw hard enough to win the fight.

The fact that Brown is said to have shaded Wolgast when the former champion was at his best also does not appear to be considered by Rivers' following. The Dutchman's chance of being able to put over a steep wallop are looked upon as being so slight that a wager at odds of 3 to 1 was laid that he would not win inside of ten rounds.

MONCTON BIDS FOR McAVITY INDUSTRY

Local Firm Waited on By a Delegation Today

Free Water and Taxation Valuation For 20 Years at Value of The Land Only

Moncton is endeavoring to secure one of St. John's largest industries and a delegation consisting of Mayor Gross, Aldermen Robinson and Lingley and Henderson were in the city today on this mission.

The industry which they are agitating is that of McAvity & Sons, Ltd. The firm has been looking for a large site for the purpose of erecting a new plant to meet the demands of their rapidly growing business and the Moncton men saw an opportunity to do a little missionary work for their own city and took steps accordingly.

At a meeting of the Moncton city council last evening a general resolution was passed offering free water and a fixed valuation for taxation purposes for a period of twenty years at a value of land only.

The delegation waited on the local firm this morning and laid before them the advantages of natural gas for industrial purposes and water frontage and rail connection.

Their offers were promised consideration, but little encouragement to expect the location of the industry in Moncton was given them. The delegation returned to Moncton on the C. B. express.

Whereas in the past the city council of Moncton has on various occasions held out inducements to manufacturing industries and adopted a policy for exempting such industries from taxation over and above a nominal amount for a period of twenty years and granting free water in reasonable quantities;

And whereas there is good reason to believe that various large industries have been and will be turning their attention to Moncton, with a view to utilizing the great advantages of natural gas;

Therefore resolved that this council authorize the mayor to negotiate with large industrial concerns and offer free water to a reasonable amount and a fixed valuation for taxation purposes for twenty years at the value of the land only.

Further resolved that should the mayor have his attention in any way called to the establishment of any new industry already established that he be authorized and empowered to have a delegation make enquiries by personal interview with the management or directors of such concerns with a view to securing them located in Moncton.

CUTTERS TO CLOSE CONVENTION TONIGHT

Banquet Last Evening Was Much Enjoyed

The Talk of Amalgamation—Meeting This Afternoon and Smoker in Keith's Tonight

It was a jolly gathering that assembled round the banquet board at the Custom Tailors and Cutters Association of New Brunswick. The local men had their guests the out-of-town members as well as the members of the Halifax association who are attending the annual convention here. The banquet was a great success and the local members of the fraternity were the guests of honor.

Angus Chaisson, president of the New Brunswick association, presided. At his right was seated M. T. Cobolan, vice-president of the association and chairman of the entertainment committee, who had charge of the affair, to whom great credit was due for the success of the evening. H. Sanford, president of the Halifax association, also occupied a seat at the head of the table.

After full justice had been done to the toast to the City was responded to by M. T. Cobolan. This was to have been responded to by Commissioner Wagoner, but he was unable to attend. Mr. Cobolan proved himself a champion, and gave a very able address. On resuming his seat he was loudly applauded.

D. B. Edgison was heard in two solos, which he sang very acceptably. Mr. Edgison of the Halifax association was then called upon, and responded with a stirring address, in which he advanced many good arguments in connection with the proposed amalgamation of the two associations. On behalf of the Halifax members he thanked the St. John members for the hospitality extended to them during their brief stay in the city, and hoped that at some future time the Halifax association would be the hosts of the members of the New Brunswick association.

The toast to the Tailoring Craft brought forth speeches from W. F. Higgins of St. Stephen, J. Milan of Gloucester, LeBaron of this city, Rose of Moncton, A. C. Cameron of Amherst and Joseph Walker of Fredericton. Mr. Milan responded to Mr. Higgins one of the latest styles of sheath gowns, much to the admiration of the guests.

The toast to the Ladies was responded to by J. Murray, M. T. Cobolan, and J. Hiltz, and A. Phillips responded to the toast of the Caterer. During the evening Gerald R. McCafferty sang several solos. An orchestra played selections.

The affair was a decided success, and all present spoke a good word of praise for the St. John members. E. J. Cooke is the secretary of the N. B. association.

At the afternoon session of the association yesterday demonstrations were given by Mr. Higgins and E. H. Hiltz of Halifax. A. C. Cameron of Amherst and L. McDonald of Moncton.

The convention will be brought to a close this evening with a smoker in Keith's Assembly rooms. An entertainment programme has been arranged. There was no session this morning, but this afternoon there will be further demonstrations in practical work by Fred T. Cooke, of North End, and Wm. F. Higgins, of St. Stephen. The displays of garments in Keith's has attracted much interest as most creditable specimens of sartorial art.

YARMOUTH MAN WHO WAS ACTOR WITH BOOTH

Alexander Wilson Dead, Nearly 92 Years Old—Had Acquaintance With Thackeray

(Yarmouth Times.) Many people in Yarmouth will regret to hear of the death of Alexander Wilson, a well known retired actor, who had been a resident of this town for more than thirty years. He passed away at the residence of Mrs. W. E. Perry in Milton, on Saturday at the age of ninety-one years and eleven months.

Mr. Wilson was a native of Halifax, son of the late Colin Wilson, clothier for the army navy, many years ago. In early life he chose the stage as a career, and was associated with the Booths and also with Charlotte Sanders, Cashman in the height of her career. He made several trips to England and played in several important centres in that country. On one of these trips he met William Makepeace Thackeray, celebrated novelist and statesman, for whom he had a deep and sincere admiration.

During his early life he appeared professionally in Halifax at the old Lyceum. During the last seven years of his professional life he was manager for Laura Keane who was just then in the limelight. Increasing deafness compelled his retirement at the age of sixty.

He went first to Halifax to live, but stayed there only a few months before coming to Yarmouth. With the exception of a few short periods, when he resided in Bridgetown, he had been here ever since. For many years he lived with the late T. M. Lewis and afterwards with the late William Lewis, but for the last ten years had made his home with Mrs. W. E. Perry. He was unmarried, keeping faithful to the end the memory of one to whom he was engaged, but who was removed by death. As a young man he was intimate with the Drews, particularly the elder Drews, for many years.

As far as is known Mr. Wilson leaves no relatives. When he came to Yarmouth he had a brother and sister living. The brother has since died in New York and no word has been had from the sister in more than twenty years, it is presumed that she too, is dead.
