POLICE CHIEFS MEET IN OTTAWA

Opening Address Of Chief Clark at Session Today

A GOOD ATTENDANCE

Head of St. John Force, as President of Association, Refers to Benefits of the Organization in Cooperation and Other Ways—Replies to Welcome of Mayor Hopewell

(Special to Times)

Ottawa, June 27.—The Chief Constables' Association of Canada opened their seventh annual convention here today with a large attendance of members, including police chiefs from nearly all the important cities from coast to coast. Chief W.

Chief W. Walker Clark, W. Clark, of St. John presided, and responded to the welcoming address by Mayor Hopewell on behalf of the 100 or more delegates present. Most of the police chiefs have their wives with them, and special attention is being paid by the committee in charge of the programme to provide for the comfort and entertainment of the ladies.

The Chief Constables' Association, since being formed seven years ago, has had a successful career. Its membership is limited to the chief constables of all cities and towns in Canada, having a permanent police organization, the commissioner of the Dominion police force, the chief inspector or any recognized head of a provincial detective force, officers of the Royal Mounted Police, and the deputy chiefs, inspectors, or heads of detective forces of cities with a population of more than 50,000.

At the opening of the convention today Rev. W. M. Loucks gave the invocation and address. Mayor Hopewell delivered an address of welcome and Chief Clark responded. He thanked Mayor Hopewell for the welcome and for the many kind words he had placed to bestow on them. He also appreciated his kindness. "Your presence with us today," continued Chief Clark, "is an assistance in many ways, and one I might mention is to make it possible for your chief of police to attend all the conventions."

North End Clergyman in Doubt About Tale Told By Caller

TELEGRAPH WIRE AIDS

Visitor Said He Was Dr. Woods Hutchinson, Noted Writer For Saturday Evening Post—Later Wire That Doctor is In Europe

A question which is agitating the mind of Rev. Dr. Hutchinson, pastor of Main street Baptist church, north end, is whether or not a man who rang his door bell last evening and who introduced himself as Dr. Woods Hutchinson, a noted medical writer, whose contributions to the Saturday Evening Post are so widely read, is really that noted person or not.

The man talked fluently in excellent English and referred to facts of local interest to the clergyman, and also dealt with some matters which Rev. Dr. Hutchinson knew to be correct, as regards the lineage of the Hutchinson family.

The man in question was shown into Dr. Hutchinson's study, and in tempting phrase related to him a story which had been heard of untold wealth which was to be had in England by Dr. Hutchinson putting forth his claim as the legitimate heir to a vast estate. This property the visitor said rightly belonged to a family of Hutchinsons and he is said to have endeavored to convince the minister that both of them were lawfully entitled to it.

Coronation Over, Parliament Resumes Sessions

AMENDMENTS IN LORDS

London, June 27.—Parliament reassembled yesterday after the coronation recess, and the struggle over the veto power of the lords will be immediately resumed.

In the House of Lords, Lord Lansdowne gave notice of a series of amendments to the veto bill, providing for the exclusion from that measure of bills such as that relating to Irish home rule, for a joint sitting in case of a disagreement between the two houses and for a referendum in other cases. As it is quite certain that the government will not accept these amendments if passed, another deadlock and eventually the creation of 500 additional peers seems the only outcome, unless the lords yield.

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

PLEASE, whatever you do, don't put what I have told you in your column, as I do not want any of my folks to know about it. I HAVE BEEN THE VICTIM OF A MISUNDERSTANDING, BOTH FROM MY SISTER AND MY AUNT. Perhaps my mother would have understood, but I have none, and I can't bear to be misunderstood.

So a little girl ended the letter in which she laid bare to me her heart and told her pathetic little love secret to me. It does mine. It just makes me wild to go to that aunt and sister and tell them what I think of the cruelty that drives an unhappy little girl to confide in and seek advice of a total stranger, and beg that stranger to keep her secrets from her own family.

Just a Little Dog

An advertisement appeared in the daily paper to the effect that a little dog had been lost. It was a dog of no particular value except that he was the pet of a little sick girl.
Months passed away, and the dog "of no particular breed" was mourned as lost. Then the dog came home one day dragging a long piece of dusty rope after him. He was tired and footsore, but he ran joyfully from one member of the family to another, looking for his little mistress. Before anyone realized what he meant to do he had escaped from them and hurried upstairs to her room.
The single watcher there had no power to stop him, for he had seen that dear little figure on the silent, white bed, and running around to the other side he sprang up and then stopped, as if conscious for the first time that something was wrong, that the still white figure made no move towards him.
He looked into the dear pale face, and scented the cluster of lovely flowers that lay upon the motionless heart, took a step nearer to her, and his brown eyes, glowing with love and delight, grew solemn and thoughtful. He threw back his head and gave a long, quivering cry that was filled with the pathos and sorrow of a grief that was human in its depths of anguish and helplessness.

Then he ran out on the street and was seen no more. But if ever a dog's heart was broken, poor little Benny's broke when he realized through some occult knowledge of his own that his little playmate was dead.
It is easy to get anything you want—if it happens to be something that nobody else will have.

INSINCERITY OF THE OPPONENTS OF RECIPROcity SHOWN

Foster and German Pound the Agreement as Killing the Country But Paint Another Picture for British to Sell Stock

(Ottawa Free Press).

Sincerity is a virtue, everywhere but in some matters of politics. It isn't many months ago since we heard all kinds of arguments to the effect that reciprocity would ruin the fruit-growing industry in this country. William Manley German, Liberal, M. P., of Welland, represents a fruit growing community and he opposed reciprocity. Hon. George E. Foster was another who grasped at every little bit of reasoning to show that reciprocity would send the country down and outward. That is all right for parliament, but when it comes to making a dollar or so parliamentary argument, it is worth anything, apparently. Leading British newspapers print ample advertisements, announcing an offer of 150,000 preference shares of one pound each in the National Land, Fruit and Packing Company, Limited, of Canada. Among the directors are the eminent anti-reciprocity, Hon. George E. Foster, M. P., and William Manley German, M. P., of Welland.

The company has been formed "chiefly for the purpose of producing and marketing apples grown in the Province of Ontario, Canada, and for this purpose has acquired established orchards containing over 140,000 bearing trees, and in five principal groups—the Niagara, Georgian Bay, Lake Huron, Lake Erie and Lake Ontario districts.

It is gratifying and reassuring to have from Mr. Foster, Mr. German and their fellow-directors no word of regret for the future of the fruit-growing industry in Ontario. On this season's crop they estimate a net profit of $25,000, or more than five times the amount required to pay the interest on the preference shares.

COMPLAINT ABOUT THE HAY SUPPLIED

Criticism at Safety Board Meeting—King Square to Be Illuminated on Band Nights

At a meeting of the board of safety yesterday afternoon it was decided to recommend to the council that the illuminations in King square, and the fountain be continued during the band concert nights. Tenders were recommended for the work to be done in No. 4 engine house, City Road, and No. 6 engine house, Carleton. A long discussion over the quality of the hay supplied for the department was begun by Ald. C. T. Jones, who charged that the director did not exercise proper care in the matter. Those present besides the chairman, Ald. Russell, were: Ald. Scully, McLeod, Green, J. B. Jones, C. E. Jones, Robert Magee, and Elkin, with Common Clerk Wardrop, and Chief Kerr.

Tenders for the work in the fire stations were first opened. These were finally recommended as follows: No. 4, mason work, W. J. Godson, $1,200; carpenter work, S. W. Wetmore, $896; Robert Magee, painting, $167, a total of $1,988; No. 6, Carleton, new floor, Ernest W. Green, $350.

The report of a committee on a dispute between John Sine and A. J. Taylor, as regards charges against the director, was read, and exonerated that official. W. Cowan and M. J. Cavanaugh, firemen, were allowed the right to sue for damages for those destroyed in a recent fire.

Policeman Perry was granted full pay for six days owing to a diabolical accident. A complaint that a lot at the corner of Duke and Pitt streets owned by Mrs. E. McInerney was in an unsanitary condition was referred to the board of health.

The application of Robert H. Merryweather for the lease of the lot at the corner of Hill and Prospect streets, Lancaster, was granted with the option to buy.

Ald. McLeod said there was a lot in Carleton that was reserved for pasture purposes to Mr. McGill, on which Harold Ring desired to build. The matter will be on the table until the plans of the lot are looked into.

Ald. C. T. Jones then asked the director if he had passed on the hay delivered at No. 5 engine house. This, he claimed, was not fit for food, and as a matter of fact was being used for bedding.

The chairman said he had also seen the hay in question and he would never buy it for a first class article.

Chief Kerr explained that he had in the past received many complaints as to the quality of the hay supplied. In such cases the hay was returned to the contractor.

Ald. C. T. Jones said that he blamed not the contractors but the director. He would be plain and if the director (Mr. Wisely) was in his employ he would not retain him twenty-four hours. He thought the director ought to be on the ground all the time looking after the interests of the city. He had been informed that it was a common thing to have poor hay at the stations.

Chief Kerr remarked that he had heard complaints from No. 5 but from Nos. 2 and 3. It was the duty of the men to report these matters to him but sometimes they did not do it.

Ald. J. B. Jones did not think the director should be expected to be always on the job.

Ald. Jones said the cost of lighting the fountain in King Square would be 70 cents an hour and for the square, 50 cents an hour. Ald. Jones' motion that they be lighted on nights of band concerts was finally carried.

Ald. Green, Scully, C. T. Jones, McLeod and Chief Kerr will look into the matter of a salvage corps for Carleton.

CLOSING EXERCISES AT SCHOOL FOR THE DEAF

Thirty-Eight Pupils in Attendance—Today's Programme an Exhibition of the Work Being Done

Closing a most successful year's work, the final exercises of the School for the Deaf, 204 Prince street, West End, were held this afternoon. There was a careful examination of the pupils in the various subjects listed in the curriculum of the school—history, geography, arithmetic and especially language received attention and the methods of teaching were exhibited. As the lack of the deaf is language this branch receives the most consideration.

The examination was directed by the principal, Joseph Keating, who wished to make the final day of the year a work a practical exhibition of the ordinary procedure of the school. The methods of teaching under difficulties cannot be appreciated without actually witnessing the work in operation, and it was hoped that a large number interested would avail themselves of this opportunity of learning of the work at first hand.

The school has spent a most successful year. Thirty-eight scholars have been in attendance, but as none were taking the closing year's work, there are no graduates. In the examinations held in May an average of ninety-two per cent obtained by the school indicates the degree of perfection in scholarship.

A Lease Matter With Which Board of Works Has to Deal—More Telephone Poles To Go Up

Several matters of public interest are to be dealt with this afternoon at the meeting of the board of public works. The item calling for the largest expenditure is a recommendation for the replanking of Rodney wharf at a cost estimated at $8,000. The remainder of the business has to do with the renewing of retaining walls, planting of electric signs, calling for tenders for the disposal of the garbage and waste of the city, and general repair work.

The city engineer, Mr. Murdoch, has recommended in his report that the N. B. Telephone Co., be permitted to place poles as follows: Nine in Becland Road, four in Kitchener street, three in Barker street, four in Somerset, and six in Cranston Avenue. He has also recommended that repairs be made to Newman brook bridge at an estimated cost of $200, and that asphalt be laid in Marsh, Spruce, Autumn, and Gooderich streets, at an approximate cost of $400.

An interesting question is to be considered in the matter of the encroachment by the city on the property at the southern end of Charlotte street extension held under lease by Messrs. Gregory. They offer to give the city a release in consideration of the city's conveying to H. C. Gregory that portion of Canterbury street between St. James and British streets.
